¹I will give thanks, O Jehovah, with all my heart; I will tell of all Your wonderful acts; ²I will be glad and rejoice in You; I will praise Your name, O Most High. ³When my enemies turn back, they will fall and perish before You. ⁴For You have maintained my right and my cause; You sat on the throne judging right. ⁵*You* have rebuked the nations; You have destroyed the wicked; You have put out their name forever and ever. ⁶*The* desolations of the enemy are ended forever; and You have uprooted the cities; their memory has perished with them. ⁷But Jehovah is seated forever; He has established His throne for judgment. ⁸And He shall judge the world in righteousness; He shall judge the peoples in uprightness.

⁹Jehovah also will be a refuge for the oppressed, a refuge in times of distress. ¹⁰And those who know Your name will put their trust in You; for You, Jehovah, have not forsaken those who seek You. ¹¹Sing praises to Jehovah who dwells in Zion; declare His deeds among the nations. ¹²For He remembers them, the seeker of bloodshed; He does not forget the cry of the afflicted.

¹³Be gracious to me, O Jehovah; see my affliction from my haters, be lifting me up from the gates of death, ¹⁴so that I may declare all Your praises in the gates of the daughter of Zion; I will rejoice in Your salvation. ¹⁵The nations have sunk into the pit they made; their foot is caught in the net they hid. ¹⁶Jehovah has been known, He has executed judgment; the wicked is snared in the work of his own hands. A meditation, Selah.

¹⁷The wicked shall be turned to Sheol, all the nations forgetting God. ¹⁸For the needy shall not forever be forgotten; the hope of the poor shall not perish forever.

¹⁹Arise, O Jehovah! Do not let man have strength; let the nations be judged before Your face. ²⁰O Jehovah, put fear in them; let the nations know they are but men. Selah.

¹Why do You stand far away, O Jehovah? Will you hide in times of distress? ²The wicked in his pride will pursue the poor; they will be caught in the schemes which they have devised. ³For the wicked boasts of his soul's desire, and he has blessed the covetous; he has despised Jehovah. ⁴The wicked through pride of his face will not seek—there is no God in all of his schemes. ⁵His ways are perverted at all times. Your judgments are high from his sight; as for all his vexers, he puffs at them. ⁶He has said in his heart, I shall not be moved! From generation to generation never in evil. ⁷His mouth is full of cursing and deceit and injury; under his tongue are mischief and vanity. ⁸He sits in the hiding-places of the villages; in the secret places he murders the innocent; his eyes watch against the poor. ⁹He lies in wait secretly like a lion in his den; he lies in ambush to catch the poor; he seizes the poor, drawing him into his net; ¹⁰and being crushed, he bows; and the poor have fallen by his strong ones. ¹¹He has said in his heart, God has forgotten; He hides His face; He will not see forever.

¹²Arise, O Jehovah! O God, lift up Your hand; do not forget the lowly ones. ¹³Why does the wicked one despise God? He has said in his heart, You will not inquire into us. ¹⁴You have seen, for You take note of mischief and vexation, to repay with Your hand. The poor leaves himself to You; You are the helper of the orphan. ¹⁵Break the arm of the wicked and evil one; search out his wickedness until You find none.

¹⁶Jehovah is king forever and ever; the nations have perished out of His land. ¹⁷O Jehovah, You have heard the desire of the humble; You will prepare their heart. Your ear will hear, ¹⁸to judge the orphan and the crushed. No more shall the man of the earth continue to terrify.

To the chief musician A Psalm of David.

¹I sought refuge in Jehovah — how can you say to my soul, Flee like a bird to your hill. ²For behold! The wicked will tread the bow; they fixed their arrow on the string, in order to shoot with it at the upright of heart in the dark.

³If the foundations are destroyed, what can the righteous do? ⁴Jehovah is in His holy temple; Jehovah, His throne is in the heavens; His eyes see; His eyelids will examine the sons of man. ⁵Jehovah tries the righteous, but His soul hates the wicked and the lover of violence. ⁶He shall rain snares on the wicked; fire and brimstone and a scorching wind shall be the portion of their cup. ⁷For Jehovah is righteous; He loves righteous deeds; the upright look upon His face.

To the chief musician, on eight. A Psalm of David.

¹Help, O Jehovah, for the saint ceases to be; for the faithful fail from among the sons of men. ²They speak vanity, each man with his neighbor, with flattering lips and a double heart they speak. ³Jehovah shall cut off all with flattering lips and the tongue that speaks great things; ⁴who say, We shall be strong by our tongue; our lips are our own; who is lord over us? ⁵For the pain of the poor, for the sighing of the needy, I will now rise up, says Jehovah; I will set in safety; he pants for it.

⁶The words of Jehovah are pure words, like silver refined in an earthen furnace, purified seven times. ⁷You shall keep them, O Jehovah; You shall preserve them from this generation forever. ⁸The wicked walk around on every side, when evil is exalted by the sons of men.

To the chief musician. A Psalm of David.

¹Until when will You forget me, O Jehovah? Forever? Until when will You hide Your face from me? ²Until when shall I set counsel in my soul, having sorrow in my heart every day; until when shall my enemy be lifted up over me? ³Look! Answer me, O Jehovah, my God! Make my eyes gleam, lest I sleep the death; ⁴lest my enemy say, I have overcome him and my foes rejoice when I am shaken. ⁵But I have trusted in Your mercy; My heart shall rejoice in Your salvation. ⁶I will sing to Jehovah, because He has rewarded me.

To the chief musician A Psalm of David.

¹The fool has said in his heart, There is no God! They acted corruptly; they did hatefully in deeds; there is none doing good. ²Jehovah looked down from Heaven on the sons of mankind, to see if there were any discerning and seeking God: ³they have all turned aside; together they have become filthy; there is none doing good; not even one!

⁴Have all evildoers not known, eating My people as they eat bread? They have not called on Jehovah. ⁵There they were afraid of terror, for God is in the righteous generation. ⁶You have shamed the counsel of the afflicted, for Jehovah is his refuge. ⁷Who will bring the salvation of Israel out of Zion? When Jehovah brings back the captivity of His people, Jacob shall rejoice; Israel shall be glad.

A Psalm of David.

¹O Jehovah, who shall dwell in Your tabernacle? Who shall live in Your holy mountain? ²He who walks uprightly and works righteousness, and speaks the truth in his heart; ³he does not backbite with his tongue, nor do evil to his friend; nor lift up a reproach against his neighbor. ⁴In his eyes, the reprobate has been despised, but he honors those who fear Jehovah: He has sworn to his hurt, and will not change it. ⁵He has not given his silver at interest; nor has he taken a bribe against the innocent; he who does these things shall not be shaken forever.

A Secret Treasure of David.

¹Watch over me, O God, for I take refuge in You. ²You have said to Jehovah, You are my Lord; My goodness is not apart from You. ³As for the saints who are in the earth, they are the excellent ones; all my delight is in them. ⁴Their sorrows shall multiply if they run after another god. I will not pour out their drink offering of blood; and I will not take their names on my lips.

⁵Jehovah is the portion of my inheritance and of my cup; You shall surely uphold my destiny. ⁶The lines have fallen to me in pleasant places; yea, I have a beautiful inheritance. ⁷I will bless Jehovah, who counseled me; my reins also teach me in the nights.

⁸I have set Jehovah always before me; for He is at my right hand: I shall not be shaken. ⁹So my heart is glad, and my glory rejoices; my flesh shall also rest in hope; ¹⁰for You will not leave My soul in Sheol; You will not give Your Holy One to see corruption. ¹¹You will make Me know the way of life. In Your presence are fullness of joy; at Your right hand are pleasures forever.

A Prayer of David.

¹O Jehovah, hear righteousness; listen to my cry; give ear to my prayer, not in lips of deceit. ²Let my judgment go out from Your face; Your eyes see uprightly. ³You will test my heart; You will visit in the night; You will refine me; You will find nothing; my thoughts do not pass beyond my mouth.

⁴As to the work of men, by the words of Your lips I keep from the paths of the violent. ⁵My steps have kept in Your tracks, so that my strides have not slipped. ⁶I have called on You, for You will answer me, O God; bow down Your ear to me and hear my word. ⁷Set out your wonderful loving-kindness, O Savior of those who trust in You by Your right hand, from those rising against You. ⁸Keep me as the pupil, the daughter of the eye; hide me in the shadow of Your wings, ⁹from the face of the wicked who stripped me; against my soul, my enemies go all around me. ¹⁰They are enclosed in their own fat; their mouth speaks proudly; ¹¹now they have hemmed in our steps; they set their eyes to cast me to the earth; ¹²like a lion who longs to tear, and like a young lion sitting in hidden dens.

¹³Arise, O Jehovah, go before his face and bow him down! Deliver my soul from the wicked, by Your sword, ¹⁴from men, by Your hand, O Jehovah, from men of the world whose portion is in this life, and their belly You fill with Your treasure; they are satisfied with sons, and will leave their riches to their babes. ¹⁵As for me, in righteousness I will look upon Your face; when I awaken, I shall be satisfied by Your image.

To the chief musician, A Psalm of David, the servant of Jehovah, who spoke the words of this song to Jehovah in the day that Jehovah delivered him from the hand of all his foes, and from the hand of Saul. And he said:

¹I love You, O Jehovah, my strength. ²Jehovah is my rock, and my fortress and my deliverer; my God, my rock — I seek refuge in Him; He is my shield and the horn of my salvation, my high tower. ³I will call on Jehovah, who is to be praised; so shall I be saved from my enemies.

yea, the floods of ungodly men overwhelmed me; ⁵cords of Sheol surrounded me; the snares of death confronted me. ⁶In my distress I called on Jehovah and I cried to my God; He heard my voice out of His temple, and my cry went before Him, into His ears. ⁷Then the earth shook and trembled; and the foundations of the mountains moved and were shaken, because it angered Him. ⁸A smoke went up out of His nostrils, and fire devoured out of His mouth; coals were kindled from it. ⁹He also bowed the heavens and came down; and darkness was under His feet; ¹⁰and He rode on a cherub, and He flew; yea, he soared on the wings of the wind; ¹¹He made darkness His covering, His pavilion all around Him, darkness of waters, thick clouds of the skies. ¹²Out of the brightness before Him, His dark clouds passed through, hailstones and coals of fire. ¹³Jehovah also thundered in the heavens; and the Highest uttered His voice — hailstones and coals of fire. ¹⁴Yea, He sent out His arrows and scattered them; and He shot out lightnings and confounded them. ¹⁵Then the stream beds of waters were seen, and the foundations of the earth were bared, at Your rebuke, O Jehovah, at the blast of the breath of Your nostrils.

¹⁶He sent from on high, He took me; He drew me out of many waters; ¹⁷He delivered me from my strong enemy, and from my haters; for they were stronger than I. ¹⁸They went before my face in my day of calamity, but Jehovah was my support. ¹⁹And He brought me out into a broad place; He delivered me because He delighted in me; ²⁰Jehovah rewarded me according to my righteousness; according to the cleanness of my hands, He has repaid me. ²¹For I have kept the ways of Jehovah, and have not wickedly departed from my God. ²²For all His judgments were before me, and I did not turn away His statutes from me. ²³For I was upright with Him, and kept myself from my guilt. ²⁴And Jehovah has returned to me according to my righteousness, according to the cleanness of my hands before His eyes.

reveal Yourself as upright; ²⁶with the pure, You reveal Yourself as pure; and with the crooked, You appear perverse; ²⁷for You will save an afflicted people, but will bring down haughty eyes. ²⁸For You will light my lamp; Jehovah my God will make my darkness light. ²⁹For through You I can run through a troop; and through my God I have leaped over a wall. ³⁰*As for God, His way is perfect; the word of Jehovah is purified; He is a shield to all who seek refuge in Him.*

³¹For who is God besides Jehovah? Or who is a Rock except our God? ³²*It is* God who girds me with strength, and gives my way to be perfect; ³³setting my feet like the deer, and making me stand on my high places; ³⁴teaching my hands to war, so that a bow of bronze is bent by my arms. ³⁵You have also given me the shield of Your salvation; and Your right hand holds me up; and Your condescension has made me great. ³⁶You have made a wide place under me for my steps, so that my ankles have not stumbled. ³⁷I have pursued my enemies, and have overtaken them; nor did I turn till they were consumed. ³⁸I have shattered them, and they cannot rise up; they fell under my feet. ³⁹And You have girded me with strength for the battle; You have bowed under me those rising against me. ⁴⁰And You have given me the neck of my enemies, that I might cut off my haters. ⁴¹They cried, but no one is there to save; to Jehovah, but He did not answer them. ⁴²And I crushed them like the dust before the wind; I emptied them out like the mire of the streets.

⁴³You have delivered me from the strivings of the people; You have made me head of the nations; a people I have not known shall serve me. ⁴⁴At the hearing of the ear they listen to me; the sons of foreigners shall bow down to me. ⁴⁵The sons of foreigners shall faint, and come trembling out of their strongholds.

⁴⁶Jehovah lives! And blessed be my rock! And let the God of my salvation be exalted! ⁴⁷*He is the God who avenges me, and speaks to people under me. He delivers me from my enemies; yea, You lift me up from among those rising up against me. You have delivered me from* the violent man. ⁴"On account of this I will extol You, O Jehovah, among the nations, and I will sing praises to Your name, ⁵"magnifying the salvations to His king, and working mercy to His anointed, to David and to his seed forever.

To the chief musician. A Psalm of David.

¹The heavens declare the glory of God, and the expanse inscribes His handiwork. ²Day by day they pour forth speech, and night to night reveals knowledge. ³There is no speech, nor are there words where their voice is not heard. ⁴Their measuring-line has gone out through all the earth, and their words to the end of the world; in them He has set up a dwelling-place for the sun, ⁵and he comes forth like a bridegroom from his canopy. He rejoices like a hero to run a race; ⁶his going forth from the end of the heavens, and his orbit to their ends; and nothing is hidden from his heat.

⁷The law of Jehovah is perfect, converting the soul. The testimony of Jehovah is pure, making the simple wise. ⁸The precepts of Jehovah are right, rejoicing the heart; the commands of Jehovah are clear, giving light to the eyes. ⁹The fear of Jehovah is clean, enduring forever; the judgments of Jehovah are true, they are righteous altogether. ¹⁰*They are* more precious than gold, even much fine gold, and sweeter than honey and drops from the honeycomb. ¹¹Also Your servant is warned by them; in keeping of them is great reward. ¹²Who can discern errors? Acquit me from secret faults, ¹³also withhold Your servant from presumptuous sins; do not let them rule over me; then I shall be upright, and shall be innocent from great transgression. ¹⁴Let the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart be pleasing before You, O Jehovah, my rock and my Redeemer.

To the chief musician. A Psalm of David.

¹May Jehovah answer you in the day of distress; the name of the God of Jacob set you on high. ²He sends your help from the sanctuary, and upholds you out of Zion. ³He will remember all your offerings, and make fat your burnt sacrifices. Selah. ⁴He will give you according to your heart, and fulfill all your plans. ⁵We will rejoice in Your salvation, and in the name of our God set up banners; may Jehovah fulfill all your prayers.

⁶Now I know that Jehovah saves His anointed; He answers him from His holy Heaven with the saving strengths of His right hand. ⁷These trust in chariots, and these in horses, but we will make mention in the name of Jehovah our God. ⁸They have bowed down and have fallen, but we have risen and stand upright.

⁹Save, O Jehovah! The King will answer us in the day of our calling.

To the chief musician. A Psalm of David.

¹The king rejoices in Your strength, O Jehovah; and how greatly does he rejoice in Your salvation. ²You have given him his heart's desire and have not withheld the prayer of his lips. Selah.

³For You will precede him with the blessings of goodness; You set a crown of pure gold on his head. ⁴He asked life from You: You gave to him length of days forever and ever. ⁵His glory is great in Your salvation; You have laid honor and majesty on him. ⁶For You have set him blessings forever; You have rejoiced him in the joy of Your face. ⁷For the king trusts in Jehovah, and in the mercy of the Most High he will not be shaken. ⁸Your hand shall find out all Your enemies; Your right hand shall find out Your haters. ⁹You shall set them as a fiery furnace in the time of Your presence; Jehovah will swallow them up in His wrath, and the fire will devour them. ¹⁰You shall destroy their fruit from the earth, and their seed from the sons of men. ¹¹For they stretched forth evil against You; they imagined a plot; they cannot prevail, ¹²for You shall make them turn the back; against their faces You shall make ready Your arrows on Your strings.

¹³Be exalted, O Jehovah, in Your strength; so we will sing, and sing psalms of Your power.

¹My God, my God, why have You forsaken me, and are far from my deliverance, and from the words of my groaning? ²O my God, I cry by day, but You do not answer; and in the night, but there is no silence to me. ³But You are holy, being enthroned on Israel's praises. ⁴Our fathers trusted in You; they trusted, and You delivered them. ⁵They cried to You, and were delivered; they trusted in You, and were not ashamed. ⁶But I am a worm, and no man; a reproach of mankind, and despised by the people. ⁷All who see me scornfully laugh at me; they open the lip; they shake the head, saying, ⁸He rolled on Jehovah, let Him deliver him; let Him rescue him, since He delights in him.

⁹For You are He who took me out of the womb; on my mother's breasts You caused me to trust. ¹⁰I was cast on You from the womb; from my mother's belly, You are my God. ¹¹Be not far from me; for trouble is near; because no one is there to help. ¹²Many bulls have circled around me; strong bulls of Bashan have surrounded me. ¹³They opened their mouth on me, like a lion ripping and roaring. ¹⁴I am poured out like waters, and all my bones are spread apart; my heart is like wax; it is melted in the midst of my bowels. ¹⁵My strength is dried up like a potsherd; and my tongue clings to my jaws; ¹⁶and You appoint me to the dust of death; for dogs have encircled me; a band of spoilers have hemmed me in, piercers of my hands and my feet. ¹⁷I count all my bones; they look, they stare at me. ¹⁸They divide my garments among them, and they made fall a lot for my clothing. ¹⁹But You, O Jehovah, be not far off; O my Strength, hurry to help me! ²⁰Deliver my soul from the sword, my only one from the paw of the dog. ²¹Save me from the lion's mouth; and from the horns of the wild oxen. You have answered me.

²²I will declare Your name to my brothers; I will praise You in the midst of the assembly. ²³You who fear Jehovah, praise Him; all the seed of Jacob, glorify Him; and all the seed of Israel, fear Him. ²⁴For He has not despised nor hated the affliction of the afflicted; and He has not hidden His face from him, but when He cried to Him, He heard. ²⁵My praise shall be of You in the great assembly; I will pay my vows before His fearers. ²⁶The meek shall eat and be satisfied; those who seek Jehovah shall praise Him; your heart shall live forever. ²⁷All the ends of the earth shall remember and turn back to Jehovah; and all the families of the nations shall worship before You. ²⁸For the kingdom is Jehovah's; and He is the ruler among the nations. ²⁹All the fat ones of the earth have eaten, and have worshiped; all those going down to the dust shall bow before Him; and he kept not his own soul alive. ³⁰A seed shall serve Him; it shall be spoken of the Lord to the coming generation; ³¹they shall come and shall declare His righteousness to a people that shall yet be born; for He has done it.

A Psalm of David.

¹Jehovah is my shepherd; I shall not want. ²He makes me lie down in green pastures; He leads me to restful waters; ³He restores my soul; He guides me in paths of righteousness for His name's sake. ⁴Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for You are with me; Your rod and Your staff, they comfort me. ⁵You prepare a table for me before my enemies; You anoint my head with oil; my cup runs over. ⁶Surely, goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I shall dwell in the house of Jehovah for as long as my days.

PSALM 24

A Psalm of David.

¹The earth is Jehovah's, and the fullness of it; the world, and those who live in it. ²For He has founded it on the seas, and established it on the rivers. ³Who shall go up into the hill of Jehovah? And who shall stand in His holy place? ⁴He who has clean hands and a pure heart; who has not lifted up his soul to guile, and has not sworn in deceit. ⁵He shall lift up the blessing from Jehovah, and righteousness from the God of his salvation. ⁶*This is the generation of those who seek Him, who seek Your face, O God of Jacob. Selah.*

⁷Lift up your heads, O gates; and be lifted up, O everlasting doors; and the King of glory shall come in. ⁸*Who is this King of glory? Jehovah strong and mighty! Jehovah mighty in battle!* ⁹Lift up your heads, O gates; even lift up, O everlasting doors; and the King of glory shall come in. ¹⁰*Who is this King of glory? Jehovah of hosts, He is the King of glory. Selah.*

A Psalm of David.

¹To You, O Jehovah, I lift up my soul. ²O my God, I trust in You; do not let me be ashamed; let not my enemies triumph over me. ³Yea, let no one who waits on You be ashamed; let those who sin without cause be ashamed. ⁴Make me know Your ways, O Jehovah; teach me Your paths; ⁵lead me in Your truth, and teach me; for You are the God of my salvation; on You I wait all the day long. ⁶Remember, O Jehovah, Your compassions and Your mercies; for they are from eternity. ⁷Do not remember the sins of my youth, or my transgressions. According to Your mercy, remember me, for Your goodness' sake, O Jehovah. ⁸Good and upright is Jehovah; therefore He will teach sinners in the way. ⁹He will guide the meek in justice; and He will teach the meek His way. ¹⁰All the paths of Jehovah are mercy and truth to the keepers of His covenant and His testimonies. ¹¹For Your name's sake, O Jehovah, even pardon my iniquity; for it is great.

¹²What man is he who fears Jehovah? He teaches him the way he should choose. ¹³His soul shall abide in good, and his seed shall inherit the earth. ¹⁴The secret of Jehovah is with those who fear Him; and He will make them know His covenant. ¹⁵My eyes are ever toward Jehovah; for He shall bring my feet out of the net. ¹⁶Turn to me and be gracious to me, for I am lonely and afflicted. ¹⁷The straits of my heart are enlarged; O bring me out from my straits. ¹⁸Look on my affliction and my pain, and lift up all my sins. ¹⁹Look on my enemies, for they are many; they hate me with a violent hatred. ²⁰Keep my soul and deliver me; let me not be ashamed, for I have sought refuge in You. ²¹Let purity and uprightness keep me, for I wait on You. ²²Redeem Israel, O God, out of all his distresses.

A Psalm of David.

¹Judge me, O Jehovah, for I have walked in my integrity; I also have trusted in Jehovah; I shall not slide. ²Examine me, O Jehovah, and prove me; purify my reins and my heart. ³For Your mercy is before my eyes; and I have walked in Your truth. ⁴I have not sat with lying men; and I will not go in with hypocrites; ⁵I have hated the assembly of evildoers, and I will not sit with the wicked. ⁶I will wash my hands in innocence; so I will go around Your altar, O Jehovah, ⁷to cause to hear with the voice of thanksgiving, and recount all Your wonderful works. ⁸O Jehovah, I have loved the place of Your house, and the place where Your glory dwells. ⁹Do not take away my soul with sinners, nor my life with bloody men, ¹⁰in whose hand is a plot, and their right hand is full of a bribe. ¹¹But I will walk in my integrity; redeem me and be gracious to me. ¹²My foot stands in an even place; in the assemblies, I will bless Jehovah.

PSALM 27

A Psalm of David.

¹Jehovah is my light and my salvation; whom shall I fear? Jehovah is the strength of my life; of whom shall I be afraid? ²When the evildoers, my enemies and my foes, came upon me to eat my flesh, they stumbled and fell. ³If an army should camp against me, my heart shall not fear. Though war rises against me, in this I am trusting. ⁴*One thing* I have asked from Jehovah, it I will seek: my dwelling in the house of Jehovah all the days of my life, to behold the delight of Jehovah, and to inquire in His temple. ⁵For in the day of evil He shall hide me in His shelter; in the secrecy of His tabernacle, He shall hide me; He shall set me up on a rock. ⁶And now my head shall be lifted up above my enemies, my encirclers, and I will offer sacrifices of joy in His tabernacle; I will sing, yea, I will sing praises to Jehovah.

⁷Hear, O Jehovah, my voice when I call and favor me, and answer me. ⁸My heart said to You, Seek my face; Your face, O Jehovah, I will seek. ⁹Do not hide Your face from me; Do not turn Your servant away in anger; You have been my help—do not leave me nor forsake me, O God of my salvation. ¹⁰When my father and my mother forsake me, then Jehovah will take me up. ¹¹Teach me Your way, O Jehovah, and lead me in a level path, because of those who watch me. ¹²Deliver me not into the soul of my enemies; for false witnesses have risen against me, and he that puffs out violence. ¹³*I would have fainted* unless I had believed to see the goodness of Jehovah in the land of the living.

¹⁴Hope in Jehovah; be strong and He will make strong your heart; yea, hope in Jehovah!

A Psalm of David.

¹I will call to You, O Jehovah; my Rock, be not deaf to me, lest, if you be silent from me I may be compared with those going down into the Pit. ²Hear the voice of my prayers in my crying to You, when I lift my hands to the oracle of Your holiness. ³Draw me not away with the wicked, and with the workers of iniquity; who speak peace with their neighbors, yet evil is in their hearts. ⁴Give to them according to their deeds, and according to the evil of their practices; as is the work of their hands, give to them, repay their deeds to them. ⁵Because they pay no attention to the works of Jehovah, and to the works of His hands, He will destroy them, and not build them up.

⁶Blessed be Jehovah, because He has heard the voice of my prayers. ⁷Jehovah is my strength and my shield; my heart trusted in Him, and I am helped; yea, my heart greatly rejoices; and I will thank Him with my song. ⁸Jehovah is their strength, and He is the stronghold of the salvations of His anointed. ⁹Save Your people and bless Your inheritance; and feed them, and lift them up forever.

A Psalm of David.

¹Give to Jehovah, sons of mighty ones; give to Jehovah glory and strength. ²Give to Jehovah the glory of His name; worship Jehovah in the majesty of holiness. ³The voice of Jehovah is on the waters; the God of glory thunders; Jehovah is above many waters. ⁴The voice of Jehovah in power; the voice of Jehovah in majesty. ⁵The voice of Jehovah breaks the cedars; yea, Jehovah breaks Lebanon's cedars. ⁶He also makes them skip like a calf; Lebanon and Sirion like a young wild ox. ⁷The voice of Jehovah is cutting through the flame of fire. ⁸The voice of Jehovah shakes the wilderness; Jehovah shakes the wilderness of Kadesh. ⁹The voice of Jehovah causes the does to calve, and uncovers the forests. And in His temple, all of it is saying, Glory!

¹⁰Jehovah sits upon the flood; yea, Jehovah sits as King forever. ¹¹Jehovah will give strength to His people; Jehovah will bless His people with peace.

A Psalm; a Song of Dedication of the House of David.

¹I will exalt You, O Jehovah; for You have lifted me up, and have not allowed my foes to rejoice over me. ²O Jehovah my God, I cried to You, and You have healed me. ³O Jehovah, You have brought up my soul from Sheol; You have kept me alive, from going down into the Pit. ⁴Sing praises to Jehovah, O saints of His; and give thanks to the memory of His holiness. ⁵For His anger is only a moment; in His favor is life. Weeping may endure in the evening, but joy comes in the morning. ⁶And in my prosperity, I shall surely say, I shall never be moved forever. ⁷O Jehovah, in Your favor You have made my strong mountain to stand; You hid Your face; I was troubled; ⁸I will call to You, O Jehovah, and I will pray to Jehovah.

⁹What profit is in my blood, in going down to the Pit? ¹⁰Shall the dust thank You; shall it declare Your truth? Hear, O Jehovah, and favor me; O Jehovah, be my helper. ¹¹You have turned my mourning into dancing for me; You have loosed my sackcloth and have clothed me with gladness. ¹²So my glory shall praise You, and not be quiet; O Jehovah, my God, I will give thanks to You forever.

To the chief musician. A Psalm of David.

¹In You, O Jehovah, I sought refuge; let me never be ashamed; deliver me in Your righteousness. ²Bow down Your ear to me; deliver me quickly; be a strong rock to me, for a house of fortresses to save me. ³For You are my rock and my fortress; and for Your name's sake lead me and guide me. ⁴Bring me out of the net that they hid for me, for You are my strength. ⁵Into Your hand I commit my spirit; You have redeemed me, O Jehovah, God of truth. ⁶I have hated those keeping worthless idols; but I trust in Jehovah. ⁷And I will be glad and rejoice in Your mercy; for You have seen my affliction; You have known the distresses in my soul; ⁸and have not shut me up into the hand of the enemy; You have set my feet in a broad place.

⁹Be gracious to me, O Jehovah, for I am in trouble; my eye has wasted away with grief, my soul and my belly. ¹⁰For my life is ending with grief, and my years with sighing; my strength fails because of my iniquity, and my bones have wasted away. ¹¹I was a reproach among all my foes, but especially to my neighbors; and a fear to my friends; those who saw me outside fled from me. ¹²I am forgotten like one dead from the heart; I am like a perishing vessel. ¹³For I have heard the slander of many; fear is all around, because of their plottings together against me, they planned to take away my life. ¹⁴But I trusted in You, O Jehovah; I said, You are my God. ¹⁵My times are in Your hand; deliver me from the hand of my enemies and from those who pursue me. ¹⁶Make Your face shine on Your servant; save me in Your mercy. ¹⁷Let me not be ashamed, O Jehovah; for I have called upon You; let the wicked be ashamed; let them be silent in Sheol. ¹⁸Let the lying lips be silenced; which speak recklessly against the righteous, with pride and scorn.

¹⁹How great is Your goodness which You have laid up for those who fear You; You have worked for those who trust in You before the sons of mankind. ²⁰In the secrecy of Your presence You shall hide them from man's plots; You shall cover them in a booth, from the strife of tongues. ²¹Blessed be Jehovah, for He has worked His mercy wondrously to me in a besieged city. ²²For I said in my haste, I am cut off from Your eyes; surely you heard the voice of my prayers when I cried to You.

²³O love Jehovah, all you saints of His; Jehovah preserves the faithful, and abundantly repays the proud doer. ²⁴Be strong, and He will make your heart stronger, all you who hope in Jehovah.

A Psalm of David. A Contemplation.

¹Blessed is he whose transgression is lifted, whose sin is covered. ²Blessed is the man to whom Jehovah does not charge iniquity, and in whose spirit there is no guile. ³When I kept silence, then my bones became old, through my howling all day. ⁴For by day and by night Your hand was heavy on me; my sap was turned into the drouhts of summer. Selah.

⁵I confessed my sin to You, and I have not hidden my iniquity; I said, I will confess over my transgression to Jehovah; and You forgave the iniquity of my sin. Selah.

⁶On account of this let every godly one pray to You; at a time of finding, surely, when great floods come, they will not reach him. ⁷You are my hiding-place;

You preserve me from trouble; You surround me with songs of deliverance. Selah.

⁸I will instruct you and teach you in the way which you should go; I will counsel you, My eye shall be on you. ⁹Be not like the horse, like the mule, with no understanding; with bit and bridle, his gear, to be held in, that they do not come near you. ¹⁰The wicked has many sorrows; but he who trusts in Jehovah, mercy embraces him. ¹¹Be glad in Jehovah and rejoice, you righteous ones; and all you upright in heart shout for joy.

¹Rejoice in Jehovah, O righteous ones; praise is becoming to the upright. ²Give thanks to Jehovah with the lyre; sing to him with a harp of ten strings. ³Sing to Him a new song; play skillfully, with shouts of joy. ⁴For the word of Jehovah is right, and all His works are in truth. ⁵*He* loves righteousness and judgment; the mercy of Jehovah fills the earth. ⁶Through Jehovah's word the heavens were made; and all their host by the breath of His mouth. ⁷The waters of the sea were gathered like a heap, setting the depths in storehouses.

death, and to keep them alive in famine. ²⁰Our soul waits for Jehovah; He is our help and shield.

²¹For our heart rejoices in Him, because we trust in His holy name. ²²Let Your mercy be upon us, O Jehovah, even as we trust in You.

PSALM 34

A Psalm of David, when he changed his behavior before Abimelech; and he drove him away, and he went.

¹I will bless Jehovah at all times; His praise shall always be in my mouth. ²My soul shall make its boast in Jehovah; the humble shall hear and be glad. ³O magnify Jehovah with me; and let us exalt His name together. ⁴I sought Jehovah, and He answered me, and delivered me out of all my fear. ⁵They looked to Him and were filled with light; and their faces were not ashamed. ⁶This poor man cried, and Jehovah heard, and saved him out of all his troubles. ⁷The Angel of Jehovah camps around those who fear Him, and He delivers them. ⁸Taste and see that Jehovah is good; blessed is the man who trusts in Him. ⁹O fear Jehovah, His holy ones, for they who fear Him lack nothing. ¹⁰The young lions have lacked and been hungry; but they who seek Jehovah shall not lack any good thing.

¹¹Come, listen to me, my sons, I will teach you the fear of Jehovah. ¹²Who is the man who desires life, who loves days in order to see good? ¹³Keep your tongue from evil, and your lips from speaking guile; ¹⁴depart from evil and do good; seek peace and pursue it. ¹⁵The eyes of Jehovah are on the righteous; and His ears are open to their cry. ¹⁶The face of Jehovah is against those who do evil, to cut off their memory from the earth. ¹⁷*The righteous* cry, and Jehovah hears, and saves them out of all their distresses. ¹⁸Jehovah is near those who are broken-hearted, and saves those who have a contrite spirit. ¹⁹Many are the evils of the righteous, but Jehovah helps him out of them all, ²⁰keeping all his bones; not one of them is broken. ²¹Evil shall slay the wicked, and those who hate the righteous shall become guilty. ²²Jehovah is redeeming the soul of His servants; and none of those who trust in Him shall be guilty.

A Psalm of David.

¹O Jehovah, contend with those who contend with me; fight those who fight against me. ²Take hold of a shield and buckler, and arise as my help. ³Draw out the spear and close ranks to meet my pursuers; say to my soul, I am your salvation. ⁴Let those who seek my soul be ashamed and disgraced; let them be turned back and brought to confusion, those who plot evil to me. ⁵Let them be as chaff before the wind, and the Angel of Jehovah driving away. ⁶Let their way be dark and slippery, and the Angel of Jehovah their pursuer. ⁷For they have hidden their pit-net for me without cause; without cause they have dug for my soul. ⁸Let destruction come on him; he will not know; and let his net which he concealed catch him; let him fall in it, into destruction. ⁹And my soul shall be joyful in Jehovah; it will rejoice in His salvation. ¹⁰All my bones shall say: O Jehovah, who is like You, who delivers the poor from those stronger than he; yes, the poor and needy from his plunderer?

¹¹Witnesses of violence rise up; they asked me what I did not know; ¹²they rewarded me evil for good, bereaving my soul. ¹³But in their sickness, my clothing was sackcloth; I humbled my soul with fastings; and my prayer returned to my bosom. ¹⁴I walked as a friend, as to my brother; as one who mourns a mother; I was bowed down mourning. ¹⁵But they rejoiced in my trouble, and assembled; the defamers assembled themselves against me, and I knew not; they tore and were not silent, ¹⁶with the ungodly, mockers for a cake, gnashing their teeth on me. ¹⁷O Lord, how long will You look on? Draw back my soul from their desolations, my only one from the lions.

¹⁸I will thank You in the great assembly, and I will praise You among a mighty people. ¹⁹Let not my lying enemies rejoice over me, do not let those who hate me without cause wink with the eye. ²⁰For they do not speak peace; but they devise deceitful things against the quiet ones of the earth. ²¹And they open their mouth wide against me; they say, Aha! Aha! Our eyes have seen. ²²You have seen, O Jehovah; do not keep silence, O Jehovah; O Lord, do not be far from me. ²³Stir Yourself and awaken to my judgment, to my cause, my God and my Lord. ²⁴Judge me, O Jehovah my God, according to Your righteousness; and do not let them rejoice over me. ²⁵Let them not say in their hearts, Aha! Our soul! Let them not say, We have swallowed him up. ²⁶Let them be ashamed and be confounded together, the ones who rejoice at my evil; let them be clothed with shame and dishonor, who magnify themselves against me. ²⁷Let those who delight in my justification shout and rejoice; and they shall say without ceasing: Jehovah be magnified, delighting in the peace of His servant. ²⁸And my tongue will speak of Your righteousness and of Your praise all the day.

To the chief musician; of the servant of Jehovah; of David.

¹The oracle of transgression to the wicked; within my heart is this: There is no fear of God before his eyes. ²For he flatters himself in his own eyes, in order to find his iniquity, in order to hate it. ³The words of his mouth are wickedness and deceit; he ceases to act wisely, to do good. ⁴He plots evil on his bed; he sets himself on a way that is not good; he does not hate evil.

⁵Your mercy, O Jehovah, is in the heavens; Your faithfulness to the dust clouds. ⁶Your righteousness is like the hills of God; Your judgments are a great deep; O Jehovah, You preserve animal and man. ⁷How precious is Your mercy, O God! And the sons of men trust in the shadow of Your wings. ⁸They shall be satisfied from the abundance of Your house; and You make them drink the torrent of Your pleasures. ⁹For with You is the fountain of life; in

Your light, we see light. ¹⁰O continue Your mercy to the ones knowing You, and Your righteousness to the upright of heart. ¹¹Do not let the foot of pride come to me; and let not the hand of the wicked move me. ¹²There the workers of evil have fallen; they are cast down and are not able to rise.

A Psalm of David.

¹²The wicked plots against the righteous, and gnashes on him with his teeth; ¹³the Lord laughs at him, for He sees that his day is coming. ¹⁴The wicked have drawn out the sword and they have trodden their bow, to cause the poor and needy to fall; to kill those who walk uprightly. ¹⁵Their sword shall enter into their heart, and their bows shall be broken. ¹⁶A little to the righteous is better than the abundance of many wicked. ¹⁷For the arms of the wicked shall be broken; but Jehovah upholds the righteous. ¹⁸Jehovah knows the days of the upright; and their inheritance shall be forever. ¹⁹They shall not be ashamed in an evil time; and they shall be full in days of famine. ²⁰But the wicked shall perish, and the enemies of Jehovah shall be like the beauty of pastures; they are consumed like smoke; they are consumed.

²¹The wicked borrows and never repays, but the righteous is gracious and giving. ²²For His blessed ones inherit the land, and those cursed by Him shall be cut off. ²³The steps of a man are ordered from Jehovah, and He will delight in his way. ²⁴Though he falls, he is not cast down; for Jehovah upholds his hand. ²⁵I have been young and am old, yet I have not seen the righteous forsaken, or his seed begging bread. ²⁶All the day long he is gracious and lends, and his seed is for a blessing.

³⁷Watch the perfect and behold the upright one; for the end of that man is peace. ³⁸But the transgressors are destroyed together; the end of the wicked is cut off. ³⁹But the salvation of the righteous is from Jehovah; He is their strength in the time of distress. ⁴⁰And Jehovah helps them and delivers them; He shall deliver them from the wicked and save them, because they trust in Him.

A Psalm of David, to bring to remembrance.

¹O Jehovah, do not rebuke me in Your wrath, and do not chasten me in Your fury. ²For Your arrows sink in me, and Your hand presses heavily on me. ³There is no soundness in my flesh because of Your anger; nor peace in my bones because of my sin. ⁴For my iniquities have passed over my head; as a heavy burden too heavy for me. ⁵My wounds have putrefied and rotted, because of my foolishness. ⁶I am bent down, I am bowed down exceedingly; I went mourning all the day long. ⁷For my loins are filled with a burning, and there is no soundness in my flesh. ⁸I am exceedingly benumbed and crushed I howl from the groanings of my heart. ⁹My Lord, all my desire is before You, and my sighing is not hidden from You. ¹⁰My heart throbs; my power forsakes me! And the light of my eyes, they also are not with me. ¹¹My lovers and my friends stand apart from my stroke, and my neighbors have stood far off. ¹²And those seeking my life lay a snare; yea, those seeking my evil speak ruin, and they utter deceits all the day long. ¹³But like a deaf one I do not hear; and I am like a dumb one who does not open his mouth. ¹⁴And I am as a man who is not hearing, and who has no rebukes in his mouth. ¹⁵For I hope in You, O Jehovah; O Lord my God You will answer. ¹⁶For I said, Lest they rejoice over me in the slipping of my foot; they exalt themselves over me. ¹⁷For I am ready to fall and my pain is before me always. ¹⁸For I will confess my perversity; I am anxious from my sin. ¹⁹And my enemies are living; they are strong; and my haters multiply by falsehood. ²⁰And those who repay evil for good, they attack me, because the good follows me. ²¹O Jehovah, do not forsake me! O my God, do not be far from me; ²²make haste to help me, O my Lord, my salvation.

To the chief musician, to Jeduthun. A Psalm of David.

¹I said, I will keep my ways from sinning with my tongue; I will keep my mouth with a muzzle while the wicked are before me. ²I became dumb, keeping still; from good I was silent, and my pain was stirred. ³My heart was hot within me; while the fire burned I was meditating; I spoke with my tongue: ⁴O Jehovah, make me to know my end and the limit of my days, what it is. Let me know how lacking I am. ⁵Behold, like a handbreadth You gave my days, even my life was non-existence before You; ⁶surely every man walks about in shadow; surely they are in an uproar in vain; he heaps up and does not know who is gathering them. ⁷And now what do I await, Lord? My hope is in You. ⁸Deliver me from all my transgressions; do not set me forth as the reproach of the fool. ⁹I was dumb; I did not open my mouth, because You had done it. ¹⁰Remove Your stroke from me; I am consumed by the blow of Your hand. ¹¹You correct a man with rebukes over perversity; and as a moth You consume what he desires. Surely every man is vanity. Selah.

¹²Hear my prayer, O Jehovah, and give ear to my cry. Do not be silent at my tears, for I am an alien with You, a sojourner, as were all my fathers. ¹³Look away from me and I will be cheerful before I go away and be no more.

To the chief Musician. A Psalm of David.

¹Waiting I have waited on Jehovah; and He bowed to me and heard my cry. ²And He drew me up from the pit of tumult, out of the miry clay; and He set my feet on a rock; He directed my steps. ³And He put a new song of praise to our God in my mouth; many shall see and shall fear and shall trust in Jehovah. ⁴Blessed is the man who sets Jehovah as his trust, and does not turn to the proud or those who turn to a lie. ⁵Many things have You done, O Jehovah my God; Your works of wonder and Your purposes toward us; there is none to set in order to You; I will declare and I will speak — they are more than can be counted.

⁶Sacrifice and offering You did not desire; You have opened ears to Me. You have not asked burnt offering and sin offering. ⁷Then I said, Lo, I come, in the roll of the Book it is written of Me; ⁸I delight to do Your will, O My God; and Your law is within My inmost soul. ⁹I have announced righteousness in the great assembly; behold, I will not restrain My lips; O Jehovah You know. ¹⁰I have not concealed Your righteousness in My heart; I speak Your faithfulness and Your salvation. I have not hidden Your loving-kindness and Your truth for the great assembly. ¹¹Do not withhold Your tender mercies from Me, O Jehovah; let Your loving-kindness and Your truth always watch over Me.

¹²For evils have surrounded me until there is no number; my iniquities have taken hold on me and I am not able to look up; they are more than the hairs of my head, and my heart fails me. ¹³Be pleased to deliver me, O Jehovah; hasten to my help. ¹⁴Let be ashamed and humbled together those seeking my soul, to destroy it; let those delighting in my evil be driven back and disgraced. ¹⁵Let them be desolate until it is the reward for their shame; for they are saying to me, Aha! Aha! ¹⁶Let all who are seeking You be glad in You and always say, May Jehovah be magnified, those loving Your salvation. ¹⁷But I am poor and needy; the Lord will take thought for me. You are my help and my deliverer; O my God, do not delay.

To the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David.

¹Blessed is he who acts wisely toward the poor; Jehovah will deliver him in the day of evil. ²Jehovah will watch over him and keep him alive; he shall be blessed on the earth, and You will not deliver him to the soul of his enemies. ³Jehovah will uphold him on the couch of sickness; You change all his bed in his sickness. ⁴I said, O Jehovah be gracious to me; heal my soul, for I have sinned against You. ⁵My enemies speak evil of me, saying, When will he die and his name perish. ⁶And when he comes to see me he speaks vanity; his heart gathers iniquity to itself; he goes outside and speaks. ⁷All my haters whisper together against me; they plot evil against me, saying, A thing of ruin is poured out on him; and, He who lies down shall not rise again.

⁸Even a man desiring my welfare, I trusted in him, eating of my bread; this one has lifted up his heel against me. ⁹But You, O Jehovah, be gracious to me and raise me up, and I will repay them. ¹⁰By this I know that You delight in me, because my enemy does not exult over me. ¹¹And I, in my integrity You uphold me, and You set your face before me forever.

¹²Blessed be Jehovah God of Israel, even from everlasting to everlasting! Amen and Amen!

To the Chief Musician. A Contemplation for the sons of Korah.

¹As the deer pants after the channels of water, so my soul pants after You, O God. ²My soul thirsts for God, for the living God; when shall I come and appear before God? ³My tears have been my food by day and by night, while they say to me all the day long, Where is your God? ⁴When I remember these things and I pour out my soul on me — for I passed over with the throng; I led them to the house of God with the voice of rejoicing and praise, a host keeping the feast.

⁵O my soul, why are you cast down and moan within me? Hope in God, for I shall yet thank Him for the salvation of His presence. ⁶O my God, my soul is cast down within me; on account of this I remember You from Jordan-land and from the Hermons, from Mount Mizar. ⁷Deep calls to deep through the voice of Your waterfalls; all Your waves and Your billows have passed over me. ⁸Jehovah will command His loving-kindness by day, and His song shall be with me in the night, a prayer to the God of my life. ⁷I will say to God my rock, Why have You forgotten me? Why do I go mourning when the enemy oppresses me? ¹⁰My oppressors reproach me with crushing in my bones, when they say to me every day, Where is your God?

¹¹O my soul, why are you cast down? And why do you moan within me? Hope in God, for I yet thank Him for the salvation of my face and my God.

¹Judge me O God, and strive for my cause against a nation not godly. Deliver me from the deceitful and unjust man. ²For You are the God of my strength; why have You cast me off? Why do I go mourning when the enemy oppresses? ³O send out Your light and Your truth; let them lead me and bring me to the mount of Your holiness and to Your tabernacles. ⁴Then I will go to the altar of God, to God the joy of my delight, and I will thank with the lyre, O God my God. ⁵Why are you cast down, O my soul, and why do you moan within me? Hope in God, for I will still thank Him, the salvations of my face, and my God.

To the Chief Musician. A Contemplation for the Sons of Korah.

¹We have heard with our ears, O God; our fathers have told us the work You did in their days, in the days of old. ²You drove out nations with Your hand and planted them. You brought evil on peoples and expelled them. ³For they did not inherit the land with their own sword; yea, their own arm did not save them. But it was Your right hand and Your arm and the light of Your face, because You favored them. ⁴You are He, my king, O God; command deliverances for Jacob. ⁵Through You we will push our enemies; through Your name we will trample those who rise up against us. ⁶For I will not trust in my bow, and my sword shall not save me. ⁷But You have saved us from our adversaries and have put to shame those who hate us. ⁸We boast in God all the day long; and we praise Your name forever. Selah.

⁹Now You have cast us off and have shamed us. And You do not go forth with our armies. ¹⁰You make us turn back from the adversary; yea, those who hate us plunder for themselves. ¹¹You have given us like sheep for food and have scattered us among the nations. ¹²For no gain You have sold Your people, and You are not increased by their price. ¹³You made us a disgrace to our neighbors, a scorn and a mockery to those around us. ¹⁴You make us a byword among the nations, a shaking of the head among the peoples. ¹⁵My humiliation is before me all the day long; yea, the shame of my face covers me, ¹⁶because of the slanderer's voice and the blasphemer, before the face of the enemy and avenger.

¹⁷All this has come upon us, and we have not forgotten You nor dealt falsely with Your covenant. ¹⁸Our heart has not turned back and our steps have not swerved from Your way, ¹⁹though You have crushed us in the place of jackals and covered us over with the death-shade. ²⁰If we have forgotten the name of our God, and have spread our hands to an alien god, ²¹shall not God search out this? For He knows the secrets of the heart. ²²Yea, for Your sake we are slain all the day long; we are counted as sheep of slaughter. ²³Be aroused! Why do You sleep, O Lord? Awake! Do not cast us off forever. ²⁴Why do You hide Your face and forget our affliction and distress?

²⁵For our soul bows down to the dust; our belly holds fast to the earth. ²⁶Arise for our help and redeem us for the sake of Your mercy.

To the Chief Musician, Concerning the Lilies. For the sons of Korah. A Poem; a Song of the Beloved.

¹My heart is overflowing with a good matter. I am speaking of my works to the king; my tongue is the pen of a rapid writer. ²You are the fairest of the sons of man; grace has poured into Your lips; on this account God has blessed You forever. ³Gird Your sword on Your thigh, Mighty One: with Your glory and Your majesty. ⁴And ride prosperously in majesty, on the matter of truth and meekness and right, and Your right hand shall teach You fearful things. ⁵Your arrows are sharp in the heart of the King's enemies — peoples fall under You. ⁶Your throne, O God, is forever and ever; the scepter of Your kingdom is a scepter of uprightness. ⁷You love righteousness and hate wickedness; on account of this God, Your God, has anointed You with the oil of gladness more than Your fellows.

⁸All Your garments smell of myrrh and aloes and cassia, out of ivory palaces by which they make You glad. ⁹King's daughters are among Your precious ones; the queen stands at Your right hand in gold of Ophir. ¹⁰Listen, O daughter, and look, and incline your ear, and forget your people and your father's house. ¹¹And the King will desire your beauty, for He is your Lord, and you shall worship Him. ¹²And the daughter of Tyre with a gift, the rich among the people, will implore your face. ¹³The king's daughter is all glorious within, her clothing braided gold. ¹⁴She shall be led to the King in embroidered work; her companions, the virgins, shall be brought to You after her.

¹⁵They shall be led with gladness and rejoicing; they shall go in to the King's palace. ¹⁶Your sons shall be in the place of your fathers; You will make them for rulers in all the earth. ¹⁷I will make remembered Your name in every generation and generation; on this account people shall thank You forever and ever.

To the Chief Musician. For the sons of Korah; A song "For the Virgins".

¹God is our refuge and strength, very much found to be a help in distresses. ²On account of this we will not fear when the earth changes and when mountains are slipping into the heart of the seas. ³Let its waters foam; let the mountains shake in its swelling. Selah.

⁴*There is* a river, its channels gladden

the city of God, the holy tabernacles of the Most High. ⁵God is in the midst of her; she shall not be shaken; God will help her at the turning of the morning. ⁶The nations roared; kingdoms were shaken; He gave forth His voice and the earth melted. ⁷Jehovah of hosts is with us; the God of Jacob is a refuge for us. Selah.

⁸Come, behold the works of Jehovah, who sets ruins on the earth, ⁹causing to cease wars to the end of the earth; He breaks the bow and cuts apart spears; He burns the chariots in the fire. ¹⁰Be still and know that I am God! I will be exalted among the nations; I will be exalted in the earth. ¹¹Jehovah of hosts is with us; the God of Jacob is a refuge for us. Selah.

To the Chief Musician. A Psalm for the Sons of Korah.

¹All the peoples clap the hand; shout aloud to God with the voice of shouting. ²For Jehovah Most High is awesome, a great king over all the earth. ³He shall speak peoples under us, even nations under our feet. ⁴He chooses our inheritance for us, the majesty of Jacob whom He loved. Selah.

⁵God has gone up with a shout, Jehovah with the sound of a ram's horn. ⁶Sing praise; sing praise; sing praise to our King! For God is the king of all the earth; sing a psalm for edification. ⁷God reigns over the nations; God sits on the throne of His holiness. ⁸The nobles of peoples gather together, the people of the God of Abraham. ⁹For the shields of the earth are God's; He is greatly lifted up.

A Song, A Psalm for the Sons of Korah.

¹Great is Jehovah, and exceedingly to be praised in the city of our God, His holy mountain. ²Beautiful on high, the joy of all the earth, is Mount Zion, in the sides of all the north, the city of the great King. ³God is known in her strongholds for a refuge. ⁴For, lo, the kings met together; they passed by together; ⁵they saw, so they marveled; they were troubled and fled away. ⁷Trembling seized them there and pain, like a woman in labor.

⁸You break the ships of Tarshish with an east wind. ⁹As we have heard, so we have seen in the city of Jehovah of hosts, in the city of our God; God establishes it forever. Selah.

¹⁰We have thought on Your loving-kindness, O God, in the midst of Your temple. ¹¹According to Your name, O God, so is Your praise to the ends of the earth; Your right hand is full of righteousness. ¹²Mount Zion shall be glad; the daughters of Judah shall shout for joy because of Your judgments. ¹³Walk around Zion; yea, go all around it; count its towers; ¹⁴set your heart on its ramparts; pass between its strongholds; in order that you may report to the coming generation. ¹⁵For this God is our God forever and ever; He will be our guide even unto death.

To the chief musician, A Psalm for the Sons of Korah.

¹Hear this, all peoples; listen, all inhabitants of the world. ²Both sons of mankind and sons of man together, rich and poor: ³My mouth shall speak wisdoms; and the thoughts of my heart shall be of understanding. ⁴I will bow down my ear to a parable; I will open my dark saying on the harp. ⁵Why should I fear in the days of evil, when the perversity of my ambassadors will surround me? ⁶Those who trust in their wealth, and in their many riches, boast themselves. ⁷A man cannot at all redeem a brother, nor give to God a ransom for him, ⁸for the redemption of their soul is precious, and it ceases forever —⁹for he shall yet live forever; he shall never see corruption. ¹⁰For he sees wise men die; together the fool and the animal-like ones perish and leave their riches to others. ¹¹Their inward thought is that their houses shall last forever, their dwelling-places to all generations; they call lands after their own names. ¹²But man shall not remain high in honor; he is like the animals; they shall be cut off.

¹³This way of theirs is folly to them, yet their followers shall be pleased by their mouth. Selah.

¹⁴Like sheep, they are appointed to Sheol; death shall reign for them; and upright ones shall rule over them in the morning; and their form is for rotting; Sheol is home for him. ¹⁵But God will redeem my soul from the hand of Sheol; for He will take me. Selah.

¹⁶Do not be afraid when one becomes rich, when the glory of his house increases; ¹⁷for when he dies, he shall take nothing; his glory shall not go down after him. ¹⁸For in his life he blessed his soul — yea, men praise you when you do well for yourself — ¹⁹He shall go to the generation of his fathers; they shall not see light forever. ²⁰Man, though high in honor, but understanding not, is like the animals; they shall be cut off.

A Psalm of Asaph

¹God, Jehovah God has spoken, and calls to the earth from the rising of the sun to its setting. ²Out of Zion, the perfection of beauty, God has shone. ³Our God comes, and He is not silent; a fire shall devour before Him; and it shall be very stormy around Him. ⁴He shall call to the heavens from above, and to the earth, to judge His people. ⁵Gather My saints together to Me, those who cut My covenant by sacrifice. ⁶And the heavens shall declare His righteousness, for God Himself is judge. Selah.

⁷Hear, My people, and I will speak; O Israel, and I will testify against you; I am God, your God. ⁸I will not reprove you for your sacrifices; yea, your burnt offerings are continually before Me; ⁹I will take no bull out of your house, nor he-goats out of your folds — ¹⁰for every beast of the forest is Mine; the cattle on a thousand hills; ¹¹I know all the birds of the mountains; and all moving in My fields are Mine; ¹²if I were hungry, I would not tell you; for the world is Mine, and the fullness of it — ¹³Will I eat the flesh of mighty ones, and will I drink the blood of he-goats? ¹⁴Offer thanksgiving to God; and pay your vows to the Most High. ¹⁵And call on Me in the day of distress; and I will save you; and you shall glorify Me. ¹⁶But to the wicked, God says, What is it to you to declare My statutes, and you take My covenant up on your mouth? ¹⁷Yea, you hate instruction, and toss My words behind you? ¹⁸When you saw a thief, you were pleased with him; and you have taken part with adulterers. ¹⁹You give your mouth to evil, and your tongue frames deceit. ²⁰You sit and speak against your brother; you slander your own mother's son. ²¹You have done these things, and I kept silence; you thought that surely I would be like yourself; but I will rebuke you and set in order before your eyes.

²²Now think of this, you who forget God, lest I tear, and not any to deliver: ²³Whoever offers thanks glorifies Me, and I will show the salvation of God to him who prepares a way.

To the chief musician, A Psalm of David when Nathan the prophet came to him, after he had gone in to Bathsheba.

¹Be gracious to me, O God, according to Your mercy, according to the multitude of Your tender mercies; blot out my transgressions. ²Wash me completely from my iniquity, and cleanse me from my sin. ³For I know my transgressions; and my sin is ever before me. ⁴Against You, You only, I have sinned, and done evil in Your eyes; that You might be justified in Your speaking, and be clear when You judge. ⁵Behold, I was brought forth in iniquity, and in sin my mother conceived me. ⁶Behold, You desire truth in the inward parts; and in the hidden parts You teach me wisdom. ⁷Purge me with hyssop, and I shall be clean; wash me, and I shall be whiter than snow. ⁸Cause me to hear joy and gladness; that the bones You have crushed may rejoice. ⁹Hide Your face from my sins, and blot out all my iniquities. ¹⁰Create in me a clean heart, O God; and renew a steadfast spirit within me. ¹¹Do not cast me out from Your presence, and do not take Your Holy Spirit from me. ¹²Restore to me the joy of Your salvation, and uphold me with a willing spirit. ¹³*Then* I will teach transgressors Your ways; and sinners shall be converted to You. ¹⁴Deliver me from the guilt of shedding blood, O God, O God of my salvation; my tongue shall sing aloud of Your righteousness.

¹⁵O Lord, open my lips and my mouth shall declare Your praise. ¹⁶For you do not desire sacrifice, or I would give it; You do not delight in burnt offering. ¹⁷The sacrifices of God are a broken spirit; a broken and contrite heart, O God, You will not despise.

¹⁸Do good in Your good pleasure to Zion; build the walls of Jerusalem. ¹⁹Then You shall be pleased with the sacrifices of righteousness, with burnt offering and whole offering; then they shall offer bulls on Your altar.

To the chief musician. A Contemplation. A Psalm of David — when Doeg the Edomite came and told Saul, and said to him, David has come to the house of Ahimelech.

¹Why do you boast yourself in evil, O hero? The mercy of God is all the day. ²Like a sharp razor, your tongue devises ruin, working deceit. ³You love evil more than good; lying more than to speak righteousness. Selah.

⁴You love all devouring words, O deceitful tongue! ⁵God will likewise break you forever; He shall take you away, even pluck you from your tent, and uproot you out of the land of the living. Selah.

⁶And the righteous shall see and fear; yea, they will laugh over him, saying, ⁷Behold, the man who did not make God his strength; but he trusted in his many riches; he was strong in his destruction.

⁸But I am like a green olive tree in the house of God; I trust in the mercy of God forever and ever. ⁹I will thank You forever, because You have done it; and I will hope in Your name, for it is good before Your saints.

To the Chief Musician on Mahalath. A Contemplation; A Psalm of David.

¹The fool has said in his heart, There is no God! They have done corruptly; they have committed abominable wickedness; there is not one doing good! ²God looked down from Heaven on the sons of mankind, to see if any was discerning, who was seeking God: ³Every one has turned away; together they are filthy; not one is doing good; not even one! ⁴Have the workers of evil not known, eating up My people as they eat bread? They have not called on God. ⁵There they feared with dread, where no dread was; for God has scattered the bones of the one who besieges you; you have put them to shame because God rejects them. ⁶Who gives from Zion the salvation of Israel? When God brings back the captivity of His people, Jacob shall rejoice; Israel shall be glad.

To the Chief Musician on Neginoth. A Contemplation; A Psalm of David — when the Ziphites came and said to Saul, Does not David hide himself among us?

¹Save me, O God, by Your name; and judge me by Your strength. ²Hear my prayer, O God; listen to the words of my mouth. ³For strangers have risen up against me; and terrifying men seek after my soul; they have not set God before them. Selah.

⁴Behold, God is my helper. The Lord is with those who uphold my soul. ⁵He shall reward evil to my enemies; cut them off in Your truth. ⁶I will freely sacrifice to You; I will praise Your name, O Jehovah, for it is good. ⁷For He has delivered me out of all trouble; and my eye has seen its desire on my enemies.

To the Chief Musician on Neginoth. A Contemplation. A Psalm of David.

attention to me, and answer me; I wander and I moan in my complaint, ³from the voice of the enemy; from the oppression of the wicked; for they shake iniquity over me, and in anger they hate me. ⁴My heart is pained within me, and the terrors of death have fallen on me. ⁵Fear and trembling come on me; and horror has covered me. ⁶And I said, Who will give to me wings like a dove? I would fly away and be at rest. ⁷Lo, I would rove far away, fleeing; I would lodge in the desert. Selah.

⁸I would hasten to my escape from the rushing wind, from the tempest. ⁹Swallow up, O Lord; divide their tongue; for I see violence and strife in the city. ¹⁰They go around her on her walls by day and night; and trouble and mischief are in her midst. ¹¹Covetings are in her midst; oppression and guile will not depart from her streets. ¹²For it is not an enemy reproaching me, or I could bear it; it is not one who hates me who is magnifying himself against me; or I would hide myself from him. ¹³But it is you, a man of my rank, my friend and my associate. ¹⁴We sweetened counsel together; we marched into the house of God with the throng.

¹⁵Desolation be upon them! They go down into Sheol alive; for evils are among them in their dwelling. ¹⁶I will call to God, and Jehovah will save me. ¹⁷Evening and morning, and at noon, I will complain and cry aloud; and He shall hear my voice.

¹⁸He redeems my soul in peace from the war being waged against me; for they were many with me. ¹⁹God shall hear and answer them, even He who is enthroned of old. Selah. There are no changes to them; yea, they do not fear God. ²⁰He sent out his hand against those who wish him well; he polluted his covenant. ²¹The butterings of his mouth were forked, and war was in his heart; his words were softer than oil, but they were as drawn swords.

²²Cast on Jehovah what He has given, and He will keep you; He will not give the righteous to waver, forever. ²³But You, O God, will bring them down to the pit of destruction; men of blood and deceit will not live out half their days; but I will trust in You.

To the Chief Musician. Concerning the silent dove — those far off. Of David, a secret treasure — when the Philistines seized him in Gath.

¹Favor me, O God, for man snuffs me up; all the day fighting oppresses me. ²My watchers panted for me all the day; for many are proudly fighting over me. ³The day I am afraid, I will trust in You. ⁴In God I will praise His word; in God I have trusted; I will not fear; what will flesh do to me? ⁵All the day they pervert my words; all their thoughts are against me for evil. ⁶They stir up strife; they hide; they observe my footprints as they wait for my soul. ⁷Is escape for them by iniquity? In anger the peoples cast down, O God.

⁸You have counted my wandering; O put my tears in Your bottle; are they not in Your Book? ⁹Then my enemies will turn back in the day I call; this I know, for God is for me. ¹⁰In God I will praise the word; in Jehovah I will praise the word. ¹¹In God I have trusted; I will not fear; what will man do to me? ¹²On me, O God, are Your vows; I will render to You thank offerings. ¹³For You have delivered my soul from death. Do You not keep my feet from falling, so that I may walk before God in the light of the living?

To the Chief Musician. Do not destroy. A secret treasure of David, when he fled from Saul in the cave.

¹Be merciful to me, O God, be merciful to me, for my soul trusts in You; yea, in the shadow of Your wings I will make my hiding-place, until the great destruction passes by. ²I will cry to God most High, to God who works for me. ³He shall send from Heaven and save me; He will shame the one who crushes me. Selah. God shall send His mercy and His truth. ⁴My soul is among lions; I lie among those who are set on fire, the sons of men, whose teeth are spears and arrows, and their tongue is a sharp sword. ⁵Be praised above the heavens, O God; let Your glory be over the whole earth.

⁶They have prepared a net for my steps; my soul is bowed down; they have dug a pit before me; they have fallen into it. Selah.

⁷My heart is fixed, O God, my heart is fixed; I will sing and give praise. ⁸Wake up my glory! Wake up, harp and lyre! I will stir the morning-dawn with praise. ⁹I will praise You among the peoples, O Lord, I will sing to You among the nations. ¹⁰For Your mercy is great to the heavens, and Your truth to the clouds. ¹¹Be exalted above the heavens, O God; Your glory over the whole earth.

To the Chief Musician. Do not destroy. A secret treasure of David.

¹Will you indeed speak righteousness in silence? Do you judge uprightly, O sons of men? ²Yes, in heart you work the evil of your hands in the land. ³The wicked are estranged from the womb; they go astray from the belly, speaking lies. ⁴Their poison is like the poison of a snake; like the deaf adder, he stops his ear, ⁵which will not hear the charmer's voice, skillful caster of spells. ⁶O God, break their teeth in their mouth; break out the big teeth of the young lions, O Jehovah. ⁷Let them melt away like waters; they flow off to them; he treads his arrows; let them be as though they were cut off, ⁸as a snail goes into melting, a miscarriage of a woman; they do not see the sun. ⁹Before your pots can feel the thorns, whether green or glowing, He shall sweep it away. ¹⁰The righteous shall rejoice when he sees vengeance; he shall wash his feet in the blood of the wicked. ¹¹And man will say, Truly, a fruit is to the righteous; truly, there is a God judging in the earth.

To the Chief Musician. Do not destroy. A secret treasure of David, when Saul sent, and they watched the house to kill him.

¹Deliver me from my enemies, O my God; set me on high from the ones who rise up against me. ²Deliver me from the workers of evil, and save me from bloody men. ³For, lo, they lie in wait for my soul; mighty ones gather against me; not for my transgression, and not my sin, O Jehovah. ⁴Without my fault they run and prepare themselves; awaken to help me, and look.

¹⁰The God of my mercy shall meet me; God shall let me see my desire on my enemies. ¹¹Do not kill them, lest my people forget; scatter them by Your power and bring them down, O Jehovah our shield. ¹²For the sin of their mouth is the word of their lips, and let them be captured in their pride, and for cursing and lying which they tell. ¹³Consume them in Your anger; consume, so that they may not be; and they shall know that God is ruling in Jacob, to the ends of the earth. Selah.

¹⁴Yes, they shall return at evening; let them howl like the dog and go around the city; ¹⁵let them wander up and down for food, and growl if they are not satisfied. ¹⁶But I will sing of Your power; yes, I will sing of Your mercy in the morning. For You have been my strong tower, and my hiding-place in the day of my trouble. ¹⁷To You, O my strength, I will sing; for God is my strong tower, the God of my mercy.

To the Chief Musician. On the Lily of Testimony. A secret treasure of David, to teach; when he struggled with Aram-naharaim, and with Aram-Zobah, when Joab returned, and struck twelve thousand of Edom in the Valley of Salt.

¹O God! You cast us off; You broke us; You who were angry; take us back. ²You made the earth tremble; You tore it; heal its breaks, for it is shaking. ³You have shown Your people hardship; You made us drink the wine of trembling. ⁴You have given a banner to those who fear You, to lift it up because of the truth. Selah.

⁵Save with Your right hand and answer me, that Your beloved may be delivered. ⁶God has spoken in His holiness; I will rejoice; I will divide Shechem, and measure out the valley of Succoth. ⁷Gilead is Mine, and Manasseh is Mine; Ephraim is the strength of My head; Judah is My lawgiver; ⁸Moab is My washpot; over Edom I will cast out My shoe; over me, Philistia, shout in triumph. ⁹Who will bring me into the strong city? Who will lead me into Edom? ¹⁰Have not You, O God, cast us aside? And will You not go forth with our armies, O God? ¹¹Give us help against our foe, for vain is the deliverance of man. ¹²Through God we shall do mighty things; for He shall tread on our foes.

To the Chief Musician. On stringed instruments. Of David.

¹Hear my cry, O God, and listen to my prayer. ²From the end of the earth I call to You when my heart faints; O lead me to the Rock that is higher than I. ³For You have been my shelter, a strong tower before the enemy. ⁴I will dwell in Your tabernacle forever; I will trust in the shelter of Your wings. Selah.

⁵For You, O God, have heard my vows; You appointed the inheritance of those who fear Your name. ⁶You will add days to the days of the king; his years will be as generations to generations. ⁷He shall sit enthroned forever before God; appoint mercy and truth to preserve Him. ⁸So I will sing praise to Your name forever, so that I may pay my vows day by day.

To the Chief Musician. To Jeduthun. A Psalm of David.

¹Only to God is my soul silent; from Him comes my salvation. ²He alone is my rock and my salvation, my strong tower; I shall not be greatly moved. ³Until when will you break in against a man?

You will shatter him, all of you, like a bowing wall, a tottering fence. ⁴Surely, they plotted to cast him down from his excellent dignity; they delight in lies; they bless with their mouth, but they curse in their heart. Selah.

⁵Only be silent to God, O my soul, for my hope comes from Him. ⁶He alone is my rock and my salvation, my strong tower; I shall not be shaken. ⁷On God is my salvation and my glory; my strong rock, my refuge is in God. ⁸Trust in Him at every time, you people; pour out your heart before Him; God is a refuge for us. Selah.

⁹Surely the sons of men are vanity, the sons of man are a lie; they go up in the scales; they are higher than vanity together. ¹⁰Trust not in oppression, and do not be vain in robbery; if riches increase to you, do not set your heart on them. ¹¹God has spoken once; twice I have heard this, that power belongs to God; ¹²Also mercy belongs to You, O Lord, for You reward a man according to his work.

A Psalm of David, when he was in the wilderness of Judah.

¹O God, You are my God; I earnestly seek You; my soul thirsts for You; my flesh longs for You, as in a dry and weary land without water. ²Therefore I have seen you in the holy place, seeing Your power and Your glory. ³For Your loving-kindness is better than life; my lips give praise to You. ⁴So I will bless You while I live; I will lift up my hands in Your name. ⁵My soul shall be satisfied, as with marrow and fatness; and my mouth shall praise You with joyful lips, ⁶when I remember You upon my bed, I will think on You in the night-watches. ⁷For You have been a help to me, and I will rejoice under the shadow of Your wings. ⁸My soul is cleaved after You — Your right hand upholds me. ⁹And those who seek to destroy my life shall go into the depths of the earth. ¹⁰They shall pour him out by the sword; they shall be a serving for jackals. ¹¹But the king shall rejoice in God; everyone who swears by Him shall glory, because the mouth of liars shall be stopped.

To the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David.

¹O God, hear my voice in my complaint; guard my life from the terror of the enemy. ²Hide me from the secret company of plunderers, from the tumult of evildoers, ³who sharpen their tongue like a sword; they tread their arrows, a bitter word, ⁴so that they may shoot at the innocent from a lurking place; suddenly they shoot at him, and fear not. ⁵They make themselves strong in an evil plan; they talk of laying snares secretly; they say, Who shall see them? ⁶They search into injustice, saying, We have finished a well-laid plan. And the inward part of man and the heart are deep! ⁷But God shall shoot an arrow at them; their wounds shall suddenly appear. ⁸So they shall be confounded; their tongue falls upon themselves; everyone seeing them shall flee. ⁹And all men shall fear and shall declare the work of God; yea, they shall in wisdom consider His work. ¹⁰The righteous shall rejoice in Jehovah, and shall trust in Him; and all the upright in heart shall glory.

To the Chief Musician. A Psalm and Song of David.

¹To You silence is praise, O God, in Zion; and to You is a vow paid. ²To You who hears prayer, all flesh comes. ³Things of iniquity are mightier than I; our transgressions, You atone for them. ⁴Blessed is the one You choose and cause to come near You, he shall dwell in Your courts; we shall be satisfied with the goodness of Your house, Your holy temple. ⁵You will answer us in righteousness by awesome things, O God of our salvation; the Confidence of all the ends of the earth and the sea, of those afar off. ⁶By Your strength the mountains are set, banded together with might. ⁷You still the roaring of the sea, the roar of their waves, and the tumult of the peoples.

⁸And the inhabitants of the uttermost parts are afraid of Your signs; You make the outgoings of the morning and the evening to rejoice. ⁹You visit the earth and water it; You greatly enrich it; the river of God is full of water—You provide their grain, for in this way You have prepared it. ¹⁰You fill its terraces with water. You deepen its furrows; You make it soft with showers; You bless the sprouting of it. ¹¹You crown the year of Your goodness, and Your tracks drop with fruitfulness. ¹²The pastures of the wilderness drop, and the little hills gird themselves with joy. ¹³The meadows are outfitted with flocks; the valleys are also covered with grain; they shout for joy and sing.

To the Chief Musician. A Song. A Psalm.

¹Make a joyful noise to God, all the earth; ²Sing out the honor of His name; give glory to His praise. ³Say to God, How fearful are Your works! Through the greatness of Your power, Your enemies pretend obedience to You. ⁴All the earth shall worship You; and they sing to You; they praise Your name. Selah.

⁵Come and see God's works, who is awesome in His acts toward the sons of men. ⁶He turns the sea into dry land; they go through the river on foot; there we will rejoice with Him. ⁷He rules by His power forever; His eyes search out the nations; let not the rebels exalt themselves. Selah.

⁸Bless our God, O peoples, and make heard the voice of His praise; ⁹who holds our soul in life, and does not allow our foot to slide. ¹⁰For You, O God, have proved us; You have tested us as silver is refined. ¹¹You have brought us into the net; You laid afflictions on our loins. ¹²You have let men ride at our head; we went through fire and through water; but You brought us out to plenty. ¹³I will go into Your house with burnt offerings; I will pay You my vows, ¹⁴which my lips have opened, and in my trouble my mouth has spoken. ¹⁵I will offer burnt sacrifices of fatlings to

You, with the incense of rams; I will offer bulls with goats. Selah.

¹⁶Come, hear, and let me tell, all you who fear God, what He has done to my soul. ¹⁷I cried to Him with my mouth, and exaltations were under my tongue. ¹⁸If I had regarded iniquity in my heart, Jehovah would not have heard. ¹⁹Surely God has heard; He has attended to the voice of my prayer. ²⁰Blessed be God, who has not turned away my prayer, and His mercy from me!

To the Chief Musician, for stringed instruments. A Psalm. A song.

¹May God be merciful to us and bless us, and cause His face to shine upon us. Selah. ²That Your way may be known on earth, Your salvation among all nations. ³Let the peoples thank You, O God; let all the peoples thank You. ⁴O let the peoples be glad and sing for joy; for You shall judge the peoples uprightly and govern the peoples on earth. Selah.

⁵Let the peoples give thanks to You, O God; let all the peoples give thanks to You. ⁶The earth has given its increase; God, our own God, shall bless us. ⁷God shall bless us; and all the ends of the earth shall fear Him.

To the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David. A Song.

¹God rises up and His enemies are scattered; and those who hate Him flee from His face. ²As smoke is driven away, You drive them away; as wax melts before the fire, the wicked perish in God's presence. ³But the righteous are glad; they shout for joy before God; yea, they exult with gladness. ⁴Sing to God, sing praise to His name; lift up for Him who rides in the deserts; by His name Jehovah; yea, exult in His presence. ⁵God in His holy dwelling is a father of the fatherless, and a judge of the widows. ⁶God causes the lonely to live at home; He brings out those who are bound with chains, while the rebellious dwell in a dry land.

⁷O God, when You marched before Your people, when You walked on through the wilderness. Selah. ⁸The earth shook, and the heavens dropped before God, this Sinai before God, the God of Israel. ⁹O God, You sent down a shower of plenty, by which You upheld Your inheritance when it was weary; You established it. ¹⁰Your flock lived in it; You, O God, have prepared for the poor in Your goodness.

¹⁹Blessed be the Lord: day by day He bears burdens for us, the God of our salvation. Selah.

²⁰Our God is the God of salvation; and to Jehovah the Lord are the issues of death. ²¹Yea, God will crush His enemies' head; the hairy crown of him who walks on in his guilt. ²²The Lord said, I will bring back from Bashan; I will bring back My people from the depths of the sea; ²³so that your foot may be dashed in the blood of your enemies, the tongue of your dogs in it. ²⁴They have seen Your processions, O God; the goings of my God, my King, in the holy place. ²⁵The singers went before, then the musicians came; among them were the virgins playing the timbrels. ²⁶O bless God in the congregations, the Lord, from the fountain of Israel. ²⁷There is little Benjamin their ruler; the leaders of Judah in their crowd, and the leaders of Zebulun, the leaders of Naphtali.

²⁸Your God has commanded your strength; O God, be strong, in this You have worked out for us. ²⁹Because of Your temple over Jerusalem, kings shall bring a present to You. ³⁰Rebuke the wild beasts of the reeds, the herd of bulls, with the calves of the peoples, trampling down with pieces of silver. He scatters the people who delight in war. ³¹Let nobles be brought out of Egypt; Ethiopia shall run up her hands to God. ³²Sing to God, kingdoms of the earth; and praises to the Lord. Selah.

³³To Him who rides on the heavens of heavens of old; lo, He sends out His voice, a mighty voice. ³⁴Ascribe strength to God over Israel; His majesty and His strength in the skies. ³⁵O God, You are overwhelming out of Your holy places; the God of Israel is He who gives strength and powers to the people. Blessed be God!

To the Chief Musician. Concerning the Lilies. Of David.

¹Save me, O God, for the waters have come in to my soul. ²I sink in deep mire, and there is no standing; I have come into deep waters where the floods overflow me. ³I am weary from my crying, my throat is scorched; my eyes fail while I wait for my God. ⁴They who hate me without a cause are more than the hairs of my head; they who would destroy me are mighty, my lying enemies; then I restored what I did not take by violence.

⁵O God, You know my foolishness; and my guiltiness is not hidden from You. ⁶O Jehovah of hosts, do not let those who wait on You be ashamed for my sake; let not the ones who seek You be ashamed for my sake, O God of Israel. ⁷Because I suffered reproach for Your sake, shame has covered my face. ⁸I have become a stranger to my brothers, and a foreigner to my mother's children. ⁹For the zeal of Your house has consumed me; and the reproaches of the ones who reproach You have fallen on me. ¹⁰When I humbled my soul with fasting, it also was to my reproach; ¹¹I also made sackcloth my clothing, and I became a mockery to them. ¹²They who sit in the gate spoke of me; and I was the song of drunkards. ¹³But as for me, my prayer is to You, O Jehovah, at a time of favor, O God! In the plentitude of Your mercy answer me, in the truth of Your salvation. ¹⁴Deliver me out of the mire, that I may not sink; let me be delivered from those who hate me; and out of the deep waters. ¹⁵Let not the floodwaters overflow me, nor let the deep swallow me up; and let not the pit shut its mouth on me.

¹⁶Hear me, O Jehovah, for Your mercy is good; in the plentitude of Your tender mercies, turn toward me. ¹⁷And do not hide Your face from Your servant; for I am distressed; hear me quickly; ¹⁸draw near my soul; redeem it; ransom me because of my enemies. ¹⁹You know my reproach and my shame, and my dishonor; my enemies are all before You. ²⁰Reproach has broken my heart, and I am faint; and I waited for one to show pity, but there was no one; and for comforters, but I found none. ²¹They also gave me gall in my food; and in my thirst they gave me vinegar to drink. ²²Let their table be a trap before them; and to those at ease a snare. ²³Let their eyes be darkened, that they may not see; and cause their loins to be troubled continually. ²⁴Pour out Your wrath on them; and let the glow of Your anger overtake them. ²⁵Let their home be made desolate; let no one dwell in their tents. ²⁶For whom You have stricken, they have persecuted; and they gossip to the pain of those You pierced. ²⁷Put iniquity to their iniquity; and do not let them enter into Your righteousness. ²⁸Blot them out from the Book of Life; yea, let them not be written with the righteous.

²⁹But I am poor and in pain; O God, Your salvation shall set me on high. ³⁰I will praise God's name in a song; and I will magnify Him with thanks. ³¹And it shall please Jehovah more than bulls, horned or hoofed bull. ³²The humble have seen and are glad; you who seek God, your heart shall live. ³³For Jehovah hears the needy, and He does not despise His prisoners. ³⁴Let the heavens and the earth praise Him, the seas, and everything that moves in them. ³⁵For God will save Zion; and He will build the cities of Judah, and they shall live there and possess it. ³⁶And His servants' seed shall inherit; and they who love His name shall live in it.

To the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David, to bring to remembrance.

¹O God, deliver me! Hurry, O Jehovah, to help me! ²Let those who seek after my soul be ashamed and turned pale; let them be turned backward and shamed, those who desire my evil. ³Let them be turned back for a reward of their shame, those who say, Aha, aha! ⁴Let all those who seek You rejoice, and be glad in You; and let those who love Your salvation forever say, Let God be magnified. ⁵But I am poor and needy, come quickly to me, O God; You are my help and my deliverer; O Jehovah, do not wait any longer.

¹I put my trust in You, O Jehovah, let me not be put to shame forever. ²In Your righteousness deliver me and rescue me; bow down Your ear to me and save me. ³Be a rock of strength for me, to which I may always go; You have given a command to save me; for You are my rock and my fortress. ⁴O my God, deliver me out of the hand of the wicked, and out of the palm of the unjust and the ruthless. ⁵For You are my hope, O Lord Jehovah, my trust from my youth. ⁶I have rested on You from the belly; You are He who took me out of my mother's womb; my praise shall always be of You. ⁷I am like a wonder to many, but You are my strong tower. ⁸My mouth is filled with Your praise, with your glory all the day long.

⁹Do not cast me off now at the time of my old age. Do not forsake me when my strength fails. ¹⁰For my enemies speak against me; and those who lurk for my soul plot together. ¹¹And they say, God has forsaken him; pursue him and take him, for there is no one to deliver. ¹²O

God, do not be far from me; O my God, come quickly to help me. ¹³Let them be ashamed; let those who are enemies of my soul be consumed; let them be covered with reproach, and let those seeking evil for me be dishonored; ¹⁴and I will always hope, and I will add more on all your praise. ¹⁵My mouth shall tell of Your righteousness and Your salvation all the day; for I do not know the numbers. ¹⁶I will come in the strength of the Lord Jehovah; I will speak of Your righteousness, of Yours alone. ¹⁷O God, You have taught me from my youth; and until now I have declared Your wonders. ¹⁸And now that I am old and gray-headed, O God, do not leave me; until I have manifested Your strength to the generation, Your power to everyone who is to come.

¹⁹And, Your righteousness, O God, is to the heights, You who have done great things. O God, who is like You? ²⁰Who has shown me great and evil distresses; You will turn me; You make me live; and You will turn from the depths of the earth; You will bring me up. ²¹You will multiply my greatness and surround and comfort me. ²²I will also thank You with a harp; O my God, I will sing Your truth to You with the lyre, O holy One of Israel. ²³My lips shall shout for joy, for I will sing praise to You; also my soul which you have redeemed. ²⁴And my tongue shall muse on Your righteousness all the day; because those seeking my evil are disgraced; they are put to shame.

Of Solomon.

¹Give the king Your judgments, O God; and Your righteousness to the king's son. ²Your people He shall judge in righteousness, and Your poor in justice. ³The mountains will lift up peace to the people; and the little hills through righteousness. ⁴He shall judge the poor of the people; and He shall save the sons of the needy; and He shall crush the oppressor. ⁵They shall fear You with the sun; and before the moon in all generations. ⁶He shall descend like rain on the mown grass; like showers that water the earth. ⁷In His days the righteous shall flourish, and plenty of peace, till the moon is not. ⁸He shall also rule from sea to sea, and from the River to the ends of the earth. ⁹Those dwelling in the desert will bow before Him, and His enemies will lick the dust. ¹⁰The kings of Tarshish and of the isles shall bring presents; the kings of Sheba and Seba shall offer gifts. ¹¹Yea, all kings shall fall down before Him; all nations shall serve Him. ¹²For He shall save the needy who cries, and the poor with no helper. ¹³He shall have pity on the poor and needy; and He saves the souls of the needy ones. ¹⁴He shall redeem their souls from oppression and violence; and their blood shall be precious in His eyes.

¹⁵And He shall live, and the gold of Sheba shall be given to Him; and prayer shall be made for Him continually; He shall bless Him all the day long. ¹⁶A fullness of grain shall be in the earth on top of the mountains; its fruit shall shake like Lebanon; and they of the city shall flourish like the grass of the earth. ¹⁷His name shall be forever; His name shall continue before the sun; and they shall bless themselves by Him; all nations shall call Him blessed.

¹⁸Blessed is Jehovah God, the God of Israel, who alone does wonderful things. ¹⁹And blessed is His glorious name forever; and the whole earth is filled with His glory! Amen and amen!

²⁰The prayers of David the son of Jesse have ended.

A Psalm of Asaph.

¹Truly God is good to Israel, to those who are of a pure heart. ²And as for me, my feet had almost stumbled; my steps nearly made to slip. ³For I was jealous of the proud; I looked upon the peace of the wicked. ⁴For there are no pangs to their death; but their body is fat. ⁵They are not in the misery of mortal man; and with men they are not touched. ⁶So pride enchains them; violence covers them like a robe. ⁷Their eyes go out with fatness; they have passed the imaginations of the heart. ⁸They scoff and speak in malice; from on high they speak cruelty. ⁹They set their mouth in the heavens; and their tongues walk through the earth. ¹⁰Because of this His people shall return here; and waters of a full cup shall be drained by them. ¹¹And they say, How does God know? and, Is there knowledge in the Most High? ¹²Behold! These are the ungodly, who are always at ease; they increase their riches.

¹³Surely I have purified my heart in vain; and I have washed my hands in innocence. ¹⁴For all the day long I was touched; and my chastening is at the mornings. ¹⁵If I say, This is the way I will speak; behold, I would deceive a generation of Your children. ¹⁶And although I thought, that I might understand this, it was painful in my eyes, ¹⁷until I went into the sanctuary of God; now I understood their end. ¹⁸Surely, You will set their feet in slippery places; You will make them fall into ruin. ¹⁹How they are destroyed in a moment, swept away with terrors! ²⁰Like a dream at the time from dreaming, O Lord, in awaking You will despise their image. ²¹For my heart was in a ferment, and I was pierced in my reins. ²²And I was brutish and did not know; I was like animals with You. ²³Yet I was continually with You; You have taken hold of my right hand. ²⁴You shall guide me by Your counsel; and afterward You will take me to glory. ²⁵Whom have I in Heaven? And I have no desire on earth besides You. ²⁶My flesh and my heart waste away; God is the rock of my heart and my portion forever. ²⁷For, lo, those who are far from You shall be lost; You have cut off all who go whoring away from You. ²⁸*As for me, it is good for me to draw near to God; I have made my refuge in the Lord Jehovah, to declare all Your works.*

A Lesson, of Asaph.

¹O God, have You cast us off forever; will Your anger smoke against the sheep of Your pasture? ²Remember Your congregation; You purchased them in days before; You redeemed us as the rod of

Your inheritance, this Mount Zion in which You have dwelt. ³Lift up Your steps to the perpetual desolations; the enemy who has done all evil in the sanctuary. ⁴Your vexers have roared in the middle of Your congregation; they set up their own signs for signs. ⁵He is known as one bringing axes in on high, against the thick trees. ⁶And now together they break down its carved work with the axe and hammers. ⁷They have cast fire in Your sanctuary; they have polluted the place where Your name dwells on the earth. ⁸They said in their hearts, Let us rage against them together; they have burned up all the meeting-places of God in the land. ⁹We did not see our signs; there is no longer a prophet; nor any among us who knows until when. ¹⁰O God, until when shall the enemy defame You? Shall the enemy scorn Your name forever? ¹¹Why do You withdraw Your hand, even Your right hand? From out of Your bosom, consume them.

¹²For God is my King of old, who works salvation in the midst of the land. ¹³You broke the sea by Your strength; You burst the heads of sea-monsters in the waters. ¹⁴You cracked open the heads of leviathan; You made him food for the people of the wilderness. ¹⁵You divided the fountain and the torrent; You dried up mighty rivers. ¹⁶The day is Yours, the night is also Yours; You have established the light and the sun. ¹⁷You have fixed all the boundaries of the earth; You have formed the summer and winter. ¹⁸Remember this: the enemy has defamed, O Jehovah; and a foolish people have scorned Your name. ¹⁹Do not give the soul of Your turtle-dove to the wild beasts; You will not forever forget the life of Your afflicted ones. ²⁰Look to Your covenant; for the dark places of the earth are full, the abodes of violence. ²¹O let not the ill-treated ones turn back ashamed; let the poor and needy praise Your name. ²²Arise, O God, contend for Your cause; remember Your reproach from the fool all the day. ²³Do not forget the voice of Your enemies; the noise of those rising up against You is going up continually.

To the Chief Musician. Do not destroy. A Psalm of Asaph. A Song.

¹We have given thanks to You, O God; we have given thanks; for Your name is near; Your wonderful works have been told. ²When I take the appointed time, I shall judge in uprightness. ³The earth and all of its inhabitants are melting away; I set firm its pillars. Selah.

⁴I said to the boastful, Do not boast; and to the wicked, Do not lift up the horn. ⁵Do not lift up your horn on high, do not speak with a stiff neck. ⁶For exaltations are not from the east, nor from the west, nor from the desert; ⁷but God is the judge; He puts down this one and lifts up this other. ⁸For a cup is in the hand of Jehovah; and the wine foams, it is fully mixed; and He pours out from it; surely all the wicked of the earth must drain its dregs and all drink. ⁹But I will witness forever; I will sing praises to the God of Jacob. ¹⁰And I will cut off all the horns of the wicked; but the horns of the righteous shall be lifted up.

To the Chief Musician. For stringed instruments. A Psalm of Asaph. A Song of Praise.

¹God is known in Judah; His name is great in Israel. ²And His abode is in Salem; and His dwelling-place in Zion. ³There He broke the fiery arrows of the bow, the shield, and the sword, and the battle. Selah. ⁴You are glorious, more excellent than the mountains of prey. ⁵The stout-hearted have been stripped; they slept their sleep; and none of the men of might have found their hands. ⁶By Your rebuke, O God of Jacob, both the horse and chariot have sunk into a sleep. ⁷You, even You, are terrifying; and who can stand before You when You are angry? ⁸You have caused judgment to be heard from Heaven; the earth feared and was stilled, ⁹when God arose to judgment, to save all the meek of the earth. Selah. ¹⁰For the wraths of man thank You; You encircle Yourself with the wraths left over. ¹¹Vow and pay to Jehovah your God; let all that are around Him bring presents to the Fearful One. ¹²He shall cut off the spirit in princes; He is feared by the kings of the earth.

To the Chief Musician. On Jeduthun. A Psalm of Asaph.

¹My voice is to God, and I cry; my voice is to God, and He gave ear to me. ²In the day of my distress I sought the Lord; my hand was open in the night and did not grow numb; my soul refused to be comforted. ³I remember God and am troubled; I meditate and my spirit faints. Selah.

⁴You seized the watches of my eyes; I am troubled, and I cannot speak. ⁵I thought upon the days of old, the years of bygone ages. ⁶I will remember my song in the night; I will speak with my own heart, and my spirit carefully searches. ⁷Will the Lord cast off forever; and will He not add to be pleased any more? ⁸Is His mercy gone forever? Has His word failed for all generations? ⁹Has God forgotten to be gracious; has He in anger shut up His tender mercies? Selah.

¹⁰And I said, This is my sickness, the years of the right hand of the Most High; ¹¹I will remember the works of Jehovah; surely I will remember Your wonders of old. ¹²I will also meditate on all Your works and muse of Your doings. ¹³O God, your way is in holiness; who is a God great like God? ¹⁴You are the God who does wonders; You have revealed Your strength among the peoples. ¹⁵You have redeemed Your people with Your power, the sons of Jacob and Joseph. Selah.

¹⁶The waters saw You, O God, the waters saw You; they were afraid; yea the deeps trembled. ¹⁷The clouds poured out water; the skies uttered a voice; and Your arrows flew out. ¹⁸The voice of Your thunder in the tempest; lightnings lit up the world; the earth trembled and quaked! ¹⁹Your way is in the sea; and Your path is in the great waters; and Your footsteps are not known. ²⁰You led Your people like a flock by the hand of Moses and Aaron.

A Lesson of Asaph.

¹O my people, listen to my law; bow your ears to the words of my mouth. ²I will open my mouth in a parable; I will pour forth dark sayings of old, ³those which we have heard and known, and our fathers have told us. ⁴We will not hide them from their sons; to declare to the coming generation the praises of Jehovah; yea, His strength and His wonderful works that He has done. ⁵For he raised a testimony in Jacob, and set a law in Israel; which he commanded our fathers, to teach them to their sons; ⁶so that a coming generation may know; sons shall be born, and they shall rise up and tell their sons, ⁷so that they might set their hope in God, and not forget the works of God, but keep His commandments.

⁸And they shall not be like their fathers, a stubborn and rebellious generation, a generation that prepared not its heart; yea, whose spirit was not faithful with God. ⁹The sons of Ephraim were armed shooters of bows; yet they turned back in the day of battle. ¹⁰They did not keep the covenant of God and refused to walk in His law. ¹¹And they forgot His works and His wonders which He had shown them; ¹²He did wonders before their fathers in the land of Egypt, the field of Zoan.

²²because they did not believe in God, and trusted not in His salvation. ²³And He commanded the fine clouds above; and He opened the doors of the heavens; ²⁴and He rained on them manna to eat; and He gave the grain of the heavens to them. ²⁵Man ate the bread of the mighty; He sent them food to the full. ²⁶He made an east wind blow in the heavens; and He led out the south wind by His power. ²⁷Yea, He rained flesh on them like dust, and winged birds as the sand of the seas. ²⁸And He made them fall amidst His camp, all around to His tents. ²⁹So they ate and were filled full; for their own lust He brought to them. ³⁰They were not estranged from their lust; their food was still in their mouths, ³¹and God's wrath came on them and killed the fattest of them; and He struck down the choice ones of Israel.

³²In all this they sinned still, and did not believe in His wonderful works; ³³and He ended their days in vanity, and their years in sudden terror. ³⁴When He killed them, then they sought Him; and they turned and searched for God. ³⁵So they remembered that God was their rock, and the Most High God their redeemer. ³⁶But they flattered Him with their mouth, and with their tongues lied to Him. ³⁷For their heart was not steadfast with Him; and they were not faithful in His covenant. ³⁸But He being merciful atoned for iniquity and did not destroy; and He added to turn away His anger, and did not stir up all his wrath. ³⁹For He remembered that they were flesh, a breath passing away, and not returning.

⁴⁰How often they disobeyed Him in the wilderness, angering Him in the desert! ⁴¹Yea, they turned back and tested God, and pained the Holy One of Israel. ⁴²They did not remember His hand, on the day He redeemed them from the enemy; ⁴³who set His signs in Egypt, and His wonders in the field of Zoan. ⁴⁴He turned their rivers into blood, also their streams that they might not drink. ⁴⁵He sent swarms of flies against them, and they devoured them; also frogs, and they destroyed them. ⁴⁶He also gave their crops to the stripping locust, and their labor to the locust. ⁴⁷He killed their vines with hail, and their sycamore trees with sleet. ⁴⁸He gave their cattle up to the hail, and their flocks to bolts of fire. ⁴⁹He sent the heat of His anger on them, fury and indignation and distress, a sending of angels of evils. ⁵⁰He leveled a path for His anger; He did not keep back their soul from death, but gave their life over to the plague. ⁵¹And he struck all the firstborn in Egypt, the firstfruits of strength in the tents of Ham; ⁵²and He led His people forth like sheep; and He led them like a flock in the wilderness. ⁵³And he led them on safely, and they did not fear; but the sea flooded over their enemies.

⁵⁴He brought them to the border of His holy place; this mountain that His right hand had gained. ⁵⁵And He cast out the nations before them; and by a line He made a possession fall to them; and He made the tribes of Israel to live in their tents. ⁵⁶Yet they tempted and provoked the most high God; and they did not keep His testimonies; ⁵⁷but they turned back and betrayed, like their fathers; they veered aside like a deceitful bow. ⁵⁸For they enraged Him with their high places; and they provoked Him to jealousy with their molten images. ⁵⁹When God heard, He was angry, and He utterly rejected Israel. ⁶⁰And He left the tabernacle of Shiloh; the tent He dwelt in among men; ⁶¹and delivered His strength into captivity, and His glory into the enemy's hands. ⁶²And He gave His people to the sword; and was angry with His inheritance. ⁶³The fire burned up His young men; and His virgins were not praised. ⁶⁴His priests fell by the sword; and their widows were not able to weep.

⁶⁵Then the Lord awoke, as one asleep; like a mighty man rejoicing with wine. ⁶⁶And He drove His enemies backward; He put them to a never-ending shame. ⁶⁷And He refused the tabernacle of Joseph; and He did not elect the tribe of Ephraim; ⁶⁸but He chose the tribe of Judah, the Mount Zion which He loved. ⁶⁹And He built His sanctuary like high places; like the earth He has founded forever. ⁷⁰He also chose His servant

David, and took him from the sheepfolds; ⁷¹He brought him in from the suckling ewes; He brought him to feed His people Jacob, and His inheritance, Israel. ⁷²And he fed them in the integrity of his heart; and guided them in the skillfulness of his hands.

A Psalm of Asaph.

¹O God, the nations have come into Your inheritance; they have defiled Your holy temple; they have laid Jerusalem in heaps. ²They have given the bodies of Your servants as food for the birds of the heavens; the flesh of Your saints to the beasts of the earth. ³They have shed their blood like water all around Jerusalem; and there is no one burying. ⁴We have become a shame to our neighbors, a scorn and a mockery to those who are around us. ⁵Until when, O Jehovah? Will You be angry with us forever? Shall Your jealousy burn like fire? ⁶Pour out Your wrath on the nations who have not known You, and on the kingdoms who have not called on Your name. ⁷For they have eaten up Jacob, and laid waste to his dwelling-place. ⁸O do not remember for us the sins of our first ones; let Your tender mercies meet us speedily, for we have been brought very low. ⁹Help us, O God of our salvation, for the matter of the glory of Your name; and deliver us and atone for our sins, for Your name's sake.

¹⁰Why should the nations say, Where is their God? Let Him be known among the nations before our eyes, the avenging of the blood of Your servants that has been poured out. ¹¹Let the groaning of the prisoner come before You; according to the greatness of Your arm, preserve the sons of death. ¹²And reward our neighbors sevenfold, Give into their bosom their curse with which they have cursed You, O Lord. ¹³Then we Your people, and sheep of Your pasture, will give thanks to You forever; we will declare Your praise to all generations.

To the Chief Musician. A Testimony. Concerning the Lilies. A Psalm of Asaph.

¹Give ear, O Shepherd of Israel, You leading Joseph like a flock; shine forth, You dwelling between the cherubs. ²Stir up Your might before Ephraim, and Benjamin, and Manasseh, and come for salvation. ³O God, turn us again, and make Your face shine, and we will be saved! ⁴O Jehovah God of Hosts, until when will You smoke against the prayer of Your people? ⁵You made them eat with the bread of tears; yea, You made them drink with tears a third time. ⁶You make us a strife for our neighbors, and our enemies laugh to themselves. ⁷O God of hosts, turn us again, and cause Your face to shine, and we will be saved.

⁸You have led a vine out of Egypt; You have cast out the nations, and have planted it. ⁹You cleared before it, and You have rooted its roots; and it has filled the land. ¹⁰The hills were covered with its shadow; and its boughs were as the great cedars. ¹¹It was sending its boughs out to the sea, and its branches to the River. ¹²Why have You broken down its walls, so that it is plucked by all who pass by the way? ¹³A boar out of the forest wastes it and the beast of the field feeds on it. ¹⁴O God of hosts, we beg You, return! Look down from Heaven and see and visit this vine, ¹⁵and the vineyard which Your right hand has planted, and on the Son You made strong for Yourself. ¹⁶*It is* burned with fire, cut down; they perish at the rebuke of Your face. ¹⁷Let Your hand be on the Man of Your right hand; on the Son of man whom You have made strong for Yourself. ¹⁸So we will not backslide from You; make us live, and we will call on Your name.

¹⁹O Jehovah, God of hosts, turn us again! Cause Your face to shine, and we will be saved.

PSALM 81

To the Chief Musician. On Gittith. Of Asaph.

¹Sing aloud to God our strength; shout for joy to the God of Jacob. ²Lift up a song, and the timbrel here, the pleasing lyre with the harp. ³Blow the ram's horn in the new moon, at the full moon, on our feast day. ⁴For this was a statute for Israel, an ordinance of the God of Jacob. ⁵This He ordained as a testimony in Joseph, when He went out over the land of Egypt; I heard a lip I did not understand. ⁶I removed his shoulder from the burden; his hands were freed from the basket. ⁷You called in distress, and I rescued you; I answered you in the secret place of thunder; I tested you at the waters of Meribah. Selah.

⁸O My people, listen, and I will testify against you, whether you will listen to Me: ⁹There shall be no strange god among you; nor shall you worship a foreign god—¹⁰*I am* Jehovah your God, who brought you out from the land of Egypt; open your mouth wide, and I will fill it. ¹¹But My people would not listen to My voice; and Israel did not consent to Me. ¹²So I gave them up to the stubbornness of their own hearts; they walked in their own conceits.

¹³O if My people had listened to me! If Israel had walked in My ways, ¹⁴I would have subdued their enemies in a little; and I would have turned My hand against their foes — ¹⁵the haters of Jehovah shall be found untrue to Him, and their time is forever. ¹⁶Yea, He would caused them to eat from the fat of the wheat; and I would have satisfied you with honey out of the rock.

A Psalm of Asaph

¹God stands in the assembly of God; He judges in the midst of the gods. ²Until when will you judge unjustly, and lift up the faces of the wicked? Selah.

³Judge the poor and fatherless; do justice to the afflicted and needy. ⁴Deliver the poor and needy; save out of the hand of the wicked. ⁵They neither know nor will understand; they walk in darkness; all the foundations of the earth are shaken.

⁶I have said, You are gods, and all of you sons of the Most High. ⁷but you shall die as man, and fall like one of the rulers. ⁸Rise, O God, judge the earth; for You shall inherit in all the nations.

A Song. A Psalm of Asaph.

¹O God, do not keep silence to Yourself; do not be speechless; yea, do not be still, O God. ²For lo, Your enemies are roaring; and those who hate You have lifted up their head. ³They take shrewd counsel against Your people; they plot against Your hidden ones. ⁴They have said, Come, and we will cut them off from being a nation, and, The name of Israel will not be recalled again. ⁵For they plotted together with one heart; they have cut a covenant against You; ⁶*even* the tents of Edom, and of the Ishmaelites; Moab and the Hagarites; ⁷Gebal and Ammon, and Amalek; Philistia and the inhabitants of Tyre. ⁸Also Assyria has joined with them; they were an arm to the sons of Lot. Selah.

⁹Do to them as to Midian, as to Sisera, as to Jabin at the torrent Kishon. ¹⁰At Endor they were destroyed; they became dung for the ground. ¹¹Make their nobles as Oreb and Zeeb, and all their princes like Zebah and Zalmunna; ¹²who said, Let us take possession of God's pastures for ourselves.

¹³O my God, make them as whirling dust, as the stubble before the wind. ¹⁴As the fire burns a forest, and as the flame sets the mountains on fire, ¹⁵so pursue them with Your tempest, and frighten them with Your storm. ¹⁶Fill their faces with shame, and they will seek Your name, O Jehovah. ¹⁷Let them be ashamed and terrified forever; yea, let them be confounded and perish. ¹⁸And let them know — Your name is Jehovah — that You alone are the Most High over all the earth.

To the Chief Musician. On Gittith. A Psalm for the sons of Korah

¹How lovely are Your dwellings, O Jehovah of hosts! ²My soul longs and even faints for the courts of Jehovah; my heart and my flesh cry out for the living God. ³Even the sparrow has found a house, and the swallow a nest for herself, where she may lay her young, on Your altars, O Jehovah of hosts, my King and my God.

⁴Blessed are they who dwell in Your house; they will always be praising You. Selah.

⁵Blessed is the man whose strength is in You; the highways are in their hearts. ⁶Passing through the valley of weeping, they will make it a fountain; yea, the rain clothes with blessings. ⁷They go from strength to strength, being seen in Zion before God. ⁸O Jehovah God of hosts, hear my prayer; give ear, O God of Jacob. Selah.

⁹Behold, O God, our shield; and look upon the face of Your anointed. ¹⁰For a day in Your courts is better than a thousand; I have chosen to stand at the threshold in the house of my God, rather than to dwell in the tents of wickedness. ¹¹For Jehovah God is a sun and shield; Jehovah will give grace and glory; He will withhold nothing good from those who walk in integrity. ¹²O Jehovah of hosts, blessed is the man who trusts in You!

To the Chief Musician. A Psalm for the sons of Korah

¹O Jehovah, You have been gracious to Your land; You have turned back the captivity of Jacob. ²You have taken away the iniquity of Your people; You covered all of their sins. Selah.

³You gathered all of Your wrath; You turned from the heat of Your anger. ⁴O God of our salvation, turn us, and break up Your anger with us. ⁵Will You be angry with us forever? ⁶Will You give us life anew, so that Your people may rejoice in You? ⁷Cause us to see Your mercy, O Jehovah, and give us Your salvation.

⁸I will hear what Jehovah God will say; for He will speak peace to His people, and to His saints; but let them not turn again to folly. ⁹Surely His salvation is near to fearers of Him; for glory to dwell in our land. ¹⁰Mercy and truth have met together; righteousness and peace kissed each other. ¹¹Truth shall sprout out of the earth, and righteousness looks down from Heaven. ¹²Yea, Jehovah shall give good, and our land shall give its produce.

¹Righteousness shall go before Him, and shall make a way for His footsteps.

Psalm 86

A Psalm of David

¹O Jehovah, bow down Your ear, answer me, for I am poor and needy.
²Guard my soul, for I am godly; O You my God, save Your servant who trusts in You.
³Be gracious to Me, O Lord, for I cry to You daily.
⁴Give joy to the soul of Your servant; for to You, O Lord, I lift up my soul.
⁵For You, O Lord, are good and ready to forgive; and rich in mercy to all who call on You.
⁶O Lord, give ear to my prayer; listen to my voice of supplications.
⁷I will call on You in the day of my trouble, for You will answer me.
⁸None among the gods is like You, O Lord; nor any like Your works.
⁹All nations whom You have made shall come and worship before You; yea, Lord, they shall glorify Your name.
¹⁰For You are great, and do wonderful things; You alone are God.

¹¹Teach me Your way, O Jehovah; I will walk in Your truth; unite my heart to fear Your name.
¹²With all my heart I will thank You, O Lord my God; and I will glorify Your name forevermore.
¹³For Your mercy toward me is great; and You have delivered my soul from the lowest Sheol.
¹⁴O God, the proud have risen against me; and the troop of the violent have sought after my life, and have not set You before their eyes.
¹⁵But You, O God, are God, full of pity; and gracious, long-suffering and rich in mercy and truth.
¹⁶O turn to me and be gracious to me; give Your strength to Your servant, and save the son of Your handmaid.
¹⁷Show me a token for good, that those who hate me may see and be ashamed, O Jehovah, because You have helped me and comforted me.

PSALM 87

For the Sons of Korah. A Psalm. A Song.

¹His foundation is in the holy mountains.
²Jehovah loves the gates of Zion more than all the tents of Jacob.
³Glorious

things are spoken of you, O city of God. Selah.

⁴I will mention Rahab and Babylon to those who know me; behold, Philistia and Tyre with Ethiopia; this man was born there.
⁵And it shall be said to Zion, This man and that man was born in her; and the Highest Himself shall establish her.
⁶In recording the peoples Jehovah shall mark down, This man was born there. Selah.

⁷And the singers, the players of the pipe; all my springs are in You.

PSALM 88

A Song. A Psalm for the Sons of Korah, to the Chief Musician on Mahalath, to make humble. A Poem of Heman the Ezrahite.

¹O Jehovah God of my salvation, I have cried in the day, in the night before You.
²Let my prayer come before You; bow down Your ear to my cry.
³For my soul is full with evils; and my life touches Sheol.
⁴I am counted with those who go down to the Pit; I have been like a feeble man, ⁵free among the dead, as pierced ones lying in the grave, whom You remember no more; yea, by Your hand they are cut off.
⁶You have laid me in the lowest pit, in dark places; in the deeps.
⁷Your fury has lain hard upon me, and You afflict me with all Your waves. Selah.

⁸You have taken my friends away from me; You have made me a hateful thing to them; I am shut up, I cannot go out.
⁹My eye mourns because of affliction; O Jehovah, I have called on You every day; I have spread out my hands to You.
¹⁰For will You do wonders to the dead? Or shall the departed spirits rise and thank You? Selah.

¹¹Shall Your mercy be declared in the grave; Your faithfulness amidst ruin?
¹²Shall Your wonders be known in the dark, and Your righteousness in the land of forgetfulness.
¹³But to You I have cried, O Jehovah; and in the morning my prayer shall go before You.
¹⁴O Jehovah, why do You cast off my soul; why do You hide Your face from me?
¹⁵*I am* afflicted and dying from childhood; I suffer Your terrors; I am distracted.
¹⁶Your fierce wrath

goes over me; Your terrors have cut me off.

¹⁷They surrounded me like waters all the day long; they have come together around me. ¹⁸You have taken lover and friend far from me; he who knows me, into darkness.

A Poem of Ethan the Ezrahite.

¹I will sing of the mercies of Jehovah forever; I will declare with my mouth Your faithfulness to all generations. ²For I have said, Mercy shall be built up forever; You shall establish Your faithfulness in the heavens.

⁵And the heavens shall thank Your wonders, O Jehovah; also Your faithfulness in the assembly of the saints. ⁶For who in the heaven shall be ranked with Jehovah, who among the sons of the mighty is like Jehovah? ⁷God is greatly to be feared in the congregation of the saints, and to be adored by all around Him. ⁸O Jehovah God of hosts, who is a strong Jehovah like You? And Your faithfulness is all around You. ⁹You rule the pride of the the sea; when its waves rise high, You still them. ¹⁰You have broken Rahab in pieces, as one slain; You have scattered Your enemies with Your mighty arm. ¹¹The heavens are yours, and the earth is Yours—the world and its fullness—You founded them. ¹²You have created the north and the south; Tabor and Herman rejoice in Your name. ¹³You have a mighty arm; Your hand is strong, Your right hand is high. ¹⁴Justice and righteousness are Your throne's foundation; mercy and truth go before Your face. ¹⁵Blessed is the people knowing the joyful sound; O Jehovah, they shall walk in the light of Your face. ¹⁶They shall rejoice in Your name always; and they are exalted in Your righteousness. ¹⁷For you are the glory of their strength; and by Your favor You lift up our horn. ¹⁸For Jehovah is our shield, and the Holy One of Israel our King.

¹⁹Then You spoke in a vision to Your holy one; and You said, I have laid help on a mighty one. I have exalted a chosen one from the people. ²⁰I have found My servant David; I have anointed him with My holy oil. ²¹My hand shall be fixed with him; and My arm shall make him strong. ²²An enemy will not exact against him; nor the son of iniquity afflict him. ²³And I will beat down his foes before Him, and plague those hating him. ²⁴But My faithfulness and My mercy is with him; and his horn shall be exalted in My name. ²⁵And I will set his hand in the sea, and his right hand in the rivers. ²⁶He shall cry to Me, My father You are my God, and the rock of my salvation. ²⁷And I will make him My firstborn; higher than the kings of the earth. ²⁸I will keep My mercy for him forever; and My covenant shall hold fast with him. ²⁹And I have established his seed forever, and his throne as the days of the heavens. ³⁰If his children forsake My law and do not walk in My judgments; ³¹if they profane My statutes and do not keep My commands; ³²then I will visit their transgressions with the rod, and their sins with stripes. ³³But I will not annul My mercy from him, and I will not be false in My faithfulness. ³⁴I will not profane My covenant, nor change what goes from My lips. ³⁵Once I have sworn by My holiness; I will not lie to David. ³⁶His seed shall be forever, and his throne as the sun before Me. ³⁷Like the moon, it shall be forever; and a faithful witness in the sky. Selah.

³⁸But You have cast off and rejected us; You have been angry with Your anointed. ³⁹You have turned away from the covenant of your servant; You have defiled his crown on the ground. ⁴⁰You have broken down all his hedges; You have brought his strongholds to ruin. ⁴¹All who pass by the way plunder him; he is a curse to his neighbors. ⁴²You have set up the right hand of his enemies; You have made all his enemies rejoice. ⁴³And you have turned back the edge of his sword, and have not held him up in battle. ⁴⁴You have made his glory to cease and have hurled his throne to the ground. ⁴⁵You have shortened the days of his youth; You have covered him with shame. Selah.

⁴⁶O Jehovah, until when will You hide Yourself? Shall Your wrath burn like fire forever? ⁴⁷Remember, I pray, the time of my life; for what vanity have you created all the sons of men? ⁴⁸What man lives and never sees death? Shall he deliver his soul from the hand of Sheol? Selah. ⁴⁹O Lord, where are Your former kindnesses, that You swore to David in Your faithfulness? ⁵⁰Remember, O Lord, the reproach of Your servants; my bearing in my bosom the insults of the many peoples; ⁵¹*with* which Your enemies have cursed, O Jehovah; with which they have cursed the footsteps of Your anointed.

⁵²Blessed be Jehovah forever. Amen and amen!

A Prayer of Moses the Man of God.

¹O Lord, You have been our dwelling-place in all generations. ²Before the mountains were born, or ever You had formed the earth and the world; even from everlasting to everlasting You are God. ³You turn man to dust, and say, Return, O sons of men. ⁴For a thousand years in Your eyes are as yesterday when it passes, and as a watch in the night. ⁵You flooded them away; they are as a sleep; in the morning they are like grass growing; ⁶in the morning it sprouts and shoots up; in the evening it withers and dries up. ⁷For we are consumed by Your anger, and we are troubled by Your wrath. ⁸You have set our iniquities before You, our secret sins in the light of Your face. ⁹For all our days pass away in Your wrath; we finish our years like a murmur. ¹⁰The days of our years are seventy; and if any by strength live eighty years, yet their pride is labor and vanity; for it soon passes, and we fly away. ¹¹Who knows the power of Your anger? And as Your fear is, so is Your fury. ¹²So teach us to number our days, so that we may bring a heart of wisdom. ¹³Return, O Jehovah! Until when? And give pity to Your servants. ¹⁴O satisfy us in the morning with Your mercy, and we will be glad and rejoice all our days. ¹⁵Make us glad according to the days of our affliction, the years in which we have seen evil. ¹⁶Let Your work appear to Your servants, and Your majesty to their sons. ¹⁷And let the delight of the Lord our God be upon us; and establish the works of our hands upon us; yea, the work of our hands, establish it!

¹He who dwells in the secret place of the Most High shall abide in the shade of the Almighty. ²I will say to Jehovah: My refuge and my fortress, my God; I will trust in Him. ³For He delivers you from the fowler's trap, from destruction's plague. ⁴With His feathers He will cover you, and under His wings you shall seek refuge; His truth is a shield and buckler. ⁵You shall not fear the terror of night, of the arrow that flies by day; ⁶of the plague that walks in darkness; of the destruction laying waste at noonday. ⁷A thousand shall fall by your side, and ten thousand at your right hand; it shall not come near you. ⁸Only with your eyes you shall look, and see the reward of the wicked. ⁹Because You, O Jehovah, are my refuge; you make the Most High your habitation. ¹⁰No evil shall happen to You, nor shall any plague come near Your tent. ¹¹For He shall give His angels charge over You, to keep You in all Your ways. ¹²They shall bear You up in their hands, that You not dash Your foot on a stone. ¹³You shall tread on the lion and adder; the young lion and the serpent You shall trample underfoot. ¹⁴Because he has set his love on Me, therefore I will deliver him; I will set him on high because he has known my name. ¹⁵He shall call on Me and I will answer him; I will be with him in distress; I will rescue him and honor him. ¹⁶I will satisfy him with length of days and will make him see My salvation.

PSALM 92

A Psalm, A Song for the Sabbath Day.

—on the lyre with sounding music. ⁴For You have rejoiced me with Your work, O Jehovah; I will shout in the works of Your hands. ⁵O Jehovah, Your purposes are very deep. How great are Your works! ⁶An animal-like man does not know; a fool does not understand this. ⁷When the wicked flourish like grass; and all the evildoers blossom; it is for them to be destroyed forever. ⁸But You, O Jehovah, are exalted forever. ⁹For, lo, Your enemies, O Jehovah; for, lo, Your enemies shall perish; all the evildoers shall be scattered. ¹⁰But You will lift up my horn as the wild ox, and I will be anointed with fresh oil. ¹¹And my eye shall look on my enemies; my ears shall hear the evildoers who rise up against me. ¹²The righteous shall flourish as the palm tree; he shall grow like a cedar in Lebanon. ¹³Those planted in the house of Jehovah, in the courts of our God, shall flourish. ¹⁴They shall bear fruit in old age; they shall be fat and fresh; ¹⁵*to* declare that Jehovah is upright, my rock! And in Him is no evil.

¹Jehovah reigns! He is clothed with majesty; Jehovah is clothed with strength; He girded Himself; and the world is established; it shall not be shaken. ²Your throne is established from then; You are from everlasting. ³The floods have lifted up; O Jehovah, the floods have lifted up their voice; the floods have lifted their roaring waves. ⁴Jehovah on high is mightier than the noise of many waters, than the mighty waves of the sea. ⁵Your testimonies are very sure; holiness becomes Your house to length of days, O Jehovah.

¹O Jehovah, God of vengeance; O God of vengeance, shine forth! ²Lift up Yourself, O judge of the earth; give a just repayment on the proud. ³O Jehovah, until when shall the wicked exult? ⁴They gush; they speak impudent things; all the workers of evil speak proudly. ⁵O Jehovah, they crush Your people and afflict Your inheritance. ⁶They kill the widow and the stranger, and murder the orphan. ⁷Yet they say, The Lord shall not see, nor shall the God of Jacob observe. ⁸Understand, you beastly ones among the people; yea, you fools, when will you be wise? ⁹He who planted the ear, shall He not hear? He who formed the eye, shall He not see? ¹⁰He who chastises the nations, shall He not punish—He who teaches man knowledge?

¹¹Jehovah knows the thoughts of man, that they are vain. ¹²Blessed is the man You chasten, O Jehovah, You teach him out of Your law; ¹³*to* give him rest from troubled days, until the pit is dug for the wicked. ¹⁴For Jehovah will not leave His people; nor will He forsake His inheritance. ¹⁵For judgment shall turn to righteousness; and all the upright in heart shall follow after it. ¹⁶Who will rise up for Me against the evildoers? Who will stand up for Me against the workers of evil? ¹⁷Unless Jehovah had been my help, my soul would almost have dwelt in silence. ¹⁸If I said, My foot slides, O Jehovah, Your mercy has held me up. ¹⁹In the multitude of my inward thoughts, Your comforts delight my soul. ²⁰Shall the throne of iniquity have fellowship with You, devising mischief for a statute? ²¹They gather themselves together against the soul of the righteous, and condemn the blood of the innocent. ²²But Jehovah is my tower of defense; and my God is the rock of my refuge. ²³And He shall turn their own evil upon them; and He shall cut them off in their own wickedness; and in their evil He shall cut them off. Jehovah our God shall cut them off!

¹O come, let us sing to Jehovah; let us make a joyful noise to the Rock of our salvation. ²Let us come before His face with praise; let us shout for joy to Him with songs. ³For Jehovah is a great God, and a great King above all gods. ⁴The deep places of the earth are in His hand; the summits of the mountains also are His. ⁵The sea is His, and He made it; and His hands formed the dry land. ⁶O come, let us worship and bow down; let us kneel before Jehovah our Maker. ⁷For He is our God; and we are the people of His pasture, and the sheep of His hand. Today, if you will hear His voice, ⁸do not harden your heart as in Meribah; as in the day of Massah in the wilderness; ⁹when your fathers tempted Me, they tested Me and they saw My work. ¹⁰For forty years I was disgusted with this generation; and I said, They are a people who err in heart; and, They do not know My ways, ¹¹to whom I swore in My anger, They shall not enter into My rest.

¹O sing to Jehovah a new song; sing to Jehovah, all the earth. ²Sing to Jehovah; bless His name, bear news of His salvation day by day. ³Tell of His glory among the nations, His wonders among all people. ⁴For Jehovah is great and greatly to be praised; He is to be feared above all gods. ⁵For all the gods of the peoples are idols; but Jehovah made the heavens. ⁶Honor and majesty are before Him; strength and beauty are in His sanctuary. ⁷Give to Jehovah, O families of the people; give to Jehovah glory and might. ⁸Give to Jehovah the glory due His name; bring an offering and come in to His courts. ⁹O worship Jehovah in the beauty of holiness; tremble before Him, all the earth. ¹⁰Say among the nations, Jehovah reigns; and, The world shall be established, it shall not be moved; He shall judge the peoples in uprightness. ¹¹Let the heavens be glad, and let the earth rejoice; let the sea roar, and the fullness of it. ¹²Let the field be joyful, and all that is in it; then the trees of the forest shall rejoice ¹³before Jehovah; for He comes; for He comes to judge the earth; He shall judge the world with righteousness, and the people with His faithfulness.

¹Jehovah reigns; let the earth rejoice; let the multitude of islands be glad. ²Clouds and darkness are all around Him; righteousness and judgment are the foundation of His throne. ³A fire goes before Him and burns up His enemies all around.

⁴His lightnings lit up the world; the earth saw and trembled. ⁵The mountains melted like wax before the face of Jehovah; before the face of Jehovah of the whole earth. ⁶The heavens declare His righteousness and all the people see His glory. ⁷All who serve graven images are shamed, those who boast themselves in idols; all gods bow down before Him.

⁸Zion heard and was glad; yea, the daughters of Judah rejoiced because of Your judgments, O Jehovah. ⁹For You, Jehovah, are exalted above all the earth; You are lifted on high far above all gods. ¹⁰You who love Jehovah, hate evil; He keeps the souls of His saints; He delivers them out of the hand of the wicked. ¹¹Light is sown for the righteous, and gladness for the upright in heart. ¹²Be glad in Jehovah, O righteous ones; give thanks to the memory of His holiness.

A Psalm.

¹O sing to Jehovah a new song; for He has done wondrous things; His right hand and His holy arm has saved Him. ²Jehovah has revealed His salvation; He unveiled His righteousness to the eyes of the nations. ³He has remembered His mercy and His faithfulness to the house of Israel; all the ends of the earth have seen the salvation of our God. ⁴Make a joyful noise to Jehovah, all the earth; break out and rejoice and sing praise. ⁵Sing praise to Jehovah with the lyre; with the lyre and the voice of a song. ⁶With trumpets and the sound of a horn, make a joyful noise before Jehovah the King. ⁷Let the sea roar, and the fullness of it; the world, and those who live in it. ⁸Let the rivers clap their hands; let the heights shout for joy together ⁹before Jehovah; for He comes to judge the earth; with righteousness He shall judge the world, and the peoples in uprightness.

¹Jehovah reigns; let the peoples tremble; He sits upon the cherubs; let the earth quake. ²Jehovah is great in Zion; and He is high above all the peoples. ³They shall thank Your great and fearful name; it is holy.

⁶Moses and Aaron were among His priests; and Samuel was among those who called on His name; they called to Jehovah, and He answered them. ⁷He spoke to them in the cloudy pillar; they kept His testimonies and the law that He gave to them. ⁸You answered them, O Jehovah our God; You were a God who forgives to them, but taking vengeance on their works. ⁹Exalt Jehovah our God and worship at His holy hill; for Jehovah our God is holy.

A Psalm of Thanksgiving.

¹Shout joyfully to Jehovah, all you lands. ²Worship Jehovah with gladness; come before His face with joyful singing. ³Know that Jehovah, He is God; He has made us, and not we ourselves — His people and the sheep of His pasture. ⁴Enter into His gates with thanksgiving; into His courts with praise; be thankful to Him; bless His name. ⁵For Jehovah is good; His mercy is everlasting, and His faithfulness to generation and generation.

A Psalm of David.

¹I will sing of mercy and judgment; to You O Jehovah, I will sing praise. ²I will behave myself wisely in a perfect way; O when will You come to me? I will walk in the integrity of my heart in the midst of my house. ³I will set no wicked thing before my eyes; I have hated the work of those who turn aside; it shall not fasten upon me. ⁴A perverse heart shall depart from me; I will not know evil. ⁵Whoever secretly slanders his neighbor, I will cut him off; I will not endure him who has high eyes and a proud heart. ⁶My eyes shall be on the faithful of the land, so that they may dwell with Me; he who walks in a perfect way shall serve Me. ⁷He who works falsely shall not live inside my house; he who speaks lies shall not be established before My eyes. ⁸In the mornings I will cut off all the wicked of the land; so that I may cut off all the evil workers from the city of Jehovah.

A Prayer of the afflicted, when he is faint and pours out his complaint before Jehovah.

¹Hear my prayer, O Jehovah, and let my cry come to You. ²Do not hide Your face from me in the day of my trouble; bow down Your ear to me in the day I call; answer me quickly. ³For my days are finished in smoke, and my bones glow like a firebrand. ⁴My heart is stricken and dried like grass, so that I forget to eat my bread. ⁵Because of the voice of my sighing, my bones cleave to my flesh. ⁶I am like a pelican of the wilderness; I am like an owl of the desert. ⁷I watch and am like a sparrow alone on the housetop. ⁸My enemies curse me all the day long; those who rave against me have sworn against me. ⁹For I have eaten ashes like bread, and have mixed my drink with weeping; ¹⁰because of Your anger and Your wrath; for You have lifted me and cast me down. ¹¹My days are like a shadow stretched out, and I wither like grass.

¹²But You, O Jehovah, shall dwell forever, and Your memory to generation and generation. ¹³You shall arise; have mercy on Zion; for the time to pity her, yea, the appointed time has come. ¹⁴For Your servants take pleasure in its stones, and pity its dust. ¹⁵So nations shall fear the name of Jehovah, and all the kings of the earth Your glory. ¹⁶When Jehovah shall build up Zion, He shall appear in His glory. ¹⁷He will turn to the prayer of the destitute, and will not despise their prayer. ¹⁸This shall be written for the generation to come; and people to be created shall praise Jehovah. ¹⁹For He has looked down from the height of His sanctuary; Jehovah looked from Heaven to the earth; ²⁰to hear the groaning of the prisoner, to set free the sons of death; ²¹to

²³He diminished my strength in the way; He shortened my days. ²⁴I said, O my God, do not take me up in the half of my days; Your years are through the generation of generations. ²⁵You have laid the foundation of the earth of old; and the heavens are the work of Your hands. ²⁶They shall perish, but You shall endure; yea, all of them shall become old like a garment; You shall change them like clothing, and they shall be changed. ²⁷But You are He, and Your years shall not be ended. ²⁸The sons of Your servants shall dwell; and their seed shall be established before You.

Of David.

¹Bless Jehovah, O my soul; and all within me, bless His holy name. ²Bless Jehovah, O my soul, and forget not all His rewards; ³who forgives all your iniquities; who heals all your diseases; ⁴who redeems your life from destruction; who crowns you with kindness and tender mercies; ⁵who satisfies your desire with good; your youth is renewed like the eagle's.

⁶Jehovah works righteousness and judgments for all the oppressed. ⁷He made known His ways to Moses, His acts to the sons of Israel. ⁸Jehovah is merciful and gracious, slow to anger, and of much mercy. ⁹He will not always chasten, nor will He keep His anger forever. ¹⁰He has not done to us according to our sins, nor rewarded us according to our iniquities. ¹¹For as the heavens are above the earth, so is His mercy mighty over those who fear Him. ¹²As far as the east is from the west, so far has He removed our transgressions from us. ¹³As the pity of a father over his sons, so Jehovah pities those who fear Him. ¹⁴For He knows how we are made, remembering that we are dust. ¹⁵As for man, his days are as grass; as the flower of the field, so he flourishes. ¹⁶For the wind passes over it, and it is not; and its place never knows it again. ¹⁷But the mercy of Jehovah is from everlasting, even to everlasting, on those who fear Him; yea, His righteousness is to the sons of sons; ¹⁸to those who keep His covenant, and to those who remember His commandments, to do them.

¹⁹Jehovah has prepared His throne in Heaven; and His kingdom rules over all. ²⁰Bless Jehovah, O angels of His; mighty in strength; doing His word; listening to the voice of His word. ²¹Bless Jehovah, all His hosts; ministers of His, doing His will. ²²Bless Jehovah, all His works in all the places of His dominion; bless Jehovah, O my soul.

¹Bless Jehovah, O my soul! O Jehovah my God, You are very great; You have put on honor and majesty, ²covering Yourself with light like a cloak, and stretching out the heavens like a curtain; ³who lays beams in the waters of His upper rooms; setting thick clouds as His chariots; walking on the wings of the wind. ⁴He makes His angels spirits, His ministers a flaming fire. ⁵He founded the earth on its foundations; it shall not be shaken forever and ever. ⁶You have covered the deep as with a robe; the waters stood above the mountains. ⁷From Your rebuke, they flee; from the sound of Your thunder, they hurry away. ⁸They go up the mountains; they go down the valleys to the place which You founded for them. ⁹You have set a boundary; they may not pass over; they shall not return to cover the earth. ¹⁰He sends springs into the valleys; they flow between the hills; ¹¹they give drink to every animal of the field; wild asses break their thirst; ¹²over them the birds of the heavens dwell; they give voice from between the branches. ¹³He waters the hills from His upper rooms; the earth is satisfied from the fruit of Your works. ¹⁴He causes the grass to grow for the livestock and plants for the service of man; to bring food out of the earth. ¹⁵And wine cheers the heart of man; oil makes his face shine; and bread sustains the heart of man.

¹⁶The trees of Jehovah are satisfied; the cedars of Lebanon that He planted; ¹⁷there where the birds nest; the fir trees are the house of the stork; ¹⁸*high hills are* for the wild goats; rocks are a refuge for the badgers. ¹⁹He made the moon for seasons; the sun knows its going down. ²⁰You put darkness, and it is night; in it all the forest animals creep. ²¹The young lions roar for prey, and to seek their food from God. ²²The sun rises; they are gathered, and go to their dens to lie down. ²³Man goes out to his work, and to his labor until the evening.

²⁴O Jehovah, how many are Your works! You have made all of them in wisdom; the earth is full of Your riches. ²⁵This is the sea, great and wide on both hands; there are creeping things even without number; living things, small and great. ²⁶There the ships go; You formed this great sea-animal to play in it. ²⁷All of them wait for You to give them their food in due season. ²⁸You give to them; they gather; You open Your hand, and they are filled with good. ²⁹You hide Your face, and they are troubled; You gather Your breath, and they expire and return to their dust. ³⁰You send out Your Spirit, and they are created; and You renew the face of the earth. ³¹The glory of Jehovah shall be forever; Jehovah shall rejoice in His works. ³²He looks to the earth, and it trembles; He touches the hills, and they smoke. ³³I will sing to Jehovah during my life; I will sing praise to my God while I exist. ³⁴My thoughts on Him shall be sweet; I will be glad in Jehovah. ³⁵Let sinners perish from the earth and let the wicked be no more; bless Jehovah, O my soul; praise Jehovah!

¹O give thanks to Jehovah; call on His name; make His deeds known among the peoples.

are in all the earth; ⁸He has remembered His covenant forever; the word He commanded to a thousand generations; ⁹which He cut with Abraham, and His oath to Isaac; ¹⁰and He established it to Jacob for a statute, to Israel for a perpetual covenant; ¹¹saying, To you I will give the land of Canaan, the portion of your inheritance; ¹²when they were a few men of number; very few, and strangers in it. ¹³And they went about from nation to nation; from one kingdom to another people. ¹⁴He allowed no man to oppress them; yea, He reproved kings for their sakes; ¹⁵saying, Touch not My anointed; and, Do My prophets no harm. ¹⁶And He called a famine on the land; He broke the whole staff of bread. ¹⁷He sent a man before them—Joseph, being sold for a slave; ¹⁸they hurt his feet with chains; his soul came into iron; ¹⁹until the time His word came; the word of Jehovah refined him; ²⁰the king, the ruler of peoples, sent and released him; even set him free; ²¹he made him lord of his house, and ruler over all he owned; ²²to bind his leaders at his will, and to teach his elders wisdom.

²³Israel also came into Egypt, and Jacob sojourned in the land of Ham. ²⁴And He greatly increased His people, and made them stronger than their enemies. ²⁵He turned their heart to hate His people, to deal craftily with His servants. ²⁶He sent His servant Moses; and Aaron whom He had chosen. ²⁷They put things of His signs among them; yea, miracles in the land of Ham. ²⁸He sent darkness and made it dark; and they did not rebel against His word. ²⁹He turned their waters into blood and killed their fish. ³⁰The land swarmed with frogs in the rooms of their kings. ³¹He spoke, and fly-swarms came; even gnats in all their borders. ³²He gave hail for their rain, flaming fire in their land. ³³He struck their vines also, and their fig-trees; and He broke the trees of their borders. ³⁴He spoke, and locusts came; and larvae without number; ³⁵and they ate up all the plants in the land; and ate the fruit of their ground. ³⁶He also struck all the firstborn in their land, the firstfruit of all their vigor.

³⁷And He led them out with silver and gold; and among their tribes, not one was stumbling. ³⁸Egypt was glad when they went out, for their dread had fallen on them. ³⁹He spread a cloud for a covering; and fire to give light in the night. ⁴⁰He asked, and He brought quail; and satisfied them with the food from the heavens. ⁴¹He opened the rock, and waters gushed out; they went in the dry places like a river. ⁴²For He remembered His holy word, and His servant Abraham; ⁴³and He brought His people out with joy; His chosen ones with gladness. ⁴⁴And He gave to them the lands of the nations; and they inherited the labor of the peoples; ⁴⁵so that they might observe His statutes and keep His laws. Praise Jehovah!

¹Praise Jehovah! Give thanks to Jehovah, for He is good; for His mercy endures forever. ²Who can express the mighty deeds of Jehovah, or cause all His praise to be heard? ³Blessed are those keeping judgment; he who does righteousness in every season. ⁴Remember me, Jehovah, with the favor of Your people; O visit me with Your salvation, ⁵to see the good of Your chosen ones; to rejoice in the joy of Your nation; to glory with Your inheritance.

⁶We have sinned with our fathers; we did iniquity; we did wrong. ⁷Our fathers did not understand Your wonders in Egypt; they did not remember Your many mercies; and they rebelled at the sea, at the Sea of Reeds. ⁸But He saved them for His name's sake, to make known His might. ⁹And He rebuked the Sea of Reeds; and it dried up; and He made them go through the depths, as through the wilderness. ¹⁰And He saved them from the hand of the hater, and ransomed him from the hand of the enemy; ¹¹and water covered their enemies; not one of them was left. ¹²Then they believed His words; they sang His praise. ¹³They hurried and forgot His works; they did not wait for His counsel; ¹⁴and they greedily lusted in the wilderness, and tested God in the desert. ¹⁵And He gave their request to them, but sent wasting into their soul. ¹⁶And they were jealous of Moses the saint of Jehovah, in the camp of Aaron; ¹⁷the earth opened up and swallowed Dathan; and covered the company of Abiram. ¹⁸And a fire burned in their company; the flame burned up the wicked.

¹⁹They made a calf in Horeb, and fell down before the casted image; ²⁰and they changed their Glory into the image of an ox eating grass. ²¹They forgot God their deliverer, doing great things in Egypt; ²²wonders in the land of Ham; awesome things by the Sea of Reeds. ²³And He said to destroy them; except Moses His chosen one had stood before Him in the breach, to turn away His wrath from destroying them. ²⁴And they despised the pleasant land; they did not believe His word. ²⁵And they murmured in their tents, not listening to the voice of Jehovah; ²⁶and He lifted up His hand to them, to make them fall in the wilderness; ²⁷to make their seed fall also among the nations, and to scatter them in the lands.

²⁸They also were joined to Baal-peor, and ate the sacrifices of the dead; ²⁹and provoked Him with their deeds; and a plague broke out among them. ³⁰Then Phinehas stood and intervened; and the plague was stayed; ³¹and it was counted to him for righteousness to generation and generation, forever.

⁴⁷Save us, O Jehovah our God; and gather us from the nations, to give thanks to Your holy name; to exult in Your praise.

⁴⁸Blessed is Jehovah God of Israel, from everlasting even to everlasting. And let all the people say, Amen! Praise Jehovah!

PSALM 107

¹Give thanks to Jehovah, for He is good; for His mercy endures forever. ²Let the redeemed of Jehovah say so; whom He redeemed from the hand of the foe; ³and gathered them from the lands; from east and from west; from north and from south.

⁴They wandered in the wilderness, in a desert way; they found no city of dwelling; ⁵hungry and thirsty, their soul fainted in them; ⁶and they cried to Jehovah in their distress; He delivered them from their straits. ⁷And He guided them in the right way; to go to a city of dwelling. ⁸Let them thank Jehovah for His mercy; and His wonders to the sons of man. ⁹He satisfies the thirsty soul, and He fills the hungry soul with good.

¹⁰Those who live in the darkness, and in the shadow of death, being prisoners in affliction and iron — ¹¹because they rebelled against the words of God, and despised the counsel of the Most High; — ¹²and He humbled their heart by toil; they stumbled, and none were helping; ¹³and they cried to Jehovah in their distress; He saved them out of their distresses; ¹⁴He brought them out from darkness and the shadow of death; and He broke their bands apart. ¹⁵Let them thank Jehovah for His mercy, and His wonders to the sons of man. ¹⁶For He has broken the gates of bronze; and He cut bars of iron in two.

¹⁷Fools are afflicted from the way of their rebellion, and from their iniquities; ¹⁸their soul hates every food; and they touch the gates of death; ¹⁹and they cried to Jehovah in their distress; He saved them from their straits; ²⁰He sent His word and healed them; and delivered them from all their pitfalls. ²¹Let them thank Jehovah for His mercy, and His wonders to the sons of man. ²²And let them sacrifice the sacrifices of thanksgiving; and recount His works with rejoicing.

²³They who go down to the sea in ships, who work in the great waters; ²⁴these see the works of Jehovah, and His wonders in the deep. ²⁵For He speaks and raises stormy wind, and makes its waves high; ²⁶they go up to the heavens; they go down to the depths; their soul is melted because they are in evil; ²⁷they reel and stagger like a drunken man; and all their wisdom is swallowed up; ²⁸and they cry to Jehovah in their distress; and He saves them out of their straits. ²⁹He settles the storm to a whisper, so that its waves are still; ³⁰and they are glad, because they are quiet; and He led them to their desired haven. ³¹Let them thank Jehovah for His mercy, and His wonders to the sons of mankind; ³²and exalt Him in the congregation of the people; and praise Him in the seat of the elders.

³³He sets rivers to a wilderness, and water-springs to thirsty ground; ³⁴a fruitful land to a salty desert; because of the wickedness of those who live in it. ³⁵He puts the wilderness into a water-pond; and dry land into water-springs; ³⁶and He makes the hungry live there, and they may prepare a city of dwelling. ³⁷And they sow the fields, and plant vineyards, and make fruits of produce. ³⁸He also blesses them, so that they multiply greatly; and He does not allow their cattle to diminish; ³⁹but they are diminished and humbled, from coercion, evil and grief. ⁴⁰He pours scorn on nobles, and causes them to wander in a desert; there is no path. ⁴¹But He raises the poor up from affliction, and He sets families like a flock. ⁴²The upright shall see and be glad; and all iniquity shuts its mouth. ⁴³Whoever is wise, and will observe these things, they shall discern the mercies of Jehovah.

A Song. A Psalm of David.

¹O God, my heart is fixed; I will sing; yea, I will sing songs even with my glory. ²Awake, harp and lyre! I will awake early; ³I will thank You, O Jehovah, among the peoples; and I will sing to You among the nations. ⁴For Your mercy is great above the heavens; and Your truth reaches to the clouds. ⁵Be lifted up, O God, above the heavens; and Your glory above all the earth; ⁶so that Your beloved may be delivered; save by Your right hand and answer me.

⁷God has spoken in His holiness; I will rejoice; I will portion out Shechem; and I will measure out the valley of Succoth. ⁸Gilead is Mine; and Manasseh is Mine; and Ephraim is the fort of My head; Judah is My lawgiver; ⁹Moab is My washpot; I will throw My shoe out over Edom; I will shout in triumph over Philistia. ¹⁰Who will lead me into the fortified city? Who will lead me over Edom? ¹¹O God, have You not cast us off? And, O God, will You not go out with our armies? ¹²Give help to us from distress; for the deliverance of man is vain. ¹³In God we shall do mighty things, for He shall trample our foes.

To the Chief Musician, A Psalm of David.

¹O God of my praise, do not be silent; ²for the mouth of the wicked, and the deceitful mouth, are opened against me; they spoke against me with a lying tongue. ³And they hemmed me in with words of hatred; and fought against me without a cause. ⁴In return for my love, they are my enemies; but I am in prayer. ⁵And they put on me evil for good; and hatred for my love. ⁶Set a wicked man over him; and let a foe stand at his right hand; ⁷when he is judged, let him go out wicked; and let his prayer become sin; ⁸let his days be few; and let another take his office; ⁹let his sons be orphans, and his wife a widow; ¹⁰and let his sons always beg and wander, and seek food out of their ruins; ¹¹let the money-lender lay a snare for all that is his; and let strangers plunder his labor; ¹²let there be none giving mercy to him; nor any to have pity on his orphans; ¹³let his posterity be cut off; let their name be blotted out in the following generation; ¹⁴let the iniquity of his fathers be remembered to Jehovah; and let not the sin of his mother be blotted out; ¹⁵let them be always before Jehovah, so that He may cut off the memory of them from the earth; ¹⁶because he did not remember to do mercy; and persecuted the poor and needy man; even to kill the broken-hearted. ¹⁷Yea, he loved cursing, and it came to him; he also had no pleasure in blessing, and it was far from him. ¹⁸As he clothed himself with cursing, as with a robe, even it came into his bowels like water, and like oil into his bones. ¹⁹Let it be to him as a garment he wraps in, and for a girdle that he always girds on.

²⁰This is the reward of my foes from Jehovah, and of those who speak evil against my soul. ²¹But You, O Jehovah the Lord, work with me for Your name's sake; deliver me because Your mercy is good. ²²For I am poor and needy, and my heart is pierced within me. ²³As a shadow when it stretches out, I am gone; I am shaken off like the locust. ²⁴My knees stumble from fasting, and my flesh grows lean from fatness. ²⁵And I have become a reproach to them; they looked at me; they shook their heads. ²⁶O Jehovah my God, help me; save me according to Your mercy; ²⁷and they will know that this is Your hand; that You, O Jehovah, have done it. ²⁸They will curse, but You will bless; they rise up and are ashamed; but Your servant will be glad. ²⁹Let those who accuse me be clothed with shame; and cover themselves in their shame as with a robe. ³⁰I will greatly thank Jehovah with my mouth; yea, I will praise Him in the midst of the multitude. ³¹For He shall stand at the right hand of the needy; to save from those judging his soul.

A Psalm of David.

¹A statement of Jehovah to my Lord: Sit at My right hand, until I place Your enemies as Your footstool. ²Jehovah shall send the rod of Your strength out of Zion; rule in the midst of Your enemies. ³Your people shall be willing in the day of Your power; in the majesties of holiness from the womb of the dawn, to You is the dew of Your youth. ⁴Jehovah has sworn and will not repent: You are a priest forever according to the order of Melchizedek. ⁵The Lord at Your right hand shatters kings in the day of His anger. ⁶He shall judge among the nations; He shall fill with dead bodies; He shall shatter heads over much land. ⁷He shall drink out of the brook on the way; therefore, He shall lift up the head.

¹Praise Jehovah! I will thank Jehovah with all my heart; in the council of the upright, and of the assembly. ²The works of Jehovah are great, sought out by all those desiring them. ³His work is honorable and glorious; and His righteousness endures forever. ⁴He has made a memorial for His wonders; Jehovah is gracious and full of pity. ⁵He has given food to those who fear Him; He will always remember His covenant. ⁶He has shown to His people the power of His works, to give to them inheritance of the nations. ⁷The works of His hands are truth and judgment; all His commandments are true, ⁸standing firm forever and ever; they are done in truth and uprightness. ⁹He sent redemption to His people; He has commanded His covenant forever; holy and awesome is His name. ¹⁰The fear of Jehovah is the beginning of wisdom; all who practice them have a good understanding; His praise is standing forever!

¹Praise Jehovah! Blessed is the man who fears Jehovah, delighting greatly in His commands. ²His seed shall be mighty on the earth; the generation of the upright shall be blessed; ³wealth and riches in his house; and his righteousness is standing forever. ⁴Light rises in the darkness to the upright; he is gracious and full of pity, and of righteousness. ⁵Good is a man showing favor and lending; he will nourish his matters with equity. ⁶For he shall not be shaken forever; the righteous shall be for a memorial forever. ⁷He shall not be afraid of evil news; his heart is fixed, trusting in Jehovah. ⁸His heart is upheld; he shall not be afraid though he looks on his foes. ⁹He has scattered; he has given to the needy; his righteousness endures forever; his horn shall be lifted up with honor. ¹⁰The wicked shall see and be vexed; he shall gnash his teeth and melt; the desire of the wicked shall perish.

¹Praise Jehovah! Praise, O servants of Jehovah; praise the name of Jehovah. ²Blessed is the name of Jehovah from now on and forevermore. ³From the rising of the sun to its going, Jehovah's name is to be praised. ⁴Jehovah is high above all nations; His glory above the heavens. ⁵Who is like Jehovah our God, who sits on high to dwell; ⁶who humbles Himself to consider all in the earth and the heavens! ⁷He raises up the poor from the dust; and He lifts the needy out of the dunghill, ⁸in order to make him sit with nobles, with the nobles of his people. ⁹He causes the barren to live in the house as the joyful mother of sons.

Praise Jehovah!

¹When Israel came out of Egypt, the house of Jacob from a people of strange language; ²Judah became His sanctuary, Israel His kingdom. ³The sea looked and fled; the Jordan turned back; ⁴the mountains skipped like rams; the little hills like lambs! ⁵What ails you, O sea, that you flee? O Jordan, that you turn back? ⁶O mountains, that you skip like rams? O little hills, like lambs? ⁷Tremble, O earth, from the face of the Lord, from the face of the God of Jacob; ⁸who turned the rock into a pool of water; the flint into a fountain of waters.

¹Not to us, O Jehovah, not to us, but to Your name give glory; for Your mercy;

because of Your truth. ²Why do the nations say, Where is their God now? ³But our God is in Heaven; He has done all that He has pleased. ⁴Their idols are silver and gold, the work of man's hands; ⁵they have mouths, but they do not speak; they have eyes, but they do not see; ⁶they have ears, but they do not hear; they have a nose, but they do not smell; ⁷their hands do not feel; their feet do not walk; they do not mutter through their throat. ⁸The ones who make them are like them, and everyone trusting in them.

⁹O Israel, trust in Jehovah; He is their help and their shield. ¹⁰O house of Aaron, trust in Jehovah; He is their help and their shield. ¹¹You who fear Jehovah, trust in Jehovah; He is their help and their shield. ¹²Jehovah remembers us; He will bless; He will bless the house of Israel; He will bless the house of Aaron; ¹³He will bless those who fear Jehovah, the small and the great. ¹⁴Jehovah will add more on you; on you and on your sons. ¹⁵You are blessed to Jehovah, who makes heavens and earth. ¹⁶The heavens; the heavens are Jehovah's; but He has given the earth to the sons of men. ¹⁷The dead do not praise Jehovah; nor all those who go down into silence; ¹⁸but we will bless Jehovah, from now on and forever. Praise Jehovah!

¹I love Jehovah because He hears my voice and my prayers. ²Because He has bowed His ear to me, I will also call in my days. ³The cords of death hemmed me in; and the pains of Sheol found me; I find distress and sorrow; ⁴then I call on the name of Jehovah: O Jehovah, I beseech You, deliver my soul! ⁵Jehovah is gracious and righteous; yea, our God is merciful. ⁶Jehovah keeps the simple; I was low, but He saved me. ⁷Return to your rest, O soul; for Jehovah has blessed you. ⁸For You have delivered my soul from death; my eye from tears, my feet from stumbling. ⁹I will walk before the face of Jehovah, in the lands of the living. ¹⁰I believed; so I speak; I was greatly afflicted; ¹¹I said in my alarm, Every man is a liar. ¹²What shall I return to Jehovah for His benefits to me? ¹³I will lift up the cup of salvation, and I will call on the name of Jehovah. ¹⁴I will pay my vows to Jehovah now in the presence of all His people.

¹⁵Precious in the eyes of Jehovah is the death of His saints. ¹⁶O Jehovah, truly I am Your servant now; I am Your servant, the son of Your handmaid; You have loosed my bonds. ¹⁷I will sacrifice to You the sacrifice of thanks, and will call on the name of Jehovah. ¹⁸I will pay my vows to Jehovah now in the presence of all His people, ¹⁹in the courts of the house of Jehovah; in your midst, O Jerusalem. Praise Jehovah!

¹Praise Jehovah, all nations; praise Him, all peoples; ²for His mercy is mighty over us, and the truth of Jehovah is forever.

Praise Jehovah!

¹Give thanks to Jehovah, for He is good; because His mercy endures forever.

²Let Israel say now that His mercy endures forever. ³Let the house of Aaron say now that His mercy endures forever.

⁴Let those who fear Jehovah say now that His mercy endures forever. ⁵I called Jehovah from the distress; He answered me in the large place of Jehovah.

⁶Jehovah is for me; I will not fear; what can man do to me? ⁷Jehovah is for me among those who help me; and I shall see my desire on those who hate me. ⁸*It is* better to take refuge in Jehovah than to trust in man; ⁹*it is* better to trust in Jehovah than to trust in princes. ¹⁰All the nations surround me; but surely I will destroy them in the name of Jehovah.

¹¹They surround me; yea, they surround me; I surely will destroy them in the name of Jehovah. ¹²They surround me like bees; they are quenched like the fire of thorns; for surely I will cut them off in the name of Jehovah.

¹³Pushing, you pushed me to fall; but Jehovah helped me. ¹⁴Jehovah is my strength and my song; and He is my salvation. ¹⁵The voice of rejoicing and salvation is in the tabernacle of the righteous; the right hand of Jehovah works mightily. ¹⁶The right hand of Jehovah is exalted; the right hand of Jehovah acts mightily. ¹⁷I shall not die, but I shall live and declare the works of Jehovah. ¹⁸Jehovah has grievously chastened me, but He has not given me to death. ¹⁹Open the gates of righteousness to me, I will enter into them; I will thank Jehovah! ²⁰This is the gate of Jehovah; the righteous shall enter into it. ²¹I will thank You, for You answered me, and are my salvation.

²²The Stone which the builders rejected has become the Head of the corner. ²³This is from Jehovah, it is marvelous in our eyes. ²⁴This is the day Jehovah has made; we will rejoice and be glad in it. ²⁵O Jehovah, I beseech You, cause us to prosper now. ²⁶Blessed is he who comes in the name of Jehovah; we blessed you out of the house of Jehovah. ²⁷Jehovah is God, and He gives light to us. Tie the sacrifice with cords, to the horns of the altar. ²⁸You are my God, and I will exalt You; My God, I will thank You! ²⁹O give thanks to Jehovah, for He is good; for His mercy endures forever.

Aleth

¹Blessed are the upright in the way, who walk in the law of Jehovah. ²Blessed are those keeping His testimonies, who seek Him with the whole heart. ³They also do not work evil; they walk in His way. ⁴You have commanded to carefully keep Your precepts. ⁵O that my ways were fixed to keep Your statutes! ⁶Then I shall not be ashamed, when I look to all Your commands. ⁷I will thank You with integrity of heart, in my learning the judgments of Your righteousness. ⁸I will keep Your statutes; do not forsake me utterly.

Beth

⁹By what shall a young man purify his way, to keep it according to Your word? ¹⁰I have sought You with my whole heart; do not let me wander from Your commands. ¹¹I have hidden Your word in my heart, that I might not sin against You. ¹²Blessed are

You, O Jehovah; teach me Your statutes. ¹³I have declared all the judgments of Your mouth with my lips; ¹⁴I have rejoiced in the way of Your testimonies as over all riches. ¹⁵I will meditate in Your precepts and I will regard Your ways. ¹⁶I will delight in Your statutes. I will not forget Your word.

Gimel

¹⁷Deal bountifully with Your servant that I may live, and I will keep Your word. ¹⁸Open my eyes and I will see wonderful things from Your law. ¹⁹*I am* an alien in the earth; hide not Your commandments from me. ²⁰My soul is breaking for the longing to Your judgments in every season. ²¹You have rebuked the proud, the cursed ones who go astray from Your commands. ²²Roll from me reproach and scorn; for I have kept Your testimonies. ²³Princes also sat, speaking against me; but Your servant meditates on Your laws. ²⁴Your testimonies also are my delight and my counselors.

Daleth

²⁵My soul clings to the dust; give me life according to Your word. ²⁶I have declared my ways, and You answered me; teach me Your statutes. ²⁷Make me understand the way of Your precepts, and I will meditate on Your wonders. ²⁸My soul drops with grief; Lift me up according to Your word. ²⁹Remove from me the way of lying, and favor me with Your law. ³⁰I have chosen the way of truth; I have held Your judgments level; ³¹I have clung to Your testimonies; O Jehovah, do not shame me. ³²I will run the way of Your commands, for You shall enlarge my heart.

He

³³O Jehovah, teach me the way of Your statutes, and I will keep it to the end. ³⁴Make me understand and I will keep Your law, and observe it with the whole heart. ³⁵Make me walk in the way of Your commands, for in it I delight. ³⁶Bow my heart to Your testimonies, and not to unjust gain. ³⁷Turn my eyes from seeing vanity; in Your way give me life. ³⁸Make Your word sure to Your servant, who is devoted to Your fear. ³⁹Turn away my shame which I fear; for Your judgments are good. ⁴⁰Behold, I have longed for Your precepts; grant to me life in Your righteousness.

Vau

⁴¹By Your word, according to Your salvation, let Your mercies come to me, O Jehovah. ⁴²And I will answer my reprover a word; for I trust in Your word. ⁴³And do not take the word of truth completely out of my mouth; for I have hoped in Your judgments. ⁴⁴And I shall keep Your law continually, forever and ever. ⁴⁵And I will walk in a wide space, for I seek Your commands. ⁴⁶And I will speak of Your testimonies before kings, and will not be ashamed. ⁴⁷And I will delight myself in Your commandments, which I have loved. ⁴⁸And I will lift up my hands to Your commandments that I love; and I will meditate on Your statutes.

Zayin

⁴⁹Remember the word to Your servant, on which You made me hope. ⁵⁰This is my comfort in my affliction; for Your word has given me life. ⁵¹The proud have scorned me utterly; I have not veered from Your law. ⁵²I remembered Your judgments from of old, O Jehovah, and I take comfort. ⁵³Hot zeal has seized me because of the wicked forsaking Your law. ⁵⁴Your statutes have been my songs in the house of my pilgrimages. ⁵⁵O Jehovah, I have remembered Your name in the night and have kept Your law. ⁵⁶This was done to me, because I kept Your commandments.

Cheth

⁵⁷Jehovah is my portion; I have said to keep Your words. ⁵⁸I entreated Your face with all my heart; favor me according to Your word. ⁵⁹I mused on my ways and turned my feet to Your testimonies. ⁶⁰I hurried and delayed not to keep Your commands. ⁶¹The cords of the wicked encircle me; I have not forgotten Your law. ⁶²At halves of the night I will rise to give thanks to You because of Your righteous judgments. ⁶³I am a companion of all who fear You; yea, of those who keep your precepts. ⁶⁴O Jehovah, the earth is full of Your mercy; teach me Your statutes.

Teth

⁶⁵You have done good with Your servant, O Jehovah, by Your word. ⁶⁶Teach me good judgment and knowledge, for I have believed Your commands. ⁶⁷Before I was afflicted I went astray; but now I have kept Your word. ⁶⁸You are good and do good —teach me Your statutes. ⁶⁹The proud have forged a lie against me; I will keep Your precepts with all my heart. ⁷⁰Their heart is like fat, without feeling; I delight in Your law. ⁷¹For my good I was afflicted, to learn Your statutes. ⁷²The law of Your mouth is better to me than thousands of gold and silver.

Jod

⁷³Your hands made me and fixed me; give me discernment that I may learn Your commands. ⁷⁴The ones fearing You will see me and rejoice; for I hoped in Your word. ⁷⁵I know, O Jehovah, Your judgments are right; and in fidelity You afflicted me. ⁷⁶Please let Your mercy be for my comfort, by Your word to Your servant. ⁷⁷Let Your mercies come to me that I may live; for Your law is my delight. ⁷⁸Let the proud be ashamed, for with lies they perverted me; I will muse on Your precepts. ⁷⁹Let fearers of You turn to me, and knowers of Your testimonies. ⁸⁰Let my heart be blameless in Your statutes, that I may not be ashamed.

Kaph

⁸¹My soul is being consumed for Your salvation; I hope in Your word. ⁸²My eyes fail for Your word, saying, When will You comfort me? ⁸³For I am like a wineskin in the smoke; I do not forget Your statutes. ⁸⁴As what are the days of Your servant? When will You execute judgment on my persecutors? ⁸⁵The proud have dug pits for me which are not according to Your law. ⁸⁶All Your commands are faithful; they persecute me with lying; help me! ⁸⁷In a little they had finished me on earth; but I did not forsake Your precepts. ⁸⁸Give me life according to Your mercy; and I will keep the testimonies of Your mouth.

Lamed

⁸⁹Your word is settled in Heaven forever, O Jehovah. ⁹⁰Your fidelity is to generation and generation; You founded the earth, and it stands. ⁹¹They stand by Your judgments to this day, for all are Your servants. ⁹²If Your law had not been my delight, then I had perished in my grief. ⁹³I will never forget Your precepts; for with them You gave me life. ⁹⁴*I am* Yours—save me; for I have sought Your precepts. ⁹⁵The wicked waited for me, to destroy me; I will muse on Your testimonies. ⁹⁶I have seen an end to all perfection; Your command is exceedingly broad.

Mem

⁹⁷O how I love Your law! It is my meditation all day. ⁹⁸You make me wiser than my enemies by Your commands; for they are forever mine. ⁹⁹I have more wisdom than all my teachers; for Your testimonies are a meditation to me. ¹⁰⁰I understand more than the aged, for I keep Your precepts. ¹⁰¹I have kept my feet from every evil way, to keep Your word. ¹⁰²I turned not from Your judgments; for You have taught me. ¹⁰³How sweet are Your words to my palate! More than honey to my mouth! ¹⁰⁴By Your precepts I know; so then I hate every false way.

Nun

¹⁰⁵Your word is a lamp to my feet and a light to my path. ¹⁰⁶I have sworn and I rise to it, to keep Your righteous judgments. ¹⁰⁷I am greatly afflicted; O Jehovah, give me life according to Your word. ¹⁰⁸Please, O Jehovah, accept the free offering of my mouth, and teach me Your judgments. ¹⁰⁹My life is in my hand continually, yet I do not forget Your law. ¹¹⁰The wicked have laid a snare for me; yet I do not wander from Your precepts. ¹¹¹I have inherited Your testimonies forever; for they are the rejoicing of my heart. ¹¹²I have bowed my heart always to do Your statutes to the end.

Samech

¹¹³I hate the half-hearted; but I love Your law. ¹¹⁴You are my covert and my shield; I hope in Your word. ¹¹⁵Depart from me, O evildoers, for I will keep my God's commands. ¹¹⁶Uphold me by Your word, that I may live; and let me not be ashamed of my hope. ¹¹⁷Hold me up and I will be saved; and I will always look to Your statutes. ¹¹⁸You have trampled all who go astray from Your statutes; for their deceit is falsehood. ¹¹⁹As dross You have made all the wicked of the earth to cease; so I love Your testimonies. ¹²⁰My flesh has shivered because of Your fear; and I have feared Your judgments.

Ayin

¹²¹I have done the just and right thing; do not leave me to my oppressors. ¹²²Be surety for Your servant for good; let not the proud oppress me. ¹²³My eyes fail for Your salvation, and for the word of Your righteousness. ¹²⁴Deal with Your servant by Your mercy; and teach me Your statutes. ¹²⁵*I am* Your servant; make me consider and I will know Your testimonies. ¹²⁶*It is* time for Jehovah to work; they have broken Your law. ¹²⁷So I have loved Your commands, more than gold, even fine gold. ¹²⁸So I count wholly right all the precepts; I have hated every false way.

Pe

¹²⁹Your testimonies are wonderful; so my soul keeps them. ¹³⁰The entering of Your word gives light, instructing the simple ones. ¹³¹I opened my mouth and panted; for I longed for Your commands. ¹³²Turn to me and favor me, as is the way to those who love Your name. ¹³³Fix my steps in Your word; and let no evil rule over me. ¹³⁴Redeem me from the oppression of man; and I will keep Your precepts. ¹³⁵Make Your face shine on Your servant, and teach me Your statutes. ¹³⁶Rivers of waters run down my eyes for they do not keep Your law.

Tzaddi

¹³⁷O Jehovah, You are righteous, and Your judgments right. ¹³⁸You have enjoined Your testimonies as exceedingly righteous and faithful. ¹³⁹My zeal has eaten me up for my enemies have forgotten Your word. ¹⁴⁰Your word is pure, and Your servant loves it. ¹⁴¹*I am* small and despised; I do not forget Your precepts. ¹⁴²Your righteousness is an eternal righteousness; and Your law is truth. ¹⁴³Distress and anguish have found me;

Your commands are my delight. ¹⁴⁴The righteousness of Your testimonies are everlasting; make me know and I will live.

Oph

¹⁴⁵I cried with my whole heart; O Jehovah, answer me; I will keep Your statutes. ¹⁴⁶I cried to You; save me and I will keep Your testimonies. ¹⁴⁷I go before the dawn of day and cry; I hope in Your word. ¹⁴⁸My eyes go before the night watches, to meditate on Your word. ¹⁴⁹Hear my voice by Your mercy, O Jehovah; give me life by Your judgment. ¹⁵⁰The pursuers of mischief draw near; they are far from Your law. ¹⁵¹You are near, O Jehovah, and all Your commands are truth. ¹⁵²Of old I have known from Your testimonies, for You have founded them forever.

Resh

¹⁵³Look on my affliction and deliver me; for I do not forget Your law. ¹⁵⁴Contend for my cause and redeem me; give me life according to Your word. ¹⁵⁵Salvation is far from the wicked; for they do not seek Your statutes. ¹⁵⁶O Jehovah, Your tender mercies are great; give me life according to Your judgments. ¹⁵⁷My persecutors and enemies are many; I do not turn from Your testimonies. ¹⁵⁸I saw the traitors and was grieved, because they did not keep Your word. ¹⁵⁹See how I love Your precepts, O Jehovah; give me life according to Your mercy. ¹⁶⁰The sum of Your word is true; every one of Your righteous judgments endures forever.

Shin

¹⁶¹Princes have persecuted me without cause; but my heart has feared at Your word. ¹⁶²I rejoice at Your word, as one who finds great spoil. ¹⁶³I hate and despise lying; but I love Your law. ¹⁶⁴I praise You seven times a day because of Your righteous judgments. ¹⁶⁵Great peace is to those who love Your law, and there is no stumbling-block to them. ¹⁶⁶O Jehovah, I have hoped for Your salvation, and have done Your precepts. ¹⁶⁷My soul has kept Your testimonies, and I love them very much; ¹⁶⁸I have kept Your commands and Your testimonies, for all my ways are before You.

Tau

¹⁶⁹Let my cry come near You, O Jehovah; give me wisdom according to Your word. ¹⁷⁰Let my prayer come before You; deliver me according to Your word. ¹⁷¹My lips shall pour forth praise when You have taught me Your statutes. ¹⁷²My tongue shall answer Your word; for all Your commands are righteousness. ¹⁷³Let Your hand help me; for I have chosen Your precepts. ¹⁷⁴I have longed for Your salvation, O Jehovah; and Your law is my delight. ¹⁷⁵Let my soul live, and it will praise You; and let Your judgments help me. ¹⁷⁶I have gone astray like a lost sheep; seek Your servant; for I do not forget Your commandments.

A Song of Ascents

¹In my distress I cried to Jehovah, and He answered me. ²O Jehovah, deliver my soul from lying lips, from a deceitful tongue. ³What shall be given to you, or what shall one add to you, O false tongue? ⁴Sharp arrows of the mighty, with coals of broom!

⁵Woe is me that I sojourned in Meshech; I dwell with the tents of Kedar! ⁶My soul has long dwelt to itself, with him who hates peace. ⁷*I am for* peace; but when I speak, they are for war.

A Song of Ascents.

¹I will lift up my eyes to the hills; where shall my help come from? ²My help comes from Jehovah, the Maker of the heavens and the earth. ³He will not give your foot to slip; He who keeps you will not slumber. ⁴Behold, He who keeps Israel will not slumber nor sleep. ⁵Jehovah is your keeper; Jehovah is your shade on your right hand. ⁶The sun shall not strike you by day, nor the moon by night; ⁷Jehovah shall keep you from all evil; He shall keep your soul. ⁸Jehovah shall keep your going out, and your coming in; from now on and till forever.

A Song of Ascents; of David.

¹I was glad when they said to me, Let us go into the house of Jehovah. ²Our feet shall stand within your gates, O Jerusalem. ³Jerusalem is built like a city that is joined to itself, together. ⁴*There* the tribes go up, the tribes of Jehovah; to the testimony of Israel; to give thanks to the name of Jehovah. ⁵For the thrones of judgment were established there, the thrones of the house of David. ⁶Pray for the peace of Jerusalem; those who love you shall prosper. ⁷Peace be within your walls; prosperity in your towers. ⁸Because of my brothers and my companions, I will now say, Peace be in you.

⁹Because of the house of Jehovah, our God, I will seek your good.

A Song of Ascents.

¹I will lift up my eyes on You, O Dweller in Heaven. ²Behold, as the eyes of servants look to the hand of their masters; as the eyes of a maiden to the hand of her mistress; so our eyes wait on Jehovah our God, until He shows grace to us. ³Be gracious to us, O Jehovah; be gracious to us! For we are exceedingly filled with scorn. ⁴Our soul is exceedingly filled for itself with the contempt of those who are at ease, the scorn of the proud.

PSALM 124

A Song of Ascents, of David.

¹Except that it was Jehovah who was for us, O may Israel say; ²except that it was Jehovah who was for us when men rose up against us, ³then they would have swallowed us alive, when their anger glowed against us. ⁴Then the waters would have flowed over us; the torrent would have covered our soul; ⁵then the raging waters would have passed over our soul.

snare; the snare is broken, and we have escaped. ⁸Our help is in the name of Jehovah, the Maker of the heavens and earth.

PSALM 125

A Song of Ascents.

¹They who trust in Jehovah shall be like Mount Zion; it is not shaken; it remains forever. ²The mountains are all around Jerusalem; and Jehovah is all around His people, from this time and forever. ³For the scepter of wickedness shall not rest on the lot of the righteous; that the righteous not put forth their hands to evil. ⁴Do good, O Jehovah, to the good, and to the upright in their heart. ⁵And those who turn aside to their crooked ways, Jehovah shall lead them with the evildoers. Peace be upon Israel.

A Song of Ascents.

¹When Jehovah turned back the captivity of Zion, we were like those who dream. ²Then our mouth was full of laughter, and our tongue with joyful shouting; then they said among the nations, Jehovah will work great things with these. ³Jehovah did great things to work with us; we are glad. ⁴Turn her captivity again, O Jehovah, like the south streams. ⁵Those who sow in tears shall reap with joyful shouting. ⁶Surely he who walks and weeps, bearing a bag of seed, shall come again with joyful shouting, bearing his sheaves.

A Song of Ascents for Solomon.

¹If Jehovah does not build the house, they who build it labor in vain; if Jehovah does not keep the city, the watchman stays awake in vain. ²*It is* in vain for you to rise early, sit up late, to eat the bread of toils; for so He gives His beloved sleep. ³Lo, children are an inheritance of Jehovah; the fruit of the womb is His reward. ⁴As arrows in the hand of a mighty man, so are the sons of the young. ⁵Blessed is the man who has filled his quiver with them; they shall not be ashamed, for they shall speak with their enemies in the gate.

A Song of Ascents.

¹Blessed is everyone who fears Jehovah, who walks in His ways. ²For you shall surely eat the labor of your hands; you shall be happy, and all is good to you. ³Your wife shall be like a fruitful vine by the sides of your house; your sons shall be like olive plants around your table. ⁴Behold! So shall the man be blessed who fears Jehovah. ⁵Jehovah shall bless you out of Zion; and you shall see the good of Jerusalem all the days of your life. ⁶Yes, you shall see the sons of your sons. Peace be upon Israel!

A Song of Ascents.

¹Many times they have afflicted me from my youth, let Israel now say; ²they have afflicted me from my youth many times; yet they have not prevailed over me. ³The plowers plowed on my back; they made their furrows long. ⁴Jehovah is righteous; He cuts the cords of the wicked in two. ⁵Let them all be ashamed and turned back, those who hate Zion; ⁶let them be like the grass on the rooftops, which dries up before it draws out; ⁷with which the reaper does not fill his hand; nor the binder of sheaves his bosom.

⁸And those who pass by have never said, The blessing of Jehovah be on you; we bless you in the name of Jehovah.

A Song of Ascents.

¹Out of the depths I have called You, O Jehovah. ²Lord, hear my voice; and let Your ears attend to the voice of my prayers. ³If You will keep iniquities, O Lord, who shall stand? ⁴But forgiveness is with You, in order that You may be feared. ⁵I wait for Jehovah; my soul waits, and I hope for His word. ⁶My soul waits for the Lord more than morning-watchers who are watching for the morning. ⁷Let Israel hope to Jehovah; for with Jehovah is mercy; and with Him is abundant redemption; ⁸and He shall redeem Israel from all his sins.

A Song of Ascents. Of David.

¹O Jehovah, my heart is not proud; nor have my eyes been lofty; nor have I walked in great things, nor in things too wondrous for me. ²Surely I have set myself and have quieted my soul, like one weaned by its mother; my soul on me is like one weaned. ³Let Israel hope in Jehovah, from now and till forever.

A Song of Ascents.

¹O Jehovah, remember David with all his afflictions; ²how he swore to Jehovah; he vowed to the Mighty One of Jacob; ³If I will go into the tent of my house; if I go up on the couch of my bed; ⁴if I give sleep to my eyes, slumber to my eyelids; ⁵until I search out a place for Jehovah, dwellings for the Mighty One of Jacob. ⁶Lo, we have heard of it at Ephrath; we found it in the fields of the forest; ⁷we will enter into His tabernacles; we will worship at His footstool. ⁸Arise, O Jehovah, into Your rest; You, and the ark of Your strength; ⁹let Your priests be clothed with righteousness; and let Your saints shout for joy. ¹⁰For Your servant David's sake, do not turn away the face of Your anointed. ¹¹Jehovah has sworn to David in truth; He will not turn from it; I will set one of the fruit of your body on the throne for you. ¹²If your sons will keep My covenant and My testimonies which I will teach them, their sons shall also sit on your throne till forever. ¹³Jehovah has chosen Zion; He has desired it for His dwelling-place. ¹⁴This is My rest till forever; I will dwell here; I have desired it. ¹⁵I will surely bless her food; I will satisfy her poor with food. ¹⁶And I will clothe her priests with salvation; and her saints shall surely shout. ¹⁷I will make the horn of David to sprout; I have prepared a lamp for My anointed. ¹⁸I will clothe his enemies with shame; but his crown shall shine upon him.

A Song of Ascents. Of David.

¹Behold! How good and how pleasant is the living of brothers, even in unity. ²*It is* like the precious oil on the head, that ran down on the beard; Aaron's beard; going down to the mouth of his garments; ³like the dew of Hermon coming down on the mountains of Zion; for there Jehovah commanded the blessing: life till everlasting.

A Song of Ascents.

¹Behold, bless Jehovah, all servants of Jehovah; who stand in the house of Jehovah at night. ²Lift up your hands in the holy place, and bless Jehovah. ³*May* Jehovah bless you out of Zion, He who made the heavens and earth.

¹Praise Jehovah! Praise the name of Jehovah; sing praise, servants of Jehovah; ²*those* who stand in the house of Jehovah, in the courts of the house of our God; ³praise Jehovah! For Jehovah is good! Sing praises to His name, for it is delightful. ⁴For Jehovah has chosen Jacob to Himself—Israel for His special treasure. ⁵For I know that Jehovah is great, and our Lord is above all gods. ⁶Every thing which Jehovah was pleased to do, He did, in the heavens and in the earth; and in the seas and all deep places. ⁷He causes the vapors to rise from the end of the earth; He makes lightnings for the rain; He brings the wind out of His storehouses; ⁸*He* who struck the firstborn of Egypt, from man to animal; ⁹*who* sent signs and wonders into your midst, O Egypt, on Pharaoh and on all his servants; ¹⁰*who* struck great nations, and killed mighty kings; ¹¹Sihon king of the Amorites; and Og king of Bashan; and all the kingdoms of Canaan. ¹²And He gave their land as an inheritance, an inheritance to His people Israel. ¹³O Jehovah, Your name endures forever; O Jehovah, Your memorial is from generation and generation. ¹⁴For Jehovah will judge His people; and He will have pity on His servants.

¹⁵The idols of the nations are silver and gold, the work of men's hands; ¹⁶*they have* mouths, but they say nothing; they have eyes, but they see nothing; ¹⁷*they have* ears, but they hear nothing; yea, there is no breath in their mouths. ¹⁸Those who make them are like them, everyone who is trusting in them. ¹⁹Bless Jehovah, O house of Israel; bless Jehovah, O house of Aaron; ²⁰bless Jehovah, O house of Levi; you who fear Jehovah, bless Jehovah. ²¹Blessed be Jehovah out of Zion, He who dwells at Jerusalem. Praise Jehovah!

¹O give thanks to Jehovah, for He is good; for His mercy endures forever. ²O give thanks to the God of gods; for His mercy endures forever. ³O give thanks to the Lord of lords; for His mercy endures forever; ⁴to Him who alone does great wonders; for His mercy endures forever; ⁵to Him who by wisdom made the heavens; for His mercy endures forever; ⁶to Him who spread the earth on the waters; for His mercy endures forever; ⁷to Him who made great lights; for His mercy endures forever; ⁸the sun to rule by day; for His mercy endures forever; ⁹the moon and the stars to rule by night; for His mercy endures forever; ¹⁰to Him who struck Egypt in her firstborn; for His mercy endures forever; ¹¹and brought Israel out from among them; for His mercy endures forever; ¹²with a strong hand and a stretched out arm; for His mercy endures forever; ¹³to Him who divided the Sea of Reeds into parts; for His mercy endures forever; ¹⁴and made Israel pass through the middle of it; for His mercy endures forever; ¹⁵but shook Pharaoh and his army off in the Sea of Reeds; for His mercy endures forever;

¹⁶to Him who led His people in the wilderness; for His mercy endures forever; ¹⁷to Him who struck great kings; for His mercy endures forever; ¹⁸and killed majestic kings; for His mercy endures forever; ¹⁹Sihon, king of the Amorites; for His mercy endures forever; ²⁰and Og, the king of Bashan; for His mercy endures forever; ²¹and gave their land for an inheritance; for His mercy endures forever; ²²an inheritance to His servant Israel; for His mercy endures forever; ²³who remembered us in our low estate; for His mercy endures forever; ²⁴and has rescued us from our enemies; for His mercy endures forever; ²⁵who gives food to all flesh; for His mercy endures forever. ²⁶O give thanks to the God of Heaven; for His mercy endures forever.

¹We sat down by the rivers of Babylon; also, we wept when we remembered Zion. ²We hung our lyres on the willows in its midst. ³For there our captors asked us the words of a song; yea, our plunderers asked joy, saying, Sing to us a song of Zion. ⁴How shall we sing the song of Jehovah on a foreign soil? ⁵If I forget you, O Jerusalem, let my right hand forget; ⁶let my tongue cleave to my palate, if I do not remember you—if I do not bring up Jerusalem above the head of my joy. ⁷O Jehovah, remember for the sons of Edom the day of Jerusalem; who said, Make it bare! Make it bare, even to its foundation! ⁸O daughter of Babylon, O destroyed one! Blessed is he who shall repay to you your reward which you rewarded to us. ⁹*Blessed is he who seizes your little ones and dashes them against the stone!*

PSALM 138

A Psalm of David.

¹I will thank You with my whole heart; I will sing praise to You before the gods; ²I will worship toward Your holy temple; and give thanks to Your name for Your mercy, and for Your truth; for You have magnified Your word above all Your name. ³You answered me in the day that I cried; You emboldened me in my soul with strength. ⁴All the kings of the earth shall thank You, O Jehovah; because they have heard the words of Your mouth. ⁵Yes, they shall sing in the ways of Jehovah; for the glory of Jehovah is great. ⁶Though Jehovah is high, yet He looks upon the lowly; but the proud He knows from afar. ⁷If I walk in the midst of distress, You give me life; You send out Your hand against the wrath of my enemies; and Your right hand delivers me. ⁸Jehovah will perfect His work in me; O Jehovah, Your mercy endures forever; You will not forsake the works of Your hands.

To the chief musician. A Psalm of David.

¹O Jehovah, You have searched me and known me. ²You know my sitting down, and my rising up; You understand my thought from afar off. ³You sift my path and my lying down, and are acquainted with all my ways. ⁴For not a word is on my tongue, but, lo, O Jehovah, You know it all. ⁵You have closed me in behind, and in front; and Your hand is laid on me. ⁶*Such knowledge is too wonderful for me; it is set on high; I am not able to reach it.* ⁷Where shall I go from Your Spirit? Or where shall I flee from Your face? ⁸If I go up to Heaven, You are there; if I make my bed in Sheol, behold, You are there! ⁹If I take the wings of the morning, dwelling in the uttermost part of the sea, ¹⁰even there Your hand shall lead me; and Your right hand shall seize me. ¹¹If I say: Surely the darkness shall cover me; even the night shall be light around me. ¹²Even the darkness will not be dark from You, but the night shines as the day; as is the darkness, so is the light. ¹³For You have possessed my inward parts; You wove me in the womb of my mother. ¹⁴I will thank You, for with fearful things I am wonderful; Your works are marvelous, and my soul knows it very well. ¹⁵My bones were not hidden from You when I was made in secret; when I was woven in the depths of the earth. ¹⁶Your eyes saw my embryo; and in Your book all my members were written; the days they were formed, and none was among them.

¹⁷And how precious are Your thoughts to me, O God! How great is the sum of them! ¹⁸*If* I should count them, they are more than the sand; when I awake I am still with You. ¹⁹Surely You will slay the wicked, O God; and bloody men, depart from me. ²⁰Who will maliciously speak against You? Your enemies are lifted up with vanity. ²¹O Jehovah, do not I hate those hating You? And am I not detesting those rising against You? ²²I hate them with a perfect hatred; they have become my enemies.

²³Search me, O God, and know my heart; try me, and know my thoughts; ²⁴and see if any wicked way is in me; and lead me in the way everlasting.

To the chief musician. A Psalm of David.

¹O Jehovah, deliver me from the evil man; keep me from the violent man; ²who devises evil things in the heart; they gather wars all the day. ³They sharpen their tongues like a snake; adders' poison is under their lips. Selah. ⁴O Jehovah, keep me from the wicked's hands; keep me from the violent man, who plans to trip up my steps. ⁵The proud have hidden cords and a trap for me; they have spread a net by the wayside; they have set snares for me. Selah.

⁶I said to Jehovah, You are my God; O Jehovah, hear the voice of my prayers. ⁷O Jehovah the Lord, the strength of my salvation, You have covered my head in the day of armor. ⁸O Jehovah, do not grant the desires of the wicked; do not promote his plan, lest they be exalted. Selah. ⁹*As for* the leaders of those around me, let the evil of their own lips cover them. ¹⁰Let burning coals fall on them; let them fall into deep pits, so that they do not rise again. ¹¹Do not let a man of tongue be established in the earth; evil shall hunt the violent man, thrust upon thrust. ¹²I know that Jehovah will maintain the cause of the afflicted, the justice of the poor. ¹³Surely the righteous shall give thanks to Your name; the upright shall dwell in Your presence.

A Psalm of David.

¹O Jehovah, I cry to You; hasten to me; hear my voice when I cry to You. ²Let my prayer be established before You as incense; the lifting up of my palms as the evening sacrifice. ³O Jehovah, set a guard to my mouth; keep watch on the door of my lips. ⁴Do not let my heart turn aside to any evil thing, to practice deeds in wickedness with men who do evil; and do not let me eat of their delicacies. ⁵Let the righteous strike me; it is a mercy; and he who rebukes me, it is oil of the head; let not my head refuse it; for yet my prayer shall also be against their evils. ⁶Their judges have been dashed against the rock; they shall hear my words; for they are pleasant. ⁷As when one plows and tears the earth, so our bones are scattered at the mouth of Sheol.

⁸But my eyes are on You, O Jehovah, my Lord; in You I take refuge; do not make my soul naked. ⁹Keep me from the hands of the trap they laid for me; and from the snares of the workers of evil. ¹⁰Let the wicked fall into their own nets at the same time; I even shall pass by.

An Instruction of David, a Prayer when he was in the cave.

¹I cry to Jehovah with my voice; I pray to Jehovah with my voice. ²I pour out my musing before Him; I declare my distress before Him. ³When my spirit faints within me, then You know my path; they have hidden a snare for me in the path in which I walk. ⁴I look to the right hand and see, and no one recognizes me; every escape is hidden from me; no one inquires for my soul. ⁵I cried to You, O Jehovah; I said, You are my refuge, my portion in the land of the living.

⁶Attend to my cry; for I am brought very low; deliver me from those who pursue me; for they are stronger than I. ⁷Bring my soul out from prison to give thanks to Your name; the righteous shall gather around me; for You shall deal bountifully with me.

A Psalm of David.

¹Hear my prayer, O Jehovah; give ear to my supplications; answer me in Your faithfulness, in Your righteousness; ²and do not enter into judgment with Your servant; for not anyone living is just in Your sight. ³For the enemy has pursued my soul; he has beaten my life to the ground; he has made me dwell in darkness, like the dead of old. ⁴And my spirit within me has fainted; my heart within me is stunned. ⁵I remember the days of old; I meditate on all Your works; I muse on the work of Your hands. ⁶I spread out my hands to You; my soul thirsts to You like a thirsty land. Selah.

⁷O Jehovah, answer me quickly; my spirit is failing; do not hide Your face from me, lest I be like the ones who go down to the Pit. ⁸Cause me to hear Your mercy in the morning; for I do trust in You; cause me to know the way I should walk; for I lift up my soul to You. ⁹O Jehovah, deliver me from my enemies; to You I have hidden. ¹⁰Teach me to do Your will; for You are my God; Your Spirit is good; lead me into the land of justice. ¹¹O Jehovah, because of Your name, make me live; in Your righteousness, bring my soul out of distress. ¹²And in Your mercy cut off my enemies; and destroy all those who afflict my soul; for I am Your servant.

A Psalm of David.

¹Blessed be Jehovah my rock, who teaches my hands for war, my fingers for battle; ²my mercy and my fortress; my high tower and my deliverer; my shield, and in Him I take refuge; He who humbles my people under me. ³O Jehovah, what is man that You know him; the son of man, that you esteem him? ⁴Man is like to vanity; his days are like a shadow that passes. ⁵Bow down Your heavens, O Jehovah; and come down; touch the mountains and they shall smoke. ⁶Flash out lightning and scatter them; send out your arrows and confound them. ⁷Send Your hand from above; rescue me and deliver me out of great waters, from the hand of a foreigner's sons, ⁸whose mouths have spoken vanity; and their right hand is a right hand of lies. ⁹I will sing a new song to You, O God; I will sing praises to You on a harp of ten strings. ¹⁰*It is You* who gives salvation to kings, who delivers His servant David from the evil sword. ¹¹Rescue me and deliver me from the foreigner's sons, those whose mouths have spoken vanity; and their right hand is a right hand of lies; ¹²so that our sons may be like plants grown up in their youth; and our daughters like cornerstones hewn like a palace building; ¹³*and* our storehouses may be full, furnishing kind to kind; our flocks may breed thousands and ten thousands outside; ¹⁴our oxen may be laden; there is no break and no going out, and no crying in our plazas. ¹⁵Blessed is the people that is thus; blessed is the people whose God is Jehovah!

A Psalm of Praise, of David.

¹I will exalt you, my God, O king; and bless Your name forever and ever. ²I will bless You every day; and I will praise Your name forever and ever. ³Jehovah is great and to be greatly praised; and to His greatness there is no finding out. ⁴Generation to generation shall praise Your works; and shall declare Your mighty acts. ⁵I will muse on the glorious honor of Your majesty, and the things of Your wonderful works. ⁶And they shall speak of the might of Your awesome works; and I will declare Your greatness. ⁷They shall express the memory of Your great goodness, and they shall sing of Your righteousness. ⁸Jehovah is gracious and merciful, long to anger and of great mercy; ⁹Jehovah is good to all; and His tender mercies are over all His works. ¹⁰All Your works shall thank You, O Jehovah; and Your saints shall bless You. ¹¹They shall speak of the glory of Your kingdom, and talk of Your might; ¹²to make Your might known to the sons of men; yea, the glorious majesty of His kingdom. ¹³Your kingdom is a kingdom to all eternities; and Your rule in all, generation and generation. ¹⁴Jehovah upholds all who fall, and raises up all who are bowed down. ¹⁵The eyes of all hope to You; and You give them their food in due time. ¹⁶You open Your hand and satisfy the desire of every living thing. ¹⁷Jehovah is righteous in all His ways, and kind in all His works. ¹⁸Jehovah is near to all who call on Him, to all those who call on Him in truth. ¹⁹He will fulfill the desire of the ones who fear Him; and He will hear their cry and save them. ²⁰Jehovah watches over all who love Him; but He destroys all the wicked. ²¹My mouth shall speak the praise of Jehovah; and all flesh shall bless His holy name forever and ever.

¹Praise Jehovah; praise Jehovah, O my soul. ²While I live I will praise Jehovah; I will sing praises to my God while I still am here. ³Put not your trust in princes, in a son of man, for there is no salvation in him. ⁴His breath will go out, he returns to the earth; his thoughts perish in that day. ⁵Blessed is he who has the God of Jacob in his help; his hope is on Jehovah his God; ⁶who made the heavens and the earth, the seas and all that is in them; who keeps truth forever; ⁷who executes judgment for the oppressed; who gives food to the hungry; Jehovah sets free the prisoners; ⁸Jehovah opens the eyes of the blind; Jehovah raises those bowed down; Jehovah loves the righteous; ⁹Jehovah watches over the strangers; He relieves the orphan and the widow; but He warps the way of the wicked. ¹⁰Jehovah shall reign forever; O Zion, your God from generation and generation. Praise Jehovah.

¹Praise Jehovah; for it is good to sing praise to our God; because praise is delightful and becoming. ²Jehovah builds up Jerusalem; He gathers the outcasts of Israel. ³He heals the broken-hearted and binds up their sorrows. ⁴He appoints the number of the stars; He calls to them all by names. ⁵Our Lord is great and of great might; there is no limit to His understanding. ⁶Jehovah relieves the meek; He throws the wicked down to the ground. ⁷Sing to Jehovah with thanksgiving; sing praise on the lyre to our God, ⁸who covers the heavens with clouds; who prepares rain for the earth; who makes grass to grow on the mountains. ⁹He gives the animals their food, to the young ravens that cry. ¹⁰He takes no delight in the strength of the horse; nor any pleasure in the legs of a man. ¹¹Jehovah takes pleasure in those who fear Him; those who hope in His mercy. ¹²Praise Jehovah, O Jerusalem; praise your God, O Zion. ¹³For He has made strong the bars of your gates; He has blessed your sons within you. ¹⁴He makes peace in your border, He satisfies you with the fat of the wheat. ¹⁵He sends His command out upon the earth; His word runs very swiftly; ¹⁶He gives snow like wool; He scatters the white frost like ashes; ¹⁷He casts out His ice like crumbs; who can stand before His cold? ¹⁸He sends out His word and melts them; He causes His wind to blow, and the waters flow. ¹⁹He declares His word to Jacob, His statutes and His judgments to Israel. ²⁰He has not done so with any nation; and they have not known His judgments. Praise Jehovah!

¹Praise Jehovah! Praise Jehovah from the heavens; praise Him in the heights. ²Praise Him, all His angels; praise Him, all His hosts. ³Praise Him, sun and moon; praise Him, all you stars of light. ⁴Praise Him, O heavens of heavens; and O waters that are above the heavens. ⁵Let them praise the name of Jehovah; for He commanded, and they were created. ⁶And He established them forever and ever; He gave a decree that they not pass away. ⁷Let the sea-monsters and all deeps praise Jehovah from the earth; ⁸fire and hail; snow and smoke; stormy wind fulfilling His word; ⁹mountains and all hills; fruitful trees and all cedars; ¹⁰beasts and all livestock; creeping things and birds of the wing; ¹¹kings of the earth and all people; princes and all judges of the earth; ¹²both young men and virgins too; old men and youths. ¹³Let them praise the name of Jehovah; for His name alone is exalted; His glory is above the earth and heavens. ¹⁴He also lifts up the horn of His people, the praise of all His saints, of the sons of Israel, a people near to Him. Praise Jehovah!

bind their kings with chains and their nobles with iron bands; ²to execute on them the judgment written; this is an honor for all His saints. Praise Jehovah!

¹Praise Jehovah! Sing to Jehovah a new song, His praise in the assembly of the saints. ²Let Israel rejoice in Him who made him; let the sons of Zion be joyful in their King. ³Let them praise His name in the dance; let them sing praise to Him with the timbrel and lyre. ⁴For Jehovah takes pleasure in His people; He beautifies the meek with salvation. ⁵Let the saints be joyful in glory; let them sing aloud on their beds, and the exaltation of God be in their throat; and a two-edged sword in their hand, ⁶to execute vengeance on the nations, punishment on the peoples; ⁷to

¹Praise Jehovah! Praise God in His holy place; praise Him in the expanse of His might. ²Praise Him in His mighty acts; praise Him according to His excellent greatness. ³Praise Him with the sound of the trumpet; praise Him with the harp and lyre. ⁴Praise Him with the timbrel and dance; praise Him with stringed instruments and pipes. ⁵Praise Him on the sounding cymbals; praise Him with the resounding cymbals. ⁶Let everything that breathes praise Jehovah. Praise Jehovah!

THE BOOK OF PROVERBS

¹The Proverbs of Solomon, son of David, king of Israel: ²To know wisdom and instruction; to understand the words of understanding; ³to receive instruction in prudence, justice, and judgment, and uprightness; ⁴to give sense to the simple, knowledge and discretion to the young man— ⁵the wise hears and increases learning; and the understanding ones will get wise counsel—⁶to understand a proverb and an enigma; the words of the wise, and their acute sayings.

⁷The fear of Jehovah is the beginning of knowledge; fools despise wisdom and instruction. ⁸My son, hear your father's instruction; and do not forsake the teaching of your mother; ⁹for they shall be an ornament of grace to your head, and chains for your neck. ¹⁰My son, if sinners lure you, do not be willing. ¹¹If they say, Walk with us, let us lie in wait for blood; let us secretly lurk for the innocent without cause; ¹²let us swallow them up alive as Sheol; and whole, as those who go down into the Pit, ¹³we shall find all precious goods; we shall fill our houses with plunder; ¹⁴cast in your lot among us; one purse shall be to all of us. ¹⁵My son, do not walk in the way with them! Hold back your foot from their path; ¹⁶for their feet run to evil and they haste to shed blood. ¹⁷For in vain the net is spread in the sight of every bird. ¹⁸And they lie in wait for their own blood; they lurk secretly for their own souls. ¹⁹So are the ways of everyone who gets unjust gain; it takes away its owner's soul.

²⁵but you have ignored all my counsel; you did not want my warning; ²⁶I also will laugh in your calamity, I will mock when your dread comes; ²⁷when your dread comes like a storm; and your calamity arrives like a hurricane; when distress and constraint come on you. ²⁸Then they shall call on me, and I will not answer; they shall seek me early, but they shall not find me. ²⁹Instead they hated knowledge and chose not the fear of Jehovah. ³⁰They did not want my counsel; they despised all my reproof; ³¹and they shall eat of the fruit of their own way, and be filled with their own lusts. ³²For the going astray of the simple kills them; and the ease of fools destroys them. ³³But he who listens to me shall live securely, and shall be at ease from the dread of evil.

¹My son, if you will receive My words, and treasure up My commandments with you, ²so that you attend to wisdom, you shall extend your heart to understanding; ³for if you cry for discernment, lifting up your voice for understanding; ⁴if you seek her as silver, and search for her as hidden treasures; ⁵then you shall understand the fear of Jehovah, and find knowledge of God. ⁶For Jehovah gives wisdom; out of His mouth come knowledge and understanding. ⁷He lays up sound wisdom for the upright; He is a shield to the ones who walk in integrity, ⁸to guard the paths of judgment, and He protects the way of His saints. ⁹Then you shall understand righteousness and judgment and honesty; yea, every good path. ¹⁰When wisdom enters into your heart; and knowledge is pleasing to your soul; ¹¹discretion shall keep you; understanding shall watch over you; ¹²to deliver you from the evil way; from the man who speaks perverse things; ¹³those who leave the paths of uprightness to walk in the ways of darkness; ¹⁴who rejoice to do evil; they delight in the perversities of the wicked; ¹⁵whose paths are crooked, who are devious in their tracks. ¹⁶*These will* deliver you from the strange woman, from the foreigner who flatters with her words; ¹⁷who forsakes the guide of her youth, and forgets the covenant of her God. ¹⁸For her house leads down to death, and her tracks to the departed spirits. ¹⁹All going in to her do not return; nor do they reach the ways of life. ²⁰Then you may walk in the ways of the good, and keep the ways of the righteous. ²¹For the upright shall live in the land; and the perfect shall remain in it. ²²But the wicked shall be cut off from the earth; and the transgressors shall be rooted out of it.

¹My son, do not forget my law; but let your heart keep my commands; ²for they shall add length of days, and long life and peace to you. ³Mercy and truth will not forsake you; tie them on your neck; write them on the tablet of your heart; ⁴and you shall find favor and good understanding in the sight of God and man. ⁵Trust in Jehovah with all your heart; and lean not to your own understanding. ⁶In all your ways acknowledge Him, and He shall direct your paths. ⁷Do not be wise in your own eyes; fear Jehovah and depart from evil. ⁸Healing shall be to your navel and marrow to your bones. ⁹Honor Jehovah with your substance, and with the first-fruits of all your increase; ¹⁰and your barns shall be filled with plenty; and your presses shall burst with new wine. ¹¹My son, do not reject the chastening of Jehovah; and do not loathe His correction; ¹²for whom Jehovah loves He corrects, even as a father the son he loves.

¹³Happy is the man who finds wisdom, and the man who gets understanding. ¹⁴For its gain is better than the gain from silver; and its produce more than fine gold; ¹⁵she is more precious than rubies; and all the things you can desire are not to be compared with her. ¹⁶Length of days is in her right hand; riches and honor in her left hand. ¹⁷Her ways are ways of pleasantness, and all her paths peace. ¹⁸She is a tree of life to the ones who lay hold on her; and happy are the ones holding her fast. ¹⁹Jehovah founded the earth by wisdom; He founded the heavens by understanding; ²⁰the depths were broken up by His knowledge; and the clouds dropped down the dew. ²¹My son, do not let them depart from your eyes; keep sound wisdom and judgment; ²²and they shall be life to your soul, and grace to your neck; ²³then you shall walk in your way safely; and your foot shall not stumble. ²⁴When you lie down, you shall not dread; yea, you shall lie down and your sleep shall be sweet. ²⁵Do not be afraid of sudden terror; nor of the destruction of the wicked, when it comes. ²⁶For Jehovah shall be at your side; and He shall keep your foot from being caught.

²⁷Do not withhold good from those to whom it is due, when it is in the power of your hand to do it. ²⁸Do not say to your neighbor, Go and come back again; or, Tomorrow I will give; when you have it beside you. ²⁹Do not plan evil against your neighbor, since he lives trustingly by you. ³⁰Do not strive with a man without cause, if he has done you no harm. ³¹Do not envy the cruel man, and choose not among all his ways. ³²For the perverse one is hateful to Jehovah, but His intimacy is with the righteous. ³³The curse of Jehovah is in the house of the wicked; but He blesses the abode of the just. ³⁴Surely He scorns the scorners; but He gives grace to the lowly. ³⁵The wise inherit honor, but the foolish exalt shame.

¹Sons, hear the instruction of a father; and listen so as to know understanding. ²For I give you good teaching; do not forsake my law. ³For I was my father's son, tender, and an only one in the sight of my mother. ⁴And he taught me and said to me, Let your heart cling to my words; keep my commands and live. ⁵Get wisdom, get understanding; do not forsake and do not turn away from the words of my mouth. ⁶Do not forsake her, and she will preserve you; love her, and she will keep you. ⁷Wisdom is the main thing; get wisdom; and with all your getting, get understanding. ⁸Exalt her, and she will lift you up; she shall bring you to honor when you embrace her. ⁹She shall give a wreath of grace to your head; she shall shield you with a crown of glory.

¹⁰O my son, hear and receive my sayings; and the years of your life shall be many. ¹¹I have taught you in the way of wisdom; I have led you in the right tracks; ¹²when you go, your tracks shall not be narrowed; and when you run, you shall not stumble. ¹³Take fast hold of instruction; do not let her go; keep her, for she is your life. ¹⁴Do not enter the path of the wicked; and do not go in the way of evildoers. ¹⁵Avoid it; do not pass by it; turn from it and pass on. ¹⁶For they do not sleep if they have done no evil; and their sleep is taken away unless they cause some to fall. ¹⁷For they eat the bread of wickedness, and drink the wine of violence. ¹⁸But the path of the just is as a bright light going on and shining till the day is established. ¹⁹The way of the wicked is as darkness; they do not know at what they stumble. ²⁰My son, listen to my words; bow your ear to what I say; ²¹let them not depart from your eyes; keep them in the center of your heart; ²²for they are life to those who find them; and healing to all his flesh. ²³Keep your heart with all diligence, for out of it are the issues of life. ²⁴Turn away from you the crooked mouth, and put perverse lips far from you. ²⁵Let your eyes look straight ahead; and let your eyelids look straight before you. ²⁶Study the track of your feet; then all your ways will be established. ²⁷Do not turn to the right hand or to the left; turn your foot aside from evil.

¹My son, listen to my wisdom; bow your ears to my understanding; ²so that you may keep judgment, and your lips may keep knowledge. ³For the lips of a strange woman drip honey, and her palate is sweeter than oil; ⁴but afterwards, she is bitter as wormwood, sharp as a sword of mouths; ⁵her feet go down to death; her steps take hold on hell. ⁶Lest you should meditate on the path of life, her tracks are movable — you cannot know them.

⁷Then hear me now, O sons, and do not depart from the words of my mouth. ⁸Remove your ways far from her; and do not come near to the door of her house; ⁹lest you give your honor to others, and your years to the cruel; ¹⁰that strangers not be filled with your strength; and your labors be in the house of an alien; ¹¹and you moan when your end comes; when your flesh and muscle are eaten away; ¹²and say, How I have hated instruction; and my heart despised correction; ¹³and I have not bowed to the voice of my teachers; nor bowed my ears to those instructing me. ¹⁴I was almost in all evil in the midst of the congregation and assembly.

¹⁵Drink waters out of your own cistern, and running waters out of your own well. ¹⁶Should your overflowing springs be scattered outside, like rivers of waters in the streets? ¹⁷Let them be only your own, and not to strangers with you; ¹⁸let your fountains be blessed; and rejoice with the wife of your youth; ¹⁹she is a loving deer, a graceful doe; let her breasts satisfy you every time; and always be ravished in her love. ²⁰And my son, why will you be ravished with a strange woman, and embrace a foreigner's bosom? ²¹For the ways of man are before the eyes of Jehovah; and He ponders all his tracks. ²²His own iniquities shall take the wicked himself; and he shall be held with the cords of his sin. ²³He shall die without instruction; and in the greatness of his foolishness, he shall go astray.

¹My son, if you are surety for your friend, if you struck your palms with an alien, ²you are snared with the words of your mouth; you are captured with the words of your own mouth. ³My son, do this then, and deliver yourself when you come into the palm of your friend: go lower yourself and be bold to your friend. ⁴Do not give sleep to your eyes, or slumber to your eyelids. ⁵Deliver yourself like a gazelle from a hand of a hunter, and as a bird from the fowler's hand.

⁶Go to the ant, lazy man; consider her ways and be wise; ⁷who, having no guide, overseer or ruler, ⁸provides her bread in the summer; gathers her food in the harvest. ⁹How long will you lie down, O lazy man? When will you arise out of your sleep? ¹⁰A little sleep, a little slumber; a little folding of the hands to lie down; ¹¹so shall your poverty come as one walking, and your need like an armed man. ¹²A worthless person, a wicked man, walks with a perverse mouth, ¹³winking with his eyes; he speaking with his feet; teaching with his fingers; ¹⁴perversity is in his heart; he is plotting evil at every time, he sends out strife. ¹⁵On account of this, calamity shall come suddenly; he is quickly broken and there is no healing. ¹⁶These six things Jehovah hates; yea, seven are hateful to His soul; ¹⁷a proud look, a lying tongue, and hands that shed innocent blood; ¹⁸a heart that plots evil plans; feet hurrying to run to mischief; ¹⁹a false witness who breathes lies; and he who causes strife among brothers.

²⁰My son, keep your father's commands; and do not forsake the law of your mother. ²¹Tie them to your heart forever; tie them around your neck. ²²When you go, it shall lead you; when you sleep, it shall watch over you; and when you awaken, it will meditate with you. ²³For the commandment is a lamp; and the law a light; and reproofs of instruction are a way of life; ²⁴to keep you from the evil woman, from the flattery of the tongue of the strange woman. ²⁵Do not lust after her beauty in your heart; and do not let her take you with her eyelids. ²⁶For on account of a woman, a harlot, a man comes to the last loaf of bread; and another man's wife will hunt for the precious soul. ²⁷Can a man take fire into his bosom and his clothes not be burned? ²⁸Or can a man walk on hot coals and his feet not be burned? ²⁹*So is* he who goes in to his neighbor's wife; everyone touching her shall not be innocent. ³⁰They do not despise a thief, if he steals to fill his appetite when he is hungry. ³¹But if he is found, he shall restore sevenfold; he shall give all the goods of his house. ³²He who commits adultery with a woman lacks heart; he who does it is a destroyer of his own soul. ³³He shall find a wound and dishonor; and his shame shall not be wiped away. ³⁴For jealousy is the rage of a man, and he will not spare in the day of vengeance. ³⁵He will not lift up the face of every ransom; nor will he consent if you multiply the bribes.

¹My son, keep my words and store up my commands within you. ²Keep my commands and live; and my law as the pupil of your eye. ³Tie them on your fingers; write them on the tablet of your heart. ⁴Say to wisdom, You are my sister; and call understanding your kinsman; ⁵so that they may keep you from the strange woman, from the alien with her flattering words. ⁶For I looked through my lattice, at the window of my house, ⁷and I saw among the simple ones; I observed among the sons a young man lacking heart; ⁸passing through the street near her corner; and he went the way to her house; ⁹in the twilight, in the evening; in the black and darkness of night. ¹⁰And, behold, a woman to meet him, with a harlot's dress, and a guarded heart; ¹¹she is loud and stubborn; her feet do not stay in her own house. ¹²At this time she is outside, now in the streets, and she lies in wait at every corner; ¹³and she seizes him and kisses him; she hardens her face and says to him, ¹⁴Sacrifices of peace offerings are on me; today I have paid my vows; ¹⁵so I came out to meet you, earnestly to seek your face; and I have found you. ¹⁶I have spread my couch with coverings; with striped cloths of Egyptian linen. ¹⁷I have sprinkled my bed with myrrh, aloes and cinnamon. ¹⁸Come, let us take our fill of love until the morning; let us delight ourselves with caresses. ¹⁹For my husband is not at his house; he is going in the way, far away. ²⁰He has taken a bag of silver in his hand; at the day of the full moon, he will enter his house. ²¹With the sum of her persuasion she turned him aside; with the flattering of her lips, she forced him. ²²He goes after her immediately, as an ox goes to the slaughter; or as one in fetters goes to the correction of a fool; ²³until an arrow strikes through his liver; as a bird hastens to the snare, and not knowing that it is for his soul.

²⁴Now, then, listen to me, O sons; and attend to the words of my mouth: ²⁵Do not let your heart turn aside to her ways; do not go astray in her paths. ²⁶For many are the wounded she has caused to fall; and plentiful all her slain ones. ²⁷The ways of Sheol are in her house, leading down to the rooms of death.

²²Jehovah possessed Me in the beginning of His way, from then, before His works. ²³I was set up from everlasting; from the beginning, before the earth ever was. ²⁴When there were no depths, I was brought forth; when there were no springs heavy with water. ²⁵Before the mountains were settled; before the hills, I was brought forth; ²⁶before He had made the earth, and the fields, or the highest part of the dust of the world. ²⁷When He prepared the heavens, I was there; when He set a circle on the face of the deep; ²⁸when He set the clouds above; when He made the strong fountains of the deep; ²⁹when He gave to the sea its limit, that the waters should not go beyond His commands; when He decreed the foundations of the earth; ³⁰then I was at His side, like a master workman; and I was His delights day by day, rejoicing before Him at every time; ³¹rejoicing in the world, His earth; and My delights were with the sons of men.

³²And now listen to Me, O sons; for blessed are those who keep My ways. ³³Hear instruction, and be wise, and do not refuse it. ³⁴Blessed is the man listening to Me, watching daily at My gates, waiting at the posts of My doors. ³⁵For whoever finds Me finds life; and he shall obtain favor from Jehovah. ³⁶But he who sins against Me does violence to his own soul; all who hate Me love death.

¹Wisdom has built her house; she has carved out her seven pillars; ²she has slaughtered her slaughter; she has mixed her wine; she has also set her table. ³She has sent out her maidens; she cries on the highest places of the city; ⁴The simple one, turn in here; and to one lacking heart, she says to him: ⁵Come, eat of my bread, and drink of the wine I have mixed. ⁶Forsake the foolish, and live; and go in the way of understanding.

⁷He who reproves a scorner gets shame to himself; and he who rebukes a wicked man gets his own blot. ⁸Do not reprove a scorner, that he not hate you; rebuke a wise man, and he will love you. ⁹Give to a wise one, and he will be more wise; teach a just one, and he will increase in learning. ¹⁰The fear of Jehovah is the beginning of wisdom; and the knowledge of the Holy Ones is understanding. ¹¹For by Me your days shall be multiplied; and the years of your life shall be increased. ¹²If you are wise, you shall be wise for yourself; but if you scorn, you alone shall bear it. ¹³A foolish woman is loud; she is thoughtlessness; and she knows not what. ¹⁴And she sits at the door of her house, in a seat in the high places of the city; ¹⁵to call those who pass by; who are going straight on their ways; ¹⁶The simple one, let him turn in here; and to the one lacking heart, she says to him: ¹⁷Stolen waters are sweet, and bread eaten in secret is pleasant. ¹⁸But he does not know that the departed spirits are there; her guests are in the depths of hell.

¹The proverbs of Solomon: A wise son makes a father rejoice; but the foolish son is his mother's sorrow. ²Treasures of wickedness profit nothing; but righteousness delivers from death. ³Jehovah will not allow the soul of the righteous to go hungry; but He pushes away the desire of the wicked. ⁴He who deals with a lazy palm becomes poor; but the hand of the hard worker makes him rich. ⁵He who gathers in summer is a prudent son; he who sleeps in harvest is a son who causes shame. ⁶Blessings are on the head of the just; but violence covers the mouth of the wicked. ⁷The memory of the just is blessed; but the name of the wicked shall rot. ⁸The wise in heart accepts commands; but the foolish of lips shall be thrust away. ⁹He who walks in integrity walks securely; but he who perverts his way shall be found out. ¹⁰He who winks the eye causes sorrow; but the foolish of lips shall be thrust away. ¹¹The mouth of the righteous is a fountain of life; but violence covers the mouth of the wicked. ¹²Hatred stirs up fights; but love covers all transgressions. ¹³Wisdom is found in the lips of him who has understanding; but a rod is waiting for him who lacks heart. ¹⁴The wise store up knowledge; but the mouth of the foolish is near ruin. ¹⁵The rich man's wealth is his strong city; the ruin of the poor is their poverty.

²³To work out evil devices is as laughter to the foolish; so wisdom is to a man of understanding. ²⁴That which the wicked fears shall come upon him; but the desire of the righteous is granted. ²⁵As the storm passes, so the wicked is not; but the righteous is an everlasting foundation. ²⁶Like vinegar to the teeth, and like smoke to the eyes, so is the lazy one to those who send him. ²⁷The fear of Jehovah prolongs days; but the years of the wicked shall be cut short. ²⁸The expectation of the righteous is joyful; but the hope of the wicked shall perish. ²⁹The way of Jehovah is strength to the upright; but ruin is to workers of iniquity. ³⁰The righteous shall never be moved; and the wicked shall not dwell in the land. ³¹The mouth of the just flourishes with wisdom; but the perverse tongue shall be cut off. ³²The lips of the righteous know what is pleasing; but the mouth of the wicked knows only perversities.

¹False balances are hateful to Jehovah; but a perfect stone His delight. ²Pride comes—then shame comes—but with the lowly is wisdom. ³The integrity of the upright guides them; but the perversity of traitors will devastate them. ⁴Riches do not profit in the day of wrath; but righteousness delivers from death. ⁵The righteousness of the perfect shall make his way right; but the wicked shall fall by his own wickedness. ⁶The righteousness of the upright shall deliver them; but traitors shall be taken in their lust. ⁷In the death of a wicked man, his expectation shall perish, and the hope of the unjust shall be lost. ⁸The righteous is delivered from distress; and the wicked comes in his place. ⁹The ungodly is corrupting his neighbor with his mouth; but the just is delivered by knowledge. ¹⁰When the righteous prospers, the city rejoices; and at the wicked's perishing is singing. ¹¹A city is lifted up by the blessing of the upright; but by the wicked's mouth it is overthrown. ¹²One despising his friend lacks heart—but an understanding man remains silent. ¹³A slanderer is a revealer of secrets; but the faithful of spirit keeps a matter hidden.

¹⁴Without guidance the people fall; but safety is in a great counselor. ¹⁵One suffers evil when he is surety for a stranger; but one hating strikers of hands is safe. ¹⁶A gracious woman holds to honor; and terrifying men hold to riches. ¹⁷A merciful man does good to his own soul; but the cruel troubles his own flesh. ¹⁸The wicked makes a deceitful wage; but one sowing righteousness has a reward of truth. ¹⁹So righteousness leads to life; but one pursuing evil, to his death. ²⁰Hateful to Jehovah are the perverse hearted; but His delight is the upright in way. ²¹*Though* hand join to hand, the evil shall not be innocent; but the righteous seed escapes. ²²*As* a ring of gold in a swine's snout, so is a woman who is beautiful, yet turning aside discretion. ²³The desire of the righteous is only good; the hope of the wicked is wrath. ²⁴There is one who scatters yet increases more; but a withholder of just due comes only to poverty. ²⁵The blessed soul will be made fat; he who waters will also drink fully. ²⁶One holding back grain, the people curse him; but a blessing is to the head of one selling grain. ²⁷He who early is seeking good seeks favor; but one pursuing evil, it shall come to him. ²⁸One trusting in his riches, he shall fall; but like a green leaf the righteous shall sprout. ²⁹One troubling his house inherits the wind; and the fool is servant to the wise of heart. ³⁰The fruit of the righteous is a tree of life; and he who takes souls is wise. ³¹Behold, the righteous shall be rewarded in the earth; much more the wicked and the sinner.

throw the wicked, and they are not; but the house of the righteous stands. ⁸A man shall be praised according to his wisdom; but he who is of a crooked heart shall be despised. ⁹*He who* is despised, and has a servant, is better than one being honored and lacking bread. ¹⁰The righteous knows the life of his animal; but the mercies of the wicked are cruel. ¹¹He who tills his land shall be satisfied with bread; but he chasing vanities lacks heart. ¹²The wicked desires the net of evils, but the root of the righteous gives fruit. ¹³In the transgression of the lips is the snare of evil; but the righteous will come out from distress.

¹⁴A man shall be satisfied with good by the fruit of the mouth; and the dealing of man's hands shall be given back to him. ¹⁵The way of a fool is right in his own eyes; but he who listens to advice is wise. ¹⁶A fool's vexation is known in a day; but the astute one covers shame. ¹⁷He who breathes faithfulness reveals righteousness; but a false witness deceit. ¹⁸There is a rash speaking like thrusts of a sword; but the tongue of the wise heals. ¹⁹The lips of truth are established forever; but a lying tongue is only while I wink. ²⁰Deceit is in the heart of those who plot evil; but to counselors of peace is joy. ²¹No trouble shall happen to the just; but the wicked shall be filled with evil. ²²Lying lips are hateful to Jehovah; but those who deal faithfulness are His delight. ²³A wise man conceals knowledge; but the heart of fools calls out their folly. ²⁴The hand of the hard worker shall rule; but the deceitful will become forced labor. ²⁵Heaviness in a man's heart makes it droop, but a good word makes it glad. ²⁶The righteous searches out with his friend; but the way of the wicked leads them astray. ²⁷The slacker does not start after his game; but the wealth of a working man is precious. ²⁸In the way of righteousness is life; and in that pathway is no death.

violence. ³He who guards his mouth keeps his life; he who opens his lips wide is ruined. ⁴The sluggard's soul is craving, but is not getting; but the soul of the hard workers shall be made fat. ⁵The righteous hates lying; but the wicked is odious and acts shamefully. ⁶Righteousness keeps the upright one in the way; but wickedness overthrows sin. ⁷There are those who act rich, yet have nothing at all; and those who act poor, yet have great wealth. ⁸The ransom of a man's life is his riches, but the poor man does not hear rebuke. ⁹The light of the righteous rejoices; but the lamp of the wicked shall be put out. ¹⁰Argument only comes by pride; but wisdom is with those who take advice. ¹¹Wealth from vanity shall be diminished; but he who gathers by labor shall increase. ¹²Hope deferred makes the heart sick; but desire fulfilled is a tree of life. ¹³He who despises the word shall be destroyed; but he who fears the commandment shall be rewarded. ¹⁴The law of the wise is a fountain of life, to depart from the snares of death. ¹⁵Good sense gives grace; but the way of the treacherous is continual. ¹⁶Every prudent one deals with knowledge; but a fool lays open his foolishness. ¹⁷A wicked messenger falls into evil; but a faithful ambassador is healing. ¹⁸Poverty and shame shall be to him who refuses instruction; but he who keeps to correction shall be honored. ¹⁹The desire coming to pass is sweet to the soul; but to depart from evil is hateful to fools. ²⁰He who walks with the wise shall be wise; but a feeder of fools shall be broken. ²¹Evil pursues sinners; but the righteous shall be rewarded with good. ²²A good man leaves an inheritance to his son's sons; but the wealth of the sinner is laid up for the just. ²³The tilled ground of the poor yields much food; but without justice, it is swept away. ²⁴He who spares his rod hates his son; but he who loves him seeks him with correction. ²⁵The righteous eats to the satisfying of his appetite; but the belly of the wicked shall lack.

¹A wise woman builds her house, but the foolish pulls it down with her own hands. ²He who walks in his uprightness

fears Jehovah; but the perverse in his ways despises Him. ³A rod of pride is in the mouth of a fool; but the lips of the wise shall keep them. ⁴The stall is empty where there are no oxen; but much gain is by the strength of an ox. ⁵A faithful witness will not lie; but a false witness breathes lies. ⁶A scorner seeks wisdom but finds it not; yet knowledge is swift to the discerning. ⁷Leave a foolish man, or you will not see the lips of knowledge. ⁸The wisdom of the wise is to understand his way; but the foolishness of fools is deceit. ⁹Fools laugh at guilt-offering; but among the righteous is favor. ¹⁰The heart knows the bitterness of its soul; and a stranger does not mix in its joy. ¹¹The wicked's house shall be thrown down; but the tent of the upright will flourish. ¹²There is a way that seems right to a man; but the end of it is the way of death. ¹³Even in laughter the heart is sorrowful; and the end of that joy is heaviness. ¹⁴The backslider in heart shall be filled with his own ways; but a good man from himself. ¹⁵The simple believes every word; but the wise considers his step. ¹⁶The wise fears and departs from evil; but the fool rages and is sure. ¹⁷He who is short of temper acts foolishly; and a man of evil plots is hated. ¹⁸The simple inherit foolishness; but the wise are crowned with knowledge. ¹⁹The evil bow before the good; yea, the wicked at the gates of the just. ²⁰The poor is hated even by his own neighbor; but the rich has many friends. ²¹He who despises his neighbor sins; but he who has mercy on the poor, O how happy is he! ²²Do not those who think evil go astray? But mercy and truth will be to those who think of good. ²³In all labor there is profit; but the talk of the lips tends only to poverty. ²⁴The crown of the wise is their riches of wisdom; the foolishness of fools is folly. ²⁵A true witness delivers souls; but a deceitful witness speaks lies. ²⁶In the fear of Jehovah is strong trust; and His sons shall have a hiding place. ²⁷The fear of Jehovah is a fountain of life, to turn away from snares of death. ²⁸In the multitude of people is the king's glory; but in the lack of people is the ruin of a prince. ²⁹One slow to anger is of great understanding; but he who is short of spirit exalts folly. ³⁰A healthy heart is the life of the flesh; but envy is the rottenness of the bones. ³¹He who oppresses the poor curses his Maker; but he who honors Him has mercy on the needy. ³²The wicked is thrust out in his wickedness; but the righteous has hope in his death. ³³Wisdom rests in the heart of the intelligent; and among fools it is revealed. ³⁴Righteousness exalts a nation; but sin is a shame to any people. ³⁵The king's favor is toward a servant who acts prudently; but his wrath takes place on one causing shame.

¹A soft answer turns away wrath; but a hurtful word stirs up anger. ²The tongue of the wise uses knowledge rightly; but the mouth of fools pours out foolishness. ³The eyes of Jehovah are in every place, watching the evil and the good. ⁴A wholesome tongue is a tree of life; but perverseness in it is a break of the spirit. ⁵A fool despises his father's instruction; but he keeping correction is sensible. ⁶In the house of the righteous is much treasure; but in the gain of the wicked is trouble. ⁷The lips of the wise extend knowledge; but the heart of the fool is not so. ⁸The sacrifice of the wicked is a hateful thing to Jehovah; but the prayer of the upright is His delight. ⁹The way of the wicked is hateful to Jehovah; but He loves him who pursues righteousness. ¹⁰Discipline is grievous to him who forsakes the way; he who hates reproof shall die. ¹¹Hell and destruction are before Jehovah; even more the hearts of the sons of men! ¹²A scornor loves not one who corrects him; nor will he go to the wise. ¹³A joyful heart makes a good face; but by grief of heart the spirit is stricken. ¹⁴The heart of the understanding one seeks knowledge; but the mouth of fools feeds on folly. ¹⁵All the days of the afflicted are evil; but gladness of heart is a continual feast. ¹⁶Better is a little with the fear of Jehovah than great treasure and tumult with it. ¹⁷Better is a dinner of vegetables where love is, than a stalled ox and hatred with it. ¹⁸A furious man stirs up quarreling; but he who is slow to anger calms fighting. ¹⁹The way of the lazy one is like a hedge of thorns; but the path of the righteous is exalted. ²⁰A wise son makes a glad father; but a foolish man despises his mother. ²¹Foolishness is joy to him who lacks understanding; but a man of understanding walks straight. ²²Without counsel, purposes are broken; but by great counselors they rise. ²³A man has joy by the answer of his mouth; and how good is a word in its season! ²⁴The path of life is upward to the prudent, that he may turn away from Sheol downward. ²⁵Jehovah will destroy the house of the proud; but He will set up the widow's border. ²⁶The thoughts of the wicked are very hateful to Jehovah; but the words of pleasantness are pure. ²⁷He who is greedy for gain troubles his own house; but he who hates bribes shall live. ²⁸The heart of the righteous muses how to answer; but the mouth of the wicked pours out evil things. ²⁹Jehovah is far from the wicked; but He hears the prayer of the righteous. ³⁰The light of the eyes rejoices the heart; a good report makes the bones fat. ³¹The ear that hears the reproof of life shall remain among the wise. ³²He who ignores correction despises his own soul; but he who hears reproof gets understanding. ³³The fear of Jehovah is instruction in wisdom; and before honor is humility.

¹The orderings of the heart are for man, and the answer of the tongue from Jehovah. ²All the ways of a man are pure in his own eyes; but Jehovah weighs the spirits. ³Roll your works on Jehovah, and your thoughts shall be blessed. ⁴Jehovah has made all for His purpose; yea, even the wicked for the day of evil. ⁵Everyone proud in heart is disgusting to Jehovah; though hand join in hand, he shall not be innocent. ⁶Iniquity is covered by mercy and truth; and in the fear of Jehovah, men turn aside from evil. ⁷When a man's ways please Jehovah, He makes even his enemies to be at peace with him. ⁸Better is a little with righteousness than great increase without right. ⁹A man's heart plans his way, but Jehovah fixes his step. ¹⁰A godly decision is on the lips of the king; his mouth is not treacherous in judgment. ¹¹A just scale and balances are to Jehovah; all the stones of the bag are

His work. ¹²*It is an abomination for kings to commit wickedness; for the throne is made firm by righteousness.* ¹³*Righteous lips are the kings' delight; and he speaking uprightly is loved.* ¹⁴*A king's fury is as messengers of death; but a wise man will cover it.* ¹⁵*In the light of the face of the king is life; and his favor is like a cloud of the latter rain.* ¹⁶*How much better to get wisdom than gold! And to get understanding is to be chosen above silver.* ¹⁷*The way of the upright is to turn away from evil; he keeping his soul watches his way.* ¹⁸*Pride goes before destruction, and a haughty spirit before a fall.* ¹⁹*It is better to be of a lowly spirit with the poor than to divide the spoil with the proud.* ²⁰*He who acts prudently shall find good; and he who trusts in Jehovah, O how happy is he!* ²¹*The wise in heart shall be called prudent; and sweetness of lips increases learning.* ²²*Prudence is a fountain of life to those who own it; but the teaching of fools is folly.* ²³*The heart of the wise makes his mouth prudent and he adds learning on his lips.* ²⁴*Pleasant words are an overflowing of honey, sweetness to the soul and healing to the bones.* ²⁵*There is a way that seems right to a man's face, but the end of it is the ways of death.* ²⁶*He who labors works for himself; for his mouth urges him on.* ²⁷*A worthless man plots evil; and on his lips it is like a burning fire.*

gold, but Jehovah tries the hearts. ⁴*An evildoer gives heed to false lips; a liar listens to a tongue of evil desire.* ⁵*Whoever scorns the poor reviles his Maker; he who rejoices at calamity shall not be innocent.* ⁶*Grandsons are the crown of old men; and the glory of sons is their fathers.* ⁷*An arrogant lip is not fitting for a fool; much less are lying lips for a noble.* ⁸*A bribe is a precious stone in the eyes of him who possesses it; wherever he turns, he is circumspect.* ⁹*He who covers a transgression seeks love; but he who repeats a matter separates friends.* ¹⁰*A reproof enters more into a wise man than a hundred stripes into a fool.* ¹¹*A rebel seeks evil, so a cruel messenger is sent against him.* ¹²*Let a bear bereaved of her cubs meet a man, rather than a fool in his foolishness.* ¹³*Whoever rewards evil for good, evil shall not depart from his house.* ¹⁴*The beginning of strife is like the releasing of water; therefore, leave off fighting before it breaks out.* ¹⁵*He who justifies the wicked, and he who condemns the just, even both of them are disgusting to Jehovah.* ¹⁶*Why is there hire in a fool's hand to get wisdom, and there is no heart for it.* ¹⁷*A friend loves at every time; but a brother is born for the time of trouble.* ¹⁸*A man lacking heart strikes the palm; he pledges in the presence of his friend.* ¹⁹*He loving strife loves rebellion; he who exalts his door seeks shattering.* ²⁰*One crooked of heart does not find good; and he who is perverse in his tongue falls into evil.* ²¹*He who fathers a fool has sorrow for it; yea, the father of a fool has no joy.* ²²*A cheerful heart makes good healing; but a stricken spirit dries the bone.* ²³*The wicked takes a bribe out of the bosom to stretch the paths of justice.*

²⁴*With the face of the wise is wisdom; but a fool's eyes are in the ends of the earth.* ²⁵*A foolish son is a vexation to his father; and bitterness to her who bore him.* ²⁶*And it is not good to punish the just; to strike leaders for uprightness.* ²⁷*He who restrains his words knows knowledge; and one rare of spirit is a man of understanding.* ²⁸*Even a fool who is silent is counted wise; he who shuts his lips is counted as understanding.*

¹He who separates himself seeks his own desire; he breaks out against all sound wisdom. ²A fool has no delight in understanding, but only in uncovering his heart. ³When the wicked comes, scorn comes, too; and with shame comes reproach. ⁴The words of a man's mouth are like deep waters; the fountain of wisdom like a flowing brook. ⁵To lift up the face of the wicked is not good; nor to turn aside the righteous in judgment. ⁶A fool's lips enter into strife; and his mouth calls for strokes. ⁷A fool's mouth is his destruction, and his lips are a snare of his soul. ⁸The words of a talebearer are as wounds; yea, they go down into the innermost chambers of the belly. ⁹And he who is slack in his work, he is a brother to a master destroyer. ¹⁰The name of Jehovah is a tower of strength; the righteous runs into it, and is set on high. ¹¹The rich man's wealth is his strong city; and as a high wall in his imagination. ¹²A man's heart is haughty before shattering; but humility goes before honor. ¹³If one turns back a matter before he hears, it is folly and shame to him. ¹⁴The spirit of a man will nourish his sickness; but who can bear a wounded spirit? ¹⁵The heart of the prudent gets knowledge; and the ear of the wise seeks knowledge. ¹⁶A man's bribe makes room for him and brings him before great men. ¹⁷*He who is* first in his cause seems just; but his neighbor comes and searches him. ¹⁸The lot causes arguments to cease, and divides between the mighty. ¹⁹An offended brother is worse than a fortified city; yea, their contentions are like the bars of a castle. ²⁰A man's belly shall be satisfied with the fruit of his mouth; he shall be satisfied with the produce of his lips. ²¹Death and life are in the power of the tongue; and those who love it shall eat its fruit. ²²*Whoever* finds a wife finds good, and gets favor from Jehovah. ²³The poor speak with entreaties, but the rich answer fiercely. ²⁴A man of friends may be broken up; but there is a Lover who sticks closer than a brother.

who is a fool. Also, without knowledge the soul is not good; and he who hurries with his feet sins. ³The foolishness of man overturns his way; and his heart rages against Jehovah. ⁴Wealth makes many friends; but the poor is separated from his neighbor. ⁵A false witness shall not be clean; yea, he who speaks lies shall not escape. ⁶Many will beg the favor of a noble; and all are friends to him who give gifts. ⁷All the poor man's brothers hate him; and his friends also surely leave him; he pursues them with words, yet they are not. ⁸He who gets heart loves his own soul; he who keeps understanding finds good. ⁹A false witness shall not be acquitted; yea, he who speaks lies shall perish. ¹⁰Luxury is not becoming for a fool; much less for a servant to rule over princes. ¹¹A man's discretion makes his anger slow; and his glory is to pass over a transgression. ¹²The king's wrath is like a lion's roar; but his favor is like dew on the grass. ¹³A foolish son is calamity to his father; and a wife's quarrelings a never-ending dripping.

¹⁴House and riches are the inheritance of fathers; but a prudent wife is from Jehovah. ¹⁵Laziness makes one fall into a deep sleep; and an idle soul shall suffer hunger. ¹⁶He who keeps the commandment keeps his own soul; he who despises His ways shall die. ¹⁷He who has pity on the poor lends to Jehovah; and He will reward his dealing to him. ¹⁸Chasten your son, for there is hope; and do not set your soul on making him die. ¹⁹A man great of fury will have to pay the fine; for if you deliver him, then you must do it again. ²⁰Hear advice and receive instruction, that you may be wise in your latter end. ²¹Many purposes are in a man's heart; but the counsel of Jehovah shall stand. ²²The desire of a man is his kindness; and a poor man is better than a liar. ²³The fear of Jehovah tends to life; he shall rest satisfied; he shall not be visited with evil. ²⁴A lazy one puts his hand in a dish, and he will not return it to his mouth. ²⁵Strike a scorner and the simple will become careful; reprove a discernor, and he will discern knowledge. ²⁶He who assaults his father chases his mother away; he is a son who causes shame and brings reproach. ²⁷My son, cease to hear the teaching, and you will err from the words of knowledge. ²⁸A worthless witness scorns justice; and the mouth of the wicked devours evil. ²⁹Judgments are prepared for scorners, and blows for the backs of fools.

¹Wine is a mocker; strong drink is noisy; and each who strays by it are not wise. ²The fear of a king is as the roar of a lion; he who stirs him up to anger wrongs his own soul. ³For a man to cease from strife is an honor; but every fool exposes himself. ⁴The lazy man will not plow because of the cold; he begs at harvest, and nothing is there. ⁵Counsel in a man's heart is like deep water; but an understanding man will draw it out. ⁶Most men will proclaim each his own kindness; but who can find a faithful man? ⁷The just one walks in his integrity; blessed are his sons after him! ⁸A king who sits on the throne of judgment scatters away all evil with his eyes. ⁹Who can say, I have made my heart clean; I am pure from my sin? ¹⁰A stone and a stone, an ephah and an ephah—both are hateful to Jehovah. ¹¹Even a child is known by his acts, whether his work is pure, or upright. ¹²The hearing ear and the seeing eye: Jehovah has even made both of them. ¹³Do not love sleep, lest you become poor; open your eyes, be satisfied with bread. ¹⁴Bad! Bad! says the buyer; but when it is left to him, then he boasts. ¹⁵There is gold and a multitude of gems; but the lips of knowledge are a rare vessel. ¹⁶Take the garment of the one who is surety for a stranger; and take a pledge from one who guarantees for strangers. ¹⁷Bread of deceit is sweet to a man; but afterwards his mouth shall be filled with gravel. ¹⁸Purposes are established in counsel; and make war with wise guidance. ¹⁹A revealer of secrets walks about as a gossip; so do not meddle with him who opens his lips wide. ²⁰Whoever curses his father or his mother, his lamp shall be put out in deep darkness. ²¹An inheritance may be gotten quickly in the beginning; but the end of it shall not be blessed. ²²Do not say, I will repay evil; wait on Jehovah and He will save you. ²³A stone and a stone are hateful to Jehovah; and a false balance is not good. ²⁴The steps of a man are from Jehovah; and what can man discern of his way? ²⁵*It is* a snare to a man to say rashly, A holy thing; and later he vows to inquire about it. ²⁶A wise king scatters the wicked and turns the wheel over them. ²⁷The spirit of man is the lamp of Jehovah, searching all the inward parts of the heart. ²⁸Mercy and truth preserve the king; and his throne is upheld by mercy. ²⁹The glory of young men is their vigor; and the honor of old men is the gray head. ³⁰The stripes of a wound cleanse away evil; and strokes the inward parts of the heart.

¹The king's heart is in the hand of Jehovah, as streams of waters; He turns it wherever He desires. ²Every way of a man is upright in his own eyes; but Jehovah measures the hearts. ³To do righteousness and justice is to be chosen for Jehovah more than sacrifice. ⁴High eyes, a proud heart, and the lamp of the wicked, is sin. ⁵The thoughts of the diligent tend only to plenty; but those of every hasty one only to poverty. ⁶The getting of treasures by a lying tongue is a vapor driven by those who seek death. ⁷The violence of the wicked ensnares them, because they refuse to do justice. ⁸The way of a guilty man is perverted; but the pure, his work is right. ⁹*It is* better to dwell on a corner of a housetop, than with a contentious woman, and to share a house. ¹⁰The soul of the wicked desires evil; his neighbor finds no favor in his eyes. ¹¹The simple is made wise when the scorner is punished; and when the wise is instructed, he receives knowledge. ¹²The Righteous One wisely considers the house of the wicked; He overthrows the wicked for his evil. ¹³Whoever stops his ears at the cry of the poor, he himself shall also call, and shall not be answered. ¹⁴A gift in secret subdues anger; yea, a bribe in the bosom quiets great fury. ¹⁵*It is* joy to the just to do justice; but terror shall come to the workers of evil. ¹⁶The man who wanders out of the way of prudence shall rest in the congregation of departed spirits. ¹⁷A man who loves pleasure shall be poor; he who loves wine and oil shall not be rich. ¹⁸The wicked shall be a ransom for the just; and the treacherous in the place of the upright. ¹⁹*It is* better to live in a land of the wilderness than with a contentious woman and vexation. ²⁰A desirable treasure and oil are in the dwelling of the wise; but a foolish man devours it. ²¹He who pursues righteousness and mercy finds life, righteousness and honor. ²²A wise one ascends the city of the mighty and topples the strength in which it trusts. ²³Whoever keeps his mouth and his tongue keeps his soul from distresses. ²⁴Proud, haughty scorners is his name—he who deals in proud wrath. ²⁵The lust of the lazy man kills him, for his hands have refused to work. ²⁶He lusts with lust all the day long; but the righteous gives and does not withhold. ²⁷The sacrifice of the wicked is hateful; how much more when he brings it with an evil intent! ²⁸A false witness shall perish; but the man who attends will speak forever. ²⁹A wicked man hardens his face; but the upright sets up his way. ³⁰*There is* no wisdom nor understanding nor counsel before Jehovah. ³¹The horse is made ready for the day of battle; but to Jehovah belongs deliverance.

¹A good name is to be chosen rather than great riches; rather than silver or gold, favor is better. ²The rich and poor meet together; Jehovah is the Maker of all of them. ³A sensible one sees the evil and hides himself; but the simple go on and are punished. ⁴The reward of humility is the fear of Jehovah, riches, and honor, and life. ⁵Thorns and snares are in the way of the perverse; he who keeps his soul shall be far from them. ⁶Train up a boy on the opening of his way; even when he is old, he will not turn aside from it. ⁷The rich rules over the poor; and the borrower is servant to a man who lends. ⁸He who sows injustice will reap evil; and the rod of his wrath shall fail. ⁹He who has a good eye, he is blessed; for he gives of his bread to the poor. ¹⁰Throw the scorners out and strife shall go out; yea, quarrels and shame shall cease. ¹¹He who loves pureness of heart, grace is on his lips; the king shall be his friend. ¹²The eyes of Jehovah keep knowledge; and He overthrows the words of the treacherous. ¹³The lazy one says, A lion is outside! I will be killed in the streets! ¹⁴The mouth of alien women is a deep pit; those despised by Jehovah shall fall there. ¹⁵Foolishness is bound up in the heart of a boy; the rod of correction shall drive it far from him. ¹⁶One oppresses the poor to multiply for himself; another gives to the rich, only to come to poverty.

¹⁷Stretch your ear and hear the words of the wise; and set your heart to My knowledge; ¹⁸for they are pleasant when you keep them within you; they shall all be fixed together on your lips; ¹⁹so that your trust may be in Jehovah, I caused you to know today, even you. ²⁰Have I not written to you the third time with counsels and knowledge; ²¹to cause you to know the verity of the words of truth; to return words of truth to those who send you?

²²Rob not the poor because he is poor; and oppress not the afflicted in the gate. ²³For Jehovah will contend for their cause, and will plunder the soul of their plunderers. ²⁴Do not feed a possessor of anger; and do not go in with a man of fury, ²⁵lest you learn his ways and take a snare for your soul. ²⁶Do not be one of those who strike the palm, those who are sureties for loans. ²⁷If you have nothing to repay, why should he take away your bed from under you? ²⁸Do not move the old landmark which your fathers have set. ²⁹Do you see a man who is prompt in his work? he shall stand before kings; he shall not stand before obscure men.

When you sit down to eat with a ruler, look carefully at what is before you; ²and put a knife to your throat, if you are an owner of an appetite. ³Do not desire his delicacies, for it is the bread of lies. ⁴Do not labor to be rich; cease from your own understanding. ⁵Will your eyes fly on it? And it is gone! For surely it makes wings for itself; it flies into the heavens like an eagle. ⁶Do not eat the bread of one having an evil eye; and do not desire his delicacies; ⁷for as he thinks in his heart, so is he! He says to you, Eat and drink — but his heart is not with you. ⁸The morsel you have eaten, you shall vomit up and spoil your sweet words. ⁹Do not speak in the ears of a fool, for he will despise the good sense of your words. ¹⁰Do not move the old landmark, and do not enter into the fields of the fatherless; ¹¹for their Redeemer is mighty; He will contend for their cause with you. ¹²Bring your heart in for instruction, and your ears to the words of knowledge. ¹³Do not withhold correction from a boy; for if you strike him with the rod, he will not die. ¹⁴You shall beat him with the rod, and you shall deliver him from Sheol. ¹⁵My son, if your heart is wise, my heart shall rejoice, even I. ¹⁶And my reins shall rejoice when your lips speak right things. ¹⁷Do not let your heart envy sinners, but only be in the fear of Jehovah all the day. ¹⁸For surely there is a hereafter, and your hope shall not be cut off. ¹⁹My son, hear you, and be wise; and advance your heart in the way. ²⁰Be not among heavy drinkers of wine, with flesh-gluttons to themselves; ²¹for the drunkard and the glutton lose all; and sleepiness shall clothe one with rags. ²²Listen to your father, this one fathered you; and do not despise your mother when she is old. ²³Buy the truth, and sell it not; also wisdom, and instruction and understanding. ²⁴The father of the righteous shall greatly rejoice; and he who fathers a wise one shall even be glad in him. ²⁵Your father and your mother shall be glad; and she who bore you shall rejoice. ²⁶My son, give Me your heart; and let your eyes watch My ways. ²⁷For a harlot is a deep pit, and a strange woman is a narrow well. ²⁸Surely she lies in wait, as for prey; and she increases the treacherous among men.

²⁹Who has woe; who sorrow? Who has contentions; who has babbling? Who has wounds without cause? Who has dullness of eyes? ³⁰—those who stay long at the wine; those who go to seek mixed wine. ³¹Do not look at the wine when it is red; when it gives its color in the cup; when it goes down smoothly—³²at its last it bites like a snake, and it stings like a basilisk. ³³Your eyes shall look on strange women; and your heart shall speak perverse things; ³⁴yes, you shall be as one who lies down in the middle of the sea; or as he who lies on the top of a mast, ³⁵*saying*, They struck me! I was not sick! They beat me, yet I did not know. When I awaken, I will add to it, I will still seek it.

¹Do not envy evil men, nor desire to be with them. ²For their heart studies violence, and their lips talk of mischief. ³Through wisdom a house is built; and it is established by understanding; ⁴and by knowledge the rooms shall be filled with all precious and pleasant riches. ⁵A wise warrior is in strength: yes, a man of knowledge firms up power. ⁶For you shall make war for yourself by wise advice; and safety is in the great counselor. ⁷Wisdom is too high for a fool; he does not open his mouth in the gate. ⁸He who plots to do evil shall be called a lord of evil plots. ⁹The plot of foolishness is sin; and the scorner is hateful to men. ¹⁰*If* you faint in the day of distress, your strength is small. ¹¹If you hold back to deliver those being taken to death, and those stumbling for killing;—¹²for you say, Behold, we did not know it—does not He who weighs the heart consider? And He who keeps our soul, does He not know? And He repays to a man according to his work. ¹³My son, eat honey because it is good; and the honeycomb is sweet to your palate; ¹⁴so shall knowledge of wisdom be to your soul; when you have found there is a future, and your hope is not cut off. ¹⁵O wicked one, do not lie in ambush against the dwelling of the righteous; do not violate his resting place; ¹⁶for a just one falls seven times, and rises up again; but the wicked shall stumble into evil. ¹⁷Do not rejoice when your enemy falls; and do not let your heart be glad when he stumbles; ¹⁸that Jehovah not see and it be evil in His eyes; and He turn away His anger from him. ¹⁹Do not burn in anger because of evildoers, and do not envy the wicked; ²⁰for no hereafter shall be to the evil; the lamp of the wicked will be put out. ²¹My son, fear Jehovah and the king; do not meddle with those who change; ²²for their calamity shall rise suddenly; and who knows the ruin of both of them?

²³These also are for the wise: to respect persons in judgment is not good; ²⁴he who says to the wicked, You are righteous—the peoples shall curse him; nations shall abhor him. ²⁵But to those who rebuke, it is pleasant; and a good blessing comes to them. ²⁶He shall kiss the lips that return right words. ²⁷Prepare your work outside; and make it fit for yourself in the field; and afterwards build your house. ²⁸Do not be a witness against your neighbor without cause, or deceive with your lips; ²⁹do not say, I will do to him as he has done to me; I will repay each according to his work. ³⁰I went over the field of the lazy man, and by the vineyard of the man lacking heart; ³¹and, lo, it was all risen up with thistles; nettles had covered its surface and its stone wall was broken down—³²then I saw—I set my heart on it—I looked—I received instruction: ³³A little sleep, a little slumber, a little folding of the hands to sleep; ³⁴so shall your poverty come stalking; and your want like a man with a shield.

¹These are the proverbs of Solomon, which the men of Hezekiah king of Judah copied out: ²The glory of God is to conceal a thing; but the glory of kings is to search out a matter. ³The heavens for height; and the earth for depth; but the heart of kings is unsearchable. ⁴Take away the dross from the silver, and a vessel of the refiner's shall appear. ⁵Take away the wicked from before the king; and his throne is established in righteousness. ⁶Do not honor yourself before a king; and do not stand in the place of the great. ⁷For it is better he shall say to you, Come up here! than that you should be put lower before a noble whom your eyes have seen. ⁸Do not hastily go out to fight. What shall you do in the end of it, when your neighbor has put you to shame? ⁹Contend for your cause with your neighbor; and do not uncover the secret of another; ¹⁰lest he who hears put you to shame; and your slander have no end. ¹¹A word rightly spoken is like apples of gold in settings of silver. ¹²As a ring of gold, and an ornament of fine gold, so is a wise reprover on a hearing ear. ¹³Like the cold of snow in harvest time, so is a faithful messenger to those sending him; for he refreshes his master's soul. ¹⁴He who boasts himself of a false gift is like clouds and wind, and with no rain. ¹⁵In being slow to anger, a ruler is persuaded, and a soft tongue shatters the bone. ¹⁶Have you found honey? Eat only your fill, lest you be satiated, and vomit it out. ¹⁷Make your foot rare from your neighbor's house; lest he be full of you and hate you. ¹⁸A man who gives false witness against his neighbor is a maul, and a sword and a sharp arrow. ¹⁹Confidence in a treacherous man in time of distress is like a bad tooth and a slipping foot. ²⁰As he who takes away a garment in cold weather, and as vinegar on soda, so is he who sings songs on an evil heart. ²¹If your hater is hungry, give him bread to eat; and if he is thirsty, give him water to drink; ²²for you shall heap coals of fire on his head; and Jehovah shall reward you. ²³The north wind brings rain; so does a secret tongue an angry face. ²⁴*It is* better to dwell in the corner of the housetop, than to share a house with a contentious woman. ²⁵*Like* cold waters to a weary soul, so is a good report from a far country. ²⁶The righteous falling down before the wicked is like a fouled fountain and a ruined spring. ²⁷*It is* not good to eat much honey; and to search out their glory is not glory. ²⁸A man to whom there is no control to his spirit is like a broken-down city without a wall.

¹As snow in summer, and as rain in harvest, so honor is not right for a fool. ²As the wandering bird, as the swallow in its flying, so the causeless curse shall never come. ³A whip for the horse; a bridle for the ass; and a rod for the back of fools. ⁴Answer not a fool according to his foolishness, lest you also become like him, even you. ⁵Answer a fool according to his foolishness, that he not be wise in his own eyes. ⁶He that sends a message by a fool's hand cuts off his own feet and drinks violence. ⁷As the legs of the lame are weak, so a proverb in the mouth of fools. ⁸As he binding a stone on a sling, so he giving honor to a fool. ⁹As a thorn goes up into the drunkard's hand, so a proverb in the mouth of fools. ¹⁰Great is the Former of all things; but he who hires a fool is like one who hires those passing by. ¹¹As a dog that returns to his own vomit, so a fool repeats his foolishness. ¹²Do you see a man wise in his own eyes? There is more hope for a fool than for him. ¹³The lazy one says, A lion is in the way; a lion is between the streets! ¹⁴As the door turns on its hinge, so the lazy one on his bed. ¹⁵The lazy one buries his hand in the dish; he is weary to bring it back to his mouth. ¹⁶The lazy one is wiser in his own eyes than seven that return a wise answer. ¹⁷The passer-by enraging himself over strife that is not his own is like one who grabs a dog's ears. ¹⁸Like a madman throwing sparks, arrows and death, ¹⁹*so is* a man who deceives his neighbor and says, Am I not joking? ²⁰The fire goes out where there is no wood; so the strife ceases where there is no whisperer. ²¹As coal to burning embers, and wood to fire; so is a contentious man to kindle strife. ²²The words of a whisperer are as delicacies; and they go down into the chambers of the heart. ²³As with silver dross spread over an earthen vessel, so are burning lips and a wicked heart. ²⁴He who hates dissembles with his lips; for he lays up deceit in his inner being; ²⁵when his voice is gracious, do not believe him, for he has seven hateful things in his heart. ²⁶Though his hatred is covered by guile; his evil shall be revealed in the assembly. ²⁷He who digs a pit shall fall into it; and he who digs a pit shall fall into it; and he who rolls a stone shall have it turn back on him. ²⁸A lying tongue hates the ones it crushes; and a flattering mouth works stumbling.

¹Do not boast in the day of tomorrow, for you do not know what a day may bring forth. ²Let another praise you, and not your own mouth; let it be a stranger, and not your own lips. ³A stone is heavy, and sand a burden; but a fool's anger is heavier than both. ⁴Fury is fierce, and anger overflows; but who can stand before jealousy? ⁵Better is revealed reproof than secret love. ⁶Faithful are the wounds of a lover; and the kisses of a hated one are plentiful. ⁷One who is full tramples a honeycomb;

but to a hungry soul, every bitter thing is sweet. ⁸A man wandering from his place is like a bird that wanders from the nest. ⁹Ointment and perfume give joy to the heart; and one's friend is sweet from the counsel of the soul. ¹⁰Do not forsake your friend, nor your father's friend; and do not go into your brother's house in the day of your calamity; for a near neighbor is better than a brother far away. ¹¹My son, become wise and give joy to my heart; so that I may return a word to him that taunts me. ¹²A sensible man sees the evil and hides himself; the simple go on and are punished. ¹³Take the garment of him who is surety for a stranger; and hold him in pledge who is surety for a strange woman. ¹⁴He who rises early in the morning and blesses his friend with a loud voice, it is counted as cursing to him. ¹⁵Drops that never cease on a rainy day, and a contentious woman are alike; ¹⁶he who hides her hides the wind, and his right hand encounters slippery oil. ¹⁷Iron sharpens iron; so a man sharpens his friend's face. ¹⁸The keeper of the fig tree eats its fruit; so he keeping his master is honored. ¹⁹As face reflects face in the water, so the heart of man reflects a man. ²⁰Sheol and destruction are never satisfied; so the eyes of man are never satisfied. ²¹The refining pot tries silver, and the furnace tries gold; but a man is tried by the mouth of his praise. ²²If you pound a fool in the mortar with a pestle amidst grain, his foolishness will not turn away from him.

²³Know well the state of your flock; set your heart on your herds; ²⁴for wealth is not forever; nor the crown from generation to generation. ²⁵When the hay is removed, and the tender grass is seen, and the mountain-plains are taken up, ²⁶the lambs will be for your clothing; and the he-goats the price for a field; ²⁷and there will be goat's milk enough for your food; for the food of your household, and for the life of your maidens.

¹The wicked flee though no one is pursuing; but the righteous are as bold as a lion. ²Because of transgression in a land, many are its rulers; but it is prolonged by a man who has understanding, who knows right. ³A poor man that oppresses the weak is like a sweeping rain that leaves no food. ⁴Those who forsake the law praise the wicked; but those who keep the law strive with them. ⁵Evil men do not understand justice; but those seeking Jehovah understand all. ⁶Better is the poor walking in his integrity than the perverse of two ways, even if he is rich. ⁷He who keeps the law is a wise son; but he who is a feeder of gluttons shames his father. ⁸He who multiplies his wealth by interest and usury, he shall gather it for him who pities the weak. ⁹Whoever turns aside his ear from hearing the law, even his prayer is an abomination. ¹⁰He who causes the upright to go astray in an evil way shall fall into his own pit; and the blameless shall inherit good. ¹¹A rich man is wise in his own eyes; but discerning weak one searches him out.

¹²When the righteous rejoice, great is the glory; but when the wicked are on the rise, a man will be sought for. ¹³He who covers his sins never prospers; but he who confesses and forsakes them shall have pity. ¹⁴O the happiness of a man who dreads God constantly! But he who hardens his heart falls into evil. ¹⁵The wicked ruler is a roaring lion, and a ranging bear, over a weak people. ¹⁶The ruler that lacks understanding even adds oppressions; but he who hates unjust gain prolongs his days. ¹⁷Any man oppressed with the blood of a soul shall flee to the pit; let them not uphold him. ¹⁸He who walks uprightly shall be saved; but he who is perverse in his two ways shall fall at once. ¹⁹He who cultivates his ground shall have plenty of bread; but one pursuing vanities shall have much poverty. ²⁰A faithful man shall be full of blessings; but he rushing to be rich shall not be innocent. ²¹To respect faces is not good; for a man will transgress for a piece of bread. ²²A man with an evil eye hastens after wealth; but he does not know that poverty will come on him. ²³He who reproves a man afterwards finds grace; more than he who flatters with the tongue. ²⁴He who robs his father or his mother, and says, It is not a transgression—he shall be a companion to a destroyer. ²⁵The proud in soul stirs up strife; but he who is trusting on Jehovah shall be abundantly satisfied. ²⁶He who trusts in his own heart is a fool; but he who walks in wisdom shall be delivered. ²⁷He who gives to the poor shall not lack; but he who hides his eyes shall have plenty of curses. ²⁸When the wicked rise, a man hides himself; but when they perish, the righteous multiply.

¹A man who hardens his neck when reprov'd shall be suddenly broken, and there will be no healing. ²When the righteous increase, the people rejoice; but the people sigh when the wicked rule. ³He who loves wisdom gladdens his father; but a feeder of harlots wastes wealth. ⁴A king establishes a land by justice; but he taking bribes tears it down. ⁵A man who flatters his neighbor spreads a net for his steps. ⁶A snare is in the transgression of an evil man; but the righteous sing and rejoice. ⁷The righteous attends to the cause of the weak; but the wicked does not discern any knowledge. ⁸Scornful men puff against a city; but the wise turn away anger. ⁹*If* a wise man disputes with a foolish man, even he shakes, or laughs; and there is no rest. ¹⁰Men of blood hate the blameless; but the upright seek his soul.

¹¹A fool brings out all of his spirit, but holding back, the wise quiets it. ¹²*To* a ruler who listens to lying words, all his ministers are wicked. ¹³The poor and the injurious man meet together; but Jehovah enlightens both their eyes. ¹⁴A king that judges the weak truly shall have his throne established forever. ¹⁵The rod and reproof give wisdom; but a youth sent off is a cause of shame to his mother. ¹⁶When the wicked are multiplied, transgression increases; but the righteous shall see their fall. ¹⁷Correct your son, and you will get rest; and it will give delight to your soul. ¹⁸Where there is no vision, the people are let loose; but blessed is he, the keeper of the law. ¹⁹A servant is not corrected by words; though he discerns, there is no answer. ²⁰Do you see a man hasty in his words? There is more hope for a fool than of him. ²¹He pampering his servant from youth, he shall also afterwards be his successor. ²²An angry man stirs up contention; and a furious one abounds in transgression. ²³The pride of man brings him low; but the humble of spirit takes hold of honor. ²⁴He who shares with a thief hates his soul; he hears an oath, but does not tell it. ²⁵The fear of man brings a snare; but he trusting Jehovah is set on high. ²⁶Many seek the face of the ruler; but the judgment of each man is from Jehovah. ²⁷An unjust man is an abomination to the righteous; and the upright of way are an abomination to the wicked.

¹The words of Agur the son of Jakeh, the burden: The man spoke to Ithiel, even to Ithiel and Ucal, saying, ²Surely I am more brutish than anyone; and I do not have the understanding of a man. ³I have not learned wisdom, but I do know the knowledge of holiness. ⁴Who has gone up to Heaven, and come down? Who has gathered the wind in His fists? Who has bound the waters in His garments? Who has made all the ends of the earth to rise? What is His name, and what is His Son's name? Surely you know.

⁵Every word of God is tested; He is a shield to those who seek refuge in Him. ⁶Do not add to His words, that He not reprove you, and you be found a liar.

⁷I have asked two things from You: Do not hold back from me before I die; ⁸Remove vanity and a lying word far from me; do not give me poverty or riches; tear my portion of bread, ⁹that I not become full and deceive, and say, Who is Jehovah? Or that I not become poor and steal, and violate the name of my God.

¹⁰Do not slander a servant to his master, that he not curse you, and you be found guilty.

¹¹A generation curses its father, and does not bless its mother; ¹²a generation pure in its own eyes, and yet not washed from its own filth. ¹³There is a generation, O how lofty are its eyes! And its eyelids are lifted up; ¹⁴a generation whose teeth are like swords; and its jaw teeth like knives, to devour the poor from the earth, and the needy from among men.

¹⁵The leech has two daughters crying, Give! Give! Three things are not satisfied; four never have said, Enough! ¹⁶Sheol; and the barren womb; the earth not filled with water; and the fire, never said, Enough!

²¹The earth quakes under three things; yea, it is not able to bear up under four: ²²Under a servant when he reigns; and a fool when he is filled with food; ²³under a hated one when she is married; under a handmaid when she is heir to her mistress.

²⁹There are three things that go well in a march; yea, four that go well in walking: ³⁰a lion is mighty among beasts, and he does not turn away from facing all; ³¹one girded in loins; and a he-goat; and a king when his army is with him.

³²If you have been foolish in lifting yourself up; or if you have thought evil, lay your hand on your mouth! ³³Surely, the squeezing of milk brings curds; and the squeezing of the nose brings blood; so the squeezing of wrath brings out strife.

¹The words of king Lemuel, the burden that his mother taught him: ²What, my son? And what, the son of my womb? And what, the son of my vows? ³Do not give your strength to women, or your ways to that which wipes out kings. ⁴*It is* not for kings, O Lemuel; it is not for kings to drink wine; nor for princes to lust for fermented drink; ⁵that they not drink and forget what is decreed, and pervert the right of the afflicted ones. ⁶Give fermented drink to one perishing, and wine to the bitter of soul; ⁷let him drink and forget his poverty, and remember his misery no more. ⁸Open your mouth for the dumb, in the cause of all the sons of the fatherless. ⁹Open your mouth; judge righteously, and defend the poor and needy.

¹⁰Who can find an able woman? For her value is far above jewels. ¹¹The heart of her husband trusts in her, so that he has no lack of gain. ¹²She deals good with him, and not evil, all the days of her life. ¹³She seeks wool and flax, and she works with her palms with delight. ¹⁴She is like the merchant-ships; she brings in her food from afar. ¹⁵She also rises while it is still night, and gives game to her household, and an order to her maidens. ¹⁶She has examined a field, and takes it; she plants a vineyard from the fruit of her hands. ¹⁷She has girded her loins with strength, and has made her arms strong.

¹⁸She tastes whether her gain is good; her lamp does not go out by night. ¹⁹She has sent forth her hands on the distaff, and her palms have held the spindle. ²⁰She spreads out her palms to the poor; yea, she reaches out her hands to the needy. ²¹She is not afraid of the snow for her household; for all her household are clothed with scarlet. ²²She makes herself ornamental coverings; her clothing is fine linen and purple. ²³Her husband is known in the gates, when he sits with the elders of the land. ²⁴She makes fine linen garments, and sells; and she delivers belts to the merchant. ²⁵Strength and dignity are her clothing; and she shall rejoice at the day to come. ²⁶She opens her mouth in wisdom, and the law of kindness is on her tongue. ²⁷She watches the ways of her household, and does not eat the bread of idleness. ²⁸Her children rise up and call her blessed; her husband also, for he praises her: ²⁹many are the daughters who work ably, but you rise above them all!

³⁰Favor is deceitful, and beauty is vain; but a woman who fears Jehovah, she shall be praised. ³¹Give her of the fruit of her hands, and let her works praise her in the gates.

THE BOOK OF ECCLESIASTES

¹The words of the Preacher, the son of David, king in Jerusalem: ²Vanity of vanities, says the Preacher, vanity of vanities! All is vanity! ³What is the profit to a man in all his labor which he labors under the sun? ⁴A generation passes away, and another generation comes; but the earth stands forever. ⁵The sun also arises, and the sun goes hurrying to its place; it arises there again. ⁶The wind goes toward the south, and turning around to the north; the wind is going around and round. And the wind returns on its circuits. ⁷All the rivers are going to the sea; yet the sea is not full. To the place where the rivers are going, there they are returning to go again. ⁸All words are wearisome; a man is not able to utter it. The eye is not satisfied to see, nor is the ear filled from hearing. ⁹That which has been, it is that which shall be. And that which has been done, it is that which will be done. And there is no new thing under the sun. ¹⁰Is there a thing of which one might say, See this, it is new. It has already been for the ages which were before us. ¹¹*There is* no memory of former things, and also there is no memory for them of things which will be afterward; with those who will be at the last.

¹²I the Preacher was king over Israel in Jerusalem. ¹³And I gave my heart to seek and to investigate by wisdom concerning all which is done under the heavens. It is an evil task God has given to the sons of men, to be afflicted by it. ¹⁴I have seen all the works which are done under the sun; and, behold, all is vanity and striving after wind! ¹⁵What is crooked cannot be made straight; and that lacking cannot be numbered. ¹⁶I spoke with my heart, saying, Lo, I have become great and have increased wisdom over all that have been over Jerusalem before me. Yea, my heart has seen much wisdom and knowledge. ¹⁷And I gave my heart to know wisdom, and to know madness, and folly. I know that this also, it is striving after wind. ¹⁸For in much wisdom is much grief; and he who increases knowledge increases pain.

¹I said in my heart, Come now, I will test you with mirth. Therefore, consider with goodness. And behold, this also is vanity. ²I said of laughter, It is madness, and of mirth, What does it do? ³I sought in my heart how to drag my flesh with wine, and leading my heart in wisdom; and to lay hold on folly, until I might see where the good for the sons of men is, that which they should do under the heavens the number of days of their life. ⁴I made my works great — I built houses for myself; I planted vineyards for myself; ⁵I made gardens and parks for myself, and I planted trees in them, of every fruit; ⁶I made pools of water for myself, to water from them the forest shooting forth trees; ⁷I bought slaves and slavegirls; and I had sons of slavegirls; the slaves of the house were mine. Also livestock, a herd and a great flock were mine, above all that were in Jerusalem before me. ⁸I also gathered to me silver and gold, and the treasure of kings and of provinces. I made ready male singers and female singers for myself, and the delights of the sons of men, a concubine, and concubines. ⁹And I became great and increased more than all who were before me in Jerusalem; also my wisdom stayed with me. ¹⁰And all that my eyes desired, I did not set aside from them; I withheld not my heart from all mirth; for my heart rejoiced from all my labor; and this was my part from all my labor. ¹¹Then I faced on all my works that my hands had done, and on the labor that I had labored to do. And, lo, all is vanity and striving after wind, and there is no profit under the sun.

¹²And I turned to behold wisdom, and madness, and folly. For what can a man do who comes after the king, when they have already done it? ¹³Then I saw that there is advantage to wisdom above folly, even as light has advantage over darkness. ¹⁴The wise man's eyes are in his head; but the fool walks in darkness; and I also know that one event happens with all of them. ¹⁵And I said in my heart, As the event of the stupid one, even so it will happen to me; and why then was I more wise? Then I said in my heart that this also is vanity. ¹⁶For there is not a memory of the wise more than with the fool forever; in that already the days to come will be forgotten. And how does the wise die above the fool? ¹⁷So then I hated life; because the work that is done under the sun is evil to me; for all is vanity and striving after wind.

¹⁸Yes, I hated all my labor that I labored under the sun, that I must leave it to the man who will be after me. ¹⁹And who knows if he will be a wise man or a fool? Yet he shall rule among all my labor in which I labored, and acted wisely under the sun. This is also vanity. ²⁰And I turned to make my heart despair over all the labor which I labored under the sun. ²¹When there is a man whose labor is with wisdom, and with knowledge, and with advantage; yet he shall give it to a man who has not labored with it, for his share; this also is vanity and a great evil.

²²For what is there for man in all his labor, and in longing of his heart, which he has labored under the sun? ²³For all his days are pains, and his task is grief; his heart does not even take rest in the night. Even this also is vanity. ²⁴Is it not good that he should eat and drink and make his soul see good in his labor? This I also saw, that it was from the hand of God. ²⁵For who can eat, or who can enjoy, apart from Me? ²⁶For God gives wisdom, and knowledge and joy to a man who is good in His sight. But to the sinner He gives the task of gathering and collecting, to give to him who is good before God. This also is vanity and striving after wind.

¹To all there is an appointed time, even a time for every purpose under the heavens — ²a time to be born, and a time to die — a time to plant, and a time to pull up what is planted — ³a time to kill, and a time to heal — a time to tear down, and a time to build up — ⁴a time to weep, and a time to laugh — a time to mourn, and a time to dance — ⁵a time to throw away stones, and a time to gather stones — a time to embrace, and a time to refrain from embracing — ⁶a time to seek, and a time to give up as lost — a time to keep,

and a time to throw away — ⁷a time to tear, and a time to sew together — a time to keep silence, and a time to speak — ⁸a time to love, and a time to hate — a time of war, and a time of peace.

⁹What profit does he who works have in that in which he labors? ¹⁰I have seen the task which God has given to the sons of men, to be humbled by it. ¹¹He has made everything beautiful in its time. Also, He has set eternity in their heart, without which man cannot find out the work that God makes from the beginning and to the end. ¹²I know that there is no good in them, but for a man to rejoice to do good in his life. ¹³And also every man that eats and drinks, and sees good in his labor, it is the gift of God. ¹⁴I know that whatever God does, it shall be forever; nothing is to be added to it, and nothing is to diminish from it. And God does it so that they fear before Him. ¹⁵That which has been, it already is; and that which is to be, it already has been. And God seeks what has gone by.

¹⁶And again I saw under the sun the place of justice: wickedness is there; and the place of righteousness, wickedness is there. ¹⁷I said in my heart, God shall judge the righteous and the wicked; for there is a time there for every matter and for every work.

¹⁸I said in my heart concerning the issue of the sons of men, that God may test them and see that they by themselves are beasts. ¹⁹For that which happens to the sons of men, and that which happens to beasts; even one event is to them. As this one dies, so that one dies; yea, one breath is to all; so that there is to the man no advantage over the beast; for all is vanity. ²⁰All go to one place; all are of the dust, and all return to the dust. ²¹Who knows the spirit of the sons of man, whether it goes upward; and the spirit of the beast, whether it goes downward to the earth? ²²And I have seen that nothing is better than that the man should rejoice in his works; for that is his portion; for who can bring him to see what shall be after him?

¹So I returned and considered all the oppressions that are done under the sun. And behold the tears of those who were oppressed, and they had no comforter! And at the hand of those who oppressed them was power; but there was no comforter to them. ²And I commended the dead who already have died, more than the living who are alive until now. ³Yea, better than both is he who has not yet been, who has not seen the evil work that is done under the sun.

⁴And I considered every labor, and every advantage of the work, that it is the envy of a man against his neighbor; this is also vanity and striving after wind.

⁷Then I returned and saw vanity under the sun. ⁸There is one alone, and there is not a second; yea, he has neither son nor brother; and there is no end to all his labor; even his eyes are not satisfied with riches; and he says, For whom do I labor, and take good from my soul? This is also vanity. Yes, it is an evil task.

⁹Two are better than one; because they have a good reward for their labor. ¹⁰For if they fall, this one will lift up his fellow. But woe to him, the one that falls, and there is not another to lift him up. ¹¹Also if two lie together, then they have warmth; but for one, how is he warm? ¹²And if one overthrows him, two shall withstand him; and a threefold cord is not quickly torn apart. ¹³A poor and a wise child is better than the old and stupid king, who does not know to be warned any more. ¹⁴For from the house of the imprisoned he goes forth to reign, although in his kingdom he was born poor. ¹⁵I saw all the living who walk about under the sun, with the second child who shall stand up in his place. ¹⁶*There is* no end to all the people, to all who have been before them; they also who come after shall not rejoice with him. Surely this is also vanity and striving after wind.

¹Guard your feet when you go to the house of God, and draw near to hear, more than to give a sacrifice, as do the fools. For they do not know that they are doing evil. ²Do not be hasty with your mouth, and do not let your heart hurry to bring forth a word before God. For God is in Heaven, and you are on earth; on account of this let your words be few. ³For the dream comes through the greatness of the task; and the voice of the fool is known by the multitude of words. ⁴When you vow a vow to God, do not wait to fulfill it. For He has no pleasure in fools. Fulfill that which you have vowed. ⁵*It is* better that you should not vow, than that you should vow and not fulfill it. ⁶Do not allow your mouth to cause your flesh to sin; do not say before the angel that it was an error. Why should God be angry over your voice, and destroy the works of your hands? ⁷For in the multitude of dreams, both words and vanities abound; but fear God. ⁸If you see the oppression of the poor, or the removing of justice and righteousness in the province, do not be amazed at the purpose. For a high one over a high one is watching; and high ones are over them.

⁹And the advantage of a land, it is among all; even a king has a field being tilled. ¹⁰He who loves silver will not be satisfied with silver; and he who loves abundance not with gain. This is also vanity. ¹¹When the good multiplies, those who eat it multiply; then what profit is it to its owners, except to see it with his eyes? ¹²The sleep of the laboring man is sweet, whether he eats little or much. But the abundance of the rich will not allow him to sleep. ¹³There is a painful evil which I have seen under the sun: riches being kept for their owner to his evil; ¹⁴but those riches perish by an evil use; and he fathers a son, and nothing is in his hand. ¹⁵As he came forth from his mother's womb naked, he shall return to go as he came. And from his labor he may not carry anything that may go in his hand. ¹⁶And this also is a painful evil, that in all, as he came, so shall he go. And what profit is to him who has labored for the wind? ¹⁷Also all his days he eats in darkness, and with much grief, along with his sickness and wrath.

¹⁸See what I have seen: It is good and beautiful to eat and to drink and to see good in all his labor that he labors under the sun, the number of the days of his life which God gives to him — for it is his portion. ¹⁹Also every man to whom God has given riches and treasures, and gives him power to eat of it, and to take his share, and to rejoice in his labor—this is the gift of God. ²⁰For he shall not much remember the days of his life, because God answers him in the joy of his heart.

¹There is an evil that I have seen under the sun, and it is great among men: ²A man to whom God has given riches, and wealth, and honor, so that he lacks nothing for his soul of all that he desires; yet God does not give him the power to eat of it, but a stranger eats it — this is vanity, and it is an evil disease. ³If a man fathers a hundred children, and lives many years, and the days of his years are many, and his soul is not satisfied from the good, and also there is no burial for him; I say, a miscarriage is better than he. ⁴For he comes in with vanity, and goes out in darkness; his name shall be covered in darkness. ⁵Also he has not seen nor known the sun; this one has more rest than that one. ⁶Yea, though he lives twice a thousand years, yet he has seen no good. Do not all go to one place? ⁷All the labor of man is for his mouth, and yet the soul is not filled. ⁸For what is the advantage to the wise more than the fool? What gain to the poor who knows how to walk before the living? ⁹Better is the sight of the eyes than the wandering of the soul. This is also vanity and striving after wind. ¹⁰That which has been is named already, and it is known that he is man; and he is not able to contend with Him who is stronger than he.

¹¹For there are many things that increase vanity, and what is the advantage to man? ¹²For who knows what is good for man in this life, the number of the days of his vain life? Even he makes them like the shadow. For who can tell a man what shall be after him under the sun?

¹A good name is better than good ointment; and the day of death than the day of one's birth.

²*It is* better to go to the house of mourning than to go to the house of feasting; for it is the end of every man; and the living will lay it to his heart. ³Vexation is better than laughter; for by the sadness of the face the heart is made good. ⁴The heart of the wise is in the house of mourning; but the heart of the stupid one is in the house of mirth. ⁵*It is* better to hear the rebuke of the wise, than for a man to hear the song of the fool. ⁶For as the crackling of thorns under a pot, so is the laughter of the stupid one. And this also is vanity.

¹¹Wisdom is good with an inheritance; yea, a gain to those who see the sun. ¹²For wisdom is in a shadow; and silver is in a shadow; but the excellency of knowledge is that wisdom gives life to those who have it. ¹³Consider the work of God: for who can make that straight which He has bent? ¹⁴In the good day, be in good spirit, but also consider in the evil day, that God has made one along with the other, so that man should not find anything after him. ¹⁵All things I have seen in the days of my vanity; there is a just man who perishes in his righteousness, and there is a wicked one who prolongs his life in his evil. ¹⁶Do not be too much righteous, nor make yourself overly wise; why destroy yourself?

¹⁷Do not be very evil, and do not be a fool; why should you not die in your time? ¹⁸*It is* good that you should take hold of this; yea, also from this do not let your hand rest. For he who fears God shall come forth with all of them.

¹⁹Wisdom makes the wise stronger than ten rulers who are in the city. ²⁰For there is a not a just man on the earth who does good, and does not sin. ²¹Also, do not give your heart to all the words they speak, that you not hear your servant cursing you. ²²For also your own heart knows that you yourself have also cursed others many times. ²³All this I have tested by wisdom: I said, I will be wise; but it was far from me. ²⁴That which is far off and exceeding deep, who can find it out? ²⁵And I turned my heart about, to know, and to search, and to seek out wisdom, and the reason of things, and to know the wickedness of folly, and the foolishness of madness: ²⁶and I found more bitter than death the woman whose heart is snares and nets; her hands are like bands. He who is good before God shall escape from her; but the sinner shall be captured by her. ²⁷Behold, I have found this, says the Preacher, counting one by one to find out the sum; ²⁸that my soul still seeks, but I have not found; one man among a thousand I have found, but a woman among all those I have not found. ²⁹Behold, this only I have found, that God has made man upright, but they have sought out many inventions.

¹Who is as the wise? And who knows the meaning of a thing? A man's wisdom makes his face shine, and the strength of his face is changed. ²I say, Keep the king's word, even on the matter of the oath of God; ³do not be hasty to go from before him. Do not take a stand in an evil thing; for he does whatever he pleases. ⁴Because the king's word is that which has power; who then will say to him, What are you doing? ⁵Whoever keeps the command shall know no evil thing. A wise man's heart knows both time and judgment. ⁶Because there is a time and judgment to every purpose, in this the evil of man is great upon him. ⁷For he does not know what shall be. For who can tell him when it shall be? ⁸Man is not a ruler over the spirit, to restrain the spirit; nor has he power in the day of death. And there is no discharge in that war, nor shall wickedness deliver its possessors.

⁹All this I have seen. I gave my heart to every work that is done under the sun. There is a time in which a man rules over a man for his evil. ¹⁰And so I saw the wicked buried; and they came and went from the holy place; and were forgotten in the city, these things that they had done. This is also vanity.

executed speedily, on account of this the heart of the sons of men is fully set in them to do evil.

¹²Though a sinner does evil a hundred times, and his days are prolonged to him, yet surely I know that it shall be well to those who fear God, who fear before Him. ¹³But it shall not be well for the wicked; and he shall not lengthen his days like a shadow; because he does not fear before God. ¹⁴There is a vanity which is done on the earth: There are just men to whom it happens according to the work of the wicked; and there are wicked men to whom it happens according to the work of the righteous — I said that this also is vanity. ¹⁵Then I praised mirth, because nothing is good for man under the sun except to eat, and to drink and to be glad. For that shall go with him in his labor for the days of his life which God gives him under the sun.

¹⁶When I gave my heart to know wisdom, and to see the business that is done on the earth—for even by day and by night he does not see sleep in his eyes—¹⁷then I looked at all the work of God, that a man cannot find out the work that is done under the sun; because though a man labors to seek it out, yet he shall not find it. And even if the wise speaks of knowing, he shall not be able to find it.

¹For all this I gave to heart, even to explain all this, that the righteous and the wise and their works are in the hand of God. Whether love or hatred, man does not know all that is before them. ²All happens alike to all; one event to the righteous, and to the wicked; to the good, and to the clean; and to the unclean; to him who sacrifices, and to him who does not sacrifice. As is the good, so is the sinner; he who swears is as he that fears an oath. ³This is an evil among all things that are done under the sun, that there is one event to all. Yea, also the heart of the sons of men is full of evil, and madness is in their heart throughout their lives; and after that, they go to the dead. ⁴For to whoever is chosen to all the living, there is hope. For a living dog is better than a dead lion. ⁵For the living know that they shall die; but the dead do not know anything; nor do they have any more a reward; for their memory is forgotten. ⁶Also their love, their hatred, and their envy has now perished; nor do they any longer have a part forever in all that is done under the sun.

⁷Go, eat your bread with joy, and drink your wine with a merry heart, for God now is pleased with your works. ⁸Let your garments be white at every time; and let your head lack no ointment. ⁹Look on life with the wife whom you love all the days of your life of your vanity, which He gave you under the sun, all the days of your vanity. For that is your share in this life, and in your labor which you labor under the sun.

¹⁰All that your hand finds to do, do it with your strength. For there is no work, or planning, or knowledge, or wisdom, in Sheol, there where you go.

¹³This wisdom I saw also under the sun, and it is great to me: ¹⁴*There was* a little city, and few men in it. And a great king came against it, and besieged it, and built huge siege-works against it. ¹⁵And there was found in it a poor wise man, and he by his wisdom saved the city. Yet no man remembered that poor man! ¹⁶And I said, Wisdom is better than strength; but the poor man's wisdom is despised, and his words are not heard.

than honor. ²The heart of the wise is toward his right, but the fool's heart toward his left. ³And also, in the way in which a stupid one walks, his heart fails, and he says to all that he is a fool. ⁴If the spirit of the ruler rises up against you, do not leave your place; for composure quiets great offenses. ⁵There is an evil I have seen under the sun, sins which come from the face of the ruler: ⁶folly is set in many high positions, and many rich men sit in low situations. ⁷I have seen slaves on horses, and rulers walking as slaves on the earth.

⁸He who digs a pit may fall into it; and one breaking a wall, a snake may bite him. ⁹Whoever removes stones may be hurt with them; he who splits trees may be endangered by them. ¹⁰If the iron is blunt, and he does not whet the mouths, then he must put more strength to it. But wisdom is an advantage giving success. ¹¹If the snake will bite without charming, then there is no advantage to a master of tongue. ¹²The words of a wise mouth are grace, but the lips of a stupid one swallow him; ¹³the beginning of the words of his mouth is foolishness; and the end of his mouth is evil madness. ¹⁴Yet the stupid one makes many words; a man knows not what they shall be; and what shall be after him, who can tell him? ¹⁵The labor of the fools wears him, because he does not know how to go to the city.

¹⁶Woe to you, O land, when your king is a boy, and your leaders eat in the morning. ¹⁷Blessed are you, O land, when your king is the son of nobles, and your leaders eat in due time; in strength, and not in drinking. ¹⁸The framework tumbles through indolence; and through lowering of hands, the house leaks. ¹⁹Bread is made for laughter, and wine gladdens life; but silver answers all things. ²⁰Also, do not curse a king in your thought; and do not curse the rich in your bedrooms; for a bird of the heavens may carry the voice; yea, the lord of wings may tell the matter.

¹As dead flies cause the perfumer's ointment to stink and ferment; so a little foolishness is more rare than wisdom and

¹Send out your bread on the face of the waters, for you shall find it in many days. ²Give a share to seven, or even to eight; for you do not know what evil may be on the earth. ³If the clouds are full of rain, they empty on the earth. And if the tree falls in the south, or in the north, in the place where the tree falls, there it shall be. ⁴He who watches the wind shall not sow. And he who looks at the clouds shall not reap. ⁵As you do not know what is the way of the wind, as the bones in the pregnant woman's womb, even so you do not know the works of God who makes all. ⁶Sow your seed in the morning, and do not rest your hand until evening; for you do not know what shall be blessed, this or that; or whether they both shall be good as one.

⁷Truly, also the light is sweet; yea, it is good for the eyes to behold the sun. ⁸But if the man lives many years, let him rejoice in them all, and remember the days of darkness; for they shall be many. All that may come is vanity.

⁹Rejoice, O young man, in your youth. And make your heart glad in the days of your youth, and walk in the ways of your heart, and in the sight of your eyes—but know that for all these things God will bring you into judgment. ¹⁰So then remove vexation from your heart, and put away evil from your flesh. For childhood and prime of life are vanity.

¹Remember now your Creator in the days of your youth, while the evil days do not come, or the years draw near when you shall say, I have no pleasure in them; ²while not yet the sun, or the light, or the moon, or the stars, are darkened, or the clouds return after rain; ³in the day when the housekeepers shall tremble, and the strong men are bowed, and the grinders cease because they are few; and those looking out the windows are darkened; ⁴and the doors shall be shut in the streets, when the sound of the mill is low, and one rises up at the voice of a bird, and all the daughters of music are silenced; ⁵also they shall be afraid of a high place, and terrors in the way; and the almond tree shall blossom, and the locust makes himself a burden; and desire breaks — because man goes to his eternal home; and the mourners go about in the street—⁶while the silver cord is not yet loosed, or the golden bowl is crushed, or the pitcher is shattered at the fountain, or the wheel broken at the cistern — ⁷then the dust shall return to the earth as it was, and the spirit shall return to God who gave it.

⁸Vanity of vanities, says the preacher, all is vanity. ⁹And more than that, the Preacher was wise; he still taught the people knowledge. Yes, he listened, and looked, and set in order many proverbs.

¹⁰The Preacher sought to find out pleasing words; and words of truth rightly written.

¹¹The words of the wise are as goads; yea, as nails driven by the masters of collections, they are given from one Shepherd. ¹²And more than these, my son, be warned: The making of many books has no end, and much study is the weariness of the flesh.

¹³Let us hear the conclusion of the whole matter: Fear God, and keep His commandments; for this applies to every man. ¹⁴For God shall bring every work into judgment, with all that is hidden, whether it is good, or whether it is evil.

THE SONG OF SONGS

¹The song of songs which is Solomon's. ²Let Him kiss me with the kisses of His mouth; for Your loves are better than wine. ³For Your ointments have a lovely fragrance; Your name is as ointment poured out; on account of this the virgins love You. ⁴Draw me; we will run after You. The King has brought me into His chambers. We will be glad and rejoice in You; we will remember Your loves more than wine; the upright love You. ⁵*I am* black, but comely, O daughters of Jerusalem, like the tents of Kedar, like the curtains of Solomon. ⁶Do not look at me, that I am black, that the sun has looked on me. My mother's sons were angry with me; they made me the keeper of the vineyards; but my own vineyard I have not kept. ⁷Tell me, You whom my soul loves, where do You feed; where do You lie down at noon? For why should I be as one who is veiled beside the flocks of Your companions?

⁸If you yourself do not know, most beautiful among women, go in the footsteps of the flock. And feed your kids beside the tents of the shepherds. ⁹O my love, I have compared you to My mare in Pharaoh's chariots. ¹⁰Your cheeks are lovely with ornaments, your neck with chains of gold. ¹¹We will make you ornaments of gold with studs of silver. ¹²While the King is in His circle, my spikenard gives its fragrance. ¹³A bundle of myrrh is my Beloved to me. He shall lodge between my breasts. ¹⁴My Beloved is to me like a cluster of henna in the vineyards of Engedi. ¹⁵Behold, you are beautiful, my love. Behold, you are beautiful; your eyes as doves'. ¹⁶Behold, you are beautiful, my Beloved; yea, pleasant. Also our couch is green. ¹⁷The beams of our house are cedars; our rafters are of firs.

was sweet to my taste. ⁴He brought me to the house of wine, and His banner over me was love. ⁵Feed me with raisin cakes, refresh me with apples—for I am sick with love. ⁶His left hand is under my head, and His right hand embraces me. ⁷I adjure you by the gazelles, and by the does of the field, O daughters of Jerusalem, that you do not stir up and do not awaken the Beloved until it pleases.

⁸The voice of my Beloved! Behold, He comes leaping on the mountains, skipping on the hills. ⁹My Beloved is likened to a gazelle, or to a young deer, the stag. Behold, He stands behind our wall, looking from the windows, peering from the lattice. ¹⁰My Beloved answered and said to me, Arouse yourself, My love, My beautiful one, and come away. ¹¹For, behold, the winter has passed, the rain has passed, it goes to itself. ¹²The flowers appear on the earth; the time of singing has come; and the voice of the turtle-dove is heard in our land. ¹³The fig-tree spices her unripe figs, and the vines give a fragrance by the blossom. Arise, My love; come, My beautiful one, and come yourself. ¹⁴O My dove, in the clefts of the rock, in the secrecy of the steep place, let Me see your form. Let Me hear your voice; for your voice is sweet, and your form is beautiful. ¹⁵Take for us the foxes, the little foxes that spoil the vines; and our vineyards have blossoms.

¹⁶My Beloved is mine, and I am His. He feeds among the lilies. ¹⁷Until when does the day blow, and the shadows flee away? Turn, my Beloved, and be like a gazelle, or a young deer, the stag, on the cleft mountains.

¹By night on my bed I sought Him whom my soul loves. I sought Him, but I did not find Him. ²I will rise now and go about in the city, in the streets and in the broad places. I will seek Him whom my soul loves. I sought Him, but I did not find Him. ³The watchmen going about in the city found me. I said, Have you seen Him my soul loves? ⁴When I had passed on from them, it was a little while until I found Him whom my soul loves. I seized Him, and I did not let Him go, until I had brought Him into my mother's house, and into the room of her who conceived me. ¹I adjure you, O daughters of Jerusalem, by the gazelles or by the does of the field, that you do not stir up, even that you not stir up the Beloved until it pleases.

²Who is this who comes up out of the wilderness like pillars of smoke, burned with myrrh and frankincense, from all powders of the merchant? ³Behold his bed, Solomon's! Sixty mighty men are around it, of the mighty men of Israel. ⁴They all hold the sword, instructed in war; each man has his sword on his thigh from dread in the night. ⁵King Solomon made himself a litter-bed of the trees of Lebanon. ⁶He made its poles of silver; its back of gold; its seat of purple; its middle was paved with love by the daughters of Jerusalem. ⁷Go forth, O daughters of Zion, and see king Solomon with the crown with which his mother crowned him on his wedding day, even on the day of the gladness of his heart.

⁸Come with Me from Lebanon, My spouse; with Me from Lebanon. Look from the top of Amana, from the top of Shenir and Hermon, from the lions' dens, from the mountains of the leopards. ⁹You have ravished My heart, My sister, My spouse; you have ravished My heart with one of your eyes, with one chain of your neck. ¹⁰How beautiful are your loves, My sister, My spouse! How much better are your loves than wine, and the scent of your ointments than all spices! ¹¹Your lips, My spouse, drip like the honeycomb; honey and milk are under your tongue. And the scents of your garments are like the scent of Lebanon.

¹²A locked garden is My sister, My spouse; a rock heap locked up, a sealed fountain. ¹³Your plants are an orchard of pomegranates with excellent fruits, with henna and spikenard; ¹⁴spikenard and saffron, calamus and cinnamon; with all trees of frankincense, myrrh and aloes; with all the chief balsam spices; ¹⁵a fountain of gardens, a well of living waters; even flowings from Lebanon. ¹⁶Awake, north wind; yea, come, south wind; blow on my garden; let its spices flow out. Let my Beloved come into His garden, and eat its excellent fruits.

¹I have come into My garden, My sister, My spouse; I have gathered My myrrh with My spice. I have eaten My honeycomb with My honey; I have drunk My wine with My milk. Eat and drink, O friends; yea, drink fully, beloved ones.

²I sleep, but my heart is awake. It is the sound of my Beloved that knocks, saying, Open to Me, My sister, My love, My dove, My undefiled. For My head is filled with dew, My locks with the drops of the night. ³I have stripped off My coat; how shall I put it on? I have washed My feet; how shall I defile them? ⁴My Beloved sent His hand from the opening, and my inner being sighed for Him. ⁵I rose up to open to my Beloved, and my hands dripped with myrrh; yea, my fingers flowing with myrrh on the handles of the bolt. ⁶I opened to my Beloved; but my Beloved had left; He passed on. My soul went out when He spoke; I sought Him, but I could not find Him. I called Him, but He did not answer me. ⁷The watchmen who went about the city found me and struck me; they wounded me; the keepers of the walls lifted my veil from me. ⁷I adjure you, O daughters of Jerusalem, if you find my Beloved, what do you tell Him? That I am sick with love.

⁸What is your Beloved more than another Beloved, most beautiful among women? What is your Beloved more than another Beloved, that you adjure us so?

¹²His cheeks are like a bed of spices, a raised bed of aromatic herbs. His lips are like lilies dropping flowing myrrh. ¹³His hands are like rings of gold filled with jewels; His body an ivory plate overlaid with sapphires. ¹⁴His legs are like pillars of marble founded on bases of fine gold; His appearance is like Lebanon, excellent as the cedars. ¹⁵His mouth is most sweet; and He is altogether lovely. This is my Beloved, and this is my Friend, O daughters of Jerusalem.

¹Where has your Beloved gone, most beautiful among women? Where has your Beloved turned? For we seek Him along with you. ²My Beloved has gone down to His garden, to the terraces of spices, to feed in the gardens and to gather lilies. ³I am my Beloved's, and my Beloved is mine. He feeds among the lilies.

⁴O my love, you are as beautiful as Tirzah, as lovely as Jerusalem, awesome as bannered armies. ⁵Turn away your eyes from Me, because they have overcome Me. Your hair is like a flock of goats that recline from Gilead. ⁶Your teeth are like a flock of ewes which come up from the washing-place, bearing twins; and barrenness is not among them. ⁷Your temples behind your veil are like a piece of pomegranate. ⁸Sixty of them are queens, and eighty concubines, and virgins without number. ⁹But My dove, My perfect one is one alone. She is the only one to her mother; she is the choice of the one who bore her. The daughters saw her and called her blessed; the queens and the concubines saw her, and they praised her.

¹⁰Who is she who looks down like the dawn, beautiful as the moon, clear as the sun, awesome as bannered armies.

¹¹I went down to the garden of nut-trees, to see the fruits of the ravine, to see whether the vine flowered and the pomegranates budded. ¹²I did not know, but my soul set me on the chariots of My princely people. ¹³Return, return, O Shulamite! Return, return, that we may gaze upon you. What will you see in the Shulamite? As it were the dance of two army camps.

¹How beautiful are your feet in sandals, O prince's daughter! The curves of your thighs are like jewels, the work of the hands of a skillful worker. ²Your navel is like a round goblet; it never lacks mixed wine. Your belly is like a heap of wheat set about with lilies. ³Your two breasts are like two fawns, twins of a gazelle. ⁴Your neck is like an ivory tower; your eyes like the fish-pools in Heshbon, by the gate of Bath-rabbim. Your nose is like a tower of Lebanon, peering toward the face of Damascus. ⁵Your head is like Carmel, and the hair of your head like purple; the King is held captive in its tresses. ⁶How beautiful and how pleasant you are in delights, O love! ⁷Your stature compares to a palm tree, and your breasts to clusters of grapes. ⁸I said, I will go up in the palm tree; I will take hold of its stalk. And please let your breasts be like clusters of the vine, and the scent of your nose like apples, ⁹and the roof of your mouth like the best wine going down smoothly, for my Beloved, flowing softly over the lips of sleeping ones.

¹⁰I am my Beloved's, and His desire is toward me. ¹¹Come, my Beloved, let us go forth into the field; let us stay in the villages. ¹²Let us rise up early to the vineyards; let us see if the vine flowers and the blossom opens, and the pomegranates bud forth. There I will give my loves to You. ¹³The love-apples give a scent, and over our doors are all excellent fruits; new, also old, I have laid up for You, my Beloved.

¹Who can give You to me, as my brother, who sucked the breasts of my mother? When I find You outside, I would kiss You. They also would not despise me. ²I would lead You; I would bring You into my mother's house; You would teach me; I would cause You to drink the spiced wine from the juice of my pomegranate. ³His left hand would be under my head, and His right hand embracing me. ⁴I adjure you, O daughters of Jerusalem; why should you stir up or why should you awaken my love until it pleases? ⁵Who is this that comes up from the wilderness, leaning on her Beloved? I awakened you under the apple-tree; there your mother travailed with you; there she travailed; she bore you.

⁶Set me as a seal on Your heart, as a seal on Your arm. For love is strong as death; jealousy is cruel as Sheol; its flames are flames of fire, a flame of Jehovah. ⁷Many waters cannot quench love, nor will the rivers overflow it. If a man would give all the wealth of his house for love, they surely would despise him.

⁸We have a little sister, and she has no breasts. What shall we do for our sister in the day in which she shall be spoken for? ⁹If she is a wall, we will build a turret of silver on her. And if she is a door, we will enclose her with boards of cedar. ¹⁰I was a wall, and my breasts like towers; then I was in His eyes as one finding peace.

¹¹Solomon had a vineyard in Baalhamon. He let the vineyard out to keepers; for its fruit everyone was to bring a thousand of silver. ¹²My vineyard which is mine is before me; the thousand is for you, O Solomon, and two hundred for the keepers of its fruit. ¹³You who dwell in the gardens, the companions are listening to your voice; cause me to hear it. ¹⁴Hurry, my Beloved, and be like a gazelle, or a young deer, the stag, on the mountains of spices.

THE BOOK OF ISAIAH

¹The vision of Isaiah the son of Amoz, which he saw concerning Judah and Jerusalem in the days of Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz and Hezekiah, kings of Judah. ²Hear, O heavens, and listen, O earth! For Jehovah has spoken: I have nursed and brought up sons, but they have rebelled against Me. ³The ox knows his owner, and the ass his master's manger, but Israel does not know; My people have not understood. ⁴Woe, sinful nation, a people heavy with iniquity, a seed of evildoers, sons who corrupt! They have forsaken Jehovah; they have scorned the Holy One of Israel. They are estranged backward.

⁵Why will you be stricken any more? Will you continue the revolt? The whole head is sick, and the whole heart is faint. ⁶From the sole of the foot to the head, no soundness is in it; only a wound and a stripe and a fresh blow; they have not been closed, nor bound up; nor was it softened with oil. ⁷Your land is a desolation; your cities burned with fire. Foreigners devour your land before you; and behold, ruin, as overthrown by foreigners. ⁸And the daughter of Zion is left a booth in a vineyard, like a hut in a cucumber field, like a besieged city. ⁹Except Jehovah of hosts had left a remnant for us, a few, we would be as Sodom; we would be as Gomorrah.

¹⁰Hear the word of Jehovah, rulers of Sodom. Listen to the law of our God, people of Gomorrah. ¹¹What good to Me are your many sacrifices, says Jehovah? I am full of burnt offerings of rams, and the fat of fattened cattle, and the blood of bulls; nor do I delight in the blood of lambs and he-goats. ¹²When you come to see My face, who has required this at your hand, to trample My courts? ¹³Do not add to bringing vain sacrifice; it is hateful incense to Me. I cannot endure the new moon and sabbath, the calling of meeting, and the evil assembly. ¹⁴My soul hates your new moons and your appointed feasts. They are a burden to Me. I am weary of bearing them. ¹⁵And when you spread out your hands, I will hide My eyes from you. Yea, when you multiply prayer, I will not hear. Your hands are full of blood. ¹⁶Wash yourselves, purify yourselves. Put away the evil of your doings from My sight; stop doing evil. ¹⁷Learn to do good; seek justice; reprove the oppressor; judge the orphan; strive for the widow.

¹⁸Come now and let us reason together, says Jehovah: Though your sins are as scarlet, they shall be white as snow; though they are red as the crimson, they shall be like wool. ¹⁹If you are willing and hear, you shall eat the good of the land. ²⁰But if you refuse and rebel, you shall be devoured with the sword; for the mouth of Jehovah has spoken.

²¹O how the faithful city has become a harlot! She was full of justice; righteousness lodged in it — but now, murderers!

²²Your silver has become dross; your wine is diluted with water. ²³Your princes are rebellious and companions of thieves. Everyone loves a bribe, and is pursuing rewards. They do not judge the orphan, nor does the cause of the widow come to them, ²⁴and says the Lord, Jehovah of hosts, the mighty One of Israel, Alas! I will be eased of My foes, and avenge Myself of My enemies. ²⁵And I will return My hand on you, and refine your dross, as with lye, and take away all your alloy. ²⁶And I will return your judges as at the first; and your advisors, as at the beginning; then you shall be called the city of righteousness, a faithful town. ²⁷Zion shall be redeemed with justice, and her returning ones with righteousness. ²⁸And the ruin of the transgressors and of the sinners shall be together. And those who forsake Jehovah shall be consumed. ²⁹For they shall be ashamed of the trees which you lusted after; and you shall be ashamed of the gardens that you have chosen. ³⁰For you shall be like a tree whose leaf fades, and like a garden that has no water in it. ³¹And the strong shall be for tow, and his work for a spark; and they shall burn both together; and no one shall quench them.

¹The word that Isaiah the son of Amoz saw concerning Judah and Jerusalem:

²And it shall be in the last days, the mountain of the house of Jehovah shall be established in the top of the mountains, and shall be exalted above the hills; and all nations shall flow into it. ³And many people shall go and say, Come and let us go up to the mount of Jehovah, to the house of the God of Jacob. And He will teach from His ways, and we will walk in His paths. For out of Zion the Law will go forth, and the word of Jehovah from Jerusalem. ⁴And He shall judge among the nations and shall rebuke many people.

And they shall beat their swords into plowshares, and their spears into pruning-hooks. Nation shall not lift up sword against nation, nor shall they learn war any more. ⁵O house of Jacob, come and let us walk in the light of Jehovah. ⁶For You have forsaken Your people, the house of Jacob, because they are filled from the east, and are fortune-tellers like the Philistines. And they clap hands with children of foreigners. ⁷And his land is filled with silver and gold. There is no end of his treasures. And his land is full of horses; his chariots also do not have an end. ⁸And his land is full of idols; they worship the work of their own hands, that which their own fingers have made. ⁹And man bowed down; and man was humbled, but You do not lift them up. ¹⁰Enter into the rock and hide in the dust from fear of Jehovah, and from the glory of His majesty. ¹¹The lofty eyes of man shall be humbled, and the pride of men shall be bowed down; but Jehovah, He alone, will be exalted in that day. ¹²For the day of Jehovah of hosts shall be on all the proud and lofty ones, and on all that is lifted up; and it will be abased; ¹³and against all Lebanon's cedars, high and lifted up; and against all the oaks of Bashan; ¹⁴and against all the high mountains; and against all the lifted up hills; ¹⁵and against every tall tower; and against every fortified wall; ¹⁶and against all the ships of Tarshish; and on all pleasurable craft. ¹⁷And the pride of man shall be humbled; and the loftiness of men shall be abased; and Jehovah alone will be exalted in that day. ¹⁸And the idols shall completely vanish. ¹⁹And they shall go into the caves of the rocks, and into the holes of the earth, for fear of Jehovah, and from the glory of His majesty; when He rises up to make the earth quake. ²⁰In that day a man shall throw his silver and his golden idols which they made for him to worship, to the hole of the burrower and to the bats; ²¹to go into the crevices of the rocks, and into the clefts of the cliffs, from the dread of Jehovah, and from the glory of His majesty; when He rises up to make the earth quake.

¹For, behold, the Lord, Jehovah of hosts, takes away the stay and the staff from Jerusalem and from Judah; the whole stay of bread and the whole stay of water; ²the mighty man, and the man of war; the judge and the prophet; and the diviner and the elder; ³the commander of fifty; and the exalted of face; the counselor and the skilled craftsman; and the expert enchanter. ⁴And I will give young boys to be their rulers, and caprices shall rule over them. ⁵And the people shall be crushed, man against man, and a man on his neighbor. The boy will be insolent against the elder, and the despised against the honorable. ⁶When a man shall take hold of his brother, at his father's house, saying, A cloak! Come, you be a ruler for us; let this ruin be under your hand— ⁷in that day he shall swear, saying, I will not be one who binds up; for there is no bread nor a cloak in my house; you shall not make me a ruler of the people. ⁸For Jerusalem has stumbled, and Judah has fallen; because their tongue and their deeds toward Jehovah are to rebel against the eyes of His glory. ⁹The look of their faces witnesses against them; they have declared their sin like Sodom; they do not hide it. Woe to their soul! For they have dealt evil to themselves.

¹⁰Say to the righteous that it is well; for they shall eat of the fruit of their doings.

¹¹Woe to the wicked! It shall be ill; for the reward of his hand is done to him. ¹²*As for*

My people, children are their oppressors, and women rule over him. O My people, your rulers cause you to go astray, and they swallow the way of your paths.

¹³Jehovah stands up to plead His cause, and stands up to judge the peoples.

¹⁴Jehovah will enter into judgment with the elders of His people, and their kings. For you have eaten up the vineyard, the plunder of the poor is in your houses.

¹⁵What do you mean that you crush My people, and grind the faces of the poor, says the Lord, Jehovah of hosts? ¹⁶And Jehovah says, Because the daughters of Zion are proud, and walk with stretched out necks and wanton eyes, walking and mincing as they go, and make a tinkling with their feet; ¹⁷so Jehovah will make the crown of the daughter of Zion scabby; and Jehovah will lay their secret parts bare. ¹⁸In that day the Lord will take away the beauty of the ankle-bracelets, and the headbands, and the crescents, ¹⁹the pendants, and the bracelets, and the veils; ²⁰the headdresses, and the leg ornaments, and the sashes, and the houses of the soul, and the amulets; ²¹the rings and nose jewels; ²²the festal apparel and the outer garments; and the mantles, and the purses; ²³the mirrors and the fine linen; and the turbans and the veils. ²⁴And it shall be, instead of a smell of perfume, there shall be an odor of decay. And instead of a sash, a rope. And instead of well-set hair, baldness. And instead of a rich robe, a girding of sackcloth; burning instead of beauty. ²⁵Your men shall fall by the sword, and your mighty in the war. ²⁶And her gates shall lament and mourn; and she shall sit bare on the ground.

¹And in that day seven women shall take hold of one man, saying, We will eat our own bread and wear our own clothing, only let your name be called on us; collect our shame. ²In that day the branch of Jehovah will be beautiful and glorious, and the fruit of the earth for pride and for glory for the survivors of Israel. ³And it shall be, he remaining in Zion, and he who is left in Jerusalem, shall be called holy, every one who is written among the living in Jerusalem; ⁴when the Lord shall have washed away the filth of the daughters of Zion, and the blood of Jerusalem shall have been rinsed away from its midst by a spirit of judgment, and by a spirit of burning. ⁵Then Jehovah will create a cloud and smoke by day, and the shining of a flaming fire by night, for over all the site of Mount Zion, and over her assemblies; for over all the glory will be a canopy. ⁶And there shall be a booth for a shade by day from the heat, and for a refuge, and for a hiding-place from storm and rain.

¹Now I will sing to my Beloved a song of my Beloved concerning His vineyard: My Beloved has a vineyard in a fruitful horn. ²And He dug it, and cleared it of stones, and planted it with the choicest vine, and built a tower in its midst, and also hewed out a wine vat in it. And He waited for it to produce grapes, but it produced rotten grapes. ³And now, O people of Jerusalem and men of Judah, I ask you, judge between Me and My vineyard. ⁴What more could have been done to My vineyard that I have not done in it? Who knows? I waited for it to yield grapes, but it yielded rotten grapes. ⁵And now I will make known to you what I will do then to My vineyard. I will take away its hedge, and it will be burned. I will breach its wall, and it will become a trampling-ground. ⁶And I will lay it waste; it shall not be pruned nor hoed; but briers and thorns shall come up. And I will command the clouds from raining rain on it. ⁷For the vineyard of Jehovah of hosts is the house of Israel, and the man of Judah is His delightful plant. And He waited for justice, but behold, bloodshed; for righteousness, but behold, a cry!

⁸Woe to those touching house to house, bringing near field to field until the end of space, and you are made to dwell alone in the middle of the land! ⁹Jehovah of hosts has sworn in my ears, If not, many houses shall be a waste, big and beautiful ones without inhabitant. ¹⁰Yea, ten acres of vineyard shall yield one bath, and the seed of a homer shall yield an ephah. ¹¹Woe to those who rise early in the morning to go after fermented drink, tarrying in the twilight while wine inflames them! ¹²And the lyre and the harp, the timbrel and flute, and wine are at their feasts; but they do not regard the work of Jehovah; yea, they do not see the work of His hands. ¹³For this My people go into exile without knowledge, and his men of glory into famine; and their multitude is parched with thirst. ¹⁴So Sheol has enlarged its appetite, and opened its mouth without measure, and her glory and her multitude, and her uproar, he who exults in her, shall come down in it. ¹⁵And man is bowed down, and man is humbled, and the eyes of the proud are humbled. ¹⁶But Jehovah of hosts is exalted in judgment, and God the Holy One is proven holy in righteousness. ¹⁷Then the lambs shall feed as in their pasture, and strangers shall eat the waste places of the fatlings.

¹⁸Woe to those who draw iniquity with cords of vanity, and sin as with ropes of a cart; ¹⁹who say, Let Him hurry and hasten His work, so that we may see; and let the purpose of the Holy One of Israel draw near and come, so that we may know! ²⁰Woe to those who say to evil, good; and to good, evil; who put darkness for light, and light for darkness; who put bitter for sweet, and sweet for bitter! ²¹Woe to those wise in their own eyes, and discerning in their own sight!

²⁶And He will lift up a banner to distant nations, and will hiss to them from the ends of the earth; and, behold, it shall come with swift speed! ²⁷None shall be weary nor stumble among them; none will slumber nor sleep; nor shall the waistcloth of their loins be opened, nor the thong of their sandals broken; ²⁸whose arrows are sharp, and all their bows bent; their horses' hooves shall appear as flint, and their wheels like a hurricane. ²⁹Their roaring shall be like a lion; they shall roar like young lions. Yea, they roar and seize the prey, and carry it away; and no one shall deliver. ³⁰And in that day they shall roar against them like the roaring of the sea; when one looks to the land, and lo, darkness! Distress! And light shall be darkened by its clouds.

¹In the year that king Uzziah died, then I saw the Lord sitting on a throne, high and lifted up. And His train filled the temple. ²Above it stood the seraphs. Each one had six wings; with two he covered his face; and with two he covered his feet; and with two he flew. ³And one cried to the other and said, Holy, holy, holy is Jehovah of hosts; all the earth is full of His glory! ⁴And the doorposts shook from the voice of the one who cried; and the house was filled with smoke. ⁵Then I said, Woe is me! For I am cut off; for I am a man of unclean lips, and I live amongst a people of unclean lips; for my eyes have seen the King, Jehovah of hosts. ⁶Then one of the seraphs flew to me with a live coal in his hand, snatched with tongs from the altar. ⁷And he touched it on my mouth, and said, See, this has touched your lips; and your iniquity is taken away, and your sin is covered. ⁸And I heard the voice of Jehovah, saying, Whom shall I send, and who will go for Us? Then I said, Behold me. Send me! ⁹And He said, Go and tell this people, Hearing you hear, but do not understand; and seeing you see, but do not know. ¹⁰Make the heart of this people fat, and make his ears heavy, and shut his eyes, that he not see with his eyes, and hear with his ears, and understand with his heart, and turn and one heals him. ¹¹Then I said, How long, O Lord? And He said, Until cities lie desolate without inhabitant, and the houses without man, and the land is laid waste, a desolation; ¹²and until Jehovah has sent mankind far away, and the desolation in the midst of the land is great. ¹³But yet a tenth shall be in it, and it shall return and be consumed like the terebinth and like the oak that in being felled yet has its stump—the holy seed is its stump.

¹And it happened in the days of Ahaz the son of Jotham, the son of Uzziah, king of Judah, Rezin the king of Syria, and Pekah the son of Remaliah, king of Israel, went up to Jerusalem to a war against it, but were not able to do battle against it. ²And the house of David was told, saying, Syria is allied with Ephraim, and his heart and the heart of his people shook, as the trees of the forest shake from the wind. ³And Jehovah said to Isaiah, Go out to meet Ahaz, you and your son Shear-jashub, at the end of the conduit of the upper pool, to the highway of the Fuller's Field. ⁴And say to him, Be on guard and be calm. Do not fear nor be timid of heart because of the two tails of these smoking firebrands, because of the fierce anger of Rezin and Syria, and of the son of Remaliah. ⁵Because Syria, Ephraim, and the son of Remaliah have plotted evil against you, saying, ⁶'Let us go up against Judah and make her to dread, and break her for ourselves, and set a king in her midst, the son of Tabeal.' ⁷So says the Lord Jehovah, It shall not rise, nor shall it happen. ⁸For the head of Syria is Damascus, and the head of Damascus is Rezin; and within sixty-five years Ephraim shall be broken from being a people. ⁹And the head of Ephraim is Samaria, and the head of Samaria is Remaliah's son. If you will not believe, surely you will not be established.

¹⁰And Jehovah spoke again to Ahaz, saying, ¹¹Ask a sign from Jehovah your God; make deep the request, or make it high above. ¹²But Ahaz said, I will not ask, nor will I tempt Jehovah. ¹³And He said, Hear now, O house of David, is it too little that you weary men, but will you also weary my God? ¹⁴So, The Lord Himself will give you a sign: Behold! The virgin is with child, and shall bring forth a son; and she shall call His name Immanuel. ¹⁵He shall eat curds and honey until He knows to refuse the evil and choose the good. ¹⁶For before the boy shall know to refuse the evil and choose the good, the land that you hate will be forsaken before both her kings. ¹⁷Jehovah shall bring the king of Assyria on you, and on your people, and on your father's house, days which have not come since the days Ephraim turned aside from Judah. ¹⁸And it shall be, in that day Jehovah shall hiss for the fly that is in the end of the rivers of Egypt, and for the bee that is in the land of Assyria. ¹⁹And they shall come, and they shall all rest in the steep ravines, and in the clefts of the rocks, and in all the thorn bushes, and in all the pastures. ²⁰In that day the Lord will shave with a razor that is hired, beyond the River, by the king of Assyria, the head, and the hair of the feet, and also it shall sweep away the beard. ²¹And it shall be in that day, a man shall keep alive a heifer of the herd, and two sheep. ²²And it shall be, he shall eat curds from the plenty of milk-making; for everyone who is left in the land shall eat curds and honey. ²³And it shall be in that day, every place where there were a thousand vines worth a thousand pieces of silver, it shall be for briers and thorns. ²⁴With arrows and with the bow, he shall come there; because all the land shall be briers and thorns. ²⁵And all the hills which were hoed with the hoe, you shall not come there for fear of briers and thorns; but it shall be for the sending out of the ox, and for trampling of sheep.

¹And Jehovah said to me, Take a big tablet and write in it with a man's pen: Make haste to plunder! Hasten to the prey! ²And I took faithful witnesses to record for me, Uriah the priest, and Zechariah the son of Jeberechiah. ³And I drew near the prophetess. And she conceived, and bore a son. Then Jehovah said to me, Call his name, Hurry, plunder! Eagerly plunder!. ⁴For before the boy knows to cry, My father, or, My mother, the riches of Damascus and the plunder of Samaria shall be taken away before the king of Assyria.

⁵Jehovah also spoke to me again, saying, ⁶Because this people has refused the waters of Shiloah that flow softly, and rejoices in Rezin and Remaliah's son, ⁷Behold, therefore the Lord also brings on them the channels of the River, mighty and many: the king of Assyria and all his glory. And he shall come up over all its channels, and go over all its banks. ⁸And he shall pass through Judah; He shall overflow and go over. He shall reach to the neck; and his wings will be stretching out, filling the breadth of your land, O Immanuel. ⁹O peoples, suffer evil, and be broken! And listen, all from the far places of the earth; gird yourselves, and be broken. Gird yourselves and be broken! ¹⁰Counsel a counsel, and it is frustrated; speak a word, and it shall not rise; for God is with us.

¹¹For so Jehovah spoke to me with a strong hand, and taught me against walking in the way of this people, saying, ¹²Do not say, A conspiracy, to everything of which this people says, A conspiracy! And do not fear its fear, and do not dread. ¹³Sanctify Jehovah of hosts Himself, and let Him be your fear; and let Him be your dread. ¹⁴And He shall be for a sanctuary, and for a stone of stumbling, and for a rock of falling to the two houses of Israel; for a trap and for a snare to the dweller of Jerusalem. ¹⁵And many among them shall stumble and fall, and be broken, and be snared, and be taken. ¹⁶Bind up the testimony, seal the law among My disciples. ¹⁷And I will wait on Jehovah, who hides His face from the house of Jacob; and I will look for Him. ¹⁸Behold, I and the children whom Jehovah has given to me are for signs and wonders in Israel from Jehovah of hosts, who dwells in Mount Zion. ¹⁹And when they say to you, Seek to those who have familiar spirits, and to wizards who peep and mutter; should not a people seek to its God, than for the living to seek to the dead? ²⁰To the law and to the testimony! If they do not speak according to this word, it is because there is no dawn to them! ²¹And they shall pass through it, hard-pressed and hungry. And it shall be, they shall be hungry; he will rave and curse his king and his God, and face upward. ²²And they shall look to the land. And, behold, trouble and darkness and gloom of anguish; and they are driven to darkness.

¹Yet there shall not be gloom for which anguish is to her; as in the former time when He degraded the land of Zebulun, and the land of Naphtali, so afterwards He will glorify the way of the sea, beyond the Jordan, Galilee of the nations: ²The people who walk in darkness have seen a great light. The ones who dwell in the land of the shadow of death — Light has shone on them. ³You have multiplied the nation; You have increased the joy. They rejoice before You as in the joy of harvest, as men shout when they divide the plunder. ⁴For You have broken his burdensome yoke and the staff of his shoulder, the rod of his taskmaster, as in the day of Midian. ⁵For every boot of the trampler is with commotion, and a coat rolled in blood shall be burning fuel for the fire. ⁶For a Child is born; to us a Son is given; and the government is on His shoulder; and His name is called Wonderful, Counselor, the mighty God, the everlasting Father, the Prince of Peace. ⁷There is no end to the increase of His government and of peace on the throne of David, and on His kingdom, to order it, and to sustain it with justice and with righteousness, from now and forever. The zeal of Jehovah of hosts will do this.

⁸The Lord sent a word into Jacob, and it has fallen into Israel. ⁹And all the people shall know — Ephraim and the inhabitants of Samaria, who say in pride and greatness of heart, ¹⁰Bricks have fallen, but we will build with cut stones; the sycamores are cut down, but we will use cedars instead. ¹¹And Jehovah will set up Rezin's foes against him, and spur on his enemies; ¹²Syria in front, and the Philistines behind; and they shall devour Israel with all the mouth. In all this His anger does not turn away, but His hand is still stretched out. ¹³For the people do not turn to Him who strikes them, and they do not seek Jehovah of hosts. ¹⁴And Jehovah will cut off from Israel head and tail, branch and rush, in one day. ¹⁵The elder and the exalted of face; he is the head. And the prophet who teaches lies; he is the tail. ¹⁶For this people's leaders led them astray, and its guided ones are swallowed up. ¹⁷For this the Lord shall not rejoice over their young men, nor have pity on their orphans and widows—for everyone is a hypocrite and an evildoer; and every mouth speaks foolishness. In all this His anger does not turn away, but His hand is still stretched out.

¹⁸For wickedness burns like a fire; it shall devour the briers and thorns and shall kindle the thickets of the forest; and they shall roll upward, like the going up of smoke. ¹⁹The land is scorched by the wrath of Jehovah of hosts, and the people shall be as the fuel of the fire; no man shall spare his brother. ²⁰And he shall cut off on the right hand, yet be hungry. And he shall eat on the left, but not be satisfied. Each man shall eat the flesh of his own arm; ²¹Manasseh, Ephraim; and Ephraim, Manasseh—together they are against Judah. In all this His anger does not turn away, but His hand is still stretched out.

¹Woe to those who decree decrees of injustice, and writers who write toil; ²to keep back the poor from judgment, and to steal justice from the poor of My people; that widows may be their prey; that they may rob orphans. ³And what will you do in the day of visitation and of destruction? It comes from far away. To whom will you flee for help? And where will you leave your glory? ⁴Surely, he will grovel under the prisoners, and they will fall under the slain. In all this His anger does not turn away, but His hand is still stretched out.

⁵Woe to Assyria, the rod of My anger! And My fury is the staff in their hand. ⁶I will send him against an ungodly nation, and against the people of My wrath. I will command him to plunder plunder, and to strip off spoil, and to trample them like the mud of the streets. ⁷Yet he does not purpose this, nor does his heart think so. For it is in his heart to destroy, and to cut off not a few nations. ⁸For he says, Are not my commanders all like kings? ⁹Is not Calno like Carchemish? Is Hamath not like Arpad? Is Samaria not like Damascus? ¹⁰As my hand has found the kingdoms of the idols — for their carved images excelled Jerusalem's and Samaria's — ¹¹shall I not do to Jerusalem and her idols as I have done to Samaria and her idols? ¹²And it will be, when the Lord has broken off all His work on Mount Zion and on Jerusalem, I will visit on the fruit of the proud heart of the king of Assyria, and on the glory of his lofty eyes. ¹³For he says, I have worked by the strength of my hand and by my wisdom; for I am wise. And I take away the borders of peoples, and have robbed their treasures. And like a mighty one, I subdue inhabitants. ¹⁴And my hand has found the riches of the people. Like a nest, I also have gathered all the earth, as forsaken eggs are gathered. And there was not one moving a wing, or opening a mouth, or one chirping.

¹⁵Shall the axe glorify itself over him chopping with it? Or shall the saw magnify itself over him moving it? As if a rod could wave those who lift it. As if a staff could raise what is not wood! ¹⁶So the Lord, Jehovah of hosts, shall send leanness among his fat ones. And under His glory He will kindle a burning like the burning of fire. ¹⁷And the light of Israel shall be for a fire, and His Holy One for a flame—and it shall burn and devour his thorns and briers in one day. ¹⁸And He shall consume the glory of his forest and his fruitful field, even from soul to flesh; and it shall be as a sick man melts away. ¹⁹And the rest of the trees of the forest shall be few, so that a boy might write them.

²⁰And it shall be in that day, the remnant of Israel, and the escaped ones from the house of Jacob, shall not any more lean on him who struck him. But they will truly lean on Jehovah, the Holy One of Israel. ²¹The remnant shall return, the remnant of Jacob, to the mighty God. ²²For though Your people Israel is like the sand of the sea, only a remnant of it shall return; a determined end, overflowing with righteousness. ²³For the Lord Jehovah of hosts is making a full end, even ordained, in the midst of all the land. ²⁴So the Lord Jehovah of hosts says this: O My people who dwell in Zion, do not fear Assyria. He shall strike you with the rod, and he shall lift up his staff against you in the way of Egypt. ²⁵But yet a little while, and the fury is finished; and My anger shall be over their destruction. ²⁶And Jehovah of hosts shall stir up a whip on him according to the striking of Midian at the rock Oreb; and as His rod was on the sea, and He lifted it up in the way of Egypt. ²⁷And it shall be in that day, his burden shall turn away from on your shoulder, and his yoke from your neck; and the yoke shall be destroyed because of the anointing. ²⁸He has come to Aiath; he has passed to Migron; he has left his baggage at Michmash. ²⁹They have crossed the ford; they have bedded down at Geba; Ramah is afraid; Gibeah of Saul has fled. ³⁰Shriek with your voice, daughter of ruins; bow, Laishah, afflicted of Anathoth. ³¹Madmenah wanders; Gebim's inhabitants take refuge. ³²Yet he remains in Nob today; he remains in Nob today; he will shake his hand against the mount of the daughter of Zion, the hill of Jerusalem. ³³Behold, the Lord, Jehovah of hosts, shall lop the bough of terror! And the lofty ones shall be cut down, and the proud shall be humbled. ³⁴And He shall cut down the thickets of the forest with iron, and Lebanon shall fall by a mighty one.

¹And a Shoot goes out from the stump of Jesse, and a Branch will bear fruit out of his roots. ²And the Spirit of Jehovah shall rest on Him; He will have the spirit of wisdom and understanding, the spirit of counsel and power, the spirit of knowledge and of the fear of Jehovah. ³And He is made to breathe in the fear of Jehovah. But He shall not judge by the seeing of His eyes, nor decide by the hearing of His ears. ⁴But He shall judge the poor in righteousness, and shall decide rightly for the meek of the earth. And He shall strike the earth with the rod of His mouth, and He shall slay the wicked with the breath of His lips. ⁵And righteousness shall be the encircler of His thighs, and faithfulness the encircler of His loins. ⁶And the wolf shall live with the lamb; and the leopard shall lie with the kid; and the calf and the young lion and the fatling together; and a little boy leads them. ⁷The cow and the bear shall feed, their young shall lie together; and the lion shall eat straw like the ox. ⁸And the infant shall play on the hole of the asp; yea, the weaned child shall put his hand on the viper's den. ⁹They shall not do evil, nor destroy in all My holy mountain. For the earth shall be full of the knowledge of Jehovah, as the waters cover the sea.

¹⁰And it shall be in that day, the Root of Jesse stands as a banner of peoples; nations shall seek to Him; and His resting place shall be glory. ¹¹And it shall be in that day, the Lord shall again set His hand, the second time, to recover the remnant of His people that remains, from Assyria, and from Egypt, and from Pathros, and from Ethiopia, and from Persia, and from Shinar, and from Hamath, and from the coasts of the sea. ¹²And He shall lift up a banner for the nations, and shall gather the outcasts of Israel, and gather those dispersed from Judah, from the four wings of the earth. ¹³And the envy of Ephraim shall turn off; and Judah's foes shall be cut off. Ephraim shall not envy Judah, and Judah shall not trouble Ephraim. ¹⁴But they shall fly onto the shoulder of the Philistines to the west; they shall plunder the sons of the east, the stretching of the hand on Edom and Moab and the sons of Ammon; they will obey them. ¹⁵And Jehovah shall utterly destroy the tongue of the sea of Egypt; and with His scorching wind He shall wave His hand over the River, and shall strike it into seven torrents, and make one tread it with shoes. ¹⁶And there shall be a highway for the remnant of His people, those left from Assyria, as it was to Israel in the day when he came up out of the land of Egypt.

¹And in that day you shall say, O Jehovah, I will thank You. Though You were angry with me, turn away Your anger and You shall comfort me. ²Behold, God is my salvation! I will trust and not be afraid, for my strength and song is Jah Jehovah; yea, He has become my salvation. ³And you shall draw waters out of the wells of salvation with joy. ⁴And in that day you shall say, Praise Jehovah! Call on His name; declare His doings among the peoples; make mention that His name is exalted. ⁵Sing to Jehovah, for He has done majestically; this is known in all the earth. ⁶Cry and shout, O dweller of Zion! For great is the Holy One of Israel in your midst.

¹The burden of Babylon which Isaiah the son of Amoz saw: ²Lift up a banner on a bare mountain; make the voice rise to them; wave the hand that they may enter the gates of nobles. ³I have commanded My holy ones; I have also called My warriors for My anger, those who rejoice in My highness. ⁴The noise of a multitude in the mountains, as of a great people! A noise of tumult of the kingdoms of nations gathered together; Jehovah of hosts is calling up an army for the battle. ⁵They come from a distant land, from the end of the heavens, Jehovah and the weapons of His wrath, to destroy all the land. ⁶Howl! For the day of Jehovah is at hand. It shall come as a destruction from the Almighty. ⁷On account of this all hands shall droop, and every heart of man shall melt; ⁸and they shall be afraid. Pangs and sorrows shall take hold of them; they shall be in pain like a woman bearing; they shall be amazed, each man to his neighbor; faces of flames shall be their faces. ⁹Behold, the day of Jehovah comes, cruel and with wrath and fierce anger, to lay the land waste. And He shall destroy its sinners out of it. ¹⁰For the stars of the heavens and their constellations shall not give light; the sun shall be darkened in its going forth, and the moon shall not reflect its light. ¹¹And I will visit evil on the world, and their iniquity on the wicked. And I will cause the arrogance of the proud to cease; and I will humble the pride of tyrants.

¹²I will make a man more rare than fine gold; even a man more than the carvings of Ophir. ¹³So I will shake the heavens, and the earth shall move out of its place, in the wrath of Jehovah of hosts, and in the day of His fierce anger. ¹⁴And it shall be as a gazelle driven away, and as a sheep no one gathers; each man shall look to his own people, and each one shall flee to his land. ¹⁵Everyone who is found shall be pierced through; yea, everyone who is caught shall fall by the sword. ¹⁶And their children shall be dashed in pieces before their eyes; their houses shall be robbed, and their wives raped. ¹⁷Behold, I stir up the Medes against them, who shall not value silver. And they shall not delight in gold. ¹⁸And bows shall also smash the young men to pieces; and they shall have no pity on the fruit of the womb; their eye shall not spare sons. ¹⁹And Babylon, the glory of the kingdoms, the beauty of the pride of the Chaldeans, shall be as when God overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah. ²⁰It shall never be inhabited forever, nor shall it be lived in from generation to generation. And the Arabian shall not pitch a tent there, nor shall the shepherds make flocks lie down there. ²¹But the desert creatures shall lie there; and their houses shall be full of howling creatures; and daughters of ostriches shall dwell there; and he-goats shall skip there. ²²And hyenas shall cry along with his widows; and jackals in palaces of delight. Yea, her time to come is near, and her days shall not be prolonged.

¹For Jehovah will have pity on Jacob, and will yet choose among Israel, and set them in their own land. And the stranger shall be joined to them; and they shall cling to the house of Jacob. ²And the peoples shall take them and bring them to their own place. And the house of Israel shall possess them in the land of Jehovah for slaves and slavegirls. And they shall be captives of their captors; and they shall rule over their oppressors. ³And it shall be, in the day that Jehovah shall give you rest from your sorrow, and from your trouble, and from the hard bondage which was pressed on you, ⁴you shall take up this proverb against the king of Babylon, and say: How the exactor, the gold gatherer, has ceased! ⁵Jehovah has broken the rod of the wicked, the staff of rulers, ⁶who struck the peoples in wrath, a blow without turning away, ruling the nations in anger, dealing out persecution without restraint. ⁷All the earth is at rest, quiet; they break forth into singing. ⁸Yea, the fir-trees rejoice over you; the cedars of Lebanon say, Since you have lain down, no woodcutter will come up against us.

⁹Sheol from below is stirred for you, to meet you at your coming; it stirs up the departed spirits for you, all the he-goats of the earth. It has raised all the kings of the nations from their thrones. ¹⁰All of them shall answer and say to you, Are you also made as weak as we? Are you likened to us? ¹¹Your majesty is lowered into Sheol; the noise of your harps. The maggot is spread under you; yea, the worms cover you. ¹²O shining star, son of the morning, how you have fallen from the heavens! You weakening the nations, you are cut down to the ground. ¹³For you have said in your heart, I will go up to the heavens; I will raise my throne above the stars of God, and I will sit in the mount of meeting, in the sides of the north. ¹⁴I will rise over the heights of the clouds; I will be compared to the Most High. ¹⁵Yet you shall be brought out to Sheol, to the sides of the Pit. ¹⁶They that see you shall stare and closely watch you, saying, Is this the man who made the earth tremble, shaking kingdoms, ¹⁷making the world like a wilderness, and who tore down its cities—he did not open a house for his prisoners? ¹⁸All kings of nations, all of them lie in glory, each man in his house. ¹⁹But you are thrown from your grave like a despised branch, like the covering of the slain, those pierced by the sword, those who go down into the stones of the Pit, like a dead body trampled under foot.

²⁴Jehovah of hosts has sworn, saying, Surely as I have thought, so it shall be; and as I have purposed, it shall rise up; ²⁵to break Assyria in My land, and trample him on My mountains. Then his yoke shall depart from them, and his burden shall depart from his shoulders. ²⁶This is the purpose that is purposed on all the earth; and this the hand that is stretched out on all the nations. ²⁷For Jehovah of hosts has purposed. And who shall reverse it? And His hand is stretched out. Who shall turn it back?

²⁸This burden was in the year king Ahaz died: ²⁹Do not rejoice, O Philistia, all of you, for the rod of your striking is broken, because a viper comes forth from the root of a snake, and his fruit shall be a fiery flying serpent. ³⁰And the firstborn of the poor shall eat; and the needy shall lie down in safety; and I will kill your root with famine; and it shall kill your remnant. ³¹Howl, O gate! Cry, O city! Philistia is melted away, all of you. For a smoke comes from the north, and not one is alone in his ranks. ³²What then shall one answer to the messengers of the nation? That Jehovah has founded Zion, and the poor of His people shall trust in it.

¹The burden of Moab: Because Ar of Moab is laid waste; it is cut off; because in a night Kir of Moab is laid waste; it is cut off. ²One goes up to the house, even to Dibon, the high places, to weep. Moab shall howl over Nebo and over Medeba; all its heads shall be bald, every beard shorn. ³They shall dress with sackcloth in the streets; everyone shall howl on their housetops and in their plazas, melting in tears. ⁴And Heshbon and Elealeh shall cry; their voice shall be heard as far as Jahaz; so the warriors of Moab shall shout; his life is broken to him. ⁵My heart shall cry to Moab; her fugitives to Zoar, a heifer of three years; he goes up the ascent of Luhith, with weeping, for in the way of Horonaim they shall raise up a cry of ruin. ⁶For Nimrim's waters are desolations; for the hay is dried up; the grass fails; there is not a green thing. ⁷On account of this one made up the remainder, and their store; they shall carry them over the brook of the willows. ⁸For the cry has gone around Moab's borders; his howling even to Eglaim; and his howling even to the Well of Elim. ⁹For Dimon's waters are full of blood; for I will put more on Dimon, a lion on him who escapes from Moab, and for the remnant of the land.

¹Send a lamb to the ruler of the land, from the rock of the desert to the mount of the daughter of Zion. ²For it is as a fleeing bird cast out of the nest; the daughters of Moab shall be at the fords of Arnon. ³Take counsel; do judgment; make your shadow as the night in mid-day; hide the outcasts; do not uncover the fugitive! ⁴Let My outcasts tarry with you, Moab. Be a hiding-place to them from the face of the destroyer. For the exactor has ceased, destruction has failed; the trampler is ended out of the land. ⁵And in mercy the throne shall be founded; and he shall sit on it in truth in the tabernacle of David, judging and seeking justice, and swift in righteousness.

⁶We have heard of the pride of Moab, very proud; of his pride, his arrogance, and his rage; not so are his babblings. ⁷So Moab shall howl for Moab; everyone shall howl; you shall moan for the raisin-cakes of Kir-hareseth; surely they are stricken. ⁸For the fields of Heshbon droop, the vine of Sibmah. The masters of the nations have crushed its choice plants—they have come to Jazer; they wander in the desert; her branches are spread out; they have crossed the sea. ⁹On account of this the vine of Sibmah will weep with the weeping of Jazer; I will drench you with my tears, O Heshbon and Elealeh; for shouting has fallen on your fruit and on your harvest. ¹⁰And gladness and joy is gathered up from the fruitful field; and there is no singing and no shouting in the vineyards; the treaders shall not tread out wine in the presses; I have made the exultation to cease. ¹¹For this reason my belly shall sound like a harp for Moab, and my inward parts for Kir-harsh. ¹²And it shall be, when it is seen that Moab shall be wearied on the high place, then he shall come to his shrine to pray, and he shall not be able. ¹³This is the word that Jehovah had spoken to Moab from that time. ¹⁴But now Jehovah has spoken, saying, Within three years, as the years of a hireling, then the glory of Moab will be abased, with all the great host; and the remnant shall be few; small, not mighty.

⁴And it shall be in that day, Jacob's glory shall be made thin, and the fatness of his flesh shall be made lean. ⁵And it shall be as the reaping of the harvest grain, and his arm reaps the ears. And it shall be as he who gathers ears in the Valley of the Giants. ⁶Yet gleaning grapes shall be left in it, as the shaking of an olive tree; two or three ripe olives in the top of the uppermost branch; four or five in the fruit-tree branches, declares Jehovah God of Israel.

⁷In that day a man shall gaze to his Maker; and his eyes shall look to the Holy One of Israel. ⁸And he shall not gaze to the altars, work of his hands; and he will not see what his fingers have made, even the Asherim, and the sun-pillars. ⁹In that day his fortified cities shall be as a thing left in the forest, or the branch that they leave, from before the sons of Israel. And it will become a desolation. ¹⁰Because you have forgotten the God of your salvation, and you did not remember the Rock of your strength. On account of this you shall plant pleasing plants, and shall sow it a foreign shoot. ¹¹In the day of your planting you fence it in; in the morning you make your seed sprout; the harvest is a heap in the day of sickness and incurable pain. ¹²Woe to the multitude of many peoples; they roar like the roar of seas; and the crash of nations, they crash like the crash of mighty waters! ¹³The nations shall crash like the crashing of many waters, but He rebukes it, and it flees far away; yea, it is driven like the chaff of mountains before the wind, and like a rolling thing before a tempest. ¹⁴At the time of evening, behold, terror! Before it is morning, it shall not be. This is the portion of those robbing us, and the lot of those plundering us.

¹Woe to the land of whirling of wings, which is beyond the rivers of Ethiopia; ²which sends envoys by the sea, even in ships of papyrus on the face of the waters. Go, swift messengers, to a nation tall and smooth, to a terrible people from it, and onwards; and a nation mighty and trampling down, whose land the rivers have divided! ³All you inhabitants of the world and dwellers of the earth, as one lifts a banner on the peaks, you will see. And you will hear as the blowing of a ram's horn. ⁴For so Jehovah said to me, I will rest, and I will watch My dwelling-place; as the glowing heat on light; as the cloud of dew in the heat of harvest. ⁵For before the harvest, when the bud is perfect, and the sour grape is ripening in the flower, then He will cut off the sprigs with pruning hooks, and cut down and take away the branches. ⁶They shall be left together to the birds of the hills, and to the birds of the hills, and to the beasts of the earth. And the birds shall summer on them, and all the beasts of the earth shall winter on them. ⁷Then shall be brought in that time to Jehovah of hosts a present from a tall and smooth people, and a terrible people, from it and onward; a mighty and trampling nation whose land the rivers have divided, to the place of the name of Jehovah of hosts: Mount Zion.

¹The burden of Egypt: Behold! Jehovah rides on a light cloud and comes into Egypt. And the idols of Egypt shall tremble from before Him; and the heart of Egypt shall melt in its midst. ²And I will stir up Egyptians against Egyptians; and they each man shall fight against his brother; and each against his neighbor; city against city, kingdom against kingdom. ³And the spirit of the Egyptians shall be empty in its midst; and I will swallow its counsel And they shall seek to idols, and to the enchanters, and to the mediums, and to the fortune-tellers. ⁴And I will shut up the Egyptians into the hand of cruel lords; and a fierce king shall rule them, declares the Lord, Jehovah of hosts. ⁵And the waters shall dry up from the sea, and the river shall fail and dry up. ⁶And rivers shall be fouled; and the brooks of Egypt will languish and dry up; the reed and the rush shall decay. ⁷Bare places shall be at the Nile, by the mouth of the Nile, and everything sown by the Nile shall dry up, driven away, and be no more. ⁸The fishermen shall mourn; and all who cast a hook into the Nile shall wail; and those who spread nets on the surface of the waters shall droop. ⁹And the workers in fine flax, and the weavers of white cloth are ashamed. ¹⁰And her supports shall be crushed; and all who make wages shall be sad of soul. ¹¹Surely the rulers of Zoan are fools; the advice of Pharaoh's wise counselors has become stupid. How can you say to Pharaoh, I am the son of wise ones, the son of kings of old? ¹²Where are your wise ones now? Yea, let them tell you now, that they may know what Jehovah of hosts has planned against Egypt. ¹³The rulers of Zoan are fools; the rulers of Noph are deceived; they also have led Egypt astray, the cornerstone of her tribes. ¹⁴Jehovah has mixed a perverse spirit in her midst; and they led astray Egypt in all his work; as a drunkard strays in his vomit. ¹⁵And Egypt shall have no work that the head or the tail, the branch or rush, may do. ¹⁶In that day Egypt shall be like women; and it will tremble and dread from before the shaking of the hand of Jehovah of hosts, which He shakes over it. ¹⁷And the land of Judah shall be a terror to Egypt; everyone who mentions it shall dread to it, from before the purpose of Jehovah of hosts, which He purposes against it. ¹⁸In that day five cities in the land of Egypt shall speak the language of Canaan, and swear to Jehovah of hosts. One shall be called, City of Ruin. ¹⁹Then an altar to Jehovah shall be in the midst of the land of Egypt, and a pillar to Jehovah at its border. ²⁰And it shall be for a sign and for a witness to Jehovah of hosts in the land of Egypt. For they shall cry to Jehovah because of the oppressors; and He shall send them a deliverer, even a great one; and will deliver them.

²¹And Jehovah shall be known to Egypt, Egypt shall know Jehovah in that day. And they shall offer sacrifice and offering, and vow a vow to Jehovah, and repay it. ²²And Jehovah shall strike Egypt. He shall strike and heal. Then they shall return to Jehovah, and He shall hear them, and shall heal them. ²³In that day there shall be a highway out of Egypt to Assyria. And Assyria shall come into Egypt; and Egypt into Assyria; and Egypt shall serve Assyria. ²⁴In that day Israel shall be the third with Egypt and with Assyria, a blessing in the midst of the earth, ²⁵whom Jehovah of hosts shall bless, saying, Blessed be My people Egypt, and Assyria, the work of My hands, and Israel My inheritance.

¹In the year Tartan came to Ashdod, when Sargon the king of Assyria sent him, and fought against Ashdod, and took it; ²at that time Jehovah spoke by Isaiah the son of Amoz, saying, Go and loosen the sackcloth from your loins, and take your shoe off from your foot. And he did so, walking naked and barefoot. ³And Jehovah said, Just as My servant Isaiah has walked naked and barefoot three years — a sign and a wonder on Egypt and on Ethiopia — ⁴so shall the king of Assyria lead away the captives of Egypt and the exiles of Ethiopia, young and old; naked and barefoot, and with uncovered buttocks; to the nakedness of Egypt. ⁵And they shall be afraid and ashamed of their hope Ethiopia, and of their glory Egypt. ⁶And he who lives in this coast shall say in that day, Behold, this has become of our hope to which we fled for help there, to be delivered from before the king of Assyria; and, How shall we escape?

¹The burden of the desert of the sea: As tempests in the Negeb pass, it comes from the desert, from a terrifying land. ²A harsh vision is revealed to me; the deceiver deals deceitfully, and the plunderer plunders. Go up, O Elam! Besiege, O Media! I have caused all her sighing to cease. ³Because of this my loins are filled with pain; pangs have taken hold on me like the pangs of a travailing woman. I am bowed from hearing; I am troubled from seeing. ⁴My heart wanders; terror overwhelms me; He has turned the twilight of my pleasure into trembling. ⁵Prepare the table; watch in the watchtower; eat, drink; rise up, rulers, and anoint the shield. ⁶For so the Lord has said to me: Go, set a watchman; he will declare what he sees. ⁷And he sees a chariot, a couple of horsemen; a chariot of an ass; a chariot of a camel; and let him bow attentively, very attentively. ⁸And he cried, A lion! My lord, I always stand on my watchtower by day; and I am stationed at my post all the nights. ⁹And, behold, here comes a chariot of a man, a pair of horses. And he answered and said, Babylon has fallen, has fallen! And He has smashed the cut images of her gods to the earth. ¹⁰O my threshing, and the grain of my floor! That which I have heard of Jehovah of hosts, the God of Israel, I have told to you.

¹¹The burden of Dumah: He calls to me out of Seir, Watchman, what of the night? Watchman, what of the night? ¹²The watchman says, The morning comes, and also night. If you would inquire, inquire. Come! Return!

¹³The burden of Arabia: You shall stay in the forest of Arabia, O traveling companies of Dedanites. ¹⁴The people of the land of Tema bring water to him who is thirsty; they went to meet the fugitive with his bread. ¹⁵For they fled from before swords, from the drawn sword, and from the bent bow, and from the press of battle. ¹⁶For so the Lord has said to me, Within a year, as the years of a hireling, all the glory of Kedar shall be ended, ¹⁷and the rest of the number of the archers, the warriors of the sons of Kedar, shall be few. For Jehovah God of Israel has spoken.

¹The burden of the valley of vision: What aails you now, that you have gone up to the housetops? ²Crashings fill the noisy city, the joyous city. Your slain ones are not slain by the sword, nor dead in battle. ³All your rulers fled together; they were bound without the bow; all found in you were bound together; they have fled from afar. ⁴On account of this I said, Look away from me; I will weep bitterly; do not hurry to comfort me over the ruin of the daughter of my people. ⁵for it is a day of trouble, and of trampling down, and of perplexity, by the Lord Jehovah of hosts in the valley of vision; digging down a wall, and crying to the mountain. ⁶And Persia carried the quiver with a chariot of a man and horsemen; and Kir uncovered the shield. ⁷And it happened; your choicest valleys were full of chariots; and the horsemen surely set in order at the gate. ⁸And he removed Judah's covering; and you looked in that day to the armor of the house of the forest. ⁹You have also seen the breaks in the city of David, that they are many; and you gathered the waters of the lower pool. ¹⁰And you have counted the houses of Jerusalem; and you broke down the houses to fortify the wall. ¹¹And you made a reservoir between the walls, for the water of the old pool. But you have not looked to its Maker, nor did you see its Former from long ago. ¹²And in that day the Lord Jehovah of hosts called to weeping and mourning; and to baldness, and to girding with sackcloth. ¹³Then, lo, joy and gladness, slaying oxen and slaughtering sheep; eating flesh and drinking wine, saying, Eat and drink, for tomorrow we die! ¹⁴And Jehovah of hosts revealed in my ears, Surely this iniquity shall not be covered for you until you die, says the Lord Jehovah of hosts.

¹⁵So says the Lord Jehovah of hosts, Go! Go to this treasurer, to Shebna who is over the house. ¹⁶What is to you here? And who is here to you, that you have carved a tomb for yourself here, as one having cut out his tomb on high, having carved out a home for himself in the rock? ¹⁷Behold, Jehovah hurls you with a hurling, O man, and grasps you with a grasping. ¹⁸Whirling, He will whirl you like a ball, into a land wide of hands. You shall die there, and there are the chariots of your glory, the shame of your lord's house.

¹⁹And I will drive you from your position; and he will pull you from your station. ²⁰And in that day it shall be, even I will call to My servant Eliakim the son of Hilkiah. ²¹And I will clothe him with your robe, and will fasten your sash on him. And I will give your authority into his hand. And he shall be a father to the inhabitants of Jerusalem and to the house of Judah. ²²And the key of the house of David I will lay on his shoulder, so that he opens, and no one shuts; and he shuts, and no one opens. ²³And I will drive him as a nail in a sure place; and he shall be for a glorious throne to his father's house. ²⁴And they shall hang on him all the glory of his father's house, the offspring and the offshoots, all small vessels, from vessels of cups even to all vessels of jars. ²⁵In that day, says Jehovah of hosts, the nail that is driven in the sure place shall be removed, and be cut down, and fall. And the burden that was on it shall be cut off. Jehovah has spoken.

¹The burden of Tyre: Howl, ships of Tarshish! For it is ruined, without house, without entrance. It is revealed to them from the land of Chittim. ²Be still, inhabitants of the coast, merchant of Sidon crossing the sea; they have filled you. ³And by great waters, the seed of Sihor and the harvest of the river Nile was her revenue; and she a mart of nations. ⁴Be ashamed, Sidon, for the sea has spoken, the strength of the sea, saying, I have not travailed, nor brought forth, I have not nourished young men nor raised up virgins. ⁵As the report comes to Egypt, so they shall be grieved at the report of Tyre. ⁶Pass over Tarshish; howl, people of the coast! ⁷Is this your exulting city from days of her old age? Her own feet carry it far away to stay. ⁸Who has purposed this against Tyre, the crowning city, whose merchants are rulers, whose traders are the honored of the earth? ⁹Jehovah of hosts has purposed it, to stain the pride of all glory, to bring all the honored of the earth into contempt.

¹⁰Pass through your land as the Nile, O daughter of Tarshish; there is no more strength. ¹¹He stretched His hand over the sea; He shook kingdoms; Jehovah has made a decree against the merchant city, to destroy its forts. ¹²And He said, You shall rejoice no more, oppressed one, virgin daughter of Sidon. Arise, cross over to Chittim, even there is no rest to you. ¹³Behold, the land of the Chaldeans! This people did not exist! Assyria founded it for those who live in the desert. They set up their siege-towers; they stripped its palaces. They made it a ruin. ¹⁴Howl, ships of Tarshish! For your fortress is ruined. ¹⁵And it shall be in that day that Tyre shall be forgotten seventy years, according to the days of one king. At the end of seventy years, it will be as the song of a harlot to Tyre. ¹⁶Take a harp; go about the city, O forgotten harlot. Do well to play; make many songs, that you may be remembered. ¹⁷And it will be, after the end of seventy years, Jehovah will visit Tyre; and she shall return to her hire, and will fornicate with all the kingdoms of the earth, on the face of the ground. ¹⁸And her goods and her wages shall be holiness to Jehovah; it shall not be hoarded nor stored; for her goods shall be for those who dwell before Jehovah, to eat enough, and for a choice covering.

¹Lo, Jehovah empties the land and makes it bare, and distorts its face, and scatters its inhabitants. ²And as it is with the people, so with the priest; as with the servant, so with the master; as with the maid, so with her mistress; as with the buyer, so with the seller; as with the lender, so with the borrower; as with the creditor, so with the debtor. ³The land shall completely be emptied and utterly stripped, for Jehovah has spoken this word.

⁴The land mourns and languishes; the world droops and languishes; the proud people of the earth droop. ⁵And the earth is profaned under its inhabitants, because they transgress laws and violate a statute, and break the everlasting covenant. ⁶On account of this a curse has devoured the land; and they who live in it are held guilty. For this the dwellers of the land are consumed, and few men are left. ⁷The new wine has failed; the vine droops; all the merry-hearted sigh. ⁸The joy of timbrels ceases; the noise of those who revel ends; the joy of the harp ceases. ⁹They shall not drink wine with a song; fermented drink shall be bitter to those who drink it. ¹⁰The city of shame is broken down; every house is shut, that no one may enter. ¹¹A crying over the wine is in the streets; all joy is darkened; the gladness in the land is carried away. ¹²Desolation is remaining in the city, and a ruin; the gate is battered. ¹³For it is thus in the midst of the land, among the peoples, it shall be as the shaking of an olive tree, and as gleanings when the grape harvest is completed. ¹⁴They lift up their voice; they sing for the majesty of Jehovah; they cry aloud from the sea. ¹⁵On account of this, glorify Jehovah in the east, the name of Jehovah God of Israel, in the coasts of the sea. ¹⁶We have heard songs from the end of the earth, Honor to the Righteous. But I said, Leanness to me! Leanness to me! Woe to me! Traitors betray, even perfidy; traitors betray!

¹⁷Dread, and the pit, and a snare are upon you, dweller of the earth. ¹⁸And it shall be, he who flees from the sound of dread shall fall into the pit. And he who comes up out of the middle of the pit shall be taken in the snare. For the windows from on high are opened, and the earth's foundations quake. ¹⁹The earth is breaking, breaking! The earth is crashing, crashing! The earth is tottering, tottering. ²⁰The earth is staggering, staggering, like a drunkard! And it rocks to and fro like a hut. And its trespass is heavy on it; and it shall fall, and not rise again. ²¹And it shall be in that day, Jehovah shall punish the army of the high place on high, and on the kings of the land on the land. ²²And they will be gathered, a gathering of prisoners in a dungeon. And they shall be shut up in a prison; and after many days they will be visited. ²³Then the moon shall blush, and the sun shall be ashamed, when Jehovah of hosts shall reign in Mount Zion and in Jerusalem; and before His elders is His glory.

¹O Jehovah, You are my God. I will exalt You; I will thank Your name; for You have done a wonderful thing: counsels from afar; faithful faithfulness. ²Because You have made a heap from a city, a fortified city into a ruin; a citadel of foreigners not to be a city, not to be built, to forever. ³For this the mighty people glorify You, the city of the ruthless nations shall fear You. ⁴For You are a stronghold to the poor, a stronghold to the needy in his distress, a refuge from storm, a shadow from heat; because the breath of the ruthless is like a storm against a wall. ⁵You shall lay low the noise of foreigners, like the heat in a dry place, the heat with the shadow of cloud; the shouting of the terrifying ones shall be laid low. ⁶And Jehovah of hosts shall make a feast of fat things for all the peoples in this mountain; a feast of wine on the lees, of fat things full of marrow, refined wine on the lees. ⁷And He will destroy in this mountain the face of the covering which covers all people, and the veil that is woven over all nations. ⁸He will swallow up death in victory! And the Lord Jehovah will wipe away tears from all faces. And He shall reprove the reproach of His people from all the earth; for Jehovah has spoken ⁹And one shall say in that day, Behold, this is our God; we have waited for Him, and He will save us. This is Jehovah; we have waited for Him; we will be glad and rejoice in His salvation. ¹⁰For the hand of Jehovah shall rest in this mountain; and Moab shall be trampled under Him, even as straw is trampled in the water of a dung pit. ¹¹And He shall spread His hands in his midst, as he who swims strokes to swim. And He shall lay low his pride with the skill of His hands. ¹²And He shall bow down the fortress of the height of your walls; He will lay low, touch to the earth, even to the dust.

on You, for he trusts in You. ⁴Trust in Jehovah forever, for in Jah Jehovah is everlasting strength. ⁵For He bows the dwellers on high; He lays low the lofty city; He lays it low to the ground; He makes it touch even to the dust. ⁶The foot shall trample it, the feet of the poor, steps of the weak. ⁷The path for the just is uprightness. Upright One, level the track of the just. ⁸Yea, Jehovah, in the path of Your judgments we awaited You; for Your name and for Your memory is the desire of our soul. ⁹*With* my soul I desire You in the night; yea, with my spirit within me I diligently seek You. For when Your judgments are in the earth, the inhabitants of the world learn righteousness.

¹⁰The wicked finds favor; he does not learn righteousness; he deals perversely in the land of honesty, and does not see the majesty of Jehovah. ¹¹Jehovah, Your hand is high; they do not see; they see, and are ashamed of the zeal of the people. Yea, the fire of Your foes devours them. ¹²Jehovah, You will ordain peace for us; for also You have worked all our works for us. ¹³Jehovah our God, masters beside You have governed us; only in You we will mention Your name. ¹⁴Dead ones do not live; departed spirits do not rise; because of this You visited and destroyed them, and caused all memory of them to perish. ¹⁵You have added to the nation, Jehovah; You have added to the nation, You are glorified; You have extended all the ends of the land. ¹⁶Jehovah, they visited You in distress; they poured out a whisper; Your chastening was to them. ¹⁷As a pregnant woman draws near to bear, she writhes and cries out in her pangs. So are we before You, Jehovah. ¹⁸We conceived; we writhe; as it were, we gave birth to wind. We have not worked salvation for the earth; and the world's inhabitants have not fallen. ¹⁹Your dead ones shall live, my dead body; they shall rise up. Awake and sing, dust-dwellers; for the dew of lights is your dew; and the earth shall cast out departed spirits. ²⁰Come, My people, go in your rooms and shut your doors behind you. Hide for a little moment, until the fury passes. ²¹For, behold, Jehovah comes out of His place to visit his iniquity on the dweller of the earth. The earth shall also reveal her blood, and shall no more cover over her slain ones.

¹In that day Jehovah shall visit the sea-monster, the darting serpent, with His great and fierce and strong sword; even on the sea-monster, the twisting serpent; and He shall slay the monster that is in the sea. ²In that day sing to her, A vineyard of desire; ³I, Jehovah, keep it; I will water it every moment, that no one punish it; I will guard it night and day. ⁴Fury is not in Me. Who will give Me briars and thorns in the battle? I will step through it; I would burn it at once. ⁵Or will he lay hold of My strength that he may make peace with Me? Let him make peace with Me. ⁶Those who come to Jacob, He shall make take root. Israel shall blossom and bud and fill the face of the world with fruit. ⁷As the striking of His striker, did He strike him? Or as the slaying of His slain, is he slain? ⁸You will contend with her by driving her away, by sending her away. He shall take away by His harsh wind, in the day of the east wind. ⁹By this, then, the iniquity of Jacob will be covered, and this is all the fruit, to take away his sin; when he makes all the stones of the altar as chalkstones that are beaten in pieces; Asherim and sun-pillars shall not rise. ¹⁰For the fortified city shall be lonely, a forsaken pasture, and left like a wilderness. The calf shall feed there, and he shall lie there, and eat up its branches. ¹¹When its boughs dry up, they are broken off. Women shall come and burn them, for it is a people with no understanding. On account of this His Maker shall not pity him, and His Former will not favor him. ¹²And it shall be in that day, Jehovah shall thresh from the channel of the River to the torrent of Egypt; and you shall be gathered one by one, sons of Israel. ¹³And it shall be in that day, the great ram's horn shall be blown; and those perishing in the land of Assyria and the outcasts in the land of Egypt shall come, and shall worship Jehovah in the holy mountain in Jerusalem.

⁹Whom shall He teach knowledge? And to whom shall He explain the message? Those weaned from milk, those moving from breasts? ¹⁰For precept must be on precept, precept on precept; line on line, line on line; here a little, there a little. ¹¹For with stammering lip and another tongue, He will speak to this people; ¹²to whom He said, This is the rest; cause the weary to rest. Also, This is the repose. But they willed not to hear. ¹³Yet the word of Jehovah was to them, precept on precept, precept on precept; line on line, line on line; here a little, there a little; that they might go, and stumble, and be broken, and snared, and taken. ¹⁴So hear the word of Jehovah, scornful men, rulers of this people in Jerusalem. ¹⁵Because you have said, We have cut a covenant with death; and, We have made a vision with Sheol—when the overwhelming rod passes through, it will not come to us, for we have made the lie our refuge, and we have hidden in falsehood. ¹⁶So, the Lord

Jehovah says this: Behold, I place in Zion a Stone for a foundation, a tried Stone, a precious Cornerstone, a sure Foundation; he who believes shall not make haste. ¹⁷And I will lay justice for a line, and righteousness for a plummet; and the hail shall sweep away the refuge of the lie; and the waters shall overflow the hiding place. ¹⁸And your covenant with death shall be covered; and your vision with Sheol shall not rise up. When the overwhelming whip passes through, then you shall be for a trampling to it. ¹⁹As often as it passes, it shall take you; for morning by morning it shall pass; and by day and by night, it shall only be a terror to understand the message. ²⁰For the bed is shorter than one can stretch himself on; and the cover is narrower than one can wrap himself in. ²¹For Jehovah shall rise up, as at Mount Perazim; He shall be stirred as in the Gibeon Valley; to do His work, His strange work; and to perform His task, His foreign task. ²²So, then, do not be mockers, that your bonds not be made strong. For I have heard from the Lord Jehovah of hosts that a full end is decreed on all the earth.

²³Listen and hear My voice; pay attention and hear My word: ²⁴Does the plowman plow all day to sow? Does he open and break the clods of his ground? ²⁵When he has leveled its surface, does he not strew black cummin, and scatter cummin, and place wheat in rows, and barley in its place, and spelt in its border? ²⁶And He instructs him for the right; his God teaches him. ²⁷For black cummin is not threshed with the sledge; nor is a cart-wheel turned on cummin. But black cummin is beaten out with the staff, and cummin with the rod. ²⁸Bread is crushed, but not always does one thresh it with threshing; and he drives the wheel of his cart; and his horses do not beat it small. ²⁹This also comes from Jehovah of hosts, doing wonders in counsel, making sound wisdom great.

¹Woe to Ariel, to Ariel, the city where David camped. Add year on year; let feasts run their circle. ²Then I will compress Ariel, and there shall be mourning and sorrow; and it shall be to Me as Ariel. ³And I will camp as a circle on you, and will lay siege-work on you; and I will raise up ramparts on you. ⁴And you shall be brought low; you shall speak from the ground; and your speech shall be bowed down; and your voice shall be from the ground, like a spiritist; and your speech shall chirp out of the dust. ⁵And the host of your strangers shall be as fine powder, and as chaff passing, the host of terrifying ones; and it will be suddenly, instantly; ⁶you shall be visited from Jehovah of hosts; with thunder and earthquake, and great noise, tempest and storm, and flame of devouring fire. ⁷And the multitude of all the nations who fight against Ariel, even all battling her and compressing her and her stronghold, shall be like a dream of a night vision. ⁸It shall even be as when a hungry one dreams; and, behold, he is eating; but when he awakes, his soul is empty. Or it shall be as when a thirsty one dreams; and, behold, he is drinking; but when he awakes, he is faint, and his soul is longing. So shall be the multitude of all the nations who fight against Mount Zion.

⁹Wait and wonder! Blind yourselves, and be blind! They are drunk, but not with wine! They stagger, but not with fermented drink! ¹⁰for Jehovah has poured out on you the spirit of deep sleep, and has closed your eyes. He has covered the prophets and your heads, the seers. ¹¹And the whole vision to you is like the words of a sealed book which they give to one knowing books, saying, Please read this. Then he says, I am not able, for it is sealed. ¹²And the book is given to one who does not know books, saying, Please read this. Then he says, I do not know books. ¹³And the Lord says, Because this people draws near with its mouth, and they honor Me with its lips; but its heart is far from Me; and their fear of Me is taught by the command of men; ¹⁴so, behold, I am adding to do the wonders with this people; the wonder, even a wonder. For the wisdom of his wise ones shall perish, and the wit of his witty ones shall be hidden. ¹⁵Woe to those who go deep to hide their purpose from Jehovah; yea, their works are in the dark; and they say, Who sees us? And, Who knows us? ¹⁶O your perversity! Shall the former be counted as the clay? For shall the work of its maker say, He did not make me? Or shall the thing formed say to him who formed it, He does not understand? ¹⁷Is it not yet a little while, and Lebanon shall be turned into a fruitful field; and the fruitful field shall be counted for the forest?

¹⁸And in that day the deaf shall hear the words of a book; and the eyes of the blind shall see out of their gloom and out of darkness. ¹⁹And the humble ones shall increase joy in Jehovah, and the poor among men shall rejoice in the Holy One of Israel. ²⁰For the terrible one is brought to nothing; and the scorner is ended; and all that watch for evil are cut off; ²¹those who make a man sin by a word, even laying a trap for the reprovcr in the gate; and turn aside the just for a worthless thing. ²²So Jehovah says this: He who redeemed Abraham, as to the house of Jacob: Jacob shall not be ashamed now, nor shall his face become pale now. ²³But when he sees his children in his midst, the work of My hands, they shall sanctify My name. They shall sanctify the Holy One of Jacob, and shall fear the God of Israel. ²⁴Those who erred in spirit shall come to understanding, and those who murmured shall learn the teaching.

¹Woe to rebellious sons, declares Jehovah, to make counsel, but not from Me; and to weave a covering web, but not of My Spirit, in order to add sin on sin; ²who set out to go down to Egypt, but have not asked at My mouth, to take refuge in the stronghold of Pharaoh, and to trust in the shadow of Egypt. ³And the stronghold of Pharaoh shall become a shame to you; and relying on the shadow of Egypt shall be a disgrace. ⁴For his rulers were in Zoan, and his ambassadors reached to Hanes. ⁵Every one is ashamed over a people who do not profit them; they are not for a help, and not for profiting, but for a shame; yea, also for a reproach.

⁸Now come, write it before them on a tablet, and note it on a book, so that it may be for the latter day, until forever; ⁹that this is a rebellious people, lying sons; sons who are not willing to hear the law of Jehovah; ¹⁰who say to the seers, Do not see; and to visioners, Do not have a vision for right things to us; speak smooth things to us; have a vision of trifles. ¹¹Turn aside from the way; stretch from the path; cause the Holy One of Israel to cease from before us. ¹²For this reason, so says the Holy One of Israel, Because of your rejection of this word, and your trust in oppression and perversity, even resting on it; ¹³so this iniquity shall be to you as a broken section falling, like the bulging out of a high wall, the breaking of which comes suddenly, in an instant. ¹⁴And its smashing is as the smashing of a potter's vessel; when broken in pieces, he has no pity; for in its breaking there is not found a sherd to carry fire from the hearth, nor to skim water from a well. ¹⁵For so says the Lord Jehovah, the Holy One of Israel, In returning and rest you shall be saved; and in quietness and hope shall be your strength. But you were not willing. ¹⁶For you said, No! For we will flee on horseback. On account of this you shall flee. Also, you say, We will ride on swift ones. On account of this, those who pursue you shall be swift. ¹⁷One thousand shall flee at the rebuke of one. You shall flee from the rebuke of five, until you are left like a pole on the top of the mountain, and like a sign on a hill.

¹⁸And so Jehovah waits to be gracious to you. And for this He is exalted to have mercy on you; for Jehovah is a God of justice. Blessed are all who wait for Him. ¹⁹For the people shall live in Zion, at Jerusalem; you shall surely cry no more.

He surely will be gracious to you at the sound of your cry. When He hears, He will answer you. ²⁰And the Lord gives you the bread of adversity, and the water of affliction; but your teachers shall not be hidden any more; but your eyes shall be to see your teachers. ²¹And your ears shall hear a word behind you, saying, this is the way, walk in it, when you go right, or when you go left. ²²And you shall defile the covering of your carved images of silver, and the covering of your molten images of gold. You shall cast them out like a menstruous cloth; you shall say to it, Go away! ²³Then He shall give rain for your seed, with which you sow the ground. And the bread of the produce of the earth also shall be fat and plentiful. In that day your livestock shall feed in a pasture made wide. ²⁴Also, the oxen and the young asses that till the ground shall eat seasoned fodder which one winnows with the shovel and with the fork. ²⁵And on every high mountain, and on every high hill, shall be rivulets lifted up, streams of water, in a day of great slaying, when towers fall. ²⁶And the moonlight shall be like the light of the sun. And the sun's light shall be sevenfold, as the light of seven days, in the day of binding up, Jehovah binding the break of His people, and healing the wound of His blow. ²⁷Behold, the name of Jehovah comes from afar; His anger burns; and that which rises heavy; His lips are full of fury, and His tongue like a devouring fire. ²⁸And like an overflowing torrent, His breath shall divide to the neck, to sift the nations with the sieve of vanity, and a misleading bridle on the jaws of the peoples. ²⁹The song shall be to you, as the night when the feast is sanctified, and gladness of heart, as one going with the flute, to come into the mount of Jehovah, to the Rock of Israel. ³⁰And Jehovah shall make the majesty of His voice heard; and He shows the His arm coming down with raging anger and flame of consuming fire, cloud-burst and storm, and hailstones. ³¹For through the voice of Jehovah Assyria shall be crushed, the rod with which He strikes. ³²And every passage of the appointed staff that Jehovah causes to rest on him will be with timbrels and with harp. And in brandishing battles, He fights with her. ³³For Topheth is ordained from from yesterday. Also, it is prepared for the king; He deepened; He widened its pyre; He makes great with fire and wood. The breath of Jehovah burns in it like a torrent of brimstone.

¹Woe to those who go down to Egypt for help; and lean on horses, and trust on chariotry, because it is great; and in horsemen because they are very strong! But they do not look to the Holy One of Israel, nor seek Jehovah. ²And He also is wise, and brings evil, and will not turn aside His words, but will rise against the house of evildoers, and against the help of those who work iniquity. ³And Egypt is a man, and not God. And their horses are flesh, and not spirit. And Jehovah stretches out His hand, and both he who helps shall fall, and he who is helped shall fall; and they shall all cease together. ⁴For so Jehovah has said to me: As the lion roars, even the young lion on his prey when the multitude of shepherds are gathered against him, he will not fear their voice, nor fret himself because of their noise. So Jehovah of hosts shall come down to fight on Mount Zion, and on its hill. ⁵As birds that fly, so Jehovah of hosts will shield over Jerusalem, shielding and delivering, and passing over, He will save it.

⁶Turn back to Him against whom you have made a deep revolt, sons of Israel. ⁷For in that day each shall despise his silver idols and his golden idols, which your hands have made for you — a sin. ⁸Then Assyria shall fall by a sword, not of man; yea, a sword, not of man, shall devour him. For he shall flee from the sword, and his young men shall become forced labor. ⁹And his rock will pass away from fear; and his commanders shall tremble at the banner, declares Jehovah, whose fire is in Zion, and His furnace in Jerusalem.

¹Behold, a king shall reign in righteousness, and princes shall rule in judgment. ²And a man shall be as a hiding-place from the wind; as a shelter from the tempest; as streams of water in a dry place; like the shadow of a great rock in a weary land. ³And the eyes of those that see shall not be dim, and the ears of those who hear shall listen. ⁴And the heart of the rash shall discern knowledge; and the tongue of those that stutter shall hurry to speak clear things. ⁵The fool shall no more be called noble, and a miser will not be said to be generous. ⁶For the fool will speak foolishness, and his heart will work iniquity, to do ungodliness; and he will utter error against Jehovah, to make the hungry soul empty; and he causes drink to fail the thirsty. ⁷And the weapons of the miser are evil; he devises wicked plots to destroy the poor with lying words, even the needy when he speaks right. ⁸But the noble one devises noble things; and he shall rise by noble things.

⁹O women who are at ease, rise up. Hear my voice; confident daughters, listen to my word. ¹⁰You will shake for days on a year, confident women; for the vintage fails; the harvest shall not come. ¹¹Tremble, women at ease; shake, confident women; strip and make yourselves bare, and bind on sackcloth on your loins; ¹²be wailing over breasts, over pleasant fields, over the fruitful vine. ¹³Thorns and briars shall spring up on the land of My people; even over all the houses of joy in the jubilant city, ¹⁴because the palace is forsaken; the crowd of the city is forsaken; mound and tower are instead caves, until forever; a joy of wild asses; pasture for flocks; ¹⁵until is poured out on us the Spirit from on high, and the wilderness becomes a fruitful field; and the fruitful field is reckoned as a forest. ¹⁶Then justice shall dwell in the wilderness, and righteousness shall dwell in the fruitful field. ¹⁷And the work of righteousness shall be peace; and the service of righteousness shall be quietness and hope forever. ¹⁸And My people shall live in a peaceful home, and in safe dwellings, and in secure resting places. ¹⁹Though it hails when the forest is felled, and the city is laid low, ²⁰blessed are you who sow beside all waters, who send out the foot of the ox and the ass.

¹Woe to the destroyer, and you not being destroyed; and to the betrayer, though they did not betray you! When you finish destroying, you will be destroyed; when you stop betraying, they will betray you. ²O Jehovah, be gracious to us. We have hoped in You; be their arm in the mornings, our salvation also in time of distress. ³At the sound of the tumult, the peoples fled; at Your exaltation, nations scattered. ⁴And Your prey shall be gathered as the stripping locust gathers; as locusts run to and fro, he also runs about on it. ⁵Jehovah is exalted; for He lives on high; He has filled Zion with justice and righteousness. ⁶And He will be the security of your times, strength of salvation, wisdom, and knowledge; the fear of Jehovah is His treasure. ⁷Behold, their heroes cry outside; the envoys of peace shall weep bitterly. ⁸The highways are deserted; the path-crosser ceases. He has broken the covenant; he has rejected cities; he has not respected man. ⁹The land mourns and droops; Lebanon is ashamed; Sharon withers like a wilderness; Bashan is shaken out; also Carmel. ¹⁰Now I will rise up, says Jehovah. Now I will be exalted; now I will be lifted up. ¹¹You shall conceive chaff; you shall bear stubble; your fiery breath shall devour you. ¹²And peoples shall be as burnings of lime; as thorns cut away, they shall be burned in fire. ¹³Distant ones, hear what I have done; and you near ones, know My might. ¹⁴The sinners of Zion are afraid; terror has seized profane ones; who of us shall tarry with consuming fire? Who of us shall tarry with everlasting burnings? ¹⁵He who walks righteously and speaks uprightly; he who despises the gain of oppressions, who shakes his hands free from taking the bribe, who stops his ear from hearing of blood, and shuts his eyes from looking at evil— ¹⁶he shall live on high; strongholds of rocks will be his retreat; his bread shall be given; his waters are faithful. ¹⁷Your eyes shall see the king in his beauty; they shall see a land that is very far off. ¹⁸Your heart shall ponder terror: Where is the scribe? Where is the weigher? Where is he who counted the towers? ¹⁹You shall not see the fierce people, from hearing a people of a difficult lip, of a foreign tongue that none understands. ²⁰Behold, Zion, the city of our appointed meetings! Your eyes shall see Jerusalem, a quiet home, a tent that shall not be moved; its stakes shall not be pulled up forever, nor shall any of its cords be pulled off. ²¹But majestic Jehovah will place there for us a place of rivers and streams, broad on both hands; a ship with oars shall not go in it, and a majestic boat shall not pass through it. ²²For Jehovah is our judge; Jehovah is our lawgiver; Jehovah is our king; He will save us. ²³Your ropes are loosened; they do not hold the base of their mast; they could not spread the sail. Then the prey of much plunder shall be divided; the lame shall seize on the spoil. ²⁴And an inhabitant, the people who live in it, shall not say, I am sick; iniquity is taken away.

¹Nations, come near to hear; and peoples, listen! Let the earth hear, and its fullness, the world and all its offspring. ²For the wrath of Jehovah is on all the nations, and fury on all their army; He has devoted them; He gave them to slaughter. ³And their slain shall be thrown out; and the stench from their carcasses shall rise; and the mountains shall be melted with their blood. ⁴And all the host of the heavens shall be dissolved, and the heavens shall be rolled together like a scroll; then all their host shall droop, as a leaf drooping from the vine, and as the drooping from a fig-tree. ⁵For My sword is drenched in the heavens. Behold, it shall come down on Edom, and on the people of My curse, for judgment. ⁶A sword is to Jehovah; it is filled with blood; it is made fat with fatness, with the blood of lambs and goats, with the fat of the kidneys of rams. For Jehovah has a sacrifice in Bozrah, and a great slaughter in the land of Edom. ⁷And wild oxen shall come down with them, and bullocks with strong bulls; and their land is drenched with blood, and their dust made fat with fatness. ⁸For the day of vengeance is to Jehovah, the year of repayments for Zion's cause. ⁹And its torrents shall be turned to pitch, and its dust to brimstone; and its land shall become burning pitch. ¹⁰It shall not be put out night or day; its smoke shall rise forever. From generation to generation, it shall lie waste; no one shall pass through it forever and forever. ¹¹But the owl and the hedgehog shall possess it; and the eared owl and the raven shall live in it. And He shall stretch out on it the line of shame, and the stones of emptiness. ¹²They shall call its nobles to a kingdom, but none shall be there; and all her rulers shall be nothing. ¹³And thorns shall grow in her palaces, nettles and thistles in its fortresses; and it shall be a home for jackals, a court for daughters of ostriches. ¹⁴The wild beasts of the desert shall also meet with the howling beasts; and the shaggy goat shall cry to his fellow. The screech owl shall also settle there, and find a place of rest for herself. ¹⁵The snake shall nest there, and shall lay, and hatch, and shall gather in her shadow. Vultures shall also be gathered together, each with its mate.

¹⁶Search and read from the book of Jehovah — not one of these misses, each not lacking her mate; for He has commanded my mouth, and by His Spirit He has assembled them. ¹⁷And He has made fall a lot for them, and His hand divided it to them by line. They shall possess it till forever, from generation to generation they shall live in it.

¹The wilderness and dry land shall rejoice for them; and the desert shall exult and bloom like the crocus. ²Blooming, it shall bloom and exult, even with joy and singing. Lebanon's glory shall be given to it, the honor of Carmel and Sharon; they shall see the glory of Jehovah, the majesty of our God. ³Make the weak hands strong, and firm up the feeble knees. ⁴Say to those of a hasty heart, Be strong! Do not fear! Behold, your God will come with vengeance; with the full dealing of God, He will come and save you. ⁵Then the eyes of the blind shall be opened, and the ears of the deaf opened. ⁶Then the lame shall leap like a deer, and the tongue of the dumb shall sing. For waters shall break out in the wilderness, and streams in the desert. ⁷And the mirage shall become a pool, and the thirsty land shall become springs of waters, in the home of jackals, in its lair, and a place for the reed and rush.

⁸And a highway shall be there, and a way, and it shall be called, The Way of Holiness. The unclean shall not pass over it. And it is for them, the wayfaring one; yea, fools shall not go astray. ⁹No lion shall be there; and no violent beast shall go up on it; it shall not be found there. But redeemed ones shall walk there. ¹⁰And the ransomed of Jehovah shall return and enter Zion, with singing and everlasting joy on their head; gladness and joy shall reach them; and sorrow and sighing shall flee.

¹And it happened in the fourteenth year of king Hezekiah, Sennacherib, king of Assyria, came against all the fortified cities of Judah, and took them. ²And the king of Assyria sent the chief of the cupbearers from Lachish to Jerusalem, to king Hezekiah, with a great army. And he stood by the conduit of the upper pool, in the highway of the Fuller's Field. ³And Eliakim, Hilkiyah's son, who was over the house, and Shebna the scribe, and Asaph's son Joah, the recorder, came out to him. ⁴And the chief of the cupbearers said to them, Say now to Hezekiah, The great king says this, the king of Assyria, What trust is this in which you trust? ⁵I say, Are only words of the lips counsel and strength for war? Now, in whom have you trusted that you rebelled against me? ⁶Behold, you trust on the staff of this broken reed, on Egypt—which if a man leans on it, it goes into his palm and pierces it—so is Pharaoh king of Egypt to all who trust in him. ⁷But if you say to me, We trust in Jehovah our God; is it not He whose high places and altars Hezekiah has removed? And He said to Judah and Jerusalem, You shall worship before this altar. ⁸Now, then, exchange pledges with my master the king of Assyria, and I will give you two thousand horses, if you are able to set riders on them. ⁹How then will you turn away the face of one commander of the least of my master's servants, and put your trust in Egypt for chariotry and horsemen?

¹⁰And now have I come up against this land to destroy it without Jehovah? Jehovah said to me, Go up to this land and destroy it. ¹¹And Eliakim and Shebna and Joah said to the chief of the cupbearers, Please speak to your servants in Aramaic, for we hear. But do not speak to us in Judean, in the ears of the people on the wall. ¹²But the chief of the cupbearers said, Has my master sent me to your master and to you to speak these words? Is it not on the men who sit on the wall, to eat their own dung, and to drink the water of their feet with you? ¹³And the chief of the cupbearers stood and cried with a loud voice in Judean, and said, Hear the words of the great king, the king of Assyria. ¹⁴So says the king, Do not let Hezekiah deceive you, for he will not be able to save you. ¹⁵And let not Hezekiah make you trust in Jehovah, saying, Jehovah will surely save us; this city shall not be delivered into the hand of the king of Assyria. ¹⁶Do not listen to Hezekiah. For the king of Assyria says this, Make peace with me and come out to me. Then let each eat of his own vine, and each of his own fig-tree, and each drink the waters of his own well, ¹⁷until I come and take you to a land like your own land, a land of grain and new wine, a land of bread and vineyards. ¹⁸Let not Hezekiah persuade you, saying, Jehovah will deliver us. Have the gods of the nations delivered a man of his land from the king of Assyria's hand? ¹⁹Where are the gods of Hamath, and Arpad? Where are the gods of Sepharvaim? And when have they delivered out of my hand? ²⁰Who among all the gods of these lands has delivered their land out of my hand, that Jehovah should keep Jerusalem out of my hand?

²¹But they were silent, and did not answer him a word; for this was the king's order, saying, Do not answer him. ²²And Eliakim, Hilkiyah's son who was over the house, and Shebna the scribe, and Asaph's son Joah, the recorder, came to Hezekiah with their garments torn. And they reported to him the words of the chief of cupbearers.

¹And it happened when king Hezekiah heard, he tore his garments and was covered with sackcloth. And he went into the house of Jehovah. ²And he sent Eliakim, who was over the house, and Shebna the scribe, and the elders of the priests, covered with sackcloth, to Isaiah the prophet, the son of Amoz. ³And they said to him, So says Hezekiah, This day is a day of trouble, and reproach, and contempt. For sons have come to the breach, and there is no strength to give birth. ⁴It may be Jehovah your God will hear the words of the chief of the cupbearers, whom his master the king of Assyria has sent to reproach the living God, and rebuke against the words which Jehovah your God has heard. And you shall lift up prayer for the remnant that is found.

⁵So the servants of king Hezekiah came to Isaiah. ⁶And Isaiah said to them, You shall say this to your master, So says Jehovah: Do not fear the words which you have heard, with which the followers of the king of Assyria have blasphemed Me. ⁷Behold, I will send a spirit into him, and he shall hear a rumor, and return to his own land. And I will cause him to fall by the sword in his own land.

⁸So the chief of the cupbearers returned and found the king of Assyria warring against Libnah; for he had heard that he had set out from Lachish. ⁹And he heard about Tirhakah the king of Ethiopia, saying, He has come out to fight with you. And he heard and sent messengers to Hezekiah, saying, ¹⁰So you shall say to Hezekiah, king of Judah, saying, Do not let your God in whom you trust deceive you, saying, Jerusalem shall not be delivered into the king of Assyria's hand.

¹¹Behold, you have heard what the kings of Assyria have done to all lands, to destroy them utterly. And shall you be saved?

¹²Have the gods of the nations saved those whom my fathers have destroyed, Gozan, and Haran, and Rezeph, and the sons of Eden in Telassar? ¹³Where is Hamath's king, and Arpad's king, and the king of the city of Sepharvaim, Hena, and Ivah?

¹⁴And Hezekiah received the letter from the hand of the couriers, and read it. Then Hezekiah went up to the house of Jehovah and spread it before Jehovah. ¹⁵And Hezekiah prayed to Jehovah, saying, ¹⁶O Jehovah of hosts, God of Israel, who dwells between the cherubs, You are He, God, You alone to all the kingdoms of the earth. You have made the heavens and the earth. ¹⁷Bow down Your ear, O Jehovah, and hear. Open Your eye, O Jehovah, and see; and hear all the words of Sennacherib which he has sent, to reproach the living God. ¹⁸Truly, O Jehovah, the kings of Assyria have crushed all the lands, and their land, ¹⁹and have given their gods into the fire—for they were not gods, only the work of men's hands, wood and stone; so they have destroyed them. ²⁰And now, O Jehovah our God, save us from his hand, so that all the kingdoms of the earth may know that You are Jehovah, You alone.

²¹And Isaiah the son of Amoz sent to Hezekiah, saying, So says Jehovah, God of Israel, Because you have prayed to Me against Sennacherib the king of Assyria, ²²this is the word Jehovah has spoken about him: The virgin, the daughter of Zion, has despised you, laughing you to scorn; the daughter of Jerusalem has shaken the head behind you. ²³Whom have you mocked and reviled? And against whom have you lifted your voice, and lifted your eyes on high? Against the Holy One of Israel! ²⁴By your servants, you have mocked the Lord, and said, By my many chariots I have come up to the tops of mountains, the sides of Lebanon; and I will cut down its tall cedars, its choice fir trees; and I will go to its greatest height, the forest of its fruitful field. ²⁵I have dug and drunk water; and I have dried up the streams of Egypt with the sole of my feet.

²⁶Have you not heard it from afar? I made it from days of old, even I formed it. Now I have caused it to come, and you are to cause to crash fortified cities into heaps, ruins. ²⁷And their inhabitants were short of hand, dismayed and ashamed. They were as the field grass and the green herbs; like the grass of the housetops, even blasted before it has risen. ²⁸But I know your sitting down, and your going out, and your coming in, and your raging against Me. ²⁹Because of your raging against Me, and your arrogance has come up to My ears; and I will put My hook in your nose, and My bridle in your lips; and I will turn you back by the way you came in.

³⁰And this shall be the sign to you: You shall eat self-sown grain this year; and the second year, that which springs up; and in the third year you shall sow and reap, and plant vineyards, and eat their fruit. ³¹The remnant of the house of Judah that has escaped shall again take root downward, and it makes fruit upward. ³²For a remnant shall go out of Jerusalem, and the escaped ones out of Mount Zion; the zeal of Jehovah of hosts shall do this. ³³So Jehovah says this to the king of Assyria, He shall not come into this city, nor shoot an arrow there, nor come before it with a shield, nor pour out a siege-mound on it. ³⁴He shall return by the same way that he came in, and he shall not come into this city, says Jehovah. ³⁵For I will defend over this city to save it, for My own sake, and for My servant David's sake.

³⁶Then the Angel of Jehovah went out and struck a hundred and eighty-five thousand in the camp of Assyria. And they rose early in the morning; and, behold! They were all dead corpses. ³⁷And Sennacherib, king of Assyria, set out, and went and returned; and he lived at Nineveh. ³⁸And it happened as he was worshipping in the house of his god Nisroch, even his sons Adrammelech and Sharezer struck him with the sword. And they escaped into the land of Ararat. And his son Esarhaddon reigned in his place.

¹In those days Hezekiah was sick to death. And Isaiah the son of Amoz, the prophet, came to him and said to him, So says Jehovah, Command your house, for you are dying, and shall not live. ²And Hezekiah turned his face to the wall and prayed to Jehovah, ³and said, O Jehovah, I beg You to remember now that I have walked before You in truth and with a whole heart; and I have done that which is good in Your eyes. And Hezekiah wept with a great weeping. ⁴Then the word of Jehovah was to Isaiah, saying, ⁵Go and say to Hezekiah, So says Jehovah the God of your father David, I have heard your prayer; I have seen your tears. Behold, I will add fifteen years to your days. ⁶And I will deliver you and this city out of the king of Assyria's hand. And I will shield over this city. ⁷So this shall be the sign to you from Jehovah, that Jehovah shall do this thing that He has spoken: ⁸Behold, I will bring back the shadow of the steps which has gone down in the steps of Ahaz with the sun, backward ten steps. So the sun went back up ten steps, by which steps it had gone down!

⁹The writing of Hezekiah king of Judah, when he had been sick, and had recovered from his illness: ¹⁰I said in the pause of my days, I shall go to the gates of Sheol; I am deprived of the rest of my years. ¹¹I said, I shall not see Jah Jehovah in the land of the living; I shall no longer look on man with the world's inhabitants. ¹²My generation is plucked up and carried away from me, like a shepherd's tent; I have cut off my life like the weaver. He will cut me off from the loom; from day to night You will make an end of me. ¹³I leveled my soul until morning. Like a lion, so He shatters all my bones. From day until night You make an end of me. ¹⁴Like a swift or a crane, so I chatter. I moan as the dove; my eyes look weakly to the heights, O Jehovah; it presses me down; be surety for me! ¹⁵What shall I say? For He speaks to me, and He has acted. I shall go softly all my years over the bitterness of my soul. ¹⁶O Lord, on them they live, and for all in them is the life of my spirit. And You heal me, and make me live. ¹⁷Behold, for peace was bitter to me, most bitter; but You loved my soul from the pit of destruction; You have cast all my sins behind Your back. ¹⁸For Sheol cannot thank You; death cannot praise You; the ones going down to the Pit cannot hope for Your truth. ¹⁹The living, the living is the one thanking You; as I do today. The father makes known Your truth to his sons. ²⁰For Jehovah is for my salvation; and we will play my songs on stringed instruments all the days of our life, at the house of Jehovah.

²¹For Isaiah had said, Let them take a cake of figs and rub it on the ulcer, and he will live. ²²And Hezekiah said, What is the sign that I will go up to the house of Jehovah?

¹At that time Merodach-baladan, the son of Baladan, king of Babylon, sent letters and a present to Hezekiah—for he had heard that he was ill, and was made strong. ²And Hezekiah was glad because of them and let them see the house of his treasure, the silver, and the gold, and the spices, and the good oil, and all his weapons, and all that was found in his treasures — there was nothing in his house or in all his kingdom that Hezekiah did not make them see. ³And Isaiah the prophet came to King Hezekiah and said to him, What did these men say? And from where did they come to you? And Hezekiah said, They have come from a distant land to me, from Babylon. ⁴Then he said, What have they seen in your house? And Hezekiah said, They have seen all that is in my house; there is not a thing among my treasures that I have not made them see. ⁵And Isaiah said to Hezekiah, Hear the word of Jehovah of hosts: ⁶Behold, days come when all that is in your house, even what your fathers have treasured up until now, shall be carried to Babylon; nothing shall be left, says Jehovah. ⁷And they shall take of your sons who shall issue from you, which you shall father; and they shall be eunuchs in the palace of the king of Babylon. ⁸Then Hezekiah said to Isaiah, The word of Jehovah that you have said is good. And he said, For there shall be peace and truth in my days.

¹Comfort, O comfort My people, says your God. ²Speak lovingly to the heart of Jerusalem — yea, cry to her that her warfare is done, that her iniquity is pardoned; for she has taken from the hand of Jehovah double for all her sins. ³The voice of him who cries in the wilderness: Prepare the way of Jehovah; make straight in the desert a highway for our God. ⁴Every valley shall be exalted, and every mountain and hill shall be made low; and the knoll shall be a level place, and the rough places a plain. ⁵And the glory of Jehovah shall be revealed, and all flesh shall see it together, for the mouth of Jehovah has spoken. ⁶A voice said, Cry!

And he said, What shall I cry? All flesh is grass, and all its grace as the flower of the field! ⁷The grass withers; the flower fades; because the Spirit of Jehovah blows on it. Surely the people is grass. ⁸The grass withers; the flower fades; but the word of our God shall rise forever. ⁹You who bring good news to Zion, go up for yourself on the high mountain, bringer of good news to Zion. Lift up your voice with strength, bringer of good news to Jerusalem. Lift up; do not fear. Say to the cities of Judah, Behold! Your God! ¹⁰Behold, the Lord Jehovah will come with strength, and His arm rules for Him. Behold, His reward is with Him, and His wage before Him. ¹¹He shall feed His flock like a shepherd; He shall gather lambs with His arm; and in His bosom carry them; those with young He will lead. ¹²Who has measured in His palm the waters and the heavens by a span meted out; and enclosed in the measure the dust of the earth, and weighed in the balance the mountains, and the hills in the scales? ¹³Who has meted out the Spirit of Jehovah, or a man His counsel taught Him? ¹⁴With whom did He take counsel, and who trained Him and taught Him in the path of justice; and taught Him knowledge, and made known to Him the way of discernment? ¹⁵Lo, nations are as a drop from a bucket, and are reckoned as dust of the scales. Lo, He takes up coasts as a little thing. ¹⁶And Lebanon is not enough to burn, nor are its beasts enough for a burnt offering. ¹⁷All the nations are as nothing before Him; to Him they are reckoned less than nothing and emptiness.

¹⁸And to whom will you liken God? Or what likeness will you array to Him? ¹⁹The craftsman pours out the carved image, the smelter spreads it with gold; and he casts the chains of silver. ²⁰He too poor for that offering chooses a tree that will not rot; he seeks a skilled artisan for him, to prepare a carved image that will not be shaken. ²¹Have you not known? Have you not heard? Was it not told to you from the beginning? Did you not discern from the foundations of the earth? ²²He who sits on the circle of the earth, even its dwellers are like grasshoppers; He who stretches the heavens like a curtain, and spreads them like a tent to live in; ²³who gives potentates into nothing—He makes judges of the earth as nothing. ²⁴Yes, they shall not be planted; yes, they are not sown; yes, their stem is not taking root in the earth. And He shall also blow on them, and they shall wither, and the tempest shall take them away like stubble.

²⁵To whom then will you compare Me, or am I equaled, says the Holy One?

²⁶Lift up your eyes on high and look: Who has created these? Who brings out their host by number? By greatness of vigor, and might of power, He calls them all by names — not one is lacking. ²⁷Why will you say, O Jacob, and speak, O Israel; My way is hidden from Jehovah, and my judgment is passed over by my God?

²⁸Have you not known? Have you not heard? Jehovah, the everlasting God, the Creator of the ends of the earth; He is not faint, nor does He grow weary; there is no searching to His understanding. ²⁹*He* gives power to the faint, and to him with no vigor He increases might. ³⁰Even youths are faint and fatigued; and young men surely shall stumble; but the ones waiting for Jehovah shall renew power; they shall go up with wings as the eagles; they shall run and not be weary; they shall walk and not be faint!

¹Be quiet before Me, O coasts; and let peoples renew their power. They come near; then they speak: Let us draw near together for judgment. ²Who raised up the righteous one from the east? He called him to His foot; He gives nations before him, and subdues kings; He gives them as dust to his sword, as driven stubble to his bow; ³He pursues them; he passes on in peace; he does not go by the way with his feet. ⁴Who has planned and done it, calling forth the generations from the beginning? I Jehovah am the first and the last; I am He. ⁵The coasts have seen and fear; the ends of the earth tremble; they have drawn near; yea, they come. ⁶Each man helps his neighbor, and says to his brother, Be strong. ⁷So the carver strengthens the refiner; and he smoothing with the hammer, him who struck the anvil, saying of the soldering, It is good.

And he made it strong with nails—it will not totter.

⁸But you Israel are My servant; Jacob whom I have chosen; the seed of My friend Abraham; ⁹whom I have made strong from the ends of the earth, and called you from its sides; and I said to you, You are My servant. I chose you, and have not rejected you. ¹⁰Do not fear, for I am with you; do not gaze about, for I am your God; I will make you strong; yea, I will help you; yes, I will uphold you with the right hand of My righteousness.

¹¹Behold, all who were provoked with you shall be ashamed and confounded; they shall be as nothing; and they who fight with you shall perish. ¹²You shall seek them and shall not find them; men of your strife shall be as nothing, even men of your battle as ceasing. ¹³For I, Jehovah your God am strengthening your right hand; who says to you, Do not fear; I will help you. ¹⁴Fear not, worm of Jacob, men of Israel; I will help you; states Jehovah, and your Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel. ¹⁵Behold! I have made you a new sharp threshing instrument, a master of mouths; you shall thresh mountains and beat them small, and shall make hills like the chaff. ¹⁶You shall fan them, and the wind will carry them away; and the tempest will scatter them. And you shall rejoice in Jehovah; you shall glory in the Holy One of Israel. ¹⁷The poor and the needy seek water, and there is none; their tongue is parched for thirst — I, Jehovah will hear them; the God of Israel will not leave them. ¹⁸I will open rivers in bare places, and fountains in the midst of valleys; I will make the desert for a pool of water, and the dry land springs of water. ¹⁹I will plant cedar in the wilderness, acacia, and myrtle, and the oil-tree; I will set fir, pine and boxwood together in the desert; ²⁰so that they may see, and know, and consider, and understand together, that the hand of Jehovah has done this; and the Holy One of Israel has created it.

we may set our heart and know their end; or declare to us the coming things. ²³Reveal the coming things hereafter, so that we may know that you are gods. Yea, do good, or do evil, that we may gaze and see together. ²⁴Behold, you are of nothing; and your work of nothing; he who chooses you is an abomination. ²⁵I have raised up one from the north; and he shall come from the east; he will call on My name. And he shall come upon rulers as on mortar, and as a potter tramples clay. ²⁶Who has declared from the beginning, that we may know; and beforetime, that we may say, He is right? Yea, no one declares; yea, no one proclaims; yea, there is no one who hears your words. ²⁷At first to Zion, I say, Behold! Behold them! And I will give to Jerusalem one bearing tidings. ²⁸But I saw, and there was not a man; and of these, there was not a counselor, that I may ask them, and they could answer a word. ²⁹Behold, they are all evil; their works are nothing; their images are wind and vanity.

¹Behold My Servant; I will uphold Him; My Elect in whom My soul delights! I have put My Spirit on Him; He shall bring forth justice to the nations. ²He shall not cry, nor lift up, nor cause His voice to be heard in the street. ³A bruised reed He shall not break, and a smoking wick He shall not quench; He shall bring forth justice to truth. ⁴He shall not fail nor be crushed until He has set justice in the earth; and the coasts shall wait for His law. ⁵So says Jehovah God, creating the heavens and stretching them out; spreading out the earth and its offspring, giving breath to the people on it, and spirit to those walking in it. ⁶I, Jehovah, have called You in righteousness, and will hold Your hand, and will keep You, and give You for a covenant of the people, for a Light of the nations; ⁷to open blind eyes, to deliver the prisoner from the prison. ⁸*I am* Jehovah; that is My name; and I will not give My glory to another, nor My praise to engraved images. ⁹Behold, the former things have come to pass, and I declare new things — before they happen, I cause you to hear.

¹⁰Sing a new song to Jehovah; His praise from the end of the earth, you who go to sea, and all that is in it; the coasts and their people. ¹¹Let the wilderness and its cities lift up, the villages where Kedar lives. Let the dwellers of the rock sing; let them shout from the top of the mountains. ¹²They give glory to Jehovah and declare His praise in the islands. ¹³Jehovah shall go out as a giant; and He shall stir up His zeal like a warrior; He shall cry, yea, roar on His enemies; He shall act mightily. ¹⁴I have forever kept silence; I have been quiet and refrained Myself; I will groan like a woman in travail; I will pant and gasp at once. ¹⁵I will make mountains and hills become a waste, and dry up all their plants. And I will make the rivers coastlands, and I will dry up pools. ¹⁶And I will lead the blind by a way they knew not; I will lead them in paths they never knew; I will make darkness into light before them, and crooked places a level place—I do these things to them and do not forsake them; ¹⁷they are turned back; they are ashamed with shame, those trusting in the carved image, who say to cast images, You are our gods. ¹⁸O deaf ones, hear! And O blind ones, look to see! ¹⁹Who is blind but My servant? Or deaf, as My messenger whom I send? Who is blind as he who is at peace, and blind as Jehovah's servant? ²⁰You see many things, but do not observe; your ears are open, but not any hears. ²¹Jehovah is delighted for His righteousness' sake; He will magnify the Law and make it honorable.

²²But it is a people robbed and spoiled; they shall all be snared in holes; they were hidden in prison-houses. They were for spoil, and no one delivers; a prey, and no one says, Return! ²³Who among you will hear this, will listen and hear for the time to come? ²⁴Who gave Jacob to the plunderer, and Israel to the robbers? Did not Jehovah, He against whom we have sinned? For they willed not to walk in His ways, and they did not obey His law. ²⁵And He poured on him the fury of His anger, and the strength of battle; and it has set him on fire all around, yet he did not know; and it burned him, yet he did not lay it on his heart.

¹But now so says Jehovah who formed you, O Jacob; and He who made you, O Israel: Fear not, for I have redeemed you; I called you by your name; you are Mine. ²When you pass through the waters, I will be with you; and through the rivers, they shall not overflow you. When you walk in the fire, you shall not be burned, nor shall the flame kindle on you. ³For I am Jehovah your God, the Holy One of Israel, your Savior. I gave Egypt for your atonement; Ethiopia and Seba instead of you. ⁴Since you were precious in My eyes, you are honored, and I love you; and I give men instead of you; and peoples instead of your soul. ⁵Fear not, for I am with you; I will bring your seed from the sunrise; and I will gather you from the sunset. ⁶I will say to the north, Give up! And to the south, Do not hold back! Bring My sons from afar, and bring My daughters from the ends of the earth; ⁷every-one who is called by My name, and I have created him for My glory; I have formed him; yea, I have made him.

⁸Bring out the blind people, yet there are eyes; and the deaf, yet there are ears to him. ⁹Let all the nations be assembled, and let the peoples be gathered. Who among them can declare this and cause us to hear former things? Let them give their witnesses, that they may be justified. Or let them hear and say, It is true. ¹⁰You are My witnesses, says Jehovah; and My servant whom I have chosen; that you may know and believe Me, and understand that I am He. Before Me there was no god formed; nor shall any be after Me. ¹¹I, I am Jehovah; and there is no Savior besides Me. ¹²I declared, and I saved, and I proclaimed; and there is not an alien god among you. And you are My witnesses, says Jehovah, and I am God. ¹³Yea, from this day I am He, and no one delivers from My hand. I will work, and who will reverse it?

¹⁴So says Jehovah, your Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel: For your sake I have sent to Babylon, and have brought down as fugitives all of them, even the Chaldeans, whose shout is in the ships. ¹⁵I am Jehovah, your Holy One, the Creator of Israel, your King. ¹⁶So says Jehovah, who makes a way in the sea, and a path in mighty waters; ¹⁷who brings out chariot and horse, force and power; they shall lie down together; they shall not rise; they are put out; they are snuffed out like the wick.

¹⁸Do not remember former things, nor consider the things of old. ¹⁹Behold, I will do a new thing; now it shall sprout. Shall you not know it? I will even make a way in the wilderness; rivers in the desert. ²⁰The beast of the field shall honor Me, jackals and daughters of ostriches; because I give waters in the wilderness, rivers in the desert, to give drink to My people, My chosen. ²¹This people that I formed for Myself shall declare My praise. ²²But you have not called on Me, Jacob; but you have been weary of Me, Israel. ²³You have not brought Me the lamb of your burnt offerings; even your sacrifices have not honored Me. I have not caused you to serve with an offering, nor wearied you with incense. ²⁴You have not bought calamus for Me with silver, nor have you filled Me with fat of your sacrifices; but you made Me serve by your sins; you wearied Me by your iniquities. ²⁵I am He who blots out your trespasses for My sake; and I will not remember your sins. ²⁶Cause Me to remember; let us enter into judgment together; sum up for yourself, that you may be justified. ²⁷Your first father sinned, and your interpreters transgressed against Me. ²⁸And I will defile the rulers of the sanctuary, and will give Jacob to the curse, and Israel to reviling.

¹And now listen, My servant Jacob, and Israel whom I have chosen. ²So says Jehovah, your Maker and your Former from the womb. He helps you. Do not fear, My servant Jacob; and you, Jeshurun whom I have chosen. ³For I will pour water on a thirsty place, and floods on the dry ground. I will pour My Spirit on your seed, and My blessing on your offspring. ⁴And they shall sprout as among grass, as willows by streams of water. ⁵One shall say, I am Jehovah's; and another will call by the name of Jacob; and this one shall write with his hand, For Jehovah; and be named by the name of Israel.

⁶So says Jehovah, the King of Israel, and his Redeemer, Jehovah of hosts: I am the First and I am the Last; and there is no God except Me. ⁷And who, as I, shall call, and shall declare this, and set it in order before Me, since I placed the people of old? And as to things to come, even which shall come, let them declare concerning them. ⁸Do not dread, nor be afraid. Have I not declared and made you hear since then? So you are My witnesses: Is there a God besides Me? Yea, there is none. I have not known a Rock.

⁹Those who form a carved image are all of them vanity. And their delights do not profit; and they are their own witnesses. They do not see, nor know, that they may be ashamed. ¹⁰Who has formed a god, or poured out an image, to no profit? ¹¹Behold, all his companions shall be ashamed; and the craftsmen, they are from men. They shall assemble, all of them shall stand; they shall dread; they shall be shamed together. ¹²He carves iron with a tool; he works in the coals and forms it with hammers, and works it with his powerful arm; then he is hungry, and has no strength; he drinks no water and is weary. ¹³He fashions wood, and stretches a line; he marks it with a stylus; he shapes it with the carving tool; and he marks it with a compass. And he makes it according to the figure of a man, as the beauty of a man, to sit in the house. ¹⁴He cuts down cedars and takes cypress and oak, and he makes the trees of the forest strong for him. He plants a laurel, and rain makes it grow. ¹⁵And it shall be for a man to burn; yea, he takes of them and is warmed; and he kindles it and bakes bread. Yea, he makes a god and worships; he makes a carved image and bows to it. ¹⁶He burns half of it in the fire; he eats flesh on half of it; he roasts, and is satisfied. Then he warms himself and says, Ah, I am warm; I have seen the fire. ¹⁷And he makes a god of the rest, his carved image; he bows to it and worships, and prays to it, and says, Deliver me, for you are my god.

turns back to his heart, nor has knowledge nor discernment to say, I have burned half of it in the fire; and I also have baked bread on its coals. I have roasted flesh and have eaten it; and I have made the rest of it into an idol. Shall I bow to a product of a tree? ²⁰Feeding on ashes, a deceived heart turns him aside, and he does not deliver his soul, nor say, Is there not a lie in my right hand?

²¹Remember these, O Jacob, and Israel. For you are My servant; I have formed you; you are My servant, O Israel; you shall not forget Me. ²²I have blotted out your transgressions like a thick cloud; and your sins like a cloud. Return to Me, for I have redeemed you. ²³Sing, O heavens, for Jehovah has done it. Shout, O lower parts of the earth; burst forth into praise, O mountains. O forest and every tree in it, sing praise, because Jehovah has redeemed Jacob, and glorifies Himself in Israel. ²⁴So says Jehovah, your Redeemer and your Former from the womb; I am Jehovah who makes all things; stretching out the heavens; I alone, spreading out the earth. Who was with Me, ²⁵frustrating the signs of liars; yea, He makes diviners mad; turning wise ones backward, and making their knowledge foolish. ²⁶He confirms the word of His servant, and completes the counsel of His messengers. He says to Jerusalem, You will be peopled; and to the cities of Judah, You shall be built; and, I will raise up its ruins. ²⁷*He* says to the deep, Be a waste! And I will dry up your rivers! ²⁸*He* says to Cyrus, You are My shepherd; and he shall fulfill all My will, even to say to Jerusalem, You shall be built; and to the temple, You shall be set up.

¹So says Jehovah to His anointed, to Cyrus, whom I have seized by his right hand, to subdue nations before him. Yea, I will open the loins of kings, to open the two-leaved doors before him, and the gates shall not be shut. ²I will go before you and make hills level; I will tear apart the bronze doors, and cut the iron bars in two. ³And I will give you the treasures of darkness, even treasures in secret places, that you may know that I am Jehovah, who calls you by your name, the God of Israel. ⁴For My servant Jacob's sake, and for Israel My chosen, I even call you by your name. I name you, but you do not know Me. ⁵*I am* Jehovah, and there is none else; there is no God except Me. I will clothe you, though you do not know Me, ⁶that they may know from the rising of the sun, and to the sunset, that there is none besides Me; I am Jehovah, and there is none else; ⁷forming light, and creating darkness; making peace, and creating evil — I, Jehovah, do all these things.

⁸Drop down from above, O heavens; and let the cloud pour down righteousness. Let the earth open and let salvation bear fruit; and let righteousness sprout together — I, Jehovah have created it. ⁹*Woe to him who fights with his Former!* A potsherd among the potsherds of the earth! Shall the clay say to its former, What are you making? Or does your work say, He has no hands? ¹⁰*Woe to him who says to a father, What are you fathering?* Or to the woman, What are you laboring over?

¹¹So says Jehovah, the Holy One of Israel, and his Former, Do you ask Me the things to come? Do you give command to Me about My sons, and about the work of My hands? ¹²I have made the earth, and created man on it. I stretched out the heavens with My hands; and I have set all their host in order. ¹³I raised him up in righteousness, and have made straight all his ways. He shall build My city, and he will release My captives; not for price, nor for reward, says Jehovah of hosts.

¹⁴So says Jehovah, The labor of Egypt, and the goods of Ethiopia, and of the Sabeans, men of stature, shall come to you; and they shall be yours. They shall come after you; they shall cross in chains; and they shall bow to you; they shall plead to you. Surely God is in you, and there is none else, no other God.

¹⁵Truly, You are a God who hides Himself, O God of Israel, the Savior. ¹⁶They shall be ashamed, and also are disgraced, all of them. Together they go into disgrace, carvers of images. ¹⁷Israel is saved in Jehovah with everlasting salvation. You shall not be ashamed nor disgraced to the forevers of eternity.

¹⁸For so says Jehovah, Creator of the heavens; He is God, forming the earth and making it; He makes it stand, not creating it empty, but forming it to be inhabited. I am Jehovah, and there is none else. ¹⁹I have not spoken in secret, in a dark place of the earth. I did not say to Jacob's seed, Seek Me in vain. I Jehovah speak righteousness, declaring right things. ²⁰Gather yourselves and come; draw near together, escaped ones of the nations; the ones who set up the wood of their carved image, and the ones who pray to a god who cannot save — they know nothing — ²¹declare and bring near; yea, let them consult together. Who has revealed this of old; who has told it from then? Is it not I, Jehovah? And there is no God other than Me; a just God and a Savior; there is none except Me. ²²Turn to Me and be saved, all the ends of the earth; for I am God, and there is no other. ²³I have sworn by Myself, the word has gone out of My mouth in righteousness, and shall not return, that to Me every knee shall bow, every tongue shall swear; ²⁴he shall say, Only in Jehovah do I have righteousness and strength; to Him he comes; and they are ashamed, all who are angry with Him. ²⁵In Jehovah all of the seed of Israel shall be justified, and shall glory.

¹Bel has bowed; Nebo stoops; their idols are for the beast, and for the cattle; your things carried are loads; a burden for the weary. ²They stoop; they bow together; they are not able to deliver the burden; and their soul has gone into captivity. ³Listen to me, O house of Jacob, and all the remnant of the house of Israel; who are borne from the belly, who are lifted from the womb: ⁴Even to old age I am He; and I will bear to gray hair; I made, and I will carry; and I will bear and deliver.

⁵To whom will you compare Me and make Me equal; and compare Me, that we may be alike? ⁶Those who lavish gold out of the bag, and weigh silver on the measure; they hire a refiner and he makes it a god. They fall down; yea, they worship. ⁷They carry it on the shoulder; they bear it and set it in its place, and it stands; it shall not move from its place. Yes, he cries to it, but it does not answer, it does not save him from his distress. ⁸Remember this and be a man; return it on your heart, transgressors. ⁹Remember former things from forever, for I am God, and no one else is God, even none like Me, ¹⁰declaring the end from the beginning, and from the past those things which were not done, saying, My purpose shall rise; and, I will do all My desire; ¹¹calling a bird of prey from the sunrise, the man of My counsel from a far off land. Yes, I have spoken; yes, I will cause it to come; I have formed; yes, I will do it.

¹²Listen to Me, mighty ones of heart who are far from righteousness: I bring near My righteousness; it shall not be far off, and My salvation shall not wait; I will place salvation in Zion, My glory for Israel.

¹Go down and sit on the dust, O virgin daughter of Babylon; sit on the earth; a throne is not to the daughter of the Chaldeans; for they shall not again call you tender and delicate. ²Take millstones and grind meal; uncover your veil; strip off the skirt; uncover the leg; pass over rivers. ³Your nakedness shall be uncovered; yea, your shame shall be seen—I will take vengeance and I will not meet a man. ⁴Our Redeemer, Jehovah of hosts is His name, the Holy One of Israel. ⁵Sit in silence, and go into darkness, O daughter of the Chaldeans, for they shall no more call you the mistress of kingdoms.

⁶I was angry with My people; I defiled My inheritance and gave them into your hand. You gave them no mercy; you made very heavy your yoke on the aged. ⁷And you said, I shall be a mistress forever; until you did not set these things on your heart, and not did remember its end. ⁸Now, then, hear this, O pleasure seeker, who lives carelessly; who says in her heart, I am, and none else is; I shall not sit as a widow, nor shall I know the loss of children. ⁹But these two things shall suddenly come to you, in one day: loss of children, and widowhood; as complete they come on you, for your many sorceries, for the multitude of your great spells. ¹⁰For you trusted in your evil; you said, No one sees me. Your wisdom and your knowledge, it leads you away, and you said in your heart, I am and none else is. ¹¹For this, evil shall come on you; you shall not know its origin. And mischief shall fall on you; you shall not be able to cover it. And ruin shall come on you suddenly, you shall not know. ¹²Stand now among your spells, and with your many sorceries, in which you have wearied yourself since your youth — perhaps you will be able to profit; perhaps you may cause quaking. ¹³You are exhausted by your many plans; let those dividing the heavens stand up now and save you, the gazers into the stars, making known what is coming on you into the new moons. ¹⁴Behold, they are as stubble; the fire burns them; they shall not save their soul from the flame's hand; there is no coal to warm them; nor fire, to sit before it. ¹⁵So they are to you with whom you have labored, your traders from your youth; each one wanders to his own way; no one saves you.

¹Hear this, O house of Jacob, who are called by the name of Israel, and have come out from the waters of Judah, who swear by Jehovah's name and profess by the God of Israel — not in truth or in righteousness. ²For they are called of the holy city, and rest themselves on the God of Israel; Jehovah of hosts is His name. ³I have foretold the former things from then; and they went out of My mouth; and I made them hear; suddenly I acted, and they came about. ⁴Because I knew that you are hard, and your neck is a sinew of iron, and your brow brass. ⁵And I declared to you from then; before it came I made you hear, lest you should say, My idol did them; and my image and my casted image commanded them. ⁶You heard; see it all; and will you not declare? I made you hear new things from now, even hidden things, and you did not know them. ⁷They are created now, and not from then; even before today, but you did not hear them; lest you should say, See, I knew them. ⁸Yea, you did not hear; yea, you did not know; yea, from then your ear was not opened; for I know you surely will betray and trespass, from the womb it was called to you. ⁹For My name's sake I will put off My anger; and for My praise I will hold back for you, so as not to cut you off. ¹⁰Behold, I have refined you, but not with silver; I have chosen you in the furnace of affliction. ¹¹For My sake, for My sake, I will act; for how is it defiled? And I will not give My glory to another.

¹²Listen to Me, O Jacob, and Israel My called: I am He; I am the first; I surely am the last. ¹³My hand surely founded earth, and My right hand has stretched out the heavens; I called, they stood up together. ¹⁴All of you gather and hear: Who among them has declared these things? Jehovah has loved him. He will do His pleasure on Babylon; yea, His arm shall be on the Chaldeans. ¹⁵I, I have spoken; yea, I have called him, I brought him, and he causes his way to prosper. ¹⁶Come near to me; hear this: I have not spoken in secret from the beginning. From its being, I was there; and now the Lord Jehovah, and His spirit, has sent Me. ¹⁷So says Jehovah, your Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel, I am Jehovah your God, who teaches you to profit, who leads you in the way you should go. ¹⁸Oh that you had listened to My commands! Then your peace would have been like the river, and your righteousness like the waves of the sea. ¹⁹And your seed would have been like the sand, and your offspring like its grains; his name would not have been cut off nor destroyed from My presence. ²⁰Go out of Babylon; flee from the Chaldeans. Tell this with the voice of rejoicing; let this be heard, let it go out to the end of the earth; say, Jehovah has redeemed His servant Jacob. ²¹And they did not thirst; He led them in the deserts; He made waters flow out of rock for them. And He cut open the rock and the water gushed out. ²²There is no peace, says Jehovah, to the wicked.

¹Coasts, hear Me; and you people from afar, prick up your ears, Jehovah called Me from the womb; He mentioned My name from My mother's belly. ²And He made My mouth like a sharp sword; He hid Me in the shadow of His hand, and made Me a polished arrow; He hid Me in His quiver; ³and said to Me, You are My servant, Israel, You in whom I shall be glorified. ⁴Then I said, I have labored in vain; I have spent My strength for nothing, and in vain; yet surely My judgment is with Jehovah, and My work with My God. ⁵And now, says Jehovah who formed Me from the womb to be His servant, to bring Jacob back to Him: Though Israel is not gathered, yet I am honored in the eye of Jehovah, and My God is My strength. ⁶And He said, it is too little that You should be My servant to raise up the tribes of Jacob, and to restore the preserved ones of Israel; I will also give You for a light of the nations, that You may be My salvation to the end of the earth. ⁷So says Jehovah, the Redeemer of Israel, His Holy One, to the despised of soul, to the hated of the nation, the servant of rulers, Kings shall see and rise up; and chiefs shall worship; because of Jehovah who is faithful, and the Holy One of Israel; and He chose You.

⁸So says Jehovah: In a favorable time I have answered You, and in a day of salvation I have helped You. And I will preserve You, and give You for a covenant of the people; to establish the earth, to cause to inherit the desolated inheritances; ⁹to say to the prisoners, Go out! To those who are in darkness, Show yourselves! They shall feed in the ways, and their pastures shall be in all high places. ¹⁰They shall not hunger nor thirst; and the heat and sun shall not strike them. For He who has mercy on them shall lead them; and He shall guide them by the springs of water. ¹¹And I will make all My mountains a way, and My highways shall be set on high. ¹²Behold, these shall come from afar; and, lo, these from the north and from the west; and these from the land of Sinim.

¹³Sing, O heavens; and be joyful, O earth; break out into singing, O mountains. For Jehovah has comforted His people and will have pity on His afflicted. ¹⁴But Zion said, Jehovah has forsaken me, and, My Lord has forgotten me. ¹⁵Can a woman forget her suckling child, from pitying the son of her womb? Yes, these may forget, yet I will surely not forget you. ¹⁶Behold, I have carved you on the palms of My hands; your walls are always before Me. ¹⁷Your sons hurry; those destroying you and ruining you shall go out from you. ¹⁸Lift up your eyes all around and see! They all gather and come to you. As I live, says Jehovah, you shall surely wear all of them as an ornament, and bind them on as a bride. ¹⁹For your wastes and your deserted places, and your land of ruins shall even now be too narrow to live there; and they who swallow you shall be broad. ²⁰The sons of your bereavement shall yet say in your ears, The place is too narrow for me; come near so that I may live. ²¹Then you shall say in your heart, Who has borne these to me, for I am bereaved and desolate, turned aside and an exile; who then has brought up these? Behold, I was left alone. Where do these come from? ²²So says the Lord Jehovah, Behold, I will lift up My hand to the nations, and will set up My banner to peoples. And they shall bring your sons in the bosom, and your daughters shall be carried on the shoulder. ²³And kings shall be your nursing fathers, and their queens your nurses. They shall bow to you, faces down to the earth, and lick up the dust of your feet. And you shall know that I am Jehovah, by whom they who wait for Me shall not be ashamed. ²⁴Shall the plunder be taken from the warrior, or the righteous captive escape? ²⁵But so says Jehovah, Even the captives of the warrior shall be taken, and the plunder of the terrifying ones shall be delivered. For I will strive with him who contends with you; and I will save your sons. ²⁶And those who oppress you, I will feed with their own flesh: and they shall be drunk by their own blood, as with fresh wine. And all flesh shall know that I Jehovah am your Savior and your Redeemer, the mighty One of Jacob.

¹So says Jehovah, Where is the scroll of your mother's divorce whom I have put away? Or who of My creditors that I have sold you to him? Behold, you were sold for your iniquities, and your mother was put away for your trespasses. ²Who knows why I have come, and no one is here? I called, and not one answered. Is My hand truly cut short from ransom? Or is there not power in Me to deliver? Behold, at My rebuke I dry up the sea; I make rivers a wilderness; their fish stink because of no water, and die in thirst. ³I clothe the heavens with blackness, and sackcloth makes their covering.

⁴The Lord Jehovah has given to Me the tongue of taught ones, to know, to help the weary with a word. He arouses in the morning; He arouses the ear to Me, to hear as the learned. ⁵The Lord Jehovah has opened My ear and I did not rebel; I did not turn away backwards. ⁶I gave My back to strikers, and My cheeks to pluckers; I did not hide My face from shame and spitting. ⁷And the Lord Jehovah will help Me. On account of this I was not ashamed. On account of this I set My face like flint, and I know that I shall not be ashamed. ⁸My Justifier is near. Who will contend with Me? Let us stand up together; who is master of My judgment? Let him come near to Me. ⁹Behold, the Lord Jehovah will help Me; who is He who will condemn Me? Behold, like a garment they shall wear out; the moth shall eat them.

¹⁰Who among you fears Jehovah, obeying the voice of His servant, who walks in darkness, and no light is in him? Let him trust in the name of Jehovah, and lean on his God. ¹¹Behold, all of you who kindle fire, who are surrounded by sparks; walk in the light of your fire and in the sparks you are burning. This shall be to you from My hand; you shall lie down in pain.

¹Hear Me, pursuers of righteousness, seekers of Jehovah: Look to the rock from which you were cut, and to the hollow of the pit from which you were dug. ²Look to your father Abraham, and to Sarah who bore you. For he being but one I called him, and blessed him and increased him. ³For Jehovah comforts Zion. He comforts all her desolations, and He makes her wilderness like Eden, and her desert like the garden of Jehovah; joy and gladness shall be found in it, thanksgiving and the voice of singing praise.

⁴Hear Me, My people; yea, give ear to Me, My nation. For a law shall go out from Me, and My justice I will make rest as light to peoples. ⁵My righteousness is near; My salvation went out; and My arms shall judge peoples; coasts shall wait on Me, and they shall hope on My arm. ⁶Lift up your eyes to the heavens, and look to the earth beneath; for the heavens vanish like smoke, and the earth shall wear out like a garment; and its inhabitants shall die in the same way, but My salvation shall be forever, and My righteousness shall not be broken. ⁷Hear Me, knowers of righteousness, the people of My law in their heart; do not fear the reproach of man, and do not be bowed from their blasphemings. ⁸For the moth shall eat them like a garment; yea, the mothworm shall eat them like wool. But My righteousness shall be forever, and My salvation to generation to generation. ⁹Awake! Awake! Arm of Jehovah, put on strength. Awake, as in days of old, everlasting generations. Was it not You cutting in pieces Rahab, and piercing the sea-monster? ¹⁰Was it not You drying up the sea, the waters of the great deep, who made the depths of the sea a way for the redeemed to pass? ¹¹Yea, the ransomed of Jehovah shall return and come to Zion with singing, and everlasting joy shall be on their head; gladness and joy shall overtake them; sorrow and sighing shall flee.

¹²I, I am He comforting you. Who are you, that you should fear from man? He shall die! And from the son of man? He is given as grass. ¹³And you forget your Maker Jehovah, who has stretched out the heavens and founded the earth. And you dread continually, every day, from the fury of the oppressor, since he was ready to destroy. And where is the fury of the oppressor? ¹⁴Bowed down, he hurries to be freed, and not that he die in the pit, and not that he lack his bread. ¹⁵But I am Jehovah your God, stirring up the sea and making its waves roar; Jehovah of hosts is His name. ¹⁶And I have put My words in your mouth, and covered you in the shade of My hand, to plant the heavens and found the earth, and to say to Zion, You are My people.

¹⁷Awake! Awake! Rise up, O Jerusalem, who drank the cup of His fury from the hand of Jehovah; you drank the bowl of the cup of reeling; you fully drained it.

¹⁸No guide is for her among all the sons she has borne; and none takes her by the hand of all the sons she made to grow. ¹⁹Those two things came to you; who shall wail for you? Ruin and shattering and famine and the sword—who but I shall comfort you? ²⁰Your sons have fainted; they lie at the head of all the streets, like an antelope in a net, filled with the fury of Jehovah, the rebuke of your God. ²¹So hear this now, afflicted one, and drunken, but not from wine: ²²So says your Lord Jehovah and your God, He strives for His people. Behold, I have taken the cup of reeling out of your hand, the bowl of the cup of My fury; you shall not yet again drink it. ²³But I will put it into the hand of your oppressor, who have said to your soul, Bow down that we may cross and put your back as the ground, and as the street to those who cross.

¹Awake! Awake! Put on your strength, Zion; put on your beautiful robes, O Jerusalem, the holy city. For never again shall come to you uncircumcised and unclean ones. ²Shake yourself from the dust; rise up! Sit, Jerusalem; free yourself from your neckbands, O captive daughter of Zion. ³For so says Jehovah: You were sold for nothing, and you will not be redeemed with silver. ⁴For so says the Lord Jehovah: My people went down to Egypt at the first, to reside there, and without cause Assyria oppressed him. ⁵So then what is to Me here, declares Jehovah? For My people is taken for nothing; his rulers howl, declares Jehovah. And My name is continually despised, every day. ⁶So My people shall know My name thus in that day; for I am He speaking. Behold Me!

⁷How beautiful on the mountains are the feet of him bringing good news, proclaiming salvation; saying to Zion, Your God reigns! ⁸The voice of your watchmen, they lift the voice together, they sing aloud. For they shall see eye to eye when Jehovah brings back Zion. ⁹Break out, sing together, waste places of Jerusalem; for Jehovah comforts His people; He has redeemed Jerusalem. ¹⁰Jehovah has barred His holy arm in the eyes of all the nations; and all the ends of the earth shall see the salvation of our God. ¹¹Turn! Turn! Go out from there! Touch not the unclean! Go out of her midst, purify yourselves, bearers of the vessels of Jehovah. ¹²For you shall not go out with haste, nor will you go by flight; for Jehovah is going before you, and the God of Israel gathers you.

¹³Behold, My Servant shall rule wisely; He shall be exalted and lifted up and be very high. ¹⁴Just as many were astonished over You — so much was the disfigurement from man, His appearance and His form from sons of mankind — ¹⁵so He sprinkles from many nations. At Him kings shall shut their mouths; for they will see that which was not told to them; yea, what they had not heard, they will understand.

¹Who has believed our report? And to whom is the arm of Jehovah revealed? ²For He comes up before Him as a tender plant, and as a root out of dry ground. He has no form nor magnificence that we should see Him; nor form that we should desire Him. ³*He* is despised and abandoned of men, a Man of pains, and acquainted with sickness. And as it were hiding our faces from Him, He being despised, and we did not value Him. ⁴Surely He has borne our sicknesses, and He carried our pain; yet we esteemed Him plagued, smitten by God, and afflicted. ⁵But He was wounded for our transgressions; He was bruised for our iniquities; the chastisement of our peace was upon Him; and with His wounds we ourselves are healed. ⁶All we like sheep have gone astray; we have each one turned to his own way; and Jehovah made meet in Him the iniquity of all of us. ⁷He was oppressed, and He was afflicted, but He did not open His mouth. He was led as a lamb to the slaughter; and as a ewe before her shearers is dumb, so He opened not His mouth. ⁸He was taken from prison and from justice; and who shall consider His generation? For He was cut off out of the land of the living; from the transgression of My people, the stroke was to Him. ⁹And He put His grave with the wicked; and with a rich man in His death; although He had done no violence, and deceit was not in His mouth. ¹⁰But Jehovah pleased to crush Him, to make Him sick, so that If He should put His soul as a guilt offering, He shall see His seed; He shall prolong His days; and the will of Jehovah shall prosper in His hand. ¹¹He shall see the fruit of the travail of His soul; He shall be fully satisfied. By His knowledge shall My righteous Servant justify for many, and He shall bear their iniquities. ¹²Because of this I will divide to Him with the great, and with the strong He shall divide the spoil; because He poured out His soul to death; and He was counted with transgressors; and He bore the sin of many, and made intercession for transgressors.

¹Rejoice, unfruitful one that never bore; break out a song and shout, you who never travailed. For the sons of the desolate one are more than the sons of the married woman, says Jehovah. ²Make the place of your tent larger, and let them stretch out the curtains of your dwellings. Do not spare, lengthen your cords and strengthen your stakes. ³For you shall break forth on the right hand and on the left. And your seed shall possess nations, and people will inhabit ruined cities. ⁴Do not fear, for you shall not be ashamed, nor shall you be disgraced, for you shall not be wounded. For you shall forget the shame of your youth, and you shall not remember the reproach of your widowhood any more. ⁵For your Maker is your husband; Jehovah of hosts is His name; and your Redeemer is the Holy One of Israel; He is called the God of all the earth. ⁶For Jehovah has called you as a woman forsaken and grieved in spirit, even a wife of young men when she is rejected, says your God. ⁷For a little moment I have left you, but I will gather you with great pityings. ⁸In a flood of wrath I hid My face from you for a moment; but I will have pity on you with everlasting kindness, says Jehovah your Redeemer. ⁹For this is the waters of Noah to Me; for as I swore to refrain from passing over the waters of Noah over the earth again, so I have sworn from being angry with you and rebuking you. ¹⁰For the mountains shall depart and the hills be removed, but My mercy shall not depart from you; nor shall the covenant of My peace be removed, says Jehovah who has pity on you.

¹¹Afflicted one, storm-tossed, and not comforted! Behold, I stretch out your stones among antimony, and lay your foundations with sapphires. ¹²And I will make your battlements of ruby, and your gates carbuncle stones, and all your borders pleasing stones; ¹³and all your sons will be taught of Jehovah; and the peace of your sons will be great. ¹⁴You shall be established in righteousness; you shall be far from oppression, for you shall not fear, and from terror, for it shall not come near you. ¹⁵Behold, they shall surely gather, but not from Me. Who has gathered against you? By you he shall fall. ¹⁶Behold, I have created the smith who blows the coal in the fire, and who brings out a weapon for his work; and I have created the waster to destroy. ¹⁷Every weapon formed against you shall not prosper, and every tongue that shall rise against you in judgment, you shall condemn. This is the inheritance of the servants of Jehovah, and their righteousness is from Me, says Jehovah.

¹Ho, everyone who thirsts, come to the water; and he who has no money, come buy grain and eat. Yes, come buy grain, wine and milk without silver and with no price. ²Why do you weigh out silver for that which is not bread, and your labor for that which never satisfies? Listen carefully to Me and eat that which is good; and let your soul delight itself in fatness. ³Bend you ear and come to Me; hear, and your soul shall live; and I will cut a covenant everlasting with you, the faithful mercies of David. ⁴Behold, I gave Him a witness to peoples, a Leader and Commander of peoples. ⁵Behold, You shall call a nation You do not know; yea, a nation that does not know You shall run to You, because of Jehovah Your God, and for the Holy One of Israel; for He has glorified You.

⁶Seek Jehovah while He may be found; call on Him while He is near. ⁷Let the wicked forsake his way and the vain man his thoughts; and let him return to Jehovah, and He will have mercy on him — and to our God, for He will abundantly pardon. ⁸For My thoughts are not your thoughts; nor are your ways My ways, says Jehovah. ⁹For as the heavens are high from the earth, so My ways are high from your ways, and My thoughts from your thoughts. ¹⁰For as the rain and the snow goes down from the heavens and do not return there, but water the earth and make it bring forth and bud, and give seed to the sower and bread to the eater — ¹¹so shall My word be, which goes out of My mouth; it shall not return to Me void, but it shall accomplish that which I please, and it shall prosper in what I sent it to do! ¹²For you shall go out with joy and be led out with peace. The mountains and the hills shall break out into song before you, and all the trees of the field shall clap the palm. ¹³Instead of the thorn-bush, the fir-tree shall come up; instead of the brier, the myrtle shall come up; and it shall be for a name to Jehovah, for an everlasting sign that shall not be cut off.

¹So says Jehovah: Keep justice and do righteousness, for My salvation is near to come, and My righteousness to be revealed. ²Blessed is the man who does this, and the son of man who lays hold on it; keeping sabbath, from defiling it; and keeping his hand from doing every evil. ³And do not let the son of the foreigner speak, he who joins himself to Jehovah, saying, Jehovah surely separates me from His people; and not do let the eunuch say, Behold, I am a dried tree. ⁴For so says Jehovah to the eunuchs who keep My sabbaths and choose things I am pleased with, and take hold of My covenant: ⁵I even will give to them in My house and in My walls a hand and a name better than sons and than daughters; I will give them an everlasting name, which shall not be cut off. ⁶And the sons of the alien who join themselves on Jehovah to serve Him, and to love the name of Jehovah, to be His servants, everyone who keeps from defiling the sabbath, and takes hold of My covenant: ⁷even them I will bring to My holy mount and make them joyful in My house of prayer. Their burnt offerings and their sacrifices shall be accepted on My altar, for My house shall be called a house of prayer for all the peoples, ⁸states the Lord Jehovah, who gathers the outcasts of Israel, I will yet gather beside him his gathered ones. ⁹All beasts of the field come to devour, all beasts in the forest!

¹⁰His watchmen are blind; they all do not know; they are all dumb dogs; they cannot bark, dreaming, lying down, loving to slumber; ¹¹yea, dogs greedy of soul; they do not know satisfaction. And they are shepherds; they know not discernment; they all look to their own way, each one for his own gain, from his own end, saying: ¹²Come, and let me bring wine, and let us gulp down fermented drink; and tomorrow shall be as this day, great, exceedingly abundant.

For you uncovered yourself from Me and went up; you enlarged your couch; and you cut covenant with them; you loved their couch; at a hand you looked. ⁹And you went to the king with oil and multiplied your perfume. And you sent your messengers far away, and lowered yourself to Sheol. ¹⁰You were wearied in the length of your way; you did not say, Despair! You found the life of your hand, so you were not sick. ¹¹And whom have you dreaded and feared? You have lied and have not remembered Me, not laying it on your heart. Have I not been silent, even from forever, and you have not feared Me? ¹²I will reveal your righteousness and your works, and they will not benefit you. ¹³When you cry, let your gathering deliver you; but the wind shall bear away all of them; vanity takes them. But he who takes refuge in Me shall inherit the land and possess My holy mountain.

¹⁴And he shall say, Raise up! Raise up! Clear the way! Make the stumbling block rise from the way of My people. ¹⁵For so says the high and lofty One who inhabits eternity, and His name is Holy: I dwell in the high and holy place, even with the contrite and humble of spirit; to make live the spirit of the humble and to make live the heart of the contrite ones. ¹⁶For I will not contend forever, nor will I always be angry, for the spirit would faint before Me, even the breaths I have made. ¹⁷For I was angry and struck him for the iniquity of his gain; I hid Myself and was angry; yet he went, turning in his heart's way. ¹⁸His ways I have seen, but I will heal him, and will lead him and restore comforting to him and to his mourners. ¹⁹I create the fruit of the lips: peace, peace, to the ones far off and near, says Jehovah — and I will heal him. ²⁰But the wicked are like the driven sea, which cannot be quiet, and its waves cast up mire and dirt. ²¹There is no peace to the wicked, says my God.

¹Call out with the throat! Do not spare. Lift up your voice like the ram's horn! And show My people their rebellion, and their sins to the house of Jacob. ²Yet they seek Me day by day, and desire knowledge of My ways. As a nation that has done right, and not forsaking the judgment of their God, they ask Me about judgments of righteousness; they desire to draw near to God. ³*They say*, Why have we fasted, and You did not see? We have afflicted our soul, and You did not acknowledge. Behold, on the day of your fast you find pleasure; and you drive all your laborers hard. ⁴Look! You fast for strife, and for debate, and to strike with the fist of wickedness. Do not fast as today, to sound your voice in the high place. ⁵Is this like the fast I will choose, a day for a man to afflict his soul? To bow his head down like a bulrush, and he spreads sackcloth and ashes? Will you call to this as a fast, and a day of delight to Jehovah? ⁶Is this not the fast I have chosen: to open bands of wickedness, to undo thongs of the yoke, and to let the oppressed ones go free; even that you pull off every yoke? ⁷Is it not to break your bread to the hungry, that you should bring the wandering poor home? When will you see the naked and cover him; and you will not hide yourself from your flesh? ⁸Then your light shall break as the dawn, and your healing shall spring up quickly; and your righteousness shall go before you; the glory of Jehovah shall gather you. ⁹Then you shall call, and Jehovah will answer; you shall cry, and He shall say, Here I am. If you put the yoke away from among you, the sending out of the finger, and the speaking of vanity; ¹⁰and if you let out your soul to the hungry, and satisfy the afflicted soul; then your light shall rise in the darkness, and your gloom shall be as the noonday. ¹¹And Jehovah shall always guide you, and satisfy your soul in dry places, and support your bones. And you shall be like a watered garden, and like a spring of water whose waters do not fail. ¹²And those who come of you shall build the old ruins; you shall rear the foundations of many generations; and you shall be called, The repairer of the breach, the restorer of paths to live in.

¹³If you turn your foot away because of the sabbath, from doing what you please on My holy day, and call the sabbath a delight, glorified to the holiness of Jehovah; and shall glorify it, away from doing your own ways, from finding your own pleasure or speaking your word; ¹⁴then you shall delight yourself in Jehovah. And I will cause you to ride on the heights of the earth, and make you eat with the inheritance of your father Jacob. For the mouth of Jehovah has spoken.

¹Behold, the hand of Jehovah is not shortened from saving; nor is His ear heavy from hearing. ²But your iniquities are coming between you and your God; and your sins have hidden His face from you, from hearing. ³For your hands are defiled by blood; yea, your fingers with iniquity. Your lips have spoken falsehood; your tongue murmurs perverseness. ⁴No one calls for righteousness; and no one pleads with truth. Trusting emptiness, and speaking vanity, they conceive mischief, and give birth to evil. ⁵They hatch adders' eggs, and weave the spider's web; he who eats their eggs dies; and that which is crushed hatches out a viper. ⁶Their webs shall not become clothing, nor shall they cover themselves with their works. Their works are works of evil, and the act of violence is in their hands. ⁷Their feet run to evil, and they hurry to pour out innocent blood. Thoughts of iniquity are their thoughts; wasting and ruin are in their tracks. ⁸They do not know the way of peace; and no justice is in their tracks. They have made crooked paths for themselves; everyone going in them does not know peace.

⁹For this reason justice is far from us; and righteousness does not overtake us. We wait for light, but, behold, dimness; for brightness, but we walk in gloom. ¹⁰We grope for the wall like the blind, and we grope as if we had no eyes; we stumble at noonday as in the twilight; in deserted places like the dead. ¹¹We all of us roar like bears, and we moan sadly like doves. We look for justice, but there is none; for salvation, but it is far from us. ¹²For our trespasses are multiplied before You, and our sins testify against us. For our transgressions are with us, and we know our iniquities; ¹³transgressing and lying against Jehovah, and departing from our God; speaking oppression and revolt, conceiving and murmuring words of falsehood from the heart. ¹⁴And justice is driven back; and righteousness stands far off; for truth stumbles in the plaza, and right is not able to enter.

¹⁵And the truth is lacking; and whoever turns from evil makes himself a prey. And Jehovah saw; and it was evil in His eyes, that there was no justice. ¹⁶And He saw that there was no man, and He was astonished that there was no intercessor. And His own arm saved for Him; and His righteousness sustained Him. ¹⁷For He put on righteousness like armor, and a helmet of salvation on His head. And He put on robes of vengeance as clothing; and He put on zeal like a mantle. ¹⁸According to works, so He will repay; fury to His foes; recompense to His foes; He will repay recompense to the coasts. ¹⁹So they shall fear Jehovah's name from the sunset, and His glory from the sunrise. When the foe comes like a flood, the Spirit of Jehovah shall cause him to flee. ²⁰And the Redeemer comes to Zion, and to those in Jacob who turn from transgression, declares Jehovah.

²¹As for Me, this is My covenant with them, says Jehovah: My Spirit who is on you, and My words which I have put in your mouth, shall not depart out of your mouth, or out of the mouth of your seed, or out of the mouth of your seed's seed, from now on and forever, says Jehovah.

¹Arise, shine; for your light has come, and the glory of Jehovah has risen on you! ²For behold, the darkness shall cover the earth, and gross darkness the peoples. But Jehovah shall rise on you, and His glory shall be seen on you. ³And nations shall walk to your light, and kings to the brightness of your dawning. ⁴Lift up your eyes all around and see; they are all assembling; they are coming to you. Your sons shall come from far away, and your daughters shall be supported on the side. ⁵Then you shall fear and be bright; and your heart shall dread and swell. For the abundance of the sea shall be turned to you; the force of nations shall come to you. ⁶A host of camels shall cover you, young camels of Midian and Ephah. All of them shall come from Sheba; they shall carry gold and incense; and they shall proclaim the praises of Jehovah. ⁷All the flocks of Kedar shall be gathered to you; rams of Nebaioth shall serve you; they shall come up for acceptance on My altar; and I will glorify the house of My glory. ⁸Who are these who fly like a cloud, and with the doves to their windows? ⁹For the coasts shall wait for Me, and the ships of Tarshish at the first, to bring your sons from far away, their silver and their gold to them, to the name of Jehovah your God, and to the Holy One of Israel, because He has glorified you.

¹⁰And the sons of the stranger shall build your walls, and their kings shall serve you. For I struck you in My wrath, but I pitied you in My favor. ¹¹So your gates shall be always open; they shall not be shut day or night, so that men may bring to you the force of nations, and that their kings may be led. ¹²For the nations and the kingdom that will not serve you shall perish; yea, the nations shall be utterly destroyed. ¹³The glory of Lebanon shall come to you: the juniper, the box-tree, and the cypress together, to beautify the place of My sanctuary; yea, I will glorify the place of My feet. ¹⁴Also the sons of your afflictors shall come bowing to you. And all who despised you shall fall at the soles of your feet. And they shall call you, The City of Jehovah, the Zion of the Holy One of Israel. ¹⁵Instead of your being forsaken and hated, so that no one passes through, I will make you for everlasting majesty, a joy of many generations. ¹⁶You shall also suck the milk of nations, and you shall suck the breast of kings. And you shall know that I, Jehovah, am your Savior and your Redeemer, the mighty One of Jacob. ¹⁷Instead of bronze, I will bring gold; and instead of iron, I will bring silver. And instead of timber, bronze; and instead of stones, iron. And I will make your governors peace, and your exactors righteousness. ¹⁸Violence shall not still be heard in your land, or wasting and ruin within your borders; but you shall call your walls, Salvation, and your gates, Praise. ¹⁹The sun shall not still be your light by day, or the brightness of the moon give you light; but Jehovah shall be for everlasting light to you, and your God for your beauty. ²⁰Your sun shall not set any more; and your moon shall not withdraw; for Jehovah will become your everlasting light; and the days of your mourning shall end. ²¹And your people shall all be righteous; they shall possess the earth forever, a branch of My planting, a work of My hands, to beautify Myself. ²²A little one shall become a thousand, and a small one a strong nation. I, Jehovah, will hasten it in its time.

¹The Spirit of the Lord Jehovah is on Me, because Jehovah has anointed Me to preach the gospel to the meek. He has sent Me to bind up the brokenhearted, to proclaim liberty to captives, and complete opening to the bound ones; ²to proclaim the acceptable year of Jehovah, and the day of vengeance of our God; to comfort all who mourn; ³to appoint to those who mourn in Zion, to give them beauty instead of ashes, the oil of joy instead of mourning, the mantle of praise instead of the spirit of infirmity; so that one calls them trees of righteousness, the planting of Jehovah, in order to beautify Himself.

¹⁰I will greatly rejoice in Jehovah. My soul shall be joyful in my God. For He clothed me with garments of salvation; He put on me the robe of righteousness, even as a bridegroom puts on his ornament, and as the bride is adorned with her jewels. ¹¹For as the earth gives causes to go out her buds, and as a garden causes that which is sown to grow, so the Lord Jehovah will make righteousness and praise to grow before all the nations.

¹For Zion's sake, I will not be silent; and for Jerusalem's sake, I will not rest; until her righteousness goes forth as brightness, and her salvation as a burning lamp. ²And nations shall see your righteousness, and all kings your glory. And you shall be called by a new name which the mouth of Jehovah shall name. ³You also shall be a crown of beauty in the hand of Jehovah, and a royal diadem in the palm of your God. ⁴You no longer shall be called Forsaken; nor shall your land any longer be called Desolate. But you shall be called, My Delight is in Her; and your land, Married. For Jehovah delights in you, and your land is married. ⁵For as a young man marries a virgin, so shall your sons marry you. And as a bridegroom rejoices over the bride, so your God shall rejoice over you.

⁶I have set watchmen on your walls, O Jerusalem. All the day and all the night they shall not always be silent; you who remember Jehovah, do not let a pause be to you. ⁷And give no pause to Him until He sets up and makes Jerusalem a praise in the earth. ⁸Jehovah has sworn by His right hand, and by the might of His arm: Surely I will no longer give your grain as food for your enemies; and the sons of a stranger shall not drink your new wine for which you have labored. ⁹But those who have gathered it shall eat it, and praise Jehovah. And they who have collected it shall drink it in My holy courts. ¹⁰Pass! Pass through the gates; prepare the way of the people! Raise up! Raise up the highway; clear it from stones; lift up a banner over the peoples. ¹¹Behold, Jehovah has made to be heard to the end of the earth;

Tell the daughter of Zion, Behold, your salvation comes! Behold, His reward is with Him, and His work before Him. ¹²And they shall call them, The Holy People, the Redeemed of Jehovah. And to you it shall be called, Sought Out, A City Not Forsaken.

¹Who is this who comes from Edom with dyed garments from Bozrah, this One adorned in His clothing, inclining in His great power? It is I, speaking in righteousness, mighty to save! ²Why is Your clothing red, and Your garments like one who treads in the winepress? ³I have trodden the winepress, I alone, and no man of the peoples was with Me. And I will tread them in My anger, and trample them in My fury; and their juice shall be spattered on My garments; and I will pollute all My clothes. ⁴For the day of vengeance is in My heart, and the year of My redeemed has come. ⁵And I looked, and no one was helping. And I wondered that no one was upholding. Then My own arm saved for Me, and My fury upheld Me. ⁶And I trod down the people in My anger, and made them drunk in My fury. And I poured their juice to the earth.

⁷I will mention the mercies of Jehovah, the praises of Jehovah, according to all that Jehovah has benefited us, and the great good to the house of Israel, by which He benefited them according to His mercies, and according to the multitude of His loving-kindness. ⁸For He said, Surely they are My people, sons that do not lie, and He is their Savior. ⁹In all their affliction, He was not a foe; and the Angel of His face saved them. In His love and in His pity He redeemed them. And He bore them, and carried them all the days of old. ¹⁰But they rebelled, and provoked His Holy Spirit, so He was turned to be their enemy; He fought against them. ¹¹Then His people remembered the days past of Moses, saying, Where is He who brought us up from the sea with the shepherd of His flock. Where is He who put His Holy Spirit within him; ¹²who led them by Moses' right hand, with His glorious arm, dividing the water before them, to make for Him an everlasting name? ¹³*He* led them through the deeps; like the horse in the wilderness, they did not stumble. ¹⁴As the cattle go down into the valley, the Spirit of Jehovah caused him to rest; so You led Your people, to make a glorious name for Yourself.

¹⁵Look down from Heaven, and peer from the place of Your holiness and your glory. Where is Your zeal and Your might? The stirring of Your affections and Your mercies toward me, are they held back? ¹⁶For You are our Father, though Abraham does not know us, and Israel does not acknowledge us; You, Jehovah, are our Father, our Redeemer; Your name is from everlasting.

¹⁷O Jehovah, why do You make us wander from Your ways? You harden our heart from Your fear. For Your servants' sake, return the tribes of Your inheritance. ¹⁸For a little while Your holy people possessed it. Our enemies have trampled Your sanctuary. ¹⁹We are of old; You never ruled over them. Your name was never called on them.

¹Oh that You would tear the heavens and come down, that mountains would quake before You. ²As the brushwood fire burns, fire causes water to boil, make known Your name to Your foes, that nations might tremble before You. ³When You did terrifying things which we did not look for, You came down; mountains flowed down before You. ⁴And from forever they have not heard; they did not give ear. Eye has not seen a God except You, who works for him who waits for Him. ⁵You meet him who rejoices and works righteousness; they recall You in Your ways. Behold, You were angry, for we sinned. In them is eternity, we shall be saved. ⁶But we are all as the unclean thing, and all our righteousnesses are as a filthy cloth. And we all fade as a leaf, and like the wind our iniquities take us away. ⁷And there is not one who calls on Your name, who stirs himself up to take hold of You. For You have hidden Your face from us, and have melted us away into the hand of our iniquities.

⁸But now, Jehovah, You are our Father, we are the clay, and You are our Former; and we all are Your handiwork. ⁹Do not be vehemently angry, Jehovah, and do not remember iniquity forever. Behold! Look, please; all of us are Your people. ¹⁰Your holy cities are a wilderness; Zion is a wilderness; Jerusalem is a desolation. ¹¹The house of our holiness and our beauty, where our fathers praised You, has become a burning of fire; and all our pleasant things have become a ruin. ¹²Will You restrain Yourself over these things, Jehovah? Will you be silent and sorely afflict us?

¹I have been sought, not by those who asked. I have been found, not by those who sought Me. To a nation not calling on My name, I said, Behold Me! Behold Me! ²I have spread out My hands all the day long to a rebellious people who walk in the way not good, after their own thoughts; ³a people who continually provoke Me to My face; who sacrifice in gardens, and burn incense on the bricks; ⁴who sit among the graves and lodge in the towers; who eat swine's flesh, and broth of unclean things in their pots; ⁵who say, Keep to yourself! Do not come near me, for I am holier than you! These are a smoke in My nose, a fire burning all the day. ⁶Behold! It is written before Me: I will not be silent, except I repay; yea, I will repay to their bosom, ⁷your iniquities and the iniquities of your fathers together, says Jehovah; they that burned incense on the mountains, and have blasphemed Me on the hills. And I will measure their former work on their bosom.

⁸So says Jehovah: As the new wine is found in the cluster, and one says, Do not destroy it, for a blessing is in it; so I will do for the sake of My servants, not to destroy the whole. ⁹And I will bring forth a seed out of Jacob, and out of Judah one to inherit My mountains. And My chosen one shall inherit, and My servants shall live there. ¹⁰And Sharon shall be a fold of flocks; and the valley of Achor a resting place of herds for My people who have sought Me. ¹¹But you are those who forsake Jehovah, who forget My holy mountain; who array a table for Fortune, and who fill mixed wine for Fate. ¹²And I will number you to the sword; and you shall all bow down to the slaughter; because I called and you did not answer. I spoke, and you did not hear; and you did the evil in My eyes; and you chose that in which I had no pleasure. ¹³So the Lord Jehovah says this: Behold, My servants shall eat, but you shall be hungry. Behold, My servants shall drink, but you shall be thirsty. Behold, My servants shall rejoice, but you shall be ashamed. ¹⁴Behold, My servants shall sing for joy of heart, but you shall cry from heartbreak, and howl from breaking of spirit. ¹⁵And you shall leave your name for a curse to My chosen. And the Lord Jehovah shall kill you; and He shall call His servants by another name. ¹⁶*He* who blesses himself in the earth shall bless himself in the God of truth. And he who swears in the earth shall swear by the God of truth; because the former distresses are forgotten; and because they are hidden from My eyes.

¹⁷For, behold, I create new heavens and new earth. And the things before shall not be recalled, and shall not go up on the heart. ¹⁸However, be glad and rejoice forever in what I create. For, behold, I create in Jerusalem a rejoicing, and her people a joy. ¹⁹And I will rejoice in Jerusalem, and joy in My people. And the voice of weeping and the voice of crying shall no longer be heard in her. ²⁰There shall not still be an infant of days, or an old man that has not filled his days. For the youth shall die the son of a hundred years, but the sinner the son of a hundred years shall be accursed. ²¹And they shall build houses and live in them; and they shall plant vineyards and eat their fruit. ²²They shall not build, and another live in them; they shall not plant, and another eat. For like the days of the tree are the days of My people; and My elect shall grow old to the work of their hands. ²³They shall not labor in vain, nor bring forth for terror. For they are the seed of the beloved ones of Jehovah, and their offspring with them. ²⁴And it will be, before they call, I will answer. While they are speaking, then I will hear. ²⁵The wolf and the lamb shall feed as one; and the lion shall eat straw like the ox. And dust is the food of the snake. They shall not do evil nor destroy in all My holy mountain, says Jehovah.

¹So says Jehovah: Heaven is My throne, and earth the footstool of My feet. Where then is the house that you build for Me? And where then is the place of My rest? ²And My hand has made all these things, even all these things exist, declares Jehovah. But I will look toward this one, to the afflicted, and the contrite of spirit, even trembling at My word.

³He who kills an ox is as if he struck a man; he who sacrifices a lamb is as if he broke a dog's neck; he who offers a present as if it were swine's blood; he who marks incense is if he blessed an idol. Yea, they have chosen their way, and their soul delights in their abominations. ⁴I also will choose their vexations; and I will bring their fears to them; because I called, and no one answered; I spoke, and they did not hear; but they did the evil in My eyes, and chose that in which I had no pleasure.

⁵Hear the word of Jehovah, those who tremble at His word. Your brothers who hate you, who drive you out for My name's sake, have said, Jehovah is glorified. But He shall appear in your joy, and they shall be ashamed. ⁶A roaring sound from the city! A sound from the temple! It is the sound of Jehovah repaying retribution to His enemies.

⁷Before she travailed, she brought forth; before pain came to her, she delivered a male child. ⁸Who has heard anything like this? Who has seen things like these? Shall the earth be brought forth in one day? Shall a nation be born in one step? For Zion travailed and also brought forth her sons. ⁹Shall I bring to the birth, and not cause to bring forth? says Jehovah. Surely I cause birth, and hold back, says your God.

¹⁰Rejoice with Jerusalem, and be glad with her, all who love her. Rejoice a rejoicing with her, all who mourn for her; ¹¹that you may suck and be satisfied with her comforting breasts; that you may milk out and delight yourselves with the fullness of her glory. ¹²For so says Jehovah: Behold, I stretch out peace to her like a river, and glory of nations like an overflowing torrent. And You shall suck; you shall be carried on the side and be dandled on knees. ¹³As a man whom his mother comforts, so I will comfort you. And you shall be comforted in Jerusalem. ¹⁴And you will see, and your heart shall rejoice; and your bones shall flourish like the grass. And the hand of Jehovah shall be known toward His servants, and He shall be indignant with His enemies.

¹⁵For, behold, Jehovah will come with fire, and His chariots like the tempest, to return His wrath in fury, and His rebuke in flames of fire. ¹⁶For by fire and by His sword Jehovah will execute judgment with all flesh; and the slain of Jehovah shall be many. ¹⁷Those who sanctify themselves, and purify themselves to the gardens, each one in the midst, eaters of swine's flesh, and the hateful thing, and the mouse—these are cut off together, says Jehovah.

¹⁸For I know their works and their thoughts; it comes to gather all the nations and the tongues; and they shall come and see My glory. ¹⁹And I will set a sign among them, and I will send those who escape from them to the nations of Tarsish, Pul, and Lud, drawers of the bow; to Tubal and Javan, to the far away coasts that have not heard My fame nor seen My glory. And they shall declare My glory among the nations. ²⁰And they shall bring all your brothers out of all nations, an offering to Jehovah, on horses, and in chariots, and in litters, and on mules, and on camels, to My holy mountain Jerusalem, says Jehovah; as the sons of Israel bring the offering in a clean vessel to the house of Jehovah. ²¹And I will also take some of them for the priests, for the Levites, says Jehovah.

²²For as the new heavens and the new earth, which I make, stand before Me, declares Jehovah, so your seed and your name shall stand. ²³And it will be, from new moon to its new moon, and from sabbath to its sabbath, all flesh shall come to worship before Me, says Jehovah. ²⁴And they shall go out and see the dead bodies of the men who have transgressed against Me; for their worm shall not die, nor shall their fire be put out; and they shall be an object of disgust to all flesh.

THE BOOK OF JEREMIAH

⁷But Jehovah said to me, Do not say, I am a boy; for you shall go to all that I shall send you. And whatever I command you, you shall speak. ⁸Do not be afraid of their faces, for I am with you to deliver you, says Jehovah. ⁹Then Jehovah put out His hand and touched my mouth. And Jehovah said to me, Behold, I have put My words in your mouth. ¹⁰Behold, I have today appointed you over the nations and over the kingdoms, to root out, and to tear down, and to destroy, and to throw down, to build, and to plant.

¹¹And was the word of Jehovah to me, saying, Jeremiah, what do you see? And I said, I see an almond rod. ¹²Then Jehovah said to me, You have seen well; for I will watch over My word to perform it. ¹³And the word of Jehovah came to me the second time, saying, What do you see? And I said, I see a boiling pot; and its face is from the face of the north. ¹⁴And Jehovah said to me, Out of the north evil will be set loose on all the inhabitants of the land. ¹⁵For, behold, I will call all the families of the kingdoms of the north, declares Jehovah. And they shall come, and they shall each one set his throne at the entrance of the gates of Jerusalem, and all against its walls all around, and against the cities of Judah. ¹⁶And I will pronounce My judgments against them regarding all their evil, those who have forsaken Me, and have burned incense to other gods, and have worshiped the works of their hands.

¹⁷And you must gird up your loins, and rise up, and speak to them all that I command you. Do not be terrified before their faces, that I not prostrate you before them. ¹⁸For, behold, today I have made you a fortified city, and an iron pillar, and bronze walls against the whole land, against the kings of Judah, against her princes, against her priests, and to the people of the land. ¹⁹And they shall fight against you; but they shall not overcome you. For I am with you to deliver you, declares Jehovah.

¹And was the word of Jehovah to me, saying, ²Go and cry in the ears of Jerusalem, saying, So says Jehovah, I remember you, the kindness of your youth, the love of your espousals, your going after Me in the wilderness, in a land not sown. ³Israel was holy to Jehovah, the firstfruits of His increase. All that devour him become guilty; evil shall come on them, declares Jehovah. ⁴Hear the word of Jehovah, O house of Jacob, and all the families of the house of Israel.

⁵So says Jehovah, What iniquity have your fathers found in Me, that they went far from Me, and have walked after vanity, and have become vain? ⁶Nor did they say, Where is Jehovah who brought us up out of the land of Egypt, who led us in the wilderness; in a land of deserts and of pits; in a dry land, and death-shade; in a land that no man has passed through, and not a man has lived there? ⁷And I brought you into a plentiful land, to eat its fruit and its goodness. But when you went in, you defiled My land, and made My inheritance an abomination. ⁸The priests did not say, Where is Jehovah? And they who handle the law did not know Me. And the shepherds rebelled against Me; and the prophets prophesied by Baal, and went after things not profitable.

⁹Therefore, I will contend with you, says Jehovah, and I will contend with your sons' sons. ¹⁰For go to the isles of Chittim and see; and send to Kedar; and carefully consider and see if there is any like this. ¹¹Has a nation changed its gods; and they were not gods? But My people have changed their Glory without it having profit. ¹²Be amazed at this, O heavens, and be horrified; be completely desolated, declares Jehovah. ¹³For My people have committed two evils: they have forsaken Me, the Fountain of living waters, to hew out cisterns for themselves, broken cisterns that can hold no water.

²⁰For long ago you broke your yoke and tore up your bands. And you said, I will not transgress — when on every high hill and under every green tree you lay down like a harlot. ²¹Yet I planted you a choice vine, wholly a true seed. How then have you turned into the degenerate shoots of an alien vine to Me? ²²Though you wash yourself with potash, and multiply soap for yourself, your iniquity is stained before Me, declares the Lord Jehovah. ²³How can you say, I am not defiled; I have not gone after Baals? See your way in the valley; know what you have done! You are a swift camel crossing her ways; ²⁴a wild ass used to the wilderness; in the passion of her desire she snuffs up the wind in her time. Who can turn her away? All those who seek her will not tire themselves; in her month they will find her. ²⁵Withhold your foot from being bare, and your throat from thirst. But you said, It is hopeless! No! For I love strangers, and after them I will go. ²⁶As the thief is ashamed when he is found, so is the house of Israel ashamed; they, their kings, their princes, and their priests, and their prophets; ²⁷saying to a tree, You are my father; and to a stone, You gave us birth. For they turned their back to Me, and not the face. But in the time of their evil, they will say, Arise, and save us! ²⁸But where are your gods that you have made for yourselves? Let them arise, if they can save you in the time of your evil; for according to the number of your cities are your gods, O Judah. ²⁹Why do you contend with Me? All of you, you have rebelled against Me, says Jehovah. ³⁰In vain I have stricken your sons; they received no correction. Your own sword has devoured your prophets, like a destroying lion.

³¹O generation, see the word of Jehovah. Have I been a wilderness to Israel, or a land of darkness? Why do My people say, We roam; we will come no more to You. ³²Can a virgin forget her finery, a bride her attire? Yet My people have forgotten Me days without number. ³³What? Do you trim your ways to seek love? For this reason you have even taught the evil women your ways. ³⁴Also on your skirts is found the blood of the souls of the poor innocents; you did not find them breaking in, but on all these. ³⁵Yet you say, Because I am innocent, surely His anger shall turn from me. Behold, I will judge with you, because you say, I have not sinned. ³⁶Why do you go about so much to change your way? You also shall be ashamed of Egypt, as you were ashamed of Assyria. ³⁷Yes, you shall go out from this place, and your hands on your head. For Jehovah has rejected those in whom you trust, and you will not prosper by them.

¹*They* say, If a man puts away his wife, and she goes from him and will be for another man, will he return to her again? Would not that land be greatly defiled? But you play the harlot with many lovers; yet would you come back to Me? says Jehovah. ²Lift up your eyes on the bare heights and see. Where have you not been lain with? By the highways you have sat for them, like an Arab in the desert. And you have defiled the land with your fornications and with your evil. ³And the showers are withheld, and there has been no latter rain. And the forehead of a woman, a harlot was to you; you refused to be ashamed. ⁴Have you not just now called to Me, saying, My father, You are the friend of my youth? ⁵Will He keep His anger forever? Or will He guard it to the end? Behold, you have spoken, and you have done all the evil things that you could.

⁶Jehovah also said to me in the days of Josiah the king, Have you seen what the apostate Israel has done? She has gone up on every high hill and under every green tree, and has played the harlot there. ⁷And after she had done all these, I said, She will return to Me; but she did not return. And her treacherous sister Judah saw it. ⁸And I watched. When for all the causes for which the apostate Israel committed adultery, I put her away and gave her a bill of her divorce to her; yet her treacherous sister Judah did not fear, but she also went and played the harlot. ⁹And it happened, from the wantonness of her harlotry she defiled the land, and committed adultery with stones and with pieces of wood. ¹⁰And yet for all this her treacherous sister Judah has not turned to Me with her whole heart, but with falsehood, says Jehovah. ¹¹And Jehovah said to me, The apostate Israel has justified herself more than treacherous Judah.

¹²Go and cry these words toward the north, and say, Return, O backsliding Israel, says Jehovah. I will not cause My face to fall on you; for I am merciful, says Jehovah; I will not keep anger forever. ¹³Only acknowledge your iniquity, that you have rebelled against Jehovah your God and have scattered your ways to the strangers under every green tree. And you have not obeyed My voice, says Jehovah.

¹⁴Return, O apostate sons, declares Jehovah; for I am Lord over you. And I will take you, one from a city, and two from a family, and I will bring you to Zion. ¹⁵And I will give you shepherds according to My heart, who will feed you with knowledge and understanding. ¹⁶And it will be, when you multiply and increase in the land in those days, says Jehovah, they will no longer say, The ark of the covenant of Jehovah! Nor shall it come to the heart, nor shall they remember it; nor shall they miss it; nor shall it be made any more. ¹⁷At that time they shall call Jerusalem the throne of Jehovah. And all nations shall be gathered to it, to the name of Jehovah, to Jerusalem. And they shall not walk any more after the stubbornness of their evil heart. ¹⁸In those days the house of Judah shall walk with the house of Israel, and they shall come together out of the land of the north, to the land that I have given for an inheritance to your fathers. ¹⁹But I said, How gladly would I put you among the sons, and give you a pleasant land, a beautiful inheritance among the multitudes of nations! And I said, You shall call Me, My Father; and you shall not turn away from Me.

²⁰Surely as a wife treacherously departs from her lover, so you have dealt treacherously with Me, O house of Israel, declares Jehovah. ²¹A voice was heard weeping on the bare heights, pleadings of the sons of Israel; for they have perverted their way; they have forgotten Jehovah their God. ²²Return, O apostate sons; I will heal your apostasies. Behold, we come to You, for You are Jehovah our God. ²³Truly, for delusion comes from the hills, tumult on the mountains. Truly, in Jehovah our God is the salvation of Israel. ²⁴For the shameful thing has eaten up the labor of our fathers from our youth, their flocks and their herds, their sons and their daughters. ²⁵We lie down in our shame, and our confusion covers us. For we have sinned against Jehovah our God, we and our fathers, from our youth even to this day. And we have not obeyed the voice of Jehovah our God.

¹If you will return, O Israel, says Jehovah, return to Me. And if you will put away your hateful idols out of My face, and will not waver, ²and you will swear, As Jehovah lives, in truth, in justice, and in righteousness; even the nations shall bless themselves in Him, and in Him they will glory.

³For so says Jehovah to the men of Judah and to Jerusalem, Break up your fallow ground, and do not sow to the thorns. ⁴Circumcise yourselves to Jehovah, and take away the foreskin of your heart, O men of Judah and inhabitants of Jerusalem; that My fury not go forth like fire and burn, so that no one can put it out; because of the evil of your doings. ⁵Declare in Judah, and sound out in Jerusalem; and say, Blow the ram's horn in the land. Cry, fulfill and say, Assemble yourselves and go into the fortified cities. ⁶Lift up a banner toward Zion; flee for safety and do not wait. For I will bring evil from the north, and a great ruin. ⁷The lion has come up from his thicket, and a destroyer of nations has set out. He has left his place to make your land a waste. Your cities will fall into ruins without inhabitant. ⁸Clothe yourselves with sackcloth for this, wail and howl. For the fierce anger of Jehovah has not turned back from us. ⁹And it will be on that day, says Jehovah, the king's heart and the heart of the rulers shall fail. And the priests shall be amazed; and the prophets shall be astounded.

¹⁰Then I said, Ah, Lord Jehovah! Surely You have greatly deceived this people and Jerusalem, saying, You shall have peace; but the sword reaches to the soul. ¹¹At that time it shall be said to this people and to Jerusalem, A hot wind from the bare hills in the desert toward the daughter of My people, not to sift nor to cleanse! ¹²A wind more full than these shall come for Me; now I also will utter judgments against them. ¹³Behold, he shall come up like clouds, and his chariots like a tempest. His horses are swifter than eagles. Woe to us, for we are plundered!

¹⁴O Jerusalem, cleanse your heart from evil so that you may be saved. Until when will your vain thoughts lodge within you? ¹⁵For a voice announces from Dan, and proclaims evil from Mount Ephraim.

¹⁶Tell it to the nations: Behold, proclaim against Jerusalem, Besiegers are coming from a distant land and will set their voice against the cities of Judah. ¹⁷Like keepers of a field, they are against her all around, because she has rebelled against Me, says Jehovah. ¹⁸Your way and your doings have done these things to you; this is your evil, because it is bitter, because it reaches to your heart.

¹⁹My bowels, my bowels! I convulse in pain. O walls of my heart! My heart is restless within me. I cannot be silent, for I have heard. O my soul, the sound of the ram's horn, the alarm of war! ²⁰Ruin on ruin has been called; for the whole land is laid waste. Suddenly my tents are laid waste, my curtains in a moment. ²¹Until when must I see the banner and hear the sound of the ram's horn? ²²For My people are foolish. They do not know Me. They are stupid children, and they have no understanding. They are wise to do evil, but they do not know to do good. ²³I looked on the earth, and, behold, it was without form and void; and to the heavens, and they had no light. ²⁴I looked on the mountains, and, behold, they quaked. And all the hills were shaken. ²⁵I looked, and, behold, there was no man; and all the birds of the skies had fled. ²⁶I looked, and, behold, the fruitful place was a wilderness; and all its cities were broken down before the face of Jehovah, before His glowing anger. ²⁷For so Jehovah has said, The whole land shall be a desolation; yet I will not make a full end.

²⁸The earth shall mourn for this; and the heavens above shall grow black; because I have spoken, I have purposed, and I will not repent, nor will I turn back from it. ²⁹Every city shall flee from the noise of the horsemen and shooters of the bow. They shall go into thickets and go up in the rocks. Every city shall be forsaken, and not a man shall live in them. ³⁰And you, O stripped one, what will you do? Though you clothe yourself with crimson, though you adorn yourself with ornaments of gold; though you make large your eyes with paint, you beautify yourself in vain; lovers despise you; they will seek your life. ³¹For I have heard a voice like a woman in labor, the anguish as one bearing her first child, the voice of Zion's daughter gasping, and spreading her hands, saying, Woe is to me now; for my soul faints because of murderers.

¹Roam around in Jerusalem's streets, and see now, and know, and seek in her plazas, if you can find a man, if there is one who does justice, who seeks truth; and I will pardon her. ²And though they say, As Jehovah lives, surely they swear falsely. ³O Jehovah, are not Your eyes for the truth? You struck them, but they felt no pain. You consumed them; they refused to take correction; they made their faces harder than rock; they have refused to return. ⁴So I said, Surely they are poor; they are foolish; for they do not know the way of Jehovah, the ordinance of their God. ⁵I will go up for myself, to the great men, and will speak to them. For they have known the way of Jehovah, the judgment of their God. Surely these have joined in breaking the yoke; they have torn off the bonds. ⁶On account of this a lion out of the forest shall strike them; a wolf of the desert shall destroy them; a leopard is watching over their cities. Everyone who goes out from them shall be torn in pieces, because their transgressions are many; their apostasies are multiplied.

⁷Why should I pardon you for this? Your sons have forsaken Me and have sworn by those who are no gods. When I adjured them, they then committed adultery and gathered themselves by troops in a harlot's house. ⁸They were like lusty, well-fed stallions in the morning, every one neighing after the wife of his neighbor. ⁹Shall I not judge for these things? says Jehovah. And shall not My soul be avenged on such a nation as this?

¹⁰Go up on her vine rows and destroy; but do not make a full end. Take away her branches, for they are not Jehovah's.

¹¹For the house of Israel and the house of Judah have been very devious with Me, declares Jehovah. ¹²They have lied against Jehovah and said, It is not He; and, No evil shall come on us; and, We shall not see sword or famine. ¹³And the prophets shall become wind, and the word is not in them; so it shall be done to them. ¹⁴So Jehovah God of hosts says this: Because you spoke this word, behold, I will make My words fire in your mouth, and this people wood; and it shall consume them. ¹⁵Behold, I will bring a nation on you from far away, O house of Israel, declares Jehovah. It is an enduring nation; it is an ancient nation, a nation whose language you do not know, nor understand what they say. ¹⁶Their quiver is as an open grave; they are all mighty men. ¹⁷And they will eat up your harvest and your food; and they will eat up your sons and your daughters; they shall eat up your flocks and your herds; they shall eat up your vines and your fig-trees. One shall beat down your fortified cities with the sword, those in which you trust. ¹⁸Yet even in those days, declares Jehovah, I will not make a full end with you.

¹⁹And it will be, when you shall say, Why does Jehovah our God do all these things to us? Then you shall answer them, Just as you have forsaken Me, and served foreign gods in your land, so you shall serve strangers in a land that is not yours. ²⁰Declare this in the house of Jacob, and cry it in Judah, saying, ²¹Now hear this, O foolish people, even without heart; who have eyes and do not see; who have ears, and do not hear; ²²do you not fear Me? declares Jehovah. Will you not tremble before My face, that I have placed the sand as the boundary for the sea by a never-ending decree, so that it cannot cross over it? And though they toss themselves, yet they cannot prevail; though its waves roar, yet they cannot cross over it. ²³But to this people there is a revolting and a rebellious heart; they have turned, and are gone. ²⁴And they do not say in their heart, Let us now fear Jehovah our God, who gives both the former and the latter rain in its season; He keeps for us the appointed weeks of the harvest.

²⁵Your iniquities have turned away these things, and your sins have withheld good from you. ²⁶For among My people are found wicked ones; they lie in wait, as one who sets snares; they set a trap; they catch men. ²⁷Like a cage full of birds, so their houses are full of treachery; On account of this they have become great and grown rich. ²⁸They have become fat; they shine. Yes, they pass over the deeds of the evil; they do not plead the cause, the cause of the orphan, that they may prosper; and they do not vindicate the right of the needy. ²⁹Shall I not visit for these things? declares Jehovah. Shall not My soul be avenged on such a nation as this?

³⁰An astounding and horrible thing has happened in the land. ³¹The prophets prophesy falsely, and the priests bear rule by their hands; and My people love it so. And what will you do at the end of it?

¹O sons of Benjamin, take refuge to flee out of the midst of Jerusalem. And blow the ram's horn in Tekoa; and set up a signal over Beth-haccerem. For evil appears out of the north, and great destruction. ²I will destroy the daughter of Zion, the beautiful and tender one. ³The shepherds with their flocks shall come to her; they shall pitch tents on her all around. They shall each one feed in his hand. ⁴Consecrate war against her; rise up and let us go up at noon. Woe to us! For the day wanes; for the shadows of the evening are stretched out. ⁵Rise up and let us go up by night, and let us destroy her palaces.

⁹So says Jehovah of hosts, they shall thoroughly glean the remnant of Israel like a vine. Turn back your hand, as a grape gatherer over the tendrils. ¹⁰To whom shall I speak and give warning, that they may hear? Behold, their ear is not circumcised and they cannot listen. Behold, the word of Jehovah is a reproach to them. They have no delight in it. ¹¹And I am full of the fury of Jehovah; I am weary with holding in. Pour it out on the child in the street, and on the circle of the young men together. For even the husband with the wife shall be taken, the elder with fullness of days. ¹²And their houses shall be turned to others, fields and wives together. For I will stretch out My hand on the inhabitants of the land, declares Jehovah.

¹³For everyone from the least of them even to the greatest of them cuts off a profit; and from the prophet even to the priest every-one deals falsely. ¹⁴They have also healed the break of My people slightly, saying, Peace, peace; when there is no peace. ¹⁵Were they ashamed when they made an abomination? They were not at all ashamed, nor did they know to blush. So they shall fall among those who fall. At the time I visit them, they shall be cast down, says Jehovah. ¹⁶So says Jehovah, Stand by the ways and see; and ask for the old paths where the good way is, and walk in it; and you shall find rest for your souls. But they said, We will not walk in it.

¹⁷Also I set watchmen over you, saying, Listen to the sound of the ram's horn. But they said, We will not listen. ¹⁸So hear, O nations; and know, O congregation, that which is coming on them. ¹⁹Hear, O earth; behold, I will bring evil on this people, the fruit of their thoughts. For they have not listened to My words, and My law, they also rejected it. ²⁰Why is to Me, frankincense coming from Sheba, and the good cane from a far land? Your burnt offerings are not for acceptance, nor are your sacrifices sweet to Me. ²¹So Jehovah says this, Behold, I am giving stumbling-blocks to this people; and the fathers and the sons together shall stumble on them; a neighbor and his friend shall perish. ²²So says Jehovah, Behold, a people comes from the north country; and a great nation shall be stirred from the sides of the earth. ²³They shall lay hold on bow and javelin; they are cruel and have no mercy. Their voice roars like the sea; and they ride on horses, arrayed like a man for the battle against you, O daughter of Zion. ²⁴We have heard the rumor of it. Our hands have dropped down; anguish has seized us, pain like a travailing woman. ²⁵Do not go out into the field, or walk by the way; because of the sword of the enemy, and terror from every side.

²⁶O daughter of my people, put on sackcloth and roll in ashes. Make mourning for yourself, as for an only son, most bitter mourning—for the ravager shall suddenly come on us. ²⁷I have set you up as assayer, an examiner among My people, that you may know, and examine their way. ²⁸They are all rebellious revolvers, goers of slander. All of them are as bronze and iron; they are corrupters. ²⁹The bellows blow; the lead is consumed from the fire; the refiner refines in vain; for the evil is not separated. ³⁰*Men* will call them reprobate silver, for Jehovah has rejected them.

¹The word that came to Jeremiah from Jehovah, saying, ²Stand in the gate of the house of Jehovah and call out there this word, and say, Hear the word of Jehovah, all Judah, who enter in at these gates to worship Jehovah. ³So says Jehovah of hosts, the God of Israel, Amend your ways and your doings, and I will let you dwell in this place. ⁴Do not trust yourself to lying words, saying, The temple of Jehovah! The temple of Jehovah! This is the temple of Jehovah! ⁵For if you thoroughly amend your ways and your doings; if you truly practice justice between a man and his neighbor; ⁶*if* you do not oppress the stranger, the orphan, and the widow; and do not shed innocent blood in this place; or walk after other gods to your hurt; ⁷then I will let you dwell in this place, in the land that I gave to your fathers, from forever and to forever.

⁸Behold, you trust for yourself on lying words without being of use. ⁹Will you steal, murder, and commit adultery, and swear falsely, and burn incense to Baal, and walk after other gods whom you do not know; ¹⁰and then come and stand before Me in this house on which My name is called, and say, We are delivered in order to do all those detestable things. ¹¹Has this house on which My name is called become a den of violent ones in your eyes? Behold, even I have seen, declares Jehovah. ¹²But go now to My place which was in Shiloh, where I made My name dwell at the first, and see what I did to it for the evil of My people Israel. ¹³And now, because you have done all these works, says Jehovah; and I spoke to you, rising up early and speaking, but you did not hear; yea, I called you, but you did not answer. ¹⁴And I will do to the house on which My name is called, in which you are trusting, and to the place which I gave to you and to your fathers, as I have done to Shiloh. ¹⁵And I will cast you out from My face, as I cast out all your brothers, all the seed of Ephraim. ¹⁶And you, do not pray for this people; do not lift up cry or prayer for them; do not intercede with Me, for I do not hear you.

¹⁷Do you not see what they are doing in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem? ¹⁸The sons gather wood, and the fathers kindle the fire, and the women knead dough, to make cakes to the queen of heaven, and to pour out drink offerings to other gods, that they may provoke Me. ¹⁹Do they provoke Me, says Jehovah? Is it not themselves, to the shame of their own faces? ²⁰So the Lord Jehovah says this: Behold, My anger and My fury will be poured out on this place; on man and on animal; and on the trees of the field; and on the fruit of the ground. And it will burn, and will not be put out.

²¹So says Jehovah of hosts, the God of Israel: Add your burnt offerings to your sacrifices, and eat flesh. ²²For I did not speak to your fathers, nor command them in the day that I brought them out from the land of Egypt, concerning matters of burnt offerings and sacrifices. ²³But I commanded them this thing, saying, Obey My voice, and I will be your God, and you shall be My people. Also, Walk in all the ways that I have commanded you, so that it may be well with you. ²⁴But they did not listen nor bow their ear. But they walked in their own plans, in the stubbornness of their evil heart, and went backward, and not forward. ²⁵Since the day that your fathers came out of the land of Egypt until this day I have even sent to you all My servants, the prophets, daily rising up early, and sending. ²⁶Yet they did not listen to Me, nor bow their ear; but they stiffened their neck; they did more evil than their fathers. ²⁷And you shall speak all these words to them; but they will not listen to you. And you will call to them, but they will not answer you. ²⁸But you shall say to them, This is the nation that does not obey the voice of Jehovah their God, nor receive instruction. Truth has perished, and it is cut off from their mouth. ²⁸Cut off your crown and throw it away, and take up a dirge on the heights. For Jehovah has rejected and forsaken the generation of His wrath. ²⁹For the sons of Judah have done evil in My eyes, says Jehovah. They have set their idols in the house on which is called My name, in order to defile it. ³¹They have built the high places of Tophet, which is in the valley of the son of Hinnom, to burn their sons and their daughters in the fire; which I did not command, nor did it come into My heart.

³²So, behold, the days come, declares Jehovah, when it shall no more be called Tophet, or the valley of the son of Hinnom, but the Valley of Slaughter. For they shall bury in Tophet, from lack of a place. ³³And the bodies of this people shall be food for the birds of the heavens, and for the beasts of the earth; and no one shall frighten them away. ³⁴Then I will cause the voice of gladness to cease from the cities of Judah, and from the streets of Jerusalem; even the voice of joy, and the voice of the bridegroom, and the voice of the bride. For the land shall become a waste.

¹At that time, declares Jehovah, they will bring out the bones of the kings of Judah, and the bones of its rulers, and the bones of the priests, and the bones of the prophets, and the bones of the inhabitants of Jerusalem, out of their graves. ²And they shall spread them before the sun, and the moon, and all the host of the heavens whom they have loved, and whom they have served, and after whom they have walked, and whom they have sought, and whom they have worshiped. They shall not be gathered, or buried; they shall be dung on the face of the ground. ³And death shall be chosen rather than life by all the rest of those who remain of this evil family, who remain there in all the places where I have driven them, says Jehovah of hosts.

⁴And you shall say to them, So says Jehovah, Shall they fall, and not rise up? Or shall one turn away, and not return? ⁵Why has this people, Jerusalem, turned away to a never-ending apostasy? They hold fast to deceit; they refuse to return. ⁶I listened and heard; they did not speak so. No man repented because of this evil, saying, What have I done? Everyone turned in their own course, as a horse rushes into the battle. ⁷Also the stork in the heavens knows her seasons; and the turtle-dove, and the swallow, and the thrush observe the time of their coming. But My people do not know the judgment of Jehovah.

⁸How do you say, We are wise, and the law of Jehovah is with us? Behold, the lying pen of the scribes has certainly worked deceit. ⁹The wise are ashamed; they are terrified, and are captured. Behold, they have rejected the word of Jehovah; and what wisdom is theirs?

¹⁰So I will give their wives to others, their fields to those who shall inherit. For everyone from the least even to the greatest cuts off a profit. From the prophet even to the priest, everyone deals falsely.

¹¹For they have healed the hurt of the daughter of My people slightly, saying, Peace, peace; when there is no peace.

¹²Were they ashamed when they had done hateful things? They were not even at all ashamed, nor did they know how to blush. So they shall fall among those who fall. In the time of their punishment, they will stumble, says Jehovah.

¹³I will utterly consume them, says Jehovah. No grapes will be on the vine, or figs on the fig-tree; even the leaf withers. And I will give to them those who pass over them. ¹⁴Why do we sit still? Gather yourselves, and let us enter into the fortified cities; and let us stand still there. For Jehovah our God has made us stand still there, and He has made us drink poisonous water, because we have sinned against Jehovah. ¹⁵We looked for peace, but no good came; for a time of healing, but, behold, terror! ¹⁶The snorting of his horses was heard from Dan; all the land trembles at the sound of the neighing of his stallions. For they come and devour the land and its fullness, the city and those who live in it. ¹⁷For, behold, I will send serpents among you, vipers for which there is no charm; and they will bite you, says Jehovah.

¹⁹I suffer from desolation; my heart is sick within me, beyond grief. ¹⁹Behold, the voice of the cry of the daughter of my people from a distant land! Is not Jehovah in Zion? Or is not her king in her? Why have they provoked Me with their carved images, with foreign vanities? ²⁰Harvest has passed; the summer has ended; and we are not delivered. ²¹For the breaking of the daughter of my people, I am broken. I mourn; horror has taken hold on me. ²²Is there no balm in Gilead? Is there no healer there? Why then has the healing of my people not come?

¹Oh that my head were waters, and my eyes a fountain of tears, that I might weep day and night for the slain of the daughter of my people! ²Oh that I had a lodging place for travelers in the wilderness, that I might leave my people and go away from them! For they are all adulterers, an assembly of treacherous ones. ³And they bend their tongues; their bow is a lie. And they are not mighty for the truth on the earth; for they go from evil to evil. They do not know Me, says Jehovah. ⁴Let everyone be on guard against his neighbor, and do not trust any brother. For every brother will supplant, and every neighbor will walk as a slanderer. ⁵And everyone will deceive his neighbor; and they will not speak the truth. They have taught their tongue to speak lies; they weary themselves to commit iniquity. ⁶Your home is in the midst of deceit; through deceit they refuse to know Me, says Jehovah. ⁷For this reason, so says Jehovah of hosts, Behold, I will refine them and test them. What else can I do because of the daughter of My people? ⁸Their tongue is a murdering arrow; it speaks deceit; one speaks peace with his neighbor, with his mouth, but in his heart he sets his ambush.

⁹Shall I not visit them for these things? says Jehovah. Or shall not My soul be avenged on such a nation as this? ¹⁰I will take up a weeping and a wailing for the mountains, and a mourning for the pastures of the wilderness; because they are burned up, without a man passing through; yea, they do not hear the voice of cattle.

From the fowl of the heavens, and to the beast, they have fled; they are gone. ¹¹And I will make Jerusalem ruins, a den of jackals; and I will make the cities of Judah a desolation without inhabitant.

¹²Who is the wise man that can understand this? And he to whom the mouth of Jehovah has spoken, that he may declare it? Why does the land perish? It is burned up like the wilderness, so that no one passes through. ¹³And Jehovah says, because they have forsaken My law which I set before them, and have not obeyed My voice, and have not walked in it; ¹⁴but have walked after the stubbornness of their own heart, and after the Baals, which their fathers taught them; ¹⁵so Jehovah of hosts, the God of Israel, says this: Behold, I will feed them, this people with wormwood, and make them drink water of poison. ¹⁶I will also scatter them among the nations which they have not known, nor their fathers. And I will send the sword after them until I have consumed them.

¹⁷So says Jehovah of hosts, Think carefully, and call for the wailers, that they may come. And send for the wise women, that they may come. ¹⁸And let them make haste and take up a lament over us, so that our eyes may run down with tears, and waters flow from our eyelids. ¹⁹For the voice of lament is heard from Zion. How we are ravaged! We are greatly ashamed because we have forsaken the land; because they have thrown down our dwellings. ²⁰Yet hear the word of Jehovah, women; and let your ear receive the word of His mouth; and teach your daughters a lament; and each one her neighbor a dirge. ²¹For death has come into our windows, entering into our fortified palaces, to cut off the children from the street, the young men from the plazas. ²²Speak, So says Jehovah, Even the bodies of men shall fall as dung on the open field, and as the fallen grain after the reaper; and no one shall gather them.

²³So says Jehovah, Do not let the wise glory in his wisdom; and do not let the mighty glory in his might; do not let the rich glory in his riches; ²⁴but let him who glories glory in this, that he understands and knows Me, that I am Jehovah, doing kindness, justice and righteousness in the earth; for I delight in these, says Jehovah.

²Behold, the days come, says Jehovah, that I will punish all the circumcised with foreskin: ²⁶Egypt, and Judah, and Edom, and the sons of Ammon, and Moab, and all those trimmed on the edges of their beards, who dwell in the wilderness. For all the nations are uncircumcised, and all the house of Israel—those uncircumcised of heart.

¹Hear the word which Jehovah speaks to you, O house of Israel. ²So says Jehovah, You shall not be goaded to the way of the nations; and do not be terrified at the signs of the heavens; for the nations are terrified at them. ³For the ordinances of the people are vanity; for one cuts a tree out of the forest with the axe, the work of the hands of the craftsman. ⁴They adorn it with silver and with gold; they fasten them with nails and hammers, so that it will not wobble. ⁵They are like a rounded post, and they cannot speak; they must surely be carried, because they cannot walk. Do not be afraid of them; for they cannot do evil nor good; it is not with them. ⁶There is none like You, O Jehovah; You are great, and Your name is great in might. ⁷Who would not fear You, O King of nations? For it is fitting to You, because among all the wise of the nations, and in all their kingdoms, there is none like You. ⁸But they are at once foolish and animal-like; their tree is an instruction of vanities.

⁹Silver beaten into plates is brought from Tarshish, and gold from Uphaz, the work of the craftsman and the hands of the goldsmith. Violet and purple is their clothing; they are all the works of skillful ones. ¹⁰But Jehovah is the true God, He is the living God, and the everlasting King. At His wrath the earth shall tremble, and the nations shall not be able to stand His indignation. ¹¹So you shall say to them, The gods who have not made the heavens and the earth, they shall perish from the earth, and from under these heavens. ¹²*It is* He who made the earth by His power; who established the world by His wisdom, and who stretched out the heavens by His understanding. ¹³When He utters His voice, there is a noise of waters in the heavens. He causes the vapors to go up from the ends of the earth; He makes lightnings for the rain, and brings forth the wind out of His storehouses. ¹⁴Every man is stupid from lack of knowledge; every refiner is put to shame by the carved image; for his molten image is a lie, and no breath is in them. ¹⁵They are vanity, the work of delusion. In the time of their judgment, they shall perish. ¹⁶The Portion of Jacob is not like these. For He is the Former of all things; and Israel is the tribe of His inheritance; Jehovah of hosts is His name.

¹⁷Gather up your bundle from the ground, you who live under the siege. ¹⁸For so says Jehovah, Behold, I will sling out the dwellers of the land at this time, and will distress them, so that they may find Me.

¹⁹Woe to me for my breaking! My wound is grievous; but I said, Truly this is a malady, and I must bear it. ²⁰My tent is ravaged, and all my cords are broken; my sons went away from me and they are not. There is no stretching out my tent any more, or setting up my curtains. ²¹For the pastors have become stupid, and they have not sought Jehovah; therefore, they shall not be blessed, and all their flock shall be scattered. ²²Behold, the sound of a report! It comes, and a great commotion from the land of the north, to make the cities of Judah a desolation, a den of jackals.

²³O Jehovah, I know that his way does not belong to man; it is not in man who walks to direct his steps. ²⁴O Jehovah, correct me; only with judgment, not in Your anger, that You do not bring me to nothing. ²⁵Pour out Your fury on the nations who do not know You, and on the families who do not call on Your name. For they have eaten up Jacob; and they have devoured him, and have destroyed him, and have made his dwelling-place desolate.

¹The word that came to Jeremiah from Jehovah, saying, ²Hear the words of this covenant, and speak to the men of Judah and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem; ³and say to them, So says Jehovah, the God of Israel, Cursed is the man who does not obey the words of this covenant, ⁴which I commanded your fathers in the day I brought them out of the land of Egypt, from the iron furnace, saying, Obey My voice, and do them according to all that I command you, so that you shall be My people, and I will be your God; ⁵in order to establish the oath which I swore to your fathers, to give them a land flowing with milk and honey, as it is this day. Then I answered and said, Amen, O Jehovah.

⁶And Jehovah said to me, Declare all these words in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem, saying, Hear the words of this covenant and do them. ⁷For I solemnly warned your fathers in the day I brought them up out of the land of Egypt, to this day, rising early and warning, saying, Obey My voice. ⁸Yet they did not obey, nor bow down their ear, but each one walked in the stubbornness of their evil heart. And I will bring on them all the words of this covenant, which I commanded them to do; but they did not do. ⁹And Jehovah said to me, A plot is found among the men of Judah, and among the inhabitants of Jerusalem. ¹⁰They have turned back to the iniquities of their forefathers, who refused to hear My words. And they went after other gods to serve them. The house of Israel and the house of Judah have broken My covenant which I cut with their fathers.

¹¹So Jehovah says this: Behold, I will bring evil on them, from which they shall not be able to escape. And though they cry to Me, I will not listen to them.

¹²Then the cities of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem shall go and cry to the gods to whom they burned incense. But they not at all are able to save them in the time of their trouble. ¹³For according to the number of your cities were your gods, O Judah; yea, according to the number of the streets of Jerusalem you have set up altars to that shameful thing, altars to burn incense to Baal. ¹⁴And you, do not pray for this people; and do not lift up a cry or prayer for them. For I will not hear in the time they cry to Me for their trouble. ¹⁵What is to My beloved in My house, since she has committed her many evils? And has the holy flesh caused your evil to pass from you? How then do you exult? ¹⁶Jehovah called your name, a green olive tree, fair, with fine fruit. With the sound of a great storm, He has set fire to it, and its branches are worthless. ¹⁷And Jehovah of hosts who planted you has spoken evil against you, because of the evil of the house of Israel and of the house of Judah, which they have done to themselves, to provoke Me to anger, by burning incense to Baal.

¹⁸And Jehovah made me know. And I knew. Then You showed me their doings. ¹⁹And I was like a docile lamb being brought to the slaughter; and I did not know that they had plotted schemes against me, saying, Let us destroy the tree with its fruit; and let us cut him off from the land of the living, so that his name may be remembered no more. ²⁰But, O Jehovah of hosts who judges with righteousness, who tries the reins and the heart, let me see Your vengeance on them. For to You I have laid open my cause. ²¹For this reason, so says Jehovah concerning the men of Anathoth who seek your life, saying, Do not prophesy in the name of Jehovah, that you do not die by our hand. ²²So Jehovah of hosts says this: Behold, I will punish them. The young men shall die by the sword; their sons and their daughters shall die by famine; ²³and there shall be no survivor of them, for I will bring evil on the men of Anathoth, even the year of their punishment.

¹Righteous are You, O Jehovah, when I might complain to You, yet let me speak with You of Your judgments. Why does the way of the wicked prosper? Why are all those who deal treacherously at ease? ²You planted them; yea, they take root; they grow; they even make fruit. You are near in their mouth, and far from their reins. ³But You know me, O Jehovah. You have seen me and tried my heart toward You. Pull them out like sheep for the slaughter, and devote them to the day of slaughter. ⁴Until when shall the land mourn, and the grass of every field wither from the evil of those who dwell in it? The beasts and the birds are swept away, because they said, He will not see our last end.

¹If you have run with footmen, and they wore you out, then how can you compete with horses? And if you feel secure in the land of peace, then how will you do in the swelling of Jordan? ²For even your brothers and the house of your father, even they have dealt treacherously with you; even they have fully called after you. Do not believe them, though they speak good things to you.

³I have forsaken My house; I have left My inheritance. I have given the beloved of My soul into the hand of her enemies. ⁴My inheritance has become as a lion in the forest to Me; she gave out her voice against Me; on account of this I hated her. ⁵My inheritance is like a speckled bird to Me; the birds all around are against her. Come, gather all the beasts of the field, bring them to devour. ⁶Many shepherds have destroyed My vineyard; they have trampled My portion under foot; they have made My pleasant portion a desolate wilderness. ⁷One has made it desolate; it mourns to Me; the whole land is made desolate, but no man lays it to heart. ⁸The ravagers have come on all bare heights through the wilderness; for the sword of Jehovah devours from one end of the land even to the other end of the land. There is no peace for any flesh. ⁹They have sown wheat, but they have reaped thorns. They are worn out, but they do not profit. And they shall be ashamed of your harvests, because of the glow of the anger of Jehovah.

¹⁰So says Jehovah against all My evil neighbors who touch the inheritance which I have caused My people Israel to inherit: Behold, I will tear them from their land, and I will tear the house of Judah from among them. ¹¹And it shall be, after I have torn them out, I will return and have pity on them, and will bring them again, each man to his inheritance, and each man to his land. ¹²And it shall be, if they will carefully learn the ways of My people, to swear by My name, As Jehovah lives—as they taught My people to swear by Baal—then they will be built in the midst of My people. ¹³But if they will not obey, then I will tear and destroy that nation, says Jehovah.

¹So says Jehovah to me, Go and buy for yourself a linen band, and put it on your loins, and do not put it in water. ²So I bought a band according to the word of Jehovah, and put it on my loins. ³And the word of Jehovah came to me a second time, saying, ⁴Take the band that you bought, which is on your loins, and rise up; go to Euphrates and hide it there in the cleft of the rock. ⁵So I went and hid it by Euphrates, as Jehovah commanded me. ⁶And it happened at the end of many days, Jehovah said to me, Rise up, go to Euphrates and take the band from there, which I commanded you to hide there. ⁷And I went to Euphrates and dug, and I took the band from the place, there where I had hidden it. And behold, the band was rotted; it was not useful for anything.

⁸Then the word of Jehovah came to me, saying, ⁹So says Jehovah, So I will spoil the pride of Judah, and the great pride of Jerusalem. ¹⁰This evil people, who refuse to hear My words, who walk in the stubbornness of their heart, and walk after other gods, to serve them and to worship them, shall even be like this girdle; which is not useful for anything. ¹¹For as this girdle holds fast to the loins of a man, so I have caused the whole house of Israel and the whole house of Judah to cling to Me, says Jehovah; to be to Me for a people, and for a name, and for praise, and for glory; but they would not listen.

¹²So you will speak to them this word: So says Jehovah, God of Israel, Every skin shall be filled with wine. And they shall say to you, Do we not know full well that every skin shall be filled with wine? ¹³Then you shall say to them, So says Jehovah, Behold, I will fill all the inhabitants of this land, even the kings that sit on David's throne, and the priests, and the prophets, and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, with drunkenness. ¹⁴And I will smash them one against another, even the fathers and the sons together, declares Jehovah; I will not pity, nor spare, nor have compassion, to keep them from their destruction.

¹⁵Hear and give ear; do not be proud; for Jehovah has spoken. ¹⁶Give glory to Jehovah your God, before He brings darkness, and before your feet stumble on the dark mountains. Yea, while you look for light, He puts it into death-shade, setting up deep gloom. ¹⁷But if you will not hear it, my soul shall weep in secret places for your pride. And my eye shall bitterly weep and run down with tears, because the flock of Jehovah was captured. ¹⁸Say to the king and to the queen mother, Humble yourselves, sit down. For the crown of your glory will come down from your head-places. ¹⁹The cities of the south have been shut up, and none are opening. Judah has been exiled; all of it has been peacefully exiled.

²⁰Lift up your eyes and behold those who come from the north. Where is the flock that was given to you, your beautiful flock? ²¹What will you say when He visits you? For you taught them to be rulers over you for a head. Do not pangs seize you, like a woman in travail? ²²And if you say in your heart, Why do these things come upon me? It is because of the greatness of your iniquity; your skirts are bared; your heels suffer violence. ²³Can the Ethiopian change his skin, or the leopard his spots? Then you also may do good, who are accustomed to doing evil. ²⁴And I will scatter them as the stubble that passes away to the wilderness wind. ²⁵*This is* your lot, the share of your measure from Me, declares Jehovah; because you have forgotten Me, and have trusted in falsehood. ²⁶So I also have stripped off your skirts over your face, that your shame may appear. ²⁷I have seen your adulteries, and your neighings, the plot of your infidelity, your abominations on the hills, in the fields. Woe to you, O Jerusalem! Will you not be made clean? How long will it still be?

¹That which was, the word of Jehovah to Jeremiah, concerning the matter of droughts. ²Judah mourns, and her gates droop. They put on mourning for the land, and the cry of Jerusalem has gone up. ³And their nobles have sent their little ones for water; they came to the cisterns; they found no water. They returned with their vessels empty; they were ashamed and confounded, and covered their head. ⁴Because the ground was cracked, for there was no rain in the land; the plowmen were ashamed; they covered their head. ⁵For even the doe calved in the field, and forsook it, because there was no grass. ⁶And the wild asses stood in the high places; they snuffed up the wind like jackals; their eyes failed because there was no grass.

⁷O Jehovah, though our iniquities testify against us, act for Your name's sake; for our apostasies are many; we have sinned against You. ⁸O Hope of Israel, its Savior in time of trouble, why should You be as a stranger in the land, and as a traveler who turns aside to lodge? ⁹Why should You be as one who is stunned, as one mighty, yet cannot save? Yet You, O Jehovah, are in our midst, and Your name is called on us. Do not leave us.

¹⁰So says Jehovah to this people: So they have loved to wander; they have not restrained their feet; therefore Jehovah does not accept them. He will now remember their iniquity, and punish their sins. ¹¹Then Jehovah said to me, Do not pray for good for this people. ¹²When they fast, I will not listen to their cry; and when they offer burnt offering and grain offering, I will not accept them. But I will consume them by the sword, and by famine, and by the plague.

¹³Then I said, Ah, O Lord Jehovah! Behold, the prophets are saying to them, You shall not see the sword, nor shall you have famine; but I will give you true peace in this place. ¹⁴And Jehovah said to me, The prophets prophesy lies in My name. I did not send them, and I have not commanded them; nor did I speak to them. They prophesy to you a false vision, and a worthless divination, and the deceit of their heart. ¹⁵So Jehovah says this concerning the prophets who prophesy in My name, and I did not send them; yet they say, Sword and famine shall not be in this land: By sword and famine those prophets shall be consumed. ¹⁶And the people to whom they prophesy shall be cast out in the streets of Jerusalem, because of the famine and the sword. And none will bury them; either them, their wives, or their sons, or their daughters. For I will pour their evil on them.

¹⁷And you shall speak this word to them: Let my eyes run down with tears night and day, and do not let them cease. For the virgin daughter of my people is broken with a great break, with a very grievous blow. ¹⁸If I go out into the field, then I see those pierced with the sword. And if I enter into the city, then, behold, those pierced by famine! Yes, both the prophet and the priest have gone up into a land that they do not know. ¹⁹Have You completely rejected Judah? Or has Your soul hated Zion? Why have You stricken us, and no healing is for us? We looked for peace, but no good came; and for a healing time, but, behold, terror! ²⁰We acknowledge our wickedness, O Jehovah, the iniquity of our fathers; for we have sinned against You. ²¹For Your name's sake, do not spurn us; do not dishonor the throne of Your glory. Remember, and do not break Your covenant with us. ²²Among the vanities of the nations, are there any who make rain fall? Or can the heavens give showers? Is it not You, O Jehovah our God? Then we will wait for You; for You do all these things.

¹Then Jehovah said to me, Though Moses and Samuel stood before Me, My soul could not be toward this people. Send them out from before My face; yea, let them go out. ²And it will be, if they say to you, Where shall we go? Then you will tell them, So says Jehovah, Those who are for death, go to death; and those for the sword, to the sword; and those for the famine, to the famine; and those for the captivity, to the captivity. ³And I will set over them four kinds, says Jehovah: the sword to kill, and the dogs to drag off, and the birds of the heaven and the beast of the earth to devour and destroy. ⁴And I will cause them to be a terror to all the kingdoms of the earth, because of Manasseh, the son of Hezekiah, king of Judah; for what he did in Jerusalem.

⁵For who shall have pity on you, O Jerusalem? Or who shall weep over you? Or who shall turn aside to ask your welfare? ⁶You have forsaken Me, says

Jehovah; you have gone backward; so I will stretch out My hand against you and destroy you; I am weary of repenting. ⁷And I will sift them with a fork in the gates of the land; I will bereave; I will destroy My people, for they do not turn from their ways. ⁸Their widows are more numerous about Me than the sand of the seas; I have brought for them a ravager at noonday against the mother of a young man; I caused anguish and terror to fall on her suddenly. ⁹She who bore seven now languishes; she has breathed out her life; her sun has gone down while it was still day. She has been ashamed and humiliated; and I will deliver the rest of them to the sword before their enemies, says Jehovah.

¹⁰Woe to me, my mother, that you have borne me, a man of strife, and a man of contention to the whole earth! I have not loaned, nor have they loaned to me; yet everyone curses me. ¹¹Jehovah said, Truly I will free you for good. Truly I will cause the enemy to entreat you in the time of evil and in the time of distress. ¹²Can one break iron, iron or bronze from the north? ¹³Your wealth and your treasures I will give for prey, not for price, but for all your sins, even in all your borders. ¹⁴And I will make you pass with your enemies into a land you do not know. For a fire has been kindled in My anger; it shall burn against you.

¹⁵O Jehovah, You know. Remember me and visit me, and take vengeance for me on those who seek to hurt me. Do not take me away in Your long-suffering; know that I bear reproach for You. ¹⁶Your words were found, and I ate them; and Your word was to me the joy and gladness of my heart; for I am called by Your name, O Jehovah, God of hosts. ¹⁷I did not sit in the circle of merry-makers, nor exult; I sat alone, because of Your hand; for You have filled me with indignation. ¹⁸Why has my pain been without end, and my wound incurable, refusing to be healed? You surely are to me like deceitful waters which cannot be trusted.

¹⁹So Jehovah says this: If you return, then I will bring you again; you shall stand before Me. And if you take the precious from the worthless, you shall be as My mouth. Let them turn back to you, but do not return to them. ²⁰And I will make you a fortified wall of bronze to this people. And they shall fight against you, but they shall not overcome you; for I am with you to save you and to deliver you, says Jehovah. ²¹And I will deliver you out of the hand of the wicked, and I will redeem you out of the hand of the evil ones.

¹The word of Jehovah came to me, saying, ²You shall not take a wife for yourself, nor shall you have sons or daughters in this place. ³For so says Jehovah concerning the sons and concerning the daughters who are born in this place, and concerning their mothers who bore them, and concerning their fathers who fathered them in this land: ⁴They shall die of deadly diseases; they shall not be mourned, nor shall they be buried; they shall be as dung on the face of the earth. And they shall be consumed by the sword and by famine; and their bodies shall be food for the birds of the heavens, and for the beasts of the earth. ⁵For so says Jehovah, Do not enter into the house of mourning; do not go to weep or moan for them. For I have taken away My peace with loving-kindness and compassions from this people, says Jehovah. ⁶Both the great and the small shall die in this land. They shall not be buried, nor shall men mourn for them, nor cut himself, nor make himself bald for them. ⁷Nor shall men break for them in mourning, to comfort him for the dead. Nor shall they give them the cup of comfort to drink for one's father or one's mother.

⁸Also, you shall not go into the house of feasting, to sit with them to eat and drink. ⁹For so says Jehovah of hosts, the God of Israel: Behold, I will cause to cease out of this place, before your eyes, and in your days, the voice of joy, and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom and the voice of the bride.

¹⁰And it shall be, when you declare to this people all these words, they will say to you, Why has Jehovah pronounced all this great evil against us? Or what is our iniquity, or what our sin that we have committed against Jehovah our God? ¹¹Then you shall say to them, Because your fathers have forsaken Me, says Jehovah, and have walked after other gods, and have served them, and have worshiped them, and have forsaken Me, and have not kept My law. ¹²And you have done more evil than your fathers. For, behold, you each one walk after the stubbornness of his evil heart, without listening to Me. ¹³And I will cast you out of this land, into a land that you do not know, you nor your fathers. And there you shall serve other gods day and night; where I will not grant you favor.

¹⁴So, behold, the days come, says Jehovah, that it shall no more be said, As Jehovah lives who brought up the sons of Israel out of the land of Egypt—¹⁵but rather, As Jehovah lives who brought up the sons of Israel from the land of the north, and from all the lands, there where He had driven them. And I will bring them again into their land that I gave to their fathers.

¹⁶Behold, I will send for many fishermen, says Jehovah, and they shall fish them. And after this I will send for many hunters, and they will hunt them, from every mountain, and from every hill, and out of the clefts of the rocks. ¹⁷For My eyes are on all their ways; they are not hidden from My face; their iniquity is not hidden from My eyes. ¹⁸And first I will twice repay their iniquity and their sin, because they have defiled My land with the bodies of their hateful things. Yea, their hateful idols have filled My inheritance. ¹⁹O Jehovah, my strength and my fortress, and my refuge in the day of affliction, the nations shall come to You from the ends of the earth, and say, Our fathers have inherited only lies, vanity, and there is no profit in them. ²⁰Can a man make gods to himself? But they are not gods! ²¹And, behold, I will make them know; this time I will cause them to know My hand and My might; and they shall know that My name is Jehovah.

¹The sin of Judah is engraved with an iron pen. It is carved on the tablet of their heart with the point of a diamond, and on the horns of your altars; ²*even* while their sons remember their altars and their Asherahs by the green trees on the high hills. ³O My mountain in the field! I will give your wealth, all your treasures, for prey; your high places for sin throughout all your borders. ⁴And you, even through yourself, will let drop from your inheritance which I gave you; and I will cause you to serve your enemies in a land which you do not know; for you have kindled a fire in My anger; it will burn forever.

⁵So says Jehovah, Cursed is the man who trusts in man, and who makes flesh his arm; and who turns aside his heart from Jehovah. ⁶For he shall be like a juniper in the desert, and shall not see when good comes. But he shall live in parched places in the wilderness, in a salt land that is not inhabited. ⁷Blessed is the man who trusts in Jehovah, and Jehovah is his trust. ⁸For he shall be like a tree planted by the waters; it sends out its roots by the stream, and will not fear when the heat comes; but its foliage will be green; and it is not anxious in the year of drouth; nor will it cease from yielding fruit.

⁹The heart is deceitful above all things, and it is incurable; who can know it? ¹⁰I, Jehovah, search the heart; I try the reins, even to give to each man according to his ways, according to the fruit of his doings.

¹¹As a partridge broods and does not hatch, so is he who makes riches, and not by right; it will leave him in the middle of his days, and in his end he will be a fool.

¹²A glorious high throne from the beginning is the place of our sanctuary. ¹³O Jehovah, the Hope of Israel, all who forsake You shall be ashamed. Those who depart from Me shall be written in the earth, because they have forsaken Jehovah, the Fountain of living waters.

¹⁴Heal me, O Jehovah, and I will be healed; save me, and I will be saved; for You are my praise.

¹⁵Behold, they say to me, Where is the word of Jehovah? Let it come now. ¹⁶And I have not hurried away from shepherding after You; nor have I desired the woeful day. You surely know that the utterance of my lips was before Your face. ¹⁷Do not be a terror to me; You are my refuge in the day of evil. ¹⁸Let those who persecute me be ashamed, but do not let me be ashamed. Let them be terrified; but do not let me be terrified. Bring on them the day of evil, and break them with double breaking.

¹⁹So said Jehovah to me, Go and stand in the gate of the sons of the people, that by which the kings of Judah come in, and by which they go out, and in all the gates of Jerusalem. ²⁰And say to them, Hear the word of Jehovah, kings of Judah, and all Judah, and all the residents of Jerusalem who enter in by these gates. ²¹So says Jehovah, Take heed for the sake of your lives, and do not carry a burden on the sabbath day, nor bring it in by the gates of Jerusalem. ²²And do not carry a burden from your houses on the sabbath day, nor do any work, but keep the sabbath day holy, as I commanded your fathers. ²³But they did not obey or bow down their ear, but they made their neck stiff, not to hear, nor to receive instruction.

²⁴And it shall be, if you carefully listen to me, says Jehovah, to bring in no burden through the gates of this city on the sabbath day, but keep the sabbath day holy, to do no work in it, ²⁵*even* kings and rulers sitting on the throne of David shall enter into the gates of this city, riding on chariots and on horses; they, and their rulers, the men of Judah, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem. And this city will be inhabited forever. ²⁶And they will come from the cities of Judah, and from the places about Jerusalem, and from the land of Benjamin, and from the lowland, and from the mountains, and from the south, bringing burnt offerings, and sacrifices, and grain offerings, and incense, and bringing sacrifices of thanksgiving to the house of Jehovah. ²⁷But if you will not listen to Me to keep the sabbath day holy, and not to carry a burden and enter at the gates of Jerusalem on the sabbath day, then I will kindle a fire in her gates. And it shall devour the palaces of Jerusalem; yea, it shall not be put out.

¹The word which was to Jeremiah from Jehovah, saying, ²Rise up and go down to the potter's house, and there I will cause you to hear My words. ³Then I went down to the potter's house, and behold, he was working a work on the wheel. ⁴And the vessel that he made in clay was ruined in the hand of the potter. So repeating he made it, another vessel, as it seemed good in the potter's eyes to make it. ⁵And the word of Jehovah was to me, saying, ⁶O house of Israel, can I not do to you as this potter? says Jehovah. Behold, as the clay in the potter's hand, so are you in My hand, O house of Israel. ⁷The instant I speak concerning a nation, and concerning a kingdom, to pluck up, or to break down, or to destroy; ⁸if that nation against whom I have spoken will turn from their evil, I will repent of the evil that I thought to do to it. ⁹And the instant I speak concerning a nation, and concerning a kingdom, to build and to plant it; ¹⁰if it does evil in My eye, not to obey My voice, then I will repent of the good which I had said to do good to it.

¹¹Now, then, please speak to the men of Judah, and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, saying, So says Jehovah, Behold, I am forming evil against you, and devising a plan against you. Now each one turn from his evil way, and make your ways and your doings good. ¹²And they say, It is hopeless. For we will walk after our own thoughts, and we will each one do according to the the stubbornness of his evil heart. ¹³So Jehovah says this: Ask now among the nations. Who has heard things like these? The virgin of Israel has done a very horrible thing. ¹⁴Does the snow of Lebanon cease from the rock of the field? Or are the cold flowing waters that come from another place uprooted? ¹⁵But My people have forgotten Me; they have burned incense to vain idols; and they have caused them to stumble in their ways, from the old paths, to walk in by-paths, not on the highway; ¹⁶to make their land a desolation, a hissing forever. Everyone who passes by will be amazed, and will shake his head. ¹⁷I will scatter them like an east wind before the enemy; I will show them the back, and not the face, in the day of their calamity.

¹⁸Then they said, Come and let us plot schemes against Jeremiah. For the law shall not perish from the priest, nor counsel from the wise, nor word from the prophet. Come and let us strike him with the tongue, and let us not listen to any of his words. ¹⁹O Jehovah, pay attention to me, and listen to the voice of my foes. ²⁰Should evil be repaid for good? For they have dug a pit for my soul. Remember, I stood before You to speak good concerning them, to turn Your wrath from them. ²¹So give their sons to the famine, and give them over to the hand of the sword. And let their wives be bereaved, and widows. And let their men be the slain of death, their young men those struck by the sword in battle. ²²Let a cry be heard from their houses when You suddenly bring a raiding party on them. For they have dug a pit to seize me, and have hidden snares for my feet. ²³Yet, O Jehovah, You know all their counsel to death against me. Do not atone for their iniquity, nor blot out their sin from Your face; but let them be those made to stumble before You; deal with them in the time of Your anger.

¹So says Jehovah, Go and buy a potter's earthen jar, and gather from the elders of the people, and from the elders of the priests. ²And go out to the valley of the son of Hinnom by the entry of Potsherd Gate. And there declare the words that I will speak to you. ³And say, Hear the word of Jehovah, O kings of Judah, and inhabitants of Jerusalem. So says Jehovah of hosts, the God of Israel: Behold, I will bring evil on this place by which all who hear it will have tingling ears. ⁴Because they have forsaken Me, and have profaned this place; and have burned incense in it to other gods whom neither they nor their fathers have known, nor the kings of Judah; and have filled this place with the blood of innocents. ⁵They have also built the high places of Baal, to burn their sons with fire for burnt offerings to Baal, which I never commanded nor spoke, nor did it come into My heart. ⁶So, behold, the days come, says Jehovah, that this place shall be no more called Tophet, or the valley of the son of Hinnom, but Valley of Slaughter. ⁷And I will make the counsel of Judah and Jerusalem come to nothing in this place. And I will cause them to fall by the sword before their enemies, and by the hand of those who seek their life. And I will give their dead bodies for food to the birds of the heavens, and for the animals of the earth. ⁸And I will make this city a waste and a hissing. Everyone who passes by shall be amazed and shall hiss because of all its plagues. ⁹And I will cause them to eat the flesh of their sons, and the flesh of their daughters; and they shall each one eat the flesh of his friend in the siege and distress with which their enemies and those who seek their life shall distress them. ¹⁰And you shall break the jar before the eyes of the men who go with you, ¹¹and shall say to them, So says Jehovah of hosts, Even so I will break this people and this city, as one breaks the potter's vessel that cannot be restored again. And they shall bury in Tophet, since no place is left to bury. ¹²I will do this to this place, says Jehovah, and to its inhabitants, and make this place as Tophet. ¹³And the houses of Jerusalem, and the houses of the kings of Judah, shall be defiled as the place of Tophet; because of all the roofs of the houses on which they have burned incense to all the host of the heavens, and have poured out drink offerings to other gods.

¹⁴Then Jeremiah came from Tophet, where Jehovah had sent him there to prophesy. And he stood in the court of the house of Jehovah, and he said to all the people, ¹⁵So says Jehovah of hosts, the God of Israel: Behold, I will bring to this city, and on all its towns, all the evil that I have spoken against it, because they have stiffened their necks in order not to hear My words.

¹When Pashur the son of Immer the priest —he also was chief officer in the house of Jehovah — heard Jeremiah prophesying these things, ²then Pashur struck Jeremiah the prophet, and put him in the stocks that were in the upper Benjamin Gate, which was by the house of Jehovah. ³And it was on the next day that Pashur released Jeremiah from the stocks. Then Jeremiah said to him, Jehovah has not called your name Pashur, but Terror from all around. ⁴For so says Jehovah, Behold, I will make you a terror to yourself, and to all your friends. And they shall fall by the sword of their enemies, and your eyes shall see. And I will give all Judah into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall exile them into Babylon, and kill them with the sword. ⁵And I will give all the wealth of this city, and all its produce, and all its precious things, and all the treasures of the kings of Judah, even I will give them into the hand of their enemies; who will strip them and take them, and carry them to Babylon. ⁶And you, Pashur, and all who live in your house, shall go into captivity. And you shall come to Babylon; and you shall die there; and you shall be buried there; you and all your friends to whom you have prophesied lies.

⁷O Jehovah, You have deceived me; yea, I was deceived. You are stronger than I, and You have prevailed. I am in derision all the day; everyone laughs at me. ⁸For whenever I speak, I cry out, I proclaim violence and ruin; for the word of Jehovah has been to me a reproach and derision all the day. ⁹And I said, I will not mention Him or speak any more in His name. But His word was in my heart like a burning fire shut up in my bones; and I was weary of holding in; and I could not prevail. ¹⁰For I heard the slanders of many, Terror is all around! Expose! Yea, let us expose him! Every man of my peace watched for my fall, saying, Perhaps he will be lured away, and we shall prevail against him; and we shall take revenge on him. ¹¹But Jehovah is with me like a mighty, awesome one. On account of this my persecutors shall stumble, and will not prevail. And they shall be greatly ashamed. For they have not acted wisely; they are an everlasting disgrace that will not be forgotten. ¹²But, O Jehovah of hosts, who tries the righteous, who sees the reins and the heart, let me see Your vengeance on them; for I have revealed my cause to You. ¹³Sing to Jehovah; praise Jehovah; for He has delivered the soul of the poor from the hand of evildoers.

¹⁴Cursed is the day in which I was born; let not the day in which my mother bore me be blessed. ¹⁵Cursed is the man who brought news to my father, saying, A man child is born to you; making him very glad. ¹⁶And let that man be as the cities which Jehovah overthrew, and did not repent. And let him hear a cry in the morning, and the shouting at noontime; ¹⁷because he did not kill me from the womb; and that my mother would have been my grave, and her womb always great with me. ¹⁸Why did I come forth from the womb to see toil and sorrow, and my days consumed in shame?

¹The word which was to Jeremiah from Jehovah, when king Zedekiah sent Pashur the son of Melchiah, and Zephaniah the son of Maaseiah the priest, to him, saying, ²I beg you, inquire of Jehovah for us. For Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon is warring against us. Perhaps Jehovah will deal with us according to all His wonderful works, that he may go up from us.

³Then Jeremiah said to them, You shall say this to Zedekiah, ⁴So says Jehovah, the God of Israel: Behold, I will turn back the weapons of war that are in your hand, with which you fight against the king of Babylon, and against the Chaldeans who besiege you outside the wall. And I will gather them together in the middle of the city. ⁵And I Myself will fight against you with an outstretched arm and with a strong arm, even in anger, and in fury, and in great wrath. ⁶And I will strike the people of this city, both man and beast. They shall die of a great plague. ⁷And afterward, says Jehovah, I will deliver Zedekiah king of Judah, and his servants, and the people, and those who remain in this city, from the plague, from the sword, and from the famine, into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon and into the hand of their enemies, and into the hand of those who seek their life. And he shall strike them with the mouth of the sword; he shall not spare them, nor have pity, nor have compassion.

⁸And you shall say to this people, So says Jehovah, Behold, I set before you the way of life, and the way of death. ⁹He who remains in this city shall die by the sword, and by the famine, and by the plague. But he who goes out and falls to the Chaldeans who are besieging you, he shall live; and his life shall be for a prize to him. ¹⁰For I have set My face against this city for evil, and not for good, says Jehovah. It shall be given into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall burn it with fire.

¹¹And concerning the house of the king of Judah, say, Hear the word of Jehovah, ¹²O house of David, so says Jehovah: Do justice in the morning, and deliver the plundered one out of the hand of the oppressor, that My fury not go out like fire, and burn so that none can put it out, because of the evil of your doings. ¹³Behold, I am against you, O dweller of the valley, rock of the plain, says Jehovah; those who say, Who can come down against us? Or who can enter our dwellings? ¹⁴But I will punish you according to the fruit of your doings, says Jehovah. And I will kindle a fire in its forest; and it shall devour all things around it.

¹So says Jehovah, Go down to the house of the king of Judah and speak this word there, ²and say, Hear the word of Jehovah, O king of Judah, who sits on the throne of David, you and your servants, and your people who enter in by these gates. ³So says Jehovah, Do justice and righteousness, and deliver the one robbed from the oppressor's hand. And do not oppress the alien, the widow, or the orphan, and do not do violence nor shed innocent blood in this place. ⁴For if you indeed do this thing, then there shall enter in by the gates of this house kings sitting on the throne of David, riding in chariots and on horses, he and his servants and his people. ⁵But if you will not hear these words, I swear by Myself, says Jehovah, that this house shall become a ruin. ⁶For so says Jehovah concerning the king of Judah's house, You are Gilead to Me, the head of Lebanon; yet surely I will make you a wilderness, cities not inhabited. ⁷And I will consecrate destroyers against you, each one with his weapons; and they will cut down your choice cedars, and make fall into the fire. ⁸And many nations shall pass by this city; and they shall each say to one another, Why has Jehovah done this to this great city? ⁹Then they will answer, Because they have forsaken the covenant of Jehovah their God, and worshipped other gods, and served them.

¹⁰Weep not for the dead, nor moan for him; weep bitterly for him who goes away, for he shall return no more, nor see the land of his birth. ¹¹For so says Jehovah concerning Shallum the son of Josiah king of Judah, who reigned in his father Josiah's place, who went forth from this place, he shall not return there any more.

¹²But he shall die there in the place where they have exiled him, and he will see this land no more.

¹³Woe to him who builds his house without righteousness, and his upper rooms without justice; his neighbor serves without pay, and he does not give him his work; ¹⁴who says, I will build myself a wide house and large upper rooms, and who cuts out windows for it, and covers with cedar, and paints with vermilion.

¹⁵Do you reign, because you lust to excel in cedar? Did not your father eat and drink and do justice and righteousness? Then it was well for him.

¹⁶He judged the cause of the poor and needy; then it was well. Was this not to know Me, says Jehovah?

²⁰Go up to Lebanon and cry. And lift up your voice in Bashan, and cry out from Abarim; for all your lovers are destroyed.

²¹I spoke to you in your ease; but you said, I will not hear. This has been your way from your youth, for you have not obeyed My voice. ²²The wind shall rule all your shepherds, and your lovers shall go into captivity. Surely then you will be ashamed and will blush for all your wickedness. ²³O dweller in Lebanon, nested in the cedars, how you will groan when pangs come to you, the pain as of a woman in labor! ²⁴As I live, says Jehovah, though Coniah the son of Jehoiakim king of Judah were the signet on My right hand, yet I would tear you out of there!

²⁵And I will give you into the hand of those who seek your life; and into the hand of those whose face you fear; even into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and into the hand of the Chaldeans. ²⁶And I will cast you and your mother who bore you into another country, there where you were not born; and there you shall die. ²⁷But concerning the land which they lift up with their soul, to return there, they shall not return there. ²⁸Is this man Coniah a despised, broken jar, or a vessel in which is no pleasure? Why are they hurled, he and his seed, and are cast into the land which they do not know? ²⁹O earth, earth, earth! Hear the word of Jehovah! ³⁰So says Jehovah, Write this man childless, a man who will not prosper in his days. For not one from his seed will succeed, a man sitting on the throne of David and ruling, any more in Judah.

¹Woe to shepherds who destroy and scatter the sheep of My pasture, says Jehovah. ²Because of this, so says Jehovah the God of Israel against the shepherds who shepherd My people: You have scattered My flock, and have driven them away, and have not visited them. Behold, I will visit on you the evil of your doings, says Jehovah. ³And I will gather the remnant of My flock out of all the lands where I have driven them there, and will bring them again to their fold. And they shall be fruitful and multiply. ⁴And I will raise up shepherds over them who will shepherd them. And they will fear no more, nor be terrified; nor will they be missing anything, says Jehovah.

⁵Behold, the days come, says Jehovah, that I will raise to David a righteous Branch, and a King shall reign and act wisely, and shall do justice and righteousness in the earth. ⁶In His days Judah shall be saved, and Israel shall dwell safely.

And this is His name by which He shall be called, Jehovah our Righteousness. ⁷Behold, so the days come, says Jehovah, that they shall no more say, As Jehovah lives, who brought the sons of Israel up out of the land of Egypt; ⁸but, As Jehovah lives, who brought up and led the seed of the house of Israel out of the land of the north, and from all the lands where I have driven them there. And they shall dwell on their own land.

⁹My heart within me is broken concerning the prophets; all my bones shake. I am like a drunken man, and like a man overcome by wine, because of Jehovah, and because of the words of His holiness.

¹³And I have seen frivolity among the prophets of Samaria; they prophesied by Baal, and caused My people Israel to go astray. ¹⁴I have also seen a horrible thing among the prophets of Jerusalem; they commit adultery and walk in falsehood. And they make the hands of evildoers strong, so that not a man returns from his evil. They are all of them like Sodom to Me, and her inhabitants are like Gornorah. ¹⁵So Jehovah of hosts says this concerning the prophets: Behold, I will feed them wormwood, and make them drink poisonous water; for ungodliness has gone forth from the prophets of Jerusalem into all the land. ¹⁶So says Jehovah of hosts, do not listen to the words of the prophets who prophesy to you; they make you vain; they speak a vision of their own heart, not out of the mouth of Jehovah.

¹⁷They say to those who despise Me, Jehovah has said, You shall have peace. And they say to everyone who walks in the stubbornness of his own heart, Evil shall not come on you. ¹⁸For who has stood in the counsel of Jehovah, and has seen and heard His word? Who has listened to His word, and heard? ¹⁹Behold, the tempest of Jehovah has gone forth in fury, even a whirling tempest. It will whirl on the head of the wicked. ²⁰The anger of Jehovah shall not turn back until He has executed, and until He has set up the purposes of His heart. In latter days you shall understand it perfectly. ²¹I have not sent the prophets, yet they ran; I have not spoken to them, yet they prophesied.

²²But if they had stood in My counsel, and had caused My people to hear My words, then they would have turned them from their evil way, and from the evil of their doings. ²³*Am* I a God near by, says Jehovah, and not a God from afar? ²⁴Or can anyone hide himself in secret places so that I do not see him, says Jehovah? Do I not fill Heaven and earth, says Jehovah?

²⁵I have heard what the prophets said, those who prophesy lies in My name, saying, I have dreamed, I have dreamed.

²⁶How long is this there in the heart of the prophets, the prophets of lies; yea, the prophets of the deceit of their own heart?

²⁸The prophet who has a dream, let him tell a dream. And he who has My word, let him speak My word faithfully. What has the straw to do with the grain, says Jehovah? ²⁹Is not My word thus like fire, says Jehovah, and like a hammer which breaks a rock in pieces? ³⁰Then, Jehovah says, Behold, I am against the prophets who steal My words, each one from his neighbor. ³¹Jehovah says, Behold, I am against the prophets who use their tongues and say, He says. ³²Jehovah says, Behold, I am against those who prophesy false dreams, and tell them, and cause My people to go astray by their lies, and by their frivolity. Yet I did not send them, nor command them. And they will not profit this people at all, says Jehovah.

³³And when this people, or the prophet, or a priest, shall ask you, saying, What is the burden of Jehovah? You shall then say to them, What burden? I will even forsake you, says Jehovah. ³⁴And the prophet, and the priest, and the people who shall say, The burden of Jehovah—I will even punish that man and his house. ³⁵So you shall say each one to his neighbor, and each one to his brother, What has Jehovah answered? And what has Jehovah spoken? ³⁶And you shall not mention the burden of Jehovah again; for each man's word shall be his burden. For you have perverted the words of the living God, of Jehovah of hosts, our God.

³⁷So you shall say to the prophet, What has Jehovah answered you? And what has Jehovah spoken? ³⁸But if you say, The burden of Jehovah, therefore so says Jehovah: Because you say this word, the burden of Jehovah; and I have sent to you saying, You shall not say, The burden of Jehovah; ³⁹therefore, behold, I, even I will utterly forget you, and I will cast off you and the city that I gave to you and your fathers, away from My face. ⁴⁰And I will bring an everlasting reproach on you, and never-ending shame, which shall not be forgotten.

¹Jehovah showed me, and, behold, two baskets of figs set before the temple of Jehovah, after Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon had exiled Jeconiah the son of Jehoiakim king of Judah, and the rulers of Judah, and the craftsmen, and the smiths from Jerusalem, and had brought them to Babylon. ²One basket had very good figs, like first-ripe figs. And the other basket had very bad figs which could not be eaten from their badness. ³And Jehovah said to me, What do you see, Jeremiah? And I said, Figs. The good figs are very good, and the bad are very bad, so that they cannot be eaten from their badness.

⁴Again the word of Jehovah came to me, saying, ⁵So says Jehovah, the God of Israel, Like these good figs, so I will acknowledge the exiles of Judah whom I have sent out of this place into the land of the Chaldeans for good. ⁶For I will set My eyes on them for good, and I will bring them again to this land. And I will build them and not tear down; and I will plant them, and will not pluck up. ⁷And I will give them a heart to know Me, that I am Jehovah. And they shall be My people, and I will be their God. For they shall return to Me with their whole heart.

⁸And like the bad figs which cannot be eaten from badness, so says Jehovah: So I shall make Zedekiah the king of Judah, and his rulers, and the remnant of Jerusalem who remain in this land, and those who dwell in the land of Egypt; ⁹I will even make them a horror among all the kingdoms of the earth for evil, for a reproach, and a proverb, a gibe, and a curse, there in all places where I will drive them. ¹⁰And I will send the sword, the famine, and the plague among them until they are destroyed from on the land that I gave to them and to their fathers.

¹The word that was to Jeremiah concerning all the people of Judah in the fourth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah. It was the first year of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon. ²*This* Jeremiah the prophet spoke to all the people of Judah and to all the residents of Jerusalem, saying, ³From the thirteenth year of Josiah the son of Amon, king of Judah, even to this day, this twenty-three years, the word of Jehovah has come to me, and I have spoken to you, rising up early and speaking; but you have not listened. ⁴And Jehovah has sent to you all His servants the prophets, rising early and sending, but you have not listened nor bowed your ear to hear, ⁵saying, Now turn each one from his evil way, and from the evil of your doings, and live on the land which Jehovah has given to you and to your fathers from forever even to forever. ⁶And do not go after other gods to serve them, and to worship them, and do not provoke Me to anger with the works of your hands; and I will do you no harm. ⁷Yet you have not listened to Me, says Jehovah, so that you might provoke Me to anger with the works of your hands; for harm to you.

⁸So Jehovah of hosts says this: Because you have not obeyed My words, ⁹behold, I will send and take all the families of the north, says Jehovah, and Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon, My servant; and I will bring them against this land, and against its inhabitants, and against all these nations all around. And I will completely destroy them, and make them a horror, and a hissing, and everlasting ruins. ¹⁰And I will take from them the voice of rejoicing, and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom, and the voice of the bride, the sound of the millstones, and the light of the lamp. ¹¹And this whole land shall be a waste and a horror; and these nations shall serve the king of Babylon seventy years.

¹²And it shall be, when seventy years are fulfilled, I will punish the king of Babylon and that nation, and the land of the Chaldeans, for their iniquity, says Jehovah; and I will make it everlasting ruins. ¹³And I will bring on that land all My words which I have spoken against it, all that is written in this book which Jeremiah has prophesied against all the nations. ¹⁴For many nations and great kings will lay service on them, even they. And I will repay them according to their deeds, and according to the work of their own hands.

¹⁵For so says Jehovah, the God of Israel, to me. Take the wine cup of this wrath from My hand, and cause all the nations to whom I shall send you to drink it. ¹⁶And they shall drink, and reel to and fro, and be maddened, because of the sword that I will send among them. ¹⁷Then I took the cup from Jehovah's hand, and made all the nations drink, those to whom Jehovah had sent me: ¹⁸Jerusalem, and the cities of Judah, and their kings, and their rulers, to make them a ruin, a horror, a hissing, and a curse, as it is this day; ¹⁹Pharaoh, king of Egypt, and his servants, and his rulers, and all his people; ²⁰and all the mixed people; and all the kings of the land of Uz; and all the kings of the land of the Philistines, and Ashkelon, and Gaza, and Ekron, and the remnant of Ashdod; ²¹Edom; and Moab; and the sons of Ammon; ²²and all the kings of Tyre; and all the kings of Sidon; and the coastal kings which are beyond the sea; ²³Dedan; and Tema; and Buz; and all who cut the corners of their beards; ²⁴and all the kings of Arabia; and all the kings of the mixed people who dwell in the desert; ²⁵and all the kings of Zimri; and all the kings of Elam; and all the kings of Media; ²⁶and all the kings of the north, far and near; each one to his brother; and all the kingdoms of the world which are on the face of the earth; and the king of Sheshach shall drink after them.

²⁷So you shall say to them, So says Jehovah of hosts, the God of Israel: Drink, and be drunk, and vomit, and fall, and do not rise up, because of the sword which I will send among you. ²⁸And it shall be, if they refuse to take the cup from your hand to drink, then you shall say to them, So says Jehovah of hosts, You shall certainly drink. ²⁹For, behold, I begin to bring evil on the city on which is called My name, and shall you be found entirely without guilt? You shall not be without guilt. For I will call for a sword on all the inhabitants of the earth, says Jehovah of hosts. ³⁰And now you prophesy against them all these words, and say to them, Jehovah shall roar from on high, and utter His voice from His holy habitation; He shall mightily roar over His dwelling place. He answers with a shout, like those who tread out the grapes, against all the inhabitants of the earth. ³¹A roaring will go to the ends of the earth; for Jehovah has a controversy with the nations. He will enter into judgment with all flesh; He will give the wicked to the sword, says Jehovah. ³²So says Jehovah of hosts, Behold, evil is going from nation to nation, and a great tempest shall be stirred up from the corners of the earth. ³³And the slain of Jehovah shall be at that day from one end of the earth even to the other end of the earth; they shall not be mourned, nor gathered, nor buried; they shall be as dung on the face of the earth.

³⁴Howl, O shepherds; and cry; and roll, O leaders of the flock. For the days of your slaughter and of your scatterings are fulfilled; and you shall fall like a desirable vessel. ³⁵And refuge has perished from the shepherds, and escape from the leaders of the flock. ³⁶The sound of the cry of the shepherds, and the howling from the leaders of the flock! For Jehovah is spoiling their pasture. ³⁷And the peaceful folds are devastated, because of the glow of the anger of Jehovah. ³⁸Like the young lion, He has left His den; for their land is a waste because of the oppressor's burning anger, and because of His glowing anger.

¹In the beginning of the reign of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah, this word came from Jehovah, saying, ²So says Jehovah, Stand in the court of the house of Jehovah and speak to all the cities of Judah which come to worship in the house of Jehovah, all the words that I command you to speak to them. Do not keep back a word. ³It may be that they will listen, and each man turn from his evil way, that I may repent of the evil which I plan to do to them because of the evil of their doings. ⁴And you shall say to them, So says Jehovah, If you will not listen to Me, to walk in My law which I have set before you, ⁵to listen to the words of My servants the prophets whom I am sending to you; even rising up early and sending—but you have not listened—⁶then I will make this house like Shiloh, and will make this city a curse to all the nations of the earth.

⁷And the priests and the prophets and all the people heard Jeremiah speaking these words in the house of Jehovah. ⁸And it happened when Jeremiah had made an end of speaking all that Jehovah had commanded him to speak to all the people, the priests and the prophets and all the people seized him, saying, You shall surely die. ⁹Why have you prophesied in the name of Jehovah, saying, This house shall be like Shiloh, and this city shall be wasted, without inhabitant? And all the people were gathered against Jeremiah in the house of Jehovah.

¹⁰When the rulers of Judah heard these things, then they came up from the king's house to the house of Jehovah. And they sat down in the entrance of the New Gate of Jehovah. ¹¹And the priests and the prophets spoke to the rulers, and to all the people, saying, Let a death sentence be for this man, for he has prophesied against this city, as you have heard with your ears.

¹²Then Jeremiah spoke to all the rulers and to all the people, saying, Jehovah sent me to prophesy against this house and against this city all the words that you have heard. ¹³So now make good your ways and your doings, and obey the voice of Jehovah your God; and Jehovah will repent toward the evil that He has spoken against you. ¹⁴As for me, behold, I am in your hands; do with me as seems good and right to you. ¹⁵But know for certain that if you put me to death, you shall surely bring innocent blood on yourselves, and on this city, and on its inhabitants. For truly Jehovah has sent me to you, to speak all these words in your ears.

¹⁶Then the rulers, and all the people, said to the priests and to the prophets, There is not a sentence of death for this man; for he has spoken to us in the name of Jehovah our God. ¹⁷Then some of the elders of the land rose up and spoke to all the assembly of the people, saying, ¹⁸Micah of Moresheth prophesied in the days of Hezekiah king of Judah. And he spoke to all the people of Judah, saying, So says Jehovah of hosts: Zion shall be plowed like a field, and Jerusalem shall become heaps, and the mountain of the house like the high places of a forest. ¹⁹Did Hezekiah king of Judah and all Judah indeed put him to death? Did he not fear Jehovah, and entreat the face of Jehovah; and did not Jehovah repent of the evil which He had spoken against them? So we are doing great evil against our souls.

²⁰And there was also a man who prophesied in the name of Jehovah, Urijah the son of Shemaiah of Kirjath-jearim, who prophesied against this city and against this land according to the words of Jeremiah. ²¹And when Jehoiakim the king, with all his mighty men, and all the rulers, heard his words, the king tried to put him to death. But Urijah heard, and he was afraid, and fled, and went to Egypt. ²²And Jehoiakim the king sent men to Egypt, Elnathan the son of Achbor, and men with him into Egypt. ²³And they brought Urijah out of Egypt, and brought him to Jehoiakim the king, who struck him with the sword, and threw his dead body into the graves of the sons of the people. ²⁴But the hand of Ahikam the son of Shaphan was with Jeremiah, that they should not give him into the hand of the people to put him to death.

¹²I also spoke to Zedekiah king of Judah according to all these words, saying, Bring your necks into the king of Babylon's yoke, and serve him and his people, and live. ¹³Why will you die, you and your people, by the sword, by the famine, and by the plague, as Jehovah has spoken against the nation that will not serve the king of Babylon? ¹⁴So then do not listen to the words of the prophets who speak to you, saying, You shall not serve the king of Babylon; for they prophesy a lie to you. ¹⁵For I have not sent them, says Jehovah. Yet they prophesy a lie in My name, so that I might drive you out, and that you might perish, you and the prophets who prophesy to you. ¹⁶Also I spoke to the priests and to all this people, saying, So says Jehovah, Do not listen to the words of your prophets who prophesy to you, saying, Behold, the vessels of the house of Jehovah shall now be quickly brought again from Babylon. For they prophesy a lie to you. ¹⁷Do not listen to them. Serve the king of Babylon, and live. Why should this city be a waste? ¹⁸But if they are prophets, and if the word of Jehovah is with them, let them now intercede with Jehovah of hosts that the vessels which are left in the house of Jehovah, and in the house of the king of Judah, and at Jerusalem, may not go to Babylon.

¹⁹For so says Jehovah of hosts concerning the pillars, and concerning the sea, and concerning the bases, and concerning the rest of the vessels which remain in this city, ²⁰which Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon did not take when he exiled Jeconiah the son of Jehoiakim king of Judah from Jerusalem to Babylon, and all the nobles of Judah and Jerusalem. ²¹For so says Jehovah of hosts, the God of Israel, concerning the vessels that remain in the house of Jehovah, and the house of the king of Judah, and Jerusalem: ²²They shall be carried to Babylon, and they shall be there until the day I visit them, says Jehovah. Then I will bring them up and give them back to this place.

¹And it happened in that year, in the beginning of the reign of Zedekiah king of Judah, in the fourth year, in the fifth month, Hananiah the son of Azur the prophet, of Gibeon, spoke to me in the house of Jehovah, for the eyes of the priests and of all the people, saying, ²So says Jehovah of hosts, the God of Israel, saying, I have broken the yoke of the king of Babylon. ³Within two years I will again bring into this place all the vessels of the house of Jehovah which Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon took away from this place and carried to Babylon. ⁴And I will bring again to this place Jeconiah the son of Jehoiakim king of Judah, with all the exiles of Judah who went into Babylon, says Jehovah. For I will break the yoke of the king of Babylon.

⁵Then the prophet Jeremiah said to the prophet Hananiah for the eyes of the priests, and for the eyes of all the people who stood in the house of Jehovah, ⁶even the prophet Jeremiah said, Amen! May Jehovah do so; may Jehovah confirm your words which you have prophesied, to bring again the vessels of the house of Jehovah, and all the exiles, from Babylon into this place. ⁷But hear now this word that I speak in your ears and in the ears of all the people: ⁸The prophets who have been before me and before you from antiquity prophesied against many lands and against great kingdoms; of war, and of evil, and of plague. ⁹As for the prophet who prophesies of peace, when the word of the prophet shall come to pass, the prophet shall be known as one whom Jehovah has truly sent him.

¹⁰Then Hananiah the prophet took the yoke from the prophet Jeremiah's neck and broke it. ¹¹And Hananiah spoke for the eyes of the people saying, So says Jehovah, Even so I will break the yoke of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon from the neck of all nations within the time of two years. And the prophet Jeremiah went his way.

¹²Then the word of Jehovah came to Jeremiah, after Hananiah the prophet had broken the yoke from the neck of the prophet Jeremiah, saying, ¹³Go and tell Hananiah, saying, So says Jehovah, You have broken yokes of wood, but you shall make instead of them yokes of iron. ¹⁴For so says Jehovah of hosts, the God of Israel: I have put a yoke of iron on the neck of all these nations to serve Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon. And they shall serve him. And I have given him the beasts of the field also.

¹⁵Then the prophet Jeremiah said to Hananiah the prophet, Hear now, Hananiah, Jehovah has not sent you, but you have made this people trust in a lie. ¹⁶So Jehovah says this, Behold, I send you away from the face of the earth. You shall die this year, because you have spoken apostasy against Jehovah. ¹⁷And Hananiah died the same year in the seventh month.

¹And these are the words of the letter that Jeremiah the prophet sent from Jerusalem to the rest of the elders of the exile, and to the priests, and to the prophets, and to all the people whom Nebuchadnezzar had exiled from Jerusalem to Babylon— ²after Jeconiah the king, and the queen-mother, and the eunuchs, the rulers of Judah and Jerusalem, and the craftsmen, and the smiths, had gone out from Jerusalem— ³*He sent* by the hand of Elasah the son of Shaphan, and Gemariah the son of Hilkiah, whom Zedekiah king of Judah sent to Babylon to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, saying, ⁴So says Jehovah of hosts, the God of Israel, to all the exiles whom I have caused to be exiled from Jerusalem to Babylon: ⁵Build houses, and live; and plant gardens, and eat their fruit; ⁶Take wives, and father sons and daughters. And take wives for your sons; and give your daughters to husbands, that they may bear sons and daughters, and multiply there, and do not become few. ⁷And seek the peace of the city there, where I have caused you to be exiled. And pray to Jehovah for it; for in its peace you shall have peace.

⁸For so says Jehovah of hosts, the God of Israel: Do not let your prophets and your fortune-tellers in your midst deceive you. And do not listen to your dreams which you dream. ⁹For they prophesy falsely to you in My name. I have not sent them, says Jehovah.

¹⁰For so says Jehovah, When according to My mouth seventy years have been fulfilled for Babylon, I will visit you and confirm My good word to you, to bring you back to this place. ¹¹For I know the purposes which I am planning for you, says Jehovah; purposes of peace, and not for evil; to give you a future and a hope. ¹²Then you shall call on Me, and you shall go and pray to Me, and I will listen to you. ¹³And you shall seek and find Me, when you search for Me with all your heart. ¹⁴And I will be found by you, says Jehovah. And I will turn away your captivity, and I will gather you from all the nations, and from all the places, there where I have driven you, says Jehovah. And I will bring you again into the place from which I sent you into exile from there.

¹⁵Because you have said, Jehovah has raised up for us prophets in Babylon — ¹⁶for so says Jehovah to the king who sits on the throne of David, and to all the people who live in this city, your brothers who have not gone out with you into exile—¹⁷so says Jehovah of hosts, Behold, I am sending on them the sword, the famine, and the plague, and will make them like worthless figs which cannot be eaten from badness. ¹⁸And I will pursue them with the sword, with the famine, and with the plague. And I will make them agitated to all the kingdoms of the earth, to be a curse, and a terror, and a hissing, and a reproach among all the nations, there where I have driven them. ¹⁹For they have not listened to My words, says Jehovah, which I sent to them by My servants the prophets, rising up early and sending; but you would not hear, says Jehovah.

²⁰And now you hear the word of Jehovah, all you exiles whom I have sent from Jerusalem to Babylon; ²¹so says Jehovah of hosts, the God of Israel concerning Ahab the son of Kolaiah, and concerning Zedekiah the son of Maaseiah, who prophesy a lie to you in My name: Behold, I will deliver them into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and he shall strike them before your eyes. ²²And a curse shall be taken up from them for all the exiles of Judah who are in Babylon, saying, May Jehovah make you like Zedekiah and like Ahab, whom the king of Babylon roasted in the fire, ²³because they have committed disgraceful folly in Israel, and have committed adultery with their neighbor's wives, and have spoken a lying word in My name, which I have not commanded them; for I am He who knows, and a witness, says Jehovah.

²⁴You shall also speak to Shemaiah the Nehelamite, saying, ²⁵So says Jehovah of hosts, the God of Israel, saying, Because you have sent letters in your name to all the people in Jerusalem, and to Zephaniah the son of Maaseiah the priest, and to all the priests, saying, ²⁶Jehovah has made you priest instead of Jehoiada the priest, to be officers in the house of Jehovah, over every madman who prophesies, that you should put him into the stocks and into the torture collar. ²⁷And now why have you not reproved Jeremiah of Anathoth, who prophesies to you? ²⁸On account of this he sent to us in Babylon, saying, This captivity is long; build houses and live; and plant gardens and eat their fruit. ²⁹And Zephaniah the priest read this letter in the ears of Jeremiah the prophet.

³⁰Then the word of Jehovah came to Jeremiah, saying, ³¹Send to all the exiles, saying, So says Jehovah concerning Shemaiah the Nehelamite: Because Shemaiah has prophesied to you, and I did not send him; and he caused you to trust in a lie; ³²therefore so says Jehovah, Behold, I will punish Shemaiah the Nehelamite and his seed. There shall not be to him a man living among this people; nor shall he behold the good which I shall do for My people, says Jehovah, because he has uttered rebellion against Jehovah.

¹The word that came to Jeremiah from Jehovah, saying, ²So speaks Jehovah, God of Israel, saying, Write for yourself all the words that I have spoken to you in a book. ³For, lo, the days come, says Jehovah, that I will turn the captivity of My people Israel and Judah, says Jehovah; and I will cause them to return to the land that I gave to their fathers, and they shall possess it.

⁴And these are the words that Jehovah spoke concerning Israel and concerning Judah: ⁵For so says Jehovah, We have heard a sound of trembling, of dread, and not of peace. ⁶Ask now and see whether a man is giving birth? Why do I see every man with his hands on his loins, like a woman in travail, and all faces are turned to paleness? ⁷Alas! For that day is great, for none is like it. And it is a time of Jacob's trouble. But he will be saved out of it. ⁸For it shall be in that day, says Jehovah of hosts, I will break his yoke from your neck, and I will burst your bonds. And strangers will not again enslave him; ⁹but they shall serve Jehovah their God, and David their King, whom I will raise up to them.

¹⁰And you, O My servant Jacob, do not fear, says Jehovah. Do not be terrified, O Israel. For, lo, I will save you from afar, and your seed from the land of their captivity. And Jacob shall return, and have quiet, and be untroubled, and no one will make him afraid. ¹¹For I am with you, says Jehovah, to save you. Though I make a full end among all nations where I have scattered you, yet I will not make a full end with you. But I will correct you justly, and I will not leave you unpunished.

¹²For so says Jehovah, Your break cannot be cured; your wound is grievous. ¹³There is no one to plead your cause, for your ulcer there are no healing medicines for you. ¹⁴All your lovers have forgotten you; they do not seek you. For I have wounded you with the wound of an enemy, with the chastisement of a cruel one; because of the greatness of your iniquity. Your sins are many; ¹⁵Why do you cry out over your crushing? Your pain is incurable, for the greatness of your iniquity; your sins are many; so I have done these things to you. ¹⁶Therefore, all those who devour you shall be devoured. And all your enemies, every one of them, shall go into captivity. And they who rob you shall be given for plunder; and all who strip you, I will give to be stripped. ¹⁷For I will give health back to you; and I will heal you of your wounds, says Jehovah; because they called you, Outcast; saying, This is Zion; no one is seeking for her.

¹⁸So says Jehovah, Behold I will turn the captivity of Jacob's tents and will have mercy on his dwelling places. And the city shall be built on her ruin-heap; and the palace shall remain on its own place.

¹⁹And out of them shall come thanksgiving, and the voice of those who are merry. And I will multiply them, and they shall not be few. I also will honor them, and they shall not be small. ²⁰Also, his sons shall be as before, and his assembly shall be established before Me; and I will punish all who oppress them. ²¹And his leader shall be from him, and his ruler shall come from among him. And I will cause him to draw near, and he shall approach Me. For who is he who pledged his heart to come near to Me, says Jehovah? ²²And you shall be My people; and I will be your God. ²³Behold, the tempest of Jehovah: fury goes forth; a sweeping tempest; it shall swirl on the head of the wicked. ²⁴The fierce anger of Jehovah shall not turn back until He has finished, and until He has fulfilled the intentions of His heart. In latter days you will understand it.

CHAPTER 31

¹At that time, says Jehovah, I will be the God of all the families of Israel, and they shall be My people. ²So says Jehovah, The people, the survivors of the sword, have found grace in the wilderness — Israel — when I will go to give rest to him. ³Jehovah has appeared to me from far away, saying, Yes, I have loved you with an everlasting love! On account of this with loving-kindness I have drawn you. ⁴Again I will build you, and you shall be built again, O virgin of Israel. You will again put on your tambourines, and go forth in the dance of those making merry. ⁵You shall yet plant vineyards on the mountains of Samaria, the planters shall plant, and shall treat them as common. ⁶For there shall be a day when the watchmen on Ephraim's hills shall call out, Arise and let us go up to Zion, to Jehovah our God. ⁷For so says Jehovah, Sing with gladness for Jacob, and shout among the chief of the nations. Cry out, give praise and say, O Jehovah, save Your people, the remnant of Israel. ⁸Behold I will bring them from the north country, and gather them from the corners of the earth. Among them the blind, and the lame, the pregnant one, and the travailing one together, a great company shall return here. ⁹They shall come with weeping, and I will lead them with prayers. I will cause them to walk by rivers of waters, in a right way; they will not stumble in it. For I am a father to Israel, and Ephraim is My firstborn.

¹⁰Hear the word of Jehovah, O nations, and declare in the coasts far away. And say, He who scattered Israel will gather him and keep him, as a shepherd his flock. ¹¹For Jehovah has redeemed Jacob, and ransomed him from the hand of the one stronger than he. ¹²And they shall come and sing in the height of Zion, and be radiant over the goodness of Jehovah, for grain, and for wine, and for oil, and for the sons of the flock and the herd. And their life shall be as a watered garden; and they shall not pine away any more at all. ¹³Then the virgin shall rejoice in the dance, both young men and elders together. For I will turn their mourning into joy, and will comfort them and make them rejoice from their sorrow. ¹⁴And I will fill the soul of the priests with fatness, and My people shall be satisfied with My goodness, says Jehovah.

¹⁵So says Jehovah, A voice was heard in Ramah, wailing, bitter weeping: Rachel weeping for her sons; she refuses to be comforted for her sons for they are not.

¹⁸I have surely heard Ephraim moaning over himself, saying, You have chastised me, and I was chastised, as a bull not broken in. Turn me, and I shall be turned; for You are Jehovah my God. ¹⁹For after I had turned away, I repented; and after I was taught, I slapped on my thigh. I was ashamed; yea, I even blushed, because I bore the disgrace of my youth. ²⁰Is Ephraim My dear son? Or is he a delightful child? For as often as I spoke against him, I earnestly remember him still. So My bowels groan for him; I will surely have pity on him, declares Jehovah.

²¹Set up roadmarks for yourself; make sign posts for yourself. Set your heart toward the highway, even the way you went. Turn again, O virgin of Israel; turn again to these cities of yours. ²²How long will you turn to and fro, O faithless daughter? For Jehovah has created a new thing in the land, a woman shall enclose a man. ²³So says Jehovah of hosts, the God of Israel: Again they will speak this word in the land of Judah, and in its cities, when I turn again their captivity, saying, Jehovah bless you, O home of righteousness, O holy mountain! ²⁴And Judah and all its cities shall live in it together, the farmers and those who travel with flocks. ²⁵For I satisfy the weary soul, and I have filled every sorrowful soul. ²⁶On this I awoke, and looked up; and my sleep was sweet to me.

²⁷Behold, the days come, says Jehovah, even I will sow the house of Israel and the house of Judah with the seed of man, and the seed of animal. ²⁸And it shall be, as I have watched over them to pluck up, and to break down, and to throw down, and to destroy, and to bring calamity; so I will watch over them to build, and to plant, says Jehovah. ²⁹In those days they shall not any more say, The fathers have eaten sour grapes, and the teeth of the sons are dull. ³⁰But every man will die in his iniquity. Every man who eats the sour grapes, his teeth will be dull.

³¹Behold, the days come, says Jehovah, that I will cut a new covenant with the house of Israel, and with the house of Judah, ³²not according to the covenant that I cut with their fathers in the day I took them by the hand to bring them out of the land of Egypt—which covenant of Mine they broke, although I was a husband to them, says Jehovah — ³³but this shall be the covenant that I will cut with the house of Israel: After those days, declares Jehovah, I will put My law in their inward parts, and I will write it on their hearts; and I will be their God, and they shall be My people. ³⁴And they shall no longer each man teach his neighbor, and each man his brother, saying, Know Jehovah. For they shall all know Me, from the least of them even to the greatest of them, declares Jehovah. For I will forgive their iniquity, and I will remember their sins no more.

³⁸Behold, the days come, says Jehovah, that the city will be built to Jehovah, from the Tower of Hananeel to the Corner Gate. ³⁹And the measuring line shall yet go before it to the hill Gareb, and shall go around to Goath. ⁴⁰And the whole valley of the dead bodies, and the ashes, and all the fields to the brook Kidron, to the corner of the Horse Gate east, shall be holy to Jehovah. It shall not be torn up, nor thrown down, any more forever.

¹The word which came to Jeremiah from Jehovah in the tenth year of Zedekiah king of Judah, which was the eighteenth year of Nebuchadnezzar. ²For then the king of Babylon's army was besieging Jerusalem. And Jeremiah the prophet was shut in the court of the guard, which was in the king of Judah's house. ³For Zedekiah king of Judah had shut him up, saying, Why do you prophesy and say, So says Jehovah, Behold, I will give this city into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he will take it. ⁴And Zedekiah king of Judah shall not escape out of the hand of the Chaldeans, but shall surely be delivered into the hand of the king of Babylon; and he will speak with him mouth to mouth, and will see his eyes with his eyes. ⁵And he shall lead Zedekiah into Babylon, and there he shall be until I visit him, says Jehovah. Though you fight with the Chaldeans, you shall not succeed.

⁶And Jeremiah said, The word of Jehovah was to me, saying, ⁷Behold, Hanameel the son of Shallum, your uncle, shall come to you, saying, Buy my field in Anathoth for yourself; for the right to redeem is yours, to buy it. ⁸So Hanameel, my uncle's son, came to me in the court of the guard, according to the word of Jehovah, and said to me, Please buy my field in Anathoth, which is in the land of Benjamin; for the right of inheritance is yours, and the right of redemption is yours. Buy it for yourself. Then I knew that this was the word of Jehovah. ⁹And I bought the field in Anathoth from my uncle's son, Hanameel, and weighed him the silver, seventeen shekels of silver. ¹⁰And I wrote it in the document, and sealed it, and called witnesses, and weighed the silver on the scales. ¹¹So I took the document of the purchase, that which was sealed according to the law and the statutes, and the open copy. ¹²And I gave the purchase document to Baruch the son of Neriah, the son of Maaseiah, before the eyes of my uncle's son Hanameel, and before the eyes of the witnesses who wrote in the purchase document before the eyes of all the Jews who sat in the court of the guard.

¹³And I commanded Baruch before their eyes, saying, ¹⁴So says Jehovah of hosts, the God of Israel: Take these books, the purchase document, the one sealed, and the open book, and put them in an earthen vessel so that they may stand many days. ¹⁵For so says Jehovah of hosts, the God of Israel: Houses and fields and vineyards will again be bought in this land.

¹⁶And after I gave the document of the purchase to Baruch the son of Neriah, I prayed to Jehovah, saying, ¹⁷Ah, Lord Jehovah! You have made the heavens and the earth by Your great power and Your outstretched arm; not any thing is too difficult for You; ¹⁸who acts with loving-kindness to thousands, and repays the iniquity of the fathers into the bosom of their sons after them. The great, the mighty God, Jehovah of hosts, is His name, ¹⁹great in counsel and mighty in work; for Your eyes are open on all the ways of the sons of men, to give to each man according to his ways, and according to the fruit of his doings. ²⁰For You have set signs and wonders in the land of Egypt until this day, and in Israel, and among men; and You have made a name for Yourself, as at this day. ²¹And You have brought Your people Israel out of the land of Egypt with signs, and with wonders, and with a strong hand, and with an outstretched arm, and with great terror. ²²And You have given them this land which You swore to their fathers, to give to them a land flowing with milk and honey.

²³And they came in and possessed it, but they did not obey Your voice, nor did they walk in Your law. They have not done all that You commanded them to do; so You have caused all this evil to meet them. ²⁴Behold, the siege-mounds have come to the city, to capture it. And the city is given into the hand of the Chaldeans who fight against it, because of the sword, and the famine, and the plague. And what You have spoken has happened. And, behold, You see it. ²⁵And You have said to me, O Lord Jehovah, Buy for yourself the field with silver, and call witnesses; for the city is given into the hand of the Chaldeans.

²⁶And the word of Jehovah was to Jeremiah, saying, ²⁷Behold, I am Jehovah, the God of all flesh. Is anything too difficult for Me? ²⁸So Jehovah says this: Behold, I will give this city into the hand of the Chaldeans, and into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar, king of Babylon, and he shall take it. ²⁹And the Chaldeans who fight against this city shall enter and set this city on fire, and burn it, with the houses where they offered incense on their roofs to Baal, and poured out drink offerings to other gods, to provoke Me to anger. ³⁰For the sons of Israel and the sons of Judah have only done evil in My eyes from their youth. For the sons of Israel have only provoked Me to anger with the work of their hands, declares Jehovah. ³¹For this city has been to Me a cause of My anger and My wrath from the day that they built it even to this day; that I should remove it from My face; ³²because of all the evil of the sons of Israel and of the sons of Judah which they have done to provoke Me to anger; they, their kings, their rulers, their priests, and their prophets, and the men of Judah, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem.

³³And they have turned the back to Me, and not the face; though I taught them, rising up early and teaching, yet they have not listened to receive instruction. ³⁴But they set their idols in the house on which

My name has been called, to defile it. ³⁵And they built the high places of Baal which are in the valley of the son of Hinnom, to cause their sons and their daughters to pass through the fire to Molech; which I did not command them, nor did it come into My heart, that they should do this detestable thing, to cause Judah to sin.

³⁶And so now Jehovah, God of Israel, says this concerning this city, of which you say, It is given into the hand of the king of Babylon by the sword, and by the famine, and by the plague; ³⁷Behold, I will gather them out of all the lands, there where I have driven them in My anger, and in My fury, and in great indignation. And I will bring them again to this place, and I will cause them to live in safety. ³⁸And they shall be My people, and I will be their God. ³⁹And I will give them one heart and one way, that they may fear Me all the days, for good to them and to their sons after them. ⁴⁰And I will cut an everlasting covenant with them, that I will not turn away from them, to do good to them. But I will put My fear in their heart, that they shall not depart from Me. ⁴¹And I will rejoice over them, to do good to them; and I will truly plant them in this land with all My heart and with all My soul. ⁴²For so says Jehovah: As I have brought this great evil on this people, so I will bring on them all the good that I am speaking to them. ⁴³And fields will be bought in this land, of which you say, It is a desolation, without man or beast; it has been given into the hand of the Chaldeans. ⁴⁴Men shall buy fields for silver, and write in a document, and seal it, and call witnesses in the land of Benjamin, and in the places around Jerusalem, and in the cities of Judah, and in the cities of the mountains, and in the cities of the lowland, and in the cities of the Negeb. For I will cause their captivity to return, says Jehovah.

¹And the word of Jehovah was to Jeremiah the second time, while he was still shut up in the court of the guard, saying,

²So says Jehovah the Maker of it, Jehovah who formed it in order to establish it; Jehovah is His name: ³Call to Me, and I will answer you and tell you great and inscrutable things; you do not know them. 'For so says Jehovah, the God of Israel, Concerning the houses of this city, and concerning the houses of the kings of Judah, which are torn down to defend against the siege-mounds, and against the sword, 'they come to fight with the Chaldeans, and to fill them with the dead bodies of men whom I have struck in My anger and in My wrath; and for whom I have hidden My face from this city, because of all their evil. 'Behold, I will bring health and healing to it, and I will heal them and will show them the abundance of peace and truth. 'And I will cause the captivity of Judah and the captivity of Israel to return, and will build them, as at the first. 'And I will cleanse them from all their iniquity which they have sinned against Me; and I will pardon all their iniquities which they have sinned against Me, and which they have rebelled against Me.

'And it shall be a name of joy to Me, a praise and a glory to all the nations of the earth, which shall hear all the good that I do for them. And they shall fear and tremble for all the goodness and for all the peace that I do for it. 'So says Jehovah, In this place which you say shall be a desert without man and without beast, in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem, that are desolate, without man, without inhabitant and without beast; 'There shall be heard again the voice of joy, and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom, and the voice of the bride, the voice of those saying, Praise Jehovah of hosts, for Jehovah is good, for His mercy endures forever; those who shall bring the sacrifice of thanksgiving into the house of Jehovah. For I will bring back the captivity of the land, as at the first, says Jehovah. 'So says Jehovah of hosts, Again in this place which is a waste without man or even beast, and in all its cities shall be a home of shepherds causing flocks to lie down. 'In the cities of the mountains, in the cities of the lowland, and in the cities of the Negeb, and in the land of Benjamin, and in the places around Jerusalem, and in the cities of Judah, the flocks shall pass again under the hands of him who tallies, says Jehovah. 'Behold, the days come, says Jehovah, that I will fulfill the good thing which I have promised to the house of Israel and to the house of Judah.

'In those days, and at that time, I will cause a Branch of righteousness to grow up to David. And He shall do judgment and righteousness in the land. 'In those days Judah shall be saved, and Jerusalem shall dwell in safety. And this is the name that shall be called on her: JEHOVAH OUR RIGHTEOUSNESS. 'For so says Jehovah, Not a man sitting on the throne of the house of Israel will be cut off to David. 'And for the Levitical priests, they shall not have a man cut off before Me to offer burnt offerings, and to kindle grain offerings, and to do sacrifice continually.

'And the word of Jehovah was to Jeremiah, saying, 'So says Jehovah, If you can break My covenant of the day, and My covenant of the night, and there should not be day and night in their time, 'then My covenant with My servant David may also be broken, that he should not have a son to reign on his throne; and with the Levitical priests, My ministers. 'As the host of the heavens cannot be numbered, nor the sand of the sea measured, so I will multiply the seed of My servant David, and the Levites who minister to Me. 'And the word of Jehovah was to Jeremiah, saying, 'Have you not observed what these people have spoken, saying, The two families that Jehovah has chosen, He has also rejected them? And they despise My people, no more to be a nation before them. 'So says Jehovah, If My covenant is not with day and night, and if I have not appointed the ordinances of the heavens and earth, 'then I also will reject the seed of Jacob, and My servant David, not to take of his seed to be rulers over the seed of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. For I will bring back their captivity, and have pity on them.

'The word which was to Jeremiah from Jehovah when Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon and all his army, and all the kingdoms of the earth—because his hand rules—and all the peoples fought against Jerusalem, and against all its cities, saying, ²So says Jehovah, the God of Israel: Go and speak to Zedekiah king of Judah, and tell him, So says Jehovah, Behold, I will give this city into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall burn it with fire. ³And you shall not escape out of his hand, but shall surely be captured and delivered into his hand. And your eyes shall behold the eyes of the king of Babylon, and he shall speak, his mouth with your mouth; and you shall go to Babylon. ⁴Yet hear the word of Jehovah, O Zedekiah king of Judah: So says Jehovah concerning you, You shall not die by the sword. ⁵You shall die in peace; and as the burnings of spices for your fathers, the former kings who were before you, so they shall burn spices for you, saying, Ah, lord! They will wail for you. For I have spoken the word, says Jehovah. ⁶And Jeremiah the prophet spoke all these words to Zedekiah king of Judah in Jerusalem, ⁷when the king of Babylon's army fought against Jerusalem and against all the cities of Judah that remained; against Lachish, and against Azekah; for these fortified cities remained of the cities of Judah.

⁸The word that was to Jeremiah from Jehovah after king Zedekiah had cut a covenant with all the people in Jerusalem, to proclaim liberty to them, ⁹that each man should release his male slave, and each man his slavegirl; if a Hebrew man or a Hebrew woman, to go free, that not any should enslave a Jew, a man, his brother among them. ¹⁰And all the rulers obeyed, and all the people who had entered into the covenant allowed them to go free, each man his male slave, and each man his slavegirl; so that not any should enslave among them any more; and they obeyed and let them go. ¹¹But afterward they turned and made return the male slaves and the slavegirls whom they sent away. And they subjected them for male slaves and for slavegirls. ¹²For this reason the word of Jehovah came to Jeremiah from Jehovah, saying, ¹³So says Jehovah, the God of Israel: I cut a covenant with your fathers in the day I brought them forth out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of slavery, saying, ¹⁴At the end of seven years each man should let go his brother who is a Hebrew, who has been sold to him. When he has served you six years, you shall let him go free from you. But your fathers did not listen to Me, nor bow down their ear. ¹⁵And you had turned today, and you did right in My eyes, to call for liberty, each man to his neighbor. And you cut a covenant before Me in the house on which is called My name. ¹⁶But you turned and profaned My name, and each man caused his slave, and each man his slavegirl to return whom you had sent away according to their desire. And you subjected them to be slaves and slavegirls to you. ¹⁷So Jehovah says this: You have not listened to Me, to call for liberty, each man to his brother, and each man to his neighbor. Behold, I call for freedom to you, says Jehovah: to the sword, to the plague, and to the famine. And I will cause you to be a horror to all the kingdoms of the earth. ¹⁸And I will give the men who have transgressed My covenant, who have not stood on the words of the covenant which they have cut with Me when they cut the calf in two, and passed between its parts; ¹⁹the rulers of Judah, and the rulers of Jerusalem, the eunuchs, and the priests, and all the people of the land who passed between the parts of the calf; ²⁰I will even give them into the hand of their enemies, and into the hand of those seeking their life. And their dead bodies shall be for food to the birds of the heavens, and to the beasts of the earth. ²¹And I will give Zedekiah king of Judah, and his rulers, into the hand of their enemies, and into the hand of those seeking their life, even into the hand of the king of Babylon's army that has withdrawn from you. ²²Behold, I will command and cause them to return to this city, says Jehovah. And they shall fight against it, and take it, and burn it with fire. And I will make the cities of Judah a ruin, without a soul to live in it.

them wine to drink. ⁷Then I took Jaazaniah the son of Jeremiah, the son of Habaz-ziniah, and his brothers, and all his sons, and the whole house of the Rechabites. ⁸And I brought them into the house of Jehovah, into the room of the sons of Hanan, the son of Igdaiah, a man of God, which was near the room of the rulers, above the room of Maaseiah the son of Shallum, the keeper of the threshold. ⁹And I set bowls and cups full of wine before the sons of the house of the Rechabites. And I said to them, Drink wine. ¹⁰But they said, We will not drink wine, for Jonadab, the son of Rechab our father, commanded us, saying, You shall not drink wine, you nor your sons forever. ¹¹And you shall not build a house, nor sow seed, nor plant a vineyard, nor shall there be anything to you; but all your days you shall live in tents, so that you may live many days on the face of the land where you are staying. ¹²And we have obeyed the voice of Jonadab, the son of Rechab our father, to all that he commanded us, to drink no wine all our days, we, our wives, our sons, and our daughters; ¹³nor to build houses for us for our dwelling; nor do we have a vineyard, or field, or seed; ¹⁴but we live in tents, and have obeyed and done according to all that Jonadab our father commanded us. ¹⁵But it happened when Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came up against the land, then we said, Come, and let us go to Jerusalem, because of the army of the Chaldeans, and because of the army of the Syrians. And we live in Jerusalem.

¹⁶Then the word of Jehovah was to Jeremiah, saying, ¹⁷So says Jehovah of hosts, the God of Israel: Go and tell the men of Judah and the people of Jerusalem, Will you not receive instruction, to listen to My words? says Jehovah. ¹⁸The words of Jonadab the son of Rechab, in which he commanded his sons not to drink wine, are done. And to this day they do not drink but obey their father's command. But I have spoken to you, rising early and speaking; and you did not listen to Me. ¹⁹I have also sent to you all My servants the prophets, rising up early and sending, saying, Each man now return from his evil way, and amend your doings, and do not go after other gods to serve them; and you shall live in the land which I have given to you and to your fathers. But you have not bowed your ear, nor listened to Me. ²⁰Because the sons of Jonadab, the son of Rechab, have stood on the command of their father which he gave them, but this people has not listened to Me, ²¹so Jehovah, God of hosts, the God of Israel, says this: Behold, I will bring on Judah and on all the people of Jerusalem all the evil that I have spoken against them; because I have spoken to them, but they did not listen. Yea, I have called to them, but they did not answer.

²²And Jeremiah said to the house of the Rechabites, So says Jehovah of hosts, the God of Israel: Because you have obeyed your father Jonadab's command, and have kept all his commands, and have done according to all that he has commanded you, ²³so Jehovah of hosts, the God of Israel, says this: Jonadab, the son of Rechab, shall not have a man cut off from standing before Me all the days.

¹And in the fourth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah, this word was to Jeremiah from Jehovah, saying, ²Take a roll of a book for yourself, and write in it all the words that I have spoken to you against Israel, and against Judah, and against all the nations, from the day I spoke to you, from the days of Josiah even to this day. ³It may be the house of Judah will hear all the evil which I plan to do to them, that they may each man turn from his evil way, and I may forgive their iniquity and their sin. ⁴Then Jeremiah called Baruch, the son of Neriah. And Baruch wrote from the mouth of Jeremiah, all the words of Jehovah that He had spoken to him, on a roll of a book. ⁵And Jeremiah commanded Baruch, saying, I am shut up; I cannot go to the house of Jehovah; ⁶so you go and read in the roll the words of Jehovah that you have written from my mouth, in the house of Jehovah, in the ears of the people on the fasting day. And also you shall read them in the ears of all Judah who come out from their cities. ⁷Perhaps their pleading will fall before Jehovah, and each man will turn from his evil way. For great is the anger and the wrath that Jehovah has spoken against this people.

⁸And Baruch, the son of Neriah, did according to all that Jeremiah the prophet commanded him, reading in the book the words of Jehovah in the house of Jehovah. ⁹And it happened in the fifth year of Jehoiakim, the son of Josiah, king of Judah, in the ninth month, they called a fast before Jehovah, to all the people of Jerusalem, and to all the people who came from the cities of Judah to Jerusalem. ¹⁰And Baruch read in the book the words of Jeremiah, in the house of Jehovah, in the room of Gemariah, the son of Shaphan the scribe, in the upper court, at the entrance to the New Gate of the house of Jehovah, in the ears of all the people.

¹¹When Micaiah, the son of Gemariah, the son of Shaphan, had heard all the words of Jehovah out of the book, ¹²then he went down into the king's house, into the scribe's room. And, behold, all the rulers were sitting there, Elishama the scribe, and Delaiah the son of Shemaiah, and Elnathan the son of Achbor, and Gemariah, the son of Shaphan, and Zedekiah, the son of Hananiah, and all the rulers. ¹³And Micaiah declared to them all the words that he had heard when Baruch read the book in the ears of the people. ¹⁴And all the rulers sent Jehudi, the son of Nethaniah, the son of Shelemiah, the son of Cushi, to Baruch, saying, Take the roll in your hand, which you have read in the ears of the people, and come. So Baruch, the son of Neriah, took the roll in his hand and came to them. ¹⁵And they said to him, Sit down now and read it in our ears. So Baruch read in their ears. ¹⁶And it happened, when they had heard all the words, they turned each man to his companion in fear. And they said to Baruch, We will surely tell all these words to the king. ¹⁷And they asked Baruch, saying, Tell us now, how did you write all these words? From his mouth? ¹⁸And Baruch said to them, He spoke all these words to me from his mouth, and I wrote with ink on the book. ¹⁹And the rulers said to Baruch, Go, hide yourselves, you and Jeremiah; and do not let any man know where you are.

²⁰And they went in to the king, into the court. But they laid up the roll in the room of Elishama the scribe. And they told all the words in the ear of the king. ²¹And the king sent Jehudi to take the roll. And he took it out of the room of Elishama the scribe. And Jehudi read it in the king's ears, and in the ears of all the rulers who stood beside the king. ²²And the king was sitting in the winter house in the ninth month, and with the burning fire-pan before him. ²³And it happened, when Jehudi had read three or four leaves, he cut it with the scribe's knife and threw it into the fire that was in the fire-pan, until all the roll was burned up in the fire that was in the fire-pan. ²⁴Yet the king and all his servants who heard these words were not afraid, nor did they tear their garments. ²⁵But Elnathan, and Delaiah, and Gemariah had pleaded with the king that he should not burn the roll, but he would not listen to them. ²⁶And the king commanded Jerahmeel, the son of Hammelech, and Seraiah, the son of Azriel, and Shelemiah, the son of Abdeel, to seize Baruch the scribe and Jeremiah the prophet. But Jehovah hid them.

²⁷Then the word of Jehovah was to Jeremiah, after the king had burned the roll, and the words which Baruch wrote from the mouth of Jeremiah, saying, ²⁸Take for yourself another roll, and write on it all the former words that were in the first roll, which Jehoiakim the king of Judah has burned. ²⁹And you shall say to Jehoiakim the king of Judah, So says Jehovah, You have burned this roll, saying, Why have you written on it, saying, The king of Babylon shall surely come and destroy this land, and shall cause man and beast to cease from there? ³⁰Therefore, so says Jehovah of Jehoiakim, king of Judah: There shall not be one to him to sit on the throne of David; and his dead body shall be cast out in the day to the heat, and in the night to the frost. ³¹And I will punish him and his seed and his servants for their sin. And I will bring on them, and on the people of Jerusalem, and on the men of Judah, all the evil that I have spoken against them. But they did not listen.

³²Then Jeremiah took another roll, and gave it to Baruch the scribe, the son of Neriah, who wrote in it from the mouth of Jeremiah, all the words of the book which Jehoiakim, king of Judah, had burned in the fire. And many words like them were added to them.

¹And king Zedekiah, the son of Josiah, reigned instead of Coniah, the son of Jehoiakim, whom Nebuchadnezzar, king of Babylon, made king in the land of Judah. ²But not he, nor his servants, nor the people of the land, listened to the words of Jehovah which He spoke by Jeremiah the prophet. ³And Zedekiah the king sent Jehucal, the son of Shelemiah, and Zephaniah, the son of Maaseiah the priest, to Jeremiah the prophet, saying, Pray now for us to Jehovah our God. ⁴And Jeremiah came in and went out among the people, for they had not put him into prison. ⁵And Pharaoh's army had come forth out of Egypt. And when the Chaldeans who besieged Jerusalem heard news of them, they departed from Jerusalem.

¹¹And it happened, when the army of the Chaldeans departed from Jerusalem because of Pharaoh's army, ¹²then Jeremiah went out of Jerusalem, to go into the land of Benjamin, to receive a portion from there in the midst of the people. ¹³And it happened, he being in the gate of Benjamin, a captain of the guard was there, and his name was Irijah, the son of Shelemiah, the son of Hananiah. And he seized

Jeremiah the prophet, saying, You are falling to the Chaldeans. ¹⁴And Jeremiah said, A lie! I am not falling to the Chaldeans. But he did not listen to him. And Irijah took Jeremiah and brought him to the rulers. ¹⁵And the rulers were angry with Jeremiah, and struck him, and put him in the house of binding, the house of Jonathan the scribe. For they had made it into a prison-house.

¹⁶When Jeremiah had gone into the house of the pit, and into the cells, then Jeremiah remained there many days. ¹⁷And Zedekiah the king sent and took him out. And the king asked him secretly in his house, and said, Is there word from Jehovah? And Jeremiah said, There is. For He said, You shall be delivered into the hand of the king of Babylon. ¹⁸And Jeremiah said to king Zedekiah, What have I sinned against you, or against your servants, or against this people, that you have put me into the prison-house? ¹⁹Where now are your prophets who prophesied to you, saying, The king of Babylon shall not come against you, or against this land? ²⁰And now hear, I beg you, O my lord the king; please let my plea fall before you, so that you do not make me return to the house of Jonathan the scribe, that I not die there. ²¹And Zedekiah the king commanded, and they committed Jeremiah into the court of the guard-house, and that they should give him a piece of bread out of the baker's street daily, until all the bread of the city was gone. And Jeremiah remained in the court of the guardhouse.

¹And Shephatiah the son of Mattan, and Gedeliah the son of Pashur, and Jucal, the son of Shelemiah, and Pashur, the son of Melchiah, heard the words that Jeremiah had spoken to all the people, saying, ²So says Jehovah, He who remains in this city shall die by the sword, by the famine, and by the plague. But he who goes forth to the Chaldeans shall live; and his life shall be a prize; and he shall live. ³So says Jehovah, This city shall surely be given into the hand of the king of Babylon's army, and he shall capture it. ⁴And the rulers said to the king, Please let this man be put to death. For in this way he weakens the hands of the men of war who remain in this city, and the hands of all the people, in speaking these words to them. For this man does not seek the peace of this people, but the evil. ⁵And Zedekiah the king said, Behold, he is in your hand. For the king cannot do anything against you. ⁶And they took Jeremiah and threw him into the pit of Malchiah, the king's son, which was in the court of the guardhouse. And they let Jeremiah down with ropes; but no water was in the pit, only mud. So Jeremiah sank into the mud.

⁷And Ebed-melech, the Ethiopian man, of the eunuchs which were in the king's house, heard that they had put Jeremiah into the pit — the king then sitting in the gate of Benjamin — ⁸Ebed-melech went out of the king's house and spoke to the king, saying, ⁹My lord the king, these men have done evil in all that they have done to Jeremiah the prophet, whom they have thrown into the pit. And he has died in his place because of the famine; for there is no more food in the city. ¹⁰And the king commanded Ebed-melech the Ethiopian, saying, Take in your hand thirty men from here, and lift Jeremiah the prophet out of the pit before he dies. ¹¹And Ebed-melech took the men in his hand and went into the king's house, to under the treasury. And he took from there worn-out clothes and worn-out rags and let them down by ropes into the pit to Jeremiah. ¹²And Ebed-Melech the Ethiopian said to Jeremiah, Now put these worn-out clothes and rags under the arm-pits of your hands, under the ropes. And Jeremiah did so. ¹³And they drew up Jeremiah with ropes and took him out of the pit. And Jeremiah dwelt in the court of the guard-house.

¹⁴And Zedekiah the king sent and took Jeremiah the prophet to him, into the third entrance that is in the house of Jehovah. And the king said to Jeremiah, I will ask you a thing; do not hide a thing from me. ¹⁵And Jeremiah said to Zedekiah, If I declare it to you, will you not surely put me to death? And if I counsel you, you will not listen to me. ¹⁶And Zedekiah the king swore secretly to Jeremiah, saying, As Jehovah lives, who made us this soul, I will not put you to death, nor will I give you into the hand of these men who seek your life. ¹⁷And Jeremiah said to Zedekiah, So says Jehovah, the God of hosts, the God of Israel: If going out you will go out to the princes of the king of Babylon, then your soul shall live, and this city shall not be burned with fire. And you and your house shall live. ¹⁸But if you will not go out to the princes of the king of Babylon, even this city shall be given into the hands of the Chaldeans, and they will burn it with fire. And you shall not escape out of their hand. ¹⁹And Zedekiah the king said to Jeremiah, I am afraid of the Jews who have fallen to the Chaldeans, lest they deliver me into their hand and they abuse me. ²⁰And Jeremiah said, They will not give. Please obey the voice of Jehovah which I am speaking to you, and it will be well with you and your soul will live. ²¹But if you refuse to go out, this is the word Jehovah has made me see: ²²Even, behold, all the women who are left in the house of the king of Judah shall be brought out to the princes of the king of Babylon. And they will say, The men of your peace have seduced you and have prevailed against you; your feet have sunk in the mire and they turned back. ²³And they shall bring out all your wives and your sons to the Chaldeans. And you shall not escape out of their hand, but shall be seized by the hand of the king of Babylon. And this city shall be burned with fire.

²⁴And Zedekiah said to Jeremiah, Let not a man know of these words, and you shall not die. ²⁵But if the rulers hear that I have talked with you, and they come to you and say to you, Now tell us what you said to the king; do not hide it from us and we will not put you to death; also, what did the king say to you? ²⁶Then you shall say to them, I was presenting my plea before the king, that he should not return me to the house of Jonathan to die there. ²⁷And all the rulers came to Jeremiah and asked him. And he told them according to all these words that the king had ordered. And they were silent with him; for the matter was not heard. ²⁸And Jeremiah dwelt in the court of the guard-house until the day Jerusalem was captured. And he was there when Jerusalem was captured.

¹¹And Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon commanded concerning Jeremiah by the hand of Nebuzar-adan the chief of the executioners, saying: ¹²Take him and set your eyes on him. But do not do anything evil to him. But do with him even as he shall say to you. ¹³And Nebuzar-adan the chief of the executioners, and Nebushasban the chief of the eunuchs, and Nergal-sharezer, Rab-mag and all the chiefs of the king of Babylon sent, ¹⁴even they sent and took Jeremiah out of the court of the guard-house. And they gave him to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, to cause him to go out to the house. And he lived among the people.

¹⁵And the word of Jehovah was to Jeremiah while he was shut up in the court of the guard-house, saying, ¹⁶Go and speak to Ebed-melech the Ethiopian, saying, So says Jehovah of hosts, the God of Israel: Behold, I am bringing My words on this city for evil, and not for good. And they shall be before you in that day. ¹⁷But I will deliver you in that day, states Jehovah —and you shall not be given into the hand of the men, of those whom you fear. ¹⁸For I will surely deliver you, and you shall not fall by the sword; but your life shall be a prize to you, because you have trusted in Me, states Jehovah.

¹The word which was to Jeremiah from Jehovah, after Nebuzar-adan the chief of the executioners had sent him from Ramah, when he had taken him — and he was bound in chains, among all the captives of Jerusalem and Judah being exiled to Babylon. ²And the chief of the executioners took Jeremiah and said to him, Jehovah your God has spoken this evil against this place. ³And Jehovah has brought it and has done according as He has spoken, — because you have sinned and have not obeyed His voice, even this thing has come upon you. ⁴And now behold! I set you free today from the chains which were on your hand. If it is good in your eyes to come with me into Babylon, come. And I will set my eye on you. But if it is evil in your eyes to come with me into Babylon, stay. Behold, all the land is before you, to go to the good and to the right in your eyes. Go there—⁵even while he had not yet returned. Or go back to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, whom the king of Babylon has appointed over the cities of Judah, and live with him among the people. Or to all that is right in your eyes to go, go. And the chief of the executioners gave him ration and a reward, and sent him away.

⁶And Jeremiah went to Gedaliah, the son of Ahikam, at Mizpah, and lived with him among the people remaining in the land.

⁷And when all the commanders of the army who were in the field, they and their men, heard that the king of Babylon had appointed Gedaliah, the son of Ahikam, over the land, and had appointed with him men, and women, and children, and of the poor of the land, of those who were not exiled to Babylon, ⁸then they came to Gedaliah, to Mizpah, even Ishmael, the son of Nethaniah, and Johanan, and Jonathan, the sons of Kareah; and Seraiah the son of Tanhumeth; and the sons of Ephai of Netopha; and Jezaniah, the son of the Maachathite; they and their men. ⁹And Gedaliah, the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, swore to them and to their men, saying, Do not fear to serve the Chaldeans. Live in the land, and serve the king of Babylon, and it shall be well with you. ¹⁰*As for me*, behold, I will live at Mizpah to stand before the Chaldeans who have come to us. But you go gather wine, and the harvest, and oil, and put them in your vessels, and live in your cities that you have taken.

¹¹And when all the Jews that were in Moab, and among the sons of Ammon, and in Edom, and in all the lands, heard that the king of Babylon had left a remnant of Judah, and that he had set over them Gedaliah, the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, ¹²even all the Jews returned out of all places where they were driven, and came to the land of Judah, to Gedaliah, to Mizpah, and gathered wine and the harvest in great abundance.

¹³And Johanan, the son of Kareah, and all the commanders of the army that were in the field, came to Gedaliah, to Mizpah.

¹⁴And they said to him, You certainly know that Baalis, the king of the sons of Ammon, has sent Ishmael, the son of Nethaniah, to strike your soul. But Gedaliah, the son of Ahikam, did not believe them. ¹⁵And Johanan, the son of Kareah, spoke to Gedaliah in Mizpah secretly, saying, Please let me go, and I will strike Ishmael, the son of Nethaniah, and a man shall not know. Why should he strike your soul, and all the Jews who are gathered to you be scattered; and the remnant of Judah perish? ¹⁶But Gedaliah, the son of Ahikam, said to Johanan, the son of Kareah, You shall not do this thing. For you speak falsely concerning Ishmael.

¹And it happened, in the seventh month Ishmael, the son of Nethaniah, the son of Elishama, of the royal seed, and of the chief ones of the king, and ten men with him, came to Gedaliah, the son of Ahikam, to Mizpah. And they ate bread together there in Mizpah. ²And Ishmael, the son of Nethaniah, rose up, and the ten men who were with him, and struck Gedaliah, the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, with the sword. And they killed him whom the king of Babylon had appointed over the land. ³Ishmael also struck all the Jews who were with him, with Gedaliah at Mizpah, and the Chaldeans who were found there, the men of war. ⁴And it happened, the second day after he had killed Gedaliah; and no one knew; ⁵men from Shechem came from Shiloh, and from Samaria, eighty men, having their beards shaved, and their clothes torn, and having cut themselves, and with offerings and incense in their hand, to bring to the house of Jehovah. ⁶And Ishmael, the son of Nethaniah, went out from Mizpah to meet them, walking as he walked and weeping. And it happened, as he met them, he said to them, Come to Gedaliah, the son of Ahikam. ⁷And when they came into the middle of the city, Ishmael, the son of Nethaniah, killed them, he and the men with him, throwing them into the middle of the pit.

⁸But ten men were found among them who said to Ishmael, Do not kill us, for we have treasures in the field, of wheat, and barley, and oil, and honey. So he held back, not killing them with their brothers. ⁹And the pit there, in which Ishmael had thrown all the dead bodies of the men, whom he had struck because of Gedaliah, was the one which Asa the king had made from the face of Baasha, king of Israel. Ishmael, the son of Nethaniah, filled it with the slain. ¹⁰And Ishmael took captive all the rest of the people who were in Mizpah, the king's daughters, and all the people who stayed in Mizpah, whom Nebuzar-adan, the chief of the executioners, had entrusted to Gedaliah, the son of Ahikam. And Ishmael, the son of Nethaniah, carried them away captive, and went to go over to the sons of Ammon.

¹¹But when Johanan, the son of Kareah, and all the army commanders with him, heard of all the evil that Ishmael, the son of Nethaniah, had done, ¹²then they took all the men and went to fight with Ishmael, the son of Nethaniah. And they found him by the great waters that are in Gibeon.

¹³And it happened when all the people who were with Ishmael saw Johanan, the son of Kareah, and all the army commanders with him, then they were glad. ¹⁴And all the people that Ishmael had taken captive from Mizpah turned around and came back, and went to Johanan, the son of Kareah. ¹⁵But Ishmael, the son of Nethaniah, escaped from Johanan with eight men, and went to the sons of Ammon.

¹⁶Then Johanan, the son of Kareah, and all the army commanders with him, took all the remnant of the people, whom he had recovered from Ishmael, the son of Nethaniah, from Mizpah — after he had killed Gedaliah, the son of Ahikam — mighty men of war, and the women, and the children, and the eunuchs, whom he had brought again from Gibeon. ¹⁷And they departed and lived in the inn of Chimham, which is by Bethlehem, to go to enter Egypt, ¹⁸because of the Chaldeans; for they were afraid of them, because Ishmael, the son of Nethaniah, had struck Gedaliah, the son of Ahikam, whom the king of Babylon had appointed in the land.

¹And all the army commanders, and Johanan, the son of Kareah, and Jezaniah, the son of Hoshaiah, and all the people, from the least even to the greatest, came near. ²And they said to Jeremiah the prophet, We beg you, let our plea fall before you; and pray for us to Jehovah your God, for all this remnant, for we are left but a few of many, as your eyes see us; ³that Jehovah your God may show us the way in which we may walk, and the thing that we may do. ⁴Then Jeremiah

the prophet said to them, I have heard. Behold, I will pray to Jehovah your God according to your words; and it shall be, all the word Jehovah shall answer, I will declare to you. I will not keep back a thing from you. ⁵And they said to Jeremiah, Let Jehovah be a true and faithful witness between us if not according to all things Jehovah your God shall send you to us, so we will do. ⁶Whether it is good, or whether evil, we will obey the voice of Jehovah your God, to whom we send you; so that it may be well with us when we obey the voice of Jehovah our God.

⁷And it happened, at the end of ten days the word of Jehovah was to Jeremiah. ⁸And he called Johanan, the son of Kareah, and all the army commanders with him, and all the people, from the least even to the greatest. ⁹And he said to them, So says Jehovah, the God of Israel, to whom you sent me to present your petition before Him: ¹⁰If you will still remain in this land, then I will build you up, and will not tear you down. And I will plant you, and will not pluck you up. For I repent as to the evil that I have done to you. ¹¹Do not be afraid of the king of Babylon, of whom you are afraid. Do not be afraid of his face, declares Jehovah; for I am with you to save you and to deliver you from his hand. ¹²And I will show mercies to you, so that he may have pity on you, and cause you to return to your own land.

¹³But if you say, We will not live in this land, or obey the voice of Jehovah your God, ¹⁴saying, No, but we will go into the land of Egypt, where we shall see no war or hear the sound of the ram's horn. And we will not hunger for bread, and there we will live. ¹⁵Then hear now the word of Jehovah, O remnant of Judah, So says Jehovah of hosts, the God of Israel: If you surely set your faces to go into Egypt, and go to live there, ¹⁶then it shall be, the sword which you feared shall overtake you there in the land of Egypt. And the famine which you were anxious about shall cling to you there in Egypt; and you shall die there. ¹⁷So it shall be to all the men who have set their faces to go into Egypt to reside there. They shall die by the sword, by the famine, and by the plague. And none of them shall remain or escape from the evil that I will bring on them. ¹⁸For so says Jehovah of hosts, the God of Israel, As My anger and My fury has flowed out upon the people of Jerusalem, so shall My fury flow out on you when you enter Egypt. And you shall be a curse, and a horror, and a shame, and a reproach; and you shall not see this place any more.

¹⁹Jehovah has spoken concerning you, O remnant of Judah. Do not go into Egypt. Know that I have surely testified against you today. ²⁰For you used deceit against your souls when you sent me to Jehovah your God, saying, Pray for us to Jehovah our God; and according to all that Jehovah our God shall say, so declare to us, and we will do it. ²¹And I have declared it to you this day; but you have not obeyed the voice of Jehovah your God, or anything for which He has sent me to you. ²²And now know certainly that you shall die by the sword, by the famine, and by the plague in the place where you desire to go to sojourn.

¹And it happened, when Jeremiah had finished speaking to all the people all the words of Jehovah their God, for which Jehovah their God had sent him to them—all these words— ²Azariah, the son of Hoshaiah, and Johanan, the son of Kareah, and all the proud men, then spoke, saying to Jeremiah, You speak falsely. Jehovah our God has not sent you to say, Do not go to Egypt, to sojourn there. ³But Baruch, the son of Neriah, sets you against us, to deliver us into the hand of the Chaldeans, that they might put us to death, or exile us to Babylon. ⁴And Johanan, the son of Kareah, and all the army commanders, and all the people, did not obey the voice of Jehovah, to live in the land of Judah. ⁵But Johanan, the son of Kareah, and all the army commanders, took all the remnant of Judah who had returned from all the nations where they had been driven, to sojourn in the land of Judah; ⁶men, women, and children, and the king's daughters, and every person that Nebuzar-adan, the chief of the executioners, had left with Gedaliah, the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan. Also they took Jeremiah the prophet, and Baruch, the son of Neriah. ⁷And they came into the land of Egypt, for they did not obey the voice of Jehovah. And they came to Tahpanhes.

⁸And the word of Jehovah was to Jeremiah in Tahpanhes, saying, ⁹Take great stones to your hand, and hide them in the mortar in the brickwork which is at the entrance to Pharaoh's house in Tahpanhes, in the sight of the men of Judah. ¹⁰And say to them, So says Jehovah of hosts, the God of Israel, Behold I will send and take Nebuchadnezzar, the king of Babylon, My servant, and will set his throne on these stones that I have hidden. And he shall spread his royal pavilion over them. ¹¹And when he comes, he shall strike the land of Egypt. And whoever is for death shall go to death; and whoever is for captivity, shall go into captivity; and whoever is for the sword, to the sword. ¹²And I will kindle a fire in the houses of the gods of Egypt. And he shall burn them, and take them captive. And he shall adorn himself with the land of Egypt, as a shepherd covers himself with his robe. And he shall go forth from there in peace. ¹³He shall also break the obelisks of The House of the Sun which is in the land of Egypt; and he shall burn the houses of the gods of the Egyptians with fire.

¹The word which was to Jeremiah concerning all the Jews who were living in the land of Egypt, those living at Migdol, and at Tahpanhes, and at Noph, and in the land of Pathros, saying, ²So says Jehovah of hosts, the God of Israel, You have seen all the evil that I have brought on Jerusalem, and on all the cities of Judah. And, behold! This day they are a ruin, and no one lives in them; ³because of the evil which they have done, by provoking Me to anger, by going to burn incense, by serving other gods that they did not know; they, you, nor your fathers. ⁴However, I sent to you all my servants the prophets, rising early and sending, saying, Oh, do not commit this abominable thing which I hate! ⁵But they did not listen, nor bow their ear, to turn from their evil, not to burn incense to other gods. ⁶For this reason My fury and My anger were poured out and was kindled in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem. And they are wasted and deserted as this day. ⁷And now so says Jehovah, the God of hosts, the God of Israel: Why do you commit great evil against your souls, to cut off from you man and woman, child and suckling, out of Judah, not leaving to yourselves a remnant; ⁸to provoke Me to wrath with the works of your hands, burning incense to other gods in the land of Egypt, there where you have gone to sojourn, that I might cut you off, and that you might be a curse and a reproach among all the nations of the earth? ⁹Have you forgotten the evilness of your fathers, and the evilness of the kings of Judah, and the evilness of his wives, and your own evilness, and the evilness of your wives, which they have done in the land of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem? ¹⁰They are not crushed to this day, nor have they feared, nor walked in My law, nor in My statutes which I have set before you and before your fathers.

¹¹So Jehovah of hosts the God of Israel says this: Behold, I will set My face against you for evil, and to cut off all Judah. ¹²And I will take the remnant of Judah who have set their faces to go into the land of Egypt, to reside there; and they shall all be consumed and fall in the land of Egypt. They shall be consumed by the sword, by the famine. They shall die, from the least even to the greatest, by the sword, and by the famine, and they shall be a curse, a horror, and a shame, and a reproach. ¹³For I will punish those who dwell in the land of Egypt, as I have punished Jerusalem, by the sword, by the famine, and by the plague; ¹⁴so that none of the remnant of Judah which has gone into the land of Egypt, to reside there, will be an escaped one, or a survivor; or return to the land of Judah to which they are lifting up their soul, to return to live there. For not one shall return, except those who escape.

and all the women who stood by, a great assembly, even all the people who lived in the land of Egypt, in Pathros, answered Jeremiah, saying, ¹⁶*As for* the word that you have spoken to us in the name of Jehovah, we will not listen to you. ¹⁷But we will certainly do whatever thing goes out of our own mouth to burn incense to the queen of heaven, and to pour out drink offerings to her, as we have done, we and our fathers, our kings, and our rulers, in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem. And we had plenty of food, and were well, and saw no evil. ¹⁸But when we stopped burning incense to the queen of heaven, and pouring out drink offerings to her, we have lacked all things, and have been devoured by the sword and by the famine. ¹⁹And when we burned incense to the queen of heaven, and poured out drink offerings to her, did we make her cakes to worship her, and pour out drink offerings to her, without our men?

²⁰Then Jeremiah said to all the people; to the men, and to the women, and to all the people who were answering: ²¹The incense that you burned in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem, you, and your fathers, your kings, and your rulers, and the people of the land, did not Jehovah remember them? Yea, it came into His heart. ²²And Jehovah could no longer bear because of the evil of your doings, because of the detestable things you have committed. For this reason your land is a waste, and a horror, and a curse, without inhabitant, as this day. ²³Because you have burned incense, and because you have sinned against Jehovah, and have not obeyed the voice of Jehovah, in His law, or in His statutes; and because you did not walk in His testimonies; therefore this evil has happened to you, as at this day.

²⁴Jeremiah also said to all the people, and to all the women, Hear the word of Jehovah, all Judah in the land of Egypt; ²⁵so says Jehovah of hosts, the God of Israel, saying: You and your wives have both spoken with your mouths, and fulfilled with your hands, saying, We will surely fulfill our vows that we have vowed, to burn incense to the queen of heaven, and to pour out drink offerings to her. You certainly do perform your vows, and certainly make stand your vows. ²⁶So hear the word of Jehovah, all Judah who reside in the land of Egypt: Behold, I have sworn by My great name, says Jehovah, that My name shall no more be named in the mouth of any man of Judah in all the land of Egypt, saying, The Lord Jehovah lives. ²⁷Behold, I will watch over them for evil, and not for good; and all the men of Judah in the land of Egypt shall be destroyed by the sword, and by the famine, until they come to an end. ²⁸And he who escapes the sword shall return out of the land of Egypt to the land of Judah, few in number. And all the remnant of Judah who have gone into the land of Egypt, to reside there, shall know whose word shall stand, theirs or Mine.

²⁹And this shall be a sign to you, says Jehovah, that I will punish you in this place, so that you may know that My words shall surely stand against you for evil: ³⁰So says Jehovah, Behold, I am giving Pharaoh-hophra, king of Egypt, into the hand of his enemies, and into the hand of those who seek his soul, even as I gave Zedekiah, king of Judah, into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar, the king of Babylon, his enemy that sought his soul.

¹The word that Jeremiah the prophet spoke to Baruch, the son of Neriah, when he had written these words in a writing from the mouth of Jeremiah, in the fourth year of Jehoiakim, the son of Josiah, king of Judah, saying, ²So says Jehovah, the God of Israel, to you, O Baruch: ³You said, Woe is me now, for Jehovah has added grief to my pain; I fainted in my sighing, and I find no rest.

⁴So you shall say to him, Jehovah says this: Behold, I am tearing down what I have built; and I am pulling up what I have planted, even all the land itself to Me. ⁵And do you seek great things for yourself? Do not seek them. For, behold, I will bring evil on all flesh, declares Jehovah. But I will give your soul to you for a prize, there on all the places where you go.

¹The word of Jehovah which was to Jeremiah the prophet against the nations; ²against Egypt; against the army of Pharaoh-necho, king of Egypt, which was by the river Euphrates in Carchemish, which Nebuchadnezzar, the king of Babylon, struck in the fourth year of Jehoiakim, the son of Josiah, king of Judah: ³Set in order the buckler and shield, and draw near to battle. ⁴Harness the horses, and get up, O horsemen. Yea, stand with helmets, polish the spears, put on coats of mail. ⁵Why have I seen? They are afraid and turned backward. And their mighty ones are beaten down, and have fled for refuge, and do not look back. Terror is all around, says Jehovah. ⁶Do not let the swift flee away, nor the mighty man escape. They stumbled and fell to the north, by the side of the river Euphrates. ⁷Who is this rising up like the Nile, whose waters surge about like the rivers? ⁸Egypt rises up like the Nile, and his waters surge about like the rivers. And he says, I will go up and will cover the earth; I will destroy the city and its people. ⁹Come up, horses; and rage, chariots! And let the mighty men come forth, the Ethiopians and the Libyans who handle the shield; and the Lydians who handle and tread the bow. ¹⁰For this is the day of the Lord Jehovah of hosts, a day of vengeance, that He may avenge Himself of His foes. And the sword shall devour, and be sated, and made drunk with their blood, for a sacrifice is to the Lord Jehovah of hosts in the north country by the river Euphrates. ¹¹Go up into Gilead and take balm, O virgin daughter of Egypt; in vain you shall use many remedies; healing is not for you. ¹²The nations have heard of your shame, and your cry has filled the land. For the mighty man has stumbled against the mighty; they have fallen together, both of them.

¹³The word that Jehovah spoke to Jeremiah the prophet, of the coming of Nebuchadnezzar, the king of Babylon, to strike the land of Egypt. ¹⁴Declare it in Egypt, and make it heard in Migdol, and make it heard in Noph and in Tahpanhes; say, Stand fast and get yourself ready, for the sword shall devour all around you. ¹⁵Why is your mighty one swept away? He did not stand because Jehovah thrust him down. ¹⁶He made many stumble; yea, one fell on his neighbor. And they said, Arise, and let us go again to our own people, and to the land of our birth, away from the oppressing sword. ¹⁷They cried there, Pharaoh, king of Egypt, is a noise; he has passed the chosen time. ¹⁸*As* I live, says the King whose name is Jehovah of hosts, Surely as Tabor is among the mountains, and as Carmel is by the sea, he shall come. ¹⁹O daughter dwelling in Egypt, get ready to go into captivity. For Noph shall be a waste, and set afire, without inhabitant. ²⁰Egypt is a beautiful heifer, but a stinger surely comes out of the north. ²¹Also her hired ones are in the midst of her like calves of the stall; for they also have turned back, fleeing together. They did not stand because the day of their calamity had come on them, the time of their punishment. ²²Its sound is like a serpent's going, for they shall go in force, and come against her with axes, like woodcutters. ²³They have cut down her forest, says Jehovah, though it cannot be searched; because they are more than the locusts, and there is no number to them. ²⁴The daughter of Egypt shall be ashamed. She shall be delivered into the hand of the people of the north. ²⁵Jehovah of hosts, the God of Israel, says, Behold, I am punishing the multitudes of No, and Pharaoh, and Egypt, with her gods and her kings, even Pharaoh and those who trust in him. ²⁶And I will deliver them into the hand of those who seek their lives, and into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar, the king of Babylon, and into the hand of his servants. And afterward it will be peopled, as in the days of old, declares Jehovah.

²⁷But you, do not fear, O My servant Jacob; and do not be afraid, O Israel. For, behold, I am saving you from afar off, and your seed from the land of their exile. And Jacob shall return and be in rest and at ease, and none shall make afraid. ²⁸You shall not fear, O Jacob My servant, says Jehovah, for I am with you. For I will make a full end of all the nations there where I have driven you. But I will not make a full end of you, but I will correct you justly, and by no means will I leave you unpunished.

¹The word of Jehovah that was to Jeremiah the prophet against the Philistines, before Pharaoh struck Gaza. ²So says Jehovah, Behold, waters rise up out of the north, and shall become an overflowing torrent. And it shall overflow the land and all its fullness; the city, and those who dwell in it. Then the men shall cry, and all the people of the land shall wail. ³At the noise of the stamping of the hooves of his strong horses, at the rushing of his chariots, the rumbling of his wheels, the fathers shall not look back to their sons, because of feebleness of hands; ⁴because of the day that comes to destroy all the Philistines; to cut off from Tyre and Sidon every survivor who helps. For Jehovah will plunder the Philistines, the rest of the coast of Caphtor. ⁵Baldness has come on Gaza; Ashkelon is ruined. O remnant of their valley, until when will you cut off yourself? ⁶O sword of Jehovah, until when will you not be quiet? Put yourself into your sheath; rest, and be still. ⁷How can you be quiet, since Jehovah has given it a command? He has set it there against Ashkelon, and against the seashore.

¹So says Jehovah of hosts, the God of Israel, against Moab: Woe to Nebo, for it is ravaged! Kiriathaim is put to shame and captured. The fortress is put to shame and razed. ²Moab shall not still be praised. In Heshbon they have plotted evil against it, saying, Come and let us cut it off as a nation. And you shall be silenced, O madmen; a sword will go after you. ³A voice of crying from Horonaim; plundering and great ruin! ⁴Moab is broken up; her little ones have caused a cry to be heard. ⁵For in the ascent to Luhith, they shall go up with great weeping. For in the descent to Horonaim, the enemies have heard a cry of ruin. ⁶Flee! Save your lives, and be like a naked thing in the wilderness.

⁷For because you have trusted in your works, and in your treasures, you shall also be captured. And Chemosh shall go into exile; both his priests and his rulers. ⁸And a plunderer shall come on every city, and no city shall escape. Also the valley shall perish, and the plain shall be destroyed, as Jehovah has spoken. ⁹Give wings to Moab, for it will fly away; and its cities shall be a desert, without an inhabitant in them. ¹⁰Cursed is he who does the work of Jehovah deceitfully; and cursed is he who keeps back his sword from blood. ¹¹Moab has been at ease from his youth; and he has settled on his lees and has not been emptied from vessel to vessel. He has not gone into captivity. So his taste remains in him, and his scent is not changed. ¹²So, behold, the days come, declares Jehovah, that I will send pourers to him, who shall pour him off, and shall empty his vessels, and break their jars in pieces. ¹³And Moab shall be ashamed of Chemosh, as the house of Israel was ashamed of their confidence in Bethel. ¹⁴How do you say, We are mighty and strong men for war? ¹⁵Moab is ravaged, and her cities have come up. And his chosen young men have gone down to the slaughter, says the King whose name is Jehovah of hosts

²⁶Make him drunk, for he magnified himself against Jehovah. Moab also shall wallow in his vomit, and he also shall be a mockery. ²⁷For was not Israel a mockery to you? Was he found among thieves? For ever since you spoke of him, you skipped for joy. ²⁸Dwellers of Moab, leave the cities, and live in the rock, and be like the dove who makes her nest in the sides of the mouth of the pit. ²⁹We have heard the pride of Moab; he is exceeding proud; His loftiness, and his pride, and his arrogance, and his elevated heart. ³⁰I have known, declares Jehovah, his wrath; and it is not so; his boast, they have not done so. ³¹On account of this I will wail for Moab, and I will cry out for all Moab; and he shall mourn for the men of Kirheres.

³²O vine of Sibmah, I will weep for you more than the weeping of Jazer. Your plants have crossed the sea; they reach to the sea of Jazer. A ravager has fallen on your harvest, and on your grape crop. ³³And joy and gladness is taken from the plentiful field, and from the land of Moab. And I have caused wine to cease from the winepresses; none shall tread the grapes with shouting; their shouting shall be no shouting. ³⁴From the city of Heshbon to Elealeh, to Jahaz, they have given their voice; from Zoar to Horonaim, like a heifer three years old; for the waters of Nimrim also shall be desolate. ³⁵Also I will cause him who offers in the high places to cease in Moab, says Jehovah; and he who burns incense to his gods. ³⁶On account of this my heart shall mourn for Moab, like flutes; and my heart shall sound like flutes for the men of Kirheres, because the riches that he has gotten have perished. ³⁷For every head shall be bald, and every beard clipped. On all the hands shall be cuttings, and sackcloth on the loins. ³⁸On all Moab's housetops, and in its streets, is wailing for all. For I have broken Moab like a vessel; no pleasure is in it, says Jehovah. ³⁹They shall howl, saying, How it is broken down! How has Moab turned his back in shame! So Moab shall be a mockery, and a terror to all those around him. ⁴⁰For so says Jehovah: Behold, he shall fly like an eagle, and shall spread his wings toward Moab. ⁴¹Kerieth is captured, and the strongholds are seized; and the mighty men's hearts in Moab shall be at that day like the heart of a woman in her pangs. ⁴²And Moab shall be destroyed from being a people, because he has magnified himself against Jehovah. ⁴³Fear, and the pit, and the snare, shall be on you, O dweller of Moab, declares Jehovah. ⁴⁴He who flees from the dread shall fall into the pit. And he who gets up out of the pit shall be taken in the snare. For I will bring it on Moab, the year of their punishment, declares Jehovah.

⁴⁷But I will restore the prisoners of Moab in the end of the days, declares Jehovah. So far is the judgment of Moab.

¹So says Jehovah to the sons of Ammon: Has Israel no sons? Or has he no heir? Why does their king inherit Gad, and his people dwell in its cities? ²So, behold, the days come, declares Jehovah, that I will cause a shout of war to be heard in Rabbah of the sons of Ammon. And it shall be a heap, a ruin; and her daughter-villages shall be burned with fire. Then Israel shall inherit his inheritance, says Jehovah. ³Wail, O Heshbon, for Ai is spoiled! Cry, daughters of Rabbah; gird yourselves with sackcloth; mourn; and run to and fro in the walls. For their king shall go into exile, his priests and his rulers together. ⁴Why do you glory in your valleys, your flowing valley, O backsliding daughter? She trusted in her treasures, saying, Who shall come to me? ⁵Behold, I will bring a dread on you, declares Jehovah of hosts, from all those who are around you. And you shall be driven out, each man before him. And there shall be none to gather up the runaways. ⁶And after this I will bring again the prisoners of the sons of Ammon, declares Jehovah.

⁷So says Jehovah of hosts concerning Edom: Is wisdom no more in Teman? Has counsel perished from the prudent? Has their wisdom vanished? ⁸Flee, turn back, go deep to dwell, O people of Dedan. For I will bring the calamity of Esau on him in the time I will visit him. ⁹If the grape gatherers come to you, would they not leave gleanings? If thieves come by night, will they ruin more than enough for them? ¹⁰But I have stripped Esau; I have uncovered his secret places, and he shall not be able to hide himself. His seed is ravaged, also his brothers and his neighbors; and he is not.

¹¹Leave your orphans; I will keep them alive; and let your widows trust in Me. ¹²For so says Jehovah: Behold, those whose judgment was not to drink of the cup have surely drunk. And are you to be entirely acquitted? You shall not be acquitted, but you shall surely drink. ¹³For I have sworn by Myself, declares Jehovah, that Bozrah shall become a ruin, a reproach, a waste, and a curse. And all its cities shall be wastes forever. ¹⁴I have heard a message from Jehovah, and a herald is sent to the nations: Gather together and come against her, and rise up to the battle. ¹⁵For, behold, I will make you small among the nations, despised among men. ¹⁶Your fearfulness has deceived you, the pride of your heart, you who live in the clefts of the rock, who hold the height of the hill. Though you should make your nest as high as the eagle, I will bring you down from there, declares Jehovah. ¹⁷And Edom shall be a ruin; everyone who goes by it shall be amazed, and shall hiss at all its plagues. ¹⁸As in the overthrow of Sodom and Gomorrah, and its neighbor, declares Jehovah, no man shall remain there; a son of man shall not live in it.

¹⁹Behold, he shall come up like a lion from the swelling of Jordan against the home of the strong. But I will suddenly make him run away from it. And who is the chosen one I shall appoint over it? For who is like Me? And who will summon Me? And who then is a shepherd who will stand before Me? ²⁰So then, hear the counsel of Jehovah which He has planned against Edom, and His purposes which

He has purposed against the inhabitants of Teman: Surely they shall drag them, the least of the flock. Surely He shall make their pastures desolate over them.

²¹The earth is shaken at the noise of their fall. When they cried, the noise of it was heard in the Red Sea. ²²Behold, he shall come up and fly like the eagle, and spread his wings over Bozrah. And at that day the heart of the mighty men of Edom shall be like the heart of a woman in her pangs.

²³Concerning Damascus: Hamath and Arpad are put to shame, for they have heard bad news; they are melted; anxiety is in the sea; it cannot be quiet. ²⁴Damascus has become feeble; she has turned to flee, and trembling has seized her; anguish and sorrows have taken her like a woman in labor. ²⁵How is the city of praise not forsaken, the city of my joy! ²⁶So her young men shall fall in her streets, and all the men of war shall be silenced in that day, says Jehovah of hosts. ²⁷And I will kindle a fire in the wall of Damascus; and it shall burn up the palaces of Ben-hadad.

³⁰Flee, go far away, go deep to dwell, O inhabitants of Hazor, declares Jehovah. For Nebuchadnezzar, the king of Babylon, has taken counsel against you, and has plotted a scheme against you. ³¹Rise up, go up to the nation at ease, who dwells securely, declares Jehovah; neither gates nor bars are on it; and they dwell alone.

³²And their camels shall be a prize, and the multitude of their cattle a prey. And I will scatter them to all winds, those who cut the corners. And I will bring their calamity from all sides of it, says Jehovah.

³³And Hazor shall be a dwelling for jackals, a ruin forever. No man shall live there, nor any son of man stay in it.

³⁴The word of Jehovah that came to Jeremiah the prophet against Elam, in the beginning of the reign of Zedekiah, king of Judah, saying, ³⁵So says Jehovah of hosts, Behold I will break the bow of Elam, the chief of their might. ³⁶And I will bring the four winds from the four ends of the heavens on Elam, and will scatter them toward all those winds. And there shall be no nation where the outcasts of Elam shall not come. ³⁷And I will cause Elam to be afraid before their enemies and before those seeking their life. And I will bring evil on them, the burning of My anger, declares Jehovah. And I will send the sword after them until I have destroyed them. ³⁸And I will set My throne in Elam, and will destroy the king and the rulers from there, declares Jehovah. ³⁹But it shall happen in the latter days; I will bring again the prisoners of Elam, declares Jehovah.

¹The word that Jehovah spoke against Babylon, against the land of the Chaldeans by Jeremiah the prophet: ²Declare among the nations, and make them hear, and lift up a banner. Make them hear; do not hide it; say, Babylon is captured; Bel is put to shame; Merodach is broken in pieces; her images are put to shame; her idols are broken in pieces. ³For a nation comes up against her from the north, which shall make her land a desert. Yea, no one shall dwell in it. They shall flee; they shall depart; both man and animal.

⁴In these days, and at that time, the sons of Israel shall come, declares Jehovah; they and the sons of Judah together; going and weeping; they shall go and seek Jehovah their God. ⁵They shall ask the way to Zion with their faces pointing there, saying, Come and let us join ourselves to Jehovah in an everlasting covenant never to be forgotten. ⁶My people are lost sheep; their shepherds have caused them to go astray; they turned them away on the mountains; they have gone from mountain to hill; they have forgotten their resting place. ⁷All who have found them have devoured them. And their enemies said, We are not guilty, because they have sinned against Jehovah, the habitation of righteousness, and Jehovah, their fathers' hope. ⁸Flee from the midst of Babylon; and go out of the land of the Chaldeans; and be as the he-goats before the flocks.

⁹For, behold, I am stirring up and bringing up a company of great nations from a northern land against Babylon. And they shall set themselves in order against her. She shall be captured there; their arrows shall be as those of a mighty, skillful man; they shall not return empty. ¹⁰And Chaldea shall be a prize; all who plunder her shall be satisfied, declares Jehovah. ¹¹Because you rejoice; because you exult, O destroyers of My inheritance; because you are fat like the heifer in grass, and neigh like strong ones; ¹²your mother shall be deeply ashamed; she who bore you shall turn pale. Behold, the last of the nations shall be a wilderness, a dry land, and a desert. ¹³Because of the wrath of Jehovah, it shall not be inhabited; but all of it shall be a waste; everyone who goes by Babylon shall be amazed and hiss at all her plagues. ¹⁴Put yourselves in order against Babylon all around. All you who tread a bow, shoot at her. Do not spare arrows, for she has sinned against Jehovah. ¹⁵Shout against her all around. She has given her hand; her foundations have fallen; her walls have been thrown down; for it is Jehovah's vengeance. Take vengeance on her. As she has done, do to her. ¹⁶Cut off the sower from Babylon, and the one handling the sickle in the time of harvest. They shall turn from a sword of the oppressor, each one to his people. And they shall flee, each one to his own land.

¹⁷Israel is a scattered sheep, driven away by lions. First, the king of Assyria devoured him. And last, this king Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon crunched him. ¹⁸So Jehovah of hosts, the God of Israel, says this: Behold, I am punishing the king of Babylon and his land, as I have punished the king of Assyria. ¹⁹And I will again bring Israel to his home, and he shall feed on Carmel and Bashan; and his soul shall be satisfied on Mount Ephraim and Gil-ead. ²⁰In those days, and at that time, states Jehovah, the iniquity of Israel shall not be sought for, and it is not; and the sins of Judah, and they will not be found; for I will pardon those whom I leave as a remnant.

²¹Go up against the land of Merathaim, against it and against the dwellers of Pekod. Waste and destroy after them, says Jehovah, and do according to all that I have commanded you. ²²A sound of battle is in the land, and of great ruin. ²³How the hammer of all the earth is cut off and broken! How Babylon has become a ruin among the nations! ²⁴I have laid a trap for you, and you also are captured, Babylon; and you did not know. You were found, and also caught, because you stirred up yourself against Jehovah. ²⁵Jehovah has opened His armory, and has brought out the weapons of His fury. For this is a work of Jehovah, God of hosts, in the land of the Chaldeans. ²⁶Come against her from the end; open her granaries; pile her up as heaps and utterly destroy her. Do not let a remnant be left. ²⁷Put the sword to all her bulls; let them go down to the slaughter. Woe to them! For their day has come, the time of their punishment. ²⁸The voice of those who flee and escape out of the land of Babylon, to declare in Zion the vengeance of Jehovah our God, the vengeance of His temple. ²⁹Make the archers hear against Babylon. All you who tread a bow, camp against it all around. Let none of them escape. Repay her according to her work, according to all that she has done, do to her. For she has been proud against Jehovah, against the Holy One of Israel. ³⁰So her young men shall fall in the streets, and all her men of war shall be silenced in that day, declares Jehovah. ³¹Behold, I am against you, O proud one, says the Lord Jehovah of hosts; for your day has come, the time I will punish you. ³²And the proud one shall stumble and fall, and none shall raise him up. And I will kindle a fire in his cities, and it shall burn up everything all around him.

³³So says Jehovah of hosts, The sons of Israel and the sons of Judah are oppressed together. Yea, all who captured them held them fast; they refused to let them go. ³⁴Their Redeemer is strong; Jehovah of hosts is His name. He shall surely plead their cause, so that He may give rest to the land, and make to tremble the dwellers of Babylon.

³⁵A sword is on the Chaldeans, states

Jehovah; and on the dwellers of Babylon, and on her rulers, and on her wise men. ³⁶A sword is on the liars, and they shall become fools; a sword is on her mighty men, and they shall be broken. ³⁷A sword is on his horses and his chariots, and to all the mixed people in her midst. And they shall become as women. A sword is to her treasures, and they shall be robbed. ³⁸A drouth is on her waters, and they shall be dried up. For it is the land of idols, and they boast themselves in idols. ³⁹So, the beasts of the desert shall dwell there with jackals; and the daughters of the ostrich shall dwell in her again. And it shall not again have anyone in it forever; it shall not be lived in until generation and generation. ⁴⁰As God overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah, and their neighbors, states Jehovah, so no man shall live there, nor shall a son of man stay in it.

⁴¹Behold, a people shall come from the north, and a great nation; and many kings shall be stirred up from the farthest parts of the earth. ⁴²They lay hold of a bow and a javelin; they shall be cruel and will show no mercy. Their voice shall roar like the sea; and arrayed like a man for the battle, they shall ride on horses against you, O daughter of Babylon. ⁴³The king of Babylon has heard their report, and his hands became feeble; anguish seized him, pangs like those of a woman in labor. ⁴⁴Behold, he shall come up like a lion from the swelling of Jordan, against the home of the strong. But I will make them suddenly run away from it; and who is a chosen one I will appoint over it? For who is like Me? And who will summon Me? And who is a shepherd who will stand before Me? ⁴⁵So hear the counsel of Jehovah that He has planned against Babylon; and His purposes which He has purposed against the land of the Chaldeans: Surely they shall drag them, the least of the flock; surely He will make their pasture desolate over them. ⁴⁶At the sound of the Babylon's capture, the earth shall tremble; and a cry is heard among the nations.

¹So says Jehovah, Behold, I am arousing a destroying wind against Babylon, and against those dwelling in the heart of My foes. ²And I will send foreigners to Babylon, who shall empty her and shall empty her land. For in the day of evil, they shall be against her all around. ³Do not let the treader fully tread his bow, nor lift himself up in his armor. And do not spare her young men; utterly destroy all her army. ⁴So the slain shall fall in the land of the Chaldeans; yea, pierced through in her streets. ⁵For neither Israel nor Judah has been forsaken by his God, by Jehovah of hosts, though their land was filled with guilt against the Holy One of Israel. ⁶Flee out of the middle of Babylon; yea, each man deliver his soul. Do not be silenced in her iniquity; for the time of the vengeance of Jehovah is here; He will give her a just reward. ⁷Babylon was a golden cup in the hand of Jehovah, making all the earth drunk. The nations have drunk of her wine; therefore the nations rage. ⁸Suddenly Babylon has fallen, and it is broken. Wail for her; take balm for her pain; if perhaps she may be healed. ⁹We would have healed Babylon, but she is not healed. Forsake her, and let us go, each one into his own country. For her judgment reaches to the heavens, and is lifted up to the skies. ¹⁰Jehovah has brought forth our righteousness; come and let us declare in Zion the work of Jehovah our God.

¹¹Purify the arrows; fill the shields; Jehovah has aroused the spirit of the kings of the Medes. For His plan is against Babylon, to destroy it; because it is the vengeance of Jehovah, the vengeance of His temple. ¹²Set up the banner to Babylon's walls; make the watch strong; set up the watches; prepare the ambushes. For Jehovah has both planned and has done that which He spoke against the people of Babylon. ¹³O you who live by many waters, rich in treasures, your end has come, the measure of your unjust gain. ¹⁴Jehovah of hosts has sworn by Himself, saying, Surely I will fill you with men as with locusts; and they shall lift up a shout against you. ¹⁵He has made the earth by His power; He has established the world by His wisdom, and stretched out the heavens by His understanding. ¹⁶When He gives His voice, a multitude of waters is in the heavens; and He causes the mists to ascend from the end of the earth. He makes lightnings for rain, and brings forth the wind out of His treasures. ¹⁷Every man is brutish in knowledge; every refiner is put to shame by idols. For his casted image is a lie, and no breath is in them. ¹⁸They are vanity, the work of errors; in the time of their punishment they shall perish. ¹⁹The Portion of Jacob is not like them; for He is the Former of all things, and the rod of His inheritance; Jehovah of hosts, is His name. ²⁰You are My war club and weapons of war; for with you I will shatter nations, and with you I will destroy kingdoms. ²¹And with you I will shatter the horse and his rider; and with you I will shatter the chariot and his charioteer. ²²And I will shatter man and woman with you; and with you I will shatter old and young; and with you I will shatter the young man and the girl. ²³And I will shatter the shepherd and his flock with you. And I will shatter the farmer and his team with you; and with you I will shatter heads and rulers.

²⁴And I will give to Babylon, and to all the people of Chaldea all the evil that they have done in Zion, before your eyes, declares Jehovah. ²⁵Behold, I am against you, O destroying mountain declares Jehovah, who destroys all the earth. And I will stretch out My hand on you, and will roll you down from the rocks; and I will make you a burned mountain. ²⁶And they shall not take a stone from you for a corner, or a stone for foundations; but you shall be a waste forever, says Jehovah. ²⁷Set up a banner in the land; blow a trumpet among the nations; consecrate nations against her. Make hear the kingdoms of Ararat, Minni, and Ashkenaz together against her; set a marshal against her. Cause the horses to come up like rough locusts. ²⁸Consecrate nations against her, with the kings of the Medes, her governors and all her rulers, and all the land of his dominion. ²⁹And the land shall tremble and writhe in pain. For every purpose of Jehovah shall be done against Babylon, to make the land of Babylon a desert without inhabitant.

³⁰The mighty men of Babylon have stopped fighting; they have dwelt in strongholds; their might has withered; they became as women; they have burned their houses; her bars are broken. ³¹A runner shall run to meet a runner, and a herald to meet a herald, to announce to the king of Babylon that his city is captured from end to end; ³²and that the fords are captured. And they have burned the reeds with fire, and the men of war are terrified. ³³For so says Jehovah of hosts, the God of Israel: The daughter of Babylon is like a grain-floor; it is time to tread her. Yet a little while, and the time of her harvest will come.

³⁴Nebuchadnezzar, the king of Babylon, has devoured us. He has crushed us. He has made us an empty vessel. He has swallowed us like a jackal. He has filled his belly with delicacies. He has thrown me out. ³⁵The violence done to me and to my flesh is on Babylon, the dweller in Zion shall say. And Jerusalem shall say, My blood shall be on the dwellers of Chaldea. ³⁶So Jehovah says this:: Behold, I will strive for you and take vengeance for you. And I will dry up her sea, and make her well dry. ³⁷And Babylon shall become heaps, a home for jackals, a horror and a hissing, without a dweller. ³⁸They shall roar together like lions; they shall growl like lions' cubs. ³⁹In their heat I will make their feasts, and I will make them drunk so that they rejoice and sleep a never-ending sleep, and never awaken, says Jehovah. ⁴⁰I shall bring them down like lambs to the slaughter, like rams with he-goats. ⁴¹How Sheshach is captured! And how the praise of all the earth is seized! How Babylon has become a ruin among the nations! ⁴²The sea has come up over Babylon; she is covered with the multitude of its waves. ⁴³Her cities have become a ruin, a dry land and a wilderness, a land in which no man dwells; nor does any son of man pass by it. ⁴⁴And I will punish Bel in Babylon; and I will bring forth out of his mouth that which he has swallowed up. And the nations shall not flow together any more to him; yea, the wall of Babylon shall fall.

⁴⁵My people, go out of her midst; and each man deliver his soul from the fierce anger of Jehovah. ⁴⁶And that your heart not faint, and you fear the report that shall be heard in the land, the report shall come in a year. And after that the report shall come in another year; and there shall be violence in the land, ruler against ruler. ⁴⁷So behold, the days come that I will punish on the idols of Babylon. And all her land shall be put to shame, and all her slain shall fall in her midst. ⁴⁸Then the heavens and the earth, and all that is in them, shall shout for Babylon; for the plunderers shall come to her from the north, says Jehovah. ⁴⁹As Babylon is to fall for the slain of Israel, so for Babylon the slain of all the earth shall fall. ⁵⁰You who have escaped the sword, go away. Do not stand still. Remember Jehovah afar off, and let Jerusalem come into your heart. ⁵¹We have turned pale because we have heard reproach; dishonor has covered our faces; for foreigners have come into the holy places of the house of Jehovah. ⁵²So, behold, the days are coming, says Jehovah, that I will punish on her idols; and through all her land the wounded shall groan. ⁵³Though Babylon should mount up to the heavens, and though she should fortify her strong height, plunderers shall come from Me to her, states Jehovah. ⁵⁴A sound of a cry from Babylon, and great ruin from the land of Chaldeans! ⁵⁵For Jehovah is stripping Babylon, and the great voice will perish out of her. And her waves will roar like many waters; the noise of their voice is given. ⁵⁶Because the plunderer is coming on her, on Babylon, and her mighty men are captured; their bows are shattered; for Jehovah the God of recompenses shall surely repay. ⁵⁷And I will make her rulers drunk, and her wise ones, her governors and her rulers, and her mighty men; and they shall sleep a never-ending sleep, and not awaken, says the King whose name is Jehovah of hosts.

⁵⁸So says Jehovah of hosts, The broad walls of Babylon shall be utterly laid bare, and her high gates shall be burned with fire. And the peoples shall labor as for vanity; and the peoples as for fire; and they shall be weary.

⁵⁹The word which Jeremiah the prophet commanded Seraiah, the son of Neriah, the son of Maaseiah, when he went with Zedekiah, the king of Judah, to Babylon, in the fourth year of his reign. And Seraiah was chief quartermaster. ⁶⁰So Jeremiah wrote in a book all the evil that should come on Babylon, all these words that are written against Babylon. ⁶¹And Jeremiah said to Seraiah, When you come to Babylon and shall see and shall cry all these words, ⁶²then you shall say, O Jehovah, You have spoken against this place to cut it off, so that no dweller shall be in it, from man to animal, but it shall be a ruin forever. ⁶³And it shall be, when you have finished crying this book, you shall tie a stone to it and throw it into the middle of the Euphrates. ⁶⁴And you shall say, In this way Babylon shall sink, and shall not rise from the evil that I am bringing on her. And they shall be weary. So far are the words of Jeremiah.

¹Zedekiah was a son of twenty-one years when he began to reign, and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem. And his the name of his mother was Hamutal, the daughter of Jeremiah of Libnah. ²And he did evil in the eyes of Jehovah, according to all that Jehoiakim had done. ³For it was because of the anger of Jehovah in Jerusalem and Judah that Zedekiah rebelled against the king of Babylon, until Jehovah had cast them out from his face.

⁸But the army of the Chaldeans ran after the king, and overtook Zedekiah in the Arabah of Jericho. And all his army was scattered from him. ⁹And they took the king and carried him up to the king of Babylon, to Riblah in the land of Hamath, where he gave judgments against him. ¹⁰And the king of Babylon slaughtered the sons of Zedekiah before his eyes. He also slaughtered all the rulers of Judah in Riblah. ¹¹And he blinded the eyes of Zedekiah. And the king of Babylon bound him in bronze fetters and carried him to Babylon. And he put him in prison until the day of his death.

¹²And in the fifth month, in the tenth of the month, which was the nineteenth year of king Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon, Nebuzar-adan, the chief of the executioners, who stood before the king of Babylon, came into Jerusalem. ¹³And he burned the house of Jehovah, and the king's house. And he burned all the houses of Jerusalem with fire, and all the houses of the great ones. ¹⁴And all the army of the Chaldeans with the chief of the executioners broke down all the walls of Jerusalem all around. ¹⁵Then Nebuzar-adan, the chief of the executioners, exiled some the poor of the people, and the rest of the people who remained in the city, and those who fell away, who fell to the king of Babylon, and the rest of the multitude. ¹⁶But Nebuzar-adan, the chief of the executioners, left some of the poor of the land for vinedressers and for farmers. ¹⁷Also the Chaldeans broke the pillars of bronze that were in the house of Jehovah, and the bases, and the bronze sea that was in the house of Jehovah, and carried all the bronze from them to Babylon. ¹⁸They also took away the pots, and the shovels, and the snuffers, and the bowls, and the spoons, and all the vessels of bronze with which they served. ¹⁹And the chief of the executioners took away the basins, and the firepans, and the bowls, and the pots, the lampstands, and the spoons, and the cups—what was gold, in gold; and what was silver, in silver—²⁰the two pillars, one sea, and twelve bronze bulls that were under the bases, which king Solomon had made in the house of Jehovah. The weight of the bronze of all these vessels was not known; ²¹and the pillars, the height of one pillar was eighteen cubits. And a line of twelve cubits went around it, and its thickness was four fingers; it was hollow. ²²And a capital of bronze was on it; and the height of one capital was five cubits, with network and pomegranates on the capitals all around, all of bronze. And like these was the second pillar, and the pomegranates. ²³And there were ninety-six pomegranates on a side; all the pomegranates on the network were a hundred all around. ²⁴And the chief of the executioners took Seraiah the head priest, and Zephaniah the second priest, and the three doorkeepers. ²⁵He also took out of the city one eunuch who was in charge of the men of war, and seven men who saw the king's face, who were found in the city, and the commander of the army's scribe, who mustered the people of the land, and sixty men of the people of the land who were found in the middle of the city. ²⁶And Nebuzar-adan the chief of the executioners took them and led them to the king of Babylon, to Riblah. ²⁷And the king of Babylon struck them and slaughtered them in Riblah in the land of Hamath. And Judah was exiled from off his land.

²⁸This is the people whom Nebuchadnezzar exiled: In the seventh year, three thousand and twenty-three Jews; ²⁹in the eighteenth year of Nebuchadnezzar, eight hundred thirty-two souls from Jerusalem; ³⁰in the twenty-third year of Nebuchadnezzar, Nebuzar-adan the chief of the executioners exiled seven hundred forty-five souls of the Jews. All the souls were four thousand and six hundred.

³¹And it happened in the thirty-seventh year of the exile of Jehoiachin, king of Judah, in the twelfth month, in the twenty-fifth of the month, Evil-merodach, king of Babylon, in the year of his reign lifted up the head of Jehoiachin, king of Judah, and brought him from the prison house. ³²And he spoke good to him and set his throne above the throne of the kings who were with him in Babylon. ³³And he changed his prison garments, and he ate bread before his face continually all the days of his life. ³⁴And his allowance in continual allowance was given to him from the king of Babylon, that matter of a day in its day, until the day of his death, all the days of his life.

THE BOOK OF LAMENTATIONS

⁸Jerusalem has grievously sinned; on account of this she has been removed; all the ones knowing her despise her, for they saw her nakedness. Also, she groans and turns backward. ⁹Her uncleanness is in her skirts; she did not remember her end, and has gone down astoundingly. She had no comforter. O Jehovah, behold my affliction, for the enemy has magnified himself. ¹⁰The enemy has spread out his hand on all her desirable things. Indeed, she has seen the nations enter into her holy place, whom You commanded that they not enter into Your congregation. ¹¹All her people sigh from seeking bread. They gave their desirable things for food to revive the soul. See, O Jehovah, and look on me, for I have become vile.

¹²*Is it* nothing to you, all you who pass by? Behold, and see if there is any sorrow like my sorrow which is done to me, with which Jehovah has afflicted me in the day of His burning anger. ¹³From on high He has sent fire into my bones, and subdued it. He spread a net for my feet; He has turned me back; He gave me desolation; all the days I faint. ¹⁴The yoke of my transgressions is bound by His hand; they intertwine; they rise on my neck. He caused my strength to falter; the Lord gave me into their hands. I am not able to rise up. ¹⁵The Lord has trampled all my mighty ones in my midst; He called a gathering against me to crush my young men. As a winepress, the Lord trod the virgin daughter of Judah. ¹⁶I weep for these; my eye, my eye runs down with water, because far from me is a comforter reviving my soul. My sons are desolate because the enemy prevails. ¹⁷Zion spreads forth her hands; there is not one comforting to her; Jehovah has commanded concerning Jacob that his enemies should be all around him. Jerusalem has become as an impure thing among them.

¹⁸Jehovah is righteous, for I rebelled against His mouth. I beseech you, all peoples, hear and see my sorrow. My virgins and my young men went into exile.

¹⁹I called for my lovers; they deceived me; my priests and my elders expired in the city while they sought food for them to bring back their life. ²⁰Behold, O Jehovah, for I am distressed. My inward parts ferment; my heart is overturned within me; for I have grievously rebelled. On the outside the sword bereaves; in the house it is as death. ²¹They hear that I sigh; there is no comforter to me. All my enemies have heard my evil; they rejoice that You have done it. You will bring the day that You have called, and they shall be like me. ²²Let all their evil come before You; and do to them as You have done to me for all my transgressions. For my sighs are many, and my heart is faint.

¹How the Lord has clouded over the daughter of Zion in His anger! He cast the beauty of Israel down from the heavens to the earth, and did not remember His footstool in the day of His wrath. ²The Lord swallowed up all of Jacob's dwelling-places, and did not pity. In His wrath He has thrown down the strongholds of the daughter of Judah. He made them touch to the earth; He has defiled the kingdom and its rulers. ³He cut off all the horn of Israel in hot anger. He has turned back His right hand from the face of the haters, and He burned in Jacob as a flaming fire; it consumes all around. ⁴He trod His bow like an enemy, and set His right hand like a foe; and killed all who were desirable to the eye in the tent of the daughter of Zion. He poured out His fury like fire. ⁵The Lord was like an enemy; He swallowed up Israel; He swallowed up all his palaces and destroyed his strongholds; and He increased mourning and weeping in the daughter of Judah. ⁶And He violated his booth like a garden and destroyed his meeting-places. Jehovah made meeting-places and sabbaths forgotten in Zion; and He rejected king and priest in the fury of His anger. ⁷The Lord has cast off His altar; He rejected His holy place; He has delivered the walls of her palaces into the hater's hand; they gave a noise in Jehovah's house, as a day of meeting. ⁸Jehovah willed to destroy the wall of the daughter of Zion; He has stretched out a line; He has not withdrawn His hand from swallowing; and He made rampart and wall lament; they languish together. ⁹Her gates have sunk in the ground; He has dispersed and shattered her bars. Her kings and her rulers are among the nations. The law is not. Also her prophets have not found a vision from Jehovah.

¹⁰They sit on the ground; the elders of Zion's daughters are silent; they send up dust on their heads, they gird on sack-cloths. The virgins of Jerusalem let their heads hang to the ground. ¹¹And my eyes are at an end with tears; my inward parts ferment; my liver is poured on the ground for the ruin of the daughter of my people; in the fainting of children and sucklings in the city's plazas. ¹²They say to their mothers, Where are grain and wine? In their fainting they are like the wounded in the plazas of the city, in their pouring out their lives to their mothers' bosom. ¹³What will I compare to you, O daughter of Jerusalem? What shall I equate to you, that I may comfort you, O virgin daughter of Zion? For your crushing is great like the seal who can heal you? ¹⁴Your prophets have seen false and foolish things for you, and they have not revealed your iniquity, to turn back your captivity. Yea, they visioned for you burdens of falsehood and seductions.

¹⁵All who pass by clap their hands at you. They hiss and wag their head at the daughter of Jerusalem, saying, Is this the city which they called the perfection of beauty, the joy of all the earth? ¹⁶All your haters have opened their mouth against you; they hiss and gnash the teeth; they say, We have swallowed up. Surely this is the day for which we waited; we have found; we have seen. ¹⁷Jehovah has done that which He purposed; He fulfilled His word which He commanded from days of antiquity. He has dashed and not pitied. And He made glad the hater over you; He raised the horn of your foes. ¹⁸Their heart cried to the Lord. O wall of the daughter of Zion, let tears go out like a torrent by day and by night; do not give relief to yourself; let not the daughter of your eye rest. ¹⁹Rise up; cry out in the night at the head of the watches; pour out your heart like waters before the face of the Lord. Lift up your hands to Him for the life of your children, faint with hunger at the head of every open place.

²⁰Behold, O Jehovah, and look! To whom have you done this? Should women eat their fruit, children of tender care? Should priest and prophet be killed in the holy place of the Lord? ²¹Young and old lie on the ground of the plazas. My virgins and my young men have fallen by the sword. You have killed in the day of Your anger; You have killed; You have not pitied. ²²You have called my terrors all around, as in a day of appointment, and there was not an escaped one or a survivor in the day of the anger of Jehovah. Those whom I have nursed and multiplied, my enemy has consumed.

¹I the man have seen affliction by the rod of His wrath. ²He led me and made me go in darkness and not light. ³Surely He turned against me; He turns His hand all the day. ⁴He has wasted my flesh and my skin. He has shattered my bones. ⁵He built against me and has put around me bitterness and hardship. ⁶He has made me live in dark places like the dead of old. ⁷He walled around me and I cannot go out; He has made heavy my bronze chain. ⁸Also when I cry out and shout for help, He shuts out my prayer. ⁹He walled up my ways with cut stone; my paths are crooked. ¹⁰He was a bear lying in wait for me, a lion in secret places. ¹¹He has deflected my ways and torn me to pieces; He made me desolate. ¹²He has trod His bow and set me up as a mark for the arrow.

¹³He caused the sons of His quiver to enter into my inward parts. ¹⁴I was a mockery to all my people, their song all the day. ¹⁵He has filled me with bitterness and made me drunk with wormwood. ¹⁶And He broke my teeth with gravel; He has covered me in the ashes. ¹⁷And You cast off my soul from peace; I have forgotten goodness. ¹⁸And I said, My strength and my hope is gone from Jehovah.

¹⁹Remember my affliction and my roaming, as wormwood and bitterness. ²⁰My soul vividly remembers and bows down on me. ²¹I bring back this to my heart. On account of this I hope.

²²*It is by* the kindnesses of Jehovah that we are not consumed, for His mercies are not ended. ²³*They are* new by mornings; great is Your faithfulness. ²⁴Jehovah is my portion, says my soul; on account of this I shall hope to Him. ²⁵Jehovah is good to those waiting on Him, to the soul seeking Him. ²⁶*It is* good that a man hopes for the salvation of Jehovah, even in silence. ²⁷*It is* good for a man that he bear a yoke in his youth. ²⁸He sits alone and is silent, for He laid it on him. ²⁹He puts his mouth in the dust, if perhaps there is hope. ³⁰He gives his cheek to Him who strikes him; he is filled with reproach. ³¹For the Lord will not cast off forever.

³⁷*Who is* this speaking, and it happens, when the Lord does not command it? ³⁸*Both* the evil and the good do not go out from the mouth of the Most High. ³⁹What? Should mankind complain, living man because of his sins? ⁴⁰Let us search and examine our ways, and turn again to Jehovah. ⁴¹Let us lift up our hearts and palms to God in Heaven. ⁴²We have transgressed and rebelled; You, You have not forgiven. ⁴³You have wrapped Yourself with anger and pursued us; You have slain; You have not pitied. ⁴⁴You have covered with a cloud for You, from any prayer passing through. ⁴⁵You have made us sweepings and garbage in the midst of the peoples. ⁴⁶All our enemies have opened their mouths against us. ⁴⁷Dread and a pit is ours, devastation and ruin. ⁴⁸Streams of water go out of my eye for the ruin of the daughter of my people. ⁴⁹My eye flows out and does not cease, from there not being any relaxing, ⁵⁰until Jehovah shall look down and see from Heaven. ⁵¹My eye deals severely with my soul, from all the daughters of my city. ⁵²My haters have hunted me like a bird without cause. ⁵³They have cut off my life in the pit, and they threw stones at me. ⁵⁴Waters flowed over on my head; I said, I am cut off.

⁵⁵I called on Your name, O Jehovah, from the lowest pit. ⁵⁶You have heard my voice; do not hide Your ear at my relief, at my cry for help. ⁵⁷You came near in the day I called You; you said, Do not fear! ⁵⁸O Lord, You contended for the causes of my soul; You redeemed my life. ⁵⁹You have seen my wrong, O Jehovah; judge my cause. ⁶⁰You have seen all their vengeance, all their plots against me.

⁶¹You have heard their reproach, O Jehovah, all their plots against me, ⁶²the lips of those rising against me, and their scheming all the day. ⁶³Look at their sitting and their rising up; I am their song. ⁶⁴You will will give back a recompense to them, O Jehovah, according to the work of their hands. ⁶⁵You will given them an insolent heart as Your curse to them. ⁶⁶Pursue and destroy them in anger from under the heavens of Jehovah.

¹How the gold dims, the good gold is changed! The stones of the sanctuary are poured out at the head of every street. ²The precious sons of Zion are weighed against pure gold — how they are counted as earthen vessels, the work of a potter's hand! ³Even the jackals draw out the breast; they suckle their young; but the daughter of my people is cruel, like the ostriches in the wilderness. ⁴The tongue of the nursling cleaves to his palate in thirst; the young children ask bread, but there is no breaking for them. ⁵Those who ate delicacies are desolate in the streets; those reared on scarlet embrace dunghills. ⁶And the iniquity of the daughter of my people is greater than the sin of Sodom, which was overthrown as in a moment, and no hands were spun on her. ⁷Her Nazarites were purer than snow, whiter than milk; they were redder of bone than corals; their cuttings as azure-blue as lapis lazuli. ⁸Their appearance is darker than soot; they are not recognized in the streets; their skin has shriveled on their bones; it is dried up; it has become like wood. ⁹Better are the ones slain by the sword than the ones slain by hunger, those who flew away, pierced because the produce of my fields failed. ¹⁰The hands of the compassionate women have boiled their own children; they became food to them in the ruin of the daughter of my people. ¹¹Jehovah has fulfilled His fury; He has poured out His fierce anger and has kindled a fire in Zion; and it has devoured its foundations.

¹²The kings of the earth and all the world's inhabitants would not have believed that the foe and the hater would go into the gates of Jerusalem. ¹³Because of the sins of her prophets and the iniquities of her priests, shedding the blood of the righteous in her midst; ¹⁴they reeled blind in the streets; they are defiled with blood, so that not any are able to touch their garments. ¹⁵They cried out to them, Depart! Unclean! Depart, depart! Touch not! Indeed they fled and reeled; they said among the nations, They will not continue to live there. ¹⁶The face of Jehovah has shared them out; He will not continue to look on them; they did not lift up the face of the priests; they did not favor the elders. ¹⁷While we are, our eyes fail for our vain help. In our watching we have watched for a nation; it does not save. ¹⁸They hunted our steps from going in our open places; our end came near; our days were fulfilled, for our end had come. ¹⁹Our pursuers were swifter than the eagles of the heavens; they hotly pursued us on the mountains; they lay in wait for us in the wilderness. ²⁰The breath of our nostrils, the anointed of Jehovah, was captured in their pits; of whom we said, In his shadow we will live among the nations.

²¹Rejoice and be glad, O daughter of Edom living in the land of Uz; the cup also shall pass through to you; you shall be drunken and make yourself naked.

²²Your perversity is complete, daughter of Zion; He will not continue to exile you. He will visit your perversity, daughter of Edom; He will expose your sins.

CHAPTER 5

¹O Jehovah, remember what has been to us; look upon and see our shame. ²Our inheritance has been turned to aliens, our houses to foreigners. ³We are orphans; there is no father; our mothers are like widows. ⁴We have drunk our water for silver; our wood comes for a price. ⁵We are pursued; we grow weary; rest is not given to us. ⁶We have given the hand to the Egyptians, to the Assyrian, in order to be satisfied with bread. ⁷Our fathers have sinned, and we are not; we have borne their iniquities. ⁸Slaves rule over us; there is no rescuer from their hand. ⁹We bring in our bread with our souls, from the face of the sword of the wilderness. ¹⁰Our skin is burned black like an oven, because of the fever heat of famine. ¹¹They raped the women in Zion, virgins in the cities of Judah. ¹²Rulers were hanged by their hands; the faces of the elders were not honored. ¹³They lifted the young men to the hand mill, and the youths stumbled at the wood. ¹⁴The elders have ceased from the gate, the young men from their music.

¹⁵The joy of our heart has ceased; our dance has turned to mourning. ¹⁶The crown has fallen from our head. Woe now to us, for we have sinned! ¹⁷For this our heart is faint; our eyes are dim for these things. ¹⁸On the mountain of Zion laid waste, foxes walk about on it. ¹⁹O Jehovah, You remain forever; Your throne to generation and generation. ²⁰Why do You forget us forever, forsake us the length of days? ²¹Return us to You, O Jehovah, and we shall return; renew our days as of old, ²²unless You have utterly rejected us; You are exceedingly angry against us.

THE BOOK OF EZEKIEL

¹And it happened in the thirtieth year, in the fourth month, in the fifth of the month, as I was among the captives by the river Chebar, the heavens were opened, and I saw visions of God. ²On the fifth of the month, the fifth year of the captivity of Jehoiachin the king; ³the word of Jehovah surely became known to Ezekiel, the son of Buzi, the priest, in the land of the Chaldeans, by the river Chebar. And there the hand of Jehovah was on him.

of a flash of lightning. ¹⁵And I looked at the living creatures, and, behold, one wheel was on the earth beside the living creatures, with the four of its faces. ¹⁶The appearance of the wheels, and their workmanship, was like the color of beryl; and the one likeness was to the four of them. And their appearance and their workmanship was like the wheel in the middle of the wheel. ¹⁷They went on the four of their sides in their going; they did not turn in their going. ¹⁸And also their rims were high, even awesome to them; and their rims were full of eyes all around the four of them. ¹⁹And in the going of the living creatures the wheels went beside them. And in the lifting up of the living creatures from on the earth, the wheels were lifted up. ²⁰Where the spirit was to go, there they went; there their spirit was to go; and the wheels were lifted up along with them. For the spirit of the living creature was in the wheels. ²¹In their going, these went; and in their standing still, these stood still. And in their being lifted up from the earth, the wheels were lifted up along with them. For the spirit of the the living creature was in the wheels.

²²And a likeness was over the heads of the living creature, an expanse like the color of awesome crystal, stretched out over their heads from above. ²³And under the expanse their wings were straight; the one toward the other; to each, two wings covering on this side, and to each two covering on that side of their bodies. ²⁴And I heard the sound of their wings, like the sound of great waters; like the voice of the Almighty, in their going — the sound of tumult, like the sound of an army. In their standing still, they let down their wings. ²⁵And there was a voice from the expanse that was over their heads. In their standing still, they let down their wings. ²⁶And from above the expanse that was over their heads was an appearance like a sapphire stone, the likeness of a throne. And on the likeness of the throne was a likeness in appearance like a man on it from above. ²⁷And I saw Him, like the color of polished bronze, looking like fire within it all around.

From the appearance of His loins and upward, and from the appearance of His loins and downward, I saw Him looking like fire, and brightness to it all around. ²⁶As the appearance of the bow that is in the cloud in the day of the rain, so appeared the brightness all around. This was the appearance of the likeness of the glory of Jehovah. And I saw; and I fell on my face; and I heard a voice of One speaking.

¹And He said to me, Son of man, stand on your feet, and I will speak to you. ²And the Spirit entered into me as He spoke to me; and He made me stand on my feet; and I heard Him speaking to me. ³And He said to me, Son of man, I am sending you to the sons of Israel, to the nations, the rebelling ones who have rebelled against Me; they and their fathers have transgressed against Me to this day. ⁴And the sons are stiff of face and hard of heart; I am sending you to them. And you shall say to them, So says the Lord Jehovah. ⁵And they, whether they will hear, or whether they will forbear—for they are a rebellious house—yea, they shall know that a prophet has been among them.

⁸But you, son of man, hear what I am saying to you. Do not be like that rebellious house of rebellion. Open your mouth and eat what I am giving to you. ⁹And I looked; and behold, a hand was extended to me. And behold, a roll of a book was in it. ¹⁰And He spread it before me; and it was written on the face and the back. And written on it were weepings, and mourning, and woe.

¹And He said to me, Son of man, eat what you find. Eat this roll, and go speak to the house of Israel. ²So I opened my mouth, and He made me eat that roll. ³And He said to me, Son of man, make your belly eat, and fill your bowels with the roll, this that I give to you. And I ate; and it was in my mouth like honey for sweetness.

⁴And He said to me, Son of man, Go! Come to the house of Israel and speak with My words to them. ⁵For you are not sent to a people of deep lip and hardness of tongue, but to the house of Israel; ⁶not to many peoples of deep lip and of a hard tongue, whose words you cannot hear. If rather I had sent you to them, they would have listened to you. ⁷But the house of Israel is not willing to listen to you, for they are not willing to listen to Me; for all the house of Israel are strong of forehead and hard of heart. ⁸Behold, I have made your face strong over against their faces, and your forehead strong over against their foreheads. ⁹I have made your forehead as an adamant harder than flint. Do not fear them; and do not be frightened by their faces, though they are a house of rebellion. ¹⁰And He said to me, Son of man, all My words which I speak to you, receive into your heart, and hear with your ears. ¹¹And go! Come to the exiles, to the sons of your people, and speak to them, and say to them, So says the Lord Jehovah—whether they will hear, or whether they will forbear. ¹²And the Spirit lifted me up, and I heard behind me a sound of a great tumult, saying, Blessed be the glory of Jehovah from His place; ¹³and the sound of the wings of the living creatures touching each one to the other; and the sound of the wheels along with them; and the sound of a great tumult. ¹⁴So the Spirit lifted me up and took me, and I went bitterly in the heat of my spirit; but the hand of Jehovah was strong upon me.

also dwelt there seven days, being benumbed among them. ¹⁶And it happened at the end of the seven days; even it happened that the word of Jehovah came to me, saying, ¹⁷Son of man, I have made you a watchman for the house of Israel. And hear the word of My mouth, and warn them from Me. ¹⁸In My saying to the wicked, Surely you shall die; and you do not warn him, and you do not speak to warn the wicked from his wicked way, to save his life; he, the wicked, shall die in his iniquity. But I will require his blood at your hand. ¹⁹And you, because you have warned the wicked, and he does not turn from his wickedness or from his way, he, the wicked, shall die in his iniquity, but you have delivered your soul. ²⁰And when the righteous turns from his righteousness, and does injustice, and I lay a stumbling-block before him, he shall die. Since you have not warned him, he shall die in his sin, and his righteousness which he has done shall not be remembered; but I will require his blood at your hand. ²¹But you, because you warned him, the righteous, so that the righteous should not sin, and he does not sin, he shall surely live because he is warned; and you have delivered your soul.

²²And the hand of Jehovah was on me there. And He said to me, Rise up, go forth into the plain, and I will speak with you there. ²³And I rose up and went forth into the plain. And, behold, there the glory of Jehovah was standing, like the glory which I saw by the river Chebar. And I fell on my face. ²⁴And the Spirit entered into me, and stood me on my feet, and spoke with me. And He said to me, Come, shut yourself within your house. ²⁵But you, son of man, behold, they shall put on you cords, and shall bind you with them; and you shall not go out among them. ²⁶And I will make your tongue cling to your palate; and you shall be dumb; and there shall not be to them a reproving man. For they are a rebellious house. ²⁷But in My speaking with you, I will open your mouth, and you shall say to them, So says the Lord Jehovah: He who hears, let him hear; and he who stops, let him stop. For they are a rebellious house.

¹And you, son of man, take a brick to yourself, and lay it before you, and engrave on it a city — Jerusalem. ²And lay a siege on it, and build a fort on it, and pour out a ramp on it. And place a camp on it, and set battering rams all around on it. ³And you, take a girdle of iron to yourself, and place it as a wall of iron between you and the city. And place your face against it; and it shall be under siege, and thrust upon it. It is a sign to the house of Israel.

⁴And you, lie down on your left side, and lay the iniquity of the house of Israel on it. The number of the days that you shall lie down on it, you shall bear their iniquity. ⁵For I have laid on you the years of their iniquity, according to the number of days: three hundred and ninety days. And you shall bear the house of Israel's iniquity. ⁶And when you complete them, even lie on your right side, the second. And you shall bear the house of Judah's iniquity forty days, a day for a year. I have set it for you, a day for a year. ⁷And you shall set your face toward the siege of Jerusalem, and your arm bared; and you shall prophesy over it. ⁸And, behold, I will put cords on you, and you cannot turn from your side to your other side, until you have completed the days of your siege. ⁹And you, take to yourself wheat, and barley, and beans, and lentils, and millet, and spelt, and place them in a single vessel; and prepare them for yourself into bread; to the number of days that you are lying on your side. You shall eat it three hundred and ninety days. ¹⁰And your food which you shall eat shall be by weight, twenty shekels a day. From time to time you shall eat it. ¹¹And you shall drink water by measure, the sixth part of a hin. From time to time you shall drink. ¹²And you shall eat cakes of barley; and you shall bake it with dung of the excrement of man, in their sight. ¹³And Jehovah said, Even so the sons of Israel shall eat their defiled bread among the nations there where I will drive them. ¹⁴Then I said, Ah, Lord Jehovah! Behold, my soul has not been defiled. I have not even eaten a carcase, or a torn animal, from my youth even until now. And unclean flesh has not come into my mouth. ¹⁷Then He said to me, See, I have given to you the dung of cattle in place of the dung of man. And you shall prepare bread over it.

¹⁶And He said to me, Son of man, behold, I am breaking the staff of bread in Jerusalem. And they shall eat bread by weight, and with anxiety. And they shall drink water by measure, and in horror; ¹⁷because they will lack bread and water, and each one be horrified with his brother. And they will waste away in their iniquity.

¹And you, son of man, take to yourself a sharp sword, the razor of a barber. Take it to yourself, and make it pass over your head and over your beard. And take to yourself scales to weigh, and to divide them out. ²You shall burn a third part in the fire in the midst of the city, when the days of the siege are fulfilled. And you shall take the third part and beat with a sword all around it. And you shall scatter the third part into the wind; and I will draw out a sword after them. ³Also you shall take from there a few in number, and bind them in your skirts. ⁴And take from them again, and throw them into the middle of the fire; and burn them in the fire. From it shall come forth a fire into all the house of Israel.

⁵So says the Lord Jehovah: This is Jerusalem. I have set her in the midst of the nations; and all around her are the lands. ⁶And she has changed My judgments for wickedness more than the nations; and defiled My laws more than the lands that are all around her. For they have rejected My judgments and My laws; they have not walked in them. ⁷Therefore, so says the Lord Jehovah: Because you rebelled more than the nations that are all around you, not having walked in My laws, and not having performed My judgments; and you have not done according to the judgments of the nations that are all around you; ⁸therefore, so says the Lord Jehovah: behold, I, even I am against you, and will execute judgments in your midst in the sight of the nations. ⁹And I will do in you that which I have not done, and which I will not do the like again, for all your abominations. ¹⁰Therefore, the fathers shall eat the sons in your midst; and the sons shall eat their fathers. And I will execute judgments against you, and I will scatter the whole remnant of you into every wind. ¹¹Therefore, as I live, says the Lord Jehovah, Surely because you have defiled My sanctuary with all your idolatries and with all your abominations, so I also will withdraw. And My eye shall not spare, and I will not have pity.

¹²A third part of you shall die by the plague, and shall be consumed by the famine in your midst. And a third part shall fall by the sword all around you; and a third part I will scatter into every wind; and I will draw out a sword after them. ¹³And My anger shall be spent, and I will make My fury rest on them, and I will be eased. And they shall know that I, Jehovah, have spoken in My zeal, in My fulfilling My fury among them. ¹⁴And I will make you into a waste and a reproach among the nations that are around you; in the eyes of all who pass by. ¹⁵And it shall be a reproach and a taunt, an example and a wonder, to the nations which are all around you, when I shall execute against you judgments in anger and in fury and in rebukes among them. I, Jehovah, have spoken it. ¹⁶When I shall send the arrows of evil famine among them, which shall be for ruin, for which I will send them to destroy you; even I will increase the famine on you, and break the staff of bread to you. ¹⁷Yea, I will send famine and evil beasts on you; and you will be bereaved. And pestilence and blood shall pass among you; and I shall bring a sword on you. I, Jehovah, have spoken.

¹And it happened, the word of Jehovah came to me, saying, ²Son of man, set your face towards the mountains of Israel, and prophesy against them. ³And say, Mountains of Israel, hear the word of the Lord Jehovah: So says the Lord Jehovah to the mountains, and to the hills, to the ravines, and to the valleys, Behold, I will bring a sword on you, and I will destroy your high places. ⁴And your altars shall be ruined, and your pillars shall be broken. And I will cast down your slain before your idols. ⁵And I will put the dead bodies of the sons of Israel before their idols; and I will scatter your bones around your altars. ⁶In all your dwelling-places the cities shall be laid waste, and the high places shall be deserted; so that your altars may be laid waste and become guilty; and your idols may be broken and brought to an end; and your pillars may be cut down, and your works wiped out. ⁷And the slain shall fall in your midst; and you shall know that I am Jehovah.

⁸Yet I will leave a remainder, so that may be left to you those who escape the sword among the nations, in your scattering among the lands. ⁹And those who escape shall remember Me among the nations where they will be made captive, because I was broken by their whoring heart which has turned away from Me, and by their whoring eyes which go after their idols. And they shall loathe against their faces for the evils which they have done in all their abominations. ¹⁰And they shall know that I am Jehovah; not in vain have I said to do this evil to them.

¹¹So says the Lord Jehovah: Strike with your hand, and stamp with your foot, and say, Alas for all the evil abominations of the house of Israel! For they shall fall by the sword, by the famine, and by the plague. ¹²He who is far off shall die by the plague; and he who is near shall fall by the sword; and he who remains and is besieged shall die by the famine. So I will fulfill My fury on them. ¹³And you shall know that I am Jehovah when their slain shall be in the midst of their idols all around their altars, on every high hill, in all the tops of the mountains, and under every green tree, and under every leafy oak; the place where they offered there a soothing aroma to all their idols. ¹⁴And I will stretch out My hand on them and make the land a desolation, even more desolate than the desert toward Diblath, in all their dwelling-places. And they shall know that I am Jehovah.

¹And it happened, the word of Jehovah was to me, saying, ²And you, son of man, so says the Lord Jehovah to the land of Israel: An end! The end has come on the four corners of the land. ³The end is now on you, and I will send My anger on you, and will judge you according to your ways, and will lay on you all your abominations. ⁴And My eye shall not spare you, and I will not have pity. But I will lay your ways on you, and your abominations shall be in your midst; and you shall know that I am Jehovah.

⁵So says the Lord Jehovah: An evil! An only evil! Behold, it has come! ⁶An end has come; the end has come! It has awakened against you; behold, it has come! ⁷The encirclement has come to you, O dwellers of the land. The time has come; the day of tumult is near, and not a shout of the hills. ⁸Now I will soon pour out My fury on you, and fulfill My anger on you. And I will judge you according to your ways, and will put on you all your abominations. ⁹And My eye shall not spare, and I will not have pity; I will put on you according to your ways, and your abominations that are in your midst. And you shall know that I am Jehovah who strikes.

¹⁰Behold the day! Behold, it has come; the encirclement has gone out; the rod has blossomed; pride has budded. ¹¹Violence has risen for a rod of wickedness. None of them shall remain, even none of their multitude, and none of their riches, and none eminent among them. ¹²The time has come; the day has arrived. Do not let the buyer rejoice, and do not let the sellers mourn; for wrath is on all her multitude. ¹³For the seller shall not return to that which is sold, although they still are among the living—for the vision is to all her multitude; and a man shall not return to his iniquity; his life shall not hold strong. ¹⁴They have blown the trumpet, even to make all ready. But no one goes to the battle; for My wrath is on all her multitude. ¹⁵The sword is outside, and the plague, and the famine are inside. He who is in the field shall die with the sword; and he who is in the city, famine and plague shall devour him.

¹⁶But if their fugitives shall escape, then they shall be on the mountains like doves of the valleys, all of them mourning, each for his iniquity. ¹⁷All hands shall be feeble, and all knees shall go as water. ¹⁸They shall also gird on sackcloth, and trembling shall cover them. And shame shall be on all faces, and baldness on all heads. ¹⁹They shall throw their silver in the streets, and their gold shall be an impure thing. Their silver and their gold shall not be able to deliver them in the day of the wrath of Jehovah. They shall not satisfy their soul, and they shall not fill their bowels; for their iniquity has become a stumbling-block for them. ²⁰And the beauty of His ornament, He set it in majesty. But they made it the images of their abominations, and of their hateful things. Therefore, I have put it to them as an impure thing. ²¹And I will also give it into the hand of the strangers for a prize; and to the wicked of the earth for a spoil; and they shall defile it. ²²I also will turn My face from them, and they shall defile My hidden place. And violent ones shall enter into it and defile it.

²³Make the chain; for the land is full of bloody judgments, and the city is full of violence. ²⁴And I will bring the most evil of the nations, and they shall possess their houses. And I will make cease the pomp of the strong ones; and their holy places shall be defiled. ²⁵Anguish comes! And they shall seek peace, but none shall be. ²⁶Disaster on disaster shall come, and rumor to rumor shall be. And they shall seek a vision from the prophet; but the law shall perish from the priest, and counsel from the elders. ²⁷The king shall mourn, and the ruler shall be clothed with despair. And the hands of the people of the land shall be terrified. According to their way, I will do to them; and according to their judgments, I will judge them. And they shall know that I am Jehovah.

¹And it was in the sixth year, in the sixth month, on the fifth of the month, I was sitting in my house. And the elders of Judah were sitting before me. And the hand of the Lord Jehovah fell on me there. ²And I looked, and behold, a likeness as the look of fire; from the appearance of His loins and downward, like fire. And from His loins and upward, as the look of brightness, like the color of polished bronze. ³And He put forth the form of a hand, and took me by a lock of my head. And the Spirit lifted me up between the earth and the heavens, and brought me to Jerusalem—in the visions of God—to the opening of the inner gate facing north, where there was a seat of the image of jealousy, which causes jealousy. ⁴And, behold! The glory of the God of Israel was there, like the appearance which I saw in the plain.

⁵And He said to me, Son of man, lift up your eyes now to the way of the north. So I lifted up my eyes the way of the north; and, behold, from the north, at the gate of the altar, this was the image of jealousy at the entrance. ⁶And He said to me, Son of man, do you see what they are doing, the great abominations which the house of Israel is doing here, that I should be far from My sanctuary? But you turn again; you shall see greater abominations.

⁷And He brought me to the opening of the court. And I looked, and, behold, a single hole in the wall. ⁸And He said to me, Son of man, dig now in the wall. And I dug in the wall, and, behold, an opening! ⁹And He said to me, Go in and see the the evil abominations that they are doing here. ¹⁰And I went in and saw. And, behold, every form of creeping thing, and hateful beast, and all the idols of the house of Israel were carved on the wall round and round. ¹¹And seventy men of the elders of the house of Israel, and Jaazaniah, the son of Shaphan, standing among them. These were standing among them, and each man with his censer in his hand; and the odor of the cloud of incense was rising. ¹²And He said to me, Son of man, have you seen what the elders of the house of Israel are doing in the dark, each man in the rooms of his image? For they are saying, Jehovah does not see us; Jehovah has forsaken the earth.

¹³And He said to me, You turn again, you shall see greater abominations which they are doing. ¹⁴And He brought me to the opening of the gate of the house of Jehovah, toward the north. And, behold, women were sitting there, weeping for Tammuz. ¹⁵And He said to me, Have you seen, son of man? You turn again; you shall see greater abominations than these. ¹⁶And he brought me into the inner court of the house of Jehovah. And, behold, at the opening of the temple of Jehovah, between the porch and the altar were about twenty-five men with their backs to the temple of Jehovah, and their faces eastward. And they bowed themselves eastward to the sun. ¹⁷And He said to me, Son of man, have you seen? Is it nothing to the house of Judah from doing the abominations which they do here? For they have filled the land with violence, and have returned to provoke Me to anger. And, behold, they are putting the branch to their nose! ¹⁸And I also will deal with fury; My eye shall not spare, and I will not have pity. And though they cry in My ears with a loud voice, I will not hear them.

¹And He cried in my ears with a loud voice, saying, Let the overseers of the city draw near, even each with his destroying weapon in his hand. ²And, behold, six men were coming from the way of the Upper Gate, which faces north. And each had his shattering weapon in his hand. And one man among them was clothed in linen, and an ink horn of a scribe at his loins. And they went in and stood beside the bronze altar. ³And the glory of the God of Israel had gone on, from on the cherub, where it was on it, to the threshold of the house. And He called to the man clothed in linen, with the ink horn of a scribe at his loins. ⁴And Jehovah said to him, Pass through in the midst of the city, in the midst of Jerusalem, and mark a mark on the foreheads of the men who are groaning and are mourning over all the abominations that are done in her midst. ⁵And He said to those in my hearing, Pass over in the city after him, and strike. Do not let your eye spare, and do not have pity. ⁶Slay old men, choice men, and virgins, and children, and women; all to destruction. But to every man who has the mark on him, do not come near. And begin from My sanctuary. And they began with the old men who were before the house. ⁷And He said to them, Defile the house and fill the courts with the slain. Go forth! And they went out and killed in the city.

⁸And it happened as they struck, and I remained; even I; then I fell on my face and I cried out and said, Ah, Lord Jehovah! Will You destroy all the remnant of Israel in Your pouring out of Your fury on Jerusalem? ⁹And He said to me, The iniquity of the house of Israel and of Judah is very great; and the land is filled with blood; and the city is full of perversity. For they say, Jehovah has forsaken the land; and, Jehovah does not see. ¹⁰And even I, My eye does not spare, and I will not have pity. I will put their way on their head. ¹¹And, behold, the man clothed with linen, with the ink horn at his loins, reported the matter, saying, I have done as You commanded me.

¹And I looked. And, behold, in the expanse that was over the head of the cherubs appeared the look of the form of a throne, like a sapphire stone, above them. ²And He spoke to the man clothed with linen, and said, Go in among the wheels, under the cherub, and fill your hands with coals of fire from between the cherubs; and sprinkle on the city. And he went in before me. ³And the cherubs were standing on the right side of the house when he, the man, went in. And the cloud filled the inner court. ⁴And the glory of Jehovah glory of Jehovah lifted up from the cherub, over the threshold of the house. And the house was filled with the cloud; and the court was full of the radiance of the glory of Jehovah. ⁵And the sound of the wings of cherubs was heard over the outer court, as the voice of God Almighty when He speaks. ⁶And it happened, when He had commanded the man clothed with linen, saying, Take fire from between the wheels, from between the cherubs; then he went and stood beside the wheels. ⁷And one cherub stretched out his hand from between the cherubs, to the fire that was between the cherubs. And he lifted and put it into the hands of the one clothed with linen. And he took it and went out.

⁸And the form of a man's hand was seen under the wings of the cherubs. ⁹And I looked, and, behold, the four wheels were beside the cherubs; one wheel beside one cherub, one wheel beside one cherub. And the look of the wheels was like the color of a stone of Tarshish. ¹⁰And their appearance was as one, the four of them; as if the wheel were in the midst of the wheel. ¹¹In their going on their four sides, they went. They did not turn in their going; for to the place where the head faces, after it they went. They did not turn in their going. ¹²And their whole body, and their backs, and their hands, and their wings, and the wheels, were full of eyes all around; even their wheels which the four of them had. ¹³As for the wheels, it was cried to them in my hearing, Whirling Wheel! ¹⁴And four faces were to each. The first face was the face of a cherub; and the second face the face of a man; and the third the face of a lion; and the fourth the face of an eagle. ¹⁵And the cherubs rose up. This is the living creature that I saw by the river Chebar.

¹⁶And in the going of the cherubs, the wheels went beside them. And when the cherubs lifted their wings to soar from the earth, the wheels did not turn from beside them, even they. ¹⁷When they stood still, these stood still. And when they rose up, these also lifted up. For the spirit of the living creature was in them. ¹⁸And the glory of Jehovah went from the threshold of the house and stood over the cherubs. ¹⁹And the cherubs lifted their wings and rose up from the earth in my sight. When they went out, the wheels also were with them. And he stood at the door of the gate of the house of Jehovah, the eastern gate. And the glory of the God of Israel was over them from above. ²⁰This is the living creature that I saw under the God of Israel by the river Chebar; and I knew that they were cherubs. ²¹Four, even four faces are to each; and four wings to each. And the form of a man's hands was under their wings. ²²And the form of their faces, they are the faces that I saw by the river Chebar, their appearances, even theirs. They each went straight forward.

¹And the Spirit lifted me up and brought me to the eastern gate of the house of Jehovah, the gate which faces eastward. And, behold, at the opening of the gate were twenty-five men. And I saw among them Jaazaniah the son of Azzur, and Pelatiah, the son of Benaiah, leaders of the people. ²And He said to me, Son of man, these are the men who plot evil and advise wicked advice in this city; ³who say, It is not near; let us build houses; she is the pot, and we are the flesh. ⁴So prophesy against them; prophesy, son of man! ⁵And the Spirit of Jehovah fell on me and said to me, Speak, So says Jehovah: So you have said, house of Israel; for I Myself know the elevations of your spirit. ⁶You have multiplied your slain in this city, and you have filled her streets with the slain. ⁷So the Lord Jehovah says this: Your slain whom you have laid in her midst, they are the flesh, and she is the pot. But I will bring you forth out of her midst. ⁸You have feared the sword; but I will bring a sword on you, says the Lord Jehovah. ⁹And I will bring you out of her midst, and will give you into the hand of strangers. And I will execute judgments against you. ¹⁰You shall fall by the sword. I will judge you to the border of Israel, and you shall know that I am Jehovah. ¹¹This city shall not be for a pot to you, nor shall you be in its midst for flesh. ¹²I will judge you to the border of Israel, and you shall know that I am Jehovah, in whose statutes you have not walked; yea, you have not done My judgments. Yea, as the judgments of the nations who are around you, you have done.

¹³And it happened when I prophesied, Pelatiah, the son of Benaiah, died. Then I fell on my face and cried with a loud voice, and said, Ah, Lord Jehovah! Will you make an full end of the remnant of Israel? ¹⁴And the word of Jehovah came to me, saying, ¹⁵Son of man, your brothers, the redemption-men, your brothers and all the house of Israel that have heard the inhabitants of Jerusalem saying to all of them, Go far away from Jehovah; this land is given to us for a possession. ¹⁶Therefore, say, So says the Lord Jehovah: Though I have sent them far off among the nations, and though I scattered them among the lands; yet I was to them as a little sanctuary in the countries there where they had gone. ¹⁷So the Lord Jehovah says this: I shall gather you from the peoples, and assemble you out of the lands, in those where you were scattered; and I shall give to you the land of Israel. ¹⁸And they will come there, and they will remove all its hateful things and all its abominations from it. ¹⁹And I shall give to them one heart, and I will put a new spirit within you. And I will remove the stony heart out of their flesh, and will give them a heart of flesh, ²⁰so that they may walk in My statutes and keep My judgments, and do them. And they shall be to Me for a people, and I will be to them for God. ²¹And as to those whose heart is going toward their hateful things, and their heart is going after their disgusting idols, I will give their way on their heads, declares the Lord Jehovah.

²²Then the cherubs lifted up their wings, and the wheels were beside them. And the glory of the God of Israel was over them from above. ²³And the glory of Jehovah went up from the midst of the city and stood on the mountain which is on the east of the city.

²⁴And the Spirit lifted me up and brought me into Chaldea, to the exiles, in a vision by the Spirit of God. And the vision that I had seen went up from me. ²⁵And I spoke to the exiles all the things which Jehovah had shown me.

¹And the word of Jehovah was to me, saying, ²Son of man, you dwell in the midst of a rebellious house. They have eyes to see, but they do not see; they have ears to hear, but they do not hear; for they are a rebellious house. ³And you, son of man, prepare for yourself vessels for exile, and go into exile by day in their sight. And you shall be exiled from your place to another place in their sight. Perhaps they will see that they are a rebellious house. ⁴And you shall bring forth your vessels, as vessels for exile, by day in their sight. And you shall go forth at evening in their sight, as those going into exile. ⁵In their sight dig for yourself through the wall, and carry out through it. ⁶In their sight you shall carry on the shoulder; in the dark, carry out. You shall cover your face, so that you do not see the ground; for I have set you as a wonder to the house of Israel. ⁷And I did so, as I was commanded. I brought forth my vessel, as vessels for exile, by day. And in the evening I dug by hand for myself through the wall. I brought it out in the dark; I carried on my shoulder in their sight. ⁸And in the morning the word of Jehovah came to me, saying, ⁹Son of man, Has not the house of Israel that rebellious house, said to you, What are you doing? ¹⁰Say to them, So says the Lord Jehovah: This burden is to the prince in Jerusalem, and to all the house of Israel who are among them. ¹¹Say, I am your wonder. As I have done, so it shall be done to them. They shall go into exile, into captivity. ¹²And the prince who is among them shall carry on his shoulder in the dark, and go forth through the wall. They shall dig to bring out by it. He shall cover his face so that he does not look with the eye on the earth. ¹³And I will spread My net on him, and he shall be taken in My snare. And I will bring him to Babylon, the land of the Chaldeans. Yet he will not see it; and he shall die there. ¹⁴And all who are around him, his help and all his bands, I will scatter to every wind; and I will draw out a sword after them. ¹⁵And they shall know that I am Jehovah when I shall scatter them among the nations, and disperse them in the lands. ¹⁶But of them I will leave a number of men from the sword, from the famine, and from the plague, so that they may declare all their abominations among the nations, there where they go. And they shall know that I am Jehovah.

¹⁷And the word of Jehovah came to me, saying, ¹⁸Son of man, eat your bread with quaking, and drink your water with trembling and with anxiety. ¹⁹And say to the people of the land, So says the Lord Jehovah to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, to the land of Israel: They shall eat their bread with anxiety, and drink their water with horror, so that her land may be desolated of her fullness, because of the violence of all those who live in her. ²⁰And the cities that have people shall be laid waste, and the land shall be desolate. And you shall know that I am Jehovah.

²¹And the word of Jehovah was to me, saying, ²²Son of man, what is this proverb to you on the land of Israel, saying, The days are long, and every vision shall perish? ²³Therefore, tell them, So says the Lord Jehovah: I will make this proverb cease, and they shall not use it again in Israel. However, say to them, The days draw near, and the matter of every vision. ²⁴For there shall not again be every vain vision, nor slippery divination, within the house of Israel. ²⁵For I, Jehovah, will speak. The word which I shall speak shall be done; it shall not be drawn out again. For in your days, O house of rebellion, I will say the word and will do it, declares the Lord Jehovah.

²⁶And the word of Jehovah was to me, saying, ²⁷Son of man, behold, the house of Israel is saying, The vision that he is seeing is for many days, and he prophesies for times far off. ²⁸So say to them, So says the Lord Jehovah: Not any of My words will be drawn out any longer. What I have spoken, that word shall be done, declares the Lord Jehovah.

¹And the word of Jehovah was to me, saying, ²Son of man, prophesy against the prophets of Israel who prophesy. And say to those who prophesy out of their own heart, Hear the word of Jehovah: ³So says the Lord Jehovah, Woe to the foolish prophets who walk after their own spirit, and have seen nothing! ⁴O Israel, your prophets are like foxes in the deserts. ⁵You have not gone up into the breaks, nor built a wall around the house of Israel, that it might stand in the battle, in the day of Jehovah. ⁶They have seen vanity and lying divination, saying, Jehovah declares! And Jehovah has not sent them; but they hoped to confirm their word. ⁷Did you not see a vain vision and speak a lying divination? Yet you say, Jehovah declares; though I have not spoken.

⁸So the Lord Jehovah says this: Because you have spoken vanity and have seen a lie, therefore, behold, I am against you, declares the Lord Jehovah. ⁹And My hand shall be against the prophets who see vanity, and who divine a lie. They shall not be in the council of My people, and they shall not be written in the writing of the house of Israel; and they shall not enter into the land of Israel. And you shall know that I am the Lord Jehovah.

¹⁰Because, even because they made My people go astray, saying, Peace — and there was no peace — and he builds a wall, and, behold, others daubed it with lime. ¹¹Say to those daubing with lime, Yea, it will fall; there will be a flooding rain; and you, O hailstones, shall fall; and a raging wind shall break. ¹²And, behold, when the wall has fallen, it shall not be said to you, Where is the daubing with which you have daubed?

¹³So the Lord Jehovah says this: I will even break in My fury with a raging wind. And there shall be a flooding rain in My anger, and hailstones in fury, to consume it. ¹⁴And I will break down the wall that you have daubed with lime, and bring it down to the ground; yea, I will bare its base. And it shall fall, and you will be consumed in its midst. And you shall know that I am Jehovah. ¹⁵And I will fulfill My wrath in the wall, and in those who daubed it with lime. And I will say to you, The wall is not; and, Those who daubed are not — ¹⁶the prophets of Israel who prophesy as to Jerusalem, and who see visions of peace for her; and there is no peace—declares the Lord Jehovah.

¹⁷And you, son of man, set your face against the daughters of your people, who prophesy out of their heart; and prophesy against them, ¹⁸and say, So says the Lord Jehovah: Woe to those sewing bands to all joints of my hands, and make long veils for the head of every man of stature, to hunt souls! Will you hunt the souls of My people; and will you save alive the souls for yourselves? ¹⁹And will you profane Me among My people for handfuls of barley, and for bits of bread, to put to death the souls that should not die, and to save alive the souls that should not live; by your lying to My people who listen to lies?

²⁰So the Lord Jehovah says this: Behold, I am against your bands with which you are hunting the souls there, to make them fly. And I will tear them from your arms, and will send out the souls, souls which you are hunting, to make them fly. ²¹Also I will tear your long veils and deliver My people out of your hand. And they shall not again be in your hand to be hunted. And you shall know that I am Jehovah. ²²Because you have saddened the heart of the righteous with lies, and I have not made him sad; and have made the hands of the wicked strong, so that he should not turn from his evil way, to keep him alive; ²³So you shall not see vanity; and you shall not divine any divination. And I will deliver My people out of your hand. And you shall know that I am Jehovah.

¹And the men of the elders of Israel came to me, and sat before me. ²And the word of Jehovah came to me, saying, ³Son of man, these men have set up their idols in their hearts, and have put the stumbling-block of their iniquity before their faces. Should I at all be sought by them?

⁶Therefore, say to the house of Israel, So says the Lord Jehovah: Turn, and be turned from your idols, and from all your abominations turn away your faces. ⁷For every man of the house of Israel, or of the alien who sojourns in Israel, who is separated from after Me, and makes go up his idols in his heart, and puts the stumbling-block of his iniquity before his face, and comes to the prophet to inquire of him concerning Me—I, Jehovah, will answer him Myself. ⁸And I will set My face against that man, and I will make him desolate for a sign and for proverbs. And I will cut him off from the midst of My people. And you shall know that I am Jehovah.

⁹And the prophet, if he is deceived, and he speaks a word, I, Jehovah, have deceived that prophet. And I will stretch out My hand on him and will destroy him from the midst of My people Israel.

¹⁰And they shall bear their iniquity. As the iniquity of the inquirer, so the iniquity of the prophet shall be. ¹¹So that the house of Israel may not stray any more from after Me, and not be defiled again with all their transgressions; but they are to Me for a people, and I will be to them for God, declares the Lord Jehovah.

¹²And the word of Jehovah came to me, saying, ¹³Son of man, when a land sins against Me by traitorous betraying, then I will stretch out My hand on it, and will shatter the staff of bread to it, and I will send famine on it. And I will cut off from it man and beast. ¹⁴And though these three men were in its midst, Noah, Daniel, and Job; by their righteousness they should deliver only their souls, declares the Lord Jehovah. ¹⁵If I make evil beasts go through the land, and they bereave it, and it is desolate, so that no one would go through because of the beasts; ¹⁶*though* these three men were in its midst, as I live, declares the Lord Jehovah, they would deliver neither sons nor daughters; they would only deliver themselves; but the land would be desolate. ¹⁷Or if I bring a sword on that land and say, Let a sword go through the land, and I will cut off man and beast from it; ¹⁸*even though* these three men were in its midst, as I live, declares the Lord Jehovah, they should not deliver sons or daughters, but they only would deliver themselves. ¹⁹Or if I send a plague into that land, and pour out My fury on it in blood, to cut off from it man and beast; ²⁰*even though* Noah, Daniel, and Job were in its midst, as I live, declares the Lord Jehovah, they would deliver neither son nor daughter; they by their righteousness would deliver only their souls.

²¹For so says the Lord Jehovah, How much more when the four of My evil judgments: sword, and famine, and evil beast, and plague, I send on Jerusalem, to cut off from it man and beast! ²²Yet, behold, there shall be left in it escaping ones that shall be led out, sons and daughters. Behold, they shall come to you, and you shall see their way and their doings. And you will be comforted for the evil which I have brought against Jerusalem, for all which I have brought upon it. ²³And they will comfort you when you see their way and their doings. And you will know that not in vain I have done all that I did in it, declares the Lord Jehovah.

¹And the word of Jehovah came to me, saying, ²Son of man, how is the vine tree more than any other tree, or than a branch that is among the trees of the forest? ³Shall wood be taken from it to do work? Or will men take from it for a peg to hang every vessel on it? ⁴Behold, it is put in the fire for fuel. Both its ends the fire devours, and its middle is charred. Will it prosper for work? ⁵Behold, when it was whole, it was not made for work. How much less when the fire has devoured it, and it is charred! Shall it yet be made to work?

⁶Therefore, so says the Lord Jehovah: As the vine tree among the trees of the forest, which I have given it to the fire for fuel, so I will give the dwellers of Jerusalem. ⁷And I will set my face against them. They shall go out from the fire, and the fire shall devour them. And you shall know that I am Jehovah when I set My face against them. ⁸And I will give the land to be desolate, because they have done a treacherous act, declares the Lord Jehovah.

¹And the word of Jehovah came to me, saying, ²Son of man, cause Jerusalem to know her abominations; ³and say, So says the Lord Jehovah to Jerusalem: Your origin and your birth is of the land of Canaan. Your father was an Amorite, and your mother a Hittite. ⁴As for your birth, in the day you were born your navel was not cut, and you were not washed with water to cleanse you. And you were not salted; and you were not at all swaddled.

⁵An eye did not have pity on you, to do to you one of these, to have compassion on you. But you were thrown into the face of the field; for your person was loathed in the day you were born. ⁶And when I passed by you and saw you squirming in your blood, I said to you in your blood, Live! Yea, I said to you in your blood, Live!

⁷As a myriad, as the field shoot I have made you; and you are grown, and are great; and you come in the finest ornaments. Your breasts are formed, and hair is grown; yet you were naked and bare.

⁸And I passed by you, and I looked on you, and, behold, your time was the time of love. And I spread My skirt over you, and covered your nakedness. And I swore to you and entered into a covenant with you, declares the Lord Jehovah. And you became Mine. ⁹And I washed you with water; I washed away your blood from you; and I anointed you with oil. ¹⁰And I dressed you with embroidered work, and I shod you with dugong sandals. And I wrapped you in fine linen, and I covered you with silk. ¹¹And I adorned you with ornaments, and I put bracelets on your hands, and a chain on your neck. ¹²And I put a ring on your nose, and earrings on your ears, and a crown of beauty on your head. ¹³And you were adorned with gold and silver. And your clothing was fine linen and silk and embroidered work. Fine flour and honey and oil you ate. And you were very, very beautiful. And you advanced to regal estate. ¹⁴And your name went out among the nations, because of your beauty; for it was perfect by My splendor which I had set on you, declares the Lord Jehovah.

¹⁵But you trusted in your beauty, and played the harlot because of your name, and poured out your fornications on all who passed by—it was to him! ¹⁶And you took from your clothes and made for you high places of various colors, and whored on them; such as had not come, nor shall be. ¹⁷And you have taken beautiful things of My gold and of My silver, which I had given to you, and made images of males, and whored with them. ¹⁸And you took your embroidered clothes and covered them; and My oil and My incense you have given to their face. ¹⁹Also My food which I gave you, fine flour and oil and honey which I fed you, you have given it to their face for a soothing aroma. And it happened, declares the Lord Jehovah. ²⁰And you have taken your sons and your daughters, whom you have borne to Me, and you gave these to them for food. Are your fornications small? ²¹You have slaughtered My sons, and gave them, to cause these to pass through the fire for them.

²²And in all your abominations and your fornications you have not remembered the days of your youth, when you were naked and bare; you were squirming in your blood. ²³Woe, woe to you, says the Lord Jehovah! For it happened, after all your evil, ²⁴that you have also built yourself a mound, and you have made yourself a high place in every open place. ²⁵At the head of every highway you have built your high place, and have made your beauty despised. And you have parted your feet to all who passed by, and have multiplied your fornications. ²⁶You have whored with the sons of Egypt, your neighbors, great of flesh, and have multiplied your fornications to provoke Me to anger. ²⁷And behold, I have stretched out My hand over you, and I drew back your portion. And I gave you to the will of those hating you, the daughters of the Philistines, who are ashamed of your wicked way. ²⁸You have whored with the sons of Assyria, without being satisfied; yea, you whored and yet you were not satisfied. ²⁹And you have multiplied your fornication in the land of Canaan, to the Chaldean, and yet you were not satisfied with this.

³⁰How weak is your heart, declares the Lord Jehovah, since you do all these, the work of a woman, an overbearing harlot; ³¹in that you built your mound in the head of every highway, and you make your high place in every open place; yet you have not been as a harlot, even scorning wages. ³²*Like* the adulterous wife — instead of her husband, she takes strangers — ³³they give a gift to all harlots, but you give your gifts to all your lovers, and bribe them to come to you from all around, for your fornication. ³⁴And in you was the opposite from those women, in your fornications, since no one whores after you, and in your giving wages, and hire is not given to you. In this you are opposite.

³⁷Therefore, O harlot, hear the word of Jehovah, ³⁸So says the Lord Jehovah: Because your lewdness was poured out, and your nakedness was bared in your fornications with your lovers, and with the idols of your abominations, and by the blood of your sons whom you gave to them; ³⁹therefore, behold, I will gather all your lovers with whom you have been pleased, even all whom you have loved, with all whom you have hated; I will even gather them against you from all around, and will uncover your nakedness to them; yea, they will see all your nakedness. ³⁸And I will judge you with judgments of adulteresses, and with shedders of blood. And I will give you blood of fury and jealousy. ³⁹And I will give you into their hand, and they will tear down your mound, and will demolish your high places. They shall also strip you of your clothes, and shall take your beautiful things, and leave you naked and bare. ⁴⁰And they will raise against you a company, and they shall stone you with stones, and cut you with their swords. ⁴¹And they shall burn your houses with fire, and make judgments against you in the sight of many women. And I will make you stop whoring; and also, you shall not give hire again. ⁴²So I will make My fury to rest against you, and My jealousy shall depart from you. And I will be quiet, and will not be angry any more. ⁴³Because you have not remembered the days of your youth, but have troubled Me in all these; so, behold, I also will give your way back on your head, declares the Lord Jehovah. And you shall not commit the wickedness above all your abominations.

⁴⁴Behold, all who use proverbs shall use this proverb against you, saying, As the mother, so is the daughter. ⁴⁵*You are* your mother's daughter, who despises her husband and her sons. And you are the sister of your sisters, who despise their husbands and their sons. Your mother was a Hittite, and your father was an Amorite. ⁴⁶And your older sister is Samaria; she and her daughters who are dwelling on your left. And your younger sister from you, who dwells on the right, is Sodom, and her daughters. ⁴⁷Yet you have not walked in their ways, nor have done according to their abominations. As if it were only a little thing, you were even more corrupted than they in all your ways. ⁴⁸As I live, declares the Lord Jehovah, your sister Sodom, she and her daughters have not done as you and your daughters have done. ⁴⁹Behold, this was the iniquity of your sister Sodom: pride, fullness of bread, and abundance of idleness was in her and her daughters; and she did not strengthen the hand of the poor and needy. ⁵⁰Also they were haughty, and did abomination before My face. And I turned them away as I saw fit.

⁵¹And Samaria has not sinned as much as half your sins; but you have multiplied your abominations more than they, and have justified your sisters in all your abominations which you have done. ⁵²And you who have judged your sisters, bear your humiliation, by your sins which you abominably did, more than they. They are more righteous than you. And also you be ashamed, and bear your shame, since you have justified your sisters. ⁵³When I shall return their captivity, the captivity of Sodom and her daughters, and the captivity of Samaria and her daughters, then also the captivity of your captivity in their midst. ⁵⁴So that you may bear your shame and may blush from all that you have done, since you are a comfort to them. ⁵⁵When your sisters, Sodom and her daughters, shall return to their former state, and Samaria and her daughters shall return to their former state, then you and your daughters shall return to your former state. ⁵⁶For your sister Sodom was not to be heard from your mouth in the day of your pride, ⁵⁷before your evil was uncovered, as at the time of the reproach of Syria's daughters, and all the ones around her; the daughters of the Philistines who hated you from all around. ⁵⁸You are bearing your wickedness and your abominations, declares Jehovah. ⁵⁹For so says the Lord Jehovah: I will even deal with you as you have done, who have despised the oath in breaking the covenant.

⁶⁰But I will remember My covenant with you in the days of your youth, and I will raise up to you an everlasting covenant. ⁶¹Then you shall remember your ways and be ashamed, when you shall receive your sisters, the older than you to the younger than you. And I will give them to you for daughters, but not by your covenant. ⁶²And I, even I, will raise up My covenant with you. And you shall know that I am Jehovah; ⁶³so that you may remember and be ashamed, and will not any more open your mouth, because of your humiliation — when I am covered for you for all that you have done, declares the Lord Jehovah.

¹And the word of Jehovah was to me, saying, ²Son of man, put forth a riddle and speak a parable to the house of Israel. ³And say, So says the Lord Jehovah: A great eagle came to Lebanon, one with great wings, long of pinion, full of feathers, having different colors to him. And he took the top of the cedar. ⁴He plucked off the first of its young twigs and brought it into a land of traders. He set it in a city of merchants. ⁵He also took of the seed of the land and planted it in a field of seed. He took it by great waters; he set it as a willow. ⁶And it sprouted and became a spreading low vine; and it turned its branches to face toward him; and its roots were under him. So it became a vine and made branches, and sent out boughs. ⁷Also there was another great eagle with great wings and many feathers. And, behold, this vine bent its roots toward him, and sent out its branches to him, to water it, away from the beds of its planting. ⁸It was planted in a good field by great waters, to make branches, and to bear fruit; to be a splendid vine. ⁹Say, So says the Lord Jehovah: Shall it prosper? Shall he not pull up its roots and cut off its fruit, and wither it? All the leaves of its sprouting shall wither, and not with great arm, nor by many people shall any raise it by its roots. ¹⁰And, behold, being planted, shall it prosper? Shall it not utterly wither when the east wind touches it? It shall wither in the beds where it sprouted.

saying, ¹²Say now to the rebellious house, Do you not know what these mean? But speak, Behold, the king of Babylon has come to Jerusalem, and has taken its king and its rulers, and has brought them to himself at Babylon. ¹³And he took of the royal seed, and has cut with him a covenant, and made him enter into an oath. And he took the mighty of the land, ¹⁴that the kingdom might be low, that it might not lift itself up; to keep its covenant, that it might stand. ¹⁵But he rebelled against him in sending his messengers to Egypt, to give horses and many people to him. Shall he prosper? Shall he who does these things escape? Or shall he break the covenant, and be delivered? ¹⁶As I live, declares the Lord Jehovah, Surely, in the place of the king who made him king, whose oath he despised and whose covenant he broke, he shall die there with him, in the midst of Babylon. ¹⁷And Pharaoh shall not work for him with great army or great company, in the war by pouring out mounds and building siege walls to cut off many souls. ¹⁸And he has despised the oath by breaking the covenant. And, behold, he had given his hand, and he has done all these things. He shall not escape.

¹⁹So the Lord Jehovah says this: As I live, surely My oath that he has despised, and My covenant that he has broken, I will even give it on his head. ²⁰And I will spread My net over him, and he shall be taken in My snare; and I will bring him to Babylon. And I will judge him there with his treason which he has betrayed against Me. ²¹And all his fugitives shall fall by the sword, with all his bands; and those who remain shall be scattered to every wind. And you shall know that I, Jehovah, have spoken. ²²So says the Lord Jehovah: I will also take, even I, of the top of the highest cedar, and will set it; I will crop off a tender one from the first of its young twigs; and I will plant it on a high and lofty mountain, even I. ²³I will plant it in a high mountain of Israel. And it will bear boughs and produce fruit, and will become a majestic cedar. And every bird of every wing shall dwell under it; they shall dwell in the shadow of its branches. ²⁴And all the trees of the field shall know that I, Jehovah, have brought down the high tree, and have exalted the low tree; and have dried up the green tree; and have made the dry tree flourish. I, Jehovah, have spoken and acted.

¹And the word of Jehovah was to me, saying, ²What is it to you that you use this proverb concerning the land of Israel, saying, The fathers have eaten sour grapes, and the teeth of the sons are dull? ³As I live, states the Lord Jehovah, there is not any longer occasion to you to use this proverb in Israel. ⁴Behold, they are all My souls. As the soul of the father, also the soul of the son; they are Mine. The soul that sins, it shall die.

⁵But a man that is righteous and does that which is just and right; ⁶who has not eaten on the mountains; and his eyes have not lifted up to the idols of the house of Israel; and has not defiled his neighbor's wife; and has not come near to a menstruating woman; ⁷and has not oppressed a man; he returns his pledge to the debtor; and has not robbed by robbery; has given his bread to the hungry; and he has covered the naked with clothing; ⁸he has not loaned on interest, and he has not taken increase; he has kept his hand from injustice, having done true justice between man and man; ⁹he has walked in My statutes, and has kept My judgments to deal truly—he is righteous; surely he shall live, declares the Lord Jehovah.

¹⁰And if he fathers a son who is violent, who sheds blood, and does to a brother any of these—¹¹even he does not any of these: that also he has eaten on the mountains, and has defiled his neighbor's wife; ¹²he has oppressed the poor and needy; thieving, he stole; he has not returned the pledge; and has lifted up his eyes to the idols; he has committed abomination; ¹³*he* has loaned on interest and has taken increase; shall he also live? He shall not live. He has done all these abominations; he shall surely die; his blood shall be on him.

¹⁴Now, behold, if he fathers a son who sees all his father's sins which he has done, and sees, and does not do like them—¹⁵*he* has not eaten on the mountains; and has not lifted up his eyes to the idols of the house of Israel; has not defiled his neighbor's wife; ¹⁶and has not oppressed a man; has not withheld the pledge; and has not robbed by robbery—he has given his bread to the hungry, and he has covered the naked with clothes; ¹⁷has withdrawn his hand from the poor; and has not received interest and increase; he has done My judgments, has walked in My statutes—he shall not die for the iniquity of his father. He shall surely live. ¹⁸His father, because he did extortion, robbed his brother by robbery, and did what is not good among his people, behold, even he shall die in his iniquity.

¹⁹Yet you say, Why? Does not the son bear the iniquity of the father? When the son has done justice and righteousness; he has kept all My statutes, and has done them; surely he shall live. ²⁰The soul that sins, it shall die. A son shall not bear the iniquity of the father. And a father shall not bear the iniquity of the son. The righteousness of the righteous shall be upon him; and the wickedness of the wicked shall be on him.

²¹But the wicked, if he will turn from all his sins which he has done, and keep all My statutes, and do justice and righteousness, surely he shall live; he shall not die. ²²All his transgressions that he has done, they shall not be mentioned to him—in his righteousness which he has done, he shall live.

²³Do I actually desire the death of the wicked? declares the Lord Jehovah. Is it not that he should turn from his ways and live? ²⁴But when the righteous turns from his righteousness, and does injustice; according to all the abominations that the wicked do, he does; shall he live? All his righteousness that he has done shall not be remembered in his treason that he has betrayed, and in his sin that he has sinned—in them he shall die.

²⁵Yet you say, The way of the Lord is not fair. Hear now, O house of Israel. Is My way not fair? Are your ways not unfair? ²⁶When a righteous one turns from his righteousness and does injustice, and dies in them; he shall die for his injustice which he has done. ²⁷And when the wicked turns from his wickedness that he has done, and does justice and righteousness, he shall keep his soul alive. ²⁸Because he considers and turns from all his transgressions that he has done, surely he shall live; he shall not die. ²⁹Yet the house of Israel says, The way of the Lord is not fair. Are My ways not fair, O house of Israel? Is it not your ways that are not fair? ³⁰So I will judge you, each man by his ways, O house of Israel, declares the Lord Jehovah. Turn and be made to turn from all your transgressions, and iniquity shall not be a stumbling-block to you. ³¹Cast away all your transgressions from you by which you have transgressed in them; and make for yourselves a new heart and a new spirit; for why will you die, O house of Israel? ³²For I do not have pleasure in the death of him who dies, declares the Lord Jehovah. So turn and live.

¹And you take up a lament for the rulers of Israel, ²and say, What is your mother? A lioness; she lay down among lions; among young lions she multiplied her cubs. ³And she raised one of her cubs; he became a young lion, and learned to tear the prey; he ate men. ⁴And the nations heard of him. He was taken in their pit, and they brought him in chains to the land of Egypt. ⁵And when she saw that she had waited, and her hope had been lost, then she took another of her cubs and made him a young lion. ⁶And he went about among the lions. He became a young lion, and learned to tear the prey; he ate men. ⁷And he knew his widows, and he laid their cities waste; and the land and its fullness were desolated from the sound of his roaring. ⁸Then the nations set against him on every side from the provinces, and spread their net over him; he was taken in their pit. ⁹And they put him in a cage in chains, and brought him to the king of Babylon. They brought him into hunting nets, so that his voice should not any longer be heard on the mountains of Israel.

¹⁰Your mother is like a vine in your blood, planted by the waters. She was fruitful and full of branches because of many waters. ¹¹And there were rods to her, strong for the scepters of rulers; and her stature was exalted among the thick branches. And it was seen in her height, with the multitude of her branches. ¹²But she was plucked in fury. She was thrown to the ground, and the east wind dried up her fruit. Her strong rods were torn away and withered; the fire burned her. ¹³And now she is planted in the wilderness, in a dry and thirsty ground. ¹⁴And fire has gone out from a rod of her branches; it consumed her fruit, and there is not a strong rod in her to be a scepter to rule. It is a lament, and has become a lament.

¹And it was in the seventh year, in the fifth month, the tenth of the month, men came from the elders of Israel to inquire of Jehovah, and sat before me. ²And the word of Jehovah was to me, saying, ³Son of man, speak to the elders of Israel and say to them, So says the Lord Jehovah: Have you come to inquire of Me? As I live, declares the Lord Jehovah, I will not be inquired of by you. ⁴Will you judge them; will you judge, son of man? Cause them to know the abominations of their fathers.

⁵And say to them, So says the Lord Jehovah: In the day I chose Israel, and lifted My hand to the seed of the house of Jacob—and I was made known to them in the land of Egypt—when I lifted up My hand to them, saying, I am Jehovah your God; ⁶in that day I lifted up My hand to them to bring them out from the land of Egypt into a land that I had searched out for them, flowing with milk and honey, the glory of it is to all lands; ⁷then I said to them, let each man cast away the filthy idols of his eyes, and do not defile yourselves with the idols of Egypt; I am Jehovah your God. ⁸But they rebelled against Me, and would not listen to Me. They did not each man throw away the filthy idols of their eyes, and they did not forsake the idols of Egypt. Then I said, I will pour out My fury against them, to fulfill My anger against them in the midst of the land of Egypt. ⁹But I worked for My name's sake, that it should not be profaned in the eyes of the nations among whom they were, for I made Myself known to them in their eyes, by bringing them out of the land of Egypt.

¹⁰So I made them leave from the land of Egypt, and brought them into the wilderness. ¹¹And I gave them My statutes, and I made them know My judgments, which if a man does them, he will even live by them. ¹²And I also gave them My sabbaths to be a sign between Me and them, that they might know that I am Jehovah, who sets them apart. ¹³But the house of Israel rebelled against Me in the wilderness; they did not walk in My statutes, and they despised My judgments; which if a man does them he will even live by them. And they greatly profaned My sabbaths. Then I said, I will pour out My fury on them in the wilderness, to consume them. ¹⁴But I worked for My name's sake, that it should not be profaned in the eyes of the nations, before whom I brought them out, in their eyes. ¹⁵And I also lifted up My hand to them in the wilderness, that I would not bring them into the land which I had given, flowing with milk and honey — it is the glory to all the lands; ¹⁶because they despised My judgments, and they did not walk in My statutes; and they profaned My sabbaths; for their heart went after their idols. ¹⁷And My eye spared them, from destroying them; and I did not make an end of them in the wilderness. ¹⁸But I said to their sons in the wilderness, Do not walk in the statutes of your fathers, and do not keep their judgments; and do not defile yourselves with their idols. ¹⁹*I am Jehovah your God*. Walk in My statutes, and keep My judgments, and do them. ²⁰And keep My sabbaths holy; and they shall be a sign between Me and you, that you may know that I am Jehovah your God.

²¹But the sons rebelled against Me; they did not walk in My statutes, and they did not keep My judgments, to do them; which if a man does them, he shall live by them. They profaned My sabbaths. Then I said I would pour out My fury on them, to fulfill My anger against them in the wilderness. ²²But I withdrew My hand and acted for My name's sake, that it should not be profaned in the eyes of the nations, from whom I brought them out in their eyes. ²³And I lifted up My hand to them in the wilderness, to scatter them among the nations and sow them among the lands, ²⁴because they had not done My judgments, and had despised My statutes, and had profaned My sabbaths; and their eyes were after their fathers' idols. ²⁵Also I gave them statutes not good, and judgments by which they could not live. ²⁶And I defiled them by their own gifts, by making all that open the womb to cross the fire, so that I might waste them; to the end that they might know that I am Jehovah.

²⁷So speak to the house of Israel, son of man, and say to them, So says the Lord Jehovah: Yet in this your fathers have blasphemed Me, by trespassing a trespass against Me. ²⁸When I had brought them into the land for which I lifted up My hand, to give it to them, then they saw every high hill, and every leafy tree; and they offered their sacrifices there. And they gave their provoking offering there. They also made their soothing aroma there, and poured out their drink offerings there. ²⁹Then I said to them, What is the high place to which you go there? And its name is called High Place to this day. ³⁰For this reason, say to the house of Israel, So says the Lord Jehovah: Are you being defiled in the way of your fathers? And do you go whoring after their filthy idols? ³¹For when you lift up your gifts, when you pass your sons through the fire, you defile yourselves with all your idols, even to this day. And I will not be inquired of by you, O house of Israel. As I live, declares the Lord Jehovah, I will not be inquired of by you. ³²And what comes up on your spirit shall surely not occur, that you say, We will be like the nations, like the families of the lands, to serve wood and stone. ³³*As* I live, says the Lord Jehovah, Surely with a mighty hand, and with an outstretched arm, and with fury poured out, I will reign over you. ³⁴And I will bring you out from the peoples, and gather you from the lands in which you are scattered among them; with a mighty hand, and with an outstretched arm, and with fury poured out. ³⁵And I will bring you into the wilderness of the peoples; and I will be judging with you there face to face. ³⁶Just as I was judging your fathers in the wilderness of the land of Egypt, so I will be judging you, declares the Lord Jehovah. ³⁷And I will cause you to pass under the rod, and I will bring you into the bond of the covenant. ³⁸And I will purge from among you the rebels and the transgressors against Me. I will bring them out of the land where they sojourn. And they shall not enter into the land of Israel. And you shall know that I am Jehovah.

³⁹And you, O house of Israel, so says the Lord Jehovah: Every man go, serve his idols, even hereafter, if you will not listen to Me. But you will not still profane My holy name with your gifts and with your idols. ⁴⁰For in My holy mountain in the mountain height of Israel, declares the Lord Jehovah, all the house of Israel shall serve Me there; all of them in the land. There I will accept them; and there I will seek your heave offerings, and the first-fruits of your offerings, with all your holy things. ⁴¹I will accept you with a soothing aroma, when I bring you from the peoples and gather you from the lands where you have been scattered in them. And I will be sanctified among you in the eyes of the nations. ⁴²And you shall know that I am Jehovah, when I bring you into the land of Israel, to the land for which I lifted up My hand to give it to your fathers. ⁴³And you shall remember there your ways and all your deeds by which you have been defiled in them. And you will hate yourselves to your faces for all your evils which you have done. ⁴⁴And you shall know that I am Jehovah, when I have worked with you for My name's sake; and not by your evil ways, nor by your corrupt deeds, O house of Israel, declares the Lord Jehovah.

⁴⁵And the word of Jehovah was to me, saying, ⁴⁶Son of man, set your face the way of the south, and drop a word toward the Negeb, and prophesy against the forest of the field of the Negeb. ⁴⁷And say to the forest of the Negeb, Hear the word of Jehovah, So says the Lord Jehovah: Behold, I will kindle a fire in you, and it will eat up every moist tree and every dry tree among you. The glowing of the flame shall not be put out; and by it shall be scorched all the faces from the Negeb to the north. ⁴⁸And all flesh shall see that I, Jehovah, have kindled it; it shall not be put out. ⁴⁹Then I said, Ah, Lord Jehovah! They are saying of me, Does he not speak in parables?

¹And the word of Jehovah was to me, saying, ²Son of man, set your face against Jerusalem and drop a word toward the holy places, and prophesy against the land of Israel. ³And say to the land of Israel, So says Jehovah: Behold, I am against you and will draw out My sword from its sheath, and I will cut off from you the righteous and the wicked. ⁴Since, then, I will cut off the righteous and the wicked from you, Therefore, My sword shall be drawn from its sheath against all flesh, from the Negeb to the north. ⁵And all flesh shall know that I, Jehovah, have drawn out My sword from its sheath; it shall not return any more. ⁶And you, son of man, groan with the breaking of your loins; and groan with bitterness before their eyes. ⁷And it will be, when they say to you, For what do you groan? Then you shall say, Because of the news that is coming; and every heart will melt; and all hands will become feeble; and every spirit will faint; and all knees will flow as water. Behold, it comes; and it shall be, declares the Lord Jehovah.

⁸And the word of Jehovah was to me, saying, ⁹Son of man, prophesy and say, So says the Lord; Say, A sword! A sword is sharpened, and also is polished! ¹⁰It is sharpened in order to slaughter; for a slaughter. It is polished so that there may be a flash to it. Or shall we rejoice? You are despising the rod of My Son, as if it were every tree. ¹¹And He has given it to be polished, to be taken by the hand. The sword, it is sharpened, and it is polished, to give it into the hand of the slayer. ¹²Cry out and howl, son of man. For it shall be on My people. It shall be on all the rulers of Israel; they are thrown to the sword with My people; so slap your thigh. ¹³Because it is a test; and what if even the despising rod shall not be? declares the Lord Jehovah. ¹⁴And you, son of man, prophesy and strike palm to palm. And let the sword be doubled the third time, the sword of the slain. It is the sword of the slain, the great one that surrounds them; ¹⁵so that their heart may melt, and many stumble at all their gates. I have given the threatening sword. Ah! It is made like lightning; it is wrapped for a slaughter. ¹⁶Sharpen yourself on the right! Set yourself on the left, wherever your face is appointed. ¹⁷And also I, I will strike My palm to My palm, and I will cause My fury to rest. I, Jehovah, have spoken.

¹⁸And the word of Jehovah was to me, saying, ¹⁹And you, son of man, set for yourself two ways, that the sword of the king of Babylon may come. Both of them shall come out from one land. And create a hand at the head of the way to the city; create it. ²⁰You shall set a way that the sword may enter into Rabbah of the sons of Ammon, and into Judah, into fortified Jerusalem. ²¹For the king of Babylon shall stand at the mother of the way, at the head of the two ways to practice divination. He shall shake arrows; he shall ask household idols; he shall look at the liver. ²²At his right shall be the divining for Jerusalem, to set battering rams, to open the mouth in the slaughter, to lift up the voice with shouting; to set battering rams against the gates; to pour out a mound, and to build a siege wall. ²³And it shall be to them an empty divining in their sight, those who have sworn oaths to them. But he will remember iniquity, that they may be taken. ²⁴So the Lord Jehovah says this: Because you made remembrance of your iniquity, in that your transgressions are uncovered, so that your sins are seen in all your deeds — because you have been remembered, you shall be taken with the palm. ²⁵And you, O slain, wicked prince of Israel, of whom has come his day in the time of iniquity of the end. ²⁶So says the Lord Jehovah: Remove the diadem and lift off the crown. This shall not be as this was. Lift up the low one, and make the high one low. ²⁷Ruin, ruin, ruin, I will appoint it! Also this shall not be until the coming of Him to whom is the right; and I will give it.

²⁸And you, son of man, prophesy and say, So says the Lord Jehovah concerning the sons of Ammon, and as to their shame; even say: The sword, the sword is drawn; it is polished for slaughter to make an end, so that it may be like lightning; ²⁹while they see vain visions for you; while they divine a lie to you, to put you on the necks of the slain of the wicked, of whom their day has come, in the time of iniquity it shall have an end. ³⁰Return it to its sheath. In the place where you were created, in the land of your origin, I will judge you. ³¹And I will pour out on you My disgust — with the fire of My wrath I will blow against you, and give you into the hand of burning men, skilled in destruction. ³²You shall be to the fire for food. Your blood shall be in the midst of the land. You shall not be remembered. For I, Jehovah, have spoken.

¹And the word of Jehovah was to me, saying, ²And you, son of man, will you judge; will you judge the bloody city? Then cause her to know all her abominations. ³Then you shall say, So says the Lord Jehovah: The city sheds blood in her midst, that her time may come; and makes idols against herself, to defile herself. ⁴By your blood which you have shed, you are guilty; and by your idols which you have made, you are defiled. And your days are brought near, and have come to your years. On account of this I have made you a reproach to the nations, and a mocking to all the lands. ⁵Those who are near, and those who are far from you, shall mock against you, O defiled of name, abounding in tumult. ⁶Behold, the rulers of Israel, each man by his might, have been in you to enter in and shed blood. ⁷In you they have despised father and mother. In your midst they have dealt with the alien by oppression. In you they oppressed the widow and the orphan. ⁸You have despised My holy things, and have profaned My sabbaths. ⁹In you are men of slander, in order to shed blood; and in you they eat on the mountains; in your midst they do unchaste acts. ¹⁰In you he has uncovered the nakedness of the father; in you they humbled the defiled by her impurity. ¹¹And a man has done abomination with his neighbor's wife; and a man has defiled his daughter-in-law in unchaste acts; and a man has humbled within you his sister, his father's daughter. ¹²In you they have taken bribes, in order to shed blood. You have taken interest and increase; and you have gained by extortion of your neighbor; and you have forgotten Me, declares the Lord Jehovah.

¹³And behold, I have struck My palm against your unjust gain which you have made, and at your blood which has been in your midst. ¹⁴Can your heart stand, or can your hands be strong, in the days that I shall deal with you? I, Jehovah, have spoken, and I will act. ¹⁵And I will scatter you among the nations, and sow you in the lands, and I will destroy your uncleanness out of you. ¹⁶And you will be profaned in you in the eyes of the nations. And you shall know that I am Jehovah.

¹⁷And the word of Jehovah was to me, saying, ¹⁸Son of man, the house of Israel has become dross to Me. All of them are bronze and tin, and iron and lead, in the middle of the furnace; they are the dross of silver. ¹⁹So the Lord Jehovah says this: Because all of you have become for dross, therefore, behold I will gather you into the midst of Jerusalem. ²⁰*As they* gather silver, and bronze, and iron, and lead, and tin, into the middle of the furnace, to blow the fire on it to melt it; so I will gather you in My anger and in My fury; and I will leave you there, and melt you. ²¹And I will collect you and blow on you in the fire of My wrath; and you shall be melted in its midst. ²²As silver is melted in the midst of the furnace, so you shall be melted in its midst. And you shall know that I, Jehovah, have poured out My fury on you.

²³And the word of Jehovah was to me, saying, ²⁴Son of man, speak to her: You are a land, she is not being cleansed; you are not rained on in the day of disgust. ²⁵A plot by her prophets is in her midst, like a roaring lion tearing prey. They have devoured souls; and they have taken the riches and gems; they multiplied her widows in her midst. ²⁶Her priests have violated My law and have profaned My holy things; they have not divided between the holy and the common; and between the unclean and clean they have not taught; and they have hidden their eyes from My sabbaths; and I am profaned among them. ²⁷Her rulers in her midst are like wolves tearing prey, to shed blood, to destroy souls, in order to gain unjust gain. ²⁸And her prophets have daubed themselves with lime, seeing empty visions, and divining to them lies, saying, So says the Lord Jehovah, when Jehovah has not spoken. ²⁹The people of the land have used oppression and practiced robbery; and they troubled the poor and the needy; and they have oppressed the stranger without justice. ³⁰And I sought among them a man to wall up a wall, and stand in the breach before Me for the land, that I should not destroy it; but I found not. ³¹So I have poured out on them My disgust, with the fire of My wrath I consumed them; I have given their way on their heads, states the Lord Jehovah.

¹And the word of Jehovah was to me, saying, ²Son of man, there were two women, daughters of one mother. ³And they played the harlot in Egypt; in their youth they whored there; their breasts were handled, and there their virgin nipples were squeezed. ⁴And their names were Oholah, the oldest; and Oholibah, her sister. And they were Mine, and they bore sons and daughters. And their names: Samaria is Oholah, and Jerusalem is Oholibah. ⁵And Oholah whored under Me. And she lusted after her lovers, to Assyrian neighbors, ⁶clothed with purple, governors and rulers, all of them desirable young men; horsemen riding horses. ⁷And she bestowed her harlotries on them, the choice sons of Assyria, with all of them, and with all whom she lusted after; she defiled herself with all their idols. ⁸And she did not leave her fornications from Egypt; for they lay with her in her youth, and they squeezed her virgin nipples, and poured their fornications on her. ⁹So I have given her into the hand of her lovers, into the hand of the sons of Assyria on whom she lusted. ¹⁰They uncovered her nakedness. They took her sons and her daughters. And they killed her with the sword. And she became notorious among women; and they executed judgments on her.

¹¹And her sister Oholibah saw; and she was more corrupt in her lust than she; and her fornications were greater than her sister's. ¹²She lusted to the sons of Assyria, neighboring governors and rulers clothed most perfectly; horsemen riding horses, all of them desirable young men. ¹³Then I saw that she was defiled; one way was to both of them. ¹⁴And she added to her fornications. And she saw men carved on the wall — images of the Chaldeans engraved with red color; ¹⁵girded with girdles on their loins; with overflowing turbans on their heads, the look of rulers, all of them, like the sons of Babylon in Chaldea, the land of their birth — ¹⁶and she lusted after them, to the look of her eyes, and sent messengers to them into Chaldea. ¹⁷And the sons of Babylon came to her, to the bed of love; and they defiled her with their fornications. And she was defiled with them, and her soul was alienated from them. ¹⁸And she uncovered her fornications and uncovered her nakedness. Then My soul was alienated from her, just as My soul was alienated from her sister. ¹⁹And she multiplied her fornications to recall the days of her youth, in which she had whored in the land of Egypt. ²⁰And she lusted on their lovers of whom the flesh of asses resembles their flesh; and as the issue of horses their issue. ²¹So you longed for the wickedness of your youth, when from Egypt they worked your nipples, for the sake of the breasts of your youth.

²²So, O Oholibah, the Lord Jehovah says this: Behold, I will arouse your lovers against you, from whom your soul is alienated. And I will bring them against you from all around, ²³Babylon's sons and all the Chaldeans, Pekod, and Shoa, and Koa, all the sons of Assyria with them — desirable young men, governors and rulers, all of them; third heads and called ones; all of them riding horses. ²⁴And they shall come against you with weapons, chariots, and wheels, and with a group of peoples; buckler and shield and helmet shall set against you all around. And I will give before them judgment, and they will judge you by their judgments. ²⁵And I will give My jealousy against you, and they will deal with you in fury. Your nose and your ears they will take, and the rest of you shall fall by the sword. They will take your sons and your daughters, and the rest of you shall be devoured by the fire. ²⁶And they will strip you of your clothes, and take the articles of your beauty. ²⁷And I will make cease your wickedness from you, and your fornication from the land of Egypt; and you shall not lift up your eyes to them; and Egypt shall not be remembered by you any more.

²⁸For so says the Lord Jehovah: Behold, I will give you in the hand of those whom you hate, in the hand of whom your soul was alienated from them. ²⁹And they shall deal with you in hatred, and take all your wealth, and shall leave you naked and bare. And the nudity of your adulteries will be bared, even your lewdness and your fornications. ³⁰These things will be done to you because you have whored after the nations, because that you are defiled with their idols. ³¹You have walked in the way of your sister, and I will give her cup into your hand. ³²So says the Lord Jehovah: You shall drink your sister's cup deep and wide; you shall be laughed at and mocked; for it holds much. ³³In drunkenness and sorrow you are filled, the cup of horror and ruin, the cup of your sister Samaria. ³⁴And you shall drink it and drain it. And you shall break its fragments, and tear off your breasts. For I have spoken, declares the Lord Jehovah. ³⁵So the Lord Jehovah says this: Because you have forgotten Me and cast Me behind your back, so also you bear your wickedness and your adulteries.

³⁶And Jehovah said to me, Son of man, will you judge Oholah and Oholibah? Then declare to them their abominations. ³⁷For they did adultery, and blood is on their hands. And they did adultery with their idols, and even their sons whom they bore to Me they make pass to them, to be devoured. ³⁸Even still they have done this to Me: They have defiled My sanctuary in that day, and have profaned My sabbaths. ³⁹And when they had slain their sons to their idols, then they came into My sanctuary in that day to profane it. And, lo, this they have done in the midst of My house. ⁴⁰Furthermore, they have sent for men to come from a distance, of whom a messenger was sent to them. And behold, they came, for whom you washed, painted your eyes, and were adorned with gems; ⁴¹and you sat on a glorious bed, and a table arranged before it, and My incense and My oil you set on it. ⁴²And the sound of a crowd at ease was with her; and drunkards from the wilderness were brought with the men of the host of mankind; and they put bracelets on their hands, and crowns of beauty on their heads. ⁴³Then I said about the one worn in adulteries, Will they now whore with her, and she with them? ⁴⁴And they went in to her, as they go in to a woman of harlotry, so they went in to Oholah and to Oholibah, the wicked women.

⁴⁵And as righteous men they shall judge them with the judgment of adulteresses, and the judgment of women who shed blood; because they are adulteresses, and blood is in their hands. ⁴⁶For so says the Lord Jehovah: Bring up on them an assembly, and give them to terror and plunder. ⁴⁷And the assembly shall stone them with stones, and cut them down with their swords. They shall slay their sons and their daughters, and they shall burn their houses with fire. ⁴⁸So I will make cease wickedness out of the land, that all the women may be taught, even not to do according to your wickedness. ⁴⁹And they shall put your wickedness on you, and you shall bear the sins of your idols. And you shall know that I am the Lord Jehovah.

¹And the word of Jehovah was to me, in the ninth year, in the tenth month, in the tenth day of the month, saying, ²Son of man, write for yourself the name of the day, this very day; the king of Babylon has leaned toward Jerusalem in this very day. ³And parable a parable to the house of rebellion, and say to them, So says the Lord Jehovah: Set on the pot! Set on, and also pour water in it. ⁴Gather its pieces into it, every good piece, the thigh and the shoulder. Fill it with choice bones; ⁵take the choice of the flock and also pile the bones under it; boiling make it boil; also let them seethe its bones in it.

¹⁵And the word of Jehovah was to me, saying, ¹⁶Son of man, behold, I am taking from you the desire of your eyes with a blow. Yet you shall not wail, and not weep, and your tears shall not come. ¹⁷Groan, but be silent; do not make a mourning for the dead. Bind your turban on you, and put your shoes on your feet, and do not cover over the mustache; and do not eat the bread of men.

¹⁸So I spoke to the people in the morning. And my wife died in the evening. And I did in the morning as I was commanded. ¹⁹And the people said to me, Will you not tell us what these things are to us, that you are doing? ²⁰Then I said to them, the word of Jehovah was to me, saying, ²¹Speak to the house of Israel, So says the Lord Jehovah: Behold, I will profane My sanctuary, the pride of your strength, the desire of your eyes, and that which your soul pities. And your sons and your daughters, whom you have forsaken, shall fall by the sword. ²²And you shall do as I have done. You shall not cover over the mustache, and you shall not eat the bread of men. ²³And your turbans shall be on your heads, and your shoes on your feet. You shall not wail nor weep; but you shall rot away in your iniquities, and each man groan to his brother. ²⁴So Ezekiel is for a sign to you. As all that he has done, you shall do. And when it comes, then you shall know that I am the Lord Jehovah.

²⁵And you, son of man, will it not be on the day when I take from them their strength, the joy of their beauty, the desire of their eyes, and the lifting up of their soul — their sons and their daughters? ²⁶He will come in that day, he who escaped to you, to cause you to hear with your ears. ²⁷In that day your mouth shall be opened to the escaped one, and you shall speak and not be dumb any longer. And you shall be to them a sign, and they shall know that I am Jehovah.

¹And the word of Jehovah was to me, saying, ²Son of man, set your face against the sons of Ammon and prophesy against them. ³And say to the sons of Ammon, Hear the word of the Lord Jehovah. So says the Lord Jehovah: Because you have said, Aha! against My sanctuary, when it was profaned, and against the land of Israel when it was ruined, and against the house of Judah when they went into exile; ⁴therefore, behold, I will give you to the sons of the east for a possession. And they shall set their camp sites among you, and put among you their dwellings. They shall eat your fruit, and they shall drink your milk. ⁵And I will give Rabbah for a pasture for camels, and the sons of Ammon for a resting place for flocks. And you shall know Jehovah. ⁶For so says the Lord Jehovah: Because you have clapped the hand, and you stamped the foot, and rejoiced with all your spite in your soul against the land of Israel; ⁷so, behold, I will stretch out My hand on you and will give you as a prize to the nations. And I will cut you off from the peoples, and I will make you perish from the lands. I will destroy you. And you shall know that I am Jehovah.

⁸So says the Lord Jehovah: Because Moab and Seir say, Behold, the house of Judah is like all the nations; ⁹so, behold, I will open the side of Moab from the cities, from his cities, from his borders, the glory of the land: Beth-jeshimoth, Baal-meon, and Kiriathaim. ¹⁰To the sons of the east, with the sons of Ammon, even I will give it for a possession so that the sons of Ammon may not be remembered among the nations. ¹¹And I will execute judgments on Moab. And they shall know that I am Jehovah.

¹²So says the Lord Jehovah: Because Edom has acted by taking vengeance against the house of Judah, and they are very guilty and are avenged on them, ¹³so the Lord Jehovah says this: I will stretch My hand on Edom and will cut off from it man and beast; and I will lay it waste. From Teman even to Dedan they shall fall by the sword. ¹⁴And I will put My vengeance on Edom by the hand of My people Israel. And they shall do in Edom as is My anger and as is My fury. And they shall know My vengeance, declares the Lord Jehovah.

¹⁵So says the Lord Jehovah: Because the Philistines have acted in vengeance and have taken vengeance with spite in their soul, to destroy with perpetual enmity; ¹⁶so the Lord Jehovah says this, Behold, I will stretch My hand on the Philistines, and I will cut off the Chereythim and will destroy the rest of the coast of the sea. ¹⁷And I will execute on them great vengeance with rebukes of fury. And when I put My vengeance on them, they will know that I am Jehovah.

¹And it was in the eleventh year, in the first of the month, the word of Jehovah was to me, saying, ²Son of man, because Tyre has said against Jerusalem, Aha! She is shattered, the doors of the peoples; she has turned to me; I shall be filled; she is laid waste. ³So the Lord Jehovah says this, Behold, I am against you, O Tyre.

And I will cause to go up against you many nations, as the sea causes its waves to go up. ⁴And they shall destroy the walls of Tyre and break down her towers. I will also scrape her dust from her and make her like a shining rock. ⁵It shall be a spreading place for nets in the middle of the sea. For I have spoken, declares the Lord Jehovah. And she shall be a spoil to the nations. ⁶And her daughters who are in the field shall be killed by the sword. And they shall know that I am Jehovah.

⁷For so says the Lord Jehovah: Behold, I will bring on Tyre from the north, Nebuchadnezzar, king of Babylon, a king of kings, with horses, and with chariots, and with a company of horsemen, even many people. ⁸He shall kill your daughters in the field with the sword. And he shall give siege-walls against you and pour out a mound against you, and raise a buckler against you. ⁹And he will set the blow of his ram against your walls; and he will break down your towers with his axes. ¹⁰From the multitude of his horses their dust shall cover you. From the sound of the horsemen, and the wheels, and the chariots, your walls shall shake, when he goes into your gates, as they enter a city that is breached. ¹¹With the hoofs of his horses he will trample all your streets. He shall kill your people by the sword, and the pillars of your strength shall go down to the ground. ¹²And they shall strip your wealth and plunder your merchandise. And they shall tear down your walls and destroy your desirable houses. And they shall set your stones and your timbers and your dust in the midst of the water. ¹³And I will make cease the noise of your songs. And the sound of your harps shall not be heard any more. ¹⁴And I will make you like a shining rock. You shall be a spreading place for nets; you shall not be built any more. For I, Jehovah, have spoken, declares the Lord Jehovah.

¹⁵So says the Lord Jehovah to Tyre: Shall not the coastlands shake at the sound of your fall, when the slain groan, in the slaying of the slaughter in your midst? ¹⁶And shall come down from their thrones all the rulers of the sea and lay aside their robes and strip off their embroidered garments. They shall be clothed with tremblings; they shall sit on the ground and shall tremble at every moment, and be appalled at you. ¹⁷And they shall take up a lament for you and say to you, How you are perished, who lived by the seas, the city well-praised, which was strong in the sea, she and her dwellers, who put their terror on all her dwellers! ¹⁸Now the coasts shall tremble in the day of your fall. And the coasts that are by the sea shall be troubled at your going down. ¹⁹For so says the Lord Jehovah: When I shall make you a ruined city, like the cities that do not have dwellers; when I shall bring up on you the deep and great waters shall cover you; ²⁰and I shall bring you down with those who go into the Pit, with the people of old time, and I shall set you in the earth's lowest parts, in places ruined from days of old, with ones who go to the Pit, so that you have no dwellers — but I gave glory in the land of the living — ²¹I will give you terrors; and you will not be. Though you are sought, yet you shall not be found any more forever, declares the Lord Jehovah.

¹And the word of Jehovah was to me, saying, ²And you, son of man, take up a lament in Tyre. ³And say to Tyre, O you who dwell at the entrances of the sea, a merchant of the peoples for many coast-lands, so says the Lord Jehovah: O Tyre, you have said, I am perfect of beauty. ⁴In the heart of the seas are your borders; your builders have perfected your beauty. ⁵They have made for you all your planks of fir-trees of Senir; they have taken a cedar from Lebanon to make a mast for you. ⁶They have made your oars of the oaks of Bashan. They made your deck with ivory from the coasts of Chittim, daughter of Assyria. ⁷Your sail was of fine linen with embroidered work from Egypt, an ensign for you; violet and purple from the coasts of Elishah was your covering. ⁸The residents of Sidon and Arvad were rowers to you. Your wise ones, O Tyre, they were your sailors. ⁹The elders of Gebal and her wise men were with you, reinforcing your seams. All the ships of the sea and their seamen were with you, to exchange your merchandise. ¹⁰Persia and Lud and Lydia were in your army, men of war to you; they hung the shield and the helmet in you; they gave your splendor. ¹¹The sons of Arvad and your army were on your walls all around; and warriors were in your towers. They hung their weapons on your walls all around; they have perfected your beauty.

¹³Javan, Tubal and Meshech, they were your merchants; they gave the souls of men and vessels of bronze for your goods.

¹⁴From the house of Togarmah they gave horses and war-horses and mules for your wares. ¹⁵The sons of Dedan were your merchants; many coast-lands were the traffic of your hand. Tusks of ivory and ebony they brought as your gift.

¹⁶Syria was your trader from the multitude of your works, with jewels, purple, and embroidered work, and fine linen, and coral, and rubies they gave for your wares.

¹⁷Judah and the land of Israel were your merchants; with wheat from Minnith and Pannag, and honey and oil and balm they gave for your goods.

¹⁸Damascus was your trader in the multitude of your works, from the multitude of all your wealth; in the wine of Helbon, and white wool. ¹⁹And Dan and Javan going about gave for your wares; smooth iron, cassia, and cane were among your goods.

²⁰Dedan was your merchant in loose cloths for riding. ²¹Arabia and all the princes of Kedar, they were traders of your hand, in lambs and rams and goats; in them was your trade.

²²The merchants of Sheba and Raamah were your merchants; with the chief of all the spices, and with every precious stone, and gold, they gave for your wares.

²³Haran, and Canneh, and Eden, the merchants of Sheba, Assyria, Chilmad were your merchants; ²⁴they were your merchants in perfect things, in violet cloth and embroidered work, and in carpets of many colors, with tightly bound cords, and cedars among your merchandise.

²⁵The ships of Tarshish were the travelers of your goods. And you were filled and made very glorious in the heart of the seas.

²⁶Your rowers made you come into great waters; the east wind has broken you in the heart of the seas. ²⁷Your wealth and your wares and your goods, your seamen and your sailors reinforcing your seams, and the traders of your goods, and all your men of war who are in you, and all your assembly which is in your midst, shall fall into the heart of the seas in the day of your ruin. ²⁸At the sound of the cry of your sailors the pasture lands will shake. ²⁹And all who handle the oar shall come down from their ships, the seamen, all the sailors of the sea; they shall stand on the land, ³⁰and will make heard their voice against you, and will cry bitterly, and will cause to go up dust on their heads; they will wallow in the ashes.

³¹And they shall be bald for you and gird with sackcloth; and they shall weep for you with bitterness of soul, a bitter wailing. ³²And they shall take up for you a lament in their mourning and will lament over you: Who is like Tyre, as she who is quiet in the midst of the sea? ³³When your wares went out from the seas, you satisfied many peoples. With the plenty of your riches and your goods you enriched the kings of the earth. ³⁴At this time you are broken from the seas, by the depths of the waters your goods and all your assembly have fallen in your midst. ³⁵All the dwellers of the coasts are appalled at you; and their kings are horribly terrified; faces tremble. ³⁶The traders among the peoples hiss over you; you have become terrors. And until forever you shall not be.

¹And the word of Jehovah was to me, saying, ²Son of man, say to the ruler of Tyre, So says the Lord Jehovah, Because your heart is lifted up and you have said, I am a god; I sit in the seat of gods, in the heart of the seas — yet you are a man, and not God, though you give your heart as the heart of gods — ³Behold, you are wiser than Daniel; every one of the secret things are not hidden to you. ⁴With your wisdom and with your understanding you have made riches for yourself, and have worked gold and silver into your treasures. ⁵By your great wisdom, by your trade you have multiplied your riches, and your heart is lifted up because of your riches. ⁶So the Lord Jehovah says this: Because you have given your heart as the heart of gods, ⁷behold, so I will bring on you awesome strangers of the nations, And they shall draw their swords against the beauty of your wisdom and will profane your splendor. ⁸They will cause you to go down to the Pit, and you shall die the deaths of the slain in the heart of the seas. ⁹Will you still say, I am of the gods before him who strikes you? But you are a man, and not God, in the hands of him who pierces you. ¹⁰You shall die the deaths of the uncircumcised, by the hand of strangers. For I have spoken, says the Lord Jehovah.

¹¹And the word of Jehovah was to me, saying, ¹²Son of man, lift up a lament over the king of Tyre, and say to him, So says the Lord Jehovah: You seal the measure, full of wisdom and perfect in beauty. ¹³You have been in Eden the garden of God; every precious stone was your covering, the ruby, the topaz, and the diamond, the beryl, the onyx, and the jasper, the sapphire, the turquoise, and the emerald, and gold. The workmanship of your tabrets and of your pipes in you—in the day you were created, they were prepared. ¹⁴You were the anointed cherub that covers, and I had put you in the holy height of God, where you were. You walked up and down in the midst of the stones of fire. ¹⁵You were perfect in your ways from the day you were created, until iniquity was found in you. ¹⁶By the multitude of your trade they filled your midst with violence, and you sinned. So I cast you defiled from the height of God, and I destroyed you, O covering cherub, from among the stones of fire. ¹⁷Your heart was lifted up because of your beauty; you corrupted your wisdom because of your splendor. I have cast you to the ground. I will put you before kings, that they may see you. ¹⁸By the host of your iniquities, by the iniquity of your trade, you have profaned your holy places; thus I brought a fire from your midst; it shall devour you, and I will give you for ashes on the earth, in the sight of all who see you. ¹⁹All who know you among the peoples shall be appalled at you; you shall be terrors, and you will not be forever.

²⁰And the word of Jehovah was to me, saying, ²¹Son of man, set your face against Sidon and prophesy against her. ²²And say, So says the Lord Jehovah, Behold, I am against you, O Sidon, and I will be glorified in your midst. And they shall know that I am Jehovah, when I have done judgments in her, and shall be sanctified by her. ²³And I will send a plague into her, and blood into her streets. And the slain will fall in her midst by the sword, on her from all around. And they shall know that I am Jehovah.

²⁴And there will not be a pricking brier or a painful thorn to the house of Israel any more, from all who surround them, who hate them. And they shall know that I am the Lord Jehovah. ²⁵So says the Lord Jehovah: When I have gathered the house of Israel from the peoples of whom they are dispersed among them, and have been sanctified in them in the sight of the nations, then they shall dwell on their land which I have given to My servant Jacob. ²⁶And they shall dwell in it securely, and shall build houses and plant vineyards. Yes, they shall dwell securely, when I have done judgments on all those who hate them round about them. And they shall know that I am Jehovah their God.

¹In the tenth year, in the tenth month, in the twelfth of the month, the word of Jehovah was to me, saying, ²Son of man, set your face against Pharaoh king of Egypt, and prophesy against him and against Egypt, all of it. ³Speak and say, So says the Lord Jehovah: Behold, I am against you, Pharaoh king of Egypt, great monster who lies in the midst of his rivers, who has said, My river is mine, and I have made it. ⁴But I will put hooks in your jaws, and I will cause to stick to your scales the fish of your rivers; and I will bring you up from amidst your rivers, and all the fish of your rivers shall stick to your scales. ⁵And I will leave you to the wilderness, you and all the fish of your rivers; you shall fall on the open field; you shall not be removed or gathered. I have given you to the beasts of the field and to the birds of the heavens for food. ⁶And all the inhabitants of Egypt shall know that I am Jehovah, because they have been a staff of reed to the house of Israel. ⁷When they seized you by your hand, you broke and tore off all their shoulder. And when they leaned on you, you shattered and made all their loins stand.

⁸So the Lord Jehovah says this: Behold, I will bring on you a sword and cut off from you man and beast. ⁹And the land of Egypt shall become for a desolation and a waste; and they shall know that I am Jehovah, because he has said, The River is mine, and I have made it. ¹⁰So, behold, I am against you and against your rivers; and I will give the land of Egypt for an utter waste and a desolation, from Migdol to Syene, even to the border of Ethiopia. ¹¹The foot of man shall not pass through it; and the foot of beast shall not pass through it; and you shall not dwell forty years. ¹²And I will make the land of Egypt a desolation in the midst of the lands that are desolate; and her cities shall be desolate among the wasted cities forty years. And I will disperse Egypt among the nations, and sow them among the lands.

¹³For so says the Lord Jehovah: At the end of forty years I will gather Egypt from the peoples where they are scattered there. ¹⁴And I will return the captivity of Egypt and will make them return to the land of Pathros, to the land of their origin. And they shall be a lowly kingdom there. ¹⁵It shall be the lowest of the kingdoms, and shall not lift itself any more above the nations. And I will diminish them so that they will not rule over the nations. ¹⁶And it shall not be any more as confidence for the house of Israel, recalling the iniquity of their turning after them. And they shall know that I am the Lord Jehovah.

¹⁷And it came about, in the twenty-seventh year, in the first month, in the first of the month, the word of Jehovah was to me, saying, ¹⁸Son of man, Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon made his army to serve a great service against Tyre. Every head was made bald, and every shoulder was rubbed bare. Yet there was no hire to him or to his army from Tyre, for the service that he had served against it.

¹⁹So the Lord Jehovah says this: Behold, I will give to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon the land of Egypt. And he shall carry her host and spoil her spoil, and seize her plunder. And it shall be hire for his army. ²⁰For his labor which he served against it, I have given him the land of Egypt, because they worked for Me, declares the Lord Jehovah.

²¹In that day I will make a horn bud to the house of Israel, and I will give to you the opening of the mouth in their midst. And they shall know that I am Jehovah.

¹And the word of Jehovah was to me, saying, ²Son of man, prophesy and say, So says the Lord Jehovah: Howl, Alas for the day! ³For the day is near, even the day of Jehovah is near, a day of clouds; it shall be the time of the nations. ⁴And the sword shall come on Egypt, and anguish shall be in Ethiopia, when the slain shall fall in Egypt, and they shall take her host; and her foundations shall be razed. ⁵Ethiopia, and Lydia, and Lud, and all the mixed people; and Chub, and the sons of the land of the covenant with them, shall fall by the sword.

⁶So says Jehovah: Even those leaning on Egypt shall fall, and the pride of her power shall go down. From Migdol to Syene they shall fall with her by the sword, declares the Lord Jehovah. ⁷And they will be ruined amidst the wasted lands; and her cities shall be in the midst of the desolated cities. ⁸And they shall know that I am Jehovah, when I set a fire in Egypt, and all her helpers shall be crushed. ⁹In that day messengers shall go out from before Me in ships, to terrify the confident Ethiopia, and anguish shall be on them, as in the day of Egypt; for behold it is coming.

¹⁰So says the Lord Jehovah: I will make the multitude of Egypt cease by the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon. ¹¹He and his people with him, awesome of the nations, shall be brought to corrupt the land. And they shall draw their swords against Egypt and fill the lands with the slain. ¹²And I will make the rivers dry, and sell the land into the hand of evil ones.

And I will waste the land, and her fullness, by the hand of strangers. I Jehovah have spoken.

¹³So says the Lord Jehovah: I will also destroy the idols, and I will make vanities cease from Noph. And there shall not any longer be a prince of the land of Egypt. And I will put fear in the land of Egypt.

¹⁴And I will make Pathros desolate, and will set a fire in Zoan, and will do judgments in Thebes. ¹⁵And I will pour my fury on Sin, the strength of Egypt. And I will cut off the multitude of Thebes. ¹⁶And I will set a fire in Egypt; Sin shall greatly anguish; and Thebes shall be broken through; and Noph shall have daily woes; the young men of Aven and Pibeseth shall fall by the sword; and they shall go into captivity. ¹⁸At Tehaphnehes the day will be held back, when I shatter there the yokes of Egypt. And the pride of her strength shall cease in her; a cloud shall cover her; and her daughters shall go into captivity. ¹⁹And I will do judgments in Egypt. And they shall know that I am Jehovah.

²⁰And it was, in the eleventh year, in the first month in the seventh of the month, the word of Jehovah was to me, saying, ²¹Son of man, I have shattered the arm of Pharaoh king of Egypt. And behold, it shall not be bound up to give healing, to set a bandage to bind it, to make it strong to handle the sword. ²²So the Lord Jehovah says this: Behold, I am against Pharaoh king of Egypt, and I will shatter his arms, the strong one, and the shattered one. And I will cause the sword to fall out of his hand. ²³And I will scatter Egypt among the nations, and will sow them through the lands. ²⁴And I will strengthen the arms of the king of Babylon, and put My sword in his hand. But I will shatter the arms of Pharaoh, and he will groan with the groanings of the slain before him. ²⁵But I will make the arms of the king of Babylon stronger, and the arms of Pharaoh shall fall; and they shall know that I am Jehovah, when I put My sword into the king of Babylon's hand — and he will stretch it against the land of Egypt. ²⁶And I will scatter Egypt among the nations, and sow them among the lands. And they shall know that I am Jehovah.

¹And it came about, in the eleventh year, in the third month, on the first of the month, the word of Jehovah was to me, saying, ²Son of man, speak to Pharaoh king of Egypt and to his host: To whom are you like in your greatness? ³Behold, Assyria was a cedar in Lebanon, with fair branches and forest shade, and exalted in height; and his top was among the thick boughs. ⁴The waters made him great; the deep made him high with her rivers, going all around her planting; and she sent out her channels to all the trees of the field. ⁵On account of this his height was lifted up above all the trees of the field, and his boughs were multiplied, and his branches became long, because of the many waters, in his sending. ⁶All the birds of the heavens nested in his boughs, and under his branches all the beasts of the field gave birth; and in his shadow dwelt all great nations. ⁷And he was fair in his greatness, in the length of his branches. For his root was to many waters. ⁸The cedars did not overshadow him in the garden of God; the fir-trees were not like his boughs; and the plane trees were not like his branches. Every tree in the garden of God was not like him in his beauty. ⁹I have made him beautiful by his many branches, and all the trees of Eden that were in the garden of God envied him.

¹⁰So the Lord Jehovah says this: Because you were exalted in height, and he has set his top among the thick boughs, and his heart is lifted up in his height; ¹¹so I have given him into the mighty hand of the nations. He shall surely deal with him; I have expelled him for his evil. ¹²And strangers have cut him off, the fearful of the nations, and have left him. His branches have fallen on the mountains and in all the valleys, and his boughs have been broken in all the ravines of the land. And all the people of the land have gone from his shadow, and have left him. ¹³All the birds of the heavens shall dwell on his ruin, and on his branches shall be all the beasts of the field, ¹⁴in order that all the trees by the waters may not be exalted in their height, and do not give their top among the thick boughs; and do not stand up in their mighty exaltation, all drinking waters. For all of them are given to death, to the earth's lowest parts, in the midst of the sons of men, with those going down into the Pit.

¹⁵So says the Lord Jehovah: In the day he went down to Sheol, I caused a mourning. I covered over him the deep, and I held back her rivers; and many waters were confined. And I darkened Lebanon on him, and all the trees of the field wilted away because of him. ¹⁶I made the nations shake at the sound of his fall, when I cast him down in the Pit. And all the trees of Eden shall be cheered in the earth's lowest parts, the choice and best of Lebanon, all that drink waters. ¹⁷They also went down with him into Sheol, to the slain of the sword, even his arm, who dwelt in his shadow in the midst of the nations.

¹⁸To whom are you like in glory and greatness among Eden's trees? Yet you shall go down with the trees of Eden to the earth's lowest parts. You shall lie amidst the uncircumcised, with the slain of the sword. He is Pharaoh and all his host, declares the Lord Jehovah.

¹And it happened in the twelfth year, in the twelfth month, on the first of the month, the word of Jehovah was to me, saying, ²Son of man, take up a lament over Pharaoh, king of Egypt, and say to him, You were like a young lion of the nations, but you are like the monster in the seas. And you gushed in your rivers, and stirred up the waters with your feet, and fouled their rivers. ³So says the Lord Jehovah: So I will spread out My net over you, with an assembly of many peoples; and they will lift you up in My net. ⁴Then I will leave you on the land; I will hurl you on the face of the field, and will make all the birds of the heavens to dwell on you; and I will fill the beasts of all the earth from you. ⁵And I will put your flesh on the mountains, and fill the valleys with your height. ⁶And I will also make the land drink your discharge of your blood, to the mountains; and the ravines shall be full of you. ⁷And I will cover the heavens

when I quench you, and will darken their stars. I will cover the sun with a cloud, and the moon shall not give its light. ⁸I will darken all the shining lights in the heavens over you, and will give darkness on your land, declares the Lord Jehovah. ⁹I will also vex the heart of many peoples when I bring your breaking among the nations, to the lands which you have not known. ¹⁰And I will make many people appalled at you, and their kings will be horribly afraid at you, when I make to fly My sword before their faces. And they shall quake at every moment, each man for his own life, in the day of your fall.

¹¹For so says the Lord Jehovah: The sword of the king of Babylon shall come on you. ¹²By the swords of the mighty I will make your host fall, by the fearful of the nations, all of them. And they shall spoil the pride of Egypt, and all its multitude shall be destroyed. ¹³I will also destroy all her beasts from on the great waters; and the foot of man shall not stir them any longer; and the hoofs of beasts shall not stir them up. ¹⁴Then I will make their waters settle, and cause their rivers to run as oil, says the Lord Jehovah. ¹⁵When I shall make the land of Egypt a ruin, and the land shall be stripped of its fullness; when I shall strike all those who dwell in it; then they shall know that I am Jehovah.

¹⁶This is the lament, and they shall lament her; the daughters of the nations shall lament her. Over Egypt and over all her multitude, they shall lament her, declares the Lord Jehovah.

¹⁷And it happened, in the twelfth year, in the fifteenth of the month, the word of Jehovah was to me, saying, ¹⁸Son of man, wail over the host of Egypt, and bring it down, her and the daughters of the majestic nations, to the earth's lowest parts, with those going down to the Pit. ¹⁹Than whom are you more lovely? Go down and be laid with the uncircumcised. ²⁰They shall fall in the midst of the slain of the sword. She is given to the sword; they draw her and all her multitudes. ²¹The strong of the mighty shall speak to him from the midst of Sheol; they went with his helpers; they, the uncircumcised, lie slain by the sword. ²²There is Assyria and all her assembly; all around him are his graves; all of them are slain, fallen by the sword; ²³of whom are given her graves in the recesses of the Pit; and her assembly is all around her grave; all of them slain, fallen by the sword, because they gave terror in the land of the living. ²⁴There is Elam and all her multitude around her grave; all of them slain, fallen by the sword, who went down uncircumcised into the earth's lowest parts; who gave their terror in the land of the living. Yet they bore their shame with those going down to the Pit. ²⁵In the midst of the slain, they have put a bed for her, with all her multitude; her graves are all around him, all of them uncircumcised, slain by the sword; though their terror was given in the land of the living, yet they have become their shame with those going down to the Pit; he is put among the slain.

²⁶There is Meshech, Tubal, and all her multitude; all around him are her graves; all of them uncircumcised, slain by the sword; though they gave their terror in the land of the living. ²⁷And they shall not lie with the mighty of the uncircumcised who are fallen, who have gone down to Sheol with their weapons of war. And they have put their swords under their heads, but their iniquities shall be on their bones; though the terror of the mighty was in the land of the living. ²⁸And you shall be broken in the midst of the uncircumcised, and shall lie with the slain by the sword.

²⁹There is Edom, her kings and all her rulers, who are placed in their might with the slain of the sword; they shall lie with the uncircumcised, and with those going down to the Pit. ³⁰These are the princes of the north, all of them, and all the Sidonians, who have gone down with the slain in their terror. They are ashamed of their might. And they lie uncircumcised with those slain by the sword, and bear their shame with those going down to the Pit. ³¹Pharaoh shall see them, and be cheered over all his multitude, those slain by the sword, Pharaoh and all the army, declares the Lord Jehovah. ³²For I had put his terror in the land of the living; but he will be laid among the uncircumcised, with those slain by sword, Pharaoh and all his multitude, declares the Lord Jehovah.

¹And the word of Jehovah was to me, saying, ²Son of man, speak to the sons of your people and say to them: When I bring the sword on it, on a land, and take one man from the people of the land, their borders, and set him for a watchman to them; ³and when he sees the sword coming on the land, and he blows the ram's horn and warns the people, and the hearer hears the sound of the ram's horn, ⁴and does not take warning; and the sword comes and takes him; his blood shall be on his own head. ⁵He heard the sound of the ram's horn, and did not take warning; his blood shall be on himself. But he who took warning, he shall deliver his soul. ⁶But if the watchman sees the sword coming, and does not blow the ram's horn, and the people are not warned; and the sword comes and takes a soul from them, he is taken in his iniquity. But I will require his blood from the watchman's hand.

⁷And you, son of man, I have set you as a watchman to the house of Israel. And you shall hear the word from My mouth, and warn them from Me. ⁸When I say to the wicked, O wicked one, surely you shall die; and you do not speak to warn the wicked one from his way, that wicked one shall die in his iniquity, but I will require his blood from your hand. ⁹But you, if you warn the wicked from his way, to turn from it; and he does not turn from his way; he shall die in his iniquity. But you have delivered your soul. ¹⁰And you, son of man, say to the house of Israel, This you have spoken, saying, Surely our transgressions and our sins are on us, and we are rotting in them, even then shall we live? ¹¹Say to them, As I live, declares the Lord Jehovah, I do not have pleasure in the death of the wicked, except in the wicked turning from his way, and so to live. Turn! Turn from your evil ways! For why will you die, O house of Israel?

¹²And you, son of man, say to the sons of your people, The righteousness of the righteous shall not deliver him in the day of his trespass. And the evil of the evil; in the day he turns from his wickedness, he shall not fall by it. And the righteous shall not be able to live by it, in the day he sins. ¹³Though I say to the righteous, He shall surely live; yet he trusts in his own righteousness, and commits iniquity; all his righteousness shall not be remembered. But he shall die for his iniquity which he has done. ¹⁴And though I say to the wicked, You shall surely die; if he turns from his sin and does justice and righteousness; ¹⁵*if* the wicked returns the pledge; he repays the thing stolen; he walks in the statutes of life, not doing iniquity; he shall surely live; he shall not die. ¹⁶All his sins which he has sinned shall not be remembered to him; he has done justice and righteousness; he shall surely live. ¹⁷Yet the sons of your people say, The way of the Lord is not fair. But they, even their way is not fair. ¹⁸When the righteous turns from his righteousness, and does iniquity, he shall even die by them. ¹⁹But if the wicked turns from his wickedness, and does justice and righteousness, he shall live by them. ²⁰Yet you say, The way of the Lord is not fair. I shall judge you, each man by his ways, O house of Israel.

²¹And it happened in the twelfth year, in the tenth month, on the fifth of the month of our exile, one who escaped out of Jerusalem came to me, saying, The city has been stricken. ²²And the hand of Jehovah was on me in the evening, before the escaped one came. And He had opened my mouth until that one came in the morning. And my mouth was opened, and I was no longer dumb. ²³And the word of Jehovah was to me, saying, ²⁴Son of man, the inhabitants of ruins are speaking, these in the land of Israel, saying, Abraham was one, and he possessed the land; but we are many; the land is given to us for a possession. ²⁵So say to them, So says the Lord Jehovah: You eat on the blood, and you lift your eyes up to your idols, and you shed blood. And shall you possess the land? ²⁶You stand on your sword, and you each do abominations, defiling his neighbor's wife. And shall you possess the land? ²⁷Say this to them, So says the Lord Jehovah: As I live, surely those in the ruins shall fall by the sword; and I will give the one who is on the face of the field to the beasts to be eaten; and those in the forts, and in the caves, shall die by the plague. ²⁸For I shall make the land desolate, and a waste; and the pride of her strength shall cease. And the heights of Israel shall be a waste, that none will go through. ²⁹And they shall know that I am Jehovah, when I have made the land desolate and a waste, because of all their abominations which they have done.

³⁰And you, son of man, the sons of your people are talking about you beside the walls, and in the doors of the houses. And one speaks to another, each man with his brother, saying, Come now and hear what the word is which comes from Jehovah. ³¹And they come to you as people come; and they sit before you as My people. And they hear your words; but they do not do them. For they produce much love with their mouth, but their heart goes after their unjust gain. ³²And, behold, you are to them as a song of love: a beautiful voice, and playing well on an instrument. For they hear your words, but they are not doing them. ³³So when it comes — behold, it is coming — then they will know that a prophet has been in their midst.

¹And the word of Jehovah was to me, saying, ²Son of man, prophesy against the shepherds of Israel. Prophesy and say to them, to the shepherds, So says the Lord Jehovah: Woe to the shepherds of Israel who are feeding themselves! Should not the shepherds feed the flock? ³You eat the fat, and clothe yourselves with the wool; you sacrifice the fat ones; you do not feed the flock. ⁴You have not made the weak strong, and you have not healed the sick; and you have not bound up the broken. And the banished have not been brought back, and you have not sought the lost; but you rule them with force and with harshness. ⁵And they were scattered for lack of a shepherd. And they became food to all the beasts of the field, when they were scattered. ⁶My sheep strayed through all the mountains and on every high hill. And My sheep were scattered on all the face of the earth; and none searched, and none sought for them. ⁷For this reason, shepherds, hear the word of Jehovah: ⁸*As* I live, declares the Lord Jehovah, surely because My sheep became a prey, and My sheep became food for all the beasts of the field, from not having a shepherd; and because My shepherds did not search for My sheep, but the shepherds fed themselves, and did not feed the flock; ⁹so, O shepherds, hear the word of Jehovah: ¹⁰So says the Lord Jehovah: Behold, I am against the shepherds, and I will require My sheep from their hand, and cause them to cease from pasturing the sheep. And the shepherds shall no longer feed themselves, for I will deliver My sheep from their mouth; and they will not be food to devour.

¹¹For so says the Lord Jehovah: Behold, I Myself will search for My sheep, and seek them out. ¹²As a shepherd seeks his flock in the day that he is among his scattered sheep, so I will seek out My sheep, and will deliver them from all the places where they were scattered, in a day of cloud and thick cloud. ¹³And I will bring them out from the peoples, and gather them from the lands, and will bring them to their land, and feed them on the mountains of Israel, by the ravines, and in all the dwelling-places of the land. ¹⁴I will feed them in a good pasture, and on the high mountains of Israel their fold shall be; they shall lie there in a good fold, and they shall feed in a fat pasture, all the mountains of Israel. ¹⁵I will feed My sheep, and I will make them lie down, declares the Lord Jehovah. ¹⁶I will seek the lost, and I will return the banished. And I will bind up the broken, and I will make the weak strong. But I will destroy the fat and the strong; I will feed them with judgment. ¹⁷And you, My flock, so says the Lord Jehovah: Behold, I judge between lamb and lamb, between rams and he-goats. ¹⁸Is it a small thing to you to have fed on the good pasture, but you must trample the rest of your pastures with your feet? And have you drunk of the clear waters, but the rest you must foul with your feet?

¹⁹And My sheep, what your feet have trampled, they must feed on. And what your feet fouled, they must drink. ²⁰So the Lord Jehovah says this to them: Behold, I Myself will even judge between the fat lamb and the lean lamb. ²¹Because you have thrust with side and with shoulder, and have pushed all the weak with your horns, until you have scattered them to the outside; ²²I also will save My sheep, and they shall no longer be for a prey; and I will judge between lamb and lamb. ²³And I will raise up over them one shepherd. And He shall feed them; My servant David, He shall feed them; and He shall be to them for a shepherd. ²⁴And I, Jehovah, will be their God; and My servant David shall be a ruler among them. I, Jehovah, have spoken. ²⁵And I will cut a covenant of peace with them, and make evil beasts cease out of the land. And they shall live in the wilderness securely, and sleep in the forests. ²⁶And I will make them and the places around My hill a blessing. And I will bring down the shower in its season; there shall be showers of blessing. ²⁷And the tree of the field shall yield its fruit, and the earth shall yield its increase. And they shall be securely on their land. And they shall know that I am Jehovah, when I have broken the staffs of their yoke, and have rescued them from the hand of those who enslaved them. ²⁸And they shall not any more be a prey to the nations; and the beast of the land shall not eat them; but they shall live securely, and no one shall terrify them. ²⁹And I will raise up for them a planting place of name; and they shall not any more be of those gathered by famine in the land. And they shall not any more bear the shame of the nations. ³⁰And they shall know that I, Jehovah their God am with them; and they are My people, the house of Israel, declares the Lord Jehovah. ³¹And you, My sheep, the sheep of My pasture, you are men; I am your God, declares the Lord Jehovah.

¹And the word of Jehovah was to me, saying, ²Son of man, set your face against Mount Seir, and prophesy against it. ³And say to it, So says the Lord Jehovah: Behold, I am against you, Mount Seir; and I will stretch My hand against you; and I will make you a ruin and a waste. ⁴I will lay your cities waste, and you shall be a ruin. And they shall know that I am Jehovah. ⁵Because there was to you never-ending enmity, and you poured out the sons of Israel to the hands of the sword in the time of their calamity, in the time of the iniquity of the end. ⁶Therefore, As I live, declares the Lord Jehovah, surely for blood I appoint you, and blood shall pursue you. Since you have not hated blood, so blood shall pursue you. ⁷And I will make Mount Seir a ruin and a waste, and cut off from it the one passing through, and the one returning. ⁸And I will fill his mountains with his slain. In your hills and in your valleys, and in your every torrent, the slain by the sword shall fall in them. ⁹I will make you forever those ruins, and your cities shall not be inhabited. And you shall know that I am Jehovah. ¹⁰Because you have said, These two nations and these two lands will be mine, and we shall possess it—Jehovah was there — ¹¹So, As I live, declares the Lord Jehovah, I will act by your anger and by envy which you have done out of your hatred against them; and I will be known among them when I have judged you. ¹²And you shall know that I am Jehovah. I have heard all your revilings which you have spoken against the mountains of Israel, saying, Desolation! They are given to us for food! ¹³And you magnified with your mouth against Me, and have multiplied your words against Me; I have heard. ¹⁴So says the Lord Jehovah: As all the earth rejoices, I will make you a ruin. ¹⁵As you rejoiced at the inheritance of the house of Israel, because they were a ruin, so I will do to you. You shall be a ruin, O Mount Seir, and all Edom, all of it! And they shall know that I am Jehovah.

¹And you, son of man, prophesy to Israel's mountains and say, O heights of Israel, hear the word of Jehovah. ²So says the Lord Jehovah: Because the enemy has spoken against you, saying, Aha! Everlasting heights have become a possession to us. ³So prophesy and say, So says the Lord Jehovah: Because; yea, because of the wasting and crushing of you from all around, that you might be a possession to the rest of the nations, and you were lifted on the lip of the tongue, and the talking of the people; 'so mountains of Israel, hear the word of the Lord Jehovah: So says the Lord Jehovah to the mountains and to the hills, to the ravines and to the valleys, to the wastes of desolation, and to the forsaken cities, which became a prey and a mocking to the rest of the nations that are all around. 'So the Lord Jehovah says this: Surely I have spoken in the fire of My jealousy against the rest of the nations, and against Edom, all those of her who have given My land to themselves for a possession with all joy of heart, with scorning of soul, in order to make it open land for a prey. 'So prophesy concerning the land of Israel, and say to the mountains and to the hills, to the ravines and to the valleys, So says the Lord Jehovah: Behold, I have spoken in My jealousy and in My fury, because you have borne the shame of the nations.

'So the Lord Jehovah says this: I have lifted up My hand; surely the nations that surround you, they shall bear their shame. 'But you, O mountains of Israel, you shall put out your branches and your fruit you shall bear for My people Israel. For they are drawing near to come. 'For behold, I am for you, and I will turn to you, and you shall be tilled and sown. 'And I will multiply men on you, all the house of Israel; all of it. And the cities shall be inhabited, and the wastes shall be built. 'And I will multiply men on you, and beast, and they will grow and be fruitful. And I will make you dwell as you formerly were; and I will do better than at your beginnings. And you shall know that I am Jehovah. 'I will cause men to walk on you, My people Israel; and they shall possess you, and you will be an inheritance to them, and will not any more increase their bereavement.

'So says the Lord Jehovah: Because they said to you, You are a devourer of men; and you have bereaved your nations; 'so you shall no longer devour men; and you shall not make your nations fall any more, declares the Lord Jehovah. 'And I will not let you hear the shame of the nations any longer; and you shall not bear the disgrace of the peoples any more; and you shall not cause your nations to fall any more, declares the Lord Jehovah.

'And the word of Jehovah was to me, saying, 'Son of man, when the house of Israel dwelt on their land, they even defiled it by their ways and by their doings—as the defilement of woman's impurity, their way was before Me. 'So I poured out My fury on them, because of the blood that they had poured out on the land, and for their idols by which they defiled it. 'And I scattered them among the nations, and they were sown among the lands; I judged them by their way and by their doings. 'And when they entered into the nations, there where they went; they even profaned My holy name, by saying to them, These are the people of Jehovah, and they are gone out of His land. 'But I had pity for My holy name which the house of Israel had profaned among the nations, there where they went.

'Therefore, say to the house of Israel, So says the Lord Jehovah: I do not do this for your sake, O house of Israel, but only for My holy name, which you profaned among the nations, there where you went.

'And I will sanctify My great name which was profaned among the nations, which you profaned among them. And the nations shall know that I am Jehovah, declares the Lord Jehovah, when I am sanctified in you in their eyes. 'For I will take you from the nations, and gather you out of all the lands, and bring you into your land. 'Then I will sprinkle clean waters on you, and you shall be clean. I will cleanse you from all your defilement and from all your idols. 'And I will also give you a new heart; and I will put a new spirit within you. And I will take away the stony heart out of your flesh, and I will give to you a heart of flesh. 'And I will put My Spirit within you, and cause you to walk in My statutes; and you shall keep My judgments, and do them. 'And you shall dwell in the land that I gave to your fathers. And you shall be a people to Me, and I will be God to you. 'I will also save you from all your defilements, and I will call for grain and increase it and I will not put a famine on you. ³⁰And I will multiply the fruit of the tree and the produce of the field in order that you will not any more receive the disgrace of famine among the nations. ³¹And you will remember your evil ways and your doings that were not good, and you will despise yourselves in your own eyes for your iniquities and for your abominations. ³²I am not doing this for your sake, states the Lord Jehovah; let it be known to you. Be ashamed and confounded for your ways, O house of Israel.

³³So says the Lord Jehovah: In the day I cleanse you from all your iniquities I will cause the cities to be inhabited, and the wastes shall be built. ³⁴And the desolated land shall be cultivated, rather than being a ruin in the eyes of all passing by. ³⁵And they shall say, This land that was desolated has become like the garden of Eden. And the wasted and desolated and razed cities are fortified and inhabited. ³⁶And all the nations around you shall know that I, Jehovah, built the razed places and planted that which was desolated. I, Jehovah have spoken it and will do it.

³⁷So says the Lord Jehovah: Yet for this I will be sought by the house of Israel, to work for them. I will increase them with men like a flock. ³⁸Like a holy flock, like the flock of Jerusalem in her appointed feasts, so the wasted cities shall be filled with flocks of men. And they shall know that I am Jehovah.

¹The hand of Jehovah was on me, and brought me by the Spirit of Jehovah, and made me rest in the midst of a valley; and it was full of bones. ²And He made me pass among them all around. And, behold, very many were on the face of the valley. And, behold! They were very dry. ³And He said to me, Son of man,, can these bones live? And I said, O Lord Jehovah, You know. ⁴And He said to Me, Prophecy to these bones and say to them, O dry bones, hear the word of Jehovah: ⁵So says the Lord Jehovah to these bones: Behold, I cause breath to enter into you, and you shall live, ⁶and I will put on you sinews, and will bring flesh on you and spread skin over you and put breath in you, and you shall live. And you shall know that I am Jehovah. ⁷So I prophesied as I was commanded. And as I prophesied, there was a noise. And, behold, a shaking! And the bones drew near, a bone to its bone. ⁸And I watched. And, behold! The sinews and the flesh came up on them, and the skin spread over them from above. But there was no breath in them. ⁹Then He said to me, Prophecy to the Spirit. Prophecy, son of man, and say to the Spirit, So says the Lord Jehovah: Come from the four winds, O Spirit, and breathe on these slain ones, that they may live. ¹⁰So I prophesied as He commanded me, and the Spirit came into them. And they lived, and stood on their feet, a very great army.

¹¹Then He said to me, Son of man, these bones are all the house of Israel. Behold, they say, Our bones are dried, and our hope is perished; we are cut off to ourselves. ¹²So prophecy and say to them, So says the Lord Jehovah: Behold, I will open your graves, and cause you to come up out of your graves, O My people, and will bring you to the land of Israel. ¹³And you shall know that I am Jehovah when I have opened your graves, and have brought you up out of your graves, O My people. ¹⁴And I shall put My Spirit in you, and you shall live, and I will put you on your own land. And you shall know that I, Jehovah, have spoken and have done it, says Jehovah.

¹⁵And the word of Jehovah was to me, saying, ¹⁶And you, son of man, take one stick to yourself and write on it, For Judah, and for his companions, the sons of Israel. And take another stick and write on it, For Joseph, the stick of Ephraim and all the house of Israel, his companions. ¹⁷And draw them one to one for yourself, into one stick. And they shall become for oneness in your hand. ¹⁸And when the sons of your people shall speak to you, saying, Will you not declare to us what these mean to you? ¹⁹Say to them, So says the Lord Jehovah: Behold, I will take the stick of Joseph which is in the hand of Ephraim, and the tribes of Israel, his companions; and I will put them with him, with the stick of Judah, and will make them one stick; and they shall be one in My hand.

²⁰And the sticks shall be in your hand, the ones on which you write before their eyes. ²¹And say to them, So says the Lord Jehovah: Behold, I will take the sons of Israel from among the nations, there where they have gone, and will gather them from all around, and will bring them into their own land. ²²And I will make them one nation in the land, on the mountains of Israel, and one king shall be for a ing to all of them. And they shall not be two nations still. And they will not be split into two kingdoms any more. ²³And they will not still be defiled with their idols; even with their filthy idols; nor with all of their transgressions. But I will save them out of all their dwelling-places, where they have sinned in them; and I will cleanse them. So they shall be for a people to Me, and I will be for God to them. ²⁴And My Servant, David, shall be king over them. And there shall be one Shepherd to all of them. And they shall walk in My judgments and keep My statutes, and do them. ²⁵And they shall dwell on the land that I have given to my servant, to Jacob, there where your fathers dwelt in it. And they shall dwell on it, they and their sons, and the sons of their sons, forever. And My Servant David shall be a ruler to them forever. ²⁶And I will cut a covenant of peace with them, an everlasting covenant it shall be with them, And I will place them and multiply them; and I will put My sanctuary in their midst forever. ²⁷And My tabernacle shall be with them, and I will be their God, and they shall be My people. ²⁸And when My sanctuary shall be in their midst forever, the nations shall know that I, Jehovah, sanctify Israel.

¹And the word of Jehovah was to me, saying, ²Son of man, set your face against Gog, the land of Magog, the prince of Rosh, Meshech, and Tubal; and prophesy against him. ³And say, So says the Lord Jehovah: Behold, I am against you, O Gog, the prince of Rosh, Meshech, and Tubal. ⁴And I will turn you back and put hooks into your jaws. And I will bring you and all your army out, horses and horsemen, all of them clothed most perfectly, a great assembly with buckler and shield, all of them swordsmen: ⁵Persia, Ethiopia, and Libya with them; all of them with shield and helmet; ⁶Gomer and all his bands; the house of Togarmah from the recesses of the north, and all his bands; many peoples with you. ⁷Be prepared; yea, prepared for yourself, you and all your assembly that are assembled to you; and be a guard to them. ⁸After many days you shall be visited. In the after years you shall come into the land turned back from the sword, gathered out of many peoples, on the mountains of Israel which have been for a continual waste, but he has been brought out of the peoples; and they shall dwell securely, all of them. ⁹And you shall go up; you shall come like a storm; you shall be like a cloud to cover the land, you and all your bands, and many peoples with you.

¹⁰So says the Lord Jehovah: And it shall be in that day, words shall come up into your heart, and you shall devise an evil plan. ¹¹And you shall say, I will go up to the land of open spaces; I will go to those at ease, who live securely, all of them living with no walls; and there are no bars and gates to them; ¹²in order to spoil a spoil, and to steal a prize; to turn your hand on the inhabited waste places, and on the people gathered out of the nations, who have gotten livestock and goods; who dwell in the center of the earth. ¹³Sheba and Dedan and the merchants of Tarshish, and all its young lions, shall say to you, Have you come to spoil a spoil? Have you gathered your assembly to steal a prize, to carry away silver and gold, to take away livestock and goods, to spoil a great spoil?

¹⁴So prophesy, son of man, and say to Gog, So says the Lord Jehovah: Shall you not know in that day when My people Israel dwells securely? ¹⁵And you shall come from your place out of the recesses of the north, you and many peoples with you, all of them riding on horses; a great assembly; a mighty army. ¹⁶And you shall come up on My people Israel like a cloud, to cover the land. It shall be in the after days; and I will bring you against My land, so that the nations may know Me, when I shall be sanctified in you before their eyes, O Gog. ¹⁷So says the Lord Jehovah: Are you he of whom I have spoken in former days, by the hand of My servants, the prophets of Israel, who prophesied in those days and years, to bring you against them? ¹⁸And it shall be on that day, when Gog comes against the land of Israel, declares the Lord Jehovah, My fury shall come up in My face. ¹⁹And in My jealousy, in the fire of My wrath, I have spoken. Surely, in that day there shall be a great quaking in the land of Israel. ²⁰And the fish of the sea, and the birds of the heavens, and the beasts of the field, and all creeping things that creep on the earth, and all men who are on the face of the earth, shall quake at My face. And the mountains shall be thrown down, and the steep places shall fall, and every wall shall fall to the ground. ²¹And I shall call a sword against him on all My mountains, declares the Lord Jehovah. Each man's sword shall be against his brother. ²²And I will judge him with a plague and with blood, and an overflowing shower, and hailstones. I will rain fire and brimstone on him, and on his bands, and on the many peoples who are with him. ²³And I will magnify Myself and sanctify Myself. And I will be known in the eyes of the many nations; and they shall know that I am Jehovah.

¹And you, son of man, prophesy against Gog and say, So says the Lord Jehovah: Behold, I am against you, O Gog, the prince of Rosh, Meshech, and Tubal. ²And I will turn you back, and lead you on. And I will bring you up from the recesses of the north, and will bring you on the mountains of Israel. ³And I will strike your bow out of your left hand; and I will cause your arrows to fall out of your right hand. ⁴You shall fall on the mountains of Israel, you and all your bands, and the people who are with you. I will give you for food to the birds of prey, a bird of every wing; and to the beasts of the field. ⁵You shall fall on the face of the field, for I have spoken, declares the Lord Jehovah. ⁶And I will send a fire on Magog, and on the secure inhabitants of the coasts. And they shall know that I am Jehovah.

⁷And I will make My holy name known in the midst of My people Israel. And I will not let My holy name be profaned any more. And the nations shall know that I am Jehovah, the Holy One of Israel. ⁸Behold! It is coming, and it shall be done, declares the Lord Jehovah. That is the day of which I have spoken. ⁹And the inhabitants of the cities of Israel shall go out, and shall set afire and burn the weapons; even the shield and the buckler, the bow and the arrows, and the hand-staff, and the spears. And they shall burn them with fire seven years. ¹⁰And they shall not take wood out of the field, and shall not cut down out of the forest. For they shall burn the weapons with fire. And they shall plunder those who plundered them, and rob those who robbed them, declares the Lord Jehovah.

¹¹And it will be on that day, I will give to Gog a place there, a grave in Israel, the valley of those who pass by, east of the sea. And it shall stop those who pass by. And they shall bury Gog and all his multitude there, and they shall call it The Valley of the Multitude of Gog. ¹²And the house of Israel shall bury them, in order to cleanse the land, seven months. ¹³And the people of the land shall bury. And it shall be for a name to them, the day when I am glorified, declares the Lord Jehovah. ¹⁴And they shall separate men who continually pass through the land, burying those who passed through, who remain on the face of the earth, to cleanse it. At the end of seven months, they shall make a search. ¹⁵And as they pass, those who pass through the land, and any man sees a bone, then he shall build a post beside it, until the buriers have buried it in The Valley of the Multitude of Gog. ¹⁶And also the name of the city is The Multitude. And they shall cleanse the land.

¹⁷And you, son of man, So says the Lord Jehovah: Say to the bird of every wing, and to every beast of the field: Gather yourselves and come; collect yourselves from all around to My sacrifice which I sacrifice for you, a great sacrifice on the mountains of Israel, so that you may eat flesh and drink blood. ¹⁸You shall eat the flesh of the mighty, and drink the blood of the princes of the earth; of rams, lambs, goats, and bulls, all of them fatlings of Bashan. ¹⁹And you shall eat fat until satiated; and drink blood until drunkenness, of My sacrifice which I have sacrificed for you. ²⁰And you shall be satiated at My table, with horses and chariots, and mighty men, all the men of war, declares the Lord Jehovah. ²¹And I will put My glory among the nations, and all the nations shall see My judgments which I have done, and My hand that I have laid on them. ²²So the house of Israel shall know that I am Jehovah their God, from that day and onward. ²³And the nations shall know that the house of Israel was exiled for their iniquity. Because they betrayed Me, so I hid My face from them and gave them into the hand of their enemies. And they fell by the sword, all of them. ²⁴According to their uncleanness and according to their sins, I have done to them, and have hidden My face from them. ²⁵So the Lord Jehovah says this: Now I will return the captivity of Jacob, and will have mercy on all the house of Israel, and will be jealous for My holy name. ²⁶And also after they have borne their shame, and all their treachery which they have done against Me, when they dwell on their land securely, and no one terrifies; ²⁷when I have returned them from the peoples, and gathered them out of the hand of their enemies, and am sanctified in them in the sight of many nations; ²⁸then they shall know that I am Jehovah their God, who exiled them among the nations. But I have gathered them to their own land, and have not left any of them there. ²⁹And I will not any more hide My face from them; for I have poured out My Spirit on the house of Israel, declares the Lord Jehovah.

¹In the twenty-fifth year of our exile, in the beginning of the year, in the tenth of the month, in the fourteenth year after the city was struck, on that same day the hand of Jehovah was on me, and brought me there. ²In the visions of God, He brought me into the land of Israel, and made me rest on a very high mountain. And it was as the structure of a city on the south. ³And He brought me there; and, behold, a man whose appearance was as the appearance of bronze, and a line of flax and a measuring reed in his hand, and he stood in the gate. ⁴And the man said to me, Son of man, look with your eyes, and hear with your ears, and set your heart on all that I shall show you. For in order to show you, you are brought here. Declare to the house of Israel all that you see. ⁵And, behold, a wall on the outside of the house all around. And a measuring reed was in the man's hand, six cubits, with a cubit and a span. So he measured the breadth of the building, one reed; and the height, one reed. ⁶And he came to the gate which faced eastward, and went up its steps and measured the threshold of the gate, one reed wide; even the one threshold, one reed wide. ⁷And a room, one reed long and one reed wide; and between the rooms were five cubits. And the threshold of the gate from beside the porch of the gate, from the house, was one reed.

⁸And he measured the porch of the gate from the house, one reed. ⁹And he measured the porch of the gate, eight cubits; and its pillars, two cubits; also the porch of the gate from the house. ¹⁰And the gaterooms eastward were three from here, and three from there; one measure to the three of them; and one measure was to the pillars, from here and from there. ¹¹And he measured the breadth of the gate-opening, ten cubits; the length of the gate was thirteen cubits. ¹²And the border in front of the rooms was one cubit; and the border from here, one cubit. And the room was six cubits from here, and six cubits from there. ¹³And he measured the gate of the room from roof to roof, twenty-five cubits wide, door to door. ¹⁴He also made the pillars, sixty cubits, even to the court-pillar, from the gate round and round. ¹⁵And on the face of the entrance gate, to the face of the porch of the inner gate, was fifty cubits; ¹⁶and windows, lattices, were to the rooms, and to their pillars inside the gate round and round; and so for the porches; and windows were round and round inside; and to a pillar were palm trees.

¹⁷And he brought me into the outer court. And, behold, chambers, and a pavement made for the court round and round. Thirty chambers were on the pavement. ¹⁸And the pavement by the side of the gates to equal the length of the gates was the lower pavement. ¹⁹And he measured the breadth from the face of the lower gate to the face of the inner court, on the outside, a hundred cubits eastward and northward. ²⁰And the gate which faces the way of the north of the outer court, he measured its length and its breadth. ²¹And its rooms were three from here, and three from there. And its pillars and its porches were as the first measure—its length fifty cubits, and its breadth twenty-five cubits. ²²And its windows, and its porches, and its palm trees were as the measure of the gate that faces eastward. And they went up to it by seven steps; and its porches were before them. ²³And the gate of the inner court was across from the gate toward the north and toward the east. And he measured from gate to gate, a hundred cubits. ²⁴And he led me southward. And, behold, a gate southward! And he measured its pillars and its porches according to these measures. ²⁵And windows were in it, and its porches round and round like these windows. Fifty cubits were the length, and twenty-five cubits the breadth. ²⁶And seven steps were going up to it, and its porches before them. And palm trees were to it, one from here and one from there, to its pillars. ²⁷And a gate was to the inner court southward. And he measured from gate to gate, southward, a hundred cubits.

²⁸And he brought me to the inner court by the south gate. And he measured the south gate by these measures. ²⁹And its rooms, and its pillars, and its porches were as three measures. And windows were to it, and its porches round and round. It was fifty cubits long, and twenty-five cubits wide. ³⁰And the porches round and round were twenty-five cubits long, and five cubits wide. ³¹And its porches were toward the outer court; and palm trees on its pillars. And its stairway had eight steps.

³²And he brought me into the inner court eastward. And he measured the gate by these measures. ³³And its rooms, and its pillars, and its porches were as these measures. And windows were to it, and to its porches round and round. It was fifty cubits long and twenty-five cubits wide. ³⁴And its porches were toward the outer court. And palm trees were on its pillars from here and from there. And its stairway had eight steps.

³⁵And he brought me to the north gate, and measured by these measures, ³⁶its rooms, its posts, and its porches. And windows were to it round and round. It was fifty cubits long and twenty-five cubits wide. ³⁷And its pillars were toward the outer court. And palm trees were on its pillars, from here and from there; and its stairway had eight steps. ³⁸And the chamber and its door was by the pillars of the gates; they washed the burnt offering there.

³⁹And in the porch of the gate were two tables from here, and two tables from there, to slaughter on them the burnt offering, and the sin offering, and the guilt offering. ⁴⁰And to the side outside, as one goes up to the door of the gate northward were two tables. And on the other side at the porch of the gate were two tables. ⁴¹Four tables were from here, and four tables from there, by the side of the gate, eight tables; they slaughter on them. ⁴²And the four tables for burnt offering were cut stone, one cubit and a half long, and one cubit and a half wide, and one cubit high. They also rested on them the instruments with which they slaughtered, by them the burnt offering and the sacrifice.

⁴⁸And he brought me to the porch of the house, and measured each pillar of the porch, five cubits from here, and five cubits from there. And the gate was three cubits wide from here, and three cubits from there. ⁴⁹The length of the porch was twenty cubits, and eleven cubits wide, even with the steps by which they went up to it. And columns were by the pillars, one from here, and one from there.

¹And he brought me to the temple and measured the pillars, six cubits wide from here, and six cubits wide from there—the width of the tent. ²And the door was ten cubits wide. And the sides of the door were five cubits from here and five cubits from there. And he measured its length, forty cubits; and twenty cubits wide. ³And he went inside and measured the pillars of the door, two cubits. And the door was six cubits; and the width of the door, seven cubits. ⁴And he measured its length, twenty cubits; and the width, twenty cubits, to the face of the temple. And he said to me, This is the Holy of Holies.

⁵And he measured the wall of the house, six cubits; and the width of each side chamber, four cubits round and round the house all around. ⁶And the side chambers were a side chamber over a side chamber, three stories, and thirty times. And they entered the wall which was of the house for the side chambers round and round, that they may be fastened; but they were not fastened in the wall of the house. ⁷And a widening and a winding upwards and upwards for the side chambers—for the winding around of the house went upward and upward, round and round the house. On account of this the width of the house went up, and so from the lowest it went up to the highest, by the middle story. ⁸I also saw the height of the house round and round, the foundations of the side chambers were a full reed, six cubits by joining. ⁹The width of the wall which was for the side chamber to the outside was five cubits, and that which was left between the side chambers that were of the house. ¹⁰And between the chambers was the width of twenty cubits circling the house round and round. ¹¹And the door of the side chamber was toward the open space, one door northward, and one door southward. And the width of the place of the open space was five cubits round and round. ¹²And the building that was before the separate area at the end of the way of the west was seventy cubits wide. And the wall of the building was five cubits wide round and round; and its length, ninety cubits.

¹³And he measured the house, a hundred cubits long. And the separate area, and the building and its wall were a hundred cubits long. ¹⁴And the width of the face of the house, and the separate area toward the east, a hundred cubits. ¹⁵And he measured the length of the building to the face of the separate area which was on its rear; and its gallery from here and from there was a hundred cubits; and the inner temple, and the porches of the court, ¹⁶the thresholds, and the latticed windows, and the galleries all around, their three stories opposite the threshold, were paneled with wood round and round; and from the ground up to the windows, and the windows were covered; ¹⁷to that above the door, even to the inner house, and outside, and to all the wall round and round inside and outside by measure. ¹⁸And it was made with cherubs and palm trees; and a palm tree was between cherub and cherub. ¹⁹And two faces were to a cherub, the face of a man toward the palm tree from here, and a young lion's face toward the palm tree from there. It was made to all the house round and round. ²⁰From the ground to above the door, cherubs and palm trees were made, and on the wall of the temple. ²¹The temple doorposts were squared, and the face of the sanctuary, the appearance as its appearance. ²²The altar of wood was three cubits high, and its length two cubits. And its corners, and its length, and its walls were wood. And he said to me, This is the table that is before Jehovah. ²³And two doors were to the temple and the sanctuary. ²⁴And two doors were to each of the doors, two turning doors—two for the one door, and two for the other door. ²⁵And cherubs and palm trees were made on them, on the doors of the temple, like those made on the walls; and thick wood on the face of the porch outside. ²⁶And latticed windows, and palm trees, were from here and from there, on the sides of the porch, and the side chambers of the house, and wooden canopies.

¹And he brought me out into the outer court northward. And he brought me into the chamber that was across from the separate area, which was in front of the building to the north. ²To the face of its length was a hundred cubits, toward the north door, and fifty cubits wide. ³Across from the twenty cubits which were to the inner court, and opposite the pavement which was to the the outer court, gallery on the face of gallery, in three stories. ⁴And before the chambers was a walk ten cubits wide, to the inside, a way of one cubit. And their doors were toward the north. ⁵And the upper chambers were shorter, for the galleries used up more space than the lower and middle ones in the building. ⁶For they were in three stories, and there were no columns to them like the columns of the courts. So the third was made narrower than the lower and middle stories from the ground.

⁷And the wall that was outside near the chambers the way of the outer court, on the face of the chambers, its length was fifty cubits. ⁸For the length of the chambers that were in the outer court was fifty cubits. And, behold, in the face of the temple was a hundred cubits. ⁹And under these chambers was the entrance on the east side as one goes into them from the outer court. ¹⁰In the width of the wall of the court eastward, to the face of the separate area, and to the face of the building were chambers. ¹¹And the way before them looked like the chambers which were northward; as their length, so their width. And all their exits were as their patterns, and as their doors. ¹²And as the doors of the chambers that were southward there was a door in the head of the way, the way directly in the face of the wall, the way of the east, as one enters them.

¹³And he said to me, The north chambers, the south chambers which are to the face of the separate area, they are holy chambers, there where the priests shall eat, who approach to Jehovah, the holiest of the holy things. There they shall lay the holiest of the holy things, even the food offering, and the sin offering, and the guilt offering. For the place is holy. ¹⁴When the priests enter, then they shall not go out of the sanctuary into the outer court, but they shall lay their clothes there by which they minister by them; for they are holy. They shall put on other clothes and shall approach to that which is for the people.

¹⁵And he finished measuring the inner house. And he brought me forth the way of the gate whose face is eastward, and measured round and round. ¹⁶He measured the east side with the measuring reed, five hundred reeds with the measuring reed, all around. ¹⁷He measured the north side, five hundred reeds with the measuring reed all around. ¹⁸He measured the south side, five hundred reeds with the measuring reed. ¹⁹He turned to the west side, measuring five hundred reeds with the measuring reed. ²⁰By the four sides he measured it. It had a wall round and round, five hundred reeds long, and five hundred wide, to separate between the holy and the common.

¹And he led me to the gate, the gate that faces eastward. ²And, behold, the glory of the God of Israel came from the way of the east. And His voice was like the voice of many waters. And the earth shone from His glory. ³And the appearance of the vision which I saw was as the appearance which I saw when I came to destroy the city; and as the appearance that I saw by the river Chebar. And I fell on my face. ⁴And the glory of Jehovah came into the house, the way of the gate facing eastward. ⁵And the Spirit took me up and brought me into the inner court. And, behold, the glory of Jehovah filled the house!

⁶And I heard one speaking to me from the house. And standing beside me was a Man. ⁷And He said to me, Son of man, the place of My throne and the place of the soles of My feet, there where I will dwell among the sons of Israel forever, even the house of Israel shall not defile My holy name any more; they nor their kings, by their fornication, nor by the corpses of their kings in their high places.

⁹In their setting of their threshold by My threshold, and their door post beside My door post, and the wall between Me and them; even they have defiled My holy name by their abominations that they have done. And I consumed them in My anger. ¹⁰Now let them put away their fornication, and the corpses of their kings from Me, and I will dwell in their midst forever.

¹⁰You, son of man, declare to the house of Israel the temple house, and they will blush from their iniquities. And let them seal up the measure its size. ¹¹And if they are ashamed of all that they have done, the form of the house, and its arrangement, and its exits, and its entrances, and all its forms, and all its statutes, and all its forms, and all its laws, make known to them. And write them in their sight, so that they may observe all its form, and all its statutes, and do them. ¹²This is the law of the house: On the top of the mountain is all its border, round and round, being most holy. Behold, this is the law of the house.

¹⁸And He said to me, Son of man, so says the Lord Jehovah: These are the statutes of the altar in the day of its being made to offer on it burnt offerings, and to sprinkle on it blood. ¹⁹And you shall give to the priests of the Levites, they who are from the seed of Zadok, who approach to Me, declares the Lord Jehovah, to minister to Me, a bull, a son of the herd, for a sin offering. ²⁰And you shall take of its blood and put it on its four horns, and on the four corners of the ledge, and on the border all around. And you shall cleanse it and atone for it. ²¹And you shall take the bull of the sin offering, and he shall burn it at the appointed place of the house outside the sanctuary.

²²And on the second day you shall bring a buck of the goats, perfect, for a sin offering. And they shall cleanse the altar, as they cleansed it with the bull. ²³When you have finished cleansing, you shall bring a perfect bull, a son of the herd, and a ram out of the flock, perfect. ²⁴And you shall bring them before Jehovah, and the priests shall throw salt on them; and they shall offer them for a burnt offering to Jehovah. ²⁵For seven days you shall daily prepare a he-goat for a sin offering. And they shall prepare a bull, a son of the herd, and a ram out of the flock, perfect ones. ²⁶They shall atone seven days for the altar, and cleanse it, and consecrate it. ²⁷And when the days are completed, it shall be on the eighth day and forward, the priests shall make your burnt offerings, and your peace offerings, on the altar. And I will accept you, declares the Lord Jehovah.

¹And he brought me back the way of the gate of the outer sanctuary, facing east. And it was shut. ²And Jehovah said to me, This gate shall be shut; it will not be opened. And a man shall not enter by it, because Jehovah, the God of Israel, has entered by it; so it shall be shut. ³As for the prince, as prince he shall sit in it to eat bread before Jehovah. He shall enter by the way of the porch of the gate, and by his way shall go out.

⁴And he brought me by the way of the north gate, to the face of the house. And I looked, and, behold, the glory of Jehovah filled the house of the Lord! And I fell on my face. ⁵And Jehovah said to me, Son of man, set your heart and see with your eyes, and hear with your ears all that I say to you of all the statutes of the house of Jehovah, and of all its laws. And set your heart to the entrance of the house, with all the exits of the sanctuary. ⁶And you shall say to the rebellious ones, to the house of Israel, So says the Lord Jehovah: Enough to you, of all your abominations, O house of Israel; ⁷when you brought in the sons of aliens, uncircumcised of heart and uncircumcised of flesh, to be in My sanctuary, to profane it—even My house, when you bring near My bread, the fat and the blood. And they have broken My covenant by all your abominations. ⁸And you have not kept the charge of My holy things, but you have set them as keepers of My charge in My sanctuary, for themselves. ⁹So says the Lord Jehovah: Sons of an alien, uncircumcised of heart and uncircumcised of flesh, shall not enter into My sanctuary, or any son of an alien who is among the sons of Israel. ¹⁰But the Levites who have gone far from Me, when Israel went astray, who went astray from Me, going after their idols; even they shall bear their iniquity. ¹¹Yet they shall be ministers in My sanctuary, overseers at the gates of the house, and ministering in the house. They shall slaughter the burnt offering and the sacrifice for the people; and they shall stand before them, to minister to them. ¹²Because they ministered to them before their idols, and became a stumbling-block of iniquity to the house of Israel, therefore I have lifted up My hand against them, declares the Lord Jehovah; and they shall bear their iniquity. ¹³And they shall not come near to Me to serve as priest to Me, nor come near to any of My holy things, to the holiest of the holy things; but they shall bear their shame and their abominations which they have done. ¹⁴But I will give them to be keepers of the charge of the house for all its service, and for all that shall be done in it.

¹⁵But the priests, the Levites, the sons of Zadok, who kept the charge of My sanctuary when the sons of Israel went astray from Me, they shall come near to Me to minister to Me. And they shall stand before Me to bring near to Me the fat and the blood, declares the Lord Jehovah. ¹⁶They shall enter into My sanctuary, and they shall come near to My table, to minister to Me. And they shall keep My charge. ¹⁷And it shall be, when they enter in the gates of the inner court, they shall be clothed with linen garments. And wool shall not come up on them while they minister in the gates of the inner court, and in the house. ¹⁸Turbans of linen shall be on their heads, and linen undergarments shall be on their loins. They shall not gird with sweat. ¹⁹And when they go out into the outer court, to the outer court to the people, they shall put off their garments by which they ministered in them, and lay them in the holy chambers. And they shall put on other garments, and they shall not sanctify the people with their own garments. ²⁰And they shall not shave their heads; and they shall not send forth long hair; they shall surely trim their heads. ²¹And every priest shall not drink wine when they enter into the inner court. ²²And they shall not take a widow, or a divorcee, for wives for themselves; but they shall only take virgins of the seed of the house of Israel, or a widow who is the widow of a priest.

²³And they shall teach My people between the holy and the common, and between the unclean and the clean, to make them known. ²⁴And in a dispute, they shall stand to judge; they shall judge it by My judgments. And they shall observe My laws and My statutes in My appointed feasts; and they shall sanctify My sabbaths. ²⁵And he shall not come to a dead man, to defile himself; but for father, or for mother, or for a son, or for a daughter, for a brother, or for a sister who has not had a husband, they may defile themselves. ²⁶And after he is cleansed, they shall count seven days for him. ²⁷And in the day he goes into the sanctuary, to the inner court, to minister in the sanctuary, he shall bring his sin offering, declares the Lord Jehovah. ²⁸And it shall be to them for an inheritance—I am their inheritance; and you shall not give them possession in Israel—I am their possession. ²⁹They shall eat the food offering and the sin offering and the guilt offering. And every devoted thing in Israel shall be theirs. ³⁰And the first of all the firstfruits of all, and every one of the heave offerings of all, of all your heave offerings, shall be for the priests. And you shall give to the priest the first of your dough, to cause a blessing to rest on your house. ³¹The priests shall not eat of every corpse and torn thing, of birds, or of beasts.

¹And when you shall divide the land by lot for an inheritance, you shall offer a heave offering to Jehovah, a holy portion of the land. The length shall be twenty-five thousand cubits long, and the width ten thousand. It shall be holy in all its borders all around. ²Of this there shall be for the sanctuary five hundred by five hundred cubits, square all around; and fifty cubits of open space shall be all around. ³And from this measure you shall measure the length, twenty-five thousand cubits, and the width, ten thousand. And in it shall be the sanctuary, the holiest of the holy. ⁴It is the holy portion of the land for the priests; it shall be for the ministers of the sanctuary, who come near to minister to Jehovah. And it shall be for them a place for their houses, and a holy place for the sanctuary. ⁵And twenty-five cubits in length, and ten thousand in width shall be for the Levites, the ministers of the house, for them, for a possession, twenty rooms.

⁶And you shall give the possession of the city, five thousand cubits wide and twenty-five thousand long, beside the heave offering of the holy lot—it shall be for the whole house of Israel. ⁷And a portion shall be for the prince, from here, and from there, for the heave offering of the holy place, and of the possession of the city, to the face of the heave offering of the holy place, from the west side westward, and from the east side eastward. And the length shall be alongside one of the portions, from the west border to the east border. ⁸It shall be for a land to him, for a possession in Israel; and My princes shall not oppress My people any more. And they shall give the land to the house of Israel according to their tribes.

⁹So says the Lord Jehovah: Enough for you, O princes of Israel! Turn away violence and oppression; and do justice and righteousness. Lift away your acts of violence from My people, declares the Lord Jehovah. ¹⁰Just balances and a just ephah, and a just bath, let there be to you. ¹¹The ephah and the bath shall be one measure that the bath may contain the tenth of the homer; and the tenth of the homer the ephah. Its measure shall be to the homer. ¹²And the shekel shall be twenty gerahs: twenty shekels, twenty-five shekels, fifteen shekels shall be a maneh to you. ¹³This is the heave offering that you shall offer: the sixth of an ephah of a homer of wheat, and the sixth of an ephah of a homer of barley. ¹⁴And the statute of oil, the bath of oil, the tenth of the bath out of the cor; of ten baths, a homer; for ten baths are a homer; ¹⁵and one lamb out of the flock, out of two hundred, out of the watered land of Israel; for a food offering, and for a burnt offering, and for peace offerings, to atone for them, declares the Lord Jehovah. ¹⁶All the people of the land shall be at this heave offering for the prince in Israel. ¹⁷And burnt offerings shall be on the prince, and a food offering, and drink offerings, in the feasts and on the new moons and on the sabbaths, in all the appointed feasts of the house of Israel. He shall prepare the sin offering, and the food offering, and the burnt offering, and the peace offerings, to atone for the house of Israel.

¹⁸So says the Lord Jehovah: In the first month, on the first of the month, you shall take a perfect bull, a son of the herd, and cleanse the sanctuary. ¹⁹And the priest shall take of the blood of the sin offering, and put it on the door posts of the house, and on the four corners of the ledge of the altar, and on the gateposts of the inner court. ²⁰And so you shall do on the seventh of the month for each man who goes astray, and for the simple. And you shall atone for the house. ²¹In the first month, in the fourteenth day of the month, the Passover shall be to you, a feast of seven days; unleavened bread is eaten. ²²And the prince shall prepare on that day for himself and for the people of the land, a bull for a sin offering. ²³And seven days of the feast he shall prepare a burnt offering to Jehovah, seven bulls and seven rams, perfect ones, daily for the seven days, and for a sin offering a kid of the goats daily. ²⁴And a food offering of an ephah for a bull, and an ephah for a ram, he shall prepare; also of oil, a hin for an ephah. ²⁵In the seventh month, in the fifteenth day of the month, at the feast, he shall prepare like these seven days, as the sin offering, as the burnt offering, as the food offering, and as the oil.

¹So says the Lord Jehovah: The gate of the inner court that faces the east shall be shut the six working days. But on the sabbath day it shall be opened, and in the day of the new moon it shall be opened. ²And the prince shall enter by way of the porch of the gate from outside, and shall stand by the gatepost. And the priests shall prepare his burnt offering, and his peace offerings. And he shall worship at the threshold of the gate. Then he shall go out, but the gate shall not be shut until the evening. ³And the people of the land shall worship at the door of that gate on the sabbaths, and on the new moons, before Jehovah. ⁴And the burnt offering that the prince shall bring to Jehovah on the sabbath day shall be six perfect lambs, and a perfect ram. ⁵And the food offering shall be an ephah for a ram, and a food offering for the lambs, a gift of his hand, and a hin of oil to an ephah.

¹⁰And the prince shall go in among them when they go in, and he shall leave when they leave. ¹¹And in the feasts, and in the appointed feasts, the food offering shall be an ephah to a bull, and an ephah to a ram, and to the lambs a gift of his hand; and a hin of oil to an ephah. ¹²And when the prince prepares a free offering, a burnt offering or peace offerings as a free offering to Jehovah, then one shall open to him the gate facing east. And he shall prepare his burnt offering and his peace offerings as he does on the sabbath day. And he shall leave; and the gate is shut after he leaves. ¹³And you shall prepare a burnt offering daily to Jehovah, a perfect lamb, a son of a year; from dawn to dawn you shall prepare it. ¹⁴And you shall prepare a food offering for it from dawn to dawn, a sixth of an ephah, and a third of a hin of oil to wet the fine flour; a food offering to Jehovah— perfect statutes forever. ¹⁵So they shall prepare the lamb, and the food offering, and the oil, from dawn to dawn as a burnt offering continually.

¹⁶So says the Lord Jehovah: If the prince gives a gift to sons of his inheritance, it shall be to his sons; it is their possession by inheritance. ¹⁷But if he gives it as a gift of his inheritance to one of his servants, then it shall be his until the year of liberty; then it shall return to the prince. His inheritance is only his sons'; it shall be theirs. ¹⁸And the prince shall not take of the people's inheritance, oppressing them from their possession. He shall bequeath to his sons from his possession, so that My people shall not be dispersed, each man from his possession.

¹⁹And he brought me through the entry which was at the side of the gate, into the holy chambers for the priests, facing north. And, behold, there was a place on the two sides westward. ²⁰And he said to me, This is the place, there where the priests shall boil the guilt offering, and the sin offering, where they shall bake the food offering, so as not to bring them out to the outer court to sanctify the people. ²¹And he led me out to the outer court. And he made me pass by the four corners of the court. And, behold, a court in each corner of the court, a court in each corner of the court. ²²In the four corners of the court were enclosed courts; forty cubits long and thirty wide; one measure to the four of them, being made in corners. ²³And a row was around in them, around the four of them; and boiling places were made under the rows round about. ²⁴And he said to me, These are the houses of those who boil, where the ministers of the house shall boil there the sacrifice of the people.

¹And he led me back to the door of the house. And, behold, water came out from under the threshold of the house eastward. For the face of the house is east, and the water came down from under the right side of the house, at the south from the altar. ²And he led me out by way of the north gate, and led me around the way outside to the outer gate, by the way facing east. And, behold, water was trickling out of the right side.

³When the man went out eastward, and the line in his hand, he measured a thousand cubits. And he passed me through the water, water to the ankles. ⁴And he measured a thousand, and passed me through the water, water to the knees. ⁵And he measured a thousand, and passed me through water to the loins. ⁶And he measured a thousand, and there was a torrent which I was not able to pass; for the water had risen, water to swim in; a torrent that could not be passed. ⁷And he said to me, Have you seen, son of man? And he led me and made me return to the lip of the torrent. ⁸When I returned, then, behold, on the lip of the torrent were many trees on this side and on that side. ⁹And he said to me, These waters go out toward the eastern circuit, and go down into the Arabah, and enter the sea. They are brought out into the sea, and the waters shall be healed. ¹⁰And it shall be, every soul that lives, which swarms in every place, there where the two torrents go, that soul shall live. And there shall be very many fish, because these waters shall come there. And they shall be healed. And all shall live there where the torrent goes. ¹¹And it will be, the fisherman shall stand on it; from En-gedi even to En-eglaim, a spreading place for nets shall be there; their fish shall be by its kind, like the fish of the Great Sea, very many. ¹²Its swamps and its marshes shall not even be healed; they shall be given to salt. ¹³And all trees for food shall go up by the torrent, on its bank on this side and on that; its leaf shall not fade, and its fruit shall not fail; it will bear by its months, because its waters come out from the sanctuary. And its fruit shall be for food, and its leaf for healing.

¹⁴So says the Lord Jehovah: This shall be the border by which you shall inherit the land, by the twelve tribes of Israel. Joseph shall have two portions. ¹⁵And you shall inherit it, each man like his brother, that I lifted up My hand to give it to your fathers; even this land shall fall to you for an inheritance. ¹⁶And this is the border of the land to the north side, from the Great Sea, the way of Hethlon, to the entrance of Zedad: ¹⁷Hamath, Berothah, Sibraim, which is between the border of Damascus and the border of Hamath; Hazer-haticon, which is by the border of Hauran. ¹⁸And the border shall be from the sea to Hazar-enon, at the border of Damascus; and the north northward, even the border of Hamath. And this is the north side.

²⁰And the south side, southward from Tamar, to the waters of Meriboth-kadesh, the torrent to the Great Sea. And this is the south side to the Negeb. ²¹And the west side is the Great Sea from the border until beside the entrance of Hamath. this is the west side.

²²And you shall divide this land for yourselves by the tribes of Israel. ²³And it will be, you shall divide by lot for an inheritance to yourselves, and to the aliens who reside among you, who shall father sons among you. And they shall be to you as native-born among the sons of Israel. They shall have fall an inheritance among the tribes of Israel. ²⁴And it shall be, in the tribe in which the alien resides, there you shall give his inheritance, declares the Lord Jehovah.

¹And these are the names of the tribes: From the north end, at the hand of the way of Hethlon to the entrance of Hamath, Hazar-enon, the border of Damascus northward, at the hand of Hamath; and there shall be to it an east side and a west: To Dan, one part. ²And by the border of Dan, from the east side to the west side, Asher, one part. ³And by the border of Asher, from the east side to the west side, Naphtali, one part. ⁴And by the border of Naphtali, from the east side even to the west side, Manasseh, one part. ⁵And by the border of Manasseh, from the east side to the west side, Ephraim, one part. ⁶And by the border of Ephraim, from the east side even to the west side, Reuben, one part. ⁷And by the border of Reuben, from the east side even to the west side, Judah, one part. ⁸And by the border of Judah, from the east side to the west side, shall be the heave offering which you shall offer — twenty-five thousand cubits wide and long, as one of the parts, from the east side to the west side. And the sanctuary shall be in its midst. ⁹The heave offering that you shall offer to Jehovah shall be twenty-five thousand cubits long and ten thousand cubits wide. ¹⁰And for these shall be the holy heave offering for the priests: northward, twenty-five thousand; and westward, ten thousand cubits wide; and eastward, ten thousand wide; and southward, twenty-five thousand cubits long. And the sanctuary of Jehovah shall be in its midst, ¹¹for the priests who are sanctified, of the sons of Zadok who have kept My charge, who did not go astray when the sons of Israel went astray, as the Levites went astray. ¹²And the heave offering shall be theirs, from the heave offering of the land, the holiest of the holy places, by the border of the Levites.

¹³And the Levites shall have alongside the border of the priests twenty-five thousand cubits long and ten thousand wide. All the length shall be twenty-five thousand, and the width ten thousand. ¹⁴And they shall not sell any of it, and shall not trade, and shall not cause to pass away the firstfruits of the land. For it is holy to Jehovah.

border of Issachar, from the east side to the west side, Zebulun, one part. ²⁷And by the border of Zebulun, from the east side to the west side, Gad, one part. ²⁸And by the border of Gad to the south side southward, from Tamar to the waters of Meriboth-kadesh, to the torrent to the Great Sea. ²⁹This is the land which you shall make fall by lot for an inheritance to the tribes of Israel, and these their parts, declares the Lord Jehovah.

³⁰And these are the exits of the city on the north side, four thousand and five hundred measures. ³¹And the gates of the city shall be by the names of the tribes of Israel: three gates northward—the gate of Reuben, one; the gate of Judah, one; the gate of Levi, one. ³²And at the east side four thousand five hundred, and three gates: even the gate of Joseph, one; the gate of Benjamin, one; the gate of Dan, one. ³³And the south side, four thousand and five hundred measures, and three gates: the gate of Simeon, one; the gate of Issachar, one; the gate of Zebulun, one. ³⁴The west side, four thousand and five hundred, their gates three: the gate of Gad, one; the gate of Asher, one; the gate of Naphtali, one. ³⁵All around it shall be eighteen thousand cubits. And the name of the city from that day shall be JEHOVAH IS THERE.

THE BOOK OF DANIEL

¹In the third year of the reign of Jehoiakim, king of Judah, Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon came to Jerusalem and besieged it. ²And the Lord gave Jehoiakim, king of Judah, into his hand, with part of the vessels of the house of God, which he carried into the land of Shinar to the house of his god. And he brought the vessels into the treasure house of his god.

³And the king spoke to Ashpenaz, the chief of his eunuchs, that he should bring some of the sons of Israel, and of the king's seed, and of the nobles; young men in whom was no blemish, but who were of good appearance and skillful in all wisdom, having knowledge and understanding learning, even those with strength in them to stand in the king's palace, and to teach them the writing and the language of the Chaldeans. ⁴And the king set them the portion of a day in its day, from the king's food, and the wine of his drinking; even to rear them three years so that at their end they may stand before the king. ⁵And there were among them of the sons of Judah, Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael and Azariah, ⁶to whom the chief of the eunuchs gave names. For he called Daniel, Belteshazzar; and Hananiah, Shadrach; and Mishael, Meshach; and Azariah, Abednego.

⁷And Daniel laid on his heart that he would not defile himself with the king's food, or with the wine of his drinking. So he asked of the chief of the eunuchs that he might not defile himself. ⁸And God had given Daniel kindness and compassion before the chief of the eunuchs. ⁹And the chief of the eunuchs said to Daniel, I fear my lord the king, who has chosen your food and your drink. For why should he see your faces worse looking than the boys who are in your term? Then you would forfeit my head to the king.

¹⁰And Daniel said to Melzar, whom the chief of the eunuchs had set over Daniel, and Azariah, ¹¹I beg you, test your servants ten days. And let vegetables be given to us, that we may eat, and water that we may drink. ¹²Then let our faces be seen before you, our look and the look of the boys who eat of the king's food. And as you see, deal so with your servants. ¹⁴And he listened to them in this matter, and tested them for ten days. ¹⁵And at the end of ten days their faces looked better and fatter of flesh than all the boys who were eating the king's food. ¹⁶So Melzar took away their food and the wine that they were to drink, and he gave them vegetables.

¹⁷As for these four boys, God gave them knowledge and skill in all writing and wisdom. And Daniel had understanding in all visions and dreams. ¹⁸Now at the end of the days that the king had said to bring them in, the chief of the eunuchs brought them in before Nebuchadnezzar. ¹⁹And the king talked with them. And among them all was found none like Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah. So they stood before the king. ²⁰And in any matter of wisdom and understanding that the king asked from them, he found them ten times better than all the horoscopists and the conjurers who were in all his kingdom. ²¹And Daniel continued to the first year of king Cyrus.

¹And in the second year of the reign of Nebuchadnezzar, Nebuchadnezzar was dreaming dreams, and his spirit was troubled, and his sleep was finished on him. ²And the king said to call to the horoscopists, and to the conjurers, and to the sorcerers, and to the Chaldeans, to tell to the king his dreams. And they came and stood before the king. ³And the king said to them, I have dreamed a dream, and my spirit was troubled to know the dream. ⁴And the Chaldeans spoke to the king in Aramaic, O king, live forever! Tell your servants the dream, and we will reveal the meaning. ⁵The king answered and said to the Chaldeans, The word is certainly gone from me. If you will not make known the dream and its meaning to me, you will be made into mere members, and your houses shall be made an out-house. ⁶But if you show the dream and its meaning, you shall receive gifts and a present and great honor from before me. Therefore, reveal the dream and its meaning to me. ⁷They again answered and said, Let the king tell his servants the dream, and we will reveal its meaning. ⁸The king answered and said, For I know that you buy time, that on account of all, you see the thing is certainly gone from me. ⁹But if you will not make the dream known to me, there is one law for you. For you have agreed upon lying and deceiving words to speak before me, until the time has changed. Therefore, tell me the dream; then I shall know that you can reveal the meaning to me.

¹⁰The Chaldeans replied before the king and said, There is not a man on the earth who can reveal the king's matter, because not any king, lord, or ruler has asked such a thing from any horoscopists, or conjurer, or Chaldean. ¹¹And the thing that the king asks is rare. And there is no other who may reveal it before the king, except the gods, whose dwelling is not with flesh. ¹²Then the king was enraged and angered. And he commanded all the wise men of Babylon to be destroyed. ¹³And the law went out that the wise men should be killed. And they looked for Daniel and his companions, to be killed.

¹⁹Then the secret was revealed to Daniel in a night vision, and Daniel blessed the God of Heaven. ²⁰Daniel answered and said, Blessed be the name of God forever and ever, for wisdom and might are His. ²¹And He changes the times and the seasons; He causes to pass away kings, and sets up kings; He gives wisdom to the wise, and knowledge to those who know understanding. ²²He reveals the deep and secret things; He knows what is in the darkness, and the light dwells in Him. ²³I thank You and praise You, O God of my fathers, who has given me wisdom and might, and has made me know what we ask of You. For You have revealed to us the king's matter.

²⁴Then Daniel went in to Arioch, whom the king had chosen to destroy the wise men of Babylon. He went and said this to him, Do not destroy the wise men of Babylon. Bring me in before the king, and I will show the meaning to the king.

²⁵Then Arioch quickly brought Daniel in before the king, and spoke this to him, I have found a man of the captives of Judah who will make the meaning known to the king. ²⁶The king answered and said to Daniel, whose name was Belteshazzar, Are you able to reveal to me the dream which I have seen, and its meaning?

²⁷Daniel replied before the king and said, The secret which the king has demanded cannot be shown to the king by the wise men, the conjurers, the horoscopists, or the fortune-tellers. ²⁸But there is a God in Heaven who reveals secrets, and makes known to king Nebuchadnezzar what shall be in the latter days. Your dream, and the visions of your head on your bed, was this:

²⁹As for you, O king, your thoughts came on your bed, what should happen after this. And He who reveals secrets makes known to you what shall occur.

³⁰But as for me, this secret is not revealed to me for any wisdom that I have more than any living man, but so that the meaning might be made known to the king, and that you might know the thoughts of your heart.

³¹You, O king, were seeing. And, behold, a certain great image! That great image stood before you with a brilliant brightness; and its form was dreadful.

³²The head of this image was of fine gold; its breasts and its arms were of silver; its belly and its thighs were of bronze; ³³its legs were of iron; its feet were partly of iron and partly of clay. ³⁴You continued until a stone was cut out without hands, which struck the image on its feet of iron and clay, and broke them to pieces. ³⁵Then the iron, the clay, the bronze, the silver, and the gold were together broken to pieces; and they became like the chaff of the summer threshing floors. And the wind carried them away, so that no trace was found for them. And the stone that struck the image became a great mountain and filled the whole earth.

³⁶*This is the dream; and we will tell the meaning of it before the king.* ³⁷You, O king, are the king of kings. For the God of Heaven has given you the kingdom, the power, and the strength, and the honor. ³⁸And wherever the sons of men, the animals of the field, and the birds of the sky dwell, He has given them into your hand, and has made you ruler over them all. You are the head of gold. ³⁹And in your place shall arise another kingdom lower than yours, and another third kingdom of bronze, which shall rule in all the earth. ⁴⁰And the fourth kingdom shall be as strong as iron. Inasmuch as iron crushes and smashes all things, and as the iron that shatters all these, it will crush and shatter. ⁴¹And as to that you saw, the feet and the toes, shall be partly of potters' clay and partly of iron, the kingdom shall be divided. But there shall be in it the strength of iron, because you saw the iron mixed with clay of the potter. ⁴²And as the toes of the feet were partly of iron and partly of clay, so the kingdom shall be partly strong and partly fragile. ⁴³And as you saw the iron mixed with the clay of the clay, they shall be mixed with the seed of men. But they shall not adhere to one another, even as iron does not mix with clay.

⁴⁴And in the days of these kings, the God of Heaven shall set up a kingdom which shall never be destroyed. And the kingdom shall not be left to other people. It shall break in pieces and destroy all these kingdoms, and it shall stand forever. ⁴⁵Because you saw that the stone was cut out of the mountain without hands, and that it broke the iron, the bronze, the clay, the silver, and the gold in pieces; the great God has made known to the king what shall occur after this. And the dream is certain, and the meaning of it is trustworthy.

⁴⁶Then king Nebuchadnezzar fell on his face and did obeisance to Daniel. And he commanded an offering, even to offer incense to him. ⁴⁷The king answered Daniel and said, Your God truly is a God of gods and a Lord of kings, and a Revealer of secrets, since you could reveal this secret. ⁴⁸Then the king made Daniel great, and gave many great gifts to him. And he made him ruler over all the province of Babylon, and chief of the prefects over all the wise men of Babylon.

⁴⁹And Daniel asked of the king, and he set Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego over the affairs of the province of Babylon. But Daniel sat in the gate of the king.

¹Nebuchadnezzar the king made an image of gold, whose height was sixty cubits; its breadth, six cubits. He set it up in the plain of Dura, in the province of Babylon. ²Then Nebuchadnezzar the king sent to gather the satraps, the prefects, the governors, the counselors, the treasurers, the judges, the justices; and all the officials of the provinces were ordered to come to the dedication of the image that Nebuchadnezzar the king had set up. ³Then were gathered the satraps, the prefects, the governors, the counselors, the treasurers, the judges, the justices, and all the officials of the provinces, to the dedication of the image that Nebuchadnezzar the king had set up. And they stood before the image that Nebuchadnezzar had set up. ⁴Then the herald cried with strength, To you it is commanded, O peoples, nations, and languages; ⁵at the time you hear the sound of the horn, the pipe, zither, the lyre, harp, bagpipe, and all kinds of music, you shall fall down and worship the golden image that Nebuchadnezzar the king has set up. ⁶And whoever does not fall down and worship, at that moment they will be thrown into the middle of a burning, fiery furnace. ⁷Then at that time, when all the people heard the sound of the horn, the pipe, zither, the lyre, harp, and all kinds of music, all the peoples, the nations, and the languages fell down, worshiping the golden image that Nebuchadnezzar the king had set up.

⁶Then at that time men, Chaldeans, came near and slandered the Jews.

⁷They answered and said to king Nebuchadnezzar, O king, live forever! ¹⁰You, O king, have made a decree that every man who shall hear the sound of the horn, the pipe, zither, the lyre, harp, and the bagpipe, and all kinds of music, shall fall down and worship the golden image.

¹¹And whoever does not fall down and worship, he should be thrown into the middle of a burning, fiery furnace. ¹²There are men, Jews, whom you have set over the business of the province of Babylon: Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego. These men, O king, do not pay attention to you. They do not serve your gods, or worship the golden image which you have set up.

¹³Then Nebuchadnezzar in anger and wrath commanded to bring Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego. Then they brought these men before the king. ¹⁴Nebuchadnezzar spoke and said to them, Is it true, O Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego? Do you not serve my gods, nor worship the golden image which I have set up? ¹⁵Now if you are ready, at the time you hear the sound of the horn, the pipe, zither, the lyre, harp, and bagpipe, and all kinds of music, fall down and worship the image which I have made. But if you do not worship, in that moment you shall be thrown into the middle of a burning, fiery furnace. And who is that god who shall deliver you out of my hand? ¹⁶Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego answered and said to the king, O Nebuchadnezzar, we have no need to return a word to you on this matter. ¹⁷If it is so that our God whom we serve is able to deliver us from the burning, fiery furnace, then He will deliver out of your hand, O king. ¹⁸And if not, let it be known to you, O king, that we will not serve your gods, or worship the golden image which you have set up.

¹⁹Then Nebuchadnezzar was filled with wrath, and the form of his face was changed against Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego. He spoke and commanded to heat the furnace seven times more than it was usual to heat it. ²⁰And he commanded mighty men of valor, who were in his army, to tie up Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, to throw them into the burning, fiery furnace. ²¹Then these men were tied up in their slippers, their tunics, and their mantles, and their other clothes, and were thrown into the middle of the burning, fiery furnace. ²²Then, because the king's command was urgent, and the furnace exceedingly hot, the flame of the fire killed those men who took up Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego. ²³And these three men, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, fell down bound into the middle of the burning, fiery furnace. ²⁴Then Nebuchadnezzar the king was amazed. And he rose up in haste; he spoke and said to his royal officials, Did we not throw three men bound into the middle of the fire? They replied and said to the king, True, O king. ²⁵He answered and said, Lo, I see four men loose, walking in the middle of the fire, and there is no harm among them. And the form of the fourth is like a son of the gods.

²⁶Then Nebuchadnezzar came near to the door of the burning, fiery furnace. He answered and said, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, servants of the most high God, come forth and come here. Then Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego came out of the middle of the fire. ²⁷And the satraps, the prefects, the governors, and the king's officials assembled, and saw these men on whose bodies the fire had no power, and the hair of their head was not scorched, nor were their slippers changed, nor had the smell of fire clung on them. ²⁸Nebuchadnezzar spoke and said, Blessed be the God of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, who has sent His Angel and has delivered His servants who trusted in Him, and have changed the king's words, and have given their bodies that they might not serve nor worship any god except their own God. ²⁹And a decree is given by me, that every people, nation, and language who speak anything amiss about the God of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, he will be made into mere members and his house shall be made an outhouse. Because there is no other God who is able to deliver like this. ³⁰Then the king made Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego prosper in the province of Babylon.

¹Nebuchadnezzar the king to all the peoples, the nations, and the tongues that dwell in all the earth: Your peace be multiplied. ²It seemed good before me to declare the signs and wonders that the most high God has done with me. ³How great are His signs! And how mighty are His wonders! His kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and His rule is from generation to generation.

⁴I, Nebuchadnezzar, was at ease in my house, and flourishing in my palace. ⁵I saw a dream, and it terrified me; and the thoughts on my bed, and visions of my head troubled me. ⁶So I made a decree to bring in all the wise men of Babylon before me, that they might make known to me the meaning of the dream. ⁷Then the horoscopists, the conjurers, the Chaldeans, and the fortune-tellers came in. And I told the dream before them, but they did not make its meaning known to me.

⁸But at last Daniel came in before me, whose name was Belteshazzar, according to the name of my god, and in whom is the spirit of the holy gods. And I told the dream before him, saying, ⁹O Belteshazzar, master of the horoscopists, because I know that the spirit of the holy gods is in you, and no secret troubles you, tell me the visions of my dream that I have seen, and its meaning. ¹⁰As to the visions of my head on my bed; I was looking, and behold, a tree was in the middle of the earth. And its height was great. ¹¹The tree became great and strong, and its height reached to the sky; and its appearance to the end of the earth. ¹²Its leaves were beautiful, and its fruit plentiful, and food for all was in it. The animals of the field sought shade under it, and the birds of the sky dwelt in its branches; and all flesh was fed from it. ¹³I was looking in the visions of my head on my bed. And behold, a watcher, even a holy one, came down from Heaven. ¹⁴He cried with might and said this: Cut down the tree, and cut off its branches. Shake off its leaves, and scatter its fruit. Let the animals flee from under it, and the birds leave its branches. ¹⁵But leave the stump of its roots in the earth, even with a fetter of iron and bronze, in the grass of the field. And let it be wet with the dew of the heavens, and his portion be with the animals in the grass of the earth. ¹⁶Let his heart be changed from man's, and let the heart of an animal be given to him. And let seven times pass over him. ¹⁷This matter is by the decree of the watchers, and the command by the word of the holy ones; so that the living may know that the most High rules in the kingdom of men, and gives it to whomever He will; and He sets up over it the lowest of men. ¹⁸I, Nebuchadnezzar, have seen this dream. Now you, O Belteshazzar, declare its meaning, since all the wise men of my kingdom are not able to reveal the meaning to me. But you are able, for the spirit of the holy gods is in you.

¹⁹Then Daniel, whose name was Belteshazzar, was stunned for one hour, and his thoughts troubled him. The king spoke and said, Belteshazzar, do not let the dream, or its meaning trouble you. Belteshazzar answered and said, My lord, the dream is to those who hate you, and its meaning is to your foes. ²⁰The tree that you saw, which became great and strong, whose height reached to the heavens, and its sight to all the earth; ²¹and its leaves being beautiful, and its fruit plentiful; and food for all being in it; under which the animals of the field lived, and in its branches the birds of the sky had their home: ²²It was you, O king, for you have become great and strong. For your greatness has grown, and reaches to the heavens; and your rule is to the end of the earth. ²³And as the king saw a watcher and a holy one coming down from Heaven, and saying, Cut the tree down, and destroy it. Yet leave the stump of its roots in the earth, even with a fetter of iron and bronze in the grass of the field. And let him be wet with the dew of the heavens, and his portion be with the animals of the field, until seven times pass over him. ²⁴This is the meaning, O king, and this the decree of the Most High, which has come on my lord the king: ²⁵And you shall be driven from men, and your dwelling shall be with the animals of the field; and you shall be fed with the grass like oxen. And you shall be wet with the dew of the heavens, and seven times shall pass over you, until you know that the Most High is Ruler in the kingdom of men; and He gives it to whomever He desires. ²⁶And they that commanded to leave the stump of the tree roots: your kingdom shall be enduring to you, after you have realized that Heaven rules. ²⁷So, O king, let my advice be pleasing to you; even break off your sins by righteousness, and your iniquities by pitying the poor; whether there will be duration to your prosperity.

²⁸All this came on the king, Nebuchadnezzar. ²⁹At the end of twelve months he walked in the palace of the kingdom of Babylon. ³⁰The king spoke and said, Is this not great Babylon that I have built for the house of the kingdom, by the might of my power, and for the honor of my majesty? ³¹The word was still in the king's voice when a voice came down from Heaven, saying, O king Nebuchadnezzar, to you it is declared: The kingdom has been taken from you! ³²And you shall be driven from men; and your dwelling shall be with the animals of the field. You shall be fed with the grass like oxen, and times shall pass over you until you know that the Most High is Ruler in the kingdom of men, and that He gives it to whomever He desires.

³³The same hour the thing was fulfilled on Nebuchadnezzar. And he was driven from men, and he ate the grass like oxen; and his body was wet with the dew of the heavens, until his hair had grown like eagles' feathers, and his nails like birds' claws. ³⁴And at the end of the days, I, Nebuchadnezzar, lifted up my eyes to Heaven, and my understanding returned to me, and I blessed the Most High. And I praised and honored Him who lives forever, whose kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and His rule from generation to generation. ³⁵And all the inhabitants of the earth are counted as nothing. And He does according to His will among the army of Heaven, and among the inhabitants of the earth. And no one is able to strike His hand, or say to Him, What are You doing? ³⁶At that time my reason returned to me, and the glory of my kingdom, my majesty, and my brightness returned to me. And my advisers and my nobles sought to me. And I was reestablished in my kingdom, and excellent greatness was added to me. ³⁷Now I, Nebuchadnezzar, praise and exalt and honor the King of Heaven, for all His works are truth, and His ways are justice. And He is able to humble those who walk in pride.

¹⁰The queen came in to the banquet house because of the words of the king and his nobles. The queen spoke and said, O king, live forever. Do not let your thoughts trouble you, and do not let your face be changed. ¹¹There is a man in your kingdom in whom is the spirit of the holy gods. And in the days of your father light and understanding and wisdom was found in him, like the wisdom of the gods. Your father, king Nebuchadnezzar, your father the king appointed him master of the horoscopes, conjurers, Chaldeans and fortune-tellers, ¹²because an excellent spirit, and knowledge, and understanding, explaining of dreams, and revealing of hard sentences, and the unraveling of knots, were found in this Daniel, whom the king named Belshazzar. Now let Daniel be called, and he will reveal the meaning.

¹³Then Daniel was thrust in before the king. The king spoke and said to Daniel, Are you that Daniel who is of the sons of the exiled of Judah, whom my father the king brought out of Judah? ¹⁴I have even heard of you, that the spirit of the gods is in you, and light, and excellent wisdom, and understanding are found in you. ¹⁵And now the wise men and the conjurers have been thrust in before me, so that they might read this writing, and make the meaning known to me. But they could not show the meaning of the thing. ¹⁶And I have heard of you, that you can interpret meanings, and unravel knots. Now if you can read the writing, and reveal its meaning to me, you shall be clothed with purple and have a golden chain around your neck; and you will rule third in the kingdom.

¹⁷Then Daniel answered and said before the king, Let your gifts be to yourself, and give your rewards to another. Yet I will read the writing to the king, and make the meaning known to him. ¹⁸O king, the most high God gave your father Nebuchadnezzar a kingdom, and majesty, and glory, and honor. ¹⁹And for the majesty that He gave him, all peoples, nations, and languages trembled and feared before him. He killed whom He desired, and whom he desired, he kept alive. And whom He would, he set up; and whom he desired, he put down. ²⁰But when his heart was lifted up, and his mind hardened in pride, he was put down from the throne of his kingdom, and they took his glory from him. ²¹And he was driven from the sons of men. And his heart was made like the animals, and his home was with the wild asses. They fed him with grass like oxen, and his body was wet with the dew of the heavens, until he knew that the most high God is Ruler in the kingdom of men; and that He appoints over it whomever He desires.

²²And you, his son, O Belshazzar, have not bowed your heart, though you knew all this. ²³But you have lifted yourself up against the Lord of Heaven. And they have brought the vessels of His house before you. And you, and your nobles, your wives, and your concubines have drunk wine from them. And you have praised the gods of silver, and gold, bronze, iron, wood, and stone, which do not see, nor hear, and do not know. And you have not glorified the God in whose hand your breath is, and to whom belong all your ways. ²⁴Then the part of the hand was sent from Him. And this writing was written.

²⁵And this is the writing that was written: A MINA, A MINA, A SHEKEL, AND HALF-MINAS. ²⁶This is the meaning of the thing: A MINA, God has numbered your kingdom, and finished it. ²⁷A SHEKEL, You are weighed in the balances, and found lacking. ²⁸HALF-MINAS, your kingdom is divided, and given to the Medes and Persians.

²⁹Then Belshazzar commanded, and they clothed Daniel with purple, and a necklace of gold around his neck. And they made a proclamation concerning him, that he should be the third ruler in the kingdom.

³⁰In that night Belshazzar, the king of the Chaldeans, was killed.

³¹And Darius the Mede took the kingdom, being a son of sixty-two years.

¹It pleased Darius to set over the kingdom a hundred and twenty satraps, that they might be over the kingdom. ²And over them were three presidents—Daniel was one of them—so that these satraps might give account to them, and the king should have no loss. ³Then this Daniel was preferred above the presidents and satraps, because an excellent spirit was in him. And the king was planning to set him over all the kingdom.

⁷Then the presidents and satraps sought to find occasion against Daniel concerning the kingdom. But they could find no occasion or fault, because he was trustworthy. And no error or fault was found in him. ⁸Then these men said, We shall not find any occasion against this Daniel unless we find it against him concerning the law of his God. ⁹Then these presidents and satraps gathered together to the king and said this to him, King Darius, live forever. ¹⁰All the presidents of the kingdom, the prefects, and the satraps, the officials and the governors, have planned together to establish a royal law, and to make a strong ban, that whoever shall ask a petition of any god or man for thirty days, except from you, O king, he shall be thrown into the den of lions. ¹¹Now, O king, establish the ban and sign the document, so that it may not be changed, according to the law of the Medes and Persians, which does not pass away. ¹²All on account of this, king Darius signed the document and the ban.

¹³And when he had learned that the document was signed, Daniel went to his house. And his windows were open in his roof-room toward Jerusalem. He knelt on his knees three times in the day, and prayed and praised before his God, as he did before. ¹⁴Then these men met together and found Daniel praying and seeking mercy before his God. ¹⁵Then they came near and spoke before the king concerning the king's ban, saying, Have you not signed a ban that every man who shall ask of any god or man within thirty days, except of you, O king, that he shall be thrown into the lions' den? The king answered and said, The thing is certain, according to the law of the Medes and Persians, which does not pass away. ¹⁶Then they answered and said before the king, Daniel, who is of the sons of the captivity of Judah, has not set attention on you, O king, or the ban that you have signed, but he makes his prayer three times in the day. ¹⁷Then the king, when he heard the word, was very displeased with himself. And he set his heart on Daniel, to deliver him. And he labored until the going of the sun to deliver him. ¹⁸Then these men met before the king and said to the king, O king, know that the law of the Medes and Persians is that every ban or law which the king enacts may not be changed. ¹⁹And the king commanded. And they caused to arrive Daniel, and they threw him into the lions' den. The king spoke and said to Daniel, Your God, whom you constantly serve, will deliver you. ²⁰And a stone was brought and laid on the mouth of the den. And the king sealed it with his own signet, and with the signet of his nobles, that the affair may not change concerning Daniel.

²¹Then the king went to his palace and spent the night fasting. And diversions were not brought before him; and his sleep fled from him. ²²Then the king rose up in the dawn, in the daylight, and hurried to the lions' den. ²³And when he came to the den, he cried with a grieved voice to Daniel; the king spoke and said to Daniel, O Daniel, servant of the living God, your God whom you always serve, is He able to deliver you from the lions? ²⁴Then Daniel said to the king, O king, live forever. ²⁵My God has sent His Angel, and He has shut the mouths of the lions. And they have not hurt me, because in His sight purity was found in me. And also before you, O king, I have done no harm. ²⁶Then the king was exceedingly happy for him. And he commanded to bring up Daniel from the den. And Daniel was brought out of the den, and no harm was found on him, because he trusted in his God.

²⁷And the king commanded, and they brought those men who had accused Daniel. And they threw them into the lions' den; them, their sons, and their wives. And the lions overpowered them, and crushed all their bones before they reached to the bottom of the den.

²⁸Then king Darius wrote to all the peoples, the nations, and the languages who were living in all the earth: Peace be multiplied to you. ²⁹I make a decree that in all the domain of my kingdom men shall tremble and fear before the God of Daniel. For He is the living God and endures forever, and His kingdom is the one which shall not be destroyed. And His rule shall be to the end. ³⁰He delivers and rescues, and He works signs and wonders in the heavens and in the earth, He who has delivered Daniel from the power of the lions.

²⁸And this Daniel was made to prosper in the reign of Darius, and in the reign of Cyrus the Persian.

CHAPTER 7

¹In the first year of Belshazzar, king of Babylon, Daniel saw a dream and visions of his head on his bed. Then he related the dream, giving the sum of the matters.

²Daniel spoke and said, In my vision by night I was looking. And, behold, the four winds of the heavens were stirring up the Great Sea. ³And four great beasts came up from the sea, different from one another. ⁴The first was like a lion and had eagle's wings. I watched until its wings were torn off. And it was lifted up from the earth, and made to stand on two feet like a man; and a man's heart was given to it.

⁵And, behold, another beast, a second, like a bear. And it was raised up on one side, and three ribs were in its mouth between its teeth. And they said this to it, Rise up, eat much flesh. ⁶After this I watched, and, behold, another like a leopard, which had four wings of a bird on its back; for also the beast had four heads. And rulership was given to it. ⁷And after this I looked in the night visions. And, behold, the fourth beast, fearful and terrifying, and very strong! And it had great iron teeth. It devoured and crushed, and stamped what was left with its feet. And it was different from all the beasts that were before it; and it had ten horns.

⁸I was thinking about the horns; and, behold, another little horn came up among them, before whom three of the first horns were pulled up by the roots. And, behold, in this horn were eyes like the eyes of the man, and a mouth speaking great things.

⁹I was looking until the thrones were set up, and the Ancient of Days sat, whose robe was white as snow, and the hair of His head like pure wool. His throne was like flames of fire; its wheels like burning fire. ¹⁰A stream of fire went out and came out from before Him. A thousand thousands served Him, and a myriad myriads stood before Him. The court was set, and the books were opened. ¹¹Then I was looking because of the voice of the great words which the horn spoke. I was looking until the beast was killed, and his body was destroyed, and given to the burning flame. ¹²And the rest of the beasts, their dominion was taken away. Yet length of life was given them for a season and a time. ¹³I was looking in the night visions. And, behold, one like the Son of man came with the clouds of the heavens. And He came to the Ancient of Days. And they brought Him near before Him. ¹⁴And dominion was given to Him, and glory, and a kingdom, that all peoples, nations, and languages should serve Him. His dominion is an everlasting dominion which shall not pass away, and His kingdom that which shall not be destroyed.

¹⁵I, Daniel, was distressed in my spirit in its sheath, and the visions of my head troubled me. ¹⁶And I came near one of those who stood by and asked him the truth of all this. And he told me and made me know the meaning of the things.

¹⁷These great beasts are four; they are four kings; they shall rise up out of the earth. ¹⁸But the saints of the Most High shall receive the kingdom and possess the kingdom forever, even forever and ever.

¹⁹Then I wanted to know the truth of the fourth beast, which was different from all of them, very frightening, whose teeth were of iron and its nails bronze; who devoured and crushed, and trampled what was left with its feet. ²⁰And of the ten horns that were on its head, and the other which came up, and before whom three fell; even that horn that had eyes, and a mouth speaking great things, and its look was greater than his fellows; ²¹I watched, and that horn made war with the saints and overcame them, ²²until the Ancient of Days came. And judgment was given to the saints of the Most High; and the time came that the saints possessed the kingdom. ²³And He said, The fourth beast shall be the fourth kingdom on earth, which shall be different from all kingdoms, and shall devour all the earth, and shall trample it down and crush it. ²⁴And the ten horns out of this kingdom are ten kings; they shall rise; and another shall rise after them. And he shall be different from the first, and he shall humble three kings. ²⁵And he shall speak words against the Most High, and shall wear out the saints of the Most High. And he intends to change times and law. And they shall be given into his hand until a time and times and one-half time. ²⁶But the judgment shall sit, and they shall take away his rulership, to cut off and to destroy until the end. ²⁷And the kingdom and rulership, and the greatness of the kingdom under all the heavens, shall be given to the people of the saints of the Most High, whose kingdom is an everlasting kingdom. And all kingdoms shall serve and obey Him. ²⁸Here is the end of the matter. As for me, Daniel, my thoughts troubled me much, and my face changed on me. But I kept the matter in my heart.

¹In the third year of the reign of king Belshazzar, a vision appeared to me, Daniel, after that which appeared to me at the first. ²And I looked in a vision. And it happened when I looked, I was at Shushan the citadel which is in the province of Elam. And in a vision I looked, and I was by the Canal of Ulai. ³Then I lifted up my eyes and looked. And, behold, a ram was standing before the canal, having two horns. And the two horns were high, but one was higher than the other, and the higher one came up last. ⁴I saw the ram pushing westward and northward and southward, so that no beasts could stand before him, nor any who could deliver out of his hand. But he did according to his will, and became great. ⁵And I was considering, and, behold, a he-goat came from the west, over the face of all the earth, and did not touch the ground. And the goat had an outstanding horn between his eyes. ⁶And he came to the ram with two horns, which I had seen standing before the canal. And he ran to it in the fury of his power. ⁷And I saw him touched beside the ram. And he was moved with anger against him, and struck the ram and shattered his two horns. And there was no power in the ram to stand before him. But he threw him down to the ground, and trampled him. And no one could deliver the ram from his hand.

⁸Then the he-goat became very great. And when he was mighty, the great horn was broken. And in its place came up four outstanding ones toward the four winds of the heavens. ⁹And out of one of them came a little horn, which became very great, toward the south, and toward the east, and toward the bountiful land. ¹⁰And it became great, even to the host of the heavens. And it made fall some of the host, and of the stars, to the ground, and trampled them. ¹¹Yea, he magnified himself even to the leader of the host. And the daily sacrifice was taken away by him, and the place of his sanctuary was cast down. ¹²And a host was given with the daily sacrifice because of transgression. And it threw the truth down to the ground; and it worked and prospered.

¹³Then I heard a certain holy one speaking, and another holy one said to that one who spoke, Until when is the vision, the regular sacrifice, and the desolating transgression, to give both the sanctuary and the host to be trampled? ¹⁴And he said to me, For two thousand, three hundred evenings and mornings; then the sanctuary will be vindicated.

¹⁵And it happened when I, Daniel, had seen the vision, then I sought meaning. And, behold, the form of a man stood before me. ¹⁶And I heard a man's voice between the banks of Ulai, and he called and said, Gabriel, make this one understand the vision. ¹⁷And he came beside my place. And when he came, I feared and fell on my face. But he said to me, O son of man, understand; for the vision is for the time of the end. ¹⁸And while he was speaking with me, I was stunned, on my face toward the ground. But he touched me and made me stand. ¹⁹And he said, Behold, I will make you know what shall happen in the last end of the indignation. For it is for the time appointed for the end. ²⁰The ram which you saw with two horns is the kings of Media and Persia. ²¹And the shaggy goat is the king of Greece. And the great horn that is between his eyes is the first king. ²²And as for that which was broken, and four stood up in its place, four kingdoms shall stand up out of the nation, but not in its power. ²³And in the latter time of their kingdom, when the transgressors have come to the full, a king strong of face, and skilled at intrigues, shall stand up. ²⁴And his power shall be mighty, but not by his own power. And he shall destroy marvelously; and he shall prosper, and work, and destroy the mighty, and the holy people. ²⁵And also through his skill he will make deceit succeed in his hand. And he will lift himself up in his heart, and be at ease; he shall destroy many. He shall also stand up against the Ruler of rulers, but he shall be broken without a hand. ²⁶And the morning and evening vision that was told is true. But you shall shut up the vision; for it shall be for many days. ²⁷And I, Daniel, was faint. And I was sick for days. Afterwards I got up and did the king's business. And I was amazed at the vision. But there was no understanding.

¹In the first year of Darius, the son of Ahasuerus, of the seed of the Medes, who was made king over the realm of the Chaldeans, ²in the first year of his reign, I, Daniel, understood the number of the years by books, which came as the word of Jehovah to Jeremiah the prophet, that He would accomplish seventy years in the desolations of Jerusalem.

³And I set my face toward the Lord God, to seek by prayer and holy desires, with fasting, and sackcloth, and ashes. ⁴And I prayed to Jehovah my God, and made my confession, saying, O Lord, the great and awesome God, keeping the covenant and mercy to those who love Him, and to those who keep His commandments; ⁵we have sinned and have committed iniquity, and have done evilly, and have rebelled, even by departing from Your commandments and from Your judgments. ⁶And we have not listened to Your servants the prophets, who spoke in Your name to our kings, our rulers, and our fathers, and to all the people of the land. ⁷O Lord, righteousness belongs to You, but to us the shame of our faces, as it is this day; to the men of Judah, and to the dwellers of Jerusalem, and to all Israel, both near and at a distance, through all the lands where You have scattered them, because of their sin which they have sinned against You. ⁸O Lord, shame of face belongs to us, to our kings, to our rulers, and to our fathers, because we have sinned against You. ⁹To the Lord our God belong mercies, and pardons, for we have rebelled against Him. ¹⁰We have not obeyed the voice of the Lord our God, to walk in His laws which he set before us by His servants the prophets. ¹¹Yea, all Israel has transgressed Your law, and turned aside, that they might not obey Your voice. For this reason the curse has poured out on us, and the oath that is written in the law of Moses the servant of God, because we have sinned against Him.

¹²And He has confirmed His words which He spoke against us, and against our judges who judge us, by bringing on us a great evil. For under the whole heavens it has not been done as it has been done to Jerusalem. ¹³As it is written in the law of Moses, all this evil has come on us. Yet we did not make our prayer before Jehovah our God, that we might turn from our perversities and understand Your truth. ¹⁴And Jehovah has looked on the evil, and has made it come on us. For Jehovah our God is righteous in all His works which He does. For we did not obey His voice. ¹⁵And now, O Lord our God, You who have brought Your people out of the land of Egypt with a mighty hand, and who has made for Himself a name, as it is this day, we have sinned; we have done wrong.

¹⁶O Lord, I pray to You, according to all Your righteousness, let Your anger and Your fury be turned away from Your city Jerusalem, Your holy mountain. For because of our sins and of our fathers' iniquities, Jerusalem and Your people have become a reproach to all those around us. ¹⁷And now, hear, O our God, the prayer of Your servant, and his holy desires, and cause Your face to shine on Your sanctuary that is desolate, for the sake of the Lord. ¹⁸O my God, bow down Your ear and hear; open Your eyes and see our ruins; and the city which is called by Your name. For we do not present our prayers before You on account of our righteousnesses, but because of Your great mercies. ¹⁹O Lord, hear! O Lord, forgive! O Lord, listen and act! Do not delay, for Your own sake, O my God; for Your name is called on Your city and on Your people.

²⁰And while I was speaking and praying and confessing my sin, and the sin of my people Israel, and making my cry fall before Jehovah my God for the holy mountain of my God; ²¹and while I was setting my prayer in order, then the man, Gabriel, whom I had seen in the vision at the beginning, touched me in my severe exhaustion, about the time of the evening sacrifice. ²²And he enlightened me, and talked with me, and said, O Daniel, I have now come out to give you skill in understanding. ²³At the beginning of your prayers, the word came forth, and I have come to reveal. For you are greatly beloved. Then understand the matter and pay attention to the vision:

²⁴Seventy weeks are decreed as to your people, and as to your holy city, to finish the transgression, and to make an end of sins, and to make atonement for iniquity, and to bring in everlasting righteousness, and to seal up the vision and prophecy, and to anoint the Most Holy. ²⁵Know, then, and understand that from the going out of a word to restore and to rebuild Jerusalem, to Messiah the Prince, shall be seven weeks and sixty-two weeks. The street shall be built again, and the wall, even in times of affliction. ²⁶And after sixty-two weeks, Messiah shall be cut off, but not for Himself. And the people of a coming prince shall destroy the city and the sanctuary. And its end shall be with the flood, and ruins are determined, until the end shall be war.

²⁷And he shall confirm a covenant with the many for one week. And in the middle of the week he shall cause the sacrifice and the offering to cease; and on a corner of the altar, desolating abominations, even until the end. And that which was decreed shall pour out on the desolator.

¹In the third year of Cyrus king of Persia, a thing was revealed to Daniel, whose name was called Belteshazzar. And the thing was true, and a great conflict. And he understood the thing, and had understanding of the vision. ²In those days I, Daniel, was mourning three weeks of days. ³I ate no food for delight, and no flesh or wine came into my mouth. I did not anoint myself at all until three weeks of days were fulfilled. ⁴And in the twenty-fourth day of the first month, as I was by the hand of the great river, which is Tigris, ⁵then I lifted up my eyes and looked: And, behold, a certain man was clothed in linen, whose loins were wrapped in fine gold from Uphaz. ⁶His body was also like the beryl, and his face looked like lightning. And his eyes were like torches of fire; and his arms and his feet in color like polished bronze; and the sound of his words were as the noise of a multitude. ⁷And I, Daniel, alone saw the vision. For the men who were with me did not see the vision. But a great trembling fell on them, so that they fled to hide themselves. ⁸Then I was left alone, and saw this great vision; and there remained no strength in me. For my glory was turned within me to corruption, and I kept no strength. ⁹Yet I heard the sound of his words. And when I heard the sound of his words, then I was on my face, stunned; and my face was toward the ground.

¹⁰And, behold, a hand touched me and set me shaking on my knees and the palms of my hands. ¹¹And he said to me, O Daniel, a man greatly beloved, understand the words that I speak to you, and stand up. For I am now sent to you. And when he had spoken this word to me, I stood, trembling. ¹²And he said to me, Do not fear, Daniel. For from the first day that you set your heart to understand, and to humble yourself before your God, your words were heard. And I have come because of your words. ¹³But the king of the kingdom of Persia withstood me twenty-one days. But, lo, Michael, one of the first rulers, came to help me. And I stayed there with the kings of Persia. ¹⁴Now I have come to make you understand what shall happen to your people in the latter days. For the vision is yet for many days. ¹⁵And when he had spoken such words to me, I set my face to the ground, and I became speechless.

¹⁶And, behold, one in form as the sons of men touched my lips. And I opened my mouth and spoke, and said to him who stood before me, O lord, my pangs have come over me, because of the vision, and I have no strength left. ¹⁷For how can the servant of my lord speak this with this my lord? For as for me, there is no power left in me; yea, there is no breath left in me. ¹⁸And again one in form as a man touched me, and made me strong. ¹⁹And he said, O man greatly beloved, do not fear. Peace to you. Be strong. Yea, be strong! And when he had spoken to me I was made strong. And I said, Speak, my lord, for you have made me strong. ²⁰And he said, Do you know why I have come to you? And now I will return to fight with the ruler of Persia. And when I have gone out, then, lo, the ruler of Greece shall come. ²¹But I will tell you what is written in the Scripture of Truth. And no one makes himself strong with Me in these things, except Michael your ruler.

¹And I, in the first year of Darius the Mede, I was standing for a supporter and for a fortress for him. ²And now I will declare the truth to you. Behold, three kings shall stand up in Persia; and the fourth shall be rich in all greater riches. And when he is powerful through his riches he shall stir up all the kingdom of Greece. ³And a mighty king shall stand up and shall rule with great authority and do according to his will. ⁴And when he stands up his kingdom shall be broken and shall be divided to the four winds of the heavens, and not to his posterity, nor according to his authority with which he ruled. For his kingdom shall be pulled up and given to others besides these.

⁵And the king of the south shall be strong. And one of his rulers, even he will be strong on him, and he will rule. His rule shall be a great rule. ⁶And at the end of the years they shall join together, and the king of the south's daughter shall come to the king of the north to make a concord. But she shall not keep the power of the arm. And he will not stand, nor his arm. But she and those who brought her shall be given up, also her begetter and her supporter in these times. ⁷But the shoots of her roots will stand in his place, and he shall come to the army and will enter into the fortress of the king of the north. And he will act against them and will show strength. ⁸And he will also bring their gods with their casted images, with silver and gold vessels of their possessions, into exile to Egypt. And for years he will stand away from the king of the north. ⁹And the king of the south will come into his kingdom and will return to his own land. ¹⁰But his sons shall be stirred up and shall gather a multitude of great forces. And one certainly shall come and overflow and pass through. And he will return to his fortress and be stirred up. ¹¹And the king of the south will be furious and will go out and fight with him, with the king of the north. And he shall raise a great multitude. But the multitude shall be given into his hand. ¹²And lifting up the multitude, his heart will be lifted up. And he will make fall myriads, but he shall not be strong. ¹³For the king of the north shall return and raise a greater multitude than the former. And at the end of times, years, certainly he shall come with a great army and with much equipment. ¹⁴And in those times many shall stand up against the king of the south. And the sons of the violent ones of your people shall lift up to establish the vision; but they shall stumble. ¹⁵And the king of the north shall come and pour out a siege mound and seize a fortified city. And the arms of the south shall not stand, nor his choice people, for there will be no firmness to stand. ¹⁶But he who comes against him as will do as he desires, and none shall stand before him. And he shall stand in the glorious land, and destruction shall be in his hand. ¹⁷And he shall set his face to go in with the might of all his kingdom, and upright ones with him; so he shall do. And shall give the daughter of women to him, to destroy it. But she shall not stand, nor be for him.

not in anger and not in battle. ²¹And a despised one shall stand up on his place, and they shall not give to him the honor of the king. But he shall come in while at ease and take the kingdom by intrigues. ²²And the forces of the overflow shall be swept from before his face, and they will be broken, and also the ruler of a covenant. ²³And after they join themselves to him he will practice deceit. For he shall come and shall be strong with a few people. ²⁴He will go in safely, even into the rich places of the province. And he shall do what his fathers have not done, nor his fathers' fathers. He shall plunder and spoil and scatter goods among them. And he shall devise his plots against the strongholds, even for a time. ²⁵And he will stir up his power and his heart against the king of the south with a great army. And the king of the south will be stirred up to battle with a great and very mighty army. But he shall not stand, for they will devise plots against him. ²⁶Yea, those who eat his food shall destroy him, and his army shall overflow. And many will fall down slain. ²⁷And both of them, the kings, shall have in their hearts to do evil, and they will speak lies at one table. But it will not prosper, for the end still shall be at the appointed time. ²⁸And he will return to his land with great wealth. And his heart shall be against the holy covenant. And he will act, and he shall return to his land. ²⁹At the appointed time he will return and come against the south. But it will not be as the former or as the latter. ³⁰For the ships of Cyprians will come against him. And he will be grieved and turn back and be furious against the holy covenant. And he will act, and he will return and heed the forsakers of the holy covenant. ³¹And forces will stand away from him, and they will profane the sanctuary, the fortress. And they shall remove the regular sacrifice; and they will place the abomination that desolates. ³²And he will defile by flatteries those who do evil against the covenant. But the people who know their God will be strong and will work. ³³And those who understand among the people will instruct many; yet they will stumble by the sword and by flame, by exile and spoil for days.

³⁴And when they shall stumble they will be helped with a little help. But many will join them with hypocrisy. ³⁵And many of those who understand shall stumble, to refine and to purge them, and to make white to the time of the end. For it is yet for the appointed time. ³⁶And the king shall do according to his will. And he shall exalt and magnify himself above every god, he shall even speak marvelous things against the God of gods and shall succeed until the fury is fulfilled. For that which is decreed shall be done. ³⁷He shall not regard the God of his fathers, nor the desire of women; yea, he will not come to any god. For he shall magnify himself above all. ³⁸But in his place he shall honor the god of forces; and he shall honor a god whom his fathers did not know, with gold and silver and with precious stones, and desirable things. ³⁹And he shall act in the strongholds of the fortresses with a foreign god, whom he shall acknowledge. He shall multiply in glory, and he shall cause them to rule over many, and shall divide the land for a price.

⁴⁰And at the end-time the king of the south will engage in butting with him. And the king of the north shall come against him like a tempest, with chariots and with horsemen and with many ships. And he shall go into the lands and shall overflow and pass over. ⁴¹And he shall enter into the glorious land, and many will be stumbled. But these shall escape out of his hand: Edom and Moab, and the chief of the sons of Ammon. ⁴²And his hand will stretch out against the lands, and the land of Egypt shall not escape. ⁴³But he will rule over the treasures of gold and silver, and over all Egypt's desirable things. And the Libyans and the Ethiopians shall be at His steps. ⁴⁴But news from the east shall trouble him from the east and from the north. And he will go out with great fury to destroy and to devote to destruction many. ⁴⁵And he shall plant his palace tents between the seas, in the glorious holy mountain. Yet he shall come to his end, and there is not a helper for him.

¹And at that time Michael shall stand up, the great ruler who stands for the sons of your people. And there shall be a time of distress, such as has not been from the existence of a nation until that time. And at that time your people shall be delivered, everyone that shall be found written in the Book. ²And many of those sleeping in the earth's dust shall awake, some to everlasting life, and some to reproaches and to everlasting loathing. ³And those who are wise shall shine as the brightness of the firmament, and those turning many to righteousness as the stars forever and ever. ⁴But you, O Daniel, shut up the words, and seal the book, to the end-time. Many shall run to and fro, and knowledge shall be increased.

⁵And I, Daniel, looked. And, behold! Another two stood there, the one on this side, and one on that side of the river's edge. ⁶And one said to the man clothed in linen, who was on the waters of the river, Until when is the end of the wonders? ⁷And I heard the man clothed in linen, who was on the waters of the river, when he held up his right and his left hand to Heaven and swore by Him who lives forever, that it shall be for a time, times and a half. And when they have made an end of scattering the power of the holy people, all these things shall be finished. ⁸And I heard, but I did not understand. And I said, O my lord, what shall be the end of these things? ⁹And He said, Go, Daniel! For the words are closed up and sealed until the end-time. ¹⁰Many shall be purified and made white and tested. But the wicked shall do wickedly. And not one of the wicked shall understand, but the wise shall understand. ¹¹And from the time the regular sacrifice shall be taken away, and the abomination that desolates set up, a thousand, two hundred and ninety days shall occur.

¹²Blessed is he who waits and comes to the thousand, three hundred and thirty-five days. ¹³But you go on to the end; for you shall rest and stand for your lot at the end of the days.

THE BOOK OF HOSEA

CHAPTER 1

¹The word of Jehovah that was to Hosea, the son of Beeri, in the days of Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz and Hezekiah, kings of Judah; and in the days of Jeroboam, the son of Joash, king of Israel.

³And he went and took Gomer, the daughter of Diblaim, who conceived and bore him a son. ⁴And Jehovah said to him, Call his name God Will Sow; for yet in a little while I will visit the blood of Jezreel on the house of Jehu, and will cause the kingdom of the house of Israel to cease. ⁵And it shall be in that day, I will break the bow of Israel in the valley of Jezreel.

⁶And she conceived again, and bore a daughter. And He said to him, Call her name No-Mercy, for I will not again still have mercy on the house of Israel; but I will completely take them away. ⁷And I will have mercy on the house of Judah, and will save them by Jehovah their God. And I will not save them by bow or by sword, or by battle, by horses, or by horsemen.

⁸And she having weaned No-Mercy, she conceived and bore a son. ⁹Then He said, Call his name Not-My-People; for you are not My people, and I will not be for you.

¹⁰Yet the number of the sons of Israel shall be as the sand of the sea, which is not measured nor numbered. And it shall be, in the place where it is said to them, You are not My people, it shall be said to them, Sons of the Living God. ¹¹And the sons of Judah and the sons of Israel shall be gathered together, and shall set over themselves one head. And they shall go up out of the land; for great shall be the day of Jezreel.

¹Say to your brothers, A people; and to your sisters, Mercy. ²Strive! Strive with your mother, for she is not My wife; and I am not her husband. Therefore, let her put away her harlotry from her face, and her adulteries from between her breasts; ³that I not strip her naked, and set her out as in the day that she was born; and make her as the wilderness; and place her like a dry land; and kill her with thirst. ⁴And I will not have pity for her sons, for they are the sons of harlotry. ⁵For their mother is a harlot; she who conceived them has acted shamefully. For she said, I will go after my lovers who give my bread and my water, my wool and my flax, my oil and my drink.

⁶Therefore, behold, I will hedge your way with thorns, and I will wall up her wall, that she shall not find her paths; ⁷and she shall follow after her lovers, but she shall not overtake them. And she shall look for them, but she shall not find them. Then she shall say, I will go and return to my first husband, for then it was better with me than now. ⁸For she did not know that I gave her grain and wine and oil, and I multiplied her silver and the gold they prepared for Baal. ⁹So I will return and take My grain in its time, and My wine in its season. And I will take back My wool and My flax she uses to cover her nakedness. ¹⁰And now I will uncover her shamefulfulness to the eyes of her lovers; and a man shall not deliver her out of My hand. ¹¹I will also cause all her joy to cease, her feast days, her new moons, and her sabbaths, and all her solemn feasts. ¹²And I will destroy her vines and her fig-trees, of which she has said, They are my rewards that my lovers have given me. And I will set them for a forest, and the beasts of the field shall eat them. ¹³And I will visit on her the days of the Baals, in which she burned incense to them. Yea, she adorned herself with her noserings, and her jewels, and she went after her lovers and forgot Me, says Jehovah.

¹⁴Therefore, behold, I will lure her and bring her to the wilderness, and speak to her heart. ¹⁵And from there I will give her vineyards to her, and the valley of Achor for a door of hope. And she shall answer there, as in the days of her youth, and as in the day when she came up out of the land of Egypt. ¹⁶And at that day, says Jehovah, you shall call Me, My husband; and you shall no more call me, My Baal. ¹⁷For I will take away the names of the Baals out of her mouth; and they shall no more be remembered by their name. ¹⁸And in that day I will cut a covenant for them with the beasts of the field, and with the birds of the sky, and the creeping things of the ground. And I will break the bow and the sword, and the battle out of the earth, and I will make them to lie down safely. ¹⁹And I will betroth you to Me forever. Yes, I will betroth you to Me in righteousness, and in judgment, and in mercy, and in compassions. ²⁰I will even betroth you to Me in faithfulness. And you shall know Jehovah. ²¹And it shall be in that day, I will answer, says Jehovah. I will answer the heavens, and they shall answer the earth. ²²And the earth shall hear the grain, and the wine, and the oil; and they shall hear Jezreel. ²³And I will sow her to Me in the earth. And I will have mercy on No-Mercy. And I will say to Not-My-People, You are My people! And he shall say, My God!

¹And Jehovah said to me, Go again. Love a woman loved by a friend, yet an adulteress, according to the love of Jehovah toward the sons of Israel, who turn to other gods, and love raisin-cakes of grapes. ²So I bought her for myself with fifteen pieces of silver, and for a homer of barley, and a half of barley. ³And I said to her, You shall stay with me many days. You shall not be a harlot, nor be to a man; and I also will be for you. ⁴For the sons of Israel shall stay many days with no king, and no ruler, and with no sacrifice, and no pillars, and no ephod or teraphim. ⁵Afterward the sons of Israel shall return and seek Jehovah their God, and David their king. And they shall fear Jehovah and His goodness in the ends of the days.

¹Sons of Israel, hear the word of Jehovah, for Jehovah has a quarrel with the inhabitants of the land; for there is no truth, and no mercy, and no knowledge of God in the land. ²swearing, and lying, and killings, and stealing, and the committing of adultery increase. And blood touches against blood. ³On account of this the land shall mourn, and every one living in it shall droop, with the beasts of the field, and the birds of the heavens; yes, also the fish of the sea shall be removed. ⁴Yet let not a man strive with nor reprove a man. For your people are as a priest striven with. ⁵And you shall stumble in the day; and the prophet also shall stumble with you at night, and I will cut off your mother.

⁶My people are cut off for lack of knowledge. Because you rejected the knowledge, I also rejected you from being priest to Me. Since you have forgotten the law of your God, I will forget your sons; even I. ⁷As they were increased, so they sinned against Me. I will change their glory into shame. ⁸They eat up the sin of My people, and they lift their vitality to their iniquity. ⁹And it will be, Like people, like priest. And I will visit their ways on them, and repay them for their deeds. ¹⁰For they shall eat and not have enough. They shall fornicate and not increase, because they have ceased heeding Jehovah. ¹¹Fornication and wine, and new wine, take away the heart.

Let him alone. ¹⁸Their drink is sour. They are continually fornicating; her shields dearly love shame. ¹⁹The wind binds her up in her wings; and they shall be ashamed because of their sacrifices.

¹Hear this, O priests, and listen, house of Israel. And give ear, house of the king. For the judgment is toward you, because you have been a snare to Mizpah, and a net spread on Tabor. ²And revolters have gone deep in slaughtering; and I chasten all of them. ³I know Ephraim, and Israel has not hidden from me. For now, O Ephraim, you have fornicated; Israel is defiled. ⁴Their doings will not allow them to turn to their God. For the spirit of fornication is in their midst, and they do not know Jehovah. ⁵And the pride of Israel answers to his face. So Israel and Ephraim shall stumble in their iniquity. Judah shall also stumble with them. ⁶They shall go with their flocks and with their herds to seek Jehovah, but they shall not find; He has withdrawn Himself from them. ⁷They have acted treacherously against Jehovah, for they have brought forth strange sons. Now a new moon shall devour them with their portions.

¹⁵I will go; I will return to My place until they confess their guilt and seek My face. In their affliction they will seek Me diligently.

¹Come and let us return to Jehovah. For He has torn, and He will heal us. He has stricken, and He will bind us up. ²After two days He will bring us to life. In the third day He will raise us up, and we shall live before Him. ³Then we shall know, we who follow on to know Jehovah. His going forth is established as the dawn. And He shall come to us as the rain, as the latter and former rain to the earth.

⁴O Ephraim, what shall I do to you? O Judah, what shall I do to you? For your goodness is like a morning cloud, and it goes away like the early dew. ⁵So I have hewn them by the prophets; I have slain them by the words of My mouth; and your judgments have been as the light that goes forth. ⁶For I desired mercy, and not sacrifice; and the knowledge of God more than burnt offerings. ⁷But, like Adam, they have broken the covenant; they have acted like traitors against Me there. ⁸Gilead is a city of those who work iniquity, slippery with bloodmarks. ⁹And as troops of robbers wait for a man, the company of priests murder in the way to Shechem; for they have done wickedness. ¹⁰I have seen a horrible thing in the house of Israel: the fornication of Ephraim is there; Israel is defiled. ¹¹Also, O Judah, a harvest is appointed to you, when I return the captivity of My people.

¹When I would have healed Israel, then the iniquity of Ephraim was uncovered, and the evil of Samaria. For they have worked falsehood. And a thief comes; a troop of robbers plunders outside. ²And they do not say within their hearts that I remember all their evil. Now their own doings have hemmed them in. They are before My face. ³They make the king glad with their evil, and the rulers with their lies. ⁴They are all adulterers, like an oven heated by the baker; he ceases from stirring, from kneading the dough while it is leavened. ⁵In the day of our king, the rulers have sickened themselves with the heat of wine. He stretches out his hand with scorners. ⁶For they have brought their heart near, like an oven, while they lie in wait. Their baker sleeps all night; in the morning, it burns like a flaming fire. ⁷They are all hot as an oven, and devour their judges. All their kings have fallen; not one among them calls to Me. ⁸Ephraim mixed himself among the peoples. Ephraim is a cake not turned. ⁹Strangers have eaten up his strength, yet he does not know. Yea, gray hairs are sprinkled here and there on him, yet he does not know. ¹⁰And the pride of Israel testifies to his face. And they do not return to Jehovah their God, nor seek Him in all this.

¹¹Ephraim also is like a silly dove without heart; they call to Egypt; they go to Assyria. ¹²When they go, I will spread My net over them; I will bring them down like the birds of the heavens; I will chastise them, as a report to their congregation. ¹³Woe to them! For they have fled from Me. Ruin to them! For they have transgressed against Me. Though I would redeem them, yet they have spoken lies against Me. ¹⁴And they have not cried to Me with their heart, when they howled on their beds. They gather themselves for grain and wine; they turn against Me. ¹⁵Though I bound, I made their arms strong; yet they think evil against Me. ¹⁶They return, but not to the Most High. They are like a treacherous bow. Their rulers shall fall by the sword, from the rage of the tongue. This shall be their scorn in the land of Egypt.

¹Put a horn to your mouth. He comes like an eagle against the house of Jehovah, because they have broken My covenant and have sinned against My law. ²Israel shall cry to Me, My God, we know You. ³Israel has thrown off good; the enemy shall pursue him. ⁴They have set up kings, but not by Me. They have made rulers, but I did not know. They made idols for themselves with their silver and their gold, so that they may be cut off.

⁵O Samaria, your calf has cast you off. My anger is kindled against them. Until when will they not attain purity? ⁶For it also came from Israel: The craftsman made it, but it is not God. For the calf of Samaria shall be splinters. ⁷For they sow the wind, and they reap the whirlwind. He has no stalk; the bud shall make no flour. If it does make it, strangers will swallow it up. ⁸Israel is swallowed up. They are now among the nations as a vessel in which is no pleasure. ⁹For they have gone up to Assyria, a wild ass alone by himself. Ephraim has hired lovers. ¹⁰Yes, though they have hired among the nations, now I will gather them. And they began to be few, from the burden of the king of rulers.

¹¹Because Ephraim has made many altars to sin; they are altars to him to sin. ¹²I will write the great things of My law for him; they were counted as a stranger. ¹³They sacrifice flesh for the sacrifices of My offerings, and they eat. Jehovah did not accept them. Now He will remember their iniquity and punish their sins. They shall return to Egypt. ¹⁴For Israel has forgotten his Maker, and builds temples. And Judah has multiplied fortified cities; but I will send a fire on his cities, and it shall burn up her citadels.

¹O Israel, do not rejoice for joy, like the peoples. For you have gone lusting away from your God. You have loved a reward on all threshing-floors of grain. ²The floor and the winepress shall not feed them, and the new wine shall fail in her. ³They shall not live in the land of Jehovah. But Ephraim shall return to Egypt; and they shall eat unclean things in Assyria. ⁴They shall not offer wine to Jehovah. They shall not be pleasing to Him. Their sacrifices shall be like the bread of trouble to them; all who eat it shall be defiled; for their bread is for their person; it shall not come into the house of Jehovah.

⁵What will you do in the day of meeting, and in the day of the feast of Jehovah? ⁶For, lo, they have gone from destruction. Egypt shall gather them; Memphis shall bury them. Nettles shall possess the desirable things of their silver; thorns shall be in their tents. ⁷The days of her visitation have come; the days of retribution have come. Israel shall know. The prophet is a fool; the spiritual man is insane, because of the greatness of your iniquity and your great hatred. ⁸Ephraim is a watchman with my God. The prophet is a snare of a fowler on all his ways; hatred is in the house of his God. ⁹They have deeply corrupted, as in days of Gibeah. He will remember their iniquity; He will punish their sins.

¹⁰I found Israel like grapes in the wilderness. I saw your fathers as the firstfruit in the fig-tree at her first time. They came to Baal-peor and set themselves apart to a shameful thing. And they became hateful like that which they loved. ¹¹Ephraim is like a bird; their glory shall fly away from birth, and from the womb, and from conception. ¹²Though they nourish their sons, yet I will make them childless, without a man. Yea, woe also to them when I turn away from them! ¹³As when I looked toward Tyre, Ephraim was planted in a pleasant place. But Ephraim shall bring forth his sons to the slayer. ¹⁴O Jehovah, give them. What will you give them? Give them a miscarried womb and dry breasts. ¹⁵All their wickedness is in Gilgal, for there I hated them. I will drive them out of My house for the wickedness of their doings; I will not love them again; all their rulers are revolvers. ¹⁶Ephraim is stricken; their root is dried up; they shall bear no fruit. Yea, though they bear, yet I will yet kill the beloved ones of their womb. ¹⁷My God shall reject them because they did not listen to Him; and they shall be wanderers among the nations.

¹Israel is a luxuriant vine; he bears fruit for himself. According to the plenty of his fruit, he has increased the altars. They have made beautiful images according to the goodness of his land; their heart is divided. ²Now they shall be guilty; He will break down their altars; He will spoil their pillars. ³For now they shall say, We have no king, because we did not fear Jehovah. What then should a king do for us? ⁴They have spoken words, swearing falsely to cut a covenant. So judgment springs up like hemlock in the furrows of the field. ⁵The people of Samaria shall dread because of the calves of Beth-aven. For its people shall mourn over it; also its priests who rejoiced on it for its glory; because it has departed from it. ⁶It shall also be carried to Assyria, a present to king Jareb. Ephraim shall receive shame, and Israel shall be ashamed of his own counsel. ⁷Samaria is cut off; her king is as a bough on the face of the water. ⁸Also, the sin of Israel, the high places of Aven shall be destroyed. The thorn and the thistle shall come up on their altars. And they shall say to the mountains, Cover us; and to the hills, Fall on us.

⁹O Israel, you have sinned from the days of Gibeah. There they stood; the battle against the sons of iniquity did not overtake them in Gibeah. ¹⁰When I desire, I shall bind them; and the peoples shall be gathered against them, when they bind themselves to their two fountains. ¹¹And Ephraim is a trained heifer, loving to tread out. But I passed over on the goodness of her neck; I will make Ephraim to ride; Judah shall plow; Jacob shall break clods for him. ¹²Sow to yourselves in righteousness, reap as mercy. Break up your plowed ground. For it is time to seek Jehovah, until He comes and rains righteousness on you. ¹³You have plowed wickedness; you have reaped iniquity. You have eaten the fruit of lies because you trusted in your way, in the multitude of your mighty men. ¹⁴And an uproar shall rise up among your peoples. And all your strongholds shall be spoiled, as the ruin of Beth-arbel in the day of battle. The mother was dashed in pieces on her sons. ¹⁵So He does to you, Bethel, because of your great evil. In the dawn the king of Israel shall be completely cut off.

¹When Israel was a child, then I loved him, and I called My son out of Egypt. ²As they called to them, so they went from their face. They sacrifice to the Baals, and burn incense to graven images. ³I also taught Ephraim to go; he took them on their arms. But they did not know that I healed them. ⁴I drew them with cords of a man, with bands of love. And I was to them as those who lift off the yoke on their jaws; and I gently give food to him.

⁵He shall not return to the land of Egypt, but he of Assyria shall be his king, because they refused to return. ⁶And the sword shall grieve in his cities, and shall destroy his bars, and shall consume, because of their own counsels. ⁷And My people are bent on backsliding from Me. And they call him to the Most High; no one at all would exalt Him.

⁸How shall I give you up, Ephraim? Shall I deliver you, Israel? How shall I make you like Admah? Shall I set you as Zeboim? My heart has turned within Me; My compassions are kindled together. ⁹I will not carry out the heat of My anger; I will not return to destroy Ephraim. For I am God, and not a man; the Holy One in your midst. And I will not enter into the city. ¹⁰They shall walk after Jehovah; He shall roar as a lion. When He roars, then sons shall tremble from the west. ¹¹They trembled like a bird from Egypt, and like a dove from the land of Assyria. And I will make them live in their houses, says Jehovah. ¹²Ephraim circles around Me with lies; and the house of Israel circles with deceit; but Judah still rules with God, and is faithful with the saints.

¹Ephraim feeds on wind, and follows after the east wind; all the day he multiplies lies and ruin. And they cut a covenant with Assyria; and oil is carried into Egypt. ²Jehovah also has a quarrel with Judah, and will punish Jacob according to his ways; He will repay him according to his deeds.

³He took his brother by the heel in the womb, and by his strength he contended with God. ⁴Yes, he wept and pleaded to Him, and he contended with the Angel, and overcame. He found us at Bethel, and He spoke with us there, ⁵even Jehovah, the God of hosts. Jehovah is his memorial. ⁶For this reason you return to your God; keep mercy and judgment, and wait on your God continually.

⁷*He is* a merchant; the scales of deceit are in his hand; he loves to oppress. ⁸And Ephraim said, I am rich; I have found much wealth for myself. In all my labors they shall find in me no iniquity that is sin. ⁹And I am Jehovah, your God from the land of Egypt; yet I will make you live in tents, as in the days of appointed assembly. ¹⁰I have also spoken by the prophets, and I have multiplied visions; and the prophets use parables. ¹¹*Is* Gilead evil? Surely they have been vanity. They sacrificed bulls in Gilgal; yea, their altars are as heaps in the furrows of the field. ¹²And Jacob fled into the field of Syria, and Israel served for a wife; yea, he shepherded for a wife. ¹³And by a prophet Jehovah brought up Israel out of Egypt, and by a prophet he was kept safe. ¹⁴Ephraim has provoked Me to anger most bitterly. And he shall leave his blood to him, and his Lord shall turn his reproach to him.

¹When Ephraim spoke trembling, he was lifted up in Israel. But he offended in Baal, and he died. ²And now they sin more and more, and have made themselves a molten image of their silver; idols according to their own understanding, all of it the work of the craftsmen. They say to them, Let men, those who sacrifice, kiss calves. ³So they shall be as the morning cloud, and as the early dew that passes away; as chaff storm-driven from the threshing floor, and as the smoke out of the window. ⁴Yet I am Jehovah, your God from the land of Egypt; and you shall know no other gods than Me. For there is no Savior besides Me.

⁵I have known you in the wilderness, in the land of great dryness. ⁶According to their pasture, so they were filled. They were filled, and their heart was lifted up. On account of this they have forgotten Me. ⁷Now I am as a lion to them; I will watch by the way like a leopard. ⁸I will meet them like a bear whose cubs are taken away; and I will tear the lining of their heart. And as a lion, I will devour them there; the beast of the field shall tear them.

⁹O Israel, you are destroyed, but your help is in Me. ¹⁰Where is your king? Where is any other who may save you in all your cities? And where are your judges of whom you said, Give to me a king and rulers? ¹¹I give to you a king in My anger, and take him away in My fury. ¹²The iniquity of Ephraim is bound up; his sin is hidden. ¹³The pains of a woman in travail shall come to him; he is not a wise son; for he cannot stand still in the time of the breaking forth of sons. ¹⁴I will ransom them from the hand of Sheol; I will redeem them from death. O death, where are your plagues? O Sheol, where is your ruin? Repentance is hidden from My eyes.

¹⁵Though he is fruitful among brothers, an east wind shall come. The wind of Jehovah shall come up from the wilderness, and his spring shall be ashamed, and his fountain shall be dried up. He shall plunder the treasure of all desirable vessels.

¹⁶Samaria shall be desolate, for she has rebelled against her God. They shall fall by the sword. Their infants shall be dashed in pieces, and their pregnant women shall be ripped up.

CHAPTER 14

¹O Israel, return to Jehovah your God, for you have fallen by your sin. ²Take words with you and return to Jehovah. Say to Him, Take away all iniquity, and receive us well; that we may repay with the calves of our lips. ³Assyria shall not save us; we will not ride on horses. We shall not say any more to the work of our hands, Our gods! For in You the fatherless finds mercy.

⁴I will heal their backslidings; I will love them freely; for My anger has turned away from him. ⁵I will be as the dew to Israel; he shall blossom as the lily, and cast out his roots like Lebanon. ⁶His branches shall go out and his beauty shall be like the olive-tree; and his scent is as Lebanon to Him. ⁷They who live under his shadow shall return; they shall live like the grain, and blossom like the vine; their memorial shall be as the wine of Lebanon.

⁸Ephraim shall say, What is to me any more with idols? I eyed him; and I surveyed him; I am as a green cypress tree; your fruit is found from Me. ⁹Who is wise and discerns these things? Who is discerning and knows them? For the ways of Jehovah are right, and the righteous shall walk in them. But transgressors shall stumble in them.

THE BOOK OF JOEL

¹The word of Jehovah that was to Joel, the son of Pethuel. ²Hear this, you old men; and give ear, all you people of the land. Has this been in your days, or even in the days of your fathers? ³Tell your sons about it, and your sons to their sons, and their sons to another generation:

⁴What was left by the cutter, the swarming locust ate; and that left of the swarming locust, the locust larvae ate; and that left of the locust larvae, the stripping locust ate.

⁸Wail like a virgin girded with sackcloth, over the husband of her youth. ⁹The food offering and the drink offering have been cut off from the house of Jehovah; the priests, Jehovah's ministers, mourn. ¹⁰The field is wasted; the land mourns, for the grain is wasted. The new wine is dried up; the oil-tree droops. ¹¹Be ashamed, farmers; howl, vinedressers; for the wheat and for the barley, because the harvest of the field has perished. ¹²The vine is dried up, and the fig-tree droops; the pomegranate, and the palm tree, and the apple tree; all the trees of the field are dried up, because joy has dried up from the sons of men. ¹³Gird up and lament, priests. Howl, ministers of the altar. Come, spend the night in sackcloth, ministers of my God. For the food offering and the drink offering are held back from the house of your God.

¹⁴Set apart a fast; call a solemn assembly; gather the elders, all the inhabitants of the land, into the house of Jehovah your God. And cry to Jehovah.

¹⁵Alas for the day! For the day of Jehovah is at hand. And it shall come as a destruction from the Almighty. ¹⁶Is not the food cut off before your eyes, joy and gladness from the house of our God? ¹⁷The seed shrivels under their clods; the storage bins are laid waste; the granaries are broken down, for the grain has dried up. ¹⁸How the beasts groan! The herds of livestock are vexed, for there is no pasture for them. Even the flocks of sheep are perishing. ¹⁹O Jehovah, to You I will cry, for the fire has burned up the pastures of the wilderness, and the flame has burned all the trees of the field. ²⁰The beasts of the field also cry to You, for the rivers of water are dried up, and the fire has burned up the pastures of the wilderness.

CHAPTER 2

¹Blow a ram's horn in Zion, and shout an alarm in My holy mountain. Let all the inhabitants of the land tremble. For the day of Jehovah approaches; it is near; ²a day of darkness and gloominess; a day of clouds and thick darkness; as the dawn spread out on the mountains—a great and a strong people; there has never been the like, nor shall there ever be again to the years of many generations; ³a fire devours before it, and a flame burns behind it; the land is as the garden of Eden before them, and behind them is a desolate wilderness; yea, also there is no escape to them. ⁴Their appearance is like horses; and as war horses, so they run. ⁵They shall leap like the noise of chariots on the tops of the mountains, like the noise of flames of fire that devour the chaff; as a strong people set in order for battle. ⁶Before their face, the people shall be pained; all faces collect heat. ⁷They shall run as a mighty one; they shall go up the wall as men of war. And they each go on his way; and they do not change their paths. ⁸And each does not press his brother; they each go in his paths. And if they fall behind their weapon, they shall not be cut off. ⁹They shall rush on the city; they shall run on the wall; they shall climb up on the houses; they shall enter in by the windows, like a thief. ¹⁰The earth shall quake before them; the heavens shall shake. The sun and moon shall grow dark, and the stars shall gather in their light. ¹¹And Jehovah shall give His voice before His army. For

His camp is very great. For he who does His word is strong. For the day of Jehovah is very great and terrifying. And who can endure it?

¹²Yet even now turn to Me with all your heart, and with fasting, and with weeping, and with mourning, declares Jehovah. ¹³Yea, tear your heart, and not your robes; and turn to Jehovah your God. For He is gracious and merciful; slow to anger, and of great kindness; and He pities concerning the evil. ¹⁴Who knows if He will return and have pity and leave a blessing behind Him, a food offering and a drink offering for Jehovah your God?

¹⁵Blow a ram's horn in Zion, sanctify a fast; call a solemn assembly. ¹⁶Gather the people, sanctify the congregation, gather the elders, gather the children, and those who suck the breasts. Let the bridegroom go out of his room, and the bride out of her canopy. ¹⁷Let the priests, ministers of Jehovah, weep between the porch and the altar; and let them say, Have pity on Your people, O Jehovah, and do not give Your inheritance to shame, for a proverb among those of the nations. Why should they say among the peoples, Where is their God?

¹⁸Then Jehovah will be jealous for His land, and have pity on His people. ¹⁹Yea, Jehovah will answer and say to His people, Behold, I will send you grain, and wine, and oil, and you shall be satisfied with it. And I will no more make you a curse among the nations. ²⁰But I will remove the northern army far from you, and will drive him into a dry and desolated land; with his face toward the eastern sea, and his rear toward the western sea. And his stench shall come up, and his ill odor shall come up, because he was doing great things.

month. ²⁴And the floors shall be full with grain, and the wine-vats shall overflow with wine, and oil. ²⁵And I will restore to you the years which the swarming locust has eaten, the locust larvae, and the stripping locust, and the cutting locust, My great army which I sent among you. ²⁶And you shall eat fully and be satisfied; and you shall praise the name of Jehovah your God, who has dealt wondrously with you. And My people shall not be ashamed forever. ²⁷And you shall know that I am in the midst of Israel, and that I am Jehovah your God, and there is no other. And My people shall not be ashamed forever.

²⁸And it shall be afterward, I will pour out My Spirit on all flesh. And your sons and your daughters shall prophesy; your old men shall dream dreams; your young men shall see visions. ²⁹And also I will pour out My Spirit on the slaves and on the slavegirls in those days. ³⁰And I will give signs in the heavens, and in the earth: blood, and fire, and columns of smoke. ³¹The sun shall be turned to darkness, and the moon to blood, before the coming of the great and awesome day of Jehovah. ³²For it shall be, all who shall call on the name of Jehovah shall be saved. For salvation shall be in Mount Zion, and in Jerusalem, as Jehovah has said, and among the saved whom Jehovah shall call.

¹For, behold, in those days and in that time, when I bring again the exiles of Judah and Jerusalem, ²I will also gather all nations, and will bring them down into the valley of Jehoshaphat. And I will enter into judgment with them there, for My people and My inheritance Israel, whom they have scattered among the nations, and they shared out My land. ³And they have cast lots for My people. And they have given a boy for a harlot, and sold a girl for wine; and they drank. ⁴And also, what are you to Me, Tyre and Sidon, and all the regions of Philistia? Are you restoring repayment to Me? And if you are repaying Me, I will turn your reward on your own head, swiftly, speedily; in that you have taken My silver and My gold, and have carried My good treasures to your temples. ⁶You have also sold the sons of Judah and the sons of Jerusalem to the sons of the Greeks, that you might remove them far from their border. ⁷Behold, I am arousing them from the place where you have sold them, and will return your reward on your own head. ⁸And I will sell your sons and your daughters into the hand of the sons of Judah; and they shall sell them to the Sabeans, to a nation far off. For Jehovah has spoken it.

⁹Proclaim this among the nations: Sanctify a war; awaken the mighty men; let all the men of war draw near; let them come up. ¹⁰Beat your plowshares into swords, and your pruning hooks into spears. Let the weak say, I am strong. ¹¹Gather yourselves and come, all you nations; and gather yourselves together all around. O Jehovah, bring down Your mighty ones. ¹²Let the nations be awakened and come up to the valley of Jehoshaphat. For there I will sit to judge all the nations all around. ¹³Put in the sickle, for the harvest is ripe. Come, go down, for the press is full; the vats overflow; for their wickedness is great. ¹⁴Multitudes, multitudes in the valley of decision! For the day of Jehovah is near in the valley of decision. ¹⁵The sun and the moon shall be darkened, and the stars shall gather in their light; ¹⁶and Jehovah roars from Zion, and gives His voice from Jerusalem. And the heavens and the earth quake. But Jehovah is a refuge for His people, and a fortress to the sons of Israel. ¹⁷And you shall know that I am Jehovah your God dwelling in Zion, My holy mountain. And Jerusalem shall be a holy thing, and aliens shall no more pass through her.

¹⁸And it shall be in that day, the mountains shall drop down new wine; and the hills shall flow with milk; and all the streams of Judah shall flow with waters. And a fountain shall come forth from the house of Jehovah, and it shall water the valley of Shittim. ¹⁹Egypt shall be a ruin, and Edom shall be a desolate wilderness, from violence done to the sons of Judah, whose innocent blood they poured out in their land. ²⁰But Judah will dwell forever, and Jerusalem to generation and generation. ²¹And I will cleanse their blood which I did not cleanse; and Jehovah is dwelling in Zion.

THE BOOK OF AMOS

¹The words of Amos, who was among the herdsmen of Tekoa, which he saw concerning Israel in the days of Uzziah, king of Judah, and in the days of Jeroboam, the son of Joash, king of Israel, two years before the earthquake. ²And he said, Jehovah will roar from Zion, and utter His voice from Jerusalem. And the pastures of the shepherds shall mourn, and the top of Carmel shall dry up. ³So says Jehovah: For three transgressions of Damascus, and for four, I will not turn back from it; for they have threshed Gilead with threshing sledges of iron. ⁴But I will send a fire against the house of Hazael, and it shall devour the palaces of Ben-hadad. ⁵I will also break the bar of Damascus, and cut off the inhabitant of the Valley of Aven, and him who holds the scepter from Beth-eden. And the people of Syria shall go captive to Kir, says Jehovah.

⁶So says Jehovah: For three transgressions of Gaza, and for four, I will not turn back from it; for they deported as exiles to deliver up a complete population to Edom. ⁷But I will send a fire against the wall of Gaza, and it shall devour its palaces. ⁸And I will cut off Ashdod's dwellers and him who holds the scepter from Ashkelon; and I will turn My hand against Ekron; and the remnant of the Philistines shall perish, says the Lord Jehovah.

⁹So says Jehovah: For three transgressions of Tyre, and for four, I will not turn back from it; for they delivered up as exiles a complete population to Edom, and did not remember the covenant of brothers. ¹⁰But I will send a fire against the wall of Tyre, and it shall devour its palaces.

¹¹So says Jehovah: For three transgressions of Edom, and for four, I will not turn back from it; for he pursued his brother with the sword, and corrupted his compassions, and his anger tore continually; and he kept it, his wrath, forever. ¹²But I will send a fire against Teman, and it shall devour the palaces of Bozrah.

¹³So says Jehovah: For three transgressions of the sons of Ammon, and for four, I will not turn back from it; for they ripped open the pregnant women of Gilead, to make their border larger. ¹⁴But I will kindle a fire against the wall of Rabbah, and it shall devour its palaces; with a war-cry in the day of battle; with a tempest in the day of the windstorm. ¹⁵And their king shall go into captivity, he and his rulers together, says Jehovah.

¹So says Jehovah: For three transgressions of Moab, and for four, I will not turn back from it; for he burned the bones of the king of Edom into lime. ²But I will send a fire against Moab, and it shall devour the palaces of Kerioth. And Moab shall die with uproar, with a war-cry, with the sound of the ram's horn. ³And I will cut off the judge in its midst, and will kill all his rulers with him, says Jehovah.

⁴So says Jehovah: For three transgressions of Judah, and for four, I will not turn back from it; for they despised the law of Jehovah, and they have not kept His statutes. Their lies after which their fathers walked led them astray. ⁵And I shall send a fire against Judah, and it shall devour the palaces of Jerusalem.

⁶So says Jehovah: For three transgressions of Israel, and for four, I will not turn back from it; for they sold the righteous for silver, and the poor for a pair of sandals, ⁷panting for the dust of the earth on the head of the helpless, and turning aside the way of the humble. And a man and his father will go in to the same girl, in order to profane the name of My holiness. ⁸And they will stretch out beside every altar, and on garments taken in pledge. And they will drink wine of those being fined in the house of God.

¹¹And I raised up from your sons for prophets, and for Nazarites from your young men. Is this not even so, O sons of Israel, declares Jehovah? ¹²But you gave the Nazarites wine to drink, and you commanded the prophets, saying, Do not prophesy. ¹³Behold, I am pressed under you, as a cart full with produce is pressed. ¹⁴And refuge shall perish from the swift, and the strong shall not strengthen his power, nor shall the mighty deliver his life; ¹⁵and he who handles the bow shall not stand; and he swift-footed shall not save; and he who rides the horse shall not save his life. ¹⁶And the stout-hearted among the mighty shall run away naked in that day, declares Jehovah.

¹Hear this word that Jehovah has spoken against you, sons of Israel; against all the family which I brought up from the land of Egypt, saying, ²You only have I known of all the families of the earth. On account of this I will punish you for all your iniquities. ³Will two walk together unless they are agreed? ⁴Will a lion roar in the forest when there is no prey for him? Will a young lion cry out of his den unless he has caught something? ⁵Will a bird fall into a trap on the ground, and there is no bait for it? Will a trap spring up from the ground, and nothing at all be caught? ⁶If a ram's horn is blowing in a city, will the people not also tremble? If there is a calamity in a city, has Jehovah not even done it? ⁷For the Lord Jehovah will do nothing unless He reveals His secret to His servants the prophets? ⁸A lion has roared; who will not fear? The Lord Jehovah has spoken; who will not prophesy?

⁹Make it heard at the palaces in Ashdod, and at the palaces in the land of Egypt; and say, Gather yourselves on the mountains of Samaria, and see many panics in its midst, and oppressions in its midst. ¹⁰For they do not know to do right, declares Jehovah; those who store up violence and robbery in their palaces. ¹¹So the Lord Jehovah says this: An enemy! And he shall be all around the land; and he shall bring you down from your fortress; and your palaces shall be plundered. ¹²So says Jehovah: As the shepherd takes two legs out of the mouth of the lion, or a piece of an ear, so shall the sons of Israel be taken out, those who dwell in Samaria in a corner of a bed, and in Damascus on a couch. ¹³Hear and testify in the house of Jacob, declares the Lord Jehovah, the God of hosts. ¹⁴For in the day I visit the transgressions of Israel on him, I will also visit on the altars of Bethel. And the horns of the altar will be cut off, and will fall to the ground. ¹⁵And I will strike the winter house, with the summer house, and the houses of ivory shall perish. And the great houses shall be swept away, declares Jehovah.

¹Hear this word, cows of Bashan who are in the mountain of Samaria, who press down the helpless, who crush the poor; who say to their husbands, Bring in, that we may drink. ²The Lord Jehovah has sworn by His holiness that the days are coming that He will lift you up with meathooks, and the last of you with fishhooks. ³And you shall go out at the breaches, each woman before her. And you shall throw down the high place, declares Jehovah.

⁶And I also have given you cleanness of teeth in all your cities, and lack of bread in all your places; and you have not returned to Me, declares Jehovah. ⁷And I have also withheld the rain from you, when it was yet three months to the harvest. And I caused rain to fall on one city, and caused it not to rain on another city. One piece was rained on, and the piece where it did not rain was dried up. ⁸So two or three cities staggered to one city in order to drink water, but they were not satisfied; yet you have not returned to Me, declares Jehovah. ⁹I have struck you with blasting and mildew. The multitude of your gardens and your vineyards, and your figs, and your olives, are devoured by the creeping locust; yet you have not returned to Me, declares Jehovah. ¹⁰I have sent a plague among you in the way of Egypt; I have killed your young men with the sword and your horses with captivity; and I have made the stench of your camps to come up even into your nostrils; yet you have not returned to Me, declares Jehovah. ¹¹I have overthrown among you, as God overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah, and you were like a firebrand plucked out of the burning; yet you have not returned to Me, declares Jehovah. ¹²So I will do this to you, O Israel: Because of this I will do to you; prepare to meet your God, O Israel. ¹³For, behold, He who forms mountains and creates the wind, and declares to man what His thought is; He who makes the dawn darkness, and treads on the high places of the earth; Jehovah, the God of Hosts, is His name.

¹Hear this word which I am lifting up against you, a dirge, O house of Israel. ²The virgin of Israel has fallen, and not will rise again; she lies forsaken on her land; there is no one raising her up. ³For so says the Lord Jehovah: The city that goes out by a thousand shall have a hundred left. And that which goes out by a hundred shall have ten left in the house of Israel.

⁴For so says Jehovah to the house of Israel: Seek Me, and live. ⁵But do not seek Bethel, and do not enter Gilgal, and do not cross over to Beer-sheba; for Gilgal shall surely go into exile, and Bethel shall be for nothing. ⁶Seek Jehovah, and live; that He not break out like a fire on the house of Joseph, and consume; and no one is putting it out for Bethel. ⁷He abandoned those who turn justice and righteousness into wormwood on the earth. ⁸He who created the Pleiades and Orion, and turns the deep darkness into the morning, and He darkened the day into night; who calls for the waters of the sea, and pours them out on the face of the earth; Jehovah is His name; ⁹who causes destruction to flash out against the strong, and destruction comes against the fortress. ¹⁰They hate him who rebukes in the gate; and they despise him who speaks uprightly. ¹¹So, because of your trampling on the poor, and you take tribute of grain from him; you have built houses of hewn stones, but you shall not dwell in them; you have planted desirable vineyards, but you shall not drink wine from them. ¹²For I know your many transgressions, and your many sins: afflicting the just; taking of a bribe; and turning aside the poor in the gate. ¹³So the understanding ones shall keep silent in that time; for it is an evil time.

¹⁴Seek good, and not evil, that you may live; and so Jehovah the God of hosts shall be with you, as you have spoken. ¹⁵Hate evil, and love good, and establish justice in the gate. It may be that Jehovah the God of hosts will be gracious to the remnant of Joseph. ¹⁶So Jehovah, the God of Hosts, the Lord says this: Wailing shall be in all streets; and they shall say in all the highways, Alas! Alas! And they shall call the farmer to the mourning, and those knowing wailing to lamentation. ¹⁷And wailing shall be in all vineyards, for I will pass among you, says Jehovah. ¹⁸Woe to those desiring the day of Jehovah! What is this for you? The day of Jehovah is darkness, and not light; ¹⁹as if a man fled before a lion, and the bear met him; or he goes into the house and leans his hand against the wall, and a snake bites him. ²⁰*Shall* not the day of Jehovah be darkness, and not light; even very dark, and not any brightness in it?

²¹I hate, I despise your feast days; and I will not delight in your solemn assemblies. ²²Though you offer Me burnt offerings, and your grain offerings, I will not be pleased; nor will I regard the peace offerings of your fat animals. ²³Take the noise of your songs away from Me; and I will not hear the melody of your stringed instruments. ²⁴But let justice roll down like waters, and righteousness like an ever-flowing stream. ²⁵Have you brought near sacrifices and food offerings to Me forty years in the wilderness, O house of Israel? ²⁶Yea, you have carried the booth of your king and Kiyun, your images, the star of your gods which you made for yourselves! ²⁷And I will cause you to go into exile beyond Damascus, says Jehovah, the God of hosts is His name.

¹Woe to those at ease in Zion, and those trusting in the mountain of Samaria, those noted as the leader of the nations! And the house of Israel came to them. ²Cross to Calneh, and see; and from there go to the great Hamath; then go down to Gath of the Philistines. Are they better than these kingdoms, or their border than your border?

⁷So now they shall go into exile with the first of the exiles, and the feast of those who stretch themselves shall cease. ⁸The Lord Jehovah has sworn by Himself, declares Jehovah, the God of hosts: I abhor the pride of Jacob, and hate his palaces; and I will shut up the city and its fullness. ⁹And it shall be, if ten men remain in one house, then they shall die. ¹⁰And his uncle shall lift him up, and he who burns him, to bring out the bones from the house; and he shall say to that one left in the recesses of the house, Are any still with you? And he shall say, No. Then he shall say, Hush! For not one shall mention the name of Jehovah. ¹¹For, behold, Jehovah commands, and He will strike the great house into pieces, and the little house into cracks.

¹²Shall horses run on the rock? Or will one plow there with oxen? For you have turned justice into poison, and the fruit of righteousness into wormwood; ¹³those rejoicing for nothing; those saying, Have we not taken horns to ourselves by our own strength? ¹⁴For, behold, I will raise a nation up against you, O house of Israel, declares Jehovah, the God of hosts. And they shall oppress you from the entrance of Hamath to the torrent of the Arabah.

¹The Lord Jehovah made me see this: And, behold, He is forming locusts at the beginning of the coming up of the late grass; even behold, the late grass after the mowings of the king. ²And it happened when it had made an end of eating the vegetation of the land, then I said, Lord Jehovah, I beg You, forgive. How can Jacob stand? For he is small. ³Jehovah repented concerning this: It shall not be, says Jehovah.

⁴The Lord Jehovah made me to see this: And, behold, the Lord Jehovah was calling to contend by fire. And it consumed the great deep, and it was devouring part of it. ⁵Then I said, Lord Jehovah, I beg You, stop. How can Jacob stand? For he is small. ⁶Jehovah repented concerning this: It shall not be, says the Lord Jehovah.

⁷He made me see this: And, behold, the Lord was standing by the plumb-line-wall, and a plumb-line in His hand. ⁸And Jehovah said to me, Amos, what do you see? And I said, A plumb-line. And the Lord said, Behold, I will set a plumb-line in the midst of My people Israel. I will not again pass over him any more. ⁹And the high places of Isaac shall be desolated; and the holy places of Israel shall be laid waste; and I will rise against the house of Jeroboam with the sword.

¹⁰Then Amaziah the priest of Bethel sent to Jeroboam, the king of Israel, saying, Amos has plotted against you in the midst of the house of Israel. The land is not able to endure all his words. ¹¹For so Amos says: Jeroboam shall die by the sword, and Israel shall surely go into exile out of his land. ¹²And Amaziah said to Amos, Seer, go, flee for yourself into the land of Judah, and eat bread there, and prophesy there. ¹³But do not again prophesy at Bethel any more; for it is the king's holy place, and it is the royal house.

¹⁴Then Amos answered and said to Amaziah: I was not a prophet, nor was I a prophet's son. But I was a herdsman and a gatherer from sycamore trees. ¹⁵And Jehovah took me from behind the flock, and Jehovah said to me, Go, prophesy to My people Israel. ¹⁶Now, then, hear the word of Jehovah: You say, Do not prophesy against Israel, and do not drop words against the house of Isaac. ¹⁷So Jehovah says this: Your wife shall be a harlot in the city, and your sons and your daughters shall fall by the sword; and your land shall be divided by a line. And you shall die in a defiled land. And Israel shall surely go into exile from his land.

¹The Lord Jehovah made me see this: And, behold, a basket of summer fruit! ²And He said, Amos, what do you see? And I said, A basket of summer fruit. And Jehovah said to me, The end has come on My people Israel; I will not again pass over him any more. ³And they will howl the songs of the temple in that day, declares the Lord Jehovah. The dead bodies shall be many; in every place one shall throw them out, saying, Hush!

⁴Hear this, you who swallow up the poor, even to make the humble of the land to cease, ⁵saying, when will the new moon have passed, so that we may buy grain? Or the sabbath, so that we may open the wheat, making smaller the ephah, and to enlarge the shekel, and to falsify the deceitful balances; ⁶in order to buy the helpless with silver, and the poor for a pair of sandals; and sell the chaff of the wheat? ⁷Jehovah has sworn by the pride of Jacob, Surely I will not ever forget all their works. ⁸Shall not the land tremble for this, and all who dwell in it mourn? And all of it shall rise up like the light. And it shall overflow and sink like the Nile of Egypt.

⁹And it shall be in that day, declares the Lord Jehovah, that I will cause the sun to go down at noon, and I will darken the earth in the day of light. ¹⁰And I will turn your feasts to mourning, and all your songs into a dirge. And I will bring up sackcloth on all loins, and baldness on every head. And I will make it like the mourning for an only one; and the end of it shall be like a bitter day.

¹¹Behold, the days are coming, declares the Lord Jehovah, that I will send a famine into the land; not a famine for bread, nor a thirst for water, but rather a famine for hearing the words of Jehovah. ¹²And they shall wander from sea to sea, and from the north even to east; they shall roam about to seek the word of Jehovah, and they shall not find it. ¹³In that day the beautiful virgins and the young men shall faint with thirst. ¹⁴They who swear by the guilt of Samaria, and say, As your God lives, O Dan! And, As the way of Beer-sheba lives! Even they shall fall, and not rise again.

¹I saw the Lord standing by the altar. And He said, Strike the capital of the door, and the thresholds will shake; and break them on the head of all of them. And I will kill the last of them with the sword. Not one of them who flees will flee, and not a fugitive of them will escape. ²And if they dig through into Sheol, from there My hand will take them. And if they go up to the heavens, from there I will bring them down. ³And if they hide themselves in the top of Carmel, I will search and take them out from there. And if they hide from My eyes in the bottom of the sea, from there I will command the serpent, and he will bite them. ⁴And if they go into exile before their enemies, from there I will command the sword, and it will kill them. And I will set My eyes on them for evil, and not for good.

⁵And the Lord Jehovah of hosts is He who touches the earth so that it melts; and all dwelling in it shall mourn. And all of it will rise up like the Nile, and sink down like the Nile of Egypt. ⁶*It is* He who builds His staircase in the heavens, and He has founded His firmament on the earth; He who calls for the sea-waters, and pours them out on the face of the earth—Jehovah is His name.

⁷Are you not like the sons of the Ethiopians to Me, O sons of Israel, declares Jehovah? Have I not brought Israel up out of the land of Egypt, and the Philistines from Caphtor, and the Syrians from Kir? ⁸Behold, the eyes of the Lord Jehovah are on the sinful kingdom, and I will destroy it from the face of the earth; only that I will not completely destroy the house of Jacob, declares Jehovah. ⁹For, behold, I will command, and I will shake the house of Israel among all the nations, as one shakes with a sieve; yet not a grain shall fall to the ground. ¹⁰All the sinners of My people shall die by the sword, those who say, The evil shall not draw near, or come in front about us.

¹¹In that day I will raise up the booth of David that has fallen, and will wall up its breaks. And I will raise up its ruins, and I will build it as the days of old; ¹²so that they may possess the remnant of Edom, and all the nations on whom My name is called, declares Jehovah who is doing this. ¹³Behold, the days are coming, declares

Jehovah, that the plowman shall overtake the reaper, and the treader of grapes him who sows seed. And the mountains shall drop new must, and all the hills will be dissolved. ¹⁴And I will again bring the captivity of My people Israel. And they shall build the waste cities, and live in them. And they shall plant vineyards, and drink the wine of them. They shall also make gardens, and eat the fruit of them. ¹⁵And I will plant them on their land, and they shall never again be pulled up out of their land which I have given to them, says Jehovah your God.

THE BOOK OF OBADIAH

¹The vision of Obadiah: So says the Lord Jehovah concerning Edom: We have heard a message from Jehovah, and a messenger is sent among the nations; rise up, and let us rise up against her for battle.

²Behold, I have given you to be small among the nations; you are greatly despised.

³The pride of your heart has deceived you, dwelling in the clefts of the rock; his dwelling is lofty, saying in his heart, Who shall bring me down to the ground?

⁴Though you rise high as the eagle, and though you set your nest between the stars, I will bring you down from there, declares Jehovah.

⁵If thieves came to you, if destroyers by night—how you have been cut off!—Would they not have stolen until they had enough? If the grape-gatherers came to you, would they not leave gleanings? ⁶How Esau is searched out! His hidden things are sought out! ⁷All the men of your covenant have dismissed you to the border. The men who were at peace with you have deceived you and have prevailed over you. They are setting your bread as a snare under you; there is no understanding in him. ⁸Shall I not in that day even destroy the wise out of Edom, and understanding out of the mount of Esau, declares Jehovah? ⁹And your mighty ones, Teman, shall be afraid, so that each man from the mount of Esau may be cut off by slaughter.

¹⁰Shame shall cover you from the violence against your brother Jacob, and you shall be cut off forever. ¹¹On the day of your standing on the other side, on the day that the strangers take his force captive, and foreigners enter his gates, and cast lots for Jerusalem, even you were like one of them. ¹²But you should not have looked on the day of your brother, on the day of his alienation; nor should you have rejoiced over the sons of Judah in the day of their destruction; nor should you have enlarged your mouth in the day of distress.

¹³You should not have entered into My people's gate on the day of his calamity, nor should you have looked on his evil on the day of his calamity; nor should you have sent out against his force in the day of his calamity. ¹⁴Nor should you have stood on the crossways to cut off those of him who escaped. Nor should you have shut up his survivors in the day of distress.

¹⁵For the day of Jehovah is near on all the nations: As you have done, it shall be done to you; your reward shall return on your head! ¹⁶For as you have drunk on My holy mount, so all the nations shall continually drink. Yea, they shall drink and shall swallow; and they will be as if they had not been.

¹⁷But the ones who escaped shall be on Mount Zion, and it shall be holy. And the house of Jacob shall possess their own possessions. ¹⁸And the house of Jacob shall be a fire, and the house of Joseph a flame, and the house of Esau for straw. And they shall burn among them, and consume them. And no survivor shall be to the house of Esau, for Jehovah has spoken. ¹⁹And those of Negeb shall possess the mountain of Esau, and the low country of the Philistines; and they shall possess Ephraim's fields, and Samaria's fields; and Benjamin shall possess Gilead.

²⁰And the exiles of this force to the sons of Israel who shall possess the land of the Canaanites to Zarephath; even the exiles of Jerusalem who are in Sepharad shall possess the cities of the Negeb. ²¹And deliverers shall go up into the mountain of Zion to judge the mountain of Esau; and the kingdom shall be to Jehovah.

THE BOOK OF JONAH

¹And the word of Jehovah was to Jonah, the son of Amittai, saying, ²Rise up, go to Nineveh, the great city, and cry out against it; for their evil has come up before Me. ³But Jonah rose up to flee to Tarshish from the presence of Jehovah. And he went down to Joppa, and he found a ship going to Tarshish. And he gave its fare, and went down into it, in order to go with them to Tarshish, from before the face of Jehovah.

⁴But Jehovah hurled a great wind into the sea, and there was a great storm in the sea, and the ship was thought to be broken. ⁵And the sailors were afraid, and each man cried to his god. And they threw out the utensils in the ship, into the sea, to lighten it off of them. But Jonah had gone down into the hold of the ship; and he lay down, and was sound asleep. ⁶And the chief of the seamen came near to him and said to him, What is it to you, O sound sleeper? Rise up and cry out to your God! It may be our god will notice us, and we will not perish. ⁷And they said, each man to his companion, Come and let us cast lots, that we may know on whose account this evil occurred to us. And they cast lots, and the lot fell on Jonah. ⁸And they said to him, Please tell us on account of whom has this evil occurred to us? What is your work? And from where do you come? What is your country, and of what people are you? ⁹And he said to them, I am a Hebrew. And I fear Jehovah, the God of Heaven, who has made the sea and the dry land. ¹⁰And the men were terrified with fear; and said to him, What is this you have done? For the men knew that he was fleeing from before the face of Jehovah, because he had told them.

¹¹And they said to him, What shall we do to you, that the sea may be calm from on us? For the sea was going on and being stormy. ¹²And he said to them, Take me up and throw me out into the sea. And the sea will be calm from on you. For I know that this great storm is on you on account of me. ¹³But the men rowed to return to the dry land; but they were not able, for the sea was going on and being stormy against them. ¹⁴And they cried out to Jehovah, and said, We beseech You, O Jehovah; we beseech You, do not let us perish for this man's life; and do not lay innocent blood on us. For You, O Jehovah, have done as You desired. ¹⁵And they lifted Jonah up and threw him into the sea; and the sea ceased from its raging. ¹⁶Then the men feared Jehovah with a great fear, and offered a sacrifice to Jehovah, and vowed vows.

¹⁷And Jehovah had appointed a great fish to swallow Jonah. And Jonah was in the belly of the fish three days and three nights.

¹And Jonah prayed to Jehovah his God out of the belly of the fish. ²And he said, I cried out to Jehovah from my distress. And He answered me. Out of the belly of Sheol I cried for help, and You heard my voice. ³For You cast me into the deep, into the heart of the seas; and the current surrounded me; all Your breakers and Your waves passed over me. ⁴And I said, I am cast off from Your eyes; yet I will again look to Your holy temple. ⁵Waters encompassed me, even to my soul; the depth closed around me; seaweed was clinging to my head. ⁶I went down to the bases of the mountains; the earth with her bars was about me forever. But You brought up my life from the pit, O Jehovah my God. ⁷When my soul fainted within me, I remembered Jehovah; and my prayer came to You, to Your holy temple. ⁸Those who observe vanities of idolatry forsake their faithfulness; ⁹but I will sacrifice to You with the voice of thanksgiving; I will fulfill that which I have vowed. Salvation belongs to Jehovah!

¹⁰And Jehovah spoke to the fish, and it vomited Jonah out onto the dry land.

¹And the word of Jehovah was to Jonah the second time, saying, ²Rise up, go to Nineveh, the great city, and cry out to it the proclamation that I am declaring to you. ³And Jonah rose up and went to Nineveh, according to the word of Jehovah. And Nineveh was a great city to God, of three days' journey. ⁴And Jonah began to enter a day's journey into the city. And he cried out and said, Yet forty days and Nineveh shall be overthrown!

⁵And the men of Nineveh believed in God; and they called a fast, and put on sackclothes, from the greatest of them even to the least of them. ⁶And the word touched even to the king of Nineveh, and he arose from his throne; and he took his robe from him, and covered himself with sackcloth; and sat on the ashes. ⁷And he cried and said in Nineveh by the decree of the king and of his great ones, saying, Do not let man or beast, herd or flock, taste anything; do not let them feed nor let them drink water. ⁸But let man and beast be covered with sackcloth. And let them call with strength to God. And let them each one turn from his evil way, and from the violence that is in their palms. ⁹Who knows? He may turn, and God may repent and turn away from the glow of His anger, that we do not perish.

¹⁰And God saw their works, that they turned from their evil way. And God was compassionate over the evil that He had declared to do to them, and He did not do it.

¹But it was a great calamity to Jonah's eye, and it kindled anger in him. ²And he prayed to Jehovah, and said, Please, O

Jehovah, was this not my word while I was on my own land? On account of this I fled to Tarshish before, for I knew that You are a gracious God, and merciful, slow to anger, and of great kindness, and One who repents over calamity. ³And now, O Jehovah, please take my life from me. For better is my death than my life.

⁴And Jehovah said, Is anger rightly kindled in you?

⁵And Jonah went out from the city, and sat on the east of the city. And he made there a booth for himself, and sat under it in the shade until he should see what would happen in the city. ⁶And Jehovah God appointed a plant, and it came up over Jonah, to be shade over his head, in order to deliver him from his misery. And Jonah rejoiced over the plant with great joy. ⁷But God appointed a worm at the rising of the dawn of the next day; and it struck the plant; and it dried up. ⁸And it happened when the sun shone, God had ordained a scorching east wind; and the sun struck Jonah's head, so that he fainted; and he asked for his life to die. And he said, Better is my death than my life. ⁹And God said to Jonah, Is your anger rightly kindled over the plant? And he said, My anger is rightly kindled, even to death. ¹⁰And Jehovah said, You have had pity on the plant, for which you had not labored, nor made it grow — which was the son of a night, and perished the son of a night — ¹¹and should I not have pity on Nineveh, the great city in which are more than a hundred and twenty thousand men who do not know between the right and the left hand, and many cattle?

THE BOOK OF MICAH

¹The word of Jehovah that was to Micah of Moresheth in the days of Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah, which he saw on Samaria and Jerusalem.

²Let the peoples hear, all of them. Pay attention, O earth, and its fullness. And let the Lord Jehovah be a witness against you, the Lord from His holy temple. ³For, behold, Jehovah is coming out of His place, and will come down and walk on the high places of the earth. ⁴And the mountains shall melt under Him, and the valleys shall cleave themselves, as wax before the fire, as waters poured out on a steep place. ⁵All this is against the transgression of Jacob, and against the sins of the house of Israel. What is the transgression of Jacob? Is it not Samaria? And what are the high places of Judah? Are they not Jerusalem? ⁶And I will make Samaria into ruins of the field, planting places for a vineyard. And I will pour down her stones into the valley; and I will uncover her foundations. ⁷And all her carved images shall be beaten to pieces; and all her gifts for harlotry shall be burned with fire. And I will make all her idols a desolation. For she gathered it from the reward of a harlot, and they shall return to the reward of a harlot. ⁸Because of this I will wail and howl; I will go stripped and naked; I will make a wailing like the jackals; yea, mourn like the daughters of an ostrich. ⁹For her wounds are incurable; for it has come to Judah; it has reached to the gate of my people, to Jerusalem.

¹⁰Do not declare it in Gath; do not sorely weep; in the house of Leaphrah wallow in dust. ¹¹Pass over to them, O dweller of Shaphir, in nakedness of shame. The dweller of Zaanan has not gone out; the mourning of Beth-ezel shall take from you its place of standing. ¹²For be grieved for good, the inhabitant of Maroth, for evil came down from Jehovah to the gate of Jerusalem. ¹³Inhabitant of Lachish, tie the chariot to the stallion; she is the beginning of sin to the daughter of Zion, for the transgressions of Israel were found in you. ¹⁴So you shall give parting gifts to Moresheth-gath. The houses of Achzib are for a lying thing to the kings of Israel. ¹⁵I will bring an heir to you again, O dweller of Mareshah. The glory of Israel shall come to Adullam. ¹⁶Make yourself bald, and cut off your hair for the sons of your delight. Make your baldness increase like the eagle; for they go into exile from you.

⁴In that day one shall lift up a parable against you, and lament a lament of lamenting; he says, We shall be completely laid waste; He has exchanged the share of my people. How He has removed it for me! To the turncoat He has divided the fields. ⁵So there shall not be for you one casting a line by lot in the congregation of Jehovah. ⁶Do not drop words as they drop! They shall not drop words about these; they shall not draw back reproaches.

⁷House of Jacob, it is said, The Spirit of Jehovah is limited, if these are His doings. Do not My words do good with the one who walks upright? ⁸Even yesterday My people has risen up like an enemy. You strip off an inner robe from before an outer garment, from those who pass by trustingly, those returning from war. ⁹You have thrown the wives of My people out from the house of her delight; you have taken away My majesty forever from her children. ¹⁰Rise up, and go! For because of destroying uncleanness, even a grievous destruction, this is not your rest. ¹¹If a man walks with wind, and he lies in deceit, saying, I will drop words to you for wine and for fermented drink, he shall even be a dropper of words for this people.

¹²I will surely gather all of you, Jacob; I will surely gather the remnant of Israel. I will set him together like the sheep of Bozrah, like a flock in the midst of its fold. They shall be in commotion because of men. ¹³He breaking up has come before them; they have broken up and have passed through the gate, and have gone out of it. And their king shall pass before them, and Jehovah at the head of them.

¹And I said, Heads of Jacob, and magistrates of the house of Israel, please hear. Is it not for you to know justice? ²Those hating good and loving evil, who pull their skin off them, and their flesh from their bones; ³who also eat the flesh of My people, and cause their skin to come off from them; yea, they break their bones and shatter as that in the pot, and as flesh in the midst of the kettle. ⁴Then they shall cry out to Jehovah, but He will not answer them. He will even hide His face from them in that time, as they have done evil in their doings.

⁵So says Jehovah concerning the prophets who make My people err, who bite with their teeth and call out, Peace! And whoever does not give for their mouth, they even sanctify a war against him. ⁶So a night shall be for you without vision; and darkness without divining. And the sun shall go down on the prophets, and the day shall be dark over them. ⁷And the seers shall be ashamed, and the diviners shall blush, all of them; yea, they shall cover over their mustache, for there is no answer from God.

⁸But I am full of power by the Spirit of Jehovah, and justice and might, to declare to Jacob his transgression, and his sin to Israel. ⁹Heads of the house of Jacob, and magistrates of the house of Israel, you who abhor justice and pervert all equity, please hear this; ¹⁰those building up Zion with blood, and Jerusalem with iniquity. ¹¹Her leaders judge for a bribe; and her priests teach for pay; and her prophets divine for silver; yet they will lean on Jehovah, saying, Is not Jehovah among us? No evil shall come on us! ¹²Therefore, on account of you, Zion shall be plowed as a field, and Jerusalem shall become heaps, and the mountain of the house into high places of the forest.

¹But it shall be in the end of the days, the mountain of the house of Jehovah shall be established on the top of the mountains; and it shall be lifted up from the hills; and peoples shall flow on it. ²And many nations shall come and say, Come, and let us go up to the mountain of Jehovah, and to the house of the God of Jacob. And He will teach us from His ways, and we will walk in His paths. For the law shall go forth out of Zion, and the word of Jehovah from Jerusalem.

³And He shall judge between many peoples, and will decide for strong nations afar off. And they shall beat their swords into plowshares, and their spears into pruning hooks. Nation shall not lift up a sword against nation, nor shall they learn war any more. ⁴But they shall each one sit under his vine, and under his fig-tree; and there shall be no trembling. For the mouth of Jehovah of hosts has spoken. ⁵For all the peoples walk, each one in the name of his god; but we will walk in the name of Jehovah our God forever and ever. ⁶In that day I will gather the lame, declares Jehovah, and I will gather the banished, and the one I have afflicted. ⁷And I will make the lame into a remnant, and her who was cast off into a strong nation. And Jehovah shall reign over them in Mount Zion from now on, and to forever.

⁸And you, tower of the flock, the hill of the daughter of Zion, it shall happen to you; and the rulers, the chief ones, shall come, the kingdom of the daughter of Jerusalem. ⁹Now why do you cry aloud, an outcry? Is there not a king among you? Has your adviser perished? For pangs have seized you like one giving birth. ¹⁰Be in pain and deliver, daughter of Zion, like one giving birth. For now you shall go out from the city, and you shall live in the field. And you shall come to Babylon. There you shall be snatched back. There Jehovah shall redeem you from the palm of your enemies.

¹¹Now also many nations are gathered against you, saying, Let her be defiled, and let our eyes look on Zion. ¹²But they do not know the plans of Jehovah, nor do they understand His counsel. For He has gathered them like the sheaf to the threshing floor. ¹³Rise up and thresh, O daughter of Zion; for I will make your horn iron, and I will make your hoofs bronze. And you shall crush many peoples. And I will devote their gain to Jehovah, and their wealth to the Lord of all the earth.

¹Now gather yourself together, daughter of a troop; one sets a siege against us. They shall strike the judge of Israel with a rod on the cheek. ²And you, Bethlehem Ephraim, being least among the thousands of Judah, out of you He shall come forth to Me, to become Ruler in Israel; and His goings forth have been from of old, from the days of eternity. ³So He will give them over until the time the one giving birth has given birth; then the rest of His brothers shall return to the sons of Israel.

⁴And He shall stand and feed in the strength of Jehovah, in the majesty of the name of Jehovah His God. And they shall sit, for now He is great to the ends of the earth. ⁵And this One shall be peace. When Assyria shall come into our land; and when he shall walk in our palaces, then we shall raise against him seven shepherds and eight anointed ones of man. ⁶And they shall mar the land of Assyria with the sword, and the land of Nimrod at her entrances. And He shall deliver us from Assyria, when he comes into our land, and when he treads within our border. ⁷And the remnant of Jacob shall be in the midst of many peoples as dew from Jehovah, as showers on a blade of grass, which does not wait for man, nor delay for the sons of men.

⁸And the remnant of Jacob shall be among the nations, in the midst of many peoples, like a lion among the beasts of the forest, like a young lion among the flocks of sheep — who both tramples and tears in pieces if he passes through — and there is no one to snatch back. ⁹Your hands shall be high above your foes, and all your enemies shall be cut off. ¹⁰And it shall be in that day, I will cut off your horses out of your midst, and I will destroy your chariots, declares Jehovah. ¹¹And I will cut off the cities of your land, and pull down all your fortresses. ¹²And I will cut off sorceries out of your hand, and there shall not be fortune-tellers. ¹³And I also will cut off your graven images and your pillars from your midst. And you shall not any more worship the work of your hands. ¹⁴And I will pluck your shrines from your midst, and I will destroy your cities. ¹⁵And I will execute vengeance in anger and in fury on the nations, such as they have not heard.

¹Hear now what Jehovah says: Rise up, contend with the mountains, and let the hills hear your voice. ²Mountains, hear the contention of Jehovah; and you enduring foundations of the earth, for Jehovah has a quarrel with His people, and He will dispute with Israel. ³My people, what have I done to you? And how have I made you weary? Answer against Me. ⁴For I brought you up out of the land of Egypt, and redeemed you out of the house of slaves; and I sent Moses, Aaron and Miriam before you. ⁵My people, remember now what Balak, king of Moab, planned, and what Balaam, the son of Beor, answered him from Shittim to Gilgal, so that you may know the righteousnesses of Jehovah.

¹⁰Are there yet in the house of the wicked the treasures of wickedness, and a cursed ephah of leanness? ¹¹Shall I declare wicked balances to be pure, or a bag of deceitful weights? ¹²For her rich ones are full of violence, and her inhabitants speak a lie; and their tongue is deceit in their mouth. ¹³And I also have made you sick, to strike you, making you desolate because of your sins. ¹⁴You shall eat, but not be satisfied; and your hunger shall be in your midst. And you shall draw back, but shall not save; and that which you save, I will give up to the sword. ¹⁵You shall sow, but you shall not reap, You shall tread the olive, but you shall not anoint with oil; and new wine, but shall not drink wine.

¹⁶And one has kept himself as to the statutes of Omri, and all the works of the house of Ahab; and you walk in their counsels, so that I may give you for a horror, and her inhabitants for a hissing. And you shall bear the shame of My people.

¹Woe to me! For I am like the gatherings of summer fruit, like the gleanings of the vintage. There is no cluster to eat; my soul desires the early fig. ²The pious has perished from the earth, and the upright is not among mankind. All of them lie in wait for blood; each one hunts his brother with a net. ³Both palms are on evil, to do it well. The ruler is asking for a bribe; also the judge. And the great one speaks the lust of his soul; he does, and they weave it together. ⁴The best of them is like a thorn; the upright more than a hedge of thorns. The day of your watchers, your visitation is coming; now their shame shall be.

⁸Rejoice not against me, my enemy; for if I fall I shall arise. For if I sit in darkness, Jehovah is a light to me. ⁹I will bear the fury of Jehovah because I have sinned against Him; until He pleads my cause and brings forth justice for me. He will bring me out to the light; I shall see His righteousness. ¹⁰And my enemy shall see; and shame shall cover her, the one saying to me, Where is He, Jehovah your God? My eyes shall look on her; now she shall be for a trampling, as the mud of the streets. ¹¹A day of building your walls, that day the limit shall be far removed; ¹²that day he shall come even to you from Assyria and the besieged cities, and from the siege even to the River, and from sea to sea, and mountain to mountain. ¹³But the land shall become a waste because of those dwelling in it, from the fruit of their doings.

¹⁶The nations shall see and be ashamed from all their might; they shall set the hand on their mouth; their ears shall be deaf. ¹⁷They shall lick the dust like a snake; they shall tremble out of their holes like crawlers of the earth; they shall dread Jehovah our God; they shall fear from You. ¹⁸Who is a God like You, forgiving iniquity and passing by the transgression of the remnant of His possession? He does not make strong His anger forever, for He delights in grace. ¹⁹He will return to show us compassion; He will trample our iniquities; and You will cast all their sins into the depths of the sea. ²⁰You will give faithfulness to Jacob; mercy to Abraham, which You have sworn to our fathers from the days of old.

THE BOOK OF NAHUM

¹The burden of Nineveh: The book of the vision of Nahum the Elkoshite.

⁹What are you plotting against Jehovah? He will make an utter end; distress shall not rise up a second time.

¹⁰For as thorns are woven together, and as their drunkards are drunken, they shall be devoured like fully dried straw. ¹¹One who devises evil against Jehovah has come forth from you, one counseling worthlessness. ¹²So says Jehovah, Though secure, and so many, yet they will be cut off, and will vanish. And though I have afflicted you, I will not afflict you any more. ¹³And now I will break his yoke from on you, and will tear away your bonds. ¹⁴And Jehovah has commanded about you, not one of your name shall be sown any more; I will cut off the carved image and the molten image out of the house of your gods; I will appoint your grave, for you are despised.

¹⁵Behold! The feet of Him bearing good news is on the mountains, making heard, Peace! O Judah, celebrate your feasts; fulfill your vows; for the worthless will not continue to pass through among you; he is completely cut off.

¹The one scattering is coming up against your face. Guard the rampart; watch the way; make the loins strong; exceedingly firm up your power. ²For Jehovah has turned the glory of Jacob, as the glory of Israel. For the plunderers have plundered them, and have destroyed their vine branches. ³The shield of his mighty ones has become red; the mighty men are clothed in scarlet; the chariots will flame like iron torches in the day of preparation; and the cypresses are made to quiver. ⁴The chariots run madly in the streets; they shall rush to and fro in the plazas. Their appearance is like torches; they dart about like the lightnings. ⁵He shall remember its nobles; they shall stumble in their walking; they shall hurry to its wall, and the covering shall be set up. ⁶The gates of the rivers shall be opened, and the palace shall be melted. ⁷And she who stood firm is uncovered and caused to go away; and her slavegirls are moaning like the sound of doves, beating on their breast.

⁸And Nineveh is like a pool of water from her days; yet they are fleeing. Stand! Stand! they cry; but no one turns himself. ⁹Seize the silver, seize the gold, for there is no end to the treasures; riches from all precious objects. ¹⁰*She is* empty, even waste, even devastated. And the heart is melted, and the knees knocking; and trembling is in all the loins; and all of their faces collect heat. ¹¹Where is the den of the lions, and the feeding place of the young lions, where the lion and the lioness walked, and the lion's cub, and none shall terrify them. ¹²The lion tears in pieces, enough for his cubs, and strangles for his lionesses, and has filled his holes with prey, even his lairs with torn prey. ¹³Behold, I am against you, declares Jehovah of hosts; and I will burn her chariots in the smoke, and the sword shall devour your young lions. And I will cut off your prey from the earth, and the voice of your messengers shall not be heard any more.

¹Woe to the bloody city! All of it is a lie, full of plunder; the prey is not withdrawn.

²The sound of a whip, and the sound of rattling of a wheel, and a galloping horse, and of a bounding chariot. ³The horseman lifts up both the gleam of the sword and the lightning of the spear; and many are slain; and there are a mass of dead bodies, and no end of corpses; they stumble on their dead bodies, ⁴because of the many harlotries of the well-favored harlot, the mistress of sorceries who sells nations by her harlotries, and families by her sorceries. ⁵Behold, I am against you, declares Jehovah of hosts, and I will uncover your skirts over your face; and I will cause the nations to see your nakedness, and the kingdoms your shame. ⁶And I will cast filth on you, and will disgrace you. And I will set you as a spectacle. ⁷And it shall be that all those who look on you shall flee from you, and shall say, Nineveh is laid waste; who shall weep for her? From where shall I seek comforters for you?

⁸Are you better than No Amon that dwelt among the Nile branches, waters surrounding her, whose rampart was the sea, the waters her wall? ⁹Ethiopia and Egypt were her strength; yea, without end; Put and Lubim were among your helpers; ¹⁰yet she went into exile; she went into captivity; also her young ones were dashed to pieces at the head of all the streets; and they cast lots for her honored ones; and all her great ones were bound in chains. ¹¹You also shall be drunken; you shall be hidden; you also shall seek a fortress from the enemy. ¹²All your fortresses are fig-trees with the firstfruits; if they are shaken, then they shall fall on the mouth of the eater. ¹³Behold, your people are women in your midst; the gates of your land shall surely be opened to your enemies; the fire shall devour your bars.

¹⁴Draw water of the siege for you! Strengthen your fortifications; go into the clay and tread in the mortar; make the mold strong. ¹⁵There fire will devour you, the sword shall cut you off; it will eat you up like the locust larvae. Make yourself as many as the larvae, multiply yourself like the locusts. ¹⁶You have increased your merchants above the stars of the heavens; the locust larvae shall strip off and fly away. ¹⁷Your princes are like the locusts, and your officials are a swarm of locusts that camp in the hedges in the cold day; the sun rises, and they flee, and the place where they are is not known. ¹⁸Your shepherds slumber, O king of Assyria; your nobles are lying down. Your people are scattered on the mountains, and no one is gathering. ¹⁹There is no healing for your fracture; your wound is severe. All who hear of your report shall clap the palm over you; for on whom has your wickedness not continually passed?

THE BOOK OF HABAKKUK

¹The burden which Habakkuk the prophet saw: ²*O Jehovah, until when shall I cry for help, and You will not hear? I cry out to You, Violence! But You do not save.* ³Why do You show me evil, and You look upon toil? For destruction and violence are before me; and there is strife, and contention rises up. ⁴On account of this the law has become helpless, and justice does not continually go forth. For the wicked hems in the righteous, so justice goes forth, being perverted. ⁵Look among the nations and see, and be amazed, be amazed. For a work is working in your days which you will not believe, though it be told to you. ⁶For, behold, I raise up the Chaldeans, the bitter and impetuous nation which is going into the broad spaces of the land, to possess dwellings not his own. ⁷He is terrible and fearful; his judgment and his glory comes from himself. ⁸His horses also are swifter than leopards, and are fiercer than the evening wolves. And their horsemen spread themselves, and their horsemen come from afar; they shall fly as the eagle hurrying to eat. ⁹All of him shall come for violence; the gathering of their faces is forward; and they gather captives like the sand. ¹⁰And he shall scoff against the kings, and officials shall be a scorn to him. He shall scorn every fortress, and he shall heap up dirt, and capture it. ¹¹Then he sweeps on like a wind; and he transgresses, and is guilty; crediting this power of his to his god.

¹²Are You not from of old, Jehovah our God, my Holy One? We shall not die, Jehovah, for You have appointed him for judgment. And, my Rock, You have established him for correction. ¹³*You are* of purer eyes than to behold evil, and You are not able to look upon vexation. Why do you look on those who deal deceitfully? Will You be silent when the wicked swallows one more righteous than he? ¹⁴For You make man like the fish of the sea, like creeping things with no ruler over him. ¹⁵He takes up all of him with the hook; he drags him with his net and gathers him with his seine; on account of this he rejoices and exults. ¹⁶So he sacrifices to his net, and burns incense to his seine; because by them his portion is fat, and his food is rich. ¹⁷Shall he therefore empty his net, and shall he not spare to continually slay nations?

¹I will stand on my guard, and set myself on the tower, and watch to see what He will say against me, and what I shall return on my rebuke. ²And Jehovah answered me and said, Write the vision, and engrave it on the tablets, that he who reads it may run. ³For the vision is still for the appointed time, but it does not lie. Though it delays, wait for it; because it will surely come; it will not tarry. ⁴Behold, the soul of him is puffed up and is not upright; but the just shall live by his faith.

⁵And also wine indeed betrays a proud man, and he is not content; who widens his soul like Sheol, and he is like death, and is not satisfied, but gathers all the nations to himself, and collects all the peoples to himself. ⁶Shall not all of these lift up a parable against him, and a mocking riddle to him, and say, Woe to him who increases what is not his! How long, then, shall he load the pledges on himself? ⁷Shall not those who strike you rise up suddenly, and those who shake you awake, and you become a prize to him? ⁸Because you have plundered many nations, all the rest of the people shall plunder you, because of the blood of men, and the violence of the land, and the city, and all those dwelling in it.

⁹Woe to him who robs evil booty for his house, to set his nest on high, to be delivered from the hand of evil! ¹⁰You have advised shame for your house, to make an end of many peoples, and are sinning in your soul. ¹¹For the stone shall cry out from the wall, and the beam shall answer it from the wood.

¹²Woe to him who builds a town with blood, and establishes a city by iniquity! ¹³Behold, is it not for Jehovah of hosts that the people labor only for fire; yea, nations weary themselves only for vanity? ¹⁴For the earth shall be filled with the knowledge of the glory of Jehovah, as the waters cover the sea.

¹⁵Woe to him who causes his friend to drink, pouring out your wineskin, and also making him drunk, so as to look upon their nakedness! ¹⁶You are filled with shame instead of glory; you drink also, and will be seen as uncircumcised. The cup of the right hand of Jehovah shall turn on you, and disgrace shall be your glory. ¹⁷For the violence of Lebanon shall cover you, and the ruin of beasts shall terrify them because of the blood of men, and the violence of the land, the city, and all those dwelling in it.

¹⁸What does an image profit, for its maker has carved it; a molten image, and a teacher of falsehood. For does the maker trust in his work on it, to make mute idols? ¹⁹Woe to him who says to the wood, Awake! To a mute stone, Rise up, it shall teach! Behold, it is overlaid with gold and silver, but no breath is in its midst. ²⁰But Jehovah is in His holy temple; let all the earth be silent before Him.

¹A prayer of Habakkuk the prophet concerning erring ones:

²O Jehovah, I have heard Your report; I am afraid, Jehovah. Give new life to Your work in the midst of years; in the midst of years make known; in anger remember compassion. ³God comes from Teman, and the Holy One from Mount Paran. Selah. His majesty covers the heavens, and His praise fills the earth. ⁴And His brightness is as the light; rays from His hand are His, and there was a covering of His strength. ⁵A plague goes before Him, and lightning went forth at His feet. ⁶He stood and measured the earth; He looked and shook nations; and the ancient mountains were shattered; the eternal hills bowed down; the goings of eternity are His.

⁷I saw the tents of Cushan under calamity; the curtains of the land of Midian trembled. ⁸Did Jehovah burn against rivers? Or was Your anger against the rivers? Or Your fury against the sea? For You ride on horses; Your chariots of salvation ⁹Naked You bare Your bow; according to the oaths of the rods of Your word. Selah. You have cut through the earth with rivers. ¹⁰They saw You; mountains trembled. The storm of water passed over; the deep gave its voice and lifted up its hands on high. ¹¹The sun and moon stood still in their dwelling. At the light of Your arrows they go, at the shining of Your gleaming spear. ¹²You march into the land in fury. You thresh nations in anger. ¹³You went forth for the salvation of Your people, for the salvation of Your anointed. You struck the head from the house of the wicked, to bare the foundation to the neck. Selah.

¹⁷Though the fig-tree shall not blossom; and fruit is not on the vines; the work of the olive fails; and the fields make no food; the flock is cut off from the fold; and no herd is in the stalls; ¹⁸yet I will exult in Jehovah; I will rejoice in the God of my salvation. ¹⁹Jehovah the Lord is my might, and He sets my feet like hinds' feet, and He will make me to walk on my high places.

To the chief singer, on my stringed instruments.

THE BOOK OF ZEPHANIAH

¹The word of Jehovah which was to Zephaniah the son of Cushi, the son of Gedaliah, the son of Amariah, the son of Hezekiah, in the days of Josiah the son of Amon, king of Judah:

²I will completely snatch away all from on the face of the ground, declares Jehovah. ³I will snatch away man and beast: I will snatch away the birds of the heavens and the fish of the sea, and the stumbling-blocks, even the wicked. And I will cut off man from the face of the ground, declares Jehovah. ⁴I will also stretch out My hand on Judah, and on all the inhabitants of Jerusalem. And I will cut off the remnant of Baal from this place, the name of the idol-worshippers, with the priests; ⁵and those bowing to the host of the heavens on the housetops; and those bowing, swearing to Jehovah and swearing by Malcham too; ⁶and those drawing back from after Jehovah, and who have not sought Jehovah, nor asked of Him. ⁷Be silent before the face of the Lord Jehovah, for the day of Jehovah is near. For Jehovah has appointed a sacrifice; He has consecrated His called ones. ⁸And it shall be in the day of the sacrifice of Jehovah, I will punish the rulers and the king's sons, and all those clothed in foreign clothing. ⁹And I will punish all those who leap on the threshold in that day, who fill their master's houses with violence and deceit. ¹⁰And it shall be in that day, declares Jehovah, the sound of a cry from the Fish Gate, and a howling from the Second, and a great breaking from the hills. ¹¹Howl, dwellers of Maktesh, for all the people of Canaan have perished; all those carrying silver are cut off. ¹²And it shall be in that time, I will search Jerusalem with lamps, and punish the men being settled on their lees; who say in their heart, Jehovah will not do good, nor will He do evil. ¹³And their goods shall become a prize, and their houses a waste. They shall also build houses, but not live there; and they shall plant vineyards, but not drink their wine. ¹⁴The great day of Jehovah is near; it is near and rushing greatly, the sound of the day of Jehovah. The mighty man shall cry out bitterly there. ¹⁵That day is a day of wrath, a day of adversity and distress, a day of waste and ruin, a day of darkness and gloom, a day of clouds and thick darkness; ¹⁶a day of the ram's horn and alarm against the fortified cities, and against the high towers. ¹⁷And I will bring distress to men, and they shall walk like the blind, because they have sinned against Jehovah. And their blood shall be poured out as dust, and their flesh like dung. ¹⁸Their silver and their gold shall not be able to deliver them in the day of the wrath of Jehovah. But all the earth shall be consumed by the fire of His jealousy. For He shall make a full, yea, a speedy end of all the dwellers in the land.

¹Gather yourselves, even gather, O nation not being longed for; ²before the birth of the decree, the day shall pass like the chaff, yet not before the hot anger of Jehovah comes on you; yet not before the day of the anger of Jehovah comes on you. ³Seek Jehovah, all the meek of the earth who have done His justice; seek righteousness; seek meekness. It may be you shall be hidden in the day of the anger of Jehovah.

⁴For Gaza shall be forsaken, and Ashkelon a ruin. They shall drive Ashdod out at the noonday, and Ekron shall be rooted up. ⁵Woe to the inhabitants of the seacoast, the nation of the Cherethites! The word of Jehovah is against you, Canaan, the land of the Philistines; I will destroy you so there not shall be an inhabitant. ⁶And the seacoast shall be pastures, meadows of shepherds, and folds for the flock. ⁷And the coast shall be for the remnant of the house of Judah; they shall feed on them. In the houses of Ashkelon, they shall lie down in the evening; for Jehovah their God shall visit them and return their captivity.

⁸I have heard the reproach of Moab, and the curses of the sons of Ammon, with which they have cursed My people and have magnified themselves on their border. ⁹So as I live, declares Jehovah of hosts, the God of Israel, surely Moab shall be as Sodom, and the sons of Ammon like Gomorrah, a possession of nettles, and a pit of salt, and a ruin forever. The remnant of My people shall plunder them, and the rest of the nation shall possess them.

¹⁰They shall have this for their pride, because they have cursed and magnified themselves against the people of Jehovah of hosts. ¹¹Jehovah will be frightening to them; for He will make all the gods of the earth lean, and each man from his place, and all the coasts of the nations, will bow to Him.

¹²You also, O Ethiopians, shall be pierced by My sword. ¹³And He will stretch out His hand against the north, and destroy Assyria, and will make Nineveh a desolation, dry like the desert. ¹⁴And flocks shall lie down in her midst; all the beasts of a nation; both the pelican and the bittern shall lodge in the capitals of its pillars. A voice shall sing at the window; ruin shall be at the doorsill; for the cedar-work He will bare. ¹⁵This is the joyful city, dwelling confidently, who says in her heart, I am, and there is yet no other. How she has become a ruin, a resting-place for animals! Everyone who passes near her shall hiss; he shall shake his hand!

¹Woe to her rebelling and being defiled, to the oppressing city! ²She did not listen to the voice; she did not receive correction; she did not trust in Jehovah; she did not draw near to her God. ³Her rulers within her are roaring lions; her judges are evening wolves; they do not gnaw bones for the morning. ⁴Her prophets are proud, men of deceit; her priests have profaned the sanctuary; they have done violence to the Law. ⁵The righteous Jehovah is in her midst; He will not act perversely. Every morning He gives His justice to the light; He does not fail, but the unjust knows no shame. ⁶I have cut off nations; their towers are ruined. I made their streets waste, so that none passes by. Their cities are laid waste, without a man, there being no inhabitant. ⁷I said, Surely you will fear Me; you will receive instruction; then her dwelling shall not be cut off, all that I appointed for her. But they rose up early; they corrupted all their doings.

⁸Therefore, wait for Me, declares Jehovah, for the day I rise up to the prey. For My judgment is to gather the nations, for Me to gather the kingdoms, to pour My fury out on them, all My hot anger. For all the earth shall be burned up with the fire of My jealousy. ⁹For then I will give a clear lip to the peoples, to call all of them by the name of Jehovah, to serve Him with one shoulder. ¹⁰From beyond the rivers of Ethiopia, My worshipers, the daughter of My scattered ones, shall bring My food offering. ¹¹In that day you shall not be ashamed from all your doings in which you have transgressed against Me. For then I will take away those who rejoice in your pride out of your midst, and you shall not again be proud any more in My holy mountain. ¹²I will also leave a poor and weak people in your midst, and they shall trust in the name of Jehovah. ¹³The remnant of Israel shall not do iniquity, nor speak lies. And a deceitful tongue shall not be found in their mouth. For they shall feed and lie down; and no one shall frighten them.

¹⁴Shout for joy, daughter of Zion; shout, Israel! Be glad and rejoice with all the heart, daughter of Jerusalem.

¹⁵Jehovah has turned off your judgments; He has turned away your enemy. Jehovah, the King of Israel, is in your midst; you shall not fear evil any more. ¹⁶In that day it shall be said to Jerusalem, Fear not! Zion, do not let your hands droop. ¹⁷Jehovah your God is mighty in your midst; He will save. He will rejoice over you with joy; He is silent in His love. He rejoices over you with a joyful shout.

¹⁸I will gather the afflicted ones from the appointed place; they were from you, a lifting up of reproach over her. ¹⁹Behold, at that time I will deal with all those who afflict you. And I will save her who is lame, and gather her who was thrust out. And I will give them for a praise and for a name in all the land of their shame. ²⁰In that time I will bring you, even in the time I gather you. For I will give you for a name and for a praise among all the peoples of the earth, when I turn back your captivity before your eyes, says Jehovah.

THE BOOK OF HAGGAI

¹In the second year of Darius the king, in the sixth month, in the first day of the month, the word of Jehovah came by Haggai the prophet to Zerubbabel, the son of Shealtiel, governor of Judah; and to Joshua, the son of Jehozadak, the high priest, saying:

²So speaks Jehovah of hosts, saying, This people says, The time has not come, the time for the house of Jehovah to be built. ³And the word of Jehovah was by Haggai the prophet, saying, 'Is it time for you yourselves to live in your finished houses, and this house to lie waste?' ⁴And now, so says Jehovah of hosts: Set your heart on your ways; ⁵you have sown much, and bring in little; you eat, but are not satisfied; you drink, but not to be filled; you dress, but there is no warmth to one; and he who sells himself sells himself for a bag of holes.

⁷So says Jehovah of hosts: Set your heart on your ways. ⁸Go up the mountain and bring wood, and build this house. And I will be pleased with it, and I will be glorified, says Jehovah. ⁹*You* looked for much, and, behold, little! And when you brought it home, then I blew on it. Why, declares Jehovah of hosts? Because of My house that is ruined, and you, each man, run to his own house. ¹⁰On account of this the heavens above you have held back the dew, and the earth is held back from her produce. ¹¹And I called for a drought in the land, and on the mountains, and on the grain, and on the new wine, and on the oil, and on that which the ground produces, and on man, and on livestock, and on all the labor of your hands.

¹²Then Zerubbabel, the son of Shealtiel, and Joshua, the son of Jehozadak, the high priest, and all the remnant of the people, obeyed the voice of Jehovah their God, and the words of Haggai the prophet, as Jehovah their God had sent him. And the people feared before Jehovah. ¹³And Haggai the messenger of Jehovah spoke the message of Jehovah to the people, saying, I am with you, says Jehovah. ¹⁴And Jehovah stirred up the spirit of Zerubbabel, the son of Shealtiel, governor of Judah, and the spirit of Joshua, the son of Jehozadak, the high priest, and the spirit of all the remnant of the people. And they came and worked on the house of Jehovah of hosts, their God, ¹⁵in the twenty-fourth day of the sixth month, in the second year of Darius the king.

¹In the seventh month, on the twenty-first of the month, the word of Jehovah was by Haggai the prophet, saying, ²Now speak to Zerubbabel, the son of Shealtiel, governor of Judah, and to Joshua, the son of Jehozadak, the high priest, and to the remnant of the people, saying, ³Who is left among you who saw this house in her former glory? And how do you see it now? When compared to it, is it not as nothing in your eyes? ⁴Yet now be strong, O Zerubbabel, says Jehovah. And be strong, O Joshua, son of Jehozadak, the high priest. And be strong and work, all people of the land, says Jehovah. For I am with you, declares Jehovah of hosts. ⁵The word that I covenanted with you when you came out of Egypt, so My Spirit remains among you; do not fear. ⁶For so says Jehovah of hosts: Yet once, it is a little while, and I will shake the heavens and the earth and the sea and the dry land. ⁷And I will shake all the nations; and the desire of all nations shall come. And I will fill this house with glory, says Jehovah of hosts. ⁸The silver is Mine, and the gold is Mine, says Jehovah of hosts. ⁹The glory of this latter house shall be greater than that of the former, says Jehovah of hosts. And in this place I will give peace, says Jehovah of hosts.

¹⁰In the twenty-fourth of the ninth month, in the second year of Darius, the word of Jehovah came to Haggai the prophet, saying, ¹¹So says Jehovah of hosts: Now ask the priests the law, saying, ¹²Behold, one bears holy flesh in the skirt of his garment, and touches his skirt to the bread, or boiled food, or wine, or oil, or any food, will it become holy? And the priests answered and said, No. ¹³And Haggai said, If the unclean of body touches these, is it unclean? And the priests answered and said, It is unclean. ¹⁴And Haggai answered and said, So is this people, and so is this nation before Me, declares Jehovah. And so is every work of their hands, and that which they offer there is unclean. ¹⁵And now, I ask you, set your heart on it; from this day and onward, before the placing of a stone on a stone in the temple of Jehovah; ¹⁶from then onward, one came to a heap of twenty measures, and there were but ten; one came to the wine vat to draw out fifty from the wine trough, and there were but twenty. ¹⁷I struck you with blight, and with mildew, and with hail, in all the labors of your hands; yet you did not turn to Me, says Jehovah. ¹⁸Now set your heart from this day and forward, from the twenty-fourth day of the ninth month, from the day that Jehovah's temple was established. Set your heart: ¹⁹*Is* the seed still in the barn? Yes, as yet the vine, and the fig-tree, and the pomegranate, and the olive-tree have not brought forth. From this day I will bless them.

²⁰And a second time the word of Jehovah was to Haggai, in the twenty-fourth of the month, saying, ²¹Speak to Zerubbabel the governor of Judah, saying, I will shake the heavens and the earth. ²²And I will overthrow the throne of the kingdoms; and I will destroy the strength of the kingdoms of the nations. And I will overthrow the chariots and their riders; and the horses and their riders will come down, each one by the sword of his brother. ²³In that day, says Jehovah of hosts, I will take you, O Zerubbabel, My servant, the son of Shealtiel, says Jehovah, and will make you like a signet; for I have chosen you, declares Jehovah of hosts.

THE BOOK OF ZECHARIAH

¹In the eighth month, in the second year of Darius, the word of Jehovah came to Zechariah, the son of Berechiah, the son of Iddo the prophet, saying, ²Jehovah has been very angry with your fathers. ³And you say to them, So says Jehovah of hosts: Turn to Me, says Jehovah of hosts, and I will turn to you, says Jehovah of hosts. ⁴Do not be as your fathers, to whom the former prophets have proclaimed to them, saying, So says Jehovah of hosts: Turn now from your evil ways and your evil doings; but they did not hear or give heed to Me, says Jehovah. ⁵Your fathers, where are they? And the prophets, do they live forever? ⁶But My words and My statutes which I commanded My servants the prophets, did they not overtake your fathers? And they returned and said, As Jehovah of hosts purposes to do to us, according to our ways and according to our deeds, so He has done with us.

⁷On the twenty-fourth day of the eleventh month, it is the month Shebat, in the second year of Darius, the word of Jehovah was to Zechariah, the son of Berechiah, the son of Iddo the prophet, saying, ⁸I saw at night. And, behold! A Man riding on a red horse. And He stood among the myrtle trees that were in the ravine. And behind Him were red, sorrel, and white horses. ⁹Then I said, My lord, what are these? And the angel who was speaking with me said to me, I will show you what these are. ¹⁰And the Man who stood among the myrtle trees answered and said, These are those whom Jehovah has sent to walk to and fro through the earth. ¹¹And they answered the Angel of Jehovah who stood among the myrtle trees, and said, We have walked to and fro through the earth; and, behold, all the earth sits still and is at peace.

¹²And the Angel of Jehovah answered and said, O Jehovah of hosts, until when will You not have pity on Jerusalem, and on the cities of Judah, against which You have cursed these seventy years? ¹³And Jehovah answered the angel who was talking with me with good words and comforting words. ¹⁴So the angel who was talking with me said to me, Cry out, saying, So says Jehovah of hosts: I am jealous for Jerusalem and for Zion, with a great jealousy. ¹⁵And with great anger I am angry at the nations at ease; in that I was but a little angry, and they gave help for evil. ¹⁶So Jehovah says this: I have returned to Jerusalem with compassions; My house shall be built in it, says Jehovah of hosts; and a line shall be stretched over Jerusalem. ¹⁷Cry out again, saying, So says Jehovah of hosts: My cities shall again overflow with goodness, and Jehovah shall yet comfort Zion, and shall yet choose Jerusalem.

¹⁸Then I lifted up my eyes and looked. And, behold, four horns! ¹⁹And I said to the angel who was talking with me, What are these? And he answered me, These are the horns that have scattered Judah, Israel, and Jerusalem. ²⁰And Jehovah showed me four craftsmen. ²¹And I said, What are these coming to do? And He spoke, saying, These are the horns which have scattered Judah, so that no man lifts up his head. But these have come to terrify them, to throw down the horns of the nations who lifted up their horn over the land of Judah, to scatter it.

¹I lifted up my eyes again and looked. And, behold, A man, and a measuring line in his hand! ²And I said, Where are you going? And he said to me, To measure Jerusalem, to see what is its breadth and what its length. ³And, behold, the angel who was talking with me went out, and another angel went out to meet him, ⁴and said to him, Run, speak to this young man, saying, Jerusalem shall be inhabited, as towns without walls, for the multitude of men and livestock in her midst. ⁵And I will be to her a wall of fire all around, and I will be for glory in her midst, declares Jehovah.

⁶Ho! Ho! Flee then from the land of the north, says Jehovah. For I have scattered you as the four winds of the heavens, declares Jehovah. ⁷Ho, O Zion! Escape, you who live with the daughter of Babylon. ⁸For so says Jehovah of hosts: He has sent Me after glory, to the nations who plundered you; for he who touches you touches the pupil of His eye. ⁹For, behold, I will shake My hand over them, and they shall be a prize for their servants. And you shall know that Jehovah has sent Me.

¹⁰Sing and rejoice, O daughter of Zion. For, lo, I come; and I will dwell among you, says Jehovah. ¹¹And many nations shall be joined to Jehovah in that day, and they shall be My people; and I will dwell among you; and you shall know that Jehovah of hosts has sent Me to you. ¹²And Jehovah shall possess Judah, His portion in the holy land, and He shall again choose Jerusalem. ¹³All flesh, be silent before Jehovah. For He is raised up out of His holy habitation.

¹And he made me see Joshua the high priest standing before the Angel of Jehovah, and Satan standing at his right hand to accuse him. ²And Jehovah said to Satan, Jehovah rebuke you, Satan! And, Jehovah who has chosen Jerusalem rebuke you! Is this not a brand plucked out of the fire? ³And Joshua was clothed with filthy garments, and he stood before the Angel. ⁴And He answered and spoke to those who stood before Him, saying, Take away the filthy garments from him. And He said to him, Behold, I have caused your iniquity to pass from you, and I will clothe you with ceremonial robes. ⁵And I said, Let them set a clean turban on his head. And they set a clean turban on his head, and clothed him with clothing. And the Angel of Jehovah stood by. ⁶And the Angel of Jehovah charged Joshua, saying, ⁷So says Jehovah of hosts: If you will walk in My ways, and if you will keep My charge, then you shall also judge My house, and shall also keep My courts; and I will give you room to walk among these who stand by. ⁸Hear now, O Joshua the high priest, you and your associates who are sitting before you; for they are men of symbol. For, behold, I will engrave its engraving, says Jehovah of hosts, and I will remove the iniquity of that land in one day. ¹⁰In that day, says Jehovah of hosts, you shall invite each man to his neighbor to sit under the vine and under the fig-tree.

¹And the angel who was speaking with me returned and awakened me, as a man is awakened out of his sleep. ²And he said to me, What do you see? And I said, I see, and behold, a lampstand, all of it gold; and a bowl is on its top. And its seven lamps are on it, and seven spouts each to the seven lamps on its top; ³and two olive trees are beside it, one on the right of the bowl, and one on its left. ⁴And I answered and spoke to the angel who was talking with me, saying, What are these, my lord? ⁵And the angel who was speaking with me answered and said to me, Do you not know what these are? And I said, No, my lord. ⁶Then he answered and spoke to me, saying, This is the word of Jehovah to Zerubbabel, saying, Not by might, nor by power, but by My Spirit, says Jehovah of hosts. ⁷Who are you, O great mountain? Before Zerubbabel you shall become a plain. And he shall bring forth the top-stone with shouts: Grace! Grace to it!

⁸And the word of Jehovah was to me, saying, ⁹The hands of Zerubbabel have laid the foundation of this house; his hands shall also finish it. And you shall know that Jehovah of hosts has sent me to you. ¹⁰For who has despised the day of small things? For they shall rejoice and shall see the plummet stone in the hand of Zerubbabel. These seven are the eyes of Jehovah; they run to and fro through all the earth.

¹¹And I answered and said to him, What are these two olive trees on the right of the lampstand, and on its left? ¹²And I answered a second time and said to him, What are the two clusters of olives which are beside the two golden pipes, emptying the golden oil from themselves? ¹³And he spoke to me, saying, Do you not know what these are? And I said, No, my lord. ¹⁴And he said, These are the two sons of fresh oil who stand by the Lord of the whole earth.

¹And I again lifted up my eyes and looked. And, behold, a flying scroll! ²And he said to me, What do you see? And I answered, I see a flying scroll; its length is twenty cubits, and its width ten cubits. ³And he said to me, This is the curse that goes forth over the face of the whole earth. For from now on everyone who steals shall be cut off according to it; and everyone who swears from now on shall be cut off according to it. ⁴And I will bring it forth, says Jehovah of hosts. And it shall go into the house of the thief, and into the house of the one who swears falsely by My name. And it shall remain in the midst of his house, and shall devour it, and its timber, and its stones.

⁵Then the angel who was speaking with me went out and said to me, Now lift up your eyes and see what this that goes forth is. ⁶And I said, What is it? And he said, This is the ephah that goes forth. And he said, This is their form in all the earth. ⁷And, behold, a lead cover was lifted up, and a woman was sitting in the middle of the ephah. ⁸And he said, This is wickedness. And he threw her into the midst of the ephah; and he threw the lead stone over its opening. ⁹And I lifted up my eyes and looked. And, behold, two women came out. And the wind was in their wings; for they had wings like the wings of the stork. And they lifted up the ephah between the earth and the heavens. ¹⁰And I said to the angel who was speaking with me, Where are they going with the ephah? ¹¹And he said to me, To build a house for it in the land of Shinar; and it shall be fixed and established there on its own place.

¹And again my eyes lifted up and looked. And, behold, four chariots were coming from between two mountains; and the mountains were mountains of bronze. ²Red horses were in the first chariot; and black horses in the second chariot; ³and white horses in the third chariot; and horses with dappled, strong colors were in the fourth chariot. ⁴And I answered and said to the angel who was talking with me, What are these, my lord? ⁵And the angel answered and said to me, These are the four spirits of Heaven who go forth from standing before the Lord of all the earth. ⁶The black horses in it go into the north country; and the white go after them; and the dappled ones go toward the south country. ⁷And the strong-colored ones went forth and sought to go, to walk to and fro in the earth. And he said, Go! Walk to and fro in the earth. So they walked to and fro in the earth. ⁸And he cried out to me, and spoke to me, saying, Behold, these who go toward the north country have caused My Spirit to rest in the north country.

⁹And the word of Jehovah was to me, saying. ¹⁰Take from Heldai, from Tobijah, and from Jedaiah, from the exiles who have come from Babylon; and in that day you go and enter into the house of Josiah, the son of Zephaniah. ¹¹And take silver and gold, and make crowns, and set on the head of Joshua, the son of Jehozadak, the high priest. ¹²And speak to him, saying, So says Jehovah of hosts, saying, Behold! The Man whose name is THE BRANCH! And He shall spring up out of His place, and He shall build the temple of Jehovah. ¹³Even He shall build the temple of Jehovah; and He shall bear the majesty, and shall sit and rule on His throne. And He shall be a priest on His throne; and the counsel of peace shall be between the two of them. ¹⁴And the crowns shall be for a memorial in the temple of Jehovah, to Helem, and to Tobijah, and to Jedaiah, and to Hen, the son of Zephaniah. ¹⁵And the distant ones shall come and build in the temple of Jehovah. And you shall know that Jehovah of hosts has sent me to you. And this shall be, if you will diligently obey the voice of Jehovah your God.

¹And in the fourth year of king Darius, the word of Jehovah was to Zechariah, in the fourth of the ninth month, in Chislev. ²And Sharezer and Regem-melech, and his men, had sent to Bethel to seek the favor of the face of Jehovah, ³to speak to the priests who belong to the house of Jehovah of hosts, and to the prophets, saying, Should I weep in the fifth month, consecrating myself as I have done these many years?

⁴The word of Jehovah of hosts was to me, saying, ⁵Speak to all the people of the land, and to the priests, saying, When you fasted and mourned in the fifth and seventh months, even those seventy years, did you truly fast to Me, even to Me? ⁶And when you ate, and when you drank, was it not for those eating, and for those drinking? ⁷Are not these the words which Jehovah proclaimed by the former prophets, when Jerusalem was inhabited, and prosperous, with her cities all around her; and the Negeb and the Shephelah were inhabited?

⁸And the word of Jehovah was to Zechariah, saying, ⁹So says Jehovah of hosts, saying, Judge true judgment, and practice kindness and pity, each man with his brother. ¹⁰And do not oppress the widow, or the fatherless, the alien, or the poor. And do not devise evil in your heart, of a man against his brother. ¹¹But they refused to listen, and gave a stubborn shoulder, and they made their ears heavy from hearing. ¹²And they made their heart adamant from hearing the law and the words which Jehovah of hosts has sent through His Spirit, by the former prophets. And great wrath was from Jehovah of hosts. ¹³And it will be, just as He called, and they did not listen; so they called, and I did not listen, says Jehovah of hosts. ¹⁴But I stormed them away on all the nations whom they did not know. And the land is desolated behind them, from passing and from returning — for they made the land of desire a waste.

¹And the word of Jehovah was, saying,

²So says Jehovah of hosts: I was jealous for Zion with great jealousy, and I was jealous for her with great wrath. ³So says Jehovah: I have returned to Zion, and will dwell in the midst of Jerusalem. And Jerusalem shall be called a city of truth, and the mountain of Jehovah of hosts, the holy mountain. ⁴So says Jehovah of hosts: There shall yet be old men and old women sitting in the streets of Jerusalem; and each man with his staff in his hand because of their many days.

⁵And the streets of the city shall be full of boys and girls playing in its streets. ⁶So says Jehovah of hosts: If it is marvelous in the eyes of the remnant of this people in those days, will it also be marvelous in My eyes, says Jehovah of hosts? ⁷So says Jehovah of hosts: Behold, I will save My people from the east country, and from the land of the setting sun. ⁸And I will bring them, and they shall live in the midst of Jerusalem. And they shall be for a people to Me, and I will be their God, in truth and in righteousness.

⁹So says Jehovah of hosts: Let your hands be strong, you who hear in these days these words by the mouth of the prophets, that in the day the house of Jehovah of hosts is laid, the temple is to be built. ¹⁰For before those days there was no payment for man, nor was there payment for animal; and there was no peace to him from the adversary who went out or came in. For I sent every man, a man against his neighbor. ¹¹But now I will not be to the remnant of this people as in former days, says Jehovah of hosts. ¹²For there shall be peace for the seed; the vine shall give its fruit and the ground shall give its produce; and the heavens shall give their dew; and I will cause the remnant of this people to inherit all these. ¹³And it shall be, as you were a curse among the nations, O house of Judah and house of Israel, so I will save you, and you shall be a blessing. Do not fear; let your hands be strong. ¹⁴For so says Jehovah of hosts: As I purposed to punish you when your fathers provoked Me to wrath, says Jehovah of hosts; and I did not repent; ¹⁵so again I have purposed in these days to do good to Jerusalem, and the house of Judah. Do not fear.

¹⁸And the word of Jehovah of hosts was to me, saying, ¹⁹So says Jehovah of hosts: The fast of the fourth month, and the fast of the fifth, and the fast of the seventh, and the fast of the tenth, shall become for joy and gladness and cheerful feasts to the house of Judah. Therefore, love truth and peace. ²⁰So says Jehovah of hosts: There shall yet come people, and inhabitants of many cities; ²¹and the inhabitants of one shall go to another, saying, Let us go at once to seek the favor of the face of Jehovah, and to seek Jehovah of hosts; I will go also. ²²And many peoples and strong nations shall come to seek Jehovah of hosts in Jerusalem, and to seek the favor of the face of Jehovah. ²³So says Jehovah of hosts: In those days ten men out of all languages of the nations shall take hold, and will seize the skirt of a man, a Jew, saying, Let us go with you, for we have heard that God is with you.

¹The burden of the word of Jehovah against the land of Hadrach; and its resting place, Damascus—when the eye of man, and all the tribes of Israel shall be toward Jehovah — ²and Hamath also borders on it; Tyre and Sidon, though they are very wise; ³and Tyre shall build a fortress for herself, and shall pile up silver like the dust, and gold like the mud of the streets; ⁴behold, the Lord will expel her, and He will strike her wealth in the sea, and she shall be consumed with fire. ⁵Ashkelon shall see and fear; Gaza also shall writhe in great pain; and Ekron shall be ashamed for her hope. And the king shall perish from Gaza, and Ashkelon shall not be inhabited. ⁶And a bastard shall dwell in Ashdod, and I will cut off the pride of the Philistines. ⁷And I will take away his bloods out of his mouth, and his idolatries from between his teeth. But the remnant, even he shall be for our God. And he shall be as a governor in Judah, and Ekron, like a Jebusite. ⁸And I will camp around My house because of an army, because of him who passed by, and because of him who returns. And no tyrant shall pass through them any more. For now I have seen with My eyes.

⁹Rejoice greatly, O daughter of Zion! Shout, O daughter of Jerusalem! Behold, your King comes to you! He is righteous and victorious; lowly and riding on an ass, even on a colt, the son of an ass. ¹⁰And I will cut off the chariot from Ephraim, and the horse from Jerusalem. And the battle bow shall be cut off, and He shall speak peace to the nations. And His dominion shall be from sea to sea, and from the River to the ends of the earth. ¹¹Also you, by the blood of your covenant I have freed your prisoners from the pit; no water is in it. ¹²Turn to the stronghold, O prisoners of hope! Even today I declare I will return double to you. ¹³When I have bent Judah for Me as a bow; I filled it with Ephraim; and I will stir up your sons, O Zion, against your sons, O Greece, and make you as the sword of a mighty man. ¹⁴Then Jehovah will be seen over them, and His arrow shall go out as lightning; and the Lord Jehovah shall blow the ram's horn, and shall go forth with the windstorms of the south. ¹⁵Jehovah of hosts shall defend them. And they shall devour and trample on the slingstones. And they shall drink and be boisterous, as with wine. And they shall be full like a bowl, like the corners of the altar. ¹⁶And Jehovah their God shall save them in that day as the flock of His people; for they are as stones of a crown, lifted up as a banner over His land. ¹⁷For how great is its goodness, and how great its beauty! Grain shall make the young men flourish, and new wine the virgins.

CHAPTER 10

⁵And they shall be like mighty ones who trample the mud of the streets in the battle. And they shall fight because Jehovah is with them, and they shall make the riders of horses ashamed. ⁶And I will make stronger the house of Judah; and I will save the house of Joseph; and I will bring them back again to live; for I have pity on them. And they shall be as though I had not cast them off; for I am Jehovah their God, and I will answer them. ⁷And Ephraim shall be like a mighty one, and their heart shall be glad as by wine. And their sons shall see and be glad; their heart shall rejoice in Jehovah. ⁸I will whistle for them and gather them; for I have redeemed them. And they shall multiply as they were multiplied. ⁹And I will sow them among the peoples, and they shall remember Me in far countries; and they shall live with their sons and return. ¹⁰And I will return to save them out of the land of Egypt, and gather them out of Assyria. And I will bring them into the land of Gilead and Lebanon; for room shall not be found for them. ¹¹And he shall pass through the sea of distress, and strike the waves in the sea; and all the depths of the Nile shall dry up. And the pride of Assyria shall be brought down, and the scepter of Egypt shall go away. ¹²And I will make them strong in Jehovah; and they shall walk up and down in His name, says Jehovah.

¹Open your doors, O Lebanon, so that the fire may devour your cedars. ²Howl, fir-tree, for the cedar has fallen; because the majestic trees have been destroyed. Howl, O oaks of Bashan, for the inaccessible forest has come down.

³A voice of the wailing of the shepherds; for their splendor is destroyed; a voice of the roaring of young lions; for the pride of Jordan is destroyed. ⁴For so says Jehovah my God: Feed the flock of the slaughter; ⁵those who buy them kill them, and they hold themselves not guilty. And those who sell them say, Blessed be Jehovah, for I am rich; and their shepherds do not pity them. ⁶For I will never again pity the inhabitants of the land, says Jehovah. But, lo, I will make the men fall, each one into his neighbor's hand, and into his king's hand. And they shall strike the land, and I will not deliver out of their hand. ⁷And I fed the flock of slaughter, the truly poor of the flock. And I took two staves for Myself: the one I called Kindness; and the other I called Union. And I fed the flock. ⁸I also cut off three shepherds in one month. And My soul despised them, and their soul also detested Me. ⁹Then I said, I will not feed you; that which dies, let it die; and that which is to be cut off, let it be cut off. And let the rest eat, each woman the flesh of her neighbor.

¹⁰And I took My staff Kindness and broke it apart, to break My covenant which I had cut with all the peoples. ¹¹And it was broken in that day; and so the poor of the flock who were watching Me knew that it was the word of Jehovah. ¹²And I said to them, If it is good in your eyes, give My price; and if not, let it go. And they weighed My price, thirty pieces of silver. ¹³And Jehovah said to Me, Throw it to the potter, the magnificent price at which I was valued by them. And I took the thirty pieces of silver and threw it to the potter in the house of Jehovah. ¹⁴Then I broke My second staff Union apart, that I might break the brotherhood between Judah and Israel.

¹⁵And Jehovah said to me, Take to yourself yet the instruments of a foolish shepherd. ¹⁶For, lo, I will raise up a shepherd in the land; he shall not visit those who are cut off, nor will he seek the young; nor will he heal that which is broken; nor will he sustain that which stands. But he shall eat the flesh of the fat, and tear their hooks in pieces. ¹⁷Woe to the worthless shepherd who abandons the flock! The sword shall be on his arm, and on his right eye. His arm shall be completely withered, and his right eye shall be totally darkened.

¹The burden of the word of Jehovah for Israel, says Jehovah, who stretches forth the heavens, and lays the foundation of the earth, and forms the spirit of man within him. ²Behold, I will make Jerusalem a cup of trembling to all the peoples all around, and it shall also be against Judah in the siege against Jerusalem.

³And in that day I will make Jerusalem a heavy stone for all the peoples; all who lift it shall be slashed, and all the nations of the earth will be gathered against it. ⁴In that day I will strike every horse with terror, and his rider with madness, says Jehovah. And I will open My eyes on the house of Judah, and I will strike every horse of the peoples with blindness. ⁵And the leaders of Judah shall say in their heart, The inhabitants of Jerusalem shall be my strength in Jehovah of hosts their God. ⁶In that day I will make the leaders of Judah like a hearth of fire among the wood, and like a torch of fire among cut grain. And they shall devour all the peoples all around, on the right hand and on the left hand. And Jerusalem shall be inhabited again in her place, in Jerusalem.

⁷Jehovah also shall save the tents of Judah first, so that the glory of the house of David and the glory of the inhabitants of Jerusalem may not be magnified above Judah. ⁸In that day Jehovah shall defend around the inhabitants of Jerusalem. And it will be, he who is feeble among them in that day shall be like David; and the house of David shall be like God, like the Angel of Jehovah before them.

⁹And it shall be in that day, I will seek to destroy all the nations that come against Jerusalem. ¹⁰And I will pour on the house of David, and on the inhabitants of Jerusalem, the Spirit of grace and of prayers. And they shall look on Me whom they have pierced; and they shall mourn for Him, as one mourns for an only son, and shall be bitter over Him, like the bitterness over the firstborn. ¹¹In that day the mourning in Jerusalem shall be great, like the mourning of Hadad-rimmon in the valley of Megiddo. ¹²And the land shall mourn, each family apart: the family of the house of David apart, and their wives apart; the family of the house of Nathan apart, and their wives apart; ¹³the family of the house of Levi apart, and their wives apart; the family of Shimei apart, and their wives apart; ¹⁴all the families who remain, each family apart, and their wives apart.

²And it shall be in that day, I will cut off the names of the idols out of the land, and they shall be remembered no more, says Jehovah of hosts. And I also will cause the prophets and the unclean spirit to pass out of the land. ³And it shall be, when any shall prophesy again, his father and his mother who gave birth to him shall say to him then, You shall not live; for you speak lies in the name of Jehovah. And his father and his mother who gave him birth shall thrust him through when he prophesies. ⁴And it shall be in that day, the prophets shall be ashamed, each one of his vision, when he prophesies; and they shall not wear a hairy garment to deceive. ⁵But he shall say, I am not a prophet; I am a man, I am a tiller of the ground; for a man caused me to buy from my youth. ⁶And one shall say to him, What are these wounds between your hands? Then he shall answer, Those with which I was struck in the house of those who love me.

⁷O sword, awake against My Shepherd, and against the Man who is My companion, says Jehovah of hosts. Strike the Shepherd, and the sheep will be scattered. And I will turn My hand on the little ones. ⁸And it shall be in all the land, says Jehovah, two parts in it shall be cut off and perish, but the third shall be left in it. ⁹And I will bring the third part through the fire, and will refine them as silver is refined. And I will try them as gold is tried. They shall call on My name, and I will answer them. I will say, It is My people, and they shall say, Jehovah is my God.

¹Behold, the day of Jehovah comes, and your spoil shall be divided among you. ²For I will gather all the nations to battle against Jerusalem. And the city shall be captured, and the houses plundered, and the women ravished. And half the city shall go into captivity, and the rest of the people shall not be cut off from the city. ³And Jehovah shall go out and fight against those nations, like the day He fought in the day of battle.

⁴And His feet shall stand in that day on the Mount of Olives, which is before Jerusalem on the east; and the Mount of Olives shall divide from its middle, from the east and to the west, a very great valley. And half of the mountain shall move toward the north, and half of it toward the south. ⁵And you shall flee to the valley of My mountains, for the valley of the mountains shall reach to Azal. And you shall flee as you fled from before the earthquake in the days of Uzziah, king of Judah. And Jehovah my God shall come, and all the saints with You. ⁶And it will be in that day, there shall not be light; the glorious ones will shrink. ⁷And it will be one day which shall be known to Jehovah; not day and not night, but it will be, there will be light at evening time. ⁸And it shall be in that day, living waters shall go out from Jerusalem; half of them shall go toward the eastern sea, and half of them toward the western sea; in summer and in winter it shall be. ⁹And Jehovah shall be king over all the earth. In that day there shall be one Jehovah, and His name one. ¹⁰All the land shall be turned as a plain from Geba to Rimmon south of Jerusalem. And it shall rise and dwell in its place, from Benjamin's gate to the place of the first gate, to the Corner Gate, and from the Tower of Hananeel to the king's winepresses. ¹¹And they shall live in it. And there shall not again be a curse, but Jerusalem shall dwell safely.

¹²And this shall be the plague with which Jehovah will strike all the peoples who have fought against Jerusalem. Their flesh shall rot while they stand on their feet; and their eyes shall rot in their sockets; and their tongues shall rot in their mouths. ¹³And it shall be in that day, a great panic of Jehovah shall be among them; and they shall each one lay hold of his neighbor, and his hand shall rise up against the hand of his neighbor. ¹⁴And Judah also shall fight at Jerusalem. And the wealth of the surrounding nations shall be gathered, gold, and silver, and clothing, very much. ¹⁵And so shall be the plague of the horse, the mule, the camel, and the ass, and all the beasts which shall be in those camps, like this plague.

¹⁶And it shall be, everyone who is left from all the nations which came up against Jerusalem shall go up from year to year to worship the King, Jehovah of hosts, and to keep the Feast of Tabernacles. ¹⁷And it shall be, whoever will not go up from the families of the earth to Jerusalem to worship the King, Jehovah of hosts, there shall even be no rain on them. ¹⁸And if the family of Egypt does not go up, nor come in, then the rain shall not be on them; but the plague with which Jehovah shall strike the nations who do not come up to keep the Feast of Tabernacles. ¹⁹This shall be Egypt's offense, and the offense of all nations who do not come up to keep the Feast of Tabernacles.

²⁰In that day there shall be on the bells of the horses, HOLY TO JEHOVAH. And the pots in the house of Jehovah shall be like the bowls before the altar. ²¹And every pot in Jerusalem and in Judah shall be holy to Jehovah of hosts. And all those who sacrifice shall come and take of them, and boil in them. And in that day there shall not be a trader in the house of Jehovah of hosts any more.

THE BOOK OF MALACHI

¹The burden of the word of Jehovah to Israel by the hand of Malachi:

²I have loved you, says Jehovah. But you say, In what way have You loved us? Was not Esau the brother to Jacob? Yet I loved Jacob, declares Jehovah; ³and I have hated Esau, and have made his mountains a desolation, and his inheritance for the jackals of the wilderness. ⁴If Edom says, We are beaten down, but we will return and build the ruined places; so says Jehovah of hosts: They shall build, but I will tear down. And they shall call there the region of wickedness, and the people with whom Jehovah is indignant until forever. ⁵And you shall see, and you shall say, Jehovah will be magnified beyond the border of Israel.

⁶A son honors his father, and a servant his master. If then I am a father, where is My honor? And if I am a master, where is My fear? says Jehovah of hosts to you, O priests who despise My name. But you say, In what way have we despised Your name? ⁷You are offering defiled food on My altar, and you say, In what way have we defiled You? In your saying, The table of Jehovah, it is to be despised. ⁸And if you offer the blind for sacrifice, is it not evil? And if you offer the lame and the sick, is it not evil? Bring it now to your governor. Will he accept you or lift up your face, says Jehovah of hosts? ⁹And now entreat the face of God, that He favor us. This has been by your hands; will He lift up your faces, says Jehovah of hosts?

¹⁰Who is even among you that will shut the doors, and you not kindle fire on My altar in vain! There is no delight to Me in you, says Jehovah of hosts. I will not be pleased with a food offering from you. ¹¹For from the east to the west, My name shall be great among the nations, and everywhere incense shall be offered to My name; and a pure food offering. For My name shall be great among the nations, says Jehovah of hosts.

¹²But you are profaning it when you say, The table of the Lord, it is polluted; and its fruit, His food, is to be despised.

¹³You also have said, Behold, what weariness! And you have puffed at it, says Jehovah of hosts. And you bring plunder, and the lame, and the sick; and you bring the meal offering. Should I accept it from your hand, says Jehovah? ¹⁴But cursed be a deceiver, and there is a male in his flock, yet he vows it, but sacrifices a blemished one to the Lord. For I am a great king, says Jehovah of hosts; and My name is feared among the nations.

CHAPTER 2

¹And now, O priests, this command is to you. ²If you will not hear, and if you will not set it on your heart to give glory to My name, says Jehovah of hosts, then I will send the curse on you, and I will curse your blessings. And indeed, I have cursed it, because you are not setting it on your heart. ³Behold, I am rebuking your seed, and I will spread dung on your faces, the dung of your solemn feasts; and one will lift you up to it. ⁴And you shall know that I have sent this command to you; to be My covenant with Levi, says Jehovah of hosts. ⁵My covenant with him was life and peace, and I gave them to him for fear; and he feared Me, and he is put in awe before My name. ⁶The law of truth was in his mouth, and no iniquity was not found in his lips. In peace and in uprightness he walked with Me, and he turned many from iniquity. ⁷For the lips of the priest should guard knowledge; and they should seek the law from his mouth; for he is the messenger of Jehovah of hosts. ⁸But you have turned out of the way; you have caused many to stumble at the law. You have corrupted the covenant of Levi, says Jehovah of hosts. ⁹So I have also made you despised and low to all the people, just as you have not kept My ways, but are lifting up faces in the law. ¹⁰Is there not one father to us all? Has not one God created us? Why do we act deceitfully, each man with his brother, to profane the covenant of our fathers?

¹¹Judah has dealt treacherously, and has done an abomination in Israel and in Jerusalem; for Judah has profaned the holy place of Jehovah, which He loves; and married a daughter of a foreign god.

¹²Jehovah will cut off from the tents of Jacob the man who does it, stirring, and answering, or offering a food offering to Jehovah of hosts. ¹³And this is a second thing you have done; covering the altar of Jehovah with tears, with weeping and groaning; yet not facing toward the food offering, and taking it with delight from your hand.

¹⁴Yet you say, On what cause? Because Jehovah has been witness between you and the wife of your youth, against whom you have dealt treacherously; and she is your companion and your covenant wife.

¹⁵And has He not made one? Yet the vestige of the Spirit is in him. And what of the one? He was seeking a seed of God. Then guard your spirit, and do not deal treacherously with the wife of your youth.

¹⁶Jehovah, the God of Israel, says, He hates sending away, and to cover with violence on his garment, says Jehovah of hosts. Then guard your spirit, and do not act treacherously.

¹⁷You have wearied Jehovah with your words. Yet you say, In what have we wearied Him? When you say, Every evildoer is good in the eyes of Jehovah, and He delights in them; or, Where is the God of justice?

CHAPTER 3

¹Behold, I am sending My messenger, and he will clear the way before Me. And the Lord whom you are seeking shall suddenly come to His temple, even the Angel of the Covenant, in whom you delight. Behold, He comes, says Jehovah of hosts. ²But who can endure the day of His coming? And who will stand when He appears? For He is like a refiner's fire, and like fuller's soap. ³And He shall sit as a refiner and purifier of silver; and He shall purify the sons of Levi, and purge them like gold and like silver, that they may be offerers of a food offering in righteousness to Jehovah. ⁴Then the food offering of Judah and Jerusalem shall be pleasing to Jehovah, as in the days of old, and as in former years. ⁵And I will come near to you for judgment; and I will be a swift witness against the sorcerers, and against the adulterers, and against those swearing to a lie; and against those who extort from the hired laborer's pay; and turning away the widow, and the fatherless, and the alien, and not fearing Me, says Jehovah of hosts. ⁶For I am Jehovah, I change not. Because of this you sons of Jacob are not destroyed.

⁷From the days of your fathers, you have turned aside from My statutes, and have not kept them. Return to Me, and I will return to you, says Jehovah of hosts.

But you say, In what way shall we return? ⁸Will a man rob God? Yet you have robbed Me. But you say, In what have we robbed You? In the tithe and the offering! ⁹You are cursed with a curse; for you are robbing Me, the nation, all of it.

¹⁰Bring all the tithe into the storehouse, so that there may be food in My house. And test Me now with this, says Jehovah of hosts, whether I will not open the windows of the heavens for you, and pour out a blessing, until there is no sufficiency.

¹¹And I will rebuke the devourer for you, and he shall not destroy the fruit of your ground against you; nor shall your vine miscarry against you in the field, says Jehovah of hosts. ¹²And all nations shall call you blessed; for you shall be a delightful land, says Jehovah of hosts

¹³Your words have been strong against Me, says Jehovah. Yet you say, What have we spoken together against you?

¹⁴You have said, It is vain to serve God. And, What profit is it that we have kept His charge, and that we have walked as mourners before Jehovah of hosts? ¹⁵And now we are calling the arrogant blessed. Not only are the doers of wickedness built up, they also test God, and escape.

¹⁶Then those fearing Jehovah spoke together, each man to his neighbor. And Jehovah gave attention and heard. And a book of remembrance was written before Him for those who feared Jehovah, and for those esteeming His name. ¹⁷And they shall be Mine, says Jehovah of hosts, for the day that I will make up My treasure. And I will pity them as a man has pity on his son who serves him. ¹⁸Then you shall again see the difference between the righteous and the wicked, between him who serves God and him who does not serve Him.

¹For, behold, the day is coming, burning like a fire-pot; and all the proud, and every doer of wickedness, shall be chaff. And the coming day will set them ablaze, says Jehovah of hosts, which will not leave root or branches to them.

²But to you who fear My name, the Sun of righteousness shall rise up, and healing will be on His wings. And you shall go out and frisk like calves of the stall. ³And you shall tread under the wicked, for they shall be ashes under the soles of your feet in the day which I am preparing, says Jehovah of hosts.

⁴Remember the law of My servant Moses, which I commanded him in Horeb for all Israel, the statutes and judgments.

⁵Behold, I am sending you Elijah the prophet before the coming of the great and dreadful day of Jehovah. ⁶And he shall turn the heart of the fathers to the sons, and the heart of the sons to their fathers, that I not come and strike the earth with utter destruction.

New Testament

THE GOSPEL ACCORDING TO MATTHEW

CHAPTER 1

¹The Book of the generation of Jesus Christ the son of David, the son of Abraham: ²Abraham fathered Isaac, and Isaac fathered Jacob, and Jacob fathered Judah and his brothers. ³And Judah fathered Pharez and Zarah out of Tamar; and Pharez fathered Hezron; and Hezron fathered Aram; ⁴and Aram fathered Aminadab; and Aminadab fathered Nahshon; and Nahshon fathered Salmon; ⁵and Salmon fathered Boaz out of Rahab; and Boaz fathered Obed out of Ruth; and Obed fathered Jesse; ⁶and Jesse fathered David the king.

And David the king fathered Solomon out of her who had been the wife of Uriah; ⁷and Solomon fathered Rehoboam; and Rehoboam fathered Abijah; and Abijah fathered Asa; ⁸and Asa fathered Jehoshaphat; and Jehoshaphat fathered Jehoram; and Jehoram fathered Uzziah; ⁹and Uzziah fathered Jotham; and Jotham fathered Ahaz; and Ahaz fathered Hezekiah; ¹⁰and Hezekiah fathered Manasseh; and Manasseh fathered Amon; and Amon fathered Josiah; ¹¹and Josiah fathered Jehoiachin and his brothers, at the carrying away of Babylon.

¹²And after the carrying away of Babylon, Jehoiachin fathered Shealtiel; and Shealtiel fathered Zerubbabel; ¹³and Zerubbabel fathered Abiud; and Abiud fathered Eliakim; and Eliakim fathered Azor; ¹⁴and Azor fathered Sadoc; and Sadoc fathered Achim; and Achim fathered Eliud; ¹⁵and Eliud fathered Eleazar; and Eleazar fathered Matthan; and Matthan fathered Jacob; ¹⁶and Jacob fathered Joseph, the betrothed husband of Mary, of whom Jesus was born, who is called Christ.

¹⁷So all the generations from Abraham to David were fourteen generations; and from David to the carrying away to Babylon, fourteen generations; and from the carrying away to Babylon until Christ, fourteen generations.

¹⁸And the birth of Jesus Christ was this way—for His mother Mary had been betrothed to Joseph—before they came together, she was discovered to be pregnant in womb by the Holy Spirit. ¹⁹But her husband Joseph being just, and not willing to make her a public example, he purposed to put her away secretly. ²⁰And as he was thinking about these things, behold, an angel of the Lord was seen by him in a dream, saying, Joseph, son of David, do not be afraid to take Mary as your wife. For that in her is fathered by the Holy Spirit. ²¹And she will bear a son; and you shall call His name Jesus; for He shall save His people from their sins.

²²And all this happened so that might be fulfilled that spoken by the Lord through the prophet, saying, ²³“Behold! The virgin will conceive in her womb, and will bear a son; and they will call His name Emmanuel”, which translated is, God with us.

²⁴And being aroused from sleep, Joseph did as the angel of the Lord commanded him, and took his wife; ²⁵and did not know her until she bore her son, the Firstborn. And he called His name Jesus.

CHAPTER 2

¹And when Jesus had been born in Bethlehem of Judea in the days of Herod the king, behold, wise men arrived from the east to Jerusalem, ²saying, Where is He born king of the Jews? For we saw His star in the east and have come to worship Him. ³But Herod the king having heard this, he was troubled, and all Jerusalem with him. ⁴And having gathered all the chief priests and scribes of the people, he asked of them where the Christ was to be born. ⁵And they said to him, In Bethlehem of Judea, for so it has been written by the prophet,

⁷Then secretly calling the wise men, Herod asked of them exactly the time of the star appearing. ⁸And sending them to Bethlehem, he said, Having gone, search carefully for the child. And when you find him, bring me word again so that coming I may also worship him.

⁹And having heard the king, they departed. And, behold! The star which they saw in the east went before them until it had come and stood over where the child was. ¹⁰And seeing the star, they rejoiced exceedingly with a great joy. ¹¹And having come into the house, they saw the child with His mother Mary. And falling down, they worshiped Him. And opening their treasures, they presented gifts to Him: gold and frankincense and myrrh. ¹²And having been warned by a dream not to return to Herod, they went away into their own country by another way.

¹³And they having departed, an angel of the Lord appeared to Joseph by a dream, saying, Rise up! Take the child and His mother with you, and flee into Egypt. And be there until I shall tell you. For Herod is about to look for the child in order to destroy Him. ¹⁴And rising up, he took along the child and His mother by night, and withdrew into Egypt. ¹⁵And he was there until the end of Herod, that might be fulfilled that spoken by the Lord through the prophet, saying, "Out of Egypt I have called My Son."

¹⁶Then seeing that he was mocked by the wise men, Herod was greatly enraged; and having sent, he killed all the boys in Bethlehem and in all its districts, from two years old and under—according to the time which he exactly asked from the wise men.

¹⁷Then was fulfilled that spoken by Jeremiah the prophet, saying: ¹⁸"A voice was heard in Ramah, wailing and bitter weeping, and great mourning, Rachel weeping for her children, and would not be comforted, because they were not."

¹⁹But Herod having expired, behold, an angel of the Lord appears to Joseph by a dream in Egypt, ²⁰saying, Rising up, take along the child and His mother, and pass over into the land of Israel; for those seeking the soul of the child have expired.

²¹And rising up, he took along the child and His mother and came into the land of Israel. ²²But hearing that Archelaus reigned over Judea in place of his father Herod, he feared to go there. And being warned by a dream, he departed into the parts of Galilee. ²³And coming he lived in a city called Nazareth; so as to fulfill that spoken by the prophets, "He shall be called a Nazarene."

CHAPTER 3

⁴And John himself had his clothing from hairs of a camel, and a belt of leather about his loin. And his food was locusts and wild honey.

⁵Then Jerusalem and all Judea went out to him, and all the neighborhood of the Jordan; ⁶and were baptized by him in the Jordan, confessing their sins. ⁷But seeing many of the Pharisees and Sadducees coming to his baptism, he said to them, Offspring of vipers! Who warned you to flee from the wrath to come? ⁸Therefore, bring forth fruits worthy of repentance. ⁹And do not think to say within yourselves, We have a father, Abraham. For I say to you that God is able to raise up children to Abraham from these stones. ¹⁰But already the axe is even laid at the root of the trees; therefore, any tree not bringing forth good fruit is cut down, and is thrown into fire. ¹¹I indeed baptize you in water to repentance; but He who is coming after me is stronger than I, whose sandals I am not fit to carry. He will baptize you in the Holy Spirit and fire; ¹²whose fan is in His hand, and He will cleanse His floor, and will gather His wheat into the barn. But He will burn up the chaff with fire that cannot be put out.

¹³Then Jesus arrived from Galilee to the Jordan, to John, to be baptized by him. ¹⁴But John restrained Him, saying, I have need to be baptized by You, and do You come to me? ¹⁵But answering, Jesus said to him, Allow it now, for it is becoming to us this way to fulfill all righteousness. Then he allowed Him. ¹⁶And having been baptized, Jesus went up immediately from the water. And, behold! The heavens were opened to Him, and He saw the Spirit of God coming down as a dove, and coming upon Him. ¹⁷And behold! A voice out of Heaven saying, This is My Son, the Beloved, in whom I have found delight.

¹Then Jesus was led up into the wilderness by the Spirit, to be tempted by the Devil. ²And having fasted forty days and forty nights, afterwards He hungered. ³And coming near to Him, the Tempter said, If You are the Son of God, speak that these stones may become loaves. ⁴But answering, He said, It has been written: "Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word going out of the mouth of God."

⁵Then the Devil takes Him to the holy city and he set Him on the wing of the temple. ⁶And he said to Him, If You are the Son of God, throw Yourself down; for it has been written: "He shall give His angels charge concerning You, and they shall bear You on their hands, lest You strike Your foot against a stone." ⁷Jesus said to him, Again it has been written: "You shall not tempt the Lord your God." ⁸Again the Devil takes Him to a very high mountain, and he showed to Him all the kingdoms of the world, and their glory. ⁹And he said to Him, I will give all these things to You if falling down You will worship me. ¹⁰Then Jesus said to him, Go, Satan! For it has been written: "You shall worship the Lord your God, and you shall serve Him only." ¹¹Then the Devil left Him. And behold! Angels came near and served Him.

¹²But Jesus hearing that John was delivered up, He withdrew into Galilee.

¹⁷From that time Jesus began to preach and to say, Repent! For the kingdom of Heaven has drawn near.

¹⁸And walking beside the sea of Galilee, Jesus saw two brothers, Simon called Peter, and his brother Andrew, casting a net into the sea — for they were fishers.

¹⁹And He says to them, Come after Me, and I will make you fishers of men. ²⁰And leaving the nets, they immediately followed Him. ²¹And going on from there, He saw two other brothers, James the son of Zebedee, and his brother John, in the boat with their father Zebedee, mending their nets. And He called them. ²²And at once leaving the boat and their father, they followed Him.

²³And Jesus went around all Galilee teaching in their synagogues, and proclaiming the gospel of the kingdom; and healing every disease and every one of the illnesses among the people. ²⁴And the report of Him went out into all Syria. And they brought to Him all the ones having illness, suffering various diseases and torments; also those having been demon-possessed; and lunatics, and paralytics; and He healed them. ²⁵And many crowds followed Him from Galilee and Decapolis, and Jerusalem, and Judea, and beyond the Jordan.

¹But seeing the crowds, He went up into the mountain, and seating Himself, His disciples came near to Him. ²And opening His mouth, He taught them, saying:

³Blessed are the poor in spirit! For theirs is the kingdom of the Heavens.

⁴Blessed are they who mourn! For they shall be comforted.

⁵Blessed are the meek! For they shall inherit the earth.

⁶Blessed are they who hunger and thirst after righteousness! For they shall be filled.

⁷Blessed are the merciful! For they shall obtain mercy.

⁸Blessed are the pure in heart! For they shall see God.

⁹Blessed are the peacemakers! For they shall be called sons of God.

¹⁰Blessed are they who have been persecuted for righteousness' sake! For theirs is the kingdom of Heaven.

¹¹Blessed are you when they shall reproach you, and persecute you, and shall say every evil word against you, lying, on account of Me. ¹²Rejoice and leap for joy, for your reward is great in Heaven; for in this way they persecuted the prophets who were before you.

¹³You are the salt of the earth; but if the salt becomes tasteless, with what shall it be salted? For it has strength for nothing any more, but to be thrown out, and to be trampled under by men.

¹⁴You are the light of the world, a city situated on a mountain cannot be hidden.

¹⁵Nor do they light a lamp and put it under the grain measure, but on the lampstand; and it shines for all who are in the house. ¹⁶So let your light shine before men, so that they may see your good works, and may glorify your Father in Heaven.

¹⁷Do not think that I came to annul the Law or the Prophets; I did not come to annul, but to fulfill. ¹⁸Truly I say to you, Until the heavens and the earth pass away, in no way shall one iota or one tittle pass away from the law until all comes to to pass. ¹⁹Whoever, then, relaxes one of these commandments, the least, and shall teach men so, he shall be called least in the kingdom of the heavens. But whoever does and teaches them, this one shall be called great in the kingdom of the heavens. ²⁰For I say to you, If your righteousness shall not exceed that of the scribes and Pharisees, in no way shall you go into the kingdom of the heavens.

²¹You have heard that it was said to the ancients: "Do not commit murder!" And, "Whoever commits murder shall be liable to the Judgment." ²²But I say to you, Everyone who is angry with his brother without a cause shall be liable to the Judgment. And whoever says to his brother, Raca, shall be liable to the sanhedrin; but whoever says, Fool! shall be liable to be thrown into the fire of Hell.

²³Therefore, if you offer your gift on the altar, and remember there that your brother has something against you, ²⁴leave your gift there before the altar, and go. First, be reconciled to your brother, and then coming, offer your gift.

²⁵Be well-intentioned toward your opponent quickly, while you are in the way with him, that the opponent not deliver you to the judge, and the judge deliver you to the officer, and you be thrown into prison. ²⁶Truly, I say to you, In no way shall you come out from there until you pay the last kodrantes.

²⁷You have heard that it was said to the ancients: "Do not commit adultery."

²⁸But I say to you, Everyone looking at a woman to lust after her has already committed adultery with her in his heart. ²⁹But if your right eye offends you, take it out and throw it from you—for it is profitable to you that one of your members should perish, and all your body not be thrown into Hell. ³⁰And if your right hand causes you to offend, cut it off and throw it from you—for it is profitable to you that one of your members should perish, and all your body not be thrown into Hell.

³¹It was also said, Whoever puts away his wife, let him give her a bill of divorce.

³²But I say to you, Whoever puts away his wife, apart from a matter of fornication, makes her commit adultery. And whoever shall marry the one put away commits adultery.

³³Again, you have heard that it was said to the ancients: "You shall not swear falsely, but shall give your oaths to the Lord." ³⁴But I say to you, Do not swear at all, neither by Heaven, because it is God's throne; ³⁵nor by the earth, because it is the footstool of His feet; nor by Jerusalem, because it is the city of the great King. ³⁶Nor shall you swear by your head, because you are not able to make one hair white or black. ³⁷But let your word be Yes, yes; No, no. For whatever is more than these is from evil.

³⁸You have heard that it was said: "An eye for an eye, and a tooth for a tooth;" ³⁹but I say to you, Do not resist the evil; but whoever strikes you on the right cheek, turn the other to him also. ⁴⁰And to him desiring to sue you, and to take your tunic, allow him also to have the coat. ⁴¹And whoever shall compel you to go one mile, go two with him. ⁴²He asking you to give, and he wishing to borrow from you, do not turn away.

⁴³You have heard that it was said, "You shall love your neighbor and hate your enemy;" ⁴⁴but I say to you, Love your enemies, bless those cursing you; do well to those hating you, and pray for those abusing and persecuting you; ⁴⁵so that you may be sons of your Father in Heaven. Because He causes the sun to rise on the evil and the good, and sends rain on the just and unjust. ⁴⁶For if you love those loving you, what reward do you have? Do not the tax-collectors do the same? ⁴⁷And if you only greet your brothers, what exceptional thing do you do? Do not the tax-collectors do so? ⁴⁸Therefore, you be perfect, even as your Father in Heaven is perfect.

¹Be careful not to do your merciful deeds before men in order to be seen by them. Otherwise, you have no reward from your Father in Heaven. ²Therefore, when you do merciful deeds, do not trumpet before you, as the hypocrites do in the synagogues and in the streets, so that they may be glorified by men. Truly I say to you, they have their reward. ³But you doing merciful deeds, do not let your left know what your right hand does, ⁴so that your merciful deeds may be in secret. And your Father seeing in secret Himself will repay you in the open.

⁵And when you pray, you shall not be as the hypocrites, for they love to pray standing in the synagogues, and in the corners of the open streets, so that they may be seen of men. Truly I say to you, they have their reward. ⁶But you, when you pray, enter into your room, and shutting your door, pray to your Father in secret. And your Father seeing in secret will repay you in the open. ⁷But when you pray, do not babble vain words, as the nations, for they think that they shall be heard in their much speaking. ⁸Then do not be like them, for your Father knows what things you have need of before you ask Him. ⁹So, then, you should pray this way:

Our Father who is in Heaven, let be sanctified Your name. ¹⁰Let Your kingdom come; let Your will be done, as it is in Heaven, also on earth. ¹¹Give us today our daily bread, ¹²and forgive us our debts as we also forgive our debtors.

¹³And do not lead us into temptation, but deliver us from evil; for Yours is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory to the ages. Amen.

¹⁴For if you forgive men their offenses, your heavenly Father will also forgive you. ¹⁵But if you will not forgive men their offenses, neither will your Father forgive your offenses.

¹⁶And when you fast, do not be as the hypocrites, darkening the face, for they disfigure their faces so that they may appear to men to be fasting. Truly I say to you that they have their reward. ¹⁷But you in fasting, anoint your head and wash your face, ¹⁸so as not to appear to men to be fasting, but to your Father in secret. And your Father seeing in secret will repay you in the open.

¹⁹Do not treasure up for you treasures on the earth, where moth and rust cause to vanish, and where thieves dig through and steal. ²⁰But treasure up for you treasures in Heaven, where neither moth nor rust cause to vanish, and where thieves do not dig through and steal. ²¹For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also.

²²The lamp of the body is the eye. If, then, your eye is sound, all your body is light. ²³But if your eye is evil, all your body is dark. If, then, the light in you is darkness, how great is the darkness!

²⁴No one is able to serve two lords; for either he will hate the one, and he will love the other; or he will cleave to the one, and he will despise the other. You are not able to serve God and wealth. ²⁵Because of this, I say to you, Do not be anxious for your soul, what you eat and what you drink; nor for your body, what you put on. Is not the soul more than the food, and the body than the clothing? ²⁶Observe the birds of the heaven, that they do not sow, nor do they reap, nor do they gather into barns; yet your heavenly Father feeds them. Do you not rather excel them?

²⁷But who of you by being anxious is able to add one cubit onto his stature? ²⁸And why are you anxious about clothing? Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow. They do not labor nor do they spin; ²⁹but I say to you that not even Solomon in all his glory was clothed as one of these. ³⁰If God so enrobes the grass of the field—which is today, and is thrown into a furnace tomorrow — will He not much rather you, littlefaiths? ³¹Then do not be anxious, saying, What may we eat? Or, what may we drink? Or, what may clothe us? ³²For after all these things the nations seek. For your heavenly Father knows that you have need of all these things. ³³But seek first the kingdom of God and His righteousness, and all these things will be added to you. ³⁴Then do not be anxious for tomorrow. For the morrow will be anxious of itself. Sufficient to each day is its own badness.

¹Do not judge, that you may not be judged; ²for with whatever judgment you judge, you will be judged; and with whatever measure you measure, it will be measured again to you. ³But why do you look on the twig that is in the eye of your brother, but do not see the log in your eye? ⁴Or how will you say to your brother, Allow me to cast out the twig from your eye; and behold, the log is in your eye! ⁵Hypocrite, first cast the log out of your eye, and then you will see clearly to cast the twig out of the eye of your brother.

⁶Do not give that which is holy to the dogs, nor throw your pearls before the pigs, that they should not trample them with their feet, and turning they may tear you.

⁷Ask, and it will be given to you; seek, and you will find; knock, and it will be opened to you. ⁸For each one that asks receives, and the one that seeks finds; and to the one knocking, it will be opened. ⁹Or what man of you is there, if his son should ask a loaf of him, will he give him a stone? ¹⁰And if he should ask a fish, will he give him a snake? ¹¹If, then, you, being evil, know to give good gifts to your children, how much more will your Father who is in Heaven give good things to those that ask Him?

¹²Therefore, all things, whatever you desire that men should do to you, so also you should do to them; for this is the Law and the Prophets.

¹³Go in through the narrow gate; for wide is the gate, and broad is the way that leads to death. And many are the ones who go through it. ¹⁴For narrow is the gate, and constricted is the way that leads into life, and few are the ones who find it.

¹⁵But beware of the false prophets who come to you in sheep's clothing, but inside they are plundering wolves. ¹⁶From their fruits you shall know them. Do they gather grapes from thorns, or figs from thistles? ¹⁷So every good tree produces good fruits; but the corrupt tree produces evil fruits. ¹⁸A good tree cannot produce evil fruits, nor a corrupt tree produce good fruits. ¹⁹Every tree not producing good fruit is cut out and is thrown into fire. ²⁰Then surely from their fruits you shall know them.

²¹Not everyone who says to Me, Lord, Lord, will enter into the kingdom of Heaven, but the ones who do the will of My Father in Heaven. ²²Many will say to Me in that day, Lord, Lord, did we not prophesy in Your name, and in Your name cast out demons, and in Your name do many works of power? ²³And then I will declare to them, I never knew you; depart from Me, those working lawlessness!

²⁴Then everyone who hears these words from Me, and does them, I will compare him to a wise man who built his house on the rock; ²⁵and the rains came down, and the waters came up, and the winds blew, and fell against that house; but it did not fall, for it had been founded on the rock. ²⁶And everyone who hears these words of Mine, and who does not do them, he shall be compared to a foolish man who built his house on the sand; ²⁷and the rain came down, and the rivers came up, and the winds blew, and beat against that house; and it fell, and great was the fall of it.

²⁸And it happened, when Jesus had finished these sayings, the crowds were astonished at His teaching. ²⁹For He was teaching them as having authority, and not as the scribes.

CHAPTER 8

¹And He having come down from the mount, great crowds followed Him.

²And behold, coming up, a leper worshipped Him, saying, Lord, If You will,

You are able to cleanse me. ³And stretching out His hand, Jesus touched him, saying, I will! Be cleansed! And instantly his leprosy was cleansed. ⁴And Jesus said to him, See that you tell no one, but go, show yourself to the priest, and offer the gift which Moses commanded, for a testimony to them.

⁵And Jesus entering into Capernaum, a centurion came near to Him, begging Him, ⁶and saying, Lord, my boy has been laid in the house, a paralytic, being grievously tormented. ⁷And Jesus said to him, I will come and heal him. ⁸And answering, the centurion said, Lord, I am not worthy that You should enter under my roof; but only speak a word, and my boy will be healed. ⁹For I am also a man under authority, having soldiers under myself. And I say to this one, Go; and he goes; and to another, Come; and he comes; and to my slave, Do this; and he does it.

¹⁰And hearing, Jesus marveled, and said to those following, Truly I say to you, Not even in Israel did I find such faith.

¹¹But I say to you that many will come from east and west, and will recline with Abraham and Isaac and Jacob in the kingdom of Heaven; ¹²but the sons of the kingdom shall be cast out into the outer darkness; there shall be weeping and gnashing of the teeth. ¹³And Jesus said to the centurion, Go, and as you have believed, so let it be to you. And his boy was healed in that hour.

¹⁴And coming to the house of Peter, Jesus saw his mother-in-law laid out and in a fever. ¹⁵And He touched her hand, and her fever left her. And she rose up and served them.

¹⁶And evening having come on, they brought to Him many possessed by demons. And He cast out the spirits by a word, and He healed all those having illness; ¹⁷so that it might be fulfilled that spoken by Isaiah the prophet, saying, "He took upon Himself our weaknesses, and bore our sicknesses."

¹⁸And seeing great crowds around Him, Jesus gave orders to go away to the other side. ¹⁹And one, a scribe, coming near, said to Him, Teacher, I will follow You wherever you may go. ²⁰And Jesus said to him, The foxes have holes, and the birds of the heaven have nests, but the Son of man has nowhere He may lay His head. ²¹And another of His disciples said to Him, Lord, allow me first to go away and bury my father. ²²But Jesus said to him, Follow Me, and allow the dead to bury their own dead.

²³And He entering into the boat, His disciples followed Him. ²⁴And, behold, a great storm rose up in the sea, so that the boat was covered by the waves; but He was sleeping. ²⁵And coming near, His disciples awakened Him, saying, Lord, save us! We are perishing. ²⁶And He said to them, Why are you afraid, littlefaiths? Then rising up, He rebuked the winds and the sea. And there was a great calm. ²⁷And the men marveled, saying, What kind of man is this, that even the winds and the sea obey Him?

²⁸And when He had come to the other side, into the country of the Gergesenes, two demon-possessed ones met Him, coming out of the tombs, very violent, so that no one was able to pass through that way. ²⁹And, behold! They cried out, saying, What is to us and to You, Jesus, Son of God? Have You come here beforetime to torment us?

³⁰And far off from them there was a herd of many pigs feeding. ³¹And the demons begged Him, saying, If You cast us out, allow us to go away into the herd of pigs. ³²And He said to them, Go! And coming out, these went away into the herd of pigs. And, behold, all the herd of pigs rushed down the cliff into the sea, and died in the waters.

³³But those who fed them fled, and going into the city, they told all the things of the demon-possessed ones. ³⁴And, behold, all the city went out to meet with Jesus. And seeing Him, they begged that He move away from their borders.

¹And entering into the boat, He passed over and came to His own city. ²And, behold, they brought a paralytic lying on a cot to Him. And seeing their faith, Jesus said to the paralytic, Be comforted, child. Your sins have been forgiven you. ³And, behold, some of the scribes said within themselves, This one blasphemeth. ⁴And seeing their thoughts, Jesus said, Why do you think evil in your hearts? ⁵For what is easier, to say, Your sins have been forgiven you; or to say, Rise up and walk? ⁶But that you may know that the Son of man has authority on earth to forgive sins, then He said to the paralytic, Rising up, lift up your cot and go to your house. ⁷And rising up, he went away to his house.

⁸And seeing, the crowds marveled, and they glorified God who gave such authority to men.

⁹And passing from there, Jesus saw a man named Matthew sitting at the tax office. And He said to him, Follow Me. And rising up, he followed Him.

¹⁰And it happened as He reclined in the house, behold, coming many tax-collectors and sinners were reclining with Jesus and His disciples. ¹¹And seeing, the Pharisees said to His disciples, Why does your teacher eat with tax-collectors and sinners? ¹²But Jesus hearing, He said to them, The ones who are strong have no need of a physician, but the ones who are sick. ¹³But going, learn what this is, "I desire mercy, and not sacrifice." For I did not come to call righteous ones, but sinners to repentance.

¹⁴Then the disciples of John came to Him, saying, Why do we and the Pharisees fast much, and Your disciples do not fast? ¹⁵And Jesus said to them, Can the sons of the bridechamber mourn as long as the bridegroom is with them? But the days will come when the bridegroom will have been taken from them; and then they will fast. ¹⁶But no one puts a piece of new cloth onto an old garment. For its filling up takes away from the garment, and a worse tear takes its place. ¹⁷Nor do they put new wine into old skins; otherwise, the skins are burst, and the wine pours out, and the skins will be ruined. But they put new wine into new skins, and both are preserved together.

¹⁸As He spoke these things to them, behold, coming up a ruler bowed before Him, saying, My daughter has just now died; but coming lay Your hand on her, and she will live. ¹⁹And rising up, Jesus and His disciples followed him.

²⁰And, behold, a woman who had a flow of blood for twelve years came near, behind Him, and touched the fringe of His robe. ²¹For she said within herself, If only I shall touch His robe, I will be cured. ²²But turning and seeing her, Jesus said, Be comforted, daughter; your faith has healed you. And the woman was healed from that hour.

²³And coming into the house of the ruler, and seeing the flute-players and the crowd causing a tumult, ²⁴Jesus said to them, Go back, for the little girl has not died, but she sleeps. And they laughed at Him. ²⁵But when the crowd had been put out, entering He took hold of her hand, and the little girl rose up. ²⁶And this report went out into all that land.

²⁷And Jesus passing on from there, two blind ones followed Him, crying and saying, Have pity on us, Son of David. ²⁸And coming into the house, the blind ones came near to Him. And Jesus said to them, Do you believe that I am able to do this? And they said to Him, Yes, Lord. ²⁹Then He touched their eyes, saying, According to your faith let it be to you. ³⁰And their eyes were opened. And Jesus strictly ordered them, saying, See, let no one know. ³¹But going out, they made Him known in all that land.

³²And as they were going out, behold, they brought to Him a dumb man possessed by a demon. ³³And the demon being cast out, the dumb one spoke. And the crowds marveled, saying, Never was it seen this way in Israel. ³⁴But the Pharisees said, He casts out the demons by the ruler of the demons.

³⁵And Jesus went about all the cities and the villages teaching in their synagogues, and proclaiming the gospel of the kingdom, and healing every sickness and every weakness of body among the people. ³⁶And seeing the crowds, He was moved with pity for them, because they were tired and scattered, like sheep having no shepherd. ³⁷Then He said to His disciples, The harvest truly is great, but the workers few. ³⁸Pray then that the Lord of the harvest may send out workers into His harvest.

¹And having called His twelve disciples, He gave them authority over unclean spirits, so as to throw them out, and to heal every disease and every weakness of body.

¹¹And into whatever city or village you enter, ask who in it is worthy; and remain there until you go out. ¹²But entering into the house, greet it; ¹³and if the house truly is worthy, let your peace come upon it. But if it is not worthy, let your peace return to you. ¹⁴And whoever will not receive you, nor will hear your words, having gone out of that house or city, shake off the dust from your feet. ¹⁵Truly I say to you, It will be more bearable to the land of Sodom and Gomorrah in Judgment Day than for that city.

¹⁶Behold, I send you out as sheep in the midst of wolves. Therefore, be wise as serpents, and harmless as doves. ¹⁷But beware of men. For they will betray you to sanhedrins, and they will flog you in their synagogues. ¹⁸And also you will be brought before governors and kings for My sake, for a testimony to them and to the nations. ¹⁹But when they deliver you up, do not be anxious how or what you should say, for it is given to you in that hour what you should say. ²⁰For you are not the ones speaking, but the Spirit of your Father who speaks in you. ²¹But brother will betray brother to death, and the father his child. And children will rise up against parents and will put them to death. ²²And you will be hated by all on account of My name; but the one enduring to the end shall be saved. ²³But when they persecute you in this city, flee to another. For truly I say to you, In no way will you have finished the cities of Israel until the Son of man comes.

²⁴A disciple is not above the teacher, nor a slave above his lord. ²⁵*It is* enough for the disciple to become as his teacher, and the slave as his lord. If they call the Master of the house Beelzebub, how much more those of His household?

²⁶Therefore, you should not fear them, for nothing is covered which will not be uncovered; and hidden, which will not be made known. ²⁷What I say to you in the darkness, speak in the light. And what you hear in the ear, proclaim on the housetops. ²⁸And you should not fear the ones killing the body, but not being able to kill the soul. But rather fear Him being able to destroy both soul and body in Hell.

²⁹Are not two sparrows sold for an assarion? Yet not one of them shall fall to the ground without your Father. ³⁰But even the hairs of your head are all numbered. ³¹Then do not fear; you are better than many sparrows. ³²Then everyone who shall confess Me before men, I will also confess him before My Father in Heaven. ³³But whoever denies Me before men, I also will deny him before My Father in Heaven.

it. And the one losing his soul on account of Me shall find it. ⁴⁰The one receiving you receives Me; and the one receiving Me receives Him who sent Me. ⁴¹The one receiving a prophet in the name of a prophet will receive a prophet's reward; and the one receiving a just one in the name of a just one will receive a just one's reward. ⁴²And whoever gives drink to one of these little ones, only a cup of cold water, in the name of a disciple, truly I say to you, In no way will he lose his reward.

¹And it happened, when Jesus finished commanding His twelve disciples, He left there to teach and to proclaim in their cities.

²But hearing in the prison of the works of Christ, sending two of his disciples, ³John said to Him, Are You the One coming, or are we to look for another? ⁴And answering, Jesus said to them, Going, relate to John what you hear and see: ⁵The blind receive sight, and the lame walk; lepers are cleansed, and the deaf hear; the dead are raised, and the poor are given the gospel. ⁶And blessed is he, whoever shall not be offended in Me.

⁷But as these were going, Jesus began to say to the crowds about John, What did you go out into the wilderness to see? A reed being shaken with the wind? ⁸But what did you go out to see? A man clothed in soft clothing? Behold, those wearing soft things are in the houses of kings. ⁹But what did you go out to see? A prophet? Yes, I say to you, and one more excellent than a prophet. ¹⁰For this is the one about whom it has been written: "Behold, I send My messenger before Your face, who shall prepare Your way before You." ¹¹Truly I say to you, Not has arisen among those born of a woman any greater than John the Baptist. But the least in the kingdom of Heaven is greater than he is. ¹²But from the days of John the Baptist until now, the kingdom of Heaven suffers violence, and the violent seize it. ¹³For all the Prophets and the Law prophesied until John. ¹⁴And if you are willing to receive, he is Elijah, the one about to come. ¹⁵The one having ears to hear, let him hear.

¹⁶But to what shall I compare this generation? It is like little children sitting in the markets, and calling to their mates, ¹⁷and saying, We piped to you, and you did not dance; we mourned to you, and you did not wail. ¹⁸For John came neither eating nor drinking, and they say, He has a demon. ¹⁹The Son of man came eating and drinking, and they say, Behold, a gluttonous man and a wine drinker, and a friend of tax-collectors, and of sinners. And wisdom was justified by her children.

²⁰Then He began to reproach the cities in which most of His powerful acts had occurred, for they did not repent. ²¹Woe to you, Chorazin! Woe to you, Bethsaida! For if the powerful acts which have taken place in you had happened in Tyre and Sidon, they would have repented long ago in sackcloth and ashes. ²²But I say to you, It shall be more bearable for Tyre and Sidon in Judgment Day than for you. ²³And you, Capernaum, who have been exalted to the heaven, you will be thrown down to Hades. For if the powerful acts happening in you had taken place in Sodom, it would remain until today. ²⁴But I say to you, It will be more bearable for the land of Sodom in Judgment day than for you.

²⁵Answering at that time, Jesus said, I praise You, Father, Lord of Heaven and of earth, because You hid these things from the sophisticated and cunning, and revealed them to babes. ²⁶Yes, Father, for so it was pleasing before You. ²⁷All things were yielded up to Me by My Father; and no one knows the Son except the Father; nor does anyone know the Father, except the Son, and he to whom the Son wills to reveal Him.

²⁸Come to Me, all those laboring and being burdened, and I will give you rest. ²⁹Take My yoke upon you, and learn from Me, because I am meek and lowly in heart; and you will find rest to your souls. ³⁰For My yoke is easy, and My burden is light.

¹At that time on the sabbath, Jesus went through the grain fields. And His disciples were hungry, and began to pluck ears and to eat. ²But seeing, the Pharisees said to Him, Behold, your disciples are doing what it is not lawful to do on the sabbath. ³But He said to them, Have you not read what David did, when he and those with him hungered? ⁴How he entered into the house of God, and he ate the Bread of Arrangement, which it was not lawful for him to eat, nor for those with him, but for the priests only? ⁵Or have you not read in the Law that on the sabbaths the priests in the temple profane the sabbath, and are guiltless? ⁶But I say to you, One greater than the temple is here. ⁷But if you had known what this is, "I desire mercy, and not sacrifice," you would not have condemned the guiltless. ⁸For the Son of man is also Lord of the sabbath.

⁹And moving from there, He came into their synagogue. ¹⁰And, behold, a man having a withered hand was there. And they asked Him, saying, Is it lawful to heal on the sabbaths? — that they might accuse Him. ¹¹But He said to them, What man of you will be, who will have one sheep, and if this one fall into a pit on the sabbaths, will he not lay hold of it and raise it up? ¹²How much more, then, does a man excel a sheep! So that it is lawful to do well on the sabbaths. ¹³Then He said to the man, Stretch out your hand! And he stretched out. And it was restored sound as the other.

¹⁴But as they were leaving, the Pharisees took up a council against Him, how they might destroy Him. ¹⁵But knowing, Jesus withdrew from there. And many crowds followed Him; and He healed them all, ¹⁶and warned them that they should not make Him manifest. ¹⁷So that might be fulfilled that spoken through Isaiah the prophet, saying, ¹⁸"Behold My child whom I chose, My Beloved, in whom My soul has delighted! I will put My Spirit on Him, and He will declare judgment to the nations. ¹⁹He will not strive nor cry out, nor will anyone hear His voice in the streets. ²⁰A bruised reed He will not break, and smoking flax He will not quench, until He bring forth judgment to victory. ²¹And the nations will hope in His name."

²²Then one having been demon-possessed was brought to Him, blind and dumb. And He healed him, so that the blind and dumb one could both speak and see. ²³And all the crowds were amazed, and said, Is this not the son of David? ²⁴But hearing, the Pharisees said, This one does not cast out demons except by Beelzebub, ruler of the demons. ²⁵But Jesus knowing their thoughts, He said to them, Every kingdom divided against itself is brought to ruin. And every city or house divided against itself will not stand. ²⁶And if Satan throws out Satan, he was divided against himself. How then will his kingdom stand? ²⁷And if I throw out the demons by Beelzebub, by whom do your sons throw them out? Because of this, they shall be your judges. ²⁸But if I cast out the demons by the Spirit of God, then the kingdom of God has come on you. ²⁹Or how is anyone able to enter the house of the strong one and plunder his goods, if he does not first tie up the strong one; and then he will plunder his house?

³⁰The one who is not with Me is against Me; and the one who does not gather with Me scatters. ³¹Because of this, I say to you, Every sin and blasphemy shall be forgiven to men, but the blasphemy concerning the Spirit shall not be forgiven to men. ³²And whoever speaks a word against the Son of man, it shall be forgiven him. But whoever speaks against the Holy Spirit, it shall not be forgiven him, not in this age, nor in the coming one.

³⁴Offspring of vipers! How can you being evil speak good things? For out of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaks. ³⁵The good man out of the good treasure of the heart puts forth good things. And the evil man out of the evil treasure puts forth evil things. ³⁶But I say to you, that every idle word, whatever men may speak, they shall give an account of it in Judgment Day. ³⁷For by your words you will be justified, and by your words you will be condemned.

³⁸Then some of the scribes and Pharisees answered, saying, Teacher, we desire to see a sign from you. ³⁹But answering He said to them, An evil and adulterous generation seeks a sign, and a sign shall not be given to it, except the sign of Jonah the prophet. ⁴⁰And even as Jonah was in the belly of the huge fish three days and three nights, so shall the Son of man be in the heart of the earth three days and three nights.

⁴¹Men, Ninevites, will stand up in the Judgment with this generation, and will condemn it. For they repented at the preaching of Jonah; and, behold, a Greater-than-Jonah is here. ⁴²The queen of the south will be raised in the Judgment with this generation, and will condemn it. For she came from the ends of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon; and, behold, a Greater-than-Solomon is here.

⁴³But when the unclean spirit goes from a man, he goes through dry places seeking rest, and does not find it. ⁴⁴Then he says, I will return to my house from which I came out. And coming, he finds it standing empty, swept and decorated. ⁴⁵Then he goes and takes with him seven other spirits more evil than himself, and entering dwells there. And the last things of that man become worse than the first. So it will be also to this evil generation.

⁴⁶But while He was yet speaking to the crowds, behold, His mother and brothers were standing outside, seeking to speak to Him. ⁴⁷Then one said to Him, Behold, Your mother and Your brothers are standing outside, seeking to speak to You. ⁴⁸But answering, He said to the one speaking to Him, Who is My mother? And who are My brothers? ⁴⁹And stretching out His hand to His disciples, He said, Behold, My mother and My brothers. ⁵⁰For whoever shall do the will of My Father in Heaven, that one is My brother and sister and mother.

¹And going out from the house in that day, Jesus sat down by the sea. ²And great crowds were gathered to Him, so that boarding the boat, He sat down. And all the crowd stood on the shore. ³And He spoke to them many things in parables, saying:

Behold, the sower went out to sow. ⁴And in his sowing, some fell by the roadside, and the birds came and ate them. ⁵And other fell on the stony places where they did not have much earth; and it immediately sprang up, because it had no deepness of earth. ⁶And the sun rising, it was scorched; and because of having no root, it was dried up. ⁷And other fell on the thorns, and the thorns grew up and choked them. ⁸And other fell on the good ground, and yielded fruit; indeed one a hundredfold, and one sixty, and one thirty. ⁹The one having ears to hear, let him hear.

¹⁰And coming near, the disciples said to Him, Why do You speak to them in parables? ¹¹And answering He said to them, Because it has been given to you to know the mysteries of the kingdom of Heaven, but it has not been given to those. ¹²For whoever has, to him will be given, and he will have over-abundance. But whoever does not have, even what he has will be taken from him. ¹³Because of this, I speak to them in parables, because seeing they do not see, and hearing they do not hear, nor do they understand. ¹⁴And the prophecy of Isaiah is fulfilled on them, which says, "In hearing you will hear, and in no way understand; and seeing you will see, yet in no way perceive."

¹⁵For the heart of this people has grown fat, and they heard sluggishly with the ears; and they have closed their eyes, that they not see with the eyes, or hear with the ears, and understand with the heart, and be converted, and I heal them." ¹⁶But your eyes are blessed, because they see; and your ears, because they hear. ¹⁷For truly I tell you that many prophets and righteous ones desired to see what you see, and did not see; and to hear what you hear, and did not hear.

¹⁸Then hear the parable of the sower:

¹⁹Everyone hearing the word of the kingdom, and not understanding, then the evil one comes and catches away that which was sown in his heart. This is that sown by the roadside. ²⁰And that sown on the stony places is this: the one hearing the word, and immediately receiving it with joy, ²¹but has no root in himself, but is temporary — and tribulation, or persecution occurring because of the word, he is at once offended.

²²And that sown into the thorns is this: the one hearing the word, and the anxiety of this age, and the deceit of riches, choke the word, and it becomes unfruitful.

²³But that sown on the good ground is this: the one hearing the word, and understanding it; who indeed brings forth and produces fruit: one truly a hundredfold; and one sixty, and one thirty.

³³He spoke another parable to them: The kingdom of Heaven is compared to leaven, which taking, a woman hid in three measures of meal, until the whole was leavened.

³⁴Jesus spoke all these things in parables to the crowds; and He did not speak to them without a parable; ³⁵so that was fulfilled that spoken through the prophet, saying: "I will open My mouth in parables; I will say things hidden from the foundation of the world."

³⁶Then sending away the crowds, Jesus came into the house. And His disciples came to Him, saying, Explain to us the parable of the darnel of the field. ³⁷And answering He said to them, The one sowing the good seed is the Son of man. ³⁸And the field is the world; and the good seed, these are the sons of the kingdom; but the darnel are the sons of the evil one. ³⁹And the enemy who sowed them is the Devil; and the harvest is the end of the age; and the angels are the reapers. ⁴⁰Then as the darnel is gathered and is consumed in the fire, so it will be in the end of this age. ⁴¹The Son of man will send forth His angels, and they will gather out of His kingdom all the offenses, and those who practice lawlessness. ⁴²And they will throw them into the furnace of fire; there will be weeping and gnashing of the teeth. ⁴³Then the righteous will shine out like the sun in the kingdom of their Father. The one having ears to hear, let him hear.

⁴⁴Again, the kingdom of Heaven is compared to treasure hidden in the field, which finding, a man hid; and for the joy of it he goes and sells all things, as many as he has, and buys that field.

⁴⁵Again, the kingdom of Heaven is compared to a man, a merchant seeking excellent pearls; ⁴⁶who finding one very precious pearl, going away has sold all things, as many as he had, and bought it.

⁴⁷Again, the kingdom of Heaven is compared to a drag net thrown into the sea, and gathering together of every kind; ⁴⁸which, when it was filled, drawing it up on the shore, and sitting down, they gathered the good into containers, and they threw out the rotten. ⁴⁹So it will be in the end of the age: the angels will go out and will separate the wicked from the midst of the righteous; ⁵⁰and will throw them into the furnace of fire; there will be weeping and gnashing of the teeth.

⁵¹Jesus said to them, Have you understood all these things? They said to Him, Yes, Lord. ⁵²And He said to them, Because of this every scribe schooled to the kingdom of Heaven is like a man, a master of a house, who puts forth out of his treasure new and old.

⁵³And it happened, when Jesus had finished these parables, He moved from there. ⁵⁴And coming into His own country, He taught them in their synagogue, so that they were astonished, and said, Where did this one get this wisdom, and the powerful works? ⁵⁵Is this not the carpenter's son? Is not his mother called Mary, and his brothers, James, and Joses, and Simon, and Judas? ⁵⁶And are not his sisters all with us? From where then did this one get all these things? ⁵⁷And they were offended in Him. But Jesus said to them, A prophet is not without honor, except in his own homeland, and in his own house. ⁵⁸And He did not do many works of power there because of their unbelief.

¹At that time Herod the tetrarch heard the fame of Jesus. ²And he said to his servants, This is John the Baptist. He has risen from the dead, and because of this powerful works are working in him. ³For seizing John, Herod bound him and put him into prison, because of Herodias, the wife of his brother Philip. ⁴For John said to him, It is not lawful for you to have her. ⁵And desiring to kill him, he feared the multitude, because they held him as a prophet.

¹³And hearing, Jesus withdrew from there in a boat, into a desert place apart.

¹⁴And hearing, the crowds followed Him on foot from the cities. And going out, Jesus saw a great crowd, and was filled with pity toward them. And He healed their infirm ones. ¹⁵And evening coming, His disciples came near to Him, saying, The place is desert, and the hour is already gone. Dismiss the crowds, that going away into the villages they may buy provisions for themselves. ¹⁶But Jesus said to them, They have no need to go away. You give them food to eat. ¹⁷But they said to Him, We have nothing here except five loaves and two fish. ¹⁸And He said, Bring them here to Me. ¹⁹And commanding the crowds to recline on the grass, and taking the five loaves and two fish, looking up to Heaven, He blessed. And breaking, He gave the loaves to the disciples, and the disciples gave to the crowds. ²⁰And all ate, and were satisfied. And they took up the left over pieces, twelve handbaskets full. ²¹And the ones eating were about five thousand men, besides women and children.

²²And immediately Jesus made His disciples get into a boat, and to go before Him to the other side, until He should dismiss the crowds. ²³And having dismissed the crowds, He went up into the mountain alone to pray. And evening coming on, He was there alone. ²⁴But the boat was now in the middle of the sea, tossed by the waves, for the wind was contrary. ²⁵But in the fourth watch of the night, Jesus went out to them, walking on the sea. ²⁶And seeing Him walking on the sea, the disciples were troubled, saying, It is a ghost! And they cried out from the fear. ²⁷But immediately Jesus spoke to them, saying, Be comforted! I AM! Do not fear. ²⁸And answering Him, Peter said, Lord, if it is You, command me to come to You on the waters. ²⁹And He said, Come! And going down from the boat, Peter walked on the waters to go to Jesus. ³⁰But seeing the strong wind, he was afraid, and beginning to sink, he cried out, saying, Lord, save me! ³¹And immediately stretching out the hand, Jesus took hold of him, and said to him, Little-faith, why did you doubt? ³²And coming into the boat, the wind ceased. ³³And those in the boat came and worshiped Him, saying, Truly, You are the Son of God.

³⁴And having passed over, they came to the land of Gennesaret. ³⁵And recognizing Him, the men of that place sent to all that neighborhood, and brought to Him all those who had illness. ³⁶And they begged Him that they might touch the fringe of His robe. And as many as touched were made perfectly well.

¹Then the scribes and Pharisees came to Jesus from Jerusalem, saying, ²Why do your disciples transgress the tradition of the elders? For they do not wash their hands when they eat bread. ³But answering He said to them, Why do you also transgress the command of God on account of your tradition? ⁴For God commanded, saying, "Honor your father and mother," and, "The one speaking evil of father or mother, by death let him die." ⁵But you say, Whoever says to the father or the mother, A gift, whatever you would gain from me; ⁶and in no way he honors his father or his mother; and you annulled the command of God on account of your tradition. ⁷Hypocrites! Well did Isaiah prophesy concerning you, saying: ⁸"This people draws near to Me with their mouth, and with their lips honor Me; but their heart is far from Me. ⁹But in vain they worship Me, teaching as doctrines the ordinances of men." ¹⁰And calling near the crowd, He said to them, Hear and understand: ¹¹It is not that which has entered into the mouth that defiles the man, but that which has come out of the mouth, this defiles the man.

¹²Then coming the disciples said to Him, You know that hearing the saying, the Pharisees were offended? ¹³But answering He said, Every plant which My heavenly Father has not planted shall be rooted up. ¹⁴Leave them alone. They are blind leaders of the blind; and if the blind lead the blind, both will fall into a pit.

¹⁵And answering Peter said to Him, Explain this parable to us. ¹⁶But Jesus said, Are you also still without understanding? ¹⁷Do you not yet perceive that everything entering into the mouth goes into the belly, and is thrown out into the wastebowl? ¹⁸But the things which have come out of the mouth come forth from the heart, and these defile the man. ¹⁹For out of the heart come forth evil thoughts, murders, adulteries, fornications, thefts, lies, blasphemies. ²⁰These things are the things defiling the man. But eating with unwashed hands does not defile the man.

²¹And going out from there, Jesus withdrew to the parts of Tyre and Sidon. ²²And, behold, a woman of Canaan coming forth from those borders cried out to Him, saying, Have pity on me, Lord, Son of David! My daughter is vilely demon-possessed. ²³But He did not answer her a word. And coming near, His disciples asked Him, saying, Send her away, for she cries out after us. ²⁴But answering He said, I was not sent except to the lost sheep of the house of Israel. ²⁵But coming she worshiped Him, saying, Lord, help me! ²⁶But answering He said, It is not good to take the bread of the children and to throw it to the little dogs. ²⁷But she said, Yes, Lord; for even the little dogs eat of the crumbs falling from the table of their lords. ²⁸Then answering Jesus said to her, O woman, your faith is great; let it be to you as you desire. And her daughter was healed from that hour.

²⁹And moving from there, Jesus came beside the Sea of Galilee. And going up into the mountain, He sat there. ³⁰And great crowds came to Him, having with them those lame, blind, dumb, maimed, and many others. And they flung them down at the feet of Jesus. And He healed them; ³¹so that the crowds marveled, seeing the dumb speaking, the maimed sound, the lame walking, and the blind seeing. And they glorified the God of Israel.

³²But having called near His disciples, Jesus said, I am filled with pity on the crowd, because they already have remained with Me three days, and have nothing they may eat. And I do not desire to send them away fasting, that they may not faint in the way. ³³And His disciples said to Him, From where in a desert will come to us so many loaves as to satisfy so great a crowd? ³⁴And Jesus said to them, How many loaves do you have? And they said, Seven, and a few small fish. ³⁵And He ordered the crowds to recline on the ground. ³⁶And taking the seven loaves and the fish, giving thanks, He broke and gave to His disciples, and the disciples to the crowd. ³⁷And all ate, and were satisfied. And they took up the left over pieces, seven lunch-baskets full. ³⁸And the ones eating were four thousand men, besides women and children.

³⁹And sending away the crowds, He went into the boat, and came to the borders of Magdala.

CHAPTER 16

¹And coming, the Pharisees and Sadducees asked Him to show them a sign out of Heaven, tempting Him. ²But answering He said to them, Evening coming on, you say, Clear sky; for the sky is red. ³And at morning, Today a storm; for the sky is red, being overcast. Hypocrites! You indeed know how to discern face of the heaven, but you cannot the signs of the times. ⁴An evil and adulterous generation seeks a sign, and a sign will not be given to it, except the sign of Jonah the prophet. And leaving them, He went away.

⁵And His disciples coming to the other side, they forgot to take loaves. ⁶And Jesus said to them, Watch! And beware of the leaven of the Pharisees and Sadducees. ⁷And they reasoned among themselves, saying, Because we did not take loaves. ⁸And knowing Jesus said to them, Why do you reason among yourselves because you took no loaves, little-faiths? ⁹Do you not perceive nor recall the five loaves of the five thousand, and how many baskets you took up? ¹⁰Nor the seven loaves of the four thousand, and how many lunchbaskets you took up? ¹¹How do you not perceive that it was not about loaves that I said to you to take heed from the leaven of the Pharisees and Sadducees? ¹²Then they knew that He did not say to take heed from the leaven of bread, but from the teaching of the Pharisees and Sadducees.

¹³And coming into the parts of Caesarea of Philip, Jesus questioned His disciples, saying, Whom do men say Me to be, the Son of man? ¹⁴And they said, Some say John the Baptist; and others Elijah; and others Jeremiah, or one of the prophets. ¹⁵He said to them, But you, whom do you say Me to be? ¹⁶And answering, Simon Peter said, You are the Christ, the Son of the living God. ¹⁷And answering Jesus said to him, Blessed are you, Simon, son of Jonah, for flesh and blood did not reveal it to you, but My Father in Heaven. ¹⁸And I also say to you that you are Peter, and on this rock I will build My church, and the gates of Hades will not prevail against her. ¹⁹And I will give to you the keys of the kingdom of Heaven. And whatever you bind on earth shall occur, having already been bound in Heaven. And whatever you may loose on the earth shall be, having been already loosed in Heaven. ²⁰Then He warned His disciples that they should tell no one that He is Jesus the Christ.

²¹From that time Jesus began to show to His disciples that it was necessary for Him to go away to Jerusalem, and to suffer many things from the elders and chief priests and scribes, and to be killed, and to be raised on the third day. ²²And having taken Him near, Peter began to rebuke Him, saying, God be gracious to You, Lord; this shall never be to You. ²³But turning He said to Peter, Go behind Me, Satan! You are an offense to Me, for you do not think of the things of God, but the things of men.

²⁴Then Jesus said to His disciples, If anyone desires to come after Me, let him deny himself, and let him bear his cross, and let him follow Me. ²⁵For whoever may desire to save his soul will lose it. But whoever may lose his soul for My sake will find it. ²⁶For what will a man be benefited if he should gain the whole world, but forfeits his soul? Or what will a man give as an exchange for his soul? ²⁷For the Son of man is about to come in the glory of His Father, with His angels. And then He will give reward to each according to his works. ²⁸Truly I say to you, There are some standing here who in no way will taste of death until they see the Son of man coming in His kingdom.

¹And after six days, Jesus took Peter and James, and his brother John, and brought them up into a high mountain apart. ²And He was transfigured before them, and His face shone like the sun, and His clothing became white as the light. ³And, behold! Moses and Elijah appeared to them, talking with Him. ⁴And answering Peter said to Jesus, Lord, it is good for us to be here. If You will, let us make three tents here, one for You, one for Moses, and one for Elijah. ⁵While he was yet speaking, behold, a radiant cloud overshadowed them. And, behold, a voice out of the cloud saying, This is My Son, the Beloved, in whom I delight; hear Him. ⁶And hearing, the disciples fell on their face and were greatly terrified. ⁷And coming near, Jesus touched them and said, Rise up, and do not be terrified. ⁸And lifting up their eyes, they did not see anyone except Jesus alone.

⁹And as they were coming down from the mountain, Jesus charged them, saying, Tell the vision to no one until the Son of man is raised from the dead. ¹⁰And His disciples asked Him, saying, Why then do the scribes say that Elijah must come first? ¹¹And answering Jesus said to them, Elijah indeed comes first, and shall restore all things. ¹²But I say to you, Elijah has already come, and they did not know him, but did to him whatever they desired. So also the Son of man is about to suffer by them. ¹³Then the disciples understood that He spoke to them about John the Baptist.

¹⁴And they coming to the crowd, a man came near to Him, kneeling down to Him, and saying, ¹⁵Lord, pity my son. For he is moonstruck and suffers miserably. For he often falls into the fire, and often into the water. ¹⁶And I brought him to Your disciples, and they were not able to heal him. ¹⁷And answering Jesus said, O faithless and perverted generation! How long will I be with you? How long shall I bear with you? Bring him here to Me. ¹⁸And Jesus rebuked him, and the demon came out from him; and the boy was healed from that hour.

¹⁹Then coming up to Jesus privately, the disciples said, Why were we not able to cast him out? ²⁰And Jesus said to them, Because of your unbelief. For truly I say to you, If you have faith as a grain of mustard, you will say to this mountain, Move from here to there! And it will move. And nothing shall be impossible to you. ²¹But this kind does not go out except by prayer and fasting.

²²And while they were staying in Galilee, Jesus said to them, The Son of man is about to be delivered into the hands of men. ²³And they will kill Him; and on the third day He will be raised. And they grieved exceedingly.

²⁴And they coming into Capernaum, those receiving the didrachmas came to Peter and said, Does your teacher not pay the didrachmas? ²⁵He said, Yes. And when he entered into the house, Jesus anticipated him, saying, What do you think, Simon? From whom do the kings of the earth receive custom or tribute? From their sons, or from strangers? ²⁶Peter said to Him, From strangers. Jesus said to him, Then truly the sons are free. ²⁷But that we may not offend them, going to the sea, throw in a hook, and take the first fish coming up. And opening its mouth, you will find a stater. Taking that, give to them for you and Me.

¹In that hour the disciples came to Jesus, saying, Who then is greater in the kingdom of Heaven? ²And having called forward a little child, Jesus set him in their midst. ³And He said, Truly I say to you, Unless you convert, and become as the little children, not at all can you enter into the kingdom of Heaven.

⁴Then whoever will humble himself as this little child, this one is the greater in the kingdom of Heaven. ⁵And whoever will receive one such little child in My name receives Me. ⁶But whoever causes one of these little ones believing in Me to offend, it is better for him that a millstone turned by an ass be hung on his neck, and he be sunk in the depth of the sea. ⁷Woe to the world from its offenses! It is a necessity for the offenses to come, yet woe to that man through whom the offense comes! ⁸And if your hand or your foot offends you, cut it off and throw it from you—it is good for you to enter into life lame or maimed, than having two hands or two feet to be thrown into the everlasting fire. ⁹And if your eye offends you, pluck it out and throw it from you—for it is good for you to enter into life one-eyed than having two eyes to be thrown into the Hell of fire.

angels in Heaven continually look on the face of My Father in Heaven. ¹¹For the Son of man has come to save that which was lost. ¹²What do you think? If there be to any man a hundred sheep, and one of them strays away, will he not leave the ninety-nine on the mountains; and going seek the straying one? ¹³And if he happens to find it, truly I say to you that he rejoices over it more than over the ninety-nine not going astray. ¹⁴So it is not the will before your Father in Heaven that one of these little ones should perish.

¹⁵But if your brother sins against you, go and reprove him between you and him alone. If he hears you, you have gained your brother. ¹⁶But if he does not hear, take one or two more with you, so that on the mouth of two or three witnesses every word may stand. ¹⁷But if he fails to hear them, tell it to the church. And if he also fails to hear the church, let him be to you as the nations and the tax-collectors. ¹⁸Truly I say to you, Whatever you bind on the earth shall occur, having been already bound in Heaven. And whatever you loose on the earth shall be, having been already loosed in Heaven. ¹⁹Again I say to you, If two of you agree on earth as to anything, whatever they shall ask, it shall be to them from My Father in Heaven. ²⁰For where two or three are gathered together in My name, there I am in their midst.

²¹Then coming up to Him, Peter said, Lord, how often shall my brother sin against me, and I forgive him? Until seven times? ²²Jesus said to him, I do not say to you, Until seven times, but, Until seventy times seven. ²³For this reason the kingdom of Heaven has been compared to a man, a king who decided to take account with his slaves. ²⁴And when he began to reckon, one debtor of ten thousand talents was brought near to him. ²⁵But he not having any to pay, the lord commanded him to be sold, also his wife and children, and all things, as much as he had, even to pay back. ²⁶Then falling down, the slave bowed the knee to him, saying, Lord, have patience with me, and I will pay all to you. ²⁷And being filled with pity, the lord of that slave released him, and forgave him the loan. ²⁸But going out, that slave found one of his fellow-slaves who owed him a hundred denarii. And seizing him, he choked him, saying, Pay me whatever you owe. ²⁹Then falling down at his feet, his fellow-slave begged him, saying, Have patience with me, and I will pay all to you. ³⁰But he would not, but going away he threw him into prison, until he pay back the amount owing. ³¹But his fellow-slaves seeing the things happening, they were greatly grieved. And coming they reported to their lord all the things happening. ³²Then calling him near, his lord said to him, Wicked slave! I forgave you all that debt, since you begged me. ³³Ought you not also to favor your fellow-slave, as I also favored you? ³⁴And being angry, his lord delivered him up to the tormentors until he pay back all that debt to him. ³⁵So also My heavenly Father will do to you unless each of you from your hearts forgive his brother their offenses.

¹And it happened when Jesus had finished these words, He moved from Galilee and came into the borders of Judea beyond the Jordan. ²And great crowds followed Him; and He healed them there.

³And the Pharisees came near to Him, tempting Him, and saying to Him, Is it lawful for a man to put away his wife for every reason? ⁴But answering He said to them, Have you not read that He who created them from the beginning created them male and female? ⁵And He said, "For this reason a man shall leave father and mother, and shall be joined to his wife, and the two shall become one flesh." ⁶So that they are no longer two, but one flesh. Therefore, what God has joined together, let not man separate.

⁷They said to Him, Why then did Moses command to give a bill of divorce, and to put her away? ⁸He said to them, In view of your hardheartedness Moses allowed you to put away your wives. But from the beginning it was not so. ⁹And I say to you, Whoever shall put away his wife, if not for fornication, and shall marry another, that one commits adultery. And the one who marries her who was put away commits adultery.

¹⁰His disciples said to Him, If the case of the man be so with his wife, it is not good to marry. ¹¹But He said to them, Not all receive this word, but those to whom it is given. ¹²For there are eunuchs who were born thus from their mother's womb, and there are eunuchs who were made eunuchs by men; and there are eunuchs who made eunuchs of themselves for the sake of the kingdom of Heaven. He who is able to receive, let him receive it.

¹³Then little children were brought to Him, that He might lay hands on them and might pray. But the disciples rebuked them. ¹⁴But Jesus said, Allow the little children and do not prevent them to come to Me; for of such is the kingdom of Heaven. ¹⁵And laying hands on them, He went away from there.

¹⁶And, behold, coming near one said to Him, Good Teacher, what good thing shall I do that I may have eternal life? ¹⁷And He said to him, Why do you call Me good? No one is good except One, God! But if you desire to enter into life, keep the commandments. ¹⁸He said to Him, Which? And Jesus said, "You shall not commit murder; do not commit adultery; do not steal; do not bear false witness; ¹⁹honor your father and your mother;" and, "You shall love your neighbor as yourself." ²⁰The young man said to Him, All these things I have kept from my youth. What do I still lack? ²¹Jesus said to him, If you desire to be perfect, go sell your property and give to the poor, and you will have treasure in in Heaven; and come, follow Me. ²²But hearing the word, being grieved, the young man went away—for he had many possessions.

²³And Jesus said to His disciples, Truly I say to you that a rich man will with great difficulty enter into the kingdom of Heaven. ²⁴And again I say to you, It is easier for a camel to pass through a needle's eye than for a rich man to enter the kingdom of God. ²⁵And His disciples were exceedingly astonished when they heard this, saying, Who then can be saved? ²⁶But looking on them, Jesus said to them, With men this is impossible, but with God all things are possible.

²⁷Then answering, Peter said to Him,

Behold, we left all things and followed You. What then shall happen to us? ²⁸And Jesus said to them, Truly I say to you, You who have followed Me; in the regeneration, when the Son of man sits on the throne of His glory, you also will sit on twelve thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel. ²⁹And everyone who left houses, or brothers, or sisters, or father, or mother, or wife, or children, or lands, for My name's sake shall receive a hundredfold, and shall inherit everlasting life. ³⁰But many first ones shall be last, and last ones first.

CHAPTER 20

¹For the kingdom of Heaven is like a man, a housemaster, who went out when it was early to hire workers into his vineyard. ²And agreeing with the workers for a denarius for the day, he sent them into his vineyard. ³And going out about the third hour, he saw others standing idle in the market. ⁴And he said to them, You also go into the vineyard, and I will give you whatever is just. And they went. ⁵Again, going out about the sixth and ninth hour, he did the same. ⁶And going out about the eleventh hour, he found others standing idle, and said to them, Why do you stand here idle all day? ⁷They said to him, Because no one has hired us. He said to them, You also go into the vineyard, and you will receive whatever is just. ⁸But evening coming, the lord of the vineyard said to his manager, Call the workers and pay them the wage, beginning from the last to the first. ⁹And the ones coming the eleventh hour each received a denarius. ¹⁰And coming, the first supposed that they would receive more. And they also each received a denarius. ¹¹And receiving it, they murmured against the housemaster, ¹²saying, These last have performed one hour, and you have made them equal to us who have borne the burden and the heat of the day. ¹³But answering he said to one of them, Friend, I am not unjust to you. Did you not agree to a denarius with me? ¹⁴Take yours and go. But I desire to give to this last as also to you. ¹⁵Or is it not lawful for me to do what I desire with my things? Or is your eye evil because I am good? ¹⁶So the last shall be first, and the first last; for many are called, but few chosen.

¹⁷And going up to Jerusalem, Jesus took the twelve disciples aside in the way, and said to them, ¹⁸Behold, we are going up to Jerusalem, and the Son of man will be betrayed to the chief priests and scribes. And they will condemn Him to death. ¹⁹And they will deliver Him up to the nations to mock, and to scourge, and to crucify. And the third day He will rise again.

²⁰Then the mother of the sons of Zebedee came near to Him, along with her sons, bowing the knee and asking something from Him. ²¹And He said to her, What do you desire? She said to Him, Say that these two sons of mine may sit one on Your right, and one on Your left in Your kingdom. ²²But answering Jesus said, You do not know what you ask. Are you able to drink the cup which I am about to drink, and to be baptized with the baptism with which I am to be baptized? They said to Him, We are able. ²³And He said to them, Indeed you shall drink My cup, and you shall be baptized with the baptism with which I am baptized; but to sit off My right and off My left hand is not Mine to give, but to those for whom it was prepared by My Father.

²⁴And hearing, the ten were indignant about the two brothers. ²⁵But having called them, Jesus said, You know that the rulers of the nations exercise lordship over them, and the great ones exercise authority over them. ²⁶But it will not be so among you. But whoever desires to become great among you, let him be your servant. ²⁷And whoever desires to be first among you, let him be your slave; ²⁸even as the Son of man did not come to be served, but to serve; and to give His life a ransom for many.

²⁹And as they were going out from Jericho, a great crowd followed Him. ³⁰And, behold, two blind ones sitting beside the way, hearing that Jesus was passing by, they cried out, saying, Have pity on us, Lord, Son of David! ³¹But the crowd rebuked them, that they be quiet. But they cried out the more, saying, Have pity on us, Lord, Son of David! ³²And stopping, Jesus called them, and said, What do you desire that I do to you? ³³They said to Him, Lord, that our eyes may be opened. ³⁴And moved with pity, Jesus touched their eyes. And instantly their eyes received sight, and they followed Him.

¹And when they drew near to Jerusalem and came to Bethphage, toward the Mount of Olives, then Jesus sent two disciples, ²saying to them, Go into the village opposite you, and immediately you will find an ass tied, and a colt with her. Loosen them and lead them to Me. ³And if anyone says anything to you, you shall say, The Lord has need of them. And he will send them at once.

⁴But all this happened that might be fulfilled that spoken by the prophet, saying: ⁵"Tell the daughter of Zion, Behold, your King comes to you, meek and mounted on an ass, even a colt, the son of an ass." ⁶And the disciples going and doing as Jesus ordered them, ⁷they led the ass and the colt. And they put on them their garments; and He sat on them.

⁸And most of the crowd spread their garments on the road. And others were cutting branches from the trees and were spreading them in the road. ⁹And the crowd, the ones going before and the ones following, were crying out, saying, Hosanna to the Son of David! Blessed is He coming in the name of the Lord! Hosanna in the highest! ¹⁰And as He entered into Jerusalem, all the city was shaken, saying, Who is this? ¹¹And the crowds said, This is Jesus, the Prophet, the one from Nazareth of Galilee.

¹²And Jesus entered into the temple of God and threw out all those selling and buying in the temple. And He overthrew the tables of the moneychangers, and the seats of those selling the doves. ¹³And He said to them, It has been written, "My house shall be called a house of prayer," but you have made it a den of robbers.

¹⁴And blind and lame ones came to Him in the temple, and He healed them. ¹⁵But the chief priests and the scribes, seeing the wonders which He did, and the children crying out in the temple, and saying, Hosanna to the Son of David, they were incensed. ¹⁶And they said to Him, Do you hear what these say? And Jesus said to them, Yes. Did you never read, "Out of the mouth of babes and sucklings You have perfected praise"? ¹⁷And leaving them, He went out of the city to Bethany, and spent the night there.

²⁸But what do you think? A man had two children, and coming to the first he said, Child, go today; work in my vineyard. ²⁹And answering he said, I will not. But afterward, feeling sorry, he went. ³⁰And coming to the second, he said the same. And answering he said, I go, sir, but did not leave. ³¹Which of the two did the will of the father? They said to Him, The first. Jesus said to them, Truly I say to you, The tax-collectors and the harlots go before you into the kingdom of God. ³²For John came to you in the way of righteousness, and you did not believe him. But the tax-collectors and the harlots believed him. And seeing, you did not repent afterwards to believe him.

³³Hear another parable: There was a certain man, a housemaster who planted a vineyard and placed a hedge around it, and dug a winepress in it, and built a tower. And he rented it to vinedressers, and left the country. ³⁴And when the season of the fruits came, he sent his slaves to the vinedressers to receive his fruits. ³⁵And the vinedressers taking his slaves, they beat this one, and they killed one; and they stoned another. ³⁶Again he sent other slaves, more than the first. And they did the same to them. ³⁷And at last he sent his son to them, saying, They will have respect for my son. ³⁸But seeing the son, the vinedressers said among themselves, This is the heir. Come, let us kill him, and get hold of his inheritance. ³⁹And taking him, they threw him out of the vineyard, and killed him. ⁴⁰Therefore, when the lord of the vineyard comes, what will he do to these vinedressers? ⁴¹They said to Him, Bad men! He will miserably destroy them, and he will rent out the vineyard to other vinedressers who will give to him the fruits in their seasons. ⁴²Jesus said to them, Did you never read in the Scriptures, "The Stone which the builders rejected is the One that has become the head of the corner. This was from the Lord, and it is a wonder in our eyes"? ⁴³Because of this I say to you, The kingdom of God will be taken from you, and it will be given to a nation bringing forth the fruits of it. ⁴⁴And he who falls on this Stone will be broken; but on whomever it falls, it will grind him to powder. ⁴⁵And hearing His parables, the chief priests and the Pharisees knew that He was speaking about them. ⁴⁶And seeking to lay hold of Him, they feared the crowds, because they held Him as a prophet.

¹And answering Jesus again spoke to them in parables, saying: ²The kingdom of Heaven is compared to a man, a king, who made a wedding feast for his son.

³And he sent his slaves to call those who had been invited to the wedding feast; but they did not desire to come. ⁴Again, he sent other slaves, saying, Tell the ones invited, Behold, I have prepared my supper; my oxen, and the fatlings are killed, and all things ready; come to the wedding feast. ⁵But not caring they went away, one to his own field, and one to his trading. ⁶And the rest, seizing his slaves, insulted and killed them. ⁷And hearing, the king became angry. And sending his armies, he destroyed those murderers, and burned their city. ⁸Then he said to his slaves, Indeed, the wedding feast is ready, but those invited were not worthy. ⁹Then go onto the exits of the highways, and call to the wedding feast as many as you may find.

¹⁰And going out into the highways, those slaves gathered all, as many as they found, both evil and good. And the wedding feast was filled with reclining guests. ¹¹And the king coming in to look over those reclining, he saw a man there not being dressed in a wedding garment.

¹²And he said to him, Friend, how did you come in here, not having a wedding garment? But he was silent. ¹³Then the king said to the servants, Binding his feet and hands, take him away, and throw him out into the outer darkness. There shall be weeping and gnashing of the teeth. ¹⁴For many are called, but few chosen.

¹⁵Then going, the Pharisees took counsel so as they might trap Him in words. ¹⁶And they sent to Him their disciples with the Herodians, saying, Teacher, we know that you are true, and teach the way of God in truth; and it does not concern you about anyone, for you do not look to the face of men. ¹⁷Then tell us, what do you think? Is it lawful to give tribute to Caesar, or not?

¹⁸But knowing their wickedness, Jesus said, Why do you test Me, hypocrites? ¹⁹Show Me the tribute coin. And they brought a denarius to Him. ²⁰And He said to them, Whose image and superscription is this? ²¹They said to Him, Caesar's. Then He said to them, Then give to Caesar the things of Caesar, and to God the things of God. ²²And hearing, they marveled. And leaving Him, they went away.

²³On that day Sadducees came to Him, who say there is no resurrection. And they questioned Him, ²⁴saying, Teacher, Moses said, If any should die not having children, his brother shall marry his wife, and shall raise up seed to his brother. ²⁵And seven brothers were with us. And having married, the first expired, and not having seed left his wife to his brother.

²⁶In the same way also the second, and the third, until the seven. ²⁷And last of all the woman also died. ²⁸Then in the resurrection, of which of the seven will she be wife? For all had her. ²⁹And answering Jesus said to them, You err, not knowing the Scriptures, nor the power of God.

³⁰For in the resurrection they neither marry nor are given in marriage, but they are as the angels of God in Heaven. ³¹But concerning the resurrection of the dead, have you not read that spoken to you by God, saying: ³²"I am the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob"? God is not God of the dead, but of the living. ³³And hearing, the crowds were astonished at His teaching.

³⁴But hearing that He had silenced the Sadducees, the Pharisees were gathered together. ³⁵And one of them, a lawyer, questioned Him, testing Him, and saying, ³⁶Teacher, which is the great commandment in the Law? ³⁷And Jesus said to him, "You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your mind." ³⁸This is the first and great commandment. ³⁹And the second is like it: "You shall love your neighbor as yourself." ⁴⁰On these two commandments all the Law and the Prophets hang.

⁴¹But the Pharisees having been gathered, Jesus questioned them, ⁴²saying, What do you think about the Christ? Whose son is He? They say to Him, David's. ⁴³He said to them, Then how does David in Spirit call Him Lord, saying, ⁴⁴"The Lord said to my Lord, Sit on My right until I place Your enemies as a footstool for Your feet"? ⁴⁵Then if David calls Him Lord, how is He his son? ⁴⁶And no one was able to answer Him a word, nor did anyone dare from that day to question Him any more.

CHAPTER 23

¹Then Jesus spoke to the crowd and to His disciples, ²saying, The scribes and the Pharisees sat down on Moses' seat. ³Then all things, whatever they tell you to keep, keep and do. But do not do according to their works; for they say, and do not do. ⁴For they bind heavy and hard to bear burdens, and lay them on the shoulders of men; but they do not desire to move them with their finger. ⁵And they do all their works to be seen by men. And they make their phylacteries broad, and enlarge the borders of their robes. ⁶And they love the first couch in the suppers, and the first seats in the synagogues, ⁷and the greetings in the markets, and to be called by men, Rabbi, Rabbi. ⁸But do not you be called Rabbi; for One is your leader, the Christ, and you are all brothers. ⁹And call no one father on earth, for one is your Father, the One in Heaven. ¹⁰Nor be called leaders, for One is your Leader, the Christ. ¹¹But the greater of you shall be your servant. ¹²And whoever will exalt himself shall be humbled. And whoever will humble himself shall be exalted.

¹³But woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you shut up the kingdom of Heaven before men; for you do not enter, nor do you allow those entering to go in.

¹⁴Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you devour the houses of widows, and pray at length as a pretext. Because of this you will receive more abundant judgment.

¹⁵Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you go about the sea and the dry land to make one proselyte; and when he has become so, you make him twofold more a son of Hell than yourselves.

¹⁶Woe to you, blind guides, who say, Whoever swears by the temple, it is nothing; but whoever swears by the gold of the temple is a debtor. ¹⁷Fools and blind! For which is greater, the gold, or the temple that sanctifies the gold? ¹⁸And you say, Whoever swears by the altar, it is nothing; but whoever swears by the gift on it, he is a debtor. ¹⁹Fools and blind! For which is greater, the gift, or the altar that sanctifies the gift? ²⁰Then the one swearing by the altar swears by it, and by all things on it. ²¹And the one swearing by the temple swears by it, and by the One dwelling in it. ²²And the one swearing by Heaven swears by the throne of God, and by the One sitting on it.

²³Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you pay tithes of mint and dill and cummin, and you have left aside the weightier matters of the Law: judgment, and mercy, and faith. It was right to do these, and not to have left those aside. ²⁴Blind guides, straining out the gnat, but swallowing the camel!

²⁵Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you cleanse the outside of the cup and of the dish, but within they are full of robbery and excess. ²⁶Blind Pharisee! First cleanse the inside of the cup and of the dish, that the outside of them may become clean also.

²⁷Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you are like whitened graves which outwardly indeed appear beautiful, but within are full of bones of the dead, and of all uncleanness. ²⁸So you also indeed outwardly appear righteous to men, but within are full of hypocrisy and lawlessness.

²⁹Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you build the tombs of the prophets, and adorn the tombs of the righteous. ³⁰And you say, If we had been in the days of our fathers, we would not have been partakers with them in the blood of the prophets. ³¹So you witness to yourselves, that you are the sons of those who murdered the prophets. ³²And you fill up the measure of your fathers. ³³Serpents, offspring of vipers! How shall you escape the judgment of Hell? ³⁴Because of this, behold, I send to you prophets and wise ones and scribes. And some of them you will kill and crucify; and some of them you will flog in your synagogues, and will persecute from city to city; ³⁵so that should come on you all the righteous blood poured out on the earth, from the blood of righteous Abel to the blood of Zechariah the son of Berechiah, whom you murdered between the temple and the altar. ³⁶Truly I say to you, All these things will come on this generation.

³⁷Jerusalem, Jerusalem, the one killing the prophets and stoning those sent to her. How often I desired to gather your children in the way a bird gathers her chicks from under her wings! And you did not desire it. ³⁸Behold, your house is left to you desolate. ³⁹For I say to you, In no way shall you see Me from now on until you say, "Blessed is He who comes in the name of the Lord."

¹And going out, Jesus left the temple. And His disciples came to show Him the buildings of the temple. ²But Jesus said to them, Do you not see all these things? Truly I say to you, There will not at all be left one stone on a stone which in no way will not be thrown down.

³And as He was sitting on the Mount of Olives, the disciples came to Him privately, saying, Tell us, when will these things be? And, What is the sign of Your coming and of the end of the age? ⁴And answering Jesus said to them, See that not any leads you astray. ⁵For many will come in My name, saying, I am the Christ. And they will cause many to err. ⁶But you are going to hear of wars and rumors of wars. See, do not be disturbed. For all things must take place, but the end is not yet. ⁷For nation will be raised against nation, and kingdom against kingdom; and there will be famines and plagues and earthquakes against many places. ⁸But all these are a beginning of throes. ⁹Then they will deliver you up to affliction, and will kill you; and you will be hated by all nations for My name's sake. ¹⁰And then many will be offended, and they will deliver up one another, and will hate one another. ¹¹And many false prophets will be raised, and will cause many to err. ¹²And because lawlessness shall have been multiplied, the love of many will grow cold. ¹³But the one who endures to the end, that one will be saved. ¹⁴And this gospel of the kingdom shall be preached in all the earth, for a testimony to all the nations; and then will come the end.

¹⁵Then when you see the abomination

of desolation which was spoken of by Daniel the prophet, standing in the holy place—the one reading, let him understand — ¹⁶then let those in Judea flee on the mountains; ¹⁷the one on the housetop, let him not come down to take anything out of his house; ¹⁸and the one in the field, let him not turn back to take his garment. ¹⁹But woe to the woman being with child and to those suckling in those days! ²⁰And pray that your flight will not be in winter, nor on a sabbath. ²¹For there will be great affliction, such as has not happened from the beginning of the world until now; no, nor ever will be. ²²And except those days were shortened, not any flesh would be saved — but on account of the elect, those days will be shortened. ²³Then if anyone says to you, Behold, here is the Christ; or, Here! Do not believe. ²⁴For false christs and false prophets will rise up. And they will give great signs and wonders, so as to lead astray, if possible, even the elect. ²⁵Behold, I tell you beforehand. ²⁶Then if they say to you, Behold, He is in the wilderness; do not go out. Behold, He is in the inner rooms; do not believe. ²⁷For as the lightning comes forth from the east and shines as far as the west, so also will be the coming of the Son of man. ²⁸For wherever the dead body may be, there the eagles will be gathered.

²⁹And immediately after the affliction of those days, the sun will be darkened, and the moon will not give her light, and the stars will fall from the heaven, and the powers of the heavens will be shaken. ³⁰And then the sign of the Son of man will appear in the heavens. And then all the tribes of the land will wail. And they will see the Son of man coming on the clouds of heaven with power and much glory. ³¹And He will send His angels with a great sound of a trumpet, and they will gather His elect from the four winds; from the ends of the heavens to their ends.

³²But learn the parable of the fig-tree: When its branch becomes tender, and it puts out leaves, you know that the summer is near; ³³so also you when you see all these things, know that it is near, at the doors. ³⁴Truly I say to you, In no way will this generation pass away until all these things have occurred. ³⁵The heavens and the earth will pass away, but My words will never ever pass away. ³⁶But as to that day and that hour, no one knows, neither the angels of Heaven, except My Father only. ³⁷But as the days of Noah, so also will be the coming of the Son of man. ³⁸For as they were in the days before the flood: eating, and drinking, marrying, and giving in marriage, until the day when Noah went into the ark—³⁹and they did not know until the flood came and took all away — so also will be the coming of the Son of man. ⁴⁰At that time two will be out in the field; the one is taken away, and the one is left; ⁴¹two grinding at the mill; one is taken, and one is left.

⁴²Watch, then, for you do not know in what hour your Lord comes. ⁴³But know this, that if the housemaster had known in what watch the thief comes, he would have watched, and not have allowed his house to be dug through. ⁴⁴Because of this, you also be ready, for in that hour you think not, the Son of man comes. ⁴⁵Who then is the faithful and wise servant, whom his lord has set over his household, to give to them the food in season? ⁴⁶Blessed is that servant whom his lord shall find so doing when he comes. ⁴⁷Truly I say to you, He will set him over all his substance. ⁴⁸But if that wicked servant says in his heart, My lord delays to come, ⁴⁹and begins to beat his fellow-servants, and to eat and to drink with the drunkards, ⁵⁰the lord of that slave will come in a day in which he does not expect, and in an hour which he does not know, ⁵¹and will cut him in two, and will appoint his portion with the hypocrites. There will be weeping and gnashing of the teeth.

the bridegroom comes! Go out to meet him. ⁷Then all those virgins arose and and prepared their lamps. ⁸And the foolish said to the wise, Give us some of your oil, for our lamps are going out. ⁹But the wise answered, saying, No, lest there not be enough for us and you. But rather go to those who sell, and buy for yourselves. ¹⁰But they going away to buy, the bridegroom came. And those ready went in with him to the wedding feast; and the door was shut. ¹¹And afterwards the rest of the virgins also came, saying, Lord, Lord, open to us. ¹²But answering he said, Truly I say to you, I do not know you. ¹³Therefore, watch, for you do not know the day nor the hour in which the Son of man comes.

¹⁴For it is as if a man going abroad called his own slaves and delivered his goods to them. ¹⁵And to one indeed he gave five talents, and to another two, and to another, one — to each according to his ability. And he went abroad at once. ¹⁶And going, the one who received the five talents worked with them, and made another five talents. ¹⁷In the same way, the one with the two also did; he also gained another two. ¹⁸But going away, the one who received the one dug in the earth and hid his lord's silver. ¹⁹And after much time, the lord of those slaves came and took account with them. ²⁰And coming up, the one who received five talents brought another five talents near, saying, Lord, you delivered five talents to me. Behold, I gained another five talents above them. ²¹And his lord said to him, Well done, good and faithful slave. You were faithful over a few things, I will set you over many. Enter into the joy of your lord. ²²And the one who received two talents, coming up also said, Lord, you delivered two talents to me. Behold, I have gained two other talents above them. ²³His lord said to him, Well done, good and faithful slave. You were faithful over a few things; I will set you over many. Enter into the joy of your lord. ²⁴And the one who received the one talent also coming up, he said, Lord, I knew you, that you are a hard man, reaping where you did not sow, and gathering where you did not scatter. ²⁵And being afraid, going away, I hid your talent in the earth. Behold, you have yours. ²⁶And answering his lord said to him, Evil and slothful slave! You knew that I reap where I did not sow, and gather where I did not scatter. ²⁷Then you ought to have put my silver to the bankers; and coming I would have received my own with interest. ²⁸Therefore, take the talent from him, and give it to him who has the ten talents. ²⁹For to each who has, more will be given, and he will abound. But from him who does not have, even that which he has will be taken from him. ³⁰And throw the worthless slave out into the outer darkness. There will be weeping and gnashing of the teeth.

³¹But when the Son of man comes in His glory, and all the holy angels with Him, then He will sit on the throne of His glory. ³²And before Him shall be gathered all the nations, and He will separate them from one another, as the shepherd separates the sheep from the goats. ³³And indeed He will set the sheep off His right, but the goats off the left hand. ³⁴Then the King will say to those on His right, Come, the blessed of My Father. Inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world. ³⁵For I hungered, and you gave Me food to eat; I thirsted, and you gave Me drink; I was a stranger, and you took Me in; ³⁶naked, and you clothed Me; I was sick, and you visited Me; I was in prison, and you came to Me. ³⁷Then the righteous will answer, saying, Lord, when did we see You hungry, and fed You; or thirsting, and gave You drink? ³⁸And when did we see You a stranger, and took You in; or naked, and clothed You? ³⁹And when did we see You sick, or in prison, and came to You? ⁴⁰And answering, the King will say to them, Truly I say to you, Inasmuch as you did it to one of these, the least of My brothers, you did it to Me.

⁴¹Then He will also say to those on His left, Go away from Me, cursed ones, into the everlasting fire having been prepared for the Devil and his angels. ⁴²For I hungered, and you gave Me nothing to eat; I thirsted, and you gave me nothing to drink; ⁴³I was a stranger, and you did not take Me in; naked, and you did not clothe Me; sick, and in prison, and you did not visit Me. ⁴⁴Then they also will answer Him, saying, Lord, when did we see You hungering, or thirsting, or a stranger, or naked, or sick, or in prison, and did not minister to You? ⁴⁵Then He will answer them, saying, Truly I say to you, Inasmuch as you did not do it to one of these, the least, neither did you do it to Me. ⁴⁶And these shall go away into everlasting punishment, but the righteous into everlasting life.

¹And it happened when Jesus finished all these sayings, He said to His disciples, ²You know that the Passover is coming after two days, and the Son of man is betrayed to be crucified. ³Then the chief priests and the scribes and the elders of the people were assembled to the court of the high priest, the one named Caiaphas. ⁴And they plotted together in order that they might seize Jesus by guile, and kill Him. ⁵But they said, Not during the feast, that there be no uproar among the people.

⁶And Jesus being in Bethany in Simon the leper's house, ⁷a woman came to Him having an alabaster vial of ointment, very precious. And she poured it on His head as He reclined. ⁸But seeing, His disciples were indignant, saying, For what is this waste? ⁹For this ointment could have been sold for much, and be given to the poor. ¹⁰But knowing, Jesus said to them, Why do you cause trouble to the woman? For she worked a good work toward Me. ¹¹For you always have the poor with you, but you do not always have Me. ¹²For in putting this ointment on My body, she did it in order to bury Me. ¹³Truly I say to you, Wherever this gospel is proclaimed in all the world, what she did will be spoken of as a memorial of her.

¹⁴Then one of the twelve, the one named Judas Iscariot, going to the chief priests ¹⁵said, What will you give to me, and I will deliver Him up to you? And they weighed to him thirty silver pieces. ¹⁶And from then he sought opportunity that he might betray Him.

¹⁷And on the first day of unleavened bread the disciples came to Jesus, saying to Him, Where do you desire we should prepare for You to eat the Passover? ¹⁸And He said, Go into the city to a certain one and say to him, The Teacher says, My time is near; to you I will prepare the Passover with My disciples. ¹⁹And the disciples did as Jesus ordered them, and prepared the Passover.

²⁰And evening coming, He reclined with the twelve. ²¹And as they were eating, He said, Truly I say to you that one of you will betray Me. ²²And grieving exceedingly, they began to say to Him, each of them, Lord, Not I am the one? ²³But answering He said, The one dipping the hand with Me in the dish will betray Me. ²⁴Indeed, the Son of man goes, as it has been written about Him. But woe to that man by whom the Son of man is betrayed. It were good for him if that man was never born. ²⁵And answering the one betraying Him, Judas, said, Not I am the one, Rabbi? He said to him, You said it.

²⁶And as they ate, taking the bread and blessing it, Jesus broke and gave to the disciples; and said, Take, eat; this is My body. ²⁷And taking the cup, and giving thanks, He gave to them, saying, Drink all of it. ²⁸For this is My blood of the New Covenant which concerning many is being poured out for forgiveness of sins.

²⁹But I say to you, I will not at all drink of this fruit of the vine after this, until that day when I drink it new with you in the kingdom of My Father.

³⁰And singing a hymn, they went into the Mount of Olives. ³¹Then Jesus said to them, You all will be offended in Me during this night. For it has been written, "I will smite the Shepherd, and the sheep of the flock will be scattered." ³²But after My resurrection I will go before you into Galilee. ³³And answering Peter said to Him, Even if all will be offended in You, I will never be offended. ³⁴Jesus said to him, Truly I say to you, During this night, before the cock crows, you will deny Me three times. ³⁵Peter said to Him, Even if it were necessary for me to die with You, I will in no way deny You. And all the disciples said the same.

³⁶Then Jesus came with them to a place called Gethsemane. And He said to the disciples, Sit here until going away I shall pray there. ³⁷And taking along Peter and the two sons of Zebedee, He began to grieve and to be deeply troubled. ³⁸Then He said to them, My soul is deeply grieved, even unto death. Stay here and watch with Me.

³⁹And going forward a little, He fell on His face, praying and saying, My Father, if it is possible, let this cup pass from Me; yet, not as I will, but as You will. ⁴⁰And He came to the disciples and found them sleeping. And He said to Peter, So! Were you not able to watch one hour with Me? ⁴¹Watch and pray that you do not enter into temptation. The Spirit indeed is willing, but the flesh is weak. ⁴²Again, going away a second time, He prayed, saying, My Father, if this cup cannot pass away from Me without my drinking it, let Your will be done. ⁴³And coming He again found them sleeping, for their eyes were heavy.

⁴⁴And leaving them, going away again, He prayed a third time, saying the same thing. ⁴⁵Then He came to His disciples and said to them, Sleep on, and rest for what time remains. Behold, the hour draws near, and the Son of man is betrayed into the hands of sinners. ⁴⁶Rise up, let us go. Behold, the one betraying Me draws near.

⁴⁷And as He was yet speaking, behold, Judas came, one of the twelve. And with him was a numerous crowd with swords and clubs, from the chief priests and elders of the people. ⁴⁸And the one betraying Him gave them a sign, saying, Whomever I may kiss, it is He; seize Him. ⁴⁹And coming up at once to Jesus, he said, Greetings, Rabbi. And he ardently kissed Him. ⁵⁰But Jesus said to him, Friend, why are you here? Then coming up, they laid hands on Jesus and seized Him. ⁵¹And, behold, one of those with Jesus, stretching out the hand, drew his sword and struck the slave of the high priest, and took off his ear. ⁵²Then Jesus said to him, Put your sword back into its place. For all who take the sword shall perish by a sword. ⁵³Or do you think that I am not able now to call on My Father, and He will place beside Me more than twelve legions of angels? ⁵⁴How then should the Scriptures be fulfilled, that it must happen this way?

⁵⁵In that hour Jesus said to the crowds, Have you come out to take Me with swords and clubs, as against a robber? I sat with you daily, teaching in the temple, and you did not lay hands on Me. ⁵⁶But all this is happening that the Scriptures of the prophets may be fulfilled.

Then all the disciples ran away, forsaking Him.

⁵⁷And those who had seized Jesus led Him away to Caiaphas the high priest, where the scribes and the elders were assembled. ⁵⁸And Peter followed Him from a distance, even to the court of the high priest. And going inside, he sat with the under-officers to see the end. ⁵⁹And the chief priests and the elders and the whole sanhedrin looked for false testimony against Jesus, so that they might put Him to death. ⁶⁰And not any were found, even though there were many false witnesses coming forward, they did not find any. But at last two false witnesses came up, ⁶¹saying, This one said, I am able to destroy the temple of God, and in three days to build it. ⁶²And standing up, the high priest said to Him, Do you answer nothing? What do these witness against you? ⁶³But Jesus kept silent. And answering the high priest said to Him, I adjure you by the living God that you tell us if you are the Christ, the Son of God. ⁶⁴Jesus said to him, You said it. I tell you more. From this time you shall see the Son of man sitting off the right hand of power, and coming on the clouds of the heavens.

⁶⁵Then the high priest tore his garments, saying, He blasphemed! Why do we have any more need of witnesses? Behold, now you have heard his blasphemy. ⁶⁶What does it seem to you? And answering they said, He is liable to death. ⁶⁷Then they spat in His face, and beat Him with the fist; and some slapped Him, ⁶⁸saying, Prophecy to us, Christ. Who is the one that struck you?

⁶⁹And Peter sat outside in the court. And one girl came near to him, saying, And you were with Jesus the Galilean. ⁷⁰But he denied before all, saying, I do not know what you say. ⁷¹And he going out into the porch, another saw him, and said to those there, And this one was with Jesus the Nazarene. ⁷²And again he denied with an oath, I do not know the man. ⁷³And after a little, coming near, those standing by said to Peter, Truly you also are of them, for even your speech makes you known. ⁷⁴Then he began to curse and to swear, I do not know the man. And immediately a cock crowed. ⁷⁵And Peter recalled the word of Jesus, saying to him, Before a cock crows, you will deny Me three times. And going out, he wept bitterly.

¹And it becoming early morning, all the chief priests and the elders of the people took counsel together against Jesus, so as to put Him to death. ²And binding Him, they led Him away and delivered Him to Pontius Pilate the governor.

³Then the one betraying Him, seeing that He was condemned, sorrowing Judas returned the thirty pieces of silver to the chief priests and the elders, ⁴saying, I sinned, betraying innocent blood. But they said, What is it to us? You see to it. ⁵And tossing the silver pieces into the temple, he left. And going away he hanged himself. ⁶And taking the pieces of silver, the chief priests said, It is not lawful to put them into the treasury, since it is the price of blood. ⁷And taking counsel, they bought of them the potter's field, for burial for the strangers. ⁸So that field was called Field of Blood until today. ⁹Then was fulfilled that spoken through Jeremiah the prophet, saying, "And I took the thirty pieces of silver, the price of Him who was priced, on whom they of the sons of Israel set a price, ¹⁰and gave them for the potter's field, as the Lord directed me."

¹¹And Jesus stood before the governor. And the governor questioned Him, saying, Are you the king of the Jews? And Jesus said to him, You say it. ¹²And when He was accused by the chief priests and the elders, He answered nothing. ¹³Then Pilate said to Him, Do you not hear how many things they testify against you? ¹⁴And He did not answer him, not even to one word, so that the governor greatly marveled.

¹⁵And at a feast the governor customarily released one prisoner to the crowd, whom they wished. ¹⁶And they had then a notable prisoner named Barabbas. ¹⁷Then they having been assembled, Pilate said to them, Whom do you wish I may release to you, Barabbas, or Jesus called Christ? ¹⁸For he knew they delivered Him up through envy.

¹⁹But as he was sitting on the judgment seat, his wife sent to him, saying, Let nothing be to you and that just one. For I have suffered many things today by a dream because of him. ²⁰But the chief priests and the elders persuaded the crowds, that they should ask for Barabbas, and to destroy Jesus. ²¹And answering the governor said to them, From the two, which do you wish that I release to you? And they said, Barabbas. ²²Pilate said to them, What then should I do to Jesus called Christ? ²³They all said to him, Let him be crucified. But the governor said, For what wrong did he do? But they the more cried out, saying, Let him be crucified. ²⁴And seeing that nothing is gained, but rather an uproar occurs, taking water Pilate washed his hands before the crowd, saying, I am innocent of the blood of this just one; you will see. ²⁵And answering all the people said, His blood be on us and on our children. ²⁶Then he released Barabbas to them. But having flogged Jesus, he delivered Him up that He might be crucified.

³²And going out they found a man, a Cyrenean named Simon. They forced this one to bear His cross. ³³And coming to a place called Golgotha, which is called, Place of a Skull, ³⁴they gave Him vinegar mingled with gall to drink. And having tasted, He would not drink. ³⁵And having crucified Him, they divided His garments, casting a lot—that might be fulfilled that spoken by the prophet, “They divided My garments to themselves, and they cast a lot over My clothing.” ³⁶And sitting down, they guarded Him there. ³⁷And they put up over His head His charge, it having been written: THIS IS JESUS THE KING OF THE JEWS. ³⁸Then two robbers were crucified with Him, one off the right, and one off the left of Him.

³⁹But those passing by blasphemed Him, shaking their heads, ⁴⁰and saying, You destroying the temple, and building it in three days, if you are the Son of God, come down from the cross. ⁴¹And in the same way the chief priests with the scribes and elders, mocking said, ⁴²He saved others; he is not able to save himself. If he is the king of Israel, let him come down now from the cross, and we will believe him. ⁴³He trusted on God. Let Him rescue him now, if He desires him. For he said, I am Son of God. ⁴⁴And also the robbers crucified with Him reviled Him, saying the same.

⁴⁵And from the sixth hour there was darkness over all the land until the ninth hour. ⁴⁶And about the ninth hour Jesus cried out with a loud voice, saying, Eli, Eli, lama sabachthani—that is, My God, My God, why did You forsake Me? ⁴⁷And hearing, some of those standing there said, This one calls Elijah. ⁴⁸And at once one of them running and taking a sponge, and filling it with vinegar, put it on a reed and gave drink to Him. ⁴⁹But the rest said, Let be; let us see if Elijah comes to save him.

⁵⁰And crying again with a loud voice, Jesus released His spirit. ⁵¹And, behold, the veil of the temple was torn into two from top to bottom. And the earth quaked, and the rocks were sheared! ⁵²And the tombs were opened, and many bodies of the saints who had fallen asleep were raised. ⁵³And coming forth out of the tombs after His resurrection, they entered into the holy city and were revealed to many.

⁵⁴But the centurion and those guarding Jesus with him, seeing the earthquake and the things taking place, they feared exceedingly, saying, Truly this One was Son of God.

⁵⁵And many women were there, watching from afar off, those who followed Jesus from Galilee, ministering to Him; ⁵⁶among whom was Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James and Josés, and the mother of the sons of Zebedee.

⁵⁷And evening having come, a rich man from Arimathea, Joseph by name, who also himself was discipled to Jesus; ⁵⁸coming up to Pilate, this one asked the body of Jesus. Then Pilate commanded the body to be given. ⁵⁹And taking the body, Joseph wrapped it in clean linen, ⁶⁰and laid it in his new tomb, which he had cut out in the rock. And rolling a great stone to the door of the tomb, he departed. ⁶¹And there was Mary Magdalene and the other Mary sitting across from the grave.

⁶²And on the morrow, which is after the Preparation, the chief priests and the Pharisees were assembled to Pilate, ⁶³saying, Lord, we have recalled that that deceiver said while he was living, After three days I will rise. ⁶⁴Therefore, command that the grave be secured until the third day, that his disciples may not come by night and steal him away, and may say to the people, He is raised from the dead. And the last deception will be worse than the first. ⁶⁵And Pilate said to them, You have a guard; go away; make it as secure as you know how. ⁶⁶And going, they made the grave secure, sealing the stone, along with the guard.

²And, behold! A great earthquake occurred! For coming down from Heaven, and coming up, an angel of the Lord rolled away the stone from the door, and was sitting on it. ³And his face was as lightning, and his clothing white as snow. ⁴And those keeping guard were shaken from the fear of him, and they became as dead. ⁵But answering the angel said to the women, You must not fear, for I know that you seek Jesus who has been crucified. ⁶He is not here, for He was raised, as He said. Come, see the place where the Lord was lying. ⁷And going quickly say to His disciples that He was raised from the dead. And, behold, He goes before you into Galilee. You will see Him there. See, I told you. ⁸And going away from the tomb quickly, with fear and great joy, they ran to tell it to His disciples. ⁹But as they were going to tell it to His disciples, behold, Jesus also met them, saying, Hail! And coming near, they seized His feet, and worshiped Him. ¹⁰Then Jesus said to them, Do not fear. Go tell your brothers that they may go into Galilee, and there they will see Me.

¹¹And they having gone, behold, some of the guard coming into the city reported to the chief priests all things that occurred. ¹²And being assembled with the elders, and taking counsel, they gave enough silver to the soldiers, ¹³saying, Say that his disciples came and stole him by night, we being asleep. ¹⁴And if this is heard by the governor, we will persuade him, and will make you free from anxiety. ¹⁵And taking the silver, they did as they were taught. And this report was spread by the Jews until today.

¹⁶But the eleven disciples went into Galilee, to the mount where Jesus appointed them. ¹⁷And seeing Him, they worshiped Him. But they doubted. ¹⁸And coming up Jesus talked with them, saying, All authority in Heaven and on earth was given to Me. ¹⁹Going, then, disciple all nations, baptizing them into the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit; ²⁰teaching them to observe all things, whatever I commanded you. And, behold, I am with you all the days until the completion of the age. Amen.

THE GOSPEL ACCORDING TO MARK

¹The beginning of the gospel of Jesus Christ, the Son of God, ²as it has been written in the Prophets, "Behold, I send My messenger before Your face, who will prepare Your way before You; ³*the voice of one crying in the wilderness. Prepare the way of the Lord, make His paths straight.*"

⁴John came baptizing in the wilderness, and proclaiming a baptism of repentance for forgiveness of sins. ⁵And all the Judean country, and those of Jerusalem went out to him, and were all baptized by him in the Jordan River, confessing their sins. ⁶And John was clothed in camel's hair, and a leather girdle about his loin; and eating locusts and wild honey. ⁷And he proclaimed, saying, He who comes after me is mightier than I, of whom I am not fit to stoop down to loosen the thong of His sandals. ⁸I indeed baptized you in water, but He will baptize you in the Holy Spirit.

⁹And it happened in those days, Jesus came from Nazareth of Galilee, and was baptized by John in the Jordan. ¹⁰And going up from the water immediately, He saw the heavens being torn, and the Spirit coming down as a dove upon Him.

¹¹And there was a voice out of the heavens, You are My Son, the Beloved, in whom I take delight.

¹²And the Spirit at once drove Him out into the wilderness. ¹³And He was there in the wilderness forty days, being tempted by Satan, and was with the wild beasts. And the angels ministered to Him.

¹⁴And after John was delivered up, Jesus came into Galilee, proclaiming the gospel of the kingdom of God, ¹⁵and saying, The time has been fulfilled, and the kingdom of God draws near. Repent and believe in the gospel.

¹⁶And walking along beside the Sea of Galilee, He saw Simon and his brother Andrew casting a small net in the sea; for they were fishers. ¹⁷And Jesus said to them, Come after Me, and I will make you to become fishers of men. ¹⁸And leaving their nets, they immediately followed Him. ¹⁹And going forward from there a little, He saw James the son of Zebedee, and his brother John. And they were in the boat mending the nets. ²⁰And at once He called them. And leaving their father Zebedee in the boat with the hired servants, they went after Him.

²¹And they passed along into Capernaum. And entering into the synagogue, at once He taught on the sabbaths. ²²And they were astonished at His teaching, for He was teaching them as having authority, and not as the scribes. ²³And a man with an unclean spirit was in their synagogue. And he cried out, ²⁴saying, What is to us and to You, Jesus, Nazarene? Have You come to destroy us? I know You, who You are, the Holy One of God. ²⁵And Jesus rebuked him, saying, Be quiet, and come out of him. ²⁶And the unclean spirit convulsing him, and crying out with a loud voice, he came out of him. ²⁷And all were astonished, so as to discuss to themselves, saying, What is this? What new teaching is this, that He commands even the unclean spirits with authority, and they obey Him? ²⁸And His fame went out at once into all the Galilean neighborhood.

³²And evening coming, when the sun set, they brought to Him all those having illness, and those having been demon-possessed. ³³And the whole city was gathered at the door. ³⁴And He healed many who had illness of various diseases. And he cast out many demons, and did not allow the demons to speak, because they knew Him.

³⁵And rising up quite early in the night, He went out and went away into a desert place. And He was praying there. ³⁶And Simon and those with him searched for Him. ³⁷And finding Him, they said to Him, All are seeking You. ³⁸And He said to them, Let us go into the neighboring towns, that I may proclaim there also. For it was for this I came forth. ³⁹And He was proclaiming in their synagogues in all Galilee, and casting out the demons.

⁴⁰And a leper came to Him, begging Him, and falling on his knees to Him, and saying to Him, If You will, You are able to make me clean. ⁴¹And being moved with pity, reaching out the hand, Jesus touched him, and said to him, I am willing. Be made clean! ⁴²And He having spoken, instantly the leprosy departed from him, and he was made clean. ⁴³And strictly warning him, He at once put him out, ⁴⁴and said to him, See, tell no one a thing, but go show yourself to the priest, and offer what Moses directed concerning your cleansing, for a testimony to them. ⁴⁵But going out he began to proclaim much, and to spread about the matter, so that He no longer could openly enter into a city. But He was outside in desert places. And they came to Him from every quarter.

¹And again He entered into Capernaum after some days. And it was heard that He was in a house. ²And at once many were gathered, so as none any longer had room, not even to the door. And He spoke the word to them. ³And they came to Him carrying a paralytic, being borne by four. ⁴And not being able to draw near to Him, due to the crowd, they unroofed the roof where He was. And digging through, they lowered the cot on which the paralytic was lying. ⁵And seeing their faith, Jesus said to the paralytic, Child, your sins are forgiven to you. ⁶But some of the scribes were sitting there, and reasoning in their hearts, ⁷Why does this one speak blasphemies this way? Who is able to forgive sins, except One, God? ⁸And instantly knowing in His spirit that they reasoned this way within themselves, Jesus said to them, Why do you reason these things in your hearts? ⁹Which is easier? To say to the paralytic, Your sins are forgiven to you; or to say, Rise up and take your cot and walk? ¹⁰But that you may know that the Son of man has authority to forgive sins on the earth, He said to the paralytic, ¹¹I say to you, Rise up and take up your cot, and go to your house. ¹²And at once he rose up. And taking his cot, he went out before all; so that all were amazed and glorified God, saying, Never did we see it this way.

¹³And he went out by the sea again. And all the crowd came to Him. And He taught them. ¹⁴And passing on, He saw Levi the son of Alphaeus sitting at the tax-office. And He said to him, Follow Me. And rising up, he followed Him.

¹⁵And it happened as He reclined in his house, even many tax-collectors and sinners reclined with Jesus and His disciples, for they were many. And they followed Him. ¹⁶And the scribes and Pharisees seeing Him eating with tax-collectors and sinners, they said to His disciples, Why is it that He eats and drinks with the tax-collectors and sinners? ¹⁷And hearing, Jesus said to them, Those who are strong have no need of a physician, but those who have illness. I did not come to call the righteous to repentance, but sinners.

¹⁸And John's disciples, and those of the Pharisees, were fasting. And they came and said to Him, Why do John's disciples and those of the Pharisees fast, but your disciples do not fast? ¹⁹And Jesus said to them, Can the sons of the bridechamber fast while the groom is with them? What time they have the groom with them, they cannot fast. ²⁰But the days will come when the groom will be taken away from them, and then they will fast in those days. ²¹And no one sews a patch of unmilld cloth on an old garment, else it takes away its fullness, the new from the old, and a worse tear occurs. ²²And no one puts new wine into old skins, else the new wine will burst the skins and the wine pours out, and the skins will be destroyed. But new wine is put into fresh skins.

²³And it happened He went along through the grainfields in the sabbaths. And His disciples began to make way, plucking the heads of grain. ²⁴And the Pharisees said to Him, Behold, why do they do that which is not lawful on the sabbaths? ²⁵And He said to them, Did you never read what David did when he had need and hungered, he and those with him, ²⁶how he entered the house of God in the days of Abiathar the high priest, and ate the Loaves of Arrangement, which it is not lawful to eat, except for the priests, and he even gave to those being with him? ²⁷And He said to them, The sabbath came into being for man's sake, not man for the sabbath's sake. ²⁸So then the Son of man is Lord of the sabbath also.

¹And again He entered into the synagogue. And there was a man who had a withering of the hand. ²And they watched Him, whether He will heal him on the sabbaths, that they might accuse Him. ³And He said to the man who had a withering of the hand, Rise up into the middle. ⁴And He said to them, Is it lawful to do good on the sabbaths, or to do evil? To save a soul, or to kill? But they were silent. ⁵And having looked around on them with anger, being greatly grieved over the hardness of their heart, He said to the man, Stretch out your hand! And he stretched out, and his hand was restored sound as the other. ⁶And going out the Pharisees at once took counsel with the Herodians against Him, how they might destroy Him.

⁷And Jesus withdrew to the sea with His disciples; and a great multitude from Galilee and from Judea followed Him; ⁸also some from Jerusalem, and from Idumea, and beyond the Jordan; also those around Tyre and Sidon, a great multitude came to Him, hearing how much He was doing. ⁹And He spoke to His disciples that a small boat should stay near to Him because of the crowd, that they might not press upon Him. ¹⁰For He healed many, so that they fell on Him, that they might touch Him, as many as had plagues. ¹¹And when the unclean spirits saw Him, they fell down before Him, and cried out, saying, You are the Son of God! ¹²And he warned them very much, that they should not reveal Him.

¹³And He went up into the mountain, and He called near whom He desired. And they went to Him. ¹⁴And He made disciples of twelve, that they might be with Him, and that He might send them to proclaim, ¹⁵and to have authority to heal diseases and to cast out the demons. ¹⁶And He put on Simon the name Peter. ¹⁷And on James the son of Zebedee, and John the brother of James, He put on them the names Boanerges, which is, Sons of Thunder. ¹⁸Also He appointed Andrew, and Philip, and Bartholomew, and Matthew, and Thomas, and James the son of Alpheus, and Thaddeus, and Simon the Canaanite, ¹⁹and Judas Iscariot, who also betrayed Him.

²⁰And He came into a house. And again a crowd came together, so as they were not able even to eat bread. ²¹And hearing, those with Him went out to take hold of Him; for they said, He is out of wits. ²²And coming down from Jerusalem, the scribes said, He has Beelzebub, and he casts out demons by the ruler of the demons. ²³And calling them near, He spoke to them in parables, saying, How can Satan cast out Satan? ²⁴And if a kingdom is divided against itself, that kingdom cannot stand. ²⁵And if a house is divided against itself, that house is not able to stand. ²⁶And if Satan rises upon himself, and has been divided, he is not able to stand, but he has an end. ²⁷No one is able in any way to plunder the goods of the strong one, entering into his house, unless he first tie up the strong one; and then he will plunder his house.

²⁸Truly I say to you, All the sins will be forgiven to the sons of men, and whatever blasphemies they have blasphemed. ²⁹But whoever commits blasphemy against the Holy Spirit has no forgiveness to eternity, but is liable to eternal judgment—³⁰because they said, He has an unclean spirit.

³¹Then His mother and brothers came. And standing outside, they sent to Him, calling Him. ³²And a crowd sat around Him. And they said to Him, Behold, Your mother and Your brothers seek You outside. ³³And He answered them, saying, Who is My mother or My brothers? ³⁴And having looked around on those sitting around Him in a circle, He said, Behold, My mother and My brothers! For whoever does the will of God, this one is My brother, and My sister, and My mother.

¹And again He began to teach by the sea. And a large crowd was gathered to Him, so that He entered into the boat in order to sit in the sea. And all the crowd were on the land toward the sea. ²And He taught them many things in parables, and said to them in His teaching: ³Listen! Behold, the sower went out to sow. ⁴And as he sowed, it happened that one indeed fell by the wayside; and the birds of the heaven came and ate it up. ⁵And another fell on the stony place where it did not have much earth. And it sprang up at once, due to not having deepness of earth. ⁶And the sun rising, it was scorched. And through not having root, it was dried out.

⁷And another fell into the thorns, and the thorns grew up and choked it, and it did not yield fruit. ⁸And another fell into the good ground, and yielded fruit, going up and increasing; and one bore thirty, and one sixty, and one a hundredfold. ⁹And He said to them, The one having ears to hear, let him hear.

¹⁰And when He was alone, those around Him, with the twelve, asked Him as to the parable. ¹¹And He said to them, To you has been given to know the mystery of the kingdom of God. But to these, those outside, all things are being given in parables, ¹²that seeing they may see and not perceive; and hearing they may hear, and not understand, lest they should convert, and sins be forgiven to them. ¹³And He said to them, Do you not know this parable? And how will you know all parables?

¹⁸These are those being sown into the thorns, those hearing the word, ¹⁹and the cares of this age, and the deceitfulness of riches, and the lusts about other things entering in, they choke the word, and it becomes unfruitful. ²⁰And these are those being sown on the good ground, who hear and welcome the word, and bring forth fruit—one thirty, and one sixty, and one a hundredfold.

²¹And He said to them, Does the lamp come that it may be put under the grain measure, or under the bed? Is it not that it may be put on the lampstand? ²²For not anything is hidden but that it will be revealed; nor anything become covered but that it will come to light. ²³If anyone has ears to hear, let him hear.

²⁴And He said to them, Be careful what you hear. With what measure you measure, it will be measured to you, and more will be given to you, the ones hearing. ²⁵For whoever may have, more will be given to him; and the one who does not have, even what he has will be taken from him.

²⁶And He said, So is the kingdom of God, as if a man should cast seed on the earth, ²⁷and should sleep, and rise night and day, and the seed should sprout and lengthen of itself, as he does not know—²⁸for of itself the earth bears fruit: first greenery, then an ear, then full grain in the ear. ²⁹And when the fruit yields, immediately he sends forth the sickle, for the harvest has come.

³⁰And He said, To what shall we compare the kingdom of God? Or with what parable shall we compare it? ³¹*It is* like a grain of mustard, which, when it is sown on the earth, it is less than all the seeds of those on the earth. ³²And when it is sown, it comes up, and becomes greater than all the plants, and produces great branches, so as to enable the birds of the heaven to roost under its shade.

³³And with many such parables He spoke the word to them, even as they were able to hear. ³⁴But He did not speak to them without a parable. And He explained all things to His disciples privately.

³⁵And evening having come, He said to them on that day, Let us pass over to the other side. ³⁶And dismissing the crowd, they took Him along, as He was in the boat. And other small boats also were with Him. ³⁷And a great windstorm occurred, and the waves beat into the boat, so that it was filled already. ³⁸And He was on the stern, sleeping on the headrest. And they awakened Him, and said to Him, Teacher, does it not matter to You that we are perishing? ³⁹And being awakened, He rebuked the wind, and said to the sea, Silence! Be still! And the wind ceased, and there was a great calm. ⁴⁰And He said to them, Why are you so fearful? How do you not have faith? ⁴¹And they feared a great fear, and said to one another, Who then is this, that even the wind and the sea obey Him?

CHAPTER 5

¹And they came to the other side of the sea, to the country of the Gadarenes. ²And He coming out from the boat, immediately out of the tombs a man with an unclean spirit met Him, ³who had his abode among the tombs, and no one was able to bind him, not even with chains; ⁴because he had often been bound with fetters and chains, and the chains had been torn by him, and the fetters had been shattered. And no one was able to subdue him. ⁵And continually night and day in the hills, and in the tombs, he was crying and cutting himself with stones. ⁶And seeing Jesus from afar, he ran and bowed the knee to Him. ⁷And crying with a loud voice, he said, What is to me and to You, Jesus, Son of the most high God? I adjure You by God, do not torment me. ⁸For He said to him, Unclean spirit, come out of the man! ⁹And He asked him, What is your name? And he answered, saying, My name is Legion, because we are many. ¹⁰And he begged Him very much that He would not send them outside the country. ¹¹And a great herd of pigs were feeding there near the mountain. ¹²And all the demons begged Him, saying, Send us into the pigs, that we may enter into them. ¹³And Jesus immediately allowed them. And coming out, the unclean spirits entered into the pigs, and the herd rushed down the cliff into the sea — and they were about two thousand — and they were choked in the sea. ¹⁴And those who fed the pigs fled, and they told it to the city, and to the fields. And they came out to see what was happening.

¹⁵And they came to Jesus, and stared at the one who had been demon-possessed, sitting and being clothed, and being in his senses, the one who had the legion. And they feared. ¹⁶And those who had seen related how it happened to the demon-possessed one, and about the pigs.

¹⁷And they began to beg Him to depart from their borders. ¹⁸And He having entered into the boat, the former demoniac begged Him, that he be with Him. ¹⁹But Jesus did not allow him, but said to him, Go to your house, to your own, and announce to them what the Lord has done to you, and favored you. ²⁰And he left and began to proclaim in Decapolis what Jesus did to him. And all marveled.

²¹And Jesus having crossed over in the boat again to the other side, a large crowd gathered upon Him; and He was by the sea. ²²And, behold, one of the synagogue rulers named Jairus came. And seeing Him, he fell at His feet. ²³And he begged Him very much, saying, My daughter is at the last end. I pray that You will come and lay hands on her, that she may be cured, and live. ²⁴And He went with him. And a large crowd followed Him, and pressed on Him.

²⁵And a certain woman being with a flow of blood twelve years, ²⁶and who had suffered many things by many physicians, and had spent all things that she had, and gaining nothing, but rather coming to worse, ²⁷hearing about Jesus, coming in the crowd behind Him, she touched His garment. ²⁸For she said, If I may but touch His garments, I will be cured. ²⁹And instantly the fountain of her blood was dried up, and she knew in her body that she was healed of the plague. ³⁰And knowing instantly within Himself that power had gone forth out of Him, turning in the crowd, Jesus said, Who touched My garments? ³¹And His disciples said to Him, You see the crowd pressing on You, and do You say, Who touched Me? ³²And He looked around to see the one who had done this. ³³And the woman being afraid and trembling, knowing what had happened on her, she came and fell down before Him, and told Him all the truth. ³⁴And He said to her, Daughter, your faith has healed you. Go in peace, and be whole from your plague.

³⁵As He was speaking, they came from the synagogue ruler, saying, Your daughter has died. Why do you still trouble the Teacher? ³⁶But hearing the word spoken, Jesus said to the synagogue ruler at once, Do not fear; only believe. ³⁷And He did not allow anyone to go with Him except Peter and James and John, the brother of James. ³⁸And they came into the synagogue ruler's house. And He saw a tumult, and weeping and much wailing. ³⁹And going in, He said to them, Why do you make a tumult and weep? The child has not died, but is sleeping. ⁴⁰And they laughed at Him. But putting all out, He took along the father and the mother of the child, and those with Him, and passed on into where the child was lying. ⁴¹And taking hold of the child's hand, He said to her, Talitha koumi; which is, being translated, Little girl, I say to you, Rise up! ⁴²And immediately the little girl rose up and walked. For she was twelve years old. And they were amazed with great amazement. ⁴³And very much He directed them that no one should know this. And He said to give her something to eat.

¹And He went out from there, and came to His native-place. And His disciples followed Him. ²And a sabbath occurring, He began to teach in the synagogue. And hearing many were amazed, saying, From where came these things to this one? And what is the wisdom given to him, that even such works of power come about through his hands? ³Is this one not the carpenter, the son of Mary, and brother of James and Joseph and Judas and Simon? And are not his sisters here with us? And they were offended in Him. ⁴And Jesus said to them, A prophet is not without honor, except in his native-place, and among the relatives, and in his own house. ⁵And he could do no work of power there, except He performed healing on a few infirm ones, laying on His hands. ⁶And He marveled because of their unbelief.

And He went around the villages in a circuit, teaching.

⁷And He called the twelve near, and began to send them out two by two. And He gave them authority over the unclean spirits, ⁸and charged them that they take nothing in the way, except only a staff—no bag, no bread, no copper in the belt; ⁹but having tied on sandals, and not putting on two tunics. ¹⁰And He said to them, Wherever you enter into a house, remain there until you go out from there. ¹¹And as many as will not receive you, nor hear from you, having gone out from there, shake off the dust under your feet for a testimony to them. Truly I say to you, it will be more bearable for Sodom or Gomorrah in Judgment Day than for that city. ¹²And going out they proclaimed that men should repent. ¹³And they cast out many demons, and anointed with oil and healed many sick ones.

¹⁴And Herod the king heard; for His name became publicly known. And he said, John the Baptist has been raised from the dead, and because of this the works of power operate in him.

¹⁵Others said, He is Elijah; and others said, He is a prophet, or as one of the prophets. ¹⁶But hearing, Herod said, This one is John, whom I beheaded. He has risen from the dead.

¹⁷For having sent, Herod himself had seized John, and bound him in the prison, because of Herodias the wife of his brother Philip; because he had married her. ¹⁸For John had said to Herod, It is not lawful for you to have the wife of your brother. ¹⁹And Herodias held it against him, and desired to kill him, but was not able. ²⁰For Herod feared John, knowing him to be a holy and just man, and kept him safe. And hearing him, he did many things, and gladly heard from him. ²¹And a suitable day having come, when Herod made a supper for his great ones on his birthday, also the chiliarchs, and the first ones of Galilee. ²²And the daughter of Herodias herself entering, and dancing, she also pleased Herod and those reclining with him. The king said to the girl, Ask me whatever you wish, and I will give it to you. ²³And he swore to her, Whatever you ask me, I will give to you, up to half of my kingdom. ²⁴And going out, she said to her mother, What shall I ask? And she said, The head of John the Baptist. ²⁵And immediately, going in with haste to the king, she asked, saying, I desire that at once you give to me the head of John the Baptist on a platter. ²⁶And becoming deeply grieved, because of the oaths and those reclining together, the king did not wish to reject her. ²⁷And the king sending a guardsman at once, he ordered his head to be brought. ²⁸And going he beheaded him in the prison, and brought his head on a platter, and gave it to the girl. And the girl gave it to her mother. ²⁹And hearing, his disciples went and took his corpse and placed it in a tomb.

³⁰And the apostles gathered to Jesus. And they told Him all things, even what they did, and what they taught. ³¹And He said to them, You yourselves come apart into a desert place, and rest a little. For those coming, and those going were many; and they did not even have opportunity to eat. ³²And they departed by boat into a desert place apart.

³³And the crowds saw them going, and many recognized Him. And they ran together on foot there, from all the cities, and came before them, and came together to Him. ³⁴And going out Jesus saw a large crowd, and had pity on them, because they were as sheep having no shepherd. And He began to teach them many things. ³⁵And it now becoming a late hour, drawing near to Him, the disciples said, The place is desert, and it is now a late hour. ³⁶Send them away, that going away to the surrounding fields and villages they may buy bread for themselves. For they do not have what they may eat. ³⁷And answering He said to them, You give them food to eat. And they said to Him, Going should we buy two hundred denarii of bread, and give them to eat? ³⁸And He said to them, How many loaves do you have? Go and see. And knowing, they said, Five, and two fish.

³⁹And He ordered them all to recline, group by group on the green grass. ⁴⁰And they sat, group by group, by hundred and by fifty. ⁴¹And taking the five loaves and the two fish, looking up to Heaven, He blessed, and broke the loaves, and gave to His disciples, that they might set before them. And He divided the two fish to all. ⁴²And all ate, and were satisfied. ⁴³And they took up twelve handbaskets full of fragments; also from the fish. ⁴⁴And those eating were about five thousand men.

⁴⁵And at once He constrained His disciples to enter into the boat, and to go before to the other side, to Bethsaida, until He should dismiss the crowd. ⁴⁶And taking leave of them, He went away to the mountain to pray. ⁴⁷And it becoming evening, the boat was in the middle of the sea, and He alone on the land. ⁴⁸And He saw them being distressed in the rowing, for the wind was contrary to them. And it was about the fourth watch of the night when He came toward them, walking on the sea. And He willed to go by them. ⁴⁹But seeing Him walking on the sea, they thought it to be a ghost. And they cried out. ⁵⁰For all saw Him, and were troubled. And immediately He spoke to them and said to them, Have courage. I AM! Do not fear. ⁵¹And He went up to them into the boat, and the wind was cut off. And they were amazed, exceedingly beyond measure within themselves, and marveled. ⁵²For they did not understand the miracle of the loaves; for their hearts were hardened.

⁵³And crossing over, they came into the land of Gennesaret, and drew to shore. ⁵⁴And they coming out of the boat, at once knowing Him, ⁵⁵they ran around all that neighborhood. And they began to carry about those having illness on cots to where they heard that He was. ⁵⁶And wherever He went into villages or cities or fields, they laid the ailing ones in the markets, and begged Him if only they may touch the fringe of His garment. And as many as touched Him were healed.

¹And the Pharisees were assembled to Him, also some of the scribes, coming from Jerusalem. ²And seeing some of His disciples eating bread with unclean hands, that is unwashed hands, they found fault. ³For the Pharisees and all the Jews do not eat unless they wash the hands with the fist, holding the tradition of the elders. ⁴And coming from the market, they do not eat unless they wash themselves. And there are many other things which they received to hold: washings of cups, and of utensils, and of bronze vessels, and couches. ⁵Then the Pharisees and scribes questioned Him, Why do your disciples not walk according to the tradition of the elders, but eat bread with unwashed hands? ⁶And answering He said to them, Well did Isaiah prophesy concerning you, hypocrites; as it has been written: "This people honors Me with the lips, but their heart is far away from Me; ⁷and in vain they worship Me, teaching as doctrines the commandments of men." ⁸For forsaking the commandment of God, you hold the tradition of men: washings of utensils and cups, and many other such like things you do. ⁹And He said to them, Do you do well to set aside the commandment of God so that you may keep your tradition? ¹⁰For Moses said, "Honor your father and your mother;" and, "The one speaking evil of father or mother, let him expire by death." ¹¹But you say, If a man says to his father or mother, Corban, which is; A gift!—whatever you may profit by me. ¹²And you no longer allow him to do anything for his father or his mother, ¹³making the word of God of no effect by your tradition which you delivered. And many such like things you do. ¹⁴And calling all the crowd near, He said to them, All hear Me, and understand. ¹⁵There is nothing from outside the man which entering into him which is able to defile him. But the things going out from him, those are the things defiling the man. ¹⁶If anyone has ears to hear, let him hear.

¹⁷And when He entered into a house from the crowd, His disciples questioned Him about the parable. ¹⁸And He said to them, Are you also so undiscerning? Do you not perceive that all that enters from the outside into the man is not able to defile him? ¹⁹*This is* because it does not enter into his heart, but into the belly, and goes out into the wastebowl, purging all the foods. ²⁰And He said, That passing out of the man, it is that defiles the man. ²¹For from within, out of the heart of men, pass out the evil thoughts, adulteries, fornications, murders, ²²thefts, greedy desires, iniquities, deceit, lustful desires, a wicked eye, blasphemy, pride, foolishness—²³all these evil things pass out from within and defile the man.

²⁴And rising up from there, he went away into the borders of Tyre and Sidon. And entering into the house, He desired no one to know, but He could not be hidden. ²⁵For hearing about Him, a woman came up, one whose daughter had an unclean spirit. And she fell down at His feet. ²⁶And the woman was a Greek, a Syro-phoenician by race. And she asked Him, that He would cast out the demon from her daughter. ²⁷And Jesus said to her, First, allow the children to be satisfied; for it is not good to take the children's bread and to throw it to the dogs. ²⁸But she answered and said to Him, Yes, Lord; for even the dogs under the table eat from the crumbs of the children. ²⁹And He said to her, Because of this word, go. The demon has gone out from your daughter. ³⁰And going away to her house, she found the demon had gone out, and her daughter was laid on the couch.

³¹And again going out from the borders of Tyre and Sidon, He came to the Sea of Galilee, in the midst of the borders of the Decapolis. ³²And they brought a deaf one to Him, hardly speaking. And they begged Him, that He put His hand on him. ³³And taking him away, apart from the crowd, He put His fingers into his ears; and spitting, He touched his tongue; ³⁴and looking up into Heaven, He groaned, and said to him, Ephphatha! which is, Be opened! ³⁵And instantly his ears were opened, and the bond of his tongue was loosened, and he spoke correctly. ³⁶And He ordered them, that they should tell no one. But as much as He ordered them, much more abundantly they proclaimed. ³⁷And they were most exceedingly amazed, saying, He has done all things well. He makes even the deaf to hear, and the dumb to speak.

¹The crowd being very great in those days, and not having anything they may eat, Jesus calling His disciples near, He said to them, ²I have pity on the crowd, because now three days they remain with Me, and they do not have what they may eat. ³And if I send them away fasting to their house, they will faint in the way, for some of them come from afar. ⁴And His disciples answered Him, From where will anyone here be able to satisfy these with bread on a desert? ⁵And He asked them, How many loaves do you have? And they said, Seven. ⁶And He ordered the crowd to recline on the ground. And taking the seven loaves, giving thanks, He broke and gave to His disciples, that they might serve. And they served the crowd. ⁷And they had a few fish. And blessing, He said for these also to be served. ⁸And they ate, and were satisfied. And they took up over and above seven lunch-baskets of fragments. ⁹And those eating were about four thousand. And He sent them away. ¹⁰And at once entering into the boat with His disciples, He came into the region of Dalmanutha.

¹¹And the Pharisees went out and began to argue with Him, seeking from Him a sign from Heaven, tempting Him. ¹²And groaning in His spirit, He said, Why does this generation seek a sign? Truly I say to you, As if this generation will be given a sign! ¹³And leaving them, again entering into the boat, He went away to the other side.

¹⁴And the disciples forgot to take loaves. And they did not have any with them, except one loaf in the boat. ¹⁵And He charged them, saying, See! Beware of the leaven of the Pharisees, and of the leaven of Herod. ¹⁶And they reasoned with one another, saying, Because we have no loaves. ¹⁷And knowing, Jesus said to them, Why do you reason because you have no loaves? Do you not yet perceive nor realize? Have you still hardened your heart? ¹⁸Having eyes, do you not see? And having ears, do you not hear? And do you not remember? ¹⁹When I broke the five loaves to the five thousand, how many handbaskets full of fragments did you take up? They said to Him, Twelve. ²⁰And when the seven to the four thousand, how many lunch-baskets did you take up with the fillings of fragments? And they said, Seven. ²¹And He said to them, How do you not understand?

²²And He came to Bethsaida. And they carried a blind one to Him, and begged Him that He would touch him. ²³And laying hold of the blind one's hand, He led him forth outside the village. And spitting into his eyes, laying His hands on him, He asked him if he saw anything. ²⁴And looking, he said, I see men as trees walking. ²⁵Then He placed His hands on his eyes again, and made him look up. And he was restored, and saw all clearly. ²⁶And He sent him to his house, saying, You may not go into the village, nor may tell anyone in the village.

²⁷And Jesus and His disciples went out to the villages of Caesarea of Philip. And in the way He questioned His disciples, saying to them, Whom do men say Me to be? ²⁸And they answered, John the Baptist; and others say Elijah; but others, one of the prophets. ²⁹And He said to them, And you, whom do you say Me to be? And answering Peter said to Him, You are the Christ. ³⁰And He warned them that they may tell no one about Him. ³¹And He began to teach them that it is necessary for the Son of man to suffer many things, and to be rejected of the elders and chief priests and scribes, and to be killed, and after three days to rise again. ³²And He spoke the word openly. And taking Him aside, Peter began to rebuke Him. ³³But turning around and seeing His disciples, He rebuked Peter, saying, Go behind Me, Satan, because you do not mind the things of God, but the things of men.

³⁴And calling near the crowd with His disciples, he said to them, Whoever desires to come after Me, let him deny himself and take his cross, and let him follow Me. ³⁵For whoever desires to save his soul, he shall lose it. But whoever shall lose his soul for My sake and the gospel, that one shall save it. ³⁶For what shall it profit a man if he gain the whole world, yet damage his soul? ³⁷Or what shall a man give as an exchange for his soul? ³⁸For whoever may be ashamed of Me and My words in this adulterous and sinful generation, the Son of man will also be ashamed of him when He comes in the glory of His Father, along with the holy angels.

¹And He said to them, Truly I say to you, There are some of those standing here who in no way shall taste of death until they see the kingdom of God coming in power.

²And after six days Jesus takes along Peter and James and John, and carries them into a high mount apart, alone. And He was transfigured before them. ³And His garments became shining, very white like snow, such as a fuller on earth is not able to whiten. ⁴And appeared to them Elijah with Moses, and they were speaking with Jesus. ⁵And answering Peter said to Jesus, Rabbi, it is good for us to be here; and, Let us make three tabernacles, one for You, and one for Moses, and one for Elijah. ⁶For he did not know what to say, for they were very fearful. ⁷And a cloud was overshadowing them, and a voice came out of the cloud, saying, This is My Son, the Beloved; hear Him. ⁸And suddenly, looking around, they saw no one any longer, but Jesus alone with them.

⁹And as they were coming down from the mount, He commanded them that they should tell no one what they saw, except when the Son of man should rise from the dead. ¹⁰And they held the word to themselves, debating what it is to rise from the dead.

¹¹And they asked Him, saying, Do not the scribes say that Elijah must come first? ¹²And answering He said to them, Indeed Elijah coming first restores all things. And how it has been written of the Son of man that He suffer many things, and be despised! ¹³But I say to you, Elijah also has come, and they did to him whatever they desired, even as it has been written of him.

¹⁴And coming to the disciples, He saw a great crowd around them, and scribes arguing with them. ¹⁵And at once all the crowd seeing Him were greatly amazed. And running up, they greeted Him. ¹⁶And He questioned the scribes, What are you arguing with them? ¹⁷And one answered out of the crowd, saying, Teacher, I brought my son to You, having a dumb spirit. ¹⁸And wherever it seizes him, it dashes him; and he foams and gnashes his teeth. And he wastes away.

And I told Your disciples, that they might expel it. And they were not able. ¹⁹And answering them He said, O unbelieving generation! How long will I be with you? How long shall I endure you? Bring him to Me. ²⁰And they brought him to Him. And seeing Him, the spirit immediately convulsed him. And falling on the ground, he wallowed, foaming. ²¹And He questioned his father, How long a time is it while this has happened to him? And he said, From childhood. ²²And often it threw him both into fire and into water, that it might destroy him. But if You are able to do anything, help us, having pity on us. ²³And Jesus said to him, If you are able to believe, all things are possible to those believing. ²⁴And immediately crying out, the father of the child said with tears, Lord, I believe! Help my unbelief! ²⁵And seeing that a crowd is running together, Jesus rebuked the unclean spirit, saying to it, Dumb and deaf spirit, I command you, Come out from him, and you may no more go into him! ²⁶And crying out, and convulsing him very much, it came out. And he became as if dead, so as for many to say that he died. ²⁷But taking hold of his hand, Jesus raised him up, and he stood up. ²⁸And He entering into a house, His disciples questioned Him privately, Why were we not able to cast it out? ²⁹And He said to them, This kind can go out by nothing except by prayer and fasting.

³⁰And going forth from there, they passed by through Galilee. And He desired that no one know. ³¹For He taught His disciples, and said to them, The Son of man is betrayed into the hands of men, and they will kill Him. And being killed, He will rise up the third day. ³²But they did not know the word, and feared to question Him.

³³And they came to Capernaum. And having come into the house, He questioned them, What were you disputing to yourselves in the way? ³⁴And they were silent, for they argued with one another in the way as to who was greater. ³⁵And sitting, He called the Twelve and said to them, If anyone desires to be first, he shall be last of all, and servant of all. ³⁶And taking a child, He set it in their midst, and having embraced it, He said to them, ³⁷Whoever receives one of such children on My name receives Me. And whoever receives Me, he not only receives Me, but the One having My name receives Me. And whoever receives Me, he not only receives Me, but He sending Me.

³⁸And John answered Him, saying, Teacher, we saw someone casting out demons in Your name, who does not follow us. And we forbade him, because he does not follow us. ³⁹But Jesus said, Do not forbid him. For there is no one who shall do a work of power in My name, yet be able to speak evil of Me quickly. ⁴⁰For who is not against us is for us. ⁴¹For whoever gives you a cup of cold water to drink in My name, because you are of Christ, truly I say to you, In no way he will lose his reward. ⁴²And whoever causes one of these little ones that believe in Me to offend, it is good for him if rather a millstone be laid about his neck, and he be thrown into the sea.

⁴³And if your hand offend you, cut it off. For it is profitable for you to enter into life maimed, than having two hands to go away into Hell, into the fire that cannot be put out, ⁴⁴where their worm does not die, and the fire is not put out. ⁴⁵And if your foot causes you to offend, cut it off, for it is profitable for you to enter into life lame, than having two feet to be thrown into Hell, into the fire that cannot be put out, ⁴⁶where their worm does not die, and the fire is not put out. ⁴⁷And if your eye offends you, cast it out. For it is profitable for you to enter into the kingdom of God one-eyed, than having two eyes to be thrown into the Hell of fire, ⁴⁸where their worm does not die, and the fire is not put out. ⁴⁹For everyone will be salted with fire, and every sacrifice will be salted with salt. ⁵⁰Salt is good, but if the salt becomes saltless, by what will you season? Have salt in yourselves, and be at peace with one another.

¹And rising up from there, He came into the borders of Judea by the other side of the Jordan. And again crowds came together to Him, and as He usually did,

He again taught them. ²And coming near the Pharisees asked Him if it is lawful for a man to put away a wife, testing Him. ³But answering He said to them, What did Moses command you? ⁴And they said, Moses allowed to write a bill of divorce, and to put away. ⁵And answering Jesus said to them, With respect to your hardness of heartedness he wrote this command to you. ⁶But from the beginning of creation God made them male and female. ⁷Because of this a man shall leave his father and mother, and shall be joined to his wife, ⁸and the two shall be one flesh; so that they no longer are two, but one flesh. ⁹Therefore, what God yoked together, let not man put apart. ¹⁰And again in the house His disciples asked Him about the same. ¹¹And He said to them, Whoever puts away his wife, and shall marry another commits adultery against her. ¹²And if a woman puts away her husband and marries another, she commits adultery.

¹³And they brought children to Him, that He might touch them. But the disciples rebuked those carrying them. ¹⁴But seeing, Jesus was indignant. And He said to them, Allow the children to come to Me, and do not hinder them. For of such is the kingdom of God. ¹⁵Truly I say to you, Whoever does not receive the kingdom of God as a child may in no way enter into it. ¹⁶And having taken them in His arms, laying hands on them, He blessed them.

¹⁷And He having gone out into the highway, running up and kneeling down to Him, one questioned Him, Good Teacher, what shall I do that I may inherit eternal life? ¹⁸But Jesus said to him, Why do you call Me good? No one is good except One, God. ¹⁹You know the commandments: Do not commit adultery; do not commit murder; do not steal; do not bear false witness; do not defraud; honor your father and mother. ²⁰And answering he said to Him, Teacher, I observed all these from my youth. ²¹And looking at him, Jesus loved him, and said to him, One thing is lacking to you. Go, sell what things you have, and give to the poor. And you will have treasure in Heaven. And come, follow Me, taking up the cross.

²²But being sad at the word, he went away grieving; for he had many possessions.

²³And looking around Jesus said to His disciples, How hardly those having riches will enter into the kingdom of God!

²⁴And the disciples were astonished at His words. And answering again Jesus said to them, Children, how hard it is for those trusting on riches to enter into the kingdom of God! ²⁵It is easier for a camel to pass through the eye of the needle, than for a rich one to enter into the kingdom of God. ²⁶And they were exceedingly astonished, saying to themselves, And who is able to be saved? ²⁷But looking at them, Jesus said, From men it is impossible, but not from God—for all things are possible from God.

³²And they were in the highway, going up to Jerusalem. And Jesus was going before them, and they were astonished, and following Him were afraid. And taking the twelve again, He began to tell them the things about to happen to Him: ³³Behold, we are going up to Jerusalem. And the Son of man will be betrayed to the chief priests and to the scribes. And they will condemn Him to death, and will deliver Him up to the nations. ³⁴And they will mock Him, and will flog Him, and will spit at Him, and will kill Him. And on the third day He will rise again.

³⁵And coming up to Him, James and John, the sons of Zebedee, said, Teacher, we desire that whatever we may ask You would do for us. ³⁶And He said to them, What do you desire for Me to do for you? ³⁷And they said to Him, Give us that we may sit one off the right of You, and one off the left of You, in Your glory. ³⁸But Jesus said to them, You do not know what you ask. Are you able to drink the cup which I drink, and to be baptized with the baptism I am baptized with? ³⁹And they said to Him, We are able. But Jesus said to them, Indeed you will drink the cup which I drink, and you will be baptized with the baptism with which I am baptized. ⁴⁰But to sit off My right and off My left is not Mine to give, but for whom it has been prepared.

⁴¹And hearing, the ten began to be indignant about James and John. ⁴²But having called them near, Jesus said to them, You know that those seeming to rule the nations lord it over them, and their great ones exercise authority over them. ⁴³But it shall not be so among you, but whoever desires to become great among you shall be your servant. ⁴⁴And whoever of you desires to become first, he shall be slave of all. ⁴⁵For even the Son of man did not come to be served, but to serve, and to give His soul as a ransom for many.

⁴⁶And they came to Jericho. And He and His disciples and a large crowd going out from Jericho, a son of Timeus, Bartimeus the blind, sat beside the highway, begging. ⁴⁷And hearing that it was Jesus the Nazarene, he began to cry out and to say, Son of David, Jesus, have mercy on me! ⁴⁸And many warned him that he be quiet. But he much more cried out, Son of David, have mercy on me! ⁴⁹And standing still, Jesus said for him to be called. And they called the blind one, saying to him, Be comforted, rise up, He calls you. ⁵⁰And throwing away his garment, rising up, he came to Jesus. ⁵¹And answering Jesus said to him, What do you desire I should do to you? And the blind one said to Him, My Lord, that I may see again. ⁵²And Jesus said to him, Go, your faith has healed you. And instantly he saw again, and followed Jesus in the highway.

¹And when they drew near to Jerusalem, to Bethphage and Bethany, toward the Mount of Olives, He sent two of His disciples, ²and said to them, Go into the village opposite you. And going into it at once, you will find a colt tied, on which no one of men has sat. Untying it, bring it. ³And if anyone says to you, Why do you do this? say, The Lord has need of it. And he will at once send it here.

⁴And they departed and found the colt tied at the door outside, by the crossway; and they untied it. ⁵And some of those standing there said to them, What are you doing, untying the colt? ⁶And they said to them as Jesus commanded. And they let them go. ⁷And they led the colt to Jesus. And they threw their garments on it, and He sat on it. ⁸And many spread their garments on the highway, and others were cutting branches from the trees, and were spreading them on the highway. ⁹And those going before, and those following after, were crying out, saying, Hosanna! Blessed is the One coming in the name of the Lord! ¹⁰Blessed is the coming kingdom of our father David in the name of the Lord! Hosanna in the highest!

¹¹And Jesus entered into Jerusalem, and into the temple. And having looked around at all things, the hour already being late, He went out to Bethany with the twelve. ¹²And on the morrow, they going out from Bethany, He hungered. ¹³And seeing afar off a fig-tree having leaves, He went toward it, if perhaps He would find anything on it. And coming on it, He found nothing except leaves, for it was not the time of figs. ¹⁴And answering Jesus said to it, Let no one eat fruit of you any more forever. And His disciples heard.

¹⁵And they came to Jerusalem. And entering into the temple, Jesus began to throw out those selling and buying in the temple; also He overturned the tables of the moneychangers, and the seats of those selling the doves. ¹⁶And He did not allow any to carry a vessel through the temple. ¹⁷And He taught, saying to them, Has it not been written, "My house shall be called a house of prayer for all the nations"? But you have made it a den of robbers. ¹⁸And the scribes and the chief priests heard. And they sought how they might destroy Him; for they feared Him; because all the crowd was astonished at His teaching.

¹⁹And when evening came, He went outside the city. ²⁰And passing along early, they saw the fig-tree withered from the roots. ²¹And remembering, Peter said to Him, Rabbi, behold, the fig-tree which You cursed has withered. ²²And answering Jesus said to them, Have faith in God. ²³For truly I say to you, Whoever says to this mountain, Be taken up and be thrown into the sea; and does not doubt in his heart, but believes that what he says will happen, it will be to him, whatever he says. ²⁴Therefore I say to you, All things, whatever you ask, praying, believe that you will receive, and it will be to you. ²⁵And when you stand praying, if you have anything against anyone, forgive it, so that your Father in Heaven may also forgive your sins. ²⁶But if you do not forgive, neither will your Father in Heaven forgive your sins.

²⁷And they came again to Jerusalem. And as He was walking in the temple, the chief priests and the scribes and the elders came to Him. ²⁸And they said to Him, By what authority do you do these things? And who gave you this authority that you do these things? ²⁹And answering Jesus said to them, I will also ask you one thing, and answer Me, and I will tell you by what authority I do these things. ³⁰The baptism of John, was it from Heaven, or from men? Answer Me. ³¹And they argued to themselves, saying, If we say, From Heaven, he will say, Why then did you not believe him? ³²But if we say, From men—they feared the people. For all held that John really was a prophet. ³³And answering they said to Jesus, We do not know. And answering Jesus said to them, Neither do I tell you by what authority I do these things.

¹And He began to speak to them in parables:

A man planted a vineyard, and set a fence around it, and dug a winevat, and built a tower. And he let it out to vinedressers, and went away. ²And at the season he sent a slave to the vinedressers, that he might receive from the vinedressers the fruit of the vineyard. ³But taking him, they beat him, and sent him away empty. ⁴And again he sent to them another slave. And stoning that one, they struck him in the head, and sent him away, insulting him. ⁵And again he sent another, and they killed that one; also many others, indeed beating these, and killing these. ⁶Yet having one son, his own beloved, then he sent him to them also, last of all, saying, They will have respect for my son. ⁷But these vine-dressers said to themselves, This is the heir; come, let us kill him and the inheritance will be ours. ⁸And taking him, they killed him, and threw him outside the vineyard. ⁹What, then, will the lord of the vineyard do? He will come and will destroy the vine-dressers, and will give the vineyard to others. ¹⁰Have you not even read this Scripture, "The Stone which the builders rejected, this one became head of the corner; ¹¹this came about from the Lord, and it is marvelous in our eyes"? ¹²And they sought to seize Him, yet feared the crowd. For they knew that He spoke the parable against them. And leaving Him, they went away.

¹³And they sent some of the Pharisees and of the Herodians to Him, that they might catch Him in a word. ¹⁴And coming they said to Him, Teacher, we know that you are true, and there is not a care to you about anyone, for you do not look to the face of men, but teach on the way of God in truth: Is it lawful to give tribute to Caesar, or not? ¹⁵Should we give, or should we not give? But knowing their hypocrisy, He said to them, Why do you tempt Me? Bring Me a denarius, that I may see. ¹⁶And they brought one. And He said to them, Whose image and superscription is this? And they said to Him, Caesar's. ¹⁷And answering Jesus said to them, Render the things of Caesar to Caesar, and the things of God to God. And they marveled at Him.

¹⁸And Sadducees came to Him, who say there is no resurrection. And they questioned Him, saying, ¹⁹Teacher, Moses wrote for us that if a brother of anyone should die and leave behind a wife, and leave no children, that his brother should take his wife and raise up seed to his brother. ²⁰Then there were seven brothers. And the first took a wife, and dying, he left no seed. ²¹And the second took her, and died, and neither did he leave seed; and the third likewise.

²²And the seven took her, and left no seed. Last of all, the woman also died. ²³Then in the resurrection, when they rise again, of which of them will she be the wife? For the seven had her as wife. ²⁴And answering Jesus said to them, Do you not err because of this, not knowing the Scriptures, nor the power of God? ²⁵For when they rise again from the dead, they neither marry nor are given in marriage, but are as angels in Heaven. ²⁶But concerning the dead, that they are raised, have you not read in the book of Moses, as God spoke to him at the Bush, saying, "I am the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob"? ²⁷He is not the God of the dead, but God of the living. Therefore, you greatly err.

²⁸And coming up one of the scribes, hearing them arguing, knowing that He answered them well, he questioned Him, What is the first commandment of all? ²⁹And Jesus answered him, The first of all the commandments is: "Hear, Israel. The Lord our God is one Lord, ³⁰and you shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul and with all your mind, and with all your strength." This is the first commandment. ³¹And the second is like this, "You shall love your neighbor as yourself." There is not another commandment greater than these. ³²And the scribe said to Him, You say well, Teacher. You have spoken according to truth, that God is one, and there is no other besides Him; ³³and to love Him from all the heart, and from all the understanding, and from all the soul, and from all the strength; and to love one's neighbor as oneself, is more than all the burnt offerings and the sacrifices. ³⁴And seeing that he answered intelligently, Jesus said to him, You are not far from the kingdom of God. And no one dared to question Him any more.

³⁵And teaching in the temple, answering Jesus said, How do the scribes say that Christ is the son of David? ³⁶For David himself said by the Holy Spirit, "The Lord said to my Lord, Sit off My right until I place Your enemies as a footstool for Your feet." ³⁷Then David himself calls Him Lord. And from where is

He his son? And the large crowd heard Him gladly.

³⁸And He said to them in His teaching, Be careful of the scribes, those desiring to walk about in robes, and greetings in the markets, ³⁹and chief seats in the synagogues, and chief couches in the dinners, ⁴⁰those devouring the houses of widows, and for a pretense praying at length. These shall receive more abundant judgment.

⁴¹And sitting down opposite the treasury, Jesus watched how the crowd threw copper coins into the treasury. And many rich ones threw in much. ⁴²And coming one poor widow threw in two lepta, which is a kodrantes. ⁴³And having called His disciples near, He said to them, Truly I say to you that this poor widow has thrown in more than all of those casting into the treasury. ⁴⁴For all threw in out of that abounding to them, but she out of her poverty threw in all, as much as she had, her whole livelihood.

¹And as He was going out of the temple, one of His disciples said to Him, Teacher, see what kind of stones and what kind of buildings! ²And answering Jesus said to him, Do you see these great buildings? Not one stone shall be left upon a stone which shall not be thrown down.

³And as He was sitting in the Mount of Olives opposite the temple, Peter and James and John and Andrew questioned Him privately: ⁴Tell us when these things shall be? And what is the sign when all these things are about to be done? ⁵And answering Jesus began to say to them, Be careful that no one lead you astray. ⁶For many will come in My name, saying I AM! And they will lead many astray. ⁷But when you hear of wars and rumors of wars, do not be disturbed; for it must occur — but the end is not yet. ⁸For nation will be raised against nation, and kingdom against kingdom. And there shall be earthquakes in many places; and there shall be famines and troubles. These things are the beginnings of anguish.

⁹But you yourselves be careful, for they will deliver you up to sanhedrins and to synagogues. You will be beaten, and you will be led before governors and kings for My sake, for a testimony to them. ¹⁰And the gospel must first be proclaimed to all the nations. ¹¹But whenever they lead you away, delivering you, do not be anxious beforehand, what you should say, nor meditate. But whatever may be given to you in that hour, speak that. For you are not those speaking, but the Holy Spirit.

¹²And a brother will deliver up a brother to death, and a father the child. And children will rise up on parents, and will put them to death. ¹³And you will be hated by all on account of My name. But the one enduring to the end, that one will be saved.

¹⁴But when you see the abomination of desolation, the one spoken of by Daniel the prophet, standing where it ought not — he reading, let him understand — then let those in Judea flee into the mountains. ¹⁵And he on the housetop, let him not go down into the house, nor go in to take anything out of his house. ¹⁶And the one in the field, let him not return to the things behind, to take his garment. ¹⁷But woe to those that are with child, and to those giving suck in those days! ¹⁸And pray that your flight will not be in winter; ¹⁹for there will be affliction in those days, such as has not been the like from the beginning of creation which God created until now, and never will be. ²⁰And if the Lord had not shortened the days, not any flesh would be saved; but because of the elect whom He chose, He has shortened the days. ²¹And then if anyone says to you, Behold, here is the Christ! Or, Behold, there! You shall not believe. ²²For false christs and false prophets will be raised, and they will give signs and wonders in order to lead astray, if possible, even the elect. ²³But you be careful. Behold, I have foretold you all things.

²⁴But in those days, after that affliction, the sun will be darkened, and the moon will not give her light; ²⁵and the stars of the heaven will be falling, and the powers in the heavens will be shaken. ²⁶And then they will see the Son of man coming in clouds with much power and glory. ²⁷And then He will send His angels and will gather His elect from the four winds, from the end of earth to the end of Heaven.

²⁸And from the fig-tree learn the parable: When its branch becomes tender and puts out leaves, you know the summer is near. ²⁹So you also, when you see these things happening, know that it is near, at the doors. ³⁰Truly I say to you, Not at all will this generation pass away until all these things occur. ³¹The heaven and the earth will pass away, but My words will not at all pass away. ³²But concerning that day and the hour, no one knows, not the angels, those in Heaven, nor the Son, except the Father. ³³Be careful; be wakeful, and pray. For you do not know when the time is. ³⁴As a man going away, leaving his house, and giving his slaves authority, and to each his work — and he commanded the door-keeper, that he watch—³⁵then you watch, for you do not know when the lord of the house is coming, at evening, or at midnight, or at cock-crowing, or early; ³⁶so that he may not come suddenly and find you sleeping. ³⁷And what I say to you, I say to all. Watch!

¹And it was the Passover, and the Feast of Unleavened Bread after two days. And the chief priests and the scribes were seeking how they might get hold of Him by guile, to kill Him. ²But they said, Not during the feast, lest there will be a tumult of the people.

³And He being in Bethany in the house of Simon the leper, as He reclined, a woman came, having an alabaster vial of pure, costly ointment of nard. And breaking the alabaster vial, she poured it down His head. ⁴And some were being indignant to themselves, and saying, To what has this waste of the ointment occurred? ⁵For this could be sold for over three hundred denarii, and to be given to the poor. And they were incensed with her. ⁶But Jesus said, Let her alone. Why do you cause her troubles? She worked a good work toward Me. ⁷For you have the poor with you always, and when you wish, you can do well toward them. But you do not have Me always. ⁸What this one held, she did. She took beforehand to anoint My body for the burial. ⁹Truly I say to you, Wherever this gospel is proclaimed in all the world, what this one did will also be spoken of for a memorial of her.

¹⁰And Judas Iscariot, one of the twelve, went away to the chief priests, that he might betray Him to them. ¹¹And hearing, they rejoiced and promised to give him silver. And he sought how he might opportunely betray Him.

¹²And on the first day of the unleavened bread, when they killed the passover, His disciples said to Him, Where do You desire that going we may prepare that You may eat the passover? ¹³And He sent two of His disciples, and said to them, Go into the city. And you will meet a man carrying a pitcher of water. Follow him. ¹⁴And wherever he goes in, say to the house-master, The Teacher says, Where is the guest room where I may eat the passover with My disciples? ¹⁵And he will show you a large upper room, having been spread and made ready. Prepare for us there. ¹⁶And His disciples went out and came into the city, and found it as He told them. And they prepared the passover.

¹⁷And evening having come, He came with the twelve. ¹⁸And as they were reclining and eating, Jesus said, Truly I say to you, One of you will betray Me, the one eating with Me. ¹⁹And they began to be grieved, and to say to Him one by one, Not at all I, is it? And another, Not at all I, is it? ²⁰But answering He said to them, It is one from the twelve, the one dipping in the dish with Me. ²¹Truly the Son of man goes as it has been written concerning Him, but woe to that man by whom the Son of man is betrayed! It were good for him if that man had never been born.

²²And as they were eating, Jesus taking a loaf, blessing, He broke and gave to them. And He said, Take, eat, this is My body. ²³And taking the cup, giving thanks, He gave to them. And they all drank out of it. ²⁴And He said to them, This is My blood, that of the New Covenant, which is poured out concerning many. ²⁵Truly I say to you, I will not at all drink of the fruit of the vine any more until that day when I drink it new in the kingdom of God.

²⁶And singing a hymn, they went into the Mount of Olives.

²⁷And Jesus said to them, All of you will be offended in Me in this night, because it has been written: "I will strike the Shepherd, and the sheep will be scattered."

²⁸But after My resurrection, I will go before you into Galilee. ²⁹But Peter said to Him, Even if all shall be offended, yet not I.

³⁰And Jesus said to him, Truly I say to you that today, in this night, before the cock crows twice, you will deny Me three times.

³¹But he said more fervently, If it were needful for me to die with You, in no way will I deny You. And also all said the same.

³²And they came to a place which was named Gethsemane. And He said to His disciples, Sit here while I pray. ³³And He took along Peter and James and John with Him. And He began to be much amazed, and to be deeply troubled. ³⁴And He said to them, My soul is deeply grieved, unto death. Remain here and watch. ³⁵And going forward a little, He fell on the ground, and prayed that if it were possible, the hour might pass from Him. ³⁶And He said, Abba, Father, all things are possible to You; take this cup from Me. Yet not what I will, but what You will. ³⁷And He came and found them sleeping. And He said to Peter, Simon, do you sleep? Were you not strong enough to watch one hour? ³⁸Watch and pray, that you may not enter into temptation. The spirit truly is willing, but the flesh is weak. ³⁹And going away again, He prayed, saying the same thing. ⁴⁰And returning He found them sleeping again, for their eyes were heavy. And they did not know what to answer Him. ⁴¹And He came a third time, and said to them, Sleep on now, and rest. It is enough. The hour has come. Behold, the Son of man is betrayed into the hands of sinners. ⁴²Rise up, let us go. Behold, the one betraying Me has drawn near.

⁴³And at once, as He was yet speaking, Judas came up, being one of the twelve. And with him was a great crowd with swords and clubs, from the chief priests and the scribes and the elders. ⁴⁴And the one betraying Him had given them a sign, saying, Whomever I kiss, it is He; seize Him, and lead Him away safely. ⁴⁵And coming, at once drawing near to Him, he said, Rabbi, Rabbi! And he ardently kissed Him. ⁴⁶And they laid their hands on Him and seized Him. ⁴⁷But a certain one of those standing by, drawing a sword, struck the slave of the high priest, and took off his ear. ⁴⁸And answering Jesus said to them, Have you come out with swords and clubs to take Me, as against a robber? ⁴⁹I was with you daily teaching in the temple, and you did not seize Me. But it is that the Scriptures may be fulfilled. ⁵⁰And leaving Him, all fled. ⁵¹And one, a certain young man, was following Him, having thrown a linen cloth about his naked body. And the young men seized him. ⁵²But forsaking the linen cloth, he fled from them naked.

⁵³And they led Jesus away to the high priest. And all the chief priests and the elders and the scribes came together to him. ⁵⁴And Peter followed Him from a distance, to the inside of the court of the high priest. And he was sitting with the under-officers, also warming himself near the light. ⁵⁵And the chief priests and the whole sanhedrin sought testimony against Jesus, to put Him to death. And they found none. ⁵⁶For many falsely testified against Him, but their testimonies were not alike. ⁵⁷And standing up, some falsely testified against Him, saying, ⁵⁸We heard Him saying, I will throw down this temple made with hands, and through three days I will build another not made with hands. ⁵⁹And neither in this was their testimony alike. ⁶⁰And standing in the middle, the high priest questioned Jesus, saying, Do you not answer? Nothing? What do these testify against you? ⁶¹But He was silent, and answered nothing. Again the high priest questioned Him, and said to Him, Are you the Christ, the son of the Blessed? ⁶²And Jesus said, I AM! And you will see the Son of man sitting off the right hand of power, and coming with the clouds of the heaven. ⁶³And tearing his garments, the high priest said, Why do we still have need of witnesses? ⁶⁴You heard the blasphemy. What does it seem to you? And they all condemned Him to be liable, even of death. ⁶⁵And some began to spit at Him, and to cover His face, and to beat Him with a fist, and to say to Him, Prophecy! And the under-officers struck Him with slaps.

⁶⁶And Peter being in the court below, one of the high priest's maids came. ⁶⁷And seeing Peter warming himself, looking at him, she said, And you were with Jesus the Nazarene. ⁶⁸But he denied, saying, I do not know nor understand what you say. And he went out into the forecourt. And a cock crowed. ⁶⁹And seeing him again, the maid began to say to those standing by, This one is of them. ⁷⁰And again he denied. And after a little, those standing by again said to Peter, Truly you are from them, for you are both a Galilean and your speech agrees. ⁷¹But he began to curse and to swear, I do not know this man of whom you speak. ⁷²And a second time a cock crowed. And Peter remembered the word Jesus said to him, Before a cock crows twice, you will deny Me three times. And thinking on it, he wept.

¹And immediately in the morning, the chief priests with the elders and scribes and all the sanhedrin forming a council, binding Jesus, they led Him away and delivered Him to Pilate. ²And Pilate questioned Him, Are you the king of the Jews? And answering He said to him, You say it.

³And the chief priests urgently accused Him of many things. But He answered nothing. ⁴But Pilate again questioned Him, saying, Do you answer nothing? Behold, how many things they testify against you. ⁵But Jesus answered nothing any more; so as for Pilate to marvel. ⁶And at a feast he released to them one prisoner, whomever they asked. ⁷And there was one called Barabbas, having been bound with the insurgents, who in the insurrection had committed murder. ⁸And crying aloud, the crowd began to beg him to do as he always did to them. ⁹But Pilate answered them, saying, Do you desire I should release to you the king of the Jews? ¹⁰For he knew that the chief priests had delivered Him up through envy. ¹¹But the chief priests stirred up the crowd, that rather he should release Barabbas to them. ¹²But answering again Pilate said to them, What then do you desire I do to him whom you call king of the Jews? ¹³And again they cried out, Crucify him! ¹⁴But Pilate said to them, For what evil did he do? But they much more cried out, Crucify him! ¹⁵And deciding to do the easiest to the crowd, Pilate released Barabbas to them. And having flogged Him, he delivered up Jesus, that He might be crucified.

¹⁶And the soldiers led Him away inside the court, which is the praetorium. And they called together all the cohort. ¹⁷And they put purple on Him, and they plaited and placed a crown of thorns on Him. ¹⁸And they began to salute Him, Hail, king of the Jews! ¹⁹And they struck His head with a reed, and spat at Him. And placing the knees, they bowed to Him. ²⁰And when they had mocked Him, they took the purple off Him, and put His own garments on Him. and they led Him out, that they might crucify Him. ²¹And they forced one passing by, Simon, a Cyrenian, coming from a field, the father of Alexander and Rufus, that he might carry His cross.

²²And they brought Him to Golgotha Place, which translated is, Place of a Skull. ²³And they gave him wine spiced with myrrh to drink. But He did not take it. ²⁴And crucifying Him, they divided His garments, casting a lot on them, who and what each should take. ²⁵And it was the third hour, and they crucified Him. ²⁶And the superscription of His charge was written over Him, THE KING OF THE JEWS. ²⁷And they crucified two robbers with Him, one off the right, and one off the left of Him. ²⁸And the Scripture was fulfilled which says, "And He was numbered with the lawless." ²⁹And those passing by blasphemed Him, shaking their heads, and saying, Aha! You razing the temple, and in three days building it, ³⁰save yourself, and come down from the cross. ³¹And also the chief priests and the scribes mocking to one another said the same, He saved others; he is not able to save himself. ³²The Christ, the King of Israel? Let him now come down from the cross, that we may see and believe. And the ones crucified with Him insulted Him.

³³And it being the sixth hour, darkness came over all the land until the ninth hour. ³⁴And at the ninth hour Jesus cried with a loud voice, saying, Eloi, Eloi, lama sabachthani? which being translated is, My God, My God, why did You forsake Me? ³⁵And hearing, some of those standing by said, Behold, he calls Elijah. ³⁶And one running up, and filling a sponge with vinegar, and putting it on a reed, gave Him to drink. But they said, Leave alone, let us see if Elijah comes to take Him down.

³⁷And letting out a great cry, Jesus expired. ³⁸And the veil of the temple was torn into two, from top to bottom. ³⁹And standing off across from Him, seeing that He had cried out so, and He expired, the centurion said, Truly, this Man was Son of God. ⁴⁰And also women were watching from a distance, among whom also was Mary Magdalene; also Mary the mother of James the less, and of Joses, and Salome, ⁴¹who also followed Him and ministered to Him when He was in Galilee; and many other women who came up to Jerusalem with Him.

⁴²And it becoming evening already, since it was the preparation, that is, the day before sabbath, ⁴³Joseph of Arimathea came, an honorable councillor, who himself was also waiting for the kingdom of God. And taking courage, he went in to Pilate and begged the body of Jesus. ⁴⁴And Pilate wondered if He had already dead. And calling the centurion near, he asked him if He died long ago. ⁴⁵And knowing from the centurion, he granted the body to Joseph. ⁴⁶And having bought a linen cloth, and having taken Him down, he wrapped Him in the linen, and laid Him in a tomb which was cut out of rock. And he rolled a stone against the mouth of the tomb. ⁴⁷And Mary Magdalene, and Mary of Joses, saw where He was laid.

¹And the sabbath passing, Mary Magdalene and Mary the mother of James and Salome, bought spices, so that coming they might anoint Him. ²And very early on the first of the week, the sun having risen, they came upon the tomb. ³And they said to themselves, Who will roll away the stone from the door of the tomb for us? ⁴And looking up, they saw that the stone had been rolled back; for it was very large. ⁵And entering into the tomb, they saw a young man sitting on the right, having been clothed in a white robe. And they were much amazed. ⁶But He said to them, Do not be amazed. You seek Jesus the Nazarene, who has been crucified. He was raised. He is not here. See the place where they put Him? ⁷But go, say to the disciples and to Peter, He goes before you into Galilee. You will see Him there, even as He told you. ⁸And going out quickly, they fled from the tomb. And trembling and ecstasy took hold of them. And they told no one, not a thing, for they were afraid.

⁹And rising early on the first of the week, He first appeared to Mary Magdalene, from whom He had cast out seven demons. ¹⁰That one had gone and reported to those who had been with Him, who were mourning and weeping. ¹¹And those hearing that He lives, and was seen by her, they did not believe.

¹²And after these things, He was revealed in a different form to two of them walking and going into the country. ¹³And going those reported to the rest. Neither did they believe those.

¹⁴Afterward, as they reclined, He was revealed to the Eleven. And He reproached their unbelief and hardness of heart, because they did not believe those who had seen Him, having been raised. ¹⁵And He said to them, Going into all the world, preach the gospel to all the creation. ¹⁶The one believing and being baptized will be saved. And the one not believing will be condemned. ¹⁷And signs will follow to those believing these things: they will cast out demons in My name; they will speak new languages; ¹⁸they will take up snakes; and if they drink anything deadly, it will in no way hurt them; they will lay hands on the sick, and they will be well.

¹⁹Then indeed, after speaking to them, the Lord was taken up into Heaven, and sat off the right of God.

²⁰And going out they preached everywhere, the Lord working with them, and confirming the word by the signs following. Amen.

THE GOSPEL ACCORDING TO LUKE

¹Since many took in hand to draw up an account concerning the matters having been borne out among us, ²as those from the beginning delivered to us, becoming eyewitnesses and ministers of the word, ³it seemed good also to me, having traced out all things accurately from the first, to write in order to you, most excellent Theophilus, ⁴that you may know the certainty concerning the words which you were taught.

⁸And it happened in his serving as priest in the order of his course before God, ⁹according to the custom of the priests, entering into the temple of the Lord, it was Zacharias' lot to burn incense. ¹⁰And all the multitude of the people was praying outside at the hour of incense. ¹¹And an angel of the Lord appeared to him, standing on the right of the altar of incense. ¹²And seeing this, Zacharias was troubled, and fear fell on him. ¹³But the angel said to him, Do not fear, Zacharias, because your prayer was heard, and your wife Elizabeth will bear a son to you; and you shall call his name John. ¹⁴And he will be joy and exultation to you, and many will rejoice over his birth. ¹⁵For he shall be great in the eyes of the Lord; and he shall not drink wine or strong drink. And he will be filled of the Holy Spirit, even from his mother's womb. ¹⁶And he will turn many of the sons of Israel to the Lord their God. ¹⁷And he will go out before Him in the spirit and power of Elijah, to turn the hearts of fathers to their children, and disobedient ones to the wisdom of the just, to make ready a people having been prepared for the Lord. ¹⁸And Zacharias said to the angel, By what shall I know this? For I am old, and my wife is advanced in her days.

¹⁹And answering, the angel said to him, I am Gabriel, who stands before God, and I was sent to speak to you and to announce to you the good news of these things. ²⁰And behold, you shall be silent and not able to speak until the day in which these things take place, because you did not believe my words, which shall be fulfilled in their season.

²¹And the people were expecting Zacharias, and they wondered at his delay in the temple. ²²But coming out he was not able to speak to them, and they recognized that he had seen a vision in the temple. And he was making signs to them, and continued dumb.

²³And it happened when the days of his service were fulfilled, he went away to his house. ²⁴And after these days his wife Elizabeth conceived. And she hid herself five months, saying, ²⁵So has the Lord done to me in the days in which He looked on me to take away my reproach among men.

²⁶And in the sixth month, the angel Gabriel was sent by God to a city of Galilee named Nazareth, ²⁷to a virgin who had been betrothed to a man whose name was Joseph, of the house of David; and the virgin's name was Mariam. ²⁸And entering, the angel said to her, Hail, one having received grace! The Lord is with you. You are blessed among women! ²⁹And seeing this, she was disturbed at his word, and considered what kind of greeting this might be. ³⁰And the angel said to her, Do not fear, Mariam, for you have found favor from God. ³¹And behold! You will conceive in your womb and bear a Son; and you will call His name Jesus. ³²This One will be great and will be called Son of the Most High. And the Lord God will give Him the throne of His father David. ³³And He will reign over the house of Jacob forever, and of His kingdom there will be no end.

³⁵And answering, the angel said to her,

The Holy Spirit will come upon you, and the power of the Most High will overshadow you — and for this reason that holy One being born of you will be called Son of God. ³⁶And behold, your kinswoman Elizabeth! She also conceived a son in her old age, and this is the sixth month to her who was called barren; ³⁷for nothing shall be impossible with God. ³⁸And Mariam said, Behold, the slave of the Lord! May it be to me according to your word. And the angel departed from her.

³⁹And rising up in these days, Mariam went into the hill-country with haste to a city of Judah. ⁴⁰And she entered into the house of Zacharias, and greeted Elizabeth. ⁴¹And it happened, as Elizabeth heard Mariam's greeting, the babe in her womb leaped, and Elizabeth was filled of the Holy Spirit. ⁴²And she cried out with a loud voice and said, Blessed are you among women, and blessed is the fruit of your womb. ⁴³And from where is this to me, that the mother of my Lord comes to me? ⁴⁴For behold, as the sound of your greeting came to my ears, the babe in my womb leaped in exultation. ⁴⁵And blessed is she believing, because there will be a completion to the things spoken to her from the Lord.

⁴⁶And Mariam said, My soul magnifies the Lord, ⁴⁷and my spirit exulted in God My Savior. ⁴⁸For He looked upon the humiliation of His bondsman. For, behold, from now on all generations will count me blessed. ⁴⁹For the Mighty One did great things to me, and holy is His name. ⁵⁰And His mercy is to generations of generations to those fearing Him. ⁵¹He performed mightily with His arm; He scattered proud ones in the thought of their heart. ⁵²He put down powerful ones from thrones, and exalted lowly ones. ⁵³He filled the hungry with good things, and He sent the rich away empty. ⁵⁴He helped His servant Israel in order to remember mercy, ⁵⁵even as He spoke to our fathers, to Abraham, and to his seed to the age. ⁵⁶And Mariam remained with her about three months, and returned to her house.

⁵⁸And the neighbors and her relatives heard that the Lord magnified His mercy with her, and they rejoiced with her. ⁵⁹And it happened on the eighth day, they came to circumcise the child, and were calling it by his father's name, Zacharias. ⁶⁰And his mother answered, saying, Not so, but he shall be called John. ⁶¹And they said to her, No one is among your kindred who is called by this name. ⁶²And they signaled to his father, what he might desire him to be called. ⁶³And asking for a writing tablet, he wrote, saying, John is his name. And all marveled. ⁶⁴And instantly his mouth was opened, and his tongue loosed, and he spoke, blessing God. ⁶⁵And fear came on all those living around them, and in all the hill-country of Judea all these things were talked about. ⁶⁶And all who heard laid them up in their hearts, saying, What then will this child be? And the hand of the Lord was with him.

⁸⁰And the child grew, and became strong in spirit. And he was in the deserts until the days of his showing to Israel.

¹And it happened in those days, a decree went out from Caesar Augustus for all the habitable world to be registered.

⁸And shepherds were in the same country, living in the fields, and keeping guard over their flock by night. ⁹And, behold, an angel of the Lord came on them. And the glory of the Lord shone around them. And they feared with a great fear. ¹⁰And the angel said to them, do not fear. For, behold, I announce good news to you, a great joy, which will be to all people, ¹¹because today a Savior, who is Christ the Lord, was born to you in the city of David. ¹²And this is a sign to you: You will find a babe having been wrapped, lying in the manger. ¹³And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host, praising God and saying, ¹⁴Glory to God in the highest, and peace on earth, good will among men.

¹⁵And it happened as the angels departed from them into Heaven, even the men, the shepherds, said to one another, Indeed, let us go over to Bethlehem, and let us see this thing which has occurred, which the Lord made known to us. ¹⁶And hurrying they came and sought out both Mariam and Joseph, and the babe lying in the manger. ¹⁷And seeing, they publicly told about the word spoken to them about this Child. ¹⁸And all those hearing marveled about the things spoken to them by the shepherds. ¹⁹And Mary kept all these words, meditating in her heart. ²⁰And the shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all things which they heard and saw, even as was spoken to them.

²¹And when eight days were fulfilled to circumcise the child, His name was called Jesus, the name called by the angel before He was conceived in the womb.

²²And when the days of her cleansing according to the Law of Moses were fulfilled, they took Him up to Jerusalem to present Him to the Lord, ²³as it has been written in the Law of the Lord: "Every male opening a womb shall be called holy to the Lord;" ²⁴and to offer a sacrifice according to that said in the Law of the Lord, a pair of turtledoves, or two nestlings of doves.

²⁵And, behold, there was a man in Jerusalem whose name was Simeon. And this man was righteous and devout, eagerly expecting the Consolation of Israel. And the Holy Spirit was upon him. ²⁶And it happened to him, having been divinely-instructed by the Holy Spirit, he was not to see death before he would see the Christ of the Lord. ²⁷And by the Spirit he came into the temple. And as the parents were bringing in the child Jesus for them to do according to the custom of the Law concerning Him, ²⁸even Simeon received Him into his arms. And he blessed God and said, ²⁹Now You will let Your slave go in peace, Master, according to Your word; ³⁰because my eyes saw Your Salvation, ³¹which You prepared before the face of all the peoples; ³²a Light for revelation to the nations, and the Glory of Your people Israel.

³³And Joseph was marveling, also His mother, at the things being said concerning Him. ³⁴And Simeon blessed them, and said to His mother Mariam, Behold, this One is set for the fall and rising up of many in Israel, and for a sign spoken against; ³⁵yea, a sword also will pierce your own soul, so that the thoughts of many hearts may be revealed.

³⁶And there was Anna, a prophetess, a daughter of Phanuel, of the tribe of Asher — she was advanced in many days, having lived seven years with a husband from her virginity; ³⁷and she was a widow eighty-four years—who did not depart from the temple, serving night and day with fastings and prayers. ³⁸And coming on at the very hour, she gave thanks to the Lord, and spoke concerning Him to all those in Jerusalem eagerly expecting redemption. ³⁹And as they finished all things according to the Law of the Lord, they returned to Galilee, to Nazareth their city.

⁴⁰And the Child grew, and became strong in spirit, being filled with wisdom. And the grace of God was upon Him.

⁴¹And His parents went into Jerusalem year by year at the Feast of the Passover. ⁴²And when He was twelve years old, they going up to Jerusalem according to the custom of the Feast, ⁴³and fulfilling the days, in their returning, the boy Jesus stayed in Jerusalem. And Joseph and His mother did not know. ⁴⁴But supposing Him to be in the company, they went a day on the way. And they looked for Him among the relatives and friends. ⁴⁵And not finding Him, they returned to Jerusalem, looking for Him.

⁴⁶And it happened after three days they found Him in the temple, sitting in the midst of the teachers, even hearing them and questioning them. ⁴⁷And all those hearing Him were amazed at His intelligence and His answers. ⁴⁸And seeing Him, they were astounded. And His mother said to Him, Child, why did You do so to us? Behold, Your father and I were looking for You, greatly distressed. ⁴⁹And He said to them, Why did you look for me? Did you not know that I must be busy in the affairs of My Father? ⁵⁰And they did not understand the word which He spoke to them. ⁵¹And He went with them, and came to Nazareth, and was being subject to them. And His mother carefully kept all these words in her heart.

⁵²And Jesus progressed in wisdom and stature and favor before God and men.

¹And in the fifteenth year of the government of Tiberius Caesar, Pontius Pilate governing Judea, and Herod ruling as tetrarch of Galilee; and his brother Philip ruling as tetrarch of Iturea and the Trachonitis country; and Lysanias ruling as tetrarch of Abilene, ²upon the high priesthood of Anna and Caiaphas, the word of God came on John the son of Zacharias in the desert. ³And he came into the neighborhood of the Jordan, proclaiming a baptism of repentance for forgiveness of sins, ⁴as it has been written in the roll of the words of Isaiah the prophet, saying: "The voice of one crying in the wilderness, Prepare the way of the Lord, make His paths straight—every valley shall be filled up, and every mountain and hill shall be made low; and the crooked places shall be made into straight; and the rough into smooth ways; and all flesh shall see the salvation of God."

Then he said to the crowds going out to be baptized by him, Offspring of vipers! Who warned you to flee from the coming wrath? ⁶Then bring forth fruits worthy of repentance, and do not begin to say within yourselves, We have Abraham as father. For I say to you that God is able to raise up children to Abraham out of these stones. ⁹And also the axe is already laid to the root of the trees; therefore, every tree not producing good fruit is being cut down and being thrown into the fire. ¹⁰And the crowd asked him, saying, What then shall we do? ¹¹And answering he said to them, The one that has two tunics, let him give to him that has not. And the one that has foods, let him do the same.

¹²And tax-collectors also came to be baptized. And they said to him, Teacher, what shall we do? ¹³And he said to them, Continue to do no more than that commanded to you. ¹⁴And also ones serving as soldiers asked him, saying, And we, what shall we do? And he said to them, Do not oppress anyone, nor accuse falsely; and be satisfied with your pay.

¹⁵But the people were expecting, and all reasoning in their hearts about John, lest perhaps he is the Christ. ¹⁶John answered all, saying, I indeed baptize you with water; but He stronger than I comes, of whom I am not fit to loosen the latchet of His sandals. He will baptize you in the Holy Spirit and fire; ¹⁷whose sifting fan is in His hand; and He will fully purge His threshing-floor, and will gather the wheat into His barn—but He will burn the chaff with fire that cannot be put out.

¹⁸And then indeed exhorting many different things, he preached the gospel to the people. ¹⁹But Herod the tetrarch, being reproved by him concerning his brother Philip's wife, Herodias, and concerning all the evil things Herod did, ²⁰he also added this above all, he even shut up John in the prison.

²¹And it happened, in the baptizing of all the people, Jesus also being baptized, and praying, the heaven was opened, ²²and the Holy Spirit came down in a bodily form as a dove upon Him. And there was a voice out of Heaven, saying, You are My Son, the Beloved; I am delighted in You.

²³And Jesus Himself was beginning to be about thirty years old, being, as was supposed, the son of Joseph, the son of Heli, ²⁴the son of Matthat, the son of Levi, the son of Melchi, the son of Janna, the son of Joseph, ²⁵the son of Mattathias, the son of Amos, the son of Nahum, the son of Esli, the son of Naggai, ²⁶the son of Maath, the son of Mattathias, the son of Semei, the son of Joseph, the son of Judah, ²⁷the son of Joannes, the son of Rhesa, the son of Zerubbabel, the son of Shealtiel, the son of Neri, ²⁸the son of Melchi, the son of Addi, the son of Cosam, the son of Elmodam, the son of Er, ²⁹the son of Joses, the son of Eliezer, the son of Jorim, the son of Matthat, the son of Levi, ³⁰the son of Simeon, the son of Judah, the son of Joseph, the son of Jonan, the son of Eliakim, ³¹the son of Melea, the son of Menam, the son of Mattatha, the son of Nathan, the son of David, ³²the son of Jesse, the son of Obed, the son of Boaz, the son of Salmon, the son of Nahshon, ³³the son of Amminadab, the son of Aram, the son of Hezron, the son of Pharez, the son of Judah, ³⁴the son of Jacob, the son of Isaac, the son of Abraham, the son of Terah, the son of Nahor, ³⁵the son of Serug, the son of Reu, the son of Peleg, the son of Eber, the son of Salah, ³⁶the son of Cainan, the son of Arphaxad, the son of Shem, the son of Noah, the son of Lamech, ³⁷the son of Methuselah, the son of Enoch, the son of Jared, the son of Mahalaleel, the son of Cainan, ³⁸the son of Enos, the son of Seth, the son of Adam, the son of God.

¹And full of the Holy Spirit, Jesus returned from the Jordan, and was led by the Spirit into the wilderness ²forty days, being tested by the Devil. And He ate nothing in those days, and they being ended, He afterwards hungered. ³And the Devil said to Him, If You are Son of God, speak to this stone that it become a loaf. ⁴And Jesus answered to him, saying, It has been written: "Man shall not live on bread alone, but on every word of God." ⁵And leading Him up into a high mountain, the Devil showed Him all the kingdoms of the world in a moment of time. ⁶And the Devil said to Him, I will give all this authority and their glory to You, because it has been delivered to me, and I give it to whomever I wish; ⁷then if You worship before me, all will be Yours. ⁸And answering to him, Jesus said, Get behind Me, Satan! For it has been written: "You shall worship the Lord your God, and Him only you shall serve."

⁹And he led Him to Jerusalem, and stood Him on the pinnacle of the temple, and said to Him, If you are the Son of God, throw Yourself down from here; ¹⁰for it has been written: "He will command His angels about You, and to preserve You; ¹¹that on their hands they shall bear You, lest you strike Your foot against a stone." ¹²And answering Jesus said to him, It has been said: "You shall not tempt the Lord your God." ¹³And having finished every temptation, the Devil departed from Him until a time.

¹⁴And Jesus returned in the power of the Spirit to Galilee. And a rumor went out through all the neighborhood about Him. ¹⁵And He taught in their synagogues, being glorified by all.

¹⁶And He came to Nazareth, where He was brought up. And He went in, as was His custom, on the day of the sabbaths, into the synagogue, and stood up to read. ¹⁷And the roll of Isaiah the prophet was handed to Him. And unrolling the book, He found the place where it was written: ¹⁸"The Spirit of the Lord is upon Me; therefore He anointed Me to preach the gospel to the poor; He has sent Me to heal the brokenhearted, to preach deliverance to captives, and new sight to the blind; to send away crushed ones in deliverance; ¹⁹to preach an acceptable year of the Lord." ²⁰And rolling up the roll, returning it to the attendant, He sat down. And the eyes of all in the synagogue were fixed on Him. ²¹And He began to say to them, Today this Scripture has been fulfilled in your ears. ²²And all bore witness to Him, and marveled at the gracious words coming out of His mouth. And they said, Is this not the son of Joseph? ²³And He said to them, Surely you will speak this parable to Me, Physician, heal yourself. What things we heard were happening in Capernaum, do also here in your native-place. ²⁴But He said, Truly I say to you that no prophet is acceptable in his native-place. ²⁵But truthfully I say to you, There were many widows in Israel in the days of Elijah, when the heaven was shut up over three years and six months, when a great famine came on all the land; ²⁶and yet Elijah was sent to none of them except to Zarephath of Sidon, to a widow woman. ²⁷And many lepers were in Israel during the time of Elisha the prophet, and none of them was made clean except Naaman the Syrian.

²⁸And all were filled with anger, hearing these things in the synagogue. ²⁹And rising up, they threw Him outside the city, and led Him up to the brow of the hill on which their city was built, in order to throw Him down. ³⁰But He went away, passing through their midst.

³¹And He went down to Capernaum, a city of Galilee. And He was teaching them on the sabbaths. ³²And they were astonished at His teaching, because His word was with authority. ³³And in the synagogue was a man who had a spirit of an unclean demon. And he cried out with a loud voice, ³⁴saying, Aha! What is to us and to You, Jesus, Nazarene? Did You come to destroy us? I know You, who You are, the Holy One of God. ³⁵And Jesus rebuked him, saying, Be silent, and come out from him! And throwing him into the midst, the demon came out from him, not harming him. ³⁶And astonishment came on all. And they spoke with one another saying, What word is this, that He commands the unclean spirits with authority and power, and they come out? ³⁷And a report about Him went out into every place of the neighborhood.

⁴⁰And the sun sinking, all, as many as had sick ones with various diseases, brought them to Him. And laying hands on each one of them, He healed them.

⁴¹And also demons came out from many, crying out and saying, You are the Christ, the Son of God! And rebuking them, He did not allow them to speak; for they knew Him to be the Christ.

⁴²And day coming, going out He went into a desert place. And the crowds looked for Him, and came up to Him, and held Him fast, not to pass away from them. ⁴³But He said to them, It is right for Me to preach the gospel, the kingdom of God, to the other cities, because I was sent on this mission.

⁴⁴And He was proclaiming in the synagogues of Galilee.

¹And it happened that the crowd was pressing on Him to hear the word of God. And He was standing by Lake Genesaret. ²And He saw two boats standing by the lake, but the fishermen had left them and were washing the nets. ³And entering into one of the boats, which was Simon's, He asked him to put out a little from the land. And sitting down, he taught the crowd from the boat. ⁴And as He quit speaking, He said to Simon, Put out into the deep, and let down your nets for a haul. ⁵And answering Simon said to Him, Master, laboring all through the night we took nothing. But at Your word I will let down the net. ⁶And doing this, they netted a great multitude of fish; and their net was being torn. ⁷And they signaled the partners, those in the other boat, to come and help them. And they came and filled both the boats, so that they were sinking. ⁸And seeing, Simon Peter fell at the knees of Jesus, saying, Depart from me, for I am a sinful man, Lord. ⁹For astonishment took hold of him, and all those with him, at the haul of fish which they took; ¹⁰and in the same way also, James and John, the sons of Zebedee, who were partners with Simon. And Jesus said to Simon, Do not fear. From now on you will be taking men alive. ¹¹And bringing the boats down onto the land, forsaking all things, they followed Him.

¹²And it happened, in His being in one of the cities, even behold, a man full of leprosy. And seeing Jesus, falling on his face, he begged Him, saying, Lord, if You choose, You are able to cleanse me. ¹³And stretching out the hand, He touched him, saying, I will! Be cleansed! And instantly the leprosy departed from him. ¹⁴And He charged him to tell no one, but going away, show yourself to the priest, and offer concerning your cleansing, as Moses commanded, for a testimony to them.

¹⁵But the word about Him spread even more. And large crowds were coming to hear, and to be healed from their infirmities by Him. ¹⁶But He was drawing back in the desert, and praying.

¹⁷And it happened on one of the days, even He was teaching. And Pharisees and teachers of the Law were sitting by, who were coming out of every village of Galilee and Judea, and Jerusalem. And the power of the Lord was there, for the curing of them. ¹⁸And, behold, men carrying on a cot a man who was paralyzed. And they sought to bring him in, and to lay him before Him. ¹⁹And not finding a way through which they might bring him in through the crowd, going up on the housetop, they let him down through the tiles with the cot, into the midst, in front of Jesus. ²⁰And seeing their faith, He said to him, Man, your sins have been forgiven you. ²¹And the scribes and Pharisees began to reason, saying, Who is this who speaks blasphemies? Who is able to forgive sins, except God alone? ²²But knowing their thoughts, answering Jesus said to them, Why do you reason in your hearts? ²³Which is easier, to say, Your sins have been forgiven you; or to say, Rise up and walk? ²⁴But that you may know that the Son of man has authority on the earth to forgive sins, He said to the paralytic, I say to you, Rise up, and take your cot and go to your house. ²⁵And rising up at once before them, taking up that on which he was lying, he went to his house, glorifying God. ²⁶And amazement seized all, and they glorified God, and were filled with fear, saying, We saw wonderful things today.

²⁷And after these things, He went out and saw a tax-collector named Levi, sitting at the tax office. And He said to him, Follow Me! ²⁸And leaving all, rising up he followed Him. ²⁹And Levi made a great feast for Him in his house. And there was a crowd of many tax-collectors reclining, and of others who were with them. ³⁰And their scribes and the Pharisees murmured at His disciples, saying, Why do you eat and drink with tax-collectors and sinners? ³¹And answering Jesus said to them, Those who are sound have no need of a physician, but those who have illness. ³²I did not come to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance.

³³But they said to Him, Why do John's disciples fast often, and make prayers, and likewise those of the Pharisees, but those close to You eat and drink? ³⁴But He said to them, You are not able to make the sons of the bridechamber fast while the bridegroom is with them. ³⁵But days will come, even when the bridegroom is taken away from them, then in those days they will fast.

³⁶And He also told a parable to them: No one puts a piece of a new garment on an old garment; otherwise, both the new will tear, and it does not match the piece from the new. ³⁷And no one puts new wine into old skins; otherwise, the new wine will burst the skins, and it will be poured out, and the skins will perish. ³⁸But new wine is to be put into new skins, and both are preserved together. ³⁹And no one drinking old wine immediately desires new; for he says, The old is better.

¹And it happened on the second chief sabbath, He passed along through the sown fields. And His disciples plucked the heads, and were eating, rubbing with the hands. ²But some of the Pharisees said to them, Why do you do that which is not lawful to do on the sabbaths? ³And answering Jesus said to them, Have you never read this, what David did when he hungered, and those being with him? ⁴How he went into the house of God, and he took the Loaves of Arrangement, and ate, and even gave to those with him—which it is not lawful to eat, except only the priests? ⁵And He said to them, The Son of man is Lord of the sabbath also.

⁶And it also happened on another sabbath, He going into the synagogue and teaching. And a man was there, and his right hand was withered. ⁷And the scribes and the Pharisees kept close by Him, to see if He would heal on the sabbath, so that they might find a charge against Him. ⁸But He knew their reasonings. And He said to the man having the withered hand, Rise up, and stand in the middle! And rising up, he stood. ⁹Then Jesus said to them, I will ask you one thing, Is it lawful to do good on the sabbaths, or to do ill; to save a soul, or to destroy it? ¹⁰And having looked around at them all, He said to the man, Stretch out your hand! And he did so. And his hand was restored sound as the other. ¹¹But they were filled with madness, and talked to one another as to what they might do to Jesus.

¹²And it happened in these days, He went out into the mountain to pray. And He was spending the night in prayer to God. ¹³And when it became day, He called His disciples, also choosing out twelve from them, whom He also named apostles: ¹⁴Simon, whom He also named Peter; and his brother Andrew; James and John; Philip and Bartholomew; ¹⁵Matthew and Thomas; James the son of Alpheus, and Simon, the one being called Zealot; ¹⁶Judas brother of James, and Judas Iscariot, who also became the betrayer.

¹⁷And coming down with them, he stood on a level place. And a crowd of His disciples, and a great multitude of the people from all Judea and Jerusalem, and from the coast country of Tyre and Sidon, were there. These came to hear Him, and to be healed from their diseases—¹⁸also those who had been tormented by unclean spirits. And they were healed. ¹⁹And all the crowd sought to touch Him, because power went out from Him and healed all.

²⁰And lifting up His eyes to His disciples, He said:

Blessed are the poor, for the kingdom of God is yours.

²¹Blessed are those hungering now, for you will be filled.

Blessed are those weeping now, for you will laugh.

²²Blessed are you when men hate you, and when they cut you off, and will reproach you, and will cast out your name as evil, on account of the Son of man—²³rejoice in that day, and leap for joy; for, behold, your reward is much in Heaven! For their fathers did according to these things to the prophets.

²⁴But woe to you, rich ones, for you have your comfort! ²⁵Woe to you, those having been filled, for you will hunger! Woe to you, those laughing now, for you will mourn and lament! ²⁶Woe to you when all men speak well of you, for their fathers did according to these things to the false prophets.

²⁷But I say to you, those hearing: Love your enemies; do good to those hating you; ²⁸bless those cursing you; and pray for those insulting you. ²⁹To those striking you on the cheek, turn the other also. And from those taking your garment, do not keep back the tunic also. ³⁰And to every-one asking you, give. And do not ask back from those taking your things. ³¹And according as you desire that men should do to you, you also do the same to them. ³²And if you love those who love you, what thanks is there to you? For even sinners love those who love them. ³³And if you do good to those who do good to you, what thanks is there to you? For even the sinners do the same. ³⁴And if you lend to those from whom you hope to receive, what thanks is there to you? For the sinners lend to sinners, so that they may receive the same.

³⁵But love your enemies, and do good, and lend, hoping for nothing in return; and your reward will be much; and you will be sons of the Most High, for He is kind to the unthankful and evil ones.

³⁶Therefore, be merciful, even as your Father also is merciful. ³⁷Judge not, and in no way be judged. Do not condemn, and in no way you will be condemned.

Forgive, and you will be forgiven. ³⁸Give, and good measure will be given to you, pressed down and shaken together, and running over, they will give into your bosom. For the same measure which you measure, it will be measured back to you.

³⁹And He spoke a parable to them: A blind one is not able to guide a blind one. Will they not both fall into the ditch? ⁴⁰A disciple is not above his teacher, but everyone who has been perfected will be like his teacher. ⁴¹But why do you look on the twig in your brother's eye, but do not consider the log in your own eye? ⁴²Or how can you say to your brother, Brother, let me pull out the twig in your eye, not yourself seeing the log in your eye? Hypocrite! First take the log out of your eye, and then you will see clearly to take out the twig in your brother's eye. ⁴³For there is not a good tree that produces bad fruit, nor a bad tree that produces good fruit. ⁴⁴For each tree is known from its own fruit. For they do not gather figs from thorns, nor do they gather grapes from a bramble bush. ⁴⁵The good man brings forth good out of the good treasure of his heart. And the evil man brings forth evil out of the evil treasure of his heart, for his mouth speaks out of the abundance of his heart.

⁴⁶And why do you call Me Lord, Lord, and do not do what I say? ⁴⁷Everyone coming to Me and hearing My words, and doing them, I will show you to whom he is like: ⁴⁸He is like a man building a house, who dug and deepened, and laid a foundation on the rock. And a flood having occurred, the stream burst against that house, and could not shake it, for it had been founded on the rock. ⁴⁹But he who heard and did not perform, he is like a man having built his house on the earth without a foundation, on which the stream burst, and it immediately fell; and the ruin of that house was great.

¹And when He had completed all His words in the ears of the people, He went into Capernaum.

²And a certain slave of a centurion, one dear to him, having illness was about to expire. ³And hearing about Jesus, he sent elders of the Jews to Him, asking Him that He might come to restore his slave. ⁴And coming to Jesus, they earnestly begged Him, saying, He to whom You give this is worthy. ⁵For he loves our nation, and he built the synagogue for us. ⁶And Jesus went with them. But He being yet not far away from the house, the centurion sent friends to Him, saying to Him, Lord, do not trouble, for I am not worthy that You come under my roof. ⁷For this reason I did not count myself worthy to come to You. But say in a word, and let my servant be cured. ⁸For I also am a man having been set under authority, having soldiers under myself. And I say to this one, Go! And he goes. And to another, Come! And he comes. And to my slave, Do this! And he does it. ⁹And hearing these things, Jesus marveled at him. And turning to the crowd following Him, He said, I say to you, I did not find such faith in Israel. ¹⁰And those sent, returning to the house, found the sick slave well.

¹¹And it happened on the next day, He went into a city being called Nain. And many of His disciples went with Him, also a great crowd. ¹²And as He drew near to the gate of the city, even behold, one having died was being borne, an only son born to his mother; and she was a widow. And a considerable crowd of the city was with her. ¹³And seeing her, the Lord felt pity over her; and said to her, Stop weeping. ¹⁴And coming up, He touched the coffin; and those carrying it stood still. And He said, Young man, I say to you, arise! ¹⁵And the dead one sat up and began to speak. And He gave him to his mother. ¹⁶And fear took hold of all; and they glorified God, saying, A great prophet has risen up among us; and, God has visited His people. ¹⁷And this word about Him went out in all Judea, and in all the neighborhood.

¹⁸And His disciples reported to John about all these things. ¹⁹And having called near a certain two of his disciples, John sent to Jesus, saying, Are You the One coming? Or should we expect another? ²⁰And having come to Him, the men said, John the Baptist sent us to You, saying, Are You the One coming, or should we expect another? ²¹And in the same hour He healed many from diseases and plagues and evil spirits. And He gave to many blind ones ability to see. ²²And answering Jesus said to them, Going, report to John what you saw and heard: Blind ones see again; lame ones walk about; lepers are being cleansed; deaf ones hear; dead ones are raised; poor ones are given the gospel. ²³And blessed is he who is not offended in Me.

²⁴And John's messengers going away, He began to speak to the crowds about John: What did you go out to the wilderness to see? A reed being shaken by the wind? ²⁵But what did you go out to see? A man who had been dressed in soft clothing? Behold, those in splendid clothing and being in luxury are in king's palaces. ²⁶But what did you go out to see? A prophet? Yes, I say to you, even more than a prophet. ²⁷This is he about whom it has been written: "Behold, I send My messenger before Your face, who will prepare Your way before You." ²⁸For I say to you, Among those born of a woman, no prophet is greater than John the Baptist. But the least one in the kingdom of God is greater than he is.

²⁹And all the people and the tax-collectors hearing, they justified God, being baptized with the the baptism of John. ³⁰But the Pharisees and the lawyers set aside God's counsel as to themselves, not being baptized by him. ³¹And the Lord said, Then to what shall I compare the men of this generation? And to what are they like? ³²They are like children sitting in a market and calling to one another, and saying, We piped to you, and you did not dance; we mourned to you, and you did not weep. ³³For John the Baptist has come neither eating bread nor drinking wine, and you say, He has a demon. ³⁴The Son of man has come eating and drinking, and you say, Behold, a man, a glutton and a drunkard; a friend of tax-collectors and sinners. ³⁵But wisdom was justified from all her children.

³⁶And a certain one of the Pharisees asked Him that He eat with him. And going into the Pharisee's house, He reclined. ³⁷And, behold, a woman who was a sinner in the city, knowing that He reclined in the Pharisee's house, taking an alabaster vial of ointment, ³⁸and standing at His feet, weeping behind Him, she began to wash His feet with tears. And she was wiping with the hairs of her head. And she ardently kissed His feet, and was anointing them with the ointment. ³⁹But seeing, the Pharisee who invited Him spoke within himself, saying, This one, if he were a prophet, would have known who and what the woman who touches him is; for she is a sinner. ⁴⁰And answering Jesus said to the man, Simon, I have a thing to say to you. And he said, Teacher, say it. ⁴¹There were two debtors to a certain creditor: the one owed five hundred denarii, and the other fifty. ⁴²But they not having a thing to pay, he freely forgave both. Then which of them do you say will love him most? ⁴³And answering Simon said, I suppose the one to whom he freely forgave the most. And He said to him, You have judged rightly. ⁴⁴And turning to the woman, He said to Simon, Do you see this woman? I came into your house. You did not give water for My feet, but she washed My feet with tears, and wiped off with the hairs of her head. ⁴⁵You gave Me no kiss, but she from when I entered did not stop fervently kissing My feet. ⁴⁶You did not anoint My head with oil, but she anointed My feet with ointment. ⁴⁷For this reason I say to you, her many sins are forgiven, for she loved much. But to whom little is forgiven, he loves little. ⁴⁸And He said to her, Your sins are forgiven. ⁴⁹And those reclining with Him began to say within themselves, Who is this who even forgives sins? ⁵⁰But He said to the woman, Your faith has saved you. Go in peace.

¹And it happened afterwards, even He traveled in every city and village, preaching and announcing the gospel of the kingdom of God. And the twelve were with Him; ²also certain women who were healed from evil spirits and infirmities: Mary having been called Magdalene, from whom seven demons had gone out; ³and Joanna, wife of Chuza, Herod's steward; and Susanna; and many others, who were ministering to Him of their possessions.

⁴And a great crowd coming together, and those in each city coming to Him, He spoke through a parable:

⁵The sower went out to sow his seed. And as he sowed, some fell by the roadside, and was trampled; and the birds of the heaven ate it. ⁶And other fell on the rock, and sprouting, it dried up, because of not having moisture. ⁷And other fell in the midst of the thorns, and springing up with the thorns, they choked it. ⁸And other fell on the good ground, and springing up, it produced fruit a hundredfold. Saying these things, He cried out, The one having ears to hear, let him hear.

⁹And His disciples questioned Him, saying, What might this parable be? ¹⁰And He said, To you it has been given to know the mysteries of the kingdom of God, but to the rest in parables, that seeing they might not see, and hearing they might not understand. ¹¹And this is the parable: The seed is the word of God. ¹²And those by the roadside are those who hear, then the Devil comes and takes away the word from their heart, lest believing they may be saved. ¹³And those on the rock are those who, when they hear, receive the word with joy; and these have no root, those believing for a time, and in time of trial draw back. ¹⁴And those falling in the thorns, these are those hearing, but under cares and riches and pleasures of life, having moved along, they are choked, and do not bear to maturity. ¹⁵And those in the good ground, these are the ones who in a right and good heart, hearing the word, they hold it and bear fruit in patience.

¹⁶But no one lighting a lamp covers it with a lamp covers it with a vessel, or puts it underneath a couch, but puts it on a lampstand, that those coming in may see the light. ¹⁷For nothing is hidden which will not be revealed; nor secret which will not be known and come to be revealed. ¹⁸Then observe how you hear; for whoever may have, it will be given to him; and whoever may not have, even what he seems to have will be taken from him.

¹⁹And His mother and His brothers came to Him, and were not able to come up with Him through the crowd. ²⁰And it was told to Him, saying, Your mother and Your brothers are standing outside, wishing to see You. ²¹And answering He said to them, My mother and My brothers are these, the ones hearing the word of God, and doing it.

²²And it happened on one of the days that He and His disciples entered into a boat. And He said to them, Let us go over to the other side of the lake; and they put out to sea. ²³And as they sailed He fell asleep. And a storm of wind came onto the lake, and they were being filled and were in danger. ²⁴And coming up they awakened Him, saying, Master! Master! We are perishing! And being aroused, He rebuked the wind and the roughness of the water; and they ceased; and there was a calm. ²⁵And He said to them, Where is your faith? And being afraid, they marveled, saying to one another, Who then is this One, that He commands even the wind and the water, and they obey Him?

²⁶And they sailed down to the country of the Gadarenes, which is across from Galilee. ²⁷And He going out onto the land, a certain man out of the city met Him, who had demons from a long time—and he put no garment on. And he did not stay in a house, but among the tombs. ²⁸And seeing Jesus, and crying out, he fell down before Him, and with a loud voice said, What to me and to You, Jesus, Son of God the Most High? I beg You, do not torment me. ²⁹For He charged the unclean spirit to come out of the man. For many times it had seized him, and he was bound with with chains and fetters, being guarded. And tearing apart the bonds, he was driven by the demons into the deserts. ³⁰And Jesus asked him, saying, What is your name? And he said, Legion, because many demons entered into him. ³¹And they begged Him that He not order them to go away into the abyss. ³²And there was a herd of many pigs feeding there in the mount. And they begged Him that He would allow them to enter into those. And He allowed them. ³³And coming out from the man, the demons entered into the pigs, and the herd rushed down the cliff into the lake, and was choked. ³⁴And seeing the thing, those feeding the pigs fled. And leaving, they reported to the city and to the farms. ³⁵And they went out to see the thing happening, and came to Jesus. And they found the man from whom the demons had gone out, sitting at the feet of Jesus, clothed and of sound mind. And they were afraid. ³⁶And those seeing also related to them how the demon-possessed one was healed. ³⁷And all the multitude of the neighborhood of the Gadarenes were seized with a great fear. And they asked Him to depart from them. And entering into the boat, He returned.

³⁸And the man from whom the demons had gone out begged Him, desiring to be with Him. But Jesus sent him away, saying, ³⁹Go back to your house and tell what God did to you. And he went away proclaiming through all the city what things Jesus did to him.

⁴⁰And it happened as Jesus returned, the crowd gladly received Him, for they were all waiting for Him. ⁴¹And, behold, a man named Jairus came, and this one was a synagogue ruler. And falling at the feet of Jesus, he begged Him to come into his house, ⁴²because an only daughter was born to him, about twelve years old, and she was dying. And in his going, the crowd pressed on Him. ⁴³And a woman being in a flow of blood from twelve years, who had spent her whole living on physicians, and could not be cured by anyone, ⁴⁴coming up behind, she touched the border of His garment. And instantly the flow of her blood stopped. ⁴⁵And Jesus said, Who was touching Me? And all having denied, Peter and those with Him said, Master, the crowds press on You and jostle. And do You say, Who was touching Me? ⁴⁶But Jesus said, Someone touched Me; for I knew power had gone out from Me. ⁴⁷And seeing that she was not hidden, the woman came trembling, and kneeled down before Him, and told Him before all the people for what reason she touched Him, and how she was instantly cured. ⁴⁸And He said to her, Daughter, be comforted. Your faith has healed you. Go in peace.

⁴⁹*As* He was yet speaking, someone came from the synagogue ruler, saying to him, Your daughter has expired. Do not trouble the Teacher. ⁵⁰But hearing, Jesus answered him, saying, Do not fear; only believe, and she will be healed. ⁵¹And coming into the house, He did not allow anyone to enter except Peter and James and John, and the father and mother of the child. ⁵²And all were weeping and bewailing her. But He said, Stop weeping. She has not died, but is sleeping. ⁵³And they scoffed at Him, knowing that she died. ⁵⁴But putting all outside, and taking hold of her hand, He called out, saying, Child, rise up! ⁵⁵And her spirit returned, and she rose up immediately. And He ordered something to eat be given to her. ⁵⁶And her parents were amazed. But He charged them to tell no one of that which occurred.

¹And having called together His twelve disciples, He gave them power and authority over all the demons, and to heal diseases. ²And He sent them to proclaim the kingdom of God, and to heal the ones being sick. ³And He said to them, Take nothing for the way, neither staffs, nor moneybags, nor bread, nor silver, nor each to have two tunics. ⁴And into whatever house you enter, remain there, and go out from there. ⁵And as many as may not receive you, going out from that city even shake off the dust from your feet, for a testimony against them. ⁶And going out they passed through the villages, having announced the gospel, and healing everywhere.

⁷And Herod the tetrarch heard all the things happening by Him, and was puzzled, because of the saying by some that John had been raised from the dead; ⁸and by some that Elijah had appeared. And others said, A prophet of the ancients rose again. ⁹And Herod said, I beheaded John, but who is this about whom I hear such things? And he sought to see Him.

¹⁰And returning the apostles told Him what things they did. And taking them He went out privately to a desert place of a city called Bethsaida. ¹¹But knowing this, the crowds followed Him. And having received them, He spoke to them about the kingdom of God. And He cured those having need of healing. ¹²But the day began to wane, and coming up the twelve said to Him, Let the crowd go, that going to the surrounding villages and farms they may lodge, and find food supplies, because here we are in a desert place. ¹³But He said to them, You give them to eat. But they said, There are not to us more than five loaves and two fish, unless going we buy foods for all this people. ¹⁴For they were about five thousand men. But He said to His disciples, Make them recline in groups, by fifties. ¹⁵And they did so, and made all recline. ¹⁶And taking the five loaves and the two fish, looking up to Heaven, He blessed them, and broke, and gave to the disciples to set before the crowd. ¹⁷And they ate and were all satisfied. And twelve handbaskets of fragments of that left over to them were taken up.

¹⁸And it happened as He was praying alone, the disciples were with Him. And He questioned them, saying, Whom do the crowds say Me to be? ¹⁹And answering they said, John the Baptist; and others, Elijah; and others that some prophet of the ancients has risen again. ²⁰And He said to them, But whom do you say Me to be? And answering Peter said, The Christ of God. ²¹And strictly warning them, He ordered to tell no one this, ²²saying, The Son of man must suffer many things, and be rejected by the elders and chief priests and scribes, and be killed, and be raised the third day. ²³And He said to all, If anyone desires to come after Me, let him deny himself and take up his cross daily. And let him follow Me. ²⁴For whoever desires to save his soul, he will lose it. But whoever loses his soul for My sake, this one will save it. ²⁵For what is a man profited gaining the whole world, but destroying himself or suffering loss? ²⁶For whoever is ashamed of Me and My words, the Son of man will be ashamed of that one when He comes in His glory, and that of the Father, and of the holy angels. ²⁷But truly I say to you, There are some of those standing here who in no way shall taste of death until they see the kingdom of God.

²⁸And about eight days after these sayings, it happened: also taking Peter and John and James, He went into the mountain to pray. ²⁹And in His praying the appearance of His face became different, and His clothing was dazzling white. ³⁰And, behold, two men talked with Him, who were Moses and Elijah. ³¹Appearing in glory, they spoke of His exodus, which He was about to accomplish in Jerusalem. ³²But Peter and those with him were pressed down with sleep. But fully awakening they saw His glory, and the two men standing with Him. ³³And it happened in their parting from Him, Peter said to Jesus, Master, it is good for us to be here. And, Let us make three tents, one for You, and one for Moses, and one for Elijah — not knowing what he said. ³⁴And he saying these things, a cloud came and overshadowed them. And they feared as those entered into the cloud. ³⁵And a voice came out of the cloud, saying, This is My Son, the Beloved; hear Him! ³⁶And as the voice occurred, Jesus was found alone. And they were quiet. And they reported to no one in those days, nothing which they had seen.

³⁷And it happened on the next day, they coming down from the mountain, a huge crowd met Him. ³⁸And, behold, a man called aloud from the crowd, saying, Teacher, I beg You to look at my son, because he is my only-born. ³⁹And, behold, a spirit takes him, and he suddenly cries out; and it throws him into convulsions, with foaming. And it departs from him with pain, bruising him. ⁴⁰And I begged Your disciples, that they cast it out. And they were not able. ⁴¹And answering Jesus said, O unbelieving and generation which has been perverted, how long shall I be with you and bear with you? Bring your son here. ⁴²But as he was yet coming up, the demon tore him and violently convulsed him. But Jesus rebuked the unclean spirit and healed the child, and gave him back to his father. ⁴³And all were astonished at the majesty of God.

And as all were marveling at all things which He did, Jesus said to His disciples, ⁴⁴You lay into your ears these sayings; for the Son of man is about to be betrayed into the hands of men. ⁴⁵But they did not understand this saying, and it was veiled from them so that they might not perceive it. And they feared to ask Him about this word.

⁴⁶But an argument came in among them, who might be the greater of them.

⁴⁷And seeing the argument of their heart, taking a child, Jesus stood it beside Himself, ⁴⁸and said to them, Whoever receives this child on My name receives Me. And whoever receives Me receives Him who sent Me. For the one being least among you all, this one shall be great.

⁴⁹And answering John said, Master, we saw someone casting out demons on Your name, and we forbade him because he does not follow with us. ⁵⁰And Jesus said to them, Do not forbid; for whoever is not against us is for us.

⁵⁷And it happened as they were going in the way, one said to Him, I will follow You everywhere You may go, Lord. ⁵⁸And Jesus said to him, The foxes have holes, and the birds of the heaven nests, but the Son of man has nowhere He may lay His head. ⁵⁹And He said to another, Follow Me. But he said, Lord, allow me to go first to bury my father. ⁶⁰But Jesus said to him, Leave the dead to bury their dead, but going out, you announce the kingdom of God. ⁶¹And also another said, I will follow You, Lord, but first allow me to take leave of those in my house. ⁶²But Jesus said to him, No one putting his hand on the plow, and looking at the things behind, is fit for the kingdom of God.

¹And after these things the Lord also appointed seventy others, and sent them two by two before His face into every city and place, even to where He was about to come. ²Therefore He said to them, Indeed the harvest is much, but the laborers are few. Therefore, pray to the Lord of the harvest, that He send out workers into His harvest. ³Go! Behold, I send you out as lambs in the midst of wolves. ⁴Do not carry a purse, nor a moneybag, nor sandals; and greet no one by the way. ⁵And into whatever house you may enter, first say, Peace to this house. ⁶And if a son of peace is truly there, your peace shall rest on it; but if not so, it shall return to you. ⁷And remain in the same house, eating and drinking the things shared by them; for the laborer is worthy of his hire. Do not move from house to house. ⁸And into whatever city you enter, and they receive you, eat the things set before you. ⁹And heal the sick in it, and say to them, The kingdom of God has drawn near to you. ¹⁰But into whatever city you enter, and they do not receive you, going out into its streets, say, ¹¹Even the dust clinging to us out of your city, we shake off against you! Yet know this, that the kingdom of God has drawn near to you!

¹²And I say to you that it shall be more bearable for Sodom in that day than for that city! ¹³Woe to you, Chorazin! Woe to you, Bethsaida! For if the works of power which have been occurring in you had occurred in Tyre and Sidon, they would have repented long ago, sitting in sackcloth and ashes! ¹⁴But it will be more bearable for Tyre and Sidon in the Judgment than for you. ¹⁵And you, Capernaum, were you not exalted to Heaven? You will be thrust down to Hades!

¹⁶The one hearing you also hears Me, and the one rejecting you also rejects Me, and the one rejecting Me also rejects the One having sent Me.

¹⁷And the seventy returned with joy, saying, Lord, even the demons are subject to us through Your Name. ¹⁸And He said to them, I saw Satan falling out of Heaven as lightning! ¹⁹Behold, I have given you the authority to tread on snakes and scorpions, and on all the power of the Enemy, and nothing shall hurt you, not at all ²⁰But stop rejoicing in this, that the evil spirits submit to you. But rather rejoice that your names are written in Heaven.

²¹In the same hour Jesus rejoiced in the Spirit, and said, I praise You, Father, Lord of Heaven and of earth, that You hid these things from the sophisticated and cunning, and revealed them to babes; yes, Father, because so it was pleasing before You. ²²All things were delivered to Me by My Father, and no one knows who the Son is except the Father; and who is the Father, except the Son, and he to whom the Son may desire to reveal Him. ²³And having turned to the disciples alone, He said, Blessed are the eyes seeing what you see. ²⁴For I say to you that many prophets and kings desired to see what you see, and did not see; and to hear what you hear, and did not hear.

²⁵And behold, a certain doctor of the Law stood up, testing Him and saying, Teacher, What shall I do that I may inherit eternal life? ²⁶And He said to him, What has been written in the Law? How do you read it? ²⁷And answering he said, You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your strength, and with all your mind; and your neighbor as yourself. ²⁸And He said to him, You have answered rightly; do this, and you shall live. ²⁹But desiring to justify himself, he said to Jesus, And who is my neighbor? ³⁰And taking it up, Jesus said, A certain man was going down from Jerusalem to Jericho, and fell in with robbers, who both stripping him and laying on wounds, going away, leaving him being half-dead. ³¹But by a coincidence, a certain priest was going on that road; and seeing him, he passed on the opposite side. ³²And in the same way a Levite, also being at the place, coming and seeing him, he passed on the opposite side. ³³But a certain traveling Samaritan came upon him, and seeing him, he was filled with pity. ³⁴And coming near, he bound up his wounds, pouring on oil and wine. And putting him on his own animal, he brought him to an inn, and cared for him. ³⁵And going forth on the morrow, taking out two denarii, he gave them to the innkeeper, and said to him, Care for him, and whatever more you spend, I on my return will repay to you.

³⁶Who, then, of these three seems to you to have become a neighbor to the one having fallen among the robbers? ³⁷And he said, The one doing the deed of mercy with him. Then Jesus said to him, Go, and you do likewise.

³⁸And as they went on, it happened that He also entered into a certain village. And a certain woman, Martha by name, received Him into her house. ³⁹And she had a sister being called Mary, who also was sitting alongside, at the feet of Jesus, and heard His word. ⁴⁰But Martha was distracted about much serving. And coming on she said, Lord, Is it not a care to You that my sister left me alone to serve? Then tell her that she should help me. ⁴¹But answering Jesus said to her, Martha, Martha, you are anxious and troubled about many things, ⁴²but there is need of only one; and Mary chose the good part, which shall not be taken from her.

¹And it happened as He was praying in a certain place, when He ceased, one of His disciples said to Him, Lord teach us to pray, as John also taught his disciples. ²And He said to them: When you pray, say,

Our Father who is in Heaven, hallowed be Your name; let Your kingdom come; let Your will be done on earth as it also is in Heaven. ³Give us our needed bread day by day; ⁴and forgive us our sins, for we ourselves also forgive everyone indebted to us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

⁵And He said to them, Who of you shall have a friend, and will come to him at midnight and say to him, Friend, lend me three loaves. ⁶For a friend of mine arrived to me from a journey, and I do not have what I may set before him. ⁷And that one answering from within may say, Do not cause me troubles. The door has already been shut, and my children are in bed with me. I cannot rise up to give to you. ⁸I say to you, Even if rising up he will not give to him because he is a friend, yet because of his shameless insisting, rising up he will give him as many as he needs. ⁹And I say to you, Ask, and it will be given to you. Seek, and you will find; knock, and it will be opened to you. ¹⁰For everyone asking receives, and the one seeking finds; and to the one knocking, it will be opened. ¹¹And what father of you, if the son asks for bread, will he give him a stone? And if a fish, will he give him a snake instead of a fish? ¹²And if he should ask an egg, will he give him a scorpion? ¹³Then if you being evil know to give good gifts to your children, how much more the Father out of Heaven will give the Holy Spirit to those asking Him.

¹⁴And he was casting out a demon, and it was dumb. And it happened as the demon was going out, the dumb one spoke. And the crowds marveled. ¹⁵But some of them said, He casts out the demons by Beelzebub the chief of the demons. ¹⁶And tempting Him, others were seeking a sign from Heaven from Him. ¹⁷But knowing their thoughts, He said to them, Every kingdom divided against itself is brought to ruin, and a house against a house falls. ¹⁸And also if Satan is divided against himself, how shall his kingdom stand?—because you say I cast out the demons by Beelzebub. ¹⁹And if I cast out the demons by Beelzebub, by whom do your sons cast out? Because of this they shall be your judges. ²⁰But if I cast out the demons by the finger of God, then the kingdom of God has come upon you.

²¹When the strong one who has been armed guards his dwelling, his goods are in peace. ²²But as soon as one stronger than he comes, he overcomes him; he takes away his armor on which he relied, and deals out his arms. ²³The one not being with Me is against Me. And the one not gathering with me scatters.

²⁴When the unclean spirit goes out from the man, he goes through dry places seeking rest. And not finding, he says, I will return to my house from where I came out. ²⁵And coming he finds it swept and decorated. ²⁶Then he goes and takes seven other spirits more wicked than himself; and entering he dwells there. And the last things of that man become worse than the first.

²⁷And as He spoke these things, it happened that a certain woman lifted up her voice out of the crowd and said to Him, Blessed is the womb having borne You, and the breasts which You sucked. ²⁸But He said, No; rather, blessed are those hearing the word of God, and keeping it.

²⁹But the crowds pressing on Him, He began to say, This is an evil generation. It seeks a sign, and a sign will not be given to it, except the sign of Jonah the prophet. ³⁰For Jonah became a sign to the Ninevites; so also the Son of man will be to this generation. ³¹The queen of the south will be raised in the Judgment with the men of this generation, and will condemn them, because she came from the ends of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon. And, behold, a Greater-than-Solomon is here. ³²Men, Ninevites will rise up in the Judgment with this generation, and will condemn it, because they repented at the preaching of Jonah. And, behold, a Greater-than-Jonah is here.

³³But no one having lit a lamp places it in secret, nor under the grain-measure, but on the lampstand, that the ones entering may see the light. ³⁴The lamp of the body is the eye. Then when your eye is sound, also all your body is light. But when it is evil, also your body is dark. ³⁵Watch, then, that the light in you is not darkness. ³⁶If, then, your whole body is light, not having any part dark, all will be light, as when the lamp enlightens you with its shining.

³⁷And as He was speaking, a certain Pharisee asked Him that He would dine with him. And going in, He reclined. ³⁸But watching, the Pharisee marveled that He did not first wash before the dinner. ³⁹But the Lord said to him, Now you Pharisees cleanse the outside of the cup and of the dish, but your inside is full of robbery and evil. ⁴⁰Fools! Did not He who made the outside also make the inside? ⁴¹But give alms of the things which are within, and behold, all things are clean to you. ⁴²But woe to you, Pharisees, for you pay tithes of the mint, and the rue, and every plant, and pass by the judgment and the love of God.

It was right to do these things, but not to leave aside those. ⁴³Woe to you, Pharisees! For you love the chief seat in the synagogues, and the greetings in the marketplaces. ⁴⁴Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees! Hypocrites! For you are as the unseen tombs, and the men walking above do not know.

⁴⁵And answering one of the lawyers said to Him, Teacher, saying these things you also insult us. ⁴⁶And He said, Woe to you also, lawyers! Because you burden men with burdens hard to bear, and you yourselves do not touch the burdens with one of your fingers. ⁴⁷Woe to you! Because you build the tombs of the prophets, and your fathers killed them. ⁴⁸So you bear witness and consent to the works of your fathers; for they indeed killed them, and you build their tombs. ⁴⁹And because of this the wisdom of God said, I will send prophets and apostles to them, and they will kill and drive out some of them, ⁵⁰that the blood of all the prophets which has been shed from the foundation of the world may be required from this generation, ⁵¹from the blood of Abel until the blood of Zechariah who perished between the altar and the House. Yea, I say to you, it will be required from this generation. ⁵²Woe to you, lawyers! because you took the key of knowledge; you yourselves did not enter, and you kept out the ones entering.

⁵³And as He was saying these things to them, the scribes and the Pharisees began to be terribly angry, and to draw Him out concerning many things, ⁵⁴lying in ambush for Him, and seeking to catch something out of His mouth, that they might accuse Him.

¹At which time the myriads of the crowd being gathered together, so as to trample on one another, He began to say to His disciples first, Take heed to yourselves of the leaven of the Pharisees, which is hypocrisy. ²But there is nothing which has been completely concealed which will not be uncovered, nor hidden which will not be known. ³For this reason, whatever you said in the darkness will be heard in the light; and whatever you spoke in the ear in the secret rooms will be proclaimed on the housetops. ⁴But I say to you, My friends, Stop being afraid of the ones killing the body, and after these things not having anything more they can do. ⁵But I will warn you whom you should fear; fear the ones who after the killing have authority to cast into Hell; yea, I say to you, fear that One!

⁶Are not five sparrows sold for two assaria? And not one of them has been forgotten before God. ⁷But even the hairs of your head have all been numbered. Then stop being afraid; you differ from many sparrows. ⁸But I say to you, Everyone who may confess Me before men, the Son of man will also confess him before the angels of God. ¹⁰And everyone who shall say a word against the Son of man, it shall be forgiven Him; but the ones blaspheming against the Holy Spirit, it will not be forgiven. ¹¹But when they bring you in before synagogues and rulers, and the authorities, do not be anxious how or what you shall reply, or what you should say; ¹²for the Holy Spirit will teach you in the same hour what you ought to say.

¹³And one from the crowd said to Him, Teacher, tell my brother to divide the inheritance with me. ¹⁴But He said to him, Man, who appointed Me a judge or a divider over you?

¹⁵And He said to them, Beware, and keep back from covetousness; for one's life is not in the abundance of the things which are to him. ¹⁶And He spoke a parable to them, saying, A certain rich man produced well from the land. ¹⁷And he reasoned within himself, saying, What may I do, for I have nowhere I may gather my fruits? ¹⁸And he said, I will do this; I will tear down my barns, and I will build larger; and I will gather there all my produce and my goods. ¹⁹And I will say to my soul, Soul, you have many goods laid up for many years; take rest; eat, drink, be glad. ²⁰But God said to him, Fool! This night they demand your soul from you; and that which you prepared, to whom will it be? ²¹So is he treasuring up for himself, and not being rich toward God.

²²And He said to His disciples, Because of this I say to you, do not be anxious as to your life, what you should eat; nor as to the body, what you should put on. ²³The life is more than the food, and the body than the clothing. ²⁴Consider the ravens, for they do not sow, nor do they reap; to which there is no storehouse or barn, and God feeds them. How much rather you differ from the birds! ²⁵And who of you by being anxious is able to add one cubit to his stature? ²⁶Then if you are not able to do even the least, why are you anxious about the rest?

²⁷Consider the lilies, how they grow; they do not labor, nor do they spin; but I say to you, Not even Solomon in all his glory was clothed as one of these. ²⁸But if God so dresses the grass, which today is in the field, and tomorrow is thrown into the oven, how much rather you, O little-faiths? ²⁹And you stop seeking what you may eat, or what you may drink; and stop being in anxiety. ³⁰For all the nations of the world seek after these things; and your Father knows that you need these things. ³¹But seek the kingdom of God, and all these things will be added to you. ³²Stop being afraid, little flock, because your Father was pleased to give you the kingdom. ³³Sell your possessions, and give alms. Make for yourselves purses that do not grow old, an unfailing treasure in Heaven, where a thief cannot come near, nor moth can corrupt. ³⁴For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also.

³⁵Let your loins be girded about, and the lamps burning; ³⁶and you be like men awaiting their lord when he returns from the feasts, so that he coming and knocking, they will at once open to him. ³⁷Blessed are those slaves whom the lord will find watching when he comes. Truly I say to you that he will gird himself and will make them recline, and coming up he will serve them. ³⁸And if he comes in the second watch, and in the third watch he comes and finds it so, blessed are those slaves. ³⁹But know this that if the housemaster had known the hour the thief is coming, he would have watched and would not have allowed his house to be dug through. ⁴⁰And you, then, be ready; for in the hour you think not the Son of man comes.

⁴¹And Peter said to Him, Lord, do You speak this parable to us, or also to all?

⁴²And the Lord said, Who then is the faithful and wise steward whom the lord will set over his houseservants, to give the portion of food in season? ⁴³Blessed is that slave when his lord comes and will find him so doing. ⁴⁴Truly I say to you, he will set him over all his possessions. ⁴⁵But if that slave should say in his heart, My lord delays to come, and should begin to beat the men servants and the female servants, and to eat and to drink, and be drunk, ⁴⁶the lord of that slave will come in the day in which he does not expect, and in an hour which he does not know. And he will cut him apart, and will put his portion with the unbelievers. ⁴⁷But that slave knowing the will of his Lord, and did not prepare, nor did according to His will, will be beaten with many stripes. ⁴⁸But he not knowing, and doing things worthy of stripes, will be beaten with few. And everyone given much, much will be demanded from him. And to whom much was deposited, more exceedingly they will ask him.

⁴⁹I came to hurl fire into the earth; and what will I if it already has been lit? ⁵⁰But I have a baptism to be immersed in, and how am I pressed until it is done! ⁵¹Do you think that I came to give peace in the earth? No, I say to you, but rather division. ⁵²For from now on five in one house will have been divided, three against two, and two against three. ⁵³Father will be divided against son, and son against father; mother against daughter, and daughter against mother; mother-in-law against her daughter-in-law, and the daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law.

⁵⁴And He also said to the crowd, When you see the cloud rising up from the west, you immediately say, A storm is coming; and it happened so. ⁵⁵And when a south wind is blowing, you say, There will be heat; and it occurs. ⁵⁶Hypocrites! You know to discern the face of the earth and of the heaven, but how is it you do not discern this time? ⁵⁷And why do you not judge what is right even of yourselves? ⁵⁸For as you go with your adversary to a judge, give pains in the way to be set free from him, that he not drag you to the judge, and the judge deliver you to the officer, and the officer throw you into prison. ⁵⁹I say to you, In no way may you leave there until you pay even the last lepton.

¹And some were present at the same time reporting to Him about the Galileans, whose blood Pilate mixed with their sacrifices. ²And answering Jesus said to them, Do you think that these Galileans were sinners beyond all the Galileans, because they suffered such things? ³No, I say to you; but if you do not repent, you will all perish in the same way. ⁴Or those eighteen on whom the tower in Siloam fell, and killed them, do you think that these were sinners beyond all men who lived in Jerusalem? ⁵No, I say to you; but if you do not repent, you will all perish in the same way.

⁶And He spoke this parable:

A certain one had planted a fig-tree in his vineyard. And He came looking for fruit on it, and did not find any. ⁷And he said to the vinedresser, Behold, three years I come looking for fruit on this fig-tree, and found none. Cut it down, and why does it waste the ground? ⁸And the vinedresser said to him, Sir, leave it also this year, until I shall dig around it and throw manure; ⁹and see if it indeed makes fruit. But if not, in the future you may cut it down.

¹⁰And He was teaching in one of the synagogues on one of the sabbaths. ¹¹And, behold, there was a woman having a spirit of infirmity eighteen years, and was bent together, and was not able to be completely erect. ¹²And seeing her, Jesus called her near, and said to her, Woman, you have been freed from your infirmity. ¹³And He laid hands on her. And instantly she was made erect, and glorified God. ¹⁴But answering, the synagogue ruler, being angry that Jesus healed on the sabbath, said to the crowd, There are six days in which it is right to work. Therefore, coming in these, be healed, and not on the sabbath day. ¹⁵Then the Lord answered him and said, Hypocrite! Each one of you on the sabbath, does he not untie his ox or ass from the manger, and leading it away give it drink? ¹⁶And this one being a daughter of Abraham, whom Satan has bound, lo, eighteen years, ought she not to be freed from this bond on the sabbath day? ¹⁷And on His saying these things, all who were opposed to Him were ashamed. And all the crowd rejoiced over all the glorious things taking place by Him.

¹⁸And He said, What is the kingdom of God like? And to what shall I compare it? ¹⁹It is like a grain of mustard, which a man having taken threw into his garden. And it grew and became a great tree; and the birds of the heaven perched in its branches. ²⁰And again He said, To what shall I compare the kingdom of God? ²¹It is like leaven, which taking a woman hid in three measures of meal, until all was leavened.

²²And He went through by cities and villages, teaching, and making progress toward Jerusalem. ²³And one said to Him, Lord, are the ones being saved few? But He said to them, ²⁴Labor to enter in through the narrow gate; for I say to you that many will seek to enter in, and will not have strength. ²⁵From the time the Master of the house shall have risen up, and He shuts the door, and you begin to stand outside and to knock at the door, saying, Lord, Lord, open to us. And answering He will say to you, I do not know you. From where are you? ²⁶Then you will begin to say, We ate and drank in Your presence, and You taught in our streets. ²⁷And He will say, I tell you, I do not know you, from where you are. Stand back from Me, all workers of unrighteousness. ²⁸There will be weeping and gnashing of the teeth when you see Abraham and Isaac and Jacob, and all the prophets, in the kingdom of God, but yourselves being thrust outside. ²⁹And they will come from east and west, and from north and south, and will recline in the kingdom of God. ³⁰And, behold, there are last ones who will be first, and there are first ones who will be last.

³¹In the same day certain Pharisees came saying to Him, Go out and go on from here, for Herod desires to kill you. ³²And He said to them, Going, say to that fox, Behold, today and tomorrow I cast out demons, and I complete cures, and the third day I am perfected. ³³But today and tomorrow, and on the following day, I must travel on. For it is not possible for a prophet to perish outside Jerusalem. ³⁴Jerusalem! Jerusalem! The one killing the prophets, and stoning those having been sent to her; how often I desired to gather your children in in the way a hen gathers her brood under the wings; and you did not desire it. ³⁵Behold, your house is left to you desolate. And truly I say to you, You shall not at all see Me until it come when you say, Blessed is the One coming in the name of the Lord.

¹And it occurred on His going into a house of one of the Pharisee leaders on a sabbath to eat bread, even they were closely observing Him. ²And behold, a certain man was dropsical before Him. ³And answering Jesus said to the lawyers and Pharisees, asking whether it is lawful to heal on the sabbath. ⁴And they were silent. And taking the man, He cured him, and let him go. ⁵And answering to them He said, Whose ass or ox of yours shall fall into a pit, and he will not at once pull it up on the sabbath day? ⁶And they were not able to reply to Him against these things.

⁷And He spoke a parable to those who had been invited, noting how they were choosing out the chief seats, saying to them, ⁸When you are invited by anyone to wedding feasts, do not recline at the chief seat, lest one more honorable than you be invited by him; ⁹and he who invited you coming will say to you, Give this one place. And then you begin with shame to take the last place. ¹⁰But when you are invited, going in recline at the last place, so that when he who has invited you may come, he may say to you, Friend, go up higher. Then glory will be to you before those reclining with you. ¹¹For everyone exalting himself will be humbled; and the one humbling himself will be exalted.

¹²And He also said to him who had invited Him, When you make a dinner or supper, do not call your friends, nor your brothers, nor your relatives, nor rich neighbors, lest they also should invite you in return, and it become a repayment to you. ¹³But when you make a party, call the poor, the crippled, the lame, the blind; ¹⁴and then you will be blessed, for they have nothing to repay you. For it will be repaid to you in the resurrection of the just.

¹⁵And one of those reclining with Him, hearing these things, he said to Him, Blessed are those eating bread in the kingdom of God. ¹⁶But He said to him, A certain man made a great supper, and invited many. ¹⁷And he sent his slave at the supper hour to say to those who had been invited, Come, for now all is ready. ¹⁸And all with one mind began to beg off. The first said to him, I have bought a field, and I have need to go out and see it; I ask you, have me excused. ¹⁹And another said, I bought five yoke of oxen, and I am going to try them out; I ask you, have me excused. ²⁰And another said, I married a wife, and for this reason I am not able to come. ²¹And having come up that slave reported these things to his lord. then being angry the housemaster said to his slave, Go out quickly into the streets and lanes of the city, and bring in here the poor and maimed and lame and blind ones. ²²And the slave said, Sir, it has been done as you ordered, and still there is room. ²³And the lord said to the slave, Go out into the highways and hedges and compel them to come in, so that my house may be filled. ²⁴For I say to you that not one of those men who had been invited shall taste of my supper.

²⁵And great crowds came together to Him. And turning He said to them, ²⁶If anyone comes to Me and does not hate his father, and mother, and wife, and children, and brothers and sisters, and besides his own soul, too, he cannot be My disciple. ²⁷And whoever does not bear his cross and come after Me, he cannot be My disciple. ²⁸For who of you desiring to build a tower does not first sit down and count the cost, whether he has the things to finish; ²⁹that having laid a foundation, and not having strength to finish all, those seeing begin to mock him, ³⁰saying, This man began to build, and did not have strength to finish. ³¹Or what king going to attack another king in war does not first sit down and take counsel whether he is able with ten thousands to meet those coming upon him with twenty thousands? ³²But if not, he being still far off, sending a delegation he asks the things for peace. ³³So then everyone of you who does not abandon all his possessions is not able to be My disciple. ³⁴The salt is good, but if the salt becomes tasteless, with what will it be seasoned?³⁵ It is not fit for soil nor for fertilizer; they throw it out. The one having ears to hear, let him hear.

¹And all the tax-collectors and sinners were coming near to Him, to hear Him.

²And the Pharisees and the scribes murmured, saying, This one receives sinners and eats with them.

⁸Or what woman having ten drachmas, if she loses one drachma does not light a lamp and sweep the house, and look carefully until she finds it? ⁹And finding it she calls together the friends and neighbors, saying, Rejoice with me, for I have found the drachma which I lost. ¹⁰I say to you, so there is joy before the angels of God over one sinner repenting.

¹¹And He said, A certain man had two sons; ¹²and the younger of them said to the father, Father give me that part of the property falling to me. And he divided the living to them. ¹³And not many days after, gathering up all things, the younger son went away to a distant country. And there he wasted his property, living dissolutely.

¹⁴But having spent all his things, a severe famine came throughout that country; and he began to be in need. ¹⁵And going he was joined to one of the citizens of that country. And he sent him into his fields to feed pigs. ¹⁶And he longed to fill his stomach from the husks which the pigs ate; but no one gave to him. ¹⁷But coming to himself he said, How many servants of my father have plenty of loaves, and I am perishing with famine. ¹⁸Rising up I will go to my father, and I will say to him, Father, I sinned against Heaven and before you; ¹⁹and I am no longer worthy to be called your son. Make me as one of your servants. ²⁰And rising up he came to his father. But he yet being far away, his father saw him and was moved with pity. And running he fell on his neck and fervently kissed him. ²¹And the son said to him, Father, I have sinned against Heaven and before you, and no longer am I worthy to be called your son. ²²But the father said to his slaves, Bring out the best robe and clothe him, and give a ring for his hand and sandals for his feet. ²³And bring the fattened calf; slaughter and let us eat and be merry; ²⁴for this son of mine was dead, and lived again; and was lost, and was found. And they began to be merry.

²⁵But the older son was in a field. And having come, as he drew near to the house, he heard music and dances. ²⁶And having called one of the children, he inquired what this may be. ²⁷And he said to him, Your brother came, and your father killed the fattened calf, because he received him back in health. ²⁸But he was angry and did not desire to go in. Then coming out his father begged him. ²⁹But answering he said to the father, Behold, so many years I serve you, and never have I transgressed a command of you. And you never gave a goat to me so that I might be merry with my friends. ³⁰But when this son of yours came, the one devouring your living with harlots, you killed the fattened calf for him. ³¹But he said to him, Child, you are always with me, and all of my things are yours. ³²But to be merry and to rejoice was right, for this brother of yours was dead, and lived again; and being lost, also he was found.

¹And He also said to His disciples, A certain man was rich, and he had a steward, and this one was accused to him as wasting his goods. ²And calling him, he said to him, What is this I hear about you? Give the account of your stewardship, for you can no longer be steward. ³And the steward said within himself, What shall I do, for my lord is taking away the stewardship from me? I am not able to dig, and I am ashamed to beg. ⁴I know what I will do, that when I am removed from the stewardship, they will receive me into their houses. ⁵And calling to him each one of the debtors of his lord, he said to the first, How much do you owe my lord? ⁶And he said, A hundred baths of oil. And he said to him, Take your statements, and sitting, quickly write fifty. ⁷Then he said to another, And you, how much do you owe? And he said a hundred cors of wheat. And he said to him, Take your statement and write eighty. ⁸And the lord praised the unrighteous steward, because he acted prudently. For the sons of this age are more prudent than the sons of light themselves are in their generation. ⁹And I say to you, Make to yourselves friends by the unrighteous mammon, that when it fails they may take you into the eternal dwellings. ¹⁰He faithful in the least is also faithful in much. And he unrighteous in the least is also unrighteous in much. ¹¹Then if you were not faithful in the unrighteous mammon, who will entrust the true to you? ¹²And if you were not faithful in that of another, who will give to you that which is yours? ¹³No servant is able to serve two lords; for either he will hate the one, and he will love the other; or he will cling to one, and he will despise the other. You are unable to serve God and mammon.

¹⁴And being lovers of money, the Pharisees also heard all these things; and they derided Him. ¹⁵And He said to them, You are those justifying yourselves before men, but God knows your hearts; for the thing highly prized among men is a hateful thing before God. ¹⁶The Law and the Prophets were until John; from then the kingdom of God is being preached, and everyone is pressing into it. ¹⁷But it is easier for the heaven and the earth to pass away than one tittle of the law to fail. ¹⁸Everyone putting away his wife, and marrying another, commits adultery. And everyone marrying her who has been put away from a husband commits adultery.

¹⁹And there was a certain rich man, and he was accustomed to don a purple robe and fine linen, making merry in luxury day by day. ²⁰And there was a certain poor one named Lazarus, who had been laid at his porch, being plagued by sores, ²¹and longing to be filled from the crumbs that were falling from the table of the rich one. But even the dogs coming licked his sores. ²²And it happened, the poor one died, and was carried away by the angels into the bosom of Abraham. And the rich one also died, and was buried. ²³And being in torments in Hell, lifting up his eyes, he sees Abraham afar off, and Lazarus in his bosoms. ²⁴And calling he said, Father Abraham, have pity on me and send Lazarus that he may dip the tip of his finger in water and cool my tongue; for I am suffering in this flame. ²⁵But Abraham said, Child, remember that you fully received your good things in your lifetime, and Lazarus likewise the bad things. But now he is comforted, and you are suffering. ²⁶And besides all these things, a great chasm has been fixed between us, and you, so that those desiring to pass from here to you are not able, nor can they pass from there to us. ²⁷And he said, Then I beg you, father, that you send him to my father's house; ²⁸for I have five brothers, so that he may witness to them, that they not also come to this place of torment. ²⁹Abraham said to him, They have Moses and the Prophets; let them hear them. ³⁰But he said, No, father Abraham, but if one should go from the dead to them, they will repent. ³¹And he said to him, If they will not hear Moses and the Prophets, they will not be persuaded even if one from the dead should rise.

CHAPTER 17

¹And He said to the disciples, It is impossible that the offenses should not come, but woe to him by whom they come. ²It is profitable for him if a millstone turned by an ass is put around his neck, and he be thrown into the sea, than that he should offend one of these little ones. ³Take heed to yourselves. And if your brother sins against you, rebuke him; and if he repents, forgive him. ⁴And if seven times of the day he sins against you, and seven times of the day turns to you saying, I repent; you shall forgive him.

⁵And the apostles said to the Lord, Give us more faith. ⁶But the Lord said, If you had faith as a grain of mustard, you may say to this sycamine tree, Be rooted up, and be planted in the sea! And it would obey you. ⁷But which of you having a slave plowing or feeding will say at once to him coming out of the field, Come, recline? ⁸But will he not say to him, Prepare something what I may eat, and having girded yourself serve me until I eat and drink; and after these things you shall eat and drink? ⁹*Does* he have thanks to that slave because he did the things commanded of him? I think not. ¹⁰So also when you have done all things commanded you, you say, We are unprofitable slaves, for we have done what we ought to do.

¹¹And it happened in His going to Jerusalem, even He passed through the midst of Samaria and Galilee. ¹²And He entering into a certain village, ten leprous men met Him, who stood afar off. ¹³And they lifted their voice, saying, Jesus, Master, pity us. ¹⁴And seeing them, He said to them, Going, show yourselves to the priests. And it happened in their going they were cleansed. ¹⁵And one of them, seeing that he was cured, returned glorifying God with a loud voice. ¹⁶And he fell on his face at His feet, thanking Him. And he was a Samaritan. ¹⁷And answering Jesus said, Were not the ten cleansed? But where are the nine? ¹⁸Were not any found returning to give glory to God except this stranger? ¹⁹And He said to him, Rising up, go! Your faith has cured you.

²⁰And being questioned by the Pharisees as to when the kingdom of God comes, He answered them and said, The kingdom of God does not come with observation; ²¹nor will they say, Lo, here! Or, Lo, there! For behold the kingdom of God is in your midst.

²²And He said to the disciples, Days will come when you will long to see one of the days of the Son of man, and will not see. ²³And they will say to you, Lo, here! Or, Lo, there! Do not go away, nor follow. ²⁴For as the lightning which lights up, flashing from the one part under heaven and shines to the other part under heaven, so also will the Son of man be in His day. ²⁵But first He must suffer many things, and be rejected from this generation. ²⁶And as it was in the days of Noah, so also it will be in the days of the Son of man. ²⁷They were eating, drinking, marrying, giving in marriage, until the day Noah went into the ark. And the flood came and destroyed all. ²⁸And likewise, as it was in the days of Lot, they were eating, drinking, buying, selling, planting, building; ²⁹but on the day Lot went out from Sodom, it rained fire and brimstone from Heaven and destroyed all. ³⁰Even so it will be in the day the Son of man is revealed.

³¹In that day he who will be on the housetop, let him not come down to take his goods from the house. And likewise, he in the field, let him not return to the things behind. ³²Remember Lot's wife. ³³Whoever seeks to save his life, he will lose it. And whoever will lose it, he will preserve it. ³⁴I say to you, In that night two will be on one bed; the one will be taken, and the other will be left. ³⁵Two will be grinding together; one will be taken and the other will be left. Two will be in the field; the one will be taken and the other will be left. ³⁷And answering they said to Him, Where, Lord? and He said to them, Where the body is, there the eagles will be gathered together.

¹And He also spoke a parable to them to teach it is always right to pray, and not to faint, ²saying, A certain judge was in a certain city, not fearing God and not respecting man. ³And a widow was in that city, and she came to him, saying, Avenge me from my adversary. ⁴And for a time he would not. But after these things he said to himself, Even if I do not fear God, and do not respect man, ⁵yet because this widow causes me trouble, I will avenge her, that coming in the end she may not subdue me. ⁶And the Lord said, Hear what the unrighteous judge says; ⁷and will God not at all execute the avenging of His elect, those crying to Him day and night, also being patient over them? ⁸I say to you that He will carry out the avenging of them speedily. But the Son of man coming then, will He find faith on the earth?

⁹And He also spoke this parable to some of those relying on themselves, that they are righteous, and despising the rest:

¹⁰Two men went up into the temple to pray, the one a Pharisee, and the other a tax-collector. ¹¹The Pharisee was standing, praying these things to himself: God, I thank You that I am not as the rest of men, rapacious, unrighteous, adulterers, or even as this tax-collector. ¹²I fast twice in the week, I tithe all things, as many as I get. ¹³And standing at a distance, the tax-collector would not even lift up his eyes to Heaven, but smote on his breast, saying, God, be merciful to me, the sinner! ¹⁴I say to you, This one went down to his house having been justified, rather than that one. For everyone exalting himself will be humbled. And the one humbling himself will be exalted.

¹⁵And they brought infants to Him also, that He might touch them. But seeing, the disciples rebuked them. ¹⁶But Jesus called them near, saying, Allow the children to come to Me, and do not prevent them. For of such is the kingdom of God. ¹⁷Truly I say to you, Whoever does not receive the kingdom of God like a child, not at all will enter into it.

¹⁸And a certain ruler asked Him, saying, Good Teacher, what may I do to inherit eternal life? ¹⁹But Jesus said to him, Why do you say Me to be good? No one is good, except One: God. ²⁰You know the commandments: Do not commit adultery, do not murder, do not steal; do not bear false witness; honor your father and your mother. ²¹And he said, I have kept all these from my youth. ²²And hearing these things, Jesus said to him, Yet one thing is lacking to you: sell all, as much as you have, and give to the poor, and you will have treasure in Heaven.

And come, follow Me. ²³But hearing these things, he became very much grieved, for he was exceedingly rich. ²⁴And seeing him having become very much grieved, Jesus said, How hardly those having riches shall enter into the kingdom of God! ²⁵For it is easier for a camel to go in through a needle's eye than for a rich one to enter into the kingdom of God. ²⁶And those hearing said, And who is able to be saved? ²⁷But He said, The things impossible with men are possible with God.

²⁸And Peter said, Behold, we left all and followed You. ²⁹And He said to them, Truly I say to you, There is no one who has left house, or parents, or brothers, or wife, or children, for the sake of the kingdom of God, ³⁰who shall not receive many times more in this time, and in the age that is coming, everlasting life.

³¹And taking the Twelve, He said to them, Behold, we are going up to Jerusalem, and all things will be fulfilled which have been written through the prophets to the Son of man. ³²For He will be delivered up to the nations, and will be mocked, and will be insulted, and will be spat upon. ³³And flogging Him, they will kill Him. And on the third day He will rise again. ³⁴And they did not understand these things—nothing! And this saying had been hidden from them, and they did not know the things being said.

³⁵And it happened as He drew near to Jericho, a certain blind one sat by the highway, begging. ³⁶And a crowd passing through, he asked what this might be. ³⁷And they reported to him that Jesus the Nazarene is passing by. ³⁸And he cried out, saying, Jesus, son of David, pity me! ³⁹And those going before rebuked him, that he be quiet. But he much more cried out, Son of David, pity me! ⁴⁰And standing still, Jesus commanded him to be brought to Him. And he drawing near, He asked him, saying, What do you desire I do to you? And he said, Lord, that I may see again. ⁴²And Jesus said to him, See again! Your faith has healed you. ⁴³And instantly he saw again. And he followed Him, glorifying God. And seeing, all the people gave praise to God.

¹And going in, He passed through Jericho. ²And, behold, a man called by name Zaccheus. And he was a chief tax-collector, and he was rich. ³And he was seeking to see Jesus, who He is. And he was not able, because of the crowd, and he was little in stature. ⁴And running ahead, he went up onto a sycamore-tree, so that he might see Him; for He was going to pass through that way. ⁵And as He came to the place, looking up, Jesus saw him, and said to him, Zaccheus, hurry, come down, for today I must stay in your house. ⁶And hastening he came down and welcomed Him, rejoicing. ⁷And seeing, all murmured, saying, He has gone in to stay with a sinful man. ⁸But standing, Zaccheus said to the Lord, Behold, Lord, half of my possessions I give to the poor. And if I accused anyone falsely, I restore it fourfold. ⁹And Jesus said to him, Today salvation has come to this house; for he also is a son of Abraham. ¹⁰For the Son of man came to seek and to save the lost.

¹¹But as they were hearing these things, He spoke, adding a parable, because He was near to Jerusalem, and they thought that the kingdom of God was immediately to be revealed:

¹²Then He said: A certain wellborn man went to a distant country to receive a kingdom for himself, and to return. ¹³And calling ten of his slaves, He gave to them ten minas, and said to them, Trade until I come. ¹⁴But his citizens hated him, and sent a delegation after him, saying, We do not desire this one to reign over us. ¹⁵And it happened as he returned, having received the kingdom, he even said for those slaves to be called to him, those to whom he gave the silver; that he might know what each had gained by trading. ¹⁶And the first came, saying, Lord, your mina has gained ten minas. ¹⁷And he said to him, Well done, good slave! Because you were faithful in a least thing, have authority over ten cities. ¹⁸And the second came, saying, Lord, your mina has made five minas. ¹⁹And he said to this one also, And you be over five cities. ²⁰And another came, saying, Lord, behold your mina which I had kept in a handkerchief.

²¹For I feared you, because you are an exacting man, taking what you did not lay down, and reaping what you did not sow. ²²But he said to him, I will judge you out of your own mouth, wicked slave. You knew that I am an exacting man, taking what I did not lay down, and reaping what I did not sow. ²³And why did you not give my silver on the bank table? And coming I might have exacted it with interest. ²⁴And to those standing by, he said, Take the mina from him, and give it to him who has ten minas. ²⁵And they said to him, Lord, he has ten minas. ²⁶For I say to you, To everyone who has, it will be given. And from the one who does not have, even what he has will be taken from him. ²⁷But these enemies of mine, those not desiring me to reign over them, bring here and execute them before me.

²⁸And saying these things, He went in front, going up to Jerusalem.

²⁹And it happened as He drew near to Bethphage and Bethany toward the Mount called Of Olives, He sent two of disciples, ³⁰saying, go into the village opposite you, in which having entered you will find a colt which has been tied up; on which no one of men ever yet sat. Untying it, bring it. ³¹And if anyone asks, Why do you untie it? You shall say to them, The Lord has need of it. ³²And going, those having been sent found as He told them. ³³And as they were untying the colt, its owners said to them, Why do you untie the colt? ³⁴And they said, The Lord has need of it. ³⁵And they led it to Jesus. And throwing their garments on the colt, they put Jesus on it. ³⁶And as He went, they were spreading their garments in the highway. ³⁷And as He was already drawing near to the descent of the Mount of Olives, all the multitude of the disciples began rejoicing, to praise God with a loud voice concerning all the works of power which they saw, ³⁸saying, Blessed is the One coming in the name of the Lord, the King. Peace in Heaven, and glory in the highest!

³⁹And some of the Pharisees from the crowd said to Him, Teacher, rebuke your disciples. ⁴⁰And answering He said to them, I say to you, If these should be silent, the stones will cry out.

⁴¹And as He drew near, seeing the city, He wept over it, ⁴²saying, If you had known, even you, even at least in this day of yours, the things for your peace! But now they were hidden from your eyes. ⁴³For the days will come on you, and your enemies will raise up a rampart to you, and will surround you, and will keep you in on every side; ⁴⁴and will tear you down, and your children in you, and will not leave a stone on a stone, because you did not know the time of your visitation.

⁴⁵And entering into the temple, He began to throw out those selling and buying in it, ⁴⁶saying to them, It has been written, "My house is a house of prayer," but you made it a den of robbers. ⁴⁷And He was teaching day by day in the temple. But the chief priests and the scribes and the chief men of the people sought to kill Him. ⁴⁸And they did not find what they might do; for all the people hung on Him, listening.

¹And it happened on one of those days, as He was teaching the people and announcing the gospel in the temple, the chief priests and the scribes came up, along with elders, and spoke to Him, saying, Tell us by what authority you do these things, or who is it who gave to you this authority? ²And answering He said to them, I will also ask you one thing, and you tell me: ³The baptism of John, was it from Heaven, or from men? ⁴And they reasoned with themselves, saying, If we say, From Heaven, he will say, Why, then, did you not believe him? ⁵But if we say, From men, all the people will stone us, for they had been convinced that John was a prophet. ⁶And they answered, they did not know from where. ⁷And Jesus said to them, Neither do I tell you by what authority I do these things.

⁹And He began to speak this parable to the people: A certain man planted a vineyard, and let it out to vinedressers. And he left the country for long periods of time. ¹⁰And in season he sent a slave to the vinedressers, that they might give him the fruit of the vineyard. But the vinedressers sent him away empty, beating him. ¹¹And he again sent another slave. But they also sent that one away empty, beating and insulting him. ¹²And he again sent a third. But they also threw this one out, wounding him. ¹³And the lord of the vineyard said, What shall I do? I will send my beloved son. Perhaps seeing this one, they will respect him. ¹⁴And seeing him, the vinedressers reasoned with themselves, saying, This is the heir. Come let us kill him, so that the inheritance may become ours. ¹⁵And throwing him out of the vineyard, they killed him. Therefore, what will the lord of the vineyard do to them? ¹⁶He will come and will destroy these vinedressers, and will give the vineyard to others.

And hearing this, they said, Let it not be! ¹⁷And looking at them He said, What, then, is this which has been written, "The stone that the builders rejected, this one came to be for the Head of the corner?" ¹⁸Everyone falling on that Stone will be broken in pieces; but on whomever it falls, it will grind him to powder.

¹⁹And the chief priests and the scribes sought to lay hands on Him in the same hour. And they feared the people, for they knew that He told this parable against them.

²⁰And watching carefully, they sent spies, pretending themselves to be righteous, in order that they might seize upon a word of His, so as to deliver Him to the power and to the authority of the governor. ²¹And they questioned Him, saying, Teacher, we know that you say and teach rightly, and do not receive a face, but you teach the way of God with truth. ²²Is it lawful to give tribute to Caesar, or not? ²³But perceiving their slyness, He said to them, Why do you tempt Me? ²⁴Show Me a denarius. Whose image and superscription does it have? And answering they said, Caesar's. ²⁵And He said to them, Then render the things of Caesar to Caesar, and the things of God to God. ²⁶And they were not able to lay hold of His speech before the people. And marveling at His answer, they were silent.

²⁷And some of the Sadducees coming up, those speaking against a resurrection, that it was not to be, they questioned Him, ²⁸saying, Teacher, Moses wrote to us, If anyone's brother dies having a wife, and this one should die childless, that his brother should take the wife and raise up seed to his brother. ²⁹Then there were seven brothers. And having taken a wife, the first died childless. ³⁰And the second took the wife, and this one died childless. ³¹And the third took her, and likewise also the seven died, and did not leave children. ³²And last of all the woman died. ³³Then in the resurrection of which of them does she become wife? For the seven had her as wife. ³⁴And answering Jesus said to them, The sons of this world marry and are given in marriage. ³⁵But those counted worthy to obtain that world, and the resurrection from the dead, neither marry nor are given in marriage. ³⁶For they are not able to die any more; they are equal to angels, and are sons of God, being sons of the resurrection. ³⁷But that the dead are raised, even Moses pointed out at the Bush, when he calls the Lord the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob —³⁸but He is not God of the dead, but of the living; for all live to Him. ³⁹And answering some of the scribes said, Teacher, you speak well. ⁴⁰And they did not dare to question Him any more — not a thing.

⁴¹And He said to them, How do they say the Christ is David's son? ⁴²Even David himself said in the Book of Psalms, "The Lord said to my Lord, Sit at My right hand" ⁴³until I place Your enemies as a footstool of Your feet." ⁴⁴Then David calls Him Lord. And how is He his son?

⁴⁵And as all the people were listening, He said to His disciples, ⁴⁶Beware of the scribes, those desiring to walk about in long robes, and liking greetings in the markets, and chief seats in the synagogues, and chief couches in the suppers; ⁴⁷who devour the houses of the widows, and under pretense pray long. These will receive a more severe judgment.

¹And looking up He saw the rich ones putting their gifts into the treasury. ²And He also saw a certain poor widow putting two lepta there. ³And He said, Truly I say to you, This poor widow put in more than all. ⁴For all these out of their abundance put into the gifts to God, but she out of her poverty put in all the living which she had.

⁵And as some were speaking about the temple, that it had been adorned with beautiful stones and gifts, He said, ⁶*As* to these things that you see, days will come in which a stone will not be left on a stone, which will not be thrown down.

⁷And they asked Him, saying, Teacher, then when will these things be? And what will be the sign when these things are about to happen? ⁸And He said, Watch that you not be led astray. For many will come on My name, saying, I AM! Also, the time has come! Do not go after them. ⁹And when you hear of wars and disturbances, do not be afraid. For these things must first occur; but the end is not at once. ¹⁰Then He said to them, Nation will be lifted up against nation, and kingdom against kingdom. ¹¹Also there will be great earthquakes from place to place, and famines, and plagues. And also there will be terrors and great signs from Heaven. ¹²But before all these things they will lay their hands on you, and will persecute you, delivering you into the synagogues and prisons, being led away before kings and governors on account of My name. ¹³But it will return to you for a testimony. ¹⁴Then put into your hearts not to premeditate to make a defense. ¹⁵For I will give you a mouth and wisdom, which all those who have been set against you will not be able to withstand or contradict. ¹⁶But you will be betrayed also by parents, and brothers, and relatives, and friends. And they will put some of you to death. ¹⁷And you will be hated by all because of My name. ¹⁸And a hair of your head shall in no way perish. ¹⁹By your patience you will gain your souls.

²⁰And when you see Jerusalem being encircled by armies, then recognize that its destruction has come near. ²¹Then let those in Judea flee into the mountains; and those in its midst, let them go out. And those in the open spaces, let them not go into her. ²²For these are days of vengeance when all things that have been written are to be fulfilled. ²³But woe to the pregnant women, and the ones suckling in those days; for great distress will be on the earth, and wrath on this people. ²⁴And they will fall by the mouth of the sword, and will be led captive to all the nations. And Jerusalem will be trodden down by nations, until the times of the nations are fulfilled. ²⁵And there will be signs in sun and moon and stars. And on the earth will be anxiety of nations with bewilderment, roaring of sea and of surf, ²⁶men fainting at heart from fear, and expecting of the things which have come on the earth. For the powers of the heavens will be shaken. ²⁷And then they will see the Son of man coming in a cloud with power and much glory. ²⁸But when these things begin to happen, stand up and lift up your heads, because your redemption draws near.

²⁹And He spoke a parable to them: You see the fig-tree and all the trees. ³⁰Now when they sprout leaves, seeing it you will know from yourselves that now the summer is near. ³¹So also when you see these things happening, you know that the kingdom of God is near. ³²Truly I say to you, In no way will this generation pass away until all these things shall occur. ³³The heaven and the earth will pass away, but My words in no way will pass away.

³⁴But take heed to yourselves that your hearts not be loaded down with headaches, and drinking, and anxieties of life, and that day come suddenly upon you ³⁵as a snare, for it will come in on all those sitting on the face of all the earth. ³⁶Then be watchful at every time, begging that you be counted worthy to escape all these things which are about to happen, and to stand before the Son of man.

³⁷And in the days He was teaching in the temple. And in the nights going out, He lodged in the Mount of Olives. ³⁸And all the people came early to Him in the temple, to hear Him.

CHAPTER 22

¹And the Feast of Unleavened Bread, being called Passover, drew near. ²And the chief priests and the scribes sought how to destroy Him; for they feared the people.

³And Satan entered into Judas, the one having been called Iscariot, being of the number of the Twelve. ⁴And going, he talked with the chief priests and the commanders as to how he might betray Him. ⁵And they exulted and they agreed to give him silver. ⁶And he fully consented, and sought opportunity to betray Him to them, away from the crowd.

⁷And the day of the Unleavened Bread came, on which the passover must be killed. ⁸And He sent Peter and John, saying, Going, prepare for us the passover, that we may eat. ⁹And they said to Him, Where do You desire that we prepare? ¹⁰And He said to them, Behold, you going into the city, you will meet a man carrying a pitcher of water. Follow him into the house where he goes in. ¹¹And you will say to the housemaster of that house, The Teacher says to you, Where is the guest-room where I may eat the passover with My disciples? ¹²And that one will show you a large upper room which he has spread. Prepare there. ¹³And going they found as He had told them, and they prepared the passover.

¹⁴And when the hour came, He reclined, and the twelve apostles with Him. ¹⁵And He said to them, With desire I desired to eat this passover with you before My suffering. ¹⁶For I say to you that never in any way I will eat of it until it is fulfilled in the kingdom of God. ¹⁷And taking a cup, giving thanks, He said, Take this and divide it among yourselves. ¹⁸For I say to you that in no way will I drink from the produce of the vine until the kingdom of God comes. ¹⁹And taking a loaf, giving thanks, He broke, and gave to them, saying, This is My body being given for you. Do this for My remembrance. ²⁰And in the same way the cup, after having supped, saying, This cup is the New Covenant in My blood, which is being poured out for you. ²¹But behold the hand of My betrayer on the table with Me! ²²And, indeed, the Son of man goes according as was determined, but woe to that man by whom He is betrayed! ²³And they began to examine themselves who then it may be of them, the one being about to do this.

²⁴And there was also a dispute among them, who of them seems to be greater.

²⁶But you be not so, but the greater among you, let him be as the lesser; and the one governing as the one serving. ²⁷For who is greater, the one serving, or the one reclining. Is it not the one reclining? But I am in your midst as One serving. ²⁸But you are those continuing with Me in My temptation. ²⁹And I appoint a kingdom to you, as My Father appointed to Me, ³⁰that you may eat and drink at My table in My kingdom. And you will sit on thrones judging the twelve tribes of Israel.

³¹And the Lord said, Simon, Simon, behold! Satan asked for you, to sift you as wheat, ³²but I entreated concerning you, that your faith might not fail. And when you have turned back, confirm your brothers. ³³And he said to Him, Lord, I am ready to go both to prison and to death with You. ³⁴And He said, Peter, I say to you, a cock will not crow today before you will deny knowing Me three times.

³⁵And He said to them, When I sent you without a purse, or a wallet, or sandals, did you lack anything? And they said, Nothing. ³⁶Then He said to them, But now the one having a purse, let him take it; likewise also a wallet. And the one not having, let him sell his garment and let him buy a sword. ³⁷For I say to you that this that has been written must yet be fulfilled in Me, "And He was numbered with the lawless." For the things concerning Me also have an end. ³⁸And they said, Lord, behold, here are two swords. And He said to them, It is enough.

³⁹And going out, according to His custom, He went to the Mount of Olives; and His disciples also followed Him. ⁴⁰And having come on the place, He said to them, Pray you will not enter into temptation. ⁴¹And He was withdrawn from them, about a stone's throw. And placing the knees, He prayed, ⁴²saying, Father, if You will, take away this cup from Me; but let not My will be done, but Your will. ⁴³And an angel from Heaven appeared to Him, strengthening Him. ⁴⁴And being in an agony, He prayed more intently. And His sweat became as drops of blood falling down onto the earth. ⁴⁵And rising up from the prayer, coming to His disciples, He found them sleeping from grief. ⁴⁶And He said to them, Why do you sleep? Rising up, pray, that you do not enter into temptation.

⁴⁷And as He was yet speaking, behold, a crowd! And the one called Judas, one of the Twelve, came in front of them and drew near to Jesus in order to kiss Him. ⁴⁸And Jesus said to him, Judas, do you betray the Son of man with a kiss? ⁴⁹And those around Him seeing that about to occur, they said to Him, Lord, shall we strike with the sword? ⁵⁰And a certain one of them struck the slave of the high priest, and cut off his right ear. ⁵¹And answering Jesus said, Allow it until this. And touching his ear, He healed him.

⁵²And Jesus said to those coming upon Him, chief priests, and commanders of the temple, and elders, Have you come out with swords and clubs as against a robber? ⁵³When I was with you day by day in the temple, you did not stretch out your hand on Me. But this is your hour, and the authority of the darkness.

⁵⁴And laying hold of Him, they led Him away and led Him into the house of the high priest. And Peter followed at a distance. ⁵⁵And lighting a fire in the middle of the court, and they sitting down, Peter sat in their midst. ⁵⁶And a certain maid-servant seeing him sitting near the light, and looking intently at him, she said, And this one was with him. ⁵⁷But he denied Him, saying, Woman, I do not know Him. ⁵⁸And after a while another seeing him said, You also are of them. But Peter said, Man, I am not. ⁵⁹And about an hour intervening, a certain other one boldly charged, saying, Truly this one also was with him, for he also is a Galilean. ⁶⁰And Peter said, Man, I do not know what you say. And immediately, while he yet spoke, the cock crowed. ⁶¹And turning, the Lord looked at Peter. And Peter remembered the word of the Lord, how He told him, Before a cock would crow, you will deny Me three times. ⁶²And going outside Peter wept bitterly.

⁶³And the men who were holding Jesus mocked Him, beating Him. ⁶⁴And blind-folding Him, they were striking His face and questioning Him, saying, Prophecy, who is the one stinging you? ⁶⁵And blaspheming, many other things they said to Him.

⁶⁶And when day came, the body of elders of the people, the chief priests and scribes, were gathered. And they led Him away into their sanhedrin, saying, ⁶⁷If you are the Christ, tell us. And He said to them, If I tell you, you will in no way believe. ⁶⁸And also if I ask, in no way will you answer Me, or let Me go. ⁶⁹From now on the Son of man will be sitting at the right hand of the power of God. ⁷⁰And they all said, Then are you the Son of God? And He said to them, You say it, because I AM! ⁷¹And they said, Why do we yet have need of witness? For we ourselves heard it from his mouth.

¹And rising up, all the multitude of them led Him before Pilate. ²And they began to accuse Him, saying, We found this one perverting the nation, and forbidding to give tribute to Caesar, saying himself to be a king, Christ. ³And Pilate questioned Him, saying, Are you the king of the Jews? And answering him, He said, You say it. ⁴And Pilate said to the chief priests and the crowds, I find nothing blameable in this man. ⁵But they insisted, saying, He stirs up the people, teaching throughout all Judea, beginning from Galilee to here. ⁶And hearing Galilee, Pilate asked if the man is a Galilean. ⁷And knowing that He is from Herod's jurisdiction, he sent Him up to Herod, he also being in Jerusalem in these days.

⁸And seeing Jesus, Herod greatly rejoiced; for he was wishing to see Him for a long time, because of hearing many things about Him. And he hoped to see some miracle being brought about by Him. ⁹And he questioned Him in many words. But He answered him not a thing. ¹⁰And the chief priests and the scribes stood fiercely accusing Him. ¹¹And having humiliated Him with his soldiery, and mocking Him by putting around Him luxurious clothing, Herod sent Him back to Pilate. ¹²And on that same day both Pilate and Herod became friends with each other—for before they were at enmity between themselves.

¹³And having called together the chief priests and the rulers and the people, ¹⁴Pilate said to them, You brought this man to me as perverting the people. And, behold, examining him before you I found nothing blameable in this man regarding that which you charge against him. ¹⁵But neither did Herod; for I sent you up to him; and, behold, nothing worthy of death is done by him. ¹⁶Therefore, chastising him, I will release him. ¹⁷And he had to release to them one at the Feast. ¹⁸And they all together shouted, saying, Take this one, and release Barabbas to us—¹⁹*he* who was thrown into prison due to some revolt and murder occurring in the city. ²⁰Then Pilate again called out, desiring to release Jesus. ²¹But they shouted, saying, Crucify! Crucify him! ²²And a third time he said to them, For what evil did this one do? I found no cause of death in him. Therefore, chastising him, I will release him. ²³But with loud voices they insisted, asking for Him to be crucified. And their voices, and that of the chief priests, prevailed. ²⁴And Pilate adjudged their request to be done. ²⁵And he released to them the one thrown into prison due to revolt and murder, whom they asked. But he delivered Jesus to their will.

²⁶And as they led Him away, having laid hold on a certain Simon, a Cyrenian, coming from a field, they put the cross on him, to bear it behind Jesus.

²⁷And a great multitude of people were following Him, and of women who also were bewailing and lamenting Him. ²⁸And turning to them, Jesus said, Daughters of Jerusalem, do not weep over Me, but weep over yourselves and over your children. ²⁹For behold, days will come in which they will say, Blessed are the barren, and the wombs that did not bear, and breasts that did not suckle. ³⁰Then they will begin to say to the mountains, Fall on us! And to the hills, Cover us! ³¹For if they do these things in the green tree, what may take place in the dry?

³²And two others, two criminals, were led with Him to be put to death.

³³And when they came on the place being called Skull, they crucified Him and the criminals there, one on the right, and one on the left. ³⁴And Jesus said, Father, forgive them, for they do not know what they are doing. And dividing His garments, they cast a lot. ³⁵And the people stood watching. And the rulers with them also scoffed, saying, He saved others; let him save himself, if this one is the Christ, the elect of God. ³⁶And coming near the soldiers also mocked Him, and were offering vinegar to Him, ³⁷and saying, If you are the king of the Jews, save yourself. ³⁸And also a superscription was written over Him, in Greek and Latin and Hebrew letters: THIS IS THE KING OF THE JEWS.

³⁹And one of the hanged criminals blasphemed Him, saying, If you are the Christ, save yourself and us. ⁴⁰But answering, the other rebuked him, saying, Do you not fear God, for you are in the same judgment? ⁴¹And we indeed justly, for we receive things worthy of what we did. But this One did nothing wrong. ⁴²And he said to Jesus, Lord, remember me when You come in Your kingdom. ⁴³And Jesus said to him, Truly I say to you, Today you will be with Me in Paradise.

⁴⁴And it was about the sixth hour, and darkness came over all the land until the ninth hour. ⁴⁵And the sun was darkened; and the veil of the temple was torn in the middle. ⁴⁶And crying with a loud voice, Jesus said, Father, into Your hands I commit My spirit. And saying this, He breathed out the spirit.

⁴⁷And seeing the thing happening, the centurion glorified God, saying, Truly, this Man was righteous. ⁴⁸And all the crowd arriving together at this sight, watching the thing happening, beating their breasts, they returned. ⁴⁹And all those known to Him stood at a distance, and the women, those who accompanied Him from Galilee, were seeing these things.

⁵⁰And, behold, a man named Joseph, being a councillor, a good and righteous man; ⁵¹this one was not assenting to their counsel and deed — he was from Arimathea, a city of the Jews, and who himself was eagerly expecting the kingdom of God—⁵²coming near to Pilate, this one asked the body of Jesus. ⁵³And taking it down, he wrapped it in linen, and placed it in a quarried tomb, where no one was ever yet laid. ⁵⁴And it was Preparation Day, and a sabbath was coming on.

⁵⁵And also women were following, who were accompanying Him out of Galilee, who watched the tomb, and how His body was placed. ⁵⁶And returning, they prepared spices and ointment.

And they remained quiet on the sabbath, according to the commandment.

CHAPTER 24

¹But on the first of the week, while still very early, they came on the tomb, carrying spices which they prepared; and some were with them. ²And they found the stone having been rolled away from the tomb. ³And going in, they did not find the body of the Lord Jesus. ⁴And it happened, as they were perplexed about this, even behold, two men in shining clothing stood by them. ⁵And they becoming terrified, and bowing their faces to the earth, they said to them, Why do you seek the living with the dead? ⁶He is not here, but was raised. Remember how He spoke to you, yet being in Galilee, ⁷saying, The Son of man must be delivered into the hands of sinful men, and to be crucified, and the third day to rise again. ⁸And they remembered His words. ⁹And returning from the tomb, they reported all these things to the Eleven, and to all the rest. ¹⁰And they were Mary Magdalene, and Joanna, and Mary mother of James, and the rest with them, who told these things to the apostles. ¹¹And their words seemed like foolishness to them, and they did not believe them. ¹²But rising up, Peter ran to the tomb, and stooping down he saw the linen lying alone. And he went away wondering to himself at what had happened.

¹³And, behold, two of them were going on the same day to a village being sixty furlongs distant from Jerusalem, which was named Emmaus. ¹⁴And they talked to each other about all these things taking place. ¹⁵And it happened, as they talked and reasoned, coming near Jesus Himself traveled with them. ¹⁶But their eyes were held so as not to recognize Him. ¹⁷And He said to them, What words are these which you exchange with each other while walking, and are sad of face? ¹⁸And answering, one of them whose name was Cleopas, said to Him, Are you only a stranger in Jerusalem, and do not know the things happening in it in these days? ¹⁹And He said to them, What things? And they said to Him, The things concerning Jesus the Nazarene, who was a man, a prophet mighty in deed and word before God and all the people; ²⁰and how the chief priests and our rulers delivered Him to the judgment of death, and crucified Him. ²¹But we were hoping that He is the One going to redeem Israel. But then with all these things, this third day comes today since these things happened. ²²And also some of our women astounded us, having been early at the tomb, ²³and not finding His body, they came saying to have seen a vision of angels also, who say Him to be alive. ²⁴And some of those with us went to the tomb, and found it so, even as the women also said; but they did not see Him.

²⁵And He said to them, O fools, and slow of heart to believe on all things which the prophets spoke! ²⁶Was it not necessary for the Christ to suffer these things, and to enter into His glory? ²⁷And beginning from Moses, and from all the prophets, He explained to them the things about Himself in all the Scriptures.

²⁸And they drew near to the village where they were going, and He seemed to be going further. ²⁹And they constrained Him, saying, Stay with us, for it is toward evening, and the day has declined. And He went in to stay with them. ³⁰And it happened as He reclined with them, taking the loaf, He blessed; and breaking He gave to them. ³¹And their eyes were opened, and they knew Him. And He became invisible from them. ³²And they said to one another, Was not our heart burning in us as He spoke to us in the highway, and as He opened up to us the Scriptures? ³³And rising up in the same hour, they went back to Jerusalem, and they found the Eleven, and those with them, having been gathered, ³⁴saying, The Lord really was raised, and appeared to Simon. ³⁵And they related the things in the highway, and how He was known to them in the breaking of the loaf.

³⁶And as they were telling these things, Jesus Himself stood in their midst, and said to them, Peace to you! ³⁷But being terrified and filled with fear, they thought they saw a spirit. ³⁸And He said to them, Why are you troubled? And why do reasonings come up in your hearts. ³⁹See My hands and My feet, that I am He? Feel Me and see, because a spirit does not have flesh and bones, as you see Me having. ⁴⁰And saying this, He showed them His hands and feet. ⁴¹But yet they not believing from the joy, and marveling, He said to them, Have you any food here? ⁴²And they handed a broiled part of a fish to Him, and from a honeycomb. ⁴³And taking these before them, He ate.

⁴⁴And He said to them, These are the words which I spoke to you, yet being with you, that must be fulfilled, all the things having been written in the Law of Moses, and the Prophets, and the Psalms, concerning Me. ⁴⁵Then He opened up their mind to understand the Scriptures, ⁴⁶and said to them, So it is written, and so the Christ must suffer, and to rise from the dead the third day; ⁴⁷and repentance and forgiveness of sins must be preached on His name to all the nations, beginning from Jerusalem. ⁴⁸And you are witnesses of these things. ⁴⁹And, behold, I send forth the promise of My Father on you. But you sit in the city of Jerusalem until you are clothed with power from on high.

⁵⁰And He led them out as far as to Bethany. And lifting up His hands, He blessed them. ⁵¹And it happened as He blessed them, He withdrew from them, and was carried into Heaven.

⁵²And worshiping Him, they returned to Jerusalem with great joy, and were continually in the temple, praising and blessing God. Amen.

THE GOSPEL ACCORDING TO JOHN

¹In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. ²He was in the beginning with God. ³All things came into being through Him, and without Him not even one thing came into being that has come into being. ⁴In Him was life, and the life was the light of men, ⁵and the light shines in the darkness, and the darkness did not overtake it.

¹⁴And the Word became flesh, and tabernacled among us. And we beheld His glory, glory as of an only-begotten from the Father, full of grace and of truth. ¹⁵John witnesses concerning Him, and has cried out, saying, This One was He of whom I said, He coming after me has been before me, for He was preceding me. ¹⁶And out of His fullness we all received, and grace on top of grace. ¹⁷For the Law was given through Moses, but grace and truth came through Jesus Christ. ¹⁸No one has seen God at any time; the only-begotten Son, who is in the bosom of the Father, that One reveals Him.

¹⁹And this is the witness of John, when the Jews sent priests and Levites that they might ask him, Who are you? ²⁰And he acknowledged and did not deny, and acknowledged, I am not the Christ. ²¹And they asked him, What, then? Are you Elijah? And he said, I am not. Are you the Prophet? And he answered, No.

²²Then they said to him, Who are you, that we may give an answer to those sending us? What do you say about yourself? ²³He said, "I am a voice crying in the wilderness: Make straight the way of the Lord," as Isaiah the prophet said. ²⁴And those who had been sent were of the Pharisees. ²⁵And they asked him and said to him, Why then do you baptize, if you are not the Christ, nor Elijah, nor the Prophet? ²⁶John answered them, saying, I baptize in water, but One stands in your midst whom you do not know; ²⁷This One it is who has come after me, who has been before me, of whom I am not worthy that I should untie the latchet of His sandal. ²⁸These things took place in Bethabara beyond the Jordan, where John was baptizing.

²⁹On the morrow, John sees Jesus coming toward him, and said, Behold, the Lamb of God, taking away the sin of the world! ³⁰This is He about whom I said, After me comes a Man who has been before me, for He was preceding me. ³¹And I did not know Him; but that He be revealed to Israel, for this reason I came baptizing in water. ³²And John witnessed, saying, I have seen the Spirit coming down as a dove out of Heaven, and He abode on Him. ³³And I did not know Him, but the One sending me to baptize in water, that One said to me, On whomever you see the Spirit coming down and abiding on Him, this is the One baptizing in the Holy Spirit. ³⁴And I have seen, and have witnessed that this One is the Son of God.

³⁵Again on the morrow, John and two from his disciples stood. ³⁶And looking at Jesus walking, he said, Behold, the Lamb of God! ³⁷And the two disciples heard him speaking, and they followed Jesus. ³⁸But having seen them following, Jesus said to them, What do you seek? And they said to Him, Rabbi — which being translated is called Teacher — where do You stay? ³⁹He said to them, Come and see. They went and saw where He lodged, and remained with Him that day. And the hour was about the tenth. ⁴⁰Andrew the brother of Simon Peter was one of the two who heard from John, and was following Him. ⁴¹This one first found his own brother Simon, and tells him, We have found the Messiah, which being translated is the Christ. ⁴²And he led him to Jesus. And looking at him, Jesus said, You are Simon the son of Jonah; you shall be called Cephas — which translated is Peter.

⁴³And on the morrow Jesus desired to go out into Galilee. And He found Philip, and says to him, Follow me! ⁴⁴And Philip was from Bethsaida, of the city of Andrew and Peter. ⁴⁵Philip finds Nathanael, and says to him, We have found the One whom Moses wrote about in the Law and the Prophets, Jesus the son of Joseph, from Nazareth. ⁴⁶And Nathanael said to him, Can any good thing be out of Nazareth? Philip said to him, Come and see.

⁴⁷Jesus saw Nathanael coming toward Him, and says concerning him, Behold, truly an Israelite in whom is no guile! ⁴⁸Nathanael says to Him, From where do You know me? Jesus answered and said to him, Before Philip called, you being under the fig-tree, I saw you. ⁴⁹Nathanael answered and said to Him, Rabbi, You are the Son of God; You are the King of Israel. ⁵⁰Jesus answered and said to him, Because I said to you I saw you under the fig-tree, do you believe? You will see greater things than these. ⁵¹And He says to him, Truly, truly, I say to you, From now on you will see Heaven opened, and the angels of God ascending and descending on the Son of man.

¹And on the third day a marriage took place in Cana of Galilee, and the mother of Jesus was there. ²And Jesus and His disciples were also invited to the marriage. ³And being short of wine, the mother of Jesus said to Him, They have no wine. ⁴Jesus said to her, What is that to Me and to you, woman? My hour has not yet come. ⁵His mother said to the servants, Whatever He says to you, do. ⁶And there were six stone waterpots standing, according to the purification of the Jews, each containing two or three measures. ⁷Jesus said to them, Fill the waterpots with water. And they filled them to the top. ⁸And He said to them, Now draw out and carry to the master of the feast. And they carried it. ⁹But when the master of the feast tasted the water that had become wine, and did not know from where it was — but the servants drawing the water knew — the master of the feast called the bridegroom, ¹⁰and said to him, Every man first sets on the good wine; and when they have drunk freely, then the worse. You have kept the good wine until now. ¹¹This beginning of the miracles Jesus did in Cana of Galilee. And it revealed His glory, and His disciples believed in Him.

¹²After this He went down to Capernaum, He and His mother and His brothers and His disciples. And He remained there not many days. ¹³And the Passover of the Jews was near. And Jesus went up to Jerusalem. ¹⁴And He found those selling oxen and sheep and doves in the temple, and the money changers sitting. ¹⁵And making a whip out of ropes, He threw all out of the temple, both the sheep, and the oxen, and the money-changers, pouring out the money and overturning the tables. ¹⁶And to the ones selling the doves, He said, Take these things from here! Do not make My Father's house a house of merchandise. ¹⁷And His disciples remembered that it was written, "The zeal of Your house has consumed Me."

¹⁸Then the Jews answered and said to Him, What sign do you show to us, since you do these things? ¹⁹Jesus said to them, Destroy this temple, and in three days I will raise it up. ²⁰Then the Jews said, This temple was forty-six years being built, and do you raise it up in three days? ²¹But He spoke about the temple of His body. ²²Then when He was raised from the dead, His disciples recalled that He said this to them. And they believed the Scripture, and the word which Jesus spoke.

²³And as He was in Jerusalem, at the Passover, at the Feast, many believed into His name, seeing the miracles which He did. ²⁴But Jesus Himself did not commit Himself to them, because He knew all;

²⁵and because He had no need that any-one should witness concerning man; for He knew what was in man.

CHAPTER 3

¹But there was a man from the Pharisees, Nicodemus his name, a ruler of the Jews. ²This one came to Jesus by night, and said to Him, Rabbi, we know that You have come as a teacher from God. For no one is able to do these miracles which You do, except God be with Him. ³Jesus answered and said to him, Truly, truly, I say to you, If one does not receive birth from above, he is not able to see the kingdom of God. ⁴Nicodemus said to Him, How is a man able to be born, being old? He is not able to enter into his mother's womb a second time and be born? ⁵Jesus answered, Truly, truly, I say to you, If one does not receive birth out of water and Spirit, he is not able to enter into the kingdom of God. ⁶That receiving birth from the flesh is flesh; and that receiving birth from the Spirit is spirit. ⁷Do not wonder because I told you, You must receive birth from above. ⁸The Spirit breathes where He desires, and you hear His voice; but you do not know from where He comes, and where He goes — so is everyone who has received birth from the Spirit. ⁹Nicodemus answered and said to Him, How can these things come about? ¹⁰Jesus answered and said to him, You are the teacher of Israel, and you do not know these things? ¹¹Truly, truly, I say to you, That which we know, we speak; and that which we have seen, we testify. And you do not receive our testimony. ¹²If I tell you earthly things, and you do not believe; how will you believe if I tell you heavenly things? ¹³And no one has gone up into Heaven, except He having come down out of Heaven, the Son of Man who is in Heaven. ¹⁴And even as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, so must the Son of man be lifted up, ¹⁵that every-one believing into Him should not perish, but have everlasting life.

¹⁶For God so loved the world that He gave His only-begotten Son, that every-one believing into Him should not perish, but have everlasting life. ¹⁷For God did not send His Son into the world that He might judge the world, but that the world might be saved through Him. ¹⁸The one believing into Him is not judged; but the one not believing has already been judged; for he has not believed into the name of the only-begotten Son of God. ¹⁹And this is the judgment, that the Light has come into the world, and men loved the darkness more than the Light; for their works were evil. ²⁰For everyone practicing wickedness hates the Light, and does not come to the Light, that his works may not be exposed. ²¹But the one doing the truth comes to the Light, that his works may be revealed, that they have been worked in God.

²²After these things Jesus and His disciples came into the land of Judea. And He continued there with them, and baptized. ²³And John was also baptizing in Aenon, near Salim, for many waters were there. And they came and were being baptized. ²⁴For John had not yet been thrown into the prison. ²⁵Then a question from John's disciples arose with the Jews about purifying. ²⁶And they came to John and said to him, Teacher, the one who was with you beyond the Jordan, to whom you have witnessed, behold, this one baptizes, and all are coming to Him. ²⁷John answered and said, A man is able to receive nothing unless it has been given to him from Heaven. ²⁸You yourselves witness to me, that I said, I am not the Christ, but that having been sent I am going before that One. ²⁹The one having the bride is the bridegroom. But the friend of the bridegroom, standing and hearing him, rejoices with joy because of the bridegroom's voice. Then this my joy has been fulfilled. ³⁰That One must increase, but I must decrease.

³¹The One coming from above is above all. The one being of the earth is earthy, and speaks of the earth. The One coming out of Heaven is above all. ³²And what He has seen and heard, this He testifies; and no one receives His testimony. ³³The one receiving His testimony has sealed that God is true; ³⁴for the One whom God sent speaks the words of God; for God does not give the Spirit by measure. ³⁵The Father loves the Son, and has given all things into His hand. ³⁶The one believing into the Son has everlasting life; but the one disobeying the Son will not see life, but the wrath of God remains on him.

¹Then when the Lord knew that the Pharisees heard that Jesus made more disciples and baptized more than John—²though truly Jesus Himself did not baptize, but His disciples — ³He left Judea and went away into Galilee again. ⁴And it was needful for Him to pass through Samaria. ⁵And He came to a Samaritan city called Sychar, near the piece of land Jacob gave to his son Joseph. ⁶And Jacob's fountain was there. Then being wearied by the journey, Jesus sat thus on the fountain. It was about the sixth hour.

⁷A woman came out of Samaria to draw water. Jesus said to her, Give Me to drink. ⁸For His disciples had gone away into the city that they might buy provisions. ⁹Then the Samaritan woman said to Him, How do you, being a Jew, ask to drink from me, I being a Samaritan woman? For Jews do not associate with Samaritans. ¹⁰Jesus answered and said to her, If you knew the gift of God, and who is the One saying to you, Give Me to drink, you would have asked Him, and He would give you living water. ¹¹The woman said to Him, Sir, you have no vessel, and the well is deep. From where then do you have living water? ¹²Are you greater than our father Jacob who gave us the well, and he and his sons and his livestock drank out of it? ¹³Jesus answered and said to her, Everyone drinking of this water will thirst again; ¹⁴but whoever may drink of the water which I will give him will never ever thirst, but the water which I will give to him will become a fountain of water in him, springing up into everlasting life. ¹⁵The woman said to Him, Sir, give me this water, that I may not thirst, nor come here to draw. ¹⁶Jesus said to her, Go, call your husband, and come here. ¹⁷And the woman answered and said, I have no husband. Jesus said to her, Well did you say, I have no husband. ¹⁸For you have had five husbands, and now he whom you have is not your husband. You have spoken this truly. ¹⁹The woman said to Him, Sir, I perceive that you are a prophet. ²⁰Our fathers worshiped in this mountain, and you say that in Jerusalem is the place where it is necessary to worship. ²¹Jesus said to her, Woman, believe Me that an hour is coming when you will worship the Father neither in this mountain nor in Jerusalem. ²²You worship what you do not know; we worship what we know, for salvation is of the Jews. ²³But an hour is coming, and now is, when the true worshipers will worship the Father in spirit and in truth. For the Father also seeks such ones that worship Him. ²⁴God is a spirit, and the ones worshiping Him must worship in spirit and truth. ²⁵The woman said to Him, I know that Messiah is coming, the One called Christ. When that One comes, He will announce to us all things. ²⁶Jesus said to her, I AM, the One speaking to you.

²⁷And on this His disciples came and marveled that He was speaking with a woman. However, no one said, What do you seek? Or, Why do You speak with her? ²⁸Then the woman left her waterpot and went away into the city, and said to the men, ²⁹Come, see a Man who told me all things, whatever I did. Is this One not the Christ? ³⁰Therefore, they went out of the city and came to Him.

³¹But in the meantime the disciples asked Him, saying, Rabbi, eat? ³²But He said to them, I have food to eat which you do not know. ³³Then the disciples said to one another, No one brought Him food to eat? ³⁴Jesus said to them, My food is that I should do the the will of Him who sent Me, and that I may finish His work. ³⁵You do not say, It is yet four months and the harvest comes. Behold, I say to you, Lift up your eyes and behold the fields, for they are already white to harvest. ³⁶And the one reaping receives reward, and gathers fruit to everlasting life, so that both the one sowing and the one reaping may rejoice together. ³⁷For in this the word is true, that another is the one sowing, and another the one reaping. ³⁸I sent you to reap what you have not labored over. Others have labored, and you have entered into their labor.

³⁹And many of the Samaritans out of that city believed into Him, because of the word of the woman testifying, He told me all things, whatever I did. ⁴⁰Then as the Samaritans came to Him, they asked Him to remain with them. And He remained there two days. ⁴¹And many more believed through His word. ⁴²And they said to the woman, We no longer believe because of your saying; for we ourselves have heard, and we know that this One is truly the Savior of the world, the Christ.

⁴³But after the two days, He went out from there, and went away into Galilee.

⁴⁴For Jesus Himself testified that a prophet has no honor in his own native-place. ⁴⁵Therefore, when He came into Galilee, the Galileans received Him, seeing all things which He did in Jerusalem at the Feast. For they also went to the Feast.

⁴⁶Then Jesus came again to Cana of Galilee, where He made the water into wine. And there was a certain nobleman whose son was sick in Capernaum.

⁴⁷Hearing that Jesus was coming from Judea into Galilee, this one went out to Him, and asked Him that He would come and heal his son; for he was about to die. ⁴⁸Then Jesus said to him, Unless you see signs and wonders, you will not at all believe. ⁴⁹The nobleman said to Him, Sir, come down before my child dies.

⁵⁰Jesus said to him, Go! Your son lives. And the man believed the word which Jesus said to him, and went away. ⁵¹But already, as he was going down, his slaves met him and reported, saying, Your child lives. ⁵²He then asked from them the hour in which he had gotten better. And they said to him, Yesterday, at the seventh hour, the fever left him. ⁵³Then the father knew that it was at that hour in which Jesus said to him, Your son lives. And he himself, and his whole household, believed. ⁵⁴Again, this second miracle Jesus did, coming from Judea into Galilee.

¹After these things there was a feast of the Jews, and Jesus went up to Jerusalem.

²And at Jerusalem is a pool at the Sheep Gate which is called in Hebrew, Bethesda, having five porches. ³In these was a great multitude of the infirm lying: blind ones, lame ones, withered ones; awaiting the stirring of the water. ⁴For an angel from time to time descended in the pool, and agitated the water. Then the one first entering after the agitation of the water became well, whatever disease he was held by.

⁵But a certain man was there, being in infirmity thirty-eight years. ⁶Seeing him lying, and knowing that he had already spent much time, Jesus said to him, Do you desire to become well? ⁷The infirm one answered Him, Lord, I do not have a man, that when the water is agitated he may throw me into the pool; but while I am coming, another goes down before me. ⁸Jesus said to him, Rise up, Take up your cot and walk! ⁹And instantly the man became well, and took up his cot and walked. And it was a sabbath that day.

¹⁰Then the Jews said to the one having been healed, It is a sabbath. It is not lawful for you to lift up the cot. ¹¹He answered them, The One making me well, that One said to me, Lift up your cot and walk.

¹²Then they asked him, Who is the man who told you, Lift up your cot and walk?

¹³But he did not know the One who cured him, for a crowd being in that place, Jesus had withdrawn.

¹⁴After these things Jesus found him in the temple, and said to him, Behold, you have become well; sin no more, that a worse thing not happen to you. ¹⁵The man went away and told the Jews that Jesus is the One making him well. ¹⁶And because of this, the Jews persecuted Jesus, and lusted to kill Him, because He did these things on a sabbath. ¹⁷But Jesus answered them, My Father works until now, and I work. ¹⁸Because of this, therefore, the Jews lusted the more to kill Him, for not only did He break the sabbath, but also called God His own Father, making Himself equal to God.

¹⁹Then Jesus answered and said to them, Truly, truly, I say to you, The Son is not able to do anything from Himself, except what He may see the Father doing; for whatever that One does, these things also the Son does the same way. ²⁰For the Father loves the Son, and shows to Him all things which He does. And He will show Him greater works than these in order that you may marvel. ²¹For even as the Father raises the dead, and gives life, so also the Son gives life to whomever He wills. ²²For the Father judges no one, but has given all judgment to the Son, ²³so that all may honor the Son, even as they honor the Father. The one not honoring the Son does not honor the Father who has sent Him. ²⁴Truly, truly, I say to you, The one who hears My word, and believes the One who has sent Me, has everlasting life, and does not come into judgment, but has passed out of death into life. ²⁵Truly, truly, I say to you that an hour is coming, and now is, when the dead will hear the voice of the Son of God, and the ones hearing will live. ²⁶For even as the Father has life in Himself, so He gave also to the Son to have life in Himself. ²⁷And He also gave authority to Him to execute judgment, for He is the Son of man. ²⁸Do not marvel at this, for an hour is coming in which all those in the tombs will hear His voice. ²⁹And they will come out, the ones having done good into a resurrection of life; and the ones having practiced evil into a resurrection of judgment.

³⁰Nothing I am able to do from Myself; just as I hear, I judge; and My judgment is just, for I do not seek My will, but the will of the One sending Me, the Father. ³¹If I witness concerning Myself, My witness is not true; ³²it is Another that witnesses concerning Me, and I know that the witness which He witnesses concerning Me is true. ³³You have sent to John, and he has testified to the truth. ³⁴But I do not receive witness from man, but I say these things that you may be saved. ³⁵That one was the burning and shining lamp, and you were willing to exult in his light for an hour. ³⁶But I have the greater witness than John's, for the works which the Father has given Me, that I should finish them, the works which I do themselves witness concerning Me, that the Father has sent Me. ³⁷And the Father, He sending Me, has Himself borne witness concerning Me. You have neither heard His voice at any time, nor have you seen His form. ³⁸And you do not have His word abiding in you, for the One whom that One sent, this One you do not believe. ³⁹You search the Scriptures, for you think in them you have everlasting life. And they are the ones witnessing concerning Me.

⁴⁰And you are not willing to come to Me that you may have life. ⁴¹I do not receive glory from men; ⁴²but I have known you, that you do not have the love of God in yourselves. ⁴³I have come in the name of My Father, and you do not receive Me. If another comes in his own name, you will receive that one. ⁴⁴How are you able to believe, you who receive glory from one another, and the glory which is from the only God you do not seek? ⁴⁵Do not think that I will accuse you to the Father; there is one accusing you, Moses, in whom you have hoped. ⁴⁶For if you were believing Moses, you would then believe Me; for that one wrote concerning Me. ⁴⁷But if you do not believe his writings, how will you believe My words?

¹After these things Jesus went away over the Sea of Galilee, the Tiberian Sea. ²And a great crowd followed Him, for they saw His miracles which He did on the sick ones. ³And Jesus went up into the mountain, and sat there with His disciples. ⁴And the Passover was near, the feast of the Jews.

⁵Then Jesus lifting up His eyes and seeing that a great crowd is coming to Him, He said to Philip, From where may we buy loaves that these may eat? ⁶But He said this to test him, for He knew what He was about to do. ⁷Philip answered Him, Loaves for two hundred denarii are not enough for them, that each of them may receive a little. ⁸One of His disciples said to Him, Andrew the brother of Simon Peter, ⁹A little boy is here who has five barley loaves and two fish; but what are these for so many? ¹⁰And Jesus said, Make the men to recline. And much grass was in the place. Then the men reclined, the number was about five thousand. ¹¹And Jesus took the loaves, and giving thanks distributed to the disciples, and the disciples to those reclining. And in the same way the fish, as much as they desired. ¹²And when they were filled, He said to His disciples, Gather up the fragments left over, that not anything be lost. ¹³Then they gathered and filled twelve handbaskets with fragments of the five barley loaves which were left over to those who had eaten. ¹⁴Then seeing what miracle Jesus did, the men said, This is truly the Prophet, the one coming into the world. ¹⁷Then knowing that they were about to come and seize Him, that they might make Him king, Jesus withdrew again to the mountain, alone by Himself.

¹⁶And when it became evening, His disciples went down on the sea. ¹⁷And entering into the boat, they were going across the sea to Capernaum. And darkness had already occurred, and Jesus had not come to them. ¹⁸And the sea was aroused by a great wind blowing. ¹⁹Then having rowed about twenty-five or thirty furlongs, they saw Jesus walking on the sea. And He having come near the boat, they were afraid. ²⁰But He said to them, I AM! Do not fear. ²¹Then they desired to take Him into the boat. And the boat was instantly at the land to which they were going.

²²On the morrow the crowd standing on the other side of the sea had seen that no other little boat was there, except one, that one into which His disciples entered, and that Jesus did not go with His disciples into the small boat, but that the disciples went away alone. ²³But other small boats came from Tiberias near the place where they ate the bread, the Lord having given thanks. ²⁴Therefore, when the crowd saw that Jesus was not there, nor His disciples, they themselves also entered into the boats and came to Capernaum seeking Jesus. ²⁵And finding Him across the sea, they said to Him, Rabbi, when did you come here? ²⁶Jesus answered them and said, Truly, truly, I say to you, you seek Me not because you saw miracles, but because you ate of the loaves and were satisfied. ²⁷Do not labor for the food which perishes, but for the food which endures to everlasting life, which the Son of man will give to you; for God the Father sealed this One. ²⁸Then they said to Him, What may we do that we may work the works of God?

²⁹Jesus answered and said to them, This is the work of God, that you believe into Him whom that One sent. ³⁰Then they said to Him, Then what miracle do you do, that we may see and may believe you? What do you work? ³¹Our fathers ate the manna in the wilderness, as it is written, "He gave them bread out of Heaven to eat." ³²Then Jesus said to them, Truly, truly, I say to you, Moses has not given you the bread out of Heaven, but My Father gives you the true bread out of Heaven. ³³For the bread of God is He coming down out of Heaven and giving life to the world. ³⁴Then they said to Him, Lord, always give us this bread. ³⁵Jesus said to them, I am the Bread of life; the one coming to Me will not at all hunger, and the one believing into Me will never ever thirst. ³⁶But I said to you that you also have seen Me and did not believe. ³⁷All that the Father gives to Me shall come to Me, and the one coming to Me I will in no way cast out. ³⁸For I have come down out of Heaven, not that I should do My will, but the will of Him who sent Me. ³⁹And this is the will of the Father sending Me, that of all that He has given Me, I shall not lose any of it, but shall raise it up in the last day. ⁴⁰And this is the will of the One sending Me, that everyone seeing the Son and believing into Him should have everlasting life; and I will raise him up at the last day.

⁴¹Then the Jews murmured about Him, because He said, I am the Bread coming down out of Heaven. ⁴²And they said, Is this not Jesus the son of Joseph, of whom we know the father and the mother? How does this one now say, I have come down out of Heaven? ⁴³Then Jesus answered and said to them, Do not murmur with one another. ⁴⁴No one is able to come to Me unless the Father who sent Me draws him; and I will raise him up in the last day. ⁴⁵It has been written in the Prophets, "They shall all be taught of God." So then everyone who hears and learns from the Father comes to Me; ⁴⁶not that anyone has seen the Father, except the One being from God, He has seen the Father. ⁴⁷Truly, truly, I say to you, the one believing into Me has everlasting life. ⁴⁸I am the Bread of life. ⁴⁹Your fathers ate the manna in the wilderness, and died. ⁵⁰This is the Bread coming down out of Heaven, that anyone may eat of it and not die. ⁵¹I am the Living Bread that came down from Heaven. If anyone eats of this Bread, he will live forever. And indeed the bread which I will give is My flesh, which I will give for the life of the world.

⁵²Then the Jews argued with one another, saying, How can this one give us his flesh to eat? ⁵³Then Jesus said to them, Truly, truly, I say to you, Except you eat the flesh of the Son of man, and drink His blood, you do not have life in yourselves. ⁵⁴The one partaking of My flesh and drinking of My blood has everlasting life, and I will raise him up at the last day. ⁵⁵For My flesh is truly food, and My blood is truly drink. ⁵⁶The one partaking of My flesh and drinking of My blood abides in Me, and I in him. ⁵⁷Even as the living Father sent Me, and I live through the Father, also the one partaking Me, even that one will live through Me. ⁵⁸This is the Bread which came down out of Heaven, not as your fathers ate the manna, and died; the one partaking of this Bread will live forever. ⁵⁹He said these things teaching in a synagogue in Capernaum. ⁶⁰Then many of His disciples having heard, they said, This word is hard; who is able to hear it? ⁶¹But knowing in Himself that His disciples were murmuring about this, Jesus said to them, Does this offend you? ⁶²Then what if you see the Son of man going up where He was at first? ⁶³It is the Spirit that gives life. The flesh does not profit — nothing! The words which I speak to you are spirit and are life. ⁶⁴But there are some of you who are not believing. For Jesus knew from the beginning who they were not believing, and who was the one betraying Him. ⁶⁵And He said, Because of this I have told you that no one is able to come to Me except it is given to him from My Father.

⁶⁶From this time many of His disciples went away into the things behind, and no longer walked with Him. ⁶⁷Therefore, Jesus said to the Twelve, Do you also wish to go? ⁶⁸Then Simon Peter answered Him, Lord, to whom shall we go? You have the words of everlasting life. ⁶⁹And we have believed and have known that You are the Christ, the Son of the living God. ⁷⁰Jesus answered them, Did I not choose you, the Twelve? Yet one of you is a devil! ⁷¹But He spoke of Judas Iscariot, Simon's son, for this one was about to betray Him, being one of the Twelve.

¹And after these things Jesus was walking in Galilee; for He did not desire to walk in Judea, because the Jews were lusty to kill Him. ²And the Jewish Feast of the Tabernacles was near. ³Then His brothers said to Him, Move away from here and go to Judea, that your disciples will also see your works which you do—⁴for no one does anything in secret, and himself seeks to be in public. If you do these things, reveal yourself to the world. ⁵For His brothers did not believe into Him. ⁶Then Jesus said to them, My time is not yet here, but your time is always ready. ⁷The world cannot hate you; but it hates Me because I witness about it, that its works are evil. ⁸You go up to this feast. I am not yet going up to the feast, for My time has not yet been fulfilled. ⁹And saying these things to them, He remained in Galilee.

¹⁰But when His brothers went up, then He also went up to the feast—not openly, but as in secret. ¹¹Then the Jews sought Him in the feast, and said, Where is He? ¹²And much murmuring about Him was in the crowds. Some said, He is a good one; but others said, No, but he deceives the crowd. ¹³However, no one publicly spoke about Him, because of the fear of the Jews.

¹⁴But the feast now being half over, Jesus went up to the Temple and taught. ¹⁵And the Jews marveled, saying, How does this one know letters, not being taught? ¹⁶Jesus answered them and said, My teaching is not Mine, but of the One who sent Me. ¹⁷If anyone desires to do His will, he will know concerning the teaching, whether it is of God, or I speak from Myself. ¹⁸The one speaking from himself seeks his own glory. But the one seeking the glory of the One who sent Him, this One is true, and unrighteousness is not in Him. ¹⁹Has not Moses given you the Law, and not one of you does the Law? Why do you lust to kill Me? ²⁰The crowd answered and said, You have a demon. Who lusts to kill you? ²¹Jesus answered and said to them, I did one work, and you all marvel. ²²Because of this Moses has given you circumcision; not that it is of Moses, but of the fathers. And on a sabbath you circumcise a man. ²³If a man receives circumcision on a sabbath, so that the Law of Moses is not broken, are you angry with Me because I made a man entirely sound on a sabbath? ²⁴Do not judge according to sight, but judge righteous judgment.

²⁵Then some of the Jerusalemites said, Is this not the one they are seeking to kill? ²⁶And, behold, He speaks publicly, and they say nothing to him. Perhaps the rulers truly knew that this is indeed the Christ? ²⁷But we know this one, from where he is. But when the Christ comes, no one knows from where He is.

²⁸Then teaching, Jesus cried out in the temple, even saying, You both know Me, and you know from where I am. And I have not come from Myself, but He sending Me is true, whom you do not know. ²⁹But I know Him, because I am from Him; and He sent Me. ³⁰Then they sought to seize Him; yet no one laid a hand on Him, because His hour had not yet come. ³¹But many of the crowd believed into Him, and said, The Christ, when He comes, will He do more miracles than these which this One did?

³²The Pharisees heard the crowd murmuring these things about Him, and the Pharisees and the chief priests sent officers that they might seize Him. ³³Then Jesus said to them, Yet a little while I am with you, and I go to Him who sent Me. ³⁴You will seek Me, and will not find Me, and where I am you are not able to come. ³⁵Then the Jews said amongst themselves, Where is this one about to go that we will not find him? Is he about to go to the Dispersion of the Greeks, and to teach the Greeks? ³⁶What is this word which he said, You will seek Me and will not find Me, and, Where I am, you are not able to come?

³⁷And in the last day of the great feast, Jesus stood and cried out, saying, If anyone thirsts, let him come to Me and drink. ³⁸The one believing into Me, as the Scripture said, "Out of his belly will flow rivers of living water." ³⁹But He said this concerning the Spirit, whom the ones believing into Him were about to receive; for the Holy Spirit was not yet given, because Jesus was not yet glorified.

⁴⁰Then hearing the word, many of the crowd said, This is truly the Prophet. ⁴¹Others said, This is the Christ. But others said, No! For does the Christ come out of Galilee? ⁴²Has not the Scripture said that the Christ comes from the seed of David, and from Bethlehem, the village where David was? ⁴³Therefore, a division occurred in the crowd because of Him. ⁴⁴And some of them desired to seize Him, but no one laid hands on Him.

⁴⁵Then the officers came to the chief priests and Pharisees. And they said to them, Why did you not bring him? ⁴⁶The officers answered, Never did a man so speak as does this man. ⁴⁷Then the Pharisees answered them, Have you not also been deceived? ⁴⁸Not any from the rulers or from the Pharisees believed into him? ⁴⁹But not knowing the Law this crowd is cursed. ⁵⁰Nicodemus said to them—the one coming by night to Him, being one of themselves — ⁵¹Does our Law judge the man unless it hear from him first, and know what he does? ⁵²They answered and said to him, Are you also from Galilee? Search the Scripture and see that a prophet has not been raised out of Galilee.

⁵³And they each one went to his house.

¹But Jesus went to the Mount of Olives. ²And at dawn He again arrived into the Temple, and all the people came to Him. And sitting down, He taught them. ³And the scribes and the Pharisees brought to Him a woman having been taken in adultery. And standing her in the middle, ⁴they said to Him, Teacher, this woman was taken in the very act, committing adultery. ⁵And in the Law Moses commanded that such should be stoned. You, then, what do you say? ⁶But they said this, tempting Him, that they may have reason to accuse Him. But bending down, Jesus wrote with the finger in the earth, not appearing to hear. ⁷But as they continued questioning Him, bending back up, He said to them, The one among you without sin, let him cast the first stone at her. ⁸And bending down again, He wrote in the earth. ⁹But hearing, and being convicted by the conscience, they went out one by one, beginning from the older ones, until the last. And Jesus was left alone, and the woman standing in the middle. ¹⁰And Jesus bending back up, and having seen no one but the woman, He said to her, Woman, where are those who accused you? Did not one give judgment against you? ¹¹And she said, No one, Lord. And Jesus said to her, Neither do I give judgment. Go, and sin no more.

¹²Then Jesus again spoke to them, saying, I am the Light of the world; the one following Me will in no way walk in the darkness, but will have the light of life. ¹³Then the Pharisees said to Him, You witnessed concerning yourself; your witness is not true. ¹⁴Jesus answered and said to them, Even if I witness concerning Myself, My witness is true, for I know from where I came, and where I go. But you do not know from where I come, and where I go. ¹⁵You judge according to the flesh. I judge no one. ¹⁶But even if I judge, My judgment is true because I am not alone, but I and the Father who sent Me. ¹⁷And in your Law it has been written that the witness of two men is true.

¹⁸I am the one witnessing concerning Myself, and He who sent Me, the Father, witnesses concerning Me. ¹⁹Then they said to Him, Where is your father? Jesus answered, You neither know Me, nor My Father. If you had known Me, then you also would have known My Father. ²⁰Jesus spoke these words in the treasury, teaching in the Temple, and no one seized Him, for His hour had not yet come.

²¹Then Jesus said to them again, I go, and you will seek Me. And you will die in your sin. Where I go, you are not able to come. ²²Then the Jews said, Will he kill himself, because he says, Where I go, you are not able to come? ²³And He said to them, You are from below; I am from above. You are from this world; I am not from this world. ²⁴Therefore, I said to you that you will die in your sins. For if you do not believe that I AM, you will die in your sins. ²⁵Then they said to Him, Who are you? And Jesus said to them, Altogether what I also say to you. ²⁶I have many things to say and to judge concerning you, but the One sending Me is true, and what I heard from Him, these things I say to the world. ²⁷They did not know that He spoke to them of the Father.

²⁸Then Jesus said to them, When you lift up the Son of man, then you will know that I AM; and from Myself I do nothing; but as My Father taught Me, these things I speak. ²⁹And the One who sent Me is with Me. The Father did not leave Me alone, for I do the things pleasing to Him. ³⁰As He spoke these things, many believed into Him.

³¹Then Jesus said to the Jews who had believed in Him, If you continue in My word, you are truly My disciples. ³²And you will know the truth, and the truth will set you free. ³³They answered Him, We are Abraham's seed, and we have been in slavery to no one, never! How do you say, You will become free? ³⁴Jesus answered them, Truly, truly, I say to you, Everyone practicing sin is a slave of sin. ³⁵But the slave does not remain in the house forever; the son remains forever. ³⁶Therefore, if the Son sets you free, you are free indeed. ³⁷I know that you are Abraham's seed, but you seek to kill Me because My word has no place in you. ³⁸I speak what I have seen with My Father. And you therefore do what you have seen with your father. ³⁹They answered and said to Him, Abraham is our father. Jesus said to them, If you were children of Abraham, you would do the works of Abraham. ⁴⁰But now you seek to kill Me, a man who has spoken the truth to you, which I heard alongside of God. Abraham did not do this. ⁴¹You do the works of your father. They said to Him, We were not born of fornication; we have one father, God. ⁴²Then Jesus said to them, If God were your Father, you would love Me, for I went forth and have come from God. For I have not come from Myself, but that One sent Me. ⁴³Why do you not understand My speech? It is because you are not able to hear My word. ⁴⁴You are of the Devil as father, and the lusts of your father you desire to do. That one was a murderer from the beginning, and he has not stood in the truth because there is no truth in him. When he speaks a lie, he speaks from his own, because he is a liar, and the father of it. ⁴⁵And because I speak the truth, you do not believe Me. ⁴⁶Who of you reproves Me concerning sin? But if I speak truth, why do you not believe Me? ⁴⁷The one who is of God hears the words of God; for this reason you do not hear, because you are not of God. ⁴⁸Then the Jews answered and said to Him, Do we not say well that you are a Samaritan, and have a demon? ⁴⁹Jesus answered, I do not have a demon, but I honor My Father, and you dishonor Me. ⁵⁰But I do not seek My glory; there is One who seeks and judges. ⁵¹Truly, truly, I say to you, If anyone keeps My word, he will never ever see death.

⁵²Then the Jews said to Him, Now we know that you have a demon. Abraham died, and the prophets, and you say, If anyone keeps My word, he will never ever taste of death. ⁵³Are you greater than our father Abraham who died? And the prophets died! Whom do you make yourself? ⁵⁴Jesus answered, If I glorify Myself, My glory is nothing; it is My Father who glorifies Me, whom you say is your God. ⁵⁵And you have not known Him; but I know Him, and if I say that I do not know Him, I shall be like you, a liar. But I know Him, and I keep His word. ⁵⁶Your father Abraham leaped for joy that he should see My day, and he saw, and rejoiced. ⁵⁷Then the Jews said to Him, You do not yet have fifty years, and have you seen Abraham? ⁵⁸Jesus said to them, Truly, truly, I say to you, Before Abraham came into being, I AM. ⁵⁹Because of this, they took up stones that they might throw them on Him. But Jesus was hidden, and went forth out of the Temple, going through the midst of them, and so passed by.

might be revealed in him. ⁴It is necessary for Me to work the works of Him who sent Me while it is day. Night comes when no one is able to work. ⁵While I am in the world, I am the Light of the world. ⁶Saying these things, He spat on the ground and made clay out of the spittle, and anointed clay on the blind one's eyes. ⁷And He said to him, Go, wash in the pool of Siloam, which translated is Sent. Then he went, and washed, and came seeing. ⁸Then the neighbors and those who formerly saw him, that he was blind, said, Is this one not the one who had sat and begged? ⁹Some said, It is he; and others, He is like him. That one said, I am he. ¹⁰Then they said to him, How were your eyes opened? ¹¹He answered and said, A man called Jesus made clay and anointed my eyes, and told me, Go to the pool of Siloam, and wash. And going, and washing, I received sight. ¹²Then they said to him, Where is that one? He said, I do not know.

¹³They brought him to the Pharisees, the one once blind. ¹⁴And it was a sabbath when Jesus made the clay and opened his eyes. ¹⁵Then also the Pharisees again asked him how he received sight. And he said to them, He put clay on my eyes, and I washed, and I see. ¹⁶Then some of the Pharisees said, This man is not from God, because He does not keep the sabbath. Others said, How can a man, a sinner, do such miracles? And there was a division among them. ¹⁷They said to the blind one again, What do you say about him, because he opened your eyes? And he said, He is a prophet. ¹⁸Then the Jews did not believe concerning him, that he was blind and received sight, until they called the parents of him having received sight. ¹⁹And they asked them, saying, Is this your son, whom you say that he was born blind? Then how does he now see? ²⁰His parents answered them and said, We know that this is our son, and that he was born blind. ²¹But how he now sees, we do not know; or who opened his eyes, we do not know. He is of age, ask him. He will speak about himself. ²²His parents said these things because they feared the Jews; for the Jews had already agreed that if anyone should confess Him as Christ, he would be expelled from the synagogue. ²³Because of this his parents said, He is of age, ask him.

²⁴Then a second time they called the man who was blind, and they said to him, Give glory to God. We know that this man is a sinner. ²⁵Then he answered and said, Whether he is a sinner, I do not know. One thing I do know, that being blind, now I see. ²⁶And they said to him again, What did he do to you? How did he open your eyes?

²⁷He answered them, I told you already, and you did not hear. Why do you wish to hear again? Do you also desire to become disciples of Him? ²⁸Then they reviled him and said, You are a disciple of that one, but we are disciples of Moses. ²⁹We know that God has spoken by Moses, but this one, we do not know from where he is. ³⁰The man answered and said to them, For there is a marvel in this, that you do not know from where He is, and He opened my eyes. ³¹But we know that God does not hear sinful ones, but if anyone is God-fearing, and does His will, He hears that one. ³²Never was it ever heard that anyone opened the eyes of one having been born blind. ³³If this One was not from God, He could not do anything. ³⁴They answered and said to him, You were born wholly in sins, and do you teach us? And they threw him outside.

³⁵Jesus heard that they threw him outside, and finding him, He said to him, Do you believe into the Son of God? ³⁶And he answered and said, Who is He, Lord, that I may believe into Him? ³⁷And Jesus said to him, Even you have seen Him, and He speaking with you is that One. ³⁸And he said, I believe, Lord! And he worshiped Him. ³⁹And Jesus said, I came into this world for judgment, that the ones who do not see may see; and they who see may become blind. ⁴⁰And those of the Pharisees who were with Him heard these things, and said to Him, Are we also blind? ⁴¹Jesus said to them, If you were blind, you would have no sin. But now you say, We see; therefore, your sin remains.

¹Truly, truly, I say to you, the one not entering through the door into the sheep-fold, but going up by another way, that one is a thief and a robber. ²But the one entering through the door is the shepherd of the sheep. ³The doorkeeper opens to him, and the sheep hear his voice, and he calls his own sheep by name, and leads them out. ⁴And when he puts forth his own sheep, he goes in front of them, and the sheep follow him because they know his voice. ⁵But they never follow a stranger, but will flee from him, because they do not know the voice of the strangers. ⁶Jesus spoke this allegory to them, but they did not know what it was which He spoke to them.

⁷Then Jesus again said to them, Truly, truly, I say to you that I am the door of the sheep. ⁸All who came before Me are thieves and robbers; but the sheep did not hear them. ⁹I am the door. If anyone enters through Me, he will be saved, and will go in, and will go out, and will find pasture. ¹⁰The thief does not come except that he may steal, and kill, and destroy. I came that they may have life, and may have it abundantly. ¹¹I am the Good Shepherd! The Good Shepherd lays down His life for the sheep. ¹²But the hireling, not even being a shepherd, who does not own the sheep, sees the wolf coming and forsakes the sheep, and flees. And the wolf seizes them, and scatters the sheep. ¹³But the hireling flees because he is a hireling, and there is not a care to him concerning the sheep. ¹⁴I am the Good Shepherd, and I know those that are Mine; and I am known by the ones that are Mine. ¹⁵Even as the Father knows Me, I also know the Father; and I lay down My soul for the sheep. ¹⁶And I have other sheep which are not of this fold. I must also lead those, and they will hear My voice; and there will be one flock, one Shepherd. ¹⁷For this reason My Father loves Me, because I lay down My soul, that I may take it again. ¹⁸No one takes it from Me, but I lay it down from Myself. I have authority to lay it down, and I have authority to take it again. I received this commandment from My Father.

¹⁹Then a division occurred again among the Jews, because of these words.

²⁰And many of them said, He has a demon and is insane. Why do you hear him? ²¹Others said, These are not words of one having been possessed by a demon. A demon is not able to open the eyes of blind ones.

²²And the Feast of Dedication took place in Jerusalem, and it was winter.

²³And Jesus was walking in the temple, in Solomon's Porch. ²⁴Then the Jews encircled Him, and said to Him, How long do you lift up our soul? If you are the Christ, tell us publicly. ²⁵Jesus answered them, I told you, and you did not believe.

The works which I do in the name of My Father, these bear witness about Me.

²⁶But you do not believe, for you are not of My sheep, as I said to you. ²⁷My sheep hear My voice, and I know them, and they follow Me.

²⁸And I give eternal life to them, and they shall never perish to the age; and not anyone shall pluck them out of My hand. ²⁹My Father who has given them to Me is greater than all, and no one is able to pluck out of My Father's hand.

³²Jesus answered them, I showed you many good works from My Father. For which work of them do you stone Me? ³³The Jews answered Him, saying, We do not stone you concerning a good work, but concerning blasphemy; and because you, being a man, make yourself God.

³⁴Jesus answered them, Is it not written in your Law, "I said, you are gods"? ³⁵If He called those gods with whom the word of God was — and the Scripture cannot be broken — ³⁶do you say of Him whom the Father sanctified and sent into the world, You blaspheme, because I said, I am Son of God?

³⁷If I do not do the works of My Father, do not believe Me. ³⁸But if I do, even if you do not believe Me, believe the works, that you may perceive and may believe that the Father is in Me, and I in Him.

³⁹Then again they sought to seize Him. And He went forth out of their hand. ⁴⁰And He went away again across the Jordan to the place where John was at first baptizing, and remained there.

⁴¹And many came to Him and said, John indeed did no miracle, but all things that John said concerning this One were true.

⁴²And many believed into Him there.

CHAPTER 11

¹And there was a certain sick one, Lazarus from Bethany, of the village of Mary and her sister Martha. ²And it was Mary who anointed the Lord with ointment, and wiped His feet with her hair, whose brother Lazarus was sick.

³Then the sisters sent to Him, saying, Lord, behold, the one whom You love is sick. ⁴And hearing, Jesus said, This is not sickness to death, but for the glory of God, that the Son of God be glorified by it.

⁵And Jesus loved Martha, and her sister, and Lazarus. ⁶Therefore, when He heard that he is sick, then, indeed, He remained in the place where He was two days.

Then after this he said to the disciples, Let us go to Judea again. ⁸The disciples said to Him, Rabbi, just now the Jews were seeking to stone You, and do you go there again?

⁹Jesus answered, Are there not twelve hours in the day? If anyone walks in the day, he does not stumble because he sees the light of the world.

¹⁰But if anyone walks in the night, he stumbles because the light is not in him. ¹¹He said these things. And after this He said to them, Our friend Lazarus has fallen asleep, but I am going that I may awaken him.

¹²Then His disciples said, Lord, if he has fallen asleep, he will recover. ¹³But Jesus had spoken about his death, but they thought that He spoke of the sleep of slumber.

¹⁴Therefore, then Jesus said to them plainly, Lazarus has died. ¹⁵And I rejoice because of you, in order that you may believe, that I was not there. But let us go to him.

¹⁶Then Thomas, he having been called Twin, said to the fellow-disciples, Let us go, even we, that we may die with Him.

¹⁷Then coming, Jesus found him already being held in the tomb four days.

¹⁸And Bethany was near Jerusalem, about fifteen furlongs off. ¹⁹And many of the Jews had come to those around Martha and Mary, that they might console them concerning their brother.

²⁰Then when Martha heard that Jesus is coming, she met Him; but Mary was sitting in the house. ²¹Then Martha said to Jesus, Lord, if You had been here, my brother would not be dead.

²²But even now I know that whatever You may ask

God, God will give You. ²³Jesus said to her, Your brother will rise again. ²⁴Martha said to Him, I know that he will rise again in the resurrection in the last day. ²⁵Jesus said to her, I am the Resurrection and the Life; the one believing into Me, though he die, he shall live. ²⁶And everyone living and believing into Me shall not ever die to the age. Do you believe this? ²⁷She said to Him, Yes, Lord, I have believed that You are the Christ, the Son of God who comes into the world.

²⁸And saying these things, she went away and called her sister Mary secretly, saying, The Teacher is here and calls you. ²⁹That one, when she heard, rose up quickly and came to Him. ³⁰And Jesus had not yet come into the village, but was in the place where Martha met Him. ³¹Then the Jews who were with her in the house, and consoling her, seeing that Mary quickly rose up and went out, they followed her, saying, She is going to the tomb so that she may weep there. ³²Then Mary, when she came where Jesus was, seeing Him, she fell at His feet, saying to Him, Lord, if You were here, my brother would not have died. ³³Then when He saw her weeping, and the Jews who came down with her weeping, Jesus groaned in the spirit and troubled Himself. ³⁴And He said, Where have you put him? They said to Him, Lord, come and see. ³⁵Jesus wept. ³⁶Then the Jews said, See how He loved him! ³⁷But some of them said, Was this One, the one opening the eyes of the blind, not able to have caused that this one should not die? ³⁸Then groaning again within Himself, Jesus came to the tomb. And it was a cave, and a stone was lying on it. ³⁹Jesus said, Lift the stone. Martha, the sister of the one that had died, said to Him, Lord, he already smells, for it is the fourth day. ⁴⁰Jesus said to her, Did I not say to you that if you would believe you will see the glory of God? ⁴¹Then they lifted the stone where the dead one was laid. And Jesus lifted His eyes upward and said, Father, I thank You that You heard Me. ⁴²And I know that you always hear Me; but because of the crowd standing around, I said it, that they might believe that You sent Me. ⁴³And saying these things, He cried out with a loud voice, Lazarus! Here! Outside! ⁴⁴And the one who had died came out, the feet and the hands having been bound with sheets, and his face being bound with a cloth. Jesus said to them, Untie him, and let him to go away. ⁴⁵Then many of the Jews, those coming to Mary, and having seen what Jesus did, believed into Him. ⁴⁶But some of them went away to the Pharisees, and told them what Jesus had done.

⁴⁷Then the chief priests and the Pharisees assembled a sanhedrin, and said, What are we doing, for this man does many miracles? ⁴⁸If we let him alone this way, all will believe into him, and the Romans will come and will take away from us both the place and the nation. ⁴⁹But a certain one of them, Caiaphas, being high priest of that year, said to them, You know nothing, ⁵⁰nor consider that it is profitable for us that one man die for the people, and not all the nation to perish. ⁵¹But he did not say this from himself, but being high priest that year he prophesied that Jesus was about to die on behalf of the nation, ⁵²and not only on behalf of the nation, but that He also might gather into one the children of God who had been scattered. ⁵³Then from that day they took counsel that they might kill Him.

⁵⁴Then Jesus no longer walked publicly among the Jews, but went away from there into the country near the desert, to a city being called Ephraim, and stayed there with His disciples.

⁵⁵And the Passover of the Jews was near. And many went up to Jerusalem out of the country before the Passover, that they might purify themselves. ⁵⁶Then they sought Jesus, and said with one another, standing in the temple, What does it seem to you? That He does not at all come to the Feast? ⁵⁷And all the chief priests and the Pharisees had given commands that if anyone knew where He is, he should inform so that they might seize Him.

¹Then six days before the Passover, Jesus came to Bethany, where Lazarus was, who had died, whom He raised from the dead. ²Then they made Him a supper there, and Martha served. But Lazarus was one of those reclining with Him. ⁷Then taking a pound of ointment of pure, costly spikenard, Mary anointed the feet of Jesus, and wiped off His feet with her hairs. And the house was filled with the odor of the ointment. ⁸Then Simon's son, one of His disciples, Judas Iscariot, who was about to betray Him, said, ⁹Why was this ointment not sold for three hundred denarii, and given to the poor?

⁶But he said this, not that he was caring for the poor, but that he was a thief, and held the moneybag, and carried away the things being put in. ⁷Then Jesus said, Allow her, for she has kept it for the day of My burial. ⁸For you always have the poor with you, but you do not always have Me.

⁹Then a great crowd of the Jews learned that He was there. And they did not come because of Jesus alone, but that they also might see Lazarus whom He raised from the dead. ¹⁰But the chief priests took counsel that they might put Lazarus to death also, ¹¹because through him many of the Jews went away and believed into Jesus.

¹²On the morrow, coming to the Feast, hearing that Jesus is coming to Jerusalem, a great crowd ¹³took palm branches and went out to a meeting with Him, and were crying out, Hosanna! Blessed is He coming in the name of the Lord, the King of Israel! ¹⁴And finding an ass colt, Jesus sat on it, even as it had been written, ¹⁵"Do not fear, daughter of Zion. Behold, your king comes sitting on the foal of an ass." ¹⁶But His disciples did not know these things at the first, but when Jesus was glorified, then they recalled that these things had been written on Him; and they did these things to Him. ¹⁷Then the crowd which was with Him when He called Lazarus out of the tomb, and raised him from the dead, witnessed. ¹⁸Because of this also the crowds met Him, because it heard of this miracle He had done. ¹⁹Then the Pharisees said to themselves, Observe that you gain nothing. Behold, the world has gone after Him.

²⁰And there were some Greeks among those coming up, that they might worship at the Feast. ²¹Then these came to Philip, the one from Bethsaida of Galilee, and asked him, saying, Sir, we desire to see Jesus. ²²Philip came and told Andrew, and again Andrew and Philip told Jesus. ²³But Jesus answered them, saying, The hour has come that the Son of man should be glorified. ²⁴Truly, truly, I say to you, Unless the grain of wheat that falls into the earth dies, it remains alone. But if it dies, it bears much fruit. ²⁵The one who loves his soul loses it; and he who hates his soul in this world will keep it to everlasting life. ²⁶If anyone serves Me, let him follow Me; and where I am, there My servant will also be. And if anyone serves Me, the Father will honor him.

²⁷And My soul is troubled, and what may I say? Father, save Me out of this hour? But on this account I came to this hour. ²⁸Father, glorify Your name. Then a voice came out of the heaven: I both glorified it, and I will glorify it again. ²⁹Then standing and hearing, the crowd said that thunder occurred. Others said, An angel has spoken to Him. ³⁰Jesus answered and said, This voice has not occurred because of Me, but because of you. ³¹Now is the judgment of this world; now the ruler of this world shall be cast out. ³²And I, if I be lifted up from the earth, I will draw all to Myself. ³³But He said this, signifying by what kind of death He was about to die. ³⁴The crowd answered Him, We heard out of the Law that the Christ remains to the age. And how do you say that the Son of man must be lifted up? Who is this Son of man? ³⁵Then Jesus said to them, Yet a little while the Light is with you. Walk while you have the Light, that darkness not overtake you. And the one walking in the darkness does not know where he is going. ³⁶While you have the Light, believe into the Light, that you may become sons of Light.

Jesus spoke these things, and going away was hidden from them.

³⁷But though He had done so many miracles before them, they did not believe into Him, ³⁸so that the word of Isaiah the prophet might be fulfilled, which he said, "Lord, who has believed our report? And the arm of the Lord, to whom was it revealed?" ³⁹Because of this they could not believe, because Isaiah said again,

⁴⁰"He has blinded their eyes and has hardened their heart, that they might not see with the eyes, and understand with the heart, and be converted, and I should heal them." ⁴¹Isaiah said these things when he saw His glory, and spoke about Him. ⁴²Still, however, even out of the rulers, many did believe into Him. But because of the Pharisees, they were not confessing, so that they not be put out of the synagogue. ⁴³For they loved the glory of men more than the glory of God.

⁴⁴But Jesus cried out and said, The one believing into Me does not believe into Me, but into the One sending Me. ⁴⁵And the one seeing Me sees the One who sent Me. ⁴⁶I have come as a Light to the world, that everyone who believes into Me may not remain in the darkness. ⁴⁷And if anyone hears My words, and does not believe, I do not judge him; for I did not come that I might judge the world, but that I might save the world. ⁴⁸The one who rejects Me and does not receive My words has that judging him: the word which I spoke, that will judge him in the last Day. ⁴⁹For I did not speak from Myself, but He who sent Me, the Father, He has given Me command, what I should say, and what I should speak. ⁵⁰And I know that His command is everlasting life. Then what things I speak, as the Father has said to Me, so I speak.

¹And before the feast of the Passover, Jesus knowing that His hour had come that He should move from this world to the Father, loving His own in the world, He loved them to the end. ²And supper having occurred, the Devil having already put into the heart of Simon's son Judas Iscariot that he should betray Him, ³Jesus knowing that the Father has given all things into His hands, and that He came out from God, and goes away to God, ⁴He rose up from the supper, and laid aside His garments. And taking a towel, He girded Himself. ⁵Then He put water into the basin and began to wash the feet of the disciples, and to wipe off with the towel with which He was girded. ⁶He then came to Simon Peter. And that one said to Him, Lord, do You wash my feet? ⁷Jesus answered and said to him, What I am doing, you do not yet know. But you will know after these things. ⁸Peter said to Him, You may in no way wash my feet to the age. Jesus answered him, Unless I wash you, you have no part with Me. ⁹Simon Peter said to Him, Lord, not my feet only, but also the hands and the head. ¹⁰Jesus said to him, The one having been bathed has no need other than to wash the feet, but is wholly clean. And you are clean, but not all. ¹¹For He knew the one betraying Him. For this reason He said, You are not all clean.

¹²Then when He had washed their feet, and had taken His garments, reclining again, He said to them, Do you know what I have done to you? ¹³You call Me the Teacher, and, the Lord. And you say well, for I am. ¹⁴If then I washed your feet, the Lord and the Teacher, you also ought to wash the feet of one another. ¹⁵For I gave you an example, that as I did to you, you also should do. ¹⁶Truly, truly, I say to you, A slave is not greater than his lord or a messenger greater than the one sending him. ¹⁷If you know these things, blessed are you if you do them. ¹⁸I do not speak concerning all of you; I know whom I chose out; but that the Scripture might be fulfilled, "The one eating the bread with Me lifted up his heel against Me." ¹⁹From this time I tell you, before it happens, that when it happens you may believe that I AM. ²⁰Truly, truly, I say to you, The one who receives whomever I may send receives Me; and the one who receives Me receives the One who sent Me.

²¹Saying these things, Jesus was troubled in spirit, and testified and said, Indeed I tell you truly that one of you will betray Me. ²²Then the disciples looked upon one another, doubting of whom He spoke. ²³But there was one of His disciples reclining at the bosom of Jesus, whom Jesus loved. ²⁴Then Simon Peter signaled to him to ask whom it might be of whom He spoke. ²⁵And leaning on the breast of Jesus, he said to Him, Lord, who is it? ²⁶Jesus answered, It is he to whom I, having dipped the morsel, shall give it. And dipping the morsel, He gave it to Judas Iscariot, son of Simon. ²⁷And after the morsel, then Satan entered into that one. Then Jesus said to him, What you do, do quickly. ²⁸But no one of those reclining knew this, for what He spoke to him; ²⁹for some thought, since Judas held the moneybag, that Jesus was saying to him, Buy what things we have need of for the feast; or that he should give something to the poor. ³⁰Then, receiving the morsel, he immediately went out. And it was night.

³¹Then when he had gone out, Jesus said, Now the Son of man was glorified, and God was glorified in Him. ³²If God was glorified in Him, God also will glorify Him in Himself, and immediately will glorify Him. ³³Little children, yet a little while I am with you. You will seek Me; and, as I said to the Jews, Where I go, you are not able to come; I also say to you now. ³⁴I give a new commandment to you, that you should love one another; according as I loved you, you should also love one another. ³⁵By this all shall know that you are My disciples, if you have love among one another.

³⁶Simon Peter said to Him, Lord, where do You go? Jesus answered him, Where I go you are not able to follow Me now, but afterwards you shall follow Me. ³⁷Peter said to Him, Lord, why am I not able to follow You now? I will lay down my life for You! ³⁸Jesus answered him, Will you lay down your life for Me? Indeed, I tell you truly, in no way shall the cock crow until you shall deny Me three times.

¹Do not let your heart be troubled; you believe in God, believe also in Me. ²In My Father's house are many dwelling places. But if it were not so, I would have told you. I am going to prepare a place for you! ³And if I go and prepare a place for you, I am coming again, and will receive you to Myself, that where I am you may be also. ⁴And where I go you know, and the way you know.

⁵Thomas said to Him, Lord, we do not know where You go, and how can we know the way? ⁶Jesus said to him, I am the Way, and the Truth, and the Life. No one comes to the Father except through Me. ⁷If you had known Me, you would have known My Father also; and from now on you do know Him, and have seen Him. ⁸And Philip said to Him, Lord, show us the Father, and it is enough for us. ⁹Jesus said to him, Am I so long a time with you, and you have not known Me, Philip? ¹⁰The one seeing Me has seen the Father! And how do you say, Show us the Father? ¹¹Do you not believe that I am in the Father and the Father is in Me? The words which I speak to you I do not speak from Myself, but the Father who abides in Me, He does the works.

¹²Believe Me that I am in the Father, and the Father is in Me; but if not, believe Me because of the works themselves. ¹³Indeed, I tell you truly, He that believes in Me, the works which I do that one shall do also, and greater than these he will do, because I go to My Father. ¹⁴And whatever you may ask in My Name, this I will do, that the Father may be glorified in the Son. ¹⁵If you ask anything in My Name, I will do it. ¹⁶If you love Me, keep My commandments.

¹⁷And I will petition the Father, and He will give you another Comforter, that He may remain with you forever, ¹⁸the Spirit of Truth, whom the world cannot receive because it does not see Him nor know Him. But you know Him, for He abides with you, and shall be in you.

¹⁹I will not leave you orphans; I am coming to you. ²⁰Yet a little while and the world no longer sees Me, but you see Me. Because I live, you also shall live. ²¹In that day you shall know that I am in My Father, and you are in Me, and I am in you. ²²He that has My commandments and keeps them, it is that one who loves Me; and the one that loves Me shall be loved by My Father, and I shall love him and will reveal Myself to him.

²³Judas said to Him, not the Iscariot, Lord, what has happened that You are about to reveal Yourself to us and not at all to the world? ²⁴Jesus answered and said to him, If anyone loves Me, he will keep My word, and My Father shall love him. And We will come to him and will make a dwelling-place with him. ²⁵The one who does not love Me does not keep My words—and the word which you hear is not Mine but of the Father who sent Me!

²⁵I have spoken these things to you, abiding with you; ²⁶but the Comforter, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in My name, He shall teach you all things, and shall remind you of all things that I said to you. ²⁷I leave peace to you; My peace I give to you. Not as the world gives I give to you. Let not your heart be troubled, nor let it be timid. ²⁸You heard that I said to you, I am going away and I am coming again to you. If you loved Me, you would have rejoiced that I said, I am going to the Father; for My Father is greater than I. ²⁹And now I have told you before it occurs, that when it shall occur you may believe.

³⁰I shall no longer speak many things with you, for the ruler of this world is coming, and he has nothing in Me. ³¹But that the world may know that I love the Father, even as the Father commanded Me, so I do. Rise up, let us go from here.

¹I am the True Vine, and My Father is the Vinedresser. ²Every branch in Me not bearing fruit, He takes it away; and each one bearing fruit, He prunes so that it may bear more fruit. ³You are already pruned because of the word which I have spoken to you. ⁴Remain in Me, and I in you. As the branch is not able to bear fruit of itself, unless it remain in the vine, so neither can you unless you remain in Me. ⁵I am the Vine; you are the branches. He that remains in Me, and I in him, this one bears much fruit. For apart from Me you are not able to do anything. ⁶Unless one remains in Me, he is cast out as the branch, and is dried up; and they gather and throw them into a fire, and they are burned. ⁷If you remain in Me, and My words remain in you, whatever you desire you will ask, and it shall happen to you. ⁸In this My Father is glorified, that you should bear much fruit; and you will be My disciples. ⁹As the Father loved Me, I also loved you; continue in My love. ¹⁰If you keep My commandments you will continue in My love; as I have kept My Father's commandments and continue in His love. ¹¹I have spoken these things to you that My joy may abide in you, and your joy may be full. ¹²This is My commandment, that you love one another as I loved you. ¹³Greater love than this has no one, that anyone should lay down his soul for his friends—¹⁴you are My friends if you do whatever I command you. ¹⁵I no longer call you slaves, for the slave does not know what his lord does. But I called you friends, because all things which I heard from My Father I made known to you. ¹⁶You have not chosen Me, but I chose you out, and planted you, that you should go and should bear fruit, and your fruit remain; that whatever you should ask the Father in My name, He may give you.

¹⁷These things I command you, that you love one another. ¹⁸If the world hates you, you know that it has hated Me before it has hated you. ¹⁹If you were of the world, the world would love its own. But because you are not of the world, but I chose you out of the world, for this reason the world hates you. ²⁰Remember the word which I said to you, A slave is not greater than his lord. If they persecuted Me, they also will persecute you. If they kept My word, they also will keep yours. ²¹But all these things they will do to you on account of My name, because they do not know the One who sent Me. ²²If I had not come and had not spoken to them, they had no sin. But now they do not have excuse as to their sin. ²³The one hating Me also hates My Father. ²⁴If I did not do the works among them which no other did, they had no sin. But now they both have seen and also have hated Me and My Father. ²⁵But that may be fulfilled the word that has been written in their Law, "They hated Me without a cause."

²⁶And when the Comforter comes, whom I will send to you from the Father, the Spirit of truth who proceeds from the Father, that One will witness concerning Me. ²⁷And you also witness, because from the beginning you are with Me.

¹I have spoken these things to you so that you may not be offended. ²They will put you out of the synagogue, but an hour is coming that everyone killing you will think to bear a service before God. ³And they will do these things to you because they do not know the Father nor Me. ⁴But I have spoken these things to you so that when the hour comes you may recall them, that I told you these things. But I did not say these things to you from the beginning because I was with you. ⁵But now I am going to Him who sent Me. And not one of you asks Me, Where are you going? ⁶But because I have said these things to you, grief has filled your heart. ⁷But I tell you the truth, it is advantageous for you that I should go; for if I do not go away, the Comforter will not come to you. But if I go, I will send Him to you. ⁸And when that One comes, He will convict the world concerning sin, and concerning righteousness, and concerning judgment. ⁹Concerning sin, because they do not believe into Me; ¹⁰and concerning righteousness because I am going to the Father, and you no longer see Me; ¹¹and concerning judgment because the ruler of this world has been judged. ¹²Yet I have many things to tell you, but you are not able to bear now. ¹³But when that One comes, the Spirit of truth, He will guide you into all truth; for He will not speak from Himself, but whatever He hears, He will speak; and He will announce the coming things to you. ¹⁴That One will glorify Me, for He will receive from Mine and will announce to you. ¹⁵All things which the Father has are Mine. For this reason I said that He receives from Mine and will announce to you. ¹⁶A little while and you do not see Me. And again a little while, and you will see Me, because I go away to the Father. ¹⁷Then His disciples said to one another, What is this which He says to us, A little while and you do not see me; and again, A little and you will see Me? And, Because I go away to the Father? ¹⁸Then they said, What is this that He says, The little? We do not know what He says. ¹⁹Then Jesus knew that they desired to ask Him, and said to them, Do you seek answers with one another concerning this, because I said, A little while, and you do not see Me; and again a little and you will see Me? ²⁰Truly, truly, I say to you that you will weep and will lament, but the world will rejoice. And you will be grieved, but your grief will become joy. ²¹The woman has grief when she bears, because her hour came, but when she brings forth the child, she no longer remembers the distress, because of the joy that a man was born into the world. ²²And you, then, truly have grief now; but I will see you again, and your heart will rejoice; and no one takes your joy from you. ²³And in that day you will ask Me nothing. Truly, truly, I say to you, Whatever you shall ask the Father in My name, He will give you. ²⁴Until now you asked nothing in My name; ask, and you will receive, so that your joy may be full.

²⁵I have spoken these things to you in allegories. An hour comes when I will no longer speak to you in allegories, but I will reveal the Father plainly to you. ²⁶In that day you will ask in My name, and I do not tell you that I will petition the Father about you; ²⁷for the Father Himself loves you, because you have loved Me, and have believed that I came out from God. ²⁸I came out from the Father, and have come into the world; I leave the world again and go to the Father. ²⁹His disciples said to Him, Behold, now You speak plainly and You say no allegory. ³⁰Now we know that You know all things and have no need that anyone question You. By this we believe that You came out from God. ³¹Jesus answered them, Do you believe now? ³²Behold, an hour is coming, and now has come, that you are scattered, each one to his own things, and you will leave Me alone. Yet I am not alone, because the Father is with Me. ³³I have spoken these things to you that you may have peace in Me. You have distress in the world; but be encouraged; I have overcome the world.

¹Jesus spoke these things, and lifted up His eyes to Heaven, and said, Father, the hour has come. Glorify Your Son, that Your Son may also glorify You, ²as You gave to Him authority over all flesh, so that to all which You gave to Him, He may give to them everlasting life. ³And this is everlasting life, that they may know You, the only true God, and Jesus Christ, whom You have sent. ⁴I have glorified You on the earth. I finished the work that You gave Me to do. ⁵And now Father, glorify Me with Yourself, with the glory which I had with You before the existence of the world. ⁶I revealed Your name to the men whom You gave to Me out of the world. They were Yours, and You gave them to Me; and they have kept Your word. ⁷Now they have known that all things, whatever You gave to Me, are from You. ⁸For the words which You gave to Me, I have given to them. And they received, and truly knew that I came out from beside You; and they believed that You sent Me. ⁹I pray concerning them; I do not pray concerning the world, but for those whom You gave to Me; for they are Yours. ¹⁰And all My things are Yours, and Yours are Mine; and I have been glorified in them. ¹¹And no longer I am in the world, yet these are in the world; and I come to You. Holy Father, keep them in Your name; those whom You gave to Me, that they may be one as We are.

¹²While I was with them in the world, I kept them in Your name; I guarded those whom You gave to Me, and not one of them was lost, except the son of perdition, that the Scripture might be fulfilled. ¹³And now I come to You, and I speak these things in the world that they may have My joy fulfilled in them. ¹⁴I have given them Your word, and the world hated them because they are not of the world, as I am not of the world. ¹⁵I do not pray that You take them out of the world, but that You keep them from evil. ¹⁶They are not of the world, even as I am not of the world.

¹⁷Sanctify them in Your truth; Your word is truth. ¹⁸As You sent Me into the world, I also sent them into the world; ¹⁹and I sanctify Myself for them, that they also may be sanctified in truth. ²⁰And I do not pray concerning these only, but also concerning those who will believe in Me through their word; ²¹that all may be one, as You are in Me, Father, and I in You; that they also may be one in Us, that the world may believe that You sent Me. ²²And I have given them the glory which You have given Me, that they may be one, as We are one: ²³I in them, and You in Me, that they may be perfected in one, and that the world may know that You sent Me and loved them, even as You loved Me. ²⁴Father, I desire that those whom You have given Me, that where I am, they may be with Me also, that they may behold My glory which You gave Me, because You loved Me before the foundation of the world. ²⁵Righteous Father, indeed the world did not know You, but I knew You, and these have known that You sent Me. ²⁶And I made known to them Your name, and will make it known, that the love with which You loved Me may be in them, and I in them.

¹Having said these things, Jesus went out with His disciples across the winter-stream Kidron, where there was a garden into which He and His disciples entered. ²And Judas, the one betraying Him, also knew the place, because Jesus many times assembled there with His disciples. ³Then receiving a cohort and under-officers from among the chief priests and the Pharisees, Judas came there with torches and lamps and weapons. ⁴Then knowing all the things coming upon Him, going forth Jesus said to them, Whom do you seek? ⁵They answered Him, Jesus the Nazarene. Jesus said to them, I AM! And Judas, the one betraying Him, also stood with them. ⁶Then when He said to them, I AM, they departed into the rear and fell to the ground. ⁷Then again He asked, Whom do you seek? And they said, Jesus the Nazarene. ⁸Jesus answered, I told you that I AM; then if you seek Me, allow these to depart,—⁹that the word might be fulfilled which He said, “Of those whom You gave to Me, I lost not one of them.”

¹⁰Then having a sword, Simon Peter drew it and struck the slave of the high priest, and cut off his right ear. And the slave's name was Malchus. ¹¹Then Jesus said to Peter, Put your sword into the sheath: the cup which the Father has given Me, shall I not at all drink it?

¹²Then the cohort, even the commander and the under-officers of the Jews together seized Jesus and bound Him. ¹³And they led Him away first to Annas, for he was the father-in-law of Caiaphas, who was high priest of that year. ¹⁴And Caiaphas was the one who had given counsel to the Jews that it was advantageous for one man to perish for the people.

¹⁵And Simon Peter and another disciple followed Jesus, and that disciple was known to the high priest, and entered together with Jesus into the court of the high priest, ¹⁶but Peter stood at the door outside. The other disciple who was known to the high priest went out and spoke to the doorkeeper, and brought Peter in. ¹⁷Then the maidservant, the doorkeeper, said to Peter, Are you not also of the disciples of this man? That one said, I am not. ¹⁸Now the slaves and the under-officers were standing and warming themselves, having made a fire of coals, for it was cold; and Peter was with them, standing and warming himself.

¹⁹Then the high priest questioned Jesus about His disciples and about His teaching. ²⁰Jesus answered him, I publicly spoke to the world; I always taught in the synagogue and in the temple where the Jews always come together, and I spoke nothing in secret. ²¹Why do you question Me? Question those hearing what I spoke to them: behold, these know what I said! ²²But on His having said these things, one of the under-officers standing by gave Jesus a blow with the palm, saying, Do you answer the high priest this way? ²³Jesus answered him, If I spoke evilly, bear witness concerning the evil; but if well, why do you strike Me? ²⁴Then Annas sent Him forth, having bound Him, to Caiaphas the high priest.

²⁵Now Simon Peter was standing and warming himself. Then they said to him, Are you not also of His disciples? He denied and said, I am not. ²⁶One of the slaves of the high priest, being a relative of him of whom Peter cut off the ear, said, Did I not see you in the garden with Him? ²⁷Then again Peter denied, and immediately a cock crowed.

²⁸Then they led Jesus from Caiaphas into the praetorium, and it was early. And they did not enter into the praetorium, that they might not be defiled, but that they might eat the Passover. ²⁹Then Pilate went out to them and said, What accusation do you bring against this man? ³⁰They answered and said to him, If this one were not an evildoer, then we would not have delivered him to you. ³¹Then Pilate said to them, You take him and judge him according to your own Law. Then the Jews said to him, It is not lawful for us to put anyone to death—³²that the word of Jesus which He said might be fulfilled, signifying by what kind of death He was about to die.

³³Then Pilate again went into the praetorium and called Jesus, and said to Him, Are you the king of the Jews? ³⁴Jesus answered him, Do you say this from yourself, or did others tell you about Me? ³⁵Pilate answered, Am I a Jew? Your nation, even the chief priests, delivered you up to me! What did you do? ³⁶Jesus answered, My kingdom is not of this world. If My kingdom were of this world, My servants would have fought, that I might not be delivered up to the Jews. But now My kingdom is not from here. ³⁷Then Pilate said to Him, Are you really a king? Jesus answered, You say that I am a king. For this purpose I have been born, and for this I have come into the world: that I might witness to the Truth. Everyone being of the Truth hears My voice. ³⁸Pilate said to Him, What is truth?

And saying this, he again went out to the Jews and said to them, I do not find even one crime in him! ³⁹But there is a common custom to you that I should release one prisoner to you at the Passover. Then you decide: should I release the king of the Jews to you? ⁴⁰Then all cried out again, saying, Not this one, but Barabbas! But Barabbas was a robber.

¹Then Pilate then took Jesus and flogged Him. ²And having plaited a wreath out of thorns, the soldiers put it on His head. And they threw a purple mantle around Him, ³and said, Hail, king of the Jews! And they gave Him blows with the palm. ⁴Then Pilate went outside again and said to them, Behold, I bring him out to you, that you may know that I do not find even one crime in him! ⁵Then Jesus came outside, wearing the thorny wreath and the purple mantle. And he said to them, Behold, the Man! ⁶Then when the chief priests and the under-officers saw Him, they cried out, saying, Crucify! Crucify! Pilate said to them, You take him and crucify him, for I do not find one crime in him! ⁷Then the Jews answered him, We have a Law, and according to our Law he ought to die, because he made himself Son of God! ⁸Then when Pilate heard this word, he was more afraid, ⁹and entered into the praetorium again, and said to Jesus, From where are you? But Jesus did not give him an answer. ¹⁰So Pilate said to Him, Do you not speak to me? Do you not know that I have authority to crucify you, and I have authority to release you? ¹¹Jesus answered, You would have no authority against Me, not any, if it were not given to you from above. Because of this the one delivering Me to you has a greater sin. ¹²From this time Pilate sought to release Him. But the Jews cried out, saying, If you release this one, you are not a friend of Caesar. Everyone making himself a king speaks against Caesar. ¹³Then hearing this word, Pilate led Jesus out. And he sat down on the judgment seat, at a place called The Pavement, but in Hebrew, Gabbatha. ¹⁴And it was the preparation of the Passover, and about the sixth hour. And he said to the Jews, Behold, your king! ¹⁵But they cried out, Away, Away! Crucify him! Pilate said to them, Shall I crucify your king? The chief priests answered, We have no king except Caesar. ¹⁶Therefore, then, he delivered Him up to them, that He might be crucified.

And they took Jesus and led Him away.

¹⁷And He went out bearing His cross, to the place called Of a Skull; which is called in Hebrew, Golgotha; ¹⁸where they crucified Him, and two others with Him, on this side and on that side, and Jesus in the middle. ¹⁹And Pilate also wrote a title and put it on the cross. And having been written, it was: JESUS THE NAZARENE—THE KING OF THE JEWS. ²⁰Therefore, many of the Jews read this title, because the place where Jesus was crucified was near the city. And it had been written in Hebrew, in Greek, in Latin. ²¹Then the chief priests of the Jews said to Pilate, Do not write,

The king of the Jews; but that that one said, I am king of the Jews. ²²Pilate answered, What I have written, I have written.

²³Then when they crucified Jesus, the soldiers took His garments and made four parts, a part to each soldier; also the tunic. And the tunic was seamless, woven from the top throughout. ²⁴Then they said to one another, Let us not tear it, but let us cast lots about it, whose it will be — that the Scripture might be fulfilled which said, "They divided My garments among them, and they threw a lot for My garment." Then indeed the soldiers did these things.

²⁵And His mother, and His mother's sister Mary, the wife of Clopas, and Mary Magdalene stood by the cross of Jesus.

²⁶Then seeing His mother, and the disciple whom He loved standing by, Jesus said to His mother, Woman, behold, your son! ²⁷Then He said to the disciple, Behold, your mother! And from that hour the disciple took her into his own home.

²⁸After this, knowing that all things have now been finished, that the Scripture be completed, Jesus said, I thirst. ²⁹Then a vessel full of vinegar was set, and having filled a sponge with vinegar, and putting hyssop around, they brought it to His mouth. ³⁰Then when Jesus took the vinegar, He said, It has been finished. And bowing His head, He delivered up the spirit.

³¹Then since it was Preparation, that the bodies not remain on the cross on the sabbath — for great was the day of that sabbath — the Jews asked Pilate that their legs might be broken, and they be taken away. ³²Then the soldiers came and broke the legs of the first, and of the other crucified with Him. ³³But on coming to Jesus, when they saw He was dead already, they did not break His legs. ³⁴But one of the soldiers pierced His side with a lance; and at once blood and water came out. ³⁵And the one seeing has borne witness, and his witness is true; and that one knows that he speaks truly, that you may believe. ³⁶For these things happened that the Scripture might be fulfilled, "Not a bone of Him shall be broken." ³⁷And again, a different Scripture says, "They shall look at Him whom they have pierced."

³⁸And after these things, Joseph from Arimathea — being a disciple of Jesus, but concealed because of fear of the Jews — asked Pilate that he might take the body of Jesus. And Pilate gave permission. Then he came and took the body of Jesus. ³⁹And Nicodemus also came, the one coming at first to Jesus by night, bearing a mixture of myrrh and aloes, about a hundred Roman pounds. ⁴⁰Then they took the body of Jesus and bound it in linens, with the spices, as is usual with the Jews in burying. ⁴¹And there was a garden in the place where He was crucified, and a new tomb in the garden, in which no one yet ever had been placed. ⁴²There, then, because of the Preparation of the Jews, because the tomb was near, they put Jesus.

CHAPTER 20

¹But on the first of the week Mary Magdalene came early to the tomb, darkness yet being on it. And she saw the stone had been removed from the tomb. ²Then she ran and came to Simon Peter, and to the other disciple whom Jesus loved, and said to them, They took away the Lord out of the tomb, and we do not know where they laid Him. ³Then Peter and the other disciple went out and came to the tomb. ⁴And the two ran together, and the other disciple ran in front more quickly than Peter, and came first to the tomb. ⁵And stooping down, he saw the linens lying; however, he did not go in. ⁶Then Simon Peter came following him, and went into the tomb, and saw the linens lying. ⁷And the gravecloth which was on His head was not lying with the linens, but was wrapped up in one place by itself. ⁸Therefore, then the other disciple also entered, having come first to the tomb. And he saw and believed. ⁹For they did not yet know the Scripture, that it was necessary for Him to rise from the dead. ¹⁰Then the disciples went away again to themselves.

¹¹But Mary stood outside at the tomb, weeping. Then as she wept, she stooped down into the tomb. ¹²And she saw two angels in white, sitting one at the head, and one at the feet, where the body of Jesus had lain. ¹³And they said to her, Woman, why do you weep? She said to them, Because they took away my Lord, and I do not know where they put Him. ¹⁴And saying these things, she turned backward, and saw Jesus standing, and did not know that it was Jesus. ¹⁵Jesus said to her, Woman, why do you weep? Whom do you seek? Thinking that it was the gardener, she said to Him, Sir, if you carried Him away, tell me where you put Him, and I will take Him away. ¹⁶Jesus said to her, Mary! Turning around, she said to Him, Rabboni!—that is to say, Teacher. ¹⁷Jesus said to her, Do not touch Me, for I have not yet ascended to My Father, but go to My brothers and say to them, I am ascending to My Father and your Father, and My God, and your God. ¹⁸Mary Magdalene came bringing word to the disciples that she had seen the Lord, and that He told her these things.

¹⁹Then it being evening on that day, the first of the sabbaths, and the doors having been locked where the disciples were assembled, because of fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood in the midst, and said to them, Peace to you. ²⁰And saying this, He showed them His hands and side. Then seeing the Lord, the disciples rejoiced. ²¹Then Jesus said to them again, Peace to you. As the Father has sent Me, I also send you. ²²And saying this, He breathed on them, and said to them, Receive the Holy Spirit. ²³Of whomever you forgive the sins, they are forgiven to them. Or whomever you may retain, they are retained.

²⁴But Thomas, one of the twelve, the one called Twin, was not with them when Jesus came. ²⁵Then the other disciples said to him, We have seen the Lord. But he said to them, Unless I see the mark of the nails in His hands, and thrust my finger into the mark of the nails, and thrust my hand into His side, in no way will I believe.

²⁶And after eight days His disciples were inside again, and Thomas was with them. The door having been locked, Jesus came and stood in the midst, and said, Peace to you. ²⁷Then He said to Thomas, Bring your finger here and see My hands; and bring your hand and thrust into My side, and be not unbelieving, but believing. ²⁸And Thomas answered and said to Him, My Lord and my God! ²⁹Jesus said to him, Because you have seen Me, Thomas, you have believed. Blessed are the ones not seeing, and believing.

³⁰Then truly Jesus did many other miracles in the presence of His disciples, which are not written in this book. ³¹But these have been written that you may believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and that believing you may have life in His name.

¹After these things Jesus revealed Himself again to the disciples at the Sea of Tiberias. And He revealed Himself this way: ²Simon Peter, and Thomas, being called The Twin, and Nathanael from Cana of Galilee, and the sons of Zebedee, and two others of His disciples were together. ³Simon Peter said to them, I am going out to fish. They said to him, We also are coming with you. They went and entered into the boat at once. And in that night they caught nothing. ⁴And it now becoming early morning, Jesus stood on the shore. However, the disciples did not know that it was Jesus. ⁵Then Jesus said to them, Children, Do you not have anything to eat? They answered Him, No. ⁶And he said to them, Cast the net into the right side of the boat, and you will find. Then they cast, and they no longer had the strength to draw, from the multitude of the fish. ⁷Then the disciple whom Jesus loved said to Peter, It is the Lord. Then hearing that it is the Lord, Simon Peter girded on his coat—for he was naked—and threw himself into the sea. ⁸And the other disciples came in the little boat; for they were not far from the land, only about two hundred cubits, dragging the net of the fish. ⁹Then when they went up on the land, they saw a coal fire lying, and a fish lying on it, and bread. ¹⁰Jesus said to them, Bring from the little fish which you caught now. ¹¹Simon Peter went up and dragged the net onto the land, full of big fish, a hundred and fifty-three. And though being so many, the net was not torn.

¹²Jesus said to them, Come, break fast. And no one of the disciples dared to ask Him, Who are You? knowing that it is the Lord. ¹³Then Jesus came and took the bread, and gave to them; and in the same way the little fish. ¹⁴This now is the three times that Jesus was revealed to His disciples, He being raised from the dead.

¹⁵Then when they broke fast, Jesus said to Simon Peter, Simon son of Jonah, do you love Me more than these? He said to Him, Yes, Lord; You know that I love You. He said to him, Feed My lambs! ¹⁶Again He says to him, secondly, Simon son of Jonah, do you love Me? He says to Him, Yes, Lord; You know that I love You. He said to him, Shepherd My sheep! ¹⁷Thirdly, He said to him, Simon son of Jonah, do you love Me? Peter was grieved that He said to him a third time, Do you love Me? And he said to him, Lord, You perceive all things; You know that I love You! Jesus said to him, Feed My sheep! ¹⁸Truly, I say to you, When you were younger, you girded yourself, and you walked where you desired. But when you grow old, you will stretch out your hands, and another will gird you, and will carry you where you do not desire. ¹⁹But He said this signifying by what death he would glorify God. And having said this, He told him, Follow Me. ²⁰But turning, Peter saw the disciple whom Jesus loved following them, who also leaned on His breast at the Supper, and said, Lord, who is the one betraying You? ²¹Seeing him, Peter said to Jesus, Lord, and what of this one? ²²Jesus said to him, If I desire him to remain until I come, what is that to you? You follow Me. ²³Therefore, the word went out to the brothers that that disciple does not die. Yet Jesus did not say to him that he does not die, but, If I desire him to remain until I come, what is that to you? ²⁴This is the disciple witnessing about these other things, writing these things, and we know that his witness is true.

²⁵And there are also many things, whatever Jesus did, which if they were written singly, I suppose the world itself could not contain the books having been written. Amen.

THE ACTS OF THE APOSTLES

¹Indeed, O Theophilus, I made the first report concerning all things which Jesus began both to do and to teach, ²until the day He was taken up, having given directions to the apostles whom He chose, through the Holy Spirit; ³to whom also He presented Himself living after His suffering, by many infallible proofs, being seen by them through forty days, and speaking the things concerning the kingdom of God. ⁴And having met with them, He charged them not to leave Jerusalem, but to await the promise of the Father, "which you heard of Me; ⁵for John indeed baptized in water, but you will be baptized in the Holy Spirit not many days after."

⁶Then, indeed, coming together they questioned Him, saying, Lord, do You restore the kingdom to Israel at this time? ⁷And He said to them, It is not yours to know times or seasons, which the Father placed in His own authority; ⁸but you will receive power, the Holy Spirit coming upon you, and you will be witnesses of Me both in Jerusalem, and in all Judea, and Samaria, and to the end of the earth. ⁹And saying these things, as they looked on, He was taken up; and a cloud received Him from their eyes.

¹⁰And as they were intently looking into the heaven, He having gone, even behold, two men in white clothing stood by them, ¹¹who also said, Men, Galileans, why do you stand looking up to the heaven? This Jesus, the One being taken from you into Heaven, will come in the way you saw Him going into Heaven.

¹²Then they returned to Jerusalem from the mount being called Of Olive Grove, which is near Jerusalem, a sabbath's journey away. ¹³And when they went in, they went up to the upper room where they were waiting: both Peter and James, and John and Andrew, Philip and Thomas, Bartholomew and Matthew, James the son of Alphaeus and Simon the Zealot, and Judas the brother of James. ¹⁴These all were continuing steadfastly in prayer and in supplication with one mind, with the women, and with Mary the mother of Jesus, and with His brothers.

¹⁵And in these days, standing up in the middle of the disciples—and the number of names together being about a hundred and twenty — Peter said, ¹⁶Men, brothers, it was necessary for this Scripture to be fulfilled which the Holy Spirit spoke before by David's mouth concerning Judas, the one having become guide to those seizing Jesus; ¹⁷for he was numbered with us, and obtained a portion of this ministry. ¹⁸Indeed, then, this one bought a field out of the reward of unrighteousness, and falling headlong, he burst in the middle, and poured out all his bowels. ¹⁹And it became known to all those living in Jerusalem, so as that field to be called in their own dialect, Akeldama; that is, Field of Blood. ²⁰For it has been written in the scroll of Psalms, "Let his estate become forsaken, and he not be living in it." And, "Let another take his office." ²¹Therefore, it is right that one of these men being with us all the time in which the Lord Jesus came in and went out among us, ²²beginning from the baptism of John until the day when He was taken from us, one of these to become a witness of His resurrection with us. ²³And they set out two: Joseph, he being called Barsabas, who was surnamed Justus; and Matthias. ²⁴And having prayed, they said, You, Lord, knower of all hearts, show which one You chose from these two, ²⁵to take the share of this ministry and apostleship, from which Judas fell, to go to his own place. ²⁶And they gave their lots. And the lot fell on Matthias; and he was numbered with the eleven apostles.

¹And in the fulfilling of the day of Pentecost, they were all with one mind in the same place. ²And suddenly a sound came out of the heaven, as being borne along by a violent wind! And it filled all the house where they were sitting. ³And tongues as of fire appeared to them, being distributed; and it sat on each one of them. ⁴And they were all filled of the Holy Spirit, and began to speak in other languages, as the Spirit gave ability to them to speak.

⁵And Jews were living in Jerusalem, devout men from every nation of those under the heaven. ⁶But this sound occurring, the multitude came together and were confounded, because they each heard them speaking in his own dialect. ⁷And all were amazed and marveled, saying to one another, Behold, are not all these, those speaking, Galileans? ⁸And how do we hear each in our own dialect in which we were born, ⁹Parthians, and Medes, and Elamites, and those living in Mesopotamia, both Judea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, ¹⁰both Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt, and the regions of Libya over against Cyrene, and the temporarily residing Romans, both Jews and proselytes, ¹¹Cretans and Arabians; in our own languages we hear them speaking the great deeds of God? ¹²And all were amazed and puzzled, saying to one another, What would this wish to be? ¹³But ridiculing, others said, They are full of sweet wine.

¹⁴But standing up with the Eleven, Peter lifted up his voice and spoke out to them, Men, Jews, and all those living in Jerusalem, let this be known to you, and listen to my words: ¹⁵For these are not drunk, as you imagine, for it is the third hour of the day. ¹⁶But this is that which has been spoken by the prophet Joel, ¹⁷"And it shall be in the last days, God says, I will pour from My Spirit on all flesh, and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy; and your young men shall see visions; and your old men shall dream dreams; ¹⁸and also I will pour out My Spirit on My slaves and slave-girls in those days, and they shall prophesy. ¹⁹And I will give wonders in the heaven above, and miracles on the earth below, blood and fire and vapor of smoke. ²⁰The sun will be turned into darkness, and the moon into blood, before the coming of the great and notable day of the Lord. ²¹And it shall be that everyone who shall call on the name of the Lord will be saved."

²²Men, Israelites, hear these words: Jesus the Nazarene, a man from God, having been approved among you by powerful deeds and wonders and miracles, which God did through Him in your midst, as you yourselves also know, ²³this One given to you by the before-determined counsel and foreknowledge of God, you having taken Him by lawless hands, having crucified Him, you put Him to death. ²⁴But God raised Him up, loosing the throes of death, because it was not possible for Him to be held by it. ²⁵For David said as to Him, "I always foresaw the Lord before Me, because He is at My right hand, that I not be moved. ²⁶For this reason My heart rejoiced, and My tongue was glad; and My flesh also will dwell on hope, ²⁷because You will not leave My soul in Hades, nor will You give Your Holy One to see corruption. ²⁸You revealed to Me paths of life; You will fill Me with joy with Your face."

²⁹Men, brothers, it is permitted to say to you with plainness as to the patriarch David, that he both died and was buried, and his tomb is among us until this day. ³⁰Being a prophet, then, and knowing that God swore with an oath to him that of the fruit of his loins, as concerning flesh, to raise the Christ to sit on his throne; ³¹foreseeing, he spoke about the resurrection of the Christ, that His soul was not left in Hades, nor did His flesh see corruption. ³²This Jesus God raised up, of which we all are witnesses. ³³Then being exalted to the right of God, and receiving the promise of the Holy Spirit from the Father, He poured out this which you now see and hear. ³⁴For David did not ascend into Heaven, but he says, "The Lord said to my Lord, Sit at My right ³⁵until I place Your enemies as a footstool for Your feet." ³⁶Then assuredly, let all the house of Israel acknowledge that God made Him both Lord and Christ, this same Jesus whom you crucified.

³⁷And hearing, they were stabbed in the heart, and said to Peter and the rest of the apostles, Men, brothers, What shall we do?

³⁸And Peter said to them, Repent and be baptized, each of you on the name of Jesus Christ to forgiveness of sins. And you will receive the gift of the Holy Spirit. ³⁹For the promise is to you and to your children, and to all those afar off, as many as the Lord our God shall call. ⁴⁰And with many other words he earnestly testified and exhorted, saying, Be saved from this perverse generation. ⁴¹Then those who gladly welcomed his words were baptized. And about three thousand souls were added that day. ⁴²And they were continuing steadfastly in the teaching of the apostles, and in fellowship, and in the breaking of bread, and in prayers.

⁴³And fear came to every soul, and many wonders and miracles took place through the apostles. ⁴⁴And all the believers were together, and had all things common. ⁴⁵And they sold possessions and goods, and distributed them to all, according as anyone had need. ⁴⁶And continuing steadfastly with one mind day by day in the temple, and breaking bread from house to house, they shared food in gladness and simplicity of heart, ⁴⁷praising God, and having favor with all the people. And the Lord added to the church those being saved from day to day.

¹And Peter and John were going up on the same day into the temple at the hour of prayer, the ninth. ²And a certain man, being lame from his mother's womb, was being carried, whom day by day they put at the door of the temple, being called Beautiful, to ask alms from those going into the temple; ³who seeing Peter and John about to go into the temple, asked alms. ⁴And with John, looking intently toward him, Peter said, Look to us! ⁵And he paid heed to them, expecting to receive something from them. ⁶But Peter said, There is no silver and gold to me, but what I have, this I give to you: In the name of Jesus Christ the Nazarean, rise up and walk! ⁷And taking him by the right hand, he raised him up. And immediately his feet and ankle-bones were made firm. ⁸And leaping up, he stood and walked, and went with them into the temple, walking and leaping, and praising God. ⁹And all the people saw him walking, and praising God. ¹⁰And they recognized him, that it was the one who was sitting for alms at the Beautiful Gate of the temple. And they were filled with amazement and ecstasy at the thing that happened to him.

¹¹And the healed lame one was holding to Peter and John, and all the people ran together to them on the porch called Solomon's, greatly amazed. ¹²And seeing this, Peter answered to the people, Men, Israelites, why do you marvel at this one? Or why do you stare at us, as if by our own power or godliness we have made him to walk? ¹³The God of Abraham and Isaac and Jacob, the God of our fathers, glorified His child Jesus, whom you delivered up, and denied Him in the presence of Pilate, that one having decided to set Him free. ¹⁴But you denied the holy and righteous One, and asked for a man, a murderer, to be granted to you. ¹⁵And the Author of Life you killed, whom God raised up from the dead, of which we are witnesses. ¹⁶And on the faith of His name, this one whom you see and know, was made firm by His name; and the faith which came through Him gave to him this complete soundness before you all. ¹⁷And now, brothers, I know that you acted according to ignorance, as also did your rulers. ¹⁸But what things God before announced through the mouth of all His prophets, that the Christ should suffer, He fulfilled in this manner. ¹⁹Therefore, Repent, and convert, for the blotting out of your sins, so that times of refreshing may come from the face of the Lord, ²⁰and that He may send forth the One before proclaimed to you, Jesus Christ, ²¹whom Heaven truly needs to receive until the times of restoration of all things, of which God spoke through the mouth of all His holy prophets from the age past. ²²For Moses indeed said to the fathers, "The Lord your God will raise up to you a Prophet from among your brothers, One like me; you shall hear Him according to all things, whatever He may speak to you. ²³And it shall be that of every soul, whoever should not hear that Prophet shall be utterly destroyed from among the people. ²⁴And also all the prophets, from Samuel and those following after, as many as spoke, also before announced these days.

²⁵You are sons of the prophets, and of the covenant which God appointed to our fathers, saying to Abraham, "Even in your Seed all the families of the earth shall be blessed." ²⁶Having raised up His child Jesus, God sent Him first to you, blessing you in turning away each one from your iniquities.

¹And as they were speaking to the people, the priests, and the temple commander, and the Sadducees stood near them, ²being distressed because they taught the people and announced in Jesus the resurrection from the dead. ³And they laid hands on them, and put them into custody until the morrow; for it was already evening. ⁴But many of those hearing the word believed; and the number of the men became about five thousand.

⁵And it happened on the morrow that the rulers and scribes gathered into Jerusalem; ⁶also Annas the high priest, and Caiaphas, and John, and Alexander, and as many as were of the high priestly family. ⁷And standing them in the midst, they were inquiring, By what sort of power, or by what sort of name did you do this? ⁸Then being filled of the Holy Spirit, Peter said to them, Rulers of the people, and elders of Israel, ⁹if we are being examined today on a good work of an infirm man, by what this one has been healed, ¹⁰let it be known to all of you, and to all the people of Israel, that in the name of Jesus Christ the Nazarean, whom you crucified, whom God raised from the dead, in this, this one stands before you whole. ¹¹This One is the Stone counted worthless by you the builders which has become placed at the head of the corner; ¹²and there is salvation in no other One; for neither is there any other name under Heaven having been given among men by which we must be saved.

¹³But seeing the boldness of Peter and John, and having perceived that they are untaught and uneducated men, they marveled. And they recognized them, that they were with Jesus. ¹⁴But seeing the man standing with them, the one having been healed, they had nothing to say against him. ¹⁵But commanding them to go outside the sanhedrin, they conferred with one another, ¹⁶saying, What may we do to these men? For that a notable miracle indeed has occurred through them is plain to all those living in Jerusalem, and we are not able to deny it. ¹⁷But that it may not be spread abroad further to the people, let us threaten them with a threat that they no longer speak on this name to any one of men.

¹⁸And calling them, they ordered them not to speak at all, nor to teach on the name of Jesus. ¹⁹But answering them Peter and John said, Whether it is right before God to listen to you rather than God, you judge. ²⁰For we are not able not to speak what we saw and heard. ²¹But having threatened them they released them, finding nothing as to how they might punish them, on account of the people — because all glorified God on the thing happening. ²²For the man on whom this miracle of healing had occurred was more than forty years of age.

²³And being let go they came to their own and reported to them what the chief priests and elders said. ²⁴And hearing they with one passion lifted voice to God and said, Master, You are the God who made the heaven and the earth and the sea, and all things in them, ²⁵who through the mouth of Your servant David said, "Why did the nations rage, and the people meditated foolish things. ²⁶The kings of the earth stood up, and the rulers were assembled on the same day against the Lord, yea, against His Christ." ²⁷For truly both Herod and Pontius Pilate, with the nations and the peoples of Israel were gathered together against Your holy child Jesus, whom You anointed, ²⁸to do whatever Your hand and Your counsel before-determined to be done. ²⁹And now, Lord, look upon their threatenings, and give to Your slaves to speak Your word with all boldness, ³⁰in the extending of Your hand for healing and miracles and wonders to happen through the name of Your holy child Jesus. ³¹And they having prayed, the place in which they were gathered was shaken, and they were all filled with the Holy Spirit, and spoke the word of God with boldness.

³²And of the multitude of those who believed, the heart and the soul were one. And no one said any of the possessions to be his own, but all things were common to them. ³³And with great power the apostles gave testimony of the resurrection of the Lord Jesus, and great grace was upon them all. ³⁴For neither was anyone needy among them, for as many as were owners of lands or houses, selling them, they bore the value of the things being sold, ³⁵and laid them at the feet of the apostles. And it was distributed to each according as any had need.

³⁶And Joses, the one surnamed Barnabas by the apostles, which being translated is Son of Consolation, a Levite, a Cypriot by race, ³⁷a field being his, selling it, he bore the proceeds and placed them at the feet of the apostles.

¹But a certain man named Ananias, with his wife Sapphira, sold a property, ²and kept back from the price, his wife also aware of it; and bringing a certain part, he put it at the feet of the apostles. ³But Peter said, Ananias, why did Satan fill your heart for you to lie to the Holy Spirit, and to secretly keep back from the price of the land? ⁴Remaining, did it not remain yours? And being sold, was it not in your authority? Why is it that this action was put into your heart? You did not lie to men, but to God!

⁵And hearing these words, Ananias fell down and expired. And great fear came on all those hearing these things. ⁶And rising up the younger ones wrapped him; and carrying out, they buried him.

⁷And about three hours afterwards, his wife also entered, not knowing that happening. ⁸And Peter answered her, Tell me if you gave over the land for so much? And she said, Yes, for so much. ⁹And Peter said to her, Why was it that it was agreed with you to tempt the Spirit of the Lord? Behold, the feet of those burying your husband at the door! Yea, they will carry you out. ¹⁰And she immediately fell at his feet, and expired. And entering, the younger ones found her dead; and carrying her out, they buried her beside her husband. ¹¹And great fear came on all the church, and on all those hearing these things.

¹²And many miracles and wonders

among the people took place through the hands of the apostles. And they were all with one passion in Solomon's Porch. ¹³And of the rest, no one dared to be joined to them, but the people greatly magnified them.

¹⁴And more believing ones were added to the Lord, multitudes of both men and of women; ¹⁵so as to carry out the sick in the streets, and to place them on cots and mattresses, that at the coming of Peter, if even his shadow might overshadow some of them. ¹⁶And also the multitude came together from the cities around Jerusalem, bringing sick ones and those being tormented by unclean spirits; who were all healed.

¹⁷And rising up, the high priest and all those with him, which is the sect of the Sadducees, were filled with zeal, ¹⁸and laid their hands on the apostles, and put them in public custody. ¹⁹But an angel of the Lord opened the doors of the prison during the night, and leading them out, he said, ²⁰Go! And standing in the temple, speak to the people all the words of this Life. ²¹And hearing, they went into the temple about dawn, and taught. But having come near, the high priest and those with him called together the sanhedrin and all the elderhood of the sons of Israel. And they sent to the jail to have them brought. ²²But having come near, the officers did not find them in the prison. And returning, they reported, ²³saying, Indeed we found the jail having been shut with all security, and the guards outside standing before the doors. But opening it, we found no one inside. ²⁴And when they heard these words, both the priest and the temple commander and the chief priests were in doubt concerning them, what this might be. ²⁵But having come, one reported to them, saying, Behold, the men whom you put in the prison are in the temple, standing and teaching the people. ²⁶Then the commander going with the officers, they brought them, not with force, for they feared the people, that they might not be stoned.

²⁷And bringing them, they stood in the sanhedrin. And the high priest asked them, ²⁸saying, Did we not command you by a command that you not teach in this name? And, behold, you have filled Jerusalem with your teaching, and intend to bring on us the blood of this man. ²⁹But answering Peter and the apostles said, It is right to obey God rather than man.

³⁰The God of our fathers raised up Jesus, whom you seized, hanging Him on a tree.

³¹This One God has exalted as a Ruler and Savior to His right hand, to give to Israel repentance and forgiveness of sins.

³²And we are His witnesses of these things, and also the Holy Spirit, whom God gave to those obeying Him.

³³But those hearing were cut, and they took counsel to do away with them. ³⁴But one standing up in the sanhedrin, a Pharisee named Gamaliel, a teacher of the Law honored by all the people, commanded the apostles to be put outside a little while. ³⁵And he said to them, Men, Israelites, take heed to yourselves what you intend to do on these men. ³⁶For before these days Theudas rose up, claiming himself to be somebody, to whom was joined a number of men, about four hundred; who was done away, and all, as many as obeyed him, were dispersed and came to nothing.

³⁷After this, Judas the Galilean rose up in the days of the Registration. And he drew considerable people after him. Yet that one perished, and all were scattered, as many as obeyed him. ³⁸And now I say to you, draw away from these men, and permit them; because if this counsel is of men, or this work, it will be destroyed. ³⁹But if it is from God, you will not be able to destroy it, lest you be found even fighters against God. ⁴⁰And they obeyed him. And having called the apostles, beating them, they commanded not to speak on the name of Jesus, and let them go. ⁴¹Then they indeed departed from the presence of the sanhedrin, rejoicing that they were deemed worthy to be dishonored on behalf of His name. ⁴²And every day they did not cease teaching and preaching the gospel of Jesus the Christ in the temple, and house to house.

¹But in those days, the disciples having multiplied, a murmuring of the Hellenists toward the Hebrews occurred, because their widows were being overlooked in the daily serving. ²And the twelve, having called near the multitude of the disciples, said, It is not pleasing to us, having left the word of God, to serve tables! ³Then brothers, be looking for men among you receiving testimony—seven men, full of the Holy Spirit and wisdom, whom we shall appoint over this need. ⁴But we shall continue steadfast in prayer and the service of the word!

⁵And the saying was pleasing before all the multitude. And they chose out Stephen, a man full of faith and the Holy Spirit; and Philip, and Prochorus, and Nicanor, and Timon, and Parmenas, and Nicolas, a proselyte from Antioch—each of whom they made stand before the apostles. And having prayed, they placed their hands on them.

⁷And the word of God was increasing, and the number of the disciples in Jerusalem was multiplying exceedingly — even a great crowd of the priests were attending to the faith!

⁸And Stephen, full of faith and power, was doing wonders and great signs among the people. ⁹But some of those of the synagogue, called Libertines, rose up, also some Cyrenians and Alexandrians, and some of those from Cilicia and Asia Minor, disputing with Stephen. ¹⁰And they had no strength to stand against the wisdom and the Spirit by which he spoke.

¹¹Then they induced some men to be saying, We have heard him speaking blasphemous words against Moses and God!

¹²And they stirred up the people and the elders and the scribes. And coming on, they together seized him, and led him into the sanhedrin. ¹³And they stood up false witnesses, who were saying, This man does not cease speaking blasphemous words against this holy place and the Law; ¹⁴for we have heard him saying that this Jesus the Nazarene will destroy this place, and will change the customs which Moses delivered over to us. ¹⁵And having looked intently at him, all those seating themselves in the sanhedrin saw his face as if it were the face of an angel.

¹And the high priest said, Tell me then if you thus hold these things? ²And he said,

Men, brothers, and fathers, listen! The God of glory appeared to our father Abraham, being in Mesopotamia before he lived in Haran; ³and said to him, Go out from your land and from your kindred, and come into a land which I will show to you. ⁴Then going out from the land of the Chaldeans, he lived in Haran. And after his father died, God moved him from there into this land in which you now live. ⁵And He did not give to him an inheritance in it, not even a foot-breadth. And He promised to give it to him for a possession, and to his seed after him, there being no child to him. ⁶And God spoke thus, that his seed would be a sojourner in another land, and they would enslave it and oppress it four hundred years. ⁷And God said, "I will judge the nation to which you will be in bondage." And, "After these things they will come out and will serve Me in this place." ⁸And He gave to him a covenant of circumcision; and so he fathered Isaac, and circumcised him on the eighth day. And Isaac fathered Jacob, and Jacob the twelve patriarchs. ⁹And being jealous of Joseph, the patriarchs sold him into Egypt. ¹⁰And God was with him, and plucked him out from all his afflictions, and gave him favor and wisdom over against Pharaoh the king of Egypt. And he appointed him governor over Egypt and all his household. ¹¹But a famine came over all the land of Egypt and Canaan, and great affliction. And our fathers did not find food. ¹²But hearing grain was in Egypt, Jacob sent our fathers out first. ¹³And at the second time, Joseph was made known to his brothers, and Joseph's race became known to Pharaoh. ¹⁴And sending, Joseph called his father Jacob, and all his kindred, seventy-five souls in all. ¹⁵And Jacob went down into Egypt, and expired, he and our fathers. ¹⁶And they were moved into Shechem, and were put in the tomb which Abraham bought for a price of silver from the sons of Hamor of Shechem. ¹⁷But as the time of the promise drew near, which God swore to Abraham, the people increased and multiplied in Egypt, ¹⁸until another king rose up, who did not know Joseph. ¹⁹Dealing slyly with our race, this one oppressed our fathers, causing their infants to be exposed so as not to be kept alive.

²⁰In which time Moses was born, and was beautiful to God; who was reared three months in his father's house. ²¹And he being exposed, Pharaoh's daughter took him up and reared him for a son to her. ²²And Moses was instructed in all the wisdom of Egyptians; and was powerful in words and in works. ²³And when a period of forty years was fulfilled to him, it arose in his heart to look upon his brothers, the sons of Israel. ²⁴And seeing one being wronged, he defended him, and he avenged the one getting the worse, striking the Egyptian. ²⁵And he thought his brothers would understand that God would give them deliverance by his hand. But they did not understand. ²⁶And on the following day he appeared to them while fighting. And he urged them to peace, saying, Men, you are brothers. Why do you wrong one another? ²⁷But the one wronging the neighbor thrust him away, saying, Who appointed you a ruler and a judge over us? ²⁸Do you not want to do away with me in the way you did away with the Egyptian yesterday? ²⁹And Moses fled at this word. And he became a temporary resident in Midian land, where he fathered two sons.

³⁰And forty years being fulfilled to him, the Angel of the Lord appeared to him in the desert of Mount Sinai, in a flame of fire in a bush. ³¹And seeing, Moses marveled at the sight. And he coming up to look, a voice of the Lord came to him: ³²"I am the God of your fathers, the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob." But becoming trembly, Moses did not dare to look. ³³And the Lord said to him, "Untie the sandal from your feet, for the place where you stand is holy ground." ³⁴"I surely saw the affliction of My people in Egypt, and I have heard their groan; and I came down to pluck them out. And now, come, I will send you to Egypt."

³⁵This Moses, whom they denied, saying, Who appointed you a ruler and a judge, this one God has sent as ruler and redeemer by the hand of the Angel who appeared to him in the Bush. ³⁶This one led them out, having worked wonders and miracles in the land of Egypt, and in the Red Sea, and forty years in the wilderness. ³⁷This is the Moses who said to the sons of Israel, "The Lord your God will raise up a Prophet to you from your brothers, One like me. You shall hear Him." ³⁸This is the one who was in the congregation in the wilderness with the Angel who spoke to him in Mount Sinai, and with our fathers, who received living words to give to us; ³⁹to whom our fathers did not desire to be subject, but thrust him away, and turned their hearts back to Egypt, ⁴⁰saying to Aaron, "Make for us gods which will go before us; for this Moses who led us out of the land of Egypt, we do not know what has happened to him." ⁴¹And they made a calf in those days, and led a sacrifice up to the idol, and made merry in the works of their hands. ⁴²But God turned and gave them over to serve the host of the heaven; as it has been written in the book of the Prophets: "Did you bring slain beasts and sacrifices to Me forty years in the wilderness, O house of Israel? ⁴³And you took up the the tent of Moloch, and the star of your god Remphan, the figures which you made in order to worship them. And I will remove you beyond Babylon." ⁴⁴The tabernacle of the testimony was among our fathers in the wilderness, as He who spoke to Moses commanded to make it according to the pattern which he had seen; ⁴⁵which also was brought in, our fathers having inherited with Joshua, in the taking of possession of the nations; whom God drove out from the face of our fathers, until the days of David; ⁴⁶who found favor before God, and asked to find a tabernacle for the God of Jacob; ⁴⁷but Solomon built Him a house. ⁴⁸But the Most High does not dwell in temples made by hand; as the prophet says, ⁴⁹"Heaven is My throne, and the earth a footstool of My feet; what house will you build Me, says the Lord; or what the place of My rest? ⁵⁰Did not My hands make all these things?"

⁵¹O stiffnecked and uncircumcised in heart and in the ears! You always fell against the Holy Spirit. As your fathers did, so you also did. ⁵²Which of the prophets did your fathers not persecute? And they killed those who before announced the coming of the Just One, of whom you now have become betrayers and murderers; ⁵³who received the Law by the disposition of angels, and did not keep it.

⁵⁴And hearing these things, they were cut to their hearts, and gnashed the teeth on him. ⁵⁵But being full of the Holy Spirit, looking intently into Heaven, he saw the glory of God, and Jesus standing at the right of God. ⁵⁶And he said, Behold, I see the heavens having been opened, and the Son of man standing at the right of God! ⁵⁷And crying out with a loud voice, they held their ears, and rushed on him with one passion. ⁵⁸And throwing him outside the city, they stoned him. And the witnesses put off their garments at the feet of a young man called Saul. ⁵⁹And they stoned Stephen, invoking and saying, Lord Jesus, receive my spirit. ⁶⁰And placing the knees, he cried out with a loud voice, Lord, do not make this sin stand to them. And saying this, he fell asleep.

¹And Saul was consenting to the doing away of him. And in that day a great persecution took place on the church which was in Jerusalem; and all were scattered throughout the regions of Judea and Samaria, except the apostles. ²And devout men together carried Stephen, and made a great lamentation over him. ³But Saul ravaged the church, entering house by house, dragging both men and women, he delivered them to prison.

⁴Then, indeed, the ones who had been scattered passed through, preaching the gospel, the word. ⁵And going down to a city of Samaria, Philip proclaimed Christ to them. ⁶And with one passion the crowds heeded that being said by Philip, when they heard and saw the many miracles which he did. ⁷For out of those having unclean spirits, many came out, crying with a loud voice. And many who had been paralyzed and lame were healed. ⁸And great joy was in that city.

⁹But a certain man named Simon had long been conjuring in the city, and amazing the nation of Samaria, claiming himself to be some great one. ¹⁰All were paying attention to him, from small to great, saying, This one is the power of God, which is great. ¹¹And they were paying attention to him, because for a long time he had amazed them with his conjuring. ¹²But when they believed Philip preaching the gospel, the things concerning the kingdom of God, and the name of Jesus Christ, they were baptized, both men and women. ¹³And Simon himself also believed, and being baptized was continuing steadfastly with Philip. And seeing miracles and mighty works happening, he was amazed.

¹⁴And the apostles in Jerusalem hearing that Samaria had received the word of God, they sent Peter and John to them, ¹⁵who going down prayed concerning them so that they may receive the Holy Spirit. ¹⁶For He had not yet fallen on any one of them, but they were only being baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus. ¹⁷Then they laid hands on them, and they received the Holy Spirit. ¹⁸But Simon having seen that the Holy Spirit is given through the laying on of the hands of the apostles, he offered them money, ¹⁹saying, Give to me also this authority that to whomever I may lay on the hands he may receive the Holy Spirit. ²⁰But Peter said to him, May your silver be with you into perdition, because you thought to get the gift of God through money. ²¹There is neither part nor lot to you in this matter, for your heart is not upright before the face of God. ²²Repent, then, from this wickedness of yours, and petition God if perhaps you will be forgiven the thought of your heart. ²³For I see you being in the gall of bitterness and a bundle of unrighteousness. ²⁴And answering Simon said, You petition to the Lord for me, so that nothing of which you have spoken may come on me.

²⁵Then having earnestly testified and speaking the word of the Lord, they returned to Jerusalem, even having announced the gospel to many villages of the Samaritans.

²⁶But an angel of the Lord spoke to Philip, saying, Rise up and go along south on the highway going down to Jerusalem to Gaza. This is desert. ²⁷And rising up he went. And, behold, an Ethiopian man, a eunuch, one in power with Candace the queen of Ethiopians; who was over all her treasure; who had come to Jerusalem to worship. ²⁸And he was returning. And sitting on his chariot he read the prophet Isaiah. ²⁹And the Spirit said to Philip, Go near and join yourself to this chariot. ³⁰And running near Philip heard him reading the prophet Isaiah, and said, Indeed, do you know what you are reading? ³¹But he said, How should I be able except someone shall guide me? And he called Philip near, to come up to sit with him. ³²And the content of the Scripture which he was reading was this: "He was led as a sheep to slaughter, and as a lamb voiceless before the one shearing it, so He does not open His mouth. ³³In His humiliation His judgment was taken away; and who will recount His generation? For His life is taken away from the earth."

³⁴And answering the eunuch said to Philip, I ask you, about whom does the prophet say this? About himself, or about some other one? ³⁵And opening his mouth, and beginning from this Scripture, Philip announced the gospel to him, of Jesus. ³⁶And as they were going along the highway they came on some water. And the eunuch said, Behold, water! What prevents me from being baptized? ³⁷And Philip said, If you believe from all the heart, it is lawful. And answering he said, I believe Jesus Christ to be the Son of God. ³⁸And he commanded the chariot to stand still. And both went down into the water, both Philip and the eunuch; and he baptized him. ³⁹But when they came up out of the water, the Spirit of the Lord caught away Philip. And the eunuch did not see him any more; for he went his way rejoicing.

¹But still breathing threats and murder toward the disciples of the Lord, coming to the high priest, ²Saul asked from him letters to Damascus, to the synagogues, so that if he found any being of the Way, both men and women, having bound them he might bring them to Jerusalem. ³But in the going it happened! He drew near to Damascus, and suddenly a light from Heaven shone around him. ⁴And falling on the earth he heard a voice saying to him, Saul, Saul! Why do you persecute Me? ⁵And he said, Sir, who are you? And the Lord said, I am Jesus, whom you persecute; it is hard for you to kick against the prods. ⁶Both trembling and being astonished he said, Lord, what do you desire me to do? And the Lord said to him, Rise up and go into the city, and it will be told you what you must do. ⁷But the men traveling with him had been standing speechless; indeed hearing the voice, but seeing no one.

⁸And Saul was lifted up from the earth, but his eyes having been opened he saw no one. And leading him by the hand they brought him to Damascus. ⁹And he was three days not seeing, and did not eat or drink. ¹⁰And there was a certain disciple in Damascus named Ananias. And the Lord said to him in a vision, Ananias! And he said, Behold, Lord, I am here. ¹¹And the Lord said to him, Rising up pass along on the street being called Straight and seek a Tarsian in the house of Judas, by name Saul. For, behold, he is praying. ¹²And he has seen in a vision a man named Ananias coming in and putting a hand on him, so that he may see again. ¹³And Ananias answered, Lord, I have heard from many about this man, how many bad things he did to Your saints in Jerusalem. ¹⁴And here he has authority from the chief priests to bind all the ones calling on Your name. ¹⁵And the Lord said to him, Go, for this one is a chosen vessel to Me, to bear My name before nations and kings and the sons of Israel. ¹⁶For I will show him how much he must suffer for the sake of My name.

¹⁷And Ananias went away and entered into the house. And putting hands on him he said, Brother Saul, the Lord has sent me, Jesus, the One who appeared to you in the highway on which you came, that you may see and be filled of the Holy Spirit. ¹⁸And instantly it was as if scales fell away from his eyes. And rising up at the thing happening, he was baptized. ¹⁹And taking food he was strengthened. And Saul was with the disciples in Damascus some days. ²⁰And at once in the synagogues he proclaimed the Christ, that this One is the Son of God. ²¹And all those hearing were amazed and said, Is this not the one destroying those who have called on this Name in Jerusalem, and he had come here for this, that binding them he might lead before the chief priests? ²²But Saul was more filled with power, and he confounded the Jews living in Damascus, proving that this One is the Christ.

²³And when many days were fulfilled the Jews plotted together to do away with him. ²⁴But their plot was known to Saul. And they carefully watched the gates both by day and by night so that they might do away with him. ²⁵But taking him by night the disciples let him down through the wall, lowering in a basket.

²⁶And Saul arriving in Jerusalem, he tried to be joined to the disciples. And all feared him, not believing that he is a disciple. ²⁷But taking hold of him Barnabas led him to the apostles, and told them how he saw the Lord in the highway, and that He spoke to him, and how in Damascus he spoke boldly in the name of Jesus. ²⁸And he was with them, going in and going out in Jerusalem, and speaking boldly in the name of the Lord Jesus. ²⁹And he spoke and disputed with the Hellenists, and they took him in hand to do away with him. ³⁰But knowing, the brothers led him down to Caesarea and sent him forth to Tarsus. ³¹Then, indeed, the churches throughout all Judea, and Galilee, and Samaria, had peace, being built up and going on in the fear of the Lord. And they were increased in the comfort of the Holy Spirit.

³²And it happened, passing through all, Peter also came down to the saints dwelling in Lydda. ³³And he found there a certain man named Aeneas who had been lying on a mattress eight years, who was paralyzed. ³⁴And Peter said to him, Aeneas! Jesus the Christ heals you; rise up and spread for yourself. And instantly he rose up. ³⁵And all those dwelling in Lydda and the Sharon Plain saw him, who then turned to the Lord.

³⁶And in Joppa was a certain disciple named Tabitha, which translated is called Gazelle. She was full of good works and of alms which she did. ³⁷And it happened in those days, becoming ill, she died. And washing her, they put her in an upper room. ³⁸And Lydda being near to Joppa, the disciples hearing that Peter is in it, they sent two men to him, begging him not to delay to come to them. ³⁹And rising up Peter went with them, and having arrived they led to the upper room. And all the widows stood by him, weeping and showing tunics and garments such as Dorcas made, while being with them. ⁴⁰And putting all out, placing the knees Peter prayed. And turning to the body he said, Tabitha, Arise! And she opened her eyes. And seeing Peter she sat up. ⁴¹And giving her a hand he raised her up. And calling the saints and the widows he presented her living. ⁴²And it became known through all Joppa. And many believed on the Lord. ⁴³And it was considerable days that he remained in Joppa with one Simon, a tanner.

¹But a certain man named Cornelius was in Caesarea, a centurion of a cohort being called Italian; ²*one* devout and fearing God, with all his household, both doing many alms to the people, and praying continually to God. ³About the ninth hour of the day, he saw plainly in a vision an angel coming to him, and saying to him, Cornelius! ⁴And he was staring at him, and becoming terrified he said, What is it, Sir? And he said to him, Your prayers and your alms went up for a memorial before God. ⁵And now send men to Joppa, and call for Simon who is surnamed Peter. ⁶This one is lodged with one Simon, a tanner, whose house is by the sea. He will tell you what you must do. ⁷And when the angel speaking to Cornelius went away, calling two of his servants, and a devout soldier of those continually waiting on him, ⁸and having explained all things to them, he sent them to Joppa.

⁹And on the morrow, those passing along on the road, and drawing near to the city, Peter went up on the roof to pray, about the sixth hour. ¹⁰And he became hungry, and wished to taste food. But as they were preparing, an ecstasy fell on him. ¹¹And he saw the heaven being opened, and a certain vessel like a great sheet coming down on him, being bound by four corners, and let down onto the earth; ¹²in which were all the four-footed animals of the earth, and the wild beasts, and the creeping things, and the birds of the heaven. ¹³And a voice came to him, Rise up, Peter, slay and eat. ¹⁴But Peter said, Not at all, Lord, because I never did eat anything common or unclean. ¹⁵And again a voice came to him a second time, What things God made clean, you do not make common. ¹⁶And this happened three times, and the vessel was taken up into the heaven again.

And on the morrow Peter went out with them. And some of the brothers from Joppa accompanied him. ²⁴And on the morrow they entered Caesarea. And Cornelius was awaiting them, having called together his relatives and his intimate friends. ²⁵And as Peter was coming in, meeting him, Cornelius fell at his feet and worshiped. ²⁶But Peter lifted him up, saying, Stand up! I myself am also a man. ²⁷And talking with him, he went in and found many having come together. ²⁸And he said to them, You know how unlawful it is for a man, a Jew, to unite with or to come near to one of another race. Yet God showed to me not to call a man common or unclean. ²⁹Therefore, I also came without complaint, being summoned. Then for what reason did you send for me? ³⁰And Cornelius said, From the fourth day until this hour I have been fasting, and the ninth hour I was praying in my house. And, behold, a man stood before me in bright clothing. ³¹And he said, Cornelius, your prayer was heard, and your alms were remembered before God. ³²Therefore, send to Joppa and call for Simon who is surnamed Peter; this one is lodged in the house of Simon, a tanner, by the sea. Having come, he will speak to you. ³³Then at once I sent to you; and you did well to come. Now, then, we are all present before God to hear all the things having been commanded you by God.

³⁴And opening his mouth, Peter said, Truly I see that God is not an acceptor of persons, ³⁵but in every nation the one fearing Him and working righteousness is acceptable to Him. ³⁶The word which He sent to the sons of Israel, preaching the gospel of peace through Jesus Christ, this One is lord of all—³⁷you know the thing that happened throughout all Judea, beginning from Galilee after the baptism that John proclaimed — ³⁸Jesus the One from Nazareth, how God anointed Him with the Holy Spirit and with power, who went through doing good, and healing all those having been oppressed by the Devil, because God was with Him. ³⁹And we are witnesses of all things which He did, both in the country of the Jews, and in Jerusalem—they did away with Him, hanging Him on a tree—⁴⁰God raised up this One the third day, and gave to Him to become visible; ⁴¹not to all the people, but to witnesses, the ones having been before hand-picked by God, to us who ate and drank with Him after His rising again from the dead. ⁴²And He commanded us to proclaim to the people, and to witness solemnly that it is He who has been marked out by God to be Judge of the living and the dead. ⁴³To this One all the prophets witness, so that through His name everyone believing into Him will receive forgiveness of sins.

⁴⁴As Peter was yet speaking these words, the Holy Spirit fell on all those hearing the word. ⁴⁵And the faithful of the circumcision were amazed, as many as came with Peter, because the gift of the Holy Spirit was poured out on the nations also. ⁴⁶For they heard them speaking in languages, and magnifying God. Then Peter answered, ⁴⁷Can anyone forbid the water that these not be baptized, who the Holy Spirit received, even as we also? ⁴⁸And he commanded them to be baptized in the name of the Lord. Then they asked him to remain some days.

CHAPTER 11

¹And the apostles and the brothers who were throughout Judea heard that the nations also received the word of God. ²And when Peter went up to Jerusalem, those of the circumcision contended with him, ³saying, You went in to uncircumcised men, and ate with them. ⁴But beginning, Peter set out to them in order, saying, ⁵I was being in the city of Joppa, praying. And in an ecstasy, I saw a vision: a certain vessel was coming down, like a huge sheet, being let down by four corners out of the heaven; and it came as far as me. ⁶Looking intently on this, I observed. And I saw the four-footed animals of the earth, and the wild beasts, and the creeping things, and the birds of the heaven. ⁷And I heard a voice saying to me, Peter, rise up, slay and eat. ⁸But I said, Not at all, Lord, because never has anything common or unclean entered into my mouth. ⁹But a voice answered me the second time out of the heaven, What God has cleansed, you do not make common. ¹⁰And this took place three times; and all things were pulled up into the heaven again.

¹¹And, behold, at once three men stood at the house in which I was, having been sent from Caesarea to me. ¹²And the Spirit said to me to go with them, not discriminating. And these six brothers also were with me, and we went into the man's house. ¹³And he told us how he saw an angel in his house, standing and saying to him, Send men to Joppa, and send for Simon who is surnamed Peter, ¹⁴who will speak words to you by which you and all your household will be saved. ¹⁵And in my beginning to speak, the Holy Spirit fell on them, even as also on us in the beginning. ¹⁶And I recalled the word of the Lord, how He said, John indeed baptized with water, but you shall be baptized in the Holy Spirit. ¹⁷Then if God gave the same gift to them as also to us, believing on the Lord Jesus Christ,—and I, who was I to be able to prevent God? ¹⁸And hearing these things, they kept silent, and glorified God, saying, Then God also has granted to the nations repentance unto life.

¹⁹Then, indeed, they who were scattered by the oppression taking place over Stephen passed through to Phoenicia and Cyprus and Antioch, speaking the word to no one except only to Jews. ²⁰But some men from them, Cypriots and Cyrenians, who had come to Antioch, spoke to the Hellenists, announcing the gospel of the Lord Jesus. ²¹And the hand of the Lord was with them, and a great number believing, they turned to the Lord.

²²And the word was heard in the ears of the church in Jerusalem concerning them. And they sent out Barnabas to go through as far as Antioch; ²³who having come, and seeing the grace of God, rejoiced. And he exhorted all with purpose of heart to abide near the Lord. ²⁴For he was a good man, and full of the Holy Spirit, and of faith. And a considerable crowd was added to the Lord. ²⁵And Barnabas went out to Tarsus to seek Saul. ²⁶And finding him, he brought him to Antioch. And it happened that many of them were gathered to them in the church a whole year. And they taught a considerable crowd. And the disciples were first called Christians at Antioch.

²⁷And in these days prophets came down from Jerusalem to Antioch. ²⁸And one of them named Agabus rising up, he signified through the Spirit that a great famine was about to be over all the habitable earth—which also happened on Claudius Caesar's time. ²⁹And according as any prospered, the disciples, each of them determined to send to those brothers living in Judea to minister to the; brothers ³⁰which they also did, sending to the elders through the hand of Barnabas and Saul.

¹And at that time Herod the king threw on the hands to oppress some of the church. ²And he did away with James the brother of John, with a sword. ³And seeing that it was pleasing to the Jews, he added also to seize Peter—and they were the days of unleavened bread — ⁴also capturing him, he put him into prison, delivering him to four sets of four soldiers to guard him; intending to bring him up to the people after the Passover. ⁵Then Peter was indeed kept in the prison; but fervent prayer was made by the church to God on his behalf. ⁶But when Herod was about to bring him out, in that night Peter was sleeping between two soldiers, being bound with two chains, also guards were keeping the prison before the door. ⁷And, behold, an angel of the Lord stood by, and a light shone in the building. And striking Peter's side, he raised him up, saying, Rise up in haste! And the chains fell off from his hands. ⁸And the angel said to him, Gird yourself, and put on your sandals. And he did so. And he said to him, Throw around your garment, and follow me. ⁹And going out, he followed him, and did not know that this happening through the angel was real; but he thought he saw a vision. ¹⁰And going through a first and a second guard, they came on the iron gate carrying one into the city, which opened to them of itself. And going out, they went on one street; and instantly the angel withdrew from him. ¹¹And having come, Peter said within himself, Now I know truly that the Lord sent out His angel and plucked me out of Herod's hand, and out of all the expectation of the people of the Jews. ¹²And considering, he came to the house of Mary the mother of John, the one being surnamed Mark, where many were gathered together, and praying. ¹³And Peter was knocking at the door of the porch, and a servant-girl named Rhoda came near to listen. ¹⁴And recognizing Peter's voice, from joy she did not open the porch, but running in she reported Peter was standing before the porch. ¹⁵But they said to her, You are raving. But she insisted, holding it to be so. And they said, It is his angel. ¹⁶But Peter kept on knocking. And opening, they saw him, and were amazed. ¹⁷And signaling to them with the hand to be silent, he told them how the Lord led him out of the prison. And he said, Report these things to James and the brothers. And going out, he went to another place.

¹⁸And day having come, there was not a little disturbance among the soldiers, saying, What, then, became of Peter? ¹⁹And searching for him, and not finding him, examining the guards, Herod commanded them to be led away. And going down from Judea to Caesarea, he stayed.

²⁰And Herod was in bitter hostility with the Tyrians and Sidonians. But with one passion they came to him. And persuading Blastus, the one over the king's bedroom, they begged peace — because their country was fed from the royal bounty.

²¹And on a set day, having been clothed in a regal garment, and sitting on the tribunal, Herod made a speech to them. ²²And the mass of people cried out, The voice of a god, and not of a man! ²³And instantly an angel of the Lord struck him, because he did not give the glory to God. And having been eaten by worms, his soul went out.

²⁴But the word of God grew and increased.

²⁵And Barnabas and Saul returned from Jerusalem, having fulfilled the service, and taking with them, the one sur-named Mark.

¹And in Antioch some among the existing church were prophets and teachers: both Barnabas and Simeon, he being called Niger; and Lucius the Cyrenian; and Manaen the foster-brother of Herod the tetrarch; and Saul. ²And while they were doing service to the Lord, and fasting, the Holy Spirit said, So, then, separate both Barnabas and Saul to Me, for the work to which I have called them. ³Then, having fasted and prayed, and placing hands on them, they let them go.

⁴Then these indeed sent out by the Holy Spirit went down to Seleucia, and from there sailed away to Cyprus. ⁵And having been in Salamis, they announced the word of God in the synagogues of the Jews. And they also had John as a helper. ⁶And passing through the island as far as Paphos, they found a certain conjurer, a false prophet, a Jew whose name was Barjesus. ⁷*He* was with the proconsul, Sergius Paulus, an intelligent man. This one having called Barnabas and Saul to him, he sought to hear the word of God. ⁸But Elymas, the conjurer—for so his name is translated — withstood them, seeking to turn the proconsul away from the faith. ⁹But Saul, who is also Paul, being filled with the Holy Spirit, and looking intently on him, ¹⁰*he* said, O son of the Devil, full of all guile and of all cunning, enemy of all righteousness, will you not stop perverting the right ways of the Lord? ¹¹And now, behold, the hand of the Lord is on you, and you will be blind, not seeing the sun until a time. And instantly a mist and darkness fell on him; and going about he sought some to lead him by the hand. ¹²Then seeing the thing happening, the proconsul believed, being astounded at the teaching of the Lord.

¹³And putting out from Paphos with those around him, Paul came to Perga of Pamphylia. And separating from them, John returned to Jerusalem. ¹⁴But going through from Perga, they came to Antioch-Pisidia, and going into the synagogue on the day of the sabbaths, they sat down. ¹⁵And after the reading of the Law, and of the Prophets, the synagogue rulers sent to them, saying, Men, brothers, if there is a word of exhortation to the people, speak.

¹⁶And rising up, and signaling with his hand, Paul said: Men, Israelites, and the ones fearing God, listen. ¹⁷The God of this people Israel chose out our fathers, and exalted the people in their stay in the land of Egypt. And with a high arm, He led them out of it. ¹⁸And as forty years time passed, He endured them in the wilderness. ¹⁹And He pulled down seven nations in Canaan land and gave their land to them as an inheritance.

²⁰And after these things, as four hundred and fifty years passed, He gave judges until Samuel the prophet. ²¹And from there they asked for a king. And God gave Saul the son of Kish to them, a man of the tribe of Benjamin, for forty years. ²²And removing him, He raised up to them David for a king, to whom He also said, witnessing, "I found David the son of Jesse to be a man according to My own heart, who will do all My will." ²³Of the seed of this one, according to promise, God raised up to Israel a Savior, Jesus; ²⁴John going before to proclaim before the face of His entrance a baptism of repentance to all the people of Israel. ²⁵And as John fulfilled the course, he said, Whom do you suppose me to be? I am not He, but, behold, He comes after me, of whom I am not worthy to loosen the sandal of His feet. ²⁶Men, brothers, sons of the race of Abraham, and the ones among you fearing God, to you the word of this salvation was sent. ²⁷For those dwelling in Jerusalem, and their rulers, not having known this One, and the voices of the prophets being read throughout every sabbath, judging Him, they fulfilled the Scriptures. ²⁸And finding not one cause of death, they asked Pilate to do away with Him. ²⁹And when they finished all the things having been written concerning Him, taking Him down from the tree, they laid Him in a tomb.

³⁰But God raised Him from the dead; ³¹who appeared for many days to those coming up with Him from Galilee to Jerusalem, who are witnesses of Him to the people. ³²And we preach the gospel to you, the promise made to the fathers, ³³that this God has fulfilled to us, their children, raising up Jesus; as also it has been written in the second Psalm, "You are My Son; today I have begotten You." ³⁴And that He raised Him from the dead, no more being about to return to corruption, so He has said, "I will give You the holy things of faithful David." ³⁵So He also said in another, "You will not give Your Holy One to see corruption." ³⁶For having served his own generation by the counsel of God, David truly fell asleep, and was added to his fathers, and saw corruption. ³⁷But He whom God raised up, this One did not see corruption. ³⁸Then let it be known to you, men, brothers, that through this One forgiveness of sin is announced to you. ³⁹And everyone believing in this One is justified from all things which you could not be justified by the Law of Moses. ⁴⁰Then watch that the thing spoken in the Prophets may not come on you: ⁴¹"Behold, you despisers, and marvel, and perish, because I work a work in your days, a work which you would in no way believe if anyone declares it to you."

⁴²But the Jews having gone out of the synagogue, the nations begged that these words be spoken to them on the next sabbath. ⁴³And the synagogue being broken up, many of the Jews and of the devout proselytes followed Paul and Barnabas; who speaking to them persuaded them to continue in the grace of God.

⁴⁴And in the coming sabbath, almost all the city was gathered to hear the word of God. ⁴⁵And the Jews seeing the crowds, they were filled with jealousy, and contradicted the things being spoken by Paul, contradicting and blaspheming. ⁴⁶But speaking boldly, Paul and Barnabas said, It was necessary for the word of God to be spoken first to you; but since you indeed thrust it away, and judge yourselves not worthy of eternal life, behold, we turn to the nations. ⁴⁷For so the Lord has commanded us, "I have set You for a Light of nations, that You be for salvation to the end of the earth."

⁴⁸And hearing, the nations rejoiced, and glorified the word of the Lord. And as many as had been appointed to eternal life believed.

⁴⁹And the word of the Lord was carried through all the country. ⁵⁰But the Jews excited the devout and honorable women, and the chief ones of the city, and raised up a persecution against Paul and Barnabas, and threw them out from their borders. ⁵¹But these shaking off the dust of their feet on them, they came into Iconium. ⁵²And the disciples were filled with joy and the Holy Spirit.

CHAPTER 14

¹And it happened in Iconium, they went in together into the synagogue of the Jews, and spoke so as for a huge multitude of both Jews and Greeks to believe. ²But the unbelieving Jews raised up and made malignant the souls of the nations against the brothers. ³Then, indeed, they stayed a considerable time, speaking boldly on the Lord, witnessing to the word of His grace, and He giving miracles and wonders to occur through their hands.

⁴And the multitude of the city was divided; and some were with the Jews, but others with the apostles. ⁵And when a rush of the nations occurred, and both the Jews and their rulers came to insult and to stone them; ⁶perceiving this, they fled to the cities of Lycaonia, Lystra and Derbe, and the surrounding country. ⁷And they were announcing the gospel there.

⁸And a certain man was sitting in Lystra, powerless in the feet, being lame from his mother's womb, who had never walked. ⁹This one heard Paul speaking, who looking intently at him, and seeing that he had faith to be cured, ¹⁰*he* said with a loud voice, Stand upright on your feet! And he leaped up and walked about ¹¹And seeing what Paul did, the crowd lifted up their voice in Lycaonian, saying, The gods have come down to us, becoming like men. ¹²And they called Barnabas, Zeus; and Paul, Hermes, because he was the leader in speaking.

¹³And the priest of Zeus being before their city, carrying bulls and garlands to the gates, he wished to sacrifice along with the crowds. ¹⁴But Paul and Barnabas, the apostles, hearing, tearing their garments, they sprang into the crowd, crying out, ¹⁵and saying, Men, why do you do these things? We also are men of like feelings to you, announcing the gospel to you to turn you from these vanities to the living God, who made the heaven and the earth and the sea, and all things in them; ¹⁶who in the generations which have passed allowed all the nations to go in their own ways, ¹⁷though indeed He did not leave Himself without witness, doing good, giving rain and fruitful seasons to us from Heaven, filling our hearts with food and gladness. ¹⁸And saying these things, they hardly stopped the crowds, that they not sacrifice to them.

¹⁹But Jews came there from Antioch and Iconium, and persuading the crowds, and stoning Paul, they dragged him outside the city, supposing him to have died. ²⁰But the disciples surrounding him, arising he entered into the city. And on the morrow he went away with Barnabas to Derbe. ²¹And having announced the gospel to that city, and having made many disciples, they returned to Lystra and Iconium and Antioch, ²²confirming the souls of the disciples, exhorting to continue in the faith, and that through many afflictions we must enter into the kingdom of God. ²³And having hand-picked elders for them in every church, having prayed with fastings, they committed them to the Lord into whom they had believed.

²⁴And passing through Pisidia, they came to Pamphylia. ²⁵And speaking the word in Perga, they came down to Attalia, ²⁶and from there they sailed to Antioch, from where they had been committed to the grace of God for the work which they fulfilled. ²⁷And having arrived, and gathering the church, they reported what things God did with them, and that He opened a door of faith to the nations. ²⁸And they remained there not a little time with the disciples.

¹And going down from Judea, some taught the brothers, saying, If you are not circumcised according to the custom of Moses, you cannot be saved. ²Then dissension and not a little disputation with them having taken place by Paul and Barnabas, they appointed Paul and Barnabas and some others of them to go up into Jerusalem to the apostles and elders concerning this question.

³Then, indeed, they, having been sent forward by the church, passed through Phoenicia and Samaria, fully narrating the conversion of the nations. And they were producing great joy among all the brothers. ⁴And having arrived in Jerusalem, they were welcomed by the church and the apostles and the elders. And they reported what things God did with them. ⁵But some of those from the sect of the Pharisees who believed rose up, saying, It is necessary to circumcise them, and to command them to keep the Law of Moses.

⁶And the apostles and the elders were assembled to see about this matter. ⁷And much disputation having occurred, rising up Peter said to them: Men, brothers, you recognize that from ancient days, God chose among us that through my mouth the nations should hear the word of the gospel, and to believe. ⁸And the heart-knowing God testified to them, giving them the Holy Spirit, even as also to us. ⁹And He made distinction in nothing between both us and them, having purified their hearts by faith.

¹⁰Now, then, why do you test God, by putting a yoke on the neck of the disciples which neither our fathers nor we had strength to bear? ¹¹But through the grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, we believe in order to be saved, according to which manner they also believed.

¹²And all the multitude kept silent, and were hearing Barnabas and Paul recounting what things God did through them among the nations, even the signs and wonders.

¹³And after they were silent, James responded, saying, Men, brothers, hear me: ¹⁴Simon recounted how even as at first God oversaw to take a people out from among the nations for His name. ¹⁵And with this agree the words of the prophets, as it has been written, ¹⁶"After these things I will return and will build again the tabernacle of David which has fallen, and I will build again the things which have been demolished, and I will set it up, ¹⁷so as the rest of men may seek the Lord, even all the nations on whom My name has been called, says the Lord, who is doing all these things." ¹⁸All His works are known to God from eternity. ¹⁹For this reason I judge not to trouble those from the Gentiles turning to God; ²⁰but to write to them to hold back from the pollutions of idols, and from fornication, and that strangled, and blood. ²¹For in every city from ancient generations Moses has those proclaiming him, having been read in the synagogues on every sabbath.

²²Then it seemed good to the apostles and the elders, with all the church, to send chosen men from them to Antioch with Paul and Barnabas: Judas having been surnamed Barsabas, and Silas, leading men among the brothers, ²³writing by their hand these things: The apostles and the elders and the brothers, to those throughout Antioch, and Syria, and Cilicia, brothers from the nations: Greeting. ²⁴Since we heard that some of us having gone out have troubled you with words, unsettling your souls, saying, Be circumcised and keep the Law; to whom we gave no command; ²⁵it seemed good to us, having become of one mind, to send chosen men to you along with our beloved Barnabas and Paul, ²⁶men who have given up their souls on behalf of the name of our Lord, Jesus Christ. ²⁷Therefore, we have sent Judas and Silas, they by word also announcing the same things. ²⁸For it seemed good to the the Holy Spirit and to us to put not one greater burden on you than these necessary things: ²⁹To hold back from idol sacrifices, and blood, and that strangled, and from fornication; from which continually keeping yourselves, you will do well. Be prospered.

³⁰Then they indeed being let go, they went to Antioch. And gathering the multitude, they delivered the letter. ³¹And reading it, they rejoiced at the comfort. ³²And Judas and Silas, themselves also being prophets, exhorted the brothers through much speech, and confirmed them. ³³And continuing for a time, they were let go with peace from the brothers to the apostles.

³⁴But it seemed good to Silas to remain. ³⁵And Paul and Barnabas stayed in Antioch, teaching and announcing the gospel, the word of the Lord, with many others also.

³⁶And after some days Paul said to Barnabas, Indeed, having turned back, let us look after our brothers throughout every city in which we announced the word of the Lord; how they are holding it. ³⁷But Barnabas purposed to take John with them, the one having been called Mark. ³⁸But Paul thought it well not to take that one with them, he having withdrawn from them from Pamphylia, and not going with them to the work. ³⁹Then there was sharp feeling, so as to separate them from each other. And taking Mark, Barnabas sailed away to Cyprus. ⁴⁰But having chosen Silas, Paul went out, being commended to the grace of God by the brothers ⁴¹And he went through Syria and Cilicia, making the churches strong.

¹And he arrived in Derbe and Lystra. And behold, a certain disciple named Timothy was there, the son of a certain believing Jewish woman—but his father was a Greek. ²*This one* was being testified of by the brothers in Lystra and Iconium. ³Paul desired this one to go forth with him, and taking him he circumcised him, because of the Jews being in those places—for they all knew his father, that he was a Greek. ⁴And as they went through the cities, they delivered to them the need to keep the decrees that had been determined by the apostles and the elders in Jerusalem. ⁵Then indeed the churches were being made stronger in the faith, and increased in number day by day.

¹¹Then having set sail from Troas, we ran a straight course into Samothrace, and on the morrow into Neapolis; ¹²and from there into Philippi, which is the first city of that part of Macedonia, a colony. And we were in this city, staying some days. ¹³And on the day of the sabbaths, we went outside the city beside a river, where it was customary for prayer to be made. And sitting down, we spoke to the women who came together there. ¹⁴And a certain woman named Lydia, a seller of purple of the city of Thyatira, one reverencing God, listened, whose heart the Lord opened thoroughly to pay attention to the things being spoken by Paul. ¹⁵And as she and her household were baptized, she entreated Paul, saying, If you have judged me to be believing in the Lord, entering into my house, remain a while. And she strongly urged us.

¹⁶And it happened, as we went into a place of prayer, a certain slavegirl having a Pythonic spirit met us, whose divining brought much gain to her lords. ¹⁷Following after Paul and us, she cried out, saying, These men are slaves of the Most High God, who are announcing to us a way of salvation! ¹⁸And she did this over many days. But becoming distressed, and turning to the demonic spirit, Paul said, In the name of Jesus Christ I command you to come out from her! And it came out in that same hour. ¹⁹And seeing that the hope of their gain went out, having seized Paul and Silas, her lords dragged them to the market before the rulers. ²⁰And bringing them near to the magistrates, they said, These men are very much troubling our city, being Jews, ²¹and announce customs which it is not lawful for us to receive, nor to do, being Romans. ²²And the crowd rose up together against them. And tearing off their clothes, the magistrates commanded to flog them. ²³And laying on them many stripes, they threw them into prison, charging the jailer to keep them securely; ²⁴who, receiving such a charge, threw them into the inner prison, and locked their feet in the stocks.

²⁵And having prayed, toward midnight Paul and Silas praised God in a hymn. And the prisoners listened to them. ²⁶And suddenly there was a great earthquake, so that the foundations of the jail were shaken. And immediately all the doors were opened, and all of the bonds were loosened. ²⁷And having been awakened, and seeing that the doors of the prison had been opened, having drawn a sword, the jailer was about to do away with himself, supposing the prisoners to have escaped. ²⁸But Paul called out with a loud voice, saying, Do no harm to yourself! For we are all here. ²⁹And asking for lights, he rushed in. And becoming trembly, he fell before Paul and Silas. ³⁰And leading them outside, he said, Sirs, what must I do that I may be saved? ³¹And they said, Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and you will be saved, you and your household. ³²And they spoke the word of the Lord to him, and to all those in his household. ³³And taking them in that hour of the night, he washed from their stripes. And he and all those belonging to him were baptized at once. ³⁴And bringing them up to the house, he set a table before them, and exulted with all his household, believing God.

³⁵And day having come, the magistrates sent the floggers, saying, Let those men go. ³⁶And the jailer announced these words to Paul, The magistrates have sent that you be let go. Now, then, going out, proceed in peace. ³⁷But Paul said to them, Having beaten us publicly, being Romans and uncondemned men, they threw us into prison. And now do they throw us out secretly? No, indeed! But coming themselves, let them bring us out. ³⁸And the floggers reported these words to the magistrates. And hearing that they were Romans, they were afraid. ³⁹And coming, they begged them. And bringing them out, they asked them to go out of the city. ⁴⁰And going out from the prison, they went into the house of Lydia. And seeing the brothers, they exhorted them, and went out.

CHAPTER 17

¹And traveling through Amphipolis and Apollonia, they came to Thessalonica, where a synagogue of the Jews was. ²And according to Paul's custom, he went in to them and reasoned with them from the Scriptures on three sabbaths, ³opening and setting forth that the Christ must have suffered, and to have risen from the dead; and that this is the Christ, Jesus, whom I announce to you. ⁴And some of them were persuaded, and joined themselves to Paul and Silas, both a great multitude of the worshipping Greeks, and not a few of the leading women. ⁵But becoming jealous, and having taken aside some wicked men of the market-loafers, and gathering a crowd, the disobeying Jews set the city into turmoil. And coming on the house of Jason, they sought to bring them on to the mob. ⁶But not finding them, they dragged Jason and some brothers before the city judges, crying, Those turning the habitable world upside down have come here, too; ⁷whom Jason has received. And these all act contrary to the decrees of Caesar, saying there is another king, Jesus. ⁸And hearing these things, they troubled the crowd and the city judges. ⁹And taking security from Jason and the rest, they let them go.

¹⁰But the brothers at once sent both Paul and Silas to Berea during the night; who having arrived went into the synagogue of the Jews. ¹¹And these were more noble than those in Thessalonica; for they received the word with all readiness, daily examining the Scriptures if these things are so. ¹²Then indeed many from among them believed, and not a few of the honorable Greek women and men. ¹³But when the Jews from Thessalonica knew that the word of God was also announced in Berea by Paul, they came there also, shaking up the crowd. ¹⁴And immediately, then, the brothers sent away Paul, to go as toward the sea. But both Silas and Timothy remained there. ¹⁵But those conducting Paul brought him as far as Athens. And receiving a command to Silas and Timothy, that they come to him quickly, they departed.

¹⁶But awaiting them in Athens, Paul's spirit was pained within him, seeing the city full of images. ¹⁷Then, indeed, he addressed the Jews in the synagogue, and those worshipping; also in the market every day, to those happening to be there. ¹⁸And some of the Epicureans and of the Stoics, philosophers, fell in with him. And some said, What may this chatterer wish to say? And these others, He seems to be an announcer of foreign demons—because he announced Jesus and the resurrection to them. ¹⁹And taking hold of him, they led him to the Areopagus, saying, Are we able to know what this new teaching being spoken by you is? ²⁰For you bring startling things to our ears. We are minded, then, to know what these things wish to be. ²¹And all Athenians and the strangers living there have leisure for nothing else than to say and to hear newer things.

²²And standing in the middle of the Areopagus, Paul said, Men, Athenians, I see how you in everything are fearful of gods; ²³for passing through and looking up at the objects of your worship, I also found an altar on which had been written, TO AN UNKNOWN GOD. Not knowing, then, whom you worship, I make Him known to you.

²⁴The God who made the world and all things in it, this One being Lord of Heaven and of earth does not dwell in handmade temples, ²⁵nor is served by hands of men, as having need of anything. For He is giving life and breath and all things to all. ²⁶And He made every nation of men of one blood, to live on all the face of the earth, ordaining fore-appointed seasons and boundaries of their dwelling, ²⁷to seek the Lord, if perhaps they might feel after Him and might find Him, though indeed He not being far from each one of us. ²⁸For in Him we live and move and are; as also some of the poets among you have said, For we are also His offspring. ²⁹Then being offspring of God, we ought not to suppose that the Godhead is like gold or silver or stone, engraved by art and the imagination of man. ³⁰Truly, then, God overlooking the times of ignorance, now strictly charges all men everywhere to repent, ³¹because He set a day in which He is going to judge the habitable world in righteousness, by a Man whom He appointed; having given proof to all by raising Him from the dead. ³²And hearing of a resurrection of the dead, some indeed ridiculed, and said, We will hear you again concerning this. ³³And so Paul went out from their midst. ³⁴But some men believed, joining themselves to him, among whom also were both Dionysius the Areopagite and a woman named Damaris, and others with them.

⁵And when both Silas and Timothy came down from Macedonia, Paul was pressed by the Spirit, earnestly testifying to the Jews that Jesus is the Christ. ⁶But they having resisted, and blaspheming, having shaken his garments, he said to them, Your blood be on your head. I am pure from it; from now on I will go to the nations. ⁷And moving from there, he went into the house of one named Justus, one worshiping God, whose house was next door to the synagogue. ⁸And Crispus, the synagogue ruler, believed the Lord along with all his household. And hearing, many of the Corinthians believed and were baptized. ⁹And the Lord said to Paul through a vision in the night, Do not fear, but speak, and do not keep silence; ¹⁰because I am with you, and no one shall set on you to oppress you; because there is much people to Me in this city. ¹¹And he remained a year and six months teaching the word of God among them.

¹²But Gallio being proconsul of Achaia, the Jews rushed against Paul with one passion, and led him to the tribunal, ¹³saying, This one persuades men to worship God contrary to the Law. ¹⁴But Paul being about to open his mouth, Gallio said to the Jews, If, indeed, then, it was some wrong or wicked criminality, O Jews, according to reason I would endure you. ¹⁵But if it is a question about a word, and names, and the law according to you, you will see to it yourselves; for I do not wish to be a judge of these things. ¹⁶And he drove them from the tribunal. ¹⁷And all the Greeks having seized Sosthenes the ruler of the synagogue, they beat him before the tribunal. And not one of these things mattered to Gallio.

¹⁸And having remained many days more, having taken leave of the brothers, Paul sailed to Syria—and Priscilla and Aquila were with him—having shaved his head in Cenchrea, for he had a vow. ¹⁹And he came to Ephesus, and he left those there. But he going into the synagogue, he reasoned with the Jews. ²⁰And they asking him to remain over a longer time with them, he did not agree; ²¹but took leave of them, saying, I must by all means keep the coming feast at Jerusalem; but I will come again to you, God willing. And he sailed from Ephesus. ²²And landing at Caesarea, having gone up and greeted the church, he went down to Antioch. ²³And spending some time, he went out, in order passing through the Galatian and Phrygian country, making strong all the disciples.

²⁴But a certain Jew named Apollos, an Alexandrian by birth, an eloquent man, came to Ephesus, being powerful in the Scriptures. ²⁵This one was taught by mouth in the way of the Lord; and being fervent in spirit, he spoke and taught accurately the things about the Lord, having understood only the baptism of John. ²⁶And this one began to speak boldly in the synagogue. And hearing him Priscilla and Aquila took him and more accurately expounded the way of God to him. ²⁷And he having intended to go through into Achaia, having been encouraged the brothers wrote to the disciples to welcome him; who, having arrived much helped those who were believing through grace. ²⁸For he powerfully confuted the Jews publicly, proving through the Scriptures Jesus to be the Christ.

¹And it happened, in the time Apollos was in Corinth, Paul was passing through the higher parts to come to Ephesus. And finding some disciples, ²he said to them, Believing, did you receive the Holy Spirit? And they said to him, We did not even hear whether the Holy Spirit is. ³And he said to them, Then to what were you baptized? And they said, To the baptism of John. ⁴And Paul said, John indeed baptized with a baptism of repentance, saying to the people that they should believe into the One coming after him; that is, into the Christ, Jesus. ⁵And hearing, they were baptized into the name of the Lord Jesus. ⁶And Paul laying hands on them, the Holy Spirit came on them; and they spoke in languages and prophesied. ⁷And all the men were about twelve.

⁸And going into the synagogue, he spoke boldly over three months, having reasoned with them, and persuading concerning the things of the kingdom of God. ⁹But when some were hardened, and did not obey, speaking evil of the Way before the multitude, departing from them He separated the disciples, conversing day by day in the school of a certain

Tyrannus. ¹⁰And this happened over two years, so as all those living in Asia heard the word of the Lord Jesus, both Jews and Greeks. ¹¹And God did uncommon works of power through the hands of Paul, ¹²so as even handkerchiefs or aprons from his skin to be brought onto those sick, and the diseases to be released from them; and the evil spirits to go out from them.

¹³But certain from the strolling Jews, exorcists, undertook to name the name of the Lord Jesus over those having evil spirits, saying, We exorcise you by Jesus whom Paul preaches. ¹⁴And there were seven sons of Sceva, a Jewish chief priest, doing this. ¹⁵But answering the evil spirit said, I know Jesus, and I comprehend Paul, but who are you? ¹⁶And the man in whom was the evil spirit leaped on them; and overcoming them, he was strong against them, so that they fled out of the house naked, and having been wounded.

¹⁷And this became known to all, both Jews and Greeks, those living in Ephesus. And fear fell on them all, and the name of the Lord Jesus was magnified. ¹⁸And many of those who had believed came confessing, and declaring their deeds. ¹⁹And many of the ones practicing the curious arts, bringing together the books, burned them before all. And they counted the prices of them, and found it to be five ten thousands of silver. ²⁰So with might, the word of the Lord increased and was strong.

²¹And when these things were fulfilled, passing through Macedonia and Achaia, Paul purposed in the Spirit to go to Jerusalem, saying, After I have come there, I must also see Rome. ²²And sending into Macedonia two who ministered to him, Timothy and Erastus, he stayed a time in Asia.

²³And about that time there was no little disturbance about the Way. ²⁴For a certain silversmith named Demetrius was making silver shrines of Artemis, providing no little trade for the craftsmen. ²⁵And assembling the workmen about such things, he said, Men, you understand that from this trade is our wealth. ²⁶And you see and hear that not only Ephesus, but almost all of Asia persuading this Paul perverted a huge crowd, saying that those being made by hands are not gods. ²⁷And not only is this dangerous to us, lest our part come to be in contempt, but also the temple of the great goddess Artemis will be counted nothing, and her majesty is also about to be destroyed, whom all Asia and the world worships.

²⁸And hearing, and having become full of anger, they cried out, saying, Great is Artemis of the Ephesians! ²⁹And all the city was filled with confusion. And they rushed with one passion into the theater, keeping a firm grip on Gaius and Aristarchus, Macedonians, traveling companions of Paul. ³⁰And Paul intending to go in to the mob, the disciples did not allow him. ³¹And also some of the Asiarchs, being his friends, sending to him begged him not to give himself into the theater. ³²Then others indeed cried out a different thing, for the assembly was confused; and the majority did not know on what account they came together.

³³But they dragged Alexander forward out of the crowd, the Jews pushing him in front. And waving his hand, Alexander desired to defend himself to the mob. ³⁴But knowing that he is a Jew, one voice was from all, as they were crying out over two hours, Great is Artemis of the Ephesians! ³⁵And quieting the crowd, the town clerk said, Men, Ephesians, for what man is there who does not know the city of the Ephesians to be temple-keepers of the great goddess Artemis, and of That Fallen From the Heaven? ³⁶Then these things being undeniable, it is necessary for you having been calmed to be so, and to do nothing rash. ³⁷For you brought these men, neither temple-robbers nor blaspheming your goddess. ³⁸If then, indeed, Demetrius and those craftsmen with him have a matter against anyone, courts are being held, and there are proconsuls. Let them accuse one another. ³⁹But if you seek concerning other things, it will be settled in a lawful assembly. ⁴⁰For we are in danger to be accused of insurrection concerning today; there being no cause about which we will be able to give account of this crowding together. ⁴¹And saying these things, he dismissed the assembly.

¹And after the ceasing of the tumult, having called the disciples, and having greeted them, Paul went away to go into Macedonia. ²And passing through those parts, and exhorting them with much speech, he came into Greece. ³And spending three months there, a plot by the Jews being against him, being about to sail into Syria, he was of a mind to return through Macedonia. ⁴And Sopater, a Berean; and Aristarchus and Secundus of the Thessalonians; and Gaius of Derbe; and Timothy; and Tychicus and Trophimus of Asia accompanied him as far as Asia. ⁵Going forward, these awaited us in Troas. ⁶But we sailed along after the days of unleavened bread from Philippi, and came to them at Troas in five days, where we stayed seven days.

⁷And on the first of the week, the disciples having been assembled to break bread, being about to depart on the morrow, Paul reasoned to them. And he continued his speech until midnight. ⁸And many lamps were in the upper room where they were gathered. ⁹And a certain young man named Eutychus was sitting on the window sill, being overcome by deep sleep, Paul reasoning for a longer time, being overcome by the sleep, he fell from the third floor down, and was taken up dead. ¹⁰But going down Paul fell on him, and embracing him, he said, Do not be terrified; for his soul is in him. ¹¹And going up, and breaking bread, and tasting, and conversing over a long time, until daybreak, he went out thus. ¹²And they brought the boy alive, and were comforted not a little.

¹³But going before onto the ship, we set sail for Assos, being about to take Paul in there; for so it had been arranged, he being about to go on foot. ¹⁴And when he met us in Assos, taking him up we came to Mitylene. ¹⁵And sailing away from there, on the next day we arrived off Chios, and on the next we crossed to Samos. And remaining at Trogyllium, the next day we came to Miletus. ¹⁶For Paul had decided to sail by Ephesus, so as it might not happen to him to spend time in Asia; for he hastened if it were possible for him to be in Jerusalem on the day of Pentecost.

¹⁷And sending to Ephesus from Miletus, he called for the elders of the church.

¹⁸And when they came to him, he said to them:

You understand, from the first day on which I set foot in Asia, how I was with you all the time, ¹⁹serving the Lord with all humility, and many tears and trials happening to me by the plots of the Jews; ²⁰as I kept nothing back of what is profitable, so as not to tell you; and to teach you publicly, and from house to house, ²¹earnestly testifying both to Jews and to Greeks repentance toward God and faith toward our Lord Jesus Christ. ²²And now, behold, I being bound by the Spirit go to Jerusalem, not knowing the things going to meet me in it, ²³but that the Holy Spirit testifies city by city saying that bonds and afflictions await me. ²⁴But I make no account, nor do I hold my soul precious to myself, so that I might finish my course with joy, and the ministry which I received from the Lord Jesus Christ, fully to testify the gospel of the grace of God. ²⁵And now, behold, I know that you all will see my face no more, among whom I went about proclaiming the kingdom of God. ²⁶Because of this I testify to you on this day that I am pure from the blood of all. ²⁷For I did not keep back from declaring to you all the counsel of God. ²⁸Then take heed to yourselves and to all the flock, in which the Holy Spirit placed you as overseers, to shepherd the church of God, which He purchased through His own blood. ²⁹For I know this, that after my departure grievous wolves will come in among you, not sparing the flock; ³⁰and from among your own selves will rise up men speaking perverted things, in order to draw away the disciples after themselves.

³¹Because of this watch, remembering that I did not cease admonishing each one with tears night and day for three years.

³²And now, brothers, I commend you to God and to the word of His grace, which is able to build up and to give you inheritance among all those having been sanctified. ³³I have desired the silver, or gold, or clothing of no one. ³⁴But you yourselves know that these hands ministered to my needs, and to those who were with me. ³⁵I showed you all things, that working in this way we ought to help those being weak, and to remember the words of the Lord Jesus, that He said, It is more blessed to give than to receive. ³⁶And saying these things, placing his knees, he prayed with them all. ³⁷And there was much weeping of all, and falling on the neck of Paul, they ardently kissed him, ³⁸most of all grieving for the word which he said, that they were going to see his face no more. And they went with him to the ship.

¹And when it was time to sail, we having been torn away from them, running direct we came to Coos; and on the next day to Rhodes, and from there to Patara. ²And finding a ship crossing over to Phoenice, going on board we set sail, and sighting Cyprus, and leaving it on the left, we sailed to Syria, and came down to Tyre; for the ship was unloading the cargo there. ⁴And finding disciples, we remained there seven days; who told Paul through the Spirit not to go up to Jerusalem. ⁵But when it was time for us to complete the days, going out we traveled. And they, with all the women and children went with us as far as outside the city. And placing the knees on the shore, we prayed. ⁶And giving parting greetings to one another, we went up into the ship; and those went back to their own.

⁷And completing the voyage from Tyre, we arrived at Ptolemais. And having greeted the brothers, we remained one day with them. ⁸And on the morrow, those around him going out, Paul came to Caesarea. And going into the house of Philip the evangelist, he being of the Seven, we stayed with him. ⁹And there were four virgin daughters to this one, who prophesied. ¹⁰And we remaining more days, a certain prophet from Judea named Agabus came down. ¹¹And coming to us, and taking Paul's girdle, and binding his hands and feet, he said, The Holy Spirit says these things: In Jerusalem the Jews will bind in this way the man whose girdle this is, and will deliver him up into the hands of the Gentiles. ¹²And when we heard these things, both we and those of the place begged him not to go up to Jerusalem. ¹³But Paul answered, What are you doing, weeping and breaking my heart? For I not only am ready to be bound, but also to die at Jerusalem for the name of the Lord Jesus. ¹⁴And he not being persuaded, we were silent, saying, The will of the Lord be done.

¹⁵And after these days, having made ready, we went up to Jerusalem. ¹⁶And also some of the disciples from Caesarea went with us, bringing Mnason, a certain Cypriot, an ancient disciple, with whom we might lodge. ¹⁷And we being in Jerusalem, the brothers joyfully received us. ¹⁸And on the next day, Paul went in with us to James. And all the elders came. ¹⁹And having greeted them, he related one by one what things God had worked among the nations through his ministry. ²⁰And hearing, they glorified the Lord, and said to him, You see, brother, how many myriads there are of Jews that have believed, and all are zealous ones of the Law. ²¹And they were informed about you, that you teach falling away from Moses, telling all the Jews throughout the nations not to circumcise their children, nor to walk in the customs. ²²What then is it? At all events, a multitude must come together; for they will hear that you have come. ²³Then do this, what we say to you: There are four men who have a vow on themselves; ²⁴taking these, be purified with them, and be at expense on them, that they may shave the head. And all shall know that all what they have been told about you is nothing, but you yourself walk orderly, keeping the Law. ²⁵And as to the believing nations, we joined in writing, judging them to observe no such thing, except to keep themselves from both idol sacrifice, and the blood, and a thing strangled, and from fornication. ²⁶Then taking the men on the next day, being purified with them, Paul went into the temple, declaring the fulfillment of the days of the purification, until the offering should be offered for each one of them.

²⁷But when the seven days were about to be completed, having seen him in the temple, the Jews from Asia stirred up all the crowd, and laid hands on him, ²⁸crying out, Men, Israelites, help! This is the man who teaches all everywhere against the people and the Law and this place. And even more, he also brought Greeks into the temple and has defiled this holy place. ²⁹For they had before seen Trophimus the Ephesian in the city with him, whom they supposed that Paul brought into the temple. ³⁰And the whole city was moved, and there was a running together of people. And having laid hold of Paul, they drew him outside of the temple, and at once the doors were shut. ³¹But as they were seeking to kill him, a report came up to the chiliarch of the cohort, that all Jerusalem is in a tumult. ³²*He* at once ran down to them, taking soldiers and centurions. And seeing the chiliarch and the soldiers, they stopped beating Paul. ³³Then going near, the chiliarch laid hold of him, and commanded him to be bound with two chains. And he asked who he might be, and what he is doing. ³⁴But others cried something else in the crowd, and not being able to know the certainty because of the uproar, he commanded him brought into the fortress.

³⁵But when he came on the stairs, it happened he was borne by the soldiers because of the violence of the crowd. ³⁶For the multitude of the people followed, crying out, Take him away! ³⁷But being about to be brought into the fortress, Paul said to the chiliarch, Is it lawful for me to say a thing to you? And he said, Do you know to speak in Greek? ³⁸Then are you not the Egyptian who before these days caused a riot, and led four thousand men of the assassins out into the desert? ³⁹But Paul said, Indeed I am a man, a Jew of Tarsus, of Cilicia, a citizen of no mean city. And I beg you, allow me to speak to the people. ⁴⁰And he allowing him, standing on the stairs Paul signaled with his hand to the people. And much silence taking place, he spoke in the Hebrew dialect, saying,

¹Men, brothers, and fathers, hear my defense now to you.

²And hearing that he spoke in the Hebrew dialect to them, they showed more quietness. And he said:

³Indeed I am a man, a Jew having been born in Tarsus of Cilicia, but having been brought up in this city at the feet of Gamaliel; having been trained according to the exactness of the ancestral law, being a zealous one of God, even as you all are today. ⁴I persecuted this Way as far as death, binding and delivering up both men and women to prisons; ⁵as also the high priest and all the elderhood witnesses to me. And having received letters from them to the brothers, I traveled into Damascus even to lead those to Jerusalem being bound there in order that they might be punished. ⁶And it happened to me, traveling and drawing near to Damascus: suddenly, about midday, a great light out of the heaven shone around me. ⁷And I fell to the ground, and heard a voice saying to me, Saul, Saul, why do you persecute Me? ⁸And I answered, Who are you, Sir? And He said to me, I am Jesus the Nazarene whom you persecute. ⁹But those being with me indeed saw the light, and were alarmed, but did not hear His voice speaking to me. ¹⁰And I said, What shall I do, Lord? And the Lord said to me, Rising up, go into Damascus, and there you will be told about all things which are appointed to you to do. ¹¹And as I did not see, from the glory of that light, being led by the hand by those being with me, I went into Damascus.

¹²And a certain Ananias, a devout man according to the Law, testified to by all the Jews living there, ¹³coming to me and standing by, he said to me, Brother Saul, look up. And in the same hour I looked up on him. ¹⁴And he said, The God of our fathers appointed you to know His will, and to see the Just One, and to hear a voice out of His mouth; ¹⁵for you shall be a witness for Him to all men, of what you have seen and heard. ¹⁶And now what do you intend? Rising up, be baptized, and wash away your sins, calling on the name of the Lord. ¹⁷And it happened to me, I returning to Jerusalem and praying in the temple: I became in an ecstasy, ¹⁸and I saw Him saying to me, Hurry and go out quickly from Jerusalem, because they will not receive your testimony concerning Me. ¹⁹And I said, Lord, they understand that I was imprisoning and beating the ones believing on You throughout the synagogues. ²⁰And when the blood of Your witness Stephen was poured out, I myself also was standing by and consenting to his execution, and holding the garments of those killing him. ²¹And He said to me, Go, for I will send you to the nations afar off.

²²And they heard him until this word, and lifted up their voice, saying, Take such a one from the earth, for it is not fitting that he should live! ²³And they shouting, and tearing the garments, and throwing dust into the air, ²⁴the chiliarch ordered to bring him into the fortress, saying for him to be examined with scourges, that he may know for what crime they cried out so against him.

²⁵But as they stretched him with the thongs, Paul said to the centurion standing by, Is it lawful for you to flog a man, even a Roman not found guilty? ²⁶And hearing, coming near the centurion reported to the chiliarch, saying, Watch what you are about to do, for this man is a Roman. ²⁷And coming up, the chiliarch said to him, Tell me, are you a Roman? And he said, Yes. ²⁸And the chiliarch answered, I bought this citizenship with a great sum. And Paul said, But I even was born free. ²⁹Then at once those being about to examine him stood away from him. And the chiliarch also feared, fully knowing that he was a Roman, and that he had bound him.

³⁰And on the morrow, desiring to know the certainty as to why he was accused by the Jews, he freed him from the bonds. And he commanded the chief priests and all their sanhedrin to come. And bringing Paul down, he set him among them.

¹And looking on the sanhedrin, Paul said, Men, brothers, I in all good conscience have conducted myself toward God to this day. ²But Ananias the high priest ordered those standing by him to strike his mouth. ³Then Paul said to him, God is going to strike you, whitened wall! And do you sit judging me according to the Law, and contrary to the Law command me to be stricken? ⁴And those standing by said, Do you revile the high priest of God? ⁵And Paul said, Brothers, I did not know that he is high priest; for it has been written, "You shall not speak evil of a ruler of your people." ⁶But knowing that the one part consisted of Sadducees, and the other of Pharisees, Paul cried out in the sanhedrin, Men, brothers, I am a Pharisee, a son of Pharisees; I am being judged concerning hope and resurrection of the dead! ⁷And he having spoken this, there was a discord between the Pharisees and the Sadducees; and the multitude was divided. ⁸For the Sadducees indeed say there is no resurrection, nor angel, nor spirit. But Pharisees confess both. ⁹And there was a great cry. And the scribes of the part of the Pharisees rising up, they were contending, saying, We find nothing evil in this man. And, If a spirit spoke to him, or an angel, let us not fight against God. ¹⁰And discord having arisen, fearing lest Paul should be torn by them, the chiliarch commanded the soldiery to go down to snatch him out of their midst, and to bring him into the fortress.

¹¹And coming to him in the following night the Lord said, Be cheered, Paul, for as you fully testified the things concerning Me in Jerusalem, so you must also testify at Rome.

¹²And day having come about, some of the Jews making a conspiracy cursed themselves, saying neither to eat nor to drink until they should kill Paul. ¹³And those making this plot were more than forty; ¹⁴who coming near to the chief priests and to the elders said, With a curse we have cursed ourselves to taste of nothing until we may kill Paul. ¹⁵Now, then, you with the sanhedrin inform the chiliarch, so that tomorrow he may bring him down to you, as intending more accurately to find out about him. And before his drawing near, we are ready to kill him.

¹⁶But the son of Paul's sister hearing of the ambush, having come near and entering into the fortress, reported to Paul.

¹⁷And calling near one of the centurions,

Paul said, Bring this young man to the chiliarch, for he has something to report to him. ¹⁸Then indeed taking him, he brought him to the chiliarch, and said, Paul the prisoner having called me near asked me to bring this young man to you, having a thing to tell you. ¹⁹And laying hold of his hand, and drawing aside privately, the chiliarch asked, What is it that you have to report to me? ²⁰And he said, The Jews agreed to ask you that tomorrow you bring down Paul into the sanhedrin, as being about to inquire more accurately concerning him. ²¹Therefore, you must not be not persuaded by them, for more than forty men of them lie in wait for him, who put themselves under a curse neither to eat nor to drink until they kill him. And now they are ready, awaiting the promise from you. ²²Then the chiliarch sent away the young man, charging him, Tell no one that you reported these things to me.

²³And having called near a certain two of the centurions, he said, Get two hundred soldiers ready, so that they may go to Caesarea, and seventy horsemen, and two hundred spearmen, from the third hour of the night; ²⁴and animals to stand by, so that setting Paul on, they may bring him to Felix the governor. ²⁵For he was writing a letter, having this form:

²⁶Claudius Lysias to the most excellent governor, Felix, greeting: ²⁷This man being seized by the Jews, and being about to be killed by them, coming on with the soldiers I rescued him, learning that he was a Roman. ²⁸And being minded to know the charge for which they were accusing him, I brought him down to their sanhedrin; ²⁹I found him to be accused concerning questions of their law, and having no charge worthy of death or of bonds. ³⁰And it being revealed to me that a plot against the man was about to be executed by the Jews, I at once sent to you, also commanding the accusers to say the things against him before you. Farewell.

³¹Then indeed taking up Paul according to the thing appointed to them, the soldiers brought him through the night to Antipatris. ³²And on the morrow, allowing the horsemen to go with him, they returned to the fortress. ³³Entering into Caesarea, and giving the letter to the governor, they also presented Paul to him. ³⁴And reading it, the governor asked from what province he is. And having learned that he was from Cilicia, ³⁵he said, I will hear you fully when your accusers arrive. And he commanded him to be kept in the praetorium of Herod.

¹And after five days Ananias the high priest came down with the elders, and a certain orator, Tertullus, who made a statement to the governor against Paul. ²And Tertullus being called, he began to accuse, saying, ³Obtaining much peace through you, and excellent accomplishments having come to this nation due to your forethought, in everything and everywhere we accept with all thankfulness, most excellent Felix. ⁴But that I not hinder you more, I beseech you to hear us briefly in your fairness. ⁵For finding this man pestilent, and moving insurrection among all the Jews throughout the world, and a ringleader of the Nazarene sect; ⁶who also attempted to profane the temple; whom we also seized and wished to judge according to our law; ⁷but Lysias the chiliarch coming up with much force took him away out of our hands, commanding his accusers to come to you; ⁸from whom you will be able yourself to know, having examined as to all these things of which we accuse him. ⁹And the Jews also joined in, alleging these things to be so. ¹⁰But the governor signaling to him to speak, Paul answered:

Understanding you as being a judge to this nation many years, I cheerfully defend myself as to the things concerning myself. ¹¹You are able to know that not more than twelve days are to me since I went worshiping in Jerusalem; ¹²and neither did they find me reasoning with anyone in the temple, or making a gathering of a crowd; neither in the synagogues, nor throughout the city; ¹³nor are they able to prove that concerning which they now accuse me. ¹⁴But I confess this to you, that according to the Way, which they say is a sect, so I worship the ancestral God, believing all things according to that having been written in the Law and the Prophets, ¹⁵having hope toward God, which these themselves also admit, of a resurrection being about to be of the dead, both of just and unjust ones. ¹⁶And in this I exercise myself to have always a blameless conscience toward God and men. ¹⁷And after many years I arrived doing alms and offerings to my nation, ¹⁸among which they found me purified in the temple, not with a crowd, nor with tumult, but by some Jews from Asia, ¹⁹who ought to be present before you and to accuse, if they have anything against me. ²⁰Or these themselves say if they found anything unjust in me, I standing before the sanhedrin, ²¹than concerning this one voice which I cried out standing among them, that I am being judged today before you concerning a resurrection of the dead.

²²And hearing these things, Felix put them off, knowing more accurately about the Way, saying, When Lysias the chiliarch comes down, I will examine the things as to you. ²³And having ordered the centurion to keep Paul, and to have ease, and not to forbid anyone of his own to minister or to come to him.

²⁴And after some days, Felix having arrived with his wife Drusilla, who was a Jewess, he sent for Paul. And he heard him concerning the faith in Christ. ²⁵And he having reasoned concerning righteousness and self-control, and the Judgment that is about to be, becoming afraid Felix answered, For the present, go; but taking time later, I will call for you; ²⁶and with it all also hoping that silver would be given to him by Paul, that he might free him. Because of this he also more frequently sent for him and conversed with him. ²⁷But two years being completed, Felix welcomed a successor, Porcius Festus. And wishing to show a favor to the Jews, Felix left Paul bound.

¹Then entering the province, after three days Festus went up to Jerusalem from Caesarea. ²And the high priest and the chief of the Jews made a statement before him against Paul, and they begged him, ³asking a favor against him, so as he might send for him to Jerusalem, making a plot to kill him on the way. ⁴Then indeed Festus answered that Paul should be kept at Caesarea, he himself even being about to go shortly. ⁵Then he said, those having power among you may go down with me. If there is a thing amiss in this man, let them accuse him.

⁶And remaining among them more than ten days, going down to Caesarea, on the next day sitting on the tribunal, he ordered Paul to be brought. ⁷And he having arrived, the Jews coming down from Jerusalem stood around, also bringing many weighty charges against Paul, which they were not able to prove. ⁸Defending himself, Paul said, Neither against the Law of the Jews, nor against the temple, nor against Caesar have I sinned in anything. ⁹But desiring to show a favor to the Jews, answering Paul, Festus said, Do you desire to go up to Jerusalem to be judged before me there about these things? ¹⁰But Paul said, I am standing before the tribunal of Caesar where I ought to be judged. I did nothing to the Jews, as also you very well know. ¹¹For if I indeed do wrong and have done anything worthy of death, I do not refuse to die. But if there is nothing of which they accuse me, no one can give me up to them. I appeal to Caesar. ¹²Then conferring with the sanhedrin, Festus answered, You have appealed to Caesar; you shall go before Caesar.

¹³And some days having passed, Agrippa the king and Bernice arrived at Caesarea, greeting Festus. ¹⁴And when they stayed there more days, Festus set out to the king the things as to Paul, saying, A certain man has been left a prisoner by Felix, ¹⁵about whom, on my being in Jerusalem, the chief priests and the elders of the Jews made a statement, asking judgment against him; ¹⁶to whom I answered, It is not a custom with Romans to give up any man to destruction before the one being accused may have the accusers face to face, and may receive place of defense concerning the charge. ¹⁷Then they coming together here, making no delay, sitting on the tribunal on the next day, I commanded the man to be brought; ¹⁸about whom, standing up, the accusers brought no charge of which I suspected, ¹⁹but they had certain questions about their own demon-worship, and about a certain Jesus dying, whom Paul claimed to live.

²⁰And being puzzled as to this inquiry, I said, Did he desire to go to Jerusalem, and to be judged there concerning these things?

²¹But Paul having appealed for himself to be kept to the examination of Augustus, I commanded him to be held until I might send him to Caesar. ²²And Agrippa said to Festus, I also was myself minded to hear the man. And he said, Tomorrow you shall hear him.

²³Then on the next day, Agrippa and Bernice coming with much pomp and entering into the auditorium, with both the chiliarchs and the chief men, being of the city; also Festus commanding, Paul was led out. ²⁴And Festus said, King Agrippa, and all those men present with us, you see this one about whom all the multitude of the Jews pleaded with me both here and in Jerusalem, crying out that he ought to live no longer. ²⁵But I having perceived nothing he had done worthy of death, also this one himself having appealed to Augustus, I decided to send him; ²⁶about whom I have nothing certain to write to my lord. Because of this I brought him before you, and most of all before you, king Agrippa, so as the examination taking place, I may have somewhat to write. ²⁷For it seems unreasonable to me to send a prisoner, and not also to signify the charges against him.

¹And Agrippa said to Paul, It is allowed for you yourself to speak. Then Paul made a defense, stretching out the hand:

²Concerning all of which I am accused by Jews, king Agrippa, I count myself happy being about to make defense before you today, ³you being most of all expert, knowing of all the customs and questions also among the Jews. Because of this, I beg you patiently to hear me. ⁴Truly, then, all the Jews know my way of life from youth, which from the beginning had been in my nation in Jerusalem; ⁵who before knew me from the first, if they will testify, that according to the most exact sect of our religion, I lived a Pharisee. ⁶And now for the hope of the promise having been made by God to the fathers, I stand being judged; ⁷to which our twelve tribes hope to arrive, worshiping in earnestness night and day; concerning which hope I am accused by the Jews, king Agrippa. ⁸Why is it judged unbelievable by you if God raises the dead? ⁹Indeed, I then thought to myself that I ought to do many things contrary to the name of Jesus the Nazarene. ¹⁰Which I also did in Jerusalem; I also shut up many of the saints in prisons, receiving authority from the chief priests; and they being put to death, I cast a vote. ¹¹And often punishing them through all the synagogues, I compelled them to blaspheme. And being exceedingly furious against them, I even persecuted as far as the outside cities.

¹²In which also traveling to Damascus with authority and decision-power from the chief priests, ¹³at midday along the highway, O king, I and those with me saw a light from heaven shining around me, above the brightness of the sun. ¹⁴And all of us falling to the ground, I heard a voice speaking to me, and saying in the Hebrew dialect, Saul, Saul why do you persecute Me? It is hard for you to kick against the prods. ¹⁵And I said, Who are you, Sir? And He said, I am Jesus whom you persecute; ¹⁶but rise up and stand on your feet, for it is for this reason I appeared to you, to appoint you a servant and a witness both of what you saw, and in what I shall appear to you, ¹⁷having delivered you from the people and the nations, to whom I now send you, ¹⁸to open their eyes, and to turn them from darkness to light, and from the authority of Satan to God; in order that they may receive forgiveness of sins, and an inheritance among those being sanctified by faith in Me. ¹⁹Upon this, king Agrippa, I was not disobedient to the heavenly vision; ²⁰but to those first in Damascus, and Jerusalem, and to all the country of Judea, and to the nations, I announced the command to repent and to turn to God, doing works worthy of repentance. ²¹Because of these things, having seized me in the Temple, the Jews tried to kill me. ²²Then obtaining help from God, I stand until this day, witnessing both to small and to great, saying nothing else than what the prophets and Moses also said was going to happen: ²³*that* Christ was to suffer, that by a resurrection of the dead He was first going to proclaim light to the people and to the nations.

²⁴And he defending himself with these things, Festus said with a loud voice, Paul, You rave! Your many letters turned you into madness. ²⁵But he said, Not to madness, most excellent Festus, but I speak words of truth and sanity. ²⁶For the king understands about these things, to whom I speak, even being bold of speech. For I am persuaded not any of these things are hidden from him, nothing. For the doing of this is not in a corner. ²⁷Do you believe the prophets, king Agrippa? I know that you believe. ²⁸And Agrippa said to Paul, Do you persuade me to become a Christian in but a little?

²⁹And Paul said, I would pray to God, both in a little and in much, not only you, but also these hearing me today to become as I also am, except for these bonds. ³⁰And he saying these things, the king and the governor and Bernice rose up, and those who sat with them. ³¹And withdrawing, they spoke to one another saying, This man does nothing worthy of death or of bonds. ³²And Agrippa said to Festus, This man was able to have been let go, if he had not appealed to Caesar.

¹And when it was decided for us to sail to Italy, they delivered up both Paul and certain other prisoners to a centurion named Julius, of a cohort of Augustus. ²And boarding a ship of Adramyttium which was about to sail alongside Asian places, we set sail; Aristarchus a Macedonian of Thessalonica being with us. ³And on the next day we landed at Sidon. And treating Paul kindly, Julius allowed him to go to his friends to receive care. ⁴And setting sail from there, we sailed close to Cyprus, because of the winds being contrary.

⁵And sailing over the sea against Cilicia and Pamphylia, we came to Myra of Lycia. ⁶And the centurion finding there an Alexandrian ship sailing to Italy, he put us into it. ⁷And in many days, sailing slowly and with difficulty, hardly coming against Cnidus, the wind not allowing us, we sailed close to Crete against Salmone. ⁸And coasting along it with difficulty, we came to a certain place named Fair Havens, near to which was a city, Lasea.

⁹And much time having passed, and the voyage already being dangerous, because the Fast already had gone by, Paul warned them, ¹⁰saying, Men, I see that the voyage is about to be with injury and much loss, not only of the cargo and of the ship, but also of our souls.

¹¹But the centurion was rather persuaded by the helmsman and the shipmaster, than by the things spoken by Paul. ¹²And the port not being fit for wintering, the most gave counsel to set sail from there, if somehow they may be able to pass the winter, arriving at Phoenixe, a port of Crete looking toward the southwest and toward the northwest. ¹³And a south wind blowing gently, thinking to have gained the purpose, raising anchor they sailed along close by Crete.

¹⁴And not much after, a stormy wind being called Euroclydon beat down on it. ¹⁵And the ship being seized, and not being able to beat against the wind, giving way we were borne along. ¹⁶But running under an islet being called Clauda, we were hardly able to get mastery of the boat; ¹⁷which taking, they used helps, undergirding the ship. And fearing lest they fall into Syrtis, lowering the tackle, so they were borne along.

¹⁸But we having been exceedingly storm-tossed, they made a casting on the next day. ¹⁹And on the third day they threw out the ship's tackle with their hands. ²⁰And neither sun nor stars appearing over many days, and no small tempest pressing hard, now all hope of our being saved was taken away. ²¹And there being much fasting, then standing up in their midst, Paul said, Truly, O men, being obedient to me you ought not to have set sail from Crete, and to have come by this injury and loss. ²²And now I exhort you to be cheered, for there will be no casting away of soul from among you, only of the ship. ²³For tonight stood by me an angel of God, whose I am, and whom I serve, ²⁴saying, Do not fear, Paul, You must stand before Caesar. And, behold, God has granted to you all those sailing with you. ²⁵Therefore, be cheered, men, for I believe God, that it will be so, according to the way it was spoken to me. ²⁶But we must fall on a certain island.

²⁷And when the fourteenth night came, we being carried about in the Adriatic Sea, toward the middle of the night the sailors supposed us to come near some country. ²⁸And sounding, they found twenty fathoms; and moving a little and sounding again, they found fifteen fathoms. ²⁹And fearing lest they should fall on rock places, and casting four anchors out of the stern, they wished day to come. ³⁰But the sailors seeking to flee out of the ship, and lowering the boat into the sea, pretending to be about to cast out anchors from the prow, ³¹Paul said to the centurion, and to the soldiers, Unless these remain in the ship, you cannot be saved. ³²Then the soldiers cut away the ropes of the boat, and let it fall.

³³And until day was about to come, Paul begged all to partake of food, saying, Today is the fourteenth day you continued waiting without food, not having taken anything. ³⁴Because of this I beg you to take of food, for this is to your deliverance; for not a hair of your head shall perish. ³⁵And saying these things, and taking bread, he gave thanks to God before all; and breaking, he began to eat.

³⁶And all having become cheered, they took food. ³⁷And we were, all the souls in the ship, two hundred seventy-six. ³⁸And being filled with food, they lightened the ship, throwing the wheat out into the sea.

³⁹And when day came, they did not recognize the land, but they noted a certain bay having a shore, into which they purposed, if they were able, to drive the ship. ⁴⁰And casting off the anchors, they left them in the sea, at the same time loosening the bands of the rudders, and raising the foresail to the breeze, they held to the shore. ⁴¹And coming on a place between two seas, they drove the vessel. And indeed the prow having stuck firmly, it remained. But the stern was broken by the violence of the waves. ⁴²And the mind of the soldiers was that they should kill the prisoners, lest any swimming out should escape. ⁴³But being minded to save Paul, the centurion kept them back from their purpose, and commanded those able to swim, first casting themselves overboard, to go out on the land. ⁴⁴And the rest went, some indeed on boards, and others on some of the things from the ship. And so it happened that all were saved on the land.

¹And being saved, then they knew that the island is called Melita. ²And the foreigners were showing not the common kindness to us, for having kindled a fire because of the rain coming on, and because of the cold, they welcomed us all. ³And Paul gathering a bunch of sticks, and putting them on the fire, a snake coming out from the heat fastened on his hand. ⁴And when the foreigners saw the beast hanging from his hand, they said to one another, By all means this man is a murderer, whom being saved out of the sea, Justice did not permit to live. ⁵Then he indeed shaking the beast off into the fire, he suffered no harm. ⁶But they expected him to be about to become inflamed, or suddenly to fall down dead. But over much time, they expecting and seeing nothing amiss happening to him, changing their minds, they said him to be a god.

¹¹And after three months we sailed in a ship which had wintered in the island, an Alexandrian with an ensign, The Twin Brothers. ¹²And landing at Syracuse, we remained three days. ¹³Going around from there, we arrived at Rhegium. And after one day, a south wind having come on, on the second we came to Puteoli; ¹⁴where finding brothers, we were begged by them to remain seven days. And so we went toward Rome.

¹⁵And the brothers from there hearing about us, they came out to meet us, as far as the market-place of Appius, and Three Taverns; whom Paul seeing, thanking God, he took courage.

¹⁶And when we went into Rome, the centurion delivered the prisoners to the camp commander. But Paul was allowed to remain by himself, with the soldier guarding him.

¹⁷And after three days, it happened that Paul called together those being chief of the Jews. And they coming together, he said to them, Men, brothers, I did nothing contrary to the people, or to the ancestral customs. I was delivered a prisoner from Jerusalem into the hands of the Romans; ¹⁸who examining me were of a mind to let me go, because no cause of death was in. But the Jews speaking against it, I was compelled to appeal to Caesar, not as having anything to accuse my nation. ²⁰On account of this, then, I called for you, to see and to speak to you. For I have this chain around me for the sake of the hope of Israel. ²¹And they said to him, We neither received letters concerning you from the Jews, nor having arrived has any one of the brothers reported or spoken anything evil concerning you. ²²But we think it fitting to hear from you as to what you think, for truly as concerning this sect, it is known to us that it is spoken against everywhere.

²³And having appointed him a day, more came to him in the lodging, to whom he expounded, earnestly testifying the kingdom of God, and persuading them the things concerning Jesus, both from the law of Moses and the Prophets, from morning until evening. ²⁴And some indeed were persuaded by that being said; others disbelieved. ²⁵And disagreeing with one another, they were let go, Paul saying one word: Well did the Holy Spirit speak through the prophet Isaiah to our fathers, ²⁶saying, "Go to this people and say, You will surely hear, and not at all understand; and you will surely see, and not at all perceive; ²⁷for the heart of this people was fattened, and they have heard with the ears heavily; and they closed their eyes lest at any time they see with their eyes and hear with their ears, and understand with their heart, and be converted, and I should heal them.” ²⁸Then let it be known to you that the salvation of God was sent to the nations; and they will hear. ²⁹And he saying these things, the Jews went away, having much discussion among themselves.

³⁰And Paul remained two whole years in his own rented place, and he welcomed all those coming in to him, ³¹proclaiming the kingdom of God, and teaching the things concerning the Lord Jesus Christ, with all freedom, and without hindrance.

THE EPISTLE TO THE ROMANS

¹Paul, a slave of Jesus Christ, a called apostle, separated to the gospel of God, ²which He promised before through His prophets in holy Scriptures, ³concerning His Son who came of the seed of David according to flesh, ⁴who was marked out Son of God in power, according to the Spirit of holiness, by resurrection of the dead, Jesus Christ our Lord; ⁵by whom we received grace and apostleship to obedience of faith among all the nations, for His name's sake, ⁶among whom are you also, called-out ones of Jesus Christ; ⁷to all those who are in Rome, beloved of God, called-out saints, grace and peace to you from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

⁸First, I thank my God through Jesus Christ for you all, that your faith is spoken of in all the world. ⁹For God is my witness, whom I serve in my spirit in the gospel of His Son, how without ceasing I make mention of you ¹⁰always at my prayers, beseeching if by any means now at length I shall be blessed by the will of God to come to you. ¹¹For I long to see you, that I may impart some spiritual gift to you, for the establishing of you; ¹²and this is, to be comforted together among you, through the faith in one another, both yours and mine.

¹³But I do not wish you to be ignorant, brothers, that often I purposed to come to you, and was kept back until the present; that I might have some fruit among you also, even as among the other nations. ¹⁴I am a debtor both to Greeks and to foreigners, both to wise, and to foolish, ¹⁵so as far as in me lies, I am eager to preach the gospel to you in Rome also. ¹⁶For I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ, for it is the power of God to salvation to everyone believing, both to Jew first, and to Greek; ¹⁷for in it the righteousness of God is revealed from faith to faith; even as it has been written, "But the just shall live by faith."

righteousness of men, holding the truth in unrighteousness, ¹⁹because the thing known of God is clearly known within them, for God revealed it to them—²⁰for the unseen things of Him from the creation of the world are clearly seen, being understood by the things made, both His eternal power and Godhead, for them to be without excuse. ²¹Because knowing God, they did not glorify Him as God, nor were thankful; but became vain in their reasonings, and their undiscerning heart was darkened. ²²Professing to be wise, they became foolish, ²³and changed the glory of the incorruptible God into a likeness of an image of corruptible man, and of birds, and four-footed animals, and creeping things. ²⁴Because of this, God gave them up to uncleanness in the lusts of their hearts, their bodies to be dishonored among themselves; ²⁵who changed the truth of God into the lie, and worshiped and served the created thing more than the Creator, who is blessed forever. Amen.

²⁶Because of this, God gave them up to dishonorable passions, for even their females changed the natural use to that contrary to nature. ²⁷And likewise, the males also forsaking the natural use of the female burned in their lust toward one another, males with males working out shamefulfulness, and receiving back within themselves the reward which was fitting for their error. ²⁸And even as they did not think fit to have God in their knowledge, God gave them up to a reprobate mind, to do the things not right, ²⁹having been filled with all unrighteousness, fornication, iniquity, covetousness, malice; being full of envy, murder, quarrels, deceit, evil habits; becoming whisperers, ³⁰slanders, God-haters, insolent, proud, braggarts, devisers of evil things, disobedient to parents, ³¹without discernment, perfidious, without natural affection, unfor-giving, unmerciful—³²who knowing the righteous order of God, that those practicing such things are worthy of death, not only do them, but also applaud those practicing them.

¹Therefore, O man, you are without excuse, everyone who judges, for in that in which you judge the other, you condemn yourself; for you who judge practice the same things. ²But we know that the judgment of God is according to truth on those that practice such things. ³And, O man, the one judging those practicing such things, and doing them, do you think that you will escape the judgment of God? ⁴Or do you despise the riches of His kindness, and the forbearance and the long-suffering, not knowing that the kindness of God leads you to repentance? ⁵But according to your hardness and your impenitent heart, do you treasure up to yourself wrath in a day of wrath, and revelation of a righteous judgment of God, ⁶who will give to each according to his works: ⁷everlasting life truly to those who with patience in good work are seeking glory and honor and incorruptibility; ⁸but to those even disobeying the truth, out of self-interest, and obeying unrighteousness, will be anger and wrath, ⁹trouble and pain on every soul of man that works out evil, both of Jew first, and of Greek. ¹⁰But glory and honor and peace will be to everyone that works out good, both to the Jew first, and to the Greek. ¹¹For there is no respect of persons with God. ¹²For as many as sinned without Law will also perish without Law. And as many as sinned within Law will be judged through Law. ¹³For not the hearers of the law are just with God, but the doers of the law shall be justified. ¹⁴For when nations not having Law do by nature the things of the Law, they not having Law are a law to themselves; ¹⁵who show the work of the law written in their hearts, their conscience witnessing with them; and the thoughts between one another accusing or excusing, ¹⁶in a day when God judges the hidden things of men, according to my gospel, through Jesus Christ. ¹⁷Behold, you are called a Jew, and rest in the Law, and boast in God, ¹⁸and know the will, and approve the things excelling, being instructed out of the Law; ¹⁹and persuading yourself to be a guide of blind ones, a light to those in darkness, ²⁰an instructor of foolish ones, a teacher of infants, having the form of knowledge and of the truth in the Law — ²¹then the one teaching another, do you not teach yourself? The one preaching not to steal, do you steal? ²²The one saying not to commit adultery, do you commit adultery? The one detesting the idols, do you rob temples? ²³*You* who boast in Law, do you dishonor God through transgression of the Law? ²⁴For the name of God is blasphemed among the nations through you, even as it has been written: ²⁵“For indeed circumcision profits if you practice the Law, but if you are a transgressor of Law, your circumcision becomes uncircumcision. ²⁶If, then, the uncircumcision keeps the demands of the Law, will not his uncircumcision be counted for circumcision? ²⁷And will not the uncircumcision by nature by keeping the Law judge you, the one who through letter and circumcision becomes transgressor of Law? ²⁸For he is not a Jew that is one outwardly, nor is circumcision that outwardly in flesh; ²⁹but he is a Jew that is one inwardly; and circumcision is of heart, in spirit, not in letter; of whom the praise is not from men, but from God.

¹What then is the superiority of the Jew? Or what the profit of circumcision? ²Much every way. For first, indeed, that they were entrusted with the oracles of God. ³For what if some did not believe? Will their unbelief destroy the faith of God? ⁴Let it not be! But let God be true, and every man a liar; even as it has been written, “That You should be justified in Your words, and will overcome in Your being judged.”

⁵But if our unrighteousness commends the righteousness of God, what shall we say? Is God unrighteous who lays on wrath? I speak according to man. ⁶Let it not be! Otherwise, how will God judge the world? ⁷For if in my lie the truth of God abounded to His glory, why am I yet judged as a sinner? ⁸And not—as we are wrongly accused, and as some report us to say — Let us do bad things so that good things may come, the judgment of whom is just.

⁹What, then? Do we excel? Not at all!

For we before have charged both Jews and Greeks all with being under sin; ¹⁰according as it has been written, "There is none righteous, not one! ¹¹There is none that understands, there is not one that seeks after God. ¹²All turned away; they became worthless together; not one is doing kindness, not so much as one! ¹³Their throat is an opened grave; they used deceit with their tongues; the poison of asps is under their lips; ¹⁴whose mouth is full of cursing and bitterness. ¹⁵Their feet are swift to shed blood; ¹⁶ruin and misery are in their way; ¹⁷and they did not know a way of peace; ¹⁸there is no fear of God before their eyes."

¹⁹But we know that whatever the Law says, it speaks to those within the Law, so that every mouth may be stopped, and all the world be under judgment to God. ²⁰Because by works of law not one of all flesh will be justified before Him—for through law is full knowledge of sin.

²¹But now a righteousness of God has been revealed apart from Law, being witnessed by the Law and the Prophets, ²²even the righteousness of God through faith, of Jesus Christ toward all and upon all those believing; for there is no difference, ²³for all sinned and come short of the glory of God, ²⁴being justified freely by His grace through the redemption in Christ Jesus; ²⁵whom God set forth as a propitiation through faith in His blood, for a showing forth of His righteousness through the passing by of the sins that had taken place before, in the forbearance of God; ²⁶for the showing forth of His righteousness in the present time, for His being just and justifying the one that is of the faith of Jesus. ²⁷Then where is the boasting? It was excluded. Through what law? Of works? No, but through a law of faith. ²⁸Then we conclude a man to be justified by faith without works of Law. ²⁹Or is He the God of Jews only, and not also of the nations? ³⁰Yes, also of nations, since it is one God who will justify circumcision by faith, and uncircumcision through faith. ³¹Then do we make Law of no effect through faith? Let it not be! But we establish Law.

¹What then shall we say our father Abraham to have found according to flesh? ²For if Abraham was justified by works, he has a boast—but not with God. ³For what does the Scripture say? "And Abraham believed God, and it was counted to him for righteousness." ⁴Now to one working, the reward is not counted according to grace, but according to debt. ⁵But to the one not working, but believing on Him justifying the ungodly, his faith is counted for righteousness. ⁶Even as also David says of the blessedness of the man to whom God counts righteousness apart from works: ⁷"Blessed are those whose lawlessnesses are forgiven, and whose sins are covered; ⁸blessed the man to whom the Lord will in no way charge sin."

⁹*Is* this blessedness then on the circumcision, or also on the uncircumcision? For we say the faith was counted to Abraham for righteousness. ¹⁰How then was it counted? Being in circumcision, or in uncircumcision? Not in circumcision, but in uncircumcision! ¹¹And he received a sign of circumcision as a seal of the righteousness of faith while in uncircumcision, for him to be a father of those believing through uncircumcision, for righteousness to be counted to them also; ¹²and a father of circumcision to those not of circumcision only, but also to those walking in the steps of the faith of our father Abraham during uncircumcision.

¹³For the promise was not through law to Abraham, or to his seed, for him to be the heir of the world, but through a righteousness of faith. ¹⁴For if those of Law are heirs, faith has been made of no effect, and the promise has been destroyed. ¹⁵For the law works out wrath; for where no law is, neither is transgression. ¹⁶On account of this, it is of faith, that it be according to grace, for the promise to be made sure to all the seed—not to that of the Law only, but also to that of the faith of Abraham, who is father of us all—¹⁷according as it has been written, "I have appointed you a father of many nations;" — before God, whom he believed, the One making the dead live, and calling the things that are not as if they were. ¹⁸*He* against hope believed in hope, for him to become a father of many nations, according to what has been said, "So shall your seed be."

¹⁹And being about a hundred years old, not weakening in faith, he did not consider his body to have died already, nor yet the death of Sarah's womb, ²⁰and did not stagger by unbelief at the promise of God, but was empowered by faith, giving glory to God, ²¹and being fully persuaded that what He has promised, He is also able to do. ²²Because of this, it was also counted to him for righteousness. ²³But it was not written for him only, that it was counted to him, ²⁴but also on account of us, to whom it is about to be counted, to the ones believing on Him who has raised our Lord Jesus from the dead; ²⁵who was delivered for our offenses, and was raised for our justification.

CHAPTER 5

¹Then being justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ; ²through whom also we have had access by faith into this grace in which we stand, and we glory on the hope of the glory of God. ³And not only so, but we glory also in afflictions, knowing that affliction works out patience, ⁴and patience works out proven character; and proven character, hope. ⁵And the hope does not put us to shame, because the love of God has been poured out in our hearts through the Holy Spirit given to us; ⁶for we yet being without strength, in due time Christ died for ungodly ones. ⁷For with difficulty one will die for a just one—for perhaps one even dares to die for the sake of the good one — ⁸but God commends His love to us in this, that we being yet sinners, Christ died for us. ⁹Much more, then, being justified now by His blood, we shall be saved from wrath through Him. ¹⁰For if while being enemies, we were reconciled to God through the death of His Son, much more being reconciled we shall be saved by His life. ¹¹And not only so, but also glorying in God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we now received the reconciliation.

¹²Because of this, even as sin entered the world through one man, and death through sin, so also death passed to all men, inasmuch as all sinned—¹³for sin was in the world until Law, but sin is not charged where there is no law; ¹⁴but death reigned from Adam until Moses, even on those who had not sinned in the likeness of Adam's transgression, who is a type of the coming One. ¹⁵But the free gift shall not be also like the offense. For if by the offense of the one the many died, much more the grace of God, and the gift in grace, which is of the one Man, Jesus Christ, did abound to the many. ¹⁶And the gift shall not be as by one having sinned; for indeed the judgment was of one to condemnation; but the free gift is of many offenses to justification. ¹⁷For if by the offense of the one death reigned through the one, much more those who are receiving the abundance of grace and the gift of righteousness shall rule in life by the One, Jesus Christ. ¹⁸So, then, as through one offense it was toward all men to condemnation, so also by one accomplished righteousness toward all men to justification of life. ¹⁹For as through the one man's disobedience the many were constituted sinners, so also through the obedience of the One the many shall be constituted righteous. ²⁰But Law came in beside, that the offense might abound. But where sin abounded, grace much more abounded, ²¹that as sin ruled in death, so also grace might rule through righteousness to everlasting life, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

¹What then shall we say? Shall we continue in sin that grace may abound? ²Let it not be! We who died to sin, how shall we still live in it? ³Or are you ignorant that all who were baptized into Christ Jesus were baptized into His death? ⁴Therefore, we were buried with Him through baptism into death, that as Christ was raised up from the dead by the glory of the Father, so also we should walk in newness of life. ⁵For if we have been joined together in the likeness of His death, so also shall we be in the resurrection; ⁶knowing this, that our old man was crucified with Him, that the body of sin might be nullified, so that we no longer serve sin. ⁷For the one that died has been justified from sin. ⁸But if we died with Christ, we believe that also we shall live with Him, ⁹knowing that Christ being raised from the dead dies no more; death no longer lords it over Him. ¹⁰For in that He died, He died to sin once for all; but in that He lives, He lives to God. ¹¹So also you count yourselves to be truly dead to sin, but alive to God, in Christ Jesus our Lord.

¹²Then do not let sin rule in your mortal body, to obey it in its lusts. ¹³Neither yield your members as instruments of unrighteousness to sin; but yield yourselves to God as living from the dead, and your members instruments of righteousness to God. ¹⁴For your sin shall not lord it over you, for you are not under law, but under grace.

¹⁵What then? Shall we sin because we are not under law, but under grace? Let it not be! ¹⁶Do you not know that to whom you yield yourselves slaves for obedience, you are slaves to whom you obey, whether of sin to death, or obedience to righteousness? ¹⁷But thanks be to God that you were slaves of sin, but you obeyed from the heart the form of teaching to which you were delivered. ¹⁸And having been set free from sin, you were enslaved to righteousness. ¹⁹I speak as a man on account of the weakness of your flesh. For as you yielded your members as slaves to uncleanness and to lawless act unto lawless act, so now yield your members as slaves to righteousness unto sanctification. ²⁰For when you were slaves of sin, you were free as to righteousness. ²¹Then what fruit did you have then in the things over which you are now ashamed? For the end of those things is death. ²²But now being set free from sin, and being enslaved to God, you have your fruit unto sanctification, and the end everlasting life. ²³For the wages of sin is death; but the free gift of God is everlasting life in Christ Jesus our Lord.

¹Or are you ignorant, brothers—for I speak to those knowing law—that the law lords it over the man for as long a time as he lives? ²For the married woman was bound by law to the living husband; but if the husband dies, she is set free from the law of the husband. ³So, then, if the husband is living, she will be called an adulteress if she becomes another man's. But if the husband dies, she is free from the law, so as for her not to be an adulteress by becoming another man's wife. ⁴So that, my brothers, you also were made dead to the law through the body of Christ, for you to become Another's, to One raised from the dead, so that we may bear fruit to God. ⁵For when we were in the flesh, the passions of sin was working in our members through the law for the bearing of fruit unto death. ⁶But now we have been set free from the law, having died to that in which we were held, so as for us to serve in newness of spirit, and not in oldness of letter.

⁷What, then, shall we say? Is the law sin? Let it not be! But I did not know sin except through law; for also I did not know lust except the law said, You shall not lust. ⁸But sin taking occasion through the commandment worked every lust in me; for apart from law, sin is dead. ⁹And I was alive apart from law once, but the commandment came, and sin came alive, and I died. ¹⁰And the commandment which was to life, this was found to be death to me; ¹¹for sin taking occasion through the commandment deceived me, and through it killed me. ¹²So indeed the law is holy, and the commandment holy and just and good. ¹³Then that which is good, has it become death to me?—let it not be!—but sin, that it might appear to be sin, having worked out death to me through the good, in order that sin might become excessively sinful through the commandment. ¹⁴For we know that the law is spiritual, and I am fleshly, having been sold under sin. ¹⁵For what I work out, I do not know. For what I do not will, this I do. But what I hate, this I do. ¹⁶But if I do what I do not will, I agree with the law, that it is good. ¹⁷But now I no longer work it out, but the sin dwelling in me. ¹⁸For I know that in me, that is in my flesh, dwells no good. For to will is present to me, but to work out the good I do not find. ¹⁹For what good I desire, I do not do. But the evil I do not desire, this I do. ²⁰But if I do what I do not desire, it is no longer I working it out, but sin dwelling in me. ²¹I find then the law, when I desire to do the right, that evil is present with me. ²²For I delight in the law of God according to the inward man; ²³but I see another law in my members having warred against the law of my mind, and taking me captive by the law of sin being in my members. ²⁴O wretched man that I am! Who shall deliver me from the body of this death? ²⁵I thank God through Jesus Christ our Lord! So then I myself with the mind truly serve the law of God, and with the flesh the law of sin.

¹*There is* therefore now no condemnation to those in Christ Jesus, who do not walk according to flesh, but according to Spirit. ²For the law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus set me free from the law of sin and of death. ³For the law being powerless, in that it was weak through the flesh, God sending His own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh, and concerning sin, condemned sin in the flesh, ⁴so that the righteous demand of the law might be fulfilled in us, those not walking according to flesh, but according to Spirit. ⁵For the ones that are according to flesh mind the things of the flesh. And the ones according to Spirit mind the things of the Spirit. ⁶For the mind of the flesh is death; but the mind of the Spirit is life and peace; ⁷because the mind of the flesh is enmity towards God; for it is not subject to the law of God, for neither can it be. ⁸And those being in the flesh are not able to please God. ⁹But you are not in flesh, but in Spirit, since the Spirit of God dwells in you. But if anyone has not the Spirit of Christ, this one is not His. ¹⁰But if Christ is in you, the body indeed is dead because of sin, but the Spirit is life because of righteousness. ¹¹But if the Spirit of the One having raised Jesus from the dead dwells in you, the One having raised the Christ from the dead will also make your mortal bodies live through the indwelling of His Spirit in you.

¹²So, then, brothers, we are debtors, not to the flesh, to live according to flesh; ¹³for if you live according to flesh, you are going to die. But if by the Spirit you put to death the practices of the body, you will live. ¹⁴For as many as are led by the Spirit of God, these are sons of God. ¹⁵For you did not receive a spirit of slavery again to fear, but you received a Spirit of adoption by which we cry, Abba! Father! ¹⁶The Spirit Himself witnesses with our spirit that we are children of God. ¹⁷And if children, also heirs; truly heirs of God, and joint-heirs of Christ; if indeed we suffer together, that we may also be glorified together.

¹⁸For I calculate that the sufferings of the present time are not worthy to compare to the coming glory to be revealed in us. ¹⁹For the earnest expectation of the creation eagerly awaits the revelation of the sons of God. ²⁰For the creation was not willingly subjected to vanity, but through Him subjecting it, on hope; ²¹that also the creation will be freed from the slavery of corruption to the freedom of the glory of the children of God. ²²For we know that all the creation groans together and travails together until now. ²³And not only so, but also we ourselves having the firstfruit of the Spirit, also we ourselves groan within ourselves, eagerly expecting adoption, the redemption of our body; ²⁴for we were saved by hope; but hope being seen is not hope; for what anyone sees, why does he also hope? ²⁵But if we hope for what we do not see, through patience we wait eagerly.

²⁶And likewise the Spirit also joins in to help our weaknesses. For we do not know what we should pray for as we ought, but the Spirit Himself pleads our case for us with groanings that cannot be uttered. ²⁷But the One searching the hearts knows what is the mind of the Spirit, because He intercedes for the saints according to God. ²⁸But we know that all things work together for good to those who love God, to those who are called according to purpose; ²⁹because whom He foreknew, He also predestinated to be conformed to the image of His Son, for Him to be the Firstborn among many brothers. ³⁰But whom He predestinated, these He also called; and whom He called, these He also justified; but whom He justified, these He also glorified.

³¹What then shall we say to these things? If God be for us, who can be against us? ³²Truly He who did not spare His own Son, but gave Him up for us all, how will He not freely give us all things with Him? ³³Who will bring any charge against God's elect? God is the One justifying! ³⁴Who is he condemning? It is Christ who has died, but rather also is raised, who also is at the right hand of God; who also intercedes for us. ³⁵Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? Shall tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or danger, or sword? ³⁶Even as it has been written, "For Your sake we are killed all the day; we are counted as sheep of slaughter."

³⁷But in all these things we more than conquer through Him who has loved us. ³⁸For I am persuaded that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor rulers, nor powers, nor things present, nor things to come, ³⁹nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature will be able to separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus, our Lord.

¹I tell the truth in Christ, I do not lie, my conscience bearing witness with me in the Holy Spirit, ²that my grief is great, and a never-ceasing pain is in my heart, ³for I myself was wishing to be a curse from Christ on behalf of my brothers, my kinsmen according to flesh; ⁴who are Israelites; whose are the adoption and the glory, and the covenants, and the Law-giving, and the service, and the promises; ⁵whose are the fathers; and from whom is the Christ according to flesh, He being God over all, blessed forever. Amen. ⁶Not, however, that God's word has failed. For not all those of Israel are Israel; ⁷nor because they are Abraham's seed are all children, but "In Isaac a Seed shall be called to you." ⁸That is: Not the children of flesh are children of God, but the children of the promise are counted for a seed. ⁹For the word of promise is this, "According to this time I will come, and a son will be to Sarah." ¹⁰And not only so, but also Rebekah conceiving of one, our father Isaac; ¹¹for the children not yet being born, nor having done any good or evil, that the purpose of God according to election might stand, not of works, but of the One calling, ¹²it was said to her, "The greater shall serve the lesser;" ¹³even as it has been written, "I loved Jacob, and I hated Esau."

¹⁴What then shall we say? Is there not unrighteousness with God? Let it not be!

¹⁵For He said to Moses, "I will have mercy on whomever I have mercy, and I will pity whomever I will pity." ¹⁶So, then, it is not of the one willing, nor of the one running, but of the One showing mercy, of God.

¹⁷For the Scripture says to Pharaoh, "For this very thing I raised you up, so that I might show forth My power in you, and so that My name might be publicized in all the earth." ¹⁸So, then, to whom He desires, He shows mercy. And whom He desires, He hardens.

¹⁹You will then say to me, Why does He yet find fault? For who has resisted His will? ²⁰Yes, rather, O man, who are you answering against God? Shall the thing formed say to the One forming it, Why did You make me like this? ²¹Or does not the potter have authority over the clay, out of the one lump to make one vessel to honor, and one to dishonor?

²²But if God, desiring to show forth wrath, and to make His power known, endured in much long-suffering vessels of wrath having been fitted out for destruction; ²³and that He make known the riches of His glory on vessels of mercy which He before prepared for glory—²⁴whom He also called, not only us, of Jews, but also out of nations. ²⁵As also He says in Hosea, "I will call those not My people, My people! And those not beloved, Beloved!"

²⁶And it shall be, in the place where it was said to them, You are not My people — there they will be called, Sons of the living God."

²⁷But Isaiah cries on behalf of Israel, "If the number of the sons of Israel be as the sand of the sea, the remnant will be saved."

²⁸For He is bringing the matter to an end, and cutting short in righteousness, because the Lord will do a thing cut short on the earth."

²⁹And as Isaiah has said before, "Except the Lord of hosts left a seed to us, we would have become as Sodom, and we would have become as Gomorrah."

³⁰What then shall we say? That the nations not following after righteousness have taken on righteousness, but a righteousness of faith; ³¹but Israel following after a law of righteousness did not arrive at a law of righteousness? ³²Why? Because it was not of faith, but as of works of Law. For they stumbled at the Stone-of-stumbling, ³³as it has been written, "Behold, I place in Zion a Stone-of-stumbling, and a Rock-of-offense; and everyone believing on Him will not be put to shame."

CHAPTER 10

¹Brothers, truly my heart's pleasure and request to God on behalf of Israel is for it to be saved. ²For I testify to them that they have zeal to God, but not according to knowledge. ³For being ignorant of the righteousness of God, and seeking to establish their own righteousness, they did not submit to the righteousness of God. ⁴For Christ is the end of law for righteousness to everyone that believes. ⁵For Moses writes of the righteousness which is of the law: "The man doing these things shall live by them." ⁶But the righteousness of faith says this: "Do not say in your heart, Who will go up into Heaven?"—that is, to bring down Christ; or, ⁷"Who will go down into the abyss?"—that is, to bring Christ up from the dead. ⁸But what does it say? "The word is near you, in your mouth and in your heart"—that is, the word of faith which we proclaim. ⁹Because if you confess the Lord Jesus with your mouth, and believe in your heart that God raised Him from the dead, you will be saved. ¹⁰For with the heart one believes unto righteousness, and with the mouth one confesses unto salvation. ¹¹For the Scripture says, "Everyone believing on Him will not be put to shame." ¹²For there is no difference both of Jew and of Greek, for the same Lord of all is rich toward all the ones calling on Him. ¹³For everyone, whoever may call on the name of the Lord, will be saved. ¹⁴How then may they call on One in whom they have not believed? And how may they believe One of whom they have not heard? And how may they hear without preaching? ¹⁵And how may they preach if they are not sent? Even as it has been written, "How beautiful the feet of those announcing the gospel of peace, of those announcing the gospel of good things."

¹⁶But not all obeyed the gospel, for Isaiah says, "Lord, who has believed our report?" ¹⁷Then faith is of hearing, and hearing through the word of God. ¹⁸But I say, Did they not hear? Yes, rather, into all the earth their voice went out, and to the ends of the world their words. ¹⁹But I say, Did not Israel know? First, Moses says, "I will provoke you to jealousy by a not-nation; by an unwise nation I will anger you." ²⁰But Isaiah is very bold and says, "I was found by those not seeking Me; I became known to those not inquiring after Me." ²¹But to Israel He says, "All the day I stretched out My hands to a disobeying and contradicting people."

CHAPTER 11

¹I say, then, Did not God thrust away His people? Let it not be! For I also am an Israelite, out of Abraham's seed, of the tribe of Benjamin. ²God did not thrust away His people whom He foreknew. Or do you not know what the Scripture said in Elijah, how he pleaded with God against Israel, saying, ³"Lord, they killed Your prophets, and they dug down Your altars; and only I am left; and they seek my soul." ⁴But what does the Divine answer say to him, "I reserved to Myself seven thousand men who did not bow a knee to Baal." ⁵So then, also in the present time a remnant according to election of grace has come into being. ⁶But if by grace, no longer is it of works; else grace no longer becomes grace. But if of works, it is no longer grace; else work is no longer work. ⁷What then? What Israel seeks, this he did not obtain, but the election obtained it, and the rest were hardened; ⁸even as it has been written, "God gave to them a spirit of slumber, eyes not seeing and ears not hearing" until this day. ⁹And David said, "Let their table become for a snare and a trap, and for a stumbling-block, and a repayment to them; ¹⁰let their eyes be darkened, not to see, and their back always bowing."

away came salvation to the nations, to provoke them to jealousy. ¹²But if their slipping away is the riches of the world, and their default the riches of the nations, how much more their fullness? ¹³For I speak to you, the nations, since I am an apostle of the nations — I glorify my ministry, ¹⁴if somehow I may provoke to jealousy my flesh, and may save some of them. ¹⁵For if their casting away is the reconciliation of the world, what the reception, except life from the dead? ¹⁶Now if the firstfruit is holy, also the lump. And if the root is holy, also the branches. ¹⁷But if some of the branches were broken off, and you being a wild olive tree were grafted in among them, and became a sharer of the root and the fatness of the olive-tree, ¹⁸do not boast against the branches. But if you do boast, it is not you that bears the root, but the root bears you. ¹⁹You will then say, The branches were broken off that I might be grafted in. ²⁰Well! For unbelief they were broken off. And you stand by faith. Do not be high-minded, but fear. ²¹For if God did not spare the natural branches, fear that it may be He will not spare you either. ²²Behold, then, the kindness and severity of God: On those having fallen, severity. But on you, kindness—if you continue in the kindness. Otherwise, you will also be cut off. ²³And those also, if they do not continue in unbelief, will be grafted in. For God is able to graft them in again. ²⁴For if you were cut out of the natural wild olive tree, and against nature were grafted into a good olive tree, how much more these being according to nature will be grafted into their own olive tree?

²⁵For I do not want you to be ignorant of this mystery, brothers—so that you may not be wise within yourselves — that hardness in part has happened to Israel, until the fullness of the nations comes in; ²⁶and so all Israel will be saved, even as it has been written, “The Deliverer will come out of Zion, and He will turn away ungodliness from Jacob. ²⁷And this is My covenant with them, when I take away their sins.” ²⁸Indeed, as regards the gospel, enemies for you; but as regards the election, beloved for the sake of the fathers. ²⁹For the free gifts and the calling of God are without repentance. ³⁰For as you then also disobeyed

God, but now have obtained mercy by the disobedience of these; ³¹so also these now have disobeyed, so that they also may obtain mercy by your mercy. ³²For God shut up all in disobedience, that He may show mercy to all.

³³O the depth of the riches and of the wisdom and the knowledge of God! How unsearchable are His judgments, and His ways past finding out! ³⁴For who has known the mind of the Lord? Or who became His counselor? ³⁵Or who first gave to Him, and it will be repaid to him? ³⁶Because of Him, and through Him, and to Him are all things. To Him be the glory forever! Amen.

¹Therefore, brothers, I call on you through the compassions of God to present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, pleasing to God, which is your reasonable service. ²And be not conformed to this age, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind, in order to prove by you what is the good and pleasing and perfect will of God. ³For I say through the grace which is given to me, to everyone being among you, not to have high thoughts beyond what is right to think. But set your mind to be right-minded, even as God divided a measure of faith to each. ⁴For even as we have many members in one body, but all members do not have the same function; ⁵so we the many are one body in Christ, and each one members of one another. ⁶But having different gifts according to the grace given to us, whether prophecy, according to the proportion of faith; ⁷or ministry, in the ministry; or the one teaching, in the teaching; ⁸or the one exhorting, in the encouragement; the one sharing, in simplicity; the one taking the lead, in diligence; the one showing mercy, in cheerfulness.

⁹Let love be without dissimulation, shrinking from evil, cleaving to the good; ¹⁰in brotherly love to one another loving fervently, having gone before one another in honor. ¹¹As to diligence, not slothful; fervent in spirit, serving the Lord; ¹²in hope, rejoicing; in affliction, enduring; in prayer, steadfastly continuing; ¹³imparting to the needs of the saints; pursuing hospitality.

¹⁴Bless those persecuting you; bless, and do not curse. ¹⁵Rejoice with rejoicing ones, and weep with weeping ones; ¹⁶minding the same thing toward one another, not minding high things, but yielding to the lowly. Do not become wise within yourselves. ¹⁷Repay no one evil for evil; having provided right things before all men. ¹⁸If possible, as far as is in you, seeking peace with all men; ¹⁹not avenging yourselves, beloved, but giving place to wrath—for it has been written, "Vengeance is Mine, I will repay, says the Lord." ²⁰Then if your enemy hungers, feed him; if he thirsts, give him drink; for doing this you will heap coals of fire on his head. ²¹Do not be overcome by evil, but overcome the evil with good.

¹Let every soul be subject to higher authorities, for there is no authority except from God; but the existing authorities have been ordained by God. ²So that the one resisting authority has opposed the ordinance of God; and the ones opposing will receive judgment to themselves. ³For the rulers are not a terror to good works, but to the bad. And do you desire not to fear the authority? Do the good, and you will have praise from it; ⁴for it is a servant of God to you for the good. But if you practice evil, be afraid; for he does not bear the sword in vain; for he is a servant of God, an avenger for wrath to the one practicing evil. ⁵Because of this, it is necessary to be subject, not only on account of wrath, but also on account of conscience. ⁶For on this account you also pay taxes; for they are ministers of God, always giving attention to this very thing. ⁷Then give to all their dues: to the one due tax, the tax; to the one due tribute, the tribute; to the one due fear, the fear; to the one due honor, the honor.

⁸Owe no one anything, except to love one another. For the one loving the other has fulfilled the law. ⁹For, "Do not commit adultery; do not murder; do not steal; do not bear false witness; do not lust," and if there is any other commandment, it is summed up in this word: "You shall love your neighbor as yourself." ¹⁰Love does not work evil to the neighbor. Then love is the fulfillment of law.

¹¹Also this, knowing the time, that it is now the hour for you to be aroused from sleep, for now our salvation is nearer than when we believed. ¹²The night is far gone, and the day has drawn near; then let us cast off the works of darkness, and let us put on the weapons of the light. ¹³Let us walk becomingly, as in the day; not in carousings and drinking; not in cohabitation and lustful acts; not in fighting and envy. ¹⁴But put on the Lord Jesus Christ and do not take thought beforehand for the lusts of the flesh.

CHAPTER 14

¹And receive the one who is weak in the faith, not to judgments of your thoughts. ²One indeed believes to eat all things; but being weak, another one eats vegetables. ³The one eating, do not despise the one not eating. And the one not eating, do not judge the one eating—for God received him. ⁴Who are you judging another's servant? To his own master he stands or falls. But he will stand, for God is able to make him stand. ⁵One indeed judges a day above another day; and another one judges every day alike. Let each one be fully assured in his own mind. ⁶The one minding the day, he minds it to the Lord. And the one not minding the day, he does not mind it to the Lord. The one eating, he eats to the Lord; for he gives thanks to God. And the one not eating, he does not eat to the Lord, and gives thanks to God. ⁷For no one of us lives to himself; and no one dies to himself. ⁸For both if we live, we live to the Lord; and if we die, we die to the Lord. Then both if we live, and if we die, we are the Lord's. ⁹For this Christ both died and rose and lived again, that He might be Lord over both the dead and the living. ¹⁰But why do you judge your brother? Or why also do you despise your brother? For all shall stand before the judgment seat of Christ. ¹¹For it has been written, "I live, says the Lord, that every knee will bow to Me, and every tongue confess to God." ¹²So then each one of us will give account concerning himself to God.

¹³Then let us no longer judge one another, but rather judge this, not to put a stumbling-block or an offense toward a brother. ¹⁴I know and am persuaded in the Lord Jesus that nothing by itself is common; except to the one counting anything to be common, it is common.

¹⁵But if your brother is grieved because of your food, you no longer walk according to love. Do not by your food destroy that one for whom Christ died. ¹⁶Then do not let your good be spoken evil of. ¹⁷For the kingdom of God is not eating and drinking, but righteousness and peace and joy in the Holy Spirit. ¹⁸For the one serving Christ in these things is well-pleasing to God, and approved by men.

¹⁹So then let us pursue the things of peace, and the things for building up one another. ²⁰Do not by your food undo the work of God. Truly, all things are clean, but it is bad to the man who eats through a stumbling-block. ²¹*It is* good not to eat flesh, nor to drink wine, nor any by which your brother stumbles, or is offended, or is weak.

²²Do you have faith? Have it to yourself before God. Blessed is the one not condemning himself in what he approves. ²³But the one doubting, if he eats, he has been condemned, because it is not of faith—and whatever is not of faith is sin.

¹But we, the strong ones, ought to bear the weaknesses of those not strong, and not to please ourselves. ²For let each one of us please his neighbor for good, to building up. ³For also Christ did not please Himself, but even as it has been written, "The curses of those cursing You fell on Me." ⁴For whatever things were written before were written for our instruction, that through patience and encouragement of the Scriptures we might have hope. ⁵And may the God of patience and encouragement give to you to mind the same thing among one another according to Christ Jesus, ⁶that with one accord and with one mouth you may glorify the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ. ⁷Because of this, receive one another as Christ also received us, to the glory of God.

⁸And I say, Jesus Christ has become a minister of circumcision for the truth of God, to confirm the promises of the fathers, ⁹and for the nations to glorify God for mercy, even as it has been written, "Because of this I will confess to You in the nations, and I will give praise to Your name." ¹⁰And again He says, "Rejoice, nations, with His people." ¹¹And again, "Praise the Lord, all the nations, and praise Him all the peoples." ¹²And again Isaiah says, "The Root of Jesse shall be, and He rising up to rule the nations; on Him nations will hope." ¹³And may the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing, for you to abound in hope, in power of the Holy Spirit.

¹⁴But, my brothers, I myself also am persuaded concerning you, that you yourselves also are full of goodness, being filled with all knowledge, being able to warn one another. ¹⁵But I wrote to you more boldly, brothers, as reminding you in part, because of the grace given to me by God, ¹⁶for me to be a minister of Jesus Christ to the nations, sacredly ministering the gospel of God, that the offering of the nations might be acceptable, sanctified by the Holy Spirit. ¹⁷Then I have boasting in Christ Jesus as to the things pertaining to God. ¹⁸For I will not dare to speak of anything which Christ did not work out through me for the obedience of the nations in word and work, ¹⁹in power of miracles and wonders, in power of the Spirit of God, so as for me to have fulfilled the gospel of Christ from Jerusalem and in a circle as far as Illyricum. ²⁰And so eagerly striving to preach the gospel where Christ was not named, so that I should not build on another's foundation; ²¹but even as it has been written, "They shall see, to whom nothing was announced concerning Him; and the ones that have not heard shall understand."

²²Because of this I also was much hindered from coming to you, ²³but now having no more place in these regions, and having a longing to come to you for many years, ²⁴whenever I may go into Spain, I will come to you; for I hope in traveling through to see you, and to be set forward there by you, if first I may be filled of you in part. ²⁵But now I am going to Jerusalem, doing service to the saints. ²⁶For Macedonia and Achaia thought it good to make certain gifts to the poor of the saints in Jerusalem. ²⁷For they thought it good, also being debtors of them; for if the nations shared in their spiritual things, they ought also to minister to them in the fleshly things. ²⁸Then completing and having sealed this fruit to them, I will go through you into Spain. ²⁹And I know that I will come to you in the fullness of the blessing of the gospel of Christ when I come.

³⁰But I exhort you, brothers, by our Lord Jesus Christ, and by the love of the Spirit, to strive together with me in your prayers to God on my behalf, ³¹that I be delivered from the disobedient ones in Judea, and that my ministry, which is to Jerusalem, may be acceptable to the saints; ³²that I may come to you in joy through the will of God, and that I may be refreshed with you. ³³And the God of peace be with all of you. Amen.

¹But I commend our sister Phoebe to you, being a servant of the church in Cenchrea; ²that you may receive her in the Lord, as is worthy of the saints, and may assist her in whatever thing she may need of you. For she also became a helper of many, and of myself.

³Greet Priscilla and Aquila, my fellow-workers in Christ Jesus, ⁴who laid down their neck for my soul; to whom not only I give thanks, but also all the churches of the nations. ⁵And greet the church at their house, and my beloved Epenetus, who is a firstfruit of Achaia for Christ. ⁶Greet Mary, who did much labor for us. ⁷Greet Andronicus and Junias, my kinsmen and fellow-prisoners, noted among the apostles, who also were in Christ before me. ⁸Greet Amplias my beloved in the Lord. ⁹Greet Urbanus, our helper in Christ, and my beloved Stachys. ¹⁰Greet Apelles, the approved in Christ; Greet those of Aristobulus. ¹¹Greet Herodion, my kinsman. Greet those of Narcissus, those being in the Lord. ¹²Greet Tryphena and Tryphosa, those laboring in the Lord. Greet Persis the beloved, who has labored in many things in the Lord. ¹³Greet Rufus, the chosen in the Lord, and his mother and mine. ¹⁴Greet Asyncritus, Phlegon, Hermas, Patrobas, Hermes, and the brothers with them. ¹⁵Greet Philologus and Julias, Nereus and his sister, and Olympas, and all the saints with them. ¹⁶Greet one another with a holy kiss. The churches of Christ greet you.

¹⁷And brothers I exhort you to watch those making divisions and causes of stumbling contrary to the teaching which you learned; and turn away from them. ¹⁸For such ones do not serve our Lord Jesus Christ, but their own belly; and by smooth speaking and flattering they deceive the hearts of those without guile. ¹⁹For your obedience reached to all; therefore, I rejoice over you. But I desire you to be truly wise as to good, but simple toward evil. ²⁰And the God of peace shall bruise Satan under your feet shortly.

The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you. Amen.

²¹Timothy my fellow-worker, and Lucius, and Jason, and Sosipater, my kinsman, greet you. ²²I, Tertius, the one writing the epistle, greet you in the Lord. ²³Gaius, the host of all the church and me, greets you. Erastus, the steward of the city, and Quartus the brother, greet you. ²⁴The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all. Amen.

²⁵Now to Him who is able to establish you according to my gospel, and the proclaiming of Jesus Christ, according to the revelation of the mystery having been kept unvoiced during eternal times, ²⁶but now has been made plain, and by prophetic Scriptures, according to the commandment of the eternal God, made known for obedience of faith to all the nations; ²⁷the only wise God through Jesus Christ, to whom be the glory forever. Amen.

THE FIRST EPISTLE TO THE CORINTHIANS

¹Paul, a called apostle of Jesus Christ, by the will of God, and Sosthenes the brother, ²to the church of God which is in Corinth, those having been sanctified in Christ Jesus, called-out saints, with all those calling on the name of our Lord Jesus Christ in every place, both theirs and ours: ³Grace to you, and peace, from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

⁴I give thanks to my God always concerning you for the grace of God given to you in Christ Jesus, ⁵that in everything you were enriched in Him, in all discourse and all knowledge, ⁶even as the testimony of Christ was confirmed in you, ⁷so that you are not lacking in any gift, awaiting the revelation of our Lord, Jesus Christ, ⁸who also will confirm you until the end, blameless in the day of our Lord Jesus Christ. ⁹God is faithful, through whom you were called into the fellowship of His Son, Jesus Christ, our Lord.

¹⁰Now I exhort you, brothers, through the name of our Lord Jesus Christ that you all say the same thing, and there not be divisions among you; but you be united in the same mind and in the same judgment. ¹¹For, my brothers, concerning you it was shown to me by those of Chloe that there are strifes among you. ¹²But I say this, that each of you says, I am of Paul, and I of Apollos, and I of Cephas, and I of Christ. ¹³Has Christ been divided? Was Paul crucified for you? Or were you baptized into the name of Paul? ¹⁴I give thanks to God that I did not baptize one of you, except Crispus and Gaius, ¹⁵that not anyone should say that you were baptized in my name. ¹⁶And I also baptized the household of Stephanas. For the rest, I do not know if I baptized any other. ¹⁷For Christ did not send me to baptize, but to announce the gospel; not in wisdom of words, that the cross of Christ not be made of no effect.

¹⁸For the word of the cross is foolishness to those being lost; but to us being saved, it is the power of God. ¹⁹For it has been written, "I will destroy the wisdom of the wise, and I will set aside the understanding of the understanding ones."

²⁰Where is the wise? Where the scribe? Where the lawyer of this world? Did God not make the wisdom of this world foolish? ²¹For since in the wisdom of God the world by wisdom did not know God, God was pleased through the foolishness of preaching to save the ones believing. ²²And since Jews ask for a sign, and Greeks seek wisdom, ²³but we preach Christ crucified — truly an offense to Jews, and foolishness to Greeks—²⁴but to the called-out ones, both to Jews and to Greeks, Christ is the power of God and the wisdom of God; ²⁵because the foolish thing of God is wiser than men; and the weak thing of God is stronger than men.

²⁶For you see your calling, brothers, that there are not many wise according to flesh, nor many powerful, nor many well-born. ²⁷But God chose the foolish things of the world that the wise might be put to shame, and God chose the weak things of the world so that He might put to shame the strong things. ²⁸And God chose the lowborn of the world, and the despised, and the things that are not, so that He might bring to nothing the things that are; ²⁹so that no flesh might glory in His presence. ³⁰But of Him, you are in Christ Jesus, who was made to us wisdom from God, both righteousness and sanctification and redemption, ³¹so that even as it has been written, "He that glories, let him glory in the Lord."

¹And when I came to you, brothers, I did not come with excellency of word or wisdom, declaring to you the testimony of God. ²For I decided not to know anything among you except Jesus Christ, and Him having been crucified. ³And I was with you in weakness, and in fear, and in much trembling. ⁴And my word and my preaching was not in moving words of human wisdom, but in proof of the Spirit and of power, ⁵that your faith might not be in the wisdom of men, but in the power of God.

⁶But we speak wisdom among the perfect; but not the wisdom of this age, nor of the rulers of this age, those being brought to nothing. ⁷But we speak the wisdom of God in a mystery, having been hidden, which God predetermined before the ages for our glory; ⁸which none of the rulers of this age has known. For if they had known, they would not have crucified the Lord of glory; ⁹according as it has been written, "Eye has not seen, and ear has not heard," nor has it risen up into the heart of man, "the things which God has prepared for those that love Him." ¹⁰But God revealed them to us by His Spirit, for the Spirit searches all things, even the depths of God. ¹¹For who among men knows the things of a man, except the spirit of a man within him? So also no one has known the things of God except the Spirit of God. ¹²But we have not received the spirit of the world, but the Spirit from God; ¹³which things we also speak, not in words taught in human wisdom, but in words taught of the Holy Spirit, comparing spiritual things with spiritual things. ¹⁴But a natural man does not receive the things of the Spirit of God, for they are foolishness to him, and he is not able to know them, because they are spiritually discerned. ¹⁵But the spiritual one discerns all things, but he is discerned by no one. ¹⁶For who knew the mind of the Lord? Who will teach Him? But we have the mind of Christ.

¹And, brothers, I was not able to speak to you as to spiritual ones, but as to fleshly ones, as to babes in Christ. ²I gave you milk to drink, and not food, for you were not then able; but neither now are you yet able. ³For you are yet fleshly. For where among you is jealousy, and strife, and divisions, are you not fleshly and walk according to man? ⁴For when one may say, Truly I am of Paul; and another, I of Apollos; are you not fleshly? ⁵What then is Paul? And what Apollos, but ministers through whom you believed, and to each as the Lord gave? ⁶I planted, Apollos watered, but God made to grow. ⁷So as neither he planting is anything, nor he watering, but God making to grow. ⁸So he planting and he watering are one, and each one will receive his own reward according to his own labor. ⁹For we are fellow-workers of God, a field of God; and you are a building of God. ¹⁰According to God's grace given to me, as a wise master-builder, I laid a foundation; but another builds on it. But let each one be careful how he builds. ¹¹For no one is able to lay any other foundation beside the One having been laid, who is Jesus Christ. ¹²And if anyone builds on this foundation gold, silver, precious stones, wood, grass, straw, ¹³the work of each will be revealed; for the Day will make it known, because it is revealed in fire; and the fire will prove the work of each, what sort it is. ¹⁴If the work of anyone which he built remains, he will receive a reward. ¹⁵If the work of anyone shall be consumed, he shall suffer loss; but he will be saved, but so as through fire.

¹⁶Do you not know that you are a temple of God, and the Spirit of God dwells in you? ¹⁷If anyone corrupts the temple of God, God will bring that one to corruption; for the temple of God is holy, which you are. ¹⁸Let no one deceive himself, if anyone thinks to be wise among you in this age, let him become foolish, that he may become wise. ¹⁹For the wisdom of this world is foolishness with God; for it has been written, "He takes the wise in their own craftiness." ²⁰And again, "The Lord knows the reasonings of the wise, that they are worthless." ²¹So let no one glory in men; for all things are yours, ²²whether Paul, or Apollos, or Cephas, or the world, or life, or death, or things present, or things to come — all are yours, ²³and you are Christ's, and Christ is God's.

¹Let a man think of us as ministers of Christ, and stewards of the mysteries of God. ²And the rest, it is sought among stewards that one be found faithful. ³But to me it is a small thing that I should be judged by you, or by a man's day. But neither do I judge myself. ⁴For I know nothing of myself, but I have not been justified by this; but He judging me is the Lord. ⁵Then do not judge anything before time, until the Lord comes, who will both shed light on the hidden things of darkness, and will reveal the counsels of the hearts. And then praise will be to each one from God.

⁶And, brothers, I transferred these things to myself and Apollos because of you, that in us you may learn not to think above what has been written, that you not be puffed up one over the other. ⁷For who makes you to differ? And what do you have that you did not receive? And if you received it, why do you boast as if you did not receive? ⁸You are already satisfied; you already became rich; you reigned without us—and oh that you really did reign, so that we also might reign with you! ⁹For I think that God set us out last, the apostles, as appointed to death, because we became a spectacle to the world, even to angels and to men. ¹⁰*We are* fools for the sake of Christ, but you are wise in Christ. We are weak, but you are strong. You are honored, but we not honored. ¹¹Until the present hour we also hunger and thirst, and are naked, and are buffeted, and wander homeless, ¹²and labor, working with our own hands. Being cursed, we bless; persecuted, we bear; ¹³defamed, we entreat — we have become as filth of the world, dirt wiped off by all until now. ¹⁴I do not write these things shaming you, but warning you as my beloved children. ¹⁵For if you should have myriads of teachers in Christ, yet not many fathers; for I fathered you in Christ Jesus through the gospel. ¹⁶Then I urge you, be imitators of me.

¹⁷Because of this I sent Timothy to you, who is my beloved child, and faithful in the Lord, who will remind you of my ways in Christ, even as I teach everywhere in every church. ¹⁸As to my not coming to you now, some were puffed up. ¹⁹But if the Lord wills, I will come to you shortly. And I will not know the word of those who have been puffed up, but the power. ²⁰For the kingdom of God is not in word, but in power. ²¹What do you desire? Shall I come to you with a rod, or in love and a spirit of meekness?

¹Everywhere it is heard that fornication is among you, and such fornication which is not named among the heathen, so as one to have his father's wife. ²And you are puffed up, and have not rather mourned, that he that did this deed might be taken from your midst. ³For as being absent in body, but being present in spirit, I have already judged the one who has worked out this thing, as if I were present: ⁴In the name of our Lord Jesus Christ— you being gathered together with my spirit, with the power of our Lord Jesus Christ— ⁵to deliver such a one to Satan for destruction of the flesh, that the spirit may be saved in the day of the Lord Jesus. ⁶Your boast is not good. Do you not know that a little leaven leavens all the lump? ⁷Then purge out the old leaven so that you may be a new lump, even as you are unleavened. For also Christ our Pass-over was sacrificed for us. ⁸So let us keep the feast, not with old leaven, nor with leaven of malice and of evil, but with unleavened bread of sincerity and truth.

⁹I wrote to you in the letter not to associate with fornicators; ¹⁰and not altogether with the fornicators of this world, or with the covetous, or with plunderers, or with idolaters, since then you must go out of the world. ¹¹But now I wrote to you not to associate intimately; if anyone is called a brother and is either a fornicator, or a covetous one, or an idolater, or a reviler, or a drunkard, or a plunderer, with such a one not to eat. ¹²For what is it to me also to judge the ones outside? Do you not judge those inside? ¹³But God will judge the ones outside. And you shall put out the evil one from you.

¹Does anyone of you having a matter against another dare to be judged before the unjust, and not before the saints? ²Do you not know that the saints will judge the world? And if the world is judged by you, are you unworthy of small judgments? ³Or do you not know that we shall judge angels, not to speak of this life? ⁴If, then, you truly have judgments of this life, those being least esteemed in the church, you sit these. ⁵For I speak shame to you. So, is there not a wise one among you, not even one who will be able to give judgment on his brother in your midst? ⁶But brother is judged with brother, and this before unbelievers! ⁷Indeed, then, there is already a failure with you all, that you have lawsuits with yourselves. Why not instead be wronged? Why not instead be defrauded? ⁸But you do wrong, and defraud; and these things to brothers!

⁹Or do you not know that unjust ones will not inherit the kingdom of God? Do not be led astray, neither fornicators, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor abusers, nor homosexuals, ¹⁰nor thieves, nor covetous ones, nor drunkards, nor revilers, nor plunderers shall inherit the kingdom of God. ¹¹And some were these things, but you were washed; but you were sanctified; but you were justified in the name of the Lord Jesus, and in the Spirit of our God.

¹²All things are lawful to me, but not all things profit. All things are lawful to me, but I will not be ruled by any. ¹³Foods for the belly, and the belly for foods; but God will destroy both this and these. But the body is not for fornication, but for the Lord, and the Lord for the body. ¹⁴And God both raised up the Lord, and will raise us up through His power. ¹⁵Do you not know that your bodies are members of Christ? Then taking the members of Christ, shall I make them members of a harlot? Let it not be! ¹⁶Or do you not know that he being joined to a harlot is one body? For He says, "The two shall be into one flesh." ¹⁷But he being joined to the Lord is one spirit. ¹⁸Flee fornication. Every sin which a man may do is outside the body, but he doing fornication sins against his own body. ¹⁹Or do you not know that your body is a temple of the Holy Spirit in you, which you have from God; and you are not of yourselves? ²⁰You were bought with a price; then glorify God in your body, and in your spirit, which are of God.

¹But concerning what you wrote to me, it is good for a man not to touch a woman; ²but because of fornication, let each have his own wife, and let each have her own husband. ³Let the husband give due kindness to the wife; and likewise the wife also to the husband. ⁴The wife does not have authority of her own body, but the husband. And likewise also the husband does not have authority over his own body, but the wife. ⁵Do not deprive one another, unless by agreement for a time, that you may be free for fasting and prayer. And come together again on the same place, that Satan may not tempt you through your incontinence. ⁶But I say this by permission, not by command. ⁷But I desire all men also to be as myself. But each has his own gift from God, one this way, and one that way.

⁸But I say to the unmarried men, and to the widows, it is good for them if they also remain as I. ⁹But if they do not have self-control, let them marry; for it is better to marry than to be inflamed. ¹⁰But I command the ones being married—not I, but the Lord — a woman not to be separated from her husband; ¹¹but if indeed she is separated, remain unmarried; or be reconciled to the husband; and a husband not to leave his wife. ¹²But to the rest I say, not the Lord, if any brother has an unbelieving wife, and she consents to live with him, let him not leave her. ¹³And a woman who has an unbelieving husband, and he consents to live with her, let her not leave him. ¹⁴For the unbelieving husband has been sanctified by the wife; and the unbelieving wife has been sanctified by the husband; else, then, your children are unclean; but now they are holy. ¹⁵But if the unbelieving one separates, let them be separated; the brother or the sister is not in bondage in such matters; but God has called us in peace. ¹⁶For what do you know, wife, whether you will save the husband; or what do you know, husband, whether you will save the wife? ¹⁷Only as God has divided to each, each as the Lord has called, so let him walk. So I command in the churches.

¹⁸*Was* anyone called having been circumcised? Do not be uncircumcised. Was anyone called in uncircumcision? Do not be circumcised. ¹⁹Circumcision is nothing, and uncircumcision is nothing; but the keeping of God's commands. ²⁰Each one in the calling in which he was called, in this remain.

²¹Were you called as a slave? It does not matter to you. But if you are able to be free, rather use it. ²²For the one called a slave in the Lord is a freed man of the Lord. And likewise, the one called a free man is a slave of Christ. ²³You were redeemed with a price; do not become slaves of men. ²⁴Each in whatever state called, brothers, in this remain with God.

²⁵But about virgins, I have no command of the Lord. But I give judgment, as having received mercy by the Lord to be faithful. ²⁶Then I think this to be good, because of the present necessity: that it is good for a man to be thus. ²⁷Have you been bound to a wife? Do not seek to be released. Have you been released from a wife? Do not seek a wife. ²⁸But if you also marry, you do not sin. And if the virgin marries, she does not sin. But such will have trouble in the flesh. But I am sparing you. ²⁹But I say this, brothers, that the time has been cut short. For the rest is that even the ones having wives should be as not having; ³⁰and those weeping as not weeping; and those rejoicing as not rejoicing; and those buying as not possessing; ³¹and those using this world as not abusing it; for the mode of this world is passing away.

³²But I desire you to be without care. The unmarried one cares for the things of the Lord, how to please the Lord; ³³but the one marrying cares for the things of the world, how to please the wife. ³⁴The wife and the virgin are different. The unmarried one cares for the things of the Lord, that she be holy in both body and spirit. But the married one cares for the things of the world, how to please the husband. ³⁵And I say this for your advantage, not that I put a snare before you; but for the fitting thing, and waiting on the Lord without distraction.

³⁶But if anyone thinks it behaving indecently toward his virginity — if he is beyond his prime, and so it ought to be — let him do what he desires; he does not sin; let them marry. ³⁷But he who stands firm in heart, not having necessity, but has authority as to his own will, and has judged this in his heart, to keep his virginity; he does well.

³⁸So that he that gives in marriage does well; and he that does not give in marriage does better.

³⁹A wife is bound by law for as long a time as her husband lives; but if her husband sleeps, she is free to be married to whomever she desires, only in the Lord. ⁴⁰But she is happier if she remains so, according to my judgment. And I think I also have the Spirit of God.

CHAPTER 8

¹But concerning the sacrifices to idols, we know that we all have knowledge. Knowledge puffs up, but love builds up. ²But if anyone thinks to know anything, he still has known nothing as he ought to know. ³But if anyone loves God, he has been known by Him. ⁴Then concerning the eating of things sacrificed to idols, we know that an idol is nothing in the world, and that there is no other God except one. ⁵For even if some are called gods, either in Heaven or on the earth; even as there are many gods, and many lords; ⁶but to us is one God, the Father, of whom are all things, and we for Him; and one Lord, Jesus Christ, through whom are all things, and we by Him. ⁷But the knowledge is not in all; but some being aware of the idol eat as an idolatrous sacrifice until now; and their conscience being weak is defiled. ⁸But food will not commend us to God. For neither if we eat do we excel, nor if we do not eat are we behind. ⁹But be careful lest this authority of yours become a cause of stumbling to the weak ones. ¹⁰For if anyone sees you, he having knowledge, sitting in an idol-temple, will not the weak one's conscience be lifted up so as to eat things sacrificed to idols? ¹¹And on your knowledge the weak brother will fall, he for whom Christ died. ¹²And sinning in this way against your brothers, and wounding their conscience, being weak, you sin against Christ. ¹³On account of this, if food offends my brother, I will not at all eat flesh forever, so that I do not offend my brother.

¹Am I not an apostle? Am I not free? Have I not seen our Lord Jesus Christ?

Are you not my work in the Lord? ²If I am not an apostle to others, yet I am indeed to you; for you are the seal of my apostleship in the Lord. ³My defense to those examining me is this: ⁴Have we not authority to eat and to drink? ⁵Have we not authority to lead about a sister, a wife, as the rest of the apostles also, and Cephas, and the Lord's brothers do? ⁶Or is it only Barnabas and I who have no authority to quit work? ⁷Who serves as a soldier at his own wages at any time? Who plants a vineyard, and does not eat of its fruit? Or who shepherds a flock, and does not eat of the milk of the flock? ⁸Do I speak these things according to man, or does not the Law say these things also? ⁹For it has been written in the Law of Moses, "You shall not muzzle an ox treading out grain." Is it that it matters to God as to oxen? ¹⁰Or does He say it altogether because of us? It is written because of us, so that the one plowing ought to plow in hope; and the one threshing in hope to partake of hope.

¹¹If we have sowed spiritual things to you, is it a great thing if we shall reap of your fleshly things? ¹²If others have a share of the authority over you, should not rather we? But we did not use this authority, but we endured all things, so that we might not give a hindrance to the gospel of Christ. ¹³Do you not know that those who have labored eat of the holy things of the temple? Those attending on the altar partake with the altar. ¹⁴So also the Lord ordained those announcing the gospel to live from the gospel.

¹⁵But I have not used one of these. And I do not write these things that it be so with me. For it is good to me rather to die than that anyone nullify my glorying. ¹⁶For if I announce the gospel, no glory is to me; for necessity is laid on me, and it is woe to me if I do not announce the gospel. ¹⁷For if I do this willingly, I have a reward; but if unwillingly, I am entrusted with a stewardship. ¹⁸What then is my reward? That announcing the gospel I may make the gospel of Christ free, so as not to use fully my authority in the gospel. ¹⁹For being free of all, I enslaved myself to all, that I might gain the more. ²⁰And I became as a Jew to the Jews, that I might gain Jews; to those under Law as under Law, that I might gain those under Law; ²¹to those without Law as without Law—not being without law of God, but under the law of Christ — that I might gain those without Law. ²²I became to the weak as weak, that I might gain the weak. To all I have become all things, that in any and every way I might save some. ²³And I do this for the gospel, that I might become a fellow-partaker of it.

²⁴Do you not know that those running in a stadium indeed all run, but one receives the prize? So run that you may obtain. ²⁵But everyone striving in all things controls himself. Then those truly that they may receive a corruptible crown, but we an incorruptible. ²⁶So I run accordingly, as not uncertainly; so I fight, as not beating air; ²⁷but I buffet my body and lead it captive, lest proclaiming to others I myself might be rejected.

CHAPTER 10

¹And I do not want you to be ignorant, brothers, that our fathers were all under the cloud; and all passed through the Sea. ²And all were baptized to Moses in the cloud, and in the Sea; ³and all ate the same spiritual food. ⁴And all drank the same spiritual drink; for they drank of the spiritual rock following—and that Rock was Christ. ⁵Yet God was not pleased with most of them; for they were scattered in the desert. ⁶But these things became examples for us, so that we may not be lusters after evil, even as those indeed lusted. ⁷Neither be idolaters, even as some of them, as it has been written, "The people sat down to eat and drink, and stood up to play." ⁸Nor should we commit fornication, as some of them fornicated, and twenty-three thousand fell in one day. ⁹Neither overtempt Christ, as some of them tempted, and perished by serpents. ¹⁰Neither should you murmur, as also some of them murmured, and perished by the destroyer. ¹¹And all these things happened to those as examples, and it was written for our warning, on whom the ends of the ages have come. ¹²So that he that thinks to stand, let him be careful that he not fall. ¹³No temptation has taken you except what is human; but God is faithful, who will not allow you to be tempted above what you are able. But with the temptation, He will also make the way out, so that you may be able to bear it.

¹⁴On account of this, flee from idolatry, my beloved.

¹⁵I speak as to prudent ones; you judge what I say. ¹⁶The cup of blessing that we bless, is it not a partaking of the blood of Christ? The bread which we break, is it not a partaking of the body of Christ? ¹⁷Because we, the many, are one bread, one body, for we all partake of the one bread. ¹⁸Look at Israel according to flesh; are not those eating the sacrifices partakers of the altar? ¹⁹What then do I say, that an idol is anything, or that an idolatrous sacrifice is anything? ²⁰But the things the nations sacrifice, they sacrifice to demons, and not to God. But I do not want you to become sharers of demons; ²¹you cannot drink the cup of the Lord and a cup of demons; you cannot partake of the table of the Lord, and a table of demons. ²²Or do we provoke the Lord to jealousy? Are we stronger than He?

²³All things are lawful to me, but not all things profit. All things are lawful to me, but not all things build up. ²⁴Let no one seek the things of himself, but each one that of the other. ²⁵Eat everything being sold in a meat market, examining nothing because of conscience, ²⁶for "the earth is the Lord's, and the fullness of it." ²⁷And if any of the unbelievers invite you, and you desire to go, eat everything set before you, examining nothing because of conscience. ²⁸But if anyone tells you, This is slain in sacrifice to idols; do not eat, because of that one pointing it out, and the conscience; for "the earth is the Lord's, and the fullness of it." ²⁹But I say conscience, not that of himself, but that of the other. For why is my freedom judged by another's conscience? ³⁰But if I partake by grace, why am I evil spoken of because of what I give thanks for? ³¹Then whether you eat or drink, or whatever you do, do all things to the glory of God. ³²Be without offense both to Jews and Greeks, and to the church of God. ³³Even as I also please all in all things, not seeking my own advantage, but that of the many, that they may be saved.

¹Be imitators of me, as I also of Christ.

²But I praise you, brothers, that in all things you have remembered me; and even as I delivered to you, you hold fast the traditions. ³But I want you to know that Christ is the Head of every man, and the man is the head of a woman, and God is the head of Christ. ⁴Every man praying or prophesying, having anything down over his head shames his Head. ⁵And every woman praying or prophesying with the head uncovered shames her head; for it is the same as being shaved. ⁶For if a woman is not covered, let her also be shorn. But if it is shameful for a woman to be shorn, or to be shaved, let her be covered. ⁷For truly a man ought not to have the head covered, being the image and glory of God. But woman is the glory of man— ⁸for man is not of the woman, but woman of man; ⁹for also man was not created for the sake of the woman, but woman for the sake of the man; ¹⁰because of this, the woman ought to have authority on the head, because of the angels— ¹¹however, man is not apart from woman, nor woman apart from man, in the Lord. ¹²For as the woman is out of the man, so also the man through the woman; but all things from God. ¹³You judge among yourselves: is it fitting for a woman to pray to God uncovered? ¹⁴Or does not nature herself teach you that if a man indeed adorns the hair, it is a dishonor to him? ¹⁵But if a woman adorns the hair, it is a glory to her; because the beautified hair has been given to her instead of a veil. ¹⁶But if anyone thinks to be contentious, we do not have such a custom, nor the churches of God.

¹⁷But enjoining this, I do not praise you, because you come together not for the better, but for the worse. ¹⁸Indeed, first, I hear divisions to be among you when you come together in the church. And I believe some part. ¹⁹For there must also be heresies among you, so that the approved ones may become revealed among you. ²⁰Then you coming together into one place, it is not to eat the Lord's supper. ²¹For each one takes his own supper first in the eating; and one is hungry, and another drunken. ²²For do you not have houses to eat and to drink? Or do you despise the church of God, and shame those who have not? What do I say to you? Shall I praise you for this? I do not praise.

²³For I received from the Lord what I also delivered to you, that the Lord Jesus in the night in which He was betrayed took bread; ²⁴and giving thanks He broke and said, Take, eat; this is My body which is broken on behalf of you; this do in remembrance of Me. ²⁵In the same way take the cup also, after supping, saying, This cup is the New Covenant in My blood; as often as you drink, do this in remembrance of Me. ²⁶For as often as you may eat this bread, and drink this cup, you solemnly proclaim the death of the Lord, until He shall come. ²⁷So that whoever should eat this bread, or drink the cup of the Lord, unworthily, that one will be guilty of the body and of the blood of the Lord. ²⁸But let a man examine himself, and so let him eat of the bread, and let him drink of the cup; ²⁹for he eating and drinking unworthily eats and drinks judgment to himself, not discerning the body of the Lord. ³⁰For this reason many among you are weak and feeble, and many sleep. ³¹For if we discerned ourselves, we would not be judged. ³²But being judged, we are corrected by the Lord, that we not be condemned with the world. ³³So that, my brothers, coming together to eat, wait for one another. ³⁴But if anyone is hungry, let him eat at home, that you may not come together for judgment. And the other things I will set in order whenever I come.

CHAPTER 12

¹But as to spiritual things, brothers, I do not wish you to be ignorant. ²You know that being led away you Gentiles were led to dumb idols. ³Because of this I make known to you that no one speaking by the Spirit of God says, Jesus is a curse. And no one is able to say Jesus is Lord, except by the Holy Spirit. ⁴But there are differences of gifts, but the same Spirit; ⁵and there are differences of ministries, yet the same Lord. ⁶And there are differences of workings, but the same God is working all things in all. ⁷But to each one is given the showing forth of the Spirit to our profit. ⁸For through the Spirit is given to one a word of wisdom; and to another a word of knowledge, according to the same Spirit; ⁹and to another, faith by the same Spirit; and to another, gifts of healing by the same Spirit; ¹⁰and to another, workings of powers; and to another, prophecy; and to another, discerning of spirits; and to another, kinds of languages; and to another, interpretation of languages. ¹¹But the one and the same Spirit works all these things, distributing separately to each as He wills.

¹²Even as the body is one, and has many members, but all the members of the one body, being many, is one body; so also is Christ. ¹³For also we all were baptized by one Spirit into one body, whether Jews or Greeks, whether slaves or free, even all were given to drink into one Spirit. ¹⁴For also the body is not one member, but many. ¹⁵If the foot says, Because I am not a hand, I am not of the body; on account of this, is it not of the body? ¹⁶And if the ear says, Because I am not an eye, I am not of the body; on account of this, is it not of the body? ¹⁷If all the body was an eye, where would be the hearing? If all hearing, where the smelling? ¹⁸But now God set the members, each one of them, in the body, even as He desired. ¹⁹But if all was one member, where would the body be? ²⁰But now, indeed, many are the members, but one body. ²¹And the eye is not able to say to the hand, I have no need of you; or again the head to the feet, I have no need of you. ²²But much rather the members of the body seeming to be weaker are necessary. ²³And those of the body we think to be less honorable, to these we put more abundant honor around them. And our unrepresentable members have more abundant propriety. ²⁴But our representable members have no need. But God tempered the body together, giving more abundant honor to the member having need, ²⁵that there not be division in the body, but that the members might have the same care for one another. ²⁶And if one member suffers, all the members suffer with it. If one member is glorified, all the members rejoice with it.

²⁷And you are a body of Christ, and members in part. ²⁸And God placed some in the church: firstly apostles; secondly, prophets; thirdly, teachers; then works of power; then gifts of healing, helps, governings, kinds of languages. ²⁹*Are* all apostles? All prophets? All teachers? All workers of power? ³⁰Do all have gifts of healing? Do all speak languages? Do all interpret? ³¹But zealously strive after the better gifts. And yet I show you a way according to excellence:

¹If I speak with the tongues of men and of angels, but I do not have love, I have become as sounding brass or a clanging cymbal. ²And if I have prophecies, and know all mysteries and all knowledge, and if I have all faith so as to move mountains, but do not have love, I am nothing. ³And if I give out all my goods, and if I deliver my body that I be burned, but I do not have love, I am not profited anything. ⁴Love has patience, is kind; love is not envious; love is not vain, is not puffed up; ⁵does not behave indecently; does not pursue its own things; is not easily provoked; thinks no evil; ⁶does not rejoice in unrighteousness, but rejoices in the truth; ⁷quietly covers all things; believes all things; hopes all things; endures all things; ⁸love never fails. But if there are prophecies, they will be caused to cease; if tongues, they shall cease; if knowledge, it will be caused to cease. ⁹For we know in part, and we prophesy in part; ¹⁰but when the perfect thing comes, then that which is in part will be caused to cease.

¹¹When I was an infant, I spoke as an infant, I thought as an infant, I reasoned as an infant. But when I became a man, I caused to cease the things of the infant. ¹²For now we see through a mirror in dimness, but then face to face. Now I know in part, but then I will fully know even as I also was fully known. ¹³And now faith, hope, and love, these three things remain; but the greatest of these is love.

¹Pursue love, and seek eagerly the spiritual things, but rather that you may prophesy. ²For the one speaking in a tongue does not speak to men, but to God; for no one hears, but in spirit he speaks mysteries. ³But the one prophesying to men speaks for building up, and encouragement, and comfort. ⁴The one speaking in a tongue builds himself up; but he prophesying builds up a church. ⁵And I wish all of you to speak in languages, but rather that you may prophesy — for greater is the one prophesying than the one speaking in tongues, unless he interpret that the church may receive building up. ⁶But now, brothers, if I come to you speaking in tongues, what will I profit you, except I speak to you either in revelation, or in knowledge, or in prophecy, or in teaching? ⁷Yet lifeless things giving a sound, whether pipe or harp, if they do not give a distinction in the sound, how will it be known what is being piped or harped? ⁸For also if a trumpet gives an uncertain sound, who will get himself ready for war?

⁹So also you, if you do not give a clear word through the language, how will it be known what is being said? For you will be speaking into air. ¹⁰So it may be many kinds of sounds are in the world, and not one is without distinct sound. ¹¹If, then, I do not know the power of the sound, I will be a foreigner to him speaking, and he speaking in me a foreigner. ¹²So also you, since you are zealous of spiritual things, seek to build up the church that you may abound. ¹³So then, the one speaking in a language, let him pray that he may interpret. ¹⁴For if I pray in a tongue, my spirit prays, but my mind is unfruitful. ¹⁵What then is it? I will pray with the spirit, and I will also pray with the mind; I will sing with the spirit, and I will also sing with the mind. ¹⁶Else, if you bless in the spirit, the one occupying the place of the unlearned, how will he say the amen at your giving of thanks, since he does not know what you say? ¹⁷For you truly give thanks well, but the other is not built up. ¹⁸I thank my God that I speak more languages than all of you. ¹⁹But in a church I desire to speak five words with my mind, that I may also instruct others, than myriads of words in a foreign language.

²⁰Brothers, do not be children in your minds, but in malice be like infants, and in your minds be mature. ²¹It has been written in the Law, "By other tongues and by other lips I will speak to this people, and even so they will not hear Me, says the Lord." ²²So that tongues are not a sign to those believing, but to those not believing. But prophecy is not to those not believing, but to those believing. ²³Then if the whole church comes together, and all speak in languages, and uninstructed ones or unbelievers come in, will they not say that you rave? ²⁴But if all prophesy, and some unbeliever or one not instructed comes in, he is convicted by all, he is judged by all. ²⁵And so the secrets of his heart become revealed; and so, falling on his face, he will worship God, declaring that God is truly among you.

²⁶Then what is it, brothers? When you come together, each one of you has a psalm; he has a teaching; he has a language; he has a revelation; he has an interpretation. Let all things be for building up. ²⁷If one speaks in a language, let it be by two or three at the most; and in turn, also let one interpret. ²⁸And if there is no interpreter, let him be silent in church; and let him speak to himself and to God. ²⁹And if there are two or three prophets, let them speak, and let the others discern. ³⁰But if a revelation occurs to another sitting by, let the first be silent. ³¹For you can all prophesy one by one, that all may learn, and all may be encouraged. ³²And the spirits of prophets are subject to prophets. ³³For God is not God of confusion, but of peace, as in all the churches of the saints.

³⁴Let your women be silent in the churches, for it is not allowed to them to speak, but to be in subjection, as also the Law says. ³⁵But if they desire to learn anything, let them question their husbands at home; for it is a shame for a woman to speak in a church. ³⁶Or did the word of God go out from you? Or did it reach only to you?

³⁷If anyone thinks to be a prophet, or a spiritual one, let him recognize what I write to you, that they are a command of the Lord.

³⁸But if any be ignorant, let him be ignorant.

³⁹So then, brothers, seek eagerly to prophesy, and do not forbid to speak in languages. ⁴⁰And let all things be done decently and in order.

¹But, brothers, I reveal to you the gospel which I preached to you, which you also received, in which you also stand, ²by which you also are being saved, if you hold fast the word which I preached to you; unless you believed in vain. ³For I delivered to you in the first place what I also received, that Christ died for our sins, according to the Scriptures; and that He was buried; and that He was raised the third day, according to the Scriptures; and that He appeared to Peter, and then to the twelve. ⁴Then He appeared to over five hundred brothers at once, of whom the most remain until now; but some also fell asleep. ⁵Then He was seen by James; then by all the apostles; ⁶and last of all, even as if to one born out of time, He was also seen by me. ⁷For I am the least of the apostles, who am not sufficient to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the church of God. ⁸But by the grace of God I am what I am, and His grace which was toward me has not been without fruit, but I labored more abundantly than all of them — yet not I, but the grace of God with me. ⁹Then whether they or I, so we preach, and so you believed.

¹²But if Christ is proclaimed, that He was raised from the dead, how do some among you say that there is not a resurrection of the dead? ¹³But if there is not a resurrection of the dead, neither has Christ been raised. ¹⁴But if Christ has not been raised, then our proclamation is worthless, and your faith is also worthless. ¹⁵And also we are found to be false witnesses of God, because we witnessed as to God that He raised Christ, whom He did not raise, then, if the dead are not raised.

¹⁶For if the dead are not raised, Christ has not been raised. ¹⁷But if Christ has not been raised, your faith is foolish; you are still in your sins. ¹⁸And then those that fell asleep in Christ were lost. ¹⁹If we only have hope in Christ in this life, we are of all men most miserable.

²⁰But now Christ has been raised from the dead; He became the firstfruit of those having fallen asleep. ²¹For since death is through man, also through a Man is a resurrection of the dead; ²²for in Adam all die, so also in Christ all will be made alive. ²³But each in his own order: Christ, the firstfruit; afterward those of Christ at His coming. ²⁴Then is the end—when He delivers the kingdom to God, even the Father; when He makes to cease all rule and all authority and power—²⁵for it is right for Him to reign until He puts all the enemies under His feet; ²⁶*the* last enemy made to cease is death. ²⁷For He subjected all things under His feet; but when He says that all things have been subjected, it is plain that it excepts Him who has subjected all things to Him. ²⁸But when all things are subjected to Him, then the Son Himself also will be subjected to the One who has subjected all things to Him, that God may be all things in all.

²⁹Otherwise, what will they do, those being baptized on behalf of the dead? If the dead are not at all raised, why indeed are they baptized on behalf of the dead? ³⁰Why are we also in danger every hour? ³¹Day by day I die, by your boasting, which I have in Christ Jesus our Lord. ³²If according to man I fought with beasts in Ephesus, what the profit to me if the dead are not raised?—"Let us eat and drink, for tomorrow we die." ³³Do not be led astray; bad companionships ruin good habits. ³⁴Be righteously awake, and do not sin; for some have ignorance of God. I speak to your shame.

³⁵But someone will say, How are the dead raised? And with what body do they come?

³⁶Foolish one! What you sow is not made alive unless it dies. ³⁷And what you sow, you do not sow the body that is going to be, but a bare grain—it may be of wheat, or of some of the rest—³⁸and God gives it a body according as He willed, and to each of the seeds its own body.

³⁹Not every flesh is the same flesh, but one flesh of men, and another flesh of beasts, and another of fish, and another of birds. ⁴⁰And there are heavenly bodies, and earthly bodies. But the glory of the heavenly is truly different, and that of the earthly different; ⁴¹one glory of the sun, and another glory of the moon, and another glory of the stars; for star differs from star in glory. ⁴²So also the resurrection of the dead. It is sown in corruption; it is raised in incorruption. ⁴³It is sown in dishonor, it is raised in glory. It is sown in weakness, it is raised in power. ⁴⁴It is sown a natural body, it is raised a spiritual body; there is a natural body, and there is a spiritual body. ⁴⁵So also it has been written, "The first man, Adam, became a living soul;" the last Adam became a life-giving Spirit. ⁴⁶But not the spiritual first, but the natural; afterward the spiritual. ⁴⁷The first man was out of earth, earthy. The second Man was the Lord out of Heaven. ⁴⁸Such the earthy man, such also the earthy ones. And such the heavenly Man, such also the heavenly ones. ⁴⁹And as we bore the image of the earthy man, we shall also bear the image of the heavenly Man.

⁵⁰And I say this, brothers, that flesh and blood is not able to inherit the kingdom of God, nor does corruption inherit incorruption. ⁵¹Behold, I speak a mystery to you: we shall not all fall asleep, but we shall all be changed. ⁵²In a moment, in a glance of an eye, at the last trumpet; for a trumpet will sound, and the dead will be raised incorruptible, and we shall all be changed. ⁵³For this corruptible must put on incorruption, and this mortal must put on immortality. ⁵⁴But when this corruptible shall put on incorruption, and this mortal shall put on immortality, then will take place the word that has been written, "Death was swallowed up in victory. ⁵⁵O death, where is your sting? Hades, where is your victory?" ⁵⁶Now the sting of death is sin, and the power of sin is the law; ⁵⁷but thanks be to God who gives us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ! ⁵⁸So that, my beloved brothers, you be firm, unmoveable, abounding in the work of the Lord always, knowing that your labor is not without fruit in the Lord.

¹And about the collection for the saints, as I charged the churches of Galatia, so also you do. ²On the first of a week, let each of you put by himself, storing up whatever he has prospered, that there not be collections then when I come. ³And when I arrive, whomever you approve, through these epistles, I will send to carry your grace to Jerusalem. ⁴And if it is suitable for me to go also, they shall go with me. ⁵But I will come to you when I go through Macedonia. For I am going through Macedonia. ⁶And possibly I will stay with you, or even spend the winter, that you may set me forward wherever I may go. ⁷For I do not desire to see you now in passage, but I am hoping to remain some time with you, if the Lord permits. ⁸But I will remain in Ephesus until Pentecost. ⁹For a door opened to me, great and effective; and many are opposing.

¹⁰But if Timothy comes, see that he is with you without fear; for he works the work of the Lord, even as I. ¹¹Then do not let any despise him, but set him forward in peace, that he may come to me; for I am waiting for him with the brothers. ¹²And concerning the brother Apollos, I much urged him that he come to you with the brothers; but it was not altogether his will that he come now. But he will come when he has opportunity.

¹³Watch! Stand fast in the faith! Be men! Be strong! ¹⁴Let all your things be in love.

¹⁵But I exhort you, brothers. You know the house of Stephanas, that it is the firstfruit of Achaia, and they appointed themselves to ministry to the saints. ¹⁶See that you also may submit to such ones, and to everyone working and laboring with me. ¹⁷And I rejoice at the coming of Stephanas, and of Fortunatus and Achaicus, because these supplied your lack. ¹⁸For they refreshed my spirit and yours. Then recognize such ones.

¹⁹The churches of Asia greet you. Aquila and Priscilla much greet you in the Lord, with the church in their house. ²⁰The brothers all greet you. Greet one another with a holy kiss.

²¹The greeting with my hand, Paul. ²²If anyone does not love the Lord Jesus Christ, let him be a curse. The Lord comes!

²³The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ be with you. ²⁴My love be with all of you in Christ Jesus. Amen.

THE SECOND EPISTLE TO THE CORINTHIANS

CHAPTER 1

¹Paul, an apostle of Jesus Christ, through the will of God, and Timothy the brother, to the church of God being in Corinth, with all the saints being in all Achaia, ²Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

³Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of compassions and God of all comfort, ⁴the One comforting us on all our affliction, through the comfort by which we ourselves are comforted by God. ⁵Because the sufferings of Christ abound in us, so also our comfort abounds through Christ. ⁶But if we are afflicted, it is for your comfort and salvation, being worked out in the endurance of the same sufferings which we also suffer. If we are comforted, it is for your comfort and salvation; ⁷and our hope for you is certain, knowing that even as you are sharers of the sufferings, so also of the comfort.

⁸For, brothers, we do not want you to be ignorant as to our affliction having happened to us in Asia, that we were excessively pressed down beyond our power, so as for us even to despair of living. ⁹But we ourselves have the sentence of death in ourselves, that we should not trust on ourselves, but on God, the One rising the dead; ¹⁰who delivered us from so great a death, and does deliver; in whom we have hope that He will still deliver us, ¹¹you also laboring together for us in prayer, that the gracious gift by many persons be the cause of thanksgiving through many for us.

¹²For our glorying is this, the testimony of our conscience, that we had our conduct in the world in simplicity and sincerity of God, not in fleshly wisdom, but in the grace of God, and more abundantly toward you. ¹³For we do not write other things to you than what you read, or even recognize; and I hope that you will recognize even to the end, ¹⁴even as you also in part recognized us, that we are your glorying, even as also you are ours in the day of the Lord Jesus.

¹⁵And in this confidence, I purposed to come to you before now, that you might have a second benefit, ¹⁶and to go through you into Macedonia, and again from Macedonia to come to you; and to be set forward by you to Judea. ¹⁷Then purposing this, did I indeed use lightness? Or what I purposed, did I purpose according to flesh, that may be with me yes, yes, and no, no? ¹⁸But God is faithful, that our word to you did not become Yes and No. ¹⁹For Jesus Christ the Son of God, the One proclaimed among you by us, through me and Silvanus and Timothy, was not Yes and No, but has been Yes in Him. ²⁰For as many promises as are of God, in Him they are Yes, and in Him are Amen, for glory to God through us. ²¹But He confirming us and anointing us with you in Christ is God. ²²And He having sealed us, and giving the earnest of the Spirit in our hearts.

²³And I call God as witness to my soul that to spare you I came no more to Corinth. ²⁴Not that we rule over your faith, but we are fellow-workers of your joy. For by faith you stand.

¹But I decided this within myself, not to come to you again in grief. ²For if I grieved you, who yet will be making me glad, if not the one being grieved by me? ³And I wrote this same thing to you, lest coming I might have grief from those of whom I ought to rejoice; trusting in you all that my joy is the joy of all of you. ⁴For out of much affliction and agony of heart I wrote to you, through many tears, not that you be grieved, but that you know the love which I have more abundantly toward you.

⁵But if anyone has grieved, he has not grieved me, but in part, that I not overbear all of you. ⁶This censure by the majority is enough for such a one. ⁷So that on the contrary, you should rather forgive and comfort such a one, that he not be swallowed up by the overflowing grief. ⁸So I beseech you to confirm your love to him. ⁹For to this end I also wrote, that I might know the proof of you, if you are obedient in all things. ¹⁰But to whom you forgive anything, I also. For also if I have forgiven anything, of whom I have forgiven it, it is for you, in Christ's person; ¹¹so that we should not be overreached by Satan, for we are not ignorant of his devices.

¹²And coming to Troas for the gospel of Christ, and a door having been opened to me in the Lord, ¹³I had no ease in my spirit at my not finding my brother Titus; but saying farewell to them, I went out to Macedonia. ¹⁴But thanks be to God, He always leading us in triumph in Christ, and the One revealing through us the odor of the knowledge of Him in every place. ¹⁵For we are a sweet smell to God because of Christ in those being saved, and in those being lost—¹⁶to the one, an odor of death unto death; and to the other an odor of life unto life. And who is sufficient for these things? ¹⁷For we are not as the many, hawking the word of God; but as of sincerity, but as of God. We speak in Christ, in the sight of God.

¹Do we begin again to commend ourselves? Or do we, as some, need commendatory letters to you, or commendatory ones from you? ²You are our letter, having been inscribed in our hearts, being known and being read by all men, ³*it* having been made plain that you are Christ's letter, served by us; not having been inscribed by ink, but by the Spirit of the living God; not in tablets of stone, but in fleshly tablets of the heart.

⁴And we have such confidence through Christ toward God; ⁵not that we are sufficient of ourselves to reason out anything as out of ourselves, but our sufficiency is of God, ⁶who also made us able ministers of a new covenant; not of letter, but of Spirit. For the letter kills, but the Spirit makes alive. ⁷But if the ministry of death having been engraved in letters in stone was with glory, so as the sons of Israel could not gaze into the face of Moses because of the glory of his face; which was to cease, ⁸how much rather the ministry of the Spirit will be in glory! ⁹For if the ministry of condemnation was glory, much rather the ministry of righteousness abounds in glory. ¹⁰For even that which has been made glorious has not been made glorious in this respect, because of the surpassing glory. ¹¹For if the thing done away was through glory, much rather the thing remaining in glory is.

¹²Then having such hope, we use much boldness. ¹³And not as Moses who put a veil over his face, for the sons of Israel not to gaze at the end of the thing being done away. ¹⁴But their thoughts were hardened; for until the present the same veil remains on the reading of the Old Covenant, not being unveiled that it is being done away in Christ. ¹⁵But until today, when Moses is being read, a veil lies on their heart. ¹⁶But whenever it turns to the Lord, the veil is taken away. ¹⁷And the Lord is the Spirit; and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is freedom. ¹⁸But we all with our face having been unveiled, having beheld the glory of the Lord in a mirror, are being changed into the same image from glory to glory, as from the Lord Spirit.

¹Therefore, having this ministry, even as we obtained mercy, we do not faint. ²But we have renounced the hidden things of shame, not walking in craftiness, nor adulterating the word of God, but by the revelation of the truth commending ourselves to every conscience of men before God. ³But also if our gospel is being hidden, it has been hidden in those being lost; ⁴in whom the god of this age has blinded the thoughts of the unbelieving, so that the brightness of the gospel of the glory of Christ, who is the image of God, should not dawn on them. ⁵For we do not proclaim ourselves, but Christ Jesus as Lord, and ourselves your slaves for the sake of Jesus. ⁶Because it is God who said, "Out of darkness Light shall shine;" who shone in our hearts to give the brightness of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ.

⁷But we have this treasure in earthen vessels, so that the excellence of the power may be of God, and not from us; ⁸in every way being troubled, but not being hemmed in; being perplexed, but not utterly at a loss; ⁹being persecuted, but not having been forsaken; being thrown down, but not having been destroyed; ¹⁰always bearing about the dying of the Lord Jesus in the body, that also the life of Jesus may be revealed in our body. ¹¹For we who live are always being delivered up to death on account of Jesus, that also the life of Jesus may be revealed in our mortal flesh; ¹²so that death indeed works in us, and life in you. ¹³But having the same spirit of faith, according to what has been written, "I believed, therefore I spoke," we also believe, therefore we also speak; ¹⁴knowing that He who raised up the Lord Jesus will also raise us up through Jesus, and will present us with you. ¹⁵For all things are for your sake, that the superabounding grace may be made to abound through the thanksgiving of the greater number, to the glory of God.

¹⁶Because of this we do not faint, but if indeed our outward man is being decayed, yet the inward man is being renewed day by day. ¹⁷For the lightness of our present affliction works out for us an eternal weight of glory surpassing moment by surpassing moment; ¹⁸we not considering the things seen, but the things not being seen; for the things seen are not lasting, but the things not seen are everlasting.

¹For we know that if our earthly house of this tabernacle is taken down, we have a building from God, a house not made with hands, eternal in Heaven. ²For indeed in this we groan, greatly desiring to be clothed with our dwelling place out of Heaven; ³if indeed in being clothed, we shall not be found naked. ⁴For indeed being in the tabernacle, we groan, having been weighted down, inasmuch as we do not wish to be unclothed, but to be clothed, so that the mortal may be swallowed up by the life. ⁵And He having worked in us for this same thing is God, who also is giving us the earnest of the Spirit. ⁶Then always being fully assured, and knowing that being at home in the body we are away from home from the Lord — ⁷for we walk by faith, not by sight

— ⁸we are fully assured, then, and are pleased rather to go away from home out of the body, and to come home to the Lord. ⁹Because of this, we also are striving to be well-pleasing to Him, whether being at home, or being away from home. ¹⁰For we all must appear before the judgment-seat of Christ, so that each one may receive the things done through the body, according to what he did, whether good or bad.

¹¹Then knowing the fear of the Lord, we persuade men, and we have been manifest to God, and I also hope to have been manifest in your consciences. ¹²For we do not again commend ourselves to you, but are giving you occasion of glorying on our behalf, that you may have it toward those boasting in appearance, and not in heart. ¹³For if we are insane, it is to God; or if we are in our senses, it is for you.

¹⁴For the love of Christ constrains us, having judged this, that if One died for all, then the all died; ¹⁵and He died for all, that the living ones may live no more to themselves, but to the One having died for them, and having been raised. ¹⁶So as we now know no one according to flesh, but even if we have known Christ according to flesh, yet now we no longer know. ¹⁷So that if anyone is in Christ, that one is a new creation; the old things have passed away; behold, all things have become new! ¹⁸And all things are of God, who reconciled us to Himself through Jesus Christ, and giving to us the ministry of reconciliation; ¹⁹whereas God was in Christ reconciling the world to Himself, not charging their trespasses to them, and putting the word of reconciliation in us.

²⁰Then on behalf of Christ, we are ambassadors, as God is exhorting through us, we beseech on behalf of Christ, Be reconciled to God. ²¹For He made Him who knew no sin to be sin for us, that we might become the righteousness of God in Him.

¹But working together, we also call on you not to receive the grace of God in vain. ²For He says, "In an acceptable time I heard you, and in a day of salvation I helped you;" Behold, now is the acceptable time! Behold, now is the day of salvation! ³*Let us* not give a cause of stumbling in anything, that the ministry may not be blamed, ⁴but in everything commending ourselves as God's servants, in much patience, in afflictions, in emergencies, in difficulties, ⁵in stripes, in imprisonments, in riots, in labors, in watchings, in fastings, ⁶in pureness, in knowledge, in long-suffering, in kindness, in the Holy Spirit, in unfeigned love, ⁷in the word of truth, in the power of God, through the weapons of righteousness on the right hand and on the left, ⁸through glory and dishonor; through evil report and good report — as deceivers, and yet true; ⁹as unknown, and yet well-known; as dying, and yet, look, we live!; as flogged, and yet not put to death; ¹⁰as sorrowful, but yet always rejoicing; as poor, but yet enriching many; as having nothing, yet possessing all things.

¹¹Our mouth is opened to you, Corinthians, our heart has been made larger. ¹²You are not restrained in us, but you are restrained in your own bowels. ¹³But for the same reward — I speak as to children — you also be made larger.

¹⁴Do not be unequally yoked with unbelievers. For what partnership does righteousness have with lawlessness? And what fellowship does light have with darkness? ¹⁵And what agreement does Christ have with Belial? Or what part does a believer have with an unbeliever? ¹⁶And what agreement does a temple of God have with idols? For you are a temple of the living God, even as God said, "I will dwell in them, and walk among them; and I will be their God, and they shall be My people." ¹⁷Because of this, come out from among them, and be separated, says the Lord, and do not touch the unclean thing; and I will receive you. ¹⁸And I will be a Father to you, and you will be sons and daughters to Me, says the Lord Almighty.

¹Then having these promises, beloved, let us cleanse ourselves from all defilements of flesh and of spirit, perfecting holiness in the fear of God. ²Make room for us. We wronged no one; we corrupted no one; we overreached no one. ³I do not speak to condemnation, for I have said before that you are in our hearts, for us to die together, and to live together. ⁴My boldness toward you is great. My boasting on your behalf is much. I have been filled with comfort; I overflow with joy on all our trouble.

⁵For, indeed, we coming into Macedonia, our flesh had no rest, but being troubled in every way, with fightings on the outside, and fears on the inside. ⁶But He who comforts the lowly comforted us by the presence of Titus. ⁷And not only by his coming, but also by the comfort with which he was comforted over you, telling us your longing, your mourning, your zeal for me; so as for me to rejoice more. ⁸For even if I grieved you in the letter, I do not regret; if indeed I did regret; for I see that that letter grieved you for an hour. ⁹Now I rejoice, not that you were grieved, but that you were grieved to repentance. For you were grieved according to God, that you might suffer loss in nothing by us. ¹⁰For the grief according to God works repentance to salvation, not to be regretted. But the grief of the world works out death. ¹¹For behold this same thing, you being grieved according to God, how much it worked out earnestness in you; but also defense; but also indignation; but also fear; but also desire; but also zeal; but also vengeance! In everything you commended yourselves to be clear in the matter. ¹²Then even if I wrote to you, it was not for the sake of him who did wrong, nor for the sake of him having suffered wrong, but for the sake of revealing our earnestness on your behalf, for you before God. ¹³For this reason we have been comforted in your comfort, and we rather rejoice more abundantly over the joy of Titus, because his spirit has been refreshed by all of you. ¹⁴Because if I have boasted anything to him about you, I was not ashamed. But as we spoke all things in truth to you, so also our boasting as to Titus became truth. ¹⁵And his tender feelings are abundant toward you, remembering the obedience of all of you, as you received him with fear and trembling. ¹⁶Therefore, I rejoice, that in everything I am fully assured in you.

¹But we make known to you, brothers, the grace of God which has been given among the churches of Macedonia, ²that in much testing of trouble, the overflowing of their joy, and the depth of their poverty, abounded to the riches of their generosity. ³For I testify that according to their ability, and beyond their ability, they willingly gave, ⁴with much entreating, begging us that they might receive of us the grace and the fellowship of the ministry to the saints. ⁵And not as we hoped, but they first gave themselves to the Lord, and to us, through the will of God, ⁶for us to call on Titus, that even as he began before, so also he might complete this grace to you also. ⁷But even as you abound in everything—in faith, and in word, and in knowledge, and in all earnestness, and in your love in us—that you also should abound in this grace. ⁸I do not speak according to command, but through the earnestness of others, and testing the truthness of your love.

⁹For you know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that being rich, He became poor for your sake, so that you might become rich by the poverty of that One. ¹⁰And I give judgment in this, for this is profitable for you, who began before not only to do, but also to be willing from last year. ¹¹But now also finish the doing of it, so that even as there was the eagerness in the willing, so also the finishing, giving out of what you have. ¹²For if the eagerness is present, it is acceptable according to what one has, not according to what one does not have. ¹³For it is not that there may be ease to others, but trouble to you; ¹⁴but by equality in the present time: your abundance for their need, so that their abundance may also be equality; ¹⁵even as it has been written, “He taking much, he had nothing left over; and he taking little had no less.

¹⁶But thanks be to God, who gives the same earnestness for you in the heart of Titus. ¹⁷For truly he received the entreating; but being more earnest, he went out to you of his own accord. ¹⁸But we sent with him the brother whose praise is in the gospel throughout all the churches; ¹⁹and not only so, but also he having been chosen by the churches as a traveling companion to us with this gift being ministered by us to the glory of the Lord Himself, and your eagerness; ²⁰avoiding this, lest anyone should blame us in this bounty being ministered by us; ²¹providing right things not only before the Lord, but also before men. ²²And we sent with them our brother whom we often proved in many things to be earnest, and now much more earnest by the great assurance which I have toward you. ²³If any asks as to Titus, he is my partner, and a fellow-worker for you; or about our brothers, they are messengers of the churches, the glory of Christ. ²⁴Then show them a proof of your love and of our boastings toward you, even in the sight of the churches.

¹For indeed concerning the ministry to the saints, it is unnecessary for me to write to you. ²For I know your eagerness, of which I boast to Macedonia on your behalf, that Achaia has made ready from last year; and your zeal arouses the greater number. ³But I sent the brothers that our boasting which is on your behalf should not be in vain in this respect, that as I said, you were ready; ⁴lest if Macedonians come with me, and find you not ready, that we—we do not say you—should be ashamed in this assurance of boasting. ⁵Therefore, I thought it necessary to exhort the brothers, that they go forward to you, and arrange beforehand your promised blessing; this to be ready, thus as a blessing, and not as greediness.

⁶And this: the one sowing sparingly will also reap sparingly; and the one sowing on hope of blessing will also reap on blessing. ⁷Each one as he purposes in his heart, not of grief or of necessity, for God loves a cheerful giver. ⁸And God is able to make all grace to abound toward you, that in everything, always having all self-sufficiency, you may abound to every good work; ⁹even as it has been written, “He scattered; he gave to the poor; his righteousness abides forever.”

¹⁰Now He that supplies seed to the sower, and bread for eating, may He supply and multiply your seed, and increase the fruits of your righteousness, ¹¹in everything you being enriched to all generosity, which works out thanksgiving to God through us. ¹²Because the ministry of this service is not only making up the things lacking of the saints, but also multiplying through many thanksgivings to God, ¹³through the proof of this service, they glorifying God by your freely expressed submission to the gospel of Christ, and the generosity of the fellowship toward them and toward all; ¹⁴and in their prayer for you, a longing after you, because of the overflowing grace of God on you. ¹⁵But thanks be to God for His unspeakable free gift.

CHAPTER 10

¹And I myself, Paul, call on you through the meekness and gentleness of Christ—I, who indeed to look upon am lowly among you, but being absent am bold toward you; ²but I ask, not being present, that I may be bold with the confidence which I think to be daring against some, those having thought of us as walking according to flesh; ³for walking about in flesh, we do not war according to flesh; ⁴for the weapons of our warfare are not fleshly, but powerful to God in order to pull down strongholds; ⁵pulling down imaginations and every high thing lifting up itself against the knowledge of God, and bringing into captivity every thought into the obedience of Christ; ⁶and having readiness to avenge all disobedience, whenever your obedience is fulfilled. ⁷Do you look at things according to appearance? If anyone has persuaded himself to be of Christ, let him think this again as to himself, that as he is of Christ, so also we are of Christ. ⁸For even if I also somewhat more fully should boast about our authority—which the Lord gave us for building up, and not for pulling you down — I will not be put to shame; ⁹so that I may not seem to frighten you by letters—¹⁰because, they say, the letters are weighty and strong, but the bodily presence is weak, and his speech being despised — ¹¹let such a one think this, that such as we are in word through letters, being absent, such we are also being present in deed. ¹²For we dare not rank or compare ourselves with some of those commending themselves—but they measuring themselves among themselves, and comparing themselves to themselves, are not perceptive. ¹³But we will not boast beyond measure, but according to measure of the rule which the God of measure distributed to us, to reach even to you. ¹⁴For we do not overstretch ourselves as if not reaching to you; for we also came to you in the gospel of Christ; ¹⁵not boasting beyond measure in the labors of others, but having hope that the growing faith among you will be made larger according to our rule, to overflowing, ¹⁶in order to preach the gospel to that beyond you, not to boast in another's rule in things ready. ¹⁷But the one glorying, let him glory in the Lord. ¹⁸For not the one commending himself is the one approved, but the one whom the Lord commends.

¹I would that you were bearing with me a little in foolishness; but, indeed, bear with me. ²For I am jealous over you with a jealousy of God. For I have promised you to one Man, to present you a pure virgin to Christ. ³But I fear lest by any means, as the serpent deceived Eve in his craftiness, so your thoughts should be corrupted from the purity which is due to Christ. ⁴For if, indeed, the one coming proclaims another Jesus, whom we have not proclaimed, or if you receive another spirit which you have not received, or another gospel which you never accepted, you might well endure these. ⁵For I judge myself to have come behind the highest apostles in nothing. ⁶But even if I am unskilled in speech, yet not in knowledge. But in every way I have been clearly revealed to you in all things. ⁷Or did I commit sin, humbling myself that you might be exalted, because I preached the gospel of God to you without charge? ⁸I stripped other churches, receiving wages for the serving of you. ⁹And being present with you, and lacking, I was not a burden to anyone. The brothers coming from Macedonia completely made up for my lack. And in every way I kept myself without burden to you; and I will keep myself.

¹⁰The truth of Christ is in me, that this boasting shall not be silenced in me in the regions of Achaia. ¹¹Why? Because I do not love you? God knows. ¹²But what I do, I also will do, that I may cut off the opportunity of those desiring an opportunity, so that in that which they boast, they be found also as we. ¹³For such ones are false apostles, deceitful workers transforming themselves into apostles of Christ. ¹⁴Did not Satan marvelously transform himself into an angel of light? ¹⁵*It is* not a great thing, then, if also his ministers transform themselves as ministers of righteousness; whose end will be according to their works.

¹⁶Again I say, let not anyone think me to be foolish. But if not, even if as foolish, receive me, that I also may boast a little. ¹⁷What I speak, I speak not according to the Lord, but as in foolishness, in this boldness of boasting. ¹⁸Since many boast according to the flesh, I also will boast. ¹⁹For you gladly endure fools, being wise. ²⁰For you endure if anyone enslaves you, if anyone devours, if anyone receives, if anyone exalts self, if anyone beats you in the face. ²¹I speak according to dishonor, as if we have been weak. But in whatever anyone dares — I say it in foolishness — I also dare. ²²Are they Hebrews? I also. Are they Israelites? I also. Are they Abraham's seed? I also. ²³Are they ministers of Christ? — I speak as beside myself—I being beyond them: in labors, more abundantly; in stripes, beyond measure; in prisons, much more; in deaths, many times. ²⁴Five times I received forty stripes minus one from the Jews. ²⁵I was flogged three times; I was stoned once; I was shipwrecked three times; I have spent a night and a day in the deep. ²⁶*I have been* in travels often, in dangers of rivers; in dangers of robbers; in dangers from my race; in dangers from the nations; in dangers in the city; in dangers in the desert; in dangers on the sea; in dangers among false brothers; ²⁷in hardship and toil; often in watchings; in hunger and thirst; often in fastings, in cold and nakedness. ²⁸Besides the things outside conspiring against me day by day, the care of all the churches. ²⁹Who is weak, and I am not weak? Who is offended, and I do not burn? ³⁰The God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ knows, He who is blessed forever, that I am not lying. ³¹In Damascus, the governor of Aretas the king guarded the city of the Damascenes, desiring to seize me. ³²And I was let down through a window through the wall in a basket, and escaped their hands.

¹Indeed, to boast is not profitable to me; for I will come to visions and revelations of the Lord. ²I am aware of a man in Christ fourteen years ago — whether in the body, I am not aware; or out of the body, I am not aware; God knows — that one was caught up into Paradise and heard unspeakable words, which it is not allowed a man to speak. ³On behalf of such a one I will boast. But I will not boast on my behalf, except in my weaknesses. ⁴For if I desire to boast, I shall not be foolish; for I speak the truth. But I spare, lest anyone reckons me to be beyond what he sees me, or hears of me. ⁵And by the surpassing revelations, that I not be made haughty, a thorn in the flesh was given to me, a messenger of Satan, that he might buffet me, that I not be made haughty. ⁶As to this I entreated the Lord three times, that it depart from me. ⁷And He said to me, My grace is sufficient for you; for My power is perfected in weakness. Therefore, I will rather gladly boast in my weaknesses, that the power of Christ may overshadow me. ⁸Because of this, I am pleased in weaknesses, in insults, in dire needs, in persecutions, in distresses, for the sake of Christ. For when I may be weak, then I am powerful.

⁹Boasting, I have become foolish. You compelled me. For I ought to be commended by you, for I lacked nothing of the highest apostles, even though I am nothing. ¹⁰Truly the signs of the apostle were worked out among you in all patience, in miracles, and in wonders, and by works of power. ¹¹For what is it in which you were less than the rest of the churches, except that I myself did not burden you? Forgive me this wrong.

¹²Behold, I am ready to come to you a third time. And I will not burden you, for I do not seek your things, but you. For the children ought not to lay up treasure for the parents, but the parents for the children. ¹⁵But I will most gladly spend and be spent for your souls, even if loving you more and more, I am loved the less. ¹⁶But let it be so, I did not burden you; but being crafty, I caught you with bait. ¹⁷By any whom I have sent to you, did I overreach you by him? ¹⁸I begged Titus, and sent the brother with him. Did Titus overreach you? Did we not walk in the same spirit? Did we not walk in the same steps?

¹⁹Again, do you think we are defending to you? We speak before God in Christ, but in all things for your building up, beloved. ²⁰For I fear lest somehow coming I not find you as I wish, and I be found by you such as you do not wish; lest somehow there be strifes, envyings, angers, rivalries, evil speakings, whisperings, proud thoughts, disturbances; ²¹that in my coming again my God may not humble me with you, and I shall mourn many of those previously sinning, and not repenting over the uncleanness, and fornication, and lustfulness which they have practiced.

¹I am coming to you this third time. In the mouth of two or three witnesses every matter shall be established. ²I said before, and I say beforehand, as being present the second time, and being absent now. I write to those previously sinning, and all the rest, that if I come again I will not spare. ³Since you seek a proof of Christ speaking in me; who is not weak toward you, but is powerful in you—⁴for even if He was crucified out of weakness, yet He lives by the power of God toward you—⁵examine yourselves, whether you are in the faith; prove yourselves. Or do you not yourselves know that Jesus Christ is in you, unless you are reprobates? ⁶And I hope you will know that we are not reprobates. ⁷But I pray to God for you not to do evil, none. And not that we may appear approved, but that you may do the good; but we being deemed to be reprobates. ⁸For we have no power against the truth, but for the truth. ⁹For we rejoice when we are weak, and you are powerful. But we pray for this also, your perfection. ¹⁰Because of this, I write these things while absent, that being present I may not deal sharply with you according to the authority which the Lord gave me for building up, and not for pulling down.

¹¹For the rest, brothers, rejoice! Perfect yourselves; encourage yourselves; mind the same thing; be at peace; and the God of love and of peace will be with you.

¹²All the saints greet you.

¹³The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with you all. Amen.

THE EPISTLE TO THE GALATIANS

¹Paul, an apostle, not from men, nor through man, but through Jesus Christ and God the Father; the One raising Him from the dead; ²and all the brothers with me, to the churches of Galatia. ³Grace to you, and peace, from God the Father and our Lord Jesus Christ, ⁴who gave Himself for our sins, so that He might deliver us out of the present evil age, according to the will of our God and Father, ⁵to whom be the glory forever and ever. Amen.

⁶I wonder that you are so quickly being transferred from Him having called you by the grace of Christ to another gospel, ⁷which is not another; only some there are troubling you and desiring to pervert the gospel of Christ. ⁸But even if we, or an angel out of Heaven, should announce a gospel to you beside what we preached to you, let him be accursed. ⁹As we have said before, and now I say again, If anyone announces a gospel to you beside what you received, let him be accursed.

¹⁰For do I now persuade men, or God? Or do I seek to please men? For if I yet pleased men, I would not have been a slave of Christ. ¹¹And, brothers, I make known to you the gospel preached by me, that it is not according to man. ¹²For I did not receive it from man, nor was I taught it, but by a revelation of Jesus Christ. ¹³For you heard my way of life when I was in Judaism, that with surpassing zeal I persecuted the church of God, and ravaged it. ¹⁴And I progressed in Judaism beyond many contemporaries in my race, being much more a zealot of the traditions of my ancestors. ¹⁵But when God was pleased, He having separated me from my mother's womb, and having called through His grace, ¹⁶to reveal His Son in me, that I might preach Him among the nations; immediately I did not confer with flesh and blood, ¹⁷nor did I go up to Jerusalem to the apostles before me; but I went away into Arabia, and returned again to Damascus.

¹⁸Then after three years I went up to Jerusalem to become acquainted with Peter, and remained with him fifteen days. ¹⁹But I saw no other of the apostles, except

James the brother of the Lord. ²⁰And what I write to you, behold, before God I do not lie. ²¹Then I went into the regions of Syria and of Cilicia; ²²but I was not known by face to the churches of Judea in Christ. ²³But only they were hearing that he who was persecuting us then now proclaims the faith which he then ravaged; ²⁴and they glorified God in me.

CHAPTER 2

¹Then through fourteen years I again went up to Jerusalem with Barnabas, also taking Titus with me. ²And I went up according to revelation. And I put before them the gospel which I proclaim in the nations, but privately to the ones seeming to be pillars, lest I run, or I ran, into vanity. ³But not even Titus, the one with me, a Greek, was compelled to be circumcised. ⁴But it was because of those false brothers stealing in, who stole in to spy on our freedom which we have in Christ Jesus, they desiring to enslave us; ⁵to whom not even for an hour we yielded in subjection, that the truth of the gospel might continue with you; ⁶but from those seeming to be something — of what kind they were then does not matter to me; God does not accept the face of man — for those seeming important conferred nothing to me; ⁷but on the contrary, seeing that I have been entrusted with the gospel of the uncircumcision, even as Peter to the circumcision — ⁸for He working in Peter to an apostleship of the circumcision also worked in me to the nations — ⁹and knowing the grace given to me, James and Cephas and John, those seeming to be pillars, gave right hands of fellowship to Barnabas and to me, that we go to the nations, but they to the circumcision; ¹⁰only that we might remember the poor, which same thing I was eager to do.

¹¹But when Peter came to Antioch, I opposed him to his face, because he was to be blamed. ¹²For before some came from James, he ate with the Gentiles. But when they came, he drew back and separated himself, being afraid of those of the circumcision. ¹³And also the rest of the Jews dissembled with him, so as even Barnabas was led away with their dissembling. ¹⁴But when I saw that they did not walk uprightly with the truth of the gospel, I said to Peter before all, If you being a Jew live as a Gentile, and not as the Jews, why do you compel the Gentiles to Judaize? ¹⁵We Jews by nature, and not sinners of the Gentiles—¹⁶knowing that a man is not justified by works of law, but that it is through faith in Jesus Christ — we also believed in Christ Jesus, that we may be justified by faith in Christ, and not by works of law, because all flesh will not be justified by works of law. ¹⁷But if seeking to be justified in Christ, we ourselves also were found to be sinners, is Christ then a minister of sin? Let it not be! ¹⁸For if I build again these things which I destroyed, I confirm myself as a transgressor. ¹⁹For through law I died to law, that I might live to God. ²⁰I have been crucified with Christ; and I live; yet no longer I, but Christ lives in me. And that life I now live in the flesh, I live by faith toward the Son of God, the One loving me and giving Himself over on my behalf. ²¹I do not set aside the grace of God; for if righteousness is through law, then Christ died without cause.

CHAPTER 3

¹O foolish Galatians, who bewitched you not to obey the truth, to whom before your eyes Jesus Christ was written among you crucified? ²This only I desire to learn from you: Did you receive the Spirit by works of law, or by hearing of faith? ³Are you so foolish? Having begun in the Spirit, do you now perfect yourself in the flesh? ⁴Did you suffer so much vainly? If indeed it also was vainly? ⁵Then He supplying the Spirit to you, and working works of power in you, is it by works of law, or by hearing of faith? ⁶Even as Abraham believed God, and it was counted to him for righteousness. ⁷Know, then, that those of faith, these are sons of Abraham. ⁸And the Scripture foreseeing that God would justify the nations by faith, preached the gospel before to Abraham: “All the nations will be blessed in you.” ⁹So that those of faith are blessed with the faithful Abraham.

¹⁰For as many as are out of works of law, these are under a curse. For it has been written, “Cursed is everyone who does not continue in all the things having been written in the book of the Law, to do them.” ¹¹And that no one is justified by law before God is clear, because, “The just shall live by faith.”

¹²But the Law is not of faith, but, “The man doing these things shall live in them.”

¹³Christ redeemed us from the curse of the law, having become a curse for us; for it has been written, “Cursed is everyone having been hung on a tree;” ¹⁴that the blessing of Abraham might be to the nations in Christ Jesus, that we might receive the promise of the Spirit through faith.

¹⁵Brothers, I speak according to man, a covenant having been ratified, even among mankind, no one sets aside or adds to it. ¹⁶But the promises were spoken to Abraham and to his Seed—it does not say, And to seeds, as of many; but as of one, “And to your Seed,” which is Christ. ¹⁷And I say this, A covenant having been ratified before to Christ by God, the Law coming into being four hundred and thirty years after does not annul the promise, so as to abolish it.

¹⁸For if the inheritance is of law, it is no more of promise; but God has given it to Abraham through promise. ¹⁹Why, then, the Law? It was added because of transgressions, until the Seed should come, to whom it had been promised, being ordained through angels in a mediator's hand. ²⁰But the Mediator is not of one, but God is one.

²¹Then is the Law against the promises of God? Let it not be! For if a law had been given which had been able to make alive, indeed righteousness would have been out of law. ²²But the Scripture locked up all under sin, that the promise by faith of Jesus Christ might be given to the ones believing. ²³But before the coming of faith, we were guarded under law, having been locked up to the faith being about to be revealed.

²⁴So that the Law has become a trainer of us until Christ, that we might be justified by faith. ²⁵But faith coming, we are no longer under a trainer; ²⁶for you are all sons of God through faith in Christ Jesus.

²⁷For as many as were baptized into Christ, you put on Christ. ²⁸There cannot be Jew nor Greek; there is no slave nor freeman; there is no male and female; for you are all one in Christ Jesus. ²⁹And if you are of Christ, then you are a seed of Abraham, even heirs according to promise.

¹But I say, Over so long a time the heir is an infant; he being lord of all does not differ from a slave, ²but is under guardians and housemasters until the term set before by the father. ³So we also, when we were infants, we were under the elements of the world, being enslaved. ⁴But when the fullness of the time came, God sent forth His Son, having come out of a woman, having come under law, ⁵that He might redeem the ones under law, that we might receive the adoption of sons. ⁶And because you are sons, God sent forth the Spirit of His Son into your hearts, crying, Abba! Father! ⁷So that you no more are a slave, but a son; and if a son, also an heir of God through Christ.

⁸But then, indeed, not knowing God, you served as slaves to the ones not by nature being gods. ⁹But now, knowing God, but rather being known by God, how do you turn again to the weak and poor elements, to which you desire again to slave anew? ¹⁰You observe days, and months, and seasons, and years. ¹¹I fear for you, lest somehow I have labored among you in vain.

¹²Brothers, I beg of you, be as I am, because I am as you. You wronged me in nothing. ¹³But you know that because of weakness of the flesh, I announced the gospel to you before; ¹⁴and you did not despise my temptation in my flesh, nor spurn it, but you received me as an angel of God, as Christ Jesus. ¹⁵What then was your blessedness? For I testify to you that if you were able, plucking out your eyes, you would have given them to me. ¹⁶So then did I become your enemy speaking truth to you? ¹⁷They are zealous for you, but not well; but they only desire to shut you out, that you be zealous to them. ¹⁸But it is good to be zealous always in a good thing, and not only in my being present with you. ¹⁹My children, for whom I again travail until Christ should be formed in you, ²⁰even now I desired to be present with you, and to change my voice; for I am in doubt as to you.

²¹Tell me, those desiring to be under Law, do you not hear the Law? ²²For it has been written: Abraham had two sons, one out of the slave-woman, and one out of the free woman. ²³But, indeed, he of the slave-woman has been born according to flesh; and he out of the free woman through the promise; ²⁴which things are being allegorized; for these are two covenants, one, indeed, from Mount Sinai bringing forth to slavery—which is Hagar, ²⁵for Hagar is Mount Sinai in Arabia, and corresponds to the present Jerusalem, and she slaves with her children — ²⁶but the Jerusalem from above is free, who is the mother of us all; ²⁷for it has been written, “Be glad, barren one not bearing; break forth and shout, the one not travailing, for more are the children of the desolate rather than she having the husband.”

²⁸But, brothers, we are children of promise according to Isaac. ²⁹But then even as he born according to flesh persecuted the one according to Spirit, so also now. ³⁰But what says the Scripture? “Cast out the slave-woman and her son, for in no way shall the son of the slave-woman inherit with the son of the free-woman.” ³¹Then, brothers, we are not children of a slave-woman, but of the free-woman.

¹Then stand firm in the freedom with which Christ made us free, and do not be held again with a yoke of slavery.

²Behold, I, Paul, say to you that if you are circumcised, Christ will profit you nothing. ³And I testify again to every man being circumcised, that he is a debtor to do all the Law; ‘you who are justified by law are deprived of all effect from Christ—you fell from grace. ⁴For we through the Spirit eagerly wait for the hope of righteousness out of faith. ⁵For in Christ Jesus neither circumcision nor uncircumcision has any strength, but faith working through love. ⁶You were running well; who held you back that you do not obey the truth? ⁷The persuasion is not from Him calling you. ⁸A little leaven leavens all the lump. ¹⁰I trust as to you in the Lord that you will think nothing else, but that the one troubling you shall bear the judgment, whoever he may be. ¹¹But I, brothers, if I proclaim circumcision, why am I still persecuted? Then the offense of the Cross has passed away. ¹²I would that the ones causing you to doubt will cut themselves off.

¹³For, brothers, you were called to freedom. Only do not use the freedom for gain to the flesh. But serve one another as slaves by love. ¹⁴For the whole law is fulfilled in one word, in this: "You shall love your neighbor as yourself." ¹⁵But if you bite and devour one another, be careful that you are not consumed.

¹⁶But I say, Walk in the Spirit, and you will not fulfill the lust of the flesh. ¹⁷For the flesh lusts against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh; and these are contrary to one another; lest whatever you may will, these things you do. ¹⁸But if you are led by the Spirit, you are not under law. ¹⁹Now the works of the flesh are clearly revealed, which are: adultery, fornication, uncleanness, lustfulness, ²⁰idolatry, sorcery, hatreds, fightings, jealousies, angers, rivalries, divisions, heresies, ²¹envyings, murders, drunkennesses, wild parties, and things like these; of which I tell you beforehand, as I also said before, that the ones practicing such things will not inherit the kingdom of God.

²²But the fruit of the Spirit is: love, joy, peace, long-suffering, kindness, goodness, faith, ²³meekness, self-control — against such things there is not a law.

²⁴But the ones belonging to Christ crucified the flesh with its passions and lusts.

²⁵If we live in the Spirit, let us also walk in the Spirit. ²⁶Let us not become glory-seeking ones, provoking one another, envying one another.

¹Brothers, if a man is taken in some fault, you, the spiritual ones, restore such a one in the spirit of meekness, considering yourself, that you not also be tempted. ²Bear one another's burdens, and so you will fulfill the law of Christ. ³For if any one thinks to be something, he deceives himself, being nothing. ⁴But let each one prove his work, and then he alone will have a boast in himself, and not as to another. ⁵For each one will bear his own load.

⁶But let the one being taught in the word share with the one teaching, in all good things. ⁷Do not be deceived, God is not mocked. For whatever a man may sow, that he also will reap. ⁸For the one sowing to his flesh will reap corruption of the flesh. But the one sowing to the Spirit will reap everlasting life from the Spirit. ⁹But we should not lose heart in doing good, for in due time we shall reap, if we do not faint. ¹⁰So, then, as we have time, let us work good toward all, and especially toward the household of the faith.

¹¹See in what large letters I write to you with my hand. ¹²As many as desire to look well in the flesh, these compel you to be circumcised; only that they may not be persecuted for the cross of Christ. ¹³For they themselves having been circumcised do not even keep the Law; but they desire you to be circumcised so that they may boast in your flesh. ¹⁴But may it never be for me to boast, except in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom the world has been crucified to me, and I to the world. ¹⁵For in Christ Jesus neither circumcision has any strength, nor uncircumcision; but a new creation. ¹⁶And as many as shall walk by this rule, peace and mercy be on them, and on the Israel of God.

¹⁷For the rest, let no one give troubles to me, for I bear in my body the brands of the Lord Jesus.

¹⁸The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit, brothers. Amen.

THE EPISTLE TO THE EPHESIANS

¹Paul, an apostle of Jesus Christ through the will of God, to the saints being in Ephesus, and faithful in Christ Jesus: ²Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

³Blessed is the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who blessed us with every spiritual blessing in the heavenlies with Christ; ⁴according as He chose us in Him before the foundation of the world, for us to be holy and without blemish before Him in love; ⁵predestinating us to adoption through Jesus Christ to Himself, according to the good pleasure of His will, ⁶to the praise of His glory of His grace, in which He favored us in the Beloved, ⁷in whom we have redemption through His blood, the forgiveness of sins, according to the riches of His grace; ⁸which He caused to abound toward us in all wisdom and understanding, ⁹making known to us the mystery of His will, according to His good pleasure which He purposed in Himself, ¹⁰for the administration of the fullness of time; to head up all things in Christ, both the things in Heaven, and the things on earth, in Him, ¹¹in whom we also have been chosen to an inheritance, being predestinated according to the purpose of the One working all things according to the counsel of His own will, ¹²for us to be to the praise of His glory, the ones first trusting in Christ; ¹³in whom also you, hearing the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation, in whom also believing, you were sealed with the Holy Spirit of promise, ¹⁴who is an earnest of our inheritance, to the redemption of the purchased possession, to the praise of His glory.

¹⁵Because of this, hearing of your faith in the Lord Jesus, and love toward all the saints, I also ¹⁶do not cease giving thanks on your behalf, making mention of you in my prayers, ¹⁷that the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, may give to you a spirit of wisdom and revelation in the knowledge of Him, ¹⁸the eyes of your mind having been enlightened for you to know what is the hope of His calling, and what the riches of the glory of His inheritance in the saints, ¹⁹and what is the surpassing greatness of His power toward us, the ones believing according to the working of His mighty strength ²⁰which He worked in Christ in raising Him from the dead — yea, He seated Him at His right hand in the heavenlies, ²¹far above all principality, and authority, and power, and lordship, and every name being named, not only in this age, but also in the coming age; ²²and He put all things under His feet, and gave Him to be Head over all things to the church, ²³which is His body, the fullness of Him filling all things in all;

¹and He worked in you who were once dead in trespasses and sins, ²in which you then walked according to the course of this world, according to the ruler of the authority of the air, the spirit now working in the sons of disobedience; ³among whom we also all conducted ourselves in times past in the lusts of our flesh, doing the things willed of the flesh and of the understandings, and were by nature the children of wrath, even as the rest. ⁴But God, being rich in mercy, because of His great love with which He loved us, ⁵even we being dead in sins, He made us alive together with Christ—by grace you are being saved — ⁶and raised us up together, and seated us together in the heavenlies in Christ Jesus, ⁷that He might show in the coming ages the exceeding great riches of His grace in kindness toward us in Christ Jesus. ⁸For by grace you are saved, through faith, and this not of yourselves; it is the gift of God; ⁹not of works, that not anyone should boast; ¹⁰for we are His workmanship, created in Christ Jesus unto good works, which God before prepared that we should walk in them.

¹¹Because of this, remember that you, the nations, were then in the flesh, those having been called Uncircumcision by those having been called Circumcision in the flesh made by hand, ¹²that at that time you were without Christ, alienated from the commonwealth of Israel, and strangers of the covenants of promise, having no hope, and without God in the world. ¹³But now in Christ Jesus you who then were afar off came to be near by the blood of Christ. ¹⁴For He is our peace, He making us both one, and breaking down the middle wall of partition, ¹⁵in His flesh causing to cease the enmity, the Law of the commandments in decrees, that He might in Himself create the two into one new man, making peace; ¹⁶and might reconcile both in one body to God through the cross, slaying the enmity in Himself. ¹⁷And coming, He proclaimed peace to you, the ones afar off, and to the ones near. ¹⁸For through Him we both have access by one Spirit to the Father. ¹⁹So, then, you are no longer strangers and tenants, but you are fellow-citizens of the saints and of the household of God, ²⁰being built up on the foundation of the apostles and prophets, Jesus Christ Himself being the cornerstone; ²¹in whom all the building fitted together grows into a holy temple in the Lord; ²²in whom you also are being built together into a dwelling-place of God in the Spirit.

¹For this reason I, Paul, the prisoner of Christ Jesus on behalf of you, the nations, ²if, indeed, you heard of the stewardship of the grace of God given to me for you, ³that by revelation He made known to me the mystery, as I wrote before in brief, ⁴by the reading of which you are able to realize my understanding in the mystery of Christ; ⁵which was not made known to the sons of men in other generations, as it now has been revealed to His holy apostles and prophets in the Spirit, ⁶for the nations to be joint-heirs, and of the same body, and sharers of His promise in Christ, through the gospel; ⁷of which I was made a minister, according to the gift of the grace of God given to me, according to the working of His power.

⁸This grace was given to me, less than the least of all the saints, to proclaim the gospel of the unsearchable riches of Christ among the nations, ⁹and to bring all to light, what is the fellowship of the mystery having been hidden from eternity in God, the One creating all things through Jesus Christ, ¹⁰so that now to the rulers and to the authorities in the heavenlies might be made known through the church the manifold wisdom of God, ¹¹according to the eternal purpose which He accomplished in Christ Jesus our Lord, ¹²in whom we have boldness and access in confidence through His faith. ¹³Therefore, I beg you not to faint at my troubles on your behalf, which is your glory.

¹⁴For this reason I bow my knees to the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, ¹⁵of whom every family in Heaven and on earth is named, ¹⁶that He may give you according to the riches of His glory by His power to become mighty in the inward man through His Spirit, ¹⁷that through faith Christ may dwell in your hearts, having been rooted and founded in love, ¹⁸that you may be given strength to grasp, with all the saints, what is the breadth and length and depth and height, ¹⁹and to know the love of Christ which surpasses knowledge, that you may be filled with all the fullness of God. ²⁰Now to Him being able to do exceedingly above all that we ask or think, according to the power working in us, ²¹to Him be the glory in the church in Christ Jesus, to all the generations of the age forever. Amen.

¹Then I, the prisoner in the Lord, exhort you to walk worthily of the calling in which you were called, ²with all humility and meekness, with long-suffering, bearing with one another in love; ³being eager to keep the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace. ⁴*There is* one body and one Spirit, even as you also were called in one hope of your calling; ⁵one Lord, one faith, one baptism, ⁶one God and Father of all, He above all and through all and in you all. ⁷But to each one of us was given grace according to the measure of the gift of Christ. ⁸Because of this, He says, "Having gone up on high, He led captivity captive, and gave gifts to men."—⁹but that He went up, what is it except that He also first came down into the lower parts of the earth? ¹⁰He that came down is the same who also went up above all the heavens, that He might fill all things. ¹¹And He gave some to be apostles; some, prophets; some, evangelists; some, pastors, and teachers; ¹²with a view to the perfecting of the saints, for the work of the ministry, for the building up of the body of Christ; ¹³until we all may come to the unity of the faith and of the knowledge of the Son of God, to a full-grown man, to the measure of the stature of the fullness of Christ, ¹⁴so that we may no longer be infants, having been blown and carried to and fro by every wind of doctrine, in the underhandedness of men, in craftiness with a view to the trickery of error; ¹⁵but speaking the truth in love, we may grow up into Him in all things, who is the head, the Christ; ¹⁶from whom all the body having been fitted and compacted together through every assisting bond, according to the working of one measure in each part, producing the growth of the body to the building up of itself in love.

¹⁷Therefore, I say this, and testify in the Lord, that you no longer walk even as also the rest of the nations walk, in the vanity of their mind, ¹⁸having been darkened in the understanding, being alienated from the life of God through the ignorance which is in them because of the hardness of their heart, ¹⁹who having cast off all feeling gave themselves up to lust, for the working of all uncleanness with greediness. ²⁰But you have not so learned Christ, ²¹if indeed you heard Him, and were taught in Him, as the truth is in Jesus; ²²for you have put off the old man, as regards the former behavior, having been corrupted according to the deceitful lusts; ²³and to be renewed in the spirit of your mind; ²⁴and to have put on the new man which according to God was created in righteousness and true holiness.

²⁵Therefore, putting off the false, speak truth each with his neighbor, because we are members of one another. ²⁶Be angry, but do not sin; do not let the sun go down on your wrath, ²⁷nor give place to the Devil. ²⁸The one stealing, let him steal no more, but rather let him labor, working what is good with the hands, that he may have something to give to the one that has need. ²⁹Let not every filthy word go out of your mouth, but if anything, for good to building up in respect of need, that it may give grace to the ones hearing. ³⁰And do not grieve the Holy Spirit of God, by whom you were sealed to the day of redemption. ³¹Let all bitterness, and anger, and wrath, and tumult, and evil speaking be put away from you, along with all evil things. ³²And be kind to one another, tenderhearted, having forgiven one another, even as also God forgave you in Christ.

¹Then be imitators of God, as beloved children, ²and walk in love, even as Christ also loved us, and gave Himself for us, an offering and a sacrifice to God for an odor of a sweet smell.

³But let not be named among you fornication, and all uncleanness, or greediness, as is fitting for saints; ⁴also filthiness, and foolish talking, or joking—the things not becoming — but rather thanksgiving. ⁵For be knowing this, that every fornicator, or unclean one, or covetous one, who is an idolater, has no inheritance in the kingdom of Christ and of God. ⁶Let no one deceive you with empty words, for through these the wrath of God comes on the sons of disobedience. ⁷Then do not be partners with them; ⁸for you then were darkness, but now light in the Lord—walk as children of light. ⁹For the fruit of the Spirit is in all goodness and righteousness and truth, ¹⁰proving what is well-pleasing to the Lord. ¹¹And have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather even reprove them. ¹²For it is shameful even to speak of the things being done by them in secret. ¹³But all things being exposed by the light are clearly revealed, for everything having been revealed is light. ¹⁴Because of this, He says, “Arise, sleeping one, and stand up out of the dead ones, and Christ will shine on you.”

¹⁵Then watch how carefully you walk, not as unwise, but as wise ones, ¹⁶redeeming the time, because the days are evil. ¹⁷For this reason, do not be foolish, but understanding what the will of the Lord is. ¹⁸And do not be drunk with wine, in which is debauchery, but be filled by the Spirit, ¹⁹speaking to yourselves in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing and praising in your heart to the Lord, ²⁰giving thanks at all times for all things in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, even to God the Father, ²¹having been subject to one another in the fear of God.

²²Wives, subject yourselves to your own husbands, as to the Lord; ²³because a husband is head of the wife, as also Christ is Head of the church, and He is Savior of the body. ²⁴But even as the church is subject to Christ, so also the wives to their own husbands in everything.

²⁵Husbands, love your wives, even as Christ also loved the church and gave Himself up on its behalf, ²⁶that He might sanctify it, cleansing it by the washing of the water in the word, ²⁷that He might present it to Himself as the glorious church, not having spot or wrinkle, or any such things; but that it be holy and without blemish. ²⁸So, husbands ought to love their wives as their own bodies—he loving his wife loves himself — ²⁹for then no one hated his own flesh, but nourishes and cherishes it, even as also the Lord the church. ³⁰For we are members of His body, of His flesh, and of His bones. ³¹“For this a man shall leave his father and mother, and shall be joined to his wife; and the two shall be one flesh.” ³²The mystery is great, but I speak as to Christ and as to the church. ³³However, you also, everyone, let each love his wife as himself, and the wife, that she fears the husband.

¹Children, obey your parents in the Lord, for this is right. ²Honor your father and mother, which is the first commandment with a promise, ³that it may be well with you, and you may be long-lived on the earth. ⁴And fathers, do not provoke your children, but bring them up in the discipline and admonition of the Lord.

⁵Slaves, obey your lords according to flesh, with fear and trembling, in singleness of your heart, as to Christ; ⁶not with eye-service as men-pleasers, but as slaves of Christ doing the will of God from the soul, ⁷serving as slaves with good will to the Lord, and not as to men; ⁸each one knowing that whatever good thing he does, this he shall receive from the Lord, whether a slave, or a freeman. ⁹And lords, do the same things toward them, forbearing threatening, knowing that the Lord of you and of them is in Heaven, and there is no respect of persons with Him.

¹⁰For the rest, my brothers, be made powerful in the Lord, and in the might of His strength. ¹¹Put on all the armor of God, for you to be able to stand against the wiles of the Devil; ¹²because we are not wrestling against flesh and blood, but against the rulers, against the authorities, against the rulers of this world, of the darkness of this age, against the spiritual powers of evil in the heavenlies. ¹³Because of this, take up all of the armor of God, that you may be able to resist in the evil day, and having worked out all things, to stand. ¹⁴Then stand firm, having girded your loins about with truth, and having put on the breastplate of righteousness, ¹⁵and having shod the feet with the preparation of the gospel of peace; ¹⁶above all, taking up the shield of faith, with which you will be able to quench all the darts of the evil one, the things having been made fiery. ¹⁷Also, take the helmet of salvation, and the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God; ¹⁸through all prayer and petition, praying at every time in the Spirit, and watching to this same thing with all perseverance and petition concerning all the saints. ¹⁹*Pray* also for me, that to me may be given speech in the opening of my mouth with boldness to make known the mystery of the gospel, ²⁰for which I am an ambassador in a chain, that in it I may speak boldly as it is right for me to speak.

²¹But that you also may know the things about me, what I am doing, Tychicus, the beloved brother and faithful minister in the Lord will make known all things to you, ²²whom I sent to you for this same thing, that you might know the things about us, and he may comfort your hearts.

²³Peace to the brothers, and love with faith from God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ. ²⁴Grace be with all those that love our Lord Jesus Christ in incorruptibility. Amen.

THE EPISTLE TO THE PHILIPPIANS

¹Paul, and Timothy, slaves of Jesus Christ, to all the saints in Christ Jesus who are in Philippi, with the overseers and ministers: ²Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

³I thank my God on all the remembrance of you, ⁴always in my every prayer on your behalf making my prayer with joy ⁵over your fellowship in the gospel, from the first day until now, ⁶being persuaded of this very thing, that the One having begun a good work in you will finish it until the day of Jesus Christ; ⁷as it is righteous for me to think this of you all, because you have me in your heart; both in my bonds and in the defense and confirmation of the gospel, you are all sharers of the grace with me. ⁸For God is my witness how I long after you all in the bowels of Jesus Christ. ⁹And this I pray, that your love may yet abound more and more in full knowledge and all perception, ¹⁰for you to distinguish the things that differ, that you may be sincere and without blame for the day of Christ, ¹¹being filled with the fruits of righteousness through Jesus Christ, to the glory and praise of God. ¹²But I want you to know, brothers, that the things concerning me have more fully come to the advancement of the gospel, ¹³so that in all the praetorium, and to all the rest, my bonds have become clearly revealed to be in Christ; ¹⁴and the most of the brothers in the Lord, being confident in my bonds, more exceedingly dare to speak the word fearlessly. ¹⁵Some, indeed, even proclaim Christ because of envy and strife; but some also because of good will. ¹⁶These, indeed, announce Christ out of party spirit, not sincerely, thinking to add affliction to my bonds. ¹⁷But these others out of love, knowing that I am set for defense of the gospel.

¹⁸For what? Yet in every way, whether in pretense or in truth, Christ is announced; and I rejoice in this; I will also yet rejoice. ¹⁹For I know that this will result in salvation to me through you petition, and the supply of the Spirit of Jesus Christ, ²⁰according to my earnest expectation and hope, that in nothing I shall be ashamed, but as always in all boldness even now Christ will be magnified in my body, whether through life or through death.

²¹For to me to live is Christ, and to die is gain. ²²But if I live in the flesh, this is to me fruit of my labor; and what I shall choose, I do not know. ²³For I am pressed together by the two: having a desire to depart and be with Christ, which is far better— ²⁴but to remain in the flesh is more necessary on account of you. ²⁵And being persuaded of this, I know that I will remain and will continue with you all for your advancement and joy of faith; ²⁶so that your glorying may abound in Christ Jesus in me, through my presence with you again. ²⁷Only behave yourself worthily of the gospel of Christ, so that whether coming and seeing you, or being absent, I hear the things concerning you, that you stand fast in one spirit and one soul, striving together in the faith of the gospel, ²⁸and not being terrified in anything by those who oppose, which to them truly is a proof of destruction, but to you of salvation, and this from God; ²⁹because it was granted to you on behalf of Christ not only to believe in Him, but also to suffer on His behalf, ³⁰having the same struggle which you saw in me, and now hear to be in me.

¹Then if there is any comfort in Christ, if any consolation of love, if any fellowship of the Spirit, if any tendernesses and compassions, ²fulfill my joy, that you think the same, having the same love, one in soul, minding the one thing, ³*doing* nothing according to party spirit or self-glory, but in humility esteeming one another to surpass themselves; ⁴each not looking at their own things, but each also at the things of others. ⁵For let this mind be in you which also was in Christ Jesus, ⁶who subsisting in the form of God thought it not robbery to be equal with God, ⁷but emptied Himself, taking the form of a slave, having become in the likeness of men, ⁸and being found in fashion as a man, He humbled Himself, having become obedient until death, even the death of a cross. ⁹Because of this also God highly exalted Him and gave Him a name above every name, ¹⁰that at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, of those of Heaven, and those of earth, and those under the earth; ¹¹and every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

¹²So, then, my beloved, even as you always obeyed, not as in my presence only, but now much rather in my absence, work out your salvation with fear and trembling, ¹³for it is God who is working in you both to will and to work for the sake of His good pleasure.

¹⁴Do all things without murmurings and disputings, ¹⁵that you may be blameless and harmless, children of God, without fault in the midst of a crooked generation, even having been perverted — among whom you shine as luminaries in the world, ¹⁶holding up a word of life, for a boast to me in the day of Christ, that I ran not in vain, nor labored in vain ¹⁷But if indeed I am poured out on the sacrifice and service of your faith, I rejoice; and I rejoice with you all. ¹⁸And you also rejoice in the same, and rejoice with me.

¹⁹But I hope in the Lord Jesus to send Timothy to you soon, that I may also be of good cheer, knowing the things about you. ²⁰For I have no one likeminded, who genuinely will care for the things about you. ²¹For all seek their own things, not the things of Christ Jesus. ²²But you know the proof of him, that as a child to a father, he served with me for the gospel. ²³Then I hope to send this one at once, whenever I shall see the things about me. ²⁴But I trust in the Lord that I myself also will come soon. ²⁵But I thought it needful to send to you Epaphroditus, my brother and fellow-worker, and my fellow-soldier, and your messenger and minister of my need; ²⁶since he was longing for you all, and has been troubled because you heard that he was sick. ²⁷For indeed he was sick, coming near to death; but God had mercy on him, and not only on him, but also me, lest I should have grief on grief. ²⁸Therefore, I sent him more eagerly, that seeing him again you may rejoice, and I may be less grieved. ²⁹Then receive him in the Lord with all joy, and hold such in honor; ³⁰that through the work of Christ he drew near to death, exposing his soul, that he may fill up your lack of service toward me.

¹For the rest, my brothers, rejoice in the Lord. To write the same things to you truly is not tiresome to me, but safe for you. ²Look out for the dogs; look out for the evil workers; look out for the concision party. ³For we are the circumcision, the ones who worship by the Spirit of God, and who glory in Christ Jesus, and who do not trust in flesh. ⁴Though I also might have trust in flesh—if any other thinks to trust in flesh, I more— ⁵in circumcision, the eighth day; of the race of Israel, the tribe of Benjamin; a Hebrew of the Hebrews; according to Law, a Pharisee; ⁶according to zeal, persecuting the church; according to righteousness in Law, being blameless. ⁷But what things were gain to me, these I have counted loss because of Christ. ⁸But, nay, rather I also count all things to be loss because of the excellency of the knowledge of Christ Jesus, my Lord, for whose sake I have suffered the loss of all things, and count them to be trash, that I might gain Christ, ⁹and be found in Him; not having my own righteousness of Law, but through the faith of Christ having the righteousness of God based on faith, ¹⁰to know Him and the power of His resurrection, and the fellowship of His sufferings, having been conformed to His death; ¹¹if somehow I may attain to the resurrection from the dead. ¹²Not that I already received, or already have been perfected, but I press on, if I also may lay hold, inasmuch as I also was laid hold of by Christ Jesus. ¹³Brothers, I do not count myself to have laid hold, but one thing I do, forgetting the things behind, and stretching forward to those things before, ¹⁴I press on after the mark, for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus. ¹⁵Then as many as are perfect, let us be of this mind; and if you think anything differently, God will also reveal this to you.

¹⁶Yet as to where we have reached, let us walk by the same rule, being of the same mind. ¹⁷Be fellow-imitators of me, brothers, and consider those walking this way, even as you have us for a pattern.

¹⁸For many walk as the enemies of the cross of Christ—of whom I often told you, and now even weeping I say it — ¹⁹whose end is destruction, whose god is the belly, and who glory in their shame, those who mind earthly things.

²⁰For our citizenship is in Heaven, from where we also wait for a Savior, the Lord Jesus Christ, ²¹who will transform our body of humiliation, for it to be conformed to His body of glory, according to the working of His power, even to put all things under Himself.

¹So that, my brothers, ones loved and longed for, my joy and crown, so stand firm in the Lord, beloved ones.

²I entreat Euodia, and I entreat Synuche, to mind the same thing in the Lord. ³And I also ask you, true yokefellow, help those who struggled along with me and with Clement in the gospel, and the rest, fellow-workers with me, whose names are in the Scroll of Life.

⁴Rejoice in the Lord always. Again I say, Rejoice! ⁵Let your reasonableness be known to all men. The Lord is near. ⁶Do not be anxious about anything, but in everything by prayer and by petition, with thanksgivings, let your requests be made known to God; ⁷and the peace of God which surpasses all understanding will keep your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus. ⁸For the rest, brothers, whatever is true, whatever honorable, whatever is right, whatever pure, whatever lovely, whatever of good report; if of any virtue, and if of any praise, think on these things. ⁹And what things you learned and received and heard and saw in me, practice these things; and the God of peace will be with you.

¹⁰But I rejoiced in the Lord greatly that now at last you revived your thinking of me—although you indeed did think, but lacked opportunity. ¹¹Not that I speak as to great need; for I have learned to be content in whatever state I am. ¹²But I know to be humbled, and I know to abound; in everything, and in all things, I am taught both to be filled, and to hunger; both to abound, and to lack. ¹³I can do all things through Christ, the One giving me power. ¹⁴Yet you did well in sharing my troubles. ¹⁵And you know, too, Philipians, that in the beginning of the gospel, when I went out from Macedonia, not one church shared with me in the matter of giving and receiving, except you only.

¹⁶Because truly in Thessalonica you sent to my need, both once and twice. ¹⁷Not that I seek a gift, but I seek the fruit multiplying to your account. ¹⁸But I have all things, and more than enough; I have been filled, receiving from Epaphroditus the things from you, an odor of sweet smell, an acceptable sacrifice, well-pleasing to God.

¹⁹And my God will fill your every need according to His riches in glory, in Christ Jesus. ²⁰Now may glory be to our God and Father forever and ever. Amen.

²¹Greet every saint in Christ Jesus. The brothers with me greet you. ²²All the saints greet you, most of all those of Caesar's house.

²³The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with all of you. Amen.

THE EPISTLE TO THE COLOSSIANS

¹Paul, an apostle of Jesus Christ through the will of God, and Timothy the brother, ²to the saints and faithful brothers in Christ in Colosse: Grace and peace to you from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

³We give thanks to God and the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, praying continually about you, ⁴hearing of your faith in Christ Jesus, and the love which you have toward all the saints, ⁵through the hope being laid up for you in Heaven; which you heard before in the word of the truth of the gospel, ⁶coming to you, as also in all the world, and it is bearing fruit, even also among you, from the day in which you heard and knew the grace of God in truth; ⁷even as you also learned from Epaphras our beloved fellow-slave, who is a faithful minister of Christ for you, ⁸he also showing to us your love in the Spirit.

⁹For this cause also, from the day in which we heard, we do not cease praying for you and asking that you may be filled with the knowledge of His will in all wisdom and spiritual understanding, ¹⁰for you to walk worthily of the Lord to all pleasing, bearing fruit in every good work, and growing into the full knowledge of God; ¹¹being empowered with all power according to the might of His glory, to all patience and long-suffering with joy; ¹²giving thanks to the Father, who has made us fit for a share of the inheritance of the saints in light, ¹³who delivered us out of the power of darkness, and translated us into the kingdom of the Son of His love; ¹⁴in whom we have redemption through His blood, the forgiveness of sins; ¹⁵who is the image of the invisible God, the Firstborn of all creation—¹⁶for all things were created in Him, the things in the heavens, and the things on the earth; the visible and the invisible; whether thrones, or lordships, or rulers, or authorities, all things have been created through Him and for Him.

¹⁷And He is before all things, and all things consist in Him. ¹⁸And He is the Head of the body, the church; who is the Beginning, the Firstborn from the dead, that He be pre-eminent in all things; ¹⁹because all the fullness was pleased to dwell in Him, ²⁰and through Him making peace by the blood of His cross, to reconcile all things to Himself through Him, whether the things on the earth, or the things in the heavens. ²¹And you then were once alienated and enemies in your mind by evil works. But now He reconciled ²²in the body of His flesh, through death, to present you holy and without blame, and without charge before Him, ²³if you continue in the faith grounded and settled, and not being moved away from the hope of the gospel which you heard proclaimed in all the creation under Heaven, of which I, Paul, became a minister.

²⁴Now I rejoice in my sufferings on your behalf, and I fill up in my flesh the things lacking of the afflictions of Christ, on behalf of His body, which is the church; ²⁵of which I became a minister, according to the administration of God given to me for you, to fulfill the word of God, ²⁶the mystery having been hidden from the ages, and from the generations, but now was revealed to His saints; ²⁷to whom God desired to make known what are the riches of the glory of this mystery among the nations, which is Christ in you, the hope of glory; ²⁸whom we announce, warning every man and teaching every man in all wisdom, that we may present every man full-grown in Christ Jesus. ²⁹For which also I labor, working according to the working of Him who works in me in power.

¹For I want you to know how great a struggle I have concerning you, and those in Laodicea, and as many as have not seen my face in the flesh; ²that their hearts may be comforted, being joined together in love, and to all riches of the full assurance of the understanding, to the full knowledge of the mystery of God, even of the Father and of Christ, ³in whom are hidden all the treasures of wisdom and of knowledge. ⁴And I say this, that no one may beguile you with persuasive words. ⁵For though I am indeed absent in the flesh, yet I am with you in spirit, rejoicing and seeing your order, and the firmness of your faith in Christ. ⁶Therefore, as you received Christ Jesus the Lord, walk in Him, ⁷having been rooted and built up in Him, and having been confirmed in the faith, even as you were taught, abounding in it with thanksgiving.

⁸Watch, that there not be one robbing you through philosophy and empty deceit, according to the tradition of men, according to the elements of the world, and not according to Christ. ⁹For in Him dwells all the fullness of the Godhead bodily; ¹⁰and having been filled, you are in Him, who is the Head of all rule and authority, ¹¹in whom also you were circumcised with a circumcision not made by hand, in the putting off of the body of the sins of the flesh, by the circumcision of Christ; ¹²being buried with Him in baptism, in whom also you were raised through the faith of the working of God, raising Him from the dead. ¹³And you, being dead in the offenses and the uncircumcision of your flesh, He made alive together with Him, having forgiven you all the offenses; ¹⁴blotting out the handwriting in the ordinances against us, which were contrary to us, even He has taken it out of the midst, nailing it to the cross; ¹⁵having stripped the rulers and the authorities, He made a show of them in public, triumphing over them in it.

¹⁶Then do not let anyone judge you in eating or in drinking, or in respect of a feast, or the new moon, or of sabbaths, ¹⁷which are a shadow of coming things; but the body is of Christ. ¹⁸Let no one judge you unworthy, willing in humility and worship of the angels, pushing into things which he has not seen, being puffed up by the mind of his flesh without a cause, ¹⁹and not holding fast the Head, from whom all the body having been supplied with the joints and bands, and having been joined together, will grow with the growth which comes from God.

²⁰If, then, you died with Christ from the elements of the world, why are you under its decrees, as living in the world? ²¹Do not handle; do not taste; do not touch—²²which things are all to rot away in the using, according to the injunctions and teachings of men. ²³Which things indeed have a reputation of wisdom in will-worship and humility, and unsparing abuse of the body, not in any honor for satisfaction of the flesh.

¹If, then, you were raised with Christ, seek the things above, where Christ is sitting at the right of God; ²mind the things above, not the things on the earth, ³for you died, and your life has been hidden with Christ in God. ⁴Whenever Christ our life is revealed, then also you will be revealed with Him in glory.

⁵Then put to death your members which are on the earth: fornication, uncleanness, passion, evil lust, and covetousness, which is idolatry; ⁶on account of which things the wrath of God is coming on the sons of disobedience; ⁷among whom you also walked at one time, when you were living in these. ⁸But now, you put off all these things also: wrath, anger, malice, evil speaking, shameful words out of your mouth.

⁹Do not lie to one another, having put off the old man with his practices, ¹⁰and having put on the new, having been renewed in full knowledge according to the image of the One creating him; ¹¹where there is no Greek and Jew, circumcision and uncircumcision, foreigner, Scythian, slave or freeman—but Christ is all things and in all.

¹²Then put on as the elect of God, holy and beloved, tender feelings of compassions, kindness, humility, meekness, long-suffering, ¹³bearing with one another, and forgiving each other, if any has a complaint against anyone; even as Christ forgave you, so also should you. ¹⁴And above all these, add love, which is the bond of perfectness. ¹⁵And let the peace of God rule in your hearts, to which you also were called in one body, and be thankful.

¹⁶Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly, in all wisdom teaching and exhorting yourselves in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing with grace in your hearts to the Lord. ¹⁷And everything, whatever you do in word or in work, do all things in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God and the Father through Him.

¹⁸Wives, be subject to your own husbands, as is becoming in the Lord. ¹⁹Husbands, love the wives, and do not be bitter against them. ²⁰Children, obey the parents in all things; for this is well-pleasing to the Lord. ²¹Fathers, do not provoke your children, that they may not be disheartened. ²²Slaves, obey the lords according to flesh in all respects, not with eye-service as men-pleasers, but in singleness of heart, fearing God. ²³And whatever you may do, work from the soul, as to the Lord, and not to men, ²⁴knowing that from the Lord you shall receive the reward of the inheritance. For you serve the Lord Christ. ²⁵But the one doing wrong will receive what he did wrong, and there is no respect of persons.

¹Lords, give that which is just and that which is equal to the slaves, knowing that you have a Lord in Heaven also.

²Steadfastly continue in prayer, watching in it with thanksgiving, ³praying together about us also, that God may open to us a door of the word, to speak the mystery of Christ, on account of which I also have been bound, ⁴that I may make it clear, as I ought to speak. ⁵Walk in wisdom toward the ones outside, redeeming the time. ⁶Let your word be always with grace, being seasoned with salt, to know how you ought to answer each one.

⁷All the things about me Tychicus the beloved brother and faithful minister, and fellow-slave in the Lord, will make known to you, ⁸whom I sent to you for this very thing, that he know the things about you, and that he might comfort your hearts; ⁹with Onesimus the faithful and beloved brother, who is of you. they will make known to you all the things here.

¹⁰Aristarchus, my fellow-prisoner, greets you; also Mark the cousin of Barnabas, about whom you received orders — if he comes to you, receive him — ¹¹and Jesus, the one being called Justus, those being of the circumcision, these only fellow-workers for the kingdom of God, who became a comfort to me.

¹²Epaphras greets you, he of you, a slave of Christ, always striving for you in prayers, that you may stand full-grown and being complete in every will of God.

¹³For I bear witness to him, that he has much zeal on your behalf, and those in Laodicea, and those in Hierapolis. ¹⁴Luke the beloved physician greets you, also Demas. ¹⁵Greet the brothers in Laodicea, and Nymphas, and the church in his house.

¹⁶And when this letter is read before you, cause that it be read also in the Laodicean church; and the one of Laodicea, that you also read. ¹⁷And say to Archippus, Look to the ministry which you received in the Lord, that you may fulfill it.

¹⁸The greeting of Paul by my own hand. Remember my bonds. Grace be with you. Amen.

THE FIRST EPISTLE TO THE THESSALONIANS

¹Paul and Silvanus and Timothy to the church of Thessalonians in God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ: Grace and peace to you from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

²We give thanks to God always concerning you all, making mention of you at our prayers, ³remembering without ceasing your work of faith and labor of love, and the patience of hope of our Lord Jesus Christ, before our God and Father; ⁴knowing, brothers, beloved by God, your election. ⁵For our gospel did not come to you in word only, but also in power, and in the Holy Spirit, and in much assurance, even as you know what we were among you for your sake. ⁶And you became imitators of us and of the Lord, welcoming the word in much affliction with joy of the Holy Spirit, ⁷so that you became examples to all those believing in Macedonia and Achaia. ⁸For the word of the Lord sounded out from you, not only in Macedonia and Achaia, but also in every place your faith toward God has gone out, so that there is no need for us to have to say anything. ⁹For they themselves announce concerning us, what kind of entrance we have to you, and how you had turned to God from the idols, to serve the true and living God, ¹⁰and eagerly to await His Son from Heaven, whom He raised from the dead, Jesus, the One delivering us from the wrath to come.

¹For brothers, you yourselves know our entrance to you, that it has not been without fruit. ²But also suffering before and being insulted in Philippi, as you know, we were bold in our God to speak the gospel of God to you in much agony. ³For our exhortation was not of error, nor of uncleanness, nor in guile; ⁴but even as we have been approved by God to be entrusted with the gospel, so we speak; not as pleasing men, but God, who tests our hearts. ⁵For neither were we then found with words of flattery, even as you know, nor with pretense of covetousness

—God is witness—⁶nor seeking glory from men; neither from you, nor from others, having been able to be so with heaviness as apostles of Christ. ⁷But we were gentle in your midst, even as a nurse should warmly cherish her children.

⁸Longing over you in this way, we were pleased to impart to you not only the gospel of God, but also our own souls, because you have become beloved to us. ⁹For, brothers, you remember our labor and toil, night and day, working in order not to put a burden on any one of you, we proclaimed to you the gospel of God. ¹⁰You and God are witnesses how holily and righteously and blamelessly we were to you, those believing; ¹¹even as you know how I was to each one of you, as a father to his children, exhorting and consoling you, ¹²testifying for you to walk worthily of God, He calling you to His kingdom and glory.

¹³And because of this we give thanks to God without ceasing, that having received the word of hearing from us, you welcomed it as of God, not as a word of men, but as it is, truly the word of God, which also works in you, the ones believing. ¹⁴For, brothers, you became imitators of the churches of God being in Judea in Christ Jesus, because you also suffered these things by your own fellow-countrymen, as they also by the Jews, ¹⁵who both killed the Lord Jesus and their own prophets, also driving us out, and not pleasing God, and being contrary to all men; ¹⁶hindering us from speaking to the nations in order that they be saved, to fill up their sins always. But the wrath has come on them to the uttermost.

¹⁷But, brothers, we being taken away from you for an hour's time, in presence, not in heart, we were much more eager with much desire to see your face. ¹⁸Because of this, we desired to come to you, truly I, Paul, both once and twice; but Satan hindered us. ¹⁹For what is our hope or joy, or crown of glorying? Are you not even to be before our Lord Jesus Christ at His coming? ²⁰For you are our glory and joy.

¹So no longer enduring, we were pleased to be left in Athens alone, ²and sent Timothy, our brother and minister of God, and our fellow-worker in the gospel of Christ, in order to establish you and to encourage you concerning your faith, ³that no one be drawn aside by these afflictions. For you yourselves know that we are appointed to this. ⁴For even when we were with you, we said to you before that we are about to be afflicted; as it also happened, even you know. ⁵Because of this, no longer enduring, I also sent to know your faith, that the tempting one not somehow tempt you, and our labor should become to no avail. ⁶But now Timothy coming to us from you, and announcing good news to us of your love and faith, and that you have good remembrance of us always, longing to see us, even as also we long to see you, ⁷because of this we were comforted as to you, brothers, on knowing all our affliction and distress through your faith, ⁸for now we live, if you should stand fast in the Lord. ⁹For what thanks are we able to return to God as to you, as to all the joy with which we rejoice because of you before our God, ¹⁰night and day praying exceedingly for me to see your face, and to complete the things lacking in your faith?

¹¹But may our God and Father Himself, and our Lord Jesus Christ, direct our way to you. ¹²And may the Lord make you to increase and to abound in love toward one another and toward all, even as we also toward you, ¹³in order to establish your hearts blameless in holiness before our God and Father at the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ with all His saints.

¹For the rest, then, brothers, we beg you and we exhort in the Lord Jesus, even as you received from us how you ought to walk and to please God, that you abound more. ²For you know what injunctions we gave you through the Lord Jesus. ³For this is God's will, your sanctification, for you to abstain from fornication, ⁴each one of you to know to possess his vessel in sanctification and honor, ⁵not in passion of lust, even as also the nations not knowing

God do; ⁶not to go beyond and to overreach in the matter of his brother; because the avenger concerning all these is the Lord, even as we told you before, and solemnly testified. ⁷For God did not call us to uncleanness, but in sanctification. ⁸Therefore, the one that despises does not despise man, but God, even He giving His Holy Spirit to us.

⁹Now as to brotherly love, you have no need for me to write to you, for you yourselves are taught by God to love one another. ¹⁰For you also do it toward the brothers in all Macedonia. But, brothers, we exhort you to abound more. ¹¹And try earnestly to be quiet, and to do your own things, and to work with your own hands, as we enjoined you, ¹²that you may walk becomingly toward those outside, and that you may have need of nothing.

¹³But I do not want you to be ignorant, brothers, concerning those who sleep, that you not grieve, as the rest also, not having hope. ¹⁴For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so God will also bring with Him all those who have fallen asleep through Jesus. ¹⁵For we say this to you in the word of the Lord, that we the living who remain to the coming of the Lord not at all will go before those who have fallen asleep; ¹⁶because the Lord Himself shall come down from Heaven with a commanding shout of an archangel's voice, and with God's trumpet. And the dead in Christ will rise again first, ¹⁷then we who remain alive will be caught up together with them in the clouds to a meeting with the Lord in the air. And so we will always be with the Lord. ¹⁸So, then, comfort each other with these words.

¹But as to the times and the seasons, brothers, you have no need for you to be written to, ²for you yourselves know accurately the day of the Lord comes as a thief in the night. ³For when they say, Peace and safety! Then suddenly destruction comes upon them, like travail to the pregnant woman, and they shall not at all escape. ⁴But you, brothers, are not in darkness, that the Day should overtake you as a thief. ⁵You are all sons of light and sons of day; we are not of night, nor of darkness. ⁶So, then, we should not sleep as the rest also do, but we should watch and be calm. ⁷For the ones who sleep sleep by night, and the ones having been drunk are drunk by night; ⁸but we being of day should be calm, having put on the breastplate of faith and love, and the hope of salvation as a helmet; ⁹because God has not appointed us to wrath, but for obtaining salvation through our Lord Jesus Christ, ¹⁰He dying on our behalf, so that whether we watch or we sleep, we may live together with Him. ¹¹Therefore, comfort one another, and build up one another, as you indeed do.

¹²But, brothers, we beg you to know those laboring among you, and taking the lead of you in the Lord, and warning you; ¹³even esteem them most exceedingly in love because of their work. Be at peace among yourselves.

¹⁴And we exhort you, brothers, to warn the unruly ones, comfort those that are faint-hearted, sustain the weak, be patient towards all. ¹⁵See that no one returns evil for evil to anyone, but always pursue the good, both towards one another and towards all.

¹⁶Rejoice always. ¹⁷Pray without ceasing. ¹⁸In everything give thanks, for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus toward you. ¹⁹Do not quench the Spirit. ²⁰Do not despise prophecies. ²¹Test all things, hold fast to the good. ²²Keep back from every form of evil.

²³And may the God of peace Himself fully sanctify you, and may your whole spirit and soul and body be kept blameless at the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ. ²⁴*He* who calls you is faithful, who also will perform it.

²⁵Brothers, pray concerning us.

²⁶Greet all the brothers with a holy kiss. ²⁷I charge you by the Lord that this letter be read to all the holy brothers.

²⁸The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you. Amen.

THE SECOND EPISTLE TO THE THESSALONIANS

¹Paul and Silvanus and Timothy to the church of Thessalonians in God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ: ²Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

³Brothers, we are bound to give thanks to God always concerning you, even as it is right, because your faith grows exceedingly, and the love of each one of you all multiplies toward one another; ⁴so as for us to boast ourselves in you in the churches of God for your patience and faith in all your persecutions, and the afflictions which you endure, ⁵a clear token of the just judgment of God, for you to be counted worthy of the kingdom of God, for which you indeed suffer; ⁶since it is a just thing with God to repay affliction to the ones afflicting you; ⁷and to you, those being afflicted, rest with us at the revelation of the Lord Jesus from Heaven with angels of His power, ⁸in flaming fire giving full vengeance to those not knowing God, and to those not obeying the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ, ⁹who will pay the penalty: eternal destruction from the face of the Lord, and from the glory of His strength, ¹⁰when He comes to be glorified in His saints, and to be admired in all those who believe in that Day, because our testimony to you was believed. ¹¹For which we also always pray concerning you, that our God may count you worthy of the calling, and may fulfill every good pleasure of goodness, and work of faith in power, ¹²so that the name of our Lord Jesus Christ may be glorified in you, and you in Him, according to the grace of our God and of the Lord Jesus Christ.

¹And, brothers, we beg you, by the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, and of our gathering together to Him, ²for you not to be quickly shaken in the mind, nor to be troubled; neither through a spirit, nor through speech, nor through letter, as through us, as if the Day of Christ has come. ³Do not let anyone deceive you in any way, because that Day will not come unless first comes the falling away, and the man of sin is revealed, the son of perdition, ⁴the one opposing and exalting himself over everything being called God, or object of worship, so as for him to sit in the temple of God as God, showing himself that he is a god. ⁵Do you not remember that I told you these things, I yet being with you? ⁶And now you know the thing holding back, for him to be revealed in his time. ⁷For the mystery of lawlessness already is working, only he holding back now, until it comes out of the midst; ⁸and then the Lawless One will be revealed, whom the Lord will consume by the spirit of His mouth; and He will bring to nothing by the brightness of His coming; ⁹*His* coming is according to the working of Satan in all power and miracles and lying wonders, ¹⁰and in all deceit of unrighteousness in those being lost, because they did not receive the love of the truth in order for them to be saved. ¹¹And because of this, God will send to them a working of error, for them to believe the lie, ¹²that all may be judged, those not believing the truth, but who have delighted in unrighteousness.

¹³But we ought to thank God always concerning you, brothers, beloved by the Lord, because God chose you from the beginning to salvation in sanctification of the Spirit and belief of the truth, ¹⁴to which He called you through our gospel, to obtain the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ. ¹⁵So, then, brothers, stand firm and strongly hold the teachings you were taught, whether by word or by our letter. ¹⁶But may our Lord Himself, Jesus Christ, and our God and Father, He who loves and gives us everlasting encouragement and good hope by grace, ¹⁷encourage your hearts, and may He establish you in every good word and work.

¹For the rest, brothers, pray concerning us, that the word of the Lord may run and be glorified, even as also with you, ²and that we may be delivered from perverse and evil men—for faith is not in all. ³But

the Lord is faithful, who will establish and will guard you from the evil. ⁴But we are persuaded in the Lord as to you, that whatever things we enjoin you, you both do and will do. ⁵And the Lord direct your hearts into the love of God and into the patience of Christ.

⁶And we enjoin you, brothers, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, to draw yourselves back from every brother walking in an unruly way, and not according to the teaching which you received from us. ⁷For you yourselves know how it is right to act like us, because we were not disorderly among you; ⁸nor did we eat bread from anyone as a gift; but by labor and toil working night and day in order not to burden anyone of you. ⁹Not that we do not have authority, but that we give ourselves an example to you, for you to act like us. ¹⁰For even when we were with you, we enjoined this to you: If anyone does not desire to work, let him not eat. ¹¹For we hear some are walking in a disorderly way among you, not working at all, but being busybodies. ¹²And we enjoin such and exhort through our Lord Jesus Christ that working with quietness they may eat their own bread. ¹³And you, brothers, do not lose heart in well-doing. ¹⁴But if anyone does not obey our word through the letter, mark that one, and do not associate with him, that he be shamed; ¹⁵but do not count him an enemy, but warn him as a brother.

¹⁶And may the Lord of peace Himself continually give peace to you in every way. The Lord be with all of you.

¹⁷The greeting of Paul by my hand is the sign in every letter; so I write. ¹⁸The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all. Amen.

THE FIRST EPISTLE TO TIMOTHY

¹Paul, an apostle of Jesus Christ according to a command of God our Savior, even the Lord Jesus Christ, our Hope, ²to Timothy, a true child in the faith: Grace, mercy, peace from God our Father and our Lord Jesus Christ.

³Even as I begged you to remain in Ephesus — I going to Macedonia — that you might charge some not to teach other doctrines, ⁴nor to give heed to fables and to endless genealogies—which provide doubts rather than a stewardship of God in faith — ⁵but the end of the commandment is love out of a pure heart and a good conscience, and faith not pretended; ⁶from which having missed the mark some turned aside to empty talking, ⁷wishing to be teachers of Law, neither understanding what they say, nor about that which they strongly affirm. ⁸And we know that the Law is good, if anyone uses it lawfully; ⁹knowing this, that law is not laid down for a righteous one but for lawless and unruly ones, for ungodly and sinful ones, for unholy and profane ones, for slayers of fathers and slayers of mothers, for murderers, ¹⁰for fornicators, for homosexuals, for slave-traders, for liars, for perjurers, and if any other thing opposes sound teaching, ¹¹according to the gospel of the glory of the blessed God with which I was entrusted.

¹²And I have thanks to Him empowering me, our Lord Jesus Christ, because He counted me faithful, putting me into the ministry, ¹³the one who before was a blasphemer, and a persecutor, and insolent; but I obtained mercy, because being ignorant I did it in unbelief. ¹⁴But the grace of our Lord abounded exceedingly with faith and love in Christ Jesus. ¹⁵Faithful is the word, and worthy of all acceptance, that Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners, of whom I am chief. ¹⁶But for this reason I obtained mercy, that in me first Jesus Christ might show forth all long-suffering, for an example to those being about to believe on Him to everlasting life. ¹⁷Now to the King eternal, incorruptible, invisible, the only wise God, be honor and glory forever and ever. Amen.

¹⁸This charge I commit to you, my child Timothy, according to the prophecies going before as to you, that you might war the good warfare by them, ¹⁹having faith and a good conscience, which some having thrust away made shipwreck concerning the faith; ²⁰of whom are Hymeneus and Alexander, whom I delivered to Satan, that they may be taught not to blaspheme.

¹First of all, then, I exhort that petitions, prayers, intercessions, and thanksgivings be made on behalf of all men; ²for kings and all the ones being in high position, that we may lead a tranquil and quiet existence in all godliness and reverence. ³For this is good and acceptable before God our deliverer, ⁴who desires all men to be delivered, and to come to a full knowledge of truth. ⁵For God is one, also there is one Mediator of God and of men, the Man Christ Jesus, ⁶the One having given Himself a ransom on behalf of all, the testimony to be given in its own times; ⁷to which I was appointed a herald and apostle—I speak the truth in Christ, I do not lie—a teacher of the nations, in faith and truth.

⁸Therefore, I desire the men to pray in every place, lifting up holy hands without wrath and doubting. ⁹Likewise also the women to adorn themselves in decent clothing, with modesty and sensibleness, not with plaiting, or gold, or pearls, or expensive garments, ¹⁰but what becomes women professing fear of God, through good works.

¹¹Let a woman learn in silence, in all subjection. ¹²But I do not allow a woman to teach, nor to exercise authority over a man, but to be in silence. ¹³For Adam was formed first, then Eve. ¹⁴And Adam was not deceived, but the woman being deceived has come to be in transgression; ¹⁵but she will be delivered through the bearing of children, if they remain in faith and love and holiness, with sensibleness.

¹Faithful is the word: If anyone reaches out to overseership, he desires a good work. ²Then the overseer must be blameless, husband of one wife, temperate, sensible, modest, hospitable, apt at teaching; ³not a drinker, not a contentious one, not greedy of ill gain—but gentle, not quarrelsome, not loving money; ⁴ruling his own house well, having children in subjection with all reverence — ⁵but if anyone does not know to rule his own house, how will he care for a church of God? — ⁶not a novice, lest being puffed up he may fall into the judgment of the Devil. ⁷But he must also have a good witness from those outside, that he not fall into reproach, and into a snare of the Devil.

¹⁴I write these things to you, hoping to come to you shortly. ¹⁵But if I delay, that you may know how to behave in the house of God, which is the church of the living God, the pillar and foundation of the truth. ¹⁶And confessedly, great is the mystery of godliness: God was manifested in flesh, was justified in Spirit, was seen by angels, was proclaimed among nations, was believed on in the world, was taken up in glory.

¹But the Spirit expressly says that in the latter times some will depart from the faith, cleaving to deceiving spirits and teachings of demons, ²in hypocrisy of liars, being seared in their own conscience, ³forbidding to marry, saying to abstain from foods, which God created for partaking with thanksgiving by the believers, and those knowing the truth.

⁴Because every creature of God is good and nothing to be thrust away, but having been received with thanksgiving; ⁵for through God's word and prayerfully coming together, it is sanctified.

⁶Having suggested these things to the brothers, you will be a good minister of Jesus Christ, having been nourished by the words of faith, and by the good teaching which you have followed. ⁷But refuse the profane and old-womanish tales. And exercise yourself to godliness. ⁸For bodily exercise is profitable for a little, but godliness is profitable to all things, having promise of the present life, and of that coming. ⁹Faithful is the word, and worthy of all acceptance; ¹⁰for to this we also labor and are reproached, because we hope on the living God, who is deliverer of all men, especially of believers. ¹¹Enjoin and teach these things.

¹²Let no one despise your youth, but become an example of the believers in word, in conduct, in love, in spirit, in faith, in purity. ¹³Until I come, attend to reading, to exhortation, to teaching. ¹⁴Do not be neglectful of the gift in you, which was given to you through prophecy, with laying on of the hands of the elderhood. ¹⁵Meditate on these things; be in these things in order that your progress may be plain to all. ¹⁶Hold on to yourself and to the teaching; continue in them; for doing this, you will both deliver yourself and those hearing you.

¹Do not sharply rebuke an elder, but exhort as a father, and younger ones as brothers; ²elder women as mothers; younger women as sisters in all purity. ³Honor widows, the ones really being widows; ⁴but if any widow has children or grandchildren, let them learn first to be godly to their own house, and to make a return payment to their forebears; for this is good and pleasing before God. ⁵But she being really a widow, even having been left alone, has set her hope on God, and continues in petitions and prayers night and day. ⁶But she who lives in self-pleasure has died while living. ⁷And enjoin these things that they may be blameless. ⁸But if anyone does not provide for his own, and especially his family, he has denied the faith, and is worse than an unbeliever. ⁹Let a widow be enrolled having become not less than sixty years, wife of one man, ¹⁰being witnessed by good works; if she brought up children; if she hosted strangers; if she washed the feet of the saints; if she relieved afflicted ones; if she followed after every good work.

¹¹But refuse younger widows; for whenever they grow lustful against Christ, they desire to marry, ¹²having guilt because they set aside the first faith; ¹³and with it all, they also learn to be idle, going around the houses, and not only idle but also gossips and busy-bodies, speaking the things not proper. ¹⁴Therefore, I desire the young women to marry, to bear children, to rule the house, giving no occasion to the adversary on account of reproach. ¹⁵For some already have turned aside behind Satan. ¹⁶If any believing man or believing woman has widows, let them relieve them; and do not burden the church, that it may relieve those being really widows.

¹⁷Let the elders who take the lead well be counted worthy of double honor, especially those laboring in word and teaching. ¹⁸For the Scripture says, "You shall not muzzle an ox treading out grain" — and, "The laborer is worthy of his pay."

¹⁹Do not receive an accusation against an elder unless on the testimony of two or three witnesses. ²⁰The ones sinning before all, rebuke; that the rest also may have fear. ²¹I solemnly witness before God and the Lord Jesus Christ, and the elect angels, that you should guard these things without prejudice, doing nothing by way of partiality.

²²Lay hands quickly on no one, nor share in the sins of others. Keep yourself pure. ²³No longer drink water, but use a little wine on account of your stomach and your frequent infirmities. ²⁴The sins of some men are plain before, going before to judgment; but indeed some follow after. ²⁵Likewise, also the good works are plain beforehand, and those otherwise cannot be hidden.

¹Let as many as are slaves under a yoke count their own masters worthy of all honor, that the name and teaching of God may not be blasphemed. ²And those having believing masters, let them not despise them because they are brothers, but rather let them serve as slaves because they are believing and beloved ones, those receiving of the good service in return. Teach and exhort these things.

³If anyone teaches differently, and does not consent to sound words, those of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the teaching according to godliness, ⁴he has been puffed up, understanding nothing, but is sick concerning doubts and arguments, out of which comes envy, strife, evil-speakings, evil suspicions, ⁵meddling, of men whose mind has been corrupted and deprived of the truth, supposing gain to be godliness. Withdraw from such persons. ⁶But godliness with contentment is great gain. ⁷For we have brought nothing into the world, and it is plain that neither can we carry anything out. ⁸But having food and clothing, we will be satisfied with these. ⁹But those having purposed to be rich fall into temptation and a snare, and many foolish and hurtful lusts which plunge men into death and destruction. ¹⁰For the love of money is a root of all kinds of evils, by means of which some having lusted after it were seduced from the faith, and they themselves pierced through by many pains.

¹¹But you, O man of God, flee these things, and pursue righteousness, godliness, faith, love, patience, and meekness. ¹²Fight the good fight of faith. Lay hold on eternal life, to which you were also called, and confessed the good confession before many witnesses. ¹³I charge you before God, He making all things alive, and Christ Jesus, He witnessing the good confession to Pontius Pilate, ¹⁴that you keep the commandment spotless, blameless, until the appearing of our Lord Jesus Christ; ¹⁵who in His own time will reveal the blessed and only Potentate, the King of kings and Lord of lords; ¹⁶the only One having immortality, living in light that cannot be approached; whom no one of men saw, nor can see; to whom be honor and everlasting might. Amen.

¹⁷Charge the rich in the present age not to be high-minded, nor to set hope on the uncertainty of riches, but in the living God, He offering to us richly all things for enjoyment; ¹⁸to do good, to be rich in good works, to be ready to share, generous, ¹⁹treasuring up for themselves a good foundation for the coming age, that they may lay hold on everlasting life.

²⁰O Timothy, guard the deposit, having turned away from the profane, empty babblings and opposing theories of the falsely named knowledge, which some having asserted have missed the mark concerning the faith.

Grace be with you. Amen.

THE SECOND EPISTLE TO TIMOTHY

¹Paul an apostle of Jesus Christ by the will of God, according to the promise of life which is in Christ Jesus, ²to my beloved child Timothy: Grace, mercy, peace from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Lord.

³I have thanks to God, whom I worship from my forebears in a pure conscience, how unceasingly I have remembrance concerning you in my petitions night and day, ⁴longing to see you, being reminded of your tears, that I may be filled with joy; ⁵taking recollection of the unpretended faith in you, which first dwelt in your grandmother Lois, and in your mother Eunice; and I am assured that it is also in you. ⁶For which cause I remind you to fan the flame of the gift of God, which is in you through the laying on of my hands. ⁷For God did not give a spirit of fearfulness to us, but of power, and of love, and of self-control.

⁸Then do not be ashamed of the testimony of our Lord, nor of me, His prisoner. But suffer hardship with the gospel, according to the power of God, ⁹He having saved us and having called us with a holy calling, not according to our works, but according to His own purpose and grace given to us in Christ Jesus before eternal times, ¹⁰but now revealed through the appearance of our Savior, Jesus Christ, making death of no effect and bringing life and incorruption to light through the gospel; ¹¹for which I was appointed a herald and apostle, and a teacher of nations. ¹²For which cause I also suffer these things; but I am not ashamed, for I know whom I have believed, and I am persuaded that He is able to guard my deposit until that Day. ¹³Hold a pattern of sound words which you heard from me, in faith and love in Christ Jesus. ¹⁴Guard the good deposit given through the Holy Spirit indwelling in us.

¹⁵You know this, that all those in Asia turned away from me, of whom are Phygellus and Hermogenes. ¹⁶May the Lord give mercy to the house of Onesiphorus, because he often refreshed me, and he was not ashamed of my chain; ¹⁷but having come to Rome, he more diligently sought and found me. ¹⁸May the Lord give to him to find mercy from the Lord in that Day. And what things he served in Ephesus, you know very well.

¹Then my child, you be empowered by grace in Christ Jesus. ²And what things you heard from me through many witnesses, commit these things to faithful men, such as will be competent also to teach others. ³Then you suffer hardship as a good soldier of Jesus Christ. ⁴No one serving as a soldier tangles with the affairs of this life, so that he might please the one enlisting him.

⁵And also if anyone competes, he is not crowned unless he competes lawfully. ⁶*It is* right that the laboring farmer partake first of the fruits. ⁷Consider what I say, for the Lord will give you understanding in all things. ⁸Remember Jesus Christ having been raised from the dead, of the seed of David, according to my gospel, ⁹in which I suffer ill as an evildoer, unto bonds; but the word of God has not been bound. ¹⁰Because of this, I endure all things on account of the elect, that they also may obtain salvation in Christ Jesus, with everlasting glory. ¹¹Faithful is the word: for if we died with Him, we also shall live with Him. ¹²If we endure, we shall also reign with Him. If we deny Him, that One will deny us. ¹³If we are unfaithful, that One remains faithful; He is not able to deny Himself.

¹⁴Remind them of these things, solemnly testifying before the Lord not to dispute about words for nothing useful, to the throwing down of those hearing. ¹⁵Earnestly study to show yourself approved to God, a workman unashamed, rightly dividing the Word of Truth. ¹⁶But shun profane, empty babblings, for they will go on to more ungodliness, ¹⁷and their word will have growth like gangrene — of whom is Hymeneus and Philetus; ¹⁸who missed the mark concerning the truth, saying the resurrection already has come, and overturn the faith of some. ¹⁹However, the foundation of God stands firm, having this seal, "The Lord knew those being His;" also, "Let everyone naming the name of Christ depart from unrighteousness."

²⁰But in a great house not only are there vessels of gold and silver, but also of wood and of earth; and some to honor, and some to dishonor. ²¹Then if anyone purifies himself from these, he will be a vessel to honor, having been sanctified and made useful to the Master, having been prepared to every good work. ²²But flee youthful lusts, and pursue righteousness, faith, love, peace, with the ones calling on the Lord out of a pure heart. ²³But refuse the foolish and uninstructed questionings, knowing that they generate quarrels. ²⁴But a slave of the Lord ought not to quarrel, but to be gentle towards all, apt to teach, forbearing, ²⁵in meekness teaching those who have opposed, if perhaps God may give them repentance for a full knowledge of the truth, ²⁶and they may awake out of the snare of the Devil, having been taken captive by him, so as to do the will of that one.

¹But know this, that in the last days grievous times will be at hand. ²For men will be lovers of themselves, lovers of money, braggarts, arrogant, blasphemers, disobedient to parents, unthankful, unholy, ³without natural feeling, unyielding, slanderers, without self-control, savage, haters of good, ⁴betrayers, reckless, puffed up, lovers of pleasure rather than lovers of God, ⁵having a form of godliness, but denying the power of it — even turn away from these. ⁶For of these are those creeping into houses and leading silly women captive, the ones having been heaped with sins, being led away by various lusts, ⁷always learning, but never being able to come to a full knowledge of the truth. ⁸But in the way Jannes and Jambres withstood Moses, so also these withstand the truth, men having been corrupted in mind, found worthless as to the faith. ⁹But they will not go further, for their foolishness will be plain to all, as also that of those became.

¹⁰But you have closely followed my teaching, the conduct, the purpose, the faith, the long-suffering, the love, the patient endurance, ¹¹the persecutions, the sufferings, such as happened to me in Antioch, in Iconium, in Lystra; what persecutions I bore. And the Lord delivered me out of all. ¹²And, indeed, all desiring to live godly in Christ Jesus will be persecuted. ¹³But evil men and pretenders will go forward to worse, leading astray, and being led astray. ¹⁴But you keep on in what you learned and were assured of, knowing from whom you learned, ¹⁵and that from a babe you know the Holy Scriptures, those being able to make you wise to salvation through belief in Christ Jesus. ¹⁶Every Scripture is God-breathed and profitable for teaching, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness; ¹⁷so that the man of God may be perfect, fully furnished for every good work.

¹Then I solemnly witness before God and the Lord Jesus Christ, He being about to judge living and dead according to His appearance and His kingdom: ²preach the word; be urgent in season, out of season; convict, warn, encourage with all long-suffering and teaching. ³For a time will be when they will not endure sound doctrine, but according to their own lusts, they will heap up to themselves teachers tickling the ear; ⁴and they will turn away the ear from the truth, and will be turned aside to myths. ⁵But you be clear-minded in all; suffer hardship, do the work of an evangelist; fully carry out your ministry. ⁶For I am already being poured out, and the time of my release is here. ⁷I have fought the good fight. I have finished the course. I have kept the faith. ⁸For the rest, the crown of righteousness is laid up for me, which the Lord, the righteous Judge, will give to me in that Day — and not only to me, but also to all the ones loving His appearance.

⁹Make haste to come to me shortly; ¹⁰for Demas deserted me, loving the present age; and he went to Thessalonica. Crescens went to Galatia, Titus to Dalmatia. ¹¹Only Luke is with me. Taking

Mark, bring him with you, for he is useful to me for ministry. ¹²But I sent Tychicus to Ephesus. ¹³When you come, bring the cloak which I left in Troas with Carpus, and the books, especially the parchments. ¹⁴Alexander the coppersmith showed many evil things to me. The Lord will give to him according to his works. ¹⁵You also guard against him, for he greatly resisted our words.

¹⁶In my first defense, no one was beside me, but all deserted me. May it not be reckoned to them. ¹⁷But the Lord stood with me and gave me power, that through me the preaching might be fulfilled, and all the nations might hear. And I was delivered out of the mouth of the lion. ¹⁸And the Lord will deliver me from every wicked work, and will save me for His heavenly kingdom; to whom be the glory forever and ever. Amen.

¹⁹Greet Prisca and Aquila, and the house of Onesiphorus. ²⁰Erastus remained in Corinth, but I left Trophimus sick in Miletus.

²¹Try to come before winter. Eubulus greets you, and Pudens, and Linus, and Claudia, and all the brothers.

²²The Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit. Grace be with you. Amen.

THE EPISTLE TO TITUS

CHAPTER 1

¹Paul, a slave of God and an apostle of Jesus Christ according to the faith of the elect of God and full knowledge of the truth according to godliness, ²on hope of eternal life which the God that does not lie promised before the eternal times, ³but revealed in its own times in a proclamation of His word, with which I was entrusted by the command of our Savior God: ⁴to Titus, a true child according to our common faith. Grace, mercy, peace from God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ our Savior.

⁵For this cause I left you in Crete, that you might set in order the things lacking, and appoint elders in every city, as I ordered you:

⁶If anyone is blameless, husband of one wife, having believing children, not in accusation of loose behavior, or unruly. ⁷For the overseer must be blameless, as a steward of God, not self-pleasing, not full of passion, not given to wine, not a quarreller, not greedy of ill gain; ⁸but hospitable, a lover of good, discreet, just, holy, temperate, ⁹clinging to the faithful word according to the teaching, that he may be able both to encourage with sound teaching, and to convict the ones speaking against.

¹⁵Truly, all things are pure to the pure; but to the ones having been defiled and unbelieving, nothing is pure, but even their mind and conscience has been defiled.

¹⁶They profess to know God, but by their works they deny Him, being abominable and disobedient, and reprobate to every good work.

CHAPTER 2

¹But you speak things which become sound doctrine: ²aged men to be temperate, sensible, discreet, sound in faith, in love, in patience; ³aged women likewise in reverent behavior, not slanderers, not having been enslaved by much wine, teachers of good, ⁴that they might train the young women to be lovers of husbands, lovers of children, ⁵discreet, chaste, keepers at home, good, subject to their own husbands, so that the word of God may not be spoken against; ⁶the younger men in the same way exhort to be discreet; ⁷having shown yourself a pattern of good works about all things, in teaching, in purity, sensibleness, incorruption, ⁸in sound speech, not to be condemned; that he who is opposed may be ashamed, having nothing bad to say about you.

¹¹For the grace of God which brings salvation appeared to all men, ¹²instructing us that having denied ungodliness and worldly lusts, we should live discreetly and righteously and godly in the present age, ¹³looking for the blessed hope and appearance of the glory of our great God and Savior Jesus Christ, ¹⁴who gave Himself on our behalf, that He might redeem us from all iniquity, and purify a special people for Himself, zealous of good works.

¹⁵Speak these things, and exhort, and convict with all authority. Let no one despise you.

¹Remind them to be subject to rulers and authorities, to be obedient, to be ready in every good work; ²to speak evil of no one, not quarrelsome, but forbearing, having displayed all meekness to all men.

³For we also once were senseless, disobedient, led astray, slaving for various lusts and pleasures, living in malice and envy, hateful, hating one another. ⁴But when the kindness and love of God our Savior toward man appeared, ⁵not by works in righteousness which we had done, but according to His mercy He saved us, through the washing of regeneration and renewal of the Holy Spirit, ⁶which He poured out on us richly through Jesus Christ, our Savior; ⁷that being justified by His grace, we should become heirs according to the hope of eternal life. ⁸Faithful is the word, and concerning these things I desire you strongly to affirm that the ones believing God should take thought to maintain good works. These things are good and profitable to men.

⁹But keep back from foolish questionings, and genealogies, and arguments, and quarrels of law, for they are unprofitable and vain. ¹⁰After the first and second warning, avoid a man of heresy, ¹¹knowing that such a one has been perverted, and sins, being self-condemned.

¹²When I shall send Artemas to you, or Tychicus, hasten to come to me at Nicopolis. For I have decided to winter there.

¹³Diligently set forward Zenas the lawyer, and Apollos, that nothing be lacking to them.

¹⁴And let ours also learn to maintain good works for necessary uses, that they may not be without fruit.

¹⁵All those with me greet you. Greet those who love us in the faith.

Grace be with you all. Amen.

THE EPISTLE TO PHILEMON

¹Paul, a prisoner of Christ Jesus, and Timothy the brother, to Philemon the beloved and our fellow-worker, ²and to Apphia the beloved, and to Archippus our fellow-soldier, and to the church in your house: ³Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

⁴I thank my God always making mention of you in my prayers, ⁵hearing of your love and faith which you have toward the Lord Jesus, and toward all the saints, ⁶so that the fellowship of your faith may operate in a full knowledge of every good thing in you for Jesus Christ. ⁷For we have much joy and encouragement over your love, in that the hearts of the saints have been refreshed through you, brother.

⁸Because of this, having much boldness in Christ to enjoin you to do what is becoming — ⁹rather because of love I entreat, being such a one as Paul the aged, and now also a prisoner of Jesus Christ;

¹⁰I entreat you concerning my child Onesimus, whom I fathered in my bonds, ¹¹*the one* once worthless to you, but now useful to you and to me; whom I sent back.

¹²Even receive him, that is, my heart;

¹³whom I resolved to hold with myself, that for you he might minister to me in the bonds of the gospel. ¹⁴But I was willing to do nothing without your consent, that your good might not be by way of necessity, but by way of willingness.

¹⁵For perhaps for this he was separated for an hour, that you might receive him eternally; ¹⁶no longer as a slave, but beyond a slave, a beloved brother, especially to me, and how much more to you, both in the flesh and in the Lord.

¹⁷Then if you have me as a partner, receive him as me. ¹⁸And if he wronged you in anything, or owes, put this to my account. ¹⁹I, Paul, wrote with my hand; I will repay; that I not say to you that you even owe yourself to me also. ²⁰Yes, brother, that I may have your help in the Lord, refresh my heart in the Lord.

²¹Trusting to your obedience, I wrote to you, knowing that you will do even beyond what I say. ²²But at once prepare lodging for me; for I hope that through your prayers I shall be given to you.

²³Epaphras, my fellow-prisoner in Christ Jesus, greets you, ²⁴*also* my fellow-workers Mark, Aristarchus, Demas, and Luke.

²⁵The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit. Amen.

THE EPISTLE TO THE HEBREWS

¹In many parts and in many ways of old, God spoke to the fathers in the prophets; ²in these last days He spoke to us in the Son, whom He appointed heir of all; through whom He indeed made the ages; ³who being the shining splendor of His glory, and the express image of His essence, and upholding all things by the word of His power, having made purification of our sins through Himself, He sat down on the right of the Majesty on high, ⁴having become so much better than the angels, He has inherited a name more excellent than they. ⁵For to which of the angels did He ever say, "You are My Son; today I have begotten You"? And again, "I will be a Father to Him, and He shall be a Son to Me." ⁶And again, when He brought the Firstborn into the world, He said, "And let all the angels of God worship Him."

⁷And as to the angels, He said, "Who makes His angels spirits, and His ministers a flame of fire;" ⁸but as to the Son, "Your throne, O God, is forever and ever, A sceptre of righteousness is the sceptre of Your kingdom;" ⁹You have loved righteousness and hated lawlessness; because of this God, Your God, has anointed You with the oil of gladness above Your companions." ¹⁰And, "You, Lord, at the beginning founded the earth, and the heavens are works of Your hands. ¹¹They will vanish away, but You will continue; and they will all become old, like a garment, ¹²and You shall fold them up like a covering, and they shall be changed. But You are the same, and Your years shall not fail." ¹³But to which of the angels did He ever say, "Sit at My right hand until I place Your enemies as a footstool of Your feet"? ¹⁴Are they not all ministering spirits for service, being sent out because of the ones being about to inherit salvation?

¹For this reason we ought to give the more earnest heed to the things heard, that we should not slip away at any time. ²For if the word spoken by angels was confirmed, and every transgression and disobedience received a just repayment; ³how shall we escape if we neglect so great a salvation? Which having received a beginning to be spoken through the Lord, was confirmed to us by the ones hearing; ⁴God bearing witness with them by both miracles and wonders, and by various works of power, even by distribution of the Holy Spirit, according to His will.

⁵For He did not put the coming world under angels, about which we speak, ⁶but one fully testified somewhere, saying, "What is man, that You are mindful of him; or the son of man, that You look upon him? ⁷You made him a little less than the angels; You crowned him with glory and honor; and You set him over the works of Your hands; ⁸You put all things under his feet." For in putting all things under him, He left nothing not subjected to him. But now we do not yet see all things being subjected to him; ⁹but we do see Jesus crowned with glory and honor, who on account of the suffering of death was made a little less than the angels, so that by the grace of God He might taste of death for every son. ¹⁰For it was fitting for Him, because of whom are all things, and through whom are all things, bringing many sons to glory, to perfect Him as the Author of their salvation through sufferings. ¹¹For both He sanctifying and the one being sanctified are all of one; for which cause He is not ashamed to call them brothers, ¹²saying, "I will announce Your name to My brothers; I will sing to You in the midst of the church." ¹³And again, "I will be trusting on Him." And again, "Behold, I and the children whom God gave to Me."

¹⁴Since, then, the children have partaken of flesh and blood, in like manner He Himself also shared the same things, that through death He might cause to cease the one having the power of death, that is, the Devil; ¹⁵and might set these free, as many as by fear of death were subject to slavery through all the time to live. ¹⁶For indeed He does not take hold of angels, but He takes hold of the seed of Abraham. ¹⁷For this reason He ought by all means to become like His brothers, that He might become a merciful and faithful high priest in the things respecting God, in order to make propitiation for the sins of His people. ¹⁸For in what He has suffered, being tried, He is able to help those having been tried.

¹For this reason, holy brothers called to be partakers of a heavenly calling, consider the Apostle and High Priest of our confession, Christ Jesus, ²being faithful to Him who appointed Him, as also Moses in all his house. ³For He was counted worthy of more glory than Moses, by so much as the one having built the house has more honor than the house. ⁴For every house is built by someone; but He who built all things is God. ⁵And Moses truly was faithful in all his house as a ministering servant, for a testimony of the things having been spoken; ⁶but Christ as Son over His house, whose house we are, if truly we hold fast the boldness and rejoicing of the hope firm to the end.

⁷Because of this, even as the Holy Spirit says, "Today, if you will hear His voice, ⁸do not harden your hearts, as in the provocation, in the day of temptation in the wilderness, ⁹there where your fathers tempted Me, testing Me, and saw My works forty years. ¹⁰Because of this, I was angry with that generation, and said, They always go astray in heart; and they did not know My ways; ¹¹so I swore in My wrath, They shall not enter into My rest."

¹²Watch, brothers, lest perhaps shall be in any one of you a heart of evil unbelief in falling away from the living God. ¹³But exhort yourselves each day, as long as it is being called today, that not any of you be hardened by the deceit of sin. ¹⁴For we have become sharers of Christ, if truly we hold the beginning of the assurance firm to the end; ¹⁵as in the saying, "Today, if you hear His voice, do not harden your hearts, as in the provocation." ¹⁶For hearing, some provoked Him, but not all those coming out of Egypt through Moses. ¹⁷But with whom was He angry forty years? Was it not with the ones sinning, whose corpses fell in the wilderness?

¹⁸And to whom did He swear they would not enter into His rest, except to those not obeying? ¹⁹And we see that they were not able to enter in because of unbelief.

¹Then let us fear, a promise having been left to enter into His rest, any of you never may seem to come short. ²For, indeed, we have had the gospel preached to us, even as they also; but the word did not profit those hearing it, not having been mixed with faith in the ones who heard. ³For we, the ones believing, enter into the rest, even as He said, "As I swore in My wrath, they shall not enter into My rest," though the works had come into being from the foundation of the world. ⁴For He has spoken somewhere about the seventh day this way, "And God rested from all His works in the seventh day." ⁵And in this place again, "They shall not enter into My rest." ⁶Therefore, since it remains for some to enter into it, and those who formerly had the gospel proclaimed did not enter in on account of disobedience, ⁷He again marks out a certain day, saying in David, "Today"—after so long a time, according as He has said — "Today, if you hear His voice, do not harden your hearts." ⁸For if Joshua gave them rest, then He would not have afterwards spoken about another day. ⁹So, then, there remains a rest to the people of God. ¹⁰For He entering into His rest, He Himself also rested from His works, as God had done from His own.

¹¹Therefore, let us labor to enter into that rest, that not anyone fall in the same example of disobedience. ¹²For the word of God is living, and powerfully working, and sharper than every two-edged sword, even piercing as far as the dividing apart of both soul and spirit, of both joints and marrow, and able to judge of the thoughts and intentions of the heart; ¹³and there is no creature unrevealed before Him; but all things are naked and laid open to His eyes, with whom is our account.

¹⁴Then having a great High Priest who has passed through the heavens, Jesus the Son of God, let us hold fast the confession. ¹⁵For we do not have a high priest not being able to sympathize with our infirmities, but One having been tried in all respects according to our likeness, apart from sin. ¹⁶Therefore, let us draw near with confidence to the throne of grace, that we may receive mercy, and we may find grace for help in time of need.

¹For every high priest being taken from men is appointed on behalf of men in the things respecting God, that he may offer both gifts and sacrifices for sins; ²being able to feel in due measure for those not knowing and having been led astray, since he also is circled about with weakness. ³And because of this he ought to offer for sins as concerning the people and concerning himself. ⁴And no one takes the honor to himself, but he being called by God, even as Aaron also. ⁵So also Christ did not glorify Himself to become a high priest, but He speaking to Him, "You are My Son; today I have begotten You." ⁶As He also says in another, "You are a priest forever according to the order of Melchizedek, ⁷who in the days of His flesh offering both petitions and entreaties to Him being able to save Him from death, with strong crying and tears, and being heard from His godly fear; — ⁸though being a Son, He learned obedience from what He suffered — ⁹and being perfected, He became the Author of eternal salvation to all those obeying Him, ¹⁰having been called out by God as a High Priest according to the order of Melchizedek.

¹¹Concerning whom we have much to say, and hard to interpret, since you have become dull in hearing. ¹²For indeed because of the time you are due to be teachers, you need to have someone to teach you again the rudiments of the beginning of the oracles of God, and you have become in need of milk, and not of solid food; ¹³for everyone partaking of milk is not skilled in the word of righteousness, for he is an infant. ¹⁴But solid food is for those full-grown, having exercised the faculties through habit, for distinguishing both good and bad.

¹Because of this, leaving the discourse of the beginning of Christ, let us be borne on to full growth, not laying down again a foundation of repentance from dead works, and of faith toward God, ²of the baptisms, of teaching, of laying on of hands, and of resurrection of dead ones, and of eternal judgment. ³And this we will do, if indeed God permits. ⁴For those being once enlightened, and having tasted of the heavenly gift, and becoming sharers of the Holy Spirit, ⁵and tasting the good word of God, and the works of power of a coming age, ⁶then falling away, it is impossible for them again to renew to repentance, for they again will be crucifying for themselves the Son of God, and putting Him to open shame. ⁷For the earth drinking in the rain often coming upon it, and producing plants fit for those for whom it is also worked, receives blessing from God; ⁸but bearing thorns and thistles, it is deemed unfit and near a curse, of which the end is for burning.

⁹But, loved ones, even if we indeed speak so, we have been persuaded better things concerning you, even holding fast salvation. ¹⁰For God is not unjust, to forget your work and the labor of love which you showed to His name, ministering to the saints, and now are ministering. ¹¹But we desire each of you to show the same eagerness, to the full assurance of the hope to the end; ¹²that you not become dull, but imitators of those who through faith and long-suffering are inheriting the promises.

¹³For God having made promise to Abraham, since He had no greater to swear by, He swore by Himself, ¹⁴saying, "Surely blessing I will bless you, and multiplying I will multiply you." ¹⁵And so, being long-suffering, he obtained the promise. ¹⁶For men indeed swear by the greater, and an oath to make things sure is to them the end of all gainsaying. ¹⁷In which way, desiring to more fully declare to the heirs of the promise the unchangeableness of His counsel, God interposed by an oath, ¹⁸that through two unchangeable things, in which it was not possible for God to lie, we might have a strong consolation, those having fled for refuge to lay hold on the hope set before us, ¹⁹which we have as an anchor of the soul, both certain and sure, and entering into the inner side of the veil; ²⁰where Jesus entered as forerunner for us, having become a High Priest forever, according to the order of Melchizedek.

¹For this Melchizedek, king of Salem, priest of the most high God, the one meeting Abraham returning from the slaughter of the kings, and blessing him; ²to whom also Abraham divided a tenth from all — first being interpreted, king of righteousness; and then also king of Salem, which is, king of peace, ³without father, without mother, without genealogy, nor beginning of days, nor having end of life, but having been made like the Son of God, he remains a priest in perpetuity.

⁴Now behold how great this one was, to whom even the patriarch Abraham gave a tenth of the spoils; ⁵and indeed those of the sons of Levi receiving the priesthood have a command to tithe the people according to Law—that is, from their brothers, though coming forth out of Abraham's loins — ⁶but he not counting his genealogy from them has tithed Abraham, and has blessed the one having the promises. ⁷But without contradiction, the lesser is blessed by the better. ⁸And here dying men indeed receive tithes, but there it having been witnessed that he lives; ⁹and as a word to say, through Abraham Levi also, the one receiving tithes, has been tithed. ¹⁰For he was yet in his father's loins when Melchizedek met him.

¹¹Truly, then, if perfection was through the Levitical priestly office — for the people had been given Law under it — why yet need for another priest to arise according to the order of Melchizedek, and not to be called according to the order of Aaron? ¹²For the priestly office having been changed, of necessity a change of law also occurs. ¹³For the One of whom these things are said has partaken of another tribe, from which no one has given devotion at the altar. ¹⁴For it is clear that our Lord has risen out of Judah, as to which tribe Moses spoke nothing concerning priesthood. ¹⁵And it is still more abundantly clear that if another priest arises according to the likeness of Melchizedek, ¹⁶who has not become so according to a law of a fleshly command, but according to the power of an indissoluble life — ¹⁷for it is testified, "You are a priest forever according to the order of Melchizedek." ¹⁸For a voiding of the preceding command comes about because of its weakness and unprofitableness. ¹⁹For the Law perfected nothing, but a bringing in of a better hope, through which we draw near to God. ²⁰And by how much it was not apart from the swearing of an oath — for they have become priests without the swearing of an oath, ²¹but He with the swearing through Him who says to Him, "The Lord swore, and will not repent, You are a priest forever according to the order of Melchizedek" — ²²by so much Jesus has become Surety of a better covenant. ²³And they truly are many priests, being hindered from continuing because of death; ²⁴but He has the priesthood not to be passed on, because of His continuing forever. ²⁵From this also He is able to save to perfection those who come to God through Him, ever living to intercede for them.

²⁶For such a High Priest was fitting for us: holy, harmless, undefiled, and separated from sinners, and having become higher than the heavens; ²⁷who has no need, as do the high priests, to offer sacrifices day by day, first for His own sins, then for those of the people. For He did this once for all, offering up Himself. ²⁸For the Law makes men high priests who have infirmity, but the word of the swearing of an oath, after the Law, appoints the Son forever, having been perfected.

¹Now a summary over the things being said: We have such a High Priest, who sat down on the right of the throne of the Majesty in Heaven, ²Minister of the holies, and of the true tabernacle which the Lord pitched, and not man.

³For every high priest is set in place to offer both gifts and sacrifices; from which it is necessary for this One also to have something which He may offer. ⁴For if indeed He were on earth, He would not even be a priest, there being those priests offering gifts according to the Law, ⁵who serve the pattern and shadow of heavenly things, even as Moses was divinely warned, being about to make the tabernacle: For He says, "See that you make all things according to the pattern shown to you in the mount." ⁶But now He has gotten a more excellent ministry, also by so much as He is a Mediator of a better covenant, which has been enacted on better promises. ⁷For if that first was faultless, place would not have been sought for a second. ⁸For finding fault, He said to them, "Behold, days are coming, says the Lord, and I will make an end on the house of Israel, and on the house of Judah; a new covenant shall be, ⁹not according to the covenant which I made with their fathers in the day of My taking hold of their hand to lead them out of the land of Egypt; because they did not continue in My covenant, and I did not regard them, says the Lord. ¹⁰Because this is the covenant which I will covenant with the house of Israel after those days, says the Lord, giving My laws into their mind, and I will write them on their hearts, and I will be their God, and they shall be My people. ¹¹And they shall no more teach each one his neighbor, and each one his brother, saying, Know the Lord; because all shall know Me, from the least of them to their great ones. ¹²For I will be merciful to their unrighteousnesses, and I will not at all remember their sins and their lawless deeds."

¹³In the saying, "New," He has made the first old. And the thing having been made old and growing aged is near disappearing.

¹Truly, then, the first tabernacle also had ordinances of service, and the worldly holy place. ²For the first tabernacle was prepared, in which was both the lampstand and the table, and the setting out of the loaves, which is called holy; ³but behind the second veil is a tabernacle, that called Holy of Holies, ⁴having a golden altar of incense, and the ark of the covenant covered around on all sides with gold, in which was the golden pot having the manna, and Aaron's rod that budded, and the tablets of the covenant; ⁵and above it

the cherubim of glory overshadowing the mercy-seat—about which now is not time to speak piece by piece. ⁶And these having been prepared thus, the priests go into the first tabernacle through all, completing the services. ⁷But into the second the high priest goes alone once in the year, not without blood, which he offers for himself and the ignorances of the people; ⁸the Holy Spirit signifying by this that the way of the Holies has not yet been made manifest, the first tabernacle still having standing; ⁹which has a parable for the present time, according to which both gifts and sacrifices are offered, but as regards conscience, not being able to perfect the one serving, ¹⁰but only on foods and drinks, and various washings, and fleshly ordinances, until the time of setting things right has been imposed.

¹¹But Christ having appeared as a High Priest of the coming good things, through the greater and more perfect tabernacle not made with hands, that is, not of this creation, ¹²nor through the blood of goats and of calves, but through His own blood, He entered once for all into the Holies, having procured everlasting redemption. ¹³For if the blood of bulls and goats, and ashes of a heifer sprinkling those having been defiled, sanctifies to the purity of the flesh, ¹⁴by how much more the blood of Christ, who through the eternal Spirit offered Himself without spot to God, will purify your conscience from dead works for the serving of the living God! ¹⁵And because of this He is Mediator of a new covenant, so that, death having occurred for redemption of transgressions under the first covenant, those having been called out might receive the promise of the everlasting inheritance.

¹⁶For where a covenant is, the death of him covenanting must be offered. ¹⁷For a covenant is affirmed over those dead, since it never has force when he covenanting is living. ¹⁸From which: Neither the first was dedicated without blood. ¹⁹For when every command had been spoken according to Law by Moses to all the people, he took the blood of the calves and goats, with water and scarlet wool and hyssop, and he sprinkled both the scroll and all the people, ²⁰saying, This is the blood of the covenant which God enjoined to you. ²¹And he likewise sprinkled both the tabernacle and all the service vessels with the blood. ²²And almost all things are cleansed by blood according to the Law; and apart from shedding of blood no remission occurs. ²³Then it was needful for the figures of the things in the heavens to be cleansed with these; but the heavenly things themselves by better sacrifices than these. ²⁴For Christ did not enter into the Holies made by hands, types of the true things, but into Heaven itself, now to appear in the presence of God on our behalf — ²⁵not that often He should offer Himself, even as the high priest enters into the Holies year by year with blood of others; ²⁶since He must often have suffered from the foundation of the world. But now once, at the completion of the ages, He has been manifested for putting away of sin through the sacrifice of Himself. ²⁷And as it is reserved to men once to die, and after this Judgment; ²⁸so being once offered to bear the sins of many, Christ shall appear a second time without sin to those expecting Him for salvation.

¹For the Law had a shadow of the coming good things, not the image itself of those things. Appearing year by year with the same sacrifices, which they offer continually, they never are able to perfect the ones drawing near. ²Otherwise, would they not have ceased to be offered, because those serving did not still have conscience of sins, having once been cleansed? ³But in these there is a remembrance of sins year by year — ⁴for it is not possible for the blood of bulls and goats to take away sins. ⁵For this reason, coming into the world, He says, "Sacrifice and offering You did not desire, but You prepared a body for Me. ⁶You did not delight in burnt offerings and sacrifices as to sins. ⁷Then I said, Lo, I come — in the heading of the Book, it was written concerning Me — to do Your will, O God."

⁸Above, saying, "You did not desire nor were pleased with sacrifice and offering and burnt offerings and sacrifices about sins," which are offered according to the Law, ⁹then He said, "Lo, I come to do Your will, O God." He takes away the first in order that He may set up the second; ¹⁰by which will we are sanctified through the offering of the body of Jesus Christ once for all. ¹¹And indeed every priest stands day by day ministering, and often offering the same sacrifices, which can never take away sins. ¹²But He, offering but one sacrifice for sins, sat down in perpetuity at the right hand of God, ¹³from then on expecting until His enemies are placed as a footstool of His feet. ¹⁴For by one offering He has perfected in perpetuity the ones being sanctified.

¹⁵And the Holy Spirit witnesses to us also. For after having said before, ¹⁶"This is the covenant which I will covenant to them after those days, says the Lord: Giving My laws on their hearts, and I will write them on their minds; ¹⁷and I will not at all still remember their sins and their lawless deeds." ¹⁸But where forgiveness of these is, there is no longer offering concerning sins.

¹⁹Then, brothers, having confidence for the entering of the Holies by the blood of Jesus, ²⁰which He consecrated for us, a new and living way through the veil; that is, His flesh; ²¹and having a great priest over the house of God, ²²let us draw near with a true heart in full assurance of faith, our hearts having been sprinkled from an evil conscience, and our body having been washed in pure water; ²³let us hold fast the confession of the hope without yielding, for He who has promised is faithful. ²⁴And let us consider one another, to incitement of love and of good works, ²⁵not forsaking the assembling together of ourselves, as is the custom of some, but exhorting; and by so much more as you see the Day drawing near.

²⁶For if we are willfully sinning after receiving the full knowledge of the truth, there remains no more sacrifice concerning sins, ²⁷but a certain fearful expectation of judgment and zealous fire being about to consume the adversaries. ²⁸*If* anyone did not regard the Law of Moses, that one dies without pities on the word of two or three witnesses. ²⁹How much worse punishment do you think he will thought worthy to receive, he trampling

the Son of God, and having counted common the blood of the covenant in which he was sanctified, and having insulted the Spirit of grace? ³⁰For we know Him who has said, "Vengeance belongs to Me; I will repay, says the Lord." And again, "The Lord will judge His people." ³¹*It is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living God.*

³²But call to mind the former days in which being enlightened you endured much conflict of sufferings; ³³partly being exposed both to reproaches and to afflictions; and partly having become partners of those so conducting themselves. ³⁴For also you suffered together in my bonds; and you accepted the seizure of your possessions with joy, knowing yourselves to have a better and abiding possession in Heaven. ³⁵Then do not throw away your confidence, which has great reward. ³⁶For you have need of patience, that having done the will of God you may obtain the promise. ³⁷For, "yet a very little and the One coming will come, and will not delay." ³⁸"But the just shall live by faith; and if he draws back, My soul is not pleased in him." ³⁹But we are not of those drawing back to destruction, but of faith, to the preservation of the soul.

¹Now faith is the substantiation of things having been hoped, the evidence of things not having been seen. ²For by this the elders obtained witness. ³By faith we understand the worlds to have been framed by the word of God, so that the things seen should not come into being out of things that appear.

⁴By faith Abel offered a greater sacrifice to God than Cain, by which he obtained witness to be righteous, God testifying over his gifts; and through it, having died, he yet speaks. ⁵By faith Enoch was translated so as not to see death, and was not found, because God translated him. For before his translation, he had obtained witness to have been pleasing to God. ⁶But without faith it is impossible to please God. For it is right that the one drawing near to God should believe that He is, and that He becomes a rewarder to the ones seeking Him out. ⁷Being warned by God about the things not yet having been seen, moved with fear, by faith Noah prepared an ark for the salvation of his house; through which he condemned the world, and became heir of the righteousness according to faith.

⁸Having been called out by faith, Abraham obeyed to go forth to a place which he was going to receive for an inheritance, and went out not understanding where he went. ⁹By faith he resided as a foreigner in a land of promise, living in tents with Isaac and Jacob, the joint-heirs of the same promise; ¹⁰for he looked for a city having the foundations of which the builder and maker is God. ¹¹Also by faith Sarah herself received power for conceiving seed even beyond the time of age, and gave birth; since she deemed the One having promised to be faithful. ¹²Because of this came into being from one—and that from one having died —seed even as the stars of the heaven in multitude, and countless as sand by the seaside.

¹³These all died by way of faith, not having received the promises, but seeing them from afar, and being persuaded, and having embraced and confessed that they are aliens and sojourners on the earth. ¹⁴For those saying such things make clear that they seek a fatherland. ¹⁵And truly if they remembered that from which they came out, they had time to return. ¹⁶But now they stretch forth to a better, that is, a heavenly land. Therefore, God is not ashamed of them, to be called their God; for He prepared a city for them.

¹⁷By faith, being tested, Abraham offered up Isaac; and he receiving the promises was offering up the only-begotten, ¹⁸as to whom it was said, "In Isaac your Seed shall be called;" ¹⁹reckoning that God was able to raise even from the dead; from where indeed he obtained him in a parable. ²⁰By faith concerning things to come Isaac blessed Jacob and Esau. ²¹By faith dying Jacob blessed each of the sons of Joseph, and worshiped on the top of his staff. ²²Dying Joseph by faith made mention of the Exodus of the sons of Israel, and gave orders concerning his bones. ²³Moses being born, he was by faith hidden by his parents three months, because they saw the child was beautiful; and they did not fear the king's decree. ²⁴By faith Moses, Having become great, refused to be called son of Pharaoh's daughter, ²⁵having chosen rather to suffer affliction with the people of God than for a time to have enjoyment of sin; ²⁶having counted the reproach of Christ greater riches than the treasures of Egypt, for he was looking to the reward.

²⁷By faith he left Egypt, not fearing the anger of the king; for he kept on as seeing the Invisible One. ²⁸By faith he made the Passover, and the sprinkling of blood, that the destroyer of the firstborn might not touch them. ²⁹By faith they passed through the Red Sea, as through dry land; by which attempt the Egyptians taking, they were swallowed up. ³⁰By faith the walls of Jericho fell down, having been circled during seven days. ³¹By faith Rahab the harlot did not perish with those disobeying, having received the spies with peace.

³²And what more may I say? For the times will fail me telling about Gideon, Barak, and also Samson and Jephthah, and also David and Samuel, and the prophets, ³³who through faith overcame kingdoms, worked out righteousness, obtained promises, stopped the mouths of lions, ³⁴quenched the power of fire, escaped the mouths of the sword, acquired power from weakness, became strong in war, made armies of foreigners to yield. ³⁵Women received their dead by resurrection; but others were beaten to death, not accepting deliverance, that they might obtain a better resurrection. ³⁶And others received trial of mockings and of floggings; yea, more, of bonds and of prison: ³⁷they were stoned; they were tried; they were sawn in two; they died by murder of sword; they went about in sheepskins and in goatskins, being in need, being afflicted, being ill-treated; ³⁸of whom the world was not worthy, wandering in deserts, and mountains, and caves, and the holes of the earth. ³⁹And having obtained witness through the faith, these all did not obtain the promise, ⁴⁰God having foreseen something better concerning us, that they should not be perfected apart from us.

¹So therefore we, having so great a cloud of witnesses encircling us, having laid aside every weight and the easily-surrounding sin, through patience let us also run the race set before us, ²looking to the Author and Finisher of our faith, Jesus, who because of the joy set before Him endured the cross, despising the shame, and sat down at the right of the throne of God. ³For consider Him who had endured such gainsaying of sinners against Himself, that you do not grow weary, fainting in your souls. ⁴You did not yet resist unto blood, wrestling against sin. ⁵And you have forgotten the exhortation which He speaks with you, as with sons, "My sons, do not despise the chastening of the Lord, nor faint while being corrected by Him. ⁶For whom the Lord loves, He disciplines, and whips every son whom He receives." ⁷If you endure discipline, God is dealing with you as with sons; for who is the son whom a father does not discipline? ⁸But if you are without discipline, of which all have become sharers, then you are bastards, and not sons. ⁹Moreover, we have had fathers of our flesh as correctors, and we respected them. Shall we not much more be subject to the Father of spirits, and we shall live? ¹⁰For they truly disciplined us for a few days according to the thing seeming good to them; but He for our profit, in order for us to partake of His holiness. ¹¹And all discipline for the present indeed does not seem to be joyous, but grievous; but afterward it gives back peaceable fruit of righteousness to the ones having been exercised by it. ¹²Because of this, straighten the hands hanging alongside, and the enfeebled knees; ¹³and make straight tracks for your feet, that the lame not be turned aside, but rather healed.

¹⁴Eagerly pursue peace and holiness with all, without which no one will see the Lord, ¹⁵watching diligently that not any lack from the grace of God, that no root of bitterness growing up may disturb you, and through this many be defiled; ¹⁶that not any fornicator, or profane one—as Esau, who for one feeding gave up his birthright; ¹⁷for you know also that afterwards desiring to inherit the blessing, he was rejected, for he found no place of repentance, although seeking it with tears.

¹⁸For you have not drawn near to the mountain being touched, and having been lit with fire, and to gloom, and darkness, and tempest, ¹⁹and to a sound of trumpet, and to a voice of words, which those hearing begged not a word be added to them; ²⁰for they could not bear that which was enjoined: "Even if a beast touches the mountain, it will be stoned, or shot through with a dart." ²¹And so fearful was the thing appearing, Moses said, "I am terrified and trembling." ²²But you have drawn near Mount Zion, even the city of the living God, to a heavenly Jerusalem, and to myriads of angels, ²³and to an assembly, a church of the firstborn ones having been enrolled in Heaven; and to God the judge of all; and to spirits of just ones who have been perfected; ²⁴and to Jesus the Mediator of a new covenant, and to blood of sprinkling speaking better things than that of Abel. ²⁵Watch that you do not refuse the One speaking; for if these did not escape who refused Him who divinely warned them on earth, much rather we, those turning away from Heaven; ²⁶whose voice shook the earth then, but now He has promised, saying, "Yet once I will shake not only the earth, but also the heaven." ²⁷Now the words "Yet once" make clear the removal of the things being shaken, as having been made, so that the things not shaken may remain. ²⁸For this reason, receiving an unshakable kingdom, let us have grace, by which we may serve God pleasingly, with reverence and awe; ²⁹for also, "Our God is a consuming fire."

¹Let brotherly love continue. ²Do not forget hospitality, for by this some unknowingly took in angels as guests. ³Be mindful of the prisoners, as having been bound with them; of those ill-treated, as also being in the body yourselves. ⁴Marriage is honorable in all, and the bed undefiled; but God will judge fornicators and adulterers. ⁵Set your way of life without money-loving, being satisfied with present things; for He has said, "I will never leave you, nor will I ever forsake you." ⁶So that we may boldly say, The Lord is my helper, and I will not be afraid;

what shall man do to me?

⁷Remember your leaders who spoke the word of God to you, considering the issue of their conduct, imitate their faith: ⁸Jesus Christ, the same yesterday and today and forever. ⁹Do not be carried away by various and strange teaching; for it is good that the heart be confirmed by grace, not by foods, in which those walking in them were not profited. ¹⁰We have an altar of which those serving the tabernacle have no authority to eat. ¹¹For of the animals whose blood is brought by the high priest into the Holies concerning sins, of these the bodies are burned outside the camp. ¹²Indeed, because of this, in order that He might sanctify the people by His own blood, Jesus also suffered outside the gate. ¹³So now let us go forth to Him outside the camp, bearing His reproach. ¹⁴For we do not have here a continuing city, but we seek the city coming. ¹⁵Then through Him let us offer up a sacrifice of praise to God always, that is, the fruit of the lips, confessing to His name. ¹⁶But do not be forgetful of doing good and sharing, for God is well-pleased with such sacrifices.

¹⁷Obey those taking the lead of you, and submit, for they watch for your souls, giving account, that they may do this with joy, and not with groaning; for this would be no profit to you.

¹⁸Pray for us, for we are persuaded that we have a good conscience, in all things wishing to behave well. ¹⁹But I much more urge you to do this, that I may sooner be restored to you.

²⁰Now the God of Peace, He leading up out of the dead, the great Shepherd of the sheep, in the blood of the everlasting covenant, our Lord Jesus, ²¹perfect you in every good work, to do His will, doing in you that which is pleasing in His sight, through Jesus Christ, to whom be the glory forever and ever. Amen.

²²And, brothers, I exhort you, endure the word of exhortation, for I indeed wrote to you by a few words. ²³You know the brother, Timothy, with whom if I come sooner, having been freed, I will see you.

²⁴Greet all those leading you, also all the saints. Those from Italy greet you.

²⁵Grace be with you all. Amen.

THE GENERAL EPISTLE OF JAMES

CHAPTER 1

¹James, a slave of God and of the Lord Jesus Christ, to the twelve tribes in the Dispersion, greeting:

²My brothers, count it all joy when you fall into various temptations, ³knowing that the proving of your faith works patience. ⁴But let patience have its perfect work, that you may be perfect and complete, lacking nothing.

⁵But if any of you lacks wisdom, let him ask from God, who gives to all freely and with no reproach, and it will be given to him. ⁶But let him ask in faith, doubting nothing. For the one who doubts is like a wave of the sea, being driven by wind and being tossed; ⁷for do not let that man suppose that he will receive anything from the Lord—⁸*he is* a double-souled man, not dependable in all his ways.

⁹But let the lowly brother rejoice in his lifting up; ¹⁰and the rich one rejoice in his humiliation, because he will pass away like the flower of the grass. ¹¹For the sun rose with the hot wind and dried up the grass, and its flower fell out, and the beauty of its appearance perished—so also the rich one will fade away in his ways.

¹²Blessed is the man who endures temptation, because having been approved he will receive the crown of life which the Lord promised to the ones loving Him.

¹³Let no one being tempted say, I am tempted from God. For God is not tempted by evils, and He tempts no one. ¹⁴But each one is tempted by his lusts, having been drawn out and having been seduced by them. ¹⁵Then being conceived lust brings forth sin. And sin being fully formed brings forth death. ¹⁶Do not go astray, my beloved brothers, ¹⁷every act of giving good and every perfect gift is from above, coming down from the Father of lights, with whom is no change or shadow of turning. ¹⁸Having purposed, He brought us forth by the word of truth, for us to be a certain firstfruit of His creatures.

¹⁹So that, my beloved brothers, let every man be swift to hear, slow to speak, slow to wrath. ²⁰For the wrath of man does not work out the righteousness of God. ²¹On account of this, having put aside all filthiness and overflowing of evil, in meekness receive the implanted word being able to save your souls. ²²But become doers of the word, and not hearers only, deceiving yourselves. ²³Because if anyone is a hearer of the word, and not a doer, this one is like a man studying his natural face in a mirror; ²⁴for he studied himself, and has gone away, and immediately he forgot of what kind he was. ²⁵But the one looking into the perfect law of liberty, and continuing in it, this one not having become a forgetful hearer, but a doer of the work, this one will be blessed in his doing. ²⁶If anyone thinks to be religious among you, yet not bridling his tongue, but deceiving his heart, this one's religion is vain. ²⁷Pure and undefiled religion before God and the Father is this: to visit orphans and widows in their afflictions, and to keep oneself unspotted from the world.

¹My brothers, do not with partiality to persons have the faith of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Lord of glory. ²For if a gold-fingered man in splendid clothing comes into your synagogue, and a poor one in shabby clothing also comes in; ³and you look on the one wearing the splendid clothing, and say to him, You sit here comfortably; and to the poor one you say, You stand there, or, Sit here under my footstool; ⁴did you not also make a difference among yourselves and become judges with evil thoughts? ⁵Hear, my beloved brothers, did not God choose the poor of this world to be rich in faith, and heirs of the kingdom which He promised to the ones loving Him? ⁶But you dishonored the poor one. Do not the rich ones oppress you, and they drag you to judgment seats? ⁷Do they not blaspheme the good Name called on you? ⁸If you truly fulfill the royal law according to the Scripture, "You shall love your neighbor as yourself," you do well. ⁹But if you have partiality to persons, you work sin, having been found guilty as transgressors by the law. ¹⁰For whoever shall keep all the law, but stumbles in one, he has become guilty of all. ¹¹For He who said, "You shall not commit adultery," also said, "You shall not murder." But if you do not commit adultery, but commit murder, you have become a transgressor of the law. ¹²So speak and so do as being about to be judged by the law of liberty. ¹³For Judgment will be without mercy to the one not doing mercy. And mercy rejoices over judgment.

¹⁴My brothers, what is the gain if anyone says he has faith, but he does not have works? Is faith able to save him? ¹⁵But if a brother or a sister is naked and may be lacking in daily food, ¹⁶and any one of you say to them, Go in peace, be warmed and filled — but does not give them the things the body needs — what gain is it? ¹⁷So also faith, if it does not have works, is dead by itself. ¹⁸But someone will say, You have faith, and I have works. Show me your faith apart from your works, and I will show you my faith out of my works. ¹⁹You believe that God is one. You do well; even the demons believe and shudder. ²⁰But are you willing to know, O vain man, that faith apart from works is dead? ²¹Was not our father Abraham justified by works, offering up his son Isaac on the altar? ²²You see that faith worked with his works; and out of the works the faith was made complete. ²³And the Scripture was fulfilled, saying, "And Abraham believed God, and it was counted for righteousness to him;" and he was called, "Friend of God." ²⁴You see, then, that a man is justified out of works, and not out of faith only. ²⁵But in the same way Rahab the harlot was also justified out of works, having received the messengers, and sending them out by another way. ²⁶For as the body is dead apart from the spirit, so also faith is dead apart from works.

¹My brothers, do not be many teachers, knowing that we will receive greater judgment. ²For we all stumble in many ways. If any one does not stumble in word, this one is a mature man, able also to bridle the whole body. ³Behold, we put bits in the mouths of the horses, for them to obey us; and we turn about their whole body.

⁴Behold, the ships also, being so great, and being driven by violent winds, they are directed by a very small rudder, where the impulse of the one steering purposes. ⁵So also the tongue is a little member, and boasts great things. Behold, how little a fire kindles how large a forest! ⁶And the tongue is a fire, the world of iniquity. So the tongue is set among our members, spotting all the body, and inflaming the course of nature, and having been inflamed by Hell. ⁷For every species of beasts, both indeed of birds, of creeping things, and of sea-animals, is tamed, and has been tamed by the human species; ⁸but no one of men is able to tame the tongue — it is an evil that cannot be restrained, full of death-dealing poison. ⁹By this we bless God and the Father; and by this we curse men having come into being according to the image of God. ¹⁰Out of the same mouth comes forth blessing and cursing. My brothers, it is not fitting for these things to be so. ¹¹*Does* the fountain out of the same hole send forth the sweet and the bitter? ¹²My brothers, is a fig-tree able to produce olives, or a vine figs? So neither can a fountain produce both salt and sweet water.

¹³Who is wise and knowing among you? Let him show his works by his good behavior, in meekness of wisdom. ¹⁴But if you have bitter jealousy and contention in your heart, do not boast and lie against the truth. ¹⁵This is not the wisdom coming down from above, but is earthly, beastly, devilish. ¹⁶For where jealousy and contention are, there is confusion and every foul deed. ¹⁷But the wisdom from above is firstly truly pure, then peaceable, forbearing, yielding, full of mercy and of good fruits, not partial and not pretended. ¹⁸And the fruit of righteousness is sown in peace for the ones making peace.

¹From where do wars and fightings among you come? Is it not from this, from your lusts warring in your members? ²You desire and do not have. You murder, and are jealous, and are not able to obtain. You fight and you war, and you do not have, because you do not ask God. ³You ask, and do not receive, because you ask wrongly, in order that you may spend on your lusts. ⁴Adulterers and adulteresses! Do you not know that the friendship of the world is enmity with God? Whoever, then, purposes to be a friend of the world is shown to be an enemy of God.

⁵Or do you think that vainly the Scripture says, "The spirit which has dwelt in us yearns with envy"? ⁶But He gives greater grace. Because of this it says, "God sets Himself against proud ones; but He gives grace to humble ones." ⁷Then be subject to God. Resist the Devil, and he will flee from you. ⁸Draw near to God, and He will draw near to you. Cleanse your hands, sinners! And purify your hearts, double-minded ones! ⁹Be distressed, and mourn, and weep. Let your laughter be turned to mourning, and your joy into shame. ¹⁰Be humbled before the Lord, and He will exalt you.

¹¹Do not speak against one another, brothers. He that speaks against a brother, and is judging a brother, he speaks against law, and judges law. But if you judge law, you are not a doer of law, but a judge.

¹²One is the Lawgiver, who is able to save and to destroy. Who are you who judges another? ¹³Come now, those saying, To-day or tomorrow we will go into this city, and we will spend one year there, and we will trade and will make a profit; ¹⁴who do not know of the morrow. For what is your life? For it is a mist, which for a little while appears, and then disappears. ¹⁵Instead of you saying, If the Lord wills, even we will live, and we will do this or that; ¹⁶but now you boast in your presumptions. All such boasting is evil. ¹⁷Therefore, to anyone knowing to do good, and not doing it, it is sin to him.

CHAPTER 5

¹Come now, rich ones, weep, howling over your hardships coming on. ²Your riches have rotted, and your garments have become moth-eaten. ³Your gold and silver have rusted over, and their poison will be a testimony to you, and will eat your flesh as fire. You heaped treasure in the last days. ⁴Behold, the wages of the workmen who have reaped your fields cry out, being kept back by you. And the cries of the ones who have reaped have entered into the ears of the Lord of Hosts. ⁵You lived luxuriously on the earth, and lived in self-gratification; you nourished your hearts as in a day of slaughter; ⁶you condemned; you murdered the righteous—he does not resist you.

⁷Therefore, brothers, be long-suffering until the coming of the Lord. Behold, the farmer waits for the precious fruit of the earth, being long-suffering over it until it may receive the early and the latter rain. ⁸You also be long-suffering. Set your hearts firmly, because the coming of the Lord has drawn near. ⁹Do not murmur against one another, brothers, that you not be condemned. Behold, the Judge stands before the door.

¹⁰My brothers, as an example of suffering ill, and of long-suffering, take the prophets who spoke in the name of the Lord. ¹¹Behold, we call those blessed who endure. You have heard of the patience of Job, and you saw the end of the Lord, that the Lord is full of tender mercy and pity.

¹²But before all things, my brothers, do not swear, neither by the heaven, nor by the earth, nor any other oath. But let your yes be yes, and the no, no, that you may not fall under judgment. ¹³Does anyone suffer ill among you? Let him pray. Is anyone cheerful? Let him praise. ¹⁴Is any among you sick? Let him call the elders of the church, and let them pray over him, anointing him with oil in the name of the Lord. ¹⁵And the prayer of faith will cure those being sick, and the Lord will raise him up. And if he may have committed sin, it will be forgiven him.

¹⁶Confess faults to one another, and pray for one another, that you may be healed. The prayer of a righteous one has great strength, having been made effective. ¹⁷Elijah was a man of like feeling to us, and he prayed in prayer for it not to rain; and it did not rain on the earth three years and six months. ¹⁸And he prayed again, and the heaven gave rain, and the earth caused its fruit to sprout.

¹⁹If anyone among you goes astray from the truth, brothers, and anyone turns him back, ²⁰know that the one turning a sinner from the error of his way will save the soul from death, and will hide a multitude of sins.

THE FIRST GENERAL EPISTLE OF PETER

¹Peter, an apostle of Jesus Christ, to the elect sojourners of the dispersion of Pontus, of Galatia, of Cappadocia, of Asia, and of Bithynia, ²according to the foreknowledge of God the Father, in sanctification of the Spirit to obedience and sprinkling of the blood of Jesus Christ: Grace and peace be multiplied to you.

³Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, He according to His great mercy having regenerated us to a living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, ⁴to an inheritance incorruptible and undefiled, and unfading, having been kept in Heaven for you ⁵by the power of God, having been guarded through faith to a salvation ready to be revealed in the last time; ⁶in which you exult; yet a little while, if need be, grieving in manifold trials, ⁷so that the proving of your faith, much more precious than perishing gold, but having been proved through fire, may be found to praise and honor and glory at the revelation of Jesus Christ; ⁸whom you love, not having seen Him; in whom you exult with unspeakable joy, and have glorified; believing in Him, yet not seeing, ⁹obtaining the end of your faith, the salvation of your souls.

¹⁰About which salvation the prophets sought out and searched out, prophesying concerning the grace for you, ¹¹searching for what, or what sort of time the Spirit of Christ made clear within them; testifying beforehand of the sufferings belonging to Christ, and the glories after these. ¹²To whom it was revealed that not to themselves, but to us they ministered the same things, which now were announced to you by those having announced the gospel to you in the Holy Spirit sent from Heaven — into which things angels long to look into.

¹³Because of this, girding up the loins of your mind, being sober, perfectly hope on the grace being brought to you at the revelation of Jesus Christ, ¹⁴as obedient children, not in ignorance fashioning yourselves to your former lusts, ¹⁵but according to the Holy One who has called you, you also become holy in all conduct; ¹⁶because it has been written, “Be holy, because I am holy.” ¹⁷And if you call on Him as Father, He judging without respect to persons, according to the work of each one, pass the time of your sojourning in fear, ¹⁸knowing that not with corruptible things, silver or gold, you were redeemed from your worthless way of life handed down from your fathers, ¹⁹but with precious blood of Christ, as of an unblemished and unspotted lamb, ²⁰indeed having been foreknown before the foundation of the world, but revealed in the last times because of you, ²¹the ones believing in God through Him, He raising Him from the dead, and giving glory to Him so that your faith and hope may be in God. ²²Purifying your souls in the obedience of the truth through the Spirit to unpretended brotherly love, love one another fervently out of a pure heart, ²³having been born again, not by corruptible seed, but incorruptible, through the living word of God, and remaining forever. ²⁴Because all flesh is as grass, and all the glory of men as the flower of grass—the grass was dried, and its flower fell out — ²⁵but the word of the Lord remains forever. And this is the word announced as gospel to you.

¹Then laying aside all malice, and all guile, and hypocrisies, and envies, and all evil words, ²as newborn babes desire the pure soul-nourishing milk, that you may grow by it; ³if indeed you tasted that the Lord is good. ⁴Having drawn near to Him, a living Stone, indeed having been rejected by men, but chosen by God, precious; ⁵you also as living stones are being built a spiritual house, a holy priesthood, to offer spiritual sacrifices acceptable to God through Jesus Christ. ⁶Because of this, it is also contained in the Scripture: “Behold, I lay in Zion an elect, precious Stone, a Corner-foundation; and the one believing in Him shall never in any way be ashamed.”

⁷Then to you who believe belongs the honor. But to disobeying ones, He is the Stone which those building rejected—this One became the Head-of-the-corner,⁸ and a Stone-of-stumbling, and a Rock-of-offense to those disobeying, stumbling at the word, to which they were also appointed.⁹ But you are an elect race, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a people for possession, so that you may openly speak of the virtues of the One who has called you out of darkness into His marvelous light;¹⁰ you who then were not a people, but now are the people of God; the one not pitied then but now pitied.

¹¹Beloved, I exhort you as sojourners and aliens to abstain from fleshly lusts which war against the soul;¹² having your behavior good among the nations, in that which they speak against you as evildoers, by observing your good works, they may glorify God in a day of visitation.

¹³Then be in obedience to every ordinance of men because of the Lord; whether to a king, as being supreme;¹⁴ or to governors, as through Him having indeed been sent for vengeance on evildoers — but praise on well-doers —¹⁵ because so is the will of God, doing good to silence the ignorance of foolish men;¹⁶ as free, and not having freedom as a cover of evil, but as slaves of God;¹⁷ honor all, love the brotherhood, fear God, honor the king.

¹⁸Servants, be obedient to your masters in all fear, not only to those good and forbearing, but also to the perverse ones.¹⁹ For this is a grace, if because of conscience toward God anyone bears grief, suffering unjustly.²⁰ For what glory is it if you patiently endure while sinning and being buffeted? But if you are suffering while doing good, and patiently endure, this is a grace from God.²¹ For you were called to this, for even Christ suffered on our behalf, leaving behind an example for us, that you should follow His steps;²² who did not sin, nor was guile found in His mouth;²³ who, having been reviled, did not revile in return; suffering, He did not threaten, but gave Himself up to Him who was judging righteously;²⁴ who Himself bore in His body our sins onto the tree; that dying to sins, we might live to righteousness; of whom, by His wound, you were healed.²⁵ For you were straying sheep, but now you are turned to the Shepherd and Overseer of your souls.

¹Likewise, wives, submitting yourselves to your own husbands, that even if any disobey the word, through the behavior of the wives, without a word they will be won,² observing your pure behavior in fear.³ Of whom let it not be the outward act of braiding of hairs, and of putting gold around, or of clothing or adorning of garments,⁴ but the hidden man of the heart, in the incorruptible adornment of the meek and quiet spirit, which is of great value before God.⁵ For so once indeed the holy women who were hoping on God adorned themselves, submitting themselves to their own husbands,⁶ as Sarah obeyed Abraham, calling him lord; whose children you became, doing good, and fearing no terror.⁷ Likewise, husbands, dwelling together according to knowledge, as with a weaker vessel, the female, bestowing honor, as truly being co-heirs of the grace of life, not cutting off your prayers.

⁸And, finally, be all of one mind, sympathetic, loving the brothers, tender-hearted, friendly,⁹ not giving back evil for evil, or reviling against reviling; but, on the contrary, give blessing; knowing that you were called to this in order that you might inherit blessing.¹⁰ For the one desiring to love life, and to see good days, let him restrain his tongue from evil, even his lips not to speak guile.¹¹ Let him turn aside from evil, and let him do good. Let him seek peace, and pursue it;¹² because the eyes of the Lord are on the righteous, and His ears open to their prayer. But the face of the Lord is against any doing bad things.

¹³And who is the one harming you, if you become imitators of the good?¹⁴ But if you truly suffer because of righteousness, blessed are you. But do not fear their fear, nor be troubled.¹⁵ But sanctify the Lord God in your hearts, and always be ready to give an answer to everyone asking you a reason concerning the hope in you, with meekness and fear,¹⁶ having a good conscience, that while they speak against you as evildoers, they may be shamed, those falsely accusing your good behavior in Christ. ¹⁷For it is better, if the will of God wills it, to suffer for doing good than for doing evil. ¹⁸Because even Christ once suffered concerning sins, the just for the unjust, that He might bring us to God; indeed being put to death in the flesh, but made alive in the Spirit; ¹⁹in which also, going in to the spirits in prison, He then proclaimed ²⁰to disobeying ones, when once the long-suffering of God waited in the days of Noah, an ark having been prepared in which a few, that is, eight souls, were saved through water. ²¹Which figure now also saves us, baptism—not a putting away of the filth of the flesh, but the answer of a good conscience toward God through the resurrection of Jesus Christ; ²²who going into Heaven is at the right of God, the angels, and authorities, and powers being subjected to Him.

¹Therefore, Christ having suffered for us in the flesh, you also arm yourselves with the same mind, because the one suffering in flesh has ceased from sin, ²for him no longer to live in the lusts of men, but in the will of God the remaining time in the flesh. ³For the time of life having passed is sufficient for us to have worked out the will of the nations, having gone on in wantonness, lusts, drunkennesses, parties, carousings, and unlawful idolatries; ⁴in which they are surprised, you not running with them into the same overflow of unsavedness, blaspheming; ⁵who will give account to Him having readiness to judge the living and dead. ⁶For to this end also the gospel was preached to the dead, that they might be judged according to men in the flesh, but might live according to God in the Spirit.

⁷But the end of all things has drawn near. Be of sound mind, then, and be sensible to prayers; ⁸and above all things having fervent love to yourselves, because love will cover a multitude of sins. ⁹Be hospitable to one another without murmurings, ¹⁰each one as he received a gift, ministering it to yourselves as good stewards of the manifold grace of God. ¹¹If anyone speaks, let it be as the words of God; if anyone ministers, as by strength which God supplies, that in all things God may be glorified through Jesus Christ; to whom is the glory and the might forever and ever. Amen.

¹²Beloved, do not be astonished at the fiery trial happening among you for your testing, as if a surprise were occurring to you; ¹³but according as you share the sufferings of Christ, rejoice; so that you may rejoice exultingly at the revelation of His glory.

¹⁴If you are reviled in the name of Christ, you are blessed, because the Spirit of God and of glory rests on you. Truly, according to them, He is blasphemed; but according to you, He is glorified. ¹⁵For do not let any of you suffer as a murderer, or a thief, or an evildoer, or as a meddler in the affairs of others. ¹⁶But if he suffers as a Christian, do not let him be ashamed, but to glorify God in this respect. ¹⁷Because the time has come to begin the judgment from the house of God; and if firstly from us, what will be the end of the ones disobeying the gospel of God? ¹⁸And if the righteous is scarcely saved, where will the ungodly and sinner appear? ¹⁹So as indeed the ones suffering according to God's will, as to a faithful Creator, let them commit their souls in welldoing.

¹I, a fellow-elder, exhort the elders among you, I being also witness of the sufferings of Christ, and being sharer of the glory about to be revealed: ²Shepherd the flock of God among you, exercising oversight, not by compulsion, but willingly; nor eagerly for base gain, but readily; ³nor as exercising lordship over the ones allotted to you, but becoming examples of the flock. ⁴And at the appearing of the Chief Shepherd, you will receive the never-fading crown of glory.

⁵Likewise, younger ones be subject to older ones; and all being subject to one another. Put on humility, because God sets Himself against proud ones, but He gives grace to humble ones. ⁶Then be humbled under the mighty hand of God, that He may exalt you in time; ⁷casting all your anxiety onto Him, because it matters to Him concerning you. ⁸Be sensible, watch, because your adversary the Devil walks about as a roaring lion seeking someone he may devour; ⁹whom firmly resist in the faith, knowing the same sufferings that are in the world are being completed in your brotherhood. ¹⁰Now the God of all grace, the One calling you to His eternal glory in Christ Jesus, you having suffered a little, He Himself will perfect, confirm, strengthen, establish

you. ¹¹To Him be the glory and the might forever and ever. Amen.

¹²I wrote to you by a few words by way of Silvanus the faithful brother, as I reckon, exhorting and witnessing this to be the true grace of God, in which you stand. ¹³The fellow-elected in Babylon greet you; also Mark my son. ¹⁴Greet one another with a kiss of love.

Peace be to you, all those in Christ Jesus. Amen.

THE SECOND GENERAL EPISTLE OF PETER

¹Simon Peter, a slave and apostle of Jesus Christ, to those equally precious with us, having obtained faith in the righteousness of our God and our Savior, Jesus Christ: ²Grace to you, and peace be multiplied by a full knowledge of God, and of Jesus our Lord.

³As His divine power has given to us all things pertaining to life and godliness through the full knowledge of the One calling us through glory and virtue, ⁴by which means He has given to us the very great and precious promises, so that through these you might be partakers of the divine nature, escaping from the corruption in the world by lust. ⁵But also in this very thing, bringing in all diligence, filling out your faith with virtue; and virtue with knowledge; ⁶and knowledge with self-control; and self-control with patience; and patience with godliness; ⁷and godliness with brotherly love; and brotherly love with love. ⁸For these things being in you, and abounding, make you not barren, not unfruitful in the full knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ. ⁹For the one in whom these things are not present is blind, being short-sighted, taking on forgetfulness of the cleansing of his sins in time past.

¹⁰On account of this, brothers, rather be diligent to make sure of your calling and election; for doing these things, you will not ever fall. ¹¹For so will be richly furnished to you the entrance into the everlasting kingdom of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ.

¹²For this reason I will not neglect to cause you to remember always concerning these things, though you know and have been confirmed in the present truth.

¹³But I deem it right, so long as I am in this tabernacle, to stir you up by a reminder, ¹⁴knowing that the putting off of my tabernacle is soon, as indeed our Lord Jesus Christ made clear to me. ¹⁵And I will also be diligent to cause you always to have memory of these things after my departure.

¹⁶For not following fables which had been cleverly devised, but becoming eye-witnesses of the majesty of Jesus Christ, that One made known to you the power and coming of our Lord. ¹⁷For receiving honor and glory from God the Father—such a voice being borne to Him from the magnificent glory, “This is My Son, the Beloved, in whom I was well-pleased,” ¹⁸even we heard this voice being borne out of Heaven, being with Him in the holy mountain — ¹⁹and we have the more established prophetic word, in which you do well to take heed, as to a lamp shining in a murky place, until day dawns and the Daystar rises in your hearts; ²⁰knowing this first, that every prophecy of Scripture did not come into being of its own interpretation; ²¹for prophecy was not at any time borne by the will of man, but having been borne along by the Holy Spirit, holy men of God spoke.

CHAPTER 2

¹But false prophets were also among the people, as also false teachers will be among you, who will secretly bring in destructive heresies, and denying the Master who has bought them, bringing swift destruction on themselves. ²And many will follow their destructive ways, by whom the way of truth will be evil spoken of. ³And by covetousness, with well-turned words, they will use you for gain—for whom judgment of old does not linger, and their destruction does not slumber. ⁴For if God did not spare sinning angels, but delivered them to chains of darkness, thrust down into Tartarus, having been kept to judgment; ⁵and did not spare the ancient world, but preserved Noah the eighth, a herald of righteousness, bringing a flood on a world of ungodly ones; ⁶and covering the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah with ashes, He condemned them with an overthrow, setting an example to men intending to live ungodly. ⁷And He delivered righteous Lot, who had been oppressed by the behavior of the lawless in lustfulness. ⁸For that righteous one living among them day after day, in seeing and in hearing, his righteous soul was tormented with their lawless deeds.

⁹*But the Lord knows to deliver the godly out of temptation, and to keep the unjust for a day of judgment, being punished,* ¹⁰*and most of all those going after flesh in the lust of defilement, and despising rulership, darers, self-satisfied; they do not tremble at glories, speaking evil;* ¹¹*where angels being greater in strength and power do not bring against them a reproaching charge before the Lord.* ¹²*But these as unreasoning natural beasts, having been born for capture and corruption, speaking evil in that of which they are ignorant, they shall utterly perish in their corruption,* ¹³*being about to receive the wages of unrighteousness, having deemed indulgence in the day to be pleasure; reveling in spots and blemishes, feasting along with you in their deceits;* ¹⁴*having eyes full of an adulteress, and never ceasing from sin; alluring unsettled souls; having a heart busied with covetousness; cursed children;* ¹⁵*forsaking a straight path, they went astray, following the way of Balaam the son of Beor, who loved the wages of unrighteousness,* ¹⁶*but had reproof of his own transgression — the dumb ass speaking in a man's voice held back the madness of the prophet.* ¹⁷*These are springs without water, clouds being driven by tempest, for whom the blackness of darkness is kept forever.* ¹⁸*For speaking great swelling words of vanity, by the lusts of the flesh, by unbridled lusts, they allure those who were escaping the ones living in error,* ¹⁹*promising them freedom, though themselves being slaves of corruption; for by whom anyone has been overcome, even to this one he has been enslaved.* ²⁰*For if by a full knowledge of the Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ, they have escaped the defilements of the world, and again being entangled they have been overcome by these, then their last things are worse than the first.* ²¹*For it was better for them not to have fully known the way of righteousness, than fully knowing to turn from the holy commandment delivered to them.* ²²*But the word of the true proverb has happened to them: The dog* turning to his own vomit; also, the washed sow to wallowing in mud.

¹Beloved, I now write to you this second epistle, in which by reminder I stir up your sincere mind to remember ²the words having been spoken before by the holy prophets, and the command of the Lord and and Savior — by us, the apostles; ³first, knowing this, that during the last days scoffers will come, walking according to their own lusts, ⁴and saying, Where is the promise of His coming? For since the fathers fell asleep, all things continue this way from the beginning of creation. ⁵For this is hidden from them by their willing it so, that heavens were of old, and earth by water, and through water, being held together by the word of God, ⁶through which the world which then was, being flooded by water, perished. ⁷But the heavens and the earth now, having been stored up by the same word, are being kept for fire to a day of judgment and destruction of ungodly men.

⁸But let not this one thing be hidden from you, beloved, that one day with the Lord is as a thousand years, and a thousand years as one day. ⁹The Lord is not slow as to the promise, as some deem slowness, but is long-suffering toward us, not having purposed any of us to perish, but all of us to come to repentance. ¹⁰But the day of the Lord will come as a thief in the night, in which the heavens will pass away with rushing sound, and having burned the elements will be dissolved, and earth and the works in it will be burned up. ¹¹Then all these being about to be dissolved, what sort ought you to be in holy behavior and godliness, ¹²looking for and hastening the coming of the Day of God, through which the heavens having been set afire will be dissolved; and burning, the elements will melt? ¹³But according to His promise, we look for new heavens and a new earth, in which righteousness dwells.

¹⁴Because of this, beloved, looking for these things, be diligent, spotless, and without blemish, to be found in peace by Him. ¹⁵And think of the long-suffering of our Lord as salvation, as also our beloved brother Paul wrote to you, according to the wisdom given to him; ¹⁶as also in all his epistles, speaking in them concerning these things, in which are some things hard to understand, which the unlearned and unsettled pervert, as also they do the rest of the Scriptures, to their own destruction. ¹⁷Then beloved, you knowing beforehand, watch lest being led away by the error of the lawless you fall from your own steadfastness.

¹⁸But grow in grace and knowledge of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. To Him be the glory, both now and to the day of eternity. Amen.

THE FIRST GENERAL EPISTLE OF JOHN

¹*We announce to you* what was from the beginning, what we have heard, what we have seen with our eyes, what we beheld, and what our hands touched, as regards the Word of Life. ²And the Life was revealed, and we have seen, and we bear witness, and we announce to you the everlasting Life which was with the Father, and was revealed to us. ³We announce to you what we have seen, and what we have heard, that you also may have fellowship with us. And truly our fellowship is with the Father and with His Son, Jesus Christ. ⁴And we write these things to you, that your joy may be full.

⁵And this is the message which we have heard from Him, and we announce to you: God is light, and no darkness is in Him — none. ⁶If we say that we have fellowship with Him, and we walk in darkness, we lie and are not practicing the truth. ⁷But if we walk in the light, as He is in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of His Son Jesus Christ cleanses us from all sin. ⁸If we say that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us. ⁹If we confess our sins, He is faithful and righteous that He may forgive us the sins, and may cleanse us from all unrighteousness. ¹⁰If we say that we have not sinned, we make Him a liar, and His word is not in us.

¹My little children, I write these things to you so that you do not sin. And if anyone sins, we have an advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous. ²And He is the propitiation relating to our sins, and not relating to ours only, but also relating to all the world. ³And by this we know that we have known Him, if we keep His commands. ⁴The one saying, I have known Him, and not keeping His commands is a liar, and the truth is not in that one. ⁵But whoever keeps His word, truly in this one the love of God has been perfected. By this we know that we are in Him. ⁶The one saying to rest in Him ought so to walk himself as that One walked.

⁷Brothers, I do not write a new commandment to you, but an old commandment which you had from the beginning. The old commandment is the word which you heard from the beginning. ⁸Again I write a new commandment to you which is true in Him and in you, because the darkness is passing away, and the true Light already shines. ⁹The one saying to be in the light, yet hating his brother, is in the darkness until now. ¹⁰The one loving his brother rests in the light, and no offense is in him. ¹¹But the one hating his brother is in the darkness, and walks in the darkness, and does not know where he is going, because the darkness blinded his eyes.

¹²Little children, I write to you because you have been forgiven your sins through His name. ¹³Fathers, I write to you because you have known Him from the beginning. I write to you, young men, because you overcome the evil one. I write to you, young ones, because you have known the Father. ¹⁴Fathers, I wrote to you because you have known Him from the beginning. I wrote to you, young men, because you are strong, and the word of God abides in you, and you have overcome the evil one.

¹⁵Do not love the world nor the things in the world. If anyone loves the world, the love of the Father is not in him, ¹⁶because all that which is in the world: the lust of the flesh, and the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life, is not of the Father, but is of the world. ¹⁷And the world is passing away, and its lust. But the one doing the will of God abides forever.

¹⁸Young ones, it is a last hour, and as you heard that the antichrist is coming, even now many antichrists have risen up; from which you know that it is a last hour. ¹⁹They went out from us, but they were not of us. For if they were of us, they would have remained with us; but they left so that it might be revealed that they all are not of us. ²⁰And you have an anointing from the Holy One, and you know all things. ²¹I did not write to you because you do not know the truth, but because you know it, and because every lie is not of the truth. ²²Who is the liar, except the one denying, saying that Jesus is not the Christ? This is the antichrist, the one denying the Father and the Son. ²³Everyone denying the Son does not have the Father. The one confessing the Son also has the Father. ²⁴Then what you heard from the beginning, let it abide in you. If what you heard from the beginning abides in you, you will abide both in the Son and in the Father. ²⁵And this is the promise which He promised us: everlasting life.

²⁶I wrote these things to you concerning the ones leading you astray. ²⁷And the anointing which you received from Him abides in you, and you have no need that anyone teach you. But as His anointing teaches you concerning all things, and is true, and is not a lie, and as He taught you, abide in Him. ²⁸And now, little children, abide in Him, that when He is revealed we may have confidence, and not be shamed from Him in His coming. ²⁹If you know that He is righteous, know that everyone doing righteousness has been born of Him.

¹See what manner of love the Father has given us, that we may be called children of God. For this reason the world does not know us, because it did not know Him. ²Beloved, now we are the children of God, and it was not yet revealed what we shall be. But we know that if He is revealed, we shall be like Him, because we shall see Him as He is. ³And everyone having this hope on Him purifies himself, even as that One is pure. ⁴Everyone practicing sin also practices lawlessness, and sin is lawlessness. ⁵And you know that He was revealed that He might bear our sins; and sin is not in Him.

⁶Everyone remaining in Him does not sin. Everyone sinning has not seen Him, nor known Him. ⁷Little children, let no one lead you astray; the one practicing righteousness is righteous, even as that One is righteous. ⁸The one practicing sin is of the Devil, because the Devil sins from the beginning. For this the Son of God was revealed, that He undo the works of the Devil. ⁹Everyone who has been begotten of God does not sin, because His seed abides in him, and he is not able to sin, because he has been born of God. ¹⁰By this the children of God and the children of the Devil are revealed: Everyone not practicing righteousness is not of God; also the one not loving his brother. ¹¹Because this is the message which you heard from the beginning, that we should love one another, ¹²not as Cain was of the evil one, and killed his brother. And for what did he kill him? Because his works were evil, but the things of his brother were righteous.

¹³Do not marvel, my brothers, if the world hates you. ¹⁴We know that we have passed from death to life because we love the brothers. The one not loving the brother remains in death. ¹⁵Everyone hating the brother is a murderer, and you know that every murderer does not have everlasting life abiding in him.

¹⁶By this we have known the love of God, because that One laid down His soul for us; and on behalf of the brothers we ought to lay down our souls. ¹⁷Whoever has the means of life of the world, and sees his brother having need, and shuts up his bowels from him, how does the love of God abide in him?

¹⁸My little children, let us not love in word, or in tongue, but in deed and in truth. ¹⁹And in this we shall know that we are of the truth, and shall persuade our hearts before Him, ²⁰that if our heart accuses us, we know that God is greater than our heart and knows all things. ²¹Beloved, if our heart does not accuse us, we have confidence with God. ²²And whatever we ask, we receive from Him, because we keep His commandments, and we do the things pleasing before Him. ²³And this is His commandment, that we should believe the name of His Son, Jesus Christ, and love one another, even as He gave command to us. ²⁴And the one keeping His commandments abides in Him, and He in him. And by this we know that He abides in us, by the Spirit which He gave to us.

¹Beloved, do not believe every spirit, but test the spirits, whether they are from

God; for many false prophets have gone forth into the world. ²By this know the Spirit of God: every spirit which confesses that Jesus Christ has come in the flesh is from God. ³And every spirit which does not confess that Jesus Christ has come in the flesh is not from God; and this is the antichrist which you heard is coming, and now is already in the world. ⁴Little children, you are of God and have overcome them, because He in you is greater than he in the world. ⁵They are of the world; because of this they speak of the world, and the world hears them. ⁶We are of God; the one knowing God hears us. Whoever is not of God does not hear us. From this we know the spirit of truth and the spirit of error.

⁷Beloved, let us love one another, because love is of God, and everyone who loves has been born of God, and knows God. ⁸The one who does not love has not known God, because God is love. ⁹By this the love of God was revealed in us, because His Son, the Only-begotten, God has sent into the world that we might live through Him. ¹⁰In this is love, not that we loved God, but that He loved us, and sent His Son to be a propitiation relating to our sins. ¹¹Beloved, if God so loved us, we also ought to love one another. ¹²No one has seen God at any time. If we love one another, God abides in us, and His love having been perfected is in us. ¹³By this we know that we abide in Him, and He in us, because of His Spirit He has given to us. ¹⁴And we have beheld and bear witness that the Father has sent the Son as Savior of the world. ¹⁵Whoever confesses that Jesus is the Son of God, God abides in him, and he in God. ¹⁶And we have known and have believed the love which God has in us. God is love, and the one abiding in love abides in God, and God in him. ¹⁷By this love has been perfected with us, that we have confidence in the day of judgment, that as He is, we are also in this world.

¹⁸There is no fear in love, but perfect love casts out fear, because fear has punishment; and the one fearing has not been perfected in love. ¹⁹We love Him because He first loved us. ²⁰If anyone says, I love God, and hates his brother, he is a liar. For the one not loving his brother whom he has seen, how is he able to love God whom he has not seen? ²¹And we have this commandment from Him, that the one who loves God also loves his brother.

CHAPTER 5

¹Everyone who believes that Jesus is the Christ has been born of God. And everyone who loves Him who begets also loves the one who has been born of Him. ²By this we know that we love the children of God: when we love God and keep His commandments. ³For this is the love of God, that we keep His commandments; and His commandments are not heavy. ⁴Because everything having been born of God overcomes the world, and this is the victory overcoming the world, our faith. ⁵Who is the one overcoming the world except the one who believes that Jesus is the Son of God? ⁶This is the One coming through water and blood, Jesus Christ; not by the water only, but by the water and the blood. And the Spirit is the One witnessing, because the Spirit is the truth. ⁷*For there are three bearing witness in Heaven: the Father, the Word, and the Holy Spirit; and these three are one.* ⁸And there are three who bear witness on the earth: The Spirit, and the water, and the blood; and the three are to the one. ⁹If we receive the witness of men, the witness of God is greater; because this is the witness of God which He has witnessed about His Son: ¹⁰The one believing in the Son of God has the witness in himself. The one not believing God has made Him a liar, because he has not believed in the witness which God has witnessed concerning His Son. ¹¹And this is the witness: that God gave us everlasting life, and this life is in His Son. ¹²The one having the Son has life. The one not having the Son of God does not have life.

¹³I wrote these things to you, the ones believing in the name of the Son of God, that you may know that you have everlasting life, and that you may believe in the name of the Son of God. ¹⁴And this is the confidence we have toward Him, that if we ask anything according to His will, He hears us. ¹⁵And if we know that He hears us, whatever we ask, we know that we have the requests which we have asked from Him.

¹⁶If anyone sees his brother sinning a sin not unto death, he shall ask; and He shall give life to him, to the ones not sinning unto death. There is a sin unto death. I do not say that he should ask about that. ¹⁷All unrighteousness is sin, and there is a sin not unto death.

¹⁸We know that everyone having been born of God does not sin, but the one born of God keeps himself, and the evil does not touch him. ¹⁹We know that we are of God, and the whole world lies in evil. ²⁰And we know that the Son of God has come, and He has given to us an understanding that we may know the true One, and we are in the true One, in His Son Jesus Christ. This is the true God and the life everlasting.

²¹Little children, guard yourselves from idols. Amen.

THE SECOND GENERAL EPISTLE OF JOHN

¹The elder to the elect lady and her children, whom I love in truth; and not I only, but also all those who have known the truth, ²because of the truth remaining among us, and will be with us forever. ³Grace, mercy, peace will be with you from God the Father and from the Lord Jesus Christ, the Son of the Father, in truth and love.

⁴I rejoiced greatly because I found your children walking in truth, as we received command from the Father. ⁵And I now request you, lady, not writing as a new commandment, but one which we had from the beginning, that we should love one another. ⁶And this is love, that we should walk according to His commandments. This is the commandment, even as you heard from the beginning, that you should walk in it. ⁷Because many deceivers went out into the world, those not confessing Jesus Christ to have come in the flesh — this is the deceiver and the antichrist.

⁸Watch yourselves, that we may not lose the things we worked out, but that we may receive a full reward. ⁹Everyone transgressing and not abiding in the teaching of Christ does not have God. The one abiding in the teaching of Christ, this one has the Father and the Son. ¹⁰If anyone comes to you and does not bear this teaching, do not receive him into the house, and do not speak a greeting to him. ¹¹For the one speaking a greeting shares in his evil works.

¹²Having many things to write to you, I do not intend to speak by means of paper and ink, but I am hoping to come to you, and to speak mouth to mouth, that our joy may be full.

¹³The children of your elect sister greet you.

Amen.

THE THIRD GENERAL EPISTLE OF JOHN

¹The elder to Gaius the beloved, whom I love in truth.

²Beloved, in regard to all things, I pray for you to do well, and to be in health, as your soul does well. ³For I rejoiced greatly at the coming of the brothers, also bearing witness of you in the truth, as you walk in truth. ⁴I have no greater joy than these things, that I hear my children are walking in truth.

⁵Beloved, you do faithfully whatever you work for the brothers and for the strangers, ⁶who in love bore witness of you before the church, whom you will do well to send forward worthily of God. ⁷For on behalf of His name they went out, taking nothing from the Gentiles. ⁸Therefore, we ought to entertain such men, that we may become co-workers in the truth.

⁹I wrote to the church, but he loving to be first of them, Diotrephes, does not receive us. ¹⁰Because of this, if I come, I will recall his works which he does, ranting against us with evil words. And not being satisfied with these, neither does he receive the brothers; and those intending it he prevents, and thrusts them out from the church.

¹¹Beloved, do not imitate the bad, but the good. The one doing good is of God; but the one doing bad has not seen God.

¹²Witness has been borne to Demetrius by all, and by the truth itself. And we also bear witness, and you know that our witness is true.

¹³I had many things to write, but I do not desire to write by means of pen and ink. ¹⁴But I am hoping to see you at once, and we will speak mouth to mouth.

Peace to you. The friends greet you. Greet the friends by name.

THE GENERAL EPISTLE OF JUDE

¹Jude, a slave of Jesus Christ, and brother of James, to the ones called in God the Father, having been set apart, and having been kept to Jesus Christ: ²Mercy and peace, and love be multiplied to you.

³Having made all diligence to write to you about the common salvation, beloved, I had need to write to you to exhort you to contend earnestly for the faith once delivered to the saints. ⁴For certain men crept in secretly, those having been of old marked out to this condemnation, ungodly ones perverting the grace of God for unbridled lust, and denying the only Master, God, even our Lord Jesus Christ.

⁵But I intend to remind you, you once knowing these things, that the Lord having saved a people out of the land of Egypt, in the second place destroyed the ones not believing. ⁶And those angels not having kept their first place, but having deserted their dwelling-place, He has kept in everlasting chains under darkness for the judgment of a great Day; ⁷as Sodom and Gomorrah, and the cities around them, in like manner to these, committing fornication, and going away after other flesh, laid down an example beforetimes, undergoing vengeance of everlasting fire. ⁸Likewise, indeed, also those dreaming ones even defile flesh, and despise rulership, and speak evil of glories. ⁹But Michael the archangel, when contending with the Devil, he argued about the body of Moses—he dared not bring a judgment of blasphemy, but said, Let the Lord rebuke you! ¹⁰But what things they do not know, they speak evil of these. And what things they understand naturally, like the animals without reason, they are corrupted by these.

¹²These are sunken rocks in your love feasts, feasting together with you; feeding themselves without fear, waterless clouds being carried about by winds; fruitless autumn trees, having died twice, having been plucked up by the roots; ¹³wild waves of the sea foaming up their shames; wandering stars for whom blackness of darkness has been kept forever.

¹⁴And the seventh from Adam, Enoch also prophesied to these men, saying, Behold, the Lord came with myriads of His saints, ¹⁵to do judgment against all, and to rebuke all the ungodly of them concerning all their ungodly works which they ungodly did, and concerning all the hard things ungodly sinners spoke against Him. ¹⁶These are murmurers, complainers, leading lives according to their lusts, and their mouth speaks proud things, admiring faces for the sake of gain. ¹⁷But you, beloved, remember the words spoken before by the apostles of our Lord Jesus Christ, ¹⁸because they told you that at the last time there will be mockers according to their lusts, leading ungodly lives. ¹⁹These are the ones setting themselves apart, animal-like ones, not having the Spirit.

²⁰But you, beloved, building yourselves up by your most holy faith, praying in the Holy Spirit, ²¹keep yourselves in the love of God, eagerly awaiting the mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ to everlasting life. ²²And pity some, making distinction. ²³But save others with fear, snatching them out of the fire, hating even the garment having been stained from the flesh.

²⁴Now to Him being able to keep you without stumbling, and to set you before His glory without blemish, with unspeakable joy; ²⁵to the only wise God, our Savior, be glory and majesty and might and authority, even now and forever. Amen.

THE HOLY REVELATION OF JOHN THE DIVINE

CHAPTER 1

¹A revelation of Jesus Christ, which God gave to Him to show to His slaves things which must occur quickly. And He signified by sending through His angel to His slave, John, ²who testified of the word of God and the witness of Jesus Christ, even as many things as he saw. ³Blessed is the one reading, and those hearing, the words of this prophecy, and keeping the things having been written; for the time is near.

⁴John to the seven churches in Asia:

Grace to you, and peace, from the One who is, and who was, and who is coming, and from the seven spirits which are before His throne; ⁵even from Jesus Christ the faithful witness, the Firstborn from the dead, and the Ruler of the kings of the earth. To Him loving us and washing us from our sins by His blood, ⁶and made us kings and priests to God, even His Father. To Him is the glory and the might forever and ever. Amen. ⁷Behold, He comes with the clouds, and every eye will see Him, and the ones who pierced Him, and all the tribes of the earth will wail on account of Him. Yes, Amen.

⁸I am the Alpha and the Omega, the Beginning and the Ending, says the Lord, the One who is, and who was, and who is coming — the Almighty.

⁹I, even your brother John, and co-sharer in the affliction, and in the kingdom and patience of Jesus Christ, came to be in the island being called Patmos because of the word of God, and because of the witness of Jesus Christ. ¹⁰I came to be in the Spirit on the Lord's day, and I heard behind me a great voice, as of a trumpet, ¹¹saying, I am the Alpha and the Omega, the First and the Last; also, What you see, write in a scroll, and send to the seven churches of Asia: to Ephesus, and to Smyrna, and to Pergamos, and to Thyatira, and to Sardis, and to Philadelphia, and to Laodicea. ¹²And I turned to see the voice which spoke with me. ¹³And turning, I saw seven golden lampstands, and in the midst of the seven lampstands One like the Son of man, having been clothed to the feet, and having been girded with a golden girdle at the breasts. ¹⁴And the hairs of His head were white as white wool, as snow, and His eyes as a flame of fire; ¹⁵and His feet like burnished metal having been fired in a furnace; and His voice as a sound of many waters; ¹⁶and having in His right hand seven stars; and a sharp, two-edged sword proceeding out of His mouth; and His face shining as the sun in its power. ¹⁷And when I saw Him, I fell at His feet, as dead. And He put His right hand on me, saying to me, Do not fear. I am the First and the Last, ¹⁸and the Living One; and I became dead; and, behold, I am living forever and ever. Amen. And I have the keys to Hades, and of death. ¹⁹Write what things you saw, and what things are, and what things are about to occur after these things. ²⁰The mystery of the seven stars which you saw on My right, and the seven golden lampstands: the seven stars are angels of the seven churches; and the seven lampstands you saw are seven churches.

¹To the angel of the Ephesian church, write:

²These things says the One holding the seven stars in His right hand, He walking in the midst of the seven golden lampstands: I know your works, and your labor, and your patience, and that you cannot bear evil ones; and you tried those pretending to be apostles, and are not, and found them to be liars. ³And I know you bore up and on account of My name you have labored and have not wearied, ⁴But I have against you that you left your first love. ⁵Then remember from where you have fallen, and repent, and do the first works. And if not, I am coming to you quickly, and will remove your lampstand from its place, unless you repent. ⁶But you have this, that you hate the works of the Nicolaitans, which I also hate. ⁷The one who has an ear, hear what the Spirit says to the churches. To the one over-coming, I will give to him to eat of the Tree of Life which is in the midst of the Paradise of God.

⁸And to the angel of the church of Smyrna, write:

⁹These things says the First and the Last, who became dead, and lived: I know your works, and the affliction, and the poverty; but you are rich. And I know the evil speaking of those saying themselves to be Jews, and they are not, but are a synagogue of Satan. ¹⁰Do not at all fear what you are about to suffer. Behold, the Devil is about to throw you into prison, so that you may be tried; and you will have affliction ten days. Be faithful until death, and I will give you the crown of life. ¹¹The one who has an ear, hear what the Spirit says to the churches. The one overcoming will not at all be hurt by the second death.

¹²And to the angel of the church in Pergamos, write:

These things says the One having the sharp, two-edged sword: ¹³I know your works, and where you dwell, where the throne of Satan is. And you hold My name, and did not deny My faith even in the days in which Antipas was My faithful witness; who was killed alongside you, where Satan dwells. ¹⁴But I have a few things against you, that you have there those holding the teachings of Balaam, who taught Balak to throw a stumbling-block before the sons of Israel, to eat idol-sacrifices, and to commit fornication. ¹⁵So you also have those holding the teaching of the Nicolaitans, which thing I hate. ¹⁶Repent! But if not, I will come to you quickly, and I will make war with them by the sword of My mouth. ¹⁷The one who has an ear, hear what the Spirit says to the churches. To the one overcoming, I will give him to eat from the hidden manna. And I will give to him a white stone, and on the stone a new name having been written, which no one knows except the one receiving it.

¹⁸And to the angel of the church in Thyatira, write:

These things says the Son of God, the One having His eyes as a flame of fire, and His feet like burnished metal: ¹⁹I know your works, and the love, and the ministry, and the faith, and your patience, and your works; and the last more than the first.

²⁰But I have a few things against you, that you allow the woman Jezebel to teach, she saying herself to be a prophetess, and to cause My slaves to go astray, and to commit fornication, and to eat idol-sacrifices. ²¹And I gave time to her that she might repent of her fornication. And she did not repent. ²²Behold, I am throwing her into a bed, and those committing adultery with her into great affliction, unless they repent of their works. ²³And I will kill her children with death; and all the churches will know that I am the One searching the inner parts and hearts. And I will give to each of you according to your works. ²⁴But I say to you and to the rest in Thyatira, as many as do not have this teaching, and who did not know the deep things of Satan, as they say: I am not casting another burden on you; ²⁵but what you have, hold until I shall come. ²⁶And the one overcoming, and the one keeping My works until the end, I will give to him authority over the nations, ²⁷and he will shepherd them with an iron staff—they are broken to pieces like clay vessels—as I also have received from My Father. ²⁸And I will give to him the morning star. ²⁹The one who has an ear, hear what the Spirit says to the churches.

¹And to the angel of the church in Sardis, write:

These things says the One having the seven spirits of God, and the seven stars: I know your works, that you have the name that you live, and are dead. ²Be watching, and establish the things left, which are about to die. For I have not found your works being fulfilled before God. ³Then remember how you received and heard, and keep, and repent. If, then, you do not watch, I will come upon you like a thief, and you will not at all know what hour I come upon you. ⁴You also have a few names in Sardis which did not defile their robes, and they shall walk with Me in white because they are worthy. ⁵The one overcoming, this one shall be clothed in white garments, and I will not at all blot his name out of the Book of Life; and I will acknowledge his name before My Father, and before His angels. ⁶The one who has an ear, hear what the Spirit says to the churches.

⁷And to the angel of the church in Philadelphia, write:

These things says the Holy One, the True One, the One having the key of David, the One opening, and no one shuts; and shuts, and no one opens: ⁸I know your works. Behold, I have given a door being opened before you, and no one is able to shut it, for you have a little power and have kept My word, and have not denied My name. ⁹Behold, I give out of the synagogue of Satan those saying themselves to be Jews, and they are not, but they lie. Behold, I will make them come and bow down before your feet, and they shall know that I loved you. ¹⁰Because you kept the word of My patience, I also will keep you out of the hour of trial which is going to come on all the habitable world in order to try those dwelling on the earth. ¹¹Behold, I am coming quickly. Hold what you have that no one take your crown. ¹²The one overcoming, I will make him a pillar in the temple of My God, and he shall not go out any more. And I will write the name of My God on him, and the name of the city of My God, the new Jerusalem which comes down out of Heaven from My God, and My new name. ¹³The one who has an ear, hear what the Spirit says to the churches.

¹⁴And to the angel of the church of Laodicea, write:

These things says the Amen, the faithful and true Witness, the Head of the creation of God: ¹⁵I know your works, that you are neither cold nor hot. I would that you were cold, or hot. ¹⁶So, because you are lukewarm, and neither cold nor hot, I am about to vomit you out of My mouth. ¹⁷Because you say, I am rich, and I am made rich, and I have need of nothing, and do not know that you are wretched and miserable and poor and blind and naked. ¹⁸I advise you to buy from Me gold having been fired by fire, that you may be rich; and white garments, that you may be clothed, and your shame and nakedness may not be revealed. And anoint your eyes with eye-salve, that you may see. ¹⁹I, as many as I love, I rebuke and I chasten.

Be zealous, then, and repent. ²⁰Behold, I stand at the door and knock: If anyone hears My voice and opens the door, I will go in to him, and I will dine with him, and he with Me. ²¹The one overcoming, I will give to him to sit with Me in My throne, as I also overcame and sat with My Father in His throne. ²²The one who has an ear, hear what the Spirit says to the churches.

¹After these things I saw. And behold, a door being opened in Heaven! And I heard the first voice as a trumpet speaking with me, saying, Come up here, and I will show you what needs to happen after these things. ²And at once I became in spirit. And, behold, a throne was set in Heaven, and One sitting on the throne. ³And the One sitting was in appearance like a jasper stone, and a sardius; and a rainbow was around the throne, in appearance like an emerald. ⁴And around the throne I saw twenty-four thrones, and on the thrones I saw twenty-four elders sitting, having been clothed in white garments. And they had golden crowns on their heads. ⁵And out of the throne come forth lightnings and thunders and voices. And seven lamps of fire are burning before the throne, which are the seven Spirits of God; ⁶and a glassy sea before the throne, like crystal. And in the midst of the throne and around the throne were four living creatures, full of eyes before and behind.

⁷And the first living creature was like a lion; and the second living creature like a calf; and the third living creature having a face like a man; and the fourth living creature like an eagle flying. ⁸And the four living creatures each one had six wings around, and within being full of eyes. And they had no rest day and night, saying, Holy, holy, holy, Lord God Almighty, the One who was, and is, and is coming! ⁹And when the living creatures shall give glory and honor and thanks to the One sitting on the throne, to the One living forever and ever, ¹⁰the twenty-four elders fall down before Him sitting on the throne; and they will worship the One living forever and ever, and will throw their crowns before the throne, saying, ¹¹Lord, You are worthy to receive the glory and the honor and the power, because You created all things, and through Your will they exist and were created.

¹And I saw on the right of the One sitting on the throne a scroll having been written within and on the back, having been sealed with seven seals. ²And I saw a strong angel proclaiming with a great voice: Who is worthy to open the scroll, and to loosen its seals? ³And no one in Heaven was able to open the scroll nor to see it, neither on the earth, nor underneath the earth. ⁴And I wept very much, because no one worthy was found to open and to read the scroll, nor to see it. ⁵And one of the elders said to me, Do not weep, Behold, the Lion being of the tribe of Judah, the Root of David, overcame so as to open the scroll, and to loose its seven seals.

⁶And I saw, and behold, in the midst of the throne, and of the four living creatures, and in the midst of the elders, was a Lamb standing, as having been slain, having seven horns and seven eyes, which are the seven Spirits of God, having been sent out into all the earth. ⁷And He came and took the scroll out of the right hand of Him sitting on the throne. ⁸And when He took the scroll, the four living creatures and the twenty-four elders fell down before the Lamb, each one having harps, and golden bowls full of incenses, which are the prayers of the saints. ⁹And they sing a new song, saying, Worthy are You to receive the scroll, and to open its seals, because You were slain, and by Your blood purchased us to God out of every tribe and tongue and people and nation, ¹⁰and made us kings and priests to our God; and we shall reign over the earth. ¹¹And I saw, and I heard a sound of many angels around the throne, and the living creatures, and the elders, and their number was myriads of myriads, and thousands of thousands, ¹²saying with a great voice, Worthy is the Lamb having been slain to receive the power and riches and wisdom and strength and honor and glory and blessing. ¹³And every creature which is in Heaven, and in the earth, and underneath the earth, and the things that are on the sea, and the things in all of them, I heard saying: To Him sitting on the throne, and to the Lamb be the blessing and the honor and the glory and the might forever and ever. ¹⁴And the four living creatures said, Amen. And the twenty-four elders fell down and worshiped the Living One forever and ever.

¹And I saw when the Lamb opened one of the seals. And I heard one of the four living creatures, like a sound of thunder, saying, Come and see. ²And I saw, and behold, a white horse! And the one sitting on it had a bow. And a crown was given to him, and he went out overcoming, and that he might overcome.

³And when He opened the second seal, I heard the second living creature saying, Come and see. ⁴And another horse went out, red. And it was given to the one sitting on it to take peace from the earth, and that they should slay one another. And a great sword was given to him.

⁵And when He opened the third seal, I heard the third living creature saying, Come and see. And I saw, and behold, a black horse, and the one sitting on it having a balance in his hand. ⁶And I heard a voice in the midst of the four living creatures saying, A choenix of wheat for a denarius, and three choenices of barley for a denarius; and do not harm the oil and the wine.

⁷And when He opened the fourth seal, I heard a voice of the fourth living creature saying, Come and see. ⁸And I saw, and behold, a pale green horse, and the name of the one sitting on it was Death; and Hades followed after him. And authority was given to them to kill over the fourth of the earth with sword, and with famine, and with death, and by the wild beasts of the earth.

⁹And when He opened the fifth seal, I saw under the altar the souls of those having been slain for the word of God, and for the witness which they had. ¹⁰And they cried with a great voice, saying, Until when, holy and true Master, do You not judge and take vengeance for our blood, from those dwelling on the earth? ¹¹And there was given to each one a white robe.

And it was said to them that they should rest yet a little time, until might be fulfilled also the number of their fellow-slaves and their brothers, those being about to be killed, even as they.

¹²And I saw when He opened the sixth seal. And behold, a great earthquake occurred. And the sun became black as sackcloth made of hair; and the moon became as blood; ¹³and the stars of the heaven fell to the earth, as a fig-tree being shaken by a great wind casts its unripe figs. ¹⁴And the heaven departed like a scroll being rolled up. And every mountain and island were moved out of their places. ¹⁵And the kings of the earth, and the great ones, and the rich ones, and the commanders, and the powerful ones, and every slave, and every freeman hid themselves in the caves and in the rocks of the mountains. ¹⁶And they said to the mountains and to the rocks, Fall on us, and hide us from the face of the One sitting on the throne, and from the wrath of the Lamb, ¹⁷because the great day of His wrath has come; and who is able to stand?

¹And after these things I saw four angels standing on the four corners of the earth, holding the four winds of the earth, that wind should not blow on the earth, nor on the sea, nor on every tree. ²And I saw another angel coming up from the rising of the sun, having a seal of the living God. And he cried with a great voice to the four angels to whom it was given to them to harm the earth and the sea, saying, ³Do not harm the earth, nor the sea, nor the trees, until we seal the slaves of our God on their foreheads. ⁴And I heard the number of those having been sealed: one hundred forty-four thousands, having been sealed out of every tribe of the sons of Israel:

⁵Out of the tribe of Judah, twelve thousand having been sealed. Out of the tribe of Reuben, twelve thousand having been sealed. Out of the tribe of Gad, twelve thousand having been sealed.

⁶Out of the tribe of Asher, twelve thousand having been sealed. Out of the tribe of Naphtali, twelve thousand having been sealed. Out of the tribe of Manasseh, twelve thousand having been sealed.

⁷Out of the tribe of Simeon, twelve thousand having been sealed. Out of the tribe of Levi, twelve thousand having been sealed. Out of the tribe of Issachar, twelve thousand having been sealed.

⁸Out of the tribe of Zebulun, twelve thousand having been sealed. Out of the tribe of Joseph, twelve thousand having been sealed. Out of the tribe of Benjamin, twelve thousand having been sealed.

⁹After these things I saw, and behold, a great crowd which no one was able to number them, out of every nation, even tribes and peoples and tongues standing in front of the throne, and before the Lamb, having been clothed with white robes, and palms in their hands. ¹⁰And they cry with a great voice, saying, Salvation to our God sitting on the throne, and to the Lamb.

¹¹And all the angels and of the elders and of the four living creatures stood around the throne. And they fell before the throne on their faces, and worshiped God, ¹²saying, Amen. Blessing and glory and wisdom and thanksgiving and honor and power and strength to our God forever and ever. Amen.

¹³And one of the elders answered, saying to me, These, the ones having been clothed in the white robes, who are they, and from where did they come? ¹⁴And I said to him, Sir, you know. And he said to me, These are those coming out of the great tribulation; and they washed their robes and whitened them in the blood of the Lamb. ¹⁵Because of this they are before the throne of God, and serve Him day and night in His temple. And He sitting on the throne will spread His skirt over them. ¹⁶And they will not hunger still, nor will they thirst still, nor at all shall fall on them the sun, nor any kind of heat. ¹⁷Because the Lamb in the midst of the throne will shepherd them, and will lead them on the living fountains of waters; and God will wipe off every tear from their eyes.

¹And when He opened the seventh seal, a silence occurred in Heaven, about a half-hour. ²And I saw the seven angels who stood before God, and seven trumpets were given to them.

³And another angel came and stood on the altar, having a golden censer. And many incenses were given to him, that he give them with the prayers of all the saints on the golden altar before the throne.

⁴And the smoke of the incenses went up with the prayers of the saints out of the hand of the angel before God. ⁵And the angel has taken the censer, and has filled it from the fire of the altar, and has cast it into the earth; and sounds and thunders and lightnings and earthquakes occurred.

⁶And the seven angels having the seven trumpets prepared themselves, that they might trumpet.

⁷And the first angel trumpeted. And hail and fire mixed with blood occurred. And it was cast onto the earth; and the third part of the trees was burned; and all green grass was burned.

⁸And the second angel trumpeted. And as a great mountain burning with fire, it was thrown into the sea. And the third part of the sea became blood; ⁹and the third part of the creatures having souls died in the sea; and the third part of the ships was destroyed.

¹⁰And the third angel trumpeted. And a great burning star, like a lamp, fell out of the heaven. And it fell onto the third part of the rivers, and onto the fountains of waters. ¹¹And the name of the star is said to be Wormwood. And the third part of the waters became changed into wormwood. And many men died from the waters, because they were bitter.

¹²And the fourth angel trumpeted. And the third part of the sun, and the third part of the moon, and the third part of the stars, was struck, that the third part of them might be darkened, and the third part of the day might not appear; and in the same way the night.

¹³And I saw, and I heard one angel flying in mid-heaven, saying with a great voice, Woe! Woe! Woe to those dwelling on the earth, from the rest of the voices of the trumpet of the three angels being about to trumpet!

¹And the fifth angel trumpeted. And I saw a star out of the heaven falling onto the earth. And the key to the pit of the abyss was given to it. ²And he opened the pit of the abyss. And smoke went up out of the pit, like smoke of a great furnace. And the sun was darkened, and the air, by the smoke of the pit. ³And out of the smoke locusts came forth to the earth. And authority was given to them, as the scorpions of the earth have authority. ⁴And it was said to them that they should not harm the grass of the earth, nor every green thing, nor every tree, except only the men who do not have the seal of God on their foreheads. ⁵And it was given to them that they should not kill them, but that they be tormented five months. And their torment is as the torment of a scorpion when it stings a man. ⁶And in those days men will seek death, and they will not find it. And they will long to die, yet death will flee from them. ⁷And the likenesses of the locusts were like horses having been prepared for war; and on their heads as crowns, like gold; and their faces like the faces of men. ⁸And they had hairs like the hairs of women; and their teeth were like those of lions. ⁹And they had breastplates like iron breastplates; and the sound of their wings was like the sound of chariots with many horses running to war. ¹⁰And they have tails like scorpions, and their stings were in their tails; and their authority is to harm men five months. ¹¹And they have a king over them, the angel of the abyss. In Hebrew his name was Abaddon, and in Greek he has the name Apollyon.

¹²The first woe has departed; behold, after these things come two woes.

¹³And the sixth angel trumpeted. And I heard one voice out of the four horns of the golden altar before God, ¹⁴saying to the sixth angel who had the trumpet, Release the four angels, those having been bound at the great river Euphrates. ¹⁵And the four angels were released, those having been prepared for the hour and day and month and year, that they should kill the third part of men.

¹⁶And the number of the armies of the cavalry was two myriads of myriads; and I heard their number. ¹⁷And so I saw in the vision the horses, and those sitting on them, having fire-colored breastplates, even dusky red and brimstone-like; and the heads of the horses as heads of lions; and out of their mouths come fire and smoke and brimstone. ¹⁸By these three were killed the third part of men, by the fire, and by the smoke, and by the brimstone coming out of their mouths. ¹⁹For their authority is in their mouth, and in their tails; for their tails are like snakes, having heads, and they do harm with them.

²⁰And the rest of men, those not killed by these plagues, did not repent of the works of their hands, that they will not worship demons, and golden idols, and silver, and bronze, and stone, and wooden idols, which neither are able to see, nor to hear, nor to walk. ²¹And they did not repent of their murders, nor of their sorceries, nor of their fornications, nor of their thefts.

¹And I saw another strong angel coming down out of Heaven, having been clothed with a cloud, and a rainbow on the head; and his face as the sun, and his feet as pillars of fire. ²And he had in his hand a little scroll having been opened. And he placed his right foot on the sea, and the left on the land, ³and cried with a great voice, as a lion roars. And when he cried, the seven thunders spoke their sounds. ⁴And when the seven thunders spoke their sounds, I was about to write. And I heard a voice out of Heaven saying to me, Seal what things the seven thunders spoke, and do not write these things. ⁵And the angel whom I saw standing on the sea and on the land lifted his hand to Heaven, ⁶and swore by Him living forever and ever, who created the heaven and the things in it, and the earth and the things in it, and the sea and the things in it, that time shall no longer be; ⁷but in the days of the voice of the seventh angel, whenever he is about to trumpet, was even ended the mystery of God, as He preached to His slaves, the prophets. ⁸And the voice which I heard out of Heaven was again speaking to me, and saying, Go, take the little scroll having been opened in the hand of the angel standing on the sea and on the land. ⁹And I went away toward the angel, saying to him, Give the little scroll to me.

And he said to me, Take and eat it up, and it will make your belly bitter, but it will be sweet as honey in your mouth. ¹⁰And I took the little scroll out of the angel's hand, and ate it up. And it was sweet like honey in my mouth; and when I ate it, my belly was made bitter. ¹¹And he said to me, You must again prophesy before peoples and nations and tongues and many kings.

¹And a reed like a staff was given to me, and the angel stood, saying, Rise and measure the temple of God and the altar, and those worshipping in it. ²And cast aside the outside court of the temple, and do not measure it. For it was given to the nations, and they will trample the holy city forty-two months. ³And I will give to My two witnesses, and they will prophesy a thousand, two hundred and sixty days, dressed in sackcloth. ⁴These are the two olive trees, and the two lampstands, standing before the God of the earth. ⁵And if anyone desires to harm them, fire comes out of their mouth and devours their enemies. And if anyone desires to harm them, so it is right for him to be killed.

⁶These have the authority to shut up the heaven, that no rain may rain in the days of their prophecy. And they have authority over the waters, to turn them into blood, and to strike the earth with every plague, as often as they desire. ⁷And when they complete their witness, the beast coming up out of the abyss will make war with them, and will overcome them, and will kill them. ⁸And their bodies will be on the street of the great city, which spiritually is called Sodom, and Egypt—where our Lord was crucified. ⁹And some from the peoples and tribes and tongues and nations will see their dead bodies three days and a half; and they do not allow their dead bodies to be put in tombs. ¹⁰And those living on the earth will rejoice over them, and will make merry. And they will send one another gifts, because these two prophets tormented those living on the earth. ¹¹And after three days and a half, a spirit of life from God entered into them, and they stood on their feet. And great fear fell on the ones beholding them.

¹²And they heard a great voice out of Heaven saying to them, Come up here. And they went up into the heaven in the cloud. And their enemies saw them. ¹³And in that hour a great earthquake occurred, and the tenth part of the city fell. And there were killed in the earthquake seven thousand names of men. And the rest became terrified, and gave glory to the God of Heaven.

¹⁴The second woe departed. And, behold, the third woe is coming quickly.

¹⁵And the seventh angel trumpeted. And there were great voices in Heaven, saying, The kingdoms of the world became our Lord's, even of His Christ; and He shall reign forever and ever. ¹⁶And the twenty-four elders sitting before God on their thrones fell on their faces and worshiped God, ¹⁷saying, We thank You, Lord God Almighty, the One who is, and who was, and who is coming, because You took Your great power and reigned. ¹⁸And the nations were full of wrath; and Your wrath came, and the time of the judging of the dead, and to give the reward to Your slaves the prophets, and to the saints, and to the ones fearing Your name — to the small and to the great — and to destroy those destroying the earth. ¹⁹And the temple of God in Heaven was opened, and the ark of His covenant was seen in His temple, and lightnings, and voices, and thunders, and earthquake, and a great hail occurred.

CHAPTER 12

¹And a great sign was seen in Heaven, a woman having been clothed with the sun, and the moon was underneath her feet; and on her head a crown of twelve stars; ²and having a babe in womb. She cries, being in labor, and having been distressed to bear. ³And another sign was seen in Heaven. And, behold, a great red dragon having seven heads and ten horns! And on his heads were seven diadems, ⁴and his tail drew the third part of the stars of the heaven. And he throws them to the earth. And the dragon stood before the woman being about to bear, so that when she bears he might devour her child. ⁵And she bore a son, a male, who is going to shepherd all the nations with an iron staff. And her child was caught away to God, and to His throne. ⁶And the woman fled into the wilderness, where she had a place, it having been prepared from God, that there they might nourish her a thousand two hundred and sixty days.

⁷And war occurred in Heaven, Michael and his angels making war against the dragon. And the dragon and his angels made war, ⁸but they did not have strength, nor yet was place found for them in Heaven. ⁹And the great dragon was cast out — the old serpent being called Devil, and, Satan, he deceiving the whole habitable world — was cast out onto the earth, and his angels were cast with him.

¹⁰And I heard a great voice saying in Heaven, Now has come the salvation and power and the kingdom of our God, and the authority of His Christ, because the accuser of our brothers is thrown down, the one accusing them before our God day and night. ¹¹And they overcame him because of the blood of the Lamb, and because of the word of their testimony. And they did not love their soul even until death. ¹²Because of this, be glad, the heavens and those tabernacled in them. Woe to the ones dwelling on the earth, and in the sea, because the Devil came down to you having great anger, knowing that he has a little time!

¹³And when the dragon saw that he was cast out onto the earth, he pursued the woman who bore the male. ¹⁴And two wings of the great eagle were given to the woman, that she might fly into the wilderness, to her place, where she is nourished there a time, and times, and half a time, away from the serpent's face. ¹⁵And the serpent threw water out of his mouth like a river after the woman, that he might cause her to be carried off by the river. ¹⁶And the earth helped the woman, and the earth opened its mouth and swallowed the river which the dragon threw out of his mouth. ¹⁷And the dragon was enraged over the woman, and went away to make war with the rest of her seed, those keeping the commandments of God, and having the testimony of Jesus Christ.

¹And I stood on the sand of the sea.

And I saw a beast coming up out of the sea, having seven heads and ten horns, and on his horns ten diadems, and on its heads names of blasphemy. ²And the beast which I saw was like a leopard, and its feet as of a bear, and its mouth as a lion's mouth. And the dragon gave its power to it, and its throne, and great authority. ³And I saw one of its heads, as having been slain to death, and its deadly wound was healed. And all the earth marveled after the beast. ⁴And they worshiped the dragon who gave authority to the beast; and they worshiped the beast, saying, Who is like the beast; who is able to make war with it?

⁵And a mouth speaking great things and blasphemies was given to it. And authority to act forty-two months was given to it. ⁶And it opened its mouth in blasphemy toward God, to blaspheme His name and His tabernacle, and those tabernacling in Heaven. ⁷And it was given to it to war with the saints, and to overcome them. And authority was given to it over every tribe and tongue and nation. ⁸And all those dwelling in the earth will worship it, those of whom the names had not been written in the Book of Life of the Lamb having been slain, from the foundation of the world. ⁹If anyone has an ear, let him hear. ¹⁰If anyone gathers captivity, into captivity he goes. If anyone will kill by a sword, by a sword he must be killed. Here is the patience and the faith of the saints.

¹¹And I saw another beast coming up out of the earth. And it had two horns like a lamb, but spoke like a dragon. ¹²And it executes all the authority of the first beast before it. And it causes that the earth and those dwelling in it should worship the first beast, of which was healed its deadly wound. ¹³And it does great signs, that even fire it causes to come down out of the heaven onto the earth before men. ¹⁴And it deceives those dwelling on the earth, because of the signs which were given to it to do before the beast, saying to those dwelling on the earth to make an image to the beast who has the wound of the sword, and lived. ¹⁵And was given to it to give a spirit to the image of the beast, so that the image of the beast might even speak, and might cause as many as would not worship the image of the beast to be killed. ¹⁶And the small and the great, and the rich and the poor, and the freemen and the slaves, it causes that they give to them all a mark on their right hand, or on their foreheads, ¹⁷even that not any could buy or sell, except the one having the mark, or the name of the beast, or the number of its name. ¹⁸Here is wisdom: Let the one having reason count the number of the beast, for it is the number of a man—and its number is six hundred and sixty-six.

¹And I saw, and behold, the Lamb standing on Mount Zion! And with Him were a hundred and forty-four thousands, with the name of His Father having been written on their foreheads. ²And I heard a sound out of the heaven, as a sound of many waters, and as a sound of great thunder. Also I heard a sound of harpers harping on their harps. ³And they sing as a new song before the throne, and before the four living creatures and the elders. And no one was able to learn the song except the hundred and forty-four thousands, those having been redeemed from the earth. ⁴These are the ones who were not defiled with women, for they are virgins. These are the ones following the Lamb wherever He may go. These were redeemed from among men as first-fruit to God and to the Lamb. ⁵And no guile was found in their mouth, for they are without blemish before the throne of God.

⁶And I saw another angel flying in mid-heaven, having an everlasting gospel to proclaim to those dwelling on the earth, even to every nation and tribe and tongue and people, ⁷saying in a great voice, Fear God, and give glory to Him, because the hour of His judgment has come; also, Worship Him who has made the heaven, and the earth, and and the sea, and the fountains of waters.

⁸And another angel followed, saying, The great city, Babylon, has fallen, has fallen; because of the wine of the anger of her fornication, she made all nations to drink.

⁹And a third angel followed them, saying in a great voice, If anyone worships the beast and its image, and receives a mark on his forehead, or in his hand, ¹⁰he also shall drink of the wine of the anger of God having been mixed undiluted in the cup of His wrath. And he will be tormented by fire and brimstone before the holy angels and before the Lamb. ¹¹And the smoke of their torment goes up forever and ever. And those worshipping the beast and its image have no rest night and day, even if anyone receives the mark of its name. ¹²Here is the patience of the saints; here are the ones keeping the commands of God, and the faith of Jesus. ¹³And I heard a voice out of Heaven saying to me, Write: Blessed are the dead, the ones dying in the Lord from now. Yes, says the Spirit, they shall rest from their labors, and their works follow with them. ¹⁴And I saw; and behold, a white cloud; and on the cloud One sitting, like the Son of man, having on His head a golden crown, and in His hand a sharp sickle. ¹⁵And another angel went forth out of the temple, crying in a great voice to the One sitting on the cloud, Send Your sickle and reap, because Your hour to reap came, because the harvest of the earth was dried. ¹⁶And the One sitting on the cloud thrust His sickle onto the earth, and the earth was reaped.

¹⁷And another angel went forth out of the temple in Heaven, he also having a sharp sickle. ¹⁸And another angel went forth out of the altar having authority over the fire. And he spoke with a great cry to the one having the sharp sickle, saying, Send your sharp sickle and gather the clusters of the vine of the earth, because its grapes are ripened. ¹⁹And the angel thrust his sickle into the earth and gathered the vine of the earth, and threw into the winepress of the great anger of God. ²⁰And the winepress was trodden outside the city, and blood went out of the winepress as far as the bridles of the horses, from a thousand, six hundred stadia.

¹And I saw another sign in Heaven, great and marvelous: seven angels having the last seven plagues, because the anger of God was completed in them.

²And I saw, as a glassy sea having been mixed with fire. And the ones overcoming the beast, and its image, and its mark, of the number of its name, were standing on the glassy sea, having harps of God. ³And they sing the song of Moses the slave of God, and the song of the Lamb, saying, Great and marvelous are Your works, Lord God Almighty, righteous and true are Your ways, King of the saints. ⁴Who will not fear You, Lord, and glorify Your name? For You only are holy. For all the nations will come and will worship before You, because Your righteousnesses were made known.

⁵And after these things I saw; and behold, the temple of the tabernacle of the testimony in Heaven was opened! ⁶And the seven angels having the seven plagues came forth out of the temple, having been clothed in clean and bright linen, and golden bands having been girded around the breasts. ⁷And one of the four living creatures gave to the seven angels seven golden bowls filled with the anger of the living God, forever and ever. ⁸And the temple was filled with the smoke of the glory of God, and with His power. And no one was able to enter into the temple until the seven plagues of the seven angels should be completed.

¹And I heard a great voice out of the temple saying to the seven angels: Go and pour out the bowls of the anger of God onto the earth.

²And the first went away and poured out his bowl onto the earth. And it became a bad and evil sore onto the men, the ones having the mark of the beast, and the ones worshipping its image.

³And the second angel poured out his bowl onto the sea. And it became blood, as of a dead one, and every soul of life died in the sea.

⁴And the third angel poured out his bowl onto the rivers, and onto the fountains of the waters; and it became blood.

⁵And I heard the angel of the waters saying, You are righteous, Lord, the One who is, and who was, and who will be, because You judged these things, ⁶since they poured out the blood of the saints and of the prophets; and You gave blood to them to drink, for they were deserving.

⁷And I heard another out of the altar saying, Yes, Lord God Almighty, Your judgments are true and righteous

⁸And the fourth angel poured out his bowl onto the sun. And it was given to him to burn men with fire. ⁹And men were burned with great heat. And they blasphemed the name of God, the One having authority over these plagues — and they did not repent to give Him glory.

¹⁰And the fifth angel poured out his bowl onto the throne of the beast. And its kingdom became darkened; and they gnawed their tongues from the pain. ¹¹And they blasphemed the God of Heaven, from their pains and from their sores. And they did not repent of their works.

¹²And the sixth angel poured out his bowl onto the great river Euphrates, and its water was dried up so that might be prepared the way of the kings from the rising of the sun. ¹³And I saw three unclean spirits like frogs out of the mouth of the dragon, and out of the mouth of the beast, and out of the mouth of the false prophet. ¹⁴For they are spirits of demons doing signs, which go forth to the kings of the earth, even of the whole habitable world to assemble them to the war of that day, the great day of God Almighty. ¹⁵Behold, I am coming as a thief. Blessed is the one watching and keeping his garments, that he does not walk naked, and they may see his shame. ¹⁶And He assembled them in the place having been called in Hebrew, Armageddon.

¹⁷And the seventh angel poured out his bowl into the air, and a great voice came from the throne from the temple of Heaven, saying, It has happened! ¹⁸And voices and thunders and lightnings occurred. And a great earthquake occurred, such as did not occur since man came into being on the earth, such a huge earthquake, so great! ¹⁹And the great city came to be into three parts, and the cities of the nations fell. And Babylon the great was remembered before God, to give to her the cup of the wine of the anger of His wrath. ²⁰And every island fled away, and mountains were not found. ²¹And a great hail, as the size of a talent, came down out of the heaven upon men. And men blasphemed God from the plague of the hail, because its plague is exceedingly great.

¹And one of the seven angels having the seven bowls came and spoke with me, saying to me, Come, I will show you the judgment of the great harlot sitting on the many waters, ²with whom the kings of the earth committed fornication, and the ones inhabiting the earth became drunk from the wine of her fornication. ³And he carried me away into a desert, by the Spirit. And I saw a woman sitting on a scarlet beast, filled with names of blasphemy, having seven heads and ten horns. ⁴And the woman was clothed in purple and scarlet, and being gilded with gold and precious stone and pearls, having a golden cup in her hand, filled with abominations and unclean things of her fornication. ⁵And on her forehead was a name having been written: MYSTERY, BABYLON THE GREAT, THE MOTHER OF THE HARLOTS AND OF THE ABOMINATIONS OF THE EARTH.

⁶And I saw the woman being drunk from the blood of the saints, and from the blood of the witnesses of Jesus. And I marveled, seeing her with a great marveling. ⁷And the angel said to me, Why did you marvel? I will tell you the mystery of the woman, and of the beast supporting her, the one having the seven heads and the ten horns. ⁸The beast which you saw was, and is not, and is about to come up out of the abyss, and goes to perdition. And those dwelling on the earth will marvel, the ones whose names have not been written on the Book of Life from the foundation of the world, seeing the beast, that it was a thing, and is not, yet now is. ⁹Here is the mind having wisdom: the seven heads are seven mountains, where the woman sits on them. ¹⁰And the kings are seven. The five fell, and the one is, and the other has not yet come. And when he does come, he must remain a little. ¹¹And the beast which was, and is not, even he is the eighth, and is of the seven, and goes to perdition. ¹²And the ten horns you saw are ten kings who have not yet received a kingdom, but will receive authority as kings one hour with the beast. ¹³These have one mind, and their power and authority they shall give up to the beast. ¹⁴These will make war with the Lamb, and the Lamb will overcome them, because He is Lord of lords and King of kings, and the ones with Him are the called and elect and faithful ones.

¹⁵And he says to me, The waters which you saw, where the harlot sits, are peoples and crowds and nations and tongues. ¹⁶And the ten horns which you saw on the beast, these will hate the harlot, and will make her desolated and naked. And they will eat her flesh, and will burn her down with fire. ¹⁷For God gave into their hearts to do His mind, and to act in one mind, and to give their kingdom to the beast, until the words of God shall be fulfilled. ¹⁸And the woman whom you saw is the great city, having a kingdom over the kings of the earth.

¹And after these things I saw another angel coming down out of Heaven having great authority, and the earth was lighted up from his glory. ²And he cried in a strong, great voice, saying, Babylon the great has fallen! It has fallen, and it has become a dwelling-place of demons, and a prison of every unclean spirit, and a prison of every unclean bird, even having been hated; ³because of the wine of the anger of her fornication which all the nations have drunk, even the kings of the earth have committed fornication with her; and the merchants of the earth became rich from the power of her luxury.

⁴And I heard another voice out of Heaven saying, My people, come out of her, that you may not share in her sins, and that you may not receive of her plagues; ⁵because her sins joined together, even up to Heaven, and God remembered her unjust deeds. ⁶Give back to her as also she gave back to you, and double to her double, according to her works. In the cup which she mixed, mix to her double. ⁷By what things she glorified herself, and luxuriated, by so much give back to her torment and mourning. Because she says in her heart, I sit as a queen, and I am not a widow; and I do not see mourning at all. ⁸Because of this, in one day her plagues shall come: death, and mourning, and famine; and she will be consumed with fire, for the Lord God judging her is strong. ⁹And the kings of the earth will weep for her, and will wail over her, those having fornicated and having luxuriated with her, when they see the smoke of her burning; ¹⁰standing from afar because of the fear of her torment, saying, Woe! Woe to the great city, Babylon, the strong city! For in one hour your judgment came.

¹¹And the merchants of the earth weep and mourn over her, because no one buys their cargo any more, ¹²cargo of gold, and silver, and of precious stone, and of pearls, and of fine linen, and of purple, and of silk, and of scarlet, and all thyine wood, and every ivory vessel, and every vessel of very precious wood, and of bronze, and of iron, and of marble, ¹³and cinnamon, and incenses, and ointment, and frankincense, and wine, and oil, and fine meal, and wheat, and beasts, and sheep, and horses, and chariots, and of bodies and souls of men. ¹⁴And the ripe fruits of the lust of your soul went away from you, and all the fat things, and the bright things went away from you, and you will find them no more, not at all. ¹⁵The merchants of these things, the ones being enriched from her, will stand from afar because of the fear of her torment, weeping and mourning; ¹⁶and saying, Woe! Woe to the great city having been clothed in linen and purple and scarlet, and having been gilded with gold and precious stone, and pearls! ¹⁷For in one hour such great wealth was desolated. And every ship-pilot and all company on the ships, and sailors, and as many as work the sea, stood from afar, ¹⁸and cried out, seeing the smoke of her burning, saying, What is like the great city? ¹⁹And they threw dust on their heads, and cried out, weeping and mourning, saying, Woe! Woe to the great city, by which all those having ships in the sea were rich, from her costliness, because in one hour she was ruined. ²⁰Rejoice over her, Heaven, and the holy apostles, and the prophets, because God judged your judgment on her.

²¹And one strong angel lifted a stone like a great millstone, and threw it into the sea, saying, This way, on an impulse, Babylon the great city will be thrown down, and it will never more still be found. ²²And the sound of harpers, and of musicians, and flutists, and of trumpeters will never more be heard in you. And every craftsman of every craft will never more be found in you. And the sound of a mill will never more be heard in you. ²³And the light of a lamp will never more shine in you. And the voice of the bridegroom and bride will never more be heard in you. For your merchants were the great ones of the earth, for by your sorcery all the nations were misled. ²⁴And in her was found the blood of prophets, and of saints, and of all the ones having been slain on the earth.

¹And after these things, I heard a great voice of a numerous crowd in Heaven, saying, Hallelujah! The salvation and the glory and the honor and the power of the Lord our God! ²For true and righteous are His judgments, because He judged the great harlot who defiled the earth with her fornication. And He avenged the blood of His slaves out of her hand. ³And secondly they said, Hallelujah! Also her smoke goes up forever and ever. ⁴And the twenty-four elders, and the four living creatures fell down and worshiped God sitting on the throne, saying, Amen! Hallelujah! ⁵And a voice came out from the throne, saying, Praise our God, all His slaves, and the ones fearing Him, the small and the great.

⁶And I heard as a sound of a numerous crowd, and as a sound of many waters, and as a sound of strong thunders, saying, Hallelujah! Because the Lord God Almighty reigned. ⁷Let us rejoice and let us exult, and we will give glory to Him, because the marriage of the Lamb came, and His wife prepared herself. ⁸And it was given to her that she be clothed in fine linen, pure and bright; for the fine linen is the righteousnesses of the saints.

⁹And he says to me, Write: Blessed are the ones having been called to the supper of the marriage of the Lamb. And he says to me, These words of God are true. ¹⁰And I fell before his feet to worship him, but he said to me, Behold! Stop! I am your fellow-slave, and of your brothers, having the testimony of Jesus. Worship God. For the testimony of Jesus is the spirit of prophecy.

¹¹And I saw Heaven being opened. And, behold! A white horse, and He sitting on it having been called Faithful and True. And He judges and wars in righteousness. ¹²And His eyes were as a flame of fire, and on His head many diadems, having a name that had been written, which no one knows except Himself; ¹³and having been clothed in a garment which had been dipped in blood. And His name is called The Word of God.

¹⁴And the armies in Heaven followed Him on white horses, being dressed in fine linen, white and pure. ¹⁵And out of His mouth goes forth a sharp sword, that with it He might smite the nations. And He will shepherd them with an iron rod. And He treads the winepress of the wine of the anger and of the wrath of God Almighty. ¹⁶And He has on His garment and on His thigh a name having been written: KING OF KINGS AND LORD OF LORDS.

¹⁷And I saw one angel standing in the sun. And he cried with a great voice, saying to all the birds flying in mid-heaven, Come and gather together to the supper of the great God, ¹⁸that you may eat the flesh of kings, and the flesh of commanders, and the flesh of strong ones, and the flesh of horses, and of the ones sitting on them, and the flesh of all, both freemen and slaves, even of the small and great.

¹⁹And I saw the beast and the kings of the earth, and their armies being assembled to make war with the One sitting on the horse, and with His army.

²⁰And the beast was seized, and with this one the false prophet doing signs before it, by which he led astray those having received the mark of the beast, and those worshiping its image. The two were thrown alive into the Lake of Fire burning with brimstone. ²¹And the rest were killed with the sword of the One sitting on the horse, it having gone out of His mouth.

And all the birds were filled from their flesh.

¹And I saw an angel coming down out of Heaven, having the key of the abyss, and a great chain on his hand. ²And he laid hold of the dragon, the old serpent who is the Devil, and Satan, and bound him a thousand years, ³and threw him into the abyss, and shut him up, and sealed over him, that he should not still lead astray the nations, until the thousand years are fulfilled. And after these things, he must be set loose a little time.

⁴And I saw thrones, and they sat on them. And judgment was given to them, and the souls of the ones having been beheaded because of the witness of Jesus, and because of the word of God, and who had not worshiped the beast nor its image, and had not received the mark on their forehead and on their hand. And they lived and reigned with Christ a thousand years. ⁵But the rest of the dead did not live again until the thousand years were ended. This is the first resurrection. ⁶Blessed and holy is the one having part in the first resurrection. The second death has no authority over these, but they will be priests of God and of Christ, and will reign with Him a thousand years.

⁷And whenever the thousand years are ended, Satan will be set loose out of his prison, ⁸and he will go to mislead the nations in the four corners of the earth—Gog and Magog—to assemble them in war, whose number is as the sand of the sea. ⁹And they went up over the breadth of the land and encircled the camp of the saints, and the beloved city. And fire from God came down out of Heaven and burned them down. ¹⁰And the Devil leading them astray was thrown into the Lake of Fire and Brimstone, where the beast and the false prophet were. And they were tormented day and night forever and ever.

¹¹And I saw a great white throne, and the One sitting on it, from whose face the earth and the heaven fled; and a place was not found for them. ¹²And I saw the dead, the small and the great, standing before God. And books were opened. And another Book was opened, which is the Book of Life. And the dead were judged out of the things written in the books, according to their works. ¹³And the sea gave up the dead in it. And death and Hades gave up the dead in them. And they were each judged according to their works. ¹⁴And death and Hades were thrown into the Lake of Fire. This is the second death. ¹⁵And if anyone was not found having been written in the Book of Life, he was thrown into the Lake of Fire.

¹And I saw a new heaven and a new earth, for the first heaven and the first earth passed away, and the sea no longer is. ²And I, John, saw the holy city, New Jerusalem, coming down out of Heaven from God, having been prepared as a bride, having been adorned for her Husband. ³And I heard a great voice out of Heaven, saying, Behold, the tabernacle of God with men! And He will tabernacle with them, and they will be His people, and God Himself will be with them as their God. ⁴And God will wipe away every tear from their eyes. And death shall be no longer, nor mourning, nor outcry, nor pain will be any longer; for the first things passed away. ⁵And the One sitting on the throne said, Behold, I make all things new. And He says to me, Write, because these words are faithful and true.

⁶And He said to me, It is done! I am the Alpha and the Omega, the Beginning and the Ending. To the one thirsting, I will freely give of the fountain of the water of life. ⁷The one overcoming will inherit all things, and I will be God to him, and he will be the son to Me. ⁸But for the cowardly and unbelieving, and those having become foul, and murderers, and fornicators, and sorcerers, and idolaters, and all the lying ones, their part will be in the Lake burning with fire and brimstone, which is the second death.

⁹And one of the seven angels came to me, he having the seven bowls being filled with the seven last plagues, and spoke with me, saying, Come, I will show you the bride, the wife of the Lamb. ¹⁰And he carried me in spirit onto a great and high mountain, and showed me the great city, holy Jerusalem, coming down out of Heaven from God, ¹¹having the glory of God. And its light was like a very precious stone, as a jasper stone, being clear as crystal, ¹²and having a great and high wall, having twelve gates, and twelve angels at the gates, and names having been inscribed, which are of the twelve tribes of the sons of Israel. ¹³From the east, three gates; from the north, three gates; from the south, three gates; and from the west, three gates.

¹⁴And the wall of the city had twelve foundations, and in them the names of the twelve apostles of the Lamb. ¹⁵And he speaking with me had a golden reed, that he may measure the city, and its gates, and its wall. ¹⁶And the city lies four-cornered, even its length as much as the width also. And he measured the city with the reed at twelve thousand stadia; its length and width and height are equal. ¹⁷And he measured its wall, a hundred and forty-four cubits, a measure of a man, which is of an angel. ¹⁸And the structure of its wall was jasper; and the city was pure gold, like pure glass.

¹⁹And the foundation of the wall of the city having been adorned with every precious stone: The first foundation, jasper; the second, sapphire; the third, chalcedony; the fourth, emerald; ²⁰the fifth, sardonyx; the sixth, sardius; the seventh, chrysolite; the eighth, beryl; the ninth, topaz; the tenth, chrysoprasus; the eleventh, hyacinth; the twelfth, amethyst. ²¹And the twelve gates were twelve pearls; respectively each one of the gates was of one pearl. And the street of the city was pure gold, as transparent glass. ²²And I saw no temple in it, for the Lord God Almighty is its temple, even the Lamb.

²³And the city had no need of the sun, nor of the moon, that they might shine in it, for the glory of God illuminated it, even its lamp is the Lamb. ²⁴And the nations of the ones saved will walk in its light; and the kings of the earth bring their glory and honor into it. ²⁵And its gates may not at all be shut by day, for no night will be there. ²⁶And they will bring the glory and the honor of the nations into it. ²⁷And all profaning may not at all enter into it, or any making an abomination or a lie; but only the ones having been written in the Book of Life of the Lamb.

¹And he showed me a pure river of water of life, bright as crystal, coming forth out of the throne of God and of the Lamb. ²In the midst of its street and of the river, from here and from there, was a tree of life producing twelve fruits: according to one month each yielding its fruit. And the leaves of the tree were for healing of the nations. ³And every curse will no longer be. And the throne of God and the Lamb will be in it; and His slaves will serve Him. ⁴And they will see His face; and His name will be on their foreheads. ⁵And night will not be there; and they have no need of a lamp or a light of the sun, because the Lord God will shed light on them. And they shall reign forever and ever.

⁶And he said to me, These words are faithful and true. And the Lord God of the holy prophets sent His angel to show His slaves what must happen quickly. ⁷Behold, I am coming quickly. Blessed is the one keeping the words of the prophecy of this Book.

⁸And I, John, was the one seeing and hearing these things. And when I heard and saw, I fell down to worship before the feet of the angel showing me these things. ⁹And he said to me, Behold! Stop! For I am your fellow-slave, and of your brothers the prophets, and of the ones keeping the words of this Book. Do worship to God.

¹⁰And he said to me, Do not seal the words of the prophecy of this Book, because the time is near. ¹¹The one acting unjustly, let him still act unjustly; and the filthy, let him still be filthy; and the righteous, let him still do righteousness; and the holy, let him still be holy.

¹²And, behold, I am coming quickly, and My reward is with Me, to give to each as his work is. ¹³I am the Alpha and the Omega, the Beginning and the Ending, the First and the Last. ¹⁴Blessed are the ones doing His commands, that their authority will be over the tree of life, and by the gates they may enter into the city. ¹⁵But outside are the dogs and the sorcerers, and the fornicators, and the murderers, and the idolaters, and everyone loving a lie, and making it.

¹⁶I, Jesus, sent My angel to testify these things to you over the churches. I am the Root and Offspring of David, the bright and morning Star.

¹⁷And the Spirit and the bride say, Come! And the one thirsting, let him come; and the one desiring, let him take of the water of life freely.

¹⁸For I testify together with everyone hearing the words of the prophecy of this Book: If anyone adds to these things, God will add upon him the plagues having been written in this Book. ¹⁹And if anyone takes away from the words of the Book of this prophecy, God will take away his part from the Book of Life, and out of the holy city, and of the things having been written in this Book.

²⁰The One testifying these things says, Yes, I am coming quickly. Amen. Yes, come, Lord Jesus!

²¹The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with all of you. Amen.
